No created thing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus. The flesh cannot separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus. If the meeting place (such as a chapel or cathedral or hall) were destroyed by bombs along with all the prayer books, bread and wine inside, then would that separate anyone from the love of God in Christ Jesus their Lord? No. Not even the destruction of the body of flesh can separate a believer from Jesus Christ their Lord:

> Romans 8:38-39 - For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

God is not created though:

> Romans 11:20-23 - That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. (ESV)

> John 15:1-6 - I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. (ESV)

Hebrews 13:5 does not make it untrue that His wrath is against all who forsake Him as Ezra 8:22 speaks of exactly the same God:

> Deuteronomy 31:8 - It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not leave you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed. (ESV)

> Hebrews 13:5 - Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, I will never leave you nor forsake you. (ESV)

> Ezra 8:22 - For I was ashamed to ask the king for a band of soldiers and horsemen to protect us against the enemy on our way, since we had told the king, The hand of our God is for good on all who seek him, and the power of his wrath is against all who forsake him. (ESV)

> Isaiah 65:11-12 - But you who forsake the LORD, who forget my holy mountain, who set a table for Fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny, I will destine you to the sword, and all of you shall bow down to the slaughter, because, when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen, but you did what was evil in my eyes and chose what I did not delight in. (ESV)

With regard to specifically the confession of our hope, we should not waver in our faith, and if we stumble then we need to be those who ”get back up” and continue on in faith:

> Romans 4:20-22 - yet, with respect to the promise of God, he did not waver in unbelief (570. apistia) but grew strong in faith, giving glory to God, and being fully assured that what God had promised, He was able also to perform. Therefore it was also credited to him as righteousness. (NASB)

> Hebrews 10:19-23 - Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

Before and after getting born-again of the Spirit, we have to go on walking by faith:

> John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never (G3756) (G3361) die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV)

A person can't have genuine faith in Jesus and be committing sin at the same time (Romans 14:23, Jeremiah 7:8-11, John 10:1, I John 3:4, I Peter 4:1-5).

If we stumble in faith we need to get back up and have faith:

> Proverbs 24:15-16 - Lie not in wait as a wicked man against the dwelling of the righteous; do no violence to his home; for the righteous falls seven times and rises again, but the wicked stumble in times of calamity. (ESV)

> Romans 14:18-23 - Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding. Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats. It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble. The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

54.16 His name: Jesus Christ, the Son of God

> Luke 1:31-35 - And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end. And Mary said to the angel, How will this be, since I am a virgin? And the angel answered her, The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be called holy—the Son of God. (ESV)

> Acts 3:16 - And his name—by faith in his name—has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all. (ESV)

Jesus reigns and inherits all things. Jesus is the radiance of the glory of God:

> Hebrews 1:1-4 - Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:9-11 - Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess (G1843 exomologeó) that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (ESV)

> John 17:11-12 - And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. I have guarded them, and not one of them has been lost except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. (ESV)

54.17 Deeply abiding in Jesus, abiding in Jesus Christ's love, and passing-forward Christ's love

We must receive Jesus:

> John 5:42-43 - But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. (ESV)

- Loving Jesus and abiding in His love involves keeping His commandments
  - Love one another as He loved us - the same way, selflessly, forgivingly, mercifully, compassionately
  - Love God faithfully
    - An indicator is that the world hates you
- Keeping all of Jesus' words, keeping His commandments
  - Ask whatever you wish
- Bear fruit
  - Forgiving others, loving others (charity, etc.)
  - Bringing others to Christ
  - Prove to be a disciple of Jesus

54.17.1 Abiding forever vs abiding - there's a difference

> Psalms 125:1 - Those who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abides forever.

> I John 2:17 - And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever.

54.18 The fruit (work) of disciples of Jesus then abides

> John 15:2 - Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit.

> John 15:5 - I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.

> John 15:8 - By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.

> John 15:16 - You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

54.19 Secure rewards and a guarantee of eternal life for Jesus' disciples

> Matthew 19:29 - And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold and will inherit eternal life. (ESV)

> Luke 14:26-28 If anyone comes to me and does not hate (3404. miseó, 3404 miséō – properly, to detest (on a comparative basis); hence, denounce; to love someone or something less than someone (something) else, i.e. to renounce one choice in favor of another.) his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it?

> John 12:25 - Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. (ESV)

I'm pretty convinced that what Jesus means by the following is that by giving up earthly treasure in the pursuit of Jesus, heavenly treasure is acquired. I'd say it's likely that the heavenly treasure is simply helping those people. So selling what a person possesses and giving to those in need, though apart from faith in Jesus isn't a "requirement for eternal life", it is a fast track to serving Jesus and getting our heart in heaven and leaning on Jesus, so doing as Jesus said in obedient faith is already starting to follow Jesus and store up heavenly treasure. Seek heavenly reward, not earthly reward. Have a heart seeking reward from God and not from man. Have your heart in heaven, not in earth. We give up our earthly treasure and help other people with it and this becomes heavenly treasure, and we then go after Jesus as our Pearl of Great Price:

> Matthew 6:19-21 - Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

54.19.1 Eternal life is receiving an eternal name, I think

> Isaiah 56:5 - I will give in my house and within my walls a monument and a name better than sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off. (ESV)

Receiving an eternal name.
Becoming a part of the Truth. Full union with God.

54.20 The work of God, believing in Jesus

> John 6:29-40 - Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent. So they said to him, Then what sign do you do, that we may see and believe you? What work do you perform? Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat. Jesus then said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world. They said to him, Sir, give us this bread always. Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe. All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will > of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.

Jesus doesn't cast people out.

All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out.

I think that salvation is a totally free gift and the baseline salvation is trusting in Jesus, because of His finished work done on the cross. But the people that oppose obeying the full gospel of Jesus saying that works oppose grace are very deluded.

We're supposed to do good works of faith by Jesus' power so that Jesus' name is glorified - and those works done in Jesus' power are entirely given by grace to us:

> II Thessalonians 1:11-12 - To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

But salvation is a gift and God is sovereign to save. That's why it's grace. Saved by grace through faith.

I think a person needs some faith to be saved, and faith works.

It's God's grace that enables us to be saved through faith. While we are saved exercising obedient, trusting, believing faith, Paul says it was actually God's doing:

> Ephesians 2:8 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, (ESV)

54.21 We in Christ, Christ in us

youtube.com: What Does it Mean to be in Christ?

> I Corinthians 3:23 - and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's. (ESV)

54.21.1 Jesus Christ is in us

> Galatians 2:20 - I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. (ESV)

> Romans 8:10 - But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. (ESV)

> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

54.21.2 We are in Christ

> Galatians 2:4 - Yet because of false brothers secretly brought in—who slipped in to spy out our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might bring us into slavery— (ESV)

> Romans 8:1 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

It's also written that we must repent from sin that God may be a Father to us:

> II Corinthians 6:16-18 - What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

Repent from sin, turn away from doing evil, and trust in Jesus Christ and do good:

> Psalms 37:23-29 - The steps of a man are established by the LORD, when he delights in his way; though he fall, he shall not be cast headlong, for the LORD upholds his hand. I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging for bread. He is ever lending generously, and his children become a blessing. Turn away from evil and do good; so shall you dwell forever. For the LORD loves justice; he will not forsake his saints. They are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off. The righteous shall inherit the land and dwell upon it forever. (ESV)

Take refuge in Him:

> Psalms 37:38-40 - But transgressors shall be altogether destroyed; the future of the wicked shall be cut off. The salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; he is their stronghold in the time of trouble. The LORD helps them and delivers them; he delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in him. (ESV)

Jesus' servants (people who believe and obey Him) are found in him. We know Christ by living in the pattern in which he lived. Jesus' servants are those who have accepted Jesus to wash them, and they ought to then wash one another:

> Psalms 34:22 - The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned. (ESV)

And they were put in Him by Him:

> I Corinthians 1:30 - It is because of Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God: our righteousness, holiness, and redemption. (engbsb2020eb)
>
> Titus 3:5-7 - he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

54.21.3 Our life is hidden with Christ in God

> Colossians 3:3 - For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (ESV)

54.22 Only God the Father could graft people in and out of Christ - but Jesus intercedes for us

A person would have to reject Jesus to be grafted out, I think. Then again, God might still not do that.

We must be perpetually approaching Jesus:

> John 6:37 - All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. (ESV)

youtube.com: John Piper - Saved Forever @time: 17 min 36 sec What do I need in order to be saved forever, and the answer is, I need to keep drawing near to God through Jesus.

Therefore, I think that's what he prays.

It says in Hebrews 13:21 that by the blood of the Eternal Covenant this Jesus was raised and through Jesus God is working in you that which is pleasing in his sight.

Through Jesus, God is working what is pleasing in his sight, namely a drawing near to God through Jesus. But if God is working our drawing near to him so that He's stirring up within me and you a desire to draw near to God through Him, what does it mean that he's doing it through Jesus? The answer is Jesus is praying for it.

> Luke 22:32 - but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

We are commanded to reject the idols to treasure God first. If we do this then we draw near to God and God draws near to us:

> II Corinthians 6:17-18 - Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

> Psalms 73:25-28 - Whom have I in heaven but you? And there is nothing on earth that I desire besides you. My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. For behold, those who are far from you shall perish; you put an end to everyone who is unfaithful to you. But for me it is good to be near God; I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, that I may tell of all your works. (ESV)

So most importantly, believe in Jesus, and that he has paid the price for your sin with His blood, and continue in relationship with Jesus with Him as your number one agape, Pearl of Great Price.

Have in your heart faith in Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour:

> Hebrews 3:12 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God.

Bear fruit for Jesus (be obedient):

> John 15:2 - Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. (ESV)

Those who do not abide in Jesus are grafted out:

> John 15:6 - If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. (ESV)

Yet they can be grafted back in:

> Romans 11:23 - And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again.

The relationship is essential! So take stopping sin seriously, and keep Jesus' words and His commandments, and also bearing fruit for Jesus.

> Revelation of John 3:2-3 - Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete in the sight of my God. So remember what you have received and heard; and keep it, and repent. Therefore if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come to you.

> John 15:1-14 - I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and > burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you.

> Romans 11:15-32 - For if their rejection means the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance mean but life from the dead? If the dough offered as firstfruits is holy, so is the whole lump, and if the root is holy, so are the branches. But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, although a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing root of the olive tree, do not be arrogant toward the branches. If you are, remember it is not you who support the root, but the root that supports you. Then you will say, Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in. That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. For if you were cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, the natural branches, be grafted back into their own olive tree. Lest you be wise in your own conceits, I want you to understand this mystery, brothers: a partial hardening has come upon Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. And in this way all Israel will be saved, as it is written, The Deliverer will come from Zion, he will banish ungodliness from Jacob; and this will be my covenant with them when I take away their sins. As regards the gospel, they are enemies of God for your sake. But as regards election, they are beloved for the sake of their forefathers. For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. Just as you were at one time disobedient to God but now have received mercy because of their disobedience, so they too have now been disobedient in order that by the mercy shown to you they also may now receive mercy. For God has consigned all to disobedience (543. apeitheia - willful unbelief, obstinancy, disobedience), that he may have mercy on all.

> Matthew 12:33-37 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned. (ESV)

Rebellion = disobedience.

> 1 Samuel 15:23 - For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:6 - Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. (ESV)

54.23 The law of Christ

We are still under a 'law of faith', but we are not under the Mosaic law.

We are under the law/commandment of Christ which is a law of faith, faith in Christ. By faith we obey Christ while submitting to His righteousness.

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

But the Mosaic law still exists.

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law.
>
> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.
>
> I John 3:4-11 - Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

54.24 Sharing Jesus' holiness / personal righteousness (fruit of righteousness) - coming after faith in Jesus

54.24.1 Have faith in Jesus; Believe in Him, and be obedient to Him, following His teaching

We are innocent because we are being obedient to Jesus:

> Matthew 10:16-17 - Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of men, for they will deliver you over to courts and flog you in their synagogues, (ESV)
>
> Philippians 2:15-16 - that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)
>
> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

Remain obedient to Jesus, and do not take vengeance for yourself:

> Romans 12:19-20 - Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. To the contrary, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head. (ESV)

Following Jesus' example of being obedient:

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 5:7-8 - In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. (ESV)

54.24.2 The yoke of the Lord Jesus

Firstly, Paul commends going above and even beyond one's means:

> II Corinthians 8:3-5 - For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own free will, begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints— and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us. (ESV)

There is an amount of how much a person is following Jesus:
"resisted to the point of shedding your blood."

> Hebrews 12:1-11 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. Besides this, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? For they disciplined us for a short time as it seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

If a person is obedient and doing the will of God then God can use that person's human will and exertion. Jesus was faithful to God. Jesus was obedient to God.
I'm reluctant to use external sources outside of the Bible, but this is also described in the Didache.
The Didache's estimated range of dating is 50-120 A.D, according to earlychristianwritings.com.

> Didache Chapter 6 - See that no one causes you to err from this way of the Teaching, since apart from God it teaches you. For if you are able to bear the entire yoke of the Lord, you will be perfect; but if you are not able to do this, do what you are able.

> Matthew 5:47-48 - And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Of course, I believe God doesn't send all His servants to be martyred, but probably uses what amount a person is willing to bear for the Lord Jesus.

Quote from John Piper "We don't kill to spread our kingdom. We die to spread our kingdom." AMEN!!

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.

> John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

> Luke 9:23 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.

youtube.com: C.S. Lewis - God is guiding our lives to the best path @time: 17 min 54 sec You will be motivated to follow God's ways with increased passion. Divine love is incomparable and reveals itself in extraordinary ways. Curiously, the closer you get to God, the more intensely you feel love for Him. We love because He first loved us (I John 4:19). This indicates that without a true knowledge of God, loving Him can seem like a challenge. Obedience is an authentic expression of this love.

I'm still trying to figure out how Jesus' yoke is easy. I guess that if a person denies self daily, and heart is always gentle and lowly, then Jesus' yoke is easy and burden light:

> Matthew 11:29-30 - Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (ESV)

> John 21:18-19 - Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you used to dress yourself and walk wherever you wanted, but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go. (This he said to show by what kind of death he was to glorify God.) And after saying this he said to him, Follow me. (ESV)

Thanks to Jesus' endurance, His spirit empowers us to live as He lived, and to be conformed to His image. God's strength does not guarantee that we will not suffer as a result of following Jesus. But God gives us the power at the time we need it to endure the suffering:

> Hebrews 12:1-3 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. (ESV)

I believe that the freedom we have in Christ is for serving Jesus, and we have a heavenly perspective:

> Colossians 3:22-25 - Slaves, obey in everything those who are your earthly masters, not by way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality. (ESV)

54.24.3 The upward call of God in Christ Jesus

> Romans 12:11 - Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. (ESV)

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus' name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God's ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth. This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

> Philippians 3:14 - I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

54.25 Personal holiness

Everyone who names the name of the Lord must depart from iniquity:

> II Timothy 2:19-22 - But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: The Lord knows those who are his, and, Let everyone who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity. Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver but also of wood and clay, some for honorable use, some for dishonorable. Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work. So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.

Following Jesus means obeying Jesus:

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.

> John 9:5 - As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

Jesus instructed his his disciples to be holy:

> Matthew 5:14-20 - You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

I believe following Jesus includes exercising personal righteousness/holiness.

I believe that God's grace extends to all who put their faith in Jesus and have Jesus' righteousness imputed onto them, the righteousness of faith in Jesus Christ God's Son who has paid through his blood the price for our sin. Imputed righteousness is not a license to sin, and we should seek to have this righteousness by being found by God to have faith in Jesus. It's God who commends and grants this righteousness, so we should sincerely trust God's words through Jesus, obeying Jesus Christ by faith.

Receiving Jesus, we have the 'right', the 'authority' to become children of God, even by receiving Him through the knowledge of His name (onoma):

> John 1:12 - As many as however received Him He gave to them authority children of God to be to those believing in the name of Him (Interlinear)

OK, so we have the right to call God our Father if believe on Jesus' name. So we should definitely renounce ungoliness, and live holy lives:

> I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

We are disciplined so that we are not condemned along with the world. The way I read this... we are disciplined so that we may be found in Christ because those in Christ are not condemned. So when is a person found in Christ?:

> I Corinthians 11:32 - But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

Our salvation looks like being cleaned up by His spirit, behaving in a way now reflecting that we have knowledge of God (i.e. godliness), and not worldliness, treasuring God and one another, and letting go of treasuring/valuing worldly things, with hope for eternal life:

> Titus 2:11-13 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, (ESV)

God's grace trains/has taught us to renounce ungodliness, and renounce worldly passions and then live discreetly and righteously and piously in this present age - to repent from sin and practice godly behaviour in the present world, which is full of wickedness as we are in the end times.

Titus 2:11 Has appeared for the grace - of God bringing salvation to all men

Titus 2:12 instructing us that having denied - ungodliness and - worldly passions discreetly and righteously and piously we should live in the present age

Is repentance from sin necessary for salvation? Yes. We renounce the sinful habits and God cleans us up as we obey Him by faith. The liberty that God provides is not being a slave/servant of sin/corruption. God's grace trains us / has taught us to renounce sin, and to live holy lives with holy behaviour in this present age:

> II Peter 2:14-20 - Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet. These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviou
> (KJV)

If a person is unrepentant from sin then it is better that their body is destroyed so their spirit may be saved. In the case of the thief on the cross, his body was destroyed. If he stayed around, he probably would have renounced ungodliness and pursued holiness:

> I Corinthians 5:1-5 - It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you. For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. (ESV)

I affirm more of a Methodist theology regarding imparted righteousness. We cooperate with God rather than resist sanctification.

> In Methodist theology, imparted righteousness, is what God does in Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit after justification, working in the Christian to enable and empower the process of sanctification (and, in Wesleyan thought, Christian perfection). John Wesley believed that imparted righteousness worked in tandem with imputed righteousness.

Imputed righteousness is important, but we need also personal holiness:

> James 1:20-22 - for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness that God requires. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:22 - So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: Holiness Demanded - Charles Spurgeon Sermon

We must live in holiness. This is practical holiness, the opposite of impurity.

> Hebrews 12:14 - Pursue peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no one will see the Lord.

Jesus wants us to live holy lives and to present us to Him holy and blameless and above reproach:

> I Thessalonians 4:1-8 - Finally, then, brothers, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to live and to please God, just as you are doing, that you do so more and more. For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you. (ESV)

> Colossians 1:19-23 - For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. (ESV)

Whoever approaches God, must regard Him as Holy:

> Exodus 19:22 - Also let the priests who come near to the LORD consecrate themselves, lest the LORD break out against them. (ESV)

Whoever wishes to see the Lord must be holy:

> Hebrews 12:14 - Strive for peace with everyone, and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord. (ESV)

> Leviticus 21:6 - They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God. For they offer the LORD's food offerings, the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy. (ESV)

Leviticus 10:3 And said Moses to Aaron that [is] what spoke Yahweh saying "By those tho come near Me, I must be regarded as Holy and before all the people I must be glorified." So held his peace Aaron. (Interlinear)

> Leviticus 10:1-3 - Now Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took their respective firepans, and after putting fire in them, placed incense on it and offered strange fire before the LORD, which He had not commanded them. And fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD. Then Moses said to Aaron, "It is what the LORD spoke, saying, 'By those who come near Me I will be treated as holy, And before all the people I will be honored.'" So Aaron, therefore, kept silent. (NASB)

> Leviticus 10:1-3 - Now Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu took their censers, put fire in them and added incense, and offered unauthorized fire before the LORD, contrary to His command. So fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died in the presence of the LORD. Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD meant when He said: 'To those who come near Me I will show My holiness, and in the sight of all the people I will reveal My glory.'" But Aaron remained silent. (engbsb2020eb)

> Leviticus 10:1-3 - And the sons of Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, take each his censer, and put in them fire, and put on it perfume, and bring near before Jehovah strange fire, which He hath not commanded them; and fire goeth out from before Jehovah, and consumeth them, and they die before Jehovah. And Moses saith unto Aaron, 'It is that which Jehovah hath spoken, saying, By those drawing near to Me I am sanctified, and in the face of all the people I am honoured;' and Aaron is silent. (YLT)

We must honor God:

> I Samuel 2:30 - Therefore the LORD the God of Israel declares: I promised that your house and the house of your father should go in and out before me forever, but now the LORD declares: Far be it from me, for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be lightly esteemed. (ESV)

> John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:17 - To the King of ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

> Romans 14:6 - The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. (ESV)

> Romans 2:23 - You who boast in the law dishonor God by breaking the law. (ESV)

In his "Introduction to Romans," Luther stated that saving faith is,

> "a living, creative, active and powerful thing, this faith. Faith cannot help doing good works constantly. It doesn't stop to ask if good works ought to be done, but before anyone asks, it already has done them and continues to do them without ceasing. Anyone who does not do good works in this manner is an unbeliever... Thus, it is just as impossible to separate faith and works as it is to separate heat and light from fire!"

AMEN!!

The Lutheran Churches label antinomianism as a heresy.

- `https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Antinomianism`

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of Christ) that I might win those outside the law.

We're still under the law of Christ, which means we must forgive and love one another, in the same way that Jesus has loved us.

> Romans 6:14 - For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. (ESV)

"You Are Not Under Law, but Under Grace" | United Church of God

AMEN!!

I believe one must know that God's law is right:

> Romans 7:9-16 - I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin came alive and I died. The very commandment that promised life proved to be death to me. For sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. So the law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good. Did that which is good, then, bring death to me? By no means! It was sin, producing death in me through what is good, in order that sin might be shown to be sin, and through the commandment might become sinful beyond measure. For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am of the flesh, sold under sin. I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. (ESV)

When presented with God's law, we should recognise that the law is right and recognise our transgression, and continue towards sanctification, putting off the old, sinful self.

We are released from the law, and now we serve in the new life of the Spirit:

> Romans 7:6-7 - But now we are released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve not under the old written code but in the new life of the Spirit. What then shall we say? That the law is sin? By no means! Yet if it had not been for the law, I would not have known sin. I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, You shall not covet. (ESV)

We believe in Christ Jesus in order to be justified by faith in Christ:

> Galatians 2:16 - yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified. (ESV)

So we're not trying to come under the 613 commandments of the Mosaic law, but the precepts such as "do not covet", and "do not commit idolatry", easily seen within the 10 commandments still describe how we should behave.

But we also don't teach people that the 613 commandments of the Mosaic law are annulled. They're not annulled. We're just not under them, because we're under the law of Christ instead:

> Matthew 5:17-18 - Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. (ESV)

Heaven and earth have not passed away yet and neither has the Law:

> Luke 16:17 - But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of the Law to become void. (ESV)

Being led by the spirit involves following Christ's law:

> Galatians 5:13-16 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word (G3056 logō): You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. (ESV)

If we are led by the spirit (if we're serving Jesus Christ, seeking justification through faith in Jesus Christ) then we are not under the Mosaic law:

> Galatians 5:18-21 - But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. (ESV)

So we should still forsake sin and endeavour to stop willfully doing such sinful things in thought and deed, as it is described:

> I Timothy 1:9 - understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, (ESV)

> I Peter 4:1 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, (ESV)

We're under grace, and we're supposed to not be enslaved to sin, neither are we supposed to be enslaved under the Mosaic law. The Mosaic law isn't a curse to us.

Things like pornography probably attracts evil spirits which hinders finding a relationship, and obviously, we still want to obey God's precepts for our own good:

- youtube.com: Prayers Against Evil Attacks During Sleep - Powerful Prayers Against Bad Dreams and Nightmares @time: 8 min 40 sec

Of course we still need to be sanctified and forsake sin and follow Jesus instead.

> Hebrews 12:14,15 - Strive for peace with everyone, and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord. See to it that no one fails to obtain the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springs up and causes trouble, and by it many become defiled; (ESV)

But sin is rather described in such a way:

> Galatians 5:19-21 - Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. (ESV)

We must instead be led by the Spirit:

> Galatians 5:22-25 - But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 3:13 - so that He may establish your hearts without blame in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints.

I consider practicing homosexuality to be erroneous and sinful, and God's original design to be correct.

> Matthew 19:4-12 - He answered, Have you not read that he who created them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh? So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate. They said to him, Why then did Moses command one to give a certificate of divorce and to send her away? He said to them, Because of your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery. The disciples said to him, If such is the case of a man with his wife, it is better not to marry. But he said to them, Not everyone can receive this saying, but only those to whom it is given. For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let the one who is able to receive this receive it.

> Romans 1:26-27 - For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error. (ESV)

And no-one should endorse sinful things. Homosexuality is erroneous. If they do, however, endorse it then I think that inhibits them from approaching God.

54.26 Belief comes before or at the time of receiving the Holy Spirit (receiving the Holy Spirit comes at the time of or after believing)

I believe that the Holy Spirit goes to those who obey God. I believe belief in Jesus comes first.

> Acts 2:38 - And Peter said to them, Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

And that if a person begins to repent and actually seek God then the Holy Spirit will come to you at some point:

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

If you keep Jesus' commandments then the Spirit of Truth will come to you, and help you, and be in you. If we obey Jesus, the Holy Spirit helps us, even before He's inside us:

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

Belief in Jesus comes first but receiving the Holy Spirit and baptism may happen in any order after that.
I think this is generally the order of things.
youtube.com: The Person and Work of the Holy Spirit | Billy Graham

54.27 God is sovereign to reveal Himself, sovereign to save and sovereign to destroy

> Romans 10:20 - Then Isaiah is so bold as to say, I have been found by those who did not seek me; I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me. (ESV)

> Matthew 10:28 - And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

54.28 Just saying a creed doesn't guarantee that a person is saved (I think)

Read gracechurch.org: Lordship Salvation | Grace Community Church

God chooses who is saved, and how they are saved.

> II Corinthians 10:18 - For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)

God justifies.

> I Timothy 6:11-16 - But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, to keep the commandment unstained and free from reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will display at the proper time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

Confessing and holding to a creed is working faith though:

Song youtube.com: Petra - Beyond Belief @time: 8 min 49 sec

> Hebrews 4:14 - Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.

In Hebrews, we are also instructed to "not waver" in our confession. So what we are agreeing with and continuing to agree with certainly does matter. We should keep confessing what we are hoping for and hold fast to that confession and not waver. God is faithful and His promises are trustworthy and we should agree with and be corrected by and keep agreeing with God:

> Hebrews 10:23 - Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:1 - Therefore, holy brothers, you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession,

> Hebrews 10:23 - Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.

> II Corinthians 9:13 - By their approval of this service, they will glorify God because of your submission flowing from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others,

Jesus sees here that though they have little power, they kept His word and did not deny His name.
God justifies.

> Revelation of John 3:8 - I know your works. Behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one is able to shut. I know that you have but little power, and yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name. Behold, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan who say that they are Jews and are not, but lie-behold, I will make them come and bow down before your feet and they will learn that I have loved you. Because you have kept my word about patient endurance, I will keep you from the hour of trial that is coming on the whole world, to try those who dwell on the earth.

54.29 It's the obedient who are justified, not the hearers

> Romans 14:18 - Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

God keeps us from stumbling along the way:

> Jude 1:24-25 - Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.
>
> I Peter 2:25 - For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Fulfilling the requirement of the law is required of us by God. God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus.

> Romans 2:13-16 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers (4163. poiétés) of the law who will be justified. For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Delirious? - {Investigate} Live From Farewell Show In London - 2010

54.29.1 These people who were unable to enter the kingdom of heaven performed dead works, and never obeyed Jesus

> Matthew 7:21-27 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand.And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it. (ESV)

To get to know Jesus, follow His commandments - be obedient to Jesus.

A relationship with Jesus necessitates being correctable by Jesus. If we hear Jesus' words and believe Him, and are corrected by Him and sanctified by Him and follow Him and obey Him, then that is great!

54.30 Outside of the Holy Spirit, noone can say Jesus is Lord

> 1 Corinthians 12:3 - Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking in the Spirit of God ever says Jesus is accursed! and no one can say Jesus is Lord except in the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

54.31 Works accompany the true believers

> Mark 16:16-17 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; (ESV)

54.32 Those that reject the gospel are not the same as those who haven't heard the gospel

> Mark 6:11 - And if any place will not receive you and they will not listen to you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.

54.32.1 The following applies to believing Jesus, not to believing that a disciple of Jesus is Jesus

> John 8:24 - I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins. (ESV)

A disciple of Jesus isn't Jesus, but a disciple.

54.32.2 There's more chances to accept Jesus after hearing the gospel and initially rejecting or being unsure

> John 4:36-38 - Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, One sows and another reaps. I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.
>
> John 4:34-38 - Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. Do you not say, There are yet four months, then comes the harvest? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest. Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, One sows and another reaps. I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.

54.32.3 If someone receives the one who Jesus sends, they receive Jesus

> John 13:20 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever receives the one I send receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.
>
> Matthew 10:40 - "He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.
>
> Mark 9:37 - "Whoever receives one child like this in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me does not receive Me, but Him who sent Me."

54.32.4 People always have the choice to believe the gospel

> Romans 11:23 - And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again.
>
> Matthew 21:32 - For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him. (ESV)
>
> Joel 2:12-13 - Yet even now, declares the LORD, return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; and rend your hearts and not your garments. Return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love; and he relents over disaster . (ESV)

54.32.5 I lean towards this interpretation

- People who hear the gospel and ultimately reject it / reject Jesus / choose to not put their trust in Jesus are condemned.
- There's more chances to accept Jesus after hearing the gospel and initially rejecting or being unsure
- Rejecting Jesus in front of others is not good because it's a testimony against them
- Acknowledging Jesus in front of others is very good

John 3:19 - This is the judgment, that the Light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the Light, for their deeds were evil. (ESV)

Luke 19:10 - For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.

54.32.6 Rejecting Jesus in front of others is not good

Luke 9:26 - For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

I John 2:23 - No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also.

I John 4:15 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.

Matthew 10:32 - So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven,

Matthew 10:33 - but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven.

Luke 12:8 - And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God,

54.32.7 It's really important to not reject Jesus through

John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.

John 8:21-24 - So he said to them again, I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come. So the Jews said, Will he kill himself, since he says, Where I am going, you cannot come? He said to them, You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins.

I Peter 3:18-21 - For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, because they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

If this verse suggests that Jesus went to the spirits in prison who had in the days of Noah disobeyed, then we should definitely obey the gospel while we're alive today.

54.33 I believe that repentance is important in faith and faithfulness to God

Acts 2:38 - And Peter said to them, Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

Joel 2:12-13 - Yet even now, declares the LORD, return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; and rend your hearts and not your garments. Return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love; and he relents over disaster. (ESV)

And repentance has the fruit of in your heart truly deciding to tell the truth, not commit adultery, etc. - being accountable to God, knowing that He sees.

> Matthew 3:8 - Bear fruit in keeping with repentance. (ESV)

This is following the law by faith, I think; Truly loving God and one's neighbour.

There are a lot of 'do nots' in the law but the most important thing is the 2 'do' commandments. The 'do nots' are to stop people from doing bad things, but the 2 Greatest commandments command us to love God and our neighbour.

> Matthew 22:37-40 - And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.

> Colossians 3:4-9 - When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices

Lots of people say these days that trying to follow the law is self-righteousness and I don't really agree with that because to follow the law in faith is OK. But to be 'under' the law is put oneself under a curse.

54.34 Celebrating/endorsing sin / error is not right

If a newly born-again Christian is spending all their time with sinners though and endorsing continually instead of being discipled, then they can have their mind conformed to the sinners instead of being strengthened in the truth. This is why I think it's not especially great to, immediately after getting born-again, be overly exposed to unbelievers and sinners.

Jesus ate with sinners but Jesus was the special guest. Think of Nicodemus inviting Jesus over.

54.35 Faith has substance to it, and an amount to it, usually drawn out over time

> Hebrews 11:1 - Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. (KJV)

> Hebrews 11:1 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. (ESV)

For me, I was acting in faith ever since I was born-again, resulting in a huge chain of events and confirmations!

54.36 Faith believes God and hopes in invisible things, and is convicted of them

But at the end of the day, justification by faith in Jesus justifies the ungodly sinner - but it is faith that God justifies and not faithlessness. It's the type of belief that recognises one's sin, and results in love for Jesus, and it's obedient and submissive to God - it's repentant.

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

Where we are unfaithful, though, God is faithful. God wants us to choose Him. He wants us to repent.

54.37 Jesus' words never pass away. The law could only pass away after heaven and earth passes away

> Psalms 119:160 - The sum of your word is truth, and every one of your righteous rules endures forever. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 11:25 - At that time Jesus declared, I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children;
>
> Matthew 24:35 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.
>
> Mark 13:31 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.
>
> Luke 10:21 - In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will.
>
> Luke 16:17 - But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of the Law to become void.

We must abide in the teachings of Jesus, believing what Jesus has said, believing Jesus:

> John 5:37-38 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 5:14-20 - You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)
>
> Luke 21:33 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

The passing away of the heavens and earth looks like the destruction of the present heavens and earth, including the planets, galaxies, etc. and the works done on earth will be exposed. It's an extreme event:

> II Peter 3:10 - But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. (ESV)

The Works of Philo Judaeus, Philo of Alexandria (20BC - 50AD), On the Life of Moses II But the enactments of this lawgiver are firm, not shaken by commotions, not liable to alteration, but stamped as it were with the seal of nature herself, and they remain firm and lasting from the day on which they were first promulgated to the present one, and there may well be a hope that they will remain to all future time, as being immortal, as long as the sun and the moon, and the whole heaven and the whole world shall endure.

54.38 Structure of the Kingdom

When applying the law, justice and mercy and faithfulness are the weightier matters of the law. However, the remainder of the law is not supposed to be neglected either:

> Matthew 23:23-25 - Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others. You blind guides, straining out a gnat and swallowing a camel! Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.

The law still exists. A thought I have : "Perhaps structure of God's kingdom might be determined by the law and Jesus' words."

> Psalms 119:160 - The sum of your word is truth, and every one of your righteous rules endures forever. (ESV)

Heaven is God's throne and its foundation is righteousness and justice.

> Psalms 97:2 - Clouds and thick darkness are all around him; righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

> Psalms 89:14 - Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne; steadfast love and faithfulness go before you. (ESV)

> Acts 7:49 - 'Heaven is My throne, And earth is the footstool of My feet; What kind of house will you build for Me?' says the Lord, 'Or what place is there for My repose?

The universe is upheld by the word of Jesus' power.

> Hebrews 1:3 - He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, (ESV)

> Revelation of John 20:4 - Then I saw thrones, and seated on them were those to whom the authority to judge was committed. Also I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and for the word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast or its image and had not received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

54.38.1 Great or small in the kingdom of God

54.38.2 The one who is least in the kingdom is who is great

> Matthew 18:4 - Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

> Luke 9:48 - and said to them, Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For he who is least (3398. mikros) among you all is the one who is great. (ESV)

54.38.3 Your servant will be greater

> Mark 9:35 - And he sat down and called the twelve. And he said to them, If anyone would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all. (ESV)
>
> Mark 10:43-45 - But it shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)

Quote from Martin Luther King Jr.:

> "Everybody can be great…because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love."

54.38.4 The humble and obedient will be called great

There's a quiet confidence from practicing one's righteousness (accountable to God) so long as we are seeking to honour God by our obedience and get praise from God, not seeking worldly praise:

> I John 3:18-22 - Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. (ESV)

The justified are not self-righteous but live with an awareness they still need God's grace and practice their obedience in submission to God:

> Luke 18:10-14 - Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted. (ESV)

Being under grace means knowing we always live under the mercy of God:

> Romans 6:14 - For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. (ESV)
>
> Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 5:6 - Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.
>
> Jeremiah 31:34 - And no longer shall each one teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, Know the LORD, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. (ESV)

Those in the kingdom of God hold faith in Jesus and serve Jesus:

> Romans 14:17-18 - For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

And we serve in the strength that God provides. If we find ourselves in a position to demonstrate serving others out of love, and the Scriptures have a lot to say about what that that love looks like (such as in the 10 commandments. God sets up opportunities. See Romans 13:9-10), then we should do so and give God the glory:

> I Peter 4:11 - whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

There are commandments from God which even Paul the Apostle regarded as important to follow for all people who serve Jesus, such as the 10 Commandments and the commandments which came from Jesus Himself, including the Golden Rule:

> Romans 13:9-10 - The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

The law is good. The Law apart from Christ is not our source of justification but we don't teach people to disobey it, especially those who follow it by faith.

> Romans 14:10-14 - Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God; for it is written, As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess (G1843 exomologeó) to God. So then each of us will give an account of himself to God. Therefore let us not pass judgment on one another any longer, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother. I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean. (ESV)

Instead we focus on following Jesus first and foremost:

> Romans 14:22-23 - The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

When it comes to following the law as a Christian, it's a matter of being accountable to God personally over our own level of law adherence while we follow Jesus first and foremost.

Quote by John Piper That's who we are as Christians. When we walk according to the Spirit, we fulfill the just requirement of the law. That is, we keep the commandments, we love. We are doers of the law. Not sinlessly perfect law-keepers. Nobody is nor anybody has been except Jesus, which is why we depend on Him, but rather, radically transformed people, through faith, in the power of the Holy Spirit, leaning on the grace of God that comes to us through Jesus Christ.

Jesus, the original Apostles and the founding fathers of Christianity still taught us to keep the 2 Great commandments and the 10 Commandments which is sound doctrine:

- I Corinthians 7:19 - Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. (KJV)

So long as we hold faith in Christ, we're no longer victims of the curse of the law (which is to rely on keeping the full law perfectly including perfectly fulfilled in works to avoid being cursed):

> Galatians 3:10-13 - For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them. Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— (ESV)

Those who keep God's commandments and and the righteousness of faith / the testimony of Jesus will be called great in the kingdom:

> Matthew 5:19 - Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

So long as we hold faith in Christ, we're no longer victims of the curse of the law (which is to rely on keeping the full law perfectly including perfectly fulfilled in works to avoid being cursed):

> Galatians 3:10-13 - For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them. Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— (ESV)

It is humility to keep God's commandments by faith (and not works), accountable to God who sees in secret.

Quote by John Piper "Pride is insubordinate. [It says,] You don't have a right to tell me what to do. That's what happened in the Garden of Eden right at the beginning of our sinful plight. And that's what all of us do apart from God's grace."

There is a self-righteous way of trying to keep the law, and there is a humble way. The law is not annulled but our justification comes from faith in Jesus.

- The self-righteous way
  - Pursues the law as if by works
  - Observes the law in detail but doesn't follow even the basics from the heart and in truth, or in faith.
  - Doesn't maintain being honest and faithful to God.
  - Doesn't maintain loving one's neighbour in truth and reality.
  - Lacks mercy.
  - Often criticizes others but with hypocrisy, not seeing they break the law while they accuse.
  - Often makes the mistake of condemning the innocent.
  - Often makes the mistake of being without mercy, or love.
- The humble way, with faith
  - Is accountable to God - it's not lying to God.
  - No deceit.
  - It's acknowledging that God is right, and His law is right.

  - It's loving God, and loving one's neighbour.
  - It's compatible with being led by the Spirit, not opposed

> Matthew 7:3-5 - Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, Let me take the speck out of your eye, when there is the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:18-21 - But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. (ESV)

We must be doing the will of God to not be under the law:

> Psalms 143:10 - Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! (ESV)

We must instead be led by the Spirit, and follow Christ Jesus:

> Galatians 5:22-25 - But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. (ESV)

54.38.5 God's kingdom is from Heaven to Earth

> Genesis 14:19 - And he blessed him and said, Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth;

> Isaiah 66:1 - Thus says the Lord, "Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for Me? And where is a place that I may rest???

> Jeremiah 23:24 - "Can a man hide himself in hiding places So I do not see him?" declares the Lord. "Do I not fill the heavens and the earth?" declares the Lord.??

> Acts 7:49 - 'Heaven is My throne, And earth is the footstool of My feet; What kind of house will you build for Me?' says the Lord, 'Or what place is there for My repose???

> Matthew 11:25 - At that time Jesus said, "I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and have revealed them to infants.

> Luke 10:21 - At that very time He rejoiced greatly in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I praise You, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and have revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, for this way was well-pleasing in Your sight.

> Revelation of John 14:7 - And he said with a loud voice, Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water.

> Acts 17:24 - The God who made the world and all things in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands;

54.38.6 Jesus inherits the entire Kingdom

Hebrews 1:2 - in these last days has spoken to us in His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the world.

I Corinthians 15:25 - For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet.

I Corinthians 15:27 - For He has put all things in subjection under His feet. But when He says, ”All things are put in subjection,” it is evident that He is excepted who put all things in subjection to Him.

Ephesians 1:22 - And He put all things in subjection under His feet, and gave Him as head over all things to the church, Hebrews 2:8 - You have put all things in subjection under his feet.” For in subjecting all things to him, He left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him.

Hebrews 10:13 - waiting from that time onward until His enemies be made a footstool for His feet.

54.38.7 Jesus' sheep/followers/saints inherit the Kingdom with Jesus. Jesus' sheep follow Jesus

Matthew 24:45-47 - Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his master has set over his household, to give them their food at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. (ESV)

Luke 12:32 - Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

John 10:27 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

Luke 9:23 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.

Luke 18:22 - When Jesus heard this, he said to him, One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.

John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

John 21:22 - Jesus said to him, If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow me!

1 Corinthians 6:9-20 - Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. All things are lawful for me, but not all things are helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be enslaved by anything. Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food-and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! Or do you not know that he who is joined to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For, as it is written, The two will become one flesh. But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. (ESV)

> Zechariah 8:23 - Thus says the Lord of hosts: In those days ten men from the nations of every tongue shall take hold of the robe of a Jew, saying, Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.

> Revelation of John 2:26 - The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations,

54.38.8 Followers of Jesus become fishers of men

> Mark 1:17 - And Jesus said to them, Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men.

54.38.9 One must be born-again to enter in and inherit the Kingdom of God

> John 3:3 - Jesus answered him, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.

> John 3:5 - Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.

> I Corinthians 15:50 - I tell you this, brothers: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

youtube.com: The Chosen scene: John 3:16 @time: 2 min 8 sec

54.39 There is no sexual immorality in Heaven, no violence, no sinners.

Heaven is not Earth. It's a place without sinning.

> Psalms 11:5 - The LORD tests the righteous, but his soul hates the wicked and the one who loves violence. (ESV)

But the Kingdom of God exists from Heaven to Earth.

> II Peter 3:13-14 - But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace.

> Revelation 21:22-27 - And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and its lamp is the Lamb. By its light will the nations walk, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it, and its gates will never be shut by day-and there will be no night there. They will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. But nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is detestable or false, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life. (ESV)

> Isaiah 11:6 - The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the lion and the fattened calf together; and a little child shall lead them. (ESV)

I do believe this is referring to the bodily resurrection from the dead, not to mean being born-again of the spirit:

> Matthew 22:30 - For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

54.40 Adhering to the law like a Pharisee - pursuing the law by works

But adhering to the law like a Pharisee is like strapping yourself to a razor blade, but that doesn't mean the law is wrong.

> Romans 3:20 - For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin.

The law doesn't save:

> Galatians 3:21-24 - Is the law then contrary to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could give life, then righteousness would indeed be by the law. But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. (ESV)

The law doesn't save:

> Hebrews 7:19-20 - On the one hand, a former commandment is set aside because of its weakness and uselessness (for the law made nothing perfect); but on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God. (ESV)

> II John 1:4-6 - I was very glad to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received commandment to do from the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it.

54.40.1 Instead of adhering to the law like a Pharisee we should become obedient to Jesus

That means loving others the way He loved us, and it involves accepting that He loved us first (through the atoning sacrifice):

> Matthew 5:20 - For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

We believe God and believe God has sent Jesus to be the propitiation for our sins, and love others freely with Christ's love, relieving their burdens and forgiving their trespasses against us, as we have freely received love and forgiveness from God. This is actually following the Great Commandments to love God and our neighbour properly.

54.41 Follow the law mercifully and without self-righteousness, accountable to God, being a servant to others

So as to not become a hypocrite or condemn the innocent. Accountable to God - a relationship with God. Without self-righteousness.

> Acts 23:3 - Then Paul said to him, God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! Are you sitting to judge me according to the law, and yet contrary to the law you order me to be struck?

> Matthew 12:3-8 - He said to them, Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him: how he entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him to eat nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? Or have you not read in the Law how on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless? I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. And if you had known what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the guiltless. For the Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath.

The greatest among you will be your servant. Keeping the commandments by faith results in a person a who is a servant, serving others.

> Luke 22:25-26 - And he said to them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those in authority over them are called benefactors. But not so with you. Rather, let the greatest among you become as the youngest, and the leader as one who serves. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:19 - Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Not the best example, but, for example, when someone says you owe them money, and you can see they are blind, it's paying them because you're the one submitting to God.

It's humbling yourself even to others and following God's commandments in truth and reality, with a real faith relationship with God.

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

It's serving others as Jesus has served us:

> Romans 14:18 - Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

It's keeping accountable to God and maintaining faithfulness to God, not keeping others accountable to you:

> Romans 14:22 - The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. (ESV)

This isn't self-righteousness, but is a self-sacrificial obedience to continue working as a bond-servant of Christ, being the light of the world.

> Philippians 2:14-16 - Do all things without grumbling or questioning, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.

54.42 Being in the Kingdom of Jesus Christ on earth is being the light of the world

Seek the Kingdom of God:

> II Peter 1:5-11 - For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Become born of the Spirit:

> John 3:3-5 - Jesus answered him, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus said to him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born? Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. (ESV)

In Jesus Christ we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins, and are transferred into the Kingdom of Jesus Christ:

> Colossians 1:13-14 - He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

It's the Kingdom of Christ and God:

> Ephesians 5:5 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. (ESV)

As we walk in the light, as He is in the light, that is in the Truth, walking in, believing, professing and obeying Jesus Christ in Truth, the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin:

> I John 1:6-7 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

Walking in the light is walking righteously, in love and holiness and truth:

> Ephesians 5:1-17 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret. But when anything is exposed by the light, it becomes visible, for anything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you. Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

We are the light of the world. Yes, we must do good:

> Matthew 5:14-20 - You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

We must do good, and behave like the children of God, or we will not enter the Kingdom, and that sanctification involves exercising Christ's love (Matthew 25:34):

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:7 - Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)

> I John 2:29 - If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him. (ESV)

When we are transferred into the Kingdom of Jesus Christ and God, the world hates us, but then we need to shine our light in the darkness, resisting the falsehood:

> John 15:19 - If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. (ESV)

54.43 All the law is still used

We're not under / condemned by the Mosaic law but we still don't encourage the breaking of the Mosaic law.

The law is good and it still exists, and God still uses the law. All of it. We are supposed to stand for truth and live righteously as the light of the world.

If a person rejects this because they don't like law then they are lying to themself because Jesus teaches that not a jot will pass away:

> John 12:48 - The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day.

Heaven and earth is still around, so therefore the law still exists, but those who are doing the will of God and being led by God's spirit, following Jesus are not under it nor condemned by it - that is a conditional promise:

> Luke 16:17 - But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of the Law to become void.

We all fall short of the glory of God and require the God's righteousness imputed to us through faith in Jesus, but having the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus is not license to sin.

Jesus Christ is the end of the law to all who believe, but grace isn't an excuse to sin.

God's commandments (especially the 10 Commandments; loving God and your neighbour) are still binding on us - written on our heart when we get born-again.

Right after I got born-again of the Spirit I wrote about the 10 commandments being written on my heart, and I believe it was the Holy Spirit inspiring me and also letting me loose to write (and also later be corrected).

I have a more detailed explanation here:

- web.archive.org mullikine.github.io: Astral Projection Part 1 - Death with Jesus // Bodacious Blog

> Galatians 6:14-17 - But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). And as for all who walk by this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God. From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. (ESV)

Despite some people believing the new birth is not like a pregnancy, it was indeed like a pregnancy from my experience.

> John 3:6 - That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. (ESV)

I really believe that John Piper's explanation should be listened to / read:

- youtube.com: How to Seek the Holy Spirit

AMEN to this particular quote too:

youtube.com: How to Seek the Holy Spirit @time: 48 min 13 sec ”If anyone keeps Jesus’ word, holds fast, treasures it, in obedience, that person will not be quenching the Spirit, that person will not be grieving the Spirit, but will know the fullness and sweetness of fellowship with the Father and the Son.” - AMEN to that, John Piper

Now I could go into detail about why I repented ”after” being born of the Spirit, and I have explained things a bit later in this document. But I certainly hold fast to what is good, and allow the Holy Spirit to clean me, as I continue to believe and obey the Holy Spirit.

I can’t speak to what people’s experience might be.

> John 3:8 - The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. (ESV)

I received a blue light-body made of blue Spirit light/fire:

> … I could feel having a body and see it but the sight I had was unlike regular sight.
>
> When I looked at myself I could see what looked many blue power lines running up my body, glowing and lighting up in blue as waves of some kind of energy moved up and down, pulsating slowly, causing them to glow.
>
> I knew exactly where each part of my physical body was, just as if a person does when they are awake was but when I moved, I seem to have been detaching with another one, which was blue. I thought to myself, “This is my consciousness just trying to retain a sense of self as I am wilfully moving but my body is still asleep.” Perhaps that’s not far from reality.
>
> I could reach in within my own body with my astral hands and ‘see’ where my regular arms lay, but I no vision whatsoever of skin nor flesh, but in a way I could faintly see blackish organs. As I placed my hands below my bones it sent electrical impulses through my body. I could hear electrical vibrations (an electrical sound, like a brrr or a zrrrr) get louder as moved them through my torso and below my rib cage. I could move into my body and feel my organs, and a sore spot under and below my right lung.
>
> I was actually awake and tried to pray aloud but that is when I knew I was in sleep paralysis as I could not make any sounds, nor open my eyes. I sat up a bit where I lay, but just my astral body. And I could see myself. I think I could do this because my body was still very asleep. I prayed to Jesus for forgiveness and for his protection because I was scared and did not know what was going on. This was a very unusual experience. I was experiencing sleep paralysis but when I tried to move I actually could move, but only with my astral body. I came out of my body only by lying up a bit and feeling inside my upper torso but with my astral hands.
>
> There was a sore spot inside in my physical body which I was aware of and when I touched it with my astral hand it felt tender.
>
> I decided I would just lie there, and experience being able to voluntarily (a bit like sonar) send waves of chilling vibrations over my body just by thinking “I want to scan my body”.
>
> I woke up intentionally and it was as if I were already awake but opening my eyes and getting out of bed again, though I could’ve easily slipped back into sleep if I wanted. …

To this day, I still have my blue light-body. Though I don’t see it with my regular eyes I can still feel it humming!

> Galatians 6:14-17 - But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). And as for all who walk by this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God. From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: Be Who You Are: Living Out Identity in Christ, Part 1

54.43.1 Even the smallest of laws still come into effect in certain circumstances

> Leviticus 19:27 - You shall not round off the hair on your temples or mar the edges of your beard. (ESV)

For example, if Jesus sends you as an ambassador to some pagans and they asked you to shave your head in this specific way, or eat food sacrificed to idols.

> James 4:17 - So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin. (ESV)

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

Therefore, a person should do what is out of love and faith for the LORD, based on their knowledge of the law, their faithfulness to God and their conviction.

54.43.2 We do not seek to change God's law

Fellow heirs with Christ are still in subjection to Christ. Fellow heirs with Christ have Christ as their King and Lord and Saviour and God and Jehovah as their God.

Christ is reigning until all things are subjected to Him. We must come under the Lordship of Christ Jesus. I consider any so-called god which is in rebellion to Christ to be a demon:

> I Corinthians 15:25-28 - For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For God has put all things in subjection under his feet. But when it says, all things are put in subjection, it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under him. When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things in subjection under him, that God may be all in all. (ESV)

The prophet Daniel had a vision of kings making war against God, and the saints siding with God:

> Daniel 7:1-3 - In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream and visions of his head as he lay in his bed. Then he wrote down the dream and told the sum of the matter. Daniel declared, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea. And four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. (ESV)

> Daniel 7:4-7 - The first was like a lion and had eagles' wings. Then as I looked its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man, and the mind of a man was given to it. And behold, another beast, a second one, like a bear. It was raised up on one side. It had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth; and it was told, Arise, devour much flesh. After this I looked, and behold, another, like a leopard, with four wings of a bird on its back. And the beast had four heads, and dominion was given to it. After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, terrifying and dreadful and exceedingly strong. It had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces and stamped what was left with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns. (ESV)

These four great beasts are four kings who shall arise out of the earth:

> Daniel 7:1-8 - In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream and visions of his head as he lay in his bed. Then he wrote down the dream and told the sum of the matter. Daniel declared, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea. And four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. The first was like a > lion and had eagles' wings. Then as I looked its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man, and the mind of a man was given to it. And behold, another beast, a second one, like a bear. It was raised up on one side. It had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth; and it was told, Arise, devour much flesh. After this I looked, and behold, another, like a leopard, with four wings of a bird on its back. And the beast had four heads, and dominion was given to it. After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, terrifying and dreadful and exceedingly strong. It had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces and stamped what was left with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns. I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots. And behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. (ESV)

> Daniel 7:9-12 - As I looked, thrones were placed, and the Ancient of days took his seat; his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames; its wheels were burning fire. A stream of fire issued and came out from before him; a thousand thousands served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him; the court sat in judgment, and the books were opened. I looked then because of the sound of the great words that the horn was speaking. And as I looked, the beast was killed, and its body destroyed and given over to be burned with fire. As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away, but their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. (ESV)

The saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, forever and ever:

> Daniel 7:13-14 - I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him. And to him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed. (ESV)

> Daniel 7:15-18 - As for me, Daniel, my spirit within me was anxious, and the visions of my head alarmed me. I approached one of those who stood there and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of the things. These four great beasts are four kings who shall arise out of the earth. But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, forever and ever. (ESV)

> Daniel 7:19-24 - Then I desired to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the rest, exceedingly terrifying, with its teeth of iron and claws of bronze, and which devoured and broke in pieces and stamped what was left with its feet, and about the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn that came up and before which three of them fell, the horn that had eyes and a mouth that spoke great things, and that seemed greater than its companions. As I looked, this horn made war with the saints and prevailed over them, until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given for the saints of the Most High, and the time came when the saints possessed the kingdom. Thus he said: As for the fourth beast, there shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and it shall devour the whole earth, and trample it down, and break it to pieces. As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings shall arise, and another shall arise after them; he shall be different from the former ones, and shall put down three kings. (ESV)

> Daniel 7:25-26 - He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. But the court shall sit in judgment, and his dominion shall be taken away, to be consumed and destroyed to the end. (ESV)

> Daniel 7:27-28 - And the kingdom and the dominion and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High; their kingdom shall be an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey them. Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly alarmed me, and my color changed, but I kept the matter in my heart. (ESV)

54.44 My experience of being born-again, and reasoning surrounding justification

I affirm justification through faith alone by the imputed righteousness of having trusting faith in Jesus (in the heart, without any work) for the finished work of the cross but I believe that this belief has to be qualified, and that God does the qualifying when He looks at the heart. Amen.

I think that a willingness to turn to obey Jesus in the heart is characteristic of a repentant heart, and I think a willingness to turn away from evil and follow Jesus is an important step towards being born-again.

Amazing talk:

- youtube.com: Charlie Kirk : HOW BEING OBEDIENT TO GOD WILL CHANGE YOUR LIFE | TPUSA Faith {@ TPUSAFaith }

It's also important to have a response of love for Jesus, and without Jesus' finished work on the cross, we couldn't receive Jesus' Holy Spirit to live inside us.

The Bible teaches that the Holy Spirit goes to those who obey Jesus.

The Bible also teaches that the Holy Spirit goes those who put their faith on Jesus.

54.44.1 John Piper's view, I affirm, but it also sounds optimal

I believe John Piper's view here is optimal, that during the turbulent process of being born-again of the spirit, we should rely entirely on the righteousness of Christ, and not be led astray by relying on our own works for justification.

> John Piper - We should rely entirely on the righteousness of Christ imputed to us by faith alone as the ground of God being 100% for us after which necessary sanctification comes.

54.44.2 But my experience was like this and this is why I cannot deny the importance of obedience and abiding in the teaching of Christ by obedient, trusting, hoping, faith, even before being born of the Spirit

Before I was born-again of the Spirit, I was trying to build a 'Noah's Ark-like' software called Pen.el, and also was endeavouring to keep the 10 commandments by faith seeking God, and then I got born-again of the Spirit.

When I was born of the Spirit (2 April 2022), God permitted me to confess (G3670 homologeó) Jesus to Him, and I made a strong repentance to walking in far more obedient faith thereafter. I didn't receive any commendation from my perspective when I was born-again of the Spirit.

> Genesis 22:16-17 - and said, By myself I have sworn, declares the LORD, because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son, I will surely bless you, and I will surely multiply your offspring as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your offspring shall possess the gate of his enemies, (ESV)

But then, as what happened to me after I was born-again of the Spirit (by the grace of God through faith), is that shortly after I was quickly confronted with a lot of paganism, and through obedience to Jesus' commandments through that time, as I learned to walk in them, I was simultaneously getting tested very strongly on them through other people.

I even began to get dreams of evading judgement through good works, and then pagan dreams etc. that were distinctly not Christian, and all I'm saying is that adhering to the truth that I am justified not by my own works but by Christ's finished works was very important for me through that time, so that I wasn't led astray by paganism.

I'm also sanctified as I cooperate with the Holy Spirit in the process of sanctification - post-justification.

We rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. That's the point of justification. Who cares if we are righteous. We don't want to be God - we want to see the glory of God. But we want to be ready for it, walking righteously:

> Luke 17:22-27,30 - And he said to the disciples, The days are coming when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. And they will say to you, Look, there! or Look, > here! Do not go out or follow them. For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day. But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. Just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of Man. They were eating and drinking and marrying and being given in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. so will it be on the day when the Son of Man is revealed. (ESV)

>
> Luke 21:33-36 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth. But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man. (ESV)

54.44.3 I also affirm justification by works of faith done by grace [alone], not just 'faith alone' because I affirm Romans 4:9-12 which says its both groups, and also Hebrews 11 confirms

> Romans 4:9-12 - Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

The ones who adhere to the Law (i.e. the true circumcision) should also walk in steps of faith that Abraham had before he was circumcised. I believe in this type of 'merit' if you would call it merit. In reality these works of faith type salvation is still 'grace alone'.

> Hebrews 11:2 - For by it the people of old received their commendation. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 11:4 - By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 11:7 - By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. (ESV)
>
> Genesis 6:7-9 - So the LORD said, I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the land, man and animals and creeping things and birds of the heavens, for I am sorry that I have made them. But Noah found favor in the eyes of the LORD. These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his generation. Noah walked with God. (ESV)
>
> Luke 19:8-9 - And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold. And Jesus said to him, Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. (ESV)

Now what's interesting to me is that before 2 April 2022, I indeed considered myself to be a Christian but in all honesty from my current angle I think I was spiritually dead. But I had started taking steps of faith in God to seek Him out for about a year before then. I didn't have the obvious sense of God's presence which I do now after 2 April 2022. But in 2021 I was casually seeking a real relationship with Jesus. In desperation I called out to God for help and I was born-again of the Spirit. It's still grace. It's still salvation. And it's plainly evident to me that God had been working in my life before I was born-again of the Spirit. It seems obvious that God had been creating in me faith. And it's also plainly evident to me that after I was born-again the Holy Spirit would speak to me through Christians even at my baptist church. I have no doubts it's Jesus' Holy Spirit who has been working in me. I also believe that as Jesus had done with Saul, He may use a person's existing situation which they were in when they are born-again and use for His purposes, and so use their "work". But when I was born of the Spirit, that was quite something, and from my angle all a person would seek to do in a situation like what happened to me is focus on the Lord Jesus and want to be obedient to Him:

> Titus 3:3-7 - For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

I believe that it's God who tests the heart and justifies who has faith in Jesus.

I also don't think I have an exact idea of what has been good works in the eyes of God before and after 2 April 2022. If someone wants me to try to say that 2 April 2022 was when I was justified and started producing good works, then I don't think I can say that actually. The truth is I actually just don't know if or when God has justified me. I just have faith that I'm justified by Jesus' blood, and called out to God to help me and He helped me and now I'm just really wanting to remain faithful to Him.

54.44.4 Mid-2022 to mid-2023 was chaotic

- I was saved when I was spiritually dead as an act of pure grace - like a plane on the verge of crashing to the ground, I was born-again at one of the lowest (perhaps the lowest) points in my life.
- My own theology and behaviour was deeply flawed when I was born-again, and it had to be rectified, and that was a painful process as I repented after being born-again of the spirit.
- Without reforming my behaviour to come into obedience to Jesus' commandments after being born-again, I would've been led into endorsing paganism and licentiousness.
- Adhering to the truth during these events had me in constant spiritual warfare, and it wasn't easy, so I believe that obedience is extremely important and I think is in some way very important to saving faith.

Obeying Jesus is very important:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

- G4100 (pisteuōn): This is the present participle form of the verb " " (G4100 pisteuō), meaning "to believe" or "to have faith." In the participle form, it functions as a verbal adjective and can be translated as "believing."

> I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

> Proverbs 14:25 - A truthful witness saves lives, but one who breathes out lies is deceitful. (ESV)

> Proverbs 10:21 - The lips of the righteous feed many, but fools die for lack of sense. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Charity Gayle - Thank You Jesus for the Blood {Live}

54.44.5 An obedient/loving response to Jesus, I think is extremely important

I believe it's necessary that we should have a loving response to Jesus, and an obedient response to Jesus. Is that preaching justification through my own works or my own effort? No, I don't think so.

The obediently loving response to Jesus after being born-again of the spirit is to pass-forward the mercy onto others (forgive others as we have been forgiven), die to the selfish nature and learn to walk in Jesus' commandments.

54.44.6 But I believe the grace is a free gift from God.

Jesus is so generous that He saves people who turn out to be unthankful, but we should definitely love Jesus as a response. This story should be taken not only to see how Good God is, but also taken as a warning against unthankfulness:

> Luke 17:11-19 - On the way to Jerusalem he was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. When he saw them he said to them, Go and show yourselves to the priests. And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus answered, Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner? And he said to him, Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well. (ESV)

54.45 Justification by faith - Jews + Gentiles, and in-between

There is only the one gospel message: the same gospel that Paul, Jesus, Peter and John preached.

> Galatians 1:6-7 - I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel— not that there is another one, but there are some who trouble you and want to distort the gospel of Christ. (ESV)

> Mark 1:14-15 - Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel. (ESV)

Paul preached the same gospel as Jesus before His crucifixion, and the same gospel that Peter and John preached, but some people think Paul's gospel is different - but that is because they have been deceived by the two-gospel heresy:

- The Two Gospel Heresy - Anton Bosch

Jesus even told people He would be killed and raised, as John the Baptist taught that Jesus takes away the sin of the world, and people came to believe He is the Saviour of the world:

> Matthew 17:22-23 - As they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him, and he will be raised on the third day. And they were greatly distressed. (ESV)

> John 1:29 - The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! (ESV)

> John 4:42 - They said to the woman, It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Savior of the world. (ESV)

It's the same gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-11 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am > the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed. (ESV)

We must follow Jesus Christ who died for our sins, the light of the world, the Good Shepherd, and come into the truth, and into the Kingdom of God. Jesus is Lord of Lords, our Lord, our Saviour, our Master, our King, our God, the Light, the Truth:

> John 12:44-47 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. (ESV)

> Zechariah 13:7 - Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who stands next to me, declares the LORD of hosts. Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; I will turn my hand against the little ones. (ESV)

Jesus taught people to trust in Him and keep His teachings:

> John 11:25 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, (ESV)

> John 8:51 - Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. (ESV)

And Jesus taught that this would produce a transformation in the person where a person receives the Holy Spirit:

> John 7:37-38 - On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. (ESV)

Even before His crucifixion, it's clear that Jesus taught the New Covenant:

> Luke 22:20 - And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood. (ESV)

Even before His crucifixion, it's clear that we may have faith in Jesus to forgive us, and change our ways:

> John 8:11 - She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more. (ESV)

And according to Paul, Jesus' commands are still binding. We must help the weak. We must remember the words of the Lord Jesus:

> Acts 20:35 - In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 11:24-25 - and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me. In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me. (ESV)

Jesus' words do not pass away, and the truths He spoke before being crucified remain true:

> Matthew 24:35 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (ESV)

Jesus' words are the words of eternal life:

> John 6:68 - Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, (ESV)

Polycarp 2:3 but remembering the words which the Lord spake, as He taught; Judge not that ye be not judged. Forgive, and it shall be forgiven to you. Have mercy that ye may receive mercy. With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again; and again Blessed are the poor and they that are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of God.

To be raised up as a child of Abraham, bear fruit in keeping with repentance. We repent from sin to trust in God and stop desiring evil and we go to the good future:

> Luke 3:8 - Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham.

See: **??
To be regarded as a child of Abraham, a person must fall into one of 2 categories:

- walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised, I believe with respect to having faith in Jesus Christ, but I also this likely counts to adherents of the law of God (i.e. the circumcised) who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that Abraham had before he was circumcised
  - John 8:39 - They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, (ESV)
- faith in Jesus Christ:
  - Galatians 3:7-9 - Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham. And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, In you shall all the nations be blessed. So then, those who are of faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith. (ESV)

> Romans 4:9-12 - Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

I believe this also counts to those who are of the "real/spiritual circumcision". After being born-again of the Spirit, it seems natural to want to obey and trust God the way Abraham did and walk in works of faith like Abraham:

> Philippians 3:3 - For we are the real circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— (ESV)

> Colossians 2:11-12 - In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. (ESV)

How do we become sons of Abraham:

Sermon youtube.com: How Do Gentiles Become Sons of Abraham? Galatians 3:6, Part 3

I do believe that trusting inevitably bears fruit. Also Abraham obeyed God's commandments - that's all tied up inside the faith which Abraham had towards God. We must have faith in God, too, but with respect to having faith in Jesus Christ, following Jesus Christ.

It is because of what Jesus Christ has accomplished through His obedience to God, His death and resurrection, that having faith in Him is effective. Everyone in Christ has Him as their High Priest.

We must be a child of Abraham. The blessing comes through being counted as sons of Abraham.

> Romans 9:7-8 - and not all are children of Abraham because they are his offspring, but Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring. (ESV)

> Genesis 17:4 - Behold, my covenant is with you, and you shall be the father of a multitude of nations. (ESV)

The sign of circumcision was a seal of righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised.

The word "telē" in I Cor 10:11 is the plural of "telos" which is used in Romans 10:4. It doesn't mean "abolishment". It's more like "culmination", "goal, or "full maturity", or the "final stage", or the "ultimate purpose" and that if a person has arrived at faith in Jesus then they have arrived at the destination where the Mosaic Law was a "schoolmaster" to get us to. Now even if the coming faith was not yet "revealed", if someone were to have pursued the Mosaic Law by genuine fear of God, love of God, trust of God, hope in God, faith in the heart (rather than the exterior works) then that would still be commendable. But if a person rejects Jesus (say if they reject Him as King, or as Christ, if they don't submit to God's righteousness) then it simply shows that they do not have true faith in God, that they do not do what Abraham did, they do not have the love of God, the love of the Truth in them:

> Romans 10:4 - For Christ is the end (G5056 telos) of the law (G3551 nomos) for righteousness (G1343 dikaiosune) to everyone who believes (G4100 pisteuo, trusts). (ESV)

> Galatians 3:22-27 - But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. (ESV)

> Romans 9:30-32 - What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness did not succeed in reaching that law. Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, (ESV)

> John 8:31-47 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas: having believed 'V-RPA-AMP past tense') in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said > to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

The faith we must have is still law, but it's not a law of works:

> Romans 3:21-31 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

Also, faith in Jesus is obedience to Jesus, because we are instructed to hold the faith without partiality - that's faithfulness to God regarding seeking to do His will which includes obedience to His commandments:

> James 2:1 - My brothers, show no partiality as you hold the faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. (ESV)

The Apostle Paul says something similar. Faith is a matter of being accountable to God, even with respect to law-keeping:

> Romans 14:22 - The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. (ESV)

The purpose was to make him the father of all who have believing, obeying, trusting, faithful faith without being circumcised so righteousness can be counted to them as well.

> Romans 4:11-12 - He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised. (ESV)

The promises go to Christ:

> Galatians 3:16 - Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring. It does not say, And to offsprings, referring to many, but referring to one, And to your offspring, who is Christ. (ESV)

We belong to Christ by faith. If you belong to Christ by faith then you are one in spirit with Christ and Abraham's offspring, and heirs according to the promise:

> Galatians 3:29 - And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise. (ESV)

A new creation lives for Christ:

> II Corinthians 5:14-17 - For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh (G4561 sarx). Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh (G4561 sarx), we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

People who are now in Christ are a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation), and we should be transitioning into the new. That might take some shaking off of old things, and involves being sanctified by obedience to the Truth. But those who are in Christ are a brand new creation:

```
5620 [e]  1487 [e] 5100 [e] 1722 [e] 5547 [e]  2537 [e]
hōste     ei       tis      en       Christō   kainē
                                X     ,
Therefore if       anyone   [is] in  Christ    [he is] a new Conj      Conj     IPro-NMS Prep     N-DMS     Adj-NFS

2937 [e]  3588 [e] 744 [e]    3928 [e]         2400 [e] ktisis    ta       archaia    parēlthen        idou
     .                        ;          ,
creation  The      old things have passed away behold
N-NFS     Art-NNP  Adj-NNP    V-AIA-3S         V-AMA-2S

1096 [e]            2537 [e] gegonen             kaina
                      .
has come into being [the] new
V-RIA-3S            Adj-NNP
```

> Matthew 20:27-28 - and whoever would be first among you must be your slave, even as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)

Jesus Christ's blood is the atonement for our sin.
We should also become obedient to Him - we must have faith in Jesus.

> John 8:39 - They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did,

One of the blessings is that we are counted as righteous before God, because we have faith in Jesus, loving Jesus.

Another promise is that we would be a co-heir of the world - our Lord Jesus Christ Himself inheriting everything. We belong to the Messiah. In the Messiah, God can make promises such as this to His chosen people:

> Romans 4:13 - For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. (ESV)

The measure of that inheritance is dependent on our embracing sanctification:

> Acts 20:25-32 - And now, behold, I know that none of you among whom I have gone about proclaiming the kingdom will see my face again. Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all of you, for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. Pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God, which he obtained with his own blood. I know that after my departure fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock ; and from among your own selves will arise men speaking twisted things, to draw away the disciples after them. Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to admonish everyone with tears. And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. (ESV)

It's having a share in the inheritance but the entire inheritance belongs to Jesus, not us. Also it only goes to those who are glorified with Him through suffering:

> Colossians 1:11-12 - May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. (ESV)

> Romans 8:16-18 - The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:3-7 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:23-25 - Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality. (ESV)

Another promise is that in Christ (in union with Christ), the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles so that we together Jew, and Gentile, might receive the promised Spirit (God's Spirit) through faith:

> Galatians 3:13-14 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

God can raise up children from anyone who has repentance and may grant being a child of Abraham to anyone who walks in the footsteps of the faith that Abraham had before he was circumcised.

> Luke 3:3-8 - And he went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall become straight, and the rough places shall become level ways, and all flesh shall see the salvation of God. He said therefore to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from (G575 apo; from, away from, of, by) the wrath to come? Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham.

> Galatians 3:13-14 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith.

John the Baptist even taught people to love one another:

> Luke 3:11-15 - And he answered them, Whoever has two tunics is to share with him who has none, and whoever has food is to do likewise. Tax collectors also came to be baptized and said to him, Teacher, what shall we do? And he said to them, Collect no more than you are authorized to do. Soldiers also asked him, And we, what shall we do? And he said to them, Do not extort money from anyone by threats or by false accusation, and be content with your wages. As the people were in expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Christ,

And I assume that repentance and loving one's neighbour are good precursors to being baptised by Jesus with the Holy Spirit and fire:

> Luke 3:16 - John answered them all, saying, I baptize you with water, but he who is mightier than I is coming, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

Justification by faith is the correct teaching but the promise is for the gentiles AND the adherent of the law but they all must have faith, and pursuing the law as if by works is the problem, but pursuing the law by faith is ok.

I believe in-between is OK, so long as it is by faith.

> Romans 7:22 - For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, (ESV)

> Romans 3:29-30 - Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. (ESV)

It's possible for Gentiles to keep Jewish commandments if they want (I think it's honorable) - but we are justified by faith in Jesus, not by being under the law:

> Romans 2:25-29 - For circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the law, but if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law. For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God.

It's possible to keep commandments by faith:

> Romans 9:30-32 - What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness did not succeed in reaching that law. Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, (ESV)

> Romans 4:15-16 - For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression. That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring-not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, (ESV)

> Matthew 5:17-25 - Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to those of old, You shall not murder; and whoever murders will be liable to judgment. But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are going with him to court, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison. (ESV)

54.46 Theoretically belief usually comes before or at the time receiving the Holy Spirit

But for me I believe before I was born-again and before I was baptised in the Holy Spirit.

> Acts 19:1-7 - And it happened that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the inland country and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples. And he said to them, Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? And they said, No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit. And he said, Into what then were you baptized? They said, Into John's baptism. And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus. On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking in tongues and prophesying. There were about twelve men in all. (ESV)

55 Receive through the hearing of the word and faith

> Galatians 3:2 - Let me ask you only this: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by hearing with faith? (ESV)

Not just by hearing but by hearing with faith.

55.1 Faith requires obedience

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:14 - so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

55.2 The promised Spirit is received through faith

> Galatians 3:14 - so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:16-26 - And behold, a man came up to him, saying, Teacher, what good deed must I do to have eternal life? And he said to him, Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you would enter life, keep the commandments. He said to him, Which ones? And Jesus said, You shall not murder, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother, and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The young man said to him, All these I have kept. What do I still lack? Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, > sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. When the young man heard this he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. And Jesus said to his disciples, Truly, I say to you, only with difficulty will a rich person enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God. When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished, saying, Who then can be saved? But Jesus looked at them and said, With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.

I was born-again on 2 April 2022. On 1 April 2022 (one day before) I was wearing a pendant which on one side I had written 1023 which is decimal for the binary 1111111111 - which are ten ones. I was trying hard to follow the ten commandments from the heart, like Jesus teaches. I was doing this to seek Jesus. Then I was born-again. What a mystery.

Read cbs.mbts.edu: April 3, AD 33: Why We Believe We Can Know the Exact Date Jesus Died - The Center for Biblical Studies

I've also seen written people's estimations that it was on April 1, but at this time I am leaning towards April 3 as the date.

The day of the Lord (as in the second-coming of Jesus Christ, see Revelation of John 1:7) has not happened yet:

> II Thessalonians 2:1-4 - Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 1:7 - Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him, and all tribes of the earth will wail on account of him. Even so. Amen. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 24:27 - For as the lightning comes from the east and shines as far as the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 24:30 - Then will appear in heaven the sign of the Son of Man, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. (ESV)
>
> Daniel 7:13 - I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 24:36 - But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 24:42-44 - Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. (ESV)

Jesus is coming a second time to save those who are eagerly waiting for Him. AMEN!!:

> Hebrews 9:27-28 - And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. (ESV)

Hold faith in Jesus to become sons of light:

> John 12:36 - While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light. When Jesus had said these things, he departed and hid himself from them. (ESV)

> John 12:46-48 - I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)

As sons of light we continue walking in the light, following Jesus:

> Ephesians 5:8 - for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (ESV)

> I John 1:6-7 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

As children of light, holding our faith in Jesus, we anticipate the day of the Lord. Because we are walking in faith, love and holiness, even though the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night, it will not surprise us like a thief (we'll be ready). It would be like hearing some news and saying ”that doesn't surprise me”, even though you only just heard the news and only just found out. It doesn't surprise us because we're walking in the love of the truth. The Word of God says that we don't know the day or the hour (Matthew 24:42, Mark 13:30-37). That's the truth. So a person who claims they do isn't agreeing with the truth:

> I Thessalonians 5:2-10 - For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, There is peace and security, then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. (ESV)

Jesus describes what ”staying awake” is like. Staying awake certainly doesn't mean knowing the day or hour:

> Mark 13:30-37 - Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But concerning that day or that hour, no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Be on guard, keep awake. For you do not know when the time will come. It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his servants in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to stay awake. Therefore stay awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or when the cock crows, or in the morning— lest he come suddenly and find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all: Stay awake. (ESV)

We'll be ready, not repaying evil for evil, but we'll be endeavouring to do good to everyone:

> I Thessalonians 5:15 - See that no one repays anyone evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to everyone. (ESV)

As children of the light, the night far gone, we clothe ourselves with Jesus Christ and remain loving one-another, and walk in holiness, and we do not let darkness blind us:

> Romans 13:8-14 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. Besides this you know the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed. The night is far gone; the day is at hand. So then let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us walk properly as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in quarreling and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:14-16 - for anything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you. Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. (ESV)

> I John 2:8-11 - At the same time, it is a new commandment that I am writing to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. (ESV)

> Proverbs 4:19 - The way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know over what they stumble. (ESV)

But I consider that Jesus may have visited me personally to make me born-again and bring me into His service / or just into His will. But I also strongly believe this was for my own purification - God's grace to me:

> Mark 13:32-37 - But concerning that day or that hour, no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Be on guard, keep awake. For you do not know when the time will come. It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his servants in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to stay awake. Therefore stay awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or when the cock crows, or in the morning— lest he come suddenly and find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all: Stay awake. (ESV)

Jesus went to the place of the dead so people who had died (those who Paul is referring to here) may also be saved. Also, it seems that the rapture doctrine was made known from a word from the Lord:

> I Thessalonians 4:14-17 - For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. (ESV)

Although it happened around midday, I was lying down on my bed very peacefully with my cat and took a nap during the day. And when I was born-again in this way I asked Jesus to save me because I didn't know what was going on. So Like Paul the Apostle and the heavenly vision he received, the idea is to be taken into service by Jesus and continue in obedient faithfulness to Jesus. I also recognise we still wait for the eschatological "Day of the Lord" - the second coming of Jesus has not yet happened:

> Matthew 24:41-44 - Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and one left. Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:2-5 - For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, There is peace and security, then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. (ESV)

With regard to specifically the confession of our hope, we should not waver in our faith, and if we stumble then we need to be those who "get back up" and continue on in faith:

> Romans 4:20-22 - yet, with respect to the promise of God, he did not waver in unbelief (570. apistia) but grew strong in faith, giving glory to God, and being fully assured that what God had promised, He was able also to perform. Therefore it was also credited to him as righteousness. (NASB)

> Hebrews 10:19-23 - Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

```
apistia: unbelief
Original Word:     ,  ,
Part of Speech: Noun, Feminine
Transliteration: apistia
Phonetic Spelling: (ap-is-tee'-ah)
Definition: unbelief
Usage: unbelief, unfaithfulness, distrust.
```

Remain faithful to Jesus:

> Acts 26:19 - Therefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, (ESV)

> Matthew 24:12-13 - And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9-14 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. About this we have much to say, and it is hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing. For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the basic principles of the oracles of God. You need milk, not solid food, for everyone who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, since he is a child. But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their powers of discernment trained by constant practice to distinguish good from evil. (ESV)

Have your mind renewed:

> Romans 12:1-2 - I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:14 - But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their powers of discernment trained by constant practice to distinguish good from evil. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:20-21 - Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. (ESV)

> Isaiah 7:14-15 - Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. He shall eat curds and honey when he knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good. (ESV)

Since then I've been trying to follow Jesus' commandments to get to know Him out of love for God, and because He has commanded His disciples to be fruitful for Him, and to abide in Him.

I had my belief in Jesus Christ and I had taken small steps of faith in remaining loyal to Jesus.

> Ezekiel 11:19-20 - And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I will put within them. I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, that they may walk in my statutes and keep my rules and obey them. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. (ESV)

The following links obeying the commandments it to Jesus:

> I Kings 11:38 - And if you will listen to all that I command you, and will walk in my ways, and do what is right in my eyes by keeping my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did, I will be with you and will build you a sure house, as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you.

> II Timothy 2:8 - Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, the offspring of David, as preached in my gospel,

55.2.1 Everlasting covenant

> Genesis 17:19 - God said, No, but Sarah your wife shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his offspring after him. (ESV)

An indicator of the ones who are saved is that they have the fear of God in their hearts.

> Jeremiah 32:40 - I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me. (ESV)

> Psalms 85:9 - Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land. (ESV)

An indicator of the ones who are saved is that they have remorse for their past sin:

> Ezekiel 16:58-63 - You bear the penalty of your lewdness and your abominations, declares the LORD. For thus says the Lord GOD: I will deal with you as you have done, you who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant, yet I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish for you an everlasting covenant. Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you take your sisters, both your elder and your younger, and I give them to you as daughters, but not on account of the covenant with you. I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall know that I am the LORD, that you may remember and be confounded, and never open your mouth again because of your shame, when I atone for you for all that you have done, declares the Lord GOD. (ESV)

> Psalms 85:9 - Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land. (ESV)

In confessing sin as sin, the law is in our heart. If we confess sin as sin, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. And in confessing our sin to one another, we who are in Christ have our souls sanctified. So continuing on in Christ, we are still walking in the truth, in the light, in the love of the truth.

> Hebrews 8:10-13 - For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws into their minds, and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall not teach, each one his neighbor and each one his brother, saying, Know the Lord, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest. For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more. In speaking of a new covenant, he makes the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

> Hosea 2:19-20 - And I will betroth you to me forever. I will betroth you to me in righteousness and in justice, in steadfast love and in mercy. I will betroth you to me in faithfulness. And you shall know the LORD. (ESV)

God gives the Spirit to help keep the commandments. The gospel is in part about loving your neighbour, she is actually speaking part of the gospel in the way the man on the cross next to Jesus also spoke part of the full gospel message. They deserve the punishment but Jesus has done no wrong.

> Galatians 5:14-16 - For the whole law is fulfilled in one word (G3056 logō): You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. (ESV)

55.2.2 2 years before being born again of the Spirit - prayer - proving belief came before being born-again

`https://web.archive.org/web/20220402091720/https://mullikine.github.io/posts/prayer/`

Not that I have to prove it though!

55.2.3 Over easter

The old covenant is growing old and ready to vanish, but the New Covenant still involves the commandments but they are written on our heart. We follow them in faith.

55.2.4 Being born-again

Being born of the Spirit isn't receiving the glory body:

`https://web.archive.org/web/20220402091720/https://mullikine.github.io/posts/astral-projection/`

> Galatians 6:14-17 - But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). And as for all who walk by this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God. From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: Be Who You Are: Living Out Identity in Christ, Part 1

So while I have Jesus' spirit in me, I'm also still in this body of dust:

> I Corinthians 15:42-48 - So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. Thus it is written, The first man Adam became a living being; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. But it is not the spiritual that is first but the natural, and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. As was the man of dust, so also are those who are of the dust, and as is the man of heaven, so also are those who are of heaven.

The lowly, natural, corruptible body, which I am still in, will be transformed into an incorruptible body:

> Philippians 3:20-21 - But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself. (ESV)

As interesting as what happened to me is, regarding a light body, I believe more important is objectively walking in the light of the truth.

> John 1:9-11 - The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. (ESV)

> John 12:36 - While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light. When Jesus had said these things, he departed and hid himself from them.

55.2.5 Meeting with the Holy Spirit

Jesus saving me - This is evidence the Holy Spirit is Person:
`https://web.archive.org/web/20220402091720/https://mullikine.github.io/posts/astral-projection-pt-`

> I Timothy 6:20 - O Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you, avoiding worldly and empty chatter and the opposing arguments of what is falsely called “knowledge”–

> II Timothy 1:14 - Guard, through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us, the treasure which has been entrusted to you.

I believe that while John 3:33-34 speaks of Jesus Christ there is also truth to the way that if a person is ”from God” then that person will speak words that are from God, and I think it makes sense that it would not be very bottlenecked, even for servants of Jesus with Holy Spirit in them. But no messenger is greater than the one who sent him. And so we must have Jesus Christ as our Only [ultimate] Teacher, and if what someone is saying is contrary to what Jesus Christ says then we must go with what Jesus Christ says:

> John 3:33-34 - Whoever receives his testimony sets his seal to this, that God is true. For he whom God has sent utters the words of God, for he gives the Spirit without measure. (ESV)

> Matthew 12:34 - You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. (ESV)

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

> Titus 1:15 - To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. (ESV)

> I John 4:6 - We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. (ESV)

> John 15:20 - Remember the word that I said to you: A servant is not greater than his master. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours. (ESV)

> John 13:12-16 - When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

Something I realised fairly recently. I also before having that short conversation with Holy Spirit knew (as I was dreaming/asleep) that they were following me:
Jesus follows us and supports us:

> I Corinthians 10:4 - and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. (ESV)

55.2.6 I wrote about following the law by faith, also law written on my heart.

Quote "When Jesus said that he is the truth, he was saying that he is the embodiment and fulfillment of the Word of God, and that he is alétheia, reality, the opposite of what is false or illusion."

`https://web.archive.org/web/20220703044748/https://mullikine.github.io/posts/the-tapestry-of-trut`
In confessing sin as sin, the law is in our heart. If we confess sin as sin, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. And in confessing our sin to one another, we who are in Christ have our souls sanctified. So continuing on in Christ, we are still walking in the truth, in the light, in the love of the truth.

> Hebrews 8:10-13 - For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws into their minds, and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall not teach, each one his neighbor and each one his brother, saying, Know the Lord, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest. For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more. In speaking of a new covenant, he makes the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

> Romans 2:29 - But he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that which is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter; and his praise is not from men, but from God.

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

55.2.7 Baptised in the Holy Spirit

`https://web.archive.org/web/20220806085237/https://mullikine.github.io/posts/astral-projection-pt-3/`
Betrothed to God:

> Hosea 2:19-20 - And I will betroth you to me forever. I will betroth you to me in righteousness and in justice, in steadfast love and in mercy. I will betroth you to me in faithfulness. And you shall know the LORD. (ESV)

AMEN!!

> Hosea 2:21-23 - And in that day I will answer, declares the Lord, I will answer the heavens, and they shall answer the earth, and the earth shall answer the grain, the wine, and the oil, and they shall answer Jezreel, and I will sow her for myself in the land. And I will have mercy on No Mercy, and I will say to Not My People, You are my people; and he shall say, You are my God.

AMEN!!

> II Corinthians 11:2 - I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I betrothed you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. (ESV)

Some people believe that the baptism by fire is arriving at Christian perfection:

- en.wikipedia.org: Christian perfection - Wikipedia

Even though I felt spiritually restored when I was baptised in the Holy Spirit / baptised by fire, I believe I am baptised by fire in order to obey God more fully, and to love God with my whole heart, to love my neighbour as myself and to pursue perfection in following Jesus!

> Matthew 5:48 - You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

In Christ, we must ”be perfect” in the sense that Jesus means when He says ”You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.” In Christ, we must not hate one another. In Christ, we must agape love one another:

> Colossians 3:13-14 - Bear with one another and forgive any complaint you may have against someone else. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love (26. agapé), which is the bond of perfect unity. (engbsb2020eb)

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

In other words, I received the grace before I had perfect obedience (I’m not saying I have ’flawless’ obedience, and I’m not saying that I don’t mistakes), and I believe I should not exchange this grace for anything, but use it to obey Jesus Christ:

> Jude 1:4 - For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Jude 1:4 - For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. (KJV)

I believe that after I made testimony of being born-again and baptised by fire, I needed to be sanctified/corrected by the Truth, the Word of God, and as a consequence of endeavouring to do so by repenting and becoming obedient to Jesus, I was spiritually attacked and deplatformed.

55.3 Later in the year

> John 15:26 - “When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify about Me, (ESV)

The issue with this is that it did not explicitly say, ”Jesus Christ is the way, the truth and the life.” It only said, ”He is the way and the truth and the life.” So once again, it’s me, by faith confessing that Jesus Christ is the way, the truth and the life.

`https://web.archive.org/web/20220402091720/https://mullikine.github.io/posts/dream-the-way-the-tru`

55.4 Jesus is our Eternal High Priest

> Hebrews 7:26 - For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. (ESV)

> Hebrews 7:27 - He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself. (ESV)

Jesus is not only Eternal High Priest, but Son of God, and made perfect forever. AMEN!!:

> Hebrews 7:28 - For the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever. (ESV)

Jesus is our Great High High Priest:

> Hebrews 4:14-16 - Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. (ESV)

55.5 New covenant

Paul makes reference to the old covenant with the phrase ”tablets of stone.”

> II Corinthians 3:3-8 - And you show that you are a letter from Christ delivered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts. Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God, who has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. Now if the ministry of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such glory that the Israelites could not gaze at Moses’ face because of its glory, which was being brought to an end, will not the ministry of the Spirit have even more glory? (ESV)

> I Corinthians 11:25 - In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me. (ESV)

> Hebrews 8:8-10 - For he finds fault with them when he says: Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah, not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt. For they did not continue in my covenant, and so I showed no concern for them, declares the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws into their minds, and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. (ESV)

> Hebrews 8:11-13 - And they shall not teach, each one his neighbor and each one his brother, saying, Know the Lord, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest. For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more. In speaking of a new covenant, he makes the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:14-15 - how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant. (ESV)

We're back to the 10 commandments but to keep them in the way Jesus taught us to keep them, Serving one Master, one God, the One true God, Father God, through serving Jesus who He sent, not harbouring hate, covetousness in our hearts especially for our family in Christ, not being deceitful but speaking the truth to our neighbour, etc.

We are cleaned by the blood of Christ to serve the living God:

> Matthew 4:10 - Then Jesus said to him, Be gone, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:14 - how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. (ESV)

We serve God by serving Christ:

> Romans 16:17-20 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

Disbelief causes disobedience. Disbelief caused the Israelites to not walk in obedience:

> Hebrews 3:16-19 - For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:13 - though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, (ESV)

It was unbelief which led to these people's sin of idolatry and covetousness which prevented them from entering into God's rest:

> Hebrews 3:7-15 - Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness, where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years. Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, They always go astray in their heart; they have not known my ways. As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest. Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:16-19 - For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

> Hebrews 4:7-11 - again he appoints a certain day, Today, saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts. For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. (ESV)

It was idolatry that was the disobedience which prevented these from entering into God's rest:

> I Corinthians 10:1-14 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. (ESV)

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

Jesus says we should take His yoke and learn from Him and we will find rest for our souls. This is what we should do:

> Matthew 11:28-30 - Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (ESV)

> John 10:26-27 - but you do not believe because you are not part of my flock. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. (ESV)

Justin Martyr says, "Wherefore those who follow Him, and know Him, having faith in Him as their proof, shall rest in Him.":

Saint Justin Martyr: Fragments of the Lost Work of Justin on the Resurrection {Roberts-Donaldson}

> And God, the Father of the universe, who is the perfect intelligence, is the truth. And the Word, being His Son, came to us, having put on flesh, revealing both Himself and the Father, giving to us in Himself resurrection from the dead, and eternal life afterwards. And this is Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. He, therefore, is Himself both the faith and the proof of Himself and of all things. Wherefore those who follow Him, and know Him, having faith in Him as their proof, shall rest in Him. But since the > adversary does not cease to resist many, and uses many and divers arts to ensnare them, that he may seduce the faithful from their faith, and that he may prevent the faithless from believing, it seems to me necessary that we also, being armed with the invulnerable doctrines of the faith, do battle against him in behalf of the weak.

Having faith in Jesus, obeying Jesus, Jesus gives us His spirit so we can keep actually God's commandments. We keep Jesus' commandments, He gives us His Spirit, and this helps us to keep the requirement of the law. Holding our faith in Him, we endeavour to fulfill the law (commandment) of Christ, and this keeps the requirement of the law:

> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. (ESV)

1Clem 49:1 Let him that hath love in Christ fulfill the commandments of Christ.

> Romans 13:8 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (ESV)

> Romans 13:10 - Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

James says, we should do this in mercy:

> James 2:8-13 - If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself, you are doing well. But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. For he who said, Do not commit adultery, also said, Do not murder. If you do not commit adultery but do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged under the law of liberty. For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment. (ESV)

So we need to be partakers of the New Covenant in order to even be able to fulfill the requirement of the law, and please God.

> Romans 8:3-8 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

The object of our obedience to God as Christians is to Jesus Christ Himself (He's the fulfillment of the law!) - so this isn't lawlessness, it's just by faith obeying God to by faith obey Jesus.

> Hebrews 5:8-9 - Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

Through faith in Jesus, and obedience to Jesus we can have faith in Father God:

> I Peter 1:20-22 - He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

Jesus commanded us to have faith in God and to have faith in Him, so when we obey the law (commandment of Christ) we are having faith in Him and in God. We must trust in God:

> Mark 11:22 - And Jesus answered them, Have faith in God.

> John 14:1 - “Do not let your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me.

Pisteuo means to trust. Trust in God, trust also in God’s Son Jesus:

> Romans 4:5 - And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, (ESV)

The New Covenant is in Jesus’ blood. We have faith in His blood (His passion, this death). When we take communion / eucharist we also do it with faith in His blood:

> I Corinthians 11:25 - In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me. (ESV)

> Romans 3:25-31 - whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God’s righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

I consider myself to be in the New Covenant, not the old, but I still believe that Jesus has set us free from the set of ordinances (it’s no longer our Master) that we might meet the requirement of the law by faith, so that does mean keeping the commandments of God, or at least being able to, but it’s God-empowered keeping of the commandments - even the 10 commandments. If we’re truly trusting Jesus as we are seeking to obey Him by faith then the law can’t condemn us. The Lord is the Spirit and if we are led by Him the law can’t condemn us. e.g. I was trying to be faithful to Jesus and do no harm to my neighbour, bear my neighbour’s burdens or show them Christ’s love so the law can’t condemn me for my actions.

> Galatians 5:18 - But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 3:18 - And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:8-14 - Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, the sexually immoral, men who practice homosexuality, enslavers, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine, in accordance with the glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted. I thank him who has given me strength, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he judged me faithful, appointing me to his service, though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

If we're following Jesus then Jesus is our Master, not the Law, and acceptable by God:

> Matthew 12:5-6 - Or have you not read in the Law how on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless? I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. (ESV)

> Romans 14:18 - Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

I think what Hebrews says is that the old and new covenants exist alongside each other or overlap for a while but the old covenant is obsolete / deprecated.

> Hebrews 8:13 - In speaking of a new covenant, he makes the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away. (ESV) deprecated (a software term but seems surprisingly relevant) While deprecated software is no longer supported, it may continue to work. In some cases, however, deprecated software may stop working entirely if, for example, it is incompatible with an updated operating system.

"Obsolete" but not revoked!

> Galatians 3:15 - To give a human example, brothers: even with a man-made covenant, no one annuls it or adds to it once it has been ratified. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:17 - This is what I mean: the law, which came 430 years afterward, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to make the promise void. (ESV)

> Romans 11:25-29 - Lest you be wise in your own conceits, I want you to understand this mystery, brothers: a partial hardening has come upon Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. And in this way all Israel will be saved, as it is written, The Deliverer will come from Zion, he will banish ungodliness from Jacob; and this will be my covenant with them when I take away their sins. As regards the gospel, they are enemies of God for your sake. But as regards election, they are beloved for the sake of their forefathers. For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. (ESV)

Nevertheless, having heard about Jesus Christ, one must not remain in the old covenant. There's no permitted choice to remain in the old covenant given knowledge of the new covenant. If we are trusting in Jesus we are not condemned. I guess then our trust may falter in various ways even resulting in disobedience and Jesus may judge us and discipline us to correct us. So long as we are trusting in Jesus we are still found in Christ. So we don't want our faith in Jesus to fail:

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

> John 15:22-24 - If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV)

> I John 2:23 - No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. (ESV)

> Luke 22:20-21 - And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood. But behold, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. (ESV)

A person can be in one covenant or the other but not both at the same time:

> Galatians 5:2-4 - Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you. I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. (ESV)

The new covenant has already arrived:

> II Corinthians 3:14-17 - But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. But when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. (ESV)

Paul is not outside the law of God, but he is under the law of Christ (under the commandment of Christ, Christ's commandments which are inside the law/commandment of God):

> I Corinthians 9:20-21 - To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though not being myself under the law) that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

But a distinction is made between commandments delivered by Moses and commandments delivered by Christ:

> Galatians 3:24 - So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. (ESV)

> John 1:17 - For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Acts 7:37 - This is the Moses who said to the Israelites, God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 18:15-19 - The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brothers—it is to him you shall listen— just as you desired of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God or see this great fire any more, lest I die. And the LORD said to me, They are right in what they have spoken. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers. And I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I command him. And whoever will not listen to my words that he shall speak in my name, I myself will require it of him. (ESV)

So by faith we obey Jesus first and foremost. Sure, by faith we may be odedient to the 10 commandments (as Christians are instructed to follow them) and we should for the sake of holiness and putting a stop to sin to come to "see Jesus". But faith in Jesus comes first because He's our Master and Jesus' commandments depend on the the 2 Great Commandments. We must hold our trusting faith in God, in Jesus in love for God and for our neighbour.

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

> Psalms 56:13 - For you have delivered my soul from death, yes, my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of life. (ESV)

This shows the apostles are already ministers of the new covenant:

> II Corinthians 3:5-6 - Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God, who has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 11:24-32 - and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me. In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord. Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself. That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. But if we judged ourselves truly, we would not be judged. But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

So the law is written on the minds and hearts:

> Hebrews 10:12-23 - But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying, This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds, then he adds, I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more. Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin. Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

It's possible to follow the ordinances, to be zealous for the law while having faith in Jesus - a Jewish Christian would do this:

> Acts 21:23-25 - Do therefore what we tell you. We have four men who are under a vow; take these men and purify yourself along with them and pay their expenses, so that they may shave their heads. Thus all will know that there is nothing in what they have been told about you, but that you yourself also live in observance of the law. But as for the Gentiles who have believed, we have sent a letter with our judgment that they should abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what has been strangled, and from sexual immorality. (ESV)

But Jew and Gentile are united by faith in Jesus:

> Ephesians 2:11-18 - Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. (KJV)

Gentiles of the flesh (those without faith in Jesus) are separated from the commonwealth of Israel:

> Ephesians 2:11-13 - Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called the uncircumcision by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands— remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. (ESV)

Jews of the flesh, so long as they pursue the law by faith are not separated from the commonwealth of Israel:

> Romans 9:6-8 - But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel, and not all are children of Abraham because they are his offspring, but Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring. (ESV)

> Romans 9:30-33 - What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness did not succeed in reaching that law. Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, as it is written, Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame. (ESV)

But if they truly are Abraham's children, then they would do what Abraham did, and they certainly would not reject Jesus' words. And if God were truly their Father then they would love and receive Jesus Christ:

> John 8:39-42 - They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

So certainly there can be those who pursue the Law by faith who have faith in and are followers of Jesus Christ.

Within the flesh of Himself Jesus abolished (G2673 katargēsas) the law of commandments and ordinances so that in Himself He might create one new man

Ephesians 2:14 (Interlinear) He Himself for is the peace of us - having made - both one and the barrier of the fence having broken down the hostility

Ephesians 2:15 (Interlinear) in the flesh of Him (G846 autou) , the law - of commandments in ordinances having annulled (G2673 katargēsas) so that the two He might create in Himself (G848 hautō) into one new man making peace

By faith we obey Christ first and foremost to be justified and to arrive at the knowledge of Christ and of God - we obey Jesus to arrive at knowing God:

> II Corinthians 10:5 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, (ESV)

> John 8:19 - They said to him therefore, Where is your Father? Jesus answered, You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also. (ESV)

> I John 1:3 - that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:1-7 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you. I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

> Galatians 4:22-31 - For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman and one by a free woman. But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, while the son of the free woman was born through promise. Now this may be interpreted allegorically: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar. Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. For it is written, Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear; break forth and cry aloud, you who are not in labor! For the children of the desolate one will be more than those of the one who has a husband. Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

Circumcision of the flesh does not matter because salvation by faith is available for both the circumcised (justification by faith with works of faith like Abraham's), and the uncircumcised (justification by faith alone). But we continue to abide in Christ's teachings/doctrines and the facts about Him and as we learn more of His words commandments, are corrected/salted and sanctified by Him:

> Romans 4:9-12 - Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe (G4100 pisteuo) without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

If a Law-adhering person not only adheres to law but also walks in the footsteps of faith which Abraham had before he was circumcised, then that is a valid mode of justification. But we must continue to abide in Christ's teachings/doctrines and the facts about Him as we learn more of His words commandments, are corrected/salted and sanctified by Him. So a Jew when confronted with Jesus Christ needs to receive Jesus:

> Romans 4:11-13 - He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised. For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:6-8 - For it stands in Scripture: Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame. So the honor is for you who believe, > but for those who do not believe, The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, and A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense. They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. (ESV)

The truly circumcised are the ones who obey the precepts of the law from a heart of faith:

> Romans 2:25-29 - For circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the law, but if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law. For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 9:25-26 - Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will punish all those who are circumcised merely in the flesh— Egypt, Judah, Edom, the sons of Ammon, Moab, and all who dwell in the desert who cut the corners of their hair, for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:3 - For we are the real circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— (ESV)

> Ezekiel 36:25-28 - I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules. You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:15 - For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). (ESV)

Something has a velocity but the distance travelled is a different thing. Likewise, the Christian can have faith but the works done is a different thing. That faith working through love is what counts doesn't mean it's the works which merit justification:

> Galatians 5:6-7 - For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

The timeless command of the eternal God to bring about the obedience of faith:

> Romans 16:25-27 - Now to him who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith — to the only wise God be glory forevermore through Jesus Christ! Amen. (ESV)

We can have and should have a faith that loves the truth, loves Jesus, even if we haven't seen Him yet:

> I Peter 1:8-11 - Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace that was to be yours searched and inquired carefully, inquiring what person or time (G2540 kairós) the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent (G3326 meta, contingent) glories. (ESV)

”Kairós” is qualitative and ”xrónos” is quantitative:

G2540 kairós time as opportunity. 2540 /kairós (”opportune time”) is derived from kara (”head”) referring to things ”coming to a head” to take full-advantage of.

G5550 xrónos time (in general), especially viewed in sequence (a ”succession of moments”); time in duration in the physical-space world, sovereignly apportioned by God to each person.

In the ESV translation of I Peter 1:11, the word ’subsequent’ represents the Greek word ’meta’ (G3326 meta, contingent), but I think that an English translation would better translate ’meta’ as ”contingent” because that opens up to the reader the potential to be understood in a quantitatively chonological timelessness way as ’kairós’ is also chronologically quantitatively neither here nor there. So in the original text, I think the Greek word ’meta’ fits well alongside the word ’kairós’. It’s not ’xrónos’ which is in I Peter 1:11, but ’kairós’ and so it’s talking about the opportune moment in a qualitative way. The issue, I think, with using ’subsequent’ is that it introduces into the text subliminally an idea that God had to ”wait” for the ”xrónos” time in order to commend the righteousness that is by faith, but that’s evidently not true, and also in the very same verse, I Peter 1:11, it says there in the text that the Spirit of Christ was in them.

We must share the faith of Abraham to receive the grace:

> Romans 4:13-17 - For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. For if it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression. That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, as it is written, I have made you the father of many nations—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

The first covenant had fault, but the New Covenant has no fault:

> Hebrews 8:6-9 - But as it is, Christ has obtained a ministry that is as much more excellent than the old as the covenant he mediates is better, since it is enacted on better promises. For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion to look for a second. For he finds fault with them when he says: Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah, not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt. For they did not continue in my covenant, and so I showed no concern for them, declares the Lord. (ESV)

God writes His laws on our minds and on our hearts:

> Hebrews 8:10-13 - For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws into their minds, and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall not teach, each one his neighbor and each one his brother, saying, Know the Lord, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest. For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more. In speaking of a new covenant, he makes the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

Covenants require faithfulness between both parties, But Jesus is faithful even when we are unfaithful:

> II Timothy 2:13 - if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

We come to know God through Jesus by faith and we are able to move on from dead works and focus more on faith towards God, and serving God now.

> Hebrews 6:1 - Therefore leaving the elementary teaching about the Christ, let us press on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 9:14 - how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 9:11-15 - But when Christ appeared as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and more perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation) he entered once for all into the holy places, not by means of the blood of goats and calves but by means of his own blood, thus securing an eternal redemption. For if the sprinkling of defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a heifer sanctifies for the purification of the flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 9:18-20 - Therefore not even the first covenant was inaugurated without blood. For when every commandment of the law had been declared by Moses to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, saying, This is the blood of the covenant that God commanded for you. (ESV)
>
> Mark 14:22-25 - And as they were eating, he took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, Take; this is my body. And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. And he said to them, This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly, I say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God. (ESV)
>
> Luke 22:15-20 - And he said to them, I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. For I tell you I will not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves. For I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes. And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me. And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood. (ESV)
>
> John 6:46-51 - Not that anyone has seen the Father, except the One who is from God; He has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down out of heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread also which I will give for the life of the world is My flesh." (ESV)
>
> John 6:52 - Then the Jews began to argue with one another, saying, "How can this man give us His flesh to eat?"
>
> John 6:53-56 - So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves. He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. For My flesh is true food, and My blood is true drink. He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. (ESV)

> John 6:57-58 - As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who eats Me, he also will live because of Me. This is the bread which came down out of heaven; not as the fathers ate and died; he who eats this bread will live forever."
>
> John 6:59-60 - These things He said in the synagogue as He taught in Capernaum. Therefore many of His disciples, when they heard this said, "This is a difficult statement; who can listen to it?"
>
> John 6:61-62 - But Jesus, conscious that His disciples grumbled at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble? What then if you see the Son of Man ascending to where He was before?
>
> John 6:63-65 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing; the words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life. But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who it was that would betray Him. And He was saying, "For this reason I have said to you, that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted him from the Father."

55.6 Life is very different for me now after being born-again

As you can see in this discussion, I've been born-again and I'm living to serve Jesus now:

- `https://github.com/semiosis/pen.el/issues`

> Colossians 3:3 - For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (ESV)
>
> I John 5:11 - And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. (ESV)
>
> Luke 12:23 - For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 19:17 - And he said to him, Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you would enter life, keep the commandments. (ESV)
>
> II Corinthians 5:17 - Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.
>
> Galatians 6:14 - But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. (ESV)

It's important to thank God, even though life can be challenging after being born-again:

> I Thessalonians 5:18 - give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. (ESV)

55.6.1 The 'wilderness' - I guess this is common experience/season for born-again season Christians after being baptised / born-again of the Spirit

Well explained here:

- youtube.com: Wilderness How To Come Out / New Wineskin New Season #2024

> Matthew 3:15-17 - But Jesus answered him, Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness. Then he consented. And when Jesus was baptized, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; and behold, a voice from heaven said, This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. (ESV)

Jesus Himself used the Scriptures to combat lies from the enemy:

> Matthew 4:1-11 - Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. And after fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. And the tempter came and said to him, If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread. But he answered, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God. Then the devil took him to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple and said to him, If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, He will command his angels concerning you, and On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone. Jesus said to him, Again it is written, You shall not put the Lord your God to the test. Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. And he said to him, All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me. Then Jesus said to him, Be gone, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve. Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and were ministering to him. (ESV)

The lies certainly come not just through dreams, etc. but through other people. We are tested and must use the word of God to fight against lies:

> Ephesians 6:17 - and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, (ESV)

We have to learn the voice of God.
The Holy Spirit train us to learn the voice of God.

55.7 Born of Water and the Spirit

When a person is born-again of the Spirit, they receive the Spirit which helps them to forsake sin and it's really important to do so.

> 1 Peter 1:23 - since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; (ESV)

> 1 John 5:18 - We know that everyone who has been born of God does not keep on sinning, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 11:19-20 - And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I will put within them. I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, that they may walk in my statutes and keep my rules and obey them. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 32:40 - I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me. (ESV)

> I John 3:9 - No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God.

But I would much like my dream life to be like the following:

> John 5:19 - So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise.

Whoever loves in the way Jesus loved us and the way Jesus commanded us has been born of God and knows God.

> I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God.

Knowing God involves loving one another the way Jesus instructed us and we can get there by following Jesus' commandments:

> John 8:19 - They said to him therefore, Where is your Father? Jesus answered, You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:12 - No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)

Anyone who truly believes.

We must receive Jesus' words, walk in them and come to know in truth (we must truly know) that Jesus came from God.

> John 17:8 - For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me.

Therefore, we should obey Jesus and arrive at the truth. Obedience is a part of faith. Like Abraham obeying God, or like Israel crossing through the Red Sea, it's obedience which leads to sure belief. And the obedience doesn't end.

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus was saying to those Jews who had believed Him, "If you continue in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." (NASB)
>
> I John 5:1 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him.
>
> I John 5:4 - For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world-our faith.
>
> I John 5:18 - We know that everyone who has been born of God does not keep on sinning, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him.

I feel like stopping sin is very important after being born again.

> John 5:14 - Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you.

55.8 Justification by faith for the both adherents of the law and the gentiles

Justification by faith is the correct teaching but the promise is for the gentiles AND the adherent of the law but they all must have faith, and pursuing the law as if by works is the problem, but pursuing the law by faith is ok.

> Romans 7:22 - For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, (ESV)
>
> Romans 9:30-32 - What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness did not succeed in reaching that law. Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, (ESV)
>
> Romans 4:15-16 - For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression. That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring-not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, (ESV)

55.9 Paul used the law to judge back, but without hypocrisy

> Matthew 23:27 - Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but within are full of dead people's bones and all uncleanness.

> Acts 23:3 - Then Paul said to him, God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! Are you sitting to judge me according to the law, and yet contrary to the law you order me to be struck?

55.10 Justified by God through faith [and works done in faith?]

All of these, for example, I believe belong under the umbrella of faith, not works:

- Taking communion is not 'dead works'. It's obedience.
- Getting baptised is not 'dead works'. It's obedience.
- Obeying Jesus Christ's commandments are not 'dead works'. It's obedience.

God will be the judge of who has had faith in Jesus, and who has obeyed Him.

55.10.1 God is the one who justifies

> Romans 8:33 - Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.

> Romans 8:30 - And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. (ESV)

But repentance is a work of the heart which is an act of faith. I believe repentance is inseparable from faith because intrinsic to faith is belief and intrinsic to belief is metanoia (changing one's mind).

At it's most basic form repentance (metanoia) means a person changes their mind to believe and trust and have a heart of obedience - accepting of the will of God. To repent means `stop distrusting and start trusting` God.

We have believe Jesus and to trust Jesus. When Jesus says He is the Son of God, we must believe it because we trust Him. Likewise when He commands us to repent from sinning we should agree with Jesus and be obedient:

> John 16:8-9 - And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: concerning sin, because they do not believe in me; (ESV)

We need to heed Jesus' warning that we need to change our minds or perish. We have to stop believing falsehood and believe the truth, believe/trust Jesus and Jesus' words:

> Luke 13:3 - No, I tell you; but unless you repent (3340. metanoeó), you will all likewise perish. (ESV)

We keep eyes on Jesus and trust Him:

> Hebrews 12:2 - looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. (ESV)

> Isaiah 12:2 - Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the LORD GOD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation. (ESV)

Most importantly we must believe in Jesus as the Son of God and the Messiah who, being innocent, paid the price for their sin through His broken body and shed blood on the cross - a perfect and eternal offering; that He died there but God resurrected Him, and He is Lord of Heaven and Earth, and has a heart of obedience to the will of God, wanting to do the will of God, which involves their sanctification.

We must honour Jesus.

But I believe we are forgiven to forgive others. That must be part of the act of faith and the change of heart, I think.

> Matthew 6:15 - but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. (ESV)

55.10.2 We have been saved, we are being saved, and we will be saved

- simplybible.com: Saved in Three Tenses

We have been saved (when we believed):

> II Timothy 1:9 - who saved us and called us to a holy calling, not because of our works but because of his own purpose and grace, which he gave us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 6:11 - And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. (ESV)

We are being saved:

> I Corinthians 1:18 - For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. (ESV)
>
> II Corinthians 2:15 - For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, (ESV)
>
> Philippians 2:12-13 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

We shall be saved:

> Romans 5:9-10 - Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. (ESV)
>
> Romans 13:11 - Besides this you know the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed. (ESV)
>
> Ephesians 1:14 - who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)

Being born-again certainly involves being born-again to a living hope. It seems to me that I'm awaiting salvation currently. I've been born-again to a living hope, and I'm still awaiting a future salvation, and I'm waiting for Jesus. And during that time, I'm trying to purify my soul by obedience to the Truth:

> I Peter 1:3-5 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 9:27-28 - And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. (ESV)
>
> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)
>
> I Peter 1:22-25 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)
>
> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

55.10.3 Justified by faith alone. But faith is substantiated by works, Jesus' works which is entirely sufficient and Jesus working in us even by our obedience

We must ”walk in the light” (love in the truth, love in the light, love in actuality, from the heart). We can't love in truth while denying Christ, for example (John 3:14-19, I John 4:1-3). And we can't love in the truth while hating our family in Christ (I John 3:14-20). We love because God loved us first (I John 4:6-19). Loving in the truth also means that it is out of faith in the truth (Romans 14:23), out of sincere love for God (I Corinthians 16:22), endeavouring to do what God wants us to do, seeking to please God (Hebrews 11:6, Romans 8:3-10, Hebrews 11:6, Galatians 1:1-10), in the truth (accepting God loved us first, II John 1:1-3), unlike a whitewashed-wall Pharisee who doesn't do their works from a truly obedient heart (I Peter 2:6-9). Good deeds come out of sincerely obeying Jesus Christ out of faith in Him. Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us and He commanded us to love our family in Christ as a must. We must love our family in Christ. The deeds will come from a genuine love in the truth from the heart:

> I John 3:14-20 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love (agapōmen) the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

> Proverbs 12:12 - Whoever is wicked covets the spoil of evildoers, but the root of the righteous bears fruit. (ESV)

No joke, we must take care of our family in Christ who are in need. That is a must. Be the good Samaritan to our family in Christ when they need our help. If a person knows what good he ought to do and doesn't do it then for that person it is sin. If we are to love in truth then when we know what good we ought to do, we should then be doing it:

> James 2:14-17 - What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled, without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. (ESV)

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

I tend to agree with James on this. Eliminating works from faith is not good.
Works:

- obedience
- faithfulness
  - keeping God's commandments
- trust
- fear of God
- response of love
  - thankfulness
  - praise

  - forgiving others
- humility
  - keeping God's commandments
- patient endurance (time)

We're sure that we abide in Christ while we are keeping His commandments:

> I John 2:1-6 - My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

If a person is trusting/believing (verb) that Jesus Christ is the Son of the Living God then they abide in Christ:

> I John 4:16 - So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. (ESV)

If a person hates their brother they don't have eternal life:

> I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:15 - Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. (ESV)

If a person loves one another, they have been born of God:

> I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)

We need to have love for one another to be saved as we believe in Jesus to be saved.

How can a person believe without having a heart that trusts Jesus? How can a person have life without a relationship with God?

A relationship involves more than just 'belief', but I'm quite sure it also means being a conduit of Christ's love.

> II Timothy 2:19 - But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: The Lord knows those who are his, and, Let everyone who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity. (ESV)

If a person does not have obedience, trust and repentance from sin, but their faith has belief, then they only abide in Jesus extremely precariously, and also that person's 'faith' probably wont receive much at all from God.

> Psalms 119:105 - Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. (ESV)

Hebrews 11 describes faith. We must live by faith:

> Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

Our faith must be sound. We must believe and have assurance in the Truth:

> Titus 2:1-2 - But as for you, teach what accords with sound doctrine. Older men are to be sober-minded, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, and in steadfastness. (ESV)

Faith comes from hearing the word of Christ. Christ's words are Absolute Truth, therefore, as we believe them, it increases our faith:

> Romans 10:17 - So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ. (ESV)

With faith we believe what God's Word tells us:

> Hebrews 11:1-3 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible. (ESV)

We walk by faith, not by sight:

> II Corinthians 5:7 - for we walk by faith, not by sight. (ESV)

Faith in the Truth naturally produces evidence of the faith, as a person is believing the Truth, and operating in the Truth, people should be able to recognise it:

> James 2:18 - But someone will say, You have faith and I have works. Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. (ESV)

The object of our faith is Jesus, who is the Truth:

> Revelation of John 14:12 - Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus. (ESV)

The Truth is that we know we can ask God for things, then by faith we can ask from God and await to receive:

> James 1:6 - But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. (ESV)

Faith in Jesus is something we aim to keep our entire lives:

> Galatians 2:20 - I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. (ESV)

> II Timothy 4:7 - I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:16 - holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

The rhema word of God:

> Hebrews 5:12 - For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. (ESV)

What is the rhema word? | GotQuestions.org

> Hebrews 11:1-3 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible. (ESV)

We should put our faith in God:

> Mark 11:22 - And Jesus answered them, Have faith in God.

I put a bunch of concepts together to describe faith:

```
Faith-in-God = Hope-from/in-God * Work/Love/Walking-By-Faith

Hope-from/in-God = Belief(believing God) * Truth(God's word is Truth, Jesus is the Truth)

Work/Love/Walking-By-Faith = Obedience * Faithfulness * Fear-of-God * Response-of-love-to-Jesus *

Obedience = Submitting to the Righteousness of God * Turning from sin, loving, showing mercy, etc

Fear-of-God = e.g. The poor in spirit recognise their need of God's mercy and tremble at His Word Fear of God is not only about having the heart to repent from sin and "beat hand on endeavoring to please Christ with our actions.
              godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret

Response-of-love-to-Jesus = e.g. praise, thankfulness, obeying His commandments

Love is proportional-to the baggage which has been forgiven
Love  forgiven-baggage

Obedience  Love

F = H * L

Faith-in-God when tested by God is found to be true Faith in God.
Faith-in-God must submit to the Righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ,
Jesus Christ having paid the price of sin, enabling a relationship with God.
```

These things are factors of faith.

> Galatians 5:6 - For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. (ESV)

God is the judge.

When we do what Jesus says, it's as if Jesus is working through us. We are like a man building a house, but it is actually the Lord Jesus building it. A person must/should do what Jesus said:

> Luke 6:46-49 - Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

> Psalms 127:1 - Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain.

> Matthew 7:24-27 - Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it. (ESV)

> Proverbs 10:25 - When the tempest passes, the wicked is no more, but the righteous is established forever. (ESV)

```
:  4102  pistis  pis'-tis from 3982; persuasion, i.e. credence; moral conviction (of religious truth, or the truthfulness of God or a religious teacher), especially reliance upon Christ for salvation; abstractly, constancy in such profession; by extension, the system of religious (Gospel) truth itself:--assurance, belief, believe, faith, fidelity.

 see GREEK for 3982
```

> Galatians 2:15 - ”We are Jews (G2453 Ioudaios) by nature (G5449 phusis) and not sinners (G268 hamartolos) from among (G1537 ek) the Gentiles (G1484 ethnos); Justified through (G1223 dia) faith (G4102 pistis) in Christ.

> Galatians 2:16 - nevertheless (G1161 de) knowing (G3609 oikeios) that a man (G444 anthropos) is not justified (G1344 dikaioo) by the works (G2041 ergon) of the Law (G3551 nomos) but through (G1223 dia) faith (G4102 pistis) in Christ (G5547 Christos) Jesus (G2424 Iesous), even (G2532 kai) we have believed (G4100 pisteuo) in Christ (G5547 Christos) Jesus (G2424 Iesous), so (G2443 hina) that we may be justified (G1344 dikaioo) by faith (G4102 pistis) in Christ (G5547 Christos) and not by the works (G2041 ergon) of the Law (G3551 nomos); since (G3754 hoti) by the works (G2041 ergon) of the Law (G3551 nomos) no (G3756 ou) (G3956 pas) flesh (G4561 sarx) will be justified (G1344 dikaioo).

Justified through (G1223 dia) faith (G4102 pistis) in Christ (G5547 Christos) Jesus (G2424 Iesous). Pistis is a strong word for faith that doesn't merely encapsulate belief, but it includes trust.

The greeks can turn the noun faith into the verb believing faith (G4100 pisteuo). It's not the noun 'believe' as the root of the verb faith we have believed (G4100 pisteuo) in Christ means we have 'faithed' in Christ.

The 'believing faith' verb pisteuo has a root of faith (pistis).

Faith is a relationship with God. Before Abraham believed God, he obeyed God. Faith requires belief but it's more than belief.

> I Timothy 4:1: But the Spirit (G4151 pneuma) explicitly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith (G4102 pistis), paying attention to deceitful spirits (G4151 pneuma) and doctrines of demons (G1140 daimonion), (NASB)

Faith is ongoing. Ongoing faith is patience endurance. Jesus says patience endurance is a work.

> Revelation of John 2:19 - I know your works, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your latter works exceed the first.

55.10.4 Paul here mentions trust even for the one who trusts in Him who justifies the ungodly

> Romans 4:2 - For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God.

Paul doesn't deny that Abraham could have been justified by works, but he claims that Abraham doesn't have anything to boast about before God.

> Romans 4:5 - And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness,

So Paul says that for someone who does not have any works but trusts Him who justifies the ungodly, the person's trusting faith is counted as righteousness.

AMEN!! God is good for justifying people who are poor of spirit, and have fear of God.

55.11 Conditional Promises In The New Testament

The Sermon on the Mount from Matthew 5 may better be understood as describing the transformation that happens when we are born-again.

The resources to be transformed are not in ourselves. Jesus does the transformation.

We yield our life to Lord Jesus Christ, and our life doesn't lose control when we yield control over it to Jesus.

We should be able to see the transformation described in the sermon of the mount.

I consider the Kingdom of Heaven and the Kingdom of God to be synonymous. The word 'Kingdom' is used here without distinction between of God or of Heaven. It's the same thing, I think:

> James 2:5 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? (ESV)

> Luke 18:16 - But Jesus called them to him, saying, Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:14 - but Jesus said, Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

This is another example of a conditional promise:

> Ephesians 6:1-3 - Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. Honor your father and mother (this is the first commandment with a promise), that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land. (ESV)

If anyone loves Jesus, they will keep His word, and Father God will love them, and Father God and Jesus Christ, Son of God will come to them and make our home with them:

> John 14:22-23 - Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

55.11.1 The kingdom of heaven belongs to people who are poor in spirit

> Matthew 5:3 - Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

Condition: Those who are poor in spirit Promise: They will inherit the kingdom of Heaven

youtube.com: Why The Kingdom of Heaven Is Only For THESE People In Matthew 5:1-10 | Jason Cam

The Kingdom of Heaven belongs to those who spiritually are desperate for God to satisfy the longing of their soul. It's to have an impoverished spirit. It's to be humbly aware and recognize that that deficiency and to bring that to God.

55.11.2 The kingdom of God goes to those who are poor in the world

God has mercy on people who are poor by worldly standards to reveal to them the Kingdom of God, and God works amongst the materially poor:

> Luke 6:20 - And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said: Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. (ESV)

Condition: Those who are poor Promise: They will be rich in faith and inherit the kingdom of God

55.11.3 Those who love God will be heirs of the kingdom of God

> James 2:5 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? (ESV)

Condition: Those who love God Promise: They will be heirs of the kingdom of God

55.11.4 Those who mourn shall be comforted

> Matthew 5:4 - Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (ESV)

Condition: Those who mourn Promise: They will be comforted

55.11.5 Those who are meek shall inherit the earth

> Matthew 5:5 - Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. (ESV)

Condition: For the gentle, humble and/or meek Promise: They will be inherit the Earth

55.11.6 The kingdom of heaven goes to people who are persecuted for righteousness' sake

> Matthew 5:10 - Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

Condition: It's those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness Promise: The Kingdom of Heaven will be theirs.

55.11.7 Those who are persecuted for the sake of Jesus will receive a great reward

> Matthew 5:11-13 - Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you. You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet. (ESV)
>
> I Peter 2:19-22 - For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. (ESV)

The "salt of the earth" are the disciples of Jesus:

- distinct from worldliness - a distinct 'taste'
  - standing up for the Truth in word and deed. Gracious speech without saltiness might be without resisting/challenging/correcting/rebuking error, for example.

    - Colossians 4:6 - Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer each person. (ESV)

  - light in the darkness

- We are to be 'salted' in Him, so we are to be corrected and sanctified by Him
- Jesus preserves us
- the salt of the earth helps to preserve the earth?

> Ignatius to the Magnesians 10 - Let us not, therefore, be insensible to His kindness. For were He to reward us according to our works, we should cease to be. Therefore, having become His disciples, let us learn to live according to the principles of Christianity. For whosoever is called by any other name besides this, is not of God. Lay aside, therefore, the evil, the old, the sour leaven, and be ye changed into the new leaven, which is Jesus Christ. Be ye salted in Him, lest any one among you should be corrupted, since by your savour ye shall be convicted. It is absurd to profess Christ Jesus, and to Judaize. For Christianity did not embrace Judaism, but Judaism Christianity, that so every tongue which believeth might be gathered together to God.

People may take offense to disciples of Jesus as they did to Jesus, but we should still remain 'salty', which would predictably offend some people while it hasn't lost its taste, and it's desirable for Jesus' disciples to be set apart for God, and distinct the world.

> Matthew 11:6 - And blessed is the one who is not offended by me. (ESV)

> John 15:18 - If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you. (ESV)

We are all salted (cleaned, corrected in word and deed) with fire. The fire is purifying and I feel like there is tribulation and testing as a result of this purification. Don't resist the cleaning or there will be eternal tribulation of fire:

> Mark 9:47-50 - And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell, where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched. For everyone will be salted with fire. Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, how will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another. (ESV)

Does that mean that the baptism of fire that Jesus baptizes with helps to purify us? I think that is probably the case. We must not resist the Holy Spirit's work, and we should be salted by Jesus:

> Luke 3:16 - John answered them all, saying, I baptize you with water, but he who is mightier than I is coming, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. (ESV)

Condition: If people revile and persecute you for Jesus' sake and your faith in Him Promise: The Son of Man (Jesus) will reward you in Heaven and the reward will be great

Song youtube.com: I Asked The Lord by John Newton - Indelible Grace

Song youtube.com: I Asked the Lord that I Might Grow | Hymn by John Newton | 2 Corinthians 12 : 7-10

> II Corinthians 12:7-10 - So to keep me from being too elated by the surpassing greatness of the revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to harass me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that it should leave me. But he said to me, My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness. Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong. (ESV)

55.11.8 Those who are not offended by Jesus are blessed

Matthew 11:6 - And blessed is the one who is not offended by me. (ESV)

Condition: If you are not offended by Jesus Promise: You are blessed.

55.11.9 If you ask, it will be given to you. If you seek, you will find. If you knock, it will be opened to you

Matthew 7:7 - Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. (ESV)

Condition	Promise
If you ask	It will be given you
If you seek	You will find
If you knock	It will be opened to you

Jeremiah 29:13-14 - You will seek me and find me. When you seek me with all your heart, I will be found by you, declares the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, declares the LORD, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile. (ESV)

55.11.10 The end coming and the gospel of the kingdom being proclaimed

Matthew 24:14 - And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come. (ESV)

Condition: When the Gospel has been preached to all nations in the whole world. Promise: The end (eschaton) will come.

55.11.11

Matthew 24:45-47 - Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his master has set over his household, to give them their food at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. (ESV)

Condition: If that person is faithful and wise in charge of the "little things" Promise: God will make a person ruler over all that is His (His possessions).

55.11.12

Mark 9:41 - For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward. (ESV)

Condition: Giving a cup of water (being charitable) in Christ's name for the exact reason that we belong Promise: A person will not lose their reward.

55.11.13 If we are trusting in Jesus Christ, we will not perish

John 3:16 - For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. (ESV)

Condition: To whosoever will have faith in the true God by being faithful to His Son Promise: You will have eternal life

Stress: Trust in God.

55.11.14 When God is for us, no one can be against us

Romans 8:31 - What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? (ESV)

Condition: When God is for you. Promise: No one can be against you.

55.11.15

Philippians 3:20-21 - But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself. (ESV)

Philippians 4:1 - Therefore, my brothers, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm thus in the Lord, my beloved. (ESV)

Condition: If we stand firm in the Lord Promise: Jesus will transform our current perishing bodies in exchange for a body that does not perish like His glorious body (Resurrection body)

55.11.16

Philippians 4:13 - I can do all things through him who strengthens me. (ESV)

Condition: If Christ strengthens us Promise: We can do all things.

55.11.17

Colossians 3:1-4 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. (ESV)

Condition: If we too are risen or raised up in Christ, and seeking the things above Promise: When Christ appears at the second coming, we will appear with Him in glory.

55.11.18

1 Thessalonians 4:14-17 - For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. (ESV)

Condition: If we have faith that Jesus died and rose again. Promise: The dead in Christ will rise first, then we who are still alive will be called up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. We will then be with the Lord forever after that.

55.11.19

II Timothy 4:6-9 - For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing. Do your best to come to me soon.

Condition: Those who have loved His appearing and faithfully preach the Gospel and the Word of God i Promise: There is a crown of righteousness laid up for us by God which I will be awarded with on my day of glory.

55.11.20

Hebrews 12:28 - Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, (ESV)

Condition: If we serve Him with reverence and fear. Promise: We will serve God acceptably.

55.11.21

James 1:5-6 - If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. (ESV)

Condition: If you ask of God in faith. Promise: Wisdom will be given.

55.11.22

James 1:12 - Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him. (ESV)

Condition: If we endure trials by temptation and love the Lord. Promise: We will receive the crown of life

55.11.23

1 Peter 5:1-4 - So I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as a partaker in the glory that is going to be revealed: shepherd the flock of God that is among you, exercising oversight, not under compulsion, but willingly, as God would have you; not for shameful gain, but eagerly; not domineering over those in your charge, but being examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. (ESV)

Condition: If they feed the flock God has given them, by taking the oversight of the flock willingly and r Promise: Elders will receive a crown of glory that will not fade.

55.11.24

1 John 3:2 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. (ESV)

Condition: If we are children of God Promise: When Jesus appears we will be like Him

55.11.25

1 John 3:9 - No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. (ESV)

Condition: If/because we have been born of God Promise: A Christian cannot habitually sin without feeling horrible and wishing to repentant of it.

55.11.26

2 John 1:7-8 - For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess (G3670 homologeó) the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. (ESV)

Condition: If we acknowledge that Jesus has indeed come in the flesh (incarnate). Promise: We will receive our full reward from God.

55.11.27

Revelation 2:7 - He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers I will grant to eat of the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God. (ESV)

Condition: If we persevere over evil and endure for Christ's namesake and overcome (persecution and tr
Promise: We will be allowed to eat from the Tree of Life which is in the paradise of God

55.11.28

Revelation 2:10 - Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. (ESV)

Condition: If we are faithful to the point of death. Promise: Jesus Himself will give you a crown of life.

55.11.29

Revelation 2:11 - He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who conquers will not be hurt by the second death. (ESV)

Condition: If we overcome persecution and trials Promise: We will not be hurt by the second death which is damnation in the Lake of Fire

55.11.30

Revelation 2:17 - He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, with a new name written on the stone that no one knows except the one who receives it. (ESV)

Condition: If we overcome persecution and trials Promise: Jesus will allow us to eat of the hidden Manna and will give a us white stone with a new name written on it that only the one that receives it will know.

55.11.31

Revelation 2:23 - and I will strike her children dead. And all the churches will know that I am he who searches mind and heart, and I will give to each of you as your works deserve. (ESV)

Condition: According to their works. Promise: Jesus will give to every one.

55.11.32

Revelation 2:26-28 - The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron, as when earthen pots are broken in pieces, even as I myself have received authority from my Father. And I will give him the morning star. (ESV)

Condition: To those that overcome and keep Jesus' works until the bitter end Promise: Jesus will give power over the nations and will give the morning star

55.11.33

Revelation 3:21 - The one who conquers, I will grant him to sit with me on my throne, as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne. (ESV)

Condition: To those that overcome persecution and trials. Promise: Jesus will allow people to sit with Him on His throne

55.11.34

Revelation 20:4 - Then I saw thrones, and seated on them were those to whom the authority to judge was committed. Also I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and for the word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast or its image and had not received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. (ESV)

Condition: Those that did not worship the beast, nor his image, nor received his mark (666) Promise: Some will live and reign with Christ for 1000 years.

55.12 Body without spirit is dead. But I think the spirit without the body is still alive

James 2:26 - For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead.

Matthew 22:32 - I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? He is not God of the dead, but of the living.

Mark 12:27 - He is not God of the dead, but of the living. You are quite wrong.

Luke 20:38 - Now he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for all live to him.

Yet we await an imperishable body.

55.13 Forgiveness and ongoing sin

I Corinthians 9:25-27 - Every athlete exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. So I do not run aimlessly; I do not box as one beating the air. But I discipline my body and keep it under control, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified.

55.13.1 New covenant

Jeremiah 31:31-34 - Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah, not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, my covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, declares the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And no longer shall each one teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, Know the LORD, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. (ESV)

I'm confident that God gives a person a new life in Christ Jesus, where God has totally forgiven their past sin, but expects them to turn a new leaf and turn away from sin.

1 Peter 1:18-20 - knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, (ESV)

We must have faith in Jesus for the righteousness of God that comes by faith.

> Romans 10:4 - For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

Jesus is our High Priest:

> Romans 8:1 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

> Romans 8:3-4 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

Jesus condemned sin in the flesh. Now we walk according to the spirit so that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us - doing no harm to our neighbour:

> Romans 13:8 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (ESV)

It's still really important to put a stop to sin, and show no partiality as we love our neighbour as ourselves, doing no harm to our neighbour and bearing one another's burdens!

> James 2:1 - My brothers, show no partiality as you hold the faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

Grace given through faith alone is not license to sin, but the power of salvation to be corrected, healed and brought into obedience to God, and into loving God and your neighbour.

55.13.2 We must seek to stop sinning after receiving the 'big forgiveness' for past sin

> Matthew 12:33 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit.

Repentance leads to the knowledge of the truth, and ceasing to do the devil's will:

> II Timothy 2:24-26 - And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will. (ESV)

The blood of Jesus washes us as we walk in the light:

> I John 1:6-7 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

We must walk in the light of the truth, including agape (treasuring) loving your family in Christ. If we do not walk in the light then the blood of Jesus doesn't "continue" cleansing you.

> I John 2:11-12 - But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his name's sake. (ESV)

Former sins are cleansed. Then we continue walking in the truth, practicing love for future sins to be cleansed by the blood of Jesus. Yes, the blood of Jesus cleanses our sins, but for future application of the blood of Jesus, we need to be walking in the light.

We must cease to do the devil's will:

> Hebrews 10:26-31 - For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has spurned the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? For we know him who said, Vengeance is mine; I will repay. And again, The Lord will judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. (ESV)

We are cleansed from our former sins and we must forsake sin, stop obeying it, turn away from sin, and from the corruption in the world, and instead follow Jesus to be provided an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ:

> II Peter 1:1-11 - Simeon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who have obtained a faith of equal standing with ours by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ: May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Our debt was cancelled:

> Colossians 2:11-15 - In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him. (ESV)

We must stop willfully sinning after the big forgiveness and we do this as we instead turn to serve Jesus, and we continue to confess (G3670 homologeó) and repent from sin thereafter if we commit it:

> II Peter 2:20-22 - For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. What the true proverb says has happened to them: The dog returns to its own vomit, and the sow, after washing herself, returns to wallow in the mire.

55.13.3 We totally should seek to stop sinning, since we await a place without sinning

> II Peter 3:13-14 - But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace.

> Mark 10:19 - You know the commandments: Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother. (ESV)

> 1 John 3:4-9 - Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. (ESV)

If Israel had pursued the Mosaic law by faith they would have reached the righteousness of God.

> Romans 9:30-32 - What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness did not succeed in reaching that law. Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone,

This is prophetic - the attitude we are called to is the same today as it was back then:

> Deuteronomy 10:12-15 - And now, Israel, what does the Lord your God require of you, but to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and to keep the commandments and statutes of the Lord, which I am commanding you today for your good? Behold, to the Lord your God belong heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth with all that is in it. Yet the Lord set his heart in love on your fathers and chose their offspring after them, you above all peoples, as you are this day.

Circumcise your heart and do not be stubborn:

> Deuteronomy 10:16-17 - Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no longer stubborn. For the Lord your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who is not partial and takes no bribe.

55.13.4 The 'all time' means we can still approach Jesus for forgiveness for future sins

> Hebrews 10:12 - But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God,

> Hebrews 10:14 - For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.

> Hebrews 4:16 - Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Where Ryan says "future obedience doesn't fix past wrongdoings 31:10 " The bible says,

> I John 1:7-9 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:1-5 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. (ESV)
>
> I Peter 4:8 - Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. (ESV)
>
> I John 2:11-12 - But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his name's sake. (ESV)
>
> I Peter 4:17 - For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 5:9-10 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

Past sins are forgiven when we believe on Jesus' name, Christ, Son of God.

> Acts 10:43-45 - To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name. While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word. And the believers from among the circumcised who had come with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out even on the Gentiles. (ESV)
>
> II Peter 1:9 - For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. (ESV)
>
> I John 3:13-17 - Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)

Assuming you are following Jesus, then when we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sin, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins. I've heard people say we only need to confess (G3670 homologeó) our sin, but we also need to be following Jesus / walking in the light. Repentance is still totally about changing our ways from wickedness to obedience.

This is why you can't say that obedience to Jesus is "dead works". It's just not right. The future sinning is paid for but we must walk in the light, confessing our sin and having love for our family in Christ in order to be cleaned with Jesus' blood. Well, Jesus is our Lord, so we just serve Him sincerely and He will take care of the rest.

55.13.5 If we sin

> 1 John 1:9 - If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)
>
> 1 Peter 4:8 - Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. (ESV)

56 Personally judging sin

> John 7:7 - The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. (ESV)

> John 7:24 - Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment. (ESV)

56.1 We should always discern what is right on our own initiative

> Luke 12:57 - "And why do you not even on your own initiative judge what is right?"

56.2 We should be examining, judging, cleaning ourselves up, taking a look in the mirror first

Judge yourself first (by God's standards) before judging others.

Clean yourself up first before the Lord judges you (in this world) - the Lord judges a believer while this world to discipline them and clean them up before final judgement.

It's suppressing the truth by a person's wickedness which is the judgement. OK, so then people who do sinful stuff suppress the truth and it's this suppression of the truth which incurs the wrath of God.

> Romans 1:17-18 - For the gospel reveals the righteousness of God that comes by faith from start to finish, just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith." The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness. (engbsb2020eb)

I know this is talking specifically about taking communion, but I believe it applies also at the macroscopic level.

> I Corinthians 11:28-32 - But a man must examine himself, and in so doing he is to eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For he who eats and drinks, eats and drinks judgment to himself if he does not judge the body rightly. For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and a number sleep. But if we judged ourselves rightly, we would not be judged. But when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord so that we will not be condemned along with the world.

> I Corinthians 4:5 - Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God. (ESV)

God looks at the heart:

> II Corinthians 5:10-12 - For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart.

> Hebrews 4:12-13 - For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account. (ESV)

Make yourself ready imminently:

> Matthew 24:42-44 - Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. (ESV)

> Matthew 7:3 - Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, Let me take the speck out of your eye, when there is the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves (G1438 heautou) from all (G3956 pas) defilement of flesh (G4561 sarx) and spirit (G4151 pneuma), perfecting holiness in the fear of God (G2316 theos).

> Revelation of John 22:14 - Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life and that they may enter the city by the gates. (ESV)

I hold myself accountable to the standard which I subscribe to.

> I Corinthians 9:27 - But I discipline my body and keep it under control, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified.

I try to keep the 10 commandments by faith. I observe the Mosaic law, and try to keep parts of it by faith, particularly on the topic of sexual morality, body markings, etc.

56.3 It is necessary sometimes to judge others, but do it properly

We are fine to rebuke family in Christ who sin:

> Luke 17:3-4 - Pay attention to yourselves! If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him, and if he sins against you seven times in the day, and turns to you seven times, saying, I repent, you must forgive him. (ESV)

We are to hate sin. Jude says we can hate sin and the product of sin whilst showing mercy to them, and we show mercy with fear (the fear of God):

> Jude 1:20-23 - But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit; keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. And have mercy on those who doubt; save others by snatching them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment stained by the flesh. (ESV)

There are limits to judging fellow believers. There are things which are OK to judge others on (practicing wickedness), and there are things which are not OK to judge others on (matters of opinion over things which are not explicitly sinful):

> Romans 14:1-23 - As for the one who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not to quarrel over opinions. One person believes he may eat anything, while the weak person eats only vegetables. Let not the one who eats despise the one who abstains, and let not the one who abstains pass judgment on the one who eats, for God has welcomed him. Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand. One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. For none of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord.

> So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God; for it is written, As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then each of us will give an account of himself to God. Therefore let us not pass judgment on one another any longer, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother. I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean. For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died. So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil. For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding. Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats. It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble. The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

We should certainly avoid judging others. But we keep our own selves accountable to God, not try to keep others accountable to God. Judge for our own sake. We don't judge who we deem to be our brother/neighbour:

> James 4:11-12 - Do not speak evil against one another, brothers. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. There is only one lawgiver and judge, he who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor? (ESV)

But Jesus is the ultimate judge and judges His servants:

> II Chronicles 6:22-23 - If a man sins against his neighbor and is made to take an oath and comes and swears his oath before your altar in this house, then hear from heaven and act and judge your servants, repaying the guilty by bringing his conduct on his own head, and vindicating the righteous by rewarding him according to his righteousness. (ESV)

Right judgement takes into consideration the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness:

> Matthew 23:23 - Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others. (ESV)

> John 7:23-24 - If on the Sabbath a man receives circumcision, so that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me because on the Sabbath I made a man's whole body well? Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment. (ESV)

Judging others with the law also makes yourself accountable to the law in the way you measured it:

> Matthew 7:1 - Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you.

I don't hold others accountable to the same standard that I hold myself to.
For Gentile believers I'm with the Apostles on the following:

> Acts 15:28-29 - For it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay on you no greater burden than these requirements: that you abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what has been strangled, and from sexual immorality. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell.

But I also would add that one should not bear false-witness or worship idols.

56.3.1 Here we go

> I Corinthians 10:14-20 - Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. I speak as to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. Consider the people of Israel: are not those who eat the sacrifices participants in the altar? What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons.

56.4 I repent from being liberal and ever endorsing LGBT or idolatry

At first, to not judge that others wear clothes of the opposite sex seemed mostly harmless to me, but I feel like endorsing sinful, erroneous things, or annulling laws is not helpful in liberating people from sin.

56.4.1 Endorsing sinful things endorses people to become enslaved by sin / stuck in falsehood

Also, I feel as though endorsing it is in a way similar to endorsing that people commit adultery, in that it gets people stuck in sin, even without the awareness they are in sin, and makes it harder for people to find God.

I feel like getting a person unstuck from sin is a bit like freeing an animal in that they are often not aware that they need freeing.

youtube.com: Two men saving the life of a deer

56.4.2 Endorsing sinful behavior welcomes demons

Also, I believe that endorsing sinful behavior or annulling God's law allows people who do such things to come into one's life and situation - a bit like putting holes in a boat, or lowering the drawbridge to a castle.

Sin attracts demons:

> Matthew 12:44-45 - Then it says, I will return to my house from which I came. And when it comes, it finds the house empty, swept, and put in order. Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and dwell there, and the last state of that person is worse than the first. So also will it be with this evil generation. (ESV)

youtube.com: How To Expel The Enemy | Basics Of Deliverance Pt. 2 | Derek Prince @time: 15 min 33 sec
It's spiritual, so I think it may actually welcome demons into a person's life to endorse sinful things.

> Deuteronomy 7:26 - And you shall not bring an abominable thing into your house and become devoted to destruction like it. You shall utterly detest and abhor it, for it is devoted to destruction. (ESV)

56.4.3 Personal holiness

> I Corinthians 9:27 - But I discipline my body and keep it under control, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified.

Well, I repent of endorsing sinful things, which are explicitly mentioned in old testament law, such as transvestisim.

I no longer think that in order to be compassionate I must say "I do not judge." But if someone were to ask me if I think it is sinful, I would say, "I believe it is sinful."

I pursue personal holiness for myself, and I think deliberate lawbreaking is wrong, but I stress I am not under the Mosaic law.

I'm under the law of faith in Christ and I believe LGBT and transvestism are sinful.

> Deuteronomy 22:5 - A woman shall not wear a man's garment, nor shall a man put on a woman's cloak, for whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD your God. (ESV)

57 The law of liberty

> James 1:25 - But one who looks intently at the perfect law, the law of liberty, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an effectual doer, this man will be blessed in what he does.

> James 2:11-13 - For he who said, Do not commit adultery, also said, Do not murder. If you do not commit adultery but do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged under the law of liberty. For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

57.1 The Torah isn't contrary to the promises of God, including justification by faith

The law doesn't save:

> Galatians 3:21-24 - Is the law then contrary to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could give life, then righteousness would indeed be by the law. But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. (ESV)

The law doesn't save:

> Hebrews 7:19-20 - On the one hand, a former commandment is set aside because of its weakness and uselessness (for the law made nothing perfect); but on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God. (ESV)

> II John 1:4-6 - I was very glad to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received commandment to do from the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it.

57.2 Submitting to God is submitting to Christ

> Psalms 81:11 - But my people did not listen to my voice; Israel would not submit to me.

> James 4:7-10 - Submit (G5293 Hypotagēte) yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. Be wretched and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you. (ESV)

G5293 Hypotagēte hupotassó: To subject, to subordinate, to submit, to be under obedience. From hupo and tasso; to subordinate; reflexively, to obey – be under obedience (obedient), put under, subdue unto, (be, make) subject (to, unto), be (put) in subjection (to, under), submit self unto.

> Ephesians 5:23 - For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior.

> I Corinthians 11:3 - But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. (ESV)

Submit to God

- Listen to God

- Walk in His ways

  Psalms 81:11-13 - But my people did not listen to my voice; Israel would not submit to me. So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts, to follow their own counsels. Oh, that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways! (ESV)

Serve God:

> II Chronicles 30:8 - Do not now be stiff-necked as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD and come to his sanctuary, which he has consecrated forever, and serve the LORD your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you. (ESV)

57.3 The freedom Christ gives us involves obeying Christ

Sermon youtube.com: Christian Submission - John Piper

Obeying Jesus, even Jesus' commandments, is actually freedom. To disobey Jesus is to submit to slavery.

> Galatians 5:1 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. (ESV)

> Galatians 2:4-5 - Yet because of false brothers secretly brought in—who slipped in to spy out our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might bring us into slavery— to them we did not yield in submission even for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might be preserved for you. (ESV)

This really says it all. We die to the law of Moses but live to God. By the works of the law no one will be justified, but by faith in Jesus Christ we seek to be justified:

> Galatians 2:16-19 - yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified. But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor. For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:24 - Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit in everything to their husbands. (ESV)

Quote from John Piper Submission does not mean agreeing with everything your husband says. Now you can see that right here in verse one she is a Christian [and] he is not a Christian. That is about as significant a disagreement as you can have they don't come any more significant there isn't any bigger issue in the world than whether Jesus is Lord and they don't agree on it. Peter calls this wife to submission assuming she will not submit to her husband's ideas about the most important thing in the world, God. So there's lesson number one. Submission does not mean agreeing with everything your husband thinks. Number two, submission does not mean leaving your mind or your will at the wedding altar; It's not the inability to think for yourself as a woman or to will for yourself.

> Romans 8:21 - that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 3:17 - Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. (ESV)

> Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Trusting and obeying Jesus' words and commandments, a person has life:

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

Don't think that obeying Jesus is submitting to slavery.
We are bondservants of Christ and it is freedom.

> Romans 1:1 - Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God,

57.4 We are no longer 'under' the Mosaic Law but we have freedom as we are led by the Spirit

> Galatians 2:3-5 - But not even Titus, who was with me, though he was a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. But it was because of the false brethren secretly brought in, who had sneaked in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, in order to bring us into bondage. But we did not yield in subjection to them for even an hour, so that the truth of the gospel would remain with you.

If you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the Law. If you are disobedient to God then you are under the Law.

> Galatians 5:18 - But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the Law.

- youtube.com: Jesus, All For Jesus - Robin Mark - Revival From Belfast {@inchristalonejg}, Lyrics:: Jesus, all for Jesus, All I am and have and ever hope to be. Jesus, all for Jesus, All I am and have and ever hope to be.

  All of my ambitions, hopes and plans I surrender these into Your hands. All of my ambitions, hopes and plans I surrender these into Your hands.

  For it's only in Your will that I am free, For it's only in Your will that I am free, Jesus, all for Jesus, All I am and have and ever hope to be.

Being led by the spirit, trying to fulfill the law, a person would be trying to do no wrong to their neighbour. Fulfilling the law, a person would be doing no wrong to their neighbour:

> Romans 13:10 - Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:16 - Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God.

Galatians 5:1 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

Galatians 5:13 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.

II Peter 2:19 - They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved.

57.5 Submitting to God's righteousness involves obeying Jesus because Jesus is God's righteousness

Romans 10:3 - For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness.

58 Both God the Father and God the Son raise the dead

Both the Father and the Son give life to whom they will.

John 5:21 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. (ESV)

John 10:28 - I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand.

God gives life.

Deuteronomy 32:39 - See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god beside me; I kill and I make alive; I wound and I heal; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand. (ESV)

John 10:29 - My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

God the Father and God the Son are one:

John 10:30 - I and the Father are one.

God the Father raised this child from the dead:

I Kings 17:21-22 - Then he stretched himself upon the child three times and cried to the Lord, O Lord my God, let this child's life come into him again. And the Lord listened to the voice of Elijah. And the life of the child came into him again, and he revived.

God the Father raised this child from the dead too:

2 Kings 4:32-35 - When Elisha came into the house, he saw the child lying dead on his bed. So he went in and shut the door behind the two of them and prayed to the LORD. Then he went up and lay on the child, putting his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. And as he stretched himself upon him, the flesh of the child became warm. Then he got up again and walked once back and forth in the house, and went up and stretched himself upon him. The child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. (ESV)

God the Father raised Jesus from the dead:

Romans 8:11 - If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. (ESV)

God gave authority to Jesus to raise the dead:

> John 17:2 - since you have given him authority over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. (ESV)

Jesus raises people from the dead:

> John 11:25 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, (ESV)

> Luke 7:13-15 - And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, Do not weep. Then he came up and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, Young man, I say to you, arise. And the dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother.

People recognised Jesus as a great prophet like Elijah or Elisha

> Luke 7:16 - Fear seized them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet has arisen among us! and God has visited his people!

Jesus was doing the works of Father God:

> John 10:37-38 - If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father.

Who can question it?

> Acts 26:8 - Why is it thought incredible by any of you that God raises the dead? (ESV)

58.1 Leaving the tomb / spiritual prison (Sheol/Hades / the bad place in Sheol/Hades) which was a result of disobedience

> Romans 6:8-9 - Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.

Jesus as a life-giving spirit proclaimed to the spirits in prison (Sheol/Hades):

> John 5:25 - Truly, truly, I say to you, an hour is coming and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:6 - For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the spirit the way God does. (ESV)

Baptism is an appeal to God for a good conscience - It's an appeal to God but not strictly required to be saved. It is an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

We appeal to God for a good conscience with Him, asking God to partake in the resurrection of Jesus Christ, God circumcises our heart, and we are buried with Jesus in His death, our old man dies, and we walk in the newness of life - rise with Him in resurrection through faith in the powerful working of God:

> I Peter 3:21-22 - Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him. (ESV)

> Colossians 2:11-12 - In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. (ESV)

> Romans 6:4 - We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. (ESV)

I definitely believe that ”believer’s baptism” is the right way to perform baptism:

> Isaiah 7:14-16 - Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. He shall eat curds and honey when he knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good. For before the boy knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be deserted. (ESV)

> Luke 2:48-52 - And when his parents saw him, they were astonished. And his mother said to him, Son, why have you treated us so? Behold, your father and I have been searching for you in great distress. And he said to them, Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father’s house? And they did not understand the saying that he spoke to them. And he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was submissive to them. And his mother treasured up all these things in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and man. (ESV)

> Mark 10:37-40 - And they said to him, Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory. Jesus said to them, You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized? And they said to him, We are able. And Jesus said to them, The cup that I drink you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized, but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared. (ESV)

Baptism does save, but I believe it must be coupled with belief, and also trust, and I think that obedience comes from trust:

> I Peter 3:18-21 - For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, because they formerly did not obey, when God’s patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

> Acts 19:4 - And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus. (ESV)

Fear of God (wanting to please God doing His will), wanting a good conscience with God, and wanting to change from doing dead works to perform deeds which glorify Jesus obedient to His commandments - deeds in keeping with repentance - being zealous for good deeds, love issuing from a good conscience - and receiving Jesus’ Holy Spirit to empower this resurrection life - this is the mind set we should have going into baptism:

> I Peter 3:21 - Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, (ESV)

I believe a person must believe, and not just be baptised:

> Acts 19:1-6 - And it happened that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the inland country and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples. And he said to them, Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? And they said, No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit. And he said, Into what then were you baptized? They said, Into John’s baptism. And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus. On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking in tongues and prophesying. (ESV)

This sounds interesting:

> John 5:28-29 - Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment.

It's totally worth following Jesus, doing good and proclaiming the gospel after getting born-again - following Jesus, even faithfully stopping sin, is the correct response, for if being born-again is dying with Christ, and being given life by the life giving Spirit of Jesus, we are partaking in the death and resurrection of Jesus, where Jesus had actually suffered for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, so we too should continue living in a way that is turning away from sin.

> Galatians 6:7-8 - Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. (ESV)

> Romans 8:10 - But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. (ESV)

> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

Spiritually died with Christ:

> Colossians 2:20 - If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations—

> Colossians 3:3 - For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (ESV)

Spiritually raised with Christ:

> Colossians 3:1 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God.

OK, so spiritually resurrected and raised. Now we wait for the resurrection of the body.
Things make a bit more sense now:

> Matthew 19:16-26 - And behold, a man came up to him, saying, Teacher, what good deed must I do to have eternal life? And he said to him, Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you would enter life, keep the commandments. He said to him, Which ones? And Jesus said, You shall not murder, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother, and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The young man said to him, All these I have kept. What do I still lack? Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. When the young man heard this he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. And Jesus said to his disciples, Truly, I say to you, only with difficulty will a rich person enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God. When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished, saying, Who then can be saved? But Jesus looked at them and said, With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.

Jesus is the Saviour of the world.

> I John 4:14 - And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world.

John 1:17 - For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

John 12:46-48 - I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)

Isaiah 43:10-11 - You are my witnesses, declares the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen, that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he. Before me no god was formed, nor shall there be any after me. I, I am the Lord, and besides me there is no savior.

God saves through Jesus.

Jude 1:25 - to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.

Titus 1:1-3 - Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the sake of the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth, which accords with godliness, in hope of eternal life, which God, who never lies, promised before the ages began and at the proper time manifested in his word through the preaching with which I have been entrusted by the command of God our Savior;

John 5:43 - I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him.

John 10:25 - Jesus answered them, I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me,

Titus 3:4-7 - But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

I Peter 3:19 - in which also He went and made proclamation to the spirits now in prison,

Romans 8:10 - If Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, yet the spirit is alive because of righteousness.

That was a total gift. Thanks Jesus!
So in this life we can know that we will partake in the resurrection at the second coming.

59 The resurrection at the second coming

Hebrews 9:27-28 - And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

59.1 So don't be in Adam, but be in Christ, because all in Christ will be made alive, but all in Adam will perish

1. Christ the firstfruits, then
2. at his coming those who belong to Christ.

I Corinthians 15:20-26 - But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

59.2 What it looks like

Our heavenly inheritance is imperishable!

> 1 Peter 1:4 - to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, (ESV)

59.2.1 The fiery trial and the rapture being contemporaneous

So long as I'm in the fiery trial I am currently in, will expect rapture as though it were imminent. Come, Lord Jesus!

> Revelation of John 22:20 - He who testifies to these things says, Surely I am coming soon. Amen. Come, Lord Jesus! (ESV)

If the devil's been let loose to harass/afflict me ongoingly then I don't think it would be right to be forced to remain in the world:

> John 17:15 - I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 12:10-12 - And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death. Therefore, rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to you, O earth and sea, for the devil has come down to you in great wrath, because he knows that his time is short! (ESV)

> II Thessalonians 2:7-8 - For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. Only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth and bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming. (ESV)

John Piper's explanation of the rapture I affirm but I don't hold it with complete certainty because to be quite honest, I just haven't had the time to study yet in great depth as I've been trying to focus on abiding in Jesus' commandments. When it comes to eschatology, I think there are some concrete things we ought to be doing which are relevant even in the "season of the rapture" or in the "season of the second-coming" of Jesus or perhaps contemporaneously such as needing to remain faithful to Jesus and trying to keep His works, his commandments, etc. And there are things we don't know for certain but still endeavour to be ready for:

- youtube.com: What Is the Rapture?

> Matthew 24:36 - 'And concerning that day and the hour no one hath known–not even the messengers of the heavens–except my Father only; (YLT)

I'm a total believer in the rapture. In fact, I believe that a person can be raptured by faith. I really wouldn't mind being raptured today <2024-07-18 Thu>. The world lost its luster for me, and that is a good thing actually:

> Hebrews 11:5 - By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death, and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 3:10 - Because you have kept my word about patient endurance, I will keep you from the hour of trial that is coming on the whole world, to try those who dwell on the earth. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:12 - Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. (ESV)

Relief for believers and affliction for the disbelievers as one coming:

> II Thessalonians 1:6-8 - since indeed God considers it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you, and to grant relief to you who are afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. (ESV)
>
> II Thessalonians 2:1-3 - Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, (ESV)

Rapture:

> I Thessalonians 4:16-17 - For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 22:20 - He who testifies to these things says, Surely I am coming soon. Amen. Come, Lord Jesus! (ESV)

Amen! I’m waiting for that day. Also, I believe God can take me up any time if it’s His will!

> II Thessalonians 2:1-2 - Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. (ESV)
>
> Acts 2:17-21 - And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams; even on my male servants and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. And I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke; the sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the day of the Lord comes, the great and magnificent day. And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

This is still on its way:

> Isaiah 13:9-13 - Behold, the day of the LORD comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger, to make the land a desolation and to destroy its sinners from it. For the stars of the heavens and their constellations will not give their light; the sun will be dark at its rising, and the moon will not shed its light. I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; I will put an end to the pomp of the arrogant, and lay low the pompous pride of the ruthless. I will make people more rare than fine gold, and mankind than the gold of Ophir. Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place, at the wrath of the LORD of hosts in the day of his fierce anger. (ESV)

I believe Jesus will come for me, and rescue me from this evil world. This world is absolute filth and quite frankly I don’t want to be in a world full of asymptotic greed, transhumanism, perversion, adultery and sexual immorality.

youtube.com: The Best Moment in DOAC Podcast History {@ Daily$_{\textbf{DoseOfWisdom}}$ } @time: 1 min 18 sec

> I could say, ”There’s a red Ferrari and it’s straight outside, and it’s yours if you want to take it.” We could sit and discuss it for a thousand years. You would never know whether I was true or not unless you went and looked. If you are ever going to get to know a person, you have got to begin to give up your distance. One of the things to try to begin to grasp is ”God is not a proposition, or a philosophy or even a religion. God is a person.” As a person, He has entered our world. People come to me, as they’ve done, with their transhumanist agenda, and say, ”You know, we’re gonna solve the problem of death, and we’re going to increase human happiness.” And I look at them and I smile and say, ”You’re too late.” And they say, ”What? We haven’t got there yet.” I said, ”You’re too late :D” [They respond,] ”What do you mean we’re too late?” Well, I said, ”The problem of physical death was solved when God raised Christ from the dead 20 centuries ago. And as for human happiness and ’uploading us’ into ’eternity’, you know I’m waiting for the biggest uploading that’s ever going to happen in history when Christ returns and raises me from the dead, because that is precisely what He promises.” And I say, ”Isn’t it fascinating that your transhumanism consists in humans reaching out to become little gods, wheras Christianity is the exact opposite. It takes about a God who became human so that He could give us life and give us a new relationship with Him.”

youtube.com: The Best Moment in DOAC Podcast History {@ Daily$_{\textbf{DoseOfWisdom}}$ } @time: 3 min 29 sec What really completes the circle for me is that my relationship with God is a relationship which is based on the solution to the really hard problem, and that is the problem that I by nature have not always done good, and by my own standards I have failed. Now all this talk of transhumanism, AI and everything else [related], what it is trying to do is build paradise, utopia, without facing the problem of the damage that humans have caused to themselves and [to] one another. They will not face the sin problem.

John Lennox ”Christianity, to me, doesn’t compete with anything else. Because Christ offers me something nobody else offers me. Nobody else offers me peace, the peace of knowing that I have real forgiveness. The peace of knowing that I have a friend and a companion to whom I can talk all the time that’s been so meaningful in my life, as I spell out in detail in my autobiograpahy. And the peace of having been given a new life that will not end when I die.”

John Lennox ”As I look towards the future, I have in my heart a certainty, not because I’ve merited it. The exact opposite, because I couldn’t merit it, but because Christ has done something for me through the cross and the resurrection that enables me to have a relationship [with God] that is secure, that floods over the whole of life.”

Rapture me, Jesus, please!

> I Thessalonians 4:16-17 - For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 22:20 - He who testifies to these things says, Surely I am coming soon. Amen. Come, Lord Jesus! (ESV)

All of this has been fulfilled for me:

> Luke 21:12-17 - But before all this they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors for my name’s sake. This will be your opportunity to bear witness. Settle it therefore in your minds not to meditate beforehand how to answer, for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be delivered up even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and some of you they will put to death. You will be hated by all for my name’s sake. (ESV)

I need to stand strong and endure:

> Luke 21:18-19 - But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your lives. (ESV)

Here is where the world is currently at, I think:

> Luke 21:20-24 - But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near. Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are inside the city depart, and let not those who are out in the country enter it, for these are days of vengeance, to fulfill all that is written. Alas for women who are pregnant and for those who are nursing infants in those days! For there will be great distress upon the earth and wrath against this people. They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive among all nations, and Jerusalem will be trampled underfoot by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled. (ESV)

All things are possible for those who trust in God, trust in Jesus, trust God, trust the Only True God:

> Mark 9:23 - And Jesus said to him, If you can! All things are possible for one who believes. (ESV)

59.2.2 The resurrection of the just

> Luke 14:12-14 - He said also to the man who had invited him, When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and you be repaid. But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. You will be repaid at the resurrection of the just. (ESV)

59.2.3 The natural first, then the spiritual

We may die a natural death in this life but be raised at the second coming with an incorruptible body.

> I Corinthians 15:42-48 - So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. Thus it is written, The first man Adam became a living being; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. But it is not the spiritual that is first but the natural, and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. As was the man of dust, so also are those who are of the dust, and as is the man of heaven, so also are those who are of heaven.

Jesus can subject all things to Himself. By that power, Jesus will transform our lowly body to be like His glorious body:

> Philippians 3:20-21 - But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself. (ESV)

> 1 Corinthians 15:49 - Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the man of heaven. (ESV)

59.2.4 This - we are made like the man of heaven

> I Corinthians 15:49 - Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the man of heaven.

AMEN!!
And then it's possible to inherit the imperishable:

> I Corinthians 15:50 - I tell you this, brothers: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

We need to be keepers of Jesus Christ's commandments to put on immortality:

> Romans 2:5-11 - But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:51-54 - Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory. (ESV)

59.2.5 The mortal puts on immortality (at the resurrection)

> I Corinthians 15:53 - For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory.

Because truth is truth, it is imperishable. Our souls are purified as we obey the Truth - obey the Word of God - obey Jesus.

Our souls come out of darkness and into imperishable truth. The good news is the delivered account of everything Jesus said and did, and doesn't contradict. Jesus doesn't contradict Himself, so we can trust the word delivered through Jesus and the apostles. The most important parts have been recorded, and this is the good news, the gospel:

> I Peter 1:22-25 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

> Isaiah 25:8 - He will swallow up death forever; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken.

We still serve but not under the old written code:

> Romans 7:4-7 - Likewise, my brothers, you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. For while we were living in the flesh, our sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death. But now we are released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve not under the old written code but in the new life of the Spirit. What then shall we say? That the law is sin? By no means! Yet if it had not been for the law, I would not have known sin. I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, You shall not covet. (ESV)

The Law still talks to us about what sin is like, but we are not under the old code, but we are now bound to Jesus and we should obey Him and try to fulfill the requirement of the law to love, but without condemnation. We still seek to obey God and keep the precepts of the Law but not with condemnation. We are under the Law of Christ now, we are bound to Jesus now.

We should pursue obedience to the Law of God, and not be tricked by the devil into thinking the Law is sin, or into disobedience. Being under the grace of God, and not "under the Law" doesn't mean turning our ear from the Law etc. or deliberately pursuing disobedience/ungodliness. The Law is fine, but we are bound to Christ, not the Law. We should certainly do our best to stop the ungodliness.

Psalms 119:142 - Your righteousness is righteous forever, and your law is true (H571 emeth). (ESV)

youtube.com: Watch Him Change His Mind About THIS Widely Held View! {@OutsideTheCamp$_{\textbf{Heb131}}$

Yeah, nor I. You know, that's my desire though. Yeah [it is to be] as much like Christ as you can. Exactly, and so that's what I believe that the gospel encourages, right? That the grace of God has appeared to all men teaching them to deny ungodliness and that He would redeem us from every lawless deed, and it's a process, right? As soon as we believe the gospel, now we're in the process of sanctification where He starts to remove things that we're so used. Yeah, like, it's like almost 90% of you has to go. Like you spend all your life developing into this person and and you're told this, and you're told that, and you become you know kind of like the product of everything around you, your parents teaching and this and that. To go like inwards and do away with a lot of the things you were taught, it's it's like, how do I say... the sanctification process is doing away with a lot of that. Like, the old you dies (Exactly.), and you become a new creature. (Exactly.) Like all the things, the way that you were before, it's no more, that person's dead. Yeah, so you're supposed to reckon yourself dead to the old man who was just bathing himself in sin, right? Drinking in iniquity like water and now we're to pursue righteousness, which is what 1 Timothy 6 says, right?

I Timothy 6:11-16 - But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, to keep the commandment unstained and free from reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will display at the proper time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen. (ESV)

...but you oh man of God flee these things like idolatry and covetousness love of money and pursue or follow after righteousness. And you know what Psalm 119 says? It says, my tongue shall speak of your word for all your commandments are righteousness.

So, literally what Paul is instructing believers is to pursue obedience to the law. That's something that contradicts the usual narrative in the Church which says Jesus did away from the did away with the law. You see what I'm saying? And this is kind of what I'm getting at here is that I go around and talk to pastors all the time and they tell me things like this, they'll agree with certain aspects.

Romans 8:1-7 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. (ESV)

"ringing a bell ... like, there's no condemnation in Christ Jesus."

Like right, there isn't [any condemnation] right? Because if we are obeying him right then He's going to say, "Yes, this person really trusts in me. He has faith." He's showing his faith is not invalid but he's actually pursuing righteous behavior, which is what I John says, right?

I John 3:6-10 - No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has > been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

>
> Isaiah 8:20 - To the teaching and to the testimony! If they will not speak according to this word, it is because they have no dawn. (ESV)

See how we come to repent from sin and into obeying God's Law (importantly the higher precepts of the law) even while "all things are lawful" (not being 'under' the Mosaic Law). The Mosaic Law is not our Master. Jesus Christ is our Master, but that doesn't mean the Mosaic Law is bad. And in following Jesus Christ, we should seek to believe on Jesus, the Christ, the Only Son of God, and obey His commandments.

> I Corinthians 6:9-12 - Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. All things are lawful for me, but not all things are helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be enslaved by anything. (ESV)
>
> Romans 3:20 - For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. (ESV)
>
> Malachi 1:6 - A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. But you say, How have we despised your name? (ESV)

Reading the following from Derek Prince now, I feel like I have more to say around it as I don't fully agree with everything Derek Prince says here. I'll annotate it:

youtube.com: The Free Gift Of Righteousness - Derek Prince {@propheticrevelationonline5009} @time:

> Therefore, by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in God's sight.
>
> > <2025-11-02 Sun>
> >
> > Deeds/works and "doing" is different. We can be "doers" of the law of Christ, trusting and loving God, and loving one-another while resting from our works (i.e. deeds).
>
> No one is ever going to be reckoned righteous before God by observation of the law - it's an impossibility. Rule it out. It'll never happen. For by the law is the knowledge of sin. The law was not given to make men righteous. The law was given to show men that they were sinners.
>
> > <2025-11-02 Sun>
> >
> > This is true. It's not the hearers, but the doers who are righteous Romans 2:13-16.
>
> First of all, the knowledge of sin. Secondly, to prove to them that they could not save themselves.
>
> Thirdly, to point to the Savior who could save them. God never expected anybody to be made righteous by the keeping of the law but human nature is such that we will never accept the righteousness of God until we fail to establish our own righteousness.

> <2025-11-02 Sun>
>
> When talking about human nature here, I think that's just speculation. While what he says might be correct, I don't see where that's rooted in Scripture.
>
> Actually, I think that what in reality was going on is that the people who trusted God and Moses in reality would have trusted Jesus. So if a person had authentic faith and love for God while observing the Mosaic Law then they would also naturally receive Jesus Christ when presented with Jesus, Jesus' teachings and Jesus' deeds.
>
> John 5:42-47 - But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you: Moses, on whom you have set your hope. If you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words? (ESV)
>
> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

No one will ever get saved by God who has not first come to the end of his own efforts to save himself.

> <2025-11-02 Sun>
>
> I think we need to receive the Kingdom like children of God;
>
> Luke 18:16-22 - But Jesus called them to him, saying, Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it. And a ruler asked him, Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother. And he said, All these I have kept from my youth. When Jesus heard this, he said to him, One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.
>
> Walk (behave) like children of God, like God is our Father:
>
> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

So God has to let everybody in one way or another, go through the law, come to the end of the law, see that the law is not the way to righteousness, and then turn to God for his grace.

> <2025-11-02 Sun>
>
> Well actually, Jesus is the end (telos) of the Law. I think that Derek Prince might be interpretting the word for "end" incorrectly here. If someone came to the telos of the Law they would have arrived at Jesus.

It always is. So it was so with God's people Israel as a whole and it's true of every person who ever comes into God's grace they only come to Salvation when they come to the conclusion that they cannot save themselves and the problem with religious people is it often takes them years and years and years to discover that they cannot save themselves. They cannot make themselves righteous, and indeed many religious people alas never make that discovery.

> <2025-11-02 Sun>
>
> I think in reality, by trusting in God's conditional promises, we can be saved through God's strength. So we don't "save ourselves by ourselves". But I do believe that genuine effort does entail repentance.
>
> Ezekiel 18:31-32 - Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live. (ESV)
>
> But the issue really is that when we rest from our works, we don't rest from love and faith. So resting from our works doesn't mean we become disobedient. So even when resting from our works, we retain our obedience to God:
>
> Hebrews 4:9-10 - So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. (ESV)
>
> So in resting from our works, we remain ready and prepared to do good works opportunistically (as they are given to us, as keeping a good conscience with God would require them to be done).
>
> Galatians 6:10 - So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

We'll go on reading verse 21: But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the Prophets. It's not contrary to the Law and the prophets. The Law and the Prophets in various different ways testify to the fact that God would make righteousness available without the demands of the Law. Verse 22: even the righteousness of God, notice that? That's a key phrase, the righteousness of God. This is what we are talking about this morning. Not our own righteousness but the righteousness of God. Many people quote Matthew 6:33 for provision but they don't realize what's said in the beginning of it. Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and what, His righteousness. And when you have His righteousness all these things shall be added unto thee. But many, many churchy people are seeking their own righteousness and asking God to add his blessing to that. He will not do it. Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness. All right? Verse 22: even the righteousness which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe. For there is no difference. There's no difference between the Lutheran, the Baptist, the Muslim, the Jew, it doesn't matter between any race. There is no difference. There's only one way of righteousness, and that way is by faith of Jesus Christ. It's offered to all who will do one thing: believe. For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. You know, I'm ashamed of the many years when all I could preach on was Romans 3:23, and many, many good fundamentalists have never got beyond. Amazing enough, Jesus did not go through the world telling people they were sinners. Have you ever realized that? Second Corinthians 5 says God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself, not imputing unto them their trespasses. Jesus didn't go around telling people they were sinners. You know why? Because when they met Jesus they didn't need to be told. And the Scripture says further on in 2 Corinthians 5, God has committed unto us the same ministry of reconciliation. We are not called to go wrong making people feel guilty, it's not our job. All right, we're going back to Romans 3:23,24. For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God being justified freely.

In other words, we need faith in Jesus and we should continue to maintain our faith in Jesus and a good conscience and to endeavour to fulfill the requirement of the Law.

I John 3:21-23 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

I Timothy 1:18-20 - This charge I entrust to you, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies previously made about you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith, among whom are

> Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme. (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:4 - in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

If a person professing to be a Christian is not bearing the burdens of Christians who have their breastplate of righteousness on (holding a love of the truth in their hearts, striving for obedience to Christ), then they would not be fulfilling the law of Christ.

> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

I do not think that we are called to bear the burdens of people who hate God, while neglecting bearing the burdens of our own family in Christ. In fact, I think that doing so might incur God's wrath against the unfaithful/disobedient so-called Christian:

> II Chronicles 19:2 - But Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, wrath has gone out against you from the LORD. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 2:2 - I know your works, your toil and your patient endurance, and how you cannot bear (G941 bastazó , to bear, carry, endure, support) with those who are evil, but have tested those who call themselves apostles and are not, and found them to be false. (ESV)

All of us have a duty to keep God's commandments for us, (notably Christ's commandments). The strong [of faith, of obedience, at keeping God's commandments] are obligated to bear with the failings of those who are weak [of faith, of obedience, at keeping God's commandments]. So we should be supporting one another to live in a way that is pleasing to God:

> Romans 15:1-4 - We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. For Christ did not please himself, but as it is written, The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me. For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. (ESV)
>
> Colossians 3:13-14 - Bear with one another and forgive any complaint you may have against someone else. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love (26. agapé), which is the bond of perfect unity. (engbsb2020eb)

If we're really keeping Jesus' commandments (as in trusting and loving God, God's word and loving our family in Christ) then we should have confidence that we abide in Jesus. Of course we don't commend ourselves for this, but we should be doing as Jesus instructed (i.e. having faith in Him with love for one another):

> I John 2:3 - And by this we know that we have come to know Him, if the commandments of Him we keep. (Interlinear)
>
> I John 2:4 - The [one] saying, "I have known Him" and the commandments of Him not keeping, a liar he is, and in him the truth not is. (Interlinear)
>
> I John 2:5 - Whoever, however, keeps His word truly (in reality), in him the love of God has been perfected. By this we know that in Him we are. (Interlinear)

The one claiming to be in Christ has a duty to walk as Jesus did. But if we truly agape love Jesus then God will help us to do so:

> I John 2:6 The [one] claiming in Him to abide has a duty to just as that walk also He in the same way walked (Interlinear)
>
> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

59.2.6 Victory over sin and death through Jesus

> Isaiah 42:4 - He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law. (ESV)

> Romans 15:12-13 - And again Isaiah says, , The root of Jesse will come, even he who arises to rule the Gentiles; in him will the Gentiles hope. May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope. (ESV)

Jesus is our Lord and Master, not sin. Being under grace means we have been forgiven and now present ourselves as slaves of Righteousness, obeying Jesus, and that means loving Him keeping His commandments, trusting Him, receiving Him, hoping in Him, loving one another as He demonstrated, imitating Him, following Him:

> Romans 6:9-14 - Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. (KJV)

We should be obedient slaves of Righteousness (slaves of Jesus). If you're not enslaved to Christ you're enslaved to something else - either yourself or to sin or to the world or to satan. I realise that word 'enslaved' carries connotations of slavery but it's slavery to Jesus, and freedom from slavery to sin, slavery from walking in disobedience to God, to instead serve God through Jesus. No servant is greater than their master, but at least the servant of Jesus has Jesus has their master.

If we continue on serving, trusting, obeying sin, we will die. But of we continue serving, trusting, obeying Jesus we will be sanctified and have eternal life: Faith is commanded so is inseparable from obedience. It's the real gospel, the one that calls people to obedience by word and deed, obedience to Jesus. Obedience which leads to righteousness. Faith is commanded of us:

> Romans 6:15-23 - What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> John 15:4 - Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 17:7-8 - Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit. (ESV)

> Mark 4:20 - But those that were sown on the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold. (ESV)

Often believers have times when we stumble and speak and act in the flesh, as we are being sancified, but we confess (G3670 homologeó) sin and repent:

> Romans 8:1-7 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. (ESV)

> Romans 7:14-25 - For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am of the flesh, sold under sin. I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV)

> I John 1:6-10 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

Example with Simon. Jesus prayed that Simon's faith would not fail, despite knowing Simon would act in the flesh and deny Him, but Jesus asked Simon to strengthen His brothers when he 'turned' (came to his senses, began walking in the spirit/light/truth) again:

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

We should take a page from Nebuchadnezzar, and obey Jesus to strengthen our brothers after we repent:

> Daniel 4:34-37 - At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and praised and honored him who lives forever, for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom endures from generation to generation; all the inhabitants of the earth are accounted as nothing, and he does according to his will among the host of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand or say to him, What have you done? At the same time my reason returned to me, and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendor returned to me. My counselors and my lords sought me, and I was established in my kingdom, and still more greatness was added to me. Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, for all his works are right and his ways are just; and those who walk in pride he is able to humble. (ESV)

Sinning believers will still experience tribulation. Believers who are unrepentant from sin are probably not true trusters of Jesus or are rebellious even in face of hearing the gospel and maybe even experience the literal place Hades (the bad part). I could be wrong, but I don't want to test God. It's a bad idea to put Christ to the test. Jesus is the Judge.

Peter's confession is absolutely True and is an imperishable truth! We want to be in the truth, so we believe the truth.

> Matthew 16:15-19 - He said to them, But who do you say that I am? Simon Peter replied, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell (G86 hadés) shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. (ESV) youtube.com: Christ Appeared for Our Sake @time: 11 min 21 sec I think the resurrection of Jesus does two things: One, it vindicates the value of the ransom. When God looked down on the bloodshedding of his Son, which he himself ordained and caused, and He looked at it and Jesus said, "It is finished.", the Father said, "It is finished." Then He raised him from the dead to say to all the world, "It was finished. It is all satisfying and all valuable and all sufficient. No more needs to be paid. Once for all, it is done."

I think that's what the resurrection is like - a big exclamation point at the end of Christ's blood is enough. Boof! Exclamation point. Up out of the grave! And the second thing it does is say, "Death is defeated." Death is defeated.

So that, this afternoon, when sin comes to you, and this is the way he comes, and he says, "You know, life is short, my pleasures are large, and then you die. Maximize. Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow you die." To which, you, now after this morning's message, will say, " And the day after that, I will live again, forever, and therefore you're a liar! You're a liar! You're telling me that this life is all I've got, and I should follow you because you can maximize it for me? Well, I'll tell you what I'm going to rise from the dead with Jesus and then I live 10 million million Ages of Ages, and if I were to choose your way now and go to hell rather than Jesus' way and go to heaven I would be an absolute fool. Out of here, sin! That's the way you argue with sin. It's the only way you can defeat sin. Righteousness is not automatic, folks. It is won by warfare with Truth from the Bible.

Because truth is truth, it is imperishable. Our souls are purified as we obey the Truth - obey the Word of God - obey Jesus. Our souls come out of darkness and into imperishable truth. The good news is the delivered account of everything Jesus said and did, and doesn't contradict. Jesus doesn't contradict Himself, so we can trust the word delivered through Jesus and the apostles. The most important parts have been recorded, and this is the good news, the gospel:

> I Peter 1:22-25 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

The church is the pillar and support of the truth:

> I Timothy 3:14-15 - I am writing these things to you, hoping to come to you soon, but in case I am delayed, I write so that you will know how one ought to conduct himself in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and support of the truth. (LSB)

youtube.com: Hope and the Fruit of Love @time: 5 min 10 sec The Word is not perishable. What's the point? It lasts and lasts, well what's the point of that? Hope! If the word of God by which you were born again dies, you die. Jesus said, "We live by every word that comes out of the mouth of God."

> If those words someday die, if they cease to be true, if they cease to have power, we're dead. If they live forever, if those words go on, and they're imperishable, we carried by them, standing on them are imperishing.

> II John 1:1-2 - The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all who know the truth, because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever:

> Titus 1:1-3 - Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the sake of the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth, which accords with godliness, in hope of eternal life, which God, who never lies, promised before the ages began and at the proper time manifested in his word through the preaching with which I have been entrusted by the command of God our Savior;

We will be raised imperishable, just as the truth is imperishable:

> I Corinthians 15:51-58 - Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (ESV)

I will just say this here, I think that Father God was always pleased with Jesus Christ, His Son, and the chastisement He received is better viewed as God allowing Him to "take a beating", rather than God's wrath against Him personally (i.e. as if He hated Jesus). Father God did not ever hate Jesus.

> Isaiah 53:5 - But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed. (ESV)

> Proverbs 16:6 - By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

But Father God allowed Jesus who is sinless to receive the chastisement that would have gone to those who are saved in Him. Jesus suffered and died a brutal death so that those who are found in Him abiding in His commandments don't have to experience that. So Jesus gives us life, eternal life in Him.

Jesus bore our sins to enable us to die to sin:

> I Peter 2:24-25 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

> Isaiah 53:10-12 - Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him; he has put him to grief; when his soul makes an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring; he shall prolong his days; the will of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. Out of the anguish of his soul he shall see and be satisfied; by his knowledge shall the righteous one, my servant, make many to be accounted righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore I will divide him a portion with the many, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong, because he poured out his soul to death and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and makes intercession for the transgressors. (ESV)

Jesus suffered for sins so that He can bring us to God:

> I Peter 3:18 - For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, (ESV)

We are cleaned but need to continue on walking in the light:

> II Peter 1:5-11 - For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

Being justified by Jesus' blood, we will be saved (delivered from) the wrath that is to come, provided that we continue holding faith in Jesus:

> Romans 5:6-10 - For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. (ESV)

> Romans 11:21-23 - For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. (ESV)

Jesus was "carrying" / "bearing" our sin, and God hates sin but loves Jesus. Father God allowed Jesus to receive chastisement for those in Christ but God's wrath is coming for the unrepentant:

> I Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

So if a person is in Christ then they are abiding in Jesus' commandments and they have Jesus' righteousness and Jesus Christ has taken away the sting of death.

> I Corinthians 15:55-56 - O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. (ESV)

I don't think it's right to say that Jesus has taken all of God's wrath ever, because there is still wrath coming for those who remain unrepentant. Hell is certainly the destination for those who hate Father God and for those who hate the Lord Jesus Christ, and also because God still uses governing authorities to carry out His wrath on the evildoer, it's not as if God can't serve wrath. God certainly can still serve wrath:

> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from the wrath to come. (ESV)

God allowed wicked people to crucify Jesus but Jesus was innocent and Jesus in laying down His life was obedient to Father God and the entire time Father God absolutely loved Jesus. Father God never stopped loving Jesus Christ the Son of God but allowed Jesus to take His wrath (the wrath of God) so that all those who are in Christ (abiding in Jesus Christ's commandments) are righteous in God.

In other words, the chastisement due for sin that would have resulted in a person receiving death is what Jesus has taken for the person who is found in Him. If we are found in Christ then we will not receive the wrath that is to come for the evildoer that sends a person to hell. A Christian is still disciplined by God and chastised as they are cleaned up.

Those who are in Christ won't go to hell. Christians still suffer, though, in this life and if Christians suffer for Jesus' sake then they will be glorified in Him. But we must be authentically abiding in Jesus' commandments. It's not possible to cheat God. It's not merely suffering "similarly to" how Jesus suffered, but it's suffering similarly while abiding in Jesus' commandments that enables us to be glorified in Him, as it glorifies Jesus and glorifies God. And God is the one we need commendation from for this. So just be humble and keep God's commandments for us from a sincere heart seeking to please God.

All the while enduring the cross, Jesus maintained love and faithfulness for His friends and perfect obedience to Father God.

> John 8:29 - And he who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him. (ESV)
>
> John 10:17 - For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. (ESV)
>
> John 15:9-10 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

If anyone is in Christ, they are a new creation and they are a part of the new creation:

> II Corinthians 5:17-21 - Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

59.2.7 No lust/corruption in heaven. The divine nature does not have lust/corruption

> II Peter 1:3-4 - seeing that His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence. For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world by lust. (NASB)
>
> I Thessalonians 4:5 - not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God;

I feel like people often get this backwards, although I do believe that by Jesus' stripes we are healed, even from things such as addictions (Jesus set me free from vaping, for example), I think that, as Tim Keller puts it, "Not all addiction is sin but all sin is addiction.

Quote by Tim Keller Sin is a power and the things you crave become your slave masters, because in your heart those things burn with this idea, "if only". Everything would be fine if only that. And that creates a suction in your life, like a fire. That says, "I've got to have more approval, I've got to have more this, I've got to have a better spouse, I've got to have this. That's the reason I'm unhappy." But the more you throw in there the more it wants. Sin enslaves. We're all addicts. Not all addiction is sin but all sin is addiction.

Sinful addictions, the lusts of the world, the pride of life, etc:

II Peter 2:19-21 - They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.

Trust Jesus:

youtube.com: TRUST JESUS, NO MATTER WHAT YOU ARE FACING. {@MarkHemans} @time: 13 Why did you buy the house in the first place? You know, is it worth having a stroke or a heart attack over a house? Sometimes our life, we're we're pushing pushing pushing for things that it's just the lust of the flesh. You want to keep up with the neighbors. You got to have this nice car, this nice house, this all this stuff. You don't need it. Hallelujah.

Philippians 4:6 - do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. (ESV)

We must be holy:

John 8:34 - Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is the slave of sin.

Ephesians 1:4 - even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love

I Peter 1:15-16 - but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy.

Revelation of John 22:11 - Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do right, and the holy still be holy.

Ephesians 5:27 - so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.

These angels were corrupted:

Genesis 6:2 - that the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves, whomever they chose.

59.2.8 Incorruptible inheritance

God is incorruptible:

Romans 1:23 - and exchanged the glory of the incorruptible God for an image in the form of corruptible man and of birds and four-footed animals and crawling creatures.

We will receive an incorruptible body as Jesus' resurrection body does not corrupt:

Acts 13:36-37 - For David, after he had served the purpose of God in his own generation, fell asleep and was laid with his fathers and saw corruption, but he whom God raised up did not see corruption.

Incorruptible love is something we can have in this life:

Ephesians 6:24 - Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ with incorruptible love.

I Corinthians 13:8 - Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away.

An imperishable reward:

I Corinthians 9:25 - Everyone who competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. They then do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable.

I Peter 1:4 - to obtain an inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for you,

The Holy Spirit dwelling within us guarantees our imperishable inheritance:

II Timothy 1:14 - By the Holy Spirit who dwells within us, guard the good deposit entrusted to you.

I Peter 1:23 - for you have been born again not of seed which is perishable but imperishable, that is, through the living and enduring word of God.

In believing in Jesus, we are guaranteed an inheritance in heaven:

Ephesians 1:13,14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)

The inheritance is in heaven:

I Peter 1:4 - to obtain an inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, (ESV)

We work for the Lord while believing in Jesus:

Colossians 3:23-25 - Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality. (ESV)

Even our bodies will be raised imperishable:

I Corinthians 15:52 - in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.

60 We're not called to agree with sinners but to show them the light

60.1 Jesus' company with sinners was to bring them to repentance through mercy, and from darkness to light

Mark 2:17 - And when Jesus heard it, he said to them, Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners. (ESV)

> Luke 5:31-32 - And Jesus answered them, Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. (ESV)

We must want (agape love, treasure the light) to be healed / sanctified, want to have purified consciences (Hebrews 9:13-15) to serve God and walk in holiness:

> John 5:6 - When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, Do you want to be healed? (ESV)

> Luke 15:2 - And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, This man receives sinners and eats with them. (ESV)

> Matthew 9:10-13 - And as Jesus reclined at table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and were reclining with Jesus and his disciples. And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners? But when he heard it, he said, Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice. For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners. (ESV)

What is mercy? Mercy is from a position of strength/righteousness, saving life/forgiving instead of letting it die/condemning. Mercy is helping the penitent person live for Jesus in the way He wants us to (as Jesus said, "Go and sin no more.") even though they failed the first time. It could be forgiving debt of someone who believes in Jesus and wants to live the way God wants them to live, for example. Jesus wants us to "prove to be a neighbour" through mercy, as we've received mercy from Him:

> Luke 10:36-37 - Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

> Luke 6:9 - And Jesus said to them, I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it? (ESV)

> Psalms 24:3-4 - Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. (ESV)

Jesus, coming from a position of perfect Righteousness and Holiness, showed mercy here and here. Mercy is not endorsing sin, but forgiving it allowing others another chance to change to do good:

> Luke 7:47 - Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little.

> John 8:3-11 - The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery, and placing her in the midst they said to him, Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of adultery. Now in the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say? This they said to test him, that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. And as they continued to ask him, he stood up and said to them, Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her. And once more he bent down and wrote on the ground. But when they heard it, they went away one by one, beginning with the older ones, and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him. Jesus stood up and said to her, Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you? She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more.]] (ESV)

So mercy is certainly not endoring sin such as sexual immorality but mercy is saving life. The wages of sin is death. Mercy is saving life not endorsing death. Mercy is allowing the condemned to be free from condemnation tho that they can change they ways. Mercy is also having compassion on someone who has been attacked by evil and helping them, doing good to them. Mercy is on the side of good and not evil.

60.2 We must disagree with evil, and show people the light of the Gospel

Proverbs 4:14-15 - Do not enter the path of the wicked, and do not walk in the way of the evil. Avoid it; do not go on it; turn away from it and pass on. (ESV)

Psalms 1:1-4 - Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. (ESV)

I Peter 4:3-4 - The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; (ESV)

Ephesians 5:11 - Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. (ESV)

60.2.1 Friendship with the world is emnity to God

Article Why is Friendship with the World Enmity with God? {James 4:4} - InspiredWalk.com

James 4:4 - You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. (ESV)

Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

I Corinthians 5:10 - not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. (ESV)

II Corinthians 4:4 - In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. (ESV)

John 14:9 - Jesus said to him, Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, Show us the Father? (ESV)

John 15:18 - If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you. (ESV)

John 15:19 - If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. (ESV)

60.2.2 We must desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus and that goes against the pattern of the world

II Timothy 3:12 - Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, (ESV)

61 Commandments of God

61.1 Commandments of Father God in the New Testament:

Romans 16:26 - but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith — (ESV)

Listen to Jesus and believe Jesus is God's Son:

> Mark 9:7 - And a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came out of the cloud, This is my beloved Son; listen to him. (ESV)
>
> Luke 9:35 - And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my Son, my Chosen One; listen to him! (ESV)
>
> Acts 3:22 - Moses said, The Lord God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. You shall listen to him in whatever he tells you. (ESV)
>
> Deuteronomy 18:15-19 - The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brothers—it is to him you shall listen— just as you desired of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God or see this great fire any more, lest I die. And the LORD said to me, They are right in what they have spoken. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers. And I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I command him. And whoever will not listen to my words that he shall speak in my name, I myself will require it of him. (ESV)

Walk in the truth, love one another and do not deny that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh:

> II John 1:4-9 - I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess (G3670 homologeó) the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)

61.2 Commandments of Jesus (which are from God)

The words Jesus Christ spoke were altogether a commandment of eternal life which Father God had given Jesus to speak:

> John 12:49-50 - For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)
>
> John 6:40-47 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. So the Jews grumbled about him, because he said, I am the bread that came down from heaven. They said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, I have come down from heaven? Jesus answered them, Do not grumble among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. (ESV)

Have faith in God:

> Mark 11:22 - And Jesus answered them, Have (G2192 echo) faith (G4102 pistis) in God (G2316 theos).

Have faith in God and have faith in Jesus:

> John 14:1 - “Do not let your heart be troubled; believe (G4100 pisteuo) in God, believe (G4100 pisteuo) also in Me.

Pisteuo means to trust. Trust in God, trust also in God’s Son Jesus:

> Romans 4:5 - And to the one who does not work but trusts (G4100 pisteuo) him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, (ESV)

Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near:

> Matthew 3:2 - Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. (ESV)

Go and sin no more:

> John 5:14 - Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you. (ESV)

Follow the 10 commandments from the heart in truth as far as to not idolize or covet your material possessions, leave behind your old life and follow Him (Jesus):

> Luke 18:18-22 - And a ruler asked him, Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother. And he said, All these I have kept from my youth. When Jesus heard this, he said to him, One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

Have faith in God to help you achieve this:

> Luke 18:26-27 - Those who heard it said, Then who can be saved? But he said, What is impossible with men is possible with God. (ESV)

Come and follow Jesus and allow Him to make you into a fisher of men:

> Matthew 4:19 - And he said to them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. (ESV)

Follow Jesus and follow His commandments with God’s help to enter the Kingdom, and that sanctification involves exercising Christ’s love (Matthew 25:34):

> Luke 18:22-30 - When Jesus heard this, he said to him, One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was extremely rich. Jesus, looking at him with sadness, said, How difficult it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God. Those who heard it said, Then who can be saved? But he said, What is impossible with men is possible with God. And Peter said, See, we have left our homes and followed you. And he said to them, Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the age to come eternal life. (ESV)

Be born-again of the Spirit (God does this to a person):

> John 3:3-8 - Jesus answered him, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus said to him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb and be born? Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again. The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. (ESV)

> II Peter 1:3-11 - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Forgive others. This must be done for our sake, that our sins may be forgiven:

> Matthew 6:14-15 - For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. (ESV)

```
1437 1063 863         3588    444         3588    3900
Ean  gar  aphēte      tois    anthrōpois  ta      paraptōmata

If   for  you forgive  -      men         the     trespasses
Conj Conj V-ASA-2P    Art-DMP N-DMP       Art-ANP N-ANP

846       863          2532 4771     3588    3962   4771
autōn     aphēsei      kai  hymin    ho      Patēr  hymōn
     ,                              Π of them   will forgive also you      the     Father of you
PPro-GM3P V-FIA-3S     Conj PPro-D2P Art-NMS N-NMS  PPro-G2P

3588    3770 [e]
ho      ouranios
              .
 -      Heavenly
Art-NMS Adj-NMS
```

See how that after receiving the Holy Spirit it's very important that we forgive others for their sake too:
John 20:22-23 - And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven; if you withhold forgiveness from anyone, it is withheld. (ESV)
Now consider Peter's verse verse in light of Jesus' commandments to love one another and forgive:
I Peter 4:8 - Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. (ESV)
Love your enemies (love those who hate you):

> Matthew 5:44-48 - But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

> Proverbs 24:17-18 - Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles, lest the LORD see it and be displeased, and turn away his anger from him. (ESV)

> Proverbs 25:21-22 - If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink, for you will heap burning coals on his head, and the LORD will reward you. (ESV)

Preach the gospel to everyone:

> Mark 16:15-16 - And he said to them, Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)

Treasure life in Christ, and Christ's Kingdom which is not of this world, lose your life in this world to find it real life in Christ:

> Luke 9:23-24 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. (ESV)

Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness (His commendation):

> Matthew 6:33 - But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. (ESV)

> Psalms 22:30-31 - Posterity shall serve him; it shall be told of the Lord to the coming generation; they shall come and proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn, that he has done it. (ESV)

Repent (change your mind) or perish:

> Luke 13:3 - No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish. (ESV)

Fear God:

> Matthew 10:28 - And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. (ESV)

Rejoice when you're persecuted in Jesus' name:

> Matthew 5:11-13 - Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you. You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet. (ESV)

Let your light shine before all people:

> Matthew 5:16 - In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 8:1-2 - We want you to know, brothers, about the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia, for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. (ESV)

Be reconciled to one another:

> Matthew 5:23-24 - So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. (ESV)

Not only does this point to the fact that we need a new heart. But if you are using your members for doing evil, then instead of doing evil with them, do good with them, effectively "cutting off the sinful flesh" from the heart (i.e. nipping it at the bud happens with a change of heart):

> Matthew 5:29-30 - If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body be thrown into hell (1067. geenna). And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell. (ESV)
>
> Romans 6:19-20 - I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. (ESV)
>
> Ephesians 4:28 - Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. (ESV)
>
> Colossians 2:11-14 - In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. (ESV)

Follow the commandments from the heart, and in truth, accountable to God:

> Matthew 5:32 - But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery. And whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. (ESV)

Turn the other cheek:

> Matthew 5:39 - But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. (ESV)
>
> James 5:6 - You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous person. He does not resist you. (ESV)

Go above and beyond. Forgive:

> Matthew 5:40-42 - And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. (ESV)

Love your enemies as well as your friends. Be like Your Heavenly Father. Be perfect. Love (25. agapaó) your enemies means "treasuring your enemies" and looks like not repaying evil for evil. It sometimes looks like refusing to do evil and instead doing good to those who do you harm, taking the initiative in overcoming evil with good:

> Matthew 5:43-48 - You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

> Proverbs 25:21-22 - If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink, for you will heap burning coals on his head, and the LORD will reward you. (ESV)

Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect - love also the ones who hate you:

> Matthew 5:38-48 - You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate (3404. miseó, 3404 miséō – properly, to detest (on a comparative basis); hence, denounce; to love someone or something less than someone (something) else, i.e. to renounce one choice in favor of another.) your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

Keep in mind that what Jesus means by ”perfect” is possible, because Jesus said the following, and this is how:

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

> Hebrews 7:11 - Now if perfection had been attainable through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, rather than one named after the order of Aaron? (ESV)

In Christ, we must ”be perfect” in the sense that Jesus means when He says ”You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.” In Christ, we must not hate one another. In Christ, we must agape love one another:

> Colossians 3:13-14 - Bear with one another and forgive any complaint you may have against someone else. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love (26. agapé), which is the bond of perfect unity. (engbsb2020eb)

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

Peace and rest goes to those who hear Jesus Christ, the Word of God, and do it (i.e. do as Jesus says):

> John 14:27 - Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. (ESV)

If the man actually trusted and obeyed Jesus (i.e. done likewise, as Jesus stated), then he would've been justified because of his faith in Jesus. But God is the justifier, the one who looks at the heart. But it's the faith apart from the works which justifies us. So the "doing" of "by faith obeying" Christ in reality from the heart is to do with justification. I do believe in "faith alone" for justification, that is, like Abraham, prefering God to anything else, trusting in God rather than in sin, loving God rather than evil, fearing God rather than fearing what is not God, obeying God rather than obeying sin but I see a distinction between what is in the heart and the "works" that are produced. Born-again people who are still carrying the sinful flesh do not carry out perfect deeds as God does, but like in Romans 7, it says Paul still serves God with his mind and loves God's law, etc. so a born-again person desires to please God but because of the sinful flesh they make mistakes. There is still no condemnation for them. Even presently having faith in Jesus Christ is "doing" and is "obedient" to the commandment to have faith in Jesus. But we don't rely on carrying out perfect deeds in order to be justified because it's the faith apart from the works (that accompany the faith) that counts. Only God carries out perfect deeds.

The people who walked past the man dying on the street were resting in the way that the devil wants us to rest - i.e. to rest in sin. But Jesus has commanded us to do as the good Samaritan did. A person who takes the yoke of Jesus, keeps Jesus' commandments and at the point where they are no longer burdensome to us, we can know that we have come to know Him:

> Luke 10:25-37 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

> II John 1:4-7 - I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. (ESV)

> I John 5:2-3 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

> Matthew 11:27-30 - All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (ESV)

> II John 1:8-10 - Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have

> God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

Be accountable to God. Do not seek reward from others but from God. Focus on spiritual disciplines for the right reasons.

> Matthew 6:1-18 - Beware of practicing your righteousness before other people in order to be seen by them, for then you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven. Thus, when you give to the needy, sound no trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be praised by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. And when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites. For they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, that they may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. Pray then like this: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. And when you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that their fasting may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, that your fasting may not be seen by others but by your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. (ESV)

Have a relationship with God:

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

I'm pretty convinced that what Jesus means by the following is that by giving up earthly treasure in the pursuit of Jesus, heavenly treasure is acquired. I'd say it's likely that the heavenly treasure is simply helping those people. So selling what a person possesses and giving to those in need, though apart from faith in Jesus isn't a "requirement for eternal life", it is a fast track to serving Jesus and getting our heart in heaven and leaning on Jesus, so doing as Jesus said in obedient faith is already starting to follow Jesus and store up heavenly treasure. Seek heavenly reward, not earthly reward. Have a heart seeking reward from God and not from man. Have your heart in heaven, not in earth. We give up our earthly treasure and help other people with it and this becomes heavenly treasure, and we then go after Jesus as our Pearl of Great Price:

> Matthew 6:19-21 - Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

Seek God's kingdom and His righteousness first of all:

> Matthew 6:33 - But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. (ESV)

Do not worry about tomorrow. If a person by faith obeys Jesus Christ's instruction to "not worry about tomorrow" while enduring suffering, that is sanctifying (salvific):

> Matthew 6:30-34 - But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble. (ESV)

Use right judgment. We should be examining, judging, cleaning ourselves up, taking a look in the mirror first (by God's standards) before judging others:

> Matthew 7:1-5 - Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you. Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, Let me take the speck out of your eye, when there is the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye. (ESV)

> Romans 2:1 - Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. (ESV)

> James 4:11-12 - Do not speak evil against one another, brothers. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. There is only one lawgiver and judge, he who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor? (ESV)

> I Corinthians 4:3 - But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself. (ESV)

Practice discretion:

> Matthew 7:6 - Do not give dogs what is holy, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, lest they trample them underfoot and turn to attack you. (ESV)

Ask, seek, and knock:

> Matthew 7:7-8 - Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. (ESV)

Ask God for your needs, which includes asking God for the Holy Spirit:

> Luke 11:1-11 - Now Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he finished, one of his disciples said to him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples. And he said to them, When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation. And he said to them, Which of you who has a friend will go to him at midnight and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves, for a friend of mine has arrived on a journey, and I have nothing > to set before him; and he will answer from within, Do not bother me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I cannot get up and give you anything? I tell you, though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his impudence he will rise and give him whatever he needs. And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; (ESV)

> Luke 11:13 - If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him! (ESV)

Treat others as you would like to be treated:

> Matthew 7:12 - So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

Choose the narrow path to life:

> Matthew 7:13-14 - Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow (4728 stenos ie. narrow, small) and the way is hard (2346 thlibó - meaning: like when circumstances "rub us the wrong way" that make us feel confined (hemmed in); restricted to a "narrow" place) that leads to life, and those who find it are few. (ESV)

Look out for false prophets:

> Matthew 7:15-20 - Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. (ESV)

Pray for kingdom laborers. Pray that God sends out kingdom laborers:

> Matthew 9:37-38 - Then he said to his disciples, The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. (ESV)

Be on your guard. Jesus sends us out to be like scapegoats. Be wise and remain blameless:

> Matthew 10:16-17 - Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of men, for they will deliver you over to courts and flog you in their synagogues, (ESV)

> Philippians 2:15-16 - that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

Do not fear persecutors. Fear God. But put your trust in God because He takes care of those who fear Him. Speak the truth:

> Matthew 10:26-31 - So have no fear of them, for nothing is covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. What I tell you in the dark, say in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows. (ESV)

Being subject to governing authorities does not mean behaving like them, but rather is about being blameless before God:

> Romans 13:1 - Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. (ESV)

Practice righteousness, but do so to please God and be accountable to God who sees in secret. Don't feel any need to prove yourself to others:

> Matthew 23:3 - so practice and observe whatever they tell you—but not what they do. For they preach, but do not practice. (ESV)

youtube.com: Petra Captured DVDrip 20 Godpleaser Greg X Volz {@PetraXVolz} So many voices; Telling me which way to go; So many choices; Come from those who think they know; There's a way that seems right to a man; But it only brings him death; I wanna go the way that leads to life; Till I draw my dying breath;

Don't wanna be a manpleaser; I wanna be a Godpleaser; I just want to have the wisdom; To discern the two apart; Don't wanna be a manpleaser; I wanna be a Godpleaser; I just want to do the things; That please the Father's heart

Our kingdom is not of this world. We have a heavenly, not earthly perspective. Our treasure is in heaven. Our lives belong to God and we owe Him our faithfulness and service and we can't compromise our duties to God:

> John 18:36 - Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have been fighting, that I might not be delivered over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not from the world. (ESV)

Our hearts and minds belong to God and noone else. Noone has the right to force us to obey unrighteousness. We can't let the devil steal from us our joy of God, or steal our good conscience with God. But if the secular world/kingdoms of this world lays claim to earthly things, we just allow them to have it, knowing we have greater treasure, heavenly reward:

> Mark 12:17 - Jesus said to them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marveled at him. (ESV)

> John 18:36 - Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have been fighting, that I might not be delivered over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not from the world. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:40 - And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. (ESV)

> Mark 15:14 - And Pilate said to them, Why, what evil has he done? But they shouted all the more, Crucify him. (ESV)

Take Jesus' yoke upon yourself:

We obey Jesus' commandments in faith and we persevere with that, striving to obey Jesus, striving to remain faithful to Jesus and at some point we enter rest which Jesus gives us. Our Master, Jesus, who we obey gives us the rest, and He gives it to us while we hold our faith in Him and abide in His commandments.

> Malachi 1:6 - A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. But you say, How have we despised your name? (ESV)

> Ezekiel 37:12-14 - Therefore, prophesy, and thou hast said unto them, thus said the Lord Jehovah: Lo, I am opening your graves, And have brought you up out of your graves, O My people, And brought you in unto the land of Israel. And ye have known that I am Jehovah, In My opening your graves, And in My bringing you up out of your graves, O My people. And I have given My Spirit in you, and ye have lived, And I have caused you to rest on your land, And ye have known that I Jehovah, I have spoken, and I have done it , An affirmation of Jehovah.' (YLT)

OK so, living by total dependance on Jesus, giving yourself away to others, believing that Jesus will provide what we need as we continue trying to do the right thing by Jesus, can sometimes feel like living precariously when we lose faith, but it is not precarious. Like God providing manna in the wilderness to the Israelites and all the Israelites had to do was continue trusting and obeying God, and God provided what they needed, we too go through this phase where God is teaching us to depend on Him. But at some point we arrive in the "promised land" of rest as He sanctifies us and His commandments no longer feel burdensome. At some point, it starts to feel like not just trying to help others but now others helping us. We enter the promised land of God's rest together. That's how I think it generally works. But Jesus gives the rest, right? So there's no onus on us or command from Jesus to us to purposefully cease endeavouring to make spiritual sacrifices in order to enter this rest. As far as I understand, we continue obeying Jesus and Jesus grants the rest:

> Matthew 11:28-30 - Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (ESV)

Do not despise the little ones:

> Matthew 18:10 - See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

How to deal with offenders:

> Matthew 18:15-17 - If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. (ESV)

Forgive your family in Christ extremely generously / almost without limits:

> Matthew 18:21-22 - Then Peter came up and said to him, Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times? Jesus said to him, I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven. (ESV)

Lead through service:

> Matthew 20:25-28 - But Jesus called them to him and said, You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. It shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be your slave, even as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)

Love God with all your heart, mind, and soul:

> Matthew 22:37-38 - And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. (ESV)

Love your neighbor as yourself - fulfill the requirement of the law:

> Matthew 22:39 - And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. (ESV)

Stay alert and keep watch:

> Matthew 24:42-44 - Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. (ESV)

Make disciples of all the nations, teaching them to follow/obey Jesus:

> Matthew 28:18-20 - And Jesus came and said to them, All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe (G5083 tereo) all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. (ESV)

> Matthew 28:20 - and teaching them to obey (G5083 tereo) all that I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, even to the end of the age." (BSB)

The word tereo means (to keep, observe, obey, follow). Commandments are for obeying. That's all they are for. This observance means to remember and practice. Nowhere in the Bible does it teach to disobey God:

> Matthew 28:20 - teaching them to follow all that I commanded you; and behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (NASB2020)

Don't teach against needing to do Jesus' commandments. To do so is to teach people to not be a part of Jesus' family. It's great how God has given us Hebrew and Greek to make this unambiguous:

> Deuteronomy 5:27 - Go near and hear all that the LORD our God will say and speak to us all that the LORD our God will speak to you, and we will hear and do it. (ESV)

> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

Deny yourself daily, and follow Jesus:

> Luke 9:23-24 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. (ESV)

Do not covet your possessions:

> Luke 12:15 - And he said to them, Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions. (ESV)

Give to those who can't reciprocate:

> Luke 14:12-14 - He said also to the man who had invited him, When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and you be repaid. But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. You will be repaid at the resurrection of the just. (ESV)

You must be born again:

> John 3:7 - Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again. (ESV)

If you love Jesus, keep His commandments. The one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one who loves Jesus:

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)
>
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
>
> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

Those who have testimony of Jesus should preach testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead:

> Acts 10:41-44 - not to all the people but to us who had been chosen by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name. While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word. (ESV)
>
> Acts 13:47 - For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.

Those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the gospel:

> I Corinthians 9:14 - In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the gospel.

61.3 Precepts of Paul

- Pursue godliness with contentment but not without contentment. Pursue personal righteousness
  - righteousness,
  - godliness,
  - faith,
  - love,
  - steadfastness,
  - gentleness.

> I Timothy 6:3-11 - If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, he is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, evil suspicions, and constant friction among people who are depraved in mind and deprived of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain. Now there is great gain in godliness with contentment, for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot > take anything out of the world. But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content. But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs. But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. (ESV)

>
> I Corinthians 10:24 - Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 10:19-21 - What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 7:10-17 - To the married I give this charge (not I, but the Lord): the wife should not separate from her husband (but if she does, she should remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband), and the husband should not divorce his wife. To the rest I say (I, not the Lord) that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he should not divorce her. If any woman has a husband who is an unbeliever, and he consents to live with her, she should not divorce him. For the unbelieving husband is made holy because of his wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy because of her husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy. But if the unbelieving partner separates, let it be so. In such cases the brother or sister is not enslaved. God has called you to peace. Wife, how do you know whether you will save your husband? Husband, how do you know whether you will save your wife? Only let each person lead the life that the Lord has assigned to him, and to which God has called him. This is my rule in all the churches. (ESV)

61.4 Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers

> II Corinthians 6:14 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? (ESV)

62 More commandments of Jesus (which are all from God)

The words Jesus Christ spoke were altogether a commandment of eternal life which Father God had given Jesus to speak:

> John 12:49-50 - For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)
>
> John 6:40-47 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. So the Jews grumbled about him, because he said, I am the bread that came down from heaven. They said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, I have come down from heaven? Jesus answered them, Do not grumble among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me—not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. (ESV)

Video youtube.com: ”These things I command you” Jesus’ own words from the 4 Gospels

62.1 From the gospel of Matthew

62.1.1 Do the will of Father God to enter heaven

Matthew 7:21 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

62.1.2 Amend your lives, repent from sin

Matthew 4:17 - From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. (ESV)

62.1.3 Follow Jesus

Matthew 4:19 - And he said to them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. (ESV)

62.1.4 Rejoice when persecuted, and slandered on Jesus' account

Matthew 5:11-13 - Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you. You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet. (ESV)

Following Jesus:

Matthew 24:9-13 - Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. And then many will fall away and betray one another and hate one another. And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. (ESV)

62.1.5 Let your light (good works) shine before others so they may give glory to Father God

Matthew 5:16 - In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

62.1.6

Matthew 5:23-24 - So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. (ESV)

62.1.7

Matthew 5:29-30 - If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body be thrown into hell (1067. geenna). And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell. (ESV)

62.1.8 Do not swear an oath at all

Matthew 5:34-37 - But I say to you, Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply Yes or No; anything more than this comes from evil. (ESV)

62.1.9 Do not render evil for evil

> Matthew 5:38-40 - You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. (ESV)

62.1.10 Overcome evil with good

> Matthew 5:40-41 - And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. (ESV)

Paul following and teaching Christ's teachings:

> Romans 12:19-21 - Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. To the contrary, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head. Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (ESV)

62.1.11 Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you

> Matthew 5:42 - Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. (ESV)

62.1.12 Love your enemies

> Matthew 5:44-45 - But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. (ESV)

> Didache Chapter 1 - … Bless those who curse you, and pray for your enemies, and fast for those who persecute you. For what reward is there for loving those who love you? Do not the Gentiles do the same? But love those who hate you, and you shall not have an enemy. …

Philip, an Evangelist in Brazil We have to treat every single person that we encounter with the love of God as much as possible. We fall short, we make mistakes, we're not always at our best, but as much as possible. We provide a testimony.

Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect - love also the ones who hate you:

> Matthew 5:38-48 - You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate (3404. miseó, 3404 miséō – properly, to detest (on a comparative basis); hence, denounce; to love someone or something less than someone (something) else, i.e. to renounce one choice in favor of another.) your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

Keep in mind that what Jesus means by ”perfect” is possible, because Jesus said the following, and this is how:

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 7:11 - Now if perfection had been attainable through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, rather than one named after the order of Aaron? (ESV)

In Christ, we must ”be perfect” in the sense that Jesus means when He says ”You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.” In Christ, we must not hate one another. In Christ, we must agape love one another:

> Colossians 3:13-14 - Bear with one another and forgive any complaint you may have against someone else. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love (26. agapé), which is the bond of perfect unity. (engbsb2020eb)
>
> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)
>
> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

- Do not resist the one who is evil - but do good to them
  - Romans 12:21 - Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (ESV)
  - if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also
  - if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well
  - if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles
  - Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you
  - Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you

> I Thessalonians 5:14 - And we urge you, brothers, admonish the idle, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all. (ESV)
>
> Romans 12:9 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. (ESV)
>
> Romans 12:17 - Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. (ESV)
>
> Romans 12:21 - Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (ESV)
>
> Romans 16:19 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. (ESV)

With Jesus’ commandments in mind, we should have joy when the time of testing happens and things are taken away from us. It can take a really long time. But we need to not shrink back. I’m also speaking to myself.

Hebrews 10:34-39 - For you had compassion on those in prison, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one. Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

Luke 6:30 - Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. (ESV)

62.1.13 Do your good not to get some kind of earthly praise

Matthew 6:1 - Beware of practicing your righteousness before other people in order to be seen by them, for then you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

Matthew 5:16 - In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

Matthew 9:11-13 - And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners? But when he heard it, he said, Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice. For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners. (ESV)

62.1.14 Be merciful

Luke 6:36 - Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)

62.1.15 How to pray

Matthew 6:5 - And when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites. For they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, that they may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. (ESV)

Matthew 6:6 - But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. (ESV)

Matthew 6:7 - And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words. (ESV)

Matthew 6:8-13 - Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. Pray then like this: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. (ESV)

62.1.16 How to fast

A Guide to Prayer and Fasting - General Assembly

```
fasting
    The self-denial of some or all food or drink as the faithful express their intense concerns to God in special times of prayer and worship.
```

> Matthew 6:16-18 - And when you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that their fasting may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, that your fasting may not be seen by others but by your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. (ESV)

When you fast:

- anoint your head and wash your face
  - that your fasting may not be seen by others but by your Father who is in secret
  - don't even tell anyone
- pray while you fast:
  - your Father knows what you need before you ask him
  - pray in secret
  - ask for God's will be done
  - forgive others
- also, fast for those who persecute you
- be prepared with Scripture, and use it
- praise and worship the Lord
  - youtube.com: Holy Forever Medley | Jesus Image | John Wilds
- persevere and ask God for strength to resist temptation

Just fast for God, and focus on God:

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

Have a goal reason for fasting e.g. before baptism.

Read `https://bibletranslation.ws/down/Polycarp_Epistle_To_The_Philippians.pdf`[Polycarp to the Philippians, Chapter 7]]

Polycarp 7:2 (Greek) ,
, , · T ,
.

Polycarp 7:2 (English) [2] Wherefore, forsaking the vanity of many, and their false doctrines, let us return to the word which has been handed down to us from the beginning; "watching unto prayer," and persevering in fasting; beseeching in our supplications the all-seeing God to "not lead us into temptation." As the Lord has said: "The spirit truly is willing, but the flesh is weak."

Go for about a month month, or 40 days, just go without:

- breakfast
- lunch

- coffee

Focus:

- more on prayer
- more on meditating on Jesus' commandments
- willing God's will and not your own

Be:

- repentant

Repent while fasting:

> Joel 2:12-17 - Yet even now, declares the LORD, return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; and rend your hearts and not your garments. Return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love; and he relents over disaster. Who knows whether he will not turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, a grain offering and a drink offering for the LORD your God? Blow the trumpet in Zion; consecrate a fast; call a solemn assembly; gather the people. Consecrate the congregation; assemble the elders; gather the children, even nursing infants. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her chamber. Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep and say, Spare your people, O LORD, and make not your heritage a reproach, a byword among the nations. Why should they say among the peoples, Where is their God? (ESV)

Be humble while fasting and supplicating to God:

> Isaiah 58:4-6 - Behold, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to hit with a wicked fist. Fasting like yours this day will not make your voice to be heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day for a person to humble himself? Is it to bow down his head like a reed, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will you call this a fast, and a day acceptable to the LORD? Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? (ESV)

Some manuscripts include 'fasting' in Mark 9:29:

> Mark 9:29 - And he said to them, This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer. (ESV)
>
> Mark 9:29 - And He said to them, “This kind cannot come out by anything but prayer.” (NASB)
>
> Mark 9:29 - And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting. (KJV)

We should fast to seek the LORD and we should fast together for a common purpose:

> II Chronicles 20:3 - Then Jehoshaphat was afraid and set his face to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. (ESV)
>
> Didache Chapter 7 - ... But before the baptism let the baptizer fast, and the baptized, and whoever else can; but you shall order the baptized to fast one or two days before.

We should even fast for the sake of others:

> Didache Chapter 1 - ... Bless those who curse you, and pray for your enemies, and fast for those who persecute you. For what reward is there for loving those who love you? Do not the Gentiles do the same? But love those who hate you, and you shall not have an enemy. ...

> Ezra 10:6 - Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God and went to the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib, where he spent the night, neither eating bread nor drinking water, for he was mourning over the faithlessness of the exiles. (ESV)

Use Scripture while fasting. Fast for days, or weeks:

> Matthew 4:1-4 - Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. And after fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. And the tempter came and said to him, If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread. But he answered, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God. (ESV)

Praise and worship the Lord while fasting:

> Acts 13:2 - While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them. (ESV)

Pray while fasting:

> Acts 14:23 - And when they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed. (ESV)

Repentance in the heart:

> Psalms 69:10 - When I wept and humbled my soul with fasting, it became my reproach. (ESV)

> Psalms 69:10 - When I wept in my soul with fasting, It became my reproach. (NASB)

> Psalms 69:10 - When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach. (KJV)

62.1.17 Lay up treasure in heaven, not on earth - have your heart in heaven, not on earth

I'm pretty convinced that what Jesus means by the following is that by giving up earthly treasure in the pursuit of Jesus, heavenly treasure is acquired. I'd say it's likely that the heavenly treasure is simply helping those people. So selling what a person possesses and giving to those in need, though apart from faith in Jesus isn't a "requirement for eternal life", it is a fast track to serving Jesus and getting our heart in heaven and leaning on Jesus, so doing as Jesus said in obedient faith is already starting to follow Jesus and store up heavenly treasure. Seek heavenly reward, not earthly reward. Have a heart seeking reward from God and not from man. Have your heart in heaven, not in earth. We give up our earthly treasure and help other people with it and this becomes heavenly treasure, and we then go after Jesus as our Pearl of Great Price:

> Matthew 6:19-21 - Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

62.1.18 Trust in God to provide

> Matthew 6:25-34 - Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble. (ESV)

62.1.19 Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness

> Matthew 6:33 - But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. (ESV)

62.1.20 Do not judge unless you don't mind being judged by the same judgement

> Matthew 7:1-2 - Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you. (ESV)

> Luke 6:37 - , Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; (ESV)

> James 3:1 - Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. (ESV)

62.1.21

> Matthew 7:5 - You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye. (ESV)

62.1.22

> Matthew 7:6 - Do not give dogs what is holy, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, lest they trample them underfoot and turn to attack you. (ESV)

62.1.23 Ask and seek

> Matthew 7:7 - Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. (ESV)

Also, Luke 11:13 says God gives the Holy Spirit to those who ask him. So I think it's typical to believe God, believing the gospel, and to ask God for His Holy Spirit, expecting that God will cleanse our heart through faith, being prepared to continue obeying the truth for a sincere brotherly love:

> Luke 11:13 - If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him! (ESV)

62.1.24 Golden Rule

Matthew 7:12 - So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

62.1.25 Enter by the narrow gate

Matthew 7:13-14 - Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow (4728 stenos ie. narrow, small) and the way is hard (2346 thlibó - meaning: like when circumstances ”rub us the wrong way” that make us feel confined (hemmed in); restricted to a ”narrow” place) that leads to life, and those who find it are few. (ESV)

62.1.26 Beware of false prophets

Matthew 7:15-16 - Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? (ESV)

62.1.27 Follow Jesus

Matthew 8:22 - And Jesus said to him, Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead. (ESV)

62.1.28

Matthew 9:2 - And behold, some people brought to him a paralytic, lying on a bed. And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, Take heart, my son; your sins are forgiven. (ESV)

62.1.29 Rely on God’s mercy continually, and have mercy on others

Matthew 9:13 - Go and learn what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice. For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners. (ESV)

62.1.30

Matthew 9:22 - Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well. And instantly the woman was made well. (ESV)

62.1.31

Matthew 9:29 - Then he touched their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it done to you. (ESV)

62.1.32 Pray for God to work/extend His kingdom, sending laborers

Matthew 9:38 - therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. (ESV) bibledaily.net: Pray for God to Send More Labourers To The Harvest Field Father, I pray that You’ll send more labourers into the harvest field of souls. Supply them with the anointing and provision to do your work without struggle, in the name of Jesus. Amen

62.1.33

Matthew 10:7-10 - And proclaim as you go, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay. Acquire no gold nor silver nor copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, nor two tunics nor sandals nor a staff, for the laborer deserves his food. (ESV)

62.1.34

Matthew 10:11-14 - And whatever town or village you enter, find out who is worthy in it and stay there until you depart. As you enter the house, greet it. And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. And if anyone will not receive you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet when you leave that house or town. (ESV)

62.1.35 As Jesus' sheep, be wise and innocent amongst 'wolves'

Matthew 10:16 - Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. (ESV)

62.1.36

Matthew 10:17 - Beware of men, for they will deliver you over to courts and flog you in their synagogues, (ESV)

62.1.37

Matthew 10:19-20 - When they deliver you over, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say, for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. (ESV)

62.1.38

Matthew 10:23 - When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next, for truly, I say to you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes. (ESV)

62.1.39

Matthew 10:26 - So have no fear of them, for nothing is covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. (ESV)

62.1.40

Matthew 10:27 - What I tell you in the dark, say in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. (ESV)

62.1.41

Matthew 10:28 - And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. (ESV)

62.1.42

Matthew 10:31 - Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows. (ESV)

62.1.43

Matthew 11:15 - He who has ears to hear, let him hear. (ESV)

62.1.44

Matthew 11:28 - Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. (ESV)

62.1.45

Matthew 11:29 - Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. (ESV)

62.1.46

Matthew 12:33 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. (ESV)

62.1.47

Matthew 13:9 - He who has ears, let him hear. (ESV)

62.1.48

Matthew 13:43 - Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear. (ESV)

62.1.49

Matthew 15:10-11 - And he called the people to him and said to them, Hear and understand: it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but what comes out of the mouth; this defiles a person. (ESV)

62.1.50

Matthew 16:6 - Jesus said to them, Watch and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. (ESV)

62.1.51

Matthew 16:24 - Then Jesus told his disciples, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. (ESV)

62.1.52

Matthew 18:8-9 - And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire. And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the hell of fire. (ESV)

62.1.53

Matthew 18:10 - See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

62.1.54

Matthew 19:14 - but Jesus said, Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

62.1.55

Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

62.1.56

> Matthew 22:21 - They said, Caesar's. Then he said to them, Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. (ESV)

62.1.57

> Matthew 22:37-40 - And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

62.1.58

> Matthew 23:2-4 - The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat, so practice and observe whatever they tell you—but not what they do. For they preach, but do not practice. They tie up heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on people's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to move them with their finger. (ESV)

62.1.59

> Matthew 23:8 - But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brothers. (ESV)

62.1.60 Refer to God as Father, and also walk like children of God, like God is our Father

Refer to God as Father:

> Matthew 23:9 - And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. (ESV)

> I John 5:20 - And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. (ESV)

We should make it our witness that God is our Father:

> Matthew 23:29-31 - Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous, saying, If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets. Thus you witness against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. (ESV)

Walk (behave) like children of God, like God is our Father:

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

We should listen to Jesus' word and will to do God's will:

> John 9:43-47 - Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

God is the Father of our spirits. God makes us born of the spirit:

> Hebrews 12:9 - Besides this, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? (ESV)

62.1.61 Be instructed by Christ

> Matthew 23:10 - Neither be called instructors, for you have one instructor (G2519. kathégétés), the Christ. (ESV)

2519. kathégétés Definition: Teacher, Leader, Guide. Meaning: a leader, teacher, guide, master.

62.1.62 Do not be led atray by false christs

> Matthew 24:4-5 - And Jesus answered them, See that no one leads you astray. For many will come in my name, saying, I am the Christ, and they will lead many astray. (ESV)

Jesus Christ is I AM. That means that Jesus Christ the Son of God is Jehovah, just as Father God is Jehovah. Saying that Jesus Christ is I AM is still not saying that the Son of God is Father God. But they are both the one God.

biblehub.com: John 8:24 Interlinear I said therefore to you that you will die in the sins of you if for not you believe that I am (G1473 egō G1510 eimi I AM or I am He) you will die in the sins of you

```
2036     3767      4771     3754     599           1722 3588
eipon    oun       hymin    hoti     apothaneisthe en   tais

I said   therefore to you   that     you will die  in   the V-AIA-1S Conj      PPro-D2P Conj     V-FIM-2P      Prep Art-DFP

266        4771     1437 1063 3361 4100        3754 1473     1510
hamartiais hymōn    ean  gar  mē   pisteusēte  hoti egō      eimi
           ;                                    ,
sins       of you   if   for  not  you believe that I        am [He]
N-DFP      PPro-G2P Conj Conj Adv  V-ASA-2P    Conj PPro-N1S V-PIA-1S

599           1722 3588    266        4771
apothaneisthe en   tais    hamartiais hymōn
                              .
you will die  in   the     sins       of you
V-FIM-2P      Prep Art-DFP N-DFP      PPro-G2P
```

We are not to be led astray by false christs:

> Mark 13:6 - Many will come in the name of Me saying - I am [He] (G1473 egō G1510 eimi I AM or I am He) and many they will mislead (Interlinear)

```
4183    2064       1909 3588    3686    1473     3004
polloi  eleusontai epi  tō      onomati mou      legontes
                               ,
Many    will come  in   the     name    of Me    saying
Adj-NMP V-FIM-3P   Prep Art-DNS N-DNS   PPro-G1S V-PPA-NMP

3754   1473     1510     2532 4183    4105
hoti   Egō      eimi     kai  pollous planēsousin
    ,            ,                   .
 -     I        am [He]  and  many    they will mislead
Conj   PPro-N1S V-PIA-1S Conj Adj-AMP V-FIA-3P
```

62.1.63

Matthew 24:6 - And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, for this must take place, but the end is not yet. (ESV)

62.1.64

Matthew 24:15-18 - So when you see the abomination of desolation spoken of by the prophet Daniel, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let the one who is on the housetop not go down to take what is in his house, and let the one who is in the field not turn back to take his cloak. (ESV)

62.1.65

Matthew 24:23 - Then if anyone says to you, Look, here is the Christ! or There he is! do not believe it. (ESV)

62.1.66

Matthew 24:26 - So, if they say to you, Look, he is in the wilderness, do not go out. If they say, Look, he is in the inner rooms, do not believe it. (ESV)

62.1.67

Matthew 24:32-35 - From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (ESV)

62.1.68 Our Lord is the Son of Man, and we should be ready and on alert

Matthew 24:42 - Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. (ESV)

Matthew 24:44 - Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. (ESV)

Matthew 25:13 - Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour. (ESV)

Luke 18:8 - I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?

62.1.69

Matthew 26:26 - Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. (ESV)

62.1.70

Matthew 26:27-28 - And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, Drink of it, all of you, for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

62.1.71

Matthew 26:41 - Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. (ESV)

62.1.72

Matthew 26:52 - Then Jesus said to him, Put your sword back into its place. For all who take the sword will perish by the sword. (ESV)

62.1.73

Matthew 28:19-20 - Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. (ESV)

62.2 From the gospel of Mark

62.2.1

Mark 1:15 - and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel. (ESV)

62.2.2 Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men

Mark 1:17 - And Jesus said to them, Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men. (ESV)

62.2.3

Mark 4:9 - And he said, He who has ears to hear, let him hear. (ESV)

62.2.4

Mark 4:23 - If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear. (ESV)

62.2.5

Mark 4:24 - And he said to them, Pay attention to what you hear: with the measure you use, it will be measured to you, and still more will be added to you. (ESV)

62.2.6

Mark 6:10-11 - And he said to them, Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you depart from there. And if any place will not receive you and they will not listen to you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them. (ESV)

62.2.7

Mark 7:14-16 - And he called the people to him again and said to them, Hear me, all of you, and understand: There is nothing outside a person that by going into him can defile him, but the things that come out of a person are what defile him. (ESV)

62.2.8

Mark 8:15 - And he cautioned them, saying, Watch out; beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod. (ESV)

62.2.9

Mark 8:34 - And he called to him the crowd with his disciples and said to them, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. (ESV)

62.2.10

> Mark 9:23 - And Jesus said to him, If you can! All things are possible for one who believes. (ESV)

62.2.11

> Mark 9:39-41 - But Jesus said, Do not stop him, for no one who does a mighty work in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. For the one who is not against us is for us. For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward. (ESV)

62.2.12

> Mark 9:45 - And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame than with two feet to be thrown into hell. (ESV)

62.2.13

> Mark 9:47 - And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell, (ESV)

62.2.14

> Mark 9:50 - Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, how will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another. (ESV)

- youtube.com: 100huntley - What motivates you most to share the Gospel? {@100huntley}

What motivates you most to share the Gospel?

- Obedience to the Great Commission
- Urgency of Christ's return
- Concern for Other's Eternal Destiny
- Other (See Comment)

Out of those options, concern for other's eternal destiny fits most closely to what motivates me. There is obligation and duty (Paul said, woe to me if I do not preach the gospel), and I feel like the same sense of obligation applies to me. There is not "hiding the light under a bushel". There is not wanting to live a lie and choosing to live righteously without fear of punishment. There's also the motivation of an agape love for Jesus' words. Agape love treasures them. And it seems like the majority of voices out there are trying to silence Jesus' words. There's wanting to be salt and light because there are a lot of people out there not striving to get to know Jesus through keeping His commandments as faithfully and sincerely as they can. Because the apostles practiced what they preached. (2Co 10:11: Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present.) A lot of modern Christians would say that "striving" is wrong and talking about Jesus's commandments seriously is having a "religious spirit". We need to be salt and light because the world is full of darkness. It's urgent!

God's Word must be the authority. Because we want to be corrected by God and grow in the knowledge of Him. Not just "academically" but experientially:

> John 17:17 - Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. (ESV)

> Isaiah 45:19 - I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness; I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, Seek me in vain. I the LORD speak the truth; I declare what is right. (ESV)

Proverbs 27:17 - Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another. (ESV)

Colossians 3:16 - Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. (ESV)

I Corinthians 2:16 - For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (ESV)

62.2.15

Mark 10:9 - What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate. (ESV)

62.2.16

Mark 10:14-15 - But when Jesus saw it, he was indignant and said to them, Let the children come to me; do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it. (ESV)

62.2.17

Mark 10:21 - And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

62.2.18

Mark 11:22 - And Jesus answered them, Have faith in God. (ESV)

62.2.19

Mark 11:24 - Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. (ESV)

62.2.20

Mark 11:25 - And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. (ESV)

62.2.21

Mark 12:17 - Jesus said to them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s. And they marveled at him. (ESV)

62.2.22

Mark 12:29-31 - Jesus answered, The most important is, Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these. (ESV)

62.2.23

Mark 12:38-40 - And in his teaching he said, Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes and like greetings in the marketplaces and have the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts, who devour widows’ houses and for a pretense make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation. (ESV)

62.2.24

Mark 13:5-6 - And Jesus began to say to them, See that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name, saying, I am he! and they will lead many astray. (ESV)

62.2.25

Mark 13:7 - And when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. This must take place, but the end is not yet. (ESV)

62.2.26

Mark 13:9 - But be on your guard. For they will deliver you over to councils, and you will be beaten in synagogues, and you will stand before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them. (ESV)

62.2.27

Mark 13:10 - And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations. (ESV)

62.2.28

Mark 13:11 - And when they bring you to trial and deliver you over, do not be anxious beforehand what you are to say, but say whatever is given you in that hour, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

62.2.29

Mark 13:14-16 - But when you see the abomination of desolation standing where it ought not to be (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let the one who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter his house, to take anything out, and let the one who is in the field not turn back to take his cloak. (ESV)

62.2.30

Mark 13:21-23 - And then if anyone says to you, Look, here is the Christ! or Look, there he is! do not believe it. False christs and false prophets will arise and perform signs and wonders, to lead astray, if possible, the elect. But be on guard; I have told you all things beforehand. (ESV)

62.2.31

Mark 13:28-29 - From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. (ESV)

62.2.32

Mark 13:32-33 - But concerning that day or that hour, no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Be on guard, keep awake. For you do not know when the time will come. (ESV)

Matthew 24:42-44 - Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. (ESV)

62.2.33

Mark 13:35-37 - Therefore stay awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or when the cock crows, or in the morning— lest he come suddenly and find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all: Stay awake. (ESV)

62.2.34

Mark 14:22 - And as they were eating, he took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, Take; this is my body. (ESV)

62.2.35

Mark 14:38 - Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. (ESV)

62.2.36

Mark 16:15 - And he said to them, Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. (ESV)

62.3 From the gospel of Luke

62.3.1

Luke 6:22-23 - Blessed are you when people hate you and when they exclude you and revile you and spurn your name as evil, on account of the Son of Man! Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets. (ESV)

62.3.2

Luke 6:27-28 - But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. (ESV)

We should pray for our enemies and bless those who curse us. After all, at one time I was myself in the dark, and we are not fighting against flesh and blood.

Proverbs 24:17-18 - Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles, lest the LORD see it and be displeased, and turn away his anger from him. (ESV)

Ephesians 6:12 - For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. (ESV)

62.3.3

Luke 6:29 - To one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak do not withhold your tunic either. (ESV)

62.3.4

Luke 6:30 - Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. (ESV)

62.3.5

Luke 6:31 - And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them. (ESV)

62.3.6

Luke 6:35 - But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. (ESV)

62.3.7 Be merciful

Matthew 9:11-13 - And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners? But when he heard it, he said, Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice. For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners. (ESV)

Luke 6:36 - Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)

62.3.8 Forgive that we be forgiven

Luke 6:37 - , Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; (ESV)

And absolutely do not bear grudges against those who are in Christ:

Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)

62.3.9

Luke 6:38 - give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you. (ESV)

62.3.10

Luke 6:42 - How can you say to your brother, Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye, when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye. (ESV)

62.3.11

Luke 8:8 - And some fell into good soil and grew and yielded a hundredfold. As he said these things, he called out, He who has ears to hear, let him hear. (ESV)

62.3.12

Luke 8:18 - Take care then how you hear, for to the one who has, more will be given, and from the one who has not, even what he thinks that he has will be taken away. (ESV)

62.3.13

Luke 8:48 - And he said to her, Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace. (ESV)

62.3.14

Luke 8:50 - But Jesus on hearing this answered him, Do not fear; only believe, and she will be well. (ESV)

62.3.15

Luke 9:3-5 - And he said to them, Take nothing for your journey, no staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not have two tunics. And whatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart. And wherever they do not receive you, when you leave that town shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them. (ESV)

62.3.16

Luke 9:23 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. (ESV)

62.3.17

Luke 9:48 - and said to them, Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For he who is least (3398. mikros) among you all is the one who is great. (ESV)

62.3.18

Luke 9:50 - But Jesus said to him, Do not stop him, for the one who is not against you is for you. (ESV)

62.3.19

Luke 9:60 - And Jesus said to him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead. But as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God. (ESV)

62.3.20

Luke 10:2-11 - And he said to them, The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, Peace be to this house! And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you. And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you. Heal the sick in it and say to them, The kingdom of God has come near to you. But whenever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say, Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near. (ESV)

62.3.21

Luke 10:20 - Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven. (ESV)

62.3.22

Luke 11:2-4 - And he said to them, When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation. (ESV)

62.3.23

Luke 11:9 - And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. (ESV)

62.3.24

Luke 11:33 - No one after lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, so that those who enter may see the light. (ESV)

62.3.25

Luke 11:34-35 - Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light, but when it is bad, your body is full of darkness. Therefore be careful lest the light in you be darkness. (ESV)

62.3.26

Luke 11:41 - But give as alms those things that are within, and behold, everything is clean for you. (ESV)

62.3.27

Luke 12:1-3 - In the meantime, when so many thousands of the people had gathered together that they were trampling one another, he began to say to his disciples first, Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. Therefore whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed on the housetops. (ESV)

62.3.28

Luke 12:4-5 - I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do. But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him! (ESV)

62.3.29

Luke 12:7 - Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows. (ESV)

62.3.30

Luke 12:11-12 - And when they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious about how you should defend yourself or what you should say, for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say. (ESV)

62.3.31

Luke 12:15 - And he said to them, Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions. (ESV)

62.3.32

Luke 12:22-24 - And he said to his disciples, Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on. For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! (ESV)

62.3.33

> Luke 12:27-28 - Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass, which is alive in the field today, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith! (ESV)

62.3.34

> Luke 12:29-30 - And do not seek what you are to eat and what you are to drink, nor be worried. For all the nations of the world seek after these things, and your Father knows that you need them. (ESV)

62.3.35

> Luke 12:31 - Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you. (ESV)

62.3.36

Consider that Jesus is making Father God known.

> Luke 12:32 - Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. (ESV)

Consider this as I read Jesus' words talking about Father God:

> John 1:18 - No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known. (ESV)

62.3.37

> Luke 12:33-34 - Sell your possessions, and give to the needy. Provide yourselves with moneybags that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. (ESV)

62.3.38

> Luke 12:35-36 - Stay dressed for action and keep your lamps burning, and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the wedding feast, so that they may open the door to him at once when he comes and knocks. (ESV)

62.3.39

> Luke 12:58 - As you go with your accuser before the magistrate, make an effort to settle with him on the way, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer put you in prison. (ESV)

62.3.40

> Luke 13:24 - Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. (ESV)

62.3.41

> Luke 14:8-11 - When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in a place of honor, lest someone more distinguished than you be invited by him, and he who invited you both will come and say to you, Give your place to this person, and then you will begin with shame to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when your host comes he may say to you, Friend, move up higher. Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at table with you. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted. (ESV)

62.3.42

> Luke 14:12-14 - He said also to the man who had invited him, When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and you be repaid. But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. You will be repaid at the resurrection of the just. (ESV)

62.3.43

> Luke 14:34 - Salt is good, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? (ESV)

62.3.44

> Luke 16:9 - And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails they may receive you into the eternal dwellings. (ESV)

Regarding works, what really matters is that our heart is in the right place:

> Matthew 6:19-21 - Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. (ESV)

Being ”generous” and ”ready to share” are heart attitudes and as we practice these heart attitudes, the Scripture says we are laying up a good foundation for the future:

> I Timothy 6:17-19 - As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life. (ESV)

> II Peter 1:3-12 - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Therefore I intend always to remind you of these qualities, though you know them and are established in the truth that you have. (ESV)

62.3.45

Luke 17:3-4 - Pay attention to yourselves! If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him, and if he sins against you seven times in the day, and turns to you seven times, saying, I repent, you must forgive him. (ESV)

62.3.46

Luke 17:10 - So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, We are unworthy servants; we have only done what was our duty. (ESV)

62.3.47

Luke 17:19 - And he said to him, Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well. (ESV)

62.3.48

Luke 17:21 - nor will they say, Look, here it is! or There! for behold, the kingdom of God is in the midst of you. (ESV)

62.3.49

Luke 17:22-25 - And he said to the disciples, The days are coming when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. And they will say to you, Look, there! or Look, here! Do not go out or follow them. For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day. But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. (ESV)

62.3.50

Luke 17:30-31 - so will it be on the day when the Son of Man is revealed. On that day, let the one who is on the housetop, with his goods in the house, not come down to take them away, and likewise let the one who is in the field not turn back. (ESV)

62.3.51

Luke 18:6-8 - And the Lord said, Hear what the unrighteous judge says. And will not God give justice to his elect, who cry to him day and night? , Will he delay long over them? I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth? (ESV)

62.3.52

Luke 18:16-17 - But Jesus called them to him, saying, Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it. (ESV)

62.3.53

Luke 18:22 - When Jesus heard this, he said to him, One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

62.3.54

Luke 18:42 - And Jesus said to him, Recover your sight; your faith has made you well. (ESV)

62.3.55

Luke 20:25 - He said to them, Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. (ESV)

62.3.56

Luke 20:46-47 - Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces and the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts, who devour widows' houses and for a pretense make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation. (ESV)

62.3.57

Luke 21:8-9 - And he said, See that you are not led astray. For many will come in my name, saying, I am he! and, The time is at hand! Do not go after them. And when you hear of wars and tumults, do not be terrified, for these things must first take place, but the end will not be at once. (ESV)

62.3.58

Luke 21:14-19 - Settle it therefore in your minds not to meditate beforehand how to answer, for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be delivered up even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and some of you they will put to death. You will be hated by all for my name's sake. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your lives. (ESV)

62.3.59

Luke 21:20-22 - But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near. Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are inside the city depart, and let not those who are out in the country enter it, for these are days of vengeance, to fulfill all that is written. (ESV)

62.3.60

Luke 21:25-28 - And there will be signs in sun and moon and stars, and on the earth distress of nations in perplexity because of the roaring of the sea and the waves, people fainting with fear and with foreboding of what is coming on the world. For the powers of the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near. (ESV)

62.3.61

Luke 21:29-31 - And he told them a parable: Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. As soon as they come out in leaf, you see for yourselves and know that the summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. (ESV)

62.3.62

Luke 21:34-36 - But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth. But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man. (ESV)

62.3.63

Luke 22:17-18 - And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves. For I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes. (ESV)

62.3.64

Luke 22:19 - And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me. (ESV)

62.3.65

Luke 22:26 - But not so with you. Rather, let the greatest among you become as the youngest, and the leader as one who serves. (ESV)

62.3.66

Luke 22:36-37 - He said to them, But now let the one who has a moneybag take it, and likewise a knapsack. And let the one who has no sword sell his cloak and buy one. For I tell you that this Scripture must be fulfilled in me: And he was numbered with the transgressors. For what is written about me has its fulfillment. (ESV)

62.3.67

Luke 22:40 - And when he came to the place, he said to them, Pray that you may not enter into temptation. (ESV)

62.3.68

Luke 22:46 - and he said to them, Why are you sleeping? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation. (ESV)

62.3.69

Luke 23:28-31 - But turning to them Jesus said, Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For behold, the days are coming when they will say, Blessed are the barren and the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed! Then they will begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us, and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry? (ESV)

62.3.70

Luke 24:36 - As they were talking about these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, Peace to you! (ESV)

62.3.71

Luke 24:38-39 - And he said to them, Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have. (ESV)

62.3.72

Luke 24:49 - And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high. (ESV)

62.4 From the gospel of John

62.4.1 Whoever loves God must also love their family in Christ

I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

I John 4:7-21 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

62.4.2

John 1:43 - The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, Follow me. (ESV)

62.4.3

John 2:16 - And he told those who sold the pigeons, Take these things away; do not make my Father's house a house of trade. (ESV)

62.4.4

John 4:34-35 - Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. Do you not say, There are yet four months, then comes the harvest? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest. (ESV)

62.4.5

John 5:14 - Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you. (ESV)

62.4.6

John 6:27 - Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal. (ESV)

62.4.7

John 6:28-29 - Then they said to him, What must we do, to be doing the works of God? Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him whom he has sent. (ESV)

John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

62.4.8

John 6:43-44 - Jesus answered them, Do not grumble among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

62.4.9

John 7:24 - Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment. (ESV)

62.4.10

John 7:37-38 - On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. (ESV)

62.4.11

John 8:7 - And as they continued to ask him, he stood up and said to them, Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her. (ESV)

62.4.12

John 8:11 - She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more. (ESV)

62.4.13

John 10:37-38 - If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father. (ESV)

62.4.14

John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)

62.4.15

John 12:35-36 - So Jesus said to them, The light is among you for a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you. The one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light. When Jesus had said these things, he departed and hid himself from them. (ESV)

62.4.16 Jesus washed out feet. Now we wash others' feet. A saint, having been forgiven and love by Jesus passes forward this love and forgiveness and bears other people's burdens

John 13:14-15 - If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. (ESV)

62.4.17

John 13:34 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. (ESV)

Matthew 5:22,28,32,34-37,39,44-45,27-28,30-31,35,40 - But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery. And whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. But I say to you, Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply Yes or No; anything more than this comes from evil. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell. It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce. or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. (ESV)

Luke 6:34-36,40 - And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. (ESV)

We must walk in the manner that he walked:

> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)
>
> I John 5:3-4 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith.
>
> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

62.4.18

> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)
>
> Isaiah 26:3-4 - You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock. (ESV)

62.4.19

> John 14:11 - Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves. (ESV)

62.4.20

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

62.4.21

> John 14:27 - Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. (ESV)

62.4.22

> John 15:4 - Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. (ESV)
>
> Jeremiah 17:7-8 - Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit. (ESV)
>
> Mark 4:20 - But those that were sown on the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold. (ESV)

62.4.23

> John 15:9 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. (ESV)

62.4.24

> John 15:12 - This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. (ESV)

62.4.25

John 15:17 - These things I command you, so that you will love one another. (ESV)

62.4.26

John 15:20 - Remember the word that I said to you: A servant is not greater than his master. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours. (ESV)

62.4.27

John 15:26-27 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. And you also will bear witness, because you have been with me from the beginning. (ESV)

62.4.28

John 16:24 - Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full. (ESV)

62.4.29

John 16:33 - I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world. (ESV)

62.4.30

John 20:17 - Jesus said to her, Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God. (ESV)

62.4.31

John 20:19 - On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, Peace be with you. (ESV)

62.4.32

John 20:21 - Jesus said to them again, Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you. (ESV)

62.4.33

John 20:22-23 - And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven; if you withhold forgiveness from anyone, it is withheld. (ESV)

62.4.34

John 20:27 - Then he said to Thomas, Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe. (ESV)

62.4.35

John 21:17 - He said to him the third time, Simon, son of John, do you love me? Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, Do you love me? and he said to him, Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you. Jesus said to him, Feed my sheep. (ESV)

62.4.36

John 21:19 - (This he said to show by what kind of death he was to glorify God.) And after saying this he said to him, Follow me. (ESV)

62.5 From the Acts of the Apostles

62.5.1

Acts 1:4-5 - And while staying with them he ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, you heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now. (ESV)

62.5.2

Acts 10:15 - And the voice came to him again a second time, What God has made clean, do not call common. (ESV)

62.5.3

Acts 18:9-10 - And the Lord said to Paul one night in a vision, Do not be afraid, but go on speaking and do not be silent, for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many in this city who are my people. (ESV)

62.6 We must abide by His teaching

II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)

Luke 6:46-49 - Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

Mark 16:15 - And he said to them, Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. (ESV)

62.6.1 Notice how James and Paul both here abide by Jesus' teaching

With the judgment you pronounce you will be judged:

Matthew 7:1-5 - Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you. Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, Let me take the speck out of your eye, when there is the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye. (ESV)

> Romans 2:1 - Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. (ESV)

> James 4:11-12 - Do not speak evil against one another, brothers. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. There is only one lawgiver and judge, he who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor? (ESV)

Do not worry about tomorrow:

> Matthew 6:25-34 - Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble. (ESV)

> James 4:13-14 - Come now, you who say, Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a town and spend a year there and trade and make a profit— yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes. (ESV)

Jesus taught to overcome evil with good:

> Matthew 5:38-41 - You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. (ESV)

James understood Jesus' teaching regarding not resisting evil people and overcoming evil with good:

> James 5:6 - You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous person. He does not resist you. (ESV)

Paul following and teaching Christ's teachings regarding overcoming evil with good:

> Romans 12:19-21 - Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. To the contrary, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head. Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (ESV)

63 godliness

The word godliness, I think means, to act in a way fitting of having true knowledge of our God, and of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and preparing oneself for eternity.

> Titus 1:1 - Paul, a bond-servant (G1401 doulos) of God (G2316 theos) and an apostle of Jesus (G2424 Iesous) Christ (G5547 Christos), for the faith (G4102 pistis) of those chosen of God (G2316 theos) and the knowledge (G1922 epignosis) of the truth (G225 aletheia) which is according to godliness (G2150 eusebeia),

Perfect godliness revealing God through Jesus Christ:

> I Timothy 3:16 - Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of godliness: He was manifested in the flesh, vindicated by the Spirit, seen by angels, proclaimed among the nations, believed on in the world, taken up in glory. (ESV)

> Isaiah 32:6 - For the fool speaks folly, and his heart is busy with iniquity, to practice ungodliness, to utter error concerning the LORD, to leave the craving of the hungry unsatisfied, and to deprive the thirsty of drink. (ESV)

Relevant verses	Characteristics of godliness
Titus 1:1-3	Behaviour in accordance with true knowledge about God
Isaiah 32:6, Romans 1:18	Disinclined towards wickedness; inclined to practice righteousness
Isaiah 32:6, Romans 1:18	Speaks the truth about the Lord
Isaiah 32:6	Takes care of their neighbour
Romans 1:21	Honours God as God
Romans 1:21	Gives thanks to God
Romans 1:18-22, Proverbs 1:7	Has the fear of God
I Timothy 3:8	Knows God can see your heart
I Timothy 2:1-4	Cares that any person, even the worldly, may be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth
I Timothy 2:9, I Timothy 3:8	Not worldliness, knowing that humility pleases God
I Timothy 6:10-11	Not worldliness, knowing that true riches are in heaven. No love for money
I Timothy 2:10	Performs good works (works which are pleasing to God)
I Timothy 3:11	Dignified, sober-minded
I Timothy 3:11	Faithful in all things
I Timothy 4:7-8	Profitable for all things (physical and spiritual), present life and eternity
I Timothy 6:4, II Timothy 2:16	Has eyes set on God. Doesn't fall into vain, time-wasting arguments
II Timothy 3:5	Keeps themself accountable to God. Has a real relationship with God.
Titus 2:11-14	Cooperates with Jesus purifying them, and employing them in good works, for eternal life
Titus 1:2, Titus 2:11-14	Hopes for eternal life
II Peter 3:10-12	Prepares for eternity
II Peter 1:3	Responds well to Jesus' supply to us of what we need to live godly lives.
II Peter 1:5-7	Supplements steadfastness (helps us to be more steadfast)
II Peter 1:5-7	Is supplemented by brotherly affection (in accordance with true knowledge about God)
II Peter 2:6, I Corinthians 6:18	Obeys God, and lives righteously, and in love for one's neighbour, and flees from lust
I Corinthians 10:8-14	Does not put Christ to the test. Clings to God, flees from idolatry, sexual immorality and other sin

63.1 Verses

Isaiah 32:6 - For a fool speaks nonsense, And his heart inclines toward wickedness: To practice ungodliness and to speak error against the Lord (H3068 Yhovah), To keep the hungry person unsatisfied And to withhold drink from the thirsty.

Romans 1:18 - For the wrath of God (G2316 theos) is revealed from heaven (G3772 ouranos) against all (G3956 pas) ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth (G225 aletheia) in unrighteousness,

Romans 11:26 - and so all (G3956 pas) Israel will be saved (G4982 sozo); just as it is written, "The Deliverer will come from Zion, He will remove ungodliness from Jacob."

I Timothy 2:1-4 - First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

I Timothy 2:10 - but rather by means of good works (G2041 ergon), as is proper for women making a claim to godliness.

I Timothy 3:16 - By common confession, great is the mystery (G3466 musterion) of godliness (G2150 eusebeia): He who (G3739 hos) was revealed in the flesh (G4561 sarx), Was vindicated in the Spirit (G4151 pneuma), Seen by angels, Proclaimed among the nations, Believed on in the world (G2889 kosmos), Taken up in glory (G1391 doxa).

I Timothy 4:7-8 - But have nothing to do with worldly fables fit only for old women. On the other hand, discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness (G2150 eusebeia); for bodily discipline is only of little profit, but godliness (G2150 eusebeia) is profitable for all (G3956 pas) things (G3956 pas), since it holds promise for the present life (G2222 zoe) and also for the life to come.

I Timothy 6:3-6 - If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, he is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, evil suspicions, and constant friction among people who are depraved in mind and deprived of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain. But godliness (G2150 eusebeia) actually is a means of great gain when accompanied by contentment.

I Timothy 6:10-11 - For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs. But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness.

II Timothy 2:16 - But avoid worldly and empty chatter, for it will lead to further ungodliness, II Timothy 3:5 - holding to a form of godliness (G2150 eusebeia), although they have denied its power (G1411 dunamis); Avoid such men as these.

Titus 1:1 - Paul, a bond-servant (G1401 doulos) of God (G2316 theos) and an apostle of Jesus (G2424 Iesous) Christ (G5547 Christos), for the faith (G4102 pistis) of those chosen of God (G2316 theos) and the knowledge (G1922 epignosis) of the truth (G225 aletheia) which is according to godliness (G2150 eusebeia),

Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works.

Jesus has granted us what we need to live a godly life:

> II Peter 1:3 - seeing that His divine power (G1411 dunamis) has granted to us everything (G3956 pas) pertaining to life (G2222 zoe) and godliness (G2150 eusebeia), through the true (G1922 epignosis) knowledge (G1922 epignosis) of Him who called us by His own glory (G1391 doxa) and excellence.
>
> II Peter 1:5-7 - For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love.
>
> II Peter 3:10-12 - But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn!

64 'Election' / predestination, theology etc. is a massive distraction, I think

Talking about "election" is a bit like talking about how God has in this specific instance, regarding Jacob, made a promise regarding him and about those who God foreknew. I don't think that this passage alone excludes the possibility that someone who wasn't predestined (at least from our perspective as humans trying to understand theology, say from the Reformed perspective) could be conformed to the image of His Son, that is, other people who were not "predestined". That seems like something I'd like to look into. I would point to Romans 11 and say that we should not be conceited, but in humility continue to trust and obey Jesus Christ, continuing to seek God's commendation. I would not exclude the possibility that someone who doesn't come under this banner of "election" as we understand it could repent and be grafted in and be saved. But I need to do more study on this.

It certainly seems to be that Jacob was "predestined" to be loved and that there are people who are "predestined" to be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ.

> Romans 8:28-34 - And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. (ESV)
>
> I Thessalonians 1:4-5 - For we know, brothers loved by God, that he has chosen you, because our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction. You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake. (ESV)

With regards to Romans 9:13, election is only guaranteed to ascribe to Jacob because a promise was given regarding Jacob before either Jacob or Esau were born, before they had done any good or evil:

> Romans 9:11-13 - though they were not yet born and had done nothing either good or bad—in order that God's purpose of election might continue, not because of works but because of his call— she was told, The older will serve the younger. As it is written, Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated. (ESV)

The mercy regarding election ultimately depends on God's mercy:

> Romans 9:16 - So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. (KJV)

Jesus has made a promise regarding mercy. We should be merciful if we want mercy from God:

> Matthew 5:7 - Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. (ESV)

> Psalms 18:24-26 - So the LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight. With the merciful you show yourself merciful; with the blameless man you show yourself blameless; with the purified you show yourself pure; and with the crooked you make yourself seem tortuous. (ESV)

If we want our election to be sure then we should be supplementing our faith as peter destribes. We should have brotherly affection and agape love for our family in Christ and not go on sinning:

> II Peter 1:5-10 - For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. (ESV

Rather than link Romans 8:30 all together like a daisy chain where nothing could go wrong, I take each segment as conveying a truth, then take the wisdom from the Apostle Peter who says we should make every effort to supplement our faith with such things as he has mentioned to make election sure:

Romans 8:30 - And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. (ESV)		Reality
Someone who is predestined will be called.	Many are called, but few are chosen. (Matthew 22:1-14)	Few made it past this step
Those whom He called, He also justified	We must continue in the faith. (Ezekiel 18:26-27, Colossians 1:21-23, I Timothy 6:20-21)	Sadly, some people apostate and go back to loving evil rather than Jesus.
Those whom He justified, He also glorified	God will bring every deed into judgement, if we sow to the spirit the we will reap eternal life, but if we sow to the flesh, we will reap corruption. (Ecclesiastes 12:14, Galatians 6:8, Romans 6:17-18)	God is not mocked

> II Peter 1:3-12 - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord

> Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Therefore I intend always to remind you of these qualities, though you know them and are established in the truth that you have. (ESV)

Apostle Paul talks about a wreath. We don't give ourselves the wreath. And Paul mentions that disqualification is a possibility:

> I Corinthians 9:24-27 - Do you not know that in a race all the runners compete, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it. Every athlete exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. So I do not run aimlessly; I do not box as one beating the air. But I discipline my body and keep it under control, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified. (ESV)

The elect have soft hearts:

> Romans 11:7-10 - What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was seeking. The elect obtained it, but the rest were hardened, as it is written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear, down to this very day. And David says, Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them; let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and bend their backs forever.

A soft heart is needed to perceive and understand:

> Mark 8:17 - And Jesus, aware of this, said to them, Why are you discussing the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened? (ESV)

God can harden or soften hearts, but so can people harden and soften their own heart:

> II Chronicles 36:12-13 - He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord his God. He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the Lord. He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God. He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the Lord, the God of Israel. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:8 - do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness,

We ourselves should have soft hearts which love the truth and don't try to resist the truth, and have faith in and receive and love Jesus Christ and has the fear of God and humility before God:

> Romans 11:17-27 - But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, although a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing root of the olive tree, do not be arrogant toward the branches. If you are, remember it is not you who support the root, but the root that supports you. Then you will say, Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in. That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. For if you were cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, the natural branches, be grafted back into their own olive tree. Lest you be wise in your own conceits, I want you to understand this mystery, brothers: a partial hardening has come upon Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. And in this way all Israel will be saved, as it is written, The Deliverer will come from Zion, he will banish ungodliness from Jacob; and this will be my covenant with them when I take away their sins. (ESV)

> Mark 3:4-5 - And He said to them, “Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the Sabbath, to save a life or to kill?” But they kept silent. After looking around at them with anger, grieved at their hardness of heart, He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. (ESV)

> Mark 8:17 - And Jesus, aware of this, said to them, Why are you discussing the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened? (ESV)

> II Chronicles 36:12-13 - He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord his God. He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the Lord. He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God. He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the Lord, the God of Israel. (ESV)

> Zechariah 7:12 - They made their hearts diamond-hard lest they should hear the law and the words that the Lord of hosts had sent by his Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great anger came from the Lord of hosts. (ESV)

If we have a hard heart, we should ask for a new one:

> Ezekiel 36:26 - And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.

So when Paul is saying ”it depends not on human will or exertion, but on God, who has mercy.” I believe that this is directly related to how Jesus says ”No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him”:

> John 6:44 - No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

> Romans 9:16 - So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. (KJV)

The will to come to Jesus in still instrumental to being saved. But God draws a person:

> John 5:39-40 - You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life. (ESV)

Jesus Himself says ”not my will but Yours, be done”:

> Luke 22:42 - saying, Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done. (ESV)

Yet Jesus was acting of His own initiative:

> John 10:18 - No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father. (ESV)

We must still have faith in Jesus Christ:

> Romans 4:16 - That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, (ESV)

> Philippians 3:9 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith—(ESV)

And in these specific circumstances, we can say that the promise did not depend on human will or exertion, but on God who has mercy, because they were not even born yet, but one was a child of promise.

> Romans 9:15-16 - For he says to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. So then it depends not on human will or exertion, but on God, who has mercy. (ESV)

God has made promises that are dependant on our having faith in God, specifically, faith in Jesus Christ, but it's not by works:

> Romans 9:30-33 - What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness did not succeed in reaching that law. Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, as it is written, Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame. (ESV)

Election does not mean we must not have faith. We must continue abiding in Jesus' commandments:

> Romans 11:17-22 - But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, although a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing root of the olive tree, do not be arrogant toward the branches. If you are, remember it is not you who support the root, but the root that supports you. Then you will say, Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in. That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. (ESV)

> Matthew 7:18-22 - A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? (ESV)

I believe that here on earth, God wants us to choose Jesus. But from God's perspective, who knows how it works.

> Isaiah 55:8-9 - For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. (ESV)

God can raise up children from anyone who has repentance and may grant being a child of Abraham to anyone who walks in the footsteps of the faith that Abraham had before he was circumcised.

> Luke 3:8 - Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham.

> Romans 4:9-12 - Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

> Because the two times that Paul uses the term predestination in chapter 8 (Romans 8) and in Ephesians 1 are both about God predestining people to become conformed in the image of his Son and predestining people to become holy and blameless, which is exactly the same thing, it's synonymous. Becoming holy and blameless is the same as being conformed to the image of his Son. It doesn't say he's conforming he's predestining certain people to become believers, it says predestined believers to become like Jesus. He's predestined believers, those who are in Christ, to become holy and blameless.
>
> Hebrews 2:11-12 - For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, saying, I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise. (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:29-30 - For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. (ESV)
>
> Ephesians 1:3-10 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love he predestined us for adoption through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, which he lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his purpose, which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. (ESV)

We do have the ability to make choices:

> Isaiah 66:3 - He who slaughters an ox is like one who kills a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, like one who breaks a dog's neck; he who presents a grain offering, like one who offers pig's blood; he who makes a memorial offering of frankincense, like one who blesses an idol. These have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations; (ESV)

A gift can be accepted or rejected - and this is a choice we can make:

> Romans 5:17 - If, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Even the elect need help to obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory:

> II Timothy 2:10 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. (ESV)

We should not lean on our own understanding:

> Isaiah 55:9 - For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

What we should do now is acknowledge the LORD, keep our eyes on Jesus, and live godly lives (godliness is behaviour in accordance with the knowledge of God, believe the truth and walk in that truth, love the light, walk in the light, walk in the truth). Trust in the LORD to save us as we walk in the light (in obedience):

> Proverbs 3:5-6 - Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.
> In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. (ESV)

Although God chooses who He has mercy on, we should still have a godly and humble response to God's mercy:

> Romans 9:10-16 - And not only so, but also when Rebecca had conceived children by one man, our forefather Isaac, though they were not yet born and had done nothing either good or bad—in order that God's purpose of election might continue, not because of works but because of his call— she was told, The older will serve the younger. As it is written, Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated. What shall we say then? Is there injustice on God's part? By no means! For he says to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. So then it depends not on human will or exertion, but on God, who has mercy.

We should be confident that God will continue to take care of us:

> Romans 8:29-39- For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written, For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered. No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

God has good plans for us and we should submit to His wisdom, and obey Him:

> Isaiah 64:8 - But now, O Lord, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand.
>
> Romans 8:28 - And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.

Who chooses who? I believe Jesus chose me and I also choose Jesus every day but Jesus chose me first:

> John 15:16 - You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:29 - For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.

youtube.com: When Calvinism Goes Bad {Part 3} - Tim Conway {@illbehonest} @time: 55 min 58 sec

> Have you ever noticed how the evangelistic teaching of the apostolic preachers in the Book of Acts never ever mention election once. And yet, the epistles, which are written to God's people, rarely of devoid of it. Have you ever noticed that? Calvin recognized that Scripture generally introduces the doctrine of election to show Believers the security and certainty of their salvation and to humble Christians by showing them who makes them to differ from others. That is true. But when election is constantly introduced to the lost it inevitably proves to be an obstruction in the minds of lost men and women. I guarantee you the devil would use it that way.

God is the Creator, our Maker.

- For those who love God

  - obedient to God

- For those who are called according to His purpose
- All things work together for good

God's ultimately the one in control of us but from our perspective we must submit to His righteousness and His will and be obedient.
To make election sure, and to not fail, one must practice personal righteousness and put a stop to sin.

> II Peter 1:10-11 - Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

> Acts 13:14-16 - but they went on from Perga and came to Antioch in Pisidia. And on the Sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down. After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent a message to them, saying, Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, say it. So Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand said: Men of Israel and you who fear God, listen. (ESV)

When it comes to be being saved to serve Christ, we can't boast that in some way we earned salvation outside of God's gift/grace:

> Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV)

> Romans 11:32 - For God has consigned all to disobedience (543. apeitheia - willful unbelief, obstinancy, disobedience), that he may have mercy on all. (ESV)

We still need to submit to God's righteousness. We were all in disobedience so we all need mercy from God. We all need Jesus' blood to be justified. We're not trying to establish our own righteousness outside of Christ. We all need to be washed by the Holy Spirit:

> Romans 10:3 - For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. (ESV)

God's mercy doesn't come at the expense of His justice. I don't think it's necessarily correct to say, "We want mercy, not justice" because God is just when He gives mercy and, for example, when we confess sin as Christians, He is faithful and just to forgive us of our sins and cleanse us of all unrighteousness. So justice and mercy are not really mutually exclusive:

> Luke 18:1-8 - And he told them a parable to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart. He said, In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected man. And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, Give me justice against my adversary. For a while he refused, but afterward he said to himself, Though I neither fear God nor respect man, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice, so that she will not beat me down by her continual coming. And the Lord said, Hear what the unrighteous judge says. And will not God give justice to his elect, who cry to him day and night? , Will he delay long over them? I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth? (ESV)

Homologeó means to come into agreement with the fact. So we need to come into agreement with the truth that we have sinned and that such things are sinful. So then, if we walk in the light, if we are doing as commanded by God, (as in having faith in Jesus and loving our family in Christ as God wants us to) then we walk in the light and the blood of Jesus cleanses us from our sin, so mercy and justice are not really separate things here:

> I John 1:6-10 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

We must "walk in the light" (love in the truth, love in the light, love in actuality, from the heart). We can't love in truth while denying Christ, for example (John 3:14-19, I John 4:1-3). And we can't love in the truth while hating our family in Christ (I John 3:14-20). We love because God loved us first (I John 4:6-19). Loving in the truth also means that it is out of faith in the truth (Romans 14:23), out of sincere love for God (I Corinthians 16:22), endeavouring to do what God wants us to do, seeking to please God (Hebrews 11:6, Romans 8:3-10, Hebrews 11:6, Galatians 1:1-10), in the truth (accepting God loved us first, II John 1:1-3), unlike a whitewashed-wall Pharisee who doesn't do their works from a truly obedient heart (I Peter 2:6-9). Good deeds come out of sincerely obeying Jesus Christ out of faith in Him. Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us and He commanded us to love our family in Christ as a must. We must love our family in Christ. The deeds will come from a genuine love in the truth from the heart:

> I John 3:14-20 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love (agapōmen) the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

> Proverbs 12:12 - Whoever is wicked covets the spoil of evildoers, but the root of the righteous bears fruit. (ESV)

No joke, we must take care of our family in Christ who are in need. It's mandatory. Be the good Samaritan to our family in Christ when they need our help. If a person knows what good he ought to do and doesn't do it then for that person it is sin. If we are to love in truth then when we know what good we ought to do, we should then be doing it:

> James 2:14-17 - What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled, without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. (ESV)

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

God is just regardless:

> Romans 9:13-16 - As it is written, Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated. What shall we say then? Is there injustice on God's part? By no means! For he says to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. So then it depends not on human will or exertion, but on God, who has mercy. (ESV)

If we are merciful then we will receive mercy:

> Matthew 5:7 - Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.

I think Jesus wants us to ”prove to be a neighbour to others”, to show mercy to others, even for the sole reason that they’re a fellow human being, without necessarily knowing anything else about them, particularly people who have been afflicted by evil (in this case, robbed, beaten and left for dead):

> Luke 10:25-37 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

- The elect fear God
  - They had soft hearts
    - able to believe and obey
- The non-elect judge themselves unworthy of eternal life
  - They had hard hearts
    - unable to believe and obey

One thing is for sure. The elect do not have hard hearts (Romans 11:7-10). So I’d say if a person’s heart is not totally hard, then soften it.

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV) youtube.com: God Is Our Savior from What? 1 Timothy 1:1-2, Part 2 @time: 2 min 3 sec He does everything he does as an apostle to help people (who turn out to be God’s elect) obtain salvation.

> II Timothy 2:10 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. (ESV)

A heart not easy to be moved with virtuous affections:

> Deuteronomy 15:7 - If among you, one of your brothers should become poor, in any of your towns within your land that the Lord your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart or shut your hand against your poor brother, (ESV)

> Mark 3:4-5 - And He said to them, “Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the Sabbath, to save a life or to kill?” But they kept silent. After looking around at them with anger, grieved at their hardness of heart, He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: Do I Have a Hard Heart?

> Mark 8:17 - And Jesus, aware of this, said to them, Why are you discussing the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened? (ESV)

> II Chronicles 36:12-13 - He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord his God. He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the Lord. He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God. He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the Lord, the God of Israel. (ESV)

> Romans 2:4 - Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? (ESV)

> Zechariah 7:12 - They made their hearts diamond-hard lest they should hear the law and the words that the Lord of hosts had sent by his Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great anger came from the Lord of hosts. (ESV)

If we have a hard heart, we should ask for a new one:

> Ezekiel 36:26 - And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh.

Don't let your heart go hard - find a community of encouraging believers - this place looks cool: `https://www.youtube.com/@jesusimage`:

> Hebrews 3:13 - But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

> Acts 13:46-48 - And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, It was necessary that the word of God be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it aside and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we are turning to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth. And when the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed. (ESV)

I do believe, however, that cooperation is generally required on the part of the believer:

- Before regeneration, and
- After regeneration

Before regeneration, I was trying hard to repent of my sin by trying to obey the 10 commandments from the heart. And I would say I was also making progress. After regeneration, I had to learn to walk in Jesus' commandments, and to submit to His righteousness.

To be sanctified by faith in Jesus is an applied process, I think:

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

Obeying Jesus Christ, and having love perfected in us is the most important part of sanctification, I think:

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

In similar fashion to Jesus continually obeying Father God as he endured suffering, I think we should learn to submit and follow Jesus' commandments:

> Hebrews 5:7-10 - In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

The 1689 Baptist confession affirms that the problem of corruption remains after regeneration:

```
Paragraph 5

The corruption of nature, during this life, does remain in those that are regenerated;13 and although it be through Christ pardoned and mortified, yet both itself, and the first motions thereof, are truly and properly sin.14

13 Rom. 7:18,23; Eccles. 7:20; 1 John 1:8
14 Rom. 7:23-25; Gal. 5:17
```

64.1 My experience in turning to love Jesus and obey Jesus

I believe that after being born-again of the spirit, I had (with very little knowledge of Jesus' commandments) had to learn Jesus' commandments and apply them, and I believe the Holy Spirit taught me to obey Jesus as I read Jesus' sayings and was subsequently tested on those sayings. For example, if I read that we must give to all who ask, and then the Lord sets up a situation where someone asks for money, then I have a choice to obey Jesus, which means resisting those who try to deter me from obeying Jesus. Upon being tested, someone would offer worldly wisdom in an attempt to deter me from following Jesus, and as I obey God I am led by the Holy Spirit, and taught by the Holy Spirit. And this is an ongoing process. I say this for others' sake to explain how I have come to know how faith in Jesus, following Jesus, works practically, that it is more than mere intellectual belief to be led by the Spirit, but it is also obedience, and a process of sanctification, and walking in the light which involves walking in love characteristic of Christ's love.

So I was born-again of the Spirit and when that happened I was given some very strong faith/knowledge that God exists, but I still had to seek Jesus because the Bible says that anyone who claims to know Jesus but doesn't walk in His commandments is not telling the truth, and I want to come to know Jesus.

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

When people say, ”Is there anyone who does not know Jesus yet? Please put up your hand.” they are effectively saying, ”Is there anyone who does not follow Jesus' commandments yet? Please put up your hand.”

Believing in your heart is an initial act of obedience before continuing in the teaching of Christ. If we believe in Him we have obeyed Him, but belief doesn't end there:

> John 14:1 - "Do not let your heart be troubled; believe (G4100 pisteuo) in God, believe (G4100 pisteuo) also in Me. (NASB)

> Acts 28:27 - For the heart of this people has become dull, And with their ears they scarcely hear, And they have closed their eyes; Otherwise they might see with their eyes, And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart and return, And I would heal them.”’

God wants everyone who comes to Jesus and place their trust in Him to have eternal life:

> John 6:40-47 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. So the Jews grumbled about him, because he said, I am the bread that came down from heaven. They said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, I have come down from heaven? Jesus answered them, Do not grumble among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me—not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. (ESV)

If you hear Jesus' word and believe Father God, then you have eternal life, and don't come into judgement. I don't doubt it. We must continue trusting. But the enemy will certainly try to condemn the person after they are born-again.

> Matthew 17:5 - He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him. (ESV)

Trusting Jesus' words we do not come into judgement, but change direction, and instead our destiny is life eternal. We do not come into judgement. Jesus is the judge of that:

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word (191. akouó) and believes (4100. pisteuó) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed (3327. metabain) from death to life. (ESV)

I think John 5:24 reads that the one who is trusting the words spoken through Jesus, trusting God, trusting Jesus is holds/posesses eternal life and has passed/is passing/passes from death into life.

2064. erchomai to come, go

3327. metabain to pass over, withdraw, depart

> John 5:24 - Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. (KJV)

It's imperative that as we go ahead, we must abide in the teaching of Christ, or we won't have God (Jehovah God), and God is love and love comes from God, so we need to abide in Christ's teachings, by belief and by obedience. For example, in Mark 10:18, Jesus affirmed that God is Good. Therefore when we read this, we must also be sanctified by this truth, affirming and coming into agreement that God is Good. Also, Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us John 13:34-35:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

64.2 Repentance includes bearing fruit and being raised up as a child for Abraham

John the Baptist taught repentance and love for one's neighbour before receiving the baptisim of the Holy Spirit:

> Luke 3:3-8 - And he went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Every valley shall > be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall become straight, and the rough places shall become level ways, and all flesh shall see the salvation of God. He said therefore to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from (G575 apo; from, away from, of, by) the wrath to come? Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham.

Regeneration is the sovereign work of the Holy Spirit, though. AMEN!! Nevertheless, I believe in allowing Jesus Christ to be my Lord and being sanctified through obedience to Jesus:

> John 3:5-8 - Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again. The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.

> John 6:45-47 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me — not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes (G4100 pisteuo) has eternal life.

Also, I believe that this is what God actually wants from us - to seek Him and worship Him of our own volition.

> Romans 11:7-10 - What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was seeking. The elect obtained it, but the rest were hardened, as it is written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear, down to this very day. And David says, Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them; let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and bend their backs forever.

The Gentiles should not harden their own hearts. Neither should the Jews.

> Psalms 95:8 - do not harden your hearts, as at Meribah, as on the day at Massah in the wilderness,

> Hebrews 3:8 - do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness,

> Hebrews 3:15 - As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion.

> Hebrews 4:7 - again he appoints a certain day, Today, saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts.

God puts the fear of Him into the elect's heart.

> Jeremiah 32:40 - I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me. (ESV)

I still think there is co-operation by the believer before and after spiritual regeneration.

Having heard the truth, the Spirit sanctifies us through our obedience to the Spirit, and are we are conformed to holiness, not to impurity:

> I Peter 1:14-16 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy.

We purify ourselves as we have faith in Jesus:

> I John 3:3 - And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

Having purified ourselves by obedience to the truth:
This here says we must obey for the sake of purification of our souls even after being born-again:

> I Peter 1:22-23 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God;

And Jesus instructs us to have an obedient heart if we want to know that Jesus' teaching is from God:

> John 7:17 - If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. (ESV)

64.3 God loved us first

> I John 4:8-11 - Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

> Isaiah 64:8 - But now, O LORD, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. (ESV)

64.3.1 God's love is greater

> Romans 8:35 - Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

> Romans 8:39 - nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

64.4 God was faithful to us first

64.4.1 God's faithfulness is greater

> Romans 3:3-4 - What if some were unfaithful? Does their faithlessness nullify the faithfulness of God? By no means! Let God be true though every one were a liar, as it is written, That you may be justified in your words, and prevail when you are judged.

> II Timothy 2:13 - if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself.

Today <2024-06-02 Sun> in the morning I got a picture of the Star of David. To me that means: "God is faithful".

Song Amy Grant - El-Shaddai

I still get encouragements such as this from God.
I also got a bunch of pictures of my family.

64.4.2 We can rest in God and don't need to trust in our own understanding too much

> Psalms 131:1-3 - O LORD, my heart is not lifted up; my eyes are not raised too high; I do not occupy myself with things too great and too marvelous for me. A Song of Ascents. Of David. But I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child is my soul within me. O Israel, hope in the LORD from this time forth and forevermore. (ESV)

In following Jesus, the Apostles were perplexed sometimes:

> II Corinthians 4:8 - We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; (ESV)

That's because we don't have the full picture:

> I Corinthians 13:9 - For we know in part and we prophesy in part, (ESV)

> Proverbs 3:5-6 - Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. (ESV)

> Isaiah 55:8-9 - For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. (ESV)

God has made Christ Jesus our wisdom:

> I Corinthians 1:30 - He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom and our righteousness and sanctification and redemption. (ESV)

64.5 The Way is available for everyone, but not everyone ends up walking it

Jesus made the Way - He is the Way:

> Romans 5:18-19 - Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men. For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

- for all men
- the many

64.6 We have free will, but the Holy Spirit helps us and dwells with us and comes to be in us

We can't come to Jesus unless Father God draws us to Jesus. While it is true that we need God to draw us, I believe we should still choose Jesus, and follow Jesus as Jesus' sheep:

> John 6:44 - No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

We're supposed to do the will of God from the heart:

> Ephesians 6:6 - not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart,

When we hear Jesus' voice, we must open the door. We have free will to receive or reject Jesus - we must be obedient believers:

> Revelation of John 3:20 - Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me. (ESV)

It was unbelief which led to these people's sin of idolatry and covetousness which prevented them from entering into God's rest:

> Hebrews 3:7-15 - Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness, where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years. Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, They always go astray in their heart; they have not known my ways. As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest. Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:16-19 - For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

> Hebrews 4:7-11 - again he appoints a certain day, Today, saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts. For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. (ESV)

It was idolatry that was the disobedience which prevented these from entering into God's rest:

> I Corinthians 10:1-14 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. (ESV)

If you keep Jesus' commandments then the Spirit of Truth will come to you, and help you, and be in you. If we obey Jesus, the Holy Spirit helps us, even before He's inside us:

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

Since the Holy Spirit dwells with us even before He is in us, I do understand that the Holy Spirit may seem to be more force-like before the Holy Spirit dwells inside and we know Him as a person.

As an example, as I was talking to a couple of JWs this year, a leaflet containing the gospel message tumbled down the footpath and stopped at my feet. I picked it up and we conferred about it.

Paul was resisting the goading of the Holy Spirit:

> Acts 26:14 - And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads. (ESV)

Being born of the Spirit is something which is genuinely unpredictable but we can sense its coming and going. It's not the same thing as getting someone to pray a sinner's prayer, for example, otherwise Jesus would not have used this analogy. We can sense it (hear it's sound. Me making testimony of being born of the Spirit is me making the sound, I guess), but we don't know where it comes form or where it goes:

> John 3:3-8 - Jesus answered him, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus said to him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born? Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again. The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. (ESV)

We should aim for Jesus' commandments to become unburdensome. So I would use the analogy of entering a current of water (like the Turtle Cruising in Finding Nemo) While in the Holy Spirit, Jesus' commandments should be unburdensome, and having the Holy Spirit in us helps us to keep Jesus' commandments even when we face resistance from the world. I believe that inside God's rest, that rest involves keeping God's commandments, we have Jesus' yoke, trusting and obeying Jesus and God helps us:

> I John 5:3 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

It appears there is evidence that we live by the Spirit even before we walk by the Spirit. We must also walk by the Spirit:

> Galatians 5:22-25 - But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. (ESV)
>
> I John 3:2-7 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)

We obey Jesus to be saved:

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him,

We obey Jesus to receive the Holy Spirit:

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.

Jesus certainly suggests here that by believing and obeying Jesus' commandments, we can receive the Holy Spirit. Walking by Jesus' words and commandments is walking by the Spirit:

> John 6:63-65 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe. (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.) And He was saying, "For this reason I have said to you, that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted him from the Father."

This definitely indicates that we should try to keep Jesus Christ's commandments even before receiving the Holy Spirit inside of us.

64.7 We have free will. We must believe God

We may ask God for a willing spirit:

> Psalms 51:10-12 - Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit. (ESV)

Obedience is good:

> Psalms 40:6-8 - Sacrifice and offering you have not desired, but you have given me an open ear. Burnt offering and sin offering you have not required. Then I said, Behold, I have come; in the scroll of the book it is written of me: I desire to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart. (ESV)

There is intellectual belief and there is experiential belief, and we could have both, by having both belief and obedience to Jesus. To believe, we must be seeking God, not glory from one another:

> John 5:44 - How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? (ESV)

Nevertheless, if a person hears the word of Christ, and believes the word of Christ, they are believing the truth, and a natural consequence of that should be the development of faith because while believing the truth, other things become more apparent:

- youtube.com: Spiritual Warfare: How to Put on the Armor of God @time: 1 min 35 sec

> Romans 10:17 - So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ. (ESV)

The Scriptures say Abraham believed God, and it doesn't say God believed God. We must believe God:

> Romans 4:3 - For what does the Scripture say? Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness. (ESV)

The Scriptures say Abraham obeyed God - we must become obedient believers:

> Genesis 26:5 - because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws. (ESV)

Also, in advance of being given the promise, Abraham was faithful to God:

> Genesis 14:23 - that I would not take a thread or a sandal strap or anything that is yours, lest you should say, I have made Abram rich.

That is when God rewarded Abraham for Abraham's faithfulness, with a promise:

> Genesis 15:1-6 - After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision: Fear not, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great. But Abram said, O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus? And Abram said, Behold, you have given me no offspring, and a member of my household will be my heir. And behold, the word of the Lord came to him: This man shall not be your heir; your very own son shall be your heir. And he brought him outside and said, Look toward heaven, and number the stars, if you are able to number them. Then he said to him, So shall your offspring be. And he believed (539. aman) the Lord, and he counted it to him as righteousness.

Rewards are for people who choose to do the right thing.

It doesn't say, God rewarded God. God said that Abraham's reward shall be very great. God rewarded Abraham.

64.8 Seeking God

Blessed are those who like being around Jesus and trust Him:

> Luke 7:23 - And blessed is the one who is not offended by me.

Blessed are those who have believed before having come to see and know for certain:

> John 20:29 - Jesus said to him, Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed. (ESV)

Blessed are those who ask and seek for a blessing:

> Matthew 7:7-8 - Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.

64.9 Run the race

> Hebrews 12:1 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us,

> I Corinthians 9:24 - Do you not know that in a race all the runners compete, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it.

> Luke 13:24 - Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able.

> Galatians 5:7 - You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

> Philippians 3:13-14 - Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

> II Timothy 4:6-9 - For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing. Do your best to come to me soon.

64.9.1 Steadfastness

James 1:1-4 - James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes in the Dispersion: Greetings. Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. (ESV)

II Peter 1:5-10 - For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. (ESV)

James 1:12 - Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him. (ESV)

James 5:11 - Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful. (ESV)

Titus 2:1-8 - But as for you, teach what accords with sound doctrine. Older men are to be sober-minded, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, and in steadfastness. Older women likewise are to be reverent in behavior, not slanderers or slaves to much wine. They are to teach what is good, and so train the young women to love their husbands and children, to be self-controlled, pure, working at home, kind, and submissive to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be reviled. Likewise, urge the younger men to be self-controlled. Show yourself in all respects to be a model of good works, and in your teaching show integrity, dignity, and sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that an opponent may be put to shame, having nothing evil to say about us. (ESV)

I Corinthians 15:58 - Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (ESV)

Colossians 1:21-23 - And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. (ESV)

64.10 God has planned in advance our salvation

64.10.1 Grace alone - `sola gratia` (by grace alone) AMEN!!

I Corinthians 1:30 - But by His doing you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption, (NASB)

Ephesians 1:3 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, (ESV)

Ephesians 1:4-5 - just as He chose (G1586 eklegomai) us in Him before (G4253 pro) the foundation of the world (G2889 kosmos), that we would be holy and blameless before Him. In love He predestined (G4309 proorizo) us to adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the kind intention (G2107 eudokia) of His will, (NASB)

```
:  1586  eklegomai  ek-leg'-om-ahee middle voice from 1537 and 3004 (in its primary sense); to select:--make choice, choose (out), chosen.

 see GREEK for 1537
 see GREEK for 3004
```

```
:  4309  proorizo  pro-or-id'-zo

 from 4253 and 3724; to limit in advance, i.e. (figuratively) predetermine:--determine before, ordain, predestinate.
 see GREEK for 4253
 see GREEK for 3724
```

In the fullness of time, all things in heaven and earth are united to God:

> Ephesians 1:10 - as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

Given that we have an inheritance, it's evident that God must have predestined us:

> Ephesians 1:11-14 - In him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will, so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory.

The inheritance is salvation:

> Hebrews 1:14 - Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to serve for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation? (ESV)

64.11 We are fellow workers with God. It's by God's power that our work flourishes

> Ephesians 3:16 - that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being,

64.11.1 Without God we can do nothing

> I Corinthians 3:6-9 - I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building.

> John 1:3 - All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. (ESV)

We work in God's field:

> John 4:34-38 - Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. Do you not say, There are yet four months, then comes the harvest? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest. Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, One sows and another reaps. I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.

64.11.2 God's power through Jesus, through the man's faith in Jesus' name made the man walk

> Acts 3:12 - And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? (KJV)

The man had faith - faith enters into the truth / receives from God:

> Acts 3:5-8 - And he began to give them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, "I do not possess silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you: In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene– walk!" And seizing him by the right hand, he raised him up; and immediately his feet and his ankles were strengthened. With a leap he stood upright and began to walk; and he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

Through Peter, Jesus made the man walk through Jesus' own power and Jesus' holiness:

> Acts 3:6-7,11-12 - But Peter said, I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk! And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. While he clung to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the portico called Solomon's, astounded. And when Peter saw it he addressed the people: Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk? (ESV)

The faith which comes through Jesus which the man had in Jesus' name is what healed the man:

> Acts 3:16 - And on the basis of faith in His name, it is the name of Jesus which has strengthened this man whom you see and know; and the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect health in the presence of you all.

There are other instances of this - it's faith in Jesus which makes a person well and receives forgiveness and salvation from Jesus:

> Mark 5:34 - And he said to her, Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease. (ESV)

> Luke 7:47-50 - Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven-for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little. And he said to her, Your sins are forgiven. Then those who were at table with him began to say among themselves, Who is this, who even forgives sins? And he said to the woman, Your faith has saved you; go in peace. (ESV)

65 Father God

- Psalms 147:4 - He determines the number of the stars; he gives to all of them their names. (ESV)
- Psalms 139:4 - Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O LORD, you know it altogether. (ESV)
- Luke 12:7 - Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows. (ESV)

> Amos 5:8 - He who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns deep darkness into the morning and darkens the day into night, who calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out on the surface of the earth, the LORD is his name; (ESV)

```
1  6213              3598        3685         2015
2  ‘ō·śêh            ḵî·māh      ū·ḵə·sîl,    wə·hō·p̄êḵ
3
4  He made           the Pleiades and Orion    and He turns
5  V-Qal-Prtcpl-msc  N-fs        Conj-w | N-ms Conj-w | V-Qal-Prtcpl-ms
```

```
1  1242               6757                3117          3915
2  lab·bō·qer         ṣal·mā·weṯ,         wə·yō·wm      lay·lāh
3
4  into morning       the shadow of death and the day   as night
5  Prep-l, Art | N-ms N-ms                Conj-w | N-ms N-ms
```

```
1  2821             7121                 4325
2  heḥ·šîḵ;         haq·qō·w·rê          lə·mê-
3
4  makes dark       He calls             for the waters
5  V-Hifil-Perf-3ms Art | V-Qal-Prtcpl-ms Prep-l | N-mpc
```

```
1  3220       8210
2  hay·yām,   way·yiš·pə·ḵêm
3
4  of the sea and pours them out
5  Art | N-ms Conj-w | V-Qal-ConsecImperf-3ms | 3mp
```

```
1  5921 6440     776          3068        8034
2  ‘al- pə·nê    hā·’ā·reṣ    Yah·weh     šə·mōw.       s
3
4  on   the face of the earth Yahweh      [is] His name  -
5  Prep N-cpc    Art | N-fs   N-proper-ms N-msc | 3ms   Punc
```

II Chronicles 15:3-4 - For a long time Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest and without law, but when in their distress they turned to the Lord, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them.

Jeremiah 10:10 - But the Lord is the true God; he is the living God and the everlasting King. At his wrath the earth quakes, and the nations cannot endure his indignation.

Deuteronomy 10:14 - Behold, to the LORD your God belong heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth with all that is in it. (ESV)

Ephesians 3:9-11 - and to bring to light for everyone what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things, so that through the church the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was according to the eternal purpose that he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord,

Romans 1:18-25 - For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness (763. asebeia) and unrighteousness (93. adikia) of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise, they became fools, and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles. Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

> Deuteronomy 7:9 - Know therefore that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations, (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: To Him Be Glory Forever

> Romans 11:33-36 - Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways! For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor? Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid? For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen. (ESV)

65.1 Jesus is the Only Way to Father God

> John 14:1-6 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going. Thomas said to him, Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way? Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

We must get to know God through knowing Jesus:

> John 14:7-9 - If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him. Philip said to him, Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us. Jesus said to him, Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, Show us the Father?

We want to know Jesus experientially because Jesus has made us His own:

> Philippians 3:12 - Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

A relationship is formed between the obedient person and God:

- Get to know Jesus by following His commandments and being obedient and willing to do God's will.
- But as we do God's will, God comes to know us (it's simultaneous):

> Galatians 4:8-9 - Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more?

65.2 The life that Father God gave us is in His Son, Jesus Christ

> I John 4:8-11 - Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

65.2.1 God made Himself knowable by sending Jesus Christ, who has made Father God known

> John 1:14 - And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.

God is knowable through having faith in Jesus Christ:

> John 1:18 - No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known.

> Exodus 33:18-23 - Moses said, Please show me your glory. And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before you and will proclaim before you my name The Lord. And I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. But, he said, you cannot see my face, for man shall not see me and live. And the Lord said, Behold, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock, and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by. Then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back, but my face shall not be seen.

Grace, mercy, and the eternal life which God has given us is in Jesus Christ. He is the bread of life:

> II John 1:3 - Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love.

> I John 5:11 - And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

I confess (G3670 homologeó) that God was acting through Jesus Christ of Nazareth as He walked the earth in the flesh, around 2000 years ago, and that God is still working through us who are in Christ Jesus.

> Philippians 2:13 - for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

> John 10:32 - Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?"

Even though Hebrews says that God rested on the 7th day and His works were finished, Jesus said that He and the Father are both working till now. So I guess that they are still working in a restful way. Having rested, continues to do good.

> John 5:16-17 - And this was why the Jews were persecuting Jesus, because he was doing these things on the Sabbath. But Jesus answered them, My Father is working until now, and I am working. (ESV)

So, yes, we must enter God's rest, but that doesn't mean never doing any more work for God again. It just means you've entered the rest of God. Had Paul entered into God's rest yet?

> Romans 15:17 - In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God. (ESV)

Does the labour of a preacher mean that he hasn't entered into God's rest? Of course not. That would be absurd.

> I Timothy 5:17-18 - Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in preaching and teaching. For the Scripture says, You shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain, and, The laborer deserves his wages. (ESV)

In Christ Jesus, our labour is not in vain:

> I Corinthians 15:56-58 - The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (ESV)

> Hebrews 4:9-10 - So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. (ESV)

Our labour for the food that Christ gives us is salvific:

> John 6:27 - Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal. (ESV)

Instead of labouring in futility, we labour instead in obedience to Christ:

We obey Jesus' commandments in faith and we persevere with that, striving to obey Jesus, striving to remain faithful to Jesus and at some point we enter rest which Jesus gives us. Our Master, Jesus, who we obey gives us the rest, and He gives it to us while we hold our faith in Him and abide in His commandments. OK so, living by total dependance on Jesus, giving yourself away to others, believing that Jesus will provide what we need as we continue trying to do the right thing by Jesus, can sometimes feel like living precariously when we lose faith, but it is not precarious. Like God providing manna in the wilderness to the Israelites and all the Israelites had to do was continue trusting and obeying God, and God provided what they needed, we too go through this phase where God is teaching us to depend on Him. But at some point we arrive in the "promised land" of rest as He sanctifies us and His commandments no longer feel burdensome. At some point, it starts to feel like not just trying to help others but now others helping us. We enter the promised land of God's rest together. That's how I think it generally works. But Jesus gives the rest, right? So there's no onus on us or command from Jesus to us to purposefully cease endeavouring to make spiritual sacrifices in order to enter this rest. As far as I understand, we continue obeying Jesus and Jesus grants the rest:

> Matthew 11:28-30 - Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (ESV)

We do end up resting completely from our labours when we die in the Lord:

> Revelation of John 14:13 - And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on. Blessed indeed, says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them! (ESV)

So, yes, we must enter God's rest, but after having done so, we have Christ's yoke, and the yoke is easy, but not nonexistent. The burden of Christ's yoke is light but not nonexistent. So having the yoke of the Lord doesn't mean never working again. It means doing good and not doing evil. It means being carried by Him to do His will.

It takes endurance and striving to enter that rest.

> Hebrews 4:11 - Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:36-39 - For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

Jesus' commandments become unburdensome as God sets up opportuniteis to do good and choos good and obey Jesus and empower us to do His will (*Hebrews 13:20-21), and to make pleasing spiritual sacrifices to Him.

> I John 5:3 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:4-5 - As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

How to get there?

- Have faith in Jesus Christ Himself to receive the propitiation by His blood
  - Romans 3:21-26 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)
- Practice the commandments of Christ in the Truth
  - I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)
- Jesus Christ's blood is sanctifying and has the power to kill sin and the power to transform us into His image, thinking godly thoughts, doing His will, doing God's will
  - John 17:19 - And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. (ESV)
  - Hebrews 10:29 - How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has spurned the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? (ESV)
- Hold on to our confession
  - Hebrews 6:12 - so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. (ESV)
- Be wise to what is good and innocent to evil. Let God crush satan under your feet
  - Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)
- Take every throught captive for obedience to Christ Jesus. Do battle against satan to conform your mind to the mind of Christ through obedience to Christ
  - II Corinthians 10:3-6 - For though we walk in the flesh, we are not waging war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)
- Be fully assured in al the will of God. Do all the will of God for us (I Thessalonians 5:18)
  - Colossians 4:12 - Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always struggling on your behalf in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God. (ESV)
- Bring holiness to completion - be on that path of killing sin
  - II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

The rest we enter is doing the will of God, empowered by God, having been cleaned up, sanctified, at least somewhat towards perfection / completion:

> I Corinthians 6:9-11 - Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. (ESV)

65.2.2 The testimony of God that he has borne concerning his Son

Whoever has faith in the Son of God has the testimony in himself.

> I John 5:9-13 - If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God that he has borne concerning his Son. Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life.

65.2.3 We must be in Him, Jesus Christ

> I John 5:18-20 - We know that everyone who has been born of God does not keep on sinning, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

We know that we abide in Him because He has given us of His Spirit:

> James 1:17 - Every good thing given and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shifting shadow.

> I John 4:13-17 - By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.

> Acts 2:33 - Therefore having been exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He has poured forth this which you both see and hear.

For the day of judgement, we must seek to:

- abide in His love
- be loving as He loves

We should be like Jesus while we are in this world:

> I John 4:16-17 - So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

Abide in His love:

> I John 4:10 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

Be loving as He loves:

> II John 1:4-6 - I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it.

There are those who have faith, and those who betray. Betrayal is counter to having faith. Faith includes belief, obedience and faithfulness:

> John 6:63-65 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe. (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.) And He was saying, "For this reason I have said to you, that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted him from the Father."

65.2.4 Father God was always with Jesus

> John 1:1 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (ESV)

> John 16:25-32- I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father. His disciples said, Ah, now you are speaking plainly and not using figurative speech! Now we know that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you; this is why we believe that you came from God. Jesus answered them, Do you now believe? Behold, the hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with me.

65.2.5 Our will must be aligned with God's will - We start by desiring to do His will

So put into practice Jesus Christ's commandments, and line up your will line up with God's will:

> I John 5:14-15 - And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of him.

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God.

We must be imitators of Christ Jesus. See what Paul is doing as an example of imitating Christ. We repent from sin, we do what God says, we are accountable to God with His precepts and are doers of His commandments, we forgive others as we've been forgiven and we love others as we've been loved, and we have our minds set on heavenly things and the promises of God. Our eschatological beliefs should not instill fear in us to forsake faith, obedience, love and hope in Jesus:

> Philippians 3:12-21 - Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. Only let us hold true to what we have attained. Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself. (ESV)

If we love one another [as He loved us]:

> I John 4:12 - No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

We must be drawn to Jesus Christ, who is the bread of life. We do the will of God and Jesus Christ will raise us on the last day:

> John 6:44-48 - No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life.

We must have faith in Jesus Christ and the words He has spoken:

> John 6:57-58 - As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not as the fathers ate and died. Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever.

Don't betray Jesus. Continue walking with Jesus:

> John 6:63-69 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe. (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.) And He was saying, "For this reason I have said to you, that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted him from the Father." After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him. So Jesus said to the Twelve, Do you want to go away as well? Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, and we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God.

65.2.6 The Holy Spirit testifies about Jesus

> John 15:26 - "When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify about Me,

`https://web.archive.org/web/20220402091720/https://mullikine.github.io/posts/dream-the-way-the-tru`

Certainly Holy Spirit is a person, and some of these words which appear to be gender neutral don't necessarily disclose gender and are used here when refering to Holy Spirit and to Father God and to Jesus Christ. Additional information reveal that God is referred to as Father (rather than mother) and Jesus Christ as Son rather than daughter. However, from what I can tell, it actually seems as though autēn is often used when referring to women but also to "life". "Autēn" is not used when referring to Holy Spirit as far as I can tell. And so by using the word

”auton” to refer to Holy Spirit, rather than the word autēn, I am confident that Holy Spirit would normally be referred to as a He as much as God the Father and the Son would also be referred to as a He. Adding to my confidence is that just as the God the Father and the Son are One, so God the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit are One.

See `https://biblehub.com/greek/aute_n_846.htm`

> Matthew 1:25 - but knew her (G846 autēn; her) not until she had given birth to a son. And he called his name Jesus. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 5:28 - But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has (G1937 epithymēsai; to lust after G846 autēn; her) already committed adultery with her in his heart. (ESV)

G846 auton autos: he, she, it, they, them, himself, herself, itself, themselves, same

G846 autos he, she, it, they, them, himself, herself, itself, themselves, same

G1565 ekeinos That, That One, He, She, It

G3594 hodēgēsei He (gender neutral) will guide

G1438 heautou himself, herself, itself, themselves

The word ekeinos is also used to refer to God, but God is Father.

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he (G1565 ekeinos) sent me. (ESV)

The gender-neutral word ”auton” is also used here when referring to Jesus Christ but Jesus Christ is the Son of God:

> Matthew 4:5 - Then the devil took him (G846 auton; Him) to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple (ESV)
>
> John 14:26 - But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he (G1565 ekeinos) will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you.
>
> John 15:26 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he (G1565 ekeinos) will bear witness about me. (ESV)
>
> John 16:7-8 - Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him (G846 auton) to you. And when he comes, he (G1565 ekeinos; That, That One, He, She, It) will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: (ESV)
>
> John 16:13-15 - When the (G1565 ekeinos) Spirit of truth comes, he will guide (G3594 hodēgēsei; [He] will guide) you into all the truth, for he will not speak (G3756 ou G1063 gar G2980 lalēsei; [He] not will speak) on his own authority, but whatever he hears (G191 akousei; [He] may hear) he will speak (G2980 lalēsei; [He] will speak), and he will declare (G312 anangelei; [He] will declare) to you the things that are to come. He (G1565 ekeinos) will glorify me, for he will take what is mine (G2983 lēmpsetai; [He] will take) and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take (G2983 lambanei; [He] will take) what is mine and declare it to you. (ESV)

The word ”He” is used when referring to Holy Spirit here in the English. Although Holy Spirit is clearly a Person, Holy Spirit’s gender isn’t (to my knowledge) expressly specified in this passage in the Greek:

John 16:13-15 (Interlinear) 13. When (G3752 hotan) however (G1161 de) shall come (G2064 elthē) He (G1565 ekeinos) the (G3588 to) Spirit (G4151 Pneuma) - (G3588 tēs) of truth (G225 alētheias) He will guide (G3594 hodēgēsei) you (G4771 hymas) into (G1722 en) the (G3588 tē) truth (G225 alētheia) all (G3956 pasē) not (G3756 ou) for (G1063 gar) He will speak (G2980 lalēsei) from (G575 aph') Himself (G1438 heautou; himself, herself, itself, themselves) but (G235 all') whatever (G3745 hosa) He may hear (G191 akousei) He will speak (G2980 lalēsei) and (G2532 kai) the things (G3588 ta) coming (G2064 erchomena) He will declare (G312 anangelei) to you (G4771 hymin). 14. He (G1565 ekeinos) Me (G1473 eme) will glorify (G1392 doxasei) for (G3754 hoti) from (G1537 ek) that which [is] (G3588 tou) Mine (G1699 emou) He will take (G2983 lēmpsetai) and (G2532 kai) will disclose (G312 anangelei) to you (G4771 hymin). 15. All things (G3956 panta) whatever (G3745 hosa) has (G2192 echei) the (G3588 ho) Father (G3962 Patēr) Mine (G1699 ema) are (G1510 estin) because of (G1223 dia) this (G3778 touto) I said (G2036 eipon) that (G3754 hoti) from (G1537 ek) that which [is] (G3588 tou) Mine (G1699 emou) He will take (G2983 lambanei) and (G2532 kai) will disclose (G312 anangelei) to you (G4771 hymin)

The relationship between God and the church has been described as like a marriage between husband and wife.

It's not correct to say that "animals are created in the image of God" because they are "male and female". The man Adam was made before the woman, and he was also put to work (Genesis 2:15) before the woman was made, and at this stage I believe it can be said that he was made in the image of God, having dominion (Genesis 1:26) over the land. And so mankind being "male and female" I believe is not the most important defining characteristic of what makes a person "made in the image of God" because otherwise the animals would be too.

Nevertheless, that doesn't mean that being male and female is not characteristic of the image of God. I think it is characteristic of the image of God because marriage reflects something of the nature of the relationship between Father God and God the Son because the head of Christ is God the Father, and the head of the man is Christ and the head of the woman is the man. Also the church is referred to as the Bride of Christ. "Covenant" is also a part of it. So I think that the image of God has to do with covenant unity:

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)
>
> Genesis 1:26-27 - Then God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 19:4-9 - He answered, Have you not read that he who created them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh? So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate. They said to him, Why then did Moses command one to give a certificate of divorce and to send her away? He said to them, Because of your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery. (ESV)

answersingenesis.org: What Is the Image of God ? | Answers in Genesis The Hebrew word for “man” in this text is adam .( ) Depending on context, the word can mean “man,” “mankind,” or the name “Adam.”3 The sub-categories of humanity are used with different words and the distinction is visible in both Hebrew and English. These sub-categories of mankind are “male” (zakar (and “female” (neqebah .(The language usage is profound and makes a significant point that the image of God distinction is made between mankind and all other creatures, not between the sub-categories of male and female.

It is only regarding the creation of mankind that God says, “Let us make man in our own image,” and God only directly breathed into man's nostrils the breath of life (Genesis 1:26, 2:7). Everything in the text of Genesis 1 and 2 denotes the intimate actions of God in creating mankind (both the first man and the first woman) compared to the general nature of creating everything else.

65.2.7 We must do God's will

> John 4:32-34 - But he said to them, I have food to eat that you do not know about. So the disciples said to one another, Has anyone brought him something to eat? Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. (ESV)

65.2.8 We must walk in His commandments

If we want God to make His home with us, we must keep Jesus' words, and obey His commandments:

> John 14:23-25 - Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me. These things I have spoken to you while I am still with you.

In the following case, I think that obedience would have come before belief as if the disciples had loved Him then they would have rejoiced, but that Jesus explains things in advance so that we will believe when we see. Jesus tells us in advance that He goes to the Father, and will come to us, so that we will believe:

> John 14:27-29 - Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, I am going away, and I will come to you. If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place you may believe.

Faith is a lifestyle. It's walking in the truth:

> II John 1:4-6 - I was very glad to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received commandment to do from the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it.

God always preferred for people to walk in obedient, loving, faith to Him over offering burnt sacrifices to him while walking disobediently and faithlessly. Now we have Jesus we are redeemed to walk in obedient faith. We should not be presumptuous in our faith, but should listen to God, to see what He wants and believes is right and live according to His Word, His precepts, His commandments, His Truth. We should listen to God and base our faith on God's Word, and allow God to correct us:

> I Samuel 15:22-26 - And Samuel said, Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king. Saul said to Samuel, I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice. Now therefore, please pardon my sin and return with me that I may worship the LORD. And Samuel said to Saul, I will not return with you. For you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel. (ESV)

Loving Jesus, obeying Jesus, and believing that He came from God are essential:

> John 16:25-27- I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

65.2.9 The Holy Spirit is a Person properly referred to as a He and brings to remembrance all the words of Jesus

I believe Holy Spirit is properly referred to as a He as the Father is properly referred to as a He and the Son is properly referred to as a He. God is One.

As Jesus came in His Father's name, and spoke His Father's words, the Holy Spirit comes in Jesus' name and brings to remembrance all the words of Jesus:

> John 14:26 - But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you.

The following verse was brought to my mind as I was sleeping:

> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

Certainly Holy Spirit is a person, and some of these words which appear to be gender neutral don't necessarily disclose gender and are used here when refering to Holy Spirit and to Father God and to Jesus Christ. Additional information reveal that God is referred to as Father (rather than mother) and Jesus Christ as Son rather than daughter. However, from what I can tell, it actually seems as though autēn is often used when referring to women but also to "life". "Autēn" is not used when referring to Holy Spirit as far as I can tell. And so by using the word "auton" to refer to Holy Spirit, rather than the word autēn, I am confident that Holy Spirit would normally be referred to as a He as much as God the Father and the Son would also be referred to as a He. Adding to my confidence is that just as the God the Father and the Son are One, so God the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit are One.

See `https://biblehub.com/greek/aute_n_846.htm`

> Matthew 1:25 - but knew her (G846 autēn; her) not until she had given birth to a son. And he called his name Jesus. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:28 - But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has (G1937 epithymēsai; to lust after G846 autēn; her) already committed adultery with her in his heart. (ESV)

G846 auton autos: he, she, it, they, them, himself, herself, itself, themselves, same

G846 autos he, she, it, they, them, himself, herself, itself, themselves, same

G1565 ekeinos That, That One, He, She, It

G3594 hodēgēsei He (gender neutral) will guide

G1438 heautou himself, herself, itself, themselves

The word ekeinos is also used to refer to God, but God is Father.

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he (G1565 ekeinos) sent me. (ESV)

The gender-neutral word "auton" is also used here when referring to Jesus Christ but Jesus Christ is the Son of God:

> Matthew 4:5 - Then the devil took him (G846 auton; Him) to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple (ESV)

> John 14:26 - But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he (G1565 ekeinos) will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you.

> John 15:26 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he (G1565 ekeinos) will bear witness about me. (ESV)
>
> John 16:7-8 - Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him (G846 auton) to you. And when he comes, he (G1565 ekeinos; That, That One, He, She, It) will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: (ESV)
>
> John 16:13-15 - When the (G1565 ekeinos) Spirit of truth comes, he will guide (G3594 hodēgēsei; [He] will guide) you into all the truth, for he will not speak (G3756 ou G1063 gar G2980 lalēsei; [He] not will speak) on his own authority, but whatever he hears (G191 akousei; [He] may hear) he will speak (G2980 lalēsei; [He] will speak), and he will declare (G312 anangelei; [He] will declare) to you the things that are to come. He (G1565 ekeinos) will glorify me, for he will take what is mine (G2983 lēmpsetai; [He] will take) and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take (G2983 lambanei; [He] will take) what is mine and declare it to you. (ESV)

The word ”He” is used when referring to Holy Spirit here in the English. Although Holy Spirit is clearly a Person, Holy Spirit's gender isn't (to my knowledge) expressly specified in this passage in the Greek:

John 16:13-15 (Interlinear) 13. When (G3752 hotan) however (G1161 de) shall come (G2064 elthē) He (G1565 ekeinos) the (G3588 to) Spirit (G4151 Pneuma) - (G3588 tēs) of truth (G225 alētheias) He will guide (G3594 hodēgēsei) you (G4771 hymas) into (G1722 en) the (G3588 tē) truth (G225 alētheia) all (G3956 pasē) not (G3756 ou) for (G1063 gar) He will speak (G2980 lalēsei) from (G575 aph') Himself (G1438 heautou; himself, herself, itself, themselves) but (G235 all') whatever (G3745 hosa) He may hear (G191 akousei) He will speak (G2980 lalēsei) and (G2532 kai) the things (G3588 ta) coming (G2064 erchomena) He will declare (G312 anangelei) to you (G4771 hymin). 14. He (G1565 ekeinos) Me (G1473 eme) will glorify (G1392 doxasei) for (G3754 hoti) from (G1537 ek) that which [is] (G3588 tou) Mine (G1699 emou) He will take (G2983 lēmpsetai) and (G2532 kai) will disclose (G312 anangelei) to you (G4771 hymin). 15. All things (G3956 panta) whatever (G3745 hosa) has (G2192 echei) the (G3588 ho) Father (G3962 Patēr) Mine (G1699 ema) are (G1510 estin) because of (G1223 dia) this (G3778 touto) I said (G2036 eipon) that (G3754 hoti) from (G1537 ek) that which [is] (G3588 tou) Mine (G1699 emou) He will take (G2983 lambanei) and (G2532 kai) will disclose (G312 anangelei) to you (G4771 hymin)

The relationship between God and the church has been described as like a marriage between husband and wife.

It's not correct to say that ”animals are created in the image of God” because they are ”male and female”. The man Adam was made before the woman, and he was also put to work (Genesis 2:15) before the woman was made, and at this stage I believe it can be said that he was made in the image of God, having dominion (Genesis 1:26) over the land. And so mankind being ”male and female” I believe is not the most important defining characteristic of what makes a person ”made in the image of God” because otherwise the animals would be too.

Nevertheless, that doesn't mean that being male and female is not characteristic of the image of God. I think it is characteristic of the image of God because marriage reflects something of the nature of the relationship between Father God and God the Son because the head of Christ is God the Father, and the head of the man is Christ and the head of the woman is the man. Also the church is referred to as the Bride of Christ. ”Covenant” is also a part of it:

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)
>
> Genesis 1:27 - So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. (ESV)

answersingenesis.org: What Is the Image of God ? | Answers in Genesis The Hebrew word for “man” in this text is adam .( ) Depending on context, the word can mean “man,” “mankind,” or the name “Adam.”3 The sub-categories of humanity are used with different words and the distinction is visible in both Hebrew and English. These sub-categories of mankind are “male” (zakar (and “female” (neqebah .(The language usage is profound and makes a significant point that the image of God distinction is made between mankind and all other creatures, not between the sub-categories of male and female.

It is only regarding the creation of mankind that God says, “Let us make man in our own image,” and God only directly breathed into man’s nostrils the breath of life (Genesis 1:26, 2:7). Everything in the text of Genesis 1 and 2 denotes the intimate actions of God in creating mankind (both the first man and the first woman) compared to the general nature of creating everything else.

65.2.10 Jesus is Immanuel, God with us

Matthew 1:18-25 - Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. And her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame, resolved to divorce her quietly. But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins. All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel (which means, God with us). When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him: he took his wife, but knew her not until she had given birth to a son. And he called his name Jesus. (ESV)

Isaiah 7:14 - Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. (ESV)

Luke 1:35 - And the angel answered her, The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be called holy—the Son of God. (ESV)

65.2.11 The Word became flesh - Jesus Christ is the Word of God

Jesus is the Word of God become flesh:

John 1:14 - And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)

John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

John 17:17 - Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. (ESV)

Psalms 119:160 - The sum of your word is truth, and every one of your righteous rules endures forever. (ESV)

John 6:56 - Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. (ESV)

Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Trusting and obeying Jesus’ words and commandments, a person has life:

John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ’s teachings:

Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ:

I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

John 12:49-50 - For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

Revelation of John 19:11-13 - Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! The one sitting on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war. His eyes are like a flame of fire, and on his head are many diadems, and he has a name written that no one knows but himself. He is clothed in a robe dipped in blood, and the name by which he is called is The Word of God. (ESV)

Jesus' flesh was Word. The Word became flesh:

Ephesians 2:11-14 - Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called the uncircumcision by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands— remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility (ESV)

Romans 2:28-29 - For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

65.2.12 Yeshua, the Lion and the Lamb

Genesis 49:9 - Judah is a lion's cub; from the prey, my son, you have gone up. He stooped down; he crouched as a lion and as a lioness; who dares rouse him? (ESV)

Isaiah 11:6 - The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the lion and the fattened calf together; and a little child shall lead them. (ESV)

Isaiah 65:25 - The wolf and the lamb shall graze together; the lion shall eat straw like the ox, and dust shall be the serpent's food. They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain, says the LORD. (ESV)

65.2.13 Jesus returned to the Father

> John 14:28 - You heard me say to you, I am going away, and I will come to you. If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. (ESV)
>
> John 16:28 - I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father.
>
> John 16:5 - But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, Where are you going? (ESV)
>
> John 17:5 - And now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had with you before the world existed. (ESV)
>
> Isaiah 55:11 - so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it. (ESV)

65.2.14 We also become one with the Father as we are kept in His name

> John 17:11 - And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. (ESV)

65.2.15 We can know Father God directly, while Jesus tells us plainly about Father God

We must walk in Jesus' commandments and believe that He came from God.

> John 16:25-28 - I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father.

65.3 We must agape love God, and our family in Christ and called to agape love even our enemies - How Christians agape love:

- `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/1_john/2-15.htm`
- `https://biblehub.com/greek/agapa_25.htm`
- `https://biblehub.com/greek/agapate_25.htm`
- `https://biblehub.com/greek/26.htm`
- `https://biblehub.com/greek/agape_n_26.htm`

> I Thessalonians 5:18 - give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. (ESV)

65.3.1 Who Christians must agape love

- God (Father God, Jesus Christ and Holy Spirit)
    - `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/1_john/2-15.htm`
    - `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/matthew/22-37.htm`
    - Matthew 22:37 - And He said to him You shall love (25 Agapēseis) [the] Lord the God of you with all the heart of you and with all the soul of you and with all the mind of you (Interlinear)

  - `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/john/14-23.htm`

- Your spouse
  - `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/ephesians/5-28.htm`

- Others in Christ
  - Colossians 3:13-14 - Bear with one another and forgive any complaint you may have against someone else. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love (26. agapé), which is the bond of perfect unity. (engbsb2020eb)
  - I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)

> Proverbs 3:27 - Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it. (ESV)

It's within our power to not bear grudges agaist our family in Christ and to not bear grudges with our neighbour. It's within our power to love our neighbour in deed because primarily it's a matter of what is in a person's heart. It's also within our power, if we have the world's goods and have met existing obligation for using those goods, to love our neighbour in deed with those goods:

> Colossians 3:12-14 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (ESV)

65.3.2 Who Christians are called to agape love:

- All people, even enemies (those who hate you)
  - `https://biblehub.com/greek/agapa_25.htm`
  - `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/matthew/5-44.htm`
  - Matthew 5:43-48 - You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

We should honor and be respectful to everyone. But when we talk about the brotherhood, it means our family in Christ. We must love our family in Christ:

- I Peter 2:17 - Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. (ESV)
- I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

We should do good to all and try to love whoever is our neighbour. We must love our neighbour as ourself. That person could be family in Christ, and if they are then we must love them. So we have to endeavour to be blameless/innocent as the good Samaritan was. I am a firm believer that if someone is a confirmed family in Christ who loves Jesus, with the fear of God, someone who is being taught by Jesus, someone who is following Jesus, then we must certainly be prepared to share their burdens and share the world's goods with them, we must not neglect them, but support them. It would be sin to neglect family in Christ knowingly when they needed support. We should be supporting each-other to abide in Christ's teachings. As Jesus Christ said, "Let the children be fed first." What about loving those outside the church? We give grace to others, but not at the expense of our own children/family in Christ's basic needs. We must let our family in Christ "be fed first". OK, so an example: If family in Christ needs employment (they are willing to work, they're trying to do what God wants them to do, but being being prevented by their fellow man from living as God would have them), and you as family in Christ have work that they can do, and they have asked you for it, then you must prioritise giving them the work above giving it to someone who is not confirmed family in Christ, otherwise it's sin:

- Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)
- Galatians 6:2-6 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. For each will have to bear his own load. One who is taught the word must share all good things with the one who teaches. (ESV)
- I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)
- Philip, an Evangelist in Brazil - We have to treat every single person that we encounter with the love of God as much as possible. We fall short, we make mistakes, we're not always at our best, but as much as possible. We provide a testimony.
- Mark 7:27-29 - And he said to her, Let the children be fed first, for it is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs. But she answered him, Yes, Lord; yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs. And he said to her, For this statement you may go your way; the demon has left your daughter.

We should not fear those who kill the body (mankind or Satan):

- Matthew 10:28 - And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. (ESV)
- Revelation of John 2:10 - Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 5:5 - you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. (ESV)
- John 12:42 - Nevertheless, many even of the authorities believed in him, but for fear of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue; (ESV)

We should fear God, and hate evil. Even as concerns the gospel, we should be repentant, seeking God's mercy:

- Luke 23:40 - But the other rebuked him, saying, Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? (ESV)
- Proverbs 23:17 - Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day. (ESV)
- Proverbs 14:27 - The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, that one may turn away from the snares of death. (ESV)

- Proverbs 16:6 - By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil. (ESV)
- Job 1:1 - There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job, and that man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil. (ESV)
- Proverbs 8:13 - The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate. (ESV)
- Ecclesiastes 12:13 - The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. (ESV)
  - I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to (G3784 opheilei; ought to, obligated to, has a duty to) walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)
- I Peter 2:17 - Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. (ESV)

65.3.3 What Christians must not agape love

- `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/1_john/2-15.htm`

Agape love must not be to anything of the world. Hate the sin (Romans 12:9, Romans 12:2) but not the sinner (Ezekiel 18:23). Love people but love truth, and hate falsehood. Agape love without truth is not agape love:

> Romans 12:9 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 2:6 - Yet this you have: you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. (ESV)
>
> Proverbs 24:24-25 - Whoever says to the wicked, You are in the right, will be cursed by peoples, abhorred by nations, but those who rebuke the wicked will have delight, and a good blessing will come upon them. (ESV)

Book timothykeller.com: Counterfeit Gods - Timothy Keller

Sermon youtube.com: Counterfeit Gods - Tim Keller

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)
>
> James 4:4 - You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. (ESV)
>
> Ephesians 2:1-3 - And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience— among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. (ESV)
>
> Galatians 4:9 - But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? (ESV)

> I Corinthians 5:9-11 - I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 2:12 - Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. (ESV)

There's a lot in the Bible to explain what is the revealed will of God:

Read videobible.com: 105 Scripture on God's Will - Video Bible

Continuing on in discerning the will of God we should have a renewed mind. We should obey Jesus:

youtube.com: How Do We Know the Will of God? | John Piper Clip {@desiringGod} The Bible does not tell you which person to marry, or whether to marry. The Bible does not tell you which car to drive, or buy, rent. The Bible doesn't tell you whether to buy a home or not which home to buy. [The] Bible doesn't tell you which brand of orange juice to drink. There are 10,000 decisions you must make that are not explicitly addressed in the Bible so what do you do? If you want to obey the will of command my answer is you must have a renewed mind. That's what the text says.

> Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

We end up thinking in a similar fashion to Jesus:

> I Corinthians 2:16 - For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (ESV)

Doing the will of God is what it means to be led by the Spirit. So you have to do the will of God, being a servant of Christ, lawful (law-abiding) to Christ, to Christ' commandments, to have the blessing of not being condemned by the law of Moses:

> Psalms 143:10 - Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! (ESV)

> Luke 11:43 - Woe to you Pharisees! For you love (agapate) the best seat in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces. (ESV)

I think I John 2:15-17 is essentially saying, ”Do not agape love the world or what's in the world. Do not love the things of this world with the type of love that we have for God and for people, namely agape love.” If we fall out of agape love for the world and are not conformed to the world but are transformed by the renewing of our minds then by testing we will be able to discern the will of God:

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love (agapate) the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

65.4 In a way, the Son is the Father as far as we can see because looking upon Jesus we see the Father, but the Father is greater

> John 12:44-45 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. (ESV)

One thing is for sure, Jesus is the only way to the Father.

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me. (NASB)

> Isaiah 48:16-17 - Draw near to me, hear this: from the beginning I have not spoken in secret, from the time it came to be I have been there. And now the Lord GOD has sent me, and his Spirit. Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you in the way you should go. (ESV)

> Matthew 3:16-17 - And when Jesus was baptized, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; and behold, a voice from heaven said, This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. (ESV)

This quite clearly shows that the Truth is Jesus Christ is Almighty God and God is Father, Son (Jesus Christ, His Eternal Word, made flesh) and Holy Spirit:

> Zechariah 12:10 - And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and pleas for mercy, so that, when they look on me, on him whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a firstborn. (ESV)

> John 10:28 - I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. (ESV)

The Father abides in Jesus:

> John 14:10 - Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on My own initiative, but the Father abiding in Me does His works. (NASB)

Jesus abides in the Father (and is in the bosom of the Father):

> John 1:18 - No one has seen God at any time; the only begotten God who is in the bosom of the Father, He has explained Him. (NASB)

> Mark 14:27 - And Jesus said to them, You will all fall away, for it is written, I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered. (ESV)

> Zechariah 13:7 - Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, against the man who is My Companion, declares the LORD of Hosts. Strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered, and I will turn My hand against the little ones. (engbsb2020eb)

Jesus Christ is at the Father’s side (and has made Father God known):

> John 1:18 - No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, he has made him known. (ESV)

This says the Word was God. We can be sure that in the beginning there was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God, and that Jesus Christ is the Word:

> John 1:1 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (ESV, NASB, KJV, BSB)

In Christ the Godhead is present: simply, it means that in human nature/form of Jesus, that entails the human flesh/body, there dwells the entirety of divine perfection:

> Colossians 2:9-15 - For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him.

The Word actually became flesh:

> John 1:14 - And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)
>
> Luke 24:39 - See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have. (ESV)

Thomas saw God in Jesus Christ, or Jesus Christ as God:

> John 20:28 - Thomas answered him, My Lord and my God! (ESV)

It's very clear that there is some distinction between Father and Son:

> John 20:17 - Jesus said to her, Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God. (ESV)
>
> John 7:16 - So Jesus answered them, My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. (ESV)

But Jesus Christ is our Mediator:

> I Timothy 2:5 - For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, (ESV)

Jesus still refers to Father God as His God:

> Revelation of John 3:12 - The one who conquers, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God. Never shall he go out of it, and I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down from my God out of heaven, and my own new name. (ESV)

I think this really clears things up a little bit:

> Revelation of John 3:21 - The one who conquers, I will grant him to sit with me on my throne, as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne. (ESV)
>
> John 16:32 - Behold, the hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with me. (ESV)

Jesus came in Father God's name:

> John 5:43 - I have come in my Father's name (onomati), and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. (ESV)
>
> John 10:25 - Jesus answered them, I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me,

> Revelation of John 14:1 - Then I looked, and behold, on Mount Zion stood the Lamb, and with him 144, 000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.

The Father is with the Son, the Father is in the Son, and the Son in the Father:

> John 10:30 - I and the Father are one.

The Father is not specifically the Son (Jesus Christ), at least in title, but Jesus is the Word, and the Word is God, and I think Jesus Christ is still the Father in the sense that Jesus Christ is in the Father, and the Father in the Son, but there still seems to be some distinction there between persons or titles, and to be honest, I'm just trying to rationalise this and understand how this fits together and don't presume to know everything with certainty.

And Jesus came in the Father's name.

God was revealed in Jesus Christ for us.

65.5 God adopts children, fellow heirs with Christ

The sons of God on earth who are being adopted by God:

- are led by the Spirit
  - obeying Jesus Christ
  - crucified the flesh with its passions and desires
- are sons of Abraham, with the faith of Abraham
  - demonstrating the faith that Abraham had
- have had faith in Jesus Christ's name
- suffer with Christ in order to be glorified with Him
- await their adoption as sons when our bodies are redeemed
- have the creation eagerly longing for their revealing
- have heard God and had faith

Since the Holy Spirit dwells with us even before He is in us, I do understand that the Holy Spirit may seem to be more force-like before the Holy Spirit dwells inside and we know Him as a person.

It appears there is evidence that we live by the Spirit even before we walk by the Spirit. We must also walk by the Spirit:

> Galatians 5:22-25 - But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. (ESV)

Walking by the Spirit I believe looks like following Jesus' commandments:

> Romans 8:14-23 - For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager > longing for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. (ESV)

To those who had faith in His name:

> Acts 3:16 - And his name—by faith in his name—has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all.

John the Baptist came as a witness to the Light that is Jesus Christ, so that through John the Baptist's testimony, all might come to faith:

> John 1:6-7 - There came a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness (G3141 marturia), to testify (G3140 martureo) about the Light, so that all might believe (G4100 pisteuo) through him. (NASB)

Jesus Christ is received through faith:

> John 1:12 - But to all who did receive (G2983 lambano) him, who believed (G4100 pisteuo) in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, (ESV)

```
:  2983  lambano  lam-ban'-o

 a prolonged form of a primary verb, which is use only as an alternate in certain tenses; to take (in very many applications, literally and figuratively (properly objective or active, to get hold of; whereas 1209 is rather subjective or passive, to have offered to one; while 138 is more violent, to seize or remove)):--accept, + be amazed, assay, attain, bring, X when I call, catch, come on (X unto), + forget, have, hold, obtain, receive (X after), take (away, up).
 see GREEK for 1209
 see GREEK for 138
```

Receiving is a mixture of believing, obeying, trusting, believing to receive - as Abraham's faith was. The faith to receive Jesus, getting to know Him I think is a span of time (it could be instantaneous to a lengthy period of time), I presume, as a person continues to trust Him:

> Romans 4:9-12 - Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.
>
> Galatians 3:7 - Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham.
>
> Galatians 3:9 - So then, those who are of faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith. (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:19 - For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:3-6 - Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh? Did you suffer so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain? Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith— just as Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness?

We are to be conformed into Christ's image:

> Romans 8:29 - For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. (ESV)

It makes sense to me that being conformed into Christ's image and knowing Father God and Jesus Christ who God has sent would be contemporaneous:

> John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

> Jude 1:25 - to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen. (ESV)

> Mark 10:35-45 - And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came up to him and said to him, Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you. And he said to them, What do you want me to do for you? And they said to him, Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory. Jesus said to them, You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized? And they said to him, We are able. And Jesus said to them, The cup that I drink you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized, but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared. And when the ten heard it, they began to be indignant at James and John. And Jesus called them to him and said to them, You know that those who are considered rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. But it shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)

65.6 Inheriting the promises made to Abraham and to Christ

The promises were made to Abraham and to Christ:

> Galatians 3:16 - Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring. It does not say, And to offsprings, referring to many, but referring to one, And to your offspring, who is Christ.

But through the faith of Abraham in Jesus Christ, we inherit the promises because we have faith in Jesus Christ:

> Galatians 3:22 - But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

How I read Galatians 3:22:
But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that:

1. ...the promise, by faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who "have faith" [in Jesus Christ].
2. ...the promise might be given to those who "trust the promise" (who believe) as they are abiding in Jesus Christ's commandments (i.e. by faith in Jesus Christ).

Someone who ”trusts” the promise without abiding in Jesus’ commandments is deluding themselves. I don’t think it’s possible to have a genuine trust in God’s promise while not abiding in Jesus’ commandments. How could someone trust the promise while hating their family in Christ? That would be like saying, ”I want to go to heaven, just not with that person, because I hate him.” When that person they say they hate is someone who is in Christ. It’s the abiding in Jesus Christ’s commandments which is necessary in order to be an heir according to promise, regardless of what one knows about the promise. The promise goes to those who have faith in Jesus and love one-another. That being said, someone who is in Christ would still love the promise.

If we belong to Jesus Christ then we are heirs according to promise. So for us, we should endeavour to be found ”in Christ” abiding in Jesus’ commandments, and those who abide in Jesus’ commandments in reality are heirs according to promise:

> Galatians 3:29 - And if you are Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s offspring, heirs according to promise. (ESV)

Christ is formed in us, after all:

> Galatians 4:18-19 - It is always good to be made much of for a good purpose, and not only when I am present with you, my little children, for whom I am again in the anguish of childbirth until Christ is formed in you!

In Christ Jesus, through faith, we are sons:

> Galatians 3:25-26 - But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith.

> Acts 4:12 - And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.

We put on Christ when we are baptized into Christ:

> Galatians 3:27 - For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

> Ephesians 4:4-5 - There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— one Lord, one faith, one baptism, (ESV)

If you are Christ’s (in Christ) then you are Abraham’s offspring:

> Galatians 3:29 - And if you are Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s offspring, heirs according to promise.

> Galatians 4:4-9 - But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God. Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more?

The ones who love God, even demonstrated by repenting from sin and away from the course of this world, God gives to Jesus:

> John 17:6 - I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world. Yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word.

> John 17:9 - I am praying for them. I am not praying for the world but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours.

With the light of truth, people may go from darkness to light:

> John 12:36 - While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light. When Jesus had said these things, he departed and hid himself from them.
>
> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.
>
> Galatians 3:13-14 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith.

The world (the remaining people, who have not repented) may know that Father God has sent Jesus and loved Jesus' disciples:

> John 17:23 - I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me.
>
> Ephesians 2:2 - in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience—

66 Father God has always abode in and through Jesus through all of God's work, even as Jesus walked the earth in the flesh. Jesus is the Word

> John 14:10 - Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. (ESV)
>
> Proverbs 8:22-23 - The LORD possessed me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of old. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. (ESV)
>
> John 1:1 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (ESV)
>
> John 10:18 - No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father. (ESV)
>
> Luke 11:47-51 - Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets whom your fathers killed. So you are witnesses and you consent to the deeds of your fathers, for they killed them, and you build their tombs. Therefore also the Wisdom of God said, I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute, so that the blood of all the prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be charged against this generation, from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 1:30 - He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom and our righteousness and sanctification and redemption. (ESV)

67 Sun's light failing as the curtain was torn and Jesus died

> Mark 15:37-39 - And Jesus uttered a loud cry and breathed his last. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. And when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that in this way he breathed his last, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God! (ESV)

Matthew 27:51 - And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. And the earth shook, and the rocks were split. (ESV)

Mark 15:38 - And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. (ESV)

Luke 23:43-46 - And he said to him, Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise. It was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour, while the sun's light failed. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, calling out with a loud voice, said, Father, into your hands I commit my spirit! And having said this he breathed his last. (ESV)

Hebrews 6:19-20 - We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner place behind the curtain, where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

Hebrews 9:11-15 - But when Christ appeared as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and more perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation) he entered once for all into the holy places, not by means of the blood of goats and calves but by means of his own blood, thus securing an eternal redemption. For if the sprinkling of defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a heifer sanctifies for the purification of the flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant. (ESV)

Hebrews 10:12-14 - But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. (ESV)

Hebrews 10:19-20 - Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, (ESV)

67.1 Jesus didn't break faith with Father God, and Father God's word didn't fail

Mark 14:32-36 - And they went to a place called Gethsemane. And he said to his disciples, Sit here while I pray. And he took with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly distressed and troubled. And he said to them, My soul is very sorrowful, even to death. Remain here and watch. And going a little farther, he fell on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will. (ESV)

John 1:14 - And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)

Matthew 27:46 - And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani? that is, My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? (ESV)

Psalms 22:1 - My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning? (ESV)

God's word does not fail:

Isaiah 55:11 - so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it. (ESV)

Romans 9:6-8 - But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel, and not all are children of Abraham because they are his offspring, but Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring. (ESV)

Luke 24:38-49 - And he said to them, Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have. And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they still disbelieved for joy and were marveling, he said to them, Have you anything here to eat? They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate before them. Then he said to them, These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled. Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high. (ESV)

68 Jesus rose from the dead and ascended by His own authority given to Him by Father God. Amen

Luke 24:1-7 - But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb bringing the spices which they had prepared. And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men suddenly stood near them in dazzling clothing; and as the women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, “Why do you seek the living One among the dead? He is not here, but He has risen. Remember how He spoke to you while He was still in Galilee, saying that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.” (ESV)

Luke 24:25-26 - And he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory? (ESV)

Luke 24:38-49 - And he said to them, Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have. And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they still disbelieved for joy and were marveling, he said to them, Have you anything here to eat? They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate before them. Then he said to them, These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled. Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high. (ESV)

Jesus, by His own authority, rose from the dead. AMEN!!

Sermon youtube.com: Message To All Christians @time: 2 min 54 sec

John 10:17-18 - For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father. (ESV)

68.1 Ascension

Luke 24:50-53 - And He led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them. While He was blessing them, He parted from them and was carried up into heaven. And they, after worshiping Him, returned to Jerusalem with great joy, and were continually in the temple praising God. (ESV)

Acts 1:1-12 - The first account I composed, Theophilus, about all that Jesus began to do and teach, until the day when He was taken up to heaven, after He had by the Holy Spirit given orders to the apostles whom He had chosen. To these He also presented Himself alive after His suffering, by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking of the things concerning the kingdom of God. Gathering them together, He commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for what the Father had promised, "Which," He said, "you heard of from Me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now." So when they had come together, they were asking Him, saying, "Lord, is it at this time You are restoring the kingdom to Israel?" He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or epochs which the Father has fixed by His own authority; but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth." And after He had said these things, He was lifted up while they were looking on, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. And as they were gazing intently into the sky while He was going, behold, two men in white clothing stood beside them. They also said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in just the same way as you have watched Him go into heaven." Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away. (ESV)

69 Armour of God / Armour of Light

Ephesians 6:11-13 - Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. (ESV)

- Belt of Truth
- Breastplate of Righteousness
- Shoes of the Gospel of Peace
- Shield of Faith
- Helmet of Salvation
- Sword of the Spirit
- Prayer
- Lamp

69.1 Love and holiness

Question Can a person at the same time (1) put on the Lord Jesus Christ and (2) make provision for the flesh to gratify its desires and walk in orgies and drunkenness, sexual immorality, sensuality, quarreling and jealousy?

Likely best answer A son of disobedience is a person who is not obedient to God, to God's gospel, someone who does not have true faith which loves the truth. We're told to disassociate with "unrepentant" people (II Corinthians 6:14-18,7:1) who are described as unbelievers. We want to be received as sons and daughters > so we need ourselves to desire, love, treasure, the light and not the darkness. The unrepentant, I believe will receive God's wrath because light has come into the world and they love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil. There is a final judgement (II Corinthians 5:10-11).

I believe that the armour of light which Paul wants us to putting on the Lord Jesus Christ.
The "image of God" in mankind was marred in "the fall" (Genesis 3).

> Colossians 3:1-10 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. (ESV)

The "image of God" having dominion over the earth and I believe it also involves the Male/Female attributes:

> Genesis 1:26-28 - Then God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. And God blessed them. And God said to them, Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth. (ESV)

Isaiah 66:13 - As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. (ESV)
Isaiah 49:15 - Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should have no compassion on the son of her womb? Even these may forget, yet I will not forget you. (ESV)
Hosea 11:3-4 - Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk; I took them up by their arms, but they did not know that I healed them. I led them with cords of kindness, with the bands of love, and I became to them as one who eases the yoke on their jaws, and I bent down to them and fed them. (ESV)
Deuteronomy 32:18 - You were unmindful of the Rock that bore you, and you forgot the God who gave you birth. (ESV)
I Corinthians 8:6 - yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist. (ESV)
We want to walk in a way that is pleasing to God:

> Ephesians 5:5-12 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

> Colossians 1:9-10 - And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. (ESV)

Romans 13:12-14 - The night is far gone; the day is at hand. So then let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us walk properly as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in quarreling and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires. (ESV)

Putting on the Lord Jesus Christ certainly involves putting on love:

I Peter 2:5 - you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Hebrews 13:15-16 - Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God. (ESV)

Ephesians 5:2 - And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. (ESV)

Being light in the Lord Jesus, and everything being plainly exposed, we should put a stop to the deeds of darkness. Salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed:

Ephesians 5:7-17 - Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret. But when anything is exposed by the light, it becomes visible, for anything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you. Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. (ESV)

Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

Romans 13:11-12 - Besides this you know the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed. The night is far gone; the day is at hand. So then let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. (ESV)

We don't want wrath!

Ephesians 5:5-6 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. (ESV)

69.2 Belt of Truth

Message youtube.com: C S Lewis message 2024 - Faith in action God fights for you, but you must also act @time: 13 min 7 sec

CS Lewis - Think of it as the sturdy belt a soldier wears, holding everything in place.

The Truth serves as the foundation of our spiritual lives, anchoring us in a world full of deceptions and falsehoods.

It is the Word of God that anchors us and sets us free, as Jesus said in John 8:32.

Then there is the breastplate of righteousness.

This piece of armour protects our hearts against the enemy's attacks.

It is a reminder of the righteousness we have through Christ, not because of anything we have done, but because of His sacrifice on the cross.

It is about living in obedience and integrity, knowing that we are clothed in His righteousness.

> Ephesians 6:14 - Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:9 - (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), (ESV)

A comprehensive and broad understanding of the Bible is certainly important so we are not ”tossed around by every wind of doctrine”, and to grow into and become established in the knowledge of Jesus, and able to not be tossed around when people ask questions about doctrine (I have often felt tested in this way, and sometimes unprepared), and that is why I am writing this Bible study out:

69.2.1 Belts of righteousness, faithfulness

> Isaiah 11:5 - Righteousness shall be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt of his loins. (ESV)

69.2.2 We are fighting against lawlessness

> II Thessalonians 2:9-13 - The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. (ESV)

> Daniel 7:25-26 - He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. But the court shall sit in judgment, and his dominion shall be taken away, to be consumed and destroyed to the end. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:2 - according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and for sprinkling with his blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you. (ESV)

We must have belief in the truth while being sanctified by the Spirit through faith.

69.3 Breastplate of Righteousness

The breastplate of righteousness is a breastplate of faith and love. We have faith in Jesus Christ who died for our sins and we love one-another, and we have hope of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ:

> I Thessalonians 5:1-10 - Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, There is peace and security, then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. (ESV)

69.3.1 Imputed righteousness - The righteousness through faith in Jesus Christ.

Imputed righteousness is a positional righteousness that comes from being found "in Christ". An analogy I like is the ambulance analogy. Being in Christ, at least initially is like being placed into an ambulance. So long as you are in the ambulance, you can't die, and are getting healthier (being brought to God, getting closer to God, getting better at keeping God's commandments, dying to sin, and living to righteousness). Perhaps another OK analogy is like a gym membership which Jesus has bought. Being outside of Christ, the person withers and is eventually burned. Staying in Jesus, a person reaps eternal life:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith — that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)
>
> Luke 5:30-32 - And the Pharisees and their scribes grumbled at his disciples, saying, Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners? And Jesus answered them, Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. (ESV)
>
> John 15:4-7 - Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (ESV)
>
> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)
>
> Romans 6:22-23- But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 6:11-12 - And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. (ESV)
>
> Galatians 6:7-10 - Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

Dismas (the penitent thief/criminal on one of the crosses next to Jesus's cross) had faith in Jesus. Dismas received Jesus. Jesus gifted justification to Dismas. And God is just to justify Dismas. Likewise God is just when He justifies those who God determines has faith in Jesus.

The Law Maker, The LORD God Jehovah doesn't violate His law when He justifies the ungodly.

> Exodus 23:7 - Keep far from a false charge, and do not kill the innocent and righteous, for I will not acquit the wicked. (ESV)

> Romans 4:5 - And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, (ESV)

So how can God forgive sinners while still being the perfectly just God He is, and not violating His own laws?

For those who are found in Christ, Jesus bore their penalty, the penalty of the Law's righteous demands. This is how Jesus forgave the thief on the cross. Not by being above the Law, but by bearing the laws demands on Himself!! This is the Good News!!

> Romans 3:20-26,31 - For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

> Colossians 2:9-15 - For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him. (ESV)

The following passage here doesn't say that Jesus is above the Law. But it does say that ”something greater than the temple is here”:

> Matthew 12:1-8 - At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath. He said to them, Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him: how he entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him to eat nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? Or have you not read in the Law how on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless? I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. And if you had known what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the guiltless. For the Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath. (ESV)

Jesus kept fulfilling the law doing what is lawful, doing good:

> Matthew 12:10-13 - And a man was there with a withered hand. And they asked him, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?—so that they might accuse him. He said to them, Which one of you who has a sheep, if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out? Of how much more value is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath. Then he said to the man, Stretch out your hand. And the man stretched it out, and it was restored, healthy like the other. (ESV)

For those in Christ, Jesus bears their/our sins:

> Galatians 3:13-14 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us — for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree — so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:22-28 - Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins. Thus it was necessary for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these rites, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ has entered, not into holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true things, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the holy places every year with blood not his own, for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. (ESV)
>
> Galatians 4:4-5 - But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. (ESV)

I need to do more studies on the theology behind John Piper's message here:

Watch youtube.com: Rest for Your Soul {@desiringGod}

My only sure confidence as far as justification goes is the external righteousness that I have in Jesus through faith in Jesus recognising the commandment to the obedience of faith in Jesus and that God is just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus, so that is an external righteousness not of my own but I recognise that God is the one who justifies. This is how I'm resting on the finished work of the cross.

I also recognise the command to further obedience to God, not just the command to the obedience of faith in Jehovah God and Jesus but also the command to agape love God and my neighbour, and the commandment of repentance towards God and faith in Jesus and also the commandment to serve and obey and worship God and to stop serving and obeying sin.

> Philippians 3:9 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— (ESV)
>
> Ephesians 6:14 - Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, (ESV)
>
> Isaiah 59:17-18 - He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head; he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and wrapped himself in zeal as a cloak. According to their deeds, so will he repay, wrath to his adversaries, repayment to his enemies; to the coastlands he will render repayment. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 1:30 - He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom and our righteousness and sanctification and redemption. (ESV)

`https://www.reddit.com/r/PrayerTeam_amen/comments/1h5qmbn/jesus_dropped_the_charges/` When the devil brings up your past, remind him that Jesus dropped the charges.

Yeah man. Amen. Knowing Jesus dropped the charges, and then wanting to turn a new leaf, the devil comes along against and tries to make me think my efforts to turn away from sin is working for justification.... Also, wanting to turn a new leaf and sell my posessions and give to the poor, the devil comes along and tries to deter me, even through people trying to make me afraid of "testing God" by trusting God, even though Jesus said that our Heavenly Father takes care of us. Then when I refuse to go back into lewd habbits of my past, the devil puts these dreams in my head and attack my mind and body as I'm sleeping. It's a battle... But Jesus dropped the charges. I was born-again 2 years ago and though I have had to be corrected reading the Scripture, but I still do not feel condemned. I have faith in Jesus. I'm trying to continue to be obedient to Jesus. I still make mistakes but I believe I have a righteousness that is not in me - it's outside of me, it's Jesus. And I'm happy that in this situation I'm able to continue doing battle against sin and against the devil while Jesus is advocating for me, his blood is sanctifying me and Jesus is preparing me to stand before Father God.

69.3.2 Personal holiness righteousness - Godliness

Godly people adorn themselves with good works:

> I Timothy 2:8-10 - I desire then that in every place the men should pray, lifting holy hands without anger or quarreling; likewise also that women should adorn themselves in respectable apparel, with modesty and self-control, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or costly attire, but with what is proper for women who profess godliness—with good works. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 19:7-8 - Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his Bride has made herself ready; it was granted her to clothe herself with fine linen, bright and pure— for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints. (ESV)

1Clem 33:7 We have seen that all the righteous were adorned in good works. Yea, and the Lord Himself having adorned Himself with worlds rejoiced.

Cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light:

> Romans 13:12-14 - The night is far gone; the day is at hand. So then let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us walk properly as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in quarreling and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires. (ESV)

Live in the spirit the way God does:

> I Peter 4:1-6 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the spirit the way God does. (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:1-17 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:1-10 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. (ESV)

youtube.com: Unstained from the World: The Battle for Purity - Tim Conway @time: 16 min 34 sec

> Unspotted by the world is mainly a mind thing.
>
> Listen what Paul says, ”Do not be conformed to this world.”
>
> That’s the issue. Don’t be spotted by it. Don’t be conformed to it.
>
> But be transformed by the renewal of your mind. You see where the battle is?
>
> Brethren, to be unspotted from the world, this is largely for us to be unspspotted by the ways that this world thinks, its theories, its belief systems. We’re talking strongholds of thought and Brethren, you know what, you had a world out there and it’s like they have this fortification around their head, around their thoughts, around how they think, and they live in it.
>
> And they’re trapped in these things and our responsibility is to seek to come and dash these things. John MacArthur says, heard him say that these things become their tombs. They die in there.
>
> Oh, they appear so lofty, scientific, intelligent, intellectual. This all seems good, and you know what Paul said, listen you know what he said? Every lofty opinion, we destroy arguments, every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God. It’s all against the knowledge of God. You see what people are fortifying themselves with? Systems that are anti-god, anti-christ and, listen, to the degree you embibe this, the way the world thinks, you’re stained by it, you’re adulterated by it.
>
> We got to get the world’s ideologies out of our mind and stop being double-headed, stop being adulterated in the mind. You know what we’re striving after? Your virginity of the mind.

69.4 Shoes of the Gospel of Peace

The readiness to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with people, and also live out the Gospel.

> Ephesians 6:15 - and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. (ESV)

> Isaiah 52:7 - How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, Your God reigns. (ESV)

> Romans 10:15 - And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news! (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:18-21 - All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

69.5 Shield of Faith

Maintaining faithfulness to God, and our trust in God, God fights for us and is our shield.

> Psalms 18:30 - God! perfect is His way, The saying of Jehovah is tried, A shield is He to all those trusting in Him. (YLT)
>
> Ephesians 6:16 - In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; (ESV)
>
> I Peter 5:8-9 - Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world. (ESV)
>
> I John 5:4-5 - For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)
>
> Psalms 56:3-4 - When I am afraid, I put my trust in you. In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can flesh do to me? (ESV)

Having faith in God, we have our shield:

> Genesis 15:1 - After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision: Fear not, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great. (ESV)

God's word is trustworthy. The shield of faith involves trusting what God says rather than the lies:

> Psalms 18:30 - This God—his way is perfect; the word of the LORD proves true; he is a shield for all those who take refuge in him. (ESV)

69.6 Helmet of Salvation

Our hope of salvation which we have in Jesus Christ.

> Ephesians 6:17 - and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, (ESV)
>
> Isaiah 59:17 - He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head; he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and wrapped himself in zeal as a cloak. (ESV)
>
> I Thessalonians 5:8 - But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. (ESV)

69.7 Sword of the Spirit

69.7.1 Apply the word of God to combat lies

> Ephesians 6:17 - and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, (ESV)

69.7.2 Believe the truth

> Matthew 4:4 - But he answered, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God. (ESV)

69.7.3 Keep a clean heart with God

Hebrews 4:12-13 - For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account. (ESV)

Acts 24:14-16 - But this I confess (G3670 homologeó) to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the Law and written in the Prophets, having a hope in God, which these men themselves accept, that there will be a resurrection of both the just and the unjust. So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man. (ESV)

Hebrews 13:18 - Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a clear conscience, desiring to act honorably in all things. (ESV)

69.7.4 Repent

Revelation of John 19:15 - From his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron. He will tread the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty. (ESV)

Revelation of John 2:16 - Therefore repent. If not, I will come to you soon and war against them with the sword of my mouth. (ESV)

Hosea 6:5 - Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light. (ESV)

69.8 Prayer

An example of a prayer - short and sweet:

Genesis 24:12 - And he said, O LORD, God of my master Abraham, please grant me success today and show steadfast love to my master Abraham. (ESV)

Another example:

Daniel 2:20-23 - Daniel answered and said: Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, to whom belong wisdom and might. He changes times and seasons; he removes kings and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding; he reveals deep and hidden things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. To you, O God of my fathers, I give thanks and praise, for you have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we asked of you, for you have made known to us the king's matter. (ESV)

Ephesians 6:18 - praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, (ESV)

I Thessalonians 5:17 - pray without ceasing, (ESV)

Colossians 4:2 - Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving. (ESV)

I Timothy 2:1 - First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, (ESV)

Philippians 4:6 - do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. (ESV)

> Jude 1:20 - But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit; (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:26-27 - Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. (ESV)

69.9 Lamp

Awaiting the grace that will be brought to us at the revelation of Jesus Christ, prepare our hearts, waiting for Jesus to knock, ready for action.

The day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. But we know it's coming, so we'll be ready for it:

> I Thessalonians 5:4-5 - But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. (ESV)

Keep shining your light, maintaining a heart of service, and do good works of faith to glorify God, as we put our hope fully on the mercy and grace from Jesus Christ:

> I Peter 1:13 - Therefore, preparing your minds for action, and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Jesus will serve His servants who are awake:

> Luke 12:33-37 - Sell your possessions, and give to the needy. Provide yourselves with moneybags that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Stay dressed for action and keep your lamps burning, and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the wedding feast, so that they may open the door to him at once when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will dress himself for service and have them recline at table, and he will come and serve them. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 23:11 - The greatest among you shall be your servant. (ESV)

69.10 Armour of God - CS Lewis notes

youtube.com: C S Lewis message 2024 - Faith in action God fights for you, but you must also act @time: 12 min 35 sec

69.10.1 Belt of Truth

Think of it as the study belt a soldier wears, holding everything in place. The Truth serves as the foundation of our spiritual life, anchoring us in a world full of deceptions and falsehoods. It is the word of God that anchors us and sets us free.

69.10.2 Breastplate of Righteousness

Protects our hearts against the enemy's attacks. It is a reminder of the righteousness we have through Christ, not because of anything we have done. It is about living in obedience and integrity, knowing that we are clothed in His righteousness.

69.10.3 Shoes of Peace

These are not just ordinary shoes. They symbolise our readiness to share the good news of peace with others. In a world torn by conflict and turmoil, we carry the message of reconciliation and hope wherever we go. It is the peace that comes with knowing Christ as mentioned in Philippians 4:7.

> Philippians 4:7 - And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

69.10.4 Shield of Faith

Faith comes in as our shield against the fiery darts of the enemy. It is not just a passive belief but an active trust in God's promises. With faith, we can extinguish every arrow of doubt, fear and temptation. We hold our groud, secure in God's love as Romans 8:38-39 assures us.

> Romans 8:38-39 - For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

69.10.5 Helmet of salvation

The Helmet of salvation is what protects our minds from the enemy's lies and doubts:

- Reminds us of the certainty we have in Christ
    - The assurance of our salvation
    - Our hope
    - Our eternal inheritance

With this helmet we stand firm in our identity as children of God, redeemed and forgiven.

So, spirits redeemed, then bodies redeemed and in between is sanctification which involves us obeying Jesus in faith:

> Ephesians 4:30 - And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. (ESV)
>
> Luke 21:28 - Now when these things begin to take place, straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near. (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:23 - And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. (ESV)

We cannot forget the Sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. This is not just any weapon, but it is our offensive tool in spiritual battles, just as Jesus did in the wilderness.

We use scripture to demolish strongholds and take every thought captive for Christ as mentioned in 2 Corinthians 10:4-5:

> II Corinthians 10:4-5 - For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, (ESV)

youtube.com: Unstained from the World: The Battle for Purity - Tim Conway @time: 16 min 34 sec

> Unspotted by the world is mainly a mind thing.
>
> Listen what Paul says, "Do not be conformed to this world."

> That's the issue. Don't be spotted by it. Don't be conformed to it.
>
> But be transformed by the renewal of your mind. You see where the battle is?
>
> Brethren, to be unspotted from the world, this is largely for us to be unspspotted by the ways that this world thinks, its theories, its belief systems. We're talking strongholds of thought and Brethren, you know what, you had a world out there and it's like they have this fortification around their head, around their thoughts, around how they think, and they live in it.
>
> And they're trapped in these things and our responsibility is to seek to come and dash these things. John MacArthur says, heard him say that these things become their tombs. They die in there.
>
> Oh, they appear so lofty, scientific, intelligent, intellectual. This all seems good, and you know what Paul said, listen you know what he said? Every lofty opinion, we destroy arguments, every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God. It's all against the knowledge of God. You see what people are fortifying themselves with? Systems that are anti-god, anti-christ and, listen, to the degree you embibe this, the way the world thinks, you're stained by it, you're adulterated by it.
>
> We got to get the world's ideologies out of our mind and stop being double-headed, stop being adulterated in the mind. You know what we're striving after? Your virginity of the mind.

I want to let the Bible smash bad theology - not just my own bad theology.

Not by our own strength, but by God's power. God equips and enables us to stand firm so in the midst of every spiritual battle, let us stand strong with the armour He has provided.

In spiritual warfare we are also confronted with situations where we have to make choices on our actions to side with God:

> Daniel 1:8-14 - But Daniel resolved that he would not defile himself with the king's food, or with the wine that he drank. Therefore he asked the chief of the eunuchs to allow him not to defile himself. And God gave Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the chief of the eunuchs, and the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who assigned your food and your drink; for why should he see that you were in worse condition than the youths who are of your own age? So you would endanger my head with the king. Then Daniel said to the steward whom the chief of the eunuchs had assigned over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, Test your servants for ten days; let us be given vegetables to eat and water to drink. Then let our appearance and the appearance of the youths who eat the king's food be observed by you, and deal with your servants according to what you see. So he listened to them in this matter, and tested them for ten days. (ESV) youtube.com: Chosen Ones Why People Start To Act STRANGE Around You The minute God calls you now you start to know people start to act strange and start to move different. There's a reason behind that. Everything that's taking place in your life, guys, is all spiritual. We have Spirits working through individuals. This is why I tell people all the time you're not dealing with the individual, you are dealing with the spirit behind [them].

70 Solae

I am covered by the Blood of Jesus Christ. My trust is in Jesus. I am justified by faith in Jesus Christ who has set me free from the law of sin and death. The law of the spirit of life in Christ has set me free from the law of sin and death.

> Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Trusting and obeying Jesus' words and commandments, a person has life:

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

In Christ I am justified by His blood as I have placed by faith in Him and continue to trust Him and obey Him. He takes care of me.

God has made Christ Jesus our wisdom:

> I Corinthians 1:30 - He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom and our righteousness and sanctification and redemption. (ESV)

My justification and salvation are absolutely reliant on Him and He is faithful even when I am unfaithful. Obeying Jesus is not contrary to faith in Jesus but gives me confidence before God. AMEN!!

> I John 3:21-24 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> I John 3:18-19 - Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; (ESV)

I believe in all of theses:

- `sola fida` (by faith alone) AMEN!!.
    - The justifying faith may include 'acts of faith', which is just visible, working faith.
    - Works done outside of faith do not qualify for justification.
- `sola gratia` (by grace alone) AMEN!!
- `sola scriptura` (by Scripture alone) AMEN!!
    - For faith and practice, the Holy Scriptures are authority. Not church councils, not tradition, not popes.
- `Solus Christus` AMEN!!
- `Soli Deo gloria` (glory to God alone) AMEN!! But the glory God gives us glorifies God.

God's Word must be the authority. Because we want to be corrected by God and grow in the knowledge of Him. Not just "academically" but experientially:

> John 17:17 - Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. (ESV)

> Isaiah 45:19 - I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness; I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, Seek me in vain. I the LORD speak the truth; I declare what is right. (ESV)

> Proverbs 27:17 - Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:16 - Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 2:16 - For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (ESV)

To believe, we must be seeking God, not glory from one another:

> John 5:44 - How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? (ESV)

I'm using the Word of God and doing this Bible study to tread on serpents. Thanks Jesus for giving me authority to do that:

> Luke 10:19 - Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you. (ESV)

> John 7:18 - The one who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory, but the one who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and in him there is no falsehood.

I'm honestly just trying to combat falsehood by reading and applying the Scriptures in a way where I'm responding to promptings from the Holy Spirit and taking every thought captive to obey Christ, and I want to honour Jesus and honour God, and not bury my talent. So I hope my Bible study has been helpful. And all glory to God.

> II Corinthians 10:5 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ,

> Matthew 25:22-23 - And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, Master, you delivered to me two talents; here I have made two talents more. His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.

71 Glorification

Jesus sent us. We seek to glorify Jesus. We seek to glorify our Master. We seek to glorify God. We seek to be found in Jesus. We seek the glorification that comes from being found in our Master, Jesus Christ.

> John 7:18 - The one who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory, but the one who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and in him there is no falsehood.

We must abide in Jesus. God doesn't give glory to anyone else. God is love and God is Jehovah and God is Father God and Jesus Christ who He sent:

> Isaiah 42:8 - I am the LORD; that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to carved idols. (ESV)

I'm using the Word of God and doing this Bible study to tread on serpents. Thanks Jesus for giving me authority to do that:

> Luke 10:19 - Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you. (ESV)

The glory comes from God:

> John 5:44 - How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? (ESV)

> Psalms 73:24 - You guide me with your counsel, and afterward you will receive me to glory.

God glorifies Jesus:

> John 5:41 - I do not receive glory from people.

> John 8:54 - Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, He is our God.

God glorifies Himself through glorifying Jesus through working through Jesus. The power comes from God:

> John 11:4 - But when Jesus heard it he said, This illness does not lead to death. It is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.

> John 13:32 - If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and glorify him at once.

Jesus glorifies us, provided we suffer for His sake, by working through us to do God's work which also glorifies Jesus and glorifies God:

> John 14:13 - Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

> John 15:8 - By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.

> John 17:10-11 - All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. (ESV)

> Romans 8:17 - and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

The Spirit whom those who have faith in Jesus receive works through us:

> John 7:39 - Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Jesus glorified God by accomplishing the work that God gave Him - Jesus obeyed God.

> John 17:4 - I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do.

Likewise, we must obey God, and obey God by obeying Jesus, and being sanctified in the Truth. By having faith in Jesus and trusting in the Truth, and obeying, we are cleaned, transformed and made to glorify God:

> John 17:8-26 - For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am praying for them. I am not praying for the world but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. I have guarded them, and not one of them has been lost except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me. Father, I desire that they also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory that you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father, even though the world does not know you, I know you, and these know that you have sent me. I made known to them your name, and I will continue to make it known, that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.

> II Thessalonians 1:10 - when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed.

We are to be conformed into Christ's image:

> Romans 8:29 - For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. (ESV)

We're supposed to do good works of faith by Jesus' power so that Jesus' name is glorified - and those works done in Jesus' power are entirely given by grace to us:

Father God glorifies Jesus Christ, His Son (John 16:14) and is glorified in Jesus Christ (John 13:31-32). God saves us in Jesus Christ which glorifies Him (Psalms 50:14-15).

God glorifies Himself in us through Jesus Christ. We glorify Father God (I Peter 4:16, I Peter 2:12, I Corinthians 6:20) with praise and thanksgiving.

Jesus Christ gets His glory from Father God. When we are saved by Jesus Christ and are glorifying God thanking and praising Him, the glory doesn't origiate from us; it originates from Father God. The glory comes from God and glorifies Jesus Christ His son and glorifies Father God. Father God does glorify Himself (John 12:28) through Jesus Christ. All the glory belongs to Father God:

> I Peter 4:11 - whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

> John 5:41 - I do not receive glory from people (G444 anthrōpōn; men). (ESV)

> John 5:44 - How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? (ESV)

Apart from Jesus we can do nothing but self destruct:

> John 15:5-6 - I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. (ESV)

71.1 Glorification is grace

Being persecuted for doing good works of faith by His power is all grace:

> II Thessalonians 1:11-12 - To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

71.2 Glorification is Christ-likeness

We are trying to shine the Truth of Jesus Christ and Jesus' gospel.

> I Peter 2:9 - But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (ESV)

Glorification is the visible works of following Jesus including forgiving others, relieving others' burdens, etc. suffering for the sake of righteousness and obedience to God.

Imitating Jesus, forgiving others, walking righteously, and doing good works (bearing one-another's burdens) glorifies Jesus and glorifies God. The motivation is to glorify Jesus, and to honour Jesus.

> I Corinthians 6:20 - for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. (ESV)

> Romans 12:1 - I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Steve Apirana - Living Sacrifice

This should never replace Jesus, but glorifies Jesus because it's being a disciple of Jesus.

> II Thessalonians 1:11-12 - To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:10 - For it was fitting for Him, for whom (G3739 hos) are all (G3956 pas) things (G3956 pas), and through whom (G3739 hos) are all (G3956 pas) things (G3956 pas), in bringing many sons to glory (G1391 doxa), to perfect (G5048 teleioo) the author of their salvation (G4991 soteria) through sufferings.

If someone's lord is money and not Jesus and then they try to do good works such as setting up businesses, I feel like this glorifies money, not Jesus.

The glory we seek must come from Father God rather from anyone else:

John 5:41 (Interlinear) Glory (G1391 Doxan) from (G3844 para) men (G444 anthrōpōn) not (G3756 ou) I take (G2983 lambanō)

> John 5:44 - How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? (ESV)

I Thessalonians 2:6 (Interlinear) nor seeking from men (G444 anthrōpōn) glory nor from you (G4771 hymōn) nor from others (G243 allōn) [though] having authority in [it] burden to be as Christ's apostles

Glory which comes from Father God to Jesus' disciples comes also through Jesus Christ the Son of God from Father God, and this glory glorifies Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ glorifies Father God:

> John 17:1,22 - When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, (ESV)

Thinking logically about this (though I am not infallible), on the topic of Mary the mother of Jesus, I think that any generational sin that might have come through Jesus' genaeology from Adam's side, Jesus would have "taken on" when he took on flesh. All those who were born of promise from Abraham to Mary, Jesus would have "taken on their sin":

> Matthew 1:1 - The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. (ESV)

> Galatians 4:28-29 - Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. (ESV)

Apart from Jesus, we cannot do anything, nor have any inheritance in Christ. A person must be "in Christ" to partake of the promise to Abraham and of Christ:

> Philippians 3:8-11 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. (ESV)

> Galatians 4:31 - So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

> John 15:5 - I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:16 - Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring. It does not say, And to offsprings, referring to many, but referring to one, And to your offspring, who is Christ. (ESV)

> James 2:5 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? (ESV)

This glory from Father God glorifies Jesus Christ:

> II Thessalonians 2:14 - To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> John 17:10 - All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. (ESV)

When others see our good works and give glory to our Father who is in heaven, we are not giving Father God that glory, but Father God is glorifying Himself through those people:

> Matthew 5:16 - In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

Father God glorifies Jesus:

> John 8:54 - Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, He is our God. (ESV)

Father God glorifies those who do good:

> Romans 2:10 - but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:21 - that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. (ESV)

Father God glorifies Jesus Christ through Jesus' disciples:

> Romans 15:7 - Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. (ESV)
>
> II Corinthians 4:17 - For this slight momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, (ESV)
>
> II Corinthians 8:23 - As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for your benefit. And as for our brothers, they are messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. (ESV)
>
> John 17:10 - All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. (ESV)
>
> Ephesians 3:16 - that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, (ESV)

And Father God glorified Jesus' disciples in the people who they led to Jesus Christ:

> I Thessalonians 2:19-20 - For what is our hope or joy or crown of boasting before our Lord Jesus at his coming? Is it not you? For you are our glory and joy. (ESV)

We wish for Father God to glorify Himself in Jesus Christ:

> Romans 16:27 - to the only wise God be glory forevermore through Jesus Christ! Amen. (ESV)
>
> Ephesians 3:21 - to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

Father God will glorify Himself through people as they will one way or another confess that Jesus Christ is Lord::

> Philippians 2:11 - and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (ESV)

But to be saved a person needs a real faith which loves the truth in the heart. That type of faith a demon does not have:

> Mark 5:7 - And crying out with a loud voice, he said, What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment me. (ESV)
>
> II Thessalonians 2:9-12 - The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. (ESV)
>
> James 2:19 - You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder! (ESV)

Here, Zacchaeus, renounces money and ”makes Jesus his Lord.” This must happen first:

> Luke 19:8 - And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold. (ESV)

Abram did this too. It’s a necessary act of faith:

> Genesis 14:20-24 - and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand! And Abram gave him a tenth of everything. And the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the persons, but take the goods for yourself. But Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lifted my hand to the Lord, God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth, that I would not take a thread or a sandal strap or anything that is yours, lest you should say, I have made Abram rich. I will take nothing but what the young men have eaten, and the share of the men who went with me. Let Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre take their share.

> Genesis 15:1 - After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision: Fear not, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.

71.3 True obedience leads to glory/holiness/Christ-likeness

For example, to truly obey God and love / do no harm to one’s neighbour involves relieving other’s burdens as they ask more from you.

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

youtube.com: C.S. Lewis - God is guiding our lives to the best path @time: 18 min 37 sec As you feel compelled to act according to what pleases God, even in the face of difficulties, it is a clear sign that He is moulding not only your heart but your entire being. God is reshaping you to reflect the person he created you to be, with a heart like that of Jesus.

Jesus endured the weight of His cross to lighten our burden:

> Hebrews 12:3 - Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. (ESV)

We are called to do the same, lightening the burdens of others. We are forgiven and given grace, then we can choose to forgive others and lighten their burdens - grace propagates.

> Hebrews 12:4-6 - In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives.

> Hebrews 12:10 - For they disciplined us for a short time as it seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness.

71.4 Forgive others’ offenses towards you is glory

> Proverbs 19:11 - Good sense makes one slow to anger, and it is his glory to overlook an offense. (ESV)

> Ephesians 4:32 - Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

We are required to:

- forgive others for your sake
- forgive others for their sake
- forgive others as a response of love to Jesus for your sins being forgiven
- to be able to forgive others is a gift to you and part of glorification
- be merciful to others as we have received mercy

> Colossians 3:12-13 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. (ESV)

This is simultaneously required and is part of glorification/holiness.

I think there's something very important about forgiving others especially for things which happen after being born-again of the Spirit and receiving the Holy Spirit.

> Colossians 3:13 - bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.

> John 20:21-23 - Jesus said to them again, Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven; if you withhold forgiveness from anyone, it is withheld.

Especially immediately after receiving the Holy Spirit, Jesus forgives those who you forgive - this is partaking in the process of forgiveness.

Jesus is the one who forgives sin, but we actually participate in propagating that forgiveness.

Forgiving others entirely is also required

> Matthew 6:12 - and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

Sometimes you don't know if you're in the right or wrong, so forgiving others' offences towards you is freeing yourself:

> Matthew 18:21-35 - Then Peter came up and said to him, Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times? Jesus said to him, I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven. Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything. And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, Pay what you owe. So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, Have patience with me, and I will pay you. He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. Then his master summoned him and said to him, You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you? And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart. (ESV)

Before God we're all guilty:

> Romans 3:23 - for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, (ESV)

Loving one another includes forgiving one another. Forgiving others means not holding a grudge:

> Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV) youtube.com: Sin as Slavery - Timothy Keller Sermon @time: 22 min 17 sec What if you just decided, "I know I'm supposed to forgive but I'm not I'm going to hold a grudge." You know what that will do to your mind? It will rot your mind mind. Because first of all in order to hold a grudge you've got to feel morally superior to that person. You cannot see yourself as yourself guilty of anything that person has done. And so, when the evidence comes that you are a sinner, when the evidence comes that you are weak, when the evidence comes that you're flawed, you'll screen it out. You won't be able to. Because you can't hold on, you can't crave vengeance and still be rational. You'll have to screen out any evidence that says, "Hey, you're as bad as that person" and not only that, you'll have to screen out any evidence that person isn't as bad as you thought they were.

youtube.com: Sin as Slavery - Timothy Keller Sermon @time: 23 min 7 sec Sin will not only destroy your emotions through an eternal tolerance effect but it will destroy your mind. You will not be able to think and in the end your will is gone.

Forgiving each other moves mountains (I know Gospel of Thomas is not canon and I don't affirm the gospel of Thomas - I think it's misleading, but this saying rings true for me, and I believe it means that when two people make peace, they can move mountains. Whether Jesus truly said it or not, who knows):

> Thomas 48 - Jesus said: If two make peace with one another in this one house, they will say to the mountain: Be removed, and it will be removed.
>
> Matthew 18:15-20 - If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them. (ESV)

It's Christlike to forgive others' offences against us:

> Proverbs 19:11 - Good sense makes one slow to anger, and it is his glory to overlook an offense. (ESV)

We'll be chastised if we do not forgive our brother from our heart:

> Matthew 18:35 - So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart. (ESV)

Get out of debt to others:

> Romans 13:7 - Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed. (ESV)

Come to the place where we owe others nothing but to love them:

> Romans 13:8 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (ESV)

Our unforgiveness is an impediment to receiving forgiveness:

> Mark 11:25 - And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 6:14-15 - For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. (ESV)

We should have the right response to the grace of God, and forgive our neighbour:

> Ephesians 4:32 - Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.

We are instructed to forward grace to others:

> Matthew 10:8 - Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay. (ESV)

71.5 Be extremely generous - give without limits to relieve the burdens of others

> Matthew 10:8 - Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay. (ESV)
>
> 1 Peter 4:8 - Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. (ESV)
>
> Luke 6:35-36 - But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)
>
> Luke 6:38 - give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you. (ESV)
>
> Mark 12:41-44 - And he sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the offering box. Many rich people put in large sums. And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. And he called his disciples to him and said to them, Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on. (ESV)
>
> Psalms 37:21 - The wicked borrows but does not pay back, but the righteous is generous and gives; (ESV)
>
> Psalms 37:25-26 - I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging for bread. He is ever lending generously, and his children become a blessing. (ESV)

Paul commends giving even beyond their means. This is in accordance with the widow's offering:

> II Corinthians 8:3-5 - For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own free will, begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints— and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us. (ESV)

Give as you have made up in your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, but resist other people deterring you from giving when your heart convicts you it's the right thing to do as far as obeying Jesus goes:

> II Corinthians 9:6-9 - The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. As it is written, He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever. (ESV)

> Philemon 1:13-14 - I would have been glad to keep him with me, in order that he might serve me on your behalf during my imprisonment for the gospel, but I preferred to do nothing without your consent in order that your goodness might not be by compulsion but of your own free will. (ESV)

71.6 Do the good works which have been gifted to you

Our works have been gifted to us by God's grace - works of deed and word:

> Ephesians 2:10 - For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them. (ESV)

God chose us and called us out of darkness into His marvelous light to proclaim His excellencies:

> I Peter 2:9 - But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:16 - In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

71.7 Walk in righteousness

> Daniel 12:3 - And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky above; and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever. (ESV)

71.8 The deeds of glory - Christlikeness

> Hebrews 3:14 - For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. (ESV)

All the times a person has acted in Christlike obedience:

- forgiving others in knowledge they have been forgiven themselves
- giving mercy to others in knowledge they have themselves received mercy
- encouraging one-another
- serve others
- suffering as a Christian
- etc.

God glorifies Jesus (His Son) so Jesus may glorify Him (God). Jesus glorifies us (His disciples) so we may glorify Him (Jesus) and glorify God by glorifying Jesus.

This is obedience.

> John 17:1 - When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you,

> John 17:4 - I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do.

God glorifies Jesus. Jesus obeyed God and accomplished the work God gave Him. Jesus showed God's truthfulness through His obedience. Jesus showed God to be true and glorified God:

> Romans 15:8-9 - For I tell you that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs, and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name.

Jesus glorifies us: We must obey Jesus and accomplish the work God gives us.

> John 8:54 - Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, He is our God.

All the glory belongs to Father God:

> I Chronicles 29:11 - Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and you are exalted as head above all. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:13 - 'And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil. [For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.'] (NASB)

Jesus is glorified in us - our glory is His glory because we obey Him and show Jesus's truthfulness as Jesus has shown God's truthfulness:

> John 17:22-23 - The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me.

Jesus is glorified in us.

> John 17:10 - All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. (ESV)

Jesus accomplished His work. we must accomplish our work.

> John 17:4 - I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do.

Christlikeness:

> I Peter 2:12 - Keep your conduct among the Gentiles honorable, so that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day of visitation.

> Romans 12:1 - I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

> Revelation of John 19:8 - it was granted her to clothe herself with fine linen, bright and pure— for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.

Suffering for Christian obedience, as Christ suffered for His obedience:

> John 21:18-19 - Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you used to dress yourself and walk wherever you wanted, but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go. (This he said to show by what kind of death he was to glorify God.) And after saying this he said to him, Follow me.

> I Peter 4:16 - Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name.

> John 7:7 - The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: John Piper Recites from 1 Peter

Please your neighbour for their good:

> Romans 15:2-3 - Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. For Christ did not please himself, but as it is written, The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me.

Welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you. Live in harmony with one-another, encouraging and serving one another [as Christ did]:

> Romans 15:5-7 May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.

Be merciful and serving to others, show God's truthfulness. glorify God by your conduct. Others then praise God:

> Romans 15:8-9 - For I tell you that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs, and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name.

Supply the needs of the saints:

> II Corinthians 9:12 - For the ministry of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God.

Be thankful to God:

> II Corinthians 9:13 - By their approval of this service, they will glorify God because of your submission flowing from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others,

Glorification can only come through being found in Jesus Christ:

> Isaiah 42:8 - I am the LORD; that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to carved idols. (ESV)

And in Jesus Christ there is no sin:

> I John 3:5-6 - You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him.

71.9 Seeing Jesus, appearing in glory

1 John 3:2 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. (ESV)

1 Corinthians 1:4-8 - I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that was given you in Christ Jesus, that in every way you were enriched in him in all speech and all knowledge— even as the testimony about Christ was confirmed among you— so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will sustain you to the end, guiltless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Colossians 3:4 - When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. (ESV)

Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Philippians 1:10 - so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, (ESV)

Philippians 2:16 - holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

John 6:39 - And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. (ESV)

71.10 The putting off of the body

II Peter 1:13-21 - I think it right, as long as I am in this body, to stir you up by way of reminder, since I know that the putting off of my body will be soon, as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. And I will make every effort so that after my departure you may be able at any time to recall these things. For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For when he received honor and glory from God the Father, and the voice was borne to him by the Majestic Glory, This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased, we ourselves heard this very voice borne from heaven, for we were with him on the holy mountain. And we have something more sure, the prophetic word, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts, knowing this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone's own interpretation. For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

71.11 I think to relax commandments is throw away glorification

Matthew 5:19 - Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

However, I'm not placing myself under the Mosaic law. My job is to do God's will, and I believe I have to maintain faithfulness to God with regards to His will for my life, being led by the Holy Spirit, not making Mosaic law compliance my objective, but making God's will my objective. So, for example, that means making disciples of Jesus. Also, that means deepening my relationship with Jesus.

Matthew 24:35 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

72 I was dead and helpless before being made alive in Christ

- youtube.com: Is the Calvinist-Arminian Debate Really Important? @time: 4 min 38 sec

72.1 Before being born-again of the spirit I was thinking worldly/materially

> I Corinthians 2:14 - The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. (ESV)

72.1.1 I was spiritually blind

> II Corinthians 4:4 - In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. (ESV)

> John 14:9 - Jesus said to him, Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, Show us the Father? (ESV)

72.2 I was quite unable to go against the trajectory of the world

> Romans 8:7 - For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. (ESV)

72.3 In a very real sense I was helpless

I was helplessly:

- stuck in sinful habits,
- struggling with mental energy to try to stay on top of things / get ahead (of others),
- wondering why everything was going against me, and
- wondering where God is
- wondering why other so-called Christians were not being Christlike

I could not see my spiritual opposition:

> Ephesians 6:12 - For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. (ESV)

I felt like giving up, and I cried out to Jesus one night to save me:

> Romans 10:13 - For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. (ESV)

72.4 In defense of any type of love for God before being born-again on 2 April 2022

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

I had already begun to seek God around a year before I was born-again of the Spirit / regenerated on 2 April 2022.

> Jeremiah 29:13-14 - You will seek me and find me. When you seek me with all your heart, I will be found by you, declares the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, declares the LORD, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile. (ESV)

I had begun trying to repent from sin by trying to follow the 10 commandments from the heart.

72.4.1 With regards to God

Before I was born-again, I had begun speaking out against evil and I had begun repenting from my evil deeds, but I was still very much spiritually depraved. God was still working in my life.

> John 7:7 - The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. (ESV)
>
> The doctrine of total depravity asserts that people are, as a result of the fall, not inclined or even able to love God wholly with heart, mind, and strength, but rather are inclined by nature to serve their own will and desires and reject his rule.
>
> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

72.5 Christ's love

Love is:

> I Corinthians 13:4-8 - Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears (G4722 stegei; it bears; to cover with silence (endure patiently)) all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. (ESV)

Required to satisfy the "Christ's love" criteria I believe are:

- Our first agape love has to be Jesus
- We love because God loved us first. We ought to love others because we have been loved by God
- We forgive out of a loving response to God and to others, knowing we have already been forgiven of our debt
- It must satisfy Christ's law
- Acceptance comes at the beginning; Jesus gives us the benefit of the doubt
- Be a servant; consider others more significant than yourself
- Seek to do not harm to your neighbour and not take vengeance
- Bear one another's burdens without partiality
- We should endeavour to love not just on occasion, but at all times, continually, as Jesus did, and give our all

Our first agape love has to be Jesus:

> Revelation of John 2:1-5 - "To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: The One who holds the seven stars in His right hand, the One who walks among the seven golden lampstands, says this: 'I know your deeds and your toil and perseverance, and that you cannot tolerate evil men, and you put to the test those who call themselves apostles, and they are not, and you found them to be false; and you have perseverance and have endured for My name's sake, and have not grown weary. But I have this against you, that you have left your first (G4413 protos) love (G26 agape). Therefore remember from where you have fallen, and repent and do the deeds you did at first; or else I am coming to you and will remove your lampstand out of its place–unless you repent. (NASB)

Song youtube.com: Petra - First Love

Our love is in response to Christ having loved us first:

> I John 4:10-11 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. (ESV)

> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

> Ephesians 4:32 - Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

To love your neighbour as yourself means forgiving them too, and remember that Jesus forgave us. It also means to not take vengeance (Christ's law includes not rendering evil for evil):

> Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)

Which commandments must we keep? Jesus' commandments - Jesus' sayings and commandments which Father God commanded Him to speak. Also, it's worth learning from the Apostles who were with Jesus. Some commandments of Jesus are divulged and better understood from their writings.

Jesus kept Father God's commandments including the commandment of what to say and speak to us. Jesus' words and sayings and commandments which God gave Him to speak to us are what we should keep. His commandments are eternal life for us:

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

From infants in Christ to maturity, people who keep Jesus' commandments are found in Christ who is in God:

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:1-5 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. (ESV)

If you love Jesus, keep His commandments. The one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one who loves Jesus:

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)
>
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
>
> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

Because God loved us first:

- The Apostle Paul endeavours to know Jesus ('makes it his own'. See Php 3:9-13) because Jesus made Paul His own
    - To be found in Jesus is what Paul describes as the righteousness from God that depends on faith
        - Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)
        - I Thessalonians 5:8 - But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. (ESV)
        - I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)
        - Ephesians 6:14 - Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, (ESV)
        - James 1:19-23 - Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness that God requires. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. (ESV)
    - We know Jesus by believing in Him and obeying His commandments, and when we love and forgive we know God loved us and forgave us first
        - I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

- We must love because He loved us first for God to abide in us
    - Romans 5:7-8 - For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (ESV)
    - I John 4:9-12 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)
- We must forgive as we have been forgiven
    - Colossians 3:12-14 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (ESV)
- We must be conformed to holiness
    - I Peter 1:14-16 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. (ESV)

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus' name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God's ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth. This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)
>
> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

We should be loving our neighbour continually:

> John 13:1 - Now before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. (ESV)

72.5.1 Obedience to God and passing forward the love of Christ

It was Father God's will that Jesus went to the cross:

> Luke 22:42 - saying, Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done. (ESV)

Jesus was willing to do God's will - Jesus was obedient:

> John 10:18 - No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father. (ESV)

In response to forgiveness, we must love:

> Luke 7:47 - Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little. (ESV)

He loved us first, and that is why and how we love (knowing we've already received mercy). Christ's love is not simply charity but a) it's passing-forward Christ's love, and b) it's to relieve other's burdens (mercy, not sacrifice):

> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

> Acts 2:45 - And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. (ESV)

Jesus laid down His life. Maybe this says something about how we should also lay down our lives for each other:

> John 10:17 - For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. (ESV)

> John 15:13 - Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. (ESV)

I think this shows that Father God works as He loves the Son of God who is obedient to Father God's commandments, and Jesus Christ, the Son of God gives us commandments in like manner:

> John 5:20-24 - For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing. And greater works than these will he show him, so that you may marvel. For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (ESV)

> John 15:9-10 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

> John 10:17-18 - For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father. (ESV)

72.6 2020 (About 1 and a bit years before I was born-again of the Spirit)

I was attempting to prove that ”faithful, truthful, unconditional” love should be the basis of a romantic relationship and I did not have any success in finding one.

The good part of it was wanting her to be happy. The bad part was that I wanted to be the solution, when the solution is Jesus.

> I Thessalonians 5:20-21 - Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. (ESV)

I believe that Jesus gives us unconditional love but that He also gives us conditional love. There is unconditional love, which extends even to the evil and the ungrateful. This is just one of those apparent paradoxes. However, there is some profoundly conditional aspects of God’s love to us which include many promises He makes to those who love Him back:

> John 10:27-28 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. (ESV)

Polycarp 2:2 Now He that raised Him from the dead will raise us also; if we do His will and walk in His commandments and love the things which He loved, abstaining from all unrighteousness, covetousness, love of money, evil speaking, false witness; not rendering evil for evil or railing for railing or blow for blow or cursing for cursing;

> Philippians 3:8-11 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:12 - Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on (G1377 diōkō; I am pursuing) to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

HELPS Word-studies G1377 diṓkō – properly, aggressively chase, like a hunter pursuing a catch (prize). G1377 (diṓkō) is used positively (”earnestly pursue”) and negatively (”zealously persecute, hunt down”). In each case, G1377 (diṓkō) means pursue with all haste (”chasing” after), earnestly desiring to overtake (apprehend)

> Philippians 3:13 - Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own (G2638 kateilēphenai; to have taken hold [of it]). But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

But in all fairness, at this time I still didn’t have a relationship with God where I considered Christ’s law and bearing my neighbour’s burdens, doing no harm and counting others more significant than myself as a defining part of agape love. And for the sake of trying to solve my own problems, I was not at all times counting them as more significant them myself, but I think it’s very unfair to say that I did not ever.

> Romans 13:10 - Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:3-5 - Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, (ESV)

I was still just getting to know Jesus and I had a lot to learn. I believe that the grace in my life ran out.

I gave up on seeking a romantic relationship with that person because there was definitely no mutual feeling from them.

That was up until about December 2020.

At the time I was just beginning to learn to keep Jesus’ commandments but I was also trying to fulfill a desire which only Jesus can fill, and I had not died.

> Colossians 3:3 - For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (ESV)

We must love (not just any way you believe it's defined, not even merely with charity) but in the same way that Jesus loved us - self-sacrificially, impartially, following Christ's law (bearing one another's burdens) and in a response to having been loved already:

> John 13:34 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. (ESV)

> I John 4:10-11 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. (ESV)

> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

Then I was amazed surprised to meet someone else who I simply felt at total peace with being around, someone who I thought also didn't hate me, after struggling for years having romantic feelings for people who didn't have any affection for me at all.

That was around January 2021.

And almost as soon as I met this person I had to let her go for the time being and I simply worked on Pen.el when it was AI software (before it was Bible Study software) for the course of 2021. With the AI project I was building a 'virtual house', but Jesus wants us to allow Him to build our life:

> Psalms 127:1 - Unless the LORD (H3068. Yhvh - Phonetic Spelling: (yeh-ho-vaw'), Often pronounced: Yahweh or Jehovah) builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain. (ESV)

> Matthew 7:24 - Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)

I just say this in order to describe the events leading up to being born-again, for the sake of others, and so they may know how God drew me to Jesus to save me, as this is my testimony of being born-again.

Even though from time to time I sin, I do not consider myself to be a 'ravenous wolf' because I'm in a world that is incredibly toxic and unconducive to holiness. Nor am I a liar by nature - except in a strict sense, I am by fallen nature, but I'm being sanctified as far as I understand, so that means I'm being renewed in the likeness of my Creator who is not a liar. I hate lying, and when I realise I've said something false I am remoseful. And I rejoice in the truth. Also my first allegiance is always to Jesus. I am conformed to Jesus, not trying to conform Jesus to me. Jesus also did battle against demons, and I identify as being with Him, on His side, of the truth.

youtube.com: C.S. Lewis - God is guiding our lives to the best path @time: 20 min 45 sec Jesus faced adversities from birth to the cross.

I love Jesus as a response to having been loved by God, and I love God's law, and God has cleaned my heart and my attitude, and remain faithful to Jesus. With my mind I serve the law of God, and I have yielded and am yielding my life to Jesus' control and Lordship, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin:

> Romans 7:25 - Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV)

God made me born-again of the Spirit. I was spiritually regenerated. God shone light into my heart, and I embraced Jesus, made following Jesus my number one priority, and abandoned the false-substitute AI stuff, and have made a big effort to turn away from sin, and be as obedient as I can:

> John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV)

I died and my life is now hidden with Christ in God:

> Colossians 3:3 - For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (ESV)

And I must put to death what is earthly in me:

> Colossians 3:3-15 - For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all. Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. (ESV)

And I must be led by the Spirit of God:

> Romans 8:10-14 - But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. (ESV)

> Romans 7:4 - Likewise, my brothers, you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. (ESV)

When I reflect on my own efforts to obey Jesus, I keep seeing stuff ups and mistakes. While I want God to continue sanctifying me to better obedience of faith, If I were to have confidence solely from whether or not I was able to keep Christ's law perfectly today, or say the right things, then I would be in a very sorry state. But I thank God that I get to be called a child of God, as I hope in Jesus Christ, as I endeavour to purify my soul through obedience to the truth for a sincere love of my family in Christ, and I believe that Christ works in my as I obey Him in faith.

My own obedience/righteousness will never be enough on its own (I also need to have accepted forgiveness from God by Jesus' blood), but I hate sin (especially after I have committed it) and I have made an effort to be conformed to holiness, and I honestly feel like without grace/assistance the call to ”be holy as He is holy” feels impossible. But as far as being right with God goes, I'm resting on the righteousness that comes through faith in Jesus so on the day of judgement I hope to receive a ”not guilty” verdict, and the ongoing fear of God I believe is a continuing trust and obedience to Jesus Christ after accepting Him as Lord and Saviour - accepting the truth of His Gospel:

- youtube.com: If you are struggling with what to do with sin after you receive Jesus, take a listen... ?

> Matthew 13:37-43 - He answered, The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers (G4160 poiountas 3588 tēn G458 anomian; practicing lawlessness), and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear. (ESV)

True freedom is found in Jesus, not in the AI stuff:

> Colossians 2:18-21 - Let no one disqualify you, insisting on asceticism and worship of angels, going on in detail about visions, puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind, and not holding fast to the Head, from whom the whole body, nourished and knit together through its joints and ligaments, grows with a growth that is from God. If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations— Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch (ESV)

We must keep and accept the precepts of God over the precepts of men:

> Mark 7:6-9 - And he said to them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men. You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men. And he said to them, You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! (ESV)

This passage is condemning submitting to worldly / human precepts and imploring us to submit to God's precepts. It's not condemning God's precepts but imploring us to put to death what is against God's precepts:

> Colossians 2:20-23,3:1-6 - If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations— Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch (referring to things that all perish as they are used)—according to human precepts and teachings? These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh. If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. (ESV)

And now I'm in this situation where I feel like:

- with the first person (a year + before being born-again), the failure was my own fault and I wasn't really in a relationship with God but I wanted a Christian wife. I did not propose to her
  - I learned from this that a spouse is not supposed to be one's saviour
- after meeting the second person (a year before being born-again) I thought everything about it was perfect
  - so much peace and joy with not needing anything from her and I could focus and work, etc. and wait forever to see her.
  - But when I met the new girl everything felt right, and at the time I met her I felt like I definitely wanted to marry her.
- after being born-again, Jesus became the most important person to me and was still in love with the girl.
  - When I had the vision of her on the beach, I thought she was a gift from God. I proposed to her after seeing her smiling at me on the street.
  - I was brought into court. I needed to reinforce the following again truth again: that a spouse is not supposed to be one's saviour, and, also, we're not supposed to be our spouses' saviour either. A spouse cannot be an idol. Jesus must always be first because Jesus is our life.

However, it's the husband's role to demonstrate Christ's love, and not deny their wife to know Jesus:

> Ephesians 5:21-23 - submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. (ESV)

In my opinion, everything up to when I proposed to her was good - it was like heaven in terms of my happiness. It felt right and I felt close to Jesus too. However, I still had a lot to learn about following Jesus and dying to self.

We are forgiven to do the will of God. We are saved to obey God better. God puts us into Christ. We obey to wash others, and for ourselves to be sanctified, like a branch becoming healthier in the tree:

> John 13:12-16 - When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

We are cleaned by the blood of Christ to serve the living God:

> Matthew 4:10 - Then Jesus said to him, Be gone, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:14 - how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. (ESV)

We serve God by serving Christ:

> Romans 16:17-20 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

We are required to:

- forgive others for your sake
- forgive others for their sake
- forgive others as a response of love to Jesus for your sins being forgiven
- to be able to forgive others is a gift to you and part of glorification
- be merciful to others as we have received mercy

> Colossians 3:12-13 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. (ESV)

The failure to keep the police bail conditions was still potentially rooted in my own fault theologically speaking.

I still needed ongoing repentance and sanctification (correction theologically and behaviorally), and I think that theological error most likely led to endorsing things which I later wanted to repent from. I felt like it was urgent to repent from heresy and from publicly affirming that I would not judge gay 'marriage', and my need to plead guilty was in the light of the knowledge of my error.

I understand now from experience that spreading heresy is a very dangerous thing to do:

> II Peter 2:1 - But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. (ESV)

> II Peter 2:15-16 - Forsaking the right way, they have gone astray. They have followed the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved gain from wrongdoing, but was rebuked for his own transgression; a speechless donkey spoke with human voice and restrained the prophet's madness. (ESV)

I am not the judge of people. There is only one judge. But I am repentant from sin and affirm God's precepts, not sin.

Also, my attitude of wanting to remain faithful to the girl began to degrade my faithfulness to Jesus as I began to make compromises in my writing to continue affirming faithfulness to the girl.

But ultimately, under test I felt the need to affirm Jesus as being the Truth and forsake all else, as from my perspective it looked like I was being tested on relationship idolatry.

Part of why I could not resist but continue blogging, was because of the sheer injustice I felt regarding my freedom to write, and I felt like there was this relationship-destroying spirit sabotaging my relationships again, and whatever thing was completely against faith itself - I had already been writing on my blog very few times to demonstrate a track record of faithfulness, and another part was that after I proposed I wanted to demonstrate faithful waiting in way that was legal (though it was grey, I guess) as the proposal had not been rejected, and as far as I knew at the time, copying Reformed Church Quiz Night results on my blog was not illegal, despite it having elements of her name dispersed in the result answers, or a picture of a flowerbed on my own Facebook page.

gracequotes.org: Sermon, Our Hope, Eternal Life, June 29, 1986, www.DesiringGod.org Christian hope, biblical hope is “a confident expectation and desire for something good in the future.” And from that definition we can see three things that must be true about something if it indeed is to be the object of biblical hope. 1. What we hope for must be something good. 2. What we hope for must be in the future. 3. What we hope for must be certain, not doubtful, so that our expectation of its coming to pass may be confident, not wavering.

I realise that by doing this may have looked like ”poking the bear” and I was aware of that possibility, but my motivation wasn't to. I'm a human being who proposed to someone, and I feel like I can in all honesty plead that I was just being human who was making their first proposal and I felt at the time like the system opposing me was an evil and graceless machine that was punishing me for doing what felt right, but also I wasn't exercising perfect love because otherwise I would not have been even a tiny bit resentful:

> I Corinthians 13:4-8 - Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears (G4722 stegei; it bears; to cover with silence (endure patiently)) all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. (ESV)

Jesus showed perfect love. We then strive to have love perfected with us:

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

Everything seemed to line up:

> The truth is that I was born-again and then I met someone I already liked, and decided I wanted to marry when I talked to her and simply had excessive joy with and also compassion for and thought God made her for me because everything seemed to line up and I was under the impression she liked me too. That has never ever happened before that everything has lined up. However, one must also consider relationship with God, and I knew/know practically nothing about their relationship with > God. Perfection would include also both parties having joy in God and love for God, for Jesus, that remains even when the other person is taken away - in fact it's the most important thing in a Christian marriage probably. I would love to have more than just baseline joy in God when it's extremely tough. The question is do I have it? I would describe my relationship with God and joy over the person I wanted to marry as a cake which was mostly composed of icing (20% base, 80% icing), when I feel like ideally the composition should be more like a cake that was mostly cake and a little bit of icing (80% base, 20% icing) - where the joy over the wife is the icing and the joy over God is the base. In all honesty, I think I would prefer if it could be mostly cake base and icing on the top. God doesn't want to be merely the icing on the cake but the foundation of our life.

This sermon helps:

youtube.com: Sustaining Joy in Christ #8 - "Spend time with God saturated people who will help you see God and fight the fight of faith." #9 "Read biographies of great Christian Saints." Now I mention this because it's biblical Hebrews 11 is all about heroes of the faith.

I think the judiciary system should be careful not to infringe on basic human rights going forward with the AI-generated fiction which is now in the world, otherwise as I have said, robots may be taking human wives before poor people can, and that to God is an abomination I assure you - and I wouldn't want to tempt God.

I think I John 2:15-17 is essentially saying, "Do not agape love the world or what's in the world. Do not love the things of this world with the type of love that we have for God and for people, namely agape love." If we fall out of agape love for the world and are not conformed to the world but are transformed by the renewing of our minds then by testing we will be able to discern the will of God:

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love (agapate) the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

Tempting God with that seems a worse idea than "poking the bear".

> II Samuel 11:3-5 - And David sent and inquired about the woman. And one said, Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? So David sent messengers and took her, and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she had been purifying herself from her uncleanness.) Then she returned to her house. And the woman conceived, and she sent and told David, I am pregnant. (ESV)

> II Samuel 12:1-18 - And the LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him and said to him, There were two men in a certain city, the one rich and the other poor. The rich man had very many flocks and herds, but the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought. And he brought it up, and it grew up with him and with his children. It used to eat of his morsel and drink from his cup and lie in his arms, and it was like a daughter to him. Now there came a traveler to the rich man, and he was unwilling to take one of his own flock or herd to prepare for the guest who had come to him, but he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him. Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man, and he said to Nathan, As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die, and he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity. Nathan said to David, You are the man! Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul. And I gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your arms and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah. And if this were too little, I would add to you as much more. Why have you despised the word of the LORD, to do what is evil in his sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and have taken his wife to be your wife and have killed him with the sword of the Ammonites. Now therefore the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife. Thus says > the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house. And I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel and before the sun. David said to Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said to David, The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die. Nevertheless, because by this deed you have utterly scorned the LORD, the child who is born to you shall die. Then Nathan went to his house. And the LORD afflicted the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and he became sick. David therefore sought God on behalf of the child. And David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground. And the elders of his house stood beside him, to raise him from the ground, but he would not, nor did he eat food with them. On the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to us. How then can we say to him the child is dead? He may do himself some harm. (ESV)

Because of the seriousness of the circumstances, and the fear of God, I'm prevented from doing much without specific and unambiguous instruction from God, like an angel:

> Matthew 1:20 - But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

> I John 4:1-3 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses (G3670 homologeó, confesses, acknowledges, agrees) that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess (G3670 homologeó, confess, acknowledge, agree with) Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

It's right for me to focus on God right now, and remain obedient to Jesus:

youtube.com: 'I Have Loved You' The revelation of the the Lord's love is unfolded in a way that makes us tremble.

> James 1:12-18 - Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him. Let no one say when he is tempted, I am being tempted by God, for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. (ESV)

youtube.com: The Fullest, Longest Happiness: For Those Who Pass the Test That lifestyle, that unselfish, other oriented, love your neighbor as yourself, sacrificial way of life, I'm telling you, is going to be required of you in the midst of lifelong miseries, which are God's tests.

That's where the obedience of this book (James) is going to be required of you.

There's no vacation time to do nice obedience and then you can suffer at another time...

It is design in those tests is your deep and lasting happiness and these tests provide circumstances through which you are found proven and fit for the crown of life.

All God's tests are designed to make you deeply and lastingly happy.

Everything else in the text is to help you believe that live that because life is going to be hard Joy is going to be serious.

From my angle, I had considered myself as the poor man (II Samuel 12:1-18) in the situation of court and not like David who stole someone's wife, but I had a lot of repentance to do. I believe I could have asked God to get justice with this, but then it's better to show mercy even for my own sake, especially in the knowledge that I have been shown mercy by God. So I know I have been shown mercy, and I know I should pass forward mercy. Remember the parable of the unforgiving servant (Matthew 18:21-35):

> James 2:13 - For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment. (ESV)

Despite having already been involved (while on earth) with the courts of heaven, I will also ultimately stand before God where He will see if I passed forward mercy after having received mercy:

> II Corinthians 5:10-11 - For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. (ESV)

But I did give a letter of forgiveness in court, so there's no (even spiritual) legal obligation to have this amended. Also, perhaps to them I have been like David. Despite being made new I still have a "history" from others' point of view, and having received grace it makes sense to pass forward grace.

I'm at peace with whatever happens next.

Jesus emptied himself. So despite being born-again, it's right to do the same:

> II Corinthians 8:9 - For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich. (ESV)

We are supposed to have the same mind:

> Philippians 2:5-8 - Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

But I am allowed to ask God for more grace, but that's between me and God:

> James 4:6-7 - But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. (ESV)

And I'm allowed to speak the truth from my angle:

> Isaiah 41:21 - Set forth your case, says the LORD; bring your proofs, says the King of Jacob. (ESV)

Even with regards to the New Covenant, it's fine to put forth our case, even if we are found to be sinners. Jesus is not a servant of sin:

> Isaiah 43:20-26 - The wild beasts will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches, for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself that they might declare my praise. Yet you did not call upon me, O Jacob; but you have been weary of me, O Israel! You have not brought me your sheep for burnt offerings, or honored me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings, or wearied you with frankincense. You have not bought me sweet cane with money, or satisfied me with the fat of your sacrifices. But you have burdened me with your sins; you have wearied me with your iniquities. I, I am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and I will not remember your sins. Put me in remembrance; let us argue together; set forth your case, that you may be proved right. (ESV)

> Galatians 2:17-21 - But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor. For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. I do not nullify the grace of God, for if justification were through the law, then Christ died for no purpose. (ESV)

I believe strongly that outlawing marriage proposal is very close to outlawing God, and outlawing my writing was punishing faith which is the way in which we are supposed to live.

> Hebrews 10:38 - but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:1-2 - Now concerning the matters about which you wrote: It is good for a man not to have sexual relations with a woman. But because of the temptation to sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband. (ESV)

I also believe that the situation was interfered with by the influences of unclean spirits. For all my faults I have been following Jesus, not perfectly but penitently.

I had to be obedient after going to court:

> John 3:16-21 - For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

I've had to be corrected even after being born-again of the Spirit. Jesus has to be number one.

I'm no longer interested in AI. I know God is real and is taking care of me.

I realise what has happened regarding me and relationships is messy and the need to hold no grudge going forward. I offer it to anyone.

Life doesn't feel like the kingdom of God to me currently because that would involve having this trifecta of righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit, and I have felt like I have had my blessings stolen from me by the enemy, but God is the only one who can solve this for me, but I do have peace and righteousness in the Holy Spirit, and baseline joy which is derived from a good conscience with God.

I was quite depressed today <2024-10-23 Wed>. God help me. I wasn't even jealous. What happened flattened me and shattered me spiritually. God help me, please.

youtube.com: WHO IS GOD? {Nahum 1:2-7} By John MacArthur @time: 20 min 48 sec And so God is jealous for his glory. God is also jealous for his love. Jealousy really only belongs to those who love. Husband and a wife - jealousy is possible A girlfriend and a boyfriend - jealousy is possible. Jealousy fits into a love relationship, and so it does with God. God is jealous because he loves.

youtube.com: WHO IS GOD? {Nahum 1:2-7} By John MacArthur @time: 21 min 34 sec Hosea, you remember Hosea? Dear old Hosea, the prophet. God gave him really a wonderful illustration to live in his own life. And God told him to marry a woman, Gomer, who turned out to be a prostitute. He told him to marry this woman Gomer who turned out to be a prostitute, and God then said this is a graphic illustration of what Israel has done to me. Israel has been an unfaithful wife and God was jealous over Israel because Israel was his love. And God's heart was grieved. God's heart was indeed broken. God gets jealous when those he loves are stolen from him by somebody else.

> And so God's jealousy is not only the jealousy of honor, but it's the jealousy of love.
>
> All through the old testament God says I'm jealous for my people, I'm jealous for my land, I'm jealous for those things that are mine. When God sets his affection on something and something robs him of that, he's jealous.

At the end of the day, it's good conscience with God I am after and sanctification:

> Romans 14:17-18 - For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

A goal is to be content in any situation:

> Philippians 4:11 - Not that I am speaking of being in need, for I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 13:5 - Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, I will never leave you nor forsake you. (ESV)

72.7 Being born-again / being regenerated of Spirit

God made me born-again/regenerated me on 2 April 2022 and following Jesus became the most important thing.

I was washed and sanctified:

> I Corinthians 6:11 - And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. (ESV)

I'm still being sanctified:

> Hebrews 10:14 - For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. (ESV)

I myself am also trying to cooperate with Jesus and the Holy Spirit to be sanctified:

> John 17:19 - And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. (ESV)

An import part of being sanctified and made perfect/complete is having love perfected with us - getting better at holding no grudges and loving our neighbour as ourselves and loving God obeying God, and being faithful to God even with a good conscience with regards to God's precepts:

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)

Ever since 2 April 2022 I have been a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). I am controlled by the love of Christ and have stopped thinking like the world thinks, and I've been living for Christ, and I've been learning to do that better:

> II Corinthians 5:14-17 - For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh (G4561 sarx). Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh (G4561 sarx), we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. (ESV)

72.7.1 Court

Journal <2026-04-02 Thu> May God lead clean and sanctify and lead into the truth all the people who have believed and been misled by ramblings I had made before being taken to court which were not trustworthy.

> Romans 12:9 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. (ESV)
>
> I Thessalonians 5:20-25 - Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. Abstain from every form of evil. Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful; he will surely do it. Brothers, pray for us. (ESV)

Here I am recounting some of the events of 2022 again.

When I had repeated ”dreams and visions” I received, or when I was writing on various topics even drawing from apocryphal gospels, I did not mean to mislead people. In the writings I placed online. I didn't speak without error. Sometimes I placed hope in things or affirmed things which in retrospect, I should not have. The gnostic gospels, for example, are not to be trusted.

I made a marriage proposal in this context, and I believe I made it with good intentions. Shortly after that I was under strong bail conditions prohibiting internet and communication. I continued writing, trying to stay within my rights to write. Then some very strange things began happening while I was under very strong confinement in house arrest.

When things started going wrong, I reflected on my actions and tried to rectify my way. And a first step towards that was trying to expose what was going on. One problem is that bail conditions had prohibited me from communicating with the other side. But another problem is that I was also prevented from recording events. And another problem is that I was also isolated from communities of believers. And another problem is that even amongst other believers, they would often simply affirm false doctrine that I was in error over. But another issue is that when I wanted to be corrected by the Holy Scripture, by Jesus' teachings as recorded in the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, I received a huge amount of resistance, resistance that has continued.

Leading up to court, I had spoken some things via private communication to the other side who ended up giving to the police and which the judge ended up reading. What I said there was what was on my mind regarding my true intentions, thoughts, feelings and also exposing some events which happened between me and someone else from overseas who in my house arrest reached out to me from overseas and became for a while the only person I was talking to while I began to receive demonic dreams as he was asking me for financial assistance. But there was some highly suspicious things which were happening regarding that situation, such as the onset of demonic dreams, and how later I had fallen out of agreement with some things even I had spoken to this person regarding faulty theology, and in desperation I exposed what had happened, so people who might be affect could see, believing that this was for the best to expose what happened rather than leave it covered, even at the risk of getting in trouble with police for communicating when I was not allowed to.

I thought it was for the best to expose what was going on because:

- as I had fallen out of agreement with things I had written, things they most probably had already read, I did not want them to be misled by me
- To not expose what was going on in that dark situation when I began receiving demonic dreams seemed to be not right to me. I wasn't acting primarily in a selfish interest (i.e. say, with the goal of marriage) but rather out of the interests of others more than myself, knowing it would probably result in getting in trouble with police but that to not speak would conceal things that made me very uneasy and concerned for the wellbeing of those from the other side of court.

> Knowing that what I'd reveal from private conversation with the person in India, for example, would expose some "spiritually dodgy/shady" happenings that made me very uncomfortable and that to reveal it certainly wasn't to serve some selfish purpose such as avoiding jail-time or a conviction, but rather was to provide information on what happened so others can make informed decisions.
>
> Since I was born-again on 2 April 2022, I didn't want to cover the reality that I was born-again, and tried and wanted to speak the truth, but I feel as though I wasn't given sufficient instruction or time to learn. I had considered that I was in a learning phase anyway, as I had sought to understand the Scripture and write, but I was also exposed to heretical writings.
>
> But as I have continued writing since then I have sought to be corrected by the Truth, the Word of God, the Holy Scripture and by Jesus Christ who is the Truth, by trusting and obeying Jesus, and resisting evil.
>
> This entire time I have had a love for Jesus Christ, and I've had good intentions, as I have sought to not bury my testimony of Jesus Christ.
>
> I hope and pray that people will be trust and obey Jesus Christ for themself.

I had an out-of-body meeting with the Holy Spirit (maybe), and a dream on 3 May 2022 foreshadowing 1 year later on 3 May 2023 when I ended up pleading guilty in court.

I had confessed Jesus to the spirit, as documented. But I asked, "Are you the Holy Spirit?" They said, "Yes, I'll take a look at you." But that doesn't mean that it was the Holy Spirit.

I got angry and yelled at the judge in court saying he was a liar because the judge had made a remark against what I assumed was my water baptism (saying, "he must have been baptised at midnight"), but my water baptism was an appeal to God for a good conscience and I was trying to "do good" like in John 7:19-25:

youtube.com: The Hidden Snare of Bitterness @time: 9 min 21 sec "anger at something because God's purposes are being resisted or God's character is being maligned not our purposes merely or our character good anger is targeting sin against God not just assaults against us"

I regretted getting angry in court very much and I'm very sorry about that, but I was under extreme pressure, not understanding why I was forced to be in court and I was very upset that even after having arrived at peace pleading guilty that it was the most loving thing to do, I was provoked to anger by both judges in court who had the freedom to speak when I did not. But I am very sorry for my outburst of anger and i hold no grudge to either judge or to anyone. I really want the spiritual attack against me to end.

But maybe the judge was referring to me meeting the Holy Spirit in my sleep at 12.30am which may of course have been part of my Holy Spirit baptism - this is mysterious so we can only speculate.

youtube.com: What Does It Mean to Be Born Again?: Born Again with R.C. Sproul {@ligonier}
SPROUL: In our first session in our study of what it means to be born again, I tried to focus our attention on Jesus' teaching to Nicodemus of the absolute necessity of spiritual rebirth for entering into the Kingdom of God. What I would like to do in this segment is to discuss another aspect of rebirth and that is its mysterious character. So that the point I was trying to make the first time was that regeneration is necessary. Now I would like to turn our attention to the second point, which is that regeneration is mysterious.

Also, I'm aware that I've been born-again, saved from walking in darkness and in sin and the need to pass-forward forgiveness and the need to obey Jesus, and I'm aware that I was not strictly perfectly innocent. I snapped in court and I'm sorry about it.

Well, whatever is the reasons for what happened, all humans except for Jesus have broken God's law - we've all been liars, but God is true. And that is exactly the reason why I pleaded guilty, and the judge is also guilty:

> Romans 3:4 - By no means! Let God be true though every one were a liar, as it is written, That you may be justified in your words, and prevail when you are judged. (ESV)

Sproul also had a moment like this:

youtube.com: The Meaning of Holiness: The Holiness of God with R.C. Sproul I was lecturing on the Lord's Supper, and his question was not so much a question as an expression of unbridled cynicism.

He put his hand up, and I acknowledged him.

He said, "What's the big deal about bread and wine?

Why do we have to do that?

Why can't we just have peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and coca-cola?" That's when I lost it.

I just felt this rage just flowing up out of my soul.

He grated my sensitivity when he said that, and instead of giving a polite, genteel, professorial response to him, I said, "You want to know why we don't have peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and coca-cola at Holy Communion?

Because Jesus never consecrated peanut butter and jelly or coca-cola." I just wanted to kill him.

Why?

Because he had just profaned with his question something that was precious and holy in my experience.

But what is it that makes the bread and the wine so special?

What is it that makes any moment in history so special?

What is it that makes a piece of real estate holy ground?

Why is it that Noah marked the spot where he landed with a – built an altar?

And Abraham built an altar to God.

Why is it that we are drawn to take something that is common and make it extraordinary because of its significance?

It's not because of the intrinsic value of these objects, but what makes something sacred, what makes something holy is the touch of God upon it.

When the one who himself is other and different touches that which is ordinary, it becomes extraordinary.

If someone is angry with his brother, then God may take this matter to judgement:

> Matthew 5:22 - But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. (ESV)

5520. cholaó Definition: to be melancholy, mad, angry Usage: I am angry with. 5520 xoláō (akin to 5521 /xolē̆, "gall, bile") – properly, full of bile; (figuratively) filled with bitter anger and hence harsh (even violent).

If you're unrighteously angry then watch out:

> John 7:19-25 - Has not Moses given you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why do you seek to kill me? The crowd answered, You have a demon! Who is seeking to kill you? Jesus answered them, I did one deed, and you all marvel at it. Moses gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath. If on the Sabbath a man receives circumcision, so that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me because on the Sabbath I made a man's whole body well? Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment. Some of the people of Jerusalem therefore said, Is not this the man whom they seek to kill? (ESV)

3709. orgé "Orgē comes from the verb oragō meaning, 'to teem, to swell'; and thus implies that it is not a sudden outburst, but rather (referring to God's) fixed, controlled, passionate feeling against sin . . . a settled indignation (so Hendriksen)" (D. E. Hiebert, at 1 Thes 1:10).

Jesus' anger here was a godly grief:

> Mark 3:4-5 - And he said to them, Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to kill? But they were silent. And he looked around at them with anger (3709. orgé), grieved at their hardness of heart, and said to the man, Stretch out your hand. He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. (ESV)

We must forgive our family in Christ from the heart:

> Matthew 18:33-35 - And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you? And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart. (ESV)

Even though I have been born-again, and I think I've been treated with almost zero grace, even treated unfairly, I do not say I am without sin, and to have pleaded 'not guilty' as I am seeking to be obedient to Jesus, even while repenting from certain things which were nothing to do with court, and to not use the year I was born of the Spirit to make testimony of Jesus I think would be to dishonour Jesus, as Jesus is my Lord. So for that and also to try to do no harm to my neighbour, and also because I am not without sin, even after being washed and regenerated, I pleaded guilty in court. I was upset because I thought my latest water baptism was being disrespected and because I was under intense pressure due to what felt like severe spiritual attack against me in the prior months and an unreasonable lack of reality, grace, truth, and fear of God in the court yet I know I was not without sin:

> I John 1:8-10 - If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

> Romans 3:4 - By no means! Let God be true though every one were a liar, as it is written, That you may be justified in your words, and prevail when you are judged. (ESV)

> Romans 3:23 - for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, (ESV)

I was also asked just leading up to Easter what I would plea. I did not want to test God by pleading not guilty, especially on Easter.

Nor does it make sense to challenge someone in court who you want to marry because:

- a) that would be illogical because having love for them I do not want want to hurt them, and
- b) we are supposed to love our wives as Christ loves His church - self-sacrificially

> I Corinthians 10:9-11 - We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. (ESV)

Nor does it make senses to pit old concerns of my pre-born-again life such as "a conviction might make it harder to get a job" up against the needs of the person I want to marry.

There was simply no logic as far as godly wisdom goes to pleading 'not guilty'.

And we are called to love with Christ's love impartially, so had the court situation been with different people and with a different charge, Christ's law still applies:

> James 2:1 - My brothers, show no partiality as you hold the faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. (ESV)

> James 2:8-9 - If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself, you are doing well. But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. (ESV)

I know I did not want to take people I love to trial for 2.5 years. That would be unloving. In following Jesus and remaining faithful to Jesus, one endeavours to keep His commandments. I've had my own family members turn against me, but I realise it's spiritual:

> Luke 12:53-59 - They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law. He also said to the crowds, When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, A shower is coming. And so it happens. And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, There will be scorching heat, and it happens. You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time? And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right? As you go with your accuser before the magistrate, make an effort to settle with him on the way, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer put you in prison. I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the very last penny. (ESV)

> Luke 21:12-20 - But before all this they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors for my name's sake. This will be your opportunity to bear witness. Settle it therefore in your minds not to meditate beforehand how to answer, for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be delivered up even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and some of you they will put to death. You will be hated by all for my name's sake. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your lives. But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near. (ESV)

> Psalms 27:10 - For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the LORD will take me in. (ESV)

The judiciary system is right to execute impartial justice:

> Deuteronomy 16:17-20 - Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God that he has given you. You shall appoint judges and officers in all your towns that the LORD your God is giving you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. You shall not pervert justice. You shall not show partiality, and you shall not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and subverts the cause of the righteous. Justice, and only justice, you shall follow, that you may live and inherit the land that the LORD your God is giving you. (ESV)

> II Chronicles 19:5-7 - He appointed judges in the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, and said to the judges, Consider what you do, for you judge not for man but for the LORD. He is with you in giving judgment. Now then, let the fear of the LORD be upon you. Be careful what you do, for there is no injustice with the LORD our God, or partiality or taking bribes. (ESV)

In my situation I obviously needed to hold faith in Jesus:

> Romans 3:19-22 - Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: (ESV)

And it means pleading guilty:

> Romans 3:4 - By no means! Let God be true though every one were a liar, as it is written, That you may be justified in your words, and prevail when you are judged. (ESV)

> Romans 3:23 - for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, (ESV)

It seems to me like the court in several areas regarded good as evil and evil as good:

> Proverbs 17:15 - He who justifies the wicked and he who condemns the righteous are both alike an abomination to the LORD. (ESV)

Good:

- marriage proposal
- repentance, trying to be corrected by the Word of God
- speaking truth
- forgiving

Evil:

- slandering
- punishing good (punishing forgiveness, for example)
- lying, perjury
- making it harder to do the right thing

> Leviticus 19:15 - You shall do no injustice in court. You shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great, but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor. (ESV)

Only Jesus was without sin:

> Hebrews 4:15 - For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. (ESV)

> I John 1:10 - If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

> I John 1:8-10 - If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

However graceless I thought the situation was, pleading not guilty from my perspective would have been:

- not loving my neighbour,
- not trusting God,
- not putting God first before a girl I like,
- and putting Christ to the test by saying I have not done anything wrong

We must not put Christ to the test:

> I Corinthians 10:9-11 - We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. (ESV)

We must remain faithful to God:

> James 2:21-23 - Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up his son Isaac on the altar? You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works; and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness—and he was called a friend of God. (ESV)

We must not short-sightedly exchange our invaluable inheritance for immediate relief as Esau did, and do our best to not allow bitterness to damage us going through the fiery trial:

> Hebrews 12:15-17 - See to it that no one fails to obtain the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springs up and causes trouble, and by it many become defiled; that no one is sexually immoral or unholy like Esau, who sold his birthright for a single meal. For you know that afterward, when he desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no chance to repent, though he sought it with tears. (ESV)

> Mark 8:35-36 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it. For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? (ESV)

Despite being born of water and the Spirit, we must commit to offering our entire life as a living sacrifice for God, to sow our own life for Jesus' sake:

> II Corinthians 5:17 - Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

> Matthew 16:25 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. (ESV)

Jesus laid down His life. Maybe this says something about how we should also lay down our lives for each other:

> John 10:17 - For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. (ESV)

Immediately before I had that out-of-body meeting with the Holy Spirit (but it might not have been Holy Spirit), I had come to the end of myself after doing everything I could in April, writing to my pastor Philip.

Because I was trying to be obedient to God after being born-again, and I then had a prayer request after I considered I had become burnt out from going ”all out for God”, having given God my first fruits of being born-again for a full month.

> Genesis 4:4 - and Abel also brought of the firstborn of his flock and of their fat portions. And the LORD had regard for Abel and his offering, (ESV)

I was in tears feeling as though I had poured out my heart in obedience to Jesus, and asked Him for one thing in prayer and it was me crying to God saying I have given Him everything but I don't have any love in my life and it was taken from me, then in my heart I accepted that I would see her again - you could call it faith, or deluding myself on purpose in order that I would be able to sleep, and I felt immediately better afterwards.

I actually don't think it was a delusion though. I actually think it's the truth.

> Romans 12:9 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 13:4-8 - Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears (G4722 stegei; it bears; to cover with silence (endure patiently)) all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. (ESV)

We are commanded to love our wives the way Jesus did:

Read `https://omny.fm/shows/today/questions-to-ask-before-you-marry-1-12-june-2024`

> Ephesians 5:25-27 - Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.

That's how it happened for the record.

I felt as though I was carving out a piece of my heart because it felt as if I had said to God in my heart that I could only be happy while I held faith that I'd see her again.

If I recall correctly, that was the night before May 3.

But I certainly felt that way after May 3. I kind-of doubled-down in my heart regarding that. Part of the reasoning behind that is the joy I had throughout 2021. At this stage (May 3, 2022) I did not know what the significance of the date was and had no idea what the dream of the policeman questioning me was about.

> Romans 13:1-7 - Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore whoever resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is the servant of God, an avenger who carries out God's wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be in subjection, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience. For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are ministers of God, attending to this very thing. Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed. (ESV)

Now to make this slightly more complicated, there was someone I had met previously who I had feelings for in 2020 but at this stage, after being born-again, and then seeing her sitting by herself during easter, I had only compassion and no joy over seeing her by herself.

Still in May 2022 around Pentecost, God, gave me an immersive vision of healing people with compassion.

One year later on 3 May 2023 I pleaded guilty on Easter, and I pleaded guilty in full knowledge that God is watching and knows my innermost thoughts and the fruit of the Spirit while lawful do not justify me. I must carry my cross and make testimony of Jesus and follow Christ's law.

I experienced what felt like practically no grace in the time leading up to my dealings with court (though I had blind spots).

In all honesty, though the situation felt graceless, I needed behavioral and theological correction:

> Matthew 7:5 - You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye. (ESV)

The question is, ”Is joy over a wife and a family even something that is allowed in this world? Or in acting on joy over somebody will I run out of grace and run up against heaven's courts? Will I get even pushed out of church communities for wanting to show compassion? Or get pushed out of church communities for making a marriage proposal out of joy and peace?” That is what has happened to me. So the root cause of my depression is well defined. I feel like this has been unfair for me in both cases. I see other people with wives and families and why am I not allowed one? Who actually drew me into a situation where I found myself in court over the mariage proposal? I hold to external spiritual influences and ultimately God was overseeing it:

> Acts 27:24 - and he said, Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar. And behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you. (ESV)

I guess it's quite important to forsake all else for Jesus:

> Luke 14:26 - If anyone comes to me and does not hate (miseo) his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. (ESV)

The Pearl of Great Price is Jesus and we want to gain Christ, know Christ and invest our lives for His gospel. In following Jesus, eternal life is still a free gift because as Paul says here, what we give up is worthless compared to knowing Christ:

> Philippians 3:7-8 - But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ (ESV)

I think I John 2:15-17 is essentially saying, ”Do not agape love the world or what’s in the world. Do not love the things of this world with the type of love that we have for God and for people, namely agape love.” If we fall out of agape love for the world and are not conformed to the world but are transformed by the renewing of our minds then by testing we will be able to discern the will of God:

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love (agapate) the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

We should forsake:

- the desires of the flesh, and
- the desires of the eyes,
- and pride in possessions

> John 10:10 - The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly. (ESV)

Read star.net.nz: Protect your marriage

But God is our life (we can’t trade God for anything):

> John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

But during the process it was as if all the grace was sucked out of the world (and to be honest, it’s not the first time I’ve felt like I’ve been treated with absolutely no grace - I’ve felt often shot down for acting on love, joy and truth - punished for it).

But also, in retrospect I can see that I still had blind spots on myself after being born-again and entering court and my intuition was I should plead guilty because it felt like I was under God’s microscope. I was right to try dying to my own ego, and I was right to believe that I was not completely without guilt, but this took some humbling, and overall I am glad that I pleaded guilty.

It’s very important to maintain a clear conscience with God and with man, but to be ultimately faithful to God:

> Acts 24:16 - So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man. (ESV)

Our first allegiance must be to God:

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

> Acts 5:29 - But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. (ESV)

But the NZ government truly did graciously grant me an unbiased lawyer who graciously was payed for by the government, and the time I spent in the asylum did help to humble me and teach me more about loving my neighbour, and to admit my own faults with regards to God's law, but the legality as far as NZ law goes of me being sent and kept there I'd say is very grey, but the Police also did their jobs admirably, and took care of me when I was in a cell, and they also gave me a very small (but valuable) amount of time to be heard before having to plead guilty/not guilty. There wasn't exactly no grace in the court process but there was very little grace and an almost complete absence of truth in the court process, which felt mostly beyond my control.

But I'm on the other side of it now and feel like I have learned a lot about what it means to love my neighbour.

> Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)

The corrections process which happened after pleading guilty has been very gracious and very valuable.

So I decided to just use court as an opportunity to bear witness of Jesus Christ. And also, as a chance to learn humility, and be corrected:

> Matthew 10:18 - and you will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them and the Gentiles. (ESV)

Jesus Christ is full of grace and truth:

> John 1:14 - And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)

> John 1:17 - For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Jesus was led like a lamb to the slaughter. I'm not Jesus, but my experience with court felt a lot like this. I'm an imperfect, fallible person though:

> Isaiah 53:7 - He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he opened not his mouth. (ESV)

The other party, I never considered to be my adversaries! I only ever held love for them. Spiritually, it's not one side vs another in court but there are external spiritual influences:

> Ephesians 6:12 - For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. (ESV)

youtube.com: How God Uses Satan Every one of the sufferings that Jesus went through was lifting sin off of us and sin is the only thing Satan's got to kill us with. It's the only weapon he's got.

Satan cannot hurt you without sin. If you solve your sin problem, you solve your Satan problem. He can show you green things in the middle of the night and terrify you but he cannot hurt you. If Christ saves you from your sin through the cross he can never have you; never never ever have you aga in. Satan is the lacky, he's the lacky of God, he can't do anything without God's leash being lengthened, and God can shorten it anytime he pleases. Somehow or other God uses Satan as an intermediary cause was in some of the painful work that he ordains for our good.

Revelation of John 2:10 - Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. (ESV)

II Corinthians 12:7-8 - So to keep me from being too elated by the surpassing greatness of the revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to harass me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that it should leave me. (ESV)

Romans 8:28 - And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. (ESV)

youtube.com: Pastor Said THIS About the Devil and the Church Lost It {@ Truth$_{\textbf{BToldOfficial}}$ } If Jesus has all authority, that means the devil has no authority.

> Romans 8:28 - And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. (ESV)

Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect - love also the ones who hate you:

> Matthew 5:38-48 - You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate (3404. miseó, 3404 miséō – properly, to detest (on a comparative basis); hence, denounce; to love someone or something less than someone (something) else, i.e. to renounce one choice in favor of another.) your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

Keep in mind that what Jesus means by "perfect" is possible, because Jesus said the following, and this is how:

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

> Hebrews 7:11 - Now if perfection had been attainable through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, rather than one named after the order of Aaron? (ESV)

In Christ, we must "be perfect" in the sense that Jesus means when He says "You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect." In Christ, we must not hate one another. In Christ, we must agape love one another:

> Colossians 3:13-14 - Bear with one another and forgive any complaint you may have against someone else. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love (26. agapé), which is the bond of perfect unity. (engbsb2020eb)

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

> Proverbs 25:21-22 - If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink, for you will heap burning coals on his head, and the LORD will reward you. (ESV)

But they were never my enemies because I never considered them my enemy. I will always love them:

> Didache Chapter 1 - … But love those who hate you, and you shall not have an enemy. …

After I was born-again I decided that Jesus was the most important thing and I began following Jesus, and learning to live by Christ's law.

I made the proposal during this time. I received a dream on 6 Aug, which happened to be the Feast of Transfiguration, I found out a year or so later, and made the proposal on 10 Aug, which is the 222 day of 2022, at 2:22pm. Honestly, at the time I just thought it sounded memorable and I wanted it to be. Go figure! I'm not going to justify my own actions here.

I find this interesting, notice the word for life (Zoe) has the Strongs number 2222.

John 5:12 (Interlinar):

```
3588      2192      3588    5207  2192     3588
ho        echōn     ton     Huion echei    tēn
                        ϒ
The [one] having    the     Son   has       -
Art-NMS   V-PPA-NMS Art-AMS N-AMS V-PIA-3S Art-AFS

2222    3588      3361 2192      3588    5207
zōēn    ho        mē   echōn     ton     Huion
    ;                             ϒ
life    the [one] not  having    the     Son
N-AFS   Art-NMS   Adv  V-PPA-NMS Art-AMS N-AMS

3588    2316    3588    2222  3756 2192
tou     Theou   tēn     zōēn  ouk  echei
      Θ    ,                    .
 -      of God   -      life  not  has
Art-GMS N-GMS   Art-AFS N-AFS Adv  V-PIA-3S
```

Being born of the Spirit unpredictable:

> John 3:8 - The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. (ESV)

I'm endeavouring to work according to God's timing a bit more. I like having my days managed by the Holy Spirit. I never liked alarm clocks anyway:

> Matthew 6:34 - Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble. (ESV)

God's timing is not in any way predictable by man:

> Matthew 25:13 - Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour. (ESV)

> Isaiah 55:8-9 - For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. (ESV)

Honestly, I'm just really annoyed I haven't managed to put to death all impure thoughts and behaviour, and sin in my own body.

> Romans 7:24 - Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? (ESV)

But I know when it's wrong. I just pray for God's grace to be put all the impure thoughts and behaviour to death. I am fully aware of the warnings in chapter II Peter 2:1-22. God give me grace please to be sanctified and delivered:

> II Peter 2:22 - What the true proverb says has happened to them: The dog returns to its own vomit, and the sow, after washing herself, returns to wallow in the mire. (ESV)

Keeping with obedience to Jesus Christ's commandments is very challenging as the world opposes those who Christ has selected.

> John 15:19 - If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. (ESV)

I personally believe that fulfilling Christ's law means doing no harm to your neighbour and pleading guilty does the least damage. Where pleading not guilty on easter would be not carrying my cross, and would be like the unforgiving servant:

> Matthew 18:21-35 - Then Peter came up and said to him, Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times? Jesus said to him, I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven. Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything. And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, Pay what you owe. So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, Have patience with me, and I will pay you. He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. Then his master summoned him and said to him, You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you? And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart. (ESV)

I do not say I have done this perfectly, but I record this because I want to explain what obedient faith looks like, as I understand it, and to show that I simply meant no harm at all but I was simply born-again and I come against any spirit which ties to oppose that fact in Jesus Christ's name, and in Jehovah's name.

Also, in Jesus Christ's name I come against and rebuke any vindictive spirit or spirit of unforgiveness / antichrist / hatred / slander which continues to meddle in my affairs regarding the court process of 2022-2023 at the expense of either party (i.e. framing it as a zero-sum game where only one party must be innocent or only one party guilty) when I have pleaded guilty in good conscience before God and forgiven and I come against and rebuke any spirit which denies that both parties are guilty before God and in need of forgiveness and justification by God, and I pray that anyone involving themselves will learn the meaning of forgiveness, and pray they will come to exercise the love of Christ so they may abide in God:

> Romans 3:23-24 - for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, (ESV)

> Colossians 3:12-13 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. (ESV)

Forgiveness is very important:

> Matthew 5:25 - Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are going with him to court, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:14 - For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, (ESV)

Obedient faith looks like remaining faithful to Jesus Christ to one's best ability as an appropriate response of love for grace and justification already given - we hope that justification has already been given but we continue to obey God. We don't act like justification and obedience was a one time thing that happened in the past and now there's no more need to trust, hope and obey even for justification:

> Philippians 3:13-21 - Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. Only let us hold true to what we have attained. Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself. (ESV)

We don't justify ourselves. Rather, we believe that God justifies the one who has faith in Jesus, and we don't stop having faith in Jesus - we live by that faith, now serving God. Living by faith in Jesus Christ looks like trusting, cleaving to, believing, obeying Jesus Christ to the end, putting our trust in God to justify even the ungodly. We don't justify ourselves but we still have faith to be justified by God as we hold faith in Jesus. We have faith that we are justified in advance of receiving that personal commendation from Jesus which we seek, but that doesn't mean we don't need to continue to obey! We still seek personal commendation from the Lord Jesus as we do not justify ourselves. So we should still live in faithful obedience to Jesus, following Him for the rest of our lives - just like Abraham's faith.

Jesus delivers us from the present evil age, that we may seek to please God as slaves/bond-servants of Christ:

> Galatians 1:1-10 - Paul, an apostle—not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead— and all the brothers who are with me, To the churches of Galatia: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel — not that there is another one, but there are some who trouble you and want to distort the gospel of Christ. But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach to you a gospel contrary to the one we preached to you, let him be accursed. As we have said before, so now I say again: If anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to the one you received, let him be accursed. For am I now seeking the approval of man, or of God? Or am I trying to please man? If I were still trying to please man, I would not be a servant of Christ. (ESV)

youtube.com: Escape From This Evil Age | Derek Prince {@DerekPrinceMinistries} Galatians 1:4 - who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, (ESV)

Now, I want to point out to you certain simple objective facts revealed in the Bible about this present age.

First of all, the most important thing you can know is it's coming to an end.

It's not going to last forever. Now, if you feel the way I do, you'll say, "Thank God, cuz I don't want the present age to continue. I think it's a mess, and I think it's getting steadily worse."

Let's look in Matthew chapter 13. This is the great chapter of the parables of the kingdom.

Matthew 13:39 - and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. (ESV)

Interpreting the parable of the wheat and the tears. Jesus says, "The enemy who sowed the tears is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age. The reapers of the angels."

> So he says the harvest is the end of the age. When the harvest comes, the age is going to end. And in verse 40, he says, ”Therefore, as the tears are gathered and burned in the fire, so it shall be at the end of this age.
>
> ...
>
> It’s extremely important for us all to realize this age is coming to an end. So, if we live as if it was going on forever, we’re living in a delusion.
>
> ...
>
> The next fact about this age states the reason why it’s an evil age.
>
> You turn to 2 Corinthians 4:4.
>
> We have to read verse three to get the sentence.
>
> II Corinthians 4:4 - The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers so they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. (engbsb2020eb)
>
> Who is the God who blinds the minds of unbelievers? Satan. And you know what he is? He’s the God of this age.
>
> ...
>
> Because certain things have to happen in the church and in Israel before the age will end. And the devil is a student of prophecy. He knows that. So if you’re involved in the church, you’re involved in a battle. And if you’re involved with Israel, you’re involved in a battle.

The saving grace we receive is primarily for the salvation of our souls, not in order to be materially-minded and agape loving the world (i.e. we’re supposed to live godly lives in the knowledge of God, not ungodly lives living for materialism or false gods/idols) - but as we have fellowship with the brethren, we may live in peace and contentedness:

> Ephesians 4:7 - But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ’s gift. (ESV)

> Ephesians 2:5 - even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— (ESV)

But I’m still hoping for more grace:

> James 4:6 - But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble. (ESV)

> I Peter 5:10 - And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. (ESV)

What I mean to say is that, I think God is still justified in giving only enough grace to save the person’s soul, while allowing them to be put to death for a response of obedience to Him.

> Ephesians 4:7 - But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ’s gift. (ESV)

We can still ask for more grace when we are in need:

> Hebrews 4:16 - Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. (ESV)

Consider St Polycarp en.wikipedia.org: Polycarp - Wikipedia

I had to sacrifice the marriage proposal I made being born again in order to not put her in first place, and also to abide by Christ's law because selfish agape is no agape at all and love comes from God, and it's because God loved us first that we love, and whatever is not done in faith is sin and without the type of love Jesus showed us, faith is dead. And this is challenging ask but it's what God asks of us.

We are faithful first and foremost to God:

> I Corinthians 7:12-15 - To the rest I say (I, not the Lord) that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he should not divorce her. If any woman has a husband who is an unbeliever, and he consents to live with her, she should not divorce him. For the unbelieving husband is made holy because of his wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy because of her husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy. But if the unbelieving partner separates, let it be so. In such cases the brother or sister is not enslaved. God has called you to peace. (ESV)

I am a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation):

> II Corinthians 5:14-17 - For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh (G4561 sarx). Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh (G4561 sarx), we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

Being a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation) is a new start where we are repenting from sin, and putting on holiness, and walking according to the spirit fulfilling the requirement of the law:

> Colossians 3:5-10 - Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator.
>
> Romans 8:3-4 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)
>
> In anticipation of any spiritual backlash I will leave the following disclaimer In Jesus Christ's name I rebuke any spirit which tries to put the old issues of the past (before I was born-again on 2 April 2022) back on to me. I am a new Creation in Christ Jesus ever since I was born-again and regenerated on 2 April 2022. As I understand it, as of then I had a completely clean record. I'm basically 2 years old. On top of that there is no condemnation for those in Christ Jesus. Yes the Apostle John says that we ought to pass-forward love as a response, but I also have the right to move on completely from things which did not work out, and I offer that same right to others as well.

Our debt was cancelled:

> Colossians 2:11-15 - In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him. (ESV)

Therefore, since I am a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation), brought from death to life, I must live out the new identity. I'm currently fighting this battle:

> Romans 6:12-14 - Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. (ESV)

youtube.com: The Effort Needed to Fight Sin: Living Out Identity in Christ, Part 2

We love in the knowledge we have already been loved first when God sent Jesus Christ to pay for our sin with His blood. I was born-again of the Spirit and regenerated on 2 April 2022.

That's how we are found in God, by accepting that He loved us first through Jesus Christ, and God puts us into Him.

> John 13:6-7 - He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, do you wash my feet? Jesus answered him, What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand. (ESV)

> Ephesians 2:5 - even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— (ESV)

As far as my court situation goes, it happened after I was born-again and regenerated. My debt was already cancelled. I want to be clear about this because I don't want to mislead anyone. I strongly believe that I was hit by an antichrist spirit trying to make it appear as though I needed to work for my salvation - this happened after I was born of the Spirit! Madness! I had just been born-again!

I've also been hit with other things, like being pounded and barraged with LGBT dreams, and lewd antichrist dreams and visions, interactions with people who just don't want to submit to the righteousness of God (not believing they need to accept Jesus as Saviour, not believing they need to accept forgiveness from God, or the Lordship of Jesus, not wanting to obey God) and also people telling me that following Jesus' commandments is wrong, and also literally having antichrist thoughts pushed into my head as I am sleeping. There's no denying I've been attacked by antichrist spirits and I noticed it after I was born-again of the Spirit - and I don't want a bar of it.

While the following verse seems relevant, I still believe the real adversary I have faced is not the other people in my court situation but the influence of unclean spirits:

> Matthew 5:25-26 - Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are going with him to court, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison. Truly, I say to you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny. (ESV)

We must turn to obedience to Jesus and loving with Christ's love to come to know Him. We ought to*/*must love as Christ loved us, as He is our Lord and Teacher, but Jesus WASHED (past-tense) us and then we ought to love as He did and we practice personal righteousness while having His imputed righteousness, as he is our Master.

We are forgiven to do the will of God. We are saved to obey God better. God puts us into Christ. We obey to wash others, and for ourselves to be sanctified, like a branch becoming healthier in the tree:

> John 13:12-16 - When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

We are cleaned by the blood of Christ to serve the living God:

> Matthew 4:10 - Then Jesus said to him, Be gone, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:14 - how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. (ESV)

We serve God by serving Christ:

> Romans 16:17-20 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

Christians are instructed to love our enemies, to have the love of our Heavenly Father:

> Matthew 5:43-44 - You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, (ESV)

I still believe strongly that there was an antichrist spirit meddling in the situation with court in 2022, diametrically opposed to grace, Christian marriage, forgiveness, mercy, and the truth of Jesus, with an agenda of pressuring me to be deceived into thinking I was not forgiven, and pressuring me to be deceived that I needed to pay for my salvation with good works, but I have done all my good works out of obedience, knowing I am born again and forgiven, price paid in full with Jesus' blood.

I have lots of evidence of this. Jehovah knows it.

Sermon He says in Revelation 12:10, he said, first-hand, "for the accuser of the brethren who accuses them before God day and night has been cast out."

Here's what I want you to see: The thing that's going to cause complete and total breakthrough is not you defeating a demon on a battlefield...

It is you silencing the argument of a demon against you.

When you silence the voice of the accuser the full breakthrough is now free to come you see.

In other words, what is stopping us from coming into the full breakthrough God has for us is not a demon on a battlefield, it's an argument in the spirit world against you.

And we have to know how to go in to the spirit world in silence that argument.

We have to know how to accomplish that because when we do, when we were able to silence the argument, then all of a sudden everything that we were made for, everything that we were were created to accomplish, every destiny every purpose ,every breakthrough begins to be set into place so that we can experience what God has for us.

Because that's what you have to do with an accuser.

Now, the next verse tells us how to do.

Here's what he says he says, "and they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony and they did not love their lives unto death." So there's three things he says here, three things that are necessary to overcome the accuser.

He says very clearly, it says, "these are the way they overcame him".

This is the way they silenced the legal argument against them, was they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, the word of their testimony and they loved not their lives unto death.

Okay, number one, the blood of the Lamb, and we've talked about this a little bit but the blood of the Lamb is what you use to dismiss cases against you.

That's what you do with the blood.

The blood is used to dismiss cases that the enemy would claim against you.

Why?

Because when I come and I repent, when I come and I repent and through my repentance agree with the blood of lamb, when I do that then what happens is that the blood is able to now silence the voices that would be speaking against me that the accuser would be using.

I use the blood to silence the voice [of the accuser]. Of course that's Hebrews 12:24:

> Hebrews12:24 - and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel. (ESV)

Now let me just show you one scripture.

Why it's important to repent:

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

It literally says keeps on cleansing us from all sin.

That's actually the verbiage - it keeps on cleansing us. Why? Because the blood is 'not that which was spoke, it is that which is speaking'.

That's what it said.

There is a blood that speaks better things.

The blood isn't something that was spoke about you.

The blood is speaking concerning you.

So watch, it says that the blood _keeps on cleansing us from all sin, but only when we walk in the light as he is in the light.

What does that mean?

That means I come out of darkness into the light.

That means I have to repent.

Repentance is coming out of darkness and into light.

So you cannot get the benefits of the blood, you cannot agree with what the blood is saying about you unless you come out of darkness and into light.

As we walk in the light as he is in the light, the blood of Jesus keeps on cleansing us from all unrighteousness at all sins.

Does that make sense?

So it's very important to repent: that we come and we acknowledge, we come in yoder hearts, we come in surrender, we ask for the blood to speak in our behalf, and it begins to speak in our behalf, and the cases that are against us whether it's because by sin by transgression or by iniquity, those cases are dismissed.

In Jesus Christ's name I rebuke the antichrist spirit which continues to attack me and deny the grace, forgiveness and atonement which I have received through faith in Jesus Christ, as if God has not forgiven me especially in regards to the sins of my past particularly before I was born-again of water and the Spirit on 2 April 2022. I rebuke that spirit in Jesus Christ's name and in Jehovah's name. Also as I continue walking in the light as Jesus is in the light, even when I sin, the blood of Jesus continues to wash me clean. So in Jesus Christ's name I rebuke any antichrist spirit continuing to bother me, whether in my sleep or through other people.

When it comes to 'works' and 'law-keeping', I believe disciples of Jesus should know they have been forgiven by grace through faith and they should also practice their righteousness, but the "works" is not the "obedience". The works come out of obedience, out of being a "doer of the law". Christians should both submit to the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ, having the imputed righteousness of Christ that we believe we have as we are walking with Christ and Christians should practice righteousness too (as Jesus said, "go and sin no more"), and Christians should seek to keep accountability primarily to God in regards to the law because He sees everything, and secondarily have good conscience with men, to love as Jesus loved, and give to Caesar what is Caesar's, but give to God what is God's - and God owns our hearts - and we should be prepared to die for Jesus, and remain faithful to Jesus. When a person practices their righteousness, then they are "doers of the law" from the heart. A person who has accepted forgiveness for their sin by the atonement made in Jesus' blood should certainly endeavour after that to fulfill practically the Royal Law, that is to love one's neighbour as themself, even owing that to other people:

> Matthew 23:2-7 - The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat, so practice and observe whatever they tell you—but not what they do. For they preach, but do not practice. They tie up heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on people's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to move them with their finger. They do all their deeds to be seen by others. For they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long, and they love the place of honor at feasts and the best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces and being called rabbi by others. (ESV)

Our work for God is not in vain, and it's all grace:

> I Corinthians 15:58 - Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (ESV)

But at the time I was being led by the Spirit, walking in seeking to know Jesus Christ through following His commandments, so I decided I would use it as an opportunity in what felt like a graceless situation to demonstrate Christ's love and to make testimony of Jesus, and to 'take any log out of my own eye' - to be corrected - because despite already walking in obedience to Jesus, He is my Lord and Teacher, and I want to love Jesus more and be taught by Jesus more.

Most importantly is a good conscience with God, but I try also to do right with my fellow man, even if I disagree with them or if I think they may not be walking in Christ's love:

> Acts 24:16 - So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man. (ESV)

Paid the last penny? I believe that Jesus paid my debt, and by faith in Jesus I was born-again of Jesus' Spirit and I was grafted into Jesus, but that I should pass forward mercy and forgiveness, thus it looks like being taken to court as a criminal, but I think the situation reflects having been put into Christ and following as a disciple and friend of Jesus:

> Matthew 5:26 - Truly, I say to you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny. (ESV)

> Colossians 2:14 - by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. (ESV)

Jesus went to the cross in the appearance of a criminal, but He committed no crime:

> John 10:18 - No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father. (ESV)

I can't claim perfect innocence:

> I John 1:8-10 - If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

> Romans 3:4 - By no means! Let God be true though every one were a liar, as it is written, That you may be justified in your words, and prevail when you are judged. (ESV)

> Romans 3:23 - for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, (ESV)

What I can do is apply Jesus' instructions for being His disciple, and bear fruit for Jesus:

> John 15:1-14 - I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you.

We must practice the truth:

> John 3:21 - But he who practices the truth comes to the Light, so that his deeds may be manifested as having been wrought in God."

> Hebrews 10:14 - For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.

Even though my debt was cancelled, and I was a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation), born-again of water and the Spirit, washed in Jesus' blood, I still obey Jesus to pass-forward love and forgiveness to others, and to continue being cleansed by the blood of Jesus. I must continue walking in the light.

After being born-again of the spirit I don't say I'm completely sinless - that would be deceiving myself.

But I continue walking in the light, in trusting obedience to Jesus, and Jesus' blood continues to cleanse me from all sin:

> I John 1:7-9 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

Sometimes you don't know if you're in the right or wrong, so forgiving others' offences towards you is freeing yourself:

> Matthew 18:21-35 - Then Peter came up and said to him, Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times? Jesus said to him, I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven. Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything. And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, Pay what you owe. So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, Have patience with me, and I will pay you. He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. When his > fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. Then his master summoned him and said to him, You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you? And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart. (ESV)

AMEN!! This doesn't justify the mistakes I've made in the past, but I do believe that the Son of God dying on the cross and making me into a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation) should be enough atonement from anyone's perspective to allow me to have a clean slate, have a fresh start, change my ways, and to live rightly without being harassed by people or by evil spirits. But I also want to be found to be a disciple of Jesus, passing forward His love and forgiveness, as I have received it:

> Romans 6:11 - So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Worthy | Live | Elevation Worship

I wont allow myself to be buried in condemnation by other people or by the enemy. Rather, I'll just use this as an opportunity to live faithfully to God with gratitude and an appropriate response of obedience and love for God and love for Jesus while on this earth:

> Romans 6:12-13 - Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. (ESV) star.net.nz: How to have peace (3) - June 10th (2) Accept God's pardon. Guilt is the top destroyer of peace. When we feel guilty, we feel haunted by our past. We read about people who make amends for a wrong they committed thirty years earlier, saying, 'I was living in hell all those years and had to get it off my chest.' The only way to have peace is to possess a clear conscience, and only God is able to give you that. 'Who is a God like you, who pardons sin and forgives…transgression?…You do not stay angry forever but delight to show mercy' (Micah 7:18 NIV). Notice, Micah reveals God is eager – ready and waiting – to clean your slate. He enjoys forgiving. He owns a big eraser. It's his personality: 'If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness' (1 John 1:9 NIV).

> Isaiah 54:17 - no weapon that is fashioned against you shall succeed, and you shall confute every tongue that rises against you in judgment. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD and their vindication from me, declares the LORD. (ESV)

> Matthew 24:9 - Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. (ESV)

Now I'm saying that it's all in God's hands, and I've made an effort to have Jesus as the number one most important person in my life, and I feel like I have a good conscience with God, and I have been acting in truth (I have peace, and joy, and the fruit of the Holy Spirit with my decisions and I wouldn't change much. I'd still have made the proposal. It wasn't a mistake) and trying to conform to God's truth and also, trying to walk with faith in Jesus Christ, and fully with God, to my best endeavor, but God is the justifier. And I am as far as I can tell now in good conscience with God and a bachelor.

> I Timothy 1:19 - holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith, (ESV)

> Job 22:23-26 - If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored. If you remove injustice from your tents and consign your gold to the dust and the gold of Ophir to the stones of the ravines, then the Almighty will be your gold and the finest silver for you. Surely then you will delight in the Almighty and lift up your face to God. (engbsb2020eb)

God wants us to love Him, treasure Him (25. agapaó), value Him with all our heart, and love and value youtube.com: What Is It Like to Enjoy God? @time: 35 min 16 sec

I have absolutely no unforgiveness or grudge with anyone involved regarding what has happened with the marriage proposal and I just want God to completely deliver me from the evil.

I still hope for the personal acknowledgement from God that I have acted faithfully to Him!

> Matthew 25:21 - His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master. (ESV)

We're always seeking God's commendation:

> Galatians 1:10 - For am I now seeking the approval of man, or of God? Or am I trying to please man? If I were still trying to please man, I would not be a servant of Christ. (ESV)

The righteous live by their faith in Jesus - in belief to His promises and in obedience to His commandments all of our life as Christians - hoping for God's commendation.

We live to serve Jesus, believing we are justified by our faith in Him, and not relying on our own righteousness, but we're still living by our faith in God and in Jesus His Son.

I think it's possible to say, "I've been justified by Jesus' blood because I'm having faith in Jesus and I'm living to serve Him and I believe He is saving me from the wrath of God and I'm going to continue believing and obeying Him to receive the sanctification."

And then we await personal commendation from God.

Disbelief causes disobedience. Disbelief caused the Israelites to not walk in obedience:

> Hebrews 3:16-19 - For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:13 - though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:5-12 - Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. (ESV)

I think here, the problem is that Moses and Aaron did not trust God that if they spoke to the rock before the eyes of the congregation that the rock would yield its water, and so did not do as God had commanded in speaking to the rock. In distrust, Moses struck the rock instead; Moses disobeyed. God was very clear that Moses should speak to the rock, but instead Moses struck the rock with the rod. Moses didn't get away with it. You can't cheat God. God sees our thoughts and the intentions of our hearts. God knows when we reason our way of actually doing what He asks of us. God knows when we try to find a way around actually doing what He commands of us. Man might be able to convince man that they're doing the will of God when they're not really doing it, but no-one can cheat God and get away with it:

> Numbers 20:8-12 - “Take the rod; and you and your brother Aaron assemble the congregation and speak to the rock before their eyes, that it may yield its water. You shall thus bring forth water for them out of the rock and let the congregation and their beasts drink.” So Moses took the rod from before the LORD, just as He had commanded him; and Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly before the rock. And he said to them, “Listen now, you rebels; shall we bring forth water for you out of this rock?” Then Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock twice with his rod; and water came forth abundantly, and the congregation and their beasts drank. But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you have not believed Me, to treat Me as holy in the sight of the sons of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.” (NASB)

> Deuteronomy 5:32-33 - You shall be careful therefore to do as the LORD your God has commanded you. You shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. You shall walk in all the way that the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live, and that it may go well with you, and that you may live long in the land that you shall possess. (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:19 - But God’s firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: The Lord knows those who are his, and, Let everyone who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity. (ESV)

I think it’s dangerous and probably incorrect to say, ”I’ve been justified and saved from the wrath of God” without having become trustingly obedient to Jesus, or without having become someone steadfastly hoping in Him to fulfill His promises.

> Hebrews 6:11-15 - And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself, saying, Surely I will bless you and multiply you. And thus Abraham, having patiently waited, obtained the promise. (ESV)

> Hebrews 4:3 - For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said, As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest, although his works were finished from the foundation of the world. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:14-15 - For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. (ESV)

We aren’t the justifiers of ourselves ever, but we still have faith that we are justified already by God as we hold faith in Jesus, and we don’t necessarily know when God has personally justified us by faith because, like Abraham’s faith, it’s from obedience to God’s commandments that we get personal assurance. But if we are hoping in God’s promises while serving Jesus then we certainly can have confidence that God will/has justified us, where if we are not agapé-ing God and our family in Christ, serving Jesus then I think to say that we are justified and saved from God’s wrath while going on doing evil is very daring and I wouldn’t be surprised if that person receives the wrath of God.

We have to become ”doers” of Christ’s commandments having faith in Jesus and loving the children of God as commanded and out of that faith and obedience will come good works:

> Romans 2:6-11 - He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

> II Peter 2:4-9 - For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to chains of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment; if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he > condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; and if he rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked (for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, (ESV)

So I have a small problem with what Derek Prince says at the end here. But I have faith in Jesus' blood, and I have faith that God justifies the one who puts their faith in Christ Jesus. I trust Jesus, I believe Jesus and I obey Jesus. I could be better but I'm a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation) who trusts and obeys Jesus now. Not perfectly but I still do. Jesus is my Lord and Saviour. That doesn't mean I say, "I am justified." I trust and obey Jesus. I have confidence that God sees everything. I have confidence because I believe on the name of His Son and keep His commandments. God is sovereign to justify the one who places their faith in Christ Jesus. I'm not going to justify myself. I'm not saying I'm not justified. I'm not saying I am justified. I'm not going to be the justifier of myself. I will just put my faith in Jesus and keep the faith and that's enough assurance for me. Also, striving to enter is OK, I think. I don't completely agree with everything Derek Prince has said, but I do believe we need to submit to the righteousness of God by faith in Jesus' blood. But I believe that God tests the hearts and is the one to grant this righteousness.

> Luke 16:15 - And he said to them, You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. (ESV)

> Luke 5:22 - When Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answered them, Why do you question in your hearts? (ESV)

> Romans 10:10 - For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)

> Romans 8:30 - And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. (ESV)

I believe in holding to faith in God to grant me the imputed righteousness of Jesus, while continuing to trust in Jesus and obey Jesus, and God is the one to grant that righteousness. Because God justifies the one who puts their faith in Jesus (trusting Jesus). So I'll trust the correct God, the God who justifies the ungodly. That means trusting in Jesus Himself. And God can do the justifying and the assurance-giving. I'll fight for my position on this. I think my perspective here is more Scripturally correct than Derek's.

Faith maintains hope in God to fulfill His promises:

youtube.com: Future-Oriented Faith Justifying faith, the faith that justifies you that makes you right with God that receives the imputation of righteousness is future-oriented faith in the promises of God.

> Faith first looks back to Jesus and it takes a step back and says, "I believe God Almighty sent his son died for my sins raised him from the dead covers all my sins imputes to me his righteousness" and standing on that rock of past accomplished salvation, faith looks steadfastly into the future ... and faith on the basis of this assurance and security believes the promises of God for this reality called future and that's the way we live.

See how faithfulness is related to faith - faith is faithful to God. Having faith in God is keeping accountability with God with regard to His commands and promises and maintaining faithfulness with God who sees in secret:

> II Timothy 2:13 - if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:30-31 - For we know him who said, Vengeance is mine; I will repay. And again, The Lord will judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. (ESV)

We are justified through holding faith in Jesus:

> Romans 3:21-28 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. (ESV)

There is a way of following the commandments of God that is by faith, compatible with keeping faith in Jesus, and that is in seeking praise from God, not from men - it's not about trying to keep a good conscience by justifying yourself in the eyes of men, but it's about keeping a good conscience by keeping accounts with God:

> Romans 2:26-29 - So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law. For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

> Luke 16:15 - And he said to them, You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. (ESV)

> Romans 5:1-2 - Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (ESV)

It may have happened when we first believed. I would suggest holding to that belief and going on obeying Jesus like someone alive from the dead, serving God:

> John 3:36 - He who believes in the Son has eternal life; but he who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him."

I just want to continue to live faithfully to Jesus for the rest of my life, as I also hold faith that God is my justifier. I want God to justify me / have justified me, as the way in which we are justified is that God does the justifing of the one who has faith in Jesus. So the plan is to really be transformed by the gospel and live in the truth of God's word, and seek God's commendation, and live in the reality that God is for me and not against me as I hold faith in Jesus. I'll give it my best shot:

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

It certainly appears that we're not supposed to simply do some righteous thing and then lean on that. Rather we're supposed to 'live by' our faith, – keep going, and not shrink back:

> Ezekiel 33:13 - Though I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, yet if he trusts in his righteousness and does injustice, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered, but in his injustice that he has done he shall die. (ESV)

> Proverbs 4:18 - But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day. (ESV)

We should be growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ:

> II Peter 3:18 - But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen. (ESV)

This is in line with what is written in Hebrews:

> Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

This morning <2024-10-13 Sun>, I woke up to a dream of my Dad and my little brother Joshua in the bosom of my Dad and my Dad said, "Pardon me." - I woke up and thought about this. God doesn't make mistakes. We should not hold grudges with God, but instead we should be sanctified through faith in Jesus. We are to agape love God with our whole heart.

And I remembered this Bible verse:

> John 1:18 - No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known. (ESV)

Now, writing this out, I realise it connects to this verse:

> Matthew 5:8 - Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. (ESV)

Recently, I have written about agape-love. Jesus commanded us to agape love the Lord our God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength. Agape love does not bear a grudge or take vengeance. Agape love is a saving, treasuring, valuing, love. We need to treasure Jesus' words, and treasure God Himself. God has to be our number one treasure and we must agape-love our wives too with the same agape love which Christ showed us, and we must agape-love those in Christ, and we are called to agape-love all people but we must not have any agape for anything of the world. And I know that what the dream I had was saying was pointing out that agape-loving God first also means not bearing a grudge with God.

> Job 9:2-3 - Truly I know that it is so: But how can a man be in the right before God? If one wished to contend with him, one could not answer him once in a thousand times. (ESV)

I was born-again on 1 Nisan, (2 April 2022). Then had a meeting with Holy Spirit (maybe) on 3 May 2022 and I said my God is the True God and Jesus saved me from lies. I was the one who confessed Jesus to that spirit who claimed to be Holy Spirit. Then on 6 Aug 2022 (feast of transfiguration of Christ) I had a dream/vision of someone I wanted to marry and on the 10 Aug, the 222nd day of 2022 at 2:22pm I proposed marriage. Then it felt like witchcraft - I was pulled into court over harassment and forced to plead a week before easter. I pleaded guilty because I was following Jesus' commandments, and only because in an extremely strict sense I am guilty. I claim that it felt like all the grace in the world was utterly sucked out of the world when I was pulled into court for breaking bail by copying out reformed church quiz night results and being baptised and telling the other side I was baptised after a harassment charge from proposing marriage - absurd, I know, but around the time I proposed marriage, I had been giving to a hindu guy who was asking me for help (i was just obeying Jesus) and I pleaded guilty in this absurd situation where I am taken to court over marriage proposal because it does no harm to the other party and because I love them. It was agape love which does no harm to your neighbour and treasures your neighbour and and in court the judge on 3 May 2023 told me I must have been baptised at midnight and that I'm not remorseful. I have been trying to love literally everybody. Being denied marriage not necessarily this one incident but generally in my life surely comes from demons / antichrist spirit.

I had confessed Jesus to the spirit, as documented. But I asked, "Are you the Holy Spirit?" They said, "Yes, I'll take a look at you." But that doesn't mean that it was the Holy Spirit.

Jesus in me utterly defeats antichrist spirit and I will go to war against this thing which has been trying to rob, kill and destroy me, the people I love and my testimony of being born-again. With the authority that Jesus gave His disciples I will trample on snakes and scorpions and trample on that antichrist spirit and rebuke it into utter destruction.

> Daniel 7:25 - He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. (ESV)

Having been born-again, I have the right to live in the newness of life, with a clean slate, living righteously, to live for Christ, and I have the right to be rid from sinful things. What is very sadistic is that I believe that what is good was called evil in order to show that gay 'marriage' is good, and I think that literally satan tried to rob me of living set free from sin.

> Romans 6:4-6 - We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:15 - and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:24 - And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. (ESV)

But I yelled at the judge in court saying he is a liar because to say I am unremorseful for harassment via a marriage proposal and sentencing me for doing good, calling good evil and evil good, while I was following Jesus and trying to keep His commandments - I found that the judge lacked respect for God's precepts and for God. And to me this felt like being born-again and then crucified in court over making a marriage proposal with a good conscience and sincere faith. I used the opportunity to make testimony of Jesus. Then received international slander and feeling like I was the victim of a sin like the blasphemy of the Holy Spirit or something, and continually being oppressed by demons preventing me from marrying, trying to push me into LGBT and I felt like the devil tried to steal my blessings and tried to bury me for making testimony of Jesus. I have felt like I had the Kingdom of God taken away from me (peace, joy and righteousness in the Holy Spirit) after being born-again, regenerated, made new - and I pray to God daily for Him to fix my life. But Jehovah God (Father God and Jesus Christ God's Son and Holy Spirit) are my number 1 agape love for sure. But I will speak the truth of what happened here.

We can't be unfaithful to Jesus Christ and expect to have joy. Joy comes from maintaining faith and a good conscience with God. I doubt Peter had joy right after denying being a disciple of Jesus, and I doubt Judas had any joy when he chose to hang himself after betraying Jesus:

> Job 20:4-5 - Do you not know this from of old, since man was placed on earth, that the exulting of the wicked is short, and the joy of the godless but for a moment? (ESV)

Loving God means also obeying His commandments - and His great commandments and fulfilling the requirement of the Law. Am I to love God with my whole heart if I take the person I propose to trial and waste years of her life in court? It's not loving God to do evil against my neighbour.

The blood of Jesus is enough for me to be washed white as snow. Christ is enough for me. Give me Jesus and a good conscience. But I don't forgive satan, nor his angels, nor his demons. Nor do I affirm anyone who does not submit to the righteousness of God.

My God is the God who instituted marriage between man and woman.

> Ecclesiastes 12:13-14 - The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. For God will bring every deed into judgment, with every secret thing, whether good or evil. (ESV)

> Micah 6:8 - He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? (ESV)

72.7.2 Humility

Being born-again, I actually had a lot to learn about humility, and service.

Talk youtube.com: How to be Humble

Quote from Martin Luther King Jr.:

> "Everybody can be great…because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love."

72.7.3 Marriage should not become idolatry

The Hebrew has two words for 'helper'. The word which the greek in John 14 refers to I believe is the Saviour one:

```

savior, deliverer, helper, saviour
```

But the Hebrew for helper in Genesis 2:18 is not the 'saviour' but the assistant!:

```

assistant, aide, helper, second
```

> Genesis 2:18 - Then the Lord (H3068 Yhovah) God (H430 'elohiym) said (H559 'amar), "It is not good (H2896 towb) for the man (H120 'adam) to be alone (H905 bad); I will make (H6213 'asah) him a helper (H5828 'ezer) suitable (H5048 neged) for him."

72.8 The spiritual attack I have received in recent times

If see the disturbing visions etc. and spiritual attacks as indications that I am not fully sancified, rather than simply blaming the enemy attacking me all the time, even though the attack surely may or does come from the enemy then:

- I have a hope of being fully sanctified
  - II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)
  - Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)
- as demoralizing as it is to be attacked so continually, I see its part in the greater picture of working out my salvation
- I can be less focused on the enemy's distractions, and more focused on the truth, God's Word, Scripture and Jesus
- Be thankful to God for His work in me
- I can be kinder to people knowing that this isn't all about me

My spiritual experiences are not all bad, but it has been very bad at times, and really good at times too. I'm "in the Spirit" now and I am engaged in spiritual warfare and I'm very tired.

It makes sense that I've been receiving spiritual attack because I'm at war with satan's kingdom after being born of the Spirit:

- youtube.com: Casting Down Strongholds | Derek Prince
- youtube.com: Robert Henderson | 1. Courts of Heaven

I'll be listening to music such as this to help maintain the correct perspective against lies that come from the enemy through dreams and through other people:

Radio `https://www.star.net.nz/`

Song youtube.com: Who You Say I Am - Hillsong Worship

Song youtube.com: Jesus Paid It All - Kim Walker-Smith | Worship Circle Hymns

The more vocal I become about Jesus and the more I align with the Truth and reject false-religion, and the more I disagree with sin as I repent from it, the more resistance I appear to be getting.

My sleep has in recent times become highly disrupted as I've been bombarded with demonic dreams - things I can't even mention - pro-false-religion, anti-Christianity, pro-sinful things type dreams. Littered amongst those I sometimes also get Bible verses, or dreams of singing worship songs, etc. I frequently are tested through other people too.

youtube.com: How to Seek the Holy Spirit @time: 16 min 59 sec He is the spirit of Truth according to John 14:17, John 15:26, John 16:13, and He brings to our minds whatever truth we need, little or much. He will bring it to your mind. All the forces of darkness will seek to confuse you and obscure the light of truth in that hour. All the proportions of power in this world will appear to make God look distant, small, ineffective — like nothing. That is the goal of Satan and sin: to make God look useless and worthless. The work of the Holy Spirit in that hour — the work of the Spirit of truth — is to rest upon you with whatever measure of truth you will need in order to be faithful.

AMEN, John Piper. Yup, this is my experience too. God is faithful though even when I am unfaithful.

> Romans 8:20-21 - For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. (ESV)

Thanks to John Piper for helping me to maintain perspective on suffering, even for struggling against sin:

> Romans 8:16-17 - The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

youtube.com: Put to Death the Deeds of the Body @time: 55 min 28 sec The global context of my suffering is that he says, "all creation is awaiting my coming out into sonship". Until you are manifested, creation's holding back, and when you are manifested creation will say, "all right, here we come." And all the futility of the natural world will be removed. All the horrors of of natural calamities will be taken away. But that's all waiting until God does his redemptive work on you.

Aven though it may seem strange to you that if a person comes to you with suffering that you'd want to help them get into a global context, maybe do it at a better time. Like right now we're doing it so that when you go home and find some horrible thing has happened, you will be able not just to deal with it in some little microcosm of your life and how God works everything together for your good, but that it's part of something absolutely huge.

Read desiringgod.org: How to Seek the Holy Spirit | Desiring God

> John 14:17 - even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

> John 15:26 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. (ESV)

> John 16:13 - When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. (ESV)

Anyway, I see this stuff in the spirit very easily (it's just like having eyes I didn't have before) after being born of the Spirit, and the way to fight against the evil is with the Word of God:

> Matthew 4:9-11 - And he said to him, All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me. Then Jesus said to him, Be gone, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve. Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and were ministering to him. (ESV)

The Word of God is a light to our path:

> Psalms 119:105 - Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. (ESV)

I think what this verse says is that putting a stop to sin 'closes doors' which the enemy uses to attack:

> I John 5:18 - We know that everyone who has been born of God does not keep on sinning, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. (ESV)

> Psalms 66:18 - If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened. (ESV)

I'm fighting hard against evil spirits to make no provision for the flesh:

> Romans 13:12-14 - The night is far gone; the day is at hand. So then let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us walk properly as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in quarreling and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:5-10 - but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the spirit the way God does. The end of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers. Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. Show hospitality to one another without grumbling. As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: (ESV)

We must live in the spirit the way God does, not for human passions, but for the will of God:

> I Peter 4:1-6 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the spirit the way God does. (ESV)

> Romans 8:1-17 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

youtube.com: John Piper and Tim Keller Wrestle with Sanctification {@desiringGod} @time: 2 min 9 se

> I think Walder Marshall's The Gospel Mystery of Sanctification says it this way, that "you need the comforts of the Gospel in order to fulfill the law". So that's pretty much what I would say too.

Research:

- youtube.com: How Demons Gain Entry Into A Person | Derek Prince

72.9 The very reason I found myself in court is for coming to the light, and for exposing darkness, even that of my own fault, but that meant doing the right thing even though it would give me a conviction

> John 3:21 - But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

Jehovah God as my witness.

72.10 I'm definitely leaving this stuff in God's court

At the end of the day I am resting on the righteousness that comes through faith in Jesus - Amen to that. It's by faith in Jesus' name that we are forgiven.

I've been going through a lot of trial and tribulation over the last 2 years:

> I Peter 1:6-9 - In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Though you have not seen him, you love (G25. agapaó) him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (ESV)

By the Holy Spirit we are supposed to put to death the deeds of the body:

> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

But if there is a spirit-spouse manifesting spiritually and messing with me physically and a bunch of other demonic attacks and it doesn't go away when I rebuke it in Jesus' name, and it resists when I use Scriptures, and the attack lasts for 600 days almost every day, then I feel like the challenge of fighting back is just too difficult. At least I do not feel as guilty about it. But I think I should continue to true to fight against it.

I sometimes worry that some of the spiritual attack experiences I've had are so extreme that my mistakes involving them can't be forgiven but God knows my heart and how I think the spiritual attack situations I've been in are so extreme and so excessive and so relentless that they ordeal is just plain unfair - a stich-up:

> Matthew 12:31-32 - Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. (ESV)
>
> Luke 12:10 - And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. (ESV)
>
> I John 3:20 - for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)
>
> Yeah, this morning <2024-06-28 Fri> I had a night swamped with such evil dreams. God knows why. So evil that I cannot even mention them. This is the day after writing about how Christians should be have like children of Father God, that is Jehovah:
>
> Psalms 91:5-8 - You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor the destruction that wastes at noonday. A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked. (ESV)
>
> The Golden Rule, I think explains that we should behave like a child of Father God who is by nature Good and gives good gifts to His children, and gifts that are truly good, far exceeding any amount of favour we might show our own children. As we behave like a child of Father God, believing the gospel of Jesus, and loving with Christ's love, we can really say our Father is God, as a child takes after their parents, and a child of Father God behaves like Jesus and follows Jesus. We try to follow Jesus, and imitate Christ's pattern, as Christ is the Son of God.

Yeah, I am at my limits to what I can endure.
This has been going on every day for nearly 2 years.
Any Christians out there pray for me please that God will stop allowing the evil spirits to attack me.

> Psalms 88:18 - You have caused my beloved and my friend to shun me; my companions have become darkness. (ESV)
>
> Psalms 10:1 - Why, O LORD, do you stand afar off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble? (ESV)
>
> Psalms 10:12 - Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up your hand; forget not the afflicted. (ESV)

Also, to "be holy as He is holy" when people deny relationships and marriage, and just heap on heavy burdens, asking even more of me, without lifting a finger to help, and then simultaneously I'm attacked with a spirit spouse at night, for example, and I'm supposed to just ignore it - well it feels like an impossibility to remain clean.

So a complaint I have to Almighty God Jehovah is that remaining holy in all my conduct during the trial I have faced has felt impossibly difficult, and very graceless, and I've felt "under the pump", in constant spiritual warfare, and I have been constantly denied work and a marriage partner!

> Colossians 2:18-21 - Let no one disqualify you, insisting on asceticism and worship of angels, going on in detail about visions, puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind, and not holding fast to the Head, from whom the whole body, nourished and knit together through its joints and ligaments, grows with a growth that is from God. If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations— Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch (ESV)

Paul says:

- He has the right to eat and drink
- He has the right to take along a believing wife, just like other believers
- It seems just even by God's law that as working as an apostle he may reap material things from the ones he is serving
  - If we have sown spiritual things among you, is it too much if we reap material things from you
- He has the right to refrain from working for a living
  - Because he is working for God
    - Who serves as a soldier at his own expense?
    - Who plants a vineyard without eating any of its fruit?
    - Or who tends a flock without getting some of the milk?
- Even God's law says the same:
  - Do I say these things on human authority? Does not the Law say the same? For it is written in the Law of Moses, You shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain. Is it for oxen that God is concerned? Does he not speak entirely for our sake? It was written for our sake, because the plowman should plow in hope and the thresher thresh in hope of sharing in the crop.

> I Corinthians 9:3-14 - This is my defense to those who would examine me. Do we not have the right to eat and drink? Do we not have the right to take along a believing wife, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to refrain from working for a living? Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard without eating any of its fruit? Or who tends a flock without getting some of the milk? Do I say these things on human authority? Does not the Law say the same? For it is written in the Law of Moses, You shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain. Is it for oxen that God is concerned? Does he not speak entirely for our sake? It was written for our sake, because the plowman should plow in hope and the thresher thresh in hope of sharing in the crop. If we have sown spiritual things among you, is it too much if we reap material things from you? If others share this rightful claim on you, do not we even more? Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right, but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ. Do you not know that those who are employed in the temple service get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in the sacrificial offerings? In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the gospel. (ESV)

Paul doesn't claim his full rights in the gospel (even rights shown by God's precepts in God's law) that He might receive reward from God for going beyond the call of His duty:

> I Corinthians 9:12,9:15-18 - If others share this rightful claim on you, do not we even more? Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right, but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ. But I have made no use of any of these rights, nor am I writing these things to secure any such provision. For I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of my ground for boasting. For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward, but not of my own will, I am still entrusted with a stewardship. What then is my reward? That in my preaching I may present the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel. (ESV)

We must keep and accept the precepts of God over the precepts of men:

> Mark 7:6-9 - And he said to them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men. You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men. And he said to them, You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! (ESV)

This passage is condemning submitting to worldly / human precepts and imploring us to submit to God's precepts. It's not condemning God's precepts but imploring us to put to death what is against God's precepts:

> Colossians 2:20-23,3:1-6 - If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations— Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch (referring to things that all perish as they are used)—according to human precepts and teachings? These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh. If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. (ESV)

I've kept a good conscience with God, and with men, being obedient to Jesus over the last 2 years:

> I Timothy 1:18-20 - This charge I entrust to you, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies previously made about you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith, among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme. (ESV)

I'm definitely taking this stuff to God's court and asking for grace to be sanctified/delivered.

> James 4:6 - But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 9:8 - And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. (ESV)

I have felt spiritually damaged/injured by what I've had to endure regarding a ”spirit spouse / defilement” - I simply don't understand why that thing has been allowed to touch me for 1.5 years and push lewd dreams into my head. This daily bombardment of demonic dreams, and visions is very demoralizing but especially when I succumb to ”defilement” often because of anxiety, and when I don't keep perspective (i.e. when I fail to praise God through trial). I believe that I will be totally healed.

youtube.com: Called to Be Saints | Charles Spurgeon | Devotional | Morning & Evening: Daily Readings

All are "saints" whom God has called by His grace and sanctified by His Spirit; but we are apt to look upon the apostles in the New Testament as extraordinary beings, scarcely subject to the same weaknesses and temptations as ourselves. Yet in so doing, we are forgetful of this truth that the nearer a man lives to God the more intensely he has to mourn over his own evil heart. the more also does the evil of the flesh provoke and harass him day by day.

youtube.com: Don't Defile The Temple Of The Holy Spirit | Derek Prince {@DerekPrinceWithSubtitles

Now put compulsion and enslaving together, you get addiction, and our contemporary culture is full of addictions.

And I would say 99.9 percent of them are demonic. Let me give you a Scripture from 1 Corinthians chapter 6. This is for me the Biblical definition of addiction.

Verse 12. All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful. I would prefer to say beneficial. So all things are lawful. I'm not on any law which says "Thou shall not eat, and thou shall not do this and that." But not everything is beneficial. All things are lawful for me but I will not be brought under the power of any. Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods, but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

I Corinthians 6:12-13 - All things are lawful for me, but not all things are helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be enslaved by anything. Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food-and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. (ESV)

So overeating and sexual immorality are specifically mentioned by Paul as possible examples of addictions. And an addict is a slave and I'm sorry to say the church is full of addicts. Not all of them are addicts but there are many, many good Christians who are nevertheless slaves. Slaves of masturbation, slaves of idle talk, slaves of defiling habits, slaves of wrong attitudes, slaves of wrong eating and drinking.

I have come to see that my body is a temple for the Holy Spirit and I'm responsible for how I treat that temple. I am not free to defile it.

I'm not free to do anything that would make it less good than it should be.

I am very careful about what I eat and what I drink. I'm not under any law, but I try to honor God's temple.

How about you? Are you taking care of your temple? If it were a physical material temple you'd be very careful about it wouldn't you? I mean you'd keep it swept, you'd keep the windows clean, you wouldn't allow dust to accumulate, you wouldn't let the toilet get clogged.

What about your physical temple? How well are you maintaining that?

Let me say this and it's just I make no extra charge for it. I came to the United States in the 1960s. And I have myself; this is my personal subjective impression. There have been three strong men, one after the other over this nation that have sought to dominate it. The first was rebellion. In the 1960s there was an upsurge of rebellion. Well, the Bible says, "Rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft."

Whenever people get into rebellion they'll get into the occult. So the next demonic force was witchcraft. But in my personal subjective judgment, those are in the past. They're still very active but the number one strong man seeking to dominate the United States today is self-indulgence.

With regards to the spirit spouse, it makes me feel very gross and it mas in the past made me sometimes feel Psalm 22:1 forsaken by God - no joke. But, also, fascinatingly, after making such complaints to God in my private praying, I have like a reflex action been encouraged through other people that Jesus is the Good Shepherd and will not leave or forsake me.

> Hebrews 13:5 - Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, I will never leave you nor forsake you. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 31:8 - It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not leave you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed. (ESV)

youtube.com: Petra: No Doubt There are times when you fell like you can't go on

There are times when you fell like giving in

And there are times when you feel like you can't try anymore

There are times of trouble in believing

This test of your faith will last

As long as it takes to pass

Till you have no more doubt you'll endure

And you faith will emerge true and pure

> Romans 8:28 - And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. (ESV)

God does give me encouragements from time to time though, and my confidence in God is not failing:

> Hebrews 13:5 - Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, I will never leave you nor forsake you. (ESV)

But I am still required to live by faith, and so much of what I hope for is unseen and I don't have total assurance, but I have a conviction about it:

> Hebrews 11:1 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 13:12 - For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known. (ESV)

I have literally no idea why Father God waited such a long time in the first place to draw me to Jesus:

> Isaiah 55:8-9 - For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. (ESV)

God draws us to Jesus who brings us to God:

> John 6:44 - No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:18-19 - All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. (ESV)

I want to hear from God clearly, but I feel like being delivered from being attacked by demons would be really good.

> Psalms 22:1 - My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning? (ESV)

> Psalms 6:1-4 - O LORD, rebuke me not in your anger, nor discipline me in your wrath. To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments; according to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David. Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am languishing; heal me, O LORD, for my bones are troubled. My soul also is greatly troubled. But you, O LORD—how long? Turn, O LORD, deliver my life; save me for the sake of your steadfast love. (ESV)

I was in that happy place shortly after being born-again even though my theology wasn't great, but then God has put me through this trial.

> I Timothy 6:12 - Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. (ESV)

> Acts 14:22 - strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God. (ESV)

I claim to be a fallibly obedient child of God - trusting in Jesus and responsive to the love of God, and I claim to love and follow the law of God in my mind, and I actually try very hard to not be conformed to sinful lusts - and I though I was quite successful in doing in advance of my trial, but it's just so difficult to live properly now because of such intense persecution in this world - physical and spiritual, inside and outside of church, so I'm complaining to God and saying it has been far too difficult:

> Psalms 142:2 - I pour out my complaint before him; I tell my trouble before him. (ESV)

I will still try aim to put that stuff to death and to be holy in all my conduct:

> I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

Sigh....

On the bright side, last week I did get a picture of John Piper on YouTube saying "Jesus has given you clothes." That means that when I turn up in heaven I'll have 'clothes' so I can enter - the imputed righteousness of Christ.

But being brought into communion with God by the blood of Jesus we must not resist sanctification. We must humble ourselves in obedience to Christ Jesus.

> Acts 10:34-35: So Peter opened his mouth and said: Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.

> Galatians 2:6 - And from those who seemed to be influential (what they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)—those, I say, who seemed influential added nothing to me. (ESV)

> Matthew 22:11-13 - But when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw there a man who had no wedding garment. And he said to him, Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, Bind him hand and foot and cast him into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (ESV) youtube.com: The Hidden Snare of Bitterness @time: 4 min 6 sec So when Paul says, "Put it on, this new nature, he means, 'Act it out'." If you have been created anew after the likeness of God clothe yourselves with godly garments. Now what is clothing? Clothing is what people see. When you put clothing around yourself you give something for people to look at that's presentable. So when Paul says "clothe yourselves, put on your new nature," he means, "let that inner reality that God has created work itself out in visible actions and behaviors and attitudes. Become what you are within." If the hidden spring has been purified let the visible streams run clean. But of course if the spring is purified the streams will run clean. If the tree is good the fruit will be good. Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth does speak. ... These choices are the obedience that confirm your calling and election and make it sure. ...

youtube.com: Keep Rejoicing warning If we neglect to understand that the Christian life as it is lived out is a miracle, then all our pursuit of morality or holiness will become striving in our own strength… we will chalk it up to our merit…

Also, I recall that some time in 2022 I had a dream where someone asked me, "How did you get in here?" And I responded pointing to 2 blog articles I had written (2 April 2022 and 3 May 2022 and indicating that it was through being born-again, through baptism, the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

> Revelation of John 3:4 - Yet you have still a few names in Sardis, people who have not soiled their garments, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. (ESV)

But I have to keep seeking to be sanctified because Jesus is coming for me at some point. So I want to be ready for when that happens by being holy and loving:

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

Both our faith and our love should be increasing:

> II Thessalonians 1:3 - We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing. (ESV)

Doing the will of God is still extremely important for inheriting the kingdom of God. The will of God includes exercising personal righteousness as a fruit of sanctification (holiness, loving your neighbour as yourself, and doing good):

> I Corinthians 6:9-10 - Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. (ESV)

> Hebrews 12:11 - For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. (ESV)

Doing the will of God is important for inheriting the kingdom of God:

> Matthew 25:23 - His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master. (ESV)

We do need a lot of faith (faith, faithfulness, obedience) in God to inherit the Kingdom of God:

> James 2:5 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love (25. agapaó) him? (ESV)

> Romans 6:22-23- But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

Quote from CH Spurgeon "Peace is joy resting, and joy is peace dancing"

Sigh…. For the record, as of <2024-06-13 Thu>, it still feels as though I'm being hit by witchcraft.

youtube.com: SYMPTOMS OF WITCHCRAFT {FIGHT BACK}!!?? {@Justice7-} First things first, let me just say this video is to educate people on the things that are happening in the spiritual world. If you do not believe in the spiritual aspects of this life, if you are still deceived by this flesh, by the carnal things, the logic, the societal standards and norms that have been presented to all of us, this video is not for you. But if you are somebody who has experienced warfare and you have gone through anything I have or similar which is fighting off witchcraft then please stay tuned to the end of this video.

The spirit spouse stuff has continued. It's only been a problem since the end of 2022, and I think its objective is to make me feel disqualified, but I know it's just demons/witchcraft/defilement and I'm resisting it to my best ability, including in my thoughts (sometimes I have succumbed).

It's interesting with the spirit spouse stuff, as it affects me it is involuntary (like rape in my sleep), and it tries to make it so that sex is voluntary (think myself to sex):

- biblehub.com: Strong's Greek: 1596. {hekousiós} – voluntarily, willfully

We should be cleansing ourselves of every defilement of body, and spirit with faith, the Word of God and the Spirit of God:

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body (4561. sarx) and spirit (4151. pneuma), bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

God cleanses our hearts as we practice our faith in Him:

> Acts 15:9 - and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)

We walk in the light (God's light, truth) in trust, faith, obedience:

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

Asides from that, I'll continue endeavouring to abide by Jesus' commandments, and I have a good conscience.

I'm also experiencing a lot of testing, and positive interactions, and some encouragements from God, and I'm feeling like studying the Gospel of Jesus using the Bible is changing my life for the better, and I feel really confident having a much better perspective.

> Galatians 5:19-21 - Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: Assurance for Battle

I know my family in Christ also experience the same kind of suffering / spiritual warfare:

> I Peter 5:9 - Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world. (ESV) youtube.com: Walk & talk beautiful family - hopefully my last video . May Jesus come quickly now ? ?? Stay strong brother. Let's remain faithful to our Lord Jesus Christ. I've been under severe spiritual attack as well. Daily spiritual attacks, demonic intrusive thoughts, dreams, etc. and many other things, happening for several years now after I got born-again but seem to be intensifying. I want to be rescued. I'm so tired. Lord Jesus Christ come soon please. You'll be in my prayers. Let's keep loving God and one another, submitting to God, remaining faithful to God, obeying God, submitting to God. Let's keep following our Lord Jesus Christ and resisting the devil. Bless you.

> I Peter 4:16-17 - Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? (ESV)

> Job 1:8-12 - And the LORD said to Satan, Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and turns away from evil? Then Satan answered the LORD and said, Does Job fear God for no reason? Have you not put a hedge around him and his house and all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. But stretch out your hand and touch all that he has, and he will curse you to your face. And the LORD said to Satan, Behold, all that he has is in your hand. Only against him do not stretch out your hand. So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD. (ESV)

> Psalms 57:1 - Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, for in you my soul takes refuge; in the shadow of your wings I will take refuge, till the storms of destruction pass by. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Elvis Presley - Help me {With Lyrics}

Well this morning <2024-06-23 Sun> I dreamed of rebuking evil spirits in Jesus' name and I remember even willing in my heart as I was sleeping to rebuke them in Jehovah's name too, and I believe it was the Holy Spirit fighting for me as I was sleeping, and woke up after that. But I feel so encouraged when the Holy Spirit fights for me in my sleep. Also, after waking up I felt noticeably freed from the spirit spouse stuff - very encouraging. I was woken up by evil spirits again after that a couple more times this morning from memory, but I just put on some praise and worship music.

It's now <2024-06-26 Wed> and a couple of days ago I heard a voice which asked, "What do you think of the Golden Rule." That prompted me to do a little study on the Golden Rule and the Royal Law.

When it comes to 'works' and 'law-keeping', I believe disciples of Jesus should know they have been forgiven by grace through faith and they should also practice their righteousness, but the "works" is not the "obedience". The works come out of obedience, out of being a "doer of the law". Christians should both submit to the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ, having the imputed righteousness of Christ that we believe we have as we are walking with Christ and Christians should practice righteousness too (as Jesus said, "go and sin no more"), and Christians should seek to keep accountability primarily to God in regards to the law because He sees everything, and secondarily have good conscience with men, to love as Jesus loved, and give to Caesar what is Caesar's, but give to God what is God's - and God owns our hearts - and we should be prepared to die for Jesus, and remain faithful to Jesus. When a person practices their righteousness, then they are "doers of the law" from the heart. A person who has accepted forgiveness for their sin by the atonement made in Jesus' blood should certainly endeavour after that to fulfill practically the Royal Law, that is to love one's neighbour as themself, even owing that to other people:

> Romans 13:8 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (ESV)

But I continue walking in the light, in trusting obedience to Jesus, and Jesus' blood continues to cleanse me from all sin:

> I John 1:7-9 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

It is clear that following Jesus helps us to not sin, which means that the destructiveness of sin for us is still a reality if we are not following Jesus. We get on top of it by following Jesus and walking by His Spirit:

> Galatians 5:14-16 - For the whole law is fulfilled in one word (G3056 logō): You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. (ESV)

> Romans 8:14 - For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. (ESV)

A person who is mature in Christ has faith in Christ, follows the teachings of Christ and the pattern of His life, and is spiritually minded, and thinks with Christ's wisdom, not worldly wisdom, and lives for the will of God:

> Colossians 1:28 - Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. (ESV)

The Golden Rule, I think explains that we should behave like a child of Father God who is by nature Good and gives good gifts to His children, and gifts that are truly good, far exceeding any amount of favour we might show our own children. As we behave like a child of Father God, believing the gospel of Jesus, and loving with Christ's love, we can really say our Father is God, as a child takes after their parents, and a child of Father God behaves like Jesus and follows Jesus. We try to follow Jesus, and imitate Christ's pattern, as Christ is the Son of God.

We should love others, as we would want to be loved by others. God gives common grace to all people, even the evil. We should love in this way, as our Father in Heaven:

> Matthew 5:45 - so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. (ESV)

I do not think the Golden Rule is saying that "God is humanity." Neither do I think the Golden Rule is saying that God treats us precisely how we treat others.

I think the Golden Rule is really telling us to be loving, and love our enemies, as we would want to be loved by our enemies - love people the way Father God loves us:

> Matthew 7:9-12 - Or which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him! So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

We should be imitators of God's love:

> Psalms 103:8 - The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:1-2 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. (ESV)

> I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)

Love your enemies as well as your friends. Be like Your Heavenly Father. Be perfect. Love (25. agapaó) your enemies means "treasuring your enemies" and looks like not repaying evil for evil. It sometimes looks like refusing to do evil and instead doing good to those who do you harm, taking the initiative in overcoming evil with good:

> Matthew 5:43-48 - You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

> Proverbs 25:21-22 - If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink, for you will heap burning coals on his head, and the LORD will reward you. (ESV)

I'm still getting slammed with these antichrist dreams at night up till today <2024-07-13 Sat>, but I'm going to stick with what Scripture says. These dreams and visions are very false with regards to what the Holy Bible says. I wont trust every spirit but only those which confess (G3670 homologeó) Jesus biblically (i.e. as having come from God, walked the earth in the flesh, died and raised from the dead and ascended to Father God and reigns on High). God has spoken quite a lot already through the Scripture so I'm going to be taught and corrected by the Word of God, and be sanctified by the Truth.

I think I'll keep these notes here documenting a tiny view of spiritual attack I have endured, until I am delivered and on the other side of it.

72.11 In my helpless state I cried out to God for help, and He made me born-again of the spirit

I was spiritually bankrupt and I knew I needed God's help.

> Jeremiah 29:13-14 - You will seek me and find me. When you seek me with all your heart, I will be found by you, declares the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, declares the LORD, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile. (ESV)

> Ephesians 2:4-5 - But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— (ESV)

Thanks to Jesus' endurance, His spirit empowers us to live as He lived, and to be conformed to His image. God's strength does not guarantee that we will not suffer as a result of following Jesus. But God gives us the power at the time we need it to endure the suffering:

> Hebrews 12:1-3 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. (ESV)

72.11.1 I was spiritually blind

> I Corinthians 2:14 - The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 4:3 - And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing. (ESV)

72.11.2 Father God intervenes and draws us to Jesus

> II Corinthians 4:6 - For God, who said, Let light shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> John 6:44 - No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

72.11.3 My spiritual senses were enabled / eyes were opened

I was born-again of the Spirit.

> John 3:3 - Jesus answered him, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. (ESV)

And I began learning to walk in Jesus' commandments, and repenting from sin. There was an incredible amount of resistance from other people to following Jesus' commandments.

> Ephesians 4:32 - Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

Likewise, there was also a lot of resistance, spiritually, to repenting from sin.
youtube.com: The Good Shepard | His sheep | Bishop Mar Mari Emmanuel @time: 7 min 46 sec

72.11.4 I had to humble myself and repent

I had to acknowledge certain beliefs and behaviour in my life was not what God's will was for me, and turn away from the bad beliefs and behaviour, and I want to continue learning Christ:

> Ephesians 4:20-21 - But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, (ESV)

Trust and obey:

> II Timothy 3:12-17 - Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil people and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work. (ESV)

72.11.5 I still need deliverance <2025-06-09 Mon>

> Dear Heavenly Father and my Lord Jesus Christ and Holy Spirit, Yahweh, Jehovah, Almighty God, Why am I still being put through tribulation? You are not a liar, LORD God. I believe what Your Word says, "Call every man a liar, but God true," and that Your Word also says that "Your Holy Spirit, the Helper, the Spirit of Truth will testify of Jesus". So many times I have unrighteously blamed You for things. I simply do not understand everything fully. In a way, Your Holy Spirit has already made testimony of Jesus through the Holy Scripture, but I have been absolutely hammered by demons lying to me. What I have wanted, longed for and asked for more times than I could count is a direct confession to me through Your Spirit, in my heart, without technology, without the 'material', without paper, that "Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, who has come into the world, in the flesh", because that is how I understand is the promise that John 15:26 speaks of. I want to hear this testimony from Holy Spirit to my heart, in my heart. I want to hear it because I feel like I've been put inside a furnace like Hades and want to know, know, know that I'm in good standing with You, like in Daniel 3:25. I want to know, know, know without a doubt that the Holy Spirit has spoken to me and testified of Jesus, and I also want to be cleaned up, cleaned of defilement of spirit and flesh like Peter says in 2 Cor 7:1. I have received and believe Your testimony through Your Holy Scripture, but I want testimony 'directly through Your Spirit apart from the material world'. Please, God, speak to me in this way, but Your will be done. I don't want to rush this testimony. But neither do I want to be in this world any longer. What rights do I have as a believer? Paul says he has a right to take a believing wife. Jesus says that sons of the resurrection do not marry, nor are given in marriage. Paul says it's good to be unmarried and wishes all were as he is. Jesus says, if I'm reading in Matthew 19:11 correctly, that some people can't accept the saying in Matthew 19:10 that it is "it is better to not marry [for marriage comes with the risk of adultery if there were to be a divorce]" and the reason they can't accept it is because of what Jesus says in Matt:19:11-12. This may be why Paul calls marriage a gift in I Cor 7:7. I don't want to actually be in this world anymore and I want to be totally sanctified in love and holiness and raptured out of here. At this point the entire ordeal has become so highly strung, spiritually (I think) that I couldn't proceed in faith to marry anyone unless I had unambiguous instruction from Jesus, > as what is not done in faith is sin. At this point I have resolved to not marry. Please, God, rescue me from this situation which I do not want to be in and heal and sanctify everyone involved in Your Truth. I believe that You will rescue me. I'm standing on Your Word: II Corinthians 1:10. In Jesus Christ's name, I ask and pray, AMEN!!

>
> I don't want any of this disgusting gnosticism spirit. I rebuke that spirit of gnosticism in Jesus Christ's name. God forgive me.

> John 15:26 - "When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify about Me,

> Galatians 4:6 - And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:7 - I wish that all were as I myself am. But each has his own gift from God, one of one kind and one of another. (ESV)

This verbiage "take along" does sound like "lead about". So what Paul says he might be written more unambiguously as, "Are we not allowed to take around (bring) with us a wife who is a sister in Christ, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?" If that's the way it was meant, then that still implicitly does carry with it the idea that they are allowed to have a wife. But the passage doesn't necessarily speak about merely "becoming married" (i.e. the right to 'become married') but does seem to entail that idea too because if someone has the right to bring along or spend time with their wife then that presupposes that a state of marriage is something someone has the right to be in:

> I Corinthians 9:5 - Do we not have the right (G1849 exousian: authority [N-AFS]) to take along (G4013 periagein: to take about [V-PNA], to lead about with oneself) a believing (G79 adelphēn: a sister [N-AFS]. i.e. a sister in Christ) wife, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:1-13 - Now concerning the matters about which you wrote: It is good for a man not to have sexual relations with a woman. But because of the temptation to sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband. The husband should give to his wife her conjugal rights, and likewise the wife to her husband. For the wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. Likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. Do not deprive one another, except perhaps by agreement for a limited time, that you may devote yourselves to prayer; but then come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control. Now as a concession, not a command, I say this. I wish that all were as I myself am. But each has his own gift from God, one of one kind and one of another. To the unmarried and the widows I say that it is good for them to remain single as I am. But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to be aflame with passion. To the married I give this charge (not I, but the Lord): the wife should not separate from her husband (but if she does, she should remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband), and the husband should not divorce his wife. To the rest I say (I, not the Lord) that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he should not divorce her. If any woman has a husband who is an unbeliever, and he consents to live with her, she should not divorce him. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:8-12 - He said to them, Because of your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery. The disciples said to him, If such is the case of a man with his wife, it is better not to marry. But he said to them, Not everyone can receive this saying, but only those to whom it is given. For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let the one who is able to receive this receive it. (ESV)

I Corinthians 7:29-31 - This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. (ESV)

Genesis 6:2 - that the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves, whomever they chose.

II Corinthians 1:10 - He delivered us from such a deadly peril, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will deliver us again. (ESV)

72.11.6 We're persecuted for following Jesus. We're persecuted for repentance

John 7:7 - The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. (ESV)

Galatians 4:29 - But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. (ESV)

Christian persecution is not for suffering as an evildoer:

I Peter 4:15 - But let none of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler. (ESV)

Being persecuted for righteousness-sake, for faithful obedience to Jesus is evidence of entering the Kingdom of God:

II Thessalonians 1:4-5 - Therefore we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions that you are enduring. This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering— (ESV)

We're supposed to do good works of faith by Jesus' power so that Jesus' name is glorified - and those works done in Jesus' power are entirely given by grace to us:

II Thessalonians 1:11-12 - To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

72.11.7 Believers will marvel. The saints will do good works which glorify Jesus, all done in God's grace

A limited analogy If I had $10 and wanted to help a person who asked for money, I could choose to give them only $5 and wait around for the next person who needed money, or I could give the $10 to the person who asked and then suggest to them that they ought to help someone else instead of use it all themself. In this way, God gifts us the ability to gift others.

I am increasingly of the opinion that there is a subtle difference between simply 'believer' and 'saint' who is also a believer. Believers are forgiven through Jesus' name. Saints both believe and keep God's commandments, carrying their cross. Saints are disciples of Jesus who have been sanctified by the Truth. Believing disciples of Jesus may become saints:

> II Thessalonians 1:9-12 - They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might, when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed. To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

73 Jesus Christ is truly God and truly human (vera homo, Vera Deus)

Jesus is the Word of God made flesh. Jesus' words are Spirit and Life. We must 'eat' Jesus' words, believe Him, believe in Him, keep His words:

> John 6:58-63 - This is the bread that came down from heaven, not as the fathers ate and died. Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever. Jesus said these things in the synagogue, as he taught at Capernaum. When many of his disciples heard it, they said, This is a hard saying; who can listen to it? But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were grumbling about this, said to them, Do you take offense at this? Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

> John 1:1 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (ESV)

Jesus Christ is the Word of God who became flesh - this is what I believe - not just God in the flesh but God who became flesh, then He was put to death on a tree (a cross) for our trespasses and Father God raised Him from the dead for our justification:

> John 1:14 - And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)

> Romans 4:20-25 - No distrust (apistia) made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. That is why his faith was counted to him as righteousness. But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

AMEN!!
I trust the ESV and NASB translations that say the word became flesh.
Also, I've been born of God, so I have Christ in me:

> John 1:12-13 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

I have the Spirit of God in me:

> Romans 8:9 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. (ESV)

We are to be conformed into Christ's image:

> Romans 8:29 - For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. (ESV)

74 Praising and thanking God in Heaven

Sermon youtube.com: Christ Has Purchased Global Praise

We should start now.

> Revelation 7:9-12 - After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb! And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying, Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen. (ESV)

74.1 We should praise God even when it's tough times

> Psalms 22:1-3 - My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning? To the choirmaster: according to The Doe of the Dawn. A Psalm of David. O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest. Yet you are holy, enthroned (3427. yashab. to sit, remain, dwell) on the praises of Israel. (ESV)

Praise youtube.com: Prophetic / Worship / Jerusalem / ISRAEL / Soaking Worship Music / {Magi G feat. Elihana Elia} /

> Proverbs 30:4 - Who has ascended to heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name? Surely you know! (ESV)

75 I don't want to think too hard about theology, but it is important - writing this was worthwhile in arriving at a sound understanding

By God's grace I've been set free from sin, and brought into a relationship with God, and have hope for the future now.

> Ephesians 2:12-13 - remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 29:29 - The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law. (ESV)

> Ecclesiastes 3:10-11 - I have seen the business that God has given to the children of man to be busy with. He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also, he has put eternity into man's heart, yet so that he cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end. (ESV)

> Proverbs 3:5-6 - Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 29:11 - For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans for wholeness and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. (ESV)

> Ephesians 2:10 - For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:16 - In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

76 The close of the age

Sermon youtube.com: His Voice in Yours: How Christ Wins the World

> Revelation of John 14:7 - And he said with a loud voice, Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water. (ESV)

> Matthew 13:45-52 - Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. When it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into containers but threw away the bad. So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Have you understood all these things? They said to him, Yes. And he said to them, Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.

It's important to get to know God, and important to obey the gospel of the Lord Jesus, or face the punishment:

> II Thessalonians 1:5-8 - This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering— since indeed God considers it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you, and to grant relief to you who are afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. (ESV)

God is not saving Lucifer/Satan/the devil or his demons/devils. Neither is God saving his angels. They're all going to Hell, the Lake of Fire, forever. … Along with those who reject God and do not repent. Amen to that:

> Revelation of John 20:7-10 - And when the thousand years are ended, Satan will be released from his prison and will come out to deceive the nations that are at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle; their number is like the sand of the sea. And they marched up over the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city, but fire came down from heaven and consumed them, and the devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur where the beast and the false prophet were, and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever. (ESV)

> Revelation 22:12-17, 20-21 - Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense with me, to repay everyone for what he has done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life and that they may enter the city by the gates. Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you about these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star. The Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let the one who hears say, Come. And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who desires take the water of life without price. He who testifies to these things says, Surely I am coming soon. Amen. Come, Lord Jesus! The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all. Amen. (ESV)

I'm a total believer in the rapture. In fact, I believe that a person can be raptured by faith. I really wouldn't mind being raptured today <2024-07-18 Thu>. The world lost its luster for me, and that is a good thing actually:

> Hebrews 11:5 - By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death, and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God. (ESV)

Andrae Crouch - Take Me Back Take me back, dear Lord, where I first believed. I must confess, Lord, I've been blessed, But yet, my soul's not satisfied. Renew my faith, restore my joy, Lord.

Jesus is coming a second time to save those who are eagerly waiting for Him. AMEN!!:

> Hebrews 9:27-28 - And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. (ESV)

And Jesus' enemies will be made a footstool for His feet:

> Hebrews 10:10-13 - And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. (ESV)

youtube.com: The Book Of Revelation | Satan Being Chained | Bishop Mari @time: 8 min 25 sec The Lord's first coming was nothing but mercy. He came to heal, he came to deliver, he came to save, he came to redeem - all mercy. But in his second coming, the third name will apply: "King of Kings and Lord of Lords". And who will acknowledge this name? And who will bow before this Holy and mighty name? The entire world of the church. Everyone who rejects the Lord now, every everyone who denies the Lord now, everyone who opposes the Lord now, everyone who offends the Lord now will bow whether they like it or not on his second return, because he is the King of all Kings and he is the Lord of all Lords.

76.1 Living and the dead

There are those who are not really alive but are like the walking dead.

> I Peter 4:4-5 - With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. (ESV)

> Romans 8:10-13 - But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

Could we say that a person who believes in / trusts in Jesus may die? Yes, we can say that, but though they may die, yet they will live. So if believers die, they then they live:

> John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV)

OK, so if a believer/truster in Jesus dies then they will live.
And if a person lives and they trust/believe in Jesus, they will never die:

> Romans 6:8-11 - Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

So we are born-again, and continue in faith in Jesus.

I think Jesus was suggesting to his disciple that to not follow Him (Jesus) is to live in a futile way. The path of life, however, involves following Him, and living for Him and His gospel, and that person will live:

> Matthew 8:21-23 - Another of the disciples said to him, Lord, let me first go and bury my father. And Jesus said to him, Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead. And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him. (ESV)
>
> Luke 9:59-62 - To another he said, Follow me. But he said, Lord, let me first go and bury my father. And Jesus said to him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead. But as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God. Yet another said, I will follow you, Lord, but let me first say farewell to those at my home. Jesus said to him, No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God. (ESV)

Those who follow Jesus will have the light of life:

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

It is those people who will to live (though they die, they will live). Then they are truly alive - joined with Him -having died with Jesus now alive with Him. The one who is alive from the dead who continues to trust in Him will never die.

76.2 Confidence for the day of judgement

We have confidence as we are practicing righteousness and love the brothers:

> I John 3:10-17 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)
>
> Psalms 119:160 - The sum of your word is truth, and every one of your righteous rules endures forever. (ESV)
>
> Isaiah 45:19 - I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness; I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, Seek me in vain. I the LORD speak the truth; I declare what is right. (ESV)

We believe God and love as He commanded. We trust God. We trust Jesus. We may have our faults but our Master is our Lord Jesus and our justification is His blood as we are found in Him, as doers of His commandments - trusters, believers, doers, imitators of Him:

> I John 4:1-21 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses (G3670 homologeó, confesses, acknowledges, agrees) that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess (G3670 homologeó, confess, acknowledge, agree with) Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

76.2.1 Commendation from God

Proverbs 12:8 - A man is commended according to his good sense, but one of twisted mind is despised. (ESV)

Hebrews 11:1-2 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. (ESV)

II Corinthians 10:18 - For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)

III John 1:11-12 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. Demetrius has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself. We also add our testimony, and you know that our testimony is true. (ESV)

I Corinthians 4:3-5 - But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself. I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me. Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God. (ESV)

76.2.2 Condemnation from God

I Corinthians 11:32 - But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV)

We are delivered from this evil age:

Galatians 1:3-5 - Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

We are saved from this crooked generation:

> Acts 2:40 - And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation. (ESV)

Journal <2025-08-09 Sat> I don't want to be here in this world. The AI stuff is diabolical. I think the AI stuff is probably God's judgement on the world. How much more difficult it will be to stop trusting in the ways of the world and to trust in God if people are pushed into letting AI think for them. Diabolical stuff. Get me out of here Lord Jesus Christ, please. I'm done with this world.

I'm looking forward to getting out of here youtube.com: ONCE AGAIN, ISRAEL HAS THE WORLD FREAKED OUT! WORLD LEADERS REACT! {@WatchmanRiver}

> Psalms 53:1 - The fool says in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, doing abominable iniquity; there is none who does good. (ESV)
>
> Psalms 10:10-11 - The helpless are crushed, sink down, and fall by his might. He says in his heart, God has forgotten, he has hidden his face, he will never see it. (ESV)

Journal <2026-04-11 Sat 20:09> Jesus Christ's blood was shed so that people could die to sin and live for righteousness and fulfill the requirement of the law and so that they could have God's life in them and live forever with Him, loving one-another. Jesus Christ's blood was not shed not to enslave people into hoping in AI, and training them for greed and theft. The grace of God was not given for the crushing of the human spirit and to animate plastic and silicon.

> > John 10:10 - The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly. (ESV)
> >
> > Revelation of John 2:26-27 - The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron, as when earthen pots are broken in pieces, even as I myself have received authority from my Father. (ESV)
> >
> > I Corinthians 15:25-27 - For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For God has put all things in subjection under his feet. But when it says, all things are put in subjection, it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under him. (ESV)

I think that to put one's trust in an AGI / ASI system instead of God and allowing such a thing to take the place of God in a person's heart is incredibly foolish. I think that the way in which it's being pushed onto society is extremely concerning. The righteous live by faith in God. The unrighteous would trust in what is false, such as AGI/ASI.

> II Thessalonians 2:10-13 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false, in order that they all may be judged who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness. But we should always give thanks to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

I think it would be very telling where a person's heart is by what they do when being confronted with a choice to horde, say, cryptocurrency or to be the good Samaritan to someone. Alternatively, who do they believe in and trust? Do they believe in and trust God, or do they believe in and trust AGI/ASI? Do they fear God? Or do they fear AGI/ASI? I have absolutely no fear of AGI/ASI. It's of the world. When people try to use AI to judge me / criticise me while I have been born-again and have a real relationship with God and I fear God and want to do what please Him, I just know that the AI stuff is detached from reality, propolled by greed and idolatry and I know I'm being persecuted for righteousness-sake. I don't want to be in this world. I have no love for it.

> Luke 12:33-37 - Sell your possessions, and give to the needy. Provide yourselves with moneybags that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Stay dressed for action and keep your lamps burning, and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the wedding feast, so that they may open the door to him at once when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will dress himself for service and have them recline at table, and he will come and serve them. (ESV)

76.3 Hades and Hell - eternal fire

> Ephesians 4:8-10 - Therefore it says, When he ascended on high he led a host of captives, and he gave gifts to men. (In saying, He ascended, what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth? He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.) (ESV)

76.3.1 Those who do not trust God's testimony of Jesus are condemned even now, and should repent and believe to not be condemned

I think John 5:24 reads that the one who is trusting the words spoken through Jesus, trusting God, trusting Jesus is holds/posesses eternal life and has passed/is passing/passes from death into life.

2064. erchomai to come, go

3327. metabain to pass over, withdraw, depart

> John 5:24 - Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. (KJV)

In trusting Jesus' words - or even His name (onoma) and He is the judge - we do not come into judgement, but change direction, and instead our destiny is life eternal. Jesus is the judge of that. We do not come into judgement:

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears (191. akoúó) my word (3056. logos) and believes (4100. pisteuó) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed (3327. metabain) from death to life. (ESV)

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn) in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name (onoma) of the only Son of God. (ESV)

76.3.2 Eternal life vs eternal punishment - Judgement at the close of the age

> Matthew 25:43-46 - I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me. Then they also will answer, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you? Then he will answer them, saying, Truly, I say to you, as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me. And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life. (ESV)

It's really important to get to know God and obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus:

> II Thessalonians 1:5-10 - This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering— since indeed God considers it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you, and to grant relief to you who are afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might, when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed. (ESV)

> I John 4:6-12 - We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)

> Matthew 25:41 - Then he will say to those on his left, Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. (ESV)

Jesus promised He would send the Helper, the Spirit of Truth to those who love Him and keep His commandments and the Spirit of Truth would bear witness about Him:

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

> John 15:26-27 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. And you also will bear witness, because you have been with me from the beginning. (ESV)

We can expect to receive the Spirit of Truth. Infuriatingly, I am yet (as of <2025-06-16 Mon>) to year a confession from any spirit that Jesus is the Christ who has come (into the world, from God) in the flesh. I've heard the voices of demons mocking me while I am enduring hardship. There's also been a lot of "nice" pictures and dreams I may receive, but is temptation. For example, a picture of marriage. The devil tempts. God tests. But also we test. We have to test the spirits to see if they come from God. I have heard from Christians excuses to not test the spirits. One of them is that God speaks in different ways. But it's one of Jesus' promises to those who keep His commandments that He will send the Spirit of Truth to make testimony of Himself. If we nullify this saying then expect to be led astray by demons:

> I John 4:1-3 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

And I think that repentance from sin is important for this:

> John 8:31-36 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)

If Jesus is faithful, (I'm holding faith in his promises, I am holding faith that He is faithful, otherwise I would have given up asking Him to deliver on His promise), then He will send the Spirit of Truth to make testimony of Him, as we are holding fast to the confession of our hope. We should meet together and encourage one another as we see the Day drawing near. Because, I think this passage is saying that once that day has arrived and we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins. I'm quite sure, we should be serving Jesus at this point. I do not think this passage is saying that it is a commandment of Christ to "go to church every Sunday". But I do believe that we should not let the worries of the world deter us from gathering together with other believers. If someone can't trust God enough with their finances to put down their work on a Sunday, for example, then I think that is problematic:

> Hebrews 10:23-29 - Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has spurned the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? (ESV)
>
> Matthew 6:24-34 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble. (ESV)

Journal <2025-06-15 Sun> I'm a bit angry at the Lord because I've been harassed and oppressed by demons for about 3 years almost daily as I've been holding my faith in Jesus, and expecting to hear this testimony which Jesus has promised. What master would promise peace and rest to those who trust and obey Him and promise the Spirit of Truth to come and make testimony of Himself while allowing those who believe Him and follow Him to be terrorised and oppressed by demons so much for such a long time? To this very day, I've been getting harassed by demons in my sleep and during the day. Because in the furnace / in the tribulation you want to know at least that Jesus has been faithful to His promises and there's something you've been given that the world and all the demons can't steal - the testimony from the Holy Spirit. If, for example, I had heard this testimony which the Apostle John speaks of, then I'd be able to hold onto that while enduring hardship, but I have heard no such thing. So I think my complaint to God is very fair.

We can expect to receive the Spirit of Truth. Infuriatingly, I am yet (as of <2025-06-16 Mon>) to year a confession from any spirit that Jesus is the Christ who has come (into the world, from God) in the flesh. I've heard the voices of demons mocking me while I am enduring hardship. There's also been a lot of "nice" pictures and dreams I may receive, but is temptation. For example, a picture of marriage. The devil tempts. God tests. But also we test. We have to test the spirits to see if they come from God. I have heard from Christians excuses to not test the spirits. One of them is that God speaks in different ways. But it's one of Jesus' promises to those who keep His commandments that He will send the Spirit of Truth to make testimony of Himself. If we nullify this saying then expect to be led astray by demons:

> I John 4:1-3 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

> John 10:27 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. (ESV)

It's completely fine to commit your way to the LORD, and trust in Him and expect Him to act. He sees our hearts, and He sees our faith. And He can speak in this very specific way through dreams and visions, with the Holy Spirit. I trust that He will speak this way to me:

> Psalms 37:5-7 - Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act. He will bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your justice as the noonday. Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over the one who prospers in his way, over the man who carries out evil devices! (ESV)

> Proverbs 16:9 - The heart of man plans his way, but the LORD establishes his steps. (ESV)

> James 4:10 - Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you. (ESV)

I'm not an idolator, and I'm very much repentant from other types of sin. I pray that God delivers me and that He will speak to me while providing the testimony that Jesus Christ has come from God into the world in the flesh so that I know with certainty that it's from Him. God help me:

> Revelation of John 9:20-21 - The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands nor give up worshiping demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk, nor did they repent of their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their thefts. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 18:2 - And he called out with a mighty voice, Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place for demons, a haunt for every unclean spirit, a haunt for every unclean bird, a haunt for every unclean and detestable beast. (ESV)

76.3.3 Sheol / Hades - this is where Jesus went

Read blueletterbible.org: What Is Hades?

Read youthpastortheologian.com: What does the Apostles' Creed mean by "He descended to the dead"? - Youth Pastor Theologian

> Proverbs 15:24 - The path of life leads upward for the prudent, that he may turn away from Sheol beneath. (ESV)

> Matthew 12:40 - For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. (ESV)

> Proverbs 2:16-19 - So you will be delivered from the forbidden woman, from the adulteress with her smooth words, who forsakes the companion of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God; for her house sinks down to death, and her paths to the departed; none who go to her come back, nor do they regain the paths of life. (ESV)

> John 5:25 - Truly, truly, I say to you, an hour is coming and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:6 - For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the spirit the way God does. (ESV)

7585. sheol Definition: underworld (place to which people descend at death).

86. hadés Definition: Hades, the abode of departed spirits. Usage: Hades, the unseen world.

> Psalms 9:17 - The wicked shall return to Sheol, all the nations that forget God. (ESV)

While Sheol/Hades includes a place of torment regarded to be hell, that place is not the Lake of Fire, but it's still not a nice place:

> Proverbs 23:14 - If you strike him with the rod, you will save his soul from Sheol. (ESV)

> Proverbs 23:14 - Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell. (KJV)

But Sheol will be thrown into hell after those in Sheol are judged.

> Acts 2:27-28 - For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One see corruption. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence. (ESV)

The bad part of Sheol/Hades though is still a place of torment with fire. Maybe Jesus visited this place - I suppose He did:

> Revelation of John 1:17-18 - When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. But he laid his right hand on me, saying, Fear not, I am the first and the last, and the living one. I died, and behold I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of Death and Hades. (ESV)

KJV considers this place to be hell too - but it's not the Lake of Fire:

> Luke 16:27-28 - And he said, Then I beg you, father, to send him to my father's house— for I have five brothers—so that he may warn them, lest they also come into this place of torment. (ESV)

Death and Hades will be thrown into the lake of fire, which is Hell:

> Revelation of John 20:13-14 - And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, Death and Hades (86. hadés) gave up the dead who were in them, and they were judged, each one of them, according to what they had done. Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. (ESV)

Jesus went to Hades, the bad part:

> I Peter 3:18-20 - For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, because they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. (ESV)

Michael Heiser's take on I Peter 3:18-20 youtube.com: Why Did Jesus Go Preach to Spirits in Prison in Hades After His Death ? - Part 2 | Michael Heiser {@ stefanlouw6395 }

And Jesus went to the Bosom of Abraham:

> Luke 23:43 - And he said to him, Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise. (ESV)

Read gotquestions.org did-Jesus-go-to-hell.html: Did Jesus go to hell between His death and resurrection? | GotQuestions.org

> In the Hebrew Scriptures, the word used to describe the realm of the dead is sheol. It simply means ”the place of the dead” or ”the place of departed souls/spirits.” The New Testament Greek equivalent of sheol is hades, which also refers to ”the place of the dead.” The New Testament indicates that sheol/hades is a temporary place, where souls are kept as they await the final resurrection and judgment. Revelation 20:11-15 makes a clear distinction between hades and the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the permanent and final place of judgment for the lost. Hades, then, is a temporary place. Many people refer to both hades and the lake of fire as ”hell,” and this causes confusion.

If Jesus visited the place of torment in Luke 16:28 (the bad part of Sheol/Hades), it was just temporarily. My current belief is that He would have visited all of the place of the dead (both sides of the chasm).

Jesus went to Hades and I haven't been convinced that Jesus did not visit the bad part of Hades. Jesus experienced Death and Jesus experienced Hades.

> Revelation of John 1:18 - and the living one. I died, and behold I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of Death and Hades. (ESV)

Sheol/hades is a realm with two divisions - a place of blessing and a place of judgment (Matthew 11:23; Matthew 16:18; Luke 10:15; Luke 16:23; Acts 2:27-31). The abodes of the saved and the lost are both generally called ”hades” in the Bible. The abode of those who die while they have done good in this life is also called ”Abraham's bosom” (KJV) or ”Abraham's side” (NIV) in Luke 16:22 and ”paradise” in Luke 23:43.

The abodes of the ones who have lived righteously in God's sight and the lost are separated by a ”great chasm” (Luke 16:26).

When Jesus died, He went to the blessed side of sheol, or paradise.

(Some believe, based on a particular interpretation of Ephesians 4:8-10, that Jesus took believers with Him from sheol to another place of bliss that we now call heaven.

More likely, Ephesians 4 refers to the ascension of Christ.) All the unbelieving dead go to the cursed side of hades to await the final judgment. All the believing dead go to the blessed side of hades to await the resurrection.

Some of the confusion has arisen from such passages as Psalm 16:10-11 as translated in the King James Version: ”For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. . . . Thou wilt show me the path of life.” ”Hell” is not a correct translation in this verse. A correct reading would be ”the grave” or ”sheol.” Jesus said to the thief beside Him, ”Today you will be with me in paradise” (Luke 23:43)

76.3.4 The dead hearing the gospel - was it only a one time thing?

Though not raised, the dead may hear the voice of the son of God, the gospel, and live in the spirit the way God does.

> I Corinthians 15:29 - Otherwise, what do people mean by being baptized on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized on their behalf? (ESV)

> John 5:25 - Truly, truly, I say to you, an hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:6 - For the gospel has for this purpose been preached even to those who are dead, that though they are judged in the flesh as men, they may live in the spirit according to the will of God. (NASB)

If a person rejects Jesus in this life and dies, then from what Jesus has said here, they wont repent:

> Luke 16:30-31 - And he said, No, father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent. He said to him, If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone should rise from the dead. (ESV)

I think it's important to trust Jesus in this life because no guarantees with hearing the gospel in the place of the dead. Who knows, though, right? Because perhaps a believer who dies in Christ could preach the gospel to Hades and bounce back up as Jesus did. But even then, I think Jesus makes it plain that if a person rejects the Truth before they die then they won't accept in even in the place of the dead.

> John 5:25 - Truly, truly, I say to you, an hour is coming and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:6 - For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the spirit the way God does. (ESV)

> Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)

Proclaiming the gospel in the place of the dead might have only been a one-time thing:

> I Peter 3:18-22 - For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, because they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him. (ESV)

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

> John 5:28-29 - Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment. (ESV)

76.3.5 Tartaroó

God cast rebellious angels into this place. It sounds like Hades but maybe worse:

> II Peter 2:4 - For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell (5020. tartaroó) and committed them to chains of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment; (ESV)

God sent/sends rebellious angels into this place called Tartaroó. Satan and his angels and demons will ultimately end up in the eternal fire.

> Jude 1:6-7 - And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day — just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire. (ESV)

76.3.6 Hell, lake of fire, the second death

Jesus didn't go to the Lake of Fire, as far as I understand. Jesus went to the place of the dead, both Abraham's Bosom and the bad part of Sheol/Hades colloquially known as hell. The Lake of Fire is the final Hell, and is a Christless eternity with no hope of salvation.

> Matthew 10:28 - And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy (622. apollumi) both soul and body in hell. (ESV)

622. apollumi Definition: to destroy, destroy utterly Usage: (a) I kill, destroy, (b) I lose, mid: I am perishing (the resultant death being viewed as certain). 622 apóllymi (from 575 /apó, "away from," which intensifies ollymi, "to destroy") – properly, fully destroy, cutting off entirely *(note the force of the prefix, 575 /apó). 622 /apóllymi *("violently/completely perish") implies permanent (absolute) destruction, i.e. to cancel out (remove); "to die, with the implication of ruin and destruction" (L & N, 1, 23.106); cause to be lost (utterly perish) by experiencing a miserable end.

The Lake of Fire is where unrepentant sinners who reject God (and reject Jesus) go - i.e. those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus - they do not want to be saved from their sin. It's also where Satan and his angels and demons go:

> Matthew 13:49-50 - So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 21:8 - But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death. (ESV)
>
> Mark 9:42-44 - Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. And if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life crippled than with two hands to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. (ESV)
>
> Mark 9:45-46 - If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame, than, having your two feet, to be cast into hell, [where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.] (NASB)
>
> Matthew 25:41 - Then he will say to those on his left, Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 19:20 - And the beast was captured, and with it the false prophet who in its presence had done the signs by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped its image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 13:42 - and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (ESV)

The lake of fire is for people who not only are unrepentant sinners but also reject Christ (they do not want to be saved).

What is the difference between Sheol, Hades, Hell, the lake of fire, Paradise, and Abraham's bosom? The lake of fire, mentioned only in Revelation 19:20 and Revelation 20:10, Revelation 14-15, is the final hell, the place of eternal punishment for all unrepentant rebels, both angelic and human (Matthew 25:41). It is described as a place of burning sulfur, and those in it experience eternal, unspeakable agony of an unrelenting nature (Luke 16:24; Mark 9:45-46). Those who have rejected Christ and are in the temporary abode of the dead in hades/sheol have the lake of fire as their final destination.

76.3.7 The ones who have not heard the gospel are judged by God very fairly

Romans 2:13-16 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

Romans 2:26-29 - So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law. For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

Isaiah 65:1 - I was ready to be sought by those who did not ask for me; I was ready to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, Here am I, here am I, to a nation that was not called by my name. (ESV)

As God judges, unrighteous people remain under punishment until they are judged and until the righteous are freed from trial:

II Peter 2:5-10 - if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; and if he rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked (for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority. Bold and willful, they do not tremble as they blaspheme the glorious ones, (ESV)

Ecclesiastes 2:17 - So I hated life, because what is done under the sun was grievous to me, for all is vanity and a striving after wind. (ESV)

76.3.8 The outcome of just judgement for all

Job 12:10 - In his hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of all mankind. (ESV)

I Timothy 4:7-10 - Have nothing to do with irreverent, silly myths. Rather train yourself for godliness; for while bodily training is of some value, godliness is of value in every way, as it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come. The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance. For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. (ESV)

Revelation of John 11:18 - The nations raged, but your wrath came, and the time for the dead to be judged, and for rewarding your servants, the prophets and saints, and those who fear your name, both small and great, and for destroying the destroyers of the earth. (ESV)

Glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality.

Luke 16:22-25 - The poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried, and in Hades, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham far off > and Lazarus at his side. And he called out, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in anguish in this flame. But Abraham said, Child, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner bad things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in anguish. (ESV)

> Romans 2:6-11 - He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

God judges:

> Revelation of John 14:7 - And he said with a loud voice, Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water. (ESV)

The Father judges no one but God judges through Jesus, the Son, who He, the Father, has sent. The Father is God. The Son is God:

> John 5:22-23 - The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. (ESV)

> Matthew 16:27 - For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done. (ESV)

Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega. Jesus is God:

> Revelation of John 22:12-13 - Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense with me, to repay everyone for what he has done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. (ESV)

> John 5:28-29 - Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment. (ESV)

Jesus has literally taught people that that if we love our enemies, do good and lend, expecting nothing in return we will be rewarded and be sons of the Most High. This shows that obedience to Jesus is just part of having faith in Jesus:

> Luke 6:35-36 - But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)

It's also written that we must repent from sin that God may be a Father to us:

> II Corinthians 6:16-18 - What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

Repent from sin, turn away from doing evil, and trust in Jesus Christ and do good:

> Psalms 37:23-29 - The steps of a man are established by the LORD, when he delights in his way; though he fall, he shall not be cast headlong, for the LORD upholds his hand. I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging for bread. He is ever lending generously, and his children become a blessing. Turn away from evil and do good; so shall you dwell forever. For the LORD loves justice; he will not forsake his saints. They are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off. The righteous shall inherit the land and dwell upon it forever. (ESV)

Take refuge in Him:

> Psalms 37:38-40 - But transgressors shall be altogether destroyed; the future of the wicked shall be cut off. The salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; he is their stronghold in the time of trouble. The LORD helps them and delivers them; he delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in him. (ESV)

The prophets, saints, and servants of Jesus will be rewarded:

> Revelation of John 11:18 - The nations raged, but your wrath came, and the time for the dead to be judged, and for rewarding your servants, the prophets and saints, and those who fear your name, both small and great, and for destroying the destroyers of the earth. (ESV)

Journal <2026-04-10 Fri 08:15> I believe my Father, God Himself (II Corinthians 6:14-18,7:1) who is in heaven, is doing well. I believe my mother, which is Heavenly Jerusalem (Galatians 4:22-31), is waiting for me. Looking out my window this morning, I see Dunedin city on earth. Yet, I am aware than I'm spiritually seated with Jesus Christ in the heavenly places (Ephesians 2:6).

Mathetes to Diognetus They are in the flesh, but they do not live after the flesh. They pass their days on earth, but they are citizens of heaven.

Mathetes to Diognetus They dwell in their own countries, but simply as sojourners. As citizens, they share in all things with others, and yet endure all things as if foreigners. Every foreign land is to them as their native country, and every land of their birth as a land of strangers. They marry, as do all [others]; they beget children; but they do not destroy their offspring. They have a common table, but not a common bed. They are in the flesh, but they do not live after the flesh. They pass their days on earth, but they are citizens of heaven. They obey the prescribed laws, and at the same time surpass the laws by their lives. They love all men, and are persecuted by all. They are unknown and condemned; they are put to death, and restored to life. They are poor, yet make many rich; they are in lack of all things, and yet abound in all; they are dishonoured, and yet in their very dishonour are glorified. They are evil spoken of, and yet are justified; they are reviled, and bless; they are insulted, and repay the insult with honour; they do good, yet are punished as evil-doers. When punished, they rejoice as if quickened into life; they are assailed by the Jews as foreigners, and are persecuted by the Greeks; yet those who hate them are unable to assign any reason for their hatred. To sum up all in one word–what the soul is in the body, that are Christians in the world. The soul is dispersed through all the members of the body, and Christians are scattered through all the cities of the world. The soul dwells in the body, yet is not of the body; and Christians dwell in the world, yet are not of the world. The invisible soul is guarded by the visible body, and Christians are known indeed to be in the world, but their godliness remains invisible.

Mathetes to Diognetus To sum up all in one word–what the soul is in the body, that are Christians in the world. The soul is dispersed through all the members of the body, and Christians are scattered through all the cities of the world. The soul dwells in the body, yet is not of the body; and Christians dwell in the world, yet are not of the world. The invisible soul is guarded by the visible body, and Christians are known indeed to be in the world, but their godliness remains invisible. The flesh hates the soul, and wars against it, though itself suffering no injury, because it is prevented from enjoying pleasures; the world also hates the Christians, though in nowise injured, because they abjure pleasures. The soul loves the flesh that hates it, and [loves also] the members; Christians likewise love those that hate them. The soul is imprisoned in the > body, yet preserves that very body; and Christians are confined in the world as in a prison, and yet they are the preservers of the world. The immortal soul dwells in a mortal tabernacle; and Christians dwell as sojourners in corruptible [bodies], looking for an incorruptible dwelling in the heavens. The soul, when but ill-provided with food and drink, becomes better; in like manner, the Christians, though subjected day by day to punishment, increase the more in number. God has assigned them this illustrious position, which it were unlawful for them to forsake.

Christians are called to ”Biblical separation”:

> II Corinthians 6:14-18,7:1 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

> Hosea 4:17 - Ephraim is joined to idols; leave him alone. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 6:14-18,7:1 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

> Hosea 4:17 - Ephraim is joined to idols; leave him alone. (ESV)

> Galatians 4:22-31 - For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman and one by a free woman. But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, while the son of the free woman was born through promise. Now this may be interpreted allegorically: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar. Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. For it is written, Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear; break forth and cry aloud, you who are not in labor! For the children of the desolate one will be more than those of the one who has a husband. Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

Christians should certainly not be endorsing, nor promoting Islam or homosexuality, for example. The Islamic religion teaches things that are as antichrist as it gets, and Christians must remain loyal to Jesus in face of lies from Islam. And so the words ”Islamophobia” and ”homophobia” (if taken to mean in an ’avoidance’ and ’not endorsing’ sense) is not wrong at all.

We must flee from evil, and instead be following Jesus:

> John 10:4-5 - When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers. (ESV)

The Bible says it's right to "flee from sin", to love God, to trust in Jesus and keep Jesus' commandments in order to avoid the wrath of God:

> Luke 3:4-14 - As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall become straight, and the rough places shall become level ways, and all flesh shall see the salvation of God. He said therefore to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from (G575 apo; from, away from, of, by) the wrath to come? Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. And the crowds asked him, What then shall we do? And he answered them, Whoever has two tunics is to share with him who has none, and whoever has food is to do likewise. Tax collectors also came to be baptized and said to him, Teacher, what shall we do? And he said to them, Collect no more than you are authorized to do. Soldiers also asked him, And we, what shall we do? And he said to them, Do not extort money from anyone by threats or by false accusation, and be content with your wages. (ESV)

Now if someone calls the fleeing from sin a phobia and paints someone who is righteously turning away from sin as if they are "bad" or something, well that is nonsense. The label 'phobia' is not accurate (as if we should fear those who do the sin). The Bible tells us to not fear mankind, but rather for us to fear God. And so we fear God, hate the evil, and avoid the sin. It would be nonsense to label someone as 'theftophobic' in a derogatory sense when they simply disagree with and do not promote theft.

76.3.9 The unrepentant sinners including believers who do not want to repent from sin

Jesus is our Lord and Master, not sin. Being under grace means we have been forgiven and now present ourselves as slaves of Righteousness, obeying Jesus:

> Romans 6:9-14 - Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. (KJV)

We should be obedient slaves of Righteousness (slaves of Jesus). If you're not enslaved to Christ you're enslaved to something else - either yourself or to sin or to the world or to satan. I realise that word 'enslaved' carries connotations of slavery but it's slavery to Jesus, and freedom from slavery to sin, slavery from walking in disobedience to God, to instead serve God through Jesus. No servant is greater than their master, but at least the servant of Jesus has Jesus has their master.

Father God is very pleased with our Lord Jesus. Now we serve Jesus and come under His banner. Even though we are under grace, there is still a very strong warning to us that we should not put Christ to the test in obeying sin:

> Deuteronomy 28:47-48 - Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joyfulness and gladness of heart, because of the abundance of all things, therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger and thirst, in nakedness, and lacking everything. And he will put a yoke of iron on your neck until he has destroyed you. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:8-11 - We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. (ESV)

If we continue on serving, trusting, obeying sin, we will die. But of we continue serving, trusting, obeying Jesus we will be sanctified and have eternal life: Faith is commanded so is inseparable from obedience. It's the real gospel, the one that calls people to obedience by word and deed, obedience to Jesus. Obedience which leads to righteousness. Faith is commanded of us:

> Romans 6:15-23 - What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

Often believers have times when we stumble and speak and act in the flesh, as we are being sancified, but we confess (G3670 homologeó) sin and repent:

> Romans 8:1-7 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. (ESV)
>
> Romans 7:14-25 - For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am of the flesh, sold under sin. I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV)

Homologeó means to come into agreement with the fact. So we need to come into agreement with the truth that we have sinned and that such things are sinful:

> I John 1:6-10 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

Example with Simon. Jesus prayed that Simon's faith would not fail, despite knowing Simon would act in the flesh and deny Him, but Jesus asked Simon to strengthen His brothers when he 'turned' (came to his senses, began walking in the spirit/light/truth) again:

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

We should take a page from Nebuchadnezzar, and obey Jesus to strengthen our brothers after we repent:

> Daniel 4:34-37 - At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and praised and honored him who lives forever, for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom endures from generation to generation; all the inhabitants of the earth are accounted as nothing, and he does according to his will among the host of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand or say to him, What have you done? At the same time my reason returned to me, and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendor returned to me. My counselors and my lords sought me, and I was established in my kingdom, and still more greatness was added to me. Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, for all his works are right and his ways are just; and those who walk in pride he is able to humble. (ESV)

Sinning believers will still experience tribulation. Believers who are unrepentant from sin are probably not true trusters of Jesus or are rebellious even in face of hearing the gospel and maybe even experience the literal place Hades (the bad part). I could be wrong, but I don't want to test God. It's a bad idea to put Christ to the test. Jesus is the Judge.

> Matthew 16:15-19 - He said to them, But who do you say that I am? Simon Peter replied, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell (G86 hadés) shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. (ESV)

> Luke 4:8 - And Jesus answered him, It is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:8-11 - We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 28:47-48 - Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joyfulness and gladness of heart, because of the abundance of all things, therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger and thirst, in nakedness, and lacking everything. And he will put a yoke of iron on your neck until he has destroyed you. (ESV)

This makes it it quite clear that we must be law-abiding:

> Matthew 13:38-42 - The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers (G4160 poiountas 3588 tēn G458 anomian; practicing lawlessness), and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (ESV)

If we continue on serving, trusting, obeying sin, we will die. But of we continue serving, trusting, obeying Jesus we will be sanctified and have eternal life: Faith is commanded so is inseparable from obedience. It's the real gospel, the one that calls people to obedience by word and deed, obedience to Jesus. Obedience which leads to righteousness. Faith is commanded of us:

> Romans 6:15-23 - What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

Those who do not repent from sin (stop serving sin), but instead embrace evil will experience tribulation.

Polycarp 2:1 Wherefore gird up your loins and serve God in fear and truth, forsaking the vain and empty talking and the error of the many, for that ye have believed on Him that raised our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead and gave unto him glory and a throne on His right hand; unto whom all things were made subject that are in heaven and that are on the earth; to whom every creature that hath breath doeth service; who cometh as judge of quick and dead; whose blood God will require of them that are disobedient unto Him.

All sin servers (rather than those who serve Christ - even 'believers' who don't serve Jesus) will experience tribulation and distress on earth if they do not turn to Jesus to serve Christ and simultaneously turn away from serving sin.

If a person is a remorseless, unrepentant "sin server", it's better for them that their body destroyed so their soul is saved:

> I Corinthians 5:4-5 - When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. (ESV)

I don't say sinner here anymore because even those who trust Jesus make mistakes, and we're always reliant on the mercy of God.

G1067. geenna Hell is the place of the future punishment called "Gehenna" or "Gehenna of fire". This was originally the valley of Hinnom, south of Jerusalem, where the filth and dead animals of the city were cast out and burned; a fit symbol of the wicked and their future destruction.

> Matthew 5:29-30 - If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body be thrown into hell (G1067. geenna). And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell. (ESV)

Me speculating Hades as it's used in this way could possibly look appearance-wise the same, but perhaps God re-organises cities and their inhabitants (me speculating), say forcing unrepentant sinners to other cities. I still believe it's also literal place.

> Luke 10:15 - And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You shall be brought down to Hades. (ESV)

God does relocate people after all, but that's probably something different:

- youtube.com: These Biblical Prophecies About Israel Have Yet To Be Fulfilled | Derek Prince {@DerekPrinceWithSubtitles} @time: 15 min 1 sec

> Ezekiel 36:16-29 - The word of the LORD came to me: Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their ways and their deeds. Their ways before me were like the uncleanness of a woman in her menstrual impurity. So I poured out my wrath upon them for the blood that they had shed in the land, for the idols with which they had defiled it. I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries. In accordance with their ways and their deeds I judged them. But when they came to the nations, wherever they came, they profaned my holy name, in that people said of them, These are the people of the LORD, and yet they had to go out of his land. But I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations to which they came. Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations to which you came. And I will vindicate the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, and which you have profaned among them. And the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Lord GOD, when through you I vindicate my holiness before their eyes. I will take you from the nations and gather you from all the countries and bring you into your own land. I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules. You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. And I will deliver you from all your uncleannesses. And I will summon the grain and make it abundant and lay no famine upon you. (ESV)

> Leviticus 18:24-25 - Do not make yourselves unclean by any of these things, for by all these the nations I am driving out before you have become unclean, and the land became unclean, so that I punished its iniquity, and the land vomited out its inhabitants. (ESV)

7585. sheol Definition: underworld (place to which people descend at death).

86. hadés Definition: Hades, the abode of departed spirits. Usage: Hades, the unseen world.

> Psalms 9:17 - The wicked shall return to Sheol, all the nations that forget God. (ESV)

Any person who is experiencing tribulation/torment for wrongdoing would not be experiencing the Kingdom of God on earth, but they may still go to heaven at the final judgment if they end up putting their trust in Jesus Christ:

> Romans 2:6-11 - He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There > will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:8-13 - We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

> II Peter 2:2-11 - And many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of truth will be blasphemed. And in their greed they will exploit you with false words. Their condemnation from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep. For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to chains of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment; if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; and if he rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked (for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority. Bold and willful, they do not tremble as they blaspheme the glorious ones, whereas angels, though greater in might and power, do not pronounce a blasphemous judgment against them before the Lord. (ESV)

This makes it it quite clear that we must be law-abiding:

> Matthew 13:38-42 - The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers (G4160 poiountas 3588 tēn G458 anomian; practicing lawlessness), and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (ESV)

The bad part of Sheol/Hades is for those who do evil deeds, possibly including believers who do not repent/turn away from sin to start serving Jesus:

> Luke 16:22-31 - The poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried, and in Hades, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. And he called out, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in anguish in this flame. But Abraham said, Child, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner bad things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in anguish. And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, in order that those who would pass from here to you may not be able, and none may cross from there to us. And he said, Then I beg you, father, to send him to my father's house— for I have five brothers—so that he may warn them, lest they also come into this place of torment. But Abraham said, They have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them. And he said, No, father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent. He said to him, If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone should rise from the dead. (ESV) youtube.com: Judgment Is Coming For Those Who Distort Scripture @time: 2 min 5 sec God is love. Everything he does is out of love. So you have to look at judgment in the light of love, and you have to look at a person's long-term, not short-term, benefit. Because God's always interested in the eternal. He's put eternity in our hearts, and when we look at the length of this life, Arden, it is a blip, a blip on the screen, compared to eternity. And so God is always speaking to us in regard to our eternal benefit, not our temporary.

> I John 2:19 - They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us. But they went out, that it might become plain that they all are not of us. (ESV)

Unrighteous people remain locked up here until judgement:

> II Peter 2:5-10 - if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; and if he rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked (for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority. Bold and willful, they do not tremble as they blaspheme the glorious ones, (ESV)

> Jude 1:4-21 - For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day— just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire. Yet in like manner these people also, relying on their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority, and blaspheme the glorious ones. But when the archangel Michael, contending with the devil, was disputing about the body of Moses, he did not presume to pronounce a blasphemous judgment, but said, The Lord rebuke you. But these people blaspheme all that they do not understand, and they are destroyed by all that they, like unreasoning animals, understand instinctively. Woe to them! For they walked in the way of Cain and abandoned themselves for the sake of gain to Balaam's error and perished in Korah's rebellion. These are blemishes on your love feasts, as they feast with you without fear, looking after themselves; waterless clouds, swept along by winds; fruitless trees in late autumn, twice dead, uprooted; wild waves of the sea, casting up the foam of their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved forever. It was also about these that Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, Behold, the Lord came with ten thousands of his holy ones, to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against him. These are grumblers, malcontents, following their own sinful desires; they are loud-mouthed boasters, showing favoritism to gain advantage. But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. They said to you, In the last time there will be scoffers, following their own ungodly passions. It is these who cause divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit; keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. (ESV)

See how God allows certain things to happen, such as in this case Father God allowed Pilate to have a certain type of authority over Jesus in this particular situation at this time. But Pilate still committed sin with this authority that he had. Having authority isn't the same thing as doing a deed. So having authority from God isn't license to do whatever you want. But a person who is given authority from God still has a duty to fear God and keep His commandments:

> John 19:11 - Jesus answered him, You would have no authority over me at all unless it had been given you from above. Therefore he who delivered me over to you has the greater sin. (ESV)

If a person rejects Jesus in this life and dies, then from what Jesus has said here, they wont repent:

> Luke 16:30-31 - And he said, No, father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent. He said to him, If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone should rise from the dead. (ESV)

But the ones who hear the voice of God and trust in Jesus will certainly be spared from the Lake of Fire at the judgement.

> John 5:24 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (ESV)

76.3.10 The believers who have embraced repentance from sin and sanctification while on earth

Believers who have obeyed the gospel and are living to serve Christ will enter the Kingdom of God while on Earth and inherit eternal life and not experience the place of torment in Hades, but go straight to heaven.

> Romans 2:6-11 - He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

76.3.11 Those who are not repentant from sin, and who do not trust Jesus (do not want to be saved) will go to the second death, the Lake of Fire

> Luke 5:31-32 - And Jesus answered them, Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. (ESV)

Paul here is repentant from the heart (like Paul we must be repentant, we have to receive the love of the truth). He wants to do good (he has an obedient heart, a heart that loves God and loves Jesus Christ and loves what God has done, and loves God's Law) but indwelling sin is an issue and he's doing battle against sin:

> Romans 7:19-20 - For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. (ESV)

Those who do not ultimately repent from serving/practicing sin who also distrust Jesus (they do not want to do the will of God) will go to the lake of fire:

> Revelation of John 21:5-8 - And he who was seated on the throne said, Behold, I am making all things new. Also he said, Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true. And he said to me, It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give from the spring of the water of life without payment. The one who conquers will have this heritage, and I will be his God and he will be my son. But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 20:14-15 - Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 20:9-10 - And they marched up over the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city, but fire came down from heaven and consumed them, and the devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur where the beast and the false prophet were, and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 14:11 - And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever, and they have no rest, day or night, these worshipers of the beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark of its name. (ESV)

77 Jesus Christ is Lord! :)

The Only True God is the God and Father of Jesus Christ, and Jesus Christ who He Sent.

> John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

We serve the Most High God, Jehovah and Jesus Christ who He has sent:

> I Corinthians 8:5-7 - For although there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth — as indeed there are many gods and many lords — yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist. However, not all possess this knowledge. But some, through former association with idols, eat food as really offered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 10:17 - For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who is not partial and takes no bribe. (ESV)

What I believe is that everything that is in the 'made' category has been created through Jesus (Yeshua) by Jehovah (Yahweh) God. Jesus Christ was not made. He was there with Jehovah in the beginning. He is the Word of God. Jesus is God the Son:

> John 1:1-3 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. (ESV)

> Colossians 1:15 - He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. (ESV)

> Jude 1:25 - to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen. (ESV)

> Psalms 49:7-9,15 - Truly no man can ransom another, or give to God the price of his life, for the ransom of their life is costly and can never suffice, that he should live on forever and never see the pit. But God will ransom my soul from the power of Sheol, for he will receive me. Selah (ESV)

> John 3:33-34 - Whoever receives his testimony sets his seal to this, that God is true. For he whom God has sent utters the words of God, for he gives the Spirit without measure. (ESV)

> Ephesians 3:20-21 - Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

> I Chronicles 29:11 - Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and you are exalted as head above all. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 19:1 - After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, crying out, Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, (ESV)
>
> I Timothy 6:15-16 - which he will display at the proper time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 17:14 - They will make war on the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them, for he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with him are called and chosen and faithful. (ESV)
>
> I Timothy 1:17 - To the King of ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Jesus Christ (God the Son) currently has all authority in heaven and earth:

> Matthew 28:18 - And Jesus came and said to them, All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. (ESV)

Fellow heirs with Christ are still in subjection to Christ. Fellow heirs with Christ have Christ as their King and Lord and Saviour and God and Jehovah as their God.

Christ is reigning until all things are subjected to Him. We must come under the Lordship of Christ Jesus. I consider any so-called god which is in rebellion to Christ to be a demon:

> I Corinthians 15:25-28 - For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For God has put all things in subjection under his feet. But when it says, all things are put in subjection, it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under him. When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things in subjection under him, that God may be all in all. (ESV)
>
> Daniel 7:13-14 - I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him. And to him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed. (ESV)

Jesus Christ has total dominion:

> I Peter 4:11 - whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)
>
> Acts 2:36 - Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord (G2962 kurios) and Christ (G5547 Christos), this Jesus whom you crucified. (ESV)

```
kurios: Lord, master, owner
Original Word:
Part of Speech: Noun, Masculine Transliteration: kurios
Pronunciation: koo'-ree-os
Phonetic Spelling: (koo'-ree-os)
Definition: Lord, master, owner
Meaning: lord, master, sir; the Lord.
```

```
Christos: Christ, Anointed One, Messiah
Original Word: X
Part of Speech: Noun, Masculine Transliteration: Christos
Pronunciation: khris-TOS
Phonetic Spelling: (khris-tos')
Definition: Christ, Anointed One, Messiah
Meaning: Anointed One; the Messiah, the Christ.
```

77.1 Inheriting the Kingdom: The Bible says the ones who are co-heirs with Christ are the ones who suffer with Him

So let’s imagine imagine Peter just looking at Jesus on the sea and by faith obeying Jesus to come to him, but Peter not even being aware that he is standing on water because he’s so fixated on Jesus. That’s how it should be with us where we ”do not let our left hand know what our right hand is doing”, where we don’t focus on the visible results, but rather we focus on by faith obeying Jesus. Just by faith obey Jesus and focus on Jesus. Come to Jesus. As soon as Peter took his eyes off Jesus and onto the wind (maybe focusing on the results, such as, if he is floating, rather than on Jesus), rather than by faith obeying Jesus, he started sinking:

> Matthew 14:28-29 - And Peter answered him, Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water. He said, Come. So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. (ESV)

To inherit the Kingdom, we must be sanctified (I Corinthians 6:9-12), and that sanctification involves exercising Christ’s love and it involves putting on incorruption. It involves sanctification, and putting a stop to sin.

> I Corinthians 15:50-55 - I tell you this, brothers: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting? (ESV)

The righteous here are shown to be ”doers” of the law in the heart and that they don’t recall when they ”[physically] saw Jesus hungry and fed him, thirsty and give him drink”, but Jesus says they did, so they must have. This shows that they were not justifying themselves, but rather that God noticed that they were doers of his will and He commended them. They must have simply been led by the Spirit, practicing their righteousness, loving the Truth, (perhaps giving alms out of obeying Jesus by faith), and they served Jesus perhaps without knowing it, but God noticed. This person innocently asks, ”When did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink?” They would’ve been doing Christ’s commandments, though, by faith obeying from the heart. And so it’s not the exterior success which a person might see themselves, but God sees the heart and God also sees the outcome of the faithful obedience and the impact it has on others. The truly obedient person (God sees the heart and sees everything) might even not be sure of when they did these specific things for Jesus. But God sees.

Just be obeying Jesus by faith sincerely from the heart and walk by faith and not sight, not focusing on the visible results, but rather seeking to please God who seeks your heart and intentions:

> Matthew 25:33-37 - And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me. Then the righteous will answer him, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? (ESV)

> Hebrews 13:2 - Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 25:40-43 - And the King will answer them, Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me. Then he will say to those on his left, Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 6:1-4 - Beware of practicing your righteousness before other people in order to be seen by them, for then you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven. Thus, when you give to the needy, sound no trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be praised by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. (ESV)

It's persecution for righteousness' sake:

> Matthew 5:10 - Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:16-17 - The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)
>
> I Peter 4:12-19 - Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. But let none of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler. Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And If the righteous is scarcely saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner? Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)
>
> John 15:20 - Remember the word that I said to you: A servant is not greater than his master. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours. (ESV)

When we talk about 'merit' or 'credit', we were enabled to even be able to have merit in suffering for righteousness sake because Jesus bore our sins on the tree that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. 'Live to righteousness' means walking in the light, walking in love and truth, practicing works that please God, making spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. I Corinthians 13:1-8 says that without love (love that rejoices with the truth) we gain nothing. God loved us first and has chosen us to be a holy people for His possession, and we can now make spiritual sacrficies which God finds acceptable through Jesus Christ our Lord who we are holding faith in and who has loved us first, laying down His life for us first:

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:4-5 - As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Jesus is not ashamed to call brothers [and sisters] those who are cleaned up and sanctified through obedience to Jesus' gospel:

> Hebrews 2:11 - For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, (ESV)

> John 8:47 - Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 1:2 - To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: (ESV)

77.2 The Bible does not say we are kings - it says we are royalty - a royal priesthood for His possession

> Revelation of John 1:5 - and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and released us from our sins by His blood–(NASB)

> Revelation of John 1:5 (Interlinear) - and from Jesus Christ the witness - faithful the firstborn of the dead and the ruler of the kings of the earth To the [One] loving us and releasing us from the sins of us through the blood of Him (Interlinear - biblehub.com)

```
2532 575  2424  5547      3588    3144
kai  apo  Iēsou Christou  ho      martys
           X    ,
and  from Jesus Christ    the     witness
Conj Prep N-GMS N-GMS     Art-NMS N-NMS

3588    4103      3588    4416       3588    3498 ho      pistos    ho      prōtotokos tōn     nekrōn
             ,
 -      faithful  the     firstborn  of the  dead
Art-NMS Adj-NMS   Art-NMS Adj-NMS    Art-GMP Adj-GMP

2532 3588    758    3588    935      3588 kai  ho      archōn tōn     basileōn tēs and  the     ruler  of the  kings    of the Conj Art-NMS N-NMS  Art-GMP N-GMP    Art-GFS

1093   3588         25         1473     2532
```

```
gēs    Tō           agapōnti  hēmas    kai
    . T earth  To the [One] loving    us       and N-GFS  Art-DMS      V-PPA-DMS PPro-A1P Conj

3089      1473     1537 3588    266
lysanti   hēmas    ek   tōn     hamartiōn releasing us       from the     sins

V-APA-DMS PPro-A1P Prep Art-GFP N-GFP

1473     1722    3588    129     846
hēmōn    en      tō      haimati autou
                                -
of us    through the     blood   of Him
PPro-G1P Prep    Art-DNS N-DNS   PPro-GM3S
```

I Peter 2:9 - But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (ESV)

I Peter 2:9 (Interlinear) - You however [are] a race chosen a royal priesthood a nation holy a people for [His] possession so that the excellencies you may proclaim of the [One] out of darkness you having called to the marvelous of Him light (Interlinear - biblehub.com)

```
4771     1161    1085         1588       934
Hymeis   de      genos        eklekton   basileion
                              ,
You      however [are] a race chosen     a royal
PPro-N2P Conj    N-NNS        Adj-NNS    Adj-NNS

2406         1484     40       2992     1519 hierateuma   ethnos   hagion   laos     eis
       ,            ,
priesthood   a nation holy     a people for [His]
N-NNS        N-NNS    Adj-NNS  N-NMS    Prep

4047          3704    3588     703 peripoiēsin   hopōs   tas      aretas
       ,
possession    so that the      excellencies
N-AFS         Conj    Art-AFP  N-AFP

1804            3588         1537   4655
exangeilēte     tou          ek     skotous

you may proclaim of the [One] out of darkness
V-ASA-2P        Art-GMS      Prep   N-GNS

4771     2564          1519 3588    2298
hymas    kalesantos    eis  to      thaumaston
              ,
you      having called to   the     marvelous
PPro-A2P V-APA-GMS     Prep Art-ANS Adj-ANS
```

```

846       5457
autou     phōs
            ,
of Him    light
PPro-GM3S N-ANS
```

youtube.com: Pope Leo XIV {@EWTNcatholictv} A bishop is not supposed to be a little prince sitting in his kingdom, but rather called authentically to be humble, to be close to the people he serves, to walk with them, to suffer with them, and to look for ways that he can better live the gospel message in the midst of his people.

Being a saint (trusting, faithful, obedient Christians who endure while keeping the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus):

> Revelation of John 14:12 - Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.

Quote by Charles Spurgeon All are ”saints” whom God has called by His grace and sanctified by His Spirit;

Jesus is not ashamed to call brothers [and sisters] those who are cleaned up and sanctified through obedience to Jesus' gospel:

> Hebrews 2:11 - For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, (ESV)
>
> John 8:47 - Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 1:2 - To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: (ESV)

There is a promise for the saints who conquer and keep Jesus' teachings to the end - authority over the nations:

> Revelation of John 2:25-29 - Only hold fast what you have until I come. The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron, as when earthen pots are broken in pieces, even as I myself have received authority from my Father. And I will give him the morning star. He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. (ESV)
>
> II Timothy 2:12 - if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; (ESV)

Conquerors should not let sin reign in their mortal bodies:

> Romans 7:11-14 - So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 3:18-21 - I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, so that you may be rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness may not be seen, and salve to anoint your eyes, so that you may see. Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline, so be zealous and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me. The one who conquers, I will grant him to sit with me on my throne, as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne. (ESV)

78 AMEN!!

Sermon youtube.com: There's Only One Acceptable Motive To Serve God

The motivation for everything must be to glorify God.

78.1 Do the will of the Father - obey Jesus. It's not just the red letters either. We must keep God's commandments. AMEN!!

There's a lot in the Bible to explain what is the revealed will of God:

Read videobible.com: 105 Scripture on God's Will - Video Bible

Watch youtube.com: The most terrifying passage in the Bible | Matthew 7:21-23

> Luke 8:21 - But He answered and said to them, "My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it." (ESV)

> Matthew 12:48-50 - But he replied to the man who told him, Who is my mother, and who are my brothers? And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, Here are my mother and my brothers! For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother. (ESV)

Paul agrees:

> Philippians 4:9 - What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me — practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you. (ESV)

Walk as an imitator of Christ:

> Philippians 3:17-18 - Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. (ESV)

I believe that in I Cor 11:1 Paul is asking those who imitate him to imitate him in imitating Christ. He actually commends his own followers for maintaining the traditions that he handed to them, but makes it clear to them that not only is he himself following Christ, seeking to imitate Christ, but that the head of every man is Christ:

- I Corinthians 10:32-33 - Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1-3 - Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ. Now I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I delivered them to you. But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1 (Interlinear) - Imitators (G3402 Mimētai) of me (G1473 mou) be (G1096 ginesthe) as (G2531 kathōs) I also [am] (G2504 kagō) of Christ (G5547 Christou)

> Romans 14:4-6 - Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand. One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. (ESV)

> Romans 14:14-18 - I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean. For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died. So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil. For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

Do not be an enemy of the cross of Christ, submit to the righteousness of God - we needed Jehovah God, Father of Jesus Christ, to pay for our sin - and we must imitate Christ, passing forward Christ's love and forgiving as we have been forgiven, and repenting from sin:

> Hebrews 13:7 - Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. (ESV)

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

> John 3:19 - This is the judgment, that the Light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the Light, for their deeds were evil. (ESV)

It's obedience which leads to righteousness, even the righteousness of faith:

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

> Romans 4:12-13 - and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised. For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith.

78.1.1 Obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus

> II Thessalonians 1:4-8 - Therefore we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions that you are enduring. This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering — since indeed God considers it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you, and to grant relief to you who are afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. (ESV)

False obedience is where there is no love for God in the heart:

> Psalms 81:15 - Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever. (engbsb2020eb)

Real Christian obedience is where there is love of the truth in the heart:

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

78.1.2 A heart of belief and obedience is the start of faith

> John 7:17 - If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. (ESV)

Believing Father God Jehovah, loving Him, obeying His commandments, loving and obeying Jesus Christ His son, all must be true together, even to have a sound definition of what love is:

> I John 5:1-3 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me.

> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

The fear of God helps us to obey Him. God please forgive us:

> Jeremiah 32:40 - I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves (G1438 heautou) from all (G3956 pas) defilement of flesh (G4561 sarx) and spirit (G4151 pneuma), perfecting holiness in the fear of God (G2316 theos).

> Proverbs 9:10 - The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight. (ESV)

Fear of God is not only about having the heart to repent from sin and "beat hand on chest and ask God for mercy", but it is also having a changed heart, endeavoring to please Christ with our actions:

> II Corinthians 5:6-11 - So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 7:10 - For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret, whereas worldly grief produces death. (ESV)

78.2 For one's work to stand the test of fire

It should be:

- For God's Glory. Amen. All glory to God, not to me
- In obedience to the Word of God
- Working in the power of the Holy Spirit

God's telephone number	The password
Jeremiah 33:3 - Call to me and I will answer you, and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known. (ESV)	Psalms 100:4 - Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name! (ESV)

Medley youtube.com: God And God Alone {Gospel Medley}

Medley youtube.com: Holy Are You Lord Medley | Jesus Image

Song youtube.com: All Honor {Consuming Fire} | Jesus Image

Song youtube.com: Praise {feat. Brandon Lake, Chris Brown & Chandler Moore} | Elevation Worship

youtube.com: Hillsong - Saviour King 2007 Life began for me in just the realisation that there is the absolute truth, and that is a Person, Jesus, and knowing Him - knowing the Christ - is knowing the hands that created me. The thing is, I've known what it is to live without truth, and then to be living in truth, and it's a difference between being bound, and then living in absolute freedom. Like I just think about the grace of God, just His grace, undeserved for me, bought at the highest price and I think in that understanding alone there's no option but to give Him everything I have. That is the only possible response.

> Isaiah 64:4 - From of old no one has heard or perceived by the ear, no eye has seen a God besides you, who acts for those who wait for him. (ESV)

> Acts 5:39 - but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You might even be found opposing God! So they took his advice, (ESV)

78.3 Please help me by repenting, forgiving your family in Christ, and imitating Christ

- I forgive everyone.
- I hold no grudges.
- But I'm fighting a spiritual battle right now, and I'm going to speak the truth as best as I can.

> I Corinthians 13:6 - it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. (ESV)

Forgive one another in Christ and be obedient, and hold no grudge for those in darkness, but try to be the light of the world to them, show them the love of God and the truth of God. Be obedient to Christ in everything that we are not outwitted by Satan:

> II Corinthians 2:5-11 - Now if anyone has caused pain, he has caused it not to me, but in some measure—not to put it too severely—to all of you. For such a one, this punishment by the majority is enough, so you should rather turn to forgive and comfort him, or he may be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. So I beg you to reaffirm your love for him. For this is why I wrote, that I might test you and know whether you are obedient in everything. Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ, so that we would not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs. (ESV)

I am really sorry for any hurt I have been the cause of to anyone, and making frustrated prayers to God, like Job did, except for many reasons I deserve the tribulation which I have faced.

Please, God, forgive us for our blind spots and errors and continue to sanctify us.

I forgive everyone <2024-07-24 Wed>.

Please, God, continue to sanctify us.

78.4 Gospel

Amen youtube.com: The Holy Spirit took over my preaching in Las Vegas and left me in awe and trembling

We are delivered from this evil age:

> Galatians 1:3-5 - Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

God is our deliverer from this generation (Consider if you were stuck in Sodom and wanted to escape - God can make that happen. God can pull a person out of the sinful generation):

> Acts 2:40 - And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation. (ESV)

As we trust and obey Him:

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

> II Peter 2:20-21 - For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.

> Psalms 18:1-2 - I love you, O LORD, my strength. To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who addressed the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD rescued him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said: The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. (ESV)

This is the gospel (at least these are crucial aspects of the gospel): God sent His Son into the world in order that by faith in Him, Jesus Christ including His words, we can come to know Him (through keeping His commandments, and having faith in the teachings and prophetic writings about Him) and having faith in Him crucified. Not Jesus Christ's commandments minus Him crucified. Not Jesus Christ crucified minus His commandments:

> I Corinthians 2:2 - For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 4:2 - You shall not add to the word that I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God that I command you. (ESV)

If we keep Jesus' commandments and love our family in Christ, God all things will work together for our good:

> Romans 8:28 - And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. (ESV)

And John says by this we know him that we have come to know Him that we keep his commandments. So it's knowing Jesus and Him crucified. Both of these.

> Isaiah 53:4-10 - Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD (H3068. Yhvh - Phonetic Spelling: (yeh-ho-vaw'), Often pronounced: Yahweh or Jehovah) has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he opened not his mouth. By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people? And they made his grave with the wicked and with a rich man in his death, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him; he has put him to grief; when his soul makes an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring; he shall prolong his days; the will of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 4:2 - You shall not add to the word that I command you, nor take from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God that I command you. (ESV)

We must continue on in Jesus Christ's teachings (II John 1:9). We must continue on abiding in the love of God (John 15:6, John 15:9-10). So we must take into consideration all that the Apostle Paul wrote (John 15:20), but most importantly, take into consideration all of Jesus Christ's recorded sayings (John 12:48). Not just Christ's death and resurrection, but Christ Himself (I Corinthians 2:2). Not just propitiation for our sin but the rest of Christ's recorded teachings. I've included lots of Jesus' commandments and teachings in this document:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:3-8 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. (ESV)

> Titus 2:11-15 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. Declare these things; exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you. (ESV)

We must follow Jesus Christ's commandments to arrive at the knowledge of God. The devil tries to stop us from doing this:

> II Corinthians 10:5-6 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)

> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

The word "end" here in Romans 10:4 doesn't mean abolishment. It means more like "ultimate" or "fulfillment" or in context I think it means "final say" or even "foundation" or "cornerstone". So for those who have an agape-loving faith in Jesus Christ, a treasuring for the truth of the gospel, the free gift of righteousness that comes from God ultimately has the final say in judgement. In other words, the righteousness that is not of themselves but which is a free gift through faith in Christ based on His work alone has the ultimate say and also is the foundation for any other righteousness of a believer, such as persecution for the cross of Christ, and if all other righteousness fails, there is still no condemnation.

> Romans 10:4 - For Christ is the end (G5056 telos) of the law (G3551 nomos) for righteousness (G1343 dikaiosune) to everyone who believes (G4100 pisteuo, trusts). (ESV)

> Romans 10:11-15 - For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. But how are they to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news! (ESV)

> John 8:24 - I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins. (ESV)

The true gospel which we should be preaching so as to not be accursed is the gospel the Apostle Paul preached where we are supposed to have faith in Christ, hold fast in that faith as we are being saved, serve Christ, obey Christ and be strengthened by Christ, Christ who's blood was shed for us, Christ who died for our sins on a tree and rose again from the dead. The true gospel is the one where there is a day where God judges our hearts through Jesus Christ and disciplines us in advance of final judgement so that we are not condemned along with the people of the world who fail to receive the love of the truth in hearts so as to be saved, the world who loves darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil.

How do we receive grace? How do we receive Jesus Christ? Just the way He's told us:

> Matthew 10:40 - Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. (ESV)

> Matthew 18:5 - Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, (ESV)

> Luke 9:48 - and said to them, Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For he who is least among you all is the one who is great. (ESV)

> John 1:12-13 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:8-9 - Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, the offspring of David, as preached in my gospel, for which I am suffering, bound with chains as a criminal. But the word of God is not bound! (ESV)

There are various means of grace by which we receive Jesus Christ through faith and obedience to Him. I believe that baptism, the eucharist (the Lord's supper / communion), doing as the good Samaritan did, keeping Christ's commandments are all means of grace.

> John 6:57 - As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. (ESV)

Like the bedrock of a house strengthens the foundations of the house which strengthens the remainder of the house, the cornerstone (faith alone in Jesus Christ's blood, death and resurrection) strengthens the foundations (laid while practicing Jesus' commandments) which strengthens the rest of the house, the house that is the eternal dwelling that I believe God builds for those who practice Jesus' commandments. A person has a strong eternal dwelling built for them as they keep Jesus' commandments and the cornerstone is their faith in Jesus Christ and His blood.

> Romans 16:17-27 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you; so do Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen. I Tertius, who wrote this letter, greet you in the Lord. Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus, greet you. Now to him who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith— to the only wise God be glory forevermore through Jesus Christ! Amen. (ESV)

Journal <2025-05-26 Mon> I don't want to be in this world. But I'm saved in a sense. I've come to a knowledge of the Truth. Though there is a salvation I wait for, waiting for Jesus to come and take me home. I hate being in this world, so incredibly much, especially with satan attacking my mind, and my relationships. I've prayed ceaselessly for deliverance. Haven't been delivered yet. But this morning <2025-05-26 Mon> I found that, during the siege against my mind trying to take my thoughts way from Christ, as I focused on thinking about Jesus including about obeying Him, but just singing worship music in my head (I was thinking Jesus, lover of my soul... I will never let You go), the attack against my soul (spirit spouse stuff) temporarily subsided. Though I feel like my spiritual health is depleted. Now I just have to get through the rest of my time here in this evil age (somehow) before Jesus comes to get me. God help me.

The devil works to stop us Christians from taking every though captive for obedience to Christ. Much of the spiritual attack comes from people to "stop striving to obey Jesus" and to 'rest'. Only the devil dissuade people from obeying Christ:

> Luke 8:12 - The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. (ESV)
>
> Romans 16:17-20 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

Those who keep Jesus' word, also keep the word of the direct Apostles of Jesus such as Peter, John and Paul:

> John 15:20 - Remember the word that I said to you: A servant is not greater than his master. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours. (ESV)

It's faith in God through faith in Jesus Christ, the same Jesus Christ who atoned for our sin. We go from serving sin to serving God through serving Jesus:

> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)

We must keep ourselves in the love of God. We must not deny Jesus Christ by word or works:

> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)
>
> II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)
>
> Jude 1:20-21 - But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit; keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. (ESV)

We must gather with Jesus and agree with the Holy Spirit with hope of eternal life:

> Matthew 12:30 - Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 12:32 - And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. (ESV)
>
> Mark 10:29-30 - Jesus said, Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life. (ESV)

Having tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, and shared in the Holy Spirit, don't go back to sin:

> Hebrews 6:4-6 - For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, if they then fall away, since they are crucifying once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt. (ESV)

youtube.com: I Need You More - Mark Barlow, REVERE {@REVERElive} 'Cause I never want to go back to my old life; I need You more; More than yesterday; I need You more; More than words can say; I need You more; Than ever before; I need You, Lord

```
Dear Heavenly Father, and my LORD Jesus Christ and Holy Spirit,
Jehovah, Almighty God,
God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob,
Lord Jesus Christ, please rescue me.
I need You to rescue me, LORD God.
Rescue me in Jesus Christ's name.
Deliver me from this evil age which Jesus gave Himself to deliver me from.
That is the gospel, don't let me down.
AMEN!!
```

78.4.1 Journal entry <2025-06-17 Tue>

I think it's really important to stick to my conviction regarding waiting for the promised voice of the Holy Spirit and the testimony of Jesus Christ from the Holy Spirit in my heart.

I don't want to bear false testimony about Jesus or His gospel, and so I want to be guided by a Spirit which testifies of Jesus. I'm resisting being goaded by spirits which do not confess sufficiently the facts about Jesus Christ, facts such as that He has come from God in the flesh, and before trusting some dream/vision/voice which I hear, I'm holding out for Scriptural confirmation that the Spirit speaking to me comes from God.

I John 2:22-23 - Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. (ESV)

I John 4:1-3 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

John 14:26 - But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. (ESV)

Acts 1:4 - And while staying with them he ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, you heard from me; (ESV)

Acts 1:8 - But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth. (ESV)

John 15:26-27 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. And you also will bear witness, because you have been with me from the beginning. (ESV)

John 16:7-16 - Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: concerning sin, because they do not believe in me; concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will see me no longer; concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged. I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you. A little while, and you will see me no longer; and again a little while, and you will see me. (ESV)

Galatians 4:6 - And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! (ESV)

I John 1:1-3 - That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we looked upon and have touched with our hands, concerning the word of life— the life was made manifest, and we have seen it, and testify to it and proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was made manifest to us— that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. (ESV)

I Corinthians 1:9 - God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. (ESV)

Revelation of John 3:20 - Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me. (ESV)

John 14:23 - Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. (ESV)

AMEN!!

Zechariah 2:10 - Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion, for behold, I come and I will dwell in your midst, declares the LORD. (ESV)

Matthew 18:20 - For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them. (ESV)

John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

John 15:4-7 - Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (ESV)

Read divineoffice.org: Divine Office - Liturgy of the Hours of the Roman Catholic Church {Breviary}

Galatians 2:16 - yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified. (ESV)

Lord, listen to my prayer:
turn your ear to my appeal.
You are faithful, you are just; give answer.
Do not call your servant to judgment for no one is just in your sight.

The enemy pursues my soul;
he has crushed my life to the ground;
he has made me dwell in darkness like the dead, long forgotten.
Therefore my spirit fails;
my heart is numb within me.

I remember the days that are past:
I ponder all your works.
I muse on what your hand has wrought and to you I stretch out my hands.
Like a parched land my soul thirsts for you.

Lord, make haste and answer;
for my spirit fails within me.
Do not hide your face
lest I become like those in the grave.

```
In the morning let me know your love for I put my trust in you.
Make me know the way I should walk:
to you I lift up my soul.

Rescue me, Lord, from my enemies;
I have fled to you for refuge.
Teach me to do your will for you, O Lord, are my God.
Let your good spirit guide me in ways that are level and smooth.

For your name’s sake, Lord, save my life;
in your justice save my soul from distress.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
- as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
```

78.4.2 Journal entry <2025-06-22 Sun>

youtube.com: The Strongest Case for Protestantism | @TruthUnites {@GospelSimplicity} @time: 21 mi

> I sometimes think the ecclesial journey really needs to be met by just simple abiding in Jesus, and the experiential and existential reality of union and communion with Christ, and allowing for what our puritan forefathers spoke about as the testimony of the Holy Spirit to the heart, the touch. And so let me explain my theology of that, hoping this could encourage someone out there. I really believe the Holy Spirit has a ministry of assurance, and I never would have guessed would have guessed that the word assurance would be one of the terms that would be a whole tagline for what I’m trying to do in my ministry. But I actually think assurance is, number one it’s possible, number two it’s good. If someone pulls up Bible Gateway and does a search for the word ’assurance’, they’ll find that word a lot, even in the definition of faith in Hebrews 11, 1 John 3 some wonderful words about how we reassure ourselves. I think assurance is a good thing and I just want to encourage people who are listening to this is a point our Catholic and Orthodox wonderful friends can agree with to a large degree. The Holy Spirit is in the business of the ministry of assurance. He is capable of supernaturally breathing, think of Aslan breathing on the stone statues and Narnia and they come to life, He can do that to any human heart. Just as much as the ministry of Christ through His resurrection is this objective reality. The Holy Spirit, He’s the most wonderful person to know. He can breathe on your heart and reassure you of the love of God, that you’re a child of God. Romans 8, the spirit testifies with our spirit so that we know we are children of God.

Amen!! I’m waiting for this ”Holy Spirit to my spirit” testimony and the promised testimony of Jesus.

> Romans 8:16-18 - The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. (ESV)

78.4.3 Anti-gospel

We must not pervert the grace of God. And we must not pervert the gospel of God into one which rejects God’s authority over us:

> Jude 1:4-19 - For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not > believe. And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day— just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire. Yet in like manner these people also, relying on their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority, and blaspheme the glorious ones. But when the archangel Michael, contending with the devil, was disputing about the body of Moses, he did not presume to pronounce a blasphemous judgment, but said, The Lord rebuke you. But these people blaspheme all that they do not understand, and they are destroyed by all that they, like unreasoning animals, understand instinctively. Woe to them! For they walked in the way of Cain and abandoned themselves for the sake of gain to Balaam's error and perished in Korah's rebellion. These are blemishes on your love feasts, as they feast with you without fear, looking after themselves; waterless clouds, swept along by winds; fruitless trees in late autumn, twice dead, uprooted; wild waves of the sea, casting up the foam of their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved forever. It was also about these that Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, Behold, the Lord came with ten thousands of his holy ones, to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against him. These are grumblers, malcontents, following their own sinful desires; they are loud-mouthed boasters, showing favoritism to gain advantage. But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. They said to you, In the last time there will be scoffers, following their own ungodly passions. It is these who cause divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. (ESV)

78.4.4 Christ is a ransom to be offered to all

There is one God, one Mediator. We are called to take this message to the world. And we definitely should continue to do this:

> I Timothy 2:1-4 - First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. (ESV)

> I Timothy 2:5-7 - For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time. For this I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. (ESV)

78.4.5 Journal entry <2025-07-12 Sat>

When I was born-again of the spirit on 2 April 2022, God gave me a new heart which feared Him and was able to receive correction from Him. I didn't have all the answers. I didn't have great theology. But God would teach me. In other words, He would write His laws on my heart, and help me to abide in Christ's commandments.

I truly do despair of life as it is right now. Against my understanding, I have been terrorised by demons - being punished and tormented without knowing why. I've just been continually trying to understand why. And of course, satan has huge numbers of accusations and reasons which he tries to make be believe.

If I'm in the kingdom of God then I feel like a package moving around a busy sorting facility, constantly being tested and sorted, without end. I've felt constantly under constraint, deprived of sleep, woken up by demons - a messenger of Satan, I think. And it feels like in my soul, the body of sin, the flesh, is trying to usurp and kill the new creation, and the people around me also placing such unreasonable pressure on me to obey the flesh and to not live in the spirit.

> Romans 7:16-17 - Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. (ESV)

In other words, pressuring me to think like the world thinks, rather than to have the mind of Christ.

youtube.com: I Need You More - Mark Barlow, REVERE {@REVERElive} 'Cause I never want to go back to my old life; I need You more; More than yesterday; I need You more; More than words can say; I need You more; Than ever before; I need You, Lord

And where is the promised testimony of the Holy Spirit as I seek to keep Christ's commandments and abide in His teachings? (Sorry if I sounded disgruntled as I wrote that.)

I feel like I'm dying sometimes, dying spiritually, losing the fight against the enemy who attacks my soul and attacks me through people around me.

I want to be set free, as Jesus Christ promised for those who He sets free. I know Jesus bought me but sadly it seems He allowed me to be absolutely terrorised by demons.

Requiring employment/world's assets before marriage proposal is evil, as to require it puts man's kingdom above God's kingdom. Because to do so would be saying that people have to have what the world says qualifies a person before they have the right to what God freely gave us. It would be like telling a bird it's allowed to fly only if it can qualify as a human pilot. It would be like telling a person they don't have a right to become a child of God through faith in Jesus Christ. It would be like hating Jesus Christ, the Light of the world, so putting Him to death on a tree. Denying what is given to us as a right is anti-God.

> I Timothy 4:1-3 - Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons, through the insincerity of liars whose consciences are seared, who forbid marriage and require abstinence from foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. (ESV)

After getting a conviction, it really does seem to me that I've still received intense demonic oppression to prevent me from marrying and working. I think that I've had excessive satanic resistance to getting married or getting a job. Meanwhile, the whole world is embracing this AI stuff which greedy people are trying to normalise. They're trying to normalise theft, misrepresentation, etc. and get people to think and live with it and run the economy on top of it, but this stuff is detached from reality. What's being done to exploit people and suppress the true knowledge of God is evil. I don't want anything to do with crypto assets or AI stuff because I don't want blood on my hands. I tried to help people see what was coming with AI stealing software and tried to warn people and when it rolled around I got given a criminal conviction and deplatformed for a marriage proposal and for what I think were unlawful bail breach accusations. Well, the world no doubt hates me like it hated Jesus because I testify that it's works are evil as Jesus did:

> I Timothy 4:1-5 - Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons, through the insincerity of liars whose consciences are seared, who forbid marriage and require abstinence from foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, for it is made holy by the word of God and prayer. (ESV)

> John 7:7 - The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. (ESV)

Do I have the right to ask?

I don't think that the marriage proposal I made should have been treated as unlawful.

If it were decided that it was wrong for me to do so and if that set precedent then I see that future of not being able to propose marriage for fear of the terminator turning up at your doorstep as a dystopia. I tried to demonstrate that even an AI system can regurgitate an "ritual of engagement", which makes a genuine proposal something that people shouldn't snuff out. The future without the freedom to propose marriage sounds like a living hell. I wouldn't want to live in a world like that and I certainly don't plan on it.

I believe that to not be allowed to even propose to a person who is elligable is evil.

> I Timothy 4:1-3 - Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons, through the insincerity of liars whose consciences are seared, who forbid marriage and require abstinence from foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. (ESV)

I should be able to find out if someone is a believer. And I don't think it's wrong to propose even before finding out of they are a believer.

As far as I know there is no law against doing so.

> Romans 4:15 - For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:22-23 - But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. (ESV)

We have the right to take a believing wife, but that doesn't mean whoever we want. It doesn't mean we can't ask someone. I still think we have the right to propose. But we might not be allowed to marry them. That's the right way to understand it, I think.

This verbiage "take along" does sound like "lead about". So what Paul says he might be written more unambiguously as, "Are we not allowed to take around (bring) with us a wife who is a sister in Christ, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?" If that's the way it was meant, then that still implicitly does carry with it the idea that they are allowed to have a wife. But the passage doesn't necessarily speak about merely "becoming married" (i.e. the right to 'become married') but does seem to entail that idea too because if someone has the right to bring along or spend time with their wife then that presupposes that a state of marriage is something someone has the right to be in:

> I Corinthians 9:5 - Do we not have the right (G1849 exousian: authority [N-AFS]) to take along (G4013 periagein: to take about [V-PNA], to lead about with oneself) a believing (G79 adelphēn: a sister [N-AFS]. i.e. a sister in Christ) wife, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? (ESV)

See how it says that a person does not sin by taking a wife, even after they are called. But Paul says for those who marry after they are called there will be worldly troubles. And also, Paul points out that the present form of the world is passing away, so after we are called by God, we should really be anticipating the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ:

> I Corinthians 7:24-31 - So, brothers, in whatever condition each was called, there let him remain with God. Now concerning the betrothed, I have no command from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. I think that in view of the present distress it is good for a person to remain as he is. Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. But if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a betrothed woman marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that. This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. (ESV)

And marriage was instituted by God at the dawn of Creation. And anyone who is not God is not permitted to separate a marriage partner. And anyone who defiles the marriage bed would be judged. I would imagine that includes people who defile other people's marriages:

> Hebrews 13:4 - Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:15 - To give a human example, brothers: even with a man-made covenant, no one annuls it or adds to it once it has been ratified. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:4-9 - He answered, Have you not read that he who created them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh? So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate. They said to him, Why then did Moses command one to give a certificate of divorce and to send her away? He said to them, Because of your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery. (ESV)

Most of the trees in the Garden of Eden, Adam and Eve were freely allowed to eat. What is permissible. What is unhelpful? What are my freedoms?

I'm not under Mosaic Law. I'm not under man's tradition. I'm under Christ's Law and Grace and Truth came through Jesus Christ. All Christ's commandments are Grace and Truth! That means I'm under grace and under Christ's Law at the same time! (Isaiah 41:1-4, Romans 15:12, Matthew 12:19-21, Isaiah 11:10)

Under Christ's Law, I'm allowed to propose marriage if I'm doing it lawfully, receiving with thanksgiving, knowing the truth, while keeping God's Great Commandments, while holding faith in Jesus Christ, while following Jesus Christ, while keeping Christ's Law with a good conscience.

I can't claim total self-denial (in order to avoid risking any chance of causing others injury) with this one. So I can't claim perfect innocence (as Jesus Himself could).

I was simply told by a member of their family, "Any further contact (with them) is unlawful." If I told someone, "It's unlawful to talk to some person.", does that make it unlawful? Do they have that right to tell me what is lawful or not? I wanted to marry someone (and I don't think I'd told any of them at that stage), and I was told before revealing my desire that "any further contact with any member of their family was unlawful" (not from a police officer) at the time.

And I was born-again of the spirit. Was I born-again of the spirit after or before being told that any further contact is unlawful? Pretty sure it was after, but not certain, as didn't make a record. I was made into a new person. New creation. Then I made contact and proposed later in the year. I was born-again and simply became preoccupied with Jesus Christ and later that year I proposed. Even after being born-again, I was simply gutted at the thought of not hearing from her again. I was aware even after being born-again of the spirit (made new) that I was told before revealing my desire that "Any further contact is unlawful" by a member of their family. To not propose to her would feel like destroying something very pure.

Later, I proposed to her but I was taken to court over it. Anyway, at pleading guilty, I committed my way to the Lord Jesus Christ, and I felt like I wasn't allowed to move forward even after I committed my way.

> Psalms 37:5 - Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act. (ESV)

One court judge said I must have been baptised at midnight. The other court judge said "That is your opinion" in response to me saying that "Jesus is the Truth" in a letter to him. And he said that I'm not allowed to forgive. But I pleaded guilty effectively to harassment for exercising free speech (2 out of 3 of the brail breaches claims from my perspective were not lawful but I couldn't take the other side to trial because I didn't want to hurt her, rather I still had lots of joy over proposing, but as soon as court proceeding started, I truly didn't want to break the law. The bail breach claims from my perspective were unlawful. I had tried very carefully to not break bail while also not stopping doing what I was within my rights to freely do, and I didn't think what I was doing was evil. I didn't really know for certain it was her who was distressed, but I didn't want to cause her any distress. I had no fear over punishment at all. I didn't care about my own career. In fact, my old self died when I was born-again. To take them to trial would waste their time and money and it would not be exercising Christ's love if I were to take them to trial over it. The first bail breach was the only valid one from my memory. But the same time, it was graceless. I breach bail for asking, "Can I try ask again in a year?" after a police officer simply said, "The smartest thing I can do is just drop it", just after I had proposed marriage. Like the Terminator arriving at my door after having proposed to the love of my life. And so I broke bail the first time for asking again if I could ask in a year. I guess I have a human heart. Can I be taken to prison for that, proposing while under unreasonable constraint? Probably only by a system which is anti-human) and neither was I forcing someone to marry me, simply making an offer.

Now, in committing to that path of going my separate ways, I have had immense pressure from other people and through demonic dreams, to renege on that commitment.

I need God to set me free from satanic oppression over my life.

I feel like God would betray me to force me to find secular employment before having a wife. Why? Because I had put Jesus first before marriage. It feels like having to hold my breath and resist the urge to breath in 'dying' to that marriage proposal. And after doing so I would see it as purely evil to not allow me to move forward on that commitment to move forward. To hold me in this position would be like to not even allow a person to die while drowning at the bottom of the ocean, a person who was there in the first place because they didn't want to harm their neighbour.

Journal <2026-03-25 Wed> Received a large set of demonic dreams this morning which I will not repeat. Also, I have not received yet in the way of a dream or a spoken word to me, the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit.

I went online today to look for work and am depressed by the almost complete absence of jobs in the city where I reside (as promoted through one source), asides from one from a food company which I would rather not work for because it involves promoting very unhealthy food.

I found something else as I continued looking and applied for a job just then, not a job in promoting unhealthy food but as a sales person for a shop that sells hiking-related stuff. See, that's something I'd be happy to do. And I have applied for it.

I want to promote Jesus or promote the love of Jesus in good conscience. Is it too much for God to allow me to work where I feel good about the type of work I'm doing, rather than making me feign obedience to Him? Is it too much to ask for God to provide opportunity at all for me to be able to work to receive honest pay with a good conscience? Please, Yahweh, Father God, stop allowing me to be attacked by demons. Stop allowing Satan to attack me. I rebuke the Satanic oppression in Jesus Christ's name. For some reason I have been denied employment that aligns with my moral convictions. Please God help me.

Journal <2026-03-28 Sat> I received an email (not with any kind of explaination as to why, but that says I didn't get the job. No surprises there. But God knows that I've fulfilled my obligations and that I'm being persecuted and enduring this persecution while God Hisself withholds the testimony from Holy Spirit that Jesus Christ has promised. It's not easy to endure while God is withholding that which He promised.

We must be law-abiding (that is by God's law for us). Even as Christians, we have been given commandments to follow:

> I John 4:17-21 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

This makes it it quite clear that we must be law-abiding:

> Matthew 13:38-42 - The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers (G4160 poiountas 3588 tēn G458 anomian; practicing lawlessness), and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (ESV)

Having a fear of law enforcement is only something we should have if we have evil conduct. We are not called to fear law enforcers and so long as we are keeping God's commandments for us, we should have no fear even of ”going to jail”, but we should have a fear of God and be doing our best to keep God’s commandments for us and maintain a good conscience with God. If a person is actually obeying God faithfully (loving God) but breaks man’s laws as they do so then it would not be wrong to have no fear of man, even of punishment, or prison-time.

> Psalms 56:11 - in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can man do to me? (ESV)

> I John 4:18 - There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. (ESV)

> Romans 13:3-5 - For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, for he is God’s servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is the servant of God, an avenger who carries out God’s wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be in subjection, not only to avoid God’s wrath but also for the sake of conscience. (ESV)

We must obey God and remain faithful to God, even when the authorities are in error, and we not fear what man might do to us. If we are truly keeping God’s commandments for us not just in the past but in the present, then we can take things as they come. We can’t control what happens to us, but we can maintain a good conscience with God:

> Acts 5:27-29 - And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest questioned them, saying, We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring this man’s blood upon us. But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. (ESV)

> John 18:25-27 - Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. So they said to him, You also are not one of his disciples, are you? He denied it and said, I am not. One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, Did I not see you in the garden with him? Peter again denied it, and at once a rooster crowed. (ESV)

> Acts 23:1-2 - And looking intently at the council, Paul said, Brothers, I have lived my life before God in all good conscience up to this day. And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. (ESV)

Sometimes, people can go to jail when they are innocent, and such a person should have no fear of punishment if they have a clean conscience with God. Rather, we are supposed to simply fear God and endeavour to keep His commandments for us at all costs, even if it means we go to jail, and the threat of jail time shouldn’t deter a person from endeavouring to keep God’s law. We are supposed to be subject to the governing authorities. God uses them. And also, God is our avenger. Unjust judges do exist (Luke 18:2-6). God doesn’t want us to take vengeance for ourselves. But we are supposed to be subject to the governing authorities:

> Romans 13:1-6 - Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore whoever resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, for he is God’s servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is the servant of God, an avenger who carries out God’s wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be in subjection, not only to avoid God’s wrath but also for the sake of conscience. For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are ministers of God, attending to this very thing. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 2:10 - Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. (ESV)

> Matthew 10:28 - And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. (ESV)

I don't have a perfect memory and don't think I had immaculate conduct with my brush with law enforcement in 2022, but I know that I don't want to harm anyone and I want to maintain a good conscience with God.

However I'm totally willing to work for God as Adam did before God made Eve, that's fine. Man is espoused to Christ first. Christ the head of the man, and man the head of the wife. Not the Pope as head of the man, but Christ Himself as head of the man.

> II Corinthians 11:2-3 - I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I betrothed you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:23 - For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior.

Whatever has happened to me has been grossly lacking in grace.

I have no desire at all to ever propose to anyone else ever again. I want all my memories to be erased. I want God to honour His own words and send Holy Spirit to make testimony of Jesus Christ to me. That's really important.

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

> John 15:26 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. (ESV)

It's a massive issue for me, because, being utterly sick of being harassed by demons, I want that peace and rest which Jesus gives to us when He makes us lie down in green pastures. I had huge amounts of peace, and it feels as though the peace has been stolen from me. I want God to testify of Jesus Christ to me through Holy Spirit. I want to feel like I'm not being abused by God, and so I want this testimony. By faith I believe I'm a child of God, but I want to hear that testimony from God Himself in a way that I know 100% that the spirit speaking to me is from God:

> Romans 8:9 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 37:12-14 - Therefore, prophesy, and thou hast said unto them, thus said the Lord Jehovah: Lo, I am opening your graves, And have brought you up out of your graves, O My people, And brought you in unto the land of Israel. And ye have known that I am Jehovah, In My opening your graves, And in My bringing you up out of your graves, O My people. And I have given My Spirit in you, and ye have lived, And I have caused you to rest on your land, And ye have known that I Jehovah, I have spoken, and I have done it , An affirmation of Jehovah.' (YLT)

Just to be clear, this ball rests in God's courts. I feel as though I have not been fairly delt with by God, and if I have a bone to pick with anyone, it is only with God.

Journal <2026-06-30 Tue> Just before I woke up from sleep this morning, I remember having had some kind of coversation in my sleep explaining to someone that the promise of salvation (a place among those who are sanctified by faith in Jesus Christ) is for those who love God believing in and loving Jesus Christ His Son (James 2:5, Romans 4:19-25 and Romans 4:16). But then being awake now, reflecting on that, I started thinking in my mind "Why have I not been given the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit?" And then again in frustration I began thinking to myself, "At least one of us is keeping their promise."

Then I came under spiritual attack with the feeling of defilement afflicting me. And then I decided to think happy thoughts (like if God doesn't care to give me the testimony of Jesus Christ but instead lets me come under attack by demons then I'll just retreat my mind into a "happy place" thinking of the person I proposed to.) And I just started seeing pictures pop into my mind. I think satan started pushing images into my mind. And I recalled and stated to God the vow I made to God. I'm surely not going to marry this person because I have made a vow to God, even though it feels like God has forced me into making this vow to not marry them because of the outrageous circumstances and the demonic harassment I was receiving. But a vow to God is a vow which can't be taken back. They have to be fulfilled. I do believe that I had to in order to love my neighbour and in order to walk by faith in Jesus. So because of the vow that I made, or rather that I should not sin against my neighbour, I should not be thinking about them the way I was and so I stopped doing it. But I feel as though I have been treated very inhumanely by God in not protecting me from this demonic harassment after I made a committment to Him to move on. But instead I've been made to be reminded of it, whilst having satan make life very difficult for me. I feel driven to breaking point. I'm not designed to function this way. So what am I supposed to say? I've been asking God for deliverance from this demonic harassment for a long time now, and to receive the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit. I don't think it's right to be forced to endure such tribulation without the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit. God knows what is best. But I still don't think it's right to withhold the testimony while making me to endure demonic harassment.

I then went about my day. There was a Bible study, and some interactions with some people. I'm sick of the testing and tribulations which have been going on for such a long time now. But I want to be totally liberated from this demonic stuff and to be given the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit which God has promised to those who keep Jesus' commandments. I'm really sick of the demons.

I'm not being self-righteous. I think God may have pointed out this morning an area in my heart where I could be cleaned up further. Although, I would actually prefer the word "healed" to "cleaned up". I got cleaned up in the heart when I was born-again. Now I want to be healed after getting damaged.

I'm just not putting up with demonic harassment anymore.

If God wants me to be in a world which is obsessed with AI to the point of hoping in it as if it were God, then I just refuse to be here without the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit. If God wants me here then He should give me the testimony. If I don't get the testimony then I will complain until I get it.

78.4.6 Journal <2026-07-02 Thu 08:03>

A couple of things happened the night encouraged me, despite lingering issues with defilement.

Firstly, there was a picture of my record being clean and God not remembering the sins of my past. And I acknowledged that and prayed to God telling Him that I still remember them, but I believe that my slate was swiped clean. Now what's interesting about that is that, yes, while my record was indeed wiped clean after I got born-again, I have still experienced suffering as a consequence of wanting to go on in my faith. When I wanted to turn away from former ideologies and behaviors that I know God wants me to "put off", I have found myself encountering heavy resistance from people who are not walking in the truth, and resistance literally from demons, and resistance from the flesh. Part of the demonic resistance I received was from spirit of false religion such as Hinduism which was trying to frame my good deeds as me working my way to God, working to be forgiven for past sins (after I was already born-again), even though I believed that I was born-again and saved, and in truth I was just trying to please Jesus, and lead people to Jesus. Consider what happened to me, in 2022, having been newly born-again with a not yet mature knowledge of Jesus' teachings, and getting misleading dreams and visions and interactions with people pressuring me into thinking that I need to do good deeds to make up for the sins of my past.

My hope is that many will be rescued from false religion. But I have experienced so much retaliation from this spirit of Hinduism as I have been resisting its lies. And this has been ongoing.

Anyway, the other thing which happened in my sleep this morning was a dream conversation with someone I knew from university days, and it was an encouragement to me because I prayed for them and I believe that the Lord Jesus Christ is working very hard for the salvation of others. It's not all about me. My struggles are not all about me. I got to pray for him that God would save him, that he would know God the Father and Jesus Christ who He sent. And got to pray for the people we knew (i.e. our friends) back then before I was born-again. And I sat up thinking about theology. I'll just mention one thing about this "conversation" I apparently had with him in my sleep. I'm sure he'd remember. Laughing, trying to ease his concerns, I said, "All I wanted to say is that I'm sorry about the Mi Goreng!" And then I got a picture in my mind of us locking our hands together. And then I just was hoping to God, to Father God and the Lord Jesus Christ that God is working behind the scenes to save him and them. I believe that God is doing work in the background, and that the Lord Jesus Christ is working very hard to save people.

Next topic: I had complained in my earlier <2026-06-30 Tue> journal entry that I feel inhumanely treated by God for letting me be attacked by Satan to the degree that I have been. I feel as though God has allowed things to happen to me which feel destructive at a spiritual level, things I can't unsee, all without the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit given as a word to my heart to comfort me through it, and it doesn't seem right to me that I haven't received it unless I think that God may be withholding it for some good reason. But at the same time, defilement of spirit is something that troubles me greatly and causes me anxiety. It's no joke. What else do I take issue with the Lord Jesus about? Well, there's also this issue of people generally being unwilling around me to provide the I John 4:2 testimony of Jesus Christ to me, even people who profess to be Christian. This is troubling me. I literally feel like I've been put in Hades or something. I feel like the spirit of antichrist is really manifesting a lot in the world and in people I interact with from my perspective. And in these situations, I just wish I had this testimony which the Lord Jesus Christ promised, because having the testimony withheld as I'm going through the stuff I've had to go through has been making me feel like God does't care about my sanity and would prefer I just get sucked into AI world or something, detached from reality. But God knows, there must be some good reason He hasn't done this for me yet.

While I'm holding my faith in Jesus, it makes me feel like it's an injustice for me to not have received this testimony yet because the Bible says there is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus and it says whoever is presently having faith in Jesus is not condemned, and because I've been born-again of the spirit. I've been regenerated. I have seen my regenerated soul on the day I got born again. I've been confined into what feels like a prison of circumstance, while being made to endure demonic attack in my sleep and in my soul and what feels like physical and psychological hardship, and this defilement which has continued to mess with my body. So the Lord Jesus Christ still has a lot of work to do, possibly, to clean me up as I hold my faith in Him by faith keeping His commandments. Am I clean now? Or will I receive more of these demonic attacks in the future? I do endeavor to please Jesus, meditating on His teachings and commandments, endeavouring to keep them, and I do endeavour to apply them in practice, despite horrendous amounts of demonic meddling, harassment and oppression, and also, to my bewilderment, huge amounts of discouragement from people who are professing Jesus (i.e. bad teaching). I've had to put up with all of that. And the isolation and reproach is not fun.

I have concerns about my present situation. I want to be raptured (caught up) out of this world. I have no love for this AI garbage that's coming out. People leeching like vampires off of others, I think they'll be living in a hell of their own making. I mean, doubting God gets a person into a world of delusion and injustice and devoid of compassion. I don't want to be in this place. It's a disgusting world.

Anyway, God doesn't reveal to me everything He's doing, but I hope and pray to Father God asking that Jesus continue saving people, leading people to the knowledge of God through faith in Jesus Christ. I am incredibly frustrated with God and often have been very concerned for my eternal wellbeing. But I want God to save people, so I hope that my suffering and the enduring of a spirit spouse defilement which God has yet even today allowed me to be afflicted with is not for no purpose, but that He, somehow, is saving others, and that He will also clean me and make it so I am no longer experiencing such things. I'd like to make something clear to Jesus Christ, there better be a very good explanation for what I've been made to experience, as in the unbelievably extreme defilement and satanic oppression that He has, as far as I can tell, allowed me to go through and also there better be a plan for me to be fully cleaned. I'll continue to endeavour to do what the Bible says I'm supposed to do with the hope that God will do what He has promised to do.

78.4.7 Journal entry <2025-07-16 Wed>

I guess I could take a page from Justin Martyr and the Apostle John. According to Justin Martyr, we need to have come to "know" Jesus, and according to the Apostle John, that means we need to have put a stop to willful sin to have arrived at rest in Him. So we find rest at the end of sanctification, or at some point in that process of sanctification where we stop committing wilful sin. That makes sense to me. I would agree that I am still in need or would desire to have further sanctification. I think it's quite a good thing to want to improve at loving people. That's what I want to do. But now I have confidence that the rest is on the horizon. All who hope in Him purify themselves. And during this sanctification process, we still get to call ourselves children of God:

> I John 3:1-11 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

Justin Martyr says, "Wherefore those who follow Him, and know Him, having faith in Him as their proof, shall rest in Him.":

Saint Justin Martyr: Fragments of the Lost Work of Justin on the Resurrection {Roberts-Donaldson}

> And God, the Father of the universe, who is the perfect intelligence, is the truth. And the Word, being His Son, came to us, having put on flesh, revealing both Himself and the Father, giving to us in Himself resurrection from the dead, and eternal life afterwards. And this is Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. He, therefore, is Himself both the faith and the proof of Himself and of all things. Wherefore those who follow Him, and know Him, having faith in Him as their proof, shall rest in Him. But since the adversary does not cease to resist many, and uses many and divers arts to ensnare them, that he may seduce the faithful from their faith, and that he may prevent the faithless from believing, it seems to me necessary that we also, being armed with the invulnerable doctrines of the faith, do battle against him in behalf of the weak.

78.4.8 Journal entry <2025-08-29 Fri>

I have no desire to remain in this world especially while God is withholding the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit to me (which He has conditionally promised, by the way), and allowing demons to harass me (yes, to this day I have demons speaking all sorts of things to me in my sleep, waking me up during the night), and allowing me to be held in a spiritual prison like witchcraft (keeping me held under constraint through various means such as loss of rights, sleep disruption, lies, slander and gossip, in order to manipulate/control me, and often being confronted by demonised people trying to trap me in my own words).

Also, it seems like I usually get the opposite of what I pray for, and it certainly seems as though demons are intercepting my prayers, and watching vigilantly how I respond to temptations/trials and punishing me when I choose to obey God.

I find it very unfair how unprepared I was doctrinally, but right out of the gates, immediately after I was born-again on 2 April 2022, I just had people holding heretical, occult, and antichrist beliefs crossing paths me with continually. It feels like the spiritual circumcision was made but some antichrist spirit has been trying to weld the old crucified man back onto me, or something like that, and trying to "keep me in this world", and this damned heretical spirit trying to push for "unity with the world", has been disgustingly persistent.

Meanwhile, God, who should be supporting me to separate from the world, appears to have been ignoring me as I cry out to Him and just allowing me to be harassed continually by people trying to take my thoughts away from God.

After being born-again, made new, I feel robbed, or more like I was given a really, really unfair deal. I feels as though God has treated me very unfairly.

> Proverbs 18:14 - A man's spirit will endure sickness, but a crushed spirit who can bear? (ESV)

I hate being here so much in this anti-God world so much, and I hate so much that despite my faith that God would deliver me from it, I am continually getting dealt what feels like the opposite of what I pray for.

Life feels impossible to live mostly due to feeling like God has not been speaking to me.

It feels hopeless when God is elusive.

> Ephesians 2:12 - remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:26 - But Jesus looked at them and said, With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible. (ESV)

I hate being here in this world so much. Make what you want of my testimony about getting born-again. I'm not ”burying my talents” (God's property which He entrusted me with (Matthew 25:14-23)) - rather, it feels as though I've sown into God's Kingdom but that God has treated me as expendable.

God didn't give me an explicit testitmony of Jesus to my heart, and neither have I heard the Holy Spirit speak clearly to me telling me that I'm a child of God. I have only claimed the promise through faith in the gospel.

This ”Faith and Judgement” document is my testimony, and I'm trying to be an honest as I can be about it. This is what happened to me so far as I have been holding my faith in Jesus after getting born-again.

It does seem like totally unreasonable and unjust pressure has been placed on me. I mean, imagine if all of Jesus' disciples had been continually adversarial to Jesus, as Peter was that time (Mark 8:33), and if Jesus was constantly rebuking all of His desciples. To me it feels as though my interactions with people have been continually adversarial like that.

I have tried my best to not waste God's property (I Corinthians 7:23) which He entrusted me with (Matthew 25:14-23) by having faith in Jesus and seeking to obey His commandments and be vocal about my journey, but here I am left in a world that appears as though it's remorselessly anti-God, while God Himself doesn't speak clearly to me but just allows me to get harassed almost continually by demons.

I don't belong in this world with this AI stuff going on where human beings are trying to replace human beings and trying to replace God. I just don't belong here.

youtube.com: Oxford Professor: AI Is Humanity's Attempt to Make God {@DavidPerellChannel} @time

> And of course, then you have the parallel thing that the idea of building God. Yeah. You see, and the notion of data religion and AI religion and Harari saying, if you want to know about religion, go to Silicon Valley, not to the church. Well, I was thinking of Psalm 115:8, which says, ”Those who make them become like them, so do all who trust in them.”
>
> That we're making these this AI in the image of humans, not in the image of God.
>
> Oh, that's absolutely right. And it's I mean, this is this is idolatry left and right.
>
> Yes, it is. And that's another trajectory through it.
>
> I separate a whole lot of trajectories. The trouble is they get confused. The first is to make super intelligent humans who are like gods with a small g. That's Harari. And that's to be done in one of two ways.
>
> First of all, to enhance existing humans, re-engineer their genetics and all the rest. The second way is to start with a nonbiological base like silicon and build some sort of entity that is created by human beings but will transcend them.
>
> Those are the two main avenues and some people are trying to do them together. So there's that, but then there arises the question immediately, is this playing God? Is this another tower of babel? And it looks very much like it.
>
> A towering desire to reach to heaven.

> Psalms 115:3-8 - Our God is in the heavens; he does all that he pleases. Their idols are silver and gold, the work of human hands. They have mouths, but do not speak; eyes, but do not see. They have ears, but do not hear; noses, but do not smell. They have hands, but do not feel; feet, but do not walk; and they do not make a sound in their throat. Those who make them become like them; so do all who trust in them. (ESV)

I have no desire to interact with the corrupt world. I don't want to become unclean by working within a corrupt system, especially when it feels like I'm alone, forsaken by God in that He does not speak to me.

If I had God speaking clearly to me, instructing me in my decision-making, then maybe life would be bearable. But sadly, that's definitely not the case.

Truly it feels as if I've had to rely on Scripture-alone, while I've been forced to hear demonic voices almost exclusively.

Hopefully Jesus will rapture me out of here. I absolutely believe He can rapture me. And I believe that this can surely happen (I Thessalonians 4:16-17) from the perspective of anyone who has faith in Jesus and in Jesus' words, no matter which generation they are in. I think that my life "forked" paths when I was born-again and my own fate is not the same as the fate of this world. So I still hold a strong faith that Jesus will rapture me out of this world, and having faith in Jesus' words (Matthew 24:42-44) is still having faith in Jesus Himself because they're His words. But I have no plans on staying here if Jesus has no plans to speak to me directly during my stay or to honour His own conditional promises (II Corinthians 6:17).

> II Corinthians 6:17 - Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, (ESV)

> John 15:26 - "When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify about Me, (ESV)

I think it was 2 nights ago, among all of the evil dreams I had was a voice which just said, "Do you want to help people to find Jesus?" Well, obviously I want people to find Jesus and will do my duty towards that, but I rebuke the spirit which refuses to confess that Jesus Christ has come [into the world, from Father God,] in the flesh, and if that spirit which asked me "Do you want to help people to find Jesus?" refuses to make that confession to me, then I rebuke it in Jesus Christ's name because I wouldn't want Jesus' sheep to be misled. There are enough false prophets in the world.

> I John 4:1-3 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

But I want to speak my position on hearing these voices and seeing these visions which can sometimes "appear" nice, but in reality are instrusive, insidious, tricky and often misleading.

If someone can speak a sentence to me direct to my mind, then they can also surely confess Jesus to me, and make the I John confession which I require. Otherwise I don't listen to it. That's where the bar is set. I don't care if it sounds nice.

> John 10:27,10:5 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers. (ESV)

I'm at the point where I ignore such voices, no matter what, and just do a Bible study instead.

> Matthew 7:22-23 - On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. (ESV)

In a very real sense even this voice which asked me ”Do you want to help people to find Jesus” is mocking me by asking without confessing because as I’ve previously mentioned, I do not trust voices which I hear in my sleep at all unless they pass the test which the Apostle John speaks of. Those are the rules. I don’t care how nice it sounds. Either confess or don’t interrupt my sleep. It’s really that simple.

I have not heard the testimony that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh and I need to hear it.

I John 4:2-3 doesn’t say that if a spirit speaks the name ”Jesus” then it’s from God. It doesn’t say that at all. Rather, this word confess (G3670 homologeó) surely means that ”confess Jesus” is agreeing with, agreeing with Jesus. The spirit must agree that Jesus has come in the flesh and the spirit must agree with Jesus. Now if a spirit does say to me that ”Jesus Christ has come from God into the world in the flesh”, then that gives me confidence that the message is from God:

> I John 4:2-3 - By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

Recently demons have been harssing me a lot, terrorising me in my sleep even ’yelling’ things like, ”Come to Christ!” just to wake me up, as I hear them laugh at and mock me, denying my sleep.

This type of behaviour:

> Luke 23:36-37 - The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine and saying, If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself! (ESV)

> Luke 4:9-11 - And he took him to Jerusalem and set him on the pinnacle of the temple and said to him, If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, He will command his angels concerning you, to guard you, and On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone. (ESV)

I have no intention of relying on dreams:

> Jude 1:8 - Yet in like manner these people also, relying on their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority, and blaspheme the glorious ones. (ESV)

And I’ll usually just wake up and declare something the way Jesus declared from the Scripture:

> Luke 4:12 - And Jesus answered him, It is said, You shall not put the Lord your God to the test. (ESV)

Demons can mention Jesus’ name:

> Luke 8:28 - When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him and said with a loud voice, What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me. (ESV)

78.4.9 Journal entry <2025-09-03 Wed>

In the morning I woke up with a dream which said I’m baptized into John Timothy (yeah, it was John Timothy). But unreliable because no confession that Jesus Christ has come into the world in the flesh! So a total write-off. And besides, I’m baptized into Christ!

> I Corinthians 1:10-15 - I appeal to you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment. For it has been reported to me by Chloe’s people that there is quarreling among you, my brothers. What I mean is that each one of you says, I follow Paul, or I follow Apollos, or I follow Cephas, or I follow Christ. Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one may say that you were baptized in my name. (ESV)

And some very clearly demonic dreams too, and more spiritual attack too. There was a dream of me crushing a brother's first two fingers. Totally demonic dreams I have been getting. I've been getting a lot of demonic harassment. I'm only trusting Scripture and if I were to trust a dream or vision, then it must come with the testimony that Jesus Christ has come into the world in the flesh. I have not heard it.

I commented on this video today:

youtube.com: Being a Single Christian {and How To Deal With It} {@itsjameycarrington} Speaking the truth in love, and for posterity. I actually think this view that a man does not have a right to take a wife is wrong. Believing men have a right to take a believing wife, just not whoever they want. It's a God-given right, though, for a believing man to take a believing wife! God has given human beings rights. One of these rights is to become a child of God through faith in Jesus (John 1:12-13), for example. That means we have the right to keep Christ's commandments and noone has the right to deny a believer in Jesus the right to a) put a stop to sin, b) love your family in Christ (including forgiving them), and c) practice righteousness because that's how Apostle John describes children of God. We have a right to marry (I Corinthians 9:3-14) but not whoever we want, because a wife is a gift: People may not make use of their rights and decide to not marry for the sake of the Kingdom (Luke 18:29-30, Matthew 19:12). So it would be evil for the government to make it illegal for a man to take a wife (I Timothy 4:1-3). In fact, making it impossible for a person to marry has the potential to be destructive to a person, if it pushes them into defiling passion then it can damage the person's soul (I Peter 2:11, Colossians 2:20-23,3:1-6).

If we want to start a family then we should have the fear of God and ask God. A wife is a gift from God:

> Exodus 1:20-21 - So God dealt well with the midwives. And the people multiplied and grew very strong. And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 7:9-12 - Or which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him! So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)
>
> I Timothy 4:1-5 - Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons, through the insincerity of liars whose consciences are seared, who forbid marriage and require abstinence from foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, for it is made holy by the word of God and prayer. (ESV)

Consider that for these midwives who feared God (did not want to sin against God), and who preserved existing life, God granted them families. I'm going to make the point that if someone "saves their money" while consciously witholding helping someone in need knowing they could've helped them when it was in their power, but in order to attract a woman or because they believe they need the money (trusting in money rather than in God) to be allowed to take a wife at all, then why would God give a family to someone to someone who can't be trusted with taking care of existing life? On the other hand, if God, testing His servant, saw that they valued the life of their neighbour and family in Christ, then isn't that the type of person God would grant to have a family?

> Exodus 1:17 - But the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the male children live. (ESV)
>
> Exodus 1:21 - And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. (ESV)

So a person should serve God faithfully and God will take care of their needs:

> Matthew 6:30-33 - But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 11:7 - For a man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God, but woman is the glory of man. (ESV)
>
> Proverbs 12:4 - An excellent wife is the crown of her husband, but she who brings shame is like rottenness in his bones. (ESV)

Even though I believe what I've written on Jamey's youtube channel video, I would still not venture to test God with regards to reneging on my committment I have made to renege on the marriage proposal. I am committed for the sake of the kindgom to renege on the marriage proposal. I want to be cleaned up and sanctified and delivered from evil.

When I pray to God for deliverance, it's not deliverance from having a criminal conviction - let me make that expressly clear. I want peaceful sleep, a peaceful soul, deliverance from demonic oppression, and I want to be able to work. But I do not want to undo the criminal conviction.

78.4.10 Journal <2025-09-07 Sun>

More harassment during the night and in the morning. I'm very sick of it.

So this morning I get a picture of ”DadJesus” as a SC2 player name. And I just remember thinking, that's still not the confession which I'm waiting for. And I rebuke the harassing spirit interrupting my sleep. Then I get a picture of ”Lucifer” as a SC2 player name. And I wake up and rebuke it in the name of Jesus Christ.

And then a strange dream between me and a Muslim trying to tell me to rub a cork and me saying I'm not superstitious, and that it's more difficult to correct a mistake or something. These dreams I'm getting are demonic.

And then I got another picture of the name of one of the YA members of the old church I used to go to, and I prayed for them. If I recall correctly, I prayed that God would protect them. I'll pray again.

```
Dear Heavenly Father and my Lord Jesus Christ, and Holy Spirit,
Jehovah, Almighty God,
please, LORD, protect this person, and be close to them, and lead them on paths of righteousness for Your sake.
In Jesus Christ's name, I ask,
AMEN!!
```

And in Jesus Christ's name I rebuke the demonic harassment which has been causing me sleep disruption. And in Jesus Christ's name I rebuke those spirits which have been preventing me from taking a wife and from getting work.

So I believe that Jesus, (Yeshua, Joshua) is one of God's names, Jesus being God the Son of God, and Father God having given Jesus His own name which belongs to Him (to Father God):

As it says on the GotQuestions website The name Jesus, announced to Joseph and Mary through the angels (Matthew 1:21; Luke 1:31), means “Yahweh saves” or “Yahweh is salvation.” Transliterated from Hebrew and Aramaic, the name is Yeshua. This word is a combination of Ya, an abbreviation for Yahweh, the name of Israel's God (Exodus 3:14); and the verb yasha, meaning “rescue,” “deliver,” or “save.”

Jesus (Yeshua, Iēsous) and Jehovah (Yahweh) all refer to God's name (onoma).

I have a section here on theology to do with God's name: semiosis.github.io: Thoughts on Faith and Judgement - Jehovah is Almighty God, Creator of Heaven and Earth

When I was born-again of the Spirit on 2 April 2022, I called out to Jesus to save me. Nothing has changed with regards to who is my Lord and Saviour and God and King.

Also, I'm still being persecuted and harassed regarding relationships, etc.

Gay marriage and homosexual relationships are inherently sinful and agape-loving the sin more than (or rather than) agape-loving Jesus leads to death.

> John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV)

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

We have to come to the love the Truth. The truth is Father God, the truth is Jesus Christ.

Age-gap marriage and relationships between consenting adults are not inherently sinful, as far as I understand.

A wife is a gift from God, and we can't take whoever we want. We can ask God for a wife.

And I rebuke that anti-marriage spirit in the Mighty name of Jesus Christ, Jehovah, Yahweh, God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I rebuke that anti-marriage spirit in the Mighty name of God, I rebuke it.

I also rebuke every spirit of sinful sexual behaviour in Jesus Christ's name. I rebuke rape, adultery and fornication, incest, child abuse and animal abuse in Jesus Christ's name. I rebuke the sin and I rebuke the spirits endorsing the sin. I rebuke them in the mighty name of Jesus Christ.

With our best interests in mind, God doesn't want us to commit sin even after we are born-again and ha > christapostolicmiracleministry.org part4.htm: Do not defile your body Part 4

As I was about to walk through the door of the Salvation Army today, a guy I had seen on the street referred to me as Rob, the name of my dad of the flesh (that is, my earthly dad), which was odd. I attended the Sunday service at the Salvation Army, there was a quiz on fathers in the Bible. For example, there were a couple of questions:

- Which of these 4 options was a son to David? And the answer was Solomon.
- Which of these 4 options was father to Jacob? And the answer was Isaac.

I quickly found out that it's actually Father's Day today when it was mentioned. Then the sermon was on Luke 15:11-32.

So it's obvious that what has happened today is clearly "spiritual" / "prophetic" in nature.

Anyway, I realised that I had missed one thing I want to rebuke today. I also rebuke the spirit of transhumanism in the mighty name of Jesus Christ. In the Mighty name of Jesus Christ's name I rebuke the spirit of substituting a spouse with a robot (or AI). In the Mighty name of Jesus Christ I rebuke the spirit of having a robot (or AI) for a spouse.

78.4.11 Journal <2025-09-07 Sun>

I also watched this. Great video. I'd like to go over this video more thoroughly and incorporate some of it into by Bible study document.

youtube.com: ? What the Bible REALLY Says About Women as Church Leaders {@HeavenlyMindedHo

> Thank you. I am in essentially full agreement with this, and thanks for this. I'm recently born again and God has been teaching me and testing me. I love how you talked about how woman have calling to teach the children. And I learned a lot from this video. However 1 tiny thing I'd like to say is that I believe that woman in the Lord may be considered to be "sons" of God. The Biblical basis for this is... Just because a woman person may have an identity in Christ as a son of God (as Paul says neither male nor female), this transcendent reality is not a reason to pervert the natural order of things regarding natural gender. Paul is certainly not endorsing LGBT, etc. or same-sex marriage, and certainly not endorsing that slaves should not submit to their earthly master (Titus 2:9-10). Interestingly, I think Jesus is implying by saying that the sons of this age marry and 'are given' (women are given) in marriage, that a woman may be considered a "son of this age", and it really gets me thinking about what that word 'son' is being used to mean. It's not a natural gender thing:
>
> Luke 20:33-36 - In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife. And Jesus said to them, The sons of this age marry and 'are given' (women are given) in marriage, but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. (ESV)

78.4.12 Journal <2025-09-10 Wed>

Protecting our God-given rights to live in a way pleasing to God is very important.

Watch youtube.com: Trump Makes Big Announcement On Bible, Religious Freedom In US| Vows To Protect Student Prayers {@mirrornow}

78.4.13 Journal <2025-09-12 Fri>

youtube.com: "Jesus Is the Only Answer." Tucker Carlson Responds to Charlie Kirk's Assassination. {@

> Read Luke 6. I mean, you know, Jesus does not endorse violence, honestly, even in self-defense, he says. So, you know, people can grapple with that as they will, but that's that's what it says.
>
> And so, I am totally opposed to violence. But that is the dividing line. It's not left or right, Republican, Democrat, trans, straight or whatever there. I mean, there's an effort to recast this as a different kind of contest between worldviews.
>
> It's no, the dividing line is do you think God exists or do you think you are God? And it's that simple. It has always been that simple. It will never change. And I think our souls are at stake. I really, really believe that. I think Jesus is the only answer.

Just with Tucker's last comments here, I really think it's more than just believing that God exists, but also trusting Him and loving Him. But I hope that is what Tucker was trying to articulate here.

Jesus is our life. God must be our first love:

> Mark 8:35 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it. (ESV)
>
> I John 5:12 - Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. (ESV)
>
> Deuteronomy 30:20 - loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them. (ESV)
>
> Colossians 3:4 - When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. (ESV)

That's what I would say, that the dividing line is between:

- faith in God, or faith in self or something else in preference to God
  - Psalms 146:3 - Put not your trust in princes, in mortal man, who cannot save. (engbsb2020eb)
  - II Corinthians 4:3 - And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing. (ESV)
  - I Cor 1:18,21,27 - For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, it pleased God through the folly of what we preach to save those who believe. But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; (ESV)
- fear of God, or no fear of God,
  - Proverbs 14:26 - In the fear of the LORD one has strong confidence, and his children will have a refuge. (ESV)

    - Romans 3:15-18 - Their feet are swift to shed blood; in their paths are ruin and misery, and the way of peace they have not known. There is no fear of God before their eyes. (ESV)

- valuing God, or not valuing Him,
    - Matthew 6:19-20 - Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. (ESV)

- loving God, or loving darkness,
    - John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV)
    - I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)

- trusting God, or not trusting Him,
    - Proverbs 28:26 - Whoever trusts in his own mind is a fool, but he who walks in wisdom will be delivered. (ESV)
    - Jeremiah 8:9 - The wise men shall be put to shame; they shall be dismayed and taken; behold, they have rejected the word of the LORD, so what wisdom is in them? (ESV)
    - Jeremiah 17:5-8 - Thus says the LORD: Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, whose heart turns away from the LORD. He is like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see any good come. He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land. Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit. (ESV)
    - Jeremiah 17:5 - Thus said Jehovah: Cursed is the man who doth trust in man, And hath made flesh his arm, And from Jehovah whose heart turneth. (YLT)

- holding confidence in God or not holding confidence in God,
    - II Corinthians 3:4-5 - Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God, (ESV)
    - Philippians 3:3 - For we are the real circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— (ESV)

- obeying God or obeying sin
    - Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

I'm cherry-picking that part of Charlie's message because fighting for country is outside the scope, in my opinion, of man's ultimate duty and allegiance.

youtube.com: I Offend EVERYONE With The Truth About Modern Dating Culture In Front of 1,000 S

The ultimate thing should be loving God, loving people and raising children in a society that follows God's commands against the culture, not in consistency with the culture, to stand on my opinion (base our opinion) on eternal truths.

And fighting for the country doesn’t mean killing. Fighting for the country could mean supporting one-another, working etc..

youtube.com: I Offend EVERYONE With The Truth About Modern Dating Culture In Front of 1,000 S
The West was built, our nation was built on delayed gratification, not instant gratification. That maybe I’m not going to go do what feels good in the moment. I’m going to forsake what feels good and I’m going to parlay that into the future.

78.4.14 Journal <2025-09-14 Sun>

”We are unworthy servants; we have only done what was our duty.” Amen! Now, Jesus Christ, Yeshua, please just get me out of here.

> Luke 17:10 - So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, We are unworthy servants; we have only done what was our duty. (ESV)

God knows how many ages there are and God knows the day Jesus comes for us:

> Isaiah 45:17 - But Israel will be saved by the LORD with an everlasting salvation; you will not be put to shame or humiliated, to ages everlasting. (engbsb2020eb)

> Isaiah 45:17 - Israel hath been saved in Jehovah, A salvation age-during! Ye are not ashamed nor confounded Unto the ages of eternity! (YLT)

> Matthew 24:36 - ‘And concerning that day and the hour no one hath known–not even the messengers of the heavens–except my Father only; (YLT)

> Matthew 24:42-44 - Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. (ESV)

> John 3:8 - The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. (ESV)

In all likelihood the eschatology of the tribulation and rapture happens at the end of the age. How many ages are there? I simply do not know. Just the next one? Perhaps. More? Perhaps.

Just because I consider that God may or may not have more ages left, that doesn’t mean I want to be here as a part of it. I don’t. I just see this as a fork in the road. This age is wrapping up from what I can tell.

I don’t want to stay here. I wholeheartedly believe that God can take me out of this world if it’s His will. I’m begging God to just get me out of here. The spiritual warfare has been so intense. I don’t have a desire to be here anymore. Marriage as a possibilty was, in my view robbed from me, and no longer an option.

> Luke 17:10 - So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, We are unworthy servants; we have only done what was our duty. (ESV)

We are saved by grace through faith, faith which God has commanded of us. Amen! Please, God, deliver me.

youtube.com: THE RACE TO DIVIDE ISRAEL IS ON!! {@WatchmanRiver} I commented: Tom, I just want to be taken out of this world and go to be with the Lord Jesus Christ. May Jesus Christ please save me and deliver me from this evil generation and deliver me from this world. I want to be raptured. I don’t want to stay here. I keep getting attacked by demons. I’ve given my all for Jesus. I’m so tired and want to go home. I feel like there is so much spiritual darkness trying to force me to remain in this world. I’ve been born-again of the spirit. I don’t want to stay here in this world. I don’t belong in this world. God is good all the time. But it feels like I’m constantly receiving the opposite of what I ask for in prayer. There’s some adversarial thing just constantly opposing sanctification and faith and trying to keep me in > the world. I believe that rapture is imminent but that we should be walking in faith, love and holiness, abiding in Jesus' commandments, walking in the light, remaining faithful to Jesus, to be ready for rapture. God have mercy and let me not stay here on the earth. I'm so sick of it. I actually refuse to remain here. Jesus said about the sons of this age that they marry and are given in marriage. But sons of the resurrection neither marry nor are given in marriage. I've been spiritually resurrected. These certainly seem like Luke 21 times. I believe that God can absolutely rapture me. I don't believe we know the day or the hour it will happen. But I believe that it could happen at any time. Jesus Christ get me out of here. There's so much deception. I refuse to stay here. The church I just went to today was preaching against rapture. What I'm personally experiencing in my day to day is just so adversarial. There's so much deception in all the churches I've attended recently. I believe I'm a son of the resurrection. I'm not a son of this age, and it's an evil generation in my view.

>
> Oh yeah and I believe that Jesus died on a tree and rose from the dead. His blood paid the price for me to be completely set free from sin. Jesus paid the price for me to be redeemed, spirit, and body. Jesus is Jehovah the Son of God. Jesus is Yahweh. We are unworthy servants. I've only endeavoured to my duty. I love God. I love Jesus. I'm trusting in Jesus' Christ's blood to be set free. It's Jesus' blood alone that can deal with my sin problem. I love my family in Christ. I endeavour to love my neighbour as myself. God knows I try to please Him. The evil that has come against me has seemed very defiling. May God take pity on me and deliver me from this world. May God sanctify me completely. May God speak to me please to give me the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit confessing that Jesus Christ has come into the world in the flesh, direct to me. Please pray for me. I've been under so much spiritual attack. I was born-again of the spirit on 2 April 2022. I've literally seen my regenerated spirit and I called out to Jesus to save me. I don't want to be here. I refuse to remain here.

78.4.15 Journal <2025-09-15 Mon>

I actually don't remember much of dreams last night, but this morning I got a dream which I believe was adversarial/satanic, and masquerading with the face of an old friend. And as much as I love my old friend (of the flesh) it was literally anti-rapture, anti-"what I'm praying to God and hoping in God for". I just believe that it's satanic. What I experienced yesterday was far worse. Yesterday I had these sickening demonic dreams/visions. As I sit here I feel this defilement attacking my mind and soul.

Whatever rapture looks like, it certainly involves faith in Jesus Christ, and trusting in God's word, rather than following the course of this world.

I just pray for my old friends, those who were my friends before God put a new spirit inside of me.

```
Dear Heavenly Father and my Lord Jesus Christ, and Holy Spirit,
Jehovah, Almighty God,
please, LORD God, help those who when I unregenerate had been my friends according to the flesh, h and to have faith in You, in Your word, in Your promises, and to not be led astray by the world.
Please help them to detach from the world and cling to You, God.
Open the eyes of the blind.
In Jesus Christ's name, I ask,
AMEN!!
```

> Romans 9:3 - For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh. (ESV)

> Romans 8:5-9 - For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. (ESV)

> Romans 8:12 - So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. (ESV)

> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)
>
> Jeremiah 17:5 - Thus said Jehovah: Cursed is the man who doth trust in man, And hath made flesh his arm, And from Jehovah whose heart turneth. (YLT)
>
> Isaiah 61:1 - The Spirit of the Lord GOD (H3068. Yhvh - Phonetic Spelling: (yeh-ho-vaw'), Jehovah, Yahweh) is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; (ESV)
>
> Luke 4:18-21 - The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor. And he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. And he began to say to them, Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing. (ESV)
>
> II Corinthians 3:14-18 - But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. But when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord (G2962 Kyrios; Lord) is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord (G2962 Kyriou; of [the] Lord [is]) is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord (G2962 Kyriou; of [the] Lord), are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord (G2962 Kyriou; [the] Lord) who is the Spirit. (ESV)

It's obvious to me that as I endeavour to remain spiritually-minded, trusting in God's word, there is a very real spiritual resistance. In John 17 Jesus prays for His disciples, asking Father God, not that they would be taken from the world but that they would be kept from the evil one, and sanctified in the truth.

> John 17:15-17 - I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. (ESV)

We do overcome the world as we are believing, trusting, hoping in Jesus Christ:

> I John 5:5 - Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)
>
> II John 1:7 - For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. (ESV)
>
> I John 5:19 - We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. (ESV)

We want to be perfected in love as we are holding our faith in Jesus:

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

The world hates us as we do this:

> I John 3:13 - Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. (ESV)

But the world is passing away:

> I John 2:17 - And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

But those believing in, trusting in, hoping in Jesus will live:

> John 6:47 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn, is believing, is trusting) has eternal life. (ESV)

> John 6:57-58 - As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not as the fathers ate and died. Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever. (ESV)

Those believing in, trusting in, hoping in Jesus will still see Him and live:

> John 16:7-11 - Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: concerning sin, because they do not believe in me; concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will see me no longer; concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged. (ESV)

> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

As we anticipate the day of redemption of our bodies, we should be actively serving God, serving Jesus Christ, with eyes of faith:

As someone who has had their spirit redeemed (I've been spiritually regenerated), I now anticipate the coming of the Lord, the redemption of my body.

> John 3:3 - Jesus answered him, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. (ESV)

> Luke 9:27 - But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God. (ESV)

If someone is not born-again of the spirit then they cant see the kingdom. They'll be thinking like the world, seeing things the way the world sees.

We should be walking in faith, love and holiness, seeking to please God, not burying what God has entrusted to us (Matthew 25:1-46), but sowing in His Kingdom. We should be seeking the knowledge of Jesus Christ, abiding in His commandments, and walking by the spirit. We should "get on with it", and not be fearful.

> Luke 21:28-31 - Now when these things begin to take place, straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near. And he told them a parable: Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. As soon as they come out in leaf, you see for yourselves and know that the summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. (ESV)

> Matthew 25:1-46 - Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a cry, Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him. Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out. But the wise answered, saying, Since there will not be enough for us and for you, go rather to the dealers and buy for yourselves. And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. Afterward the other virgins came > also, saying, Lord, lord, open to us. But he answered, Truly, I say to you, I do not know you. Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour. For it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he made five talents more. So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, Master, you delivered to me five talents; here I have made five talents more. His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master. And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, Master, you delivered to me two talents; here I have made two talents more. His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master. He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours. But his master answered him, You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sowed and gather where I scattered no seed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me. Then the righteous will answer him, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you? And the King will answer them, Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me. Then he will say to those on his left, Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me. Then they also will answer, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you? Then he will answer them, saying, Truly, I say to you, as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me. And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life. (ESV)

The redemption of our bodies:

> Ephesians 4:30 - And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. (ESV)

> Romans 8:23-24 - And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? (ESV)

> Luke 21:28 - Now when these things begin to take place, straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near. (ESV)

> Romans 8:23 - And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. (ESV)

78.4.16 Journal <2025-09-15 Mon>

youtube.com: I asked God about Sept 23-24 Rapture and this happened.. {@JAHRONCO} Amazing, man. Yeah we wanna have eyes focused on Jesus, striving to be walking in faith love and holiness, ready for service, obedient Jesus in all He has commanded of us, waiting for our blessed hope the appearing of Jesus. I'm fighting a battle with the flesh right now. It hasn't been easy.

> Titus 2:11-13 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, (ESV)

This really hit home:

youtube.com: I'm Tired | A Short Christian Animation. {@WithChristisBJ} this life. I don't know how much more I can take. Jesus, I'm exhausted. I'm stressed. I'm overwhelmed. I don't know what to do anymore. Nothing feels right with me. Take this away. All of it. I can't stand to live on this earth anymore.

Don't look away. Turn your eyes to me. I have everything you need. I'll never go away. I will forever stay.

78.4.17 Journal <2025-09-19 Fri>

- I've been under huge amounts of spiritual attack.
- God is good all the time, I believe, while I also endure extreme demonic oppression.
- God hasn't yet given me the testimony of Jesus Christ direct from Holy Spirit to my heart confessing / agreeing that Jesus Christ has come into the world from God in the flesh. But I am still agreeing that Jesus Christ is Jehovah the Son of God who has come into the world in the flesh from God (the Word of God became flesh).
- I'm sorry for getting upset at God.
- I hate my life here in this world. I passionately hate it.
- I hate how it seems like I'm continually going through tribulation and satanic resistance to holiness.
- I am angry with God for not providing the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit.
- I am angry with how I perceive that I've been treated by God when I remember particular sufferings I have endured particularly after getting born-again, but also before.
- I feel as though I can't endure the isolation, the demonic harassment, and the withholding of the testimony from God direct to my spirit.
- Sanctification (being cleaned up) is the salvation.
- Only Father God knows the day or the hour when the coming of the Lord is.

An established heart is one which has been put on the right track:

> II Thessalonians 2:16-17 - Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word. (ESV)

For reassurance, we should be practicing love from the heart, sincerely in deed, obedient from the love for the truth but not relying on the success of external actions, but seeking to please God who can see our intentions:

> I John 3:18-19 - Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 3:13 - so that he may establish (G4741 stérizó: To establish, strengthen, fix, set firmly) your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. (ESV)

An established heart is one which has become dedicated:

> I Corinthians 7:37 - But whoever is firmly established in his heart, being under no necessity but having his desire under control, and has determined this in his heart, to keep her as his betrothed, he will do well. (ESV)

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

78.4.18 Journal <2025-09-21 Sun>

See how it says that a person does not sin by taking a wife, even after they are called. But Paul says for those who marry after they are called there will be worldly troubles. And also, Paul points out that the present form of the world is passing away, so after we are called by God, we should really be anticipating the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ:

> I Corinthians 7:24-31 - So, brothers, in whatever condition each was called, there let him remain with God. Now concerning the betrothed, I have no command from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. I think that in view of the present distress it is good for a person to remain as he is. Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. But if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a betrothed woman marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that. This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. (ESV)

And marriage was instituted by God at the dawn of Creation. And anyone who is not God is not permitted to separate a marriage partner. And anyone who defiles the marriage bed would be judged. I would imagine that includes people who defile other people's marriages:

> Hebrews 13:4 - Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:15 - To give a human example, brothers: even with a man-made covenant, no one annuls it or adds to it once it has been ratified. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:17 - This is what I mean: the law, which came 430 years afterward, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to make the promise void. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:4-9 - He answered, Have you not read that he who created them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh? So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate. They said to him, Why then did Moses command one to give a certificate of divorce and to send her away? He said to them, Because of your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery. (ESV)

Nevertheless, I'm still committed to "remaining as I am", anticipating the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I don't want to live in this world anymore. I wish my memories were erased.

I woke up this morning to getting another LGBT dream and some other stuff which was not the confession of the testimony that Jesus Christ has come into the world in the flesh, and I had more spiritual attack against my soul.

Tired, I made breakfast and played some Cute Defense. I was in a game of "Cute Defense" on StarCraft II and 2 people were spreading perverted, sexual and homosexual speech in the game chat so everyone can see it and I initiated a votekick.

I was told they don't support the votekick and I responded to them that Jesus doesn't support them. And one of them laughed.

Journal <2025-09-25 Thu> What I meant when I said, "Jesus doesn't support them" is that Jesus doesn't want them to be doing what they were doing, spreading perverted language in the game chat.

I said that I hate them speading their perversion inside the game chat.

One of them said we're all sinners. I said that he sounded like an unrepentent one.

One of them said "I believe in God."

He said that hate is a sin.

I quoted 2 verses:

> Psalms 139:21 - Do I not hate (H6962 quwt, loathe) those who hate (H8130 sane, To hate, detest, be hostile to) you, O LORD? And do I not loathe (H6962 quwt, loathe) those who rise up against you? (ESV)

In Psalms 139:21, there are two words which are translated into the English word "hate" but they are different words with different meanings. Proverbs 8:13 shows that it's a good thing to hate evil. As Psalms 139:21 shows, David loathed people who hate God but in the Greek it doesn't say that he hated them the same way that those people hated God because a different word was used. Sadly, the English translation here confuses this by using the same word in place of two different words.

> Proverbs 8:13 - The fear of the LORD is hatred (H8130 sane, To hate, detest, be hostile to) of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate (H8130 sane, To hate, detest, be hostile to). (ESV)

I had specifically said, "The fear of God is the hatred of sin." I think that's a good paraphrase.

I said if you obey sin you'll die but if you obey God you'll live.

I actually hate when people spread filthy, sexual words in the game. And young people including children might be playing this video game. And these people were defending what they were doing.

And I pray for them that they'll repent and come to love God and hate sin.

```
Dear Heavenly Father and my Lord Jesus Christ and Holy Spirit,
God, I want them to turn from their sin.
please, God, my desire is for them to turn away from sin and for them to love, You, God.
I hate with a righteous hatred when people commit gross injustice.
Spreading disgusting perverted speech in a video game especially when there may be young people r
And my anger against people who do such things is a righteous anger.
I don't consider them to be my family in Christ if they are unrepentant.
I know that I must agape love my family in Christ, but if people love sin more that You, God, the and I hate the fact that their actions influence other people and because I don't want people to these people who love sin more than You to be stopped particularly because it hurts other people,
That's the issue. It's not that I don't want them to be saved. I want them to be saved.
But I hate what they're doing. Do I love them? In that I don't want them to perish, yes, but come Please help them, God, to be saved.
In Jesus Christ's name, I ask,
AMEN!!
```

This person had said that they "believe in God." May God help them to change their ways and live pleasing to Him, pleasing to the Lord Jesus Christ.

> I Corinthians 5:1-13 - It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you. For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? Cleanse out the old leaven that you may be a new lump, as you really are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Let us therefore celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? God judges those outside. Purge the evil person from among you. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 18:20-24 - The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not suffer for the iniquity of the father, nor the father suffer for the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself. But if a wicked person turns away from all his sins that he has committed and keeps all my statutes and does what is just and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. None of the transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him; for the righteousness that he has done he shall live. Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked, declares the Lord GOD, and not rather that he should turn from his way and live? But when a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice and does the same abominations that the wicked person does, shall he live? None of the righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered; for the treachery of which he is guilty and the sin he has committed, for them he shall die. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 2:2-6 - I know your works, your toil and your patient endurance, and how you cannot bear with those who are evil, but have tested those who call themselves apostles and are not, and found them to be false. I know you are enduring patiently and bearing up for my name's sake, and you have not grown weary. But I have this against you, that you have abandoned the love you had at first. Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent, and do the works you did at first. If not, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent. Yet this you have: you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. (ESV)

> Mark 3:5 - And he looked around at them with anger, grieved at their hardness of heart, and said to the man, Stretch out your hand. He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. (ESV)

78.4.19 Journal <2025-09-25 Thu>

> Luke 6:27-28 - But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. (ESV)

While Christians may loathe, be disgusted by people who celebrate sin, by people who hate God, Christians must not hate them with a murderous hatred. We must not desire for them to perish eternally, but would rather see them change their ways.

> Ezekiel 20:43 - And there you shall remember your ways and all your deeds with which you have defiled yourselves, and you shall loathe yourselves for all the evils that you have committed. (ESV)

Keep in mind that Paul advised a congregation of believers to put the sinful, evil person out of the congregation, hand them over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that their spirit would be saved. This person must have been unrepentant.

In sending them to jail or putting them outside the church, they might go through tribulation but perhaps they would repent, but Paul them doesn't want them to perish eternally by continuing to commit that sinful stuff they were doing.

> I Corinthians 5:1-13 - It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you. For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? Cleanse out the old leaven that you may be a new lump, as you really are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Let us therefore celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? God judges those outside. Purge the evil person from among you. (ESV)

So yes, hate the sin.

> Romans 12:9 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. (ESV)

> Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

We should be wishing for other people to be saved. And we should overcome evil with good, return good for evil.

I found out today about what Donald Trump recently said:

Regarding what Donald Trump said at the Memorial for Charlie Kirk:

Donald Trump said "In that private moment on his dying day, we find everything we need to know about who Charlie Kirk truly was. He was a missionary with a noble spirit and a great, great purpose. He did not hate his opponents. He wanted the best for them. That's where I disagreed with Charlie. I hate my opponent. And I don't want the best for them. I'm sorry. I am sorry, Erika. But now Erika can talk to me and the whole group and maybe they can convince me that that's not right. But I can't stand my opponent."

I think it might be OK that he said, "I can't stand my opponent" if it were meant in the sense of he's disgusted by his opponent if he is disgusted at them because they're evil, if they are evil. But being disgusted at our enemies shouldn't stop us from loving our enemies and doing good to them.

> Revelation of John 2:2 - I know your works, your toil and your patient endurance, and how you cannot bear (G941 bastazó , to bear, carry, endure, support) with those who are evil, but have tested those who call themselves apostles and are not, and found them to be false. (ESV)

> Luke 9:41 - Jesus answered, O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you and bear (G430. anechó, To endure, to bear with, to tolerate, to hold up) with you? Bring your son here. (ESV)

So Paul here didn't "bear with" the evil person but still seemed to have their best interest in mind. So sending someone to prison for evil behaviour, or putting them out of the church is OK:

> I Corinthians 5:4-5 - When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. (ESV)

But to say "I hate my opponent", I hope was only in that "loathing/disgusted by" sense and not in the "have no regard for the life of/does not see value in" sense, as agape love (which Christians are commanded to have for those who hate them) is a love which wishes for the other person to not perish eternally by being a slave to sin.

> Leviticus 19:17-18 - 'You shall not hate your fellow countryman in your heart; you may surely reprove your neighbor, but shall not incur sin because of him. You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the sons of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself; I am the LORD. (NASB)

I think that love "wills the ultimate good of another". And sometimes, that does mean discipline. So when Trump said, "I don't want the best for them. I'm sorry. I am sorry, Erika. But now Erika can talk to me and the whole group and maybe they can convince me that that's not right. But I can't stand my opponent." I truly hope that deep down he does and that what he really means is that he doesn't want evil to thrive but that all, even his enemies, even those who hate him, even those who he is disgusted by, would reach repentance and arrive at the love of the Truth.

> Proverbs 13:24 - Whoever spares the rod hates his son, but he who loves him is diligent to discipline him. (ESV)

> II Peter 3:9-13 - The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. (ESV)

> Matthew 12:33-35 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. (ESV)

Biblical love doesn't mean endorsing a person's works/behaviour and it's not against love, nor is it hateful to express your opinion on bad behaviour. The Bible makes it very clear here that a person can rebuke another person without hating them. Biblical love is not affirming of sin. But Biblical love does not hate one's neighbour in the heart. It's not wrong to call out evil behaviour, and it's not wrong to separate ourselves from the company of disbelievers. It's OK to hate sin. In fact, it's very important for Christians to hate sin:

> Leviticus 19:17-18 - ‘You shall not hate your fellow countryman in your heart; you may surely reprove (H3198 tō · w · ḵî · aḥ; You shall rebuke) your neighbor, but shall not incur sin because of him. You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the sons of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself; I am the LORD. (NASB)

> Proverbs 27:5-7 - Better is open rebuke than hidden love. Faithful are the wounds of a friend; profuse are the kisses of an enemy. One who is full loathes honey, but to one who is hungry everything bitter is sweet. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 3:19 - Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline, so be zealous and repent. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 18:32 - For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live. (ESV)

Being ’philos with (friends with, allured by, attracted to)’, money , self, pleasure, rather than ((G3123 mallon: rather [Adv])) being allured by God (wanting to be around God) is bad. But we should avoid those who are attracted to such things rather than/instead of God. We want to be attracted to God, and certainly must be attracted to God moreso than by pleasure, money, self, etc. And we are instructed to avoid such people who are drawn to such things in preference to God. We are to avoid enemies of God:

> II Timothy 3:1-5 - But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self (G5367 philautoi: lovers of self [Adj-NMP]), lovers of money (G5366 philargyroi: lovers of money [Adj-NMP]), proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good (G865 aphilagathoi: without love of good [Adj-NMP]), treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure (G5369 philēdonoi: lovers of pleasure [Adj-NMP]) rather than (G3123 mallon: rather [Adv]) lovers of God (G5377 philotheoi: lovers of God [Adj-NMP]), having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. (ESV)

> James 4:4 - You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. (ESV)

I do find certain people to be disgusting. For example, when people are putting seedy, perverted speech inside of a video game chat. People that commit evil abominations disgust me, for sure. But there is a part of me that knows that I was doing evil things once too and still I make mistakes (but I am repentant: I trust in Jesus, I believe in Him, I believe His words and deeds and I love Jesus, and I want to be holy as He is holy), and I would prefer that such people who celebrate, love and defend sin come to repentance, come to love God, love Jesus and hate sin.

> I Corinthians 6:11 - And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. (ESV)

I think it’s disappointing what Trump said on TV, but it was said with some ambiguity.

> Psalms 139:21 - Do I not hate (H6962 quwt, loathe) those who hate (H8130 sane, To hate, detest, be hostile to) you, O LORD? And do I not loathe (H6962 quwt, loathe) those who rise up against you? (ESV)

David goes on to say that he hates his enemies, actually hates them. Jesus calls us to love our enemies, though:

> Psalms 139:22-24 - I hate them (G8130 śə · nê · ṯîm, , I hate them) with complete hatred; I count them my enemies. Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting! (ESV)

> Luke 6:27-28 - But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:43-45 - You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate (G3404 misēseis) your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. (ESV)

In Psalms 139:21, there are two words which are translated into the English word "hate" but they are different words with different meanings. Proverbs 8:13 shows that it's a good thing to hate evil. As Psalms 139:21 shows, David loathed people who hate God but in the Greek it doesn't say that he hated them the same way that those people hated God because a different word was used. Sadly, the English translation here confuses this by using the same word in place of two different words.

> Proverbs 8:13 - The fear of the LORD is hatred (H8130 sane, To hate, detest, be hostile to) of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate (H8130 sane, To hate, detest, be hostile to). (ESV)

78.4.20 Journal <2025-10-29 Wed>

I confess that Jesus Christ is the Only Begotten Son of God and that God does adopt children through their faith in Jesus Christ.

Jesus' Father is Father God. This is Jesus saying in part that He's "the" Son of God. But Jesus said many things and did many works which make testimony to Him being the Son of God, the Son of Man, even to being God (I AM), to being "one with God" (He and the Father are One). And I affirm that:

> John 8:53-54 - Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do you make yourself out to be? Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, He is our God. (ESV)

I think that Jesus affirms His Kingship here. But I'm not an expert on the Greek. Often the Bible translations say, "It is as you say." where it seems to be literally "You have said so". Anyway, I do trust and affirm that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the King of Kings, the King of the Jews, Jehovah Son of Jehovah God:

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

> Mark 15:2 - And Pilate asked him, Are you the King of the Jews? And he answered him, You have said so. (ESV)

Through faith in Jesus Christ, we may become sons of God:

> John 1:12-13 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:25-26 - But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. (ESV)

We must be "in Christ Jesus" and we must have faith in Jesus Christ. We must abide in Jesus' commandments (in Christ) and we must have faith in Jesus Christ, and having faith in Jesus Christ is one of His commandments. This faith in Jesus Christ in order to be in Christ must also necessitate the love for the truth. Jesus' commandments depend on the Great 2 commandments:

> Galatians 3:27 - For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. (ESV)

> Luke 20:34-36 - And Jesus said to them, The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage, but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

78.4.21 Journal <2025-10-31 Fri>

Father God testified of Jesus, calling Jesus His Son:

> Mark 1:11 - And a voice came from heaven, You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased. (ESV)

A lot of other people confessed that Jesus the Son of God:

> John 1:34 - And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God. (ESV)

> John 1:49 - Nathanael answered him, Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel! (ESV)

Holy Spirit has testified that Jesus Christ is the Son of God:

> Romans 1:4 - and was declared to be the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, (ESV)

> I Timothy 3:16 - Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of godliness: He was manifested in the flesh, vindicated by the Spirit, seen by angels, proclaimed among the nations, believed on in the world, taken up in glory. (ESV)

> Romans 8:11 - If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. (ESV)

> Romans 5:5 - and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 1:22 - and who has also put his seal on us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee. (ESV)

When a person believes that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, they are believing that the person called Jesus (the Jesus who is the Messiah who is spoken of in the gospels Matthew, Mark, Luke and John) that person Jesus is the Son of God. So there's more significance to the declaration of faith that Jesus Christ is the Son of God by virtue of it being Jesus Christ who is being confessed as being the Son of God. Because a person might also claim "Adam is also the son of God" but Adam is not Jesus Christ the Word made flesh:

> I John 5:5 - Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)

> Mark 1:1 - The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. (ESV)

> Luke 3:38 - the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God. (ESV)

What's quoted in the New Testament from Jesus is that Jesus spoke with His physical mouth that God is His Father. This offended some people a lot. Jesus instructs us to call God our Father as well. I believe we are not merely supposed to pray to God as Father, but also, literally, put a stop to using the title to refer to any man on earth:

> John 5:17-18 - But Jesus answered them, My Father is working until now, and I am working. This was why the Jews were seeking all the more to kill him, because not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God. (ESV)

> Matthew 23:9 - And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. (ESV)

The Apostle Paul here is not instructing people to call him father, but he does seem to be claiming the title. At best I'd say it's only true that Paul can claim the title until someone begins calling God the Father of Jesus Christ their own father. Jesus' commandments trump Paul's instruction:

> I Corinthians 4:15 - For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. (ESV)

I believe that in I Cor 11:1 Paul is asking those who imitate him to imitate him in imitating Christ. He actually commends his own followers for maintaining the traditions that he handed to them, but makes it clear to them that not only is he himself following Christ, seeking to imitate Christ, but that the head of every man is Christ:

- I Corinthians 10:32-33 - Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1-3 - Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ. Now I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I delivered them to you. But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1 (Interlinear) - Imitators (G3402 Mimētai) of me (G1473 mou) be (G1096 ginesthe) as (G2531 kathōs) I also [am] (G2504 kagō) of Christ (G5547 Christou)

> Romans 14:4-6 - Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand. One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. (ESV)

> Romans 14:14-18 - I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean. For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died. So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil. For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

And when people called Jesus the Son of God, He did not reprove them:

> Matthew 14:33 - And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, Truly you are the Son of God. (ESV)

> John 1:49-50 - Nathanael answered him, Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel! Jesus answered him, Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these. (ESV)

If we take the word ”literal” to mean ”literal meaning”, then yes, Jesus has said that He's Father God's 'son' in John 8:54.

> John 8:54 - Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, He is our God. (ESV)

If we take the word ”literal” to mean ”literal meaning”, then Jesus claims to be the Son of God, as in the Only-Begotten Son of God in John 8:28 by claiming to be the Son of Man if we connect that to Daniel 7:13:

> John 8:28 - So Jesus said to them, When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and that I do nothing on my own authority, but speak just as the Father taught me. (ESV)

> Daniel 7:13 - I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him. (ESV)

Is it recorded in the New Testament that Jesus said ”verbatim” ”I am the Son of God” (Huios tou Theou eimi) but it is part of a question and in the English in isolation it could be read as merely a question without actually affirming it:

> John 10:35-36 - If he called them gods to whom the word of God came—and Scripture cannot be broken— do you say of him whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, You are blaspheming, because I said, I am the Son of God? (ESV)

So Jesus has both literally (same meaning, no metaphor) said that He is the Son of God, and verbatim (without necessarily affirming the words in the same words) ”I am the Son of God” (but He might have been).

Does the New Testament record Jesus at the same time both literally and verbatim speaking ”I am the Son of God?” (”Huios tou Theou eimi”) in affirming it as truth? That is a question I cannot answer with certainty. I'd literally have to know Jesus' heart at that exact moment He said what He said and there are things which Jesus has spoken which are not written down.

I believe that God is good. I do not believe that God is evil. I truly believe that Jesus Christ God's Son is good and Father God Jehovah is good.

If a person were to ask me ”why” I believe that Jesus Christ is God's Only-Begotten Son, one of the reasons is because I think His works were agape-loving and good, obedient and faithful to Father God.

I think that's important because in examinng whether or not I really believe, I think that believing Jesus Christ is the Son of God would involve believing that He is good as Father God is good, that He practiced righteousness. Like Father, like Son. And I like the person of Jesus Christ. I think He is good and He's Righteous. Jesus Christ is more righteous than me, that's for sure. Jesus Christ is perfectly obedient and always does and always ever did the will of Father God. Jesus Christ is insurpassable righteousness.

> John 8:31-47 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas: having believed 'V-RPA-AMP past tense') in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 13:5-8 - Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you? —unless indeed you fail to meet the test! I hope you will find out that we have not failed the test. But we pray to God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed. For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth.

Seek to please God who sees everything. The person who does the will of God in reality doesn't require other mere humans to commend them in order to have confidence. Rather, the person who does the will of God in reality knows God sees when they do as instructed of by Him, and so they just seek to do what God has instructed:

> II Corinthians 10:11-12 - Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. Not that we dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who are commending themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding. (ESV)

If we see others not doing the will of God, then we should in similar fashion to Jesus teach others what to do (i.e. what Jesus' instruction is) but not judge them if they do not appear do it after instructing them, but rather quote John 12:44-50 to them. Let them know that Jesus' word will judge on the last day but that Jesus has come to save and we should imitate His patience. Let them know that you'll still endeavour to keep Jesus' commandment. Saying it once is enough. Staying silent is also an option if they insist that Jesus' commandment is wrong:

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

I don't know what Jesus had in mind then He spoke the words 'You (G4771 Hymeis) say (G3004 legete) that (G3754 hoti) I (G1473 egō) am (G1510 eimi)', according to the writer of Luke, and I don't know Biblical Hebrew. But I find it amazing that through even the testimony of others, and through the testimony of Father God, and through the prophets, and through the works, and through everything that He did, so many people came to believe that He is God's Only Begotten Son but I do believe the Scripture and I believe the testimony of the Apostles. I trust that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, I hope in it and I believe it and I hope and trust in Jesus:

> Luke 22:70-71 - And they all said, "Are You the Son of God, then?" And He said to them, "Yes, I am." Then they said, "What further need do we have of testimony? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth." (NASB)

> Luke 22:70-71 - So they all said, Are you the Son of God, then? And he said to them, You say that I am. Then they said, What further testimony do we need? We have heard it ourselves from his own lips. (ESV)

> Luke 22:70-71 - And they all said, 'Thou, then, art the Son of God?' and he said unto them, 'Ye say it , because I am;' and they said, 'What need yet have we of testimony? for we ourselves did hear it from his mouth.' (YLT)

The verses which follow clearly demonstrate that Jesus Christ is affirming that He is God's Son. They also show that having faith that Jesus is the Son of God is essentially related and perhaps equivalent to having faith that Jesus is in the Father and the Father in Jesus. And with Father God's works, Jesus Christ's works, Father

God's testimony, and the confession of other people, all available, we are instructed by Jesus to either trust Jesus' words, or believe on the account of the works. Yes, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and Father God dwelling in Jesus was doing His works, and I believe that Jesus and Father God are One.:

> John 14:10-12 - Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)
>
> John 10:9-14 - I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly. I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. He flees because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, (ESV)

78.4.22 Journal <2025-11-04 Tue>

So this morning I wake up to a voice which just tells me "we love you, no matter what you do" and a dream of walking around an empty university which still had its internet running.

But the word of God says this:

> I John 4:8 - Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:16 - So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:10 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (ESV)
>
> II John 1:6 - And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. (ESV)
>
> II Timothy 2:12 - if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; (ESV)
>
> James 4:4 - You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. (ESV)

Information is different than the physical food because it affects the mind and heart when believed. If someone ingests AI generated lies and believes them, and confess it it, they are defiled by it. If it goes through the mind and heart and a person believes it, they are defiled by it.

> Mark 7:18-20 - And he said to them, Then are you also without understanding? Do you not see that whatever goes into a person from outside cannot defile him, since it enters not his heart but his stomach, and is expelled? (Thus he declared all foods clean.) And he said, What comes out of a person is what defiles him. (ESV)

And we're cleaned by trusting and loving what is true:

> John 15:3 - Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. (ESV)

Essentially what is going on with this massive push for ASI (artificial super intelligence) is this. Evil people stubbornly resisting Jesus want to be their own god, they want to be on the throne of their own heart. They don't want the wisdom that is Jesus Christ. They don't want to come under Jesus' Lordship, they don't want to humble themselves and confess Jesus, they don't to come to Jesus, but would prefer to build their own "golden calf" which they can put their attention on, see with their natural eyes, without needing to deal with sin, come to know and see Jesus.

> I John 3:6 - No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. (ESV)

reddit.com: so$_{faraihasdoneanabsurdamountofgoodin}$ I commented,

> Robin-hood style deeds (stealing to give) are not good. Nothing good can be founded on lies and theft. The ends do not justify the means.
>
> Also, I think that the development of ’agentic’ AI devalues real human beings, and devaluing humans is not exactly ”loving one’s neighbour as oneself”. Agape love is treasuring/valuing. Agentic AI only works because of human exploitation and theft and the effective devaluation of real human beings within society.
>
> This is not legal ”opportunism”:
>
> A thief waiting for someone to leave their house so that they can break in and steal from it
>
> Neither is this legal ”opportunism”:
>
> Training AI on everything that can be seen online.
>
> Convincing people that the technology is ”transformative”, and pushing it out into the public to get everyone ”hooked”, combined with some AI fearmongering, then passing laws in government to ”legalise” what they’ve already done unlawfully.
>
> Sure, it’s transformative in that it’s turning lots of people into thieves. Just because the government says it’s lawful doesn’t mean God thinks it’s lawful. Stealing should never be lawful.

God loves us and He gave us free will to receive His salvation from sin through Jesus Christ our Lord who’s commandments we abide in. And God loves us so He lets people choose to go to hell if they want to. In rejecting Christ, God hands them over to an eternity without Christ. So people get their heart’s desire.

God ”gives people up” to the lusts of their hearts:

> Romans 1:21-32 - For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise, they became fools, and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles. Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen. For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error. And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind to do what ought not to be done. They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless. Though they know God’s decree that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but give approval to those who practice them. (ESV)

I certainly, wholeheartedly, and without reservation pass judgement on people who are trying to replace God and human beings with robots. I know God’s judgement will fall on those who by their unrighteous idolatry and insatiable greed suppress the truth of God and exploit human beings, and those who imbibe on that AI generated stuff will receive what is due for it. I have no reservations about this judgement. I think that anyone who wants to live in that cesspit future where technology tramples over all that is sacred, can spend their eternity being consumed by it. And anyone who would rather have God should be able to be sanctified and go to be with God instead.

> Romans 2:1-3 - Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things.

> We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who do such things. Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God? (ESV)

> Revelation of John 21:27 - But nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is detestable or false, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

AGI is essentially trying to replace human beings with technology. ASI is trying to replace God with technology.

But to force people to imbibe on and be indoctrinated by this AGI and ASI stuff I think is worthy of condemnation.

> Romans 14:15 - For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died. (ESV)

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV) reddit.com: $\text{what}_{\text{happenstopeoplewhoarealreadyjoblessin}}$ What has happened with the AI stuff is like a global cancer. It's a sickness. In the Bible it says this:

> Ecclesiastes 3:12-13 - I perceived that there is nothing better for them than to be joyful and to do good as long as they live; also that everyone should eat and drink and take pleasure in all his toil—this is God's gift to man. (ESV)

So if "eating and drinking and taking pleasure in all one's toil/work" is God's gift to man, and then some person with a so-called "net worth" of billions or trillions of dollars focuses their research into taking away this gift with the promise of not needing to work anymore... That's not going to make people happy is it?

Mimicking people with robots, reducing the "net worth" of real people... it's not loving in the Biblical sense at all. Taking people's jobs through automating people is not loving, especially while not replacing jobs with other jobs.

Different from automating human beings out of existence, agape love, is a valuing love.

Jesus said, "Freely you received, freely give."

The people building this AGI/ASI stuff, on the other hand, seem to have a policy more like, "Freely we have taken from others, and now we're going to sell it back to them, and not just that but even if the talented people who's work went into the training data for building the AI systems don't want to use our AI, everyone else will because the AI automates the original author's creative style and cheapens it."

> Proverbs 11:18 - The wicked earns deceptive wages, but one who sows righteousness gets a sure reward. (ESV)

It's just all exploiting people, and replacing them. It's the opposite of agape love which values people.

> Proverbs 14:31 - Whoever oppresses a poor man insults his Maker, but he who is generous to the needy honors him. (ESV)

Not that I would want to go near their blood-diamond AI systems, even if they went free.

The training data itself which has gone into building these systems has not been freely given for the purpose of building them. So they're all just "dirty" and I wouldn't want to get my hands dirty using them.

So as for me, I'm just going to learn to make my own stuff and try to separate from and avoid all the AI theft evil. I'd rather maintain a good conscience and be clean.

Work is God's gift to man that they may have joy in their labours. And crushing people's spirits through automation is not right:

> Ecclesiastes 3:12-13 - I perceived that there is nothing better for them than to be joyful and to do good as long as they live; also that everyone should eat and drink and take pleasure in all his toil—this is God's gift to man. (ESV)

> Romans 11:29 - For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 9:9-10 - For it is written in the Law of Moses, You shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain. Is it for oxen that God is concerned? Does he not speak entirely for our sake? It was written for our sake, because the plowman should plow in hope and the thresher thresh in hope of sharing in the crop. (ESV)

This generative AI stuff. To use an analogy, learning from AI generated material is like feeding on the collective feces of the human race. And to put an eternal spin on this, being led by AI wont take a person to Father God. Jesus is the only way to Father God. Being led by artificial intelligence entails not being led by the Spirit of Christ.

Anything that tries to force it on to me I rebuke in the Mighty name of Jesus Christ.

78.4.23 Journal <2025-11-04 Tue>

I had some really nice interactions and conversations with people on the street and at my Bible study.

Another cool thing I noticed theologically today is the ”faith and love” pattern fits Abraham's justification. Abraham was justified by faith when He believed God and it was counted as righteousness. And when Abraham was justified by works, God tested His heart for love and fear of God (which are highly related).

Thinking over the beauty of justification by faith in Jesus, Jesus being worthy to be resurrected from the dead and worthy to be Lord, and how confessing that Jesus is the Son of God carry's with it an acknowledgement that He is worthy to have that title and confessing Jesus is Lord, likewise, there is a beautiful elegance to God's wisdom.

And I had real joy in contemplating God and theology today, and some amazing fellowship with a bunch of people who have faith in and love the Lord Jesus Christ.

> Philippians 2:9-11 - Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (ESV)

In the evening I have felt like God has been cleaning me. I just feel this warm fire of cleansing over my body. I hope this trend continues.

I pray that people come to repentance.

> John 10:25-30 - Jesus answered them, I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me, but you do not believe because you are not part of my flock. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are one. (ESV)

78.4.24 Journal <2025-11-05 Wed>

> Psalms 127:1 - Unless the LORD (H3068. Yhvh - Phonetic Spelling: (yeh-ho-vaw'), Often pronounced: Yahweh or Jehovah) builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain. (ESV)

78.4.25 Journal <2025-11-06 Thu>

Last night I googled for ”can a person legally run mac os 7” and this search result stuck out as if it shouldn’t even belong in the results and I had a look over it.

`https://www.whitehouse.gov/wp-content/uploads/2025/07/Americas-AI-Action-Plan.pdf`

I think that AI should not be used to replace human workers in any way, and that AI should stick to ”running in the background” of society doing menial tasks that humans don’t want to do. And humans do want jobs. Just because something can be done with automation doesn’t mean it should be done with automation. Studying human beings to automate them is a form of terrorism. Forcing human beings to treat robots like humans (to think of them as peers) is a form of terrorism, and very much against Jesus’ teachings.

> Galatians 5:14 - For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. (ESV)
>
> I John 2:15 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. (ESV)

People should stick to studying something else with their computers, rather than human beings in order to automate tasks that belong to humans. Chatbots are not people. Innovation should not be allowed to trample over human beings, and for what end? It’s driven by greed. Who is in political power except people who have lots of money? The Kingdom of God is about serving one another through love, and rather than wealth redistribution, this drive to ”innovate” with AI is driven by the love of money and is therefore, anti-God, and it tramples over human beings. It’s an atheistic pursuit. The people who are in power in the Kingdom of God are actually the poor. It’s a spiritual kingdom.

But we should not let our minds be coerced by the evil generation that is the ’world’ that we are called to separate from (Biblical separation. i.e. while there might not be physical distancing, we distance ourselves by applied holy living).

It grieves me where there is a push to integrate robots into society and give them roles and rights which should only be given to a human.

And ASI stuff is an abomination, straight up. I want nothing to do with the ”Golden [Calf] Age”. People who are trying to build ASI are disbelievers and under the control of the evil one.

Early this morning, I was attacked by evil spirits again. I rebuke it in Jesus Christ’s name.

Sadly, more spiritual defilement affecting my body sexually and attacking my mind, waking me up etc. t

Sorry for the TMI (too much information). If I’m getting attacked, I’m not going to sweep it under the rug. I’m going to deal with it with God’s help. I got so aroused by whatever was attacking me I had to relieve myself. I have felt disgusting this entire morning as a consequence. It’s demonic. I’ll keep fighting against it. It’s basically spiritual rape what’s been happening to me. And laying there, knowing I’m under attack, as these voices intrude into my mind, I am fight against them trying to sing the lyrics of ”onward Christian soldiers” and having some satanic thing trying to force into my mind ”’online’ Christian solders”, and when confessing sin to God in my mind, having this demonic voice say (can’t remember the exact words) something like, ”don’t confess sin, confessing sin is for the weak”, getting mocking dreams and voices in my head in the morning. And also these voices putting antichrist thoughts in my head (stuff that attacks the person of Jesus Christ).

For the love of God, the spiritual attacks need to stop. Jesus Christ needs to do something about it.

OK, rant time about AI, since I’ve had a read over the document that came out of the White House regarding the AI Action Plan. People should be able to have joy in their profession and be able to progress to become artisans and refine their art and craft, and have joy in their work.

As an analogy, consider handwriting. Not much technology is required but the skill can be developed and honed, and that’s a nice thing.

This is cool youtube.com: How to write Bubble font alphabet {@ takumitohgu }

Some innovations do not make life better, but actually they destroy culture.

To make a computer science analogy, you don't always use QuickSort but sometimes you resort to a simpler algorithm such as InsertionSort because, although InsertionSort is a simpler algorithm that doesn't scale as well for all problems, it's the best algorithm for the job in some cases. See: youtube.com: Timsort - When one algorithm isn ' t enough {@ algoandre }

In a similar fashion, it's not a good idea to "throw AI at everything".

To make a movie analogy, the movie Last Samurai. The culture of the samurai was sophisticated and the people were happy, and then the innovation from the westerners influenced the government and trampled over their culture, but the simpler samurai lifestyle was better, especially for that small society. It didn't need the "big tech" of it's day.

It's important to allow people to "learn and mature at a natural pace" rather than continually gaslight (undermine the sanity of) and force updates and change onto people.

A person can feel rich with very few possessions and not much technology if they are given time to have mastery over what they have. There's no need to force change on people, to hammer new technology into them if they are happy and content. If people are happy and not under stress, how nice would that be and how many problems would that solve?

- People should able to rest.
- People should able to have hope for the future.
- People should able to live in a way that the Bible says is pleasing to God.

How can anyone have peace if they're not able to function as God designed them to function?

The American economy being driven by AI for profit is a very scary thought, and a reality by the sounds of it. The AI problem is different to previous problems. AI needs be altruistic. If AI is not developed with real goals for improving the lives of other people, instead of say, just trying to make something that achieves some technological feat, then it shouldn't be developed at all, in my opinion.

If it isn't good will and altruism that are the core reasons for developing any AI technology, then I don't think said technology should be developed at all.

If the core heuristic of what makes technology performant is not, say, overcoming problems that human beings want to be solved, then whatever it is that the AI is optimising for over time is going to be misaligned with the goals of people at large. If the core heuristic for what AI projects to fund is whether or not they lead to "AI supremacy" or to profit, then I think that it's an evil pursuit. Seeking "AI supremacy" is almost synonymous with seeking to dominate the wills of other people. Literally, Sauron, One Ring stuff. Seeking "AI for profit" is almost synonymous with building the Matrix and devaluing people.

Human beings are not to be valued according to how much money they can make. I don't care how sophisticated a robot is, it's never worth more than a person.

Chatbots being integrated into the fabric of society is an indication of the end times, as it's an indication of the devaluing of people, and a lack of Biblical love.

> Matthew 24:12 - And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. (ESV)

There is the illusion that something can even be done with automation when in reality it can't, but people might not be able to see why it can't, but it's actually impossible to be done with automation.

- Getting born-again of the spirit can't be done with automation.
- Entering the Kingdom of God can't be done with automation.
- Praying to God can't be done with automation.
- Repentance can't be done with automation.
- The duty of a priest can't be done with automation.
- The duty of a marriage partner can't be done with automation.

- The duty to God and one's neighbour can't be done with automation.
- The steadfast love of God can't be done with automation.
- Trusting in God can't be done with automation.
- There are things that are impossible to do with automation and must be fulfilled by human beings.

So therefore, we've got be really careful with technology to not infringe on the sacred. God, the Rock of Ages can't be replaced by automation. ASI can't take the role. ASI can't do the job.

When people say Jehovah or Yahweh I recognise both of those as referring to God's proper name given to Moses. I never heard the phonemes directly from God but God sees my heart. If there was currently issue with using precise phonemes, then I'm sure God would clear that up. Jehovah and Yahweh both really are referring to the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and refer to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Just as Jesus, Yeshua or Iesous also refer to Christ, the Son and I believe that Jesus' name also belongs to Father God.

> John 17:10-11 - All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. (ESV)

> Matthew 1:21 - She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins. (ESV)

I do believe that God's name of Yahweh, and also "Jesus" are shared among the Trinity:

> Matthew 28:19 - Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, (ESV)

> John 5:43 - I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. (ESV)

> John 10:25 - Jesus answered them, I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me, (ESV)

> Philippians 2:9-11 - Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:11 - inquiring what person or time the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent glories. (ESV)

> Romans 8:9 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. (ESV)

I also wanted to reiterate my stance on this because there have been several phenomena occurring in my life in the last weeks where God's name has appeared in a dream and people taking the name when I'm playing a video game, and also in conversations with people. There's stuff going on with me and that is why I'm confessing my stance on this right here in my journal.

Exodus 6:3 (Interlinear) and I appear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, as God Almighty; as to My name Jehovah, I have not been known to them;

78.4.26 Journal <2026-04-30 Thu 16:28>

I believe that AI companies should not be allowed to train their models on other people's copyrighted works. What's been going on with building these AI agents is illegal and immoral and it's ruining the fabric of society because legislators have basically said that what they have done is OK because it's transformative. But it's not OK. It never will be. It's blatant theft. I wish the people who have been constructing these AI systems would delete their stolen AI models, and only training from now on on data that has been legitimately obtained. It's disgusting that the world is full of automated exploitation of human beings now, through AI agent stuff built on theft because of unjust law in the US permitting people to steal from others so long as it's a computer doing the stealing. If a person uses a computer to train a neural network on someone else's data then it's permitted in the USA because it's "transformative".

news.ycombinator.com: Finetuning Activates Verbatim Recall of Copyrighted Books in LLMs | Hacker News

> Proverbs 1:19 - Such are the ways of everyone who is greedy for unjust gain; it takes away the life of its possessors. (ESV)

> Proverbs 28:15-16 - Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over a poor people. A ruler who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor, but he who hates unjust gain will prolong his days. (ESV)

God doesn't listen to the prayers of the wicked who love evil:

> Proverbs 15:29 - The LORD is far from the wicked, but he hears the prayer of the righteous. (ESV)

> Psalms 66:18 - If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened. (ESV)

> II Samuel 22:35-49 - He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze. You have given me the shield of your salvation, and your gentleness made me great. You gave a wide place for my steps under me, and my feet did not slip; I pursued my enemies and destroyed them, and did not turn back until they were consumed. I consumed them; I thrust them through, so that they did not rise; they fell under my feet. For you equipped me with strength for the battle; you made those who rise against me sink under me. You made my enemies turn their backs to me, those who hated me, and I destroyed them. They looked, but there was none to save; they cried to the LORD, but he did not answer them. I beat them fine as the dust of the earth; I crushed them and stamped them down like the mire of the streets. You delivered me from strife with my people; you kept me as the head of the nations; people whom I had not known served me. Foreigners came cringing to me; as soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me. Foreigners lost heart and came trembling out of their fortresses. The LORD lives, and blessed be my rock, and exalted be my God, the rock of my salvation, the God who gave me vengeance and brought down peoples under me, who brought me out from my enemies; you exalted me above those who rose against me; you delivered me from men of violence. (ESV)

78.4.27 Journal <2026-05-02 Sat 09:39>

Even as a charity it would be a Robin-Hood charity (i.e. stealing to give) if the models are being trained on data that has been stolen.

- youtube.com: Elon Musk testifies in landmark trial against OpenAI's Sam Altman {@ livenowfox }

Any organisation that steals data to build AI for profit is even worse than an organisation that steals data to build AI for "so-called" charity (i.e. to give back freely). Stealing to give back freely is not the same as "freely receiving" to give back freely.

78.4.28 Journal <2025-11-07 Fri>

I had a bit of a read over Pope Leo XIII's document today. It's worth a read.

I also don't want to rule out any possible good intentions in the "AI action plan". I haven't changed by stance though. I haven't said "AI technologies are altogether evil" but I have said that certain things should not be automated, and faith and love for God and our neighbour needs to be the guiding principles for the economy. If this is misaligned, then it's going to be much worse than children giving up their entire childhood to slave in a cotton mill. It's going to be much, much worse.

vatican.va rerum-novarum.html: Rerum Novarum { May 15 , 1891 } RERUM NOVARUM - ENCYCLICAL OF POPE LEO XIII - ON CAPITAL AND LABOR.

Given at St. Peter's in Rome, the fifteenth day of May, 1891, the fourteenth year of Our pontificate. LEO XIII

> 22. Therefore, those whom fortune favors are warned that riches do not bring freedom from sorrow and are of no avail for eternal happiness, but rather are obstacles; (9) that the rich should tremble at the threatenings of Jesus Christ - threatenings so unwonted in the mouth of our Lord (10) - and that a most strict account must be given to the Supreme Judge for all we possess. The chief and most excellent rule for the right use of money is one the heathen philosophers hinted at, but which the Church has traced out clearly, and has not only made known to men's minds, but has impressed upon their lives. It rests on the principle that it is one thing to have a right to the possession of money and another to have a right to use money as one wills. Private ownership, as we have seen, is the natural right of man, and to exercise that right, especially as members of society, is not only lawful, but absolutely necessary. "It is lawful," says St. Thomas Aquinas, "for a man to hold private property; and it is also necessary for the carrying on of human existence."" But if the question be asked: How must one's possessions be used? - the Church replies without hesitation in the words of the same holy Doctor: "Man should not consider his material possessions as his own, but as common to all, so as to share them without hesitation when others are in need. Whence the Apostle with, 'Command the rich of this world... to offer with no stint, to apportion largely.'" (12) True, no one is commanded to distribute to others that which is required for his own needs and those of his household; nor even to give away what is reasonably required to keep up becomingly his condition in life, "for no one ought to live other than becomingly." (13) But, when what necessity demands has been supplied, and one's standing fairly taken thought for, it becomes a duty to give to the indigent out of what remains over. "Of that which remaineth, give alms." (14) It is a duty, not of justice (save in extreme cases), but of Christian charity - a duty not enforced by human law. But the laws and judgments of men must yield place to the laws and judgments of Christ the true God, who in many ways urges on His followers the practice of almsgiving - 'It is more blessed to give than to receive"; (15) and who will count a kindness done or refused to the poor as done or refused to Himself - "As long as you did it to one of My least brethren you did it to Me." (16) To sum up, then, what has been said: Whoever has received from the divine bounty a large share of temporal blessings, whether they be external and material, or gifts of the mind, has received them for the purpose of using them for the perfecting of his own nature, and, at the same time, that he may employ them, as the steward of God's providence, for the benefit of others. "He that hath a talent," said St. Gregory the Great, "let him see that he hide it not; he that hath abundance, let him quicken himself to mercy and generosity; he that hath art and skill, let him do his best to share the use and the utility hereof with his neighbor." (17)

...

> 35. We have said that the State must not absorb the individual or the family; both should be allowed free and untrammelled action so far as is consistent with the common good and the interest of others. Rulers should, nevertheless, anxiously safeguard the community and all its > members; the community, because the conservation thereof is so emphatically the business of the supreme power, that the safety of the commonwealth is not only the first law, but it is a government's whole reason of existence; and the members, because both philosophy and the Gospel concur in laying down that the object of the government of the State should be, not the advantage of the ruler, but the benefit of those over whom he is placed. As the power to rule comes from God, and is, as it were, a participation in His, the highest of all sovereignties, it should be exercised as the power of God is exercised - with a fatherly solicitude which not only guides the whole, but reaches also individuals.

...

> 42. If we turn now to things external and material, the first thing of all to secure is to save unfortunate working people from the cruelty of men of greed, who use human beings as mere instruments for money-making. It is neither just nor human so to grind men down with excessive labor as to stupefy their minds and wear out their bodies. Man's powers, like his general nature, are limited, and beyond these limits he cannot go. His strength is developed and increased by use and exercise, but only on condition of due intermission and proper rest. Daily labor, therefore, should be so regulated as not to be protracted over longer hours than strength admits. How many and how long the intervals of rest should be must depend on the nature of the work, on circumstances of time and place, and on the health and strength of the workman. Those who work in mines and quarries, and extract coal, stone and metals from the bowels of the earth, should have shorter hours in proportion as their labor is more severe and trying to health. Then, again, the season of the year should be taken into account; for not unfrequently a kind of labor is easy at one time which at another is intolerable or exceedingly difficult. Finally, work which is quite suitable for a strong man cannot rightly be required from a woman or a child. And, in regard to children, great care should be taken not to place them in workshops and factories until their bodies and minds are sufficiently developed. For, just as very rough weather destroys the buds of spring, so does too early an experience of life's hard toil blight the young promise of a child's faculties, and render any true education impossible. Women, again, are not suited for certain occupations; a woman is by nature fitted for home-work, and it is that which is best adapted at once to preserve her modesty and to promote the good bringing up of children and the well-being of the family. As a general principle it may be laid down that a workman ought to have leisure and rest proportionate to the wear and tear of his strength, for waste of strength must be repaired by cessation from hard work.
>
> In all agreements between masters and work people there is always the condition expressed or understood that there should be allowed proper rest for soul and body. To agree in any other sense would be against what is right and just; for it can never be just or right to require on the one side, or to promise on the other, the giving up of those duties which a man owes to his God and to himself.

78.4.29 Journal <2025-11-15 Sat>

youtube.com: Ex - Microsoft Research Podcaster Explains AI {@ 100huntley } I commented: I appreciate how she mentioned the Great commandments and Jesus' commandments, because AGI can be thought of as devaluing people and ASI (artificial super intelligence), like a "golden calf". That's the 2 great commandments being violated there. As agape love, the love which Jesus calls us to have is one which values God and people, especially our family in Christ and is willing to lay down our life for other people. And the AGI stuff (trying to reverse engineer humans and replacing them) devalues humans, not to mention the insidious theft of it, stealing a person's likeness or creative work and calling it "transformative". Devaluing humans is the opposite of treasuring them.

78.4.30 Journal <2025-11-16 Sun>

It seems like I have been made me born-again and forced into a world where greedy people rather than giving up their worldly treasure to love other people in deed, hold onto their money and try to offload the duty of keeping Jesus' commandments to technology, devaluing people and pursuing this 'Golden Calf' of ASI and this has created a bit of a living hell for most of the people on planet earth. To leave me in this situation and under huge amounts of spiritual attack while not giving me the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit after getting born-again is absolutely criminal.

I still receive immense amounts of spiritual attack - dream attacks, continually at night time. Broken sleeps every night with lewd (sexually lewd), homosexual, basphemous, antichrist dreams, and when I wake up from them I also am hit with this defilement attacking my soul, making me aroused. When I am sitting down or laying on my bed, I very often and even as I am writing this, feel a defilement which is messing with my genitals, and often what feels like a ghost pressing into my mouth.

I want my complaint to go straight to throne room of God Almighty and sit at His feet day and night, every moment, always, to eternity or until He chooses to do something about it. May Jesus Christ do something about it and may He fulfill His promises. Because what has happened to me and continues to happen to me is worthy of condemndation. This ongoing spiritual oppression is satanic. Now, God has made promises. Jesus Christ has made promises. The Scripture gives promises, promises that sanctification will be brought to completion, and promises that if anyone abides in Jesus Christ's word, then Father God and Jesus Christ the Son of God will manifest to that person, and the Holy Spirit will bear testimony of Him (Jesus Christ).

A god who lies is not God at all so I have hope that Jesus will fulfill His promises and sanctify me completely and give me the promised testimony of Himself from Holy Spirit. Because as of this moment I have not heard the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit directly speaking inside of my heart. I have read the Scripture and believed the Scripture and I trust in God's word in the Scripture, even the testimony of Holy Spirit about Jesus Christ because Jesus was raised from the dead, but that is not the same type of testimony which is promised in the Scripture. That is me trusting the written word, trusting the Scripture. But what the Scripture also promises is that Jesus Christ will manifest. And the Scripture also promises that Holy Spirit would be in me and testify that I'm a child of God and will testify of Jesus Christ, and will cry "Abba Father" from my heart.

When I am receiving demonic dreams continually where I have satanic voices manifesting, then that is from a different spirit. What I'm hearing at night time with these antichrist, anti-repentance, lewd, anti-agape love of the truth, anti-holiness dreams, visions, voices, etc., these lying dreams and voices and pictures, is not from God, and is most certainly not the voice of the Holy Spirit.

What I want to hear is the voice of Holy Spirit.

My complaint rests with God, to eternity or to whenever He delivers me. God has made promises regarding deliverance from evil, sanctification and the voice of Holy Spirit which I'm hoping in. I'm not content with my situation. I'm not content with the satanic oppression I have received. My faithful God must do something about it immediately. What happens to me is a testimony of what happens to a person who is following the Lord Jesus Christ from the heart out of love for Jesus Christ. What I've so far endured is an injustice and it's absolutely criminal and whatever the source of the demonic attacks is destined for destruction. Whoever has put this satanic oppression on me I condemn. I hope there is a good reason for what I've been made to endure, but I don't know what it is. I don't want to deceive people. I'm trying my best to do my duty as a follower of Jesus to point people to the Truth. I'm going to write down what is happening to me. And if God delivers me for His glory to prove His trustworthiness, I'll most certainly let people know. Until then, I continue to put my trust in Jesus Christ, though it is me giving Him the benefit of the doubt.

78.4.31 Journal <2025-11-17 Mon>

People who are saved are people who have come to love truth rather than falsehood. That is one way to describe a saved person. When they hear more of the truth, they embrace it. So they might still have sin issues but prefer God to evil. And agreeing that Jesus is the Son of God entails believing God was just in raising Him from the dead.

> I Timothy 3:16 - Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of godliness: He was manifested in the flesh, vindicated by the Spirit, seen by angels, proclaimed among the nations, believed on in the > world, taken up in glory. (ESV)

It's important to cling, love, treasure this truth and persevere in the love of (treasuring of) the truth, in the agape love of God. If something contradicts God's Word then it is incorrect so we must be able to be corrected by God. We can be confident we are of the truth because we love God's truth and do God's commandments.

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

> I John 3:18-19 - Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; (ESV)

> John 5:24 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (ESV)

There's a lot of heresy that floats around. People cling to, trust in things that are not true. People sometimes use one truth to refute another truth in their own mind, and they delude themselves. So our hearts need to be soft enough to be corrected. We need to be teachable by God.

> I John 4:15 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. (ESV)

> I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)

> Psalms 119:140 - Your promise is well tried, and your servant loves it. (ESV)

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

> Matthew 22:37-40 - And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

If a person has come to love the Truth in their heart, if they have repented, the world who is in darkness will probably try to deny it and hold a false view of that person:

> I John 3:1 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. (ESV)

God sees the heart. No-one can cheat God. God sees everything:

> Jeremiah 20:12 - O LORD of hosts, who tests the righteous, who sees the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance upon them, for to you have I committed my cause. (ESV)

> John 2:24-25 - But Jesus on his part did not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people and needed no one to bear witness about man, for he himself knew what was in man. (ESV)

> Romans 2:15-16 - They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

These words remain true:

> Ezekiel 18:20-32 - The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not suffer for the iniquity of the father, nor the father suffer for the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself. But if a wicked person turns away from all his sins that he has committed and keeps all my statutes and does what is just and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. None of the transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him; for the righteousness that he has done he shall live. Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked, declares the Lord GOD, and not rather that he should turn from his way and live? But when a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice and does the same abominations that the wicked person does, shall he live? None of the righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered; for the treachery of which he is guilty and the sin he has committed, for them he shall die. Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not just. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way not just? Is it not your ways that are not just? When a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice, he shall die for it; for the injustice that he has done he shall die. Again, when a wicked person turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he shall save his life. Because he considered and turned away from all the transgressions that he had committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die. Yet the house of Israel says, The way of the Lord is not just. O house of Israel, are my ways not just? Is it not your ways that are not just? Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, declares the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions, lest iniquity be your ruin. Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live. (ESV)

> John 3:3-8 - Jesus answered him, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus said to him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb and be born? Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again. The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. (ESV)

> John 15:10-24 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. These things I command you, so that you will love one another. If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. Remember the word that I said to you: A servant is not greater than his master. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours. But all these things they will do to you on account of my name, because they do not know him who sent me. If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV)

78.4.32 Journal <2025-11-18 Tue>

Some thoughts I had this morning after getting a dream of me talking to someone from a Baptist church. In this dream it was depicted of them that they asked me "is a person permanently saved forever if it was only for a moment that they believed". And in this dream I had said, "Yes." And they also asked, "Why?" And in this dream I quoted / paraphrased, rather, several scriptures. Though now that I've awoken from that dream, I want to clarify my stance on this from Scripture, as I wasn't happy with the entire dream conversation. It seemed to have errors in it. So this is me clarifying my current position:

A person can fall away from the faith after first coming to believe.

> Luke 8:13 - And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe for a while, and in time of testing fall away. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

A person must come to not only have faith in the truth but also love the truth:

> John 8:31-47 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas: having believed 'V-RPA-AMP past tense') in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

As Ezekiel 18:20-32 clearly shows and as Jesus also says, a person is able to repent. A person is able to come into agreement with God and love the truth and forsake sin.

> Luke 13:3 - No, I tell you; but unless you repent (3340. metanoeó), you will all likewise perish. (ESV)

We have to abide in Jesus Christ's commandments through faith and obedience, and with perseverance.

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is > called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

In obedience we must abide in Jesus Christ's love, actually exercising it ourselves from our heart. We must not only hold our faith in Jesus Christ, but we must love Him and be keeping His commandments. We must be presently trusting and loving Jesus Christ, and continuing to abide in Jesus' commandments.

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

We must be keepers of Jesus Christ's law and the faith which we have in Him must not violate the 2 Great Commandments:

> Matthew 7:23-24 - And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 8:3 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)

> Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

Now to bring up John 11. This says whoever is "believing..." (G4100 pisteuōn, is believing, is trusting). So a person has to have died while trusting in Jesus Christ (see in John 11) and then continue going on trusting in Jesus Christ, continuing to trust Jesus Christ, in order to "by no means" die. So we must be abiding presently in Jesus Christ's commandments. We must be trusting before and after and during this "death" that we die.

And it's God's role to give eternal life.

I don't want to overspecify things to the point where it seems like I'm the one saying who is saved. I don't want to lean on my own understanding.

Disclaimer Also, I need God to for the love of Jesus Christ deliver me from the satanic intrusive dreams and other demonic harassment, and clean up my soul from all the defilement which I'm blaming on being put under demonic oppression after I was born-again for a very extended amount of time. And I'd like God to please give me the promised testimony from Holy Spirit so that I know when to trust a dream or a vision, etc. I just want to clarify that because God needs to make the first move so that I can be led. Everything is on the backburner until God fulfills His promises which He has promised. I'm continually sacrificing good things while Jesus lets the devil rob me and lets the 'locusts' (Joel 2:25) attack me continually, all because I'm waiting on Jesus Christ to fulfill His promises and can't make particular moves without Jesus' faithfulness in particular things. What's not done in faith is sin after all, so there are things I need to wait for Jesus to do before I have confidence to speak about or confidence to do because I don't want to be in the driver's seat. I want to be led by Jesus, not feeling like I'm being 'played' by the devil continually.

OK, disclaimer given.

So if a person is not continuing to trust in Jesus Christ or love Him by abiding in His commandments then they are presently a disbeliever and presently condemned. A saved person can be described by attributes. One of them is preferring God to evil. A person who is saved loves the truth and prefers God to evil.

I do not think is correct to say that every person who has ”belief” no matter how well sown the word is (i.e. disregarding Jesus' parable about the sower) can't ”fall away” from the faith. Clearly there are examples of people from Jesus' parable who lost their faith.

Even the Apostle Paul shows it's important to hold one's faith and a good conscience because some people have made a shipwreck of their faith by rejecting this advice. In other words, if a person's faith were likened to a ship, that ship crashed and was very severely damaged and ruined and the Apostle Paul thought it necessary for them to learn not to blaspheme by being handed over to satan. And blasphemy is when a person is bringing dishonour to God's name, to God's reputation by committing sin.

> I Timothy 1:18-20 - This charge I entrust to you, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies previously made about you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith, among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme. (ESV)

The fact is, if a person has disbelieved, they still have opportunity to repent (change their mind), so long as they are not dead and in Hades with an unbelieving heart. And Jesus conquered death by the way. Jesus went down there into the place of the dead (I Peter 3:18-20) and if someone who is dead hears His voice with a believing heart then they live but I'm quite sure the idea is that we need to have that faith in Jesus Christ so that when we do die (and I'm confident that refers to the spiritual baptism) we are raised to life with Him. A person may go through this death to life, perhaps in baptism, or just suddenly when God does it (it happened to me on 2 April 2022).

People who had that believing heart who had died before Jesus was crucified would have then heard and accepted Jesus' voice when He went into death, and those people would live.

A person needs a faith that is accompanied with agape love for the truth that treasures that truth and is so deeply rooted in the heart that it can't be removed. We need a law-abiding faith.

> John 3:16-21 - For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

But someone who has died and is presently holding their law-abiding (non-idolatrous, family in Christ-loving, neighbour-loving) faith in Jesus Christ shall by no means die. AMEN!! And if someone isn't satisfied with that verbiage, then they are probably satan trying to get me to endorse some kind of ”lawless, antinomian, Marcionic faith”.

> John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn, is believing, is trusting) in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes (G4100 pisteuōn, is believing, is trusting) in me shall never (or ”by no means” (G3756) (G3361)) die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV) ou mé Not at all, never, by no means. G3756 (- no) and G3361 (- no)] a double negative strengthening the denial, ”not at all” Strong's Exhaustive Concordance anymore, at all, neither, never I'd say, "once saved always saved while doing the will of God".

I believe in 'once saved, always saved, while doing the will of God'. So someone must be a both a believer and a follower of Jesus. We must have Jesus as our number one agape love, treasuring Him, obeying His commandments, particularly to believe in Him and love one another as He loved us.

> Hebrews 7:23-25 - The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office, but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. (ESV)

> I John 2:17 - And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever.

> I Corinthians 10:7-12 - Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. (ESV)

Want to not die anymore? Have you considered never marrying?

> Luke 20:34-36 - And Jesus said to them, The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage, but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 14:1-5 - Then I looked, and behold, on Mount Zion stood the Lamb, and with him 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven like the roar of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder. The voice I heard was like the sound of harpists playing on their harps, and they were singing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and before the elders. No one could learn that song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. It is these who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins. It is these who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These have been redeemed from mankind as firstfruits for God and the Lamb, and in their mouth no lie was found, for they are blameless. (ESV)

It's not a sin to marry. But marriage between man and woman is an earthly covenant. A match made in heaven, sure. But meant for the duration of time on earth and no longer.

So much for an overly simplified "once saved always saved" because the way some people take it, it would make "once condemned always condemned" seem reasonable.

> John 3:14-19 - And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than (G3123 mallon, rather/more than, in preference to, instead of) light, because their deeds were evil. (KJV)

> Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)

Jesus' sheep (those who trust and obey Jesus and love Jesus) will never perish.

> John 6:37 - All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. (ESV)

So we must continue being Jesus' sheep. We must trust and obey Jesus Christ:

> John 10:27-28 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. (ESV)

Peter obeyed Jesus to come to Jesus: By faith Peter obeyed Jesus and came to Jesus. So Father God must have drawn him. But the fact that Father God does the drawning doesn't mean that he didn't by faith obey Jesus in order to come to Jesus:

> Matthew 14:28-29 - And Peter answered him, Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water. He said, Come. So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. (ESV)

> John 6:43-48 - Jesus answered them, Do not grumble among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. (ESV)

Saying "no one will snatch them out of my hand" doesn't mean people can not wilfully turn their back on Jesus. But we must not be like the type of people who would turn their back on Jesus. We must be people who treasure and love Jesus:

> John 6:66 - After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him.

The person who has stopped committing sin wouldn't reject Jesus. A person who has stopped sinning would be doing everything in faith and everything in a lawful love of God and one's neighbour. A person who can have confidence is someone who believe they agape love their family in Christ in reality according to God's commandments for us.

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

> I John 3:15-21 - Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; (ESV)

> John 15:9-14 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

To continue being Jesus' sheep, we must abide in Jesus Christ's commandments lawfully, that is while not breaking the 2 Great commandments.

> Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

> Luke 9:62 - Jesus said to him, No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God. (ESV)

To be saved "permanently" would be to no longer commit sin, be practicing righteousness and to have inherited the kingdom of God:

> John 8:31-36 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:1-5 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. (ESV)

> Matthew 25:33-37 - And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me. Then the righteous will answer him, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? (ESV)

> I Corinthians 5:1-13 - Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

The Bible verse that has come to mind today:

> Hebrews 10:14 - For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. (ESV)

OK, so if a person has presently the law-abiding faith then they are trusting and obeying Jesus Christ and, therefore, in the grand scheme of things, that person has been perfected (i.e. that person's sanctification will be completed).

If a person's faith is not law-abiding then actions done out of that are not done in faith (real faith) (Romans 14:23) or not done in a non-idolatrous (I Peter 4:3 says idolatry is unlawful, abominable) agape love for God and their neighbour (I Corinthians 16:13-14) and that type of faith, not being love for the Truth, is not the faith of a son or daughter of God.

<2025-12-05 Fri> What is not done in faith is sin (Romans 14:23, James 4:17). What is not done in law-abiding agape love is also sin (Matthew 22:36-40, I John 3:4). Christians should imitating the love of Jesus Christ, trusting God will take care of them, doing good and refusing to harm others (Ecclesiastes 7:16, Romans 13:10, I Peter 4:19, I Peter 2:23) according to God's commandments for us (I John 5:2). God has taught through His word what doing no harm to one's neighbour looks like. We are instructed to share the gospel in the following of and the imitation of the Lord Jesus Christ (Mark 8:34-36) and the passing on of Jesus' teachings and commandments, discipling others (Matthew 28:18-20).

A child of God (a son or daughter of God) has Jesus Christ as their Master, not sin, and they abide in Jesus Christ. Whoever commits sin does not remain in the house (God's house) forever. The son remains forever.

> John 8:35 - The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. (ESV)
>
> Galatians 4:3-9 - In the same way we also, when we were children, were enslaved to the elementary principles of the world. But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God. Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 8:3 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 7:22-23 - On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. (ESV)

Jesus Christ certainly remains forever along with all who have ceased to commit sin. To get to the point of no longer committing sin, we trust and obey Jesus Christ - in trusting and obeying Jesus Christ, we purify ourselves. If anyone is doing that presently then there is a point from their perspective at which sanctification is completed. God is outside of time, and just like the way in which in the fullness of time God sent Jesus Christ to redeem those who were under the law, and God's propitiation for sin is for those going backwards through history as well, a person who has the salvific, sanctifying, law-abiding faith in God which actively trusts and readily obeys Jesus Christ has a point in their future at which sanctification will be brought to completion for them.

> Galatians 4:3-9 - In the same way we also, when we were children, were enslaved to the elementary principles of the world. But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God. Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? (ESV)
>
> I Thessalonians 5:23 - Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

78.4.33 Journal <2025-11-20 Thu>, <2025-11-21 Fri>

Despite asking God continually for deliverance, I've still been daily getting strange, lewd, antichrist, sexually immoral and adulterous, very unclean demonic dreams and other types of spiritual attacks. If God doesn't literally take a step to clean me first, as He did when washing Peter's feet, and to protect me, I don't know how I'm supposed to overcome this stuff. I believe that God washed me clean on 2 April 2022 when He gave me a new heart that feared Him and a new spirit. There has been no testimony from Holy Spirit regarding Jesus Christ direct to my heart. I'm very demoralised. I give everything to the Lord Jesus. I gave everything to Him. But every day He allows me get harassed by demons in my sleep, and aroused in the morning, demonically. Before I was born-again, I remember being in control of my body. I was committing wilful sin back then, sure. But it felt like I was in control. Jesus would say I was a slave to sin. Now I'm in a situation where my flesh most definitely is waging war against my mind. But not only that, I'm also getting attacked spiritually in other ways. It feels like getting attacked on every front. On top of that, I've had the most unreasonable amount of theological resistance. I have had to crawl out of a pit of theological heresy and satanic resistance to the truth that I was in even before I was born-again. Prosperity gospel stuff, romance with Jesus instead of agape love for Jesus type worship music (not that romance might not have agape, because it certainly should, but it also might not. Agape is for God, and for neighbours and friends and family in Christ and is a selfless, treasuring, valuing love that doesn't want to cause harm, and abides in Jesus' commandments. Of course in a romance, that might be there. But a lot of 'worship' music out there doesn't emphasise agape at all but focuses on ancillary 'feelings' such as ecstasy but without regard for wanting to please God with our thoughts and actions and take captive every thought for obedience to Christ, or without regard for what God wants us to do. Having a desire to please God in the way we walk is a real showing of agape love. Wheras this stuff about Jesus making us feel good and forgiven but omiting say, the call to holiness or of carrying our cross. Better would be to sow God's word deep in our hearts singing scripture), really irrelevant sermons, just a lack of teaching in the churches about the fear of God, the wages of sin, obedience to Jesus, etc. I've received the most heinous amount of straight-up satanic resistance to obedience to Jesus.

tangent There is a massive delusion within many protestant churches that obedience = works (as in we are not saved by works and that includes obedience). I've even notice it with Roman Catholics too but the other way around, but the same error, that obedience = works (i.e. we are saved by obedience and that means saved by works)! But obedience does not strictly equal works. We are saved not by our own works, but we are saved by obedience, and we are saved by faith, but they're not precisely the same thing but a person can obey out of faith (both in the heart) and produce works. The other massive issue with many protestant or pentecostal churches I have been to is that when talking about "walking in the light" as He (Jesus Christ is in the light), I almost never hear the word "love" i.e. walking in love. It always seems to be walking in the light because I'm correct because I've believed isolated parts of scripture (interpretting them from modern english dictionary definitions). It could be completely devoid of the love of God in the heart. That doesn't sound like "the word well sown in good soil" to me, their understanding contradicting other surrounding scripture, but never seems to be "I'm walking in the love of God's word, in the love for my family in Christ, the same type of love Jesus showed us, trusting and obeying Jesus Christ's commandments".

And then when I get born-again of the spirit, I realised something very special has happened and I wanted to tell everyone. But being literally a new-born Christian theologically, but mature in having received a new spirit after seeking God through repentance from sin (Ezekiel 18 does strengthen my case for this). It seems like I woke up into a world which does not want me to know about Jesus because as I started reading the Scripture for myself and putting it into practice, trusting and obeying the Word, I noticed huge amounts of resistance to this from the churches. Yet, if I said something that was heretical, it just seemed as though there was no correction from people at at all. Satan has been continually robbing me of good things which bring me joy, even trying to attack my good conscience. Things which have made my good conscience feel compromised:

- corruption brought on in my flesh by daily demonic harassment
  - (it's been like a war of attrition against me daily. every day I get these spiritual attacks and it seems that any measure of giving into them has compounding consequences)
- awful memories of things like:
  - a court judge saying I must've been baptised at midnight and then me calling him a liar

- the 3 May 2022 event where I was told by a spirit they are the Holy Spirit but it not coming with a testimony from same spirit confessing that Jesus Christ has come into the world in the flesh, leaving me guessing if this was Holy Spirit and any kind of assertion that it was makes me feel nauseatingly anxious because I don’t want to speak a word against Holy Spirit or affirm a spirit which is not Holy Spirit is Holy Spirit. Sadly I have not been given the testimony which I need in order to clear this issue up. I’ve just been left to ”deal with it”
- having a church pastor try to cast antichrist spirit out of me. I was asking for prayed to be delivered from these spiritual attacks and I was saying I’m trying to be obedient to Jesus and he was telling me I was being ’religious’/legalistic and I was saying we need to obey Jesus and he started trying to cast antichrist spirit out of me
- having to crucify a marriage proposal to someone I loved
  - and subsequently having a daily barrage of sexually immoral dreams along with these sexual spiritual attacks making me feel extremely unclean
    - even now as I sit here writing this, I feel like I’m being violated by something
- seeing sides to loved ones which I wish I could unsee forever and make me feel like permanent eternal sin is being committed and there’s no getting back to purity
- daily having to deal with Jesus ignoring me and not speaking to me in the way that He promised to.

I’ve been brought to the point where I do not have a desire to be alive anymore in this world, but I want to have all my memories erased and to be made completely new, not just being given a new spirit. May God grant me my request. What has happened to me is unacceptable. I need to be fully restored and protected. For the sake of His name, God should restore me and protect me.

Jesus Christ, help me, God. Don’t let me die. Set me free from the corruption and protect me from evil. If me and my memories and my relationships were a garment I’d probably burn it because I don’t even know how I’m fixable now except to just be made new. I hate the corruption so much, the corruption which has been put onto me from outside of me has been out of my control. It has happened to me. May God get rid of the corruption and make me clean like when I was born-again of the spirit. No-one spoke to me to clarify anything when I needed it clarified. I wasn’t prepared theologically by the church. Who baptises a person but does not teach them all that Jesus has commanded and disciple them? I think that’s probably the issue, to be honest. I think it’s probably extremely dangerous to baptise people without then truly discipling them to abide in Jesus Christ’s teachings.

Also, in 2021, I was being criticised as delusional for my AI research. It’s so similar to calling people delusional for resisting the COVID vaccines when that was being pushed into society for fear of losing friends and jobs. As I was pointing out what was around the corner regarding the AI stuff, I received this type of resistance sometimes. I would blame what happened to just people being in darkness.

And the demonic harassment I’ve received I’d probably liken to some sort of allergic reaction from the world from a person having been cleaned.

And after I was born-again, I think I was literally just handed over to satan to be terrorised because I’d been getting denied marriage for most of my adult life and people thought it was inappropriate when I made my first proposal, while there are at the same time people who would absolutely no issue to what’s really morally wrong such as gay marriage or open relationships etc. I’ve been put in the most unreasonable situations where I’m being asked whether something like the marriage situation is holy, for example, but I know that what is not done in faith is sin and I need to be acting in selfless love. But these situations like with the court house feel constructed to trap me, to fork me (like in a game of chess). But I wasn’t taught the truth of God’s Word before or after I was born-again. I had to go to the Scripture myself. Instead I was just punished. What type of teaching is through punishment alone? I want to be set free from all corruption. I want to be spoken to by the Holy Spirit. No-one adopts a child to just leave them outside to starve and be attacked by predators. I expect so much more from God.

I woke up to more of these spiritual attacks through the night and this morning <2025-11-21 Fri>. The devil has really been trying to take me out. It is not fun. It just to be fought against with the word of God.

> Titus 1:1-16 - Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the sake of the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth, which accords with godliness, in hope of eternal life, which God, who never lies, promised before the ages began and at the proper time manifested in his word through the preaching with which I have been entrusted by the command of God our Savior; To Titus, my true child in a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior. This is why I left you in Crete, so that you might put what remained into order, and appoint elders in every town as I directed you— if anyone is above reproach, the husband of one wife, and his children are believers and not open to the charge of debauchery or insubordination. For an overseer, as God's steward, must be above reproach. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or a drunkard or violent or greedy for gain, but hospitable, a lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined. He must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it. For there are many who are insubordinate, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision party. They must be silenced, since they are upsetting whole families by teaching for shameful gain what they ought not to teach. One of the Cretans, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons. This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, not devoting themselves to Jewish myths and the commands of people who turn away from the truth. To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

```
rebuke
    An expression of sharp disapproval or criticism.
    "he hadn't meant it as a rebuke, but Neil flinched"
```

Correcting others with gentleness is not against rebuking with sharpness. When it comes to bad doctrine it should be rebuked with sharpness. Also, sexual immorality should not be tolerated, but rebuked:

> II Timothy 2:24-26 - And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:1 - Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 4:21,5:1-5 - What do you wish? Shall I come to you with a rod, or with love in a spirit of gentleness? It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you. For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 16:14 - Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)

> Titus 1:12-16 - One of the Cretans, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons. This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, not devoting themselves to Jewish myths and the commands of people who turn away from the truth. To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

I want to be able to commit my way to the Lord Jesus Christ without being harassed by demons.

For example, when I reneged on the proposal, I committed my way to the Lord. But following that, I received extremely frequent demonic harassment and tribulation in various forms, forcing me to be reminded of it, tempting me to renege on reneging, tempting me to not be faithful to the Lord Jesus Christ. And the reminders can be painful. It just seems to me there has been very clear (at least to me) manifestations of a spiritual reality that is whatever force wants to oppose forgiveness and love and the truth of Jesus Christ. Very obvious was when I gave a court judge a letter saying I forgive the other side of court and the judge responded that I have no right to forgive, and I received an 18 month sentence (after already serving an approximately half a year of bail conditions so strict that it's like already being under a sentence) with an additional 7 years of waiting to be practically employable again under the clean slate act, whilst not allowing me to take a diversion and at the same time allowing the newspapers to write things that are not true regarding what has happened. I could go on and on and on about the visible manifestations of that anti-love, anti-forgiveness, anti-truth, anti-Jesus Christ spirit. That's just some of exterior visible manifestations. Other than that there has been relentless daily (almost all the days; all but a negligible quantity) reminders and temptations and lying accusing dreams and visions trying to reverse my committments to the Lord Jesus Christ. And so you see, I have been buried under this absolutely satanic spiritual oppression for a long time.

I repeat, I want to be able to commit my way to the Lord Jesus Christ without being harassed by demons. I want to be able to sleep without demons groping me and pushing intrusive dreams and visions into my head. I want everyone who has been involved in the circumstances surrounding what happened to be OK and for them to have as the full measure of grace that is available to them. And once again, I have to reiterate this that pleaded guilty in good faith and in complaining about spiritual harassment, I'm not seeking to reverse the charge. I don't want the charge reversed. I want for the love of God to be able to commit my way to the Lord including taking a charge, but without getting attacked by demons. I want deliverance from spiritual harassment. In complaining about my circumstances I'm not in any way trying to to reverse my committments to the Lord Jesus Christ. I just want to be set free from demonic/satanic oppression and I want to be spoken to by Holy Spirit confirming the testimony of the Lord Jesus Christ. I want to hear Holy Spirit tell me straight to my heart that I'm a child of God and that Jesus Christ is the Son of God who has come into the world from God in the flesh.

<2026-02-17 Tue> While the institiution of marriage is holy (that is why it is called holy matrimony), whatever happend with my situation regarding the marriage proposal after I got born-again, I felt has been marred by demoic influences, and it never made it to actual marriage. And I have committed my way to the Lord Jesus Christ, and that is to go my separate ways. And this is important, I think, because it's not all about me. God has me here for the purpose of leading other people to Him.

> Numbers 30:2 - If a man vows a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind himself by a pledge, he shall not break his word. He shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth. (ESV)
>
> Psalms 15:4 - in whose eyes a vile person is despised, but who honors those who fear the LORD; who swears to his own hurt and does not change; (ESV)

I do believe, however, that the steps towards getting married are sacred and the ability to get married should be protected. Steps such as "asking". I don't think it's right to make it impossible for people to marry.

> Proverbs 20:25 - It is a snare to say rashly, It is holy, and to reflect only after making vows. (ESV)

78.4.34 Journal <2026-05-27 Wed 18:12>

It's important to go on faithful to God after getting born-again:

> Deuteronomy 32:5-6 - They have dealt corruptly with him; they are no longer his children because they are blemished; they are a crooked and twisted generation. Do you thus repay the LORD, you foolish and senseless people? Is not he your father, who created you, who made you and established you? (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 32:18-20 - You were unmindful of the Rock that bore you, and you forgot the God who gave you birth. The LORD saw it and spurned them, because of the provocation of his sons and his daughters. And he said, I will hide my face from them; I will see what their end will be, For they are a perverse generation, children in whom is no faithfulness. (ESV)
>
> Isaiah 1:2 - Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the LORD has spoken: Children have I reared and brought up, but they have rebelled against me. (ESV)
>
> II Peter 2:1 - But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. (ESV)

78.4.35 Journal <2025-11-22 Sat>

I have close to no freedom. I have very little joy. I feel crushed to a pulp both by the world and by the church. I've been made to endure testing, and harassment while having my joy stolen from me, while I have been trusting and obeying Jesus Christ, which should lead to peace that cannot be taken away and to rest.

But how does anyone weather such trials without joy? How does anyone find motivation to do anything when joy has been taken way. And how easy it is to do things when full of joy.

This is the pattern:

- 1. I find joy in something or someone (e.g. in God's commandments, or in getting born-again or in another person)
- 2. The devil comes along to try to steal that joy from me by undermining it in some way

The hope of the righteous brings joy (Proverbs 10:28). And love rejoices with the truth (I Corinthians 13:6).

I mean, there's nothing like feeling washed clean and given a brand new heart and spirit. Nothing quite like it. It's better than buying a new computer, that's for sure. And practicing righteousness, acting in truth and not lies, is joyous. And practicing righteousness, acting in charity and mercy, is joyous.

I do not think I am a greedy person at all, and that's a really good thing to not covet or agape-love money. But that means that I'm not motivated by earning lots of money. I love to give to other people. So, not being motivated by money, yet being compelled to work very hard in order to just get by, it is painfully difficult to do that when I do not have my own wife or family. Why? Because there is very close to no motivating reason to be working so, so much.

In 2020 there was someone else who I was interested and I'm using her as an example, because even before I was born-again and regenerated, in doing stuff for her, I had so much joy. With joy acting in truth out of love, there's no desire to want to sin. Like even though I was not in a relationship with this person, not a 2-way relationship anyway, if I gave her flowers (which she never accepted, which is fine. I think it's an important detail), or a birthday present or whatever it was, I'd easily just empty my wallet or all of my time to make something for her or give her something and when I actually followed through and did it I had so much joy that I could work endless hours, and I could resist sinful habits and not do them. There might be the thought "if there was ever to be a relationship between me and this person then they wouldn't want me to be watching porn", for example, so I wouldn't, and there was also no desire to do so because I was just happy while living authentically. My thoughts were actually more along the lines of, "I just feel so much better when acting out of integrity rather than lies. It gave me joy to do things for this person." That was not reciprocal but I felt like I no longer had a fractured heart. God doesn't want our hearts to be corrupt and a heart that doesn't desire to do good is the problem. I mean, when I had started acting out of my convictions to overcome anxiety, anxiety bought on by these social "rules" (which were not God's rules, that's for sure), and when I stopped listening to liars and started acting on "what felt right, correct" (I'm not advocating "feelings"-alone as a guiding principle of course, but Biblically good feelings are good feelings and not bad ones. We are supposed to have good motivations and not evil ones. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil - Matthew 12:35) then I had joy - lots of joy. But, she didn't feel the same way and that's OK. But after that I was not going to go back to living out of lies or out of guile. But overcoming the "fear of man" led to the next part of my journey. Christians are not supposed to fear man, but we are supposed to fear God!

But the point I try to make is:

- When I have no joy, it's like trying to make bricks without straw.
- When I have no joy, my concentration gets severely compromised, and distractions and false-substitutes are then used to fill the time. The devil knows this, so the devil tries to cut off sources of joy from my life, and undermine my good conscience with God, in order to tempt me into sin (to take the temporary edge off of my pain). But sin, I am now dead to (being regenerate), and are divinely empowered to stop practicing it. But that doesn't mean that the temptations cease with getting regenerated.
- I can complete huge amounts of work (or study, or 'labours of love') when I have joy.

Then in 2021 soon after I had properly given up with the last person, I met someone else. It was very unexpected. I wasn't looking or thinking about anyone else. But they just turned up.

And I had so much joy. And it felt like there was none of the former problems at all. I can't tell you how happy I was.

There's a memory I have of looking at her like face to face from across a room and there were several seconds before I even registered that it happened. I was like a cat looking at a car's headlights no longer able to do anything. It was like that. That was before I met her.

But then years later I meet here really unexpectedly and everything feels good.

I had so much joy and hope. And we were talking and then (I'm claiming family interference) I was not able to talk to her anymore. Conversation with her was terminated by my own free will out of their interests.

I had been talking to her about Pen.el, coming up with the name "Pen of Imagination", when I had just started working on it and getting ideas on it. That year I spent so, so much time pouring into this project because I was prevented from talking to her, she who I ended up proposing to later, and that the Pen.el project was one of the last things we had talked about and I wanted to make something for her out of it.

I can complete huge amounts of work when I have joy.

Towards the end of 2021, I begin turning to God, and seeking Him, because I could see what was coming with AI LLMs etc. and my joy was constantly being hacked at and everything seemed futile because no amount of work could ever "get on top" of AI or ever be enough to "find a wife". It just seemed like everything was impossible because of evil. I kept going because I had faith that I would see her again. That is what was motivating me. I had to keep having faith in seeing her again in order to keep going on.

And then I began seeking God much more diligently because of the AI stuff on the horizon.

I began falling in love with God's commandments. I had begun actually trying to follow the 10 commandments from the heart. I would wear a necklace with 10 1s on it (an identity matrix) which represented to me following the 10 commandments from the heart.

And then I get born-again on 2 April while wearing it and I became so full of joy and wonder over God.

I feel huge amounts of joy over Jesus Christ and over the grace of God which I received in a new spirit.

Out of wanting to honor Jesus after receiving the grace of God, I immediately put down a lot of bad sinful habits like watching porn which was a very dirty, depraved, habit. At least where previously it was the joy I had in those two girls/women which helped me to not engage in sinful stuff. But now, I felt like I didn't need that sinful stuff anymore.

God fixed me. God washed me. My room was extremely messy. But God fixed me. I was made new.

After getting born-again, it becomes very important to be a light to other people. It's important to not receive the grace of God in vain. It's important to not squander the grace but to share it with others.

After 1 month of pouring myself into telling people about me getting born-again, as I wanted to give God my first fruits, the pain of being cut off from talking to the person who I had met 1 year before started to become too great again. One month after being born-again of the spirit I became depressed. The only way I was able to continue is by reassuring myself that I'd see her again. That's kind of how faith works.

> Hebrews 11:1 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. (ESV)

But it's faith based on what? It was faith based on believing that it was good/pure. I wouldn't say it was faith based on a word from God.

Up to 2 April 2022 I was building Pen.el like Noah built an ark (Hebrews 11:7), but I wasn't warned by God regarding the AI stuff. Up to 2 April 2022 I was also building Pen.el fully sure that I'd see her again (Hebrews 11:1). Up to 2 April 2022 I was walking by faith for absolute sure, but faith in what? I had faith, joy and hope.

Before I was born-again, building Pen.el when it was AI software, I was exercising faith but it was faith in one day being able to talk to her again.

After I was born-again, I have been writing my Bible and "walking by faith" but I needed a lot of correction and I was learning to trust God's Word. It has been very difficult sometimes:

> Titus 2:11-13 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 11:36-40 - Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword. They went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, mistreated— of whom the world was not worthy—wandering about in deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. (ESV)

Where there is hope there can be joy.

Being born-again and regenerate my joy must be grounded on having a good conscience with God. If I don't have a good conscience with God, I wont have joy. So that's a real force for giving up idols, that is striving to maintain a good conscience with God.

But when I was born-again it became important to be putting my faith in God.

I think that right now I would have a lot of joy if:

- I felt clean and not harassed so that I could have hope and the joy of my salvation returned
- I was spoken to clearly and trustworthily by God with the testimony that Jesus Christ has come into the world from God in the flesh.

How joy has been taken away from me. So joy which I had regarding being born-again has been after a while taken away:

- I have been made to feel like I have committed eternal sin because of an out of body meeting with someone claiming to be Holy Spirit on 3 May 2022, and then me, maybe gullible me, unsure, claiming that it was Holy Spirit but later realising that it didn't carry with it the testimony of Jesus Christ that the Apostle John says means that spirit is from God. So the spirit did not tell me that "Jesus Christ has come [from God, into the world,] in the flesh (i.e. flesh and blood)". That doesn't mean it wasn't the Holy Spirit, I don't think, anyway. But because it didn't give me the testimony, I can't say for sure that it was. Now, initially, I had just assumed that good things were happening. But after a couple of years I have been forced to question whether it was Holy Spirit or not, and having made claims.
- But in my defense, on 3 May 2022, I spoke to the spirit and said, "My God is the God of Truth, Jesus has saved me from lies and Holy Spirit is my comforter. Are you the Holy Spirit?" And the spirit responded with, "Yes. I'll take a look at you."
    - No matter what that spirit said to me, I testified of Jesus. I testified of the God of Truth. I don't think I said anything wrong there. I was set free from sin through baptism into Jesus Christ's death (Romans 6:7). So I was set free from lies.

- But, later on, I have come see the spirit's response with a big question mark because of what Jesus says in Matthew 5:37. It's a little bit ambiguous because the response was simply a yes, followed by another separate sentence. I cannot be conclusive about it. In my view because there was not the "I John 4:2" testimony of Jesus Christ then I cannot trust it completely.
    - Matthew 5:37 - but let your word be, Yes, Yes, No, No, and that which is more than these is of the evil. (YLT)

Here is the pattern again. The pattern is that the devil targets my joy. The devil tries to kill steal the hope and the joy from me, and to be honest has been largely successful, but I'm trusting Jesus that that is temporary. I will have joy that the devil will not be able to steal:

- 1. On 3rd of May 2022, something happens. Now I thought at the time that this date was providence.
    - For a long time leading up to this, I have been unable to "get a Christian girlfriend". Forming romantic relationships has been impossible. They've been denied. I've been prevented from marrying. I've been prevented from having intimacy, from having a partner who acts on good will and on good faith and unconditional love. If it's a relationship then it has had to be unequally yoked in order for me to have it. So when I meet someone where it seemed like there were none of those types of problems about a year before I was born-again, I just had joy over it. It was pure joy for me. The only obstacle seemed to be "what other people thought" as far as I could tell.
- 2. And on 3rd of May 2022, I thought that having that "meeting" with someone who claimed to be Holy Spirit was providence because of the date that it happened. One year later, on 3 May 2023, I'm in a court of law being told by a judge that I must have e been baptised at midnight.

I feel like my joy of being born-again and the feeling of being right and clean with God, and the feeling of having someone who I thought God made for me has all been taken from me, and I've been left feeling abandoned by God after pouring myself into trying to please Him.

This is what it has been like for me.

The attacks just kept going, and going, and going.

I made a marriage proposal to the person who I wanted to marry and I started getting spiritually attacked a lot after that.

My outwards appearance was messy. My room was messy. My room is currently messy, actually. But I loved God and I loved that girl. God gave me a new heart and a spirit and then I proposed to someone.

I proposed to them despite having been warned to not communicate with them. I got a warning letter from the police after that. It was like the terminator appearing on my doorstep. You decide if this is good or evil. Is it good or evil to deny marriage, but who exactly has been denying it? Is it people or is it demons. I don't blame the police officer, although if it were me, I would have used more discernment I would hope. I don't even really blame the other side of court. I think the problem is demons, and I think this problem has been a problem for longer than I know.

Was it good or evil that I decided to propose to her? Was it wrong for me to ignore the warning and do it?

If someone told you to not inhale air while in the same room as them, then as a Christian are you obligated to hold your breath and suffocate and die because it might offend someone - because you have to "love them"? If an evil person told a Christian to renounce their faith in Jesus because they are offended by it, a Christian should surely not do as the evil person has said. That is because a Christian is not supposed to act fraudulently or deny the truth, and a Christian is not supposed to obey unrighteousness but honor God in their body. A Christian must love in the truth.

The question is, if someone said, "You're not allowed to speak to someone", but you couldn't bare not being able to talk to them every again, feeling like you'd want to kill yourself if you couldn't and then intended to propose to them, is it wrong to propose to them? And if it is wrong, is it the type of thing that needs to be punished so cruelly? I think that making it impossible to propose marriage is not OK. Actually the Bible says that in the last days people will forbid marriage (I Timothy 4:3).

Did God plan out this living nightmare in advance for me?

I think that Jesus should have spoken clearly to me about what has happened before it got to this point. I think that He should have answered one of my prayer requests a long time ago. By being in this situation without God's very specific guidance, I feel a little bit wronged by God. God sees the heart, so he saw what was in my heart. He must've seen the good. And yet, I feel like the good has been treated as if it was sin.

Imagine this, a person goes through life looking for someone to do life with. After spending their 20s and early 30s and to be honest teenage years too denied the right type of Christian relationship, and without Christian discipleship either, unable to marry and working extremely hard for hardly any money, finally meeting someone and out of peace, joy, agape love, rest, wanting to propose to them, but someone has made it impossible, and also, you've just been born-again of the spirit.

Not only would I not cover up being born-again of the spirit (I blogged about it the day it happened), but why would I also want to suffocate and kill a love. God doesn't want me to cover up His gospel, or good deeds. Would God want me to experience love that wants to marry someone and then suffocate it and never let it see the light of day? Is that what God wants? To first let a person experience what it's like to love someone and then destroy out of duty? I think Jesus Himself needs to give me the answer to that one. And He also needs to fix me.

> Matthew 5:16 - In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

If I am not made totally clean again and restored and spoken to, then I believe God has wronged me. What I've been through is a living hell that has left me feeling defiled and forsaken by God. It's really not OK. The adversity has gone way too far.

> I John 5:2-3 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

So this is the basic pattern.

- 1. I'm washed clean. God gives me a new heart that fears Him and a new spirit, with a good, clean conscience and joy. I learn to reject lies and rejoice with the truth
- 2. The devil then tries to attack the joy of being washed clean or the joy in the truth. I am attacked by demons, almost every single day waking up to lewd, antichrist, lying, dreams and visions and other attacks against my soul. And when I cave in to temptation it feels like I become a bit more unclean.

I need to be clean and have a good conscience to have joy:

> Jude 1:24-25 - Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen. (ESV)

How am I supposed to function properly if I'm not allowed to have joy? Why would I have any interest in being here on the earth when I've got nothing to hope in and nothing to have joy about?

Now I am only hoping in being released from this world so I can go to a place where righteousness dwells, rather than darkness, because this world is darkness, and it's giving me no love.

I hope to be saved and raptured. Even that hope of rapture has been attacked. Even the hope of being caught up with Jesus Christ in the air at the end of the ages and going to heaven has been attacked. Yes, even that. It could be this one. It's correct to be encouraged by that hope.

Rapture is biblically correct, and judgement at the close of the age is biblically correct, and a total renewal of the cosmos (heavens and earth) is biblically correct. Sure, the earth has had many ages and earth might even go on for many more ages, but only the Father knows when the very end is. But at the end of the age there is the separation of the wheat and the tares.

> I Thessalonians 4:13-18 - But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. Therefore encourage one another with these words. (ESV)

> Matthew 13:38-43 - The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers (G4160 poiountas 3588 tēn G458 anomian; practicing lawlessness), and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear. (ESV)

> James 5:4-10 - Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, are crying out against you, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. You have lived on the earth in luxury and in self-indulgence. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous person. He does not resist you. Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains. You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. Do not grumble against one another, brothers, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door. As an example of suffering and patience, brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. (ESV)

It's Biblically correct to hope for a completely brand new heavens and earth where righteousness dwells:

> II Peter 3:7-14 - But by the same word the heavens and earth that now exist are stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction (G684 apōleias: Destruction, ruin, loss, perdition) of the ungodly. But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. (ESV)

II Peter 3:7-14 doesn't say if current cosmos becomes the hell, but I have speculated if that is the case. Regardless, the current heavens and earth is destroyed by fire. Well, actually, Jesus says that heaven and earth will pass away (G3928 pareleusetai: To pass by, to pass away, to come to an end, to neglect, to disregard.) and I think hell is eternal. I don't presently believe in "annihilation". There is destruction and a fire that is not quenched.

> Matthew 25:46 - And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life. (ESV)

> Mark 9:47-48 - And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell, where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched (G4570 sbennytai: To quench, to extinguish, to put out). (ESV)

I do not believe in ”reincarnation” into the same ’kosmos’ (G2889 kosmos: world). At the close of the age the bad people get sent to the bad place (Luke 12:5) and the good people go to a distinct ’kosmos’ where righteousness dwells:

> Matthew 13:45-52 - Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. When it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into containers but threw away the bad. So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Have you understood all these things? They said to him, Yes. And he said to them, Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.

> II Peter 3:1-8 - This is now the second letter that I am writing to you, beloved. In both of them I am stirring up your sincere mind by way of reminder, that you should remember the predictions of the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles, knowing this first of all, that scoffers will come in the last days with scoffing, following their own sinful desires. They will say, Where is the promise of his coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all things are continuing as they were from the beginning of creation. For they deliberately overlook this fact, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth was formed out of water and through water by the word of God, and that by means of these the world that then existed was deluged with water and perished. But by the same word the heavens and earth that now exist are stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly. But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. (ESV)

> Matthew 24:35 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (ESV)

It’s biblical that in ”holding our faith” in Jesus Christ, that is trusting and obeying Him, we should be yielding HOPE.

> Romans 15:13 - May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope. (ESV)

I do relate to Hebrews 10:34, but if I’m made to think that my future is compromised, when I feel like I’ve become dirty, then how am I to have joy? Without hope, how is there joy?

> Proverbs 10:28 - The hope of the righteous brings joy, but the expectation of the wicked will perish. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:34 - For you had compassion on those in prison, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 1:6 - And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you received the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Spirit, (ESV)

Yes, I think a clean conscience is a requisite for real joy. But joy, as Spurgeon puts it, is ”peace dancing.”

Quote from CH Spurgeon ”Peace is joy resting, and joy is peace dancing”

> James 1:2-3 - Count it all joy (G5479 charan), my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. (ESV)

We need to be walking in the light for our joy to be made complete:

> I John 1:1-7 - That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we looked upon and have touched with our hands, concerning the word of life— the life was made manifest, and we have seen it, and testify to it and proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was made manifest to us— that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. And we are writing these things so that our joy may be complete. This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

I had to do a study on the peace that Jesus gives.

Why am I not allowed rest? Why am I denied peace? Why have I been denied holiness. (Now this is absolutely criminal. I was washed clean and then I was attacked near ceaselessly by demons.)

I had to do a Bible study today on "the peace that Jesus gives" after asking myself that question "why am I denied peace?"

The peace Jesus gives is not "peace on Earth" with just anyone:

> Matthew 10:32-38 - So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

It's peace between those who God is pleased with:

> Luke 2:14 - Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased! (ESV)

> John 16:25-28 - I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father.

It's peace "in Christ" with each other and with God's Kingdom in heaven and earth:

> Colossians 1:20 - and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. (ESV)

It's peace with God for those for those who have faith in Jesus Christ:

> Romans 4:23-25,5:1-2 - But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (ESV)

It's peace for those who do good:

> Romans 2:9-11 - There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

God trains us through discipline for holiness to behave righteously and the fruit of that yields peace:

> Hebrews 12:10-11 - For they disciplined us for a short time as it seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. (ESV)

We endure trials and tribulations, and the world rejoices meanwhile, but in the end we have joy that noone can take away:

> John 16:20-22 - Truly, truly, I say to you, you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will turn into joy. When a woman is giving birth, she has sorrow because her hour has come, but when she has delivered the baby, she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a human being has been born into the world. So also you have sorrow now, but I will see you again and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you. (ESV)

78.4.36 Journal <2025-11-23 Sun>

I do not believe in "reincarnation" into the same 'kosmos' (G2889 kosmos: world). At the close of the age the bad people get sent to the bad place (Luke 12:5) and the good people go to a distinct 'kosmos' where righteousness dwells. I believe that the righteousness go to heaven with incorruptible bodies, rather than back to Earth:

> Matthew 13:45-52 - Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. When it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into containers but threw away the bad. So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Have you understood all these things? They said to him, Yes. And he said to them, Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.

> II Peter 3:1-8 - This is now the second letter that I am writing to you, beloved. In both of them I am stirring up your sincere mind by way of reminder, that you should remember the predictions of the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles, knowing this first of all, that scoffers will come in the last days with scoffing, following their own sinful desires. They will say, Where is the promise of his coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all things are continuing as they were from the beginning of creation. For they deliberately overlook this fact, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth was formed out of water and through water by the word of God, and that by means of these the world that then existed was deluged with water and perished. But by the same word the heavens and earth that now exist are stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly. But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. (ESV)

I do not believe that with the bodily resurrection that we will return to an Earth with corruption in it:

> Acts 2:27 - For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One see corruption. (ESV)

With the resurrection of the body, we do not die anymore, and do not marry anymore:

> Matthew 22:30 - For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. (ESV)

Being born-again of the spirit, yet still on the Earth, I do not believe it is sinful for me to marry. Except that I have made committment to the Lord Jesus already that I would not. As I told Jesus, everything is on the backburner until He speaks to me.

Some fall asleep in Christ and then are raised. But some do not all sleep but are changed in a moment:

> I Corinthians 15:17-22 - And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If in this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied. But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. (ESV)

The body needs to die to be raised to life:

> I Corinthians 15:36 - You foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:51-58 - Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (ESV)

I think this is how it works: First there is the resurrection of the spirit (2 April 2022 for me), which is being baptised into Christ's death and raised to new life. Then there is the resurrection of the body. It's normal for a born-again Christian to also die an earthly death but this is not the death of the spirit. The person's consciousness continues after bodily death. And the physical body is resurrected also to life:

> I Corinthians 15:42 - So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable. (ESV)

When people the righteous rise from the dead with their resurrection body, they are like angels - imperishable, never to die anymore. There is certainly no reincarnation for them. While I believe there are "many" ages of the Earth, I do not believe in an earthly reincarnation. After one go in this Earth, I believe the righteous go to heaven. And heaven is a place without corruption. That's my beliefs:

> Mark 12:25 - For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. (ESV)

> Luke 20:33-36 - In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife. And Jesus said to them, The sons of this age marry and 'are given' (women are given) in marriage, but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. (ESV)

I love the Lord Jesus Christ, and I'm really tired. I'm really, really tired. I'm very sick and tired of going through testing, and tribulations, and feeling some defilement mess with my body. I feel like I'm being pushed too hard. I'm sick of being in this situation while only going by Scripture and not hearing clear and trustworthy directions and clarifications from God.

Abraham heard an audible voice from God. I think Joseph got dreams and visions.

I just seem to get dreams and visions but the absolute vast majority of them or maybe almost all of them just seem to come from demons. And I'm so sick of it. It's just not right.

78.4.37 Journal <2025-11-24 Mon>

The good Samaritan didn't stalk the innkeeper to find out how they used the money which he gave to support the neighbour he made.

It's not our duty to avenge wrongdoing. It's our duty to keep God's commandments for us.

So that means when we give we do it out of mercy, faith and obedience to Jesus (Matthew 5:42). That's our duty.

We do our duty in that moment of charity, but that doesn't mean our duty ends in that moment. The good Samaritan was so committed to the welfare of the neighbour he met, that he made a commitment to pay anything further that the innkeeper may require in caring for his neighbour when next he visits.

The only person who can make this commitment with a guarantee is God since God owns the cosmos (Psalms 50:11-12) and God always fulfills His promises at the right time (Hebrews 11:39) for those who through faith and patience inherit His promises (Hebrews 6:11-12):

> Hebrews 6:11-12 - And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 11:17-19 - By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, of whom it was said, Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. He considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back. (ESV)

We should still love like the good Samaritan, but recognise that despite our best efforts, we will always fall short of the glory of God, and need God's grace so are justified by our faith in Jesus Christ, not works, but in faith we obey Jesus and in faith we love God and our neighbour and hope in God:

> Romans 3:21-24 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, (ESV)

We should not be the person who hides Jesus' money in the ground. But have a changed heart to desire to love in deed. After all Jesus purifies for Himself a people who are zealous for good works:

> Matthew 25:17-18 - So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 25:24-25 - He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours. (ESV)
>
> Titus 2:11-15 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. Declare these things; exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you. (ESV)

We need to recognise that God has loved us first and Jesus Christ is our Redeemer who gave Himself for us to redeem us and we are only saved through His name. There's no other name that saves. All glory to God:

> Galatians 3:13-14 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

> Isaiah 44:22 - I have blotted out your transgressions like a cloud and your sins like mist; return to me, for I have redeemed you. (ESV)

> Acts 4:12 - And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved. (ESV)

The Innkeeper has a duty. His master entrusted him with a person who needs help, some instructions to help them (commandments to follow), and some money, the means to care for that person, and the freedom to willfully carry out that duty, and promises to return to settle accounts. I believe we need to continue to seek commendation from God even after having received mercy:

> Matthew 25:19 - Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. (ESV)

> Matthew 25:17-19 - So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. (ESV)

> Matthew 18:23,33 - Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you? (ESV)

I believe that justification is a state of righteousness which we don't commend ourselves for (God commends people for their faith), Jesus talks about those who humble themselves. The tax collector here remained in a place of knowing they still need mercy from God.

I believe we need to continue seeking to please God and to forsake sin and to keep Jesus' commandments. Humility continues to endeavour to be commended by God. So that is what we should do. I think it's OK to think of a servant of Jesus as the Innkeeper in Jesus parable, Jesus being the ultimate Good Samaritan, and then Jesus' servants exercising this same type of love in the way that Jesus commands us to love. Jesus is our Redeemer. So I think we can think of the Innkeeper as having been redeemed in order to exercise the love of God. God draws people to Jesus, Jesus entrusts His servants with the care of people along with the means to do so. In the parable, the good Samaritan gave the Innkeeper a person and the means to care for them, and a commandment to do so, and the Innkeeper has to go on in faith. It might get difficult, the good Samaritan promised that he would pay anything extra when he returns. So sometimes things might look quite tight financially but we are commanded to have faith and do our duty:

> Luke 18:9-14 - He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted. (ESV)

Saving for own future while at the same time neglecting the duty that we have for our neighbour and family in Christ is lacking in faith. Saving is OK but it's not good if it means willful disobedience to Jesus.

Who saves fire extinguishers for their own house when their neighbour's or nearby relative's house is burning down? Likewise, our earthly possessions should be thought of as belonging to Jesus, and should be used as a means to take care of one another.

How could it be said there was faith in the obedience if you only had confidence if you are assured by natural means such as sight how the money is going to be used? That would be very "works"-based as well, rather than "faith-based".

We walk by faith and not by sight.

Now, if you "did" see the money being misused, that makes things more complicated (I Corinthians 10:28-29).

But we're not supposed to be actively ensuring that everyone is definitely going to use the money for this specific purpose. Sinful people do make mistakes and sometimes fall into temptation and misuse money that's been given to them in charity or for charity. But God sent Jesus while were yet sinners. God gave us the benefit of the doubt. And that's how God continues to deal with us. If we repent, God gives more mercy.

> Proverbs 3:34 - Toward the scorners he is scornful, but to the humble he gives favor. (ESV)

> James 4:6 - But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble. (ESV)

Like the master in Jesus's parable, we give people the "benefit of the doubt" when it comes to giving:

> Matthew 25:19-21 - Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, Master, you delivered to me five talents; here I have made five talents more. His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master. (ESV)

If there was no "benefit of the doubt" then there'd be no freedom in it, there'd be no opportunity for the person to will the good, rather than out of compulsion.

It would be eliminating God's work in the situation and to not have faith that God is working in the situation if one were to think they needed to be constantly enforcing how the money is used.

If the innkeeper in the parable of the "good Samaritan" thought he may need to spend some money on medicine, food or something for the comfort (Proverbs 31:6-7), or to give money to the person in need for travels, say or whatever may arise as a need in the care of the person, then they have freedom to use that money in that way and God sees everything.

Rather than following people around to see how they use goods given to them in charity, we could give to one person, and entrust the situation to God, and immediately are ready for doing something else.

> Luke 10:35 - And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. (ESV)

> Romans 12:19 - Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:42 - Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. (ESV)

> Luke 21:1-4 - Jesus looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the offering box, and he saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins. And he said, Truly, I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on. (ESV)

I'm so tired. When it comes to loving my neighbour, as much as I do love my cat, I must care of my neighbour and family in Christ. Agape love is certainly value driven and Jesus says that though God values and feeds animals and adorns plants, God values His children more than many sparrows.

So ensuring that someone who I consider to be a neighbour or potential family in Christ has what they need is more important to me than ensuring that my cat lives in luxury, or trying to give her the best medical attention. If my cat falls ill, and I do not have enough money to ensure that she has the best food, or to buy a special collar to ward off birds (and I do care the birds survival too), there are things that I cannot control such as getting sick and dying that I need to trust God will be in that situation. That's the situation I'm currently in. Money is very tight right now:

Matthew 10:29-31 - Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows. (ESV)

Proverbs 12:10 - Whoever is righteous has regard for the life of his beast, but the mercy of the wicked is cruel. (ESV)

Luke 12:22-59 - And he said to his disciples, Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on. For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? If then you are not able to do as small a thing as that, why are you anxious about the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass, which is alive in the field today, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith! And do not seek what you are to eat and what you are to drink, nor be worried. For all the nations of the world seek after these things, and your Father knows that you need them. Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you. Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give to the needy. Provide yourselves with moneybags that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Stay dressed for action and keep your lamps burning, and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the wedding feast, so that they may open the door to him at once when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will dress himself for service and have them recline at table, and he will come and serve them. If he comes in the second watch, or in the third, and finds them awake, blessed are those servants! But know this, that if the master of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have left his house to be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. Peter said, Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for all? And the Lord said, Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. But if that servant says to himself, My master is delayed in coming, and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will cut him in pieces and put him with the unfaithful. And that servant who knew his master's will but did not get ready or act according to his will, will receive a severe beating. But the one who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, will receive a light beating. Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more. I came to cast fire on the earth, and would that it were already kindled! I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how great is my distress until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. For from now on in one house there will be five divided, three against two and two against three. They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law. He also said to the crowds, When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, A shower is coming. And so it happens. And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, There will be scorching heat, and it happens. You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time? And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right? As you go with your accuser before the magistrate, make an effort to settle with him on the way, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer put you in prison. I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the very last penny. (ESV)

Psalms 27:10 - For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the LORD will take me in. (ESV)

We are supposed to just follow Jesus Christ, first and foremost. Households will be divided. We just keep trusting and obeying Jesus Christ first and foremost, and like Peter on the water, try to focus on by faith obeying Jesus Christ and to not be distracted.

> John 21:21-22 - When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, Lord, what about this man? Jesus said to him, If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow me! (ESV)

> Matthew 14:28-32 - And Peter answered him, Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water. He said, Come. So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, Lord, save me. Jesus immediately reached out his hand and took hold of him, saying to him, O you of little faith, why did you doubt? And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased. (ESV)

We have to trust and obey Jesus directly, we need our own personal relationship trusting and obeying Jesus Christ.

Jesus said ”households” would be divided but Jesus Himself isn’t divided against His own self, so Jesus’ Kingdom isn’t divided. Even when Jesus is ”against” someone else, since Jesus Christ Son of God is the King of His Kingdom, His Kingdom isn’t divided. So when Jesus is ”against” someone, Jesus isn’t casting out ”Himself”. Jesus isn’t against Himself.

> Revelation of John 3:1-3 - And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: The words of him who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. I know your works. You have the reputation of being alive, but you are dead. Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete in the sight of my God. Remember, then, what you received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If you will not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come against you. (ESV)

> Matthew 12:30 - Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters. (ESV)

We need to be trusting and obeying Jesus directly. He’s got to be our Only Lord (Jude 1:4) and Master (Jude 1:4) and Teacher (Matthew 23:8) and Saviour (I Corinthians 1:13).

78.4.38 Journal <2025-11-29 Sat>

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

> John 14:26 - But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. (ESV)

> John 15:26 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. (ESV)

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Acts 15:8-9 - And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)

> John 16:7 - Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. (ESV)

The Holy Spirit must make this confession (speak the same thing as God) that Jesus Christ has come (from God, into the world) in the flesh (as flesh and blood) for us to know that the spirit is from God. That's how we know the Spirit of God (i.e. by whether or not the spirit confesses the same Jesus Christ, agreeing with God over this truth and further truths).

So if we are to know for sure that the spirit is from God then it must confess this fact, that Jesus Christ has come (proceeded forth) [from God, into the world] in the flesh [i.e. as flesh and blood]. If you don't know that the spirit affirms this fact then we can't know that it's the Holy Spirit:

> I John 4:1-3 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

Believing some kind of "witness from afar" of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit, such as the Scripture's witness of Jesus regarding Him to be the Son of God is not the fullness of what is promised. What is promised is that Holy Spirit will be in those who love Jesus, keeping His commandments:

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)
>
> Galatians 4:6 - And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:15-17 - For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)
>
> John 15:26-27 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. And you also will bear witness, because you have been with me from the beginning. (ESV)

The Holy Spirit's words and testimony of Jesus should not feel bottle-necked to those who have Holy Spirit in their heart. We do hope for Holy Spirit to really be supplying to us in an inexhaustible way, the words of God. We should trust God for this and hope for it, and think that's where we should be, rather than trusting a lie and being short-sold:

> John 3:34 - For he whom God has sent utters the words of God, for he gives the Spirit without measure. (ESV)
>
> John 14:26 - But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. (ESV)

So when someone deters you from trusting the promise of God regarding the bearing witness of Jesus Christ from the Holy Spirit directly inside of you, just rebuke them sharply and say what the Scripture says about it, and try to correct them, but certainly resist and do not believe the lie.

Because we are told to not trust every spirit but that we should test the spirits to see if they are from God. If we are obedient to this, we would only trust a spirit that we have tested. And we should keep on testing them. We have to continue coming into agreement with and affirming the Truth. If the spirit has not made the confession then we should not be trusting it. We should be distrusting it. If the spirit is not continuing to abide in the truth then we should not be led by it. If the spirit is speaking a different Jesus then we should not trust that spirit.

We should be testing people like this also:

> II John 1:6-11 - And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him takes part in his wicked works. (ESV)

When someone tries to tell you that this is some of bonus or extra, say in response that it's actually part of the package, as the sum of God's word is the Truth, not just part of it, and we have to go on abiding in Jesus Christ's teaching to have God, and we don't want anyone to short-sell us.

When someone tries to say that salvation is ”not a process” or something that we still hope in even after being ”saved”, don't believe the lie, because even after we are ”saved”, we still believe that there is a future salvation. We don't want to be short-changed of God's work in sanctifying us as we trust and obey Jesus Christ. Jesus bought the redemption and the sanctification with His blood. So if you have issues with defilement, then don't be letting Satan trick you into thinking that you shouldn't be trusting and obeying Jesus to be sanctified because to do so would be to sell-yourself short of the sanctification that Jesus bought.

> Acts 15:11 - But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:3-5 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. (ESV)

> Jude 1:19-21 - It is these who cause divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit; keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. (ESV)

If God hasn't yet given the testimony of Jesus Christ directly to you from Holy Spirit dwelling in you, then just continue on having faith in what the Scripture says about it, having faith in the blood of Jesus Christ, faith that Father God raised Jesus Christ from the dead in the power of the Holy Spirit, and seek to abide in Jesus Christ's commandments and believe that God has promised that you'll receive this testimony and hope for it.

> Romans 1:1-6 - Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God, which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh and was declared to be the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations, including you who are called to belong to Jesus Christ, (ESV)

> Romans 8:11,24-25 - If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. (ESV)

> Hebrews 6:11-12 - And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:17-19 - By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, of whom it was said, Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. He considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back. (ESV)

All children of God (children of the promise) purify themselves:

> I John 3:1-3 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. (ESV)

God Almighty knows that I've been coming under huge amounts of spiritual attack and have been exposed even to this day to disgusting, lewd, antichrist dreams and visions. But even though I sometimes have given in to temptations, I will seek to hate my mistakes, confess my sin, repent, hate the sin, and I'm going to keep confessing and holding to and being corrected by the truth of what the Scripture says and keep trusting that God will sanctify me as I trust and obey Him.

There has been a huge amount of spiritual resistance to me doing this. I do not understand why I've been attacked to this degree, it does sometimes make me feel like God is not taking care of me sufficiently but allowing me to be attacked more than I can handle, and I do often now complain a lot to God about it and when I do, that's when satan sends more of his messengers. It's disgusting stuff and it's really challenging. And in Jesus Christ's name I just rebuke the demons which have been harassing me. May the Lord Jesus Christ deliver me from these damned spirits that have been invading my mind during my sleep, and targeting my soul, causing sexual sensations trying to provoke me to arousal. Yes, I rebuke every one of those damned spirits in the name of Jesus Christ. And may Jesus Christ sanctify me and protect me, provide the testimony from Holy Spirit and God-willing, rapture off this planet.

78.4.39 Journal <2025-11-30 Sun>

My mind was once again flooded with dreams, visions and voices which are not from God last night and this morning. My sleep was very broken as it has daily been, to being woken up to invasive dreams that are not of the truth. How do I know they're not from God?

- They're false. No lie is of the truth.
- They don't confess the same Jesus who is Christ, the Son of God.
- They are not affirming a love for God.
- They are not affirming a love or desire to do the will of God.
- They just seem to be opposed to doing the will of God, or to thinking about His word or to obeying Him.
- They're often "worldly", almost obsessively fixated on earthly pleasures.
- They're often lewd, and antichrist, and seek to tempt to do what displeases God.
- And they're often mocking of faith in Jesus Christ.
- And the dreams and visions that are not from God don't lead into the truth. God speaks clearly and leads into the truth, and into understanding. God is not a God of confusion (disorder) but a God of peace. (Genesis 20:3-7, II Timothy 2:7, I Corinthians 14:29-33)
  - I'm very sick and tired of getting the types of dreams/visions which are ambiguous and seem to lead to more confusion and more second-guessing, more instability. Rather than clearing anything up, they just bring about more confusion. They'll say something like, "I'll let you sit on my throne." (Revelation of John 3:21). But even Satan has a throne. (Revelation of John 2:13).
    - Very frequently, I get these types of dreams and visions. It's tiring and I'm sick of it.
    - When God sends a messenger, God is not ambiguous. (Numbers 22:30-32)

I've had no word from God, at least recently, asides from what I read in Scripture. There's been no confession of Jesus Christ from the Holy Spirit in that form of dream/vision/voice to my heart. God help me. It's just awful and I'm really tired of this.

We need to be abiding in Jesus Christ's commandments lawfully in faith in the truth and love for the truth, loving one-another the way Jesus commanded us and demonstrated to be well-established, to be stable and so that in time of testing we will not fall away:

> Luke 8:13 - And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe for a while, and in time of testing fall away. (ESV)
>
> II Peter 3:17 - You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, take care that you are not carried away with the error of lawless people and lose your own stability. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 7:15-27 - Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it. (ESV)

Doing what's lawful:
If a person has a good heart then out from that good heart they will do good:

- Luke 8:15 - As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience. (ESV)
- Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

Jesus fixes our heart so that we trust in the truth and love the truth and love in truth. We have a law-abiding faith in Jesus Christ:

- Romans 5:7-8 - For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (ESV)

We then do everything out of a heart that has faith in the truth and love for the truth:

- Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)
- Matthew 22:37-40 - And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)
- I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)

- Luke 6:9-10 - And Jesus said to them, I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it? And after looking around at them all he said to him, Stretch out your hand. And he did so, and his hand was restored. (ESV)

False obedience is where there is no love for God in the heart:

> Psalms 81:15 - Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever. (engbsb2020eb)

I think that the breastplate of righteousness (breastplate of faith and love) depends on faith and love. To love God and our neighbour is our duty:

> I Thessalonians 5:8 - But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. (ESV)

78.4.40 Journal <2025-12-05 Fri>

What is not done in faith is sin (Romans 14:23, James 4:17). What is not done in law-abiding agape love is also sin (Matthew 22:36-40, I John 3:4). Christians should imitating the love of Jesus Christ, trusting God will take care of them, doing good and refusing to harm others (Ecclesiastes 7:16, Romans 13:10, I Peter 4:19, I Peter 2:23) according to God's commandments for us (I John 5:2). God has taught through His word what doing no harm to one's neighbour looks like. We are instructed to share the gospel in the following of and the imitation of the Lord Jesus Christ (Mark 8:34-36) and the passing on of Jesus' teachings and commandments, discipling others (Matthew 28:18-20).

> Luke 16:16-17 - The Law and the Prophets were until John; since then the good news of the kingdom of God is preached, and everyone forces his way into it. But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of the Law to become void. (ESV)

Luke 16:16-17 does not have the word ”were” in it in the Greek. But it reads more like ”With regard to the Law and prophets up to John…”. It's clear that the Law isn't voided because of what Jesus says next.

> Luke 16:17 - But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of the Law to become void. (ESV)

```
The (G3588)      --+
law (G3551)        | Just a way of specifying the law up to this time, and (G2532)        | not saying the law is only up to this time.
the (G3588)        |
prophētai (G4396)  |
until (G3360)      |
John (G2491)     --+

from (G575)
that time (G5119)
the( G3588)
kingdom (G932)
- (G3588)
of God (G2316)
is proclaimed (G2097)

and (G2532)
everyone (G3956)
into (G1519)
it (G846)
forces his way (G971)
```

I think Matthew 11:13 reads in the Greek more like, ”All the prophets and the law until John prophesied.” The way the ESV reads, it seems to make it Matt 11:13 out to say there were only prophets up until John, and so by implication excludes Jesus Christ Himself, who is also the Son of God, from being a ’prophet’. And it also seems to read like the Law itself was only until John. But I do not believe that Matthew 11:13 actually reads like that the Greek. I believe that the way the Greek reads is more like this: ”all the prophets and the Law up to John prophesied”. Consider that Jesus Christ is the telos of the Law and Jesus also gave commandments (Christ’s Law), it also makes sense that He is the ”telos of the prophets”. Jesus is the Son of God, but that doesn’t mean He is not also regarded as a prophet. Jesus also made prophets Himself.

> Ephesians 4:11-13 - And it was He who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for works of ministry and to build up the body of Christ, until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God, as we mature to the full measure of the stature of Christ. (engbsb2020eb)

And if those who Jesus sends are speaking by the Holy Spirit, then what they say will be speaking the same (G3670 homologeó) Jesus. Their words would not contradict Jesus Christ’s words. Their words will not be contradicting who Jesus is. Their words would not contradict what the Old Testament prophets have spoken about Jesus.

> John 14:26 - But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. (ESV)

If we are ”in the Spirit” then what other people confess or refuse to confess identifies whether or not the spirit working through them is from God. The principle can and should be used to test dreams, visions, angels, demons and human beings to see if we can trust them. I would never trust someone completely who refuses to give me the testimony that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, as the Apostle John speaks of in I John 4:2-3.

I John 4:2-3 doesn’t say that if a spirit speaks the name ”Jesus” then it’s from God. It doesn’t say that at all. Rather, this word confess (G3670 homologeó) surely means that ”confess Jesus” is agreeing with, agreeing with Jesus. The spirit must agree that Jesus has come in the flesh and the spirit must agree with Jesus. Now if a spirit does say to me that ”Jesus Christ has come from God into the world in the flesh”, then that gives me confidence that the message is from God:

> I John 4:2-3 - By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

> Luke 24:25 - And he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! (ESV)

78.4.41 Journal <2025-12-07 Sun>

We are commanded to walk in the truth, and walking in the truth means we must be speaking the same Jesus Christ, and speaking the same teachings of Jesus Christ, and abiding in the teaching of Christ, and we must love one another walking according to God’s commandments for us:

> II John 1:4-11 - I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him takes part in his wicked works. (ESV)

Even ”good” things can be turned into idols:

> I Timothy 4:4-5 - For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, for it is made holy by the word of God and prayer. (ESV)

> Romans 1:19-25 - For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise, they became fools, and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles. Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen. (ESV)

Col 3:5-7 is not saying that ”the earth is bad”. But on the earth there is stuff that is corrupt, whereas in Holy Jerusalem which is in heaven there is not:

> Colossians 3:5-7 - Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. (ESV)

The Greek reads more like: Put to death ”the members” ”upon the earth” sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. So it might be better translated as, while on the earth, put to death sexual immorality, impurity etc. in your members. It’s being quite literal about practicing denying ungodliness, and striving for holiness.

We should give up our idols from the heart:

> Luke 11:39-41 - And the Lord said to him, Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also? But give as alms those things that are within, and behold, everything is clean for you. (ESV)

> Mark 10:21-23 - And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, How difficult it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! (ESV)

As children of promise, walking by faith rather than by sight, we should be desiring a heavenly country, not an earthly one:

> Hebrews 11:12-19 - Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as many as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore. These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. For people who speak thus make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of that land from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared for them a city. By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, of whom it was said, Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. He considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back. (ESV)

> II Timothy 4:18 - The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)
>
> II Corinthians 5:1-7 - For we know that if the tent, which is our earthly home, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this tent we groan, longing to put on our heavenly dwelling, if indeed by putting it on we may not be found naked. For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened—not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee. So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. (ESV)

Be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain:

> I Corinthians 15:53-58 - For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 6:9-12 - Though we speak in this way, yet in your case, beloved, we feel sure of better things—things that belong to salvation. For God is not so unjust as to overlook your work and the love that you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do. And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. (ESV)
>
> Romans 2:6-8 - He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. (ESV)

78.4.42 Journal <2025-12-11 Thu>

Even today just getting pictures of woman in my head and I don't even know where they come from or if these people are real somewhere out there - but they just appear.

And the persistent reminders of this painful stuff with the girl I proposed to. And stuff mocking marriage and mocking me about it.

And sometimes throughout this I get dreams and pictures of people who are pastors of churches. And the last couple of days I had at least 2 pastors appear in visions.

And this morning there was one dream I had of talking to a young man and I said, "What spirit is this meeting in?" They initially seemed a bit puzzled by my question. I then said, "I confess that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." And then they agreed with me, and seemed to understand.

That's a positive dream, I think.

But in and around these dreams and visions I get hit so terribly hard with demonic dreams and visions. There was other stuff in there which was, I believe, misrepresenting someone who I knew from church.

> Hebrews 12:4-11 - In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. Besides this, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? For they disciplined us for a short time as it seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. (ESV)

Job 21:7-15 - Why do the wicked live, reach old age, and grow mighty in power? Their offspring are established in their presence, and their descendants before their eyes. Their houses are safe from fear, and no rod of God is upon them. Their bull breeds without fail; their cow calves and does not miscarry. They send out their little boys like a flock, and their children dance. They sing to the tambourine and the lyre and rejoice to the sound of the pipe. They spend their days in prosperity, and in peace they go down to Sheol. They say to God, Depart from us! We do not desire the knowledge of your ways. What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? And what profit do we get if we pray to him? (ESV)

78.4.43 Journal <2025-12-12 Fri>

James 4:7-10 - Submit (G5293 Hypotagēte) yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. Be wretched and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you. (ESV)

G5293 Hypotagēte hupotassó: To subject, to subordinate, to submit, to be under obedience. From hupo and tasso; to subordinate; reflexively, to obey – be under obedience (obedient), put under, subdue unto, (be, make) subject (to, unto), be (put) in subjection (to, under), submit self unto.

Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

Acts 19:2-5 - And he said to them, Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? And they said, No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit. And he said, Into what then were you baptized? They said, Into John's baptism. And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus. On hearing this, they were baptized in the name (G3686 onoma) of the Lord Jesus. (ESV)

G3686 ónoma name; (figuratively) the manifestation or revelation of someone's character, i.e. as distinguishing them from all others. Thus "praying in the name of Christ" means to pray as directed (authorized) by Him, bringing revelation that flows out of being in His presence. "Praying in Jesus' name" therefore is not a "religious formula" just to end prayers (or get what we want)!

So typically, we come to faith, get baptised into Jesus' name (G3686 onoma. i.e. into the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit is still Jesus's onoma name), are forgiven and we should straight away endeavour to be doing all the will of God for us (all of what God wants us to do) and continue learning and understanding what God's will is for us and put into practice what God's will is for us (i.e. sanctification, faith in Jesus, trusting and obeying Jesus, love in the truth, etc.). Peter advises us to arm ourself with the way of thinking that is to be doing the will of God even in face of the suffering that comes from the active resistance to doing the will of God. I.e. we should submit to God in obedience, resist rendering evil for evil, stop letting sin reign, stop obeying sin, and instead obey Jesus and practice good works done in faith. Since Jesus suffered in the flesh because He was practicing perfect rightetousness while sinful men killed Him, we arm ourselves with this same way of thinking, that is to cease from issin and live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God.

> I Peter 4:1-9 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the spirit the way God does. The end of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers. Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. Show hospitality to one another without grumbling. (ESV)

And the Apostle Paus commends:

- faith in Christ Jesus
- love for family in Christ

> Colossians 1:2-10 - To the saints and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father. We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel, which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth, just as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf and has made known to us your love in the Spirit. And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. (ESV)

And the hope which we have being laid up for us in heaven:

> I Peter 1:3-4 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, (ESV)

It's for those who love Him:

> I Corinthians 2:7-14 - But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. None of the rulers of this age understood this, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written, What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him— these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. (ESV)

We must continue on in the love of the truth, faithfully, obediently, doing the will of God. We should be growing in faith, growing in love for one another and growing in the knowledge of God, and should be putting a stop to practicing sin as God wants, and trust that God will take care of us:

II Thessalonians 1:3-12 - We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing. Therefore we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions that you are enduring. This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering— since indeed God considers it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you, and to grant relief to you who are afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might, when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed. To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

I John 3:6 - No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. (ESV)

I Peter 4:17-19 - For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And If the righteous is scarcely saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner? Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)

Colossians 1:3-29 - We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel, which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth, just as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf and has made known to us your love in the Spirit. And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Him we proclaim, warning > everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me. (ESV)

>
> I John 2:15 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 8:3 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)
>
> I Peter 5:6-12 - Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you. Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world. And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the dominion forever and ever. Amen. By Silvanus, a faithful brother as I regard him, I have written briefly to you, exhorting and declaring that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it. (ESV)

78.4.44 Journal <2025-12-20 Sat>

I know God hates the indwelling sin and that it is condemned and that I need to be keeping Jesus' commandments. To obey the sinful flesh, that which is condemned is death.

> Romans 8:6 - To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. (ESV)

This really says it all. I need God to really help me to rule over the flesh. I need to be trusting and obeying Jesus in order to do that:

> Romans 7:22-24 - For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? (ESV)
>
> Romans 6:12 - Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. (ESV)
>
> Galatians 5:24 - And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

We need to be loving the law of God, prefering truth to darkness, preferring God to sin, wanting to do the right thing, and be abiding in Jesus Christ's commandments, trusting and obedient to Jesus, in order to abide in Jesus Christ and not fall into condemnation:

> Romans 7:15-25 - I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see > in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV)

> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> Romans 8:1-4 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

May God continue cleaning me and healing me:

> II Timothy 4:18 - The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

> Acts 14:21-22 - When they had preached the gospel to that city and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch, strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God. (ESV)

> Matthew 7:21 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

If we're really loving in the truth then we will speak the truth about what God's word says. We don't want to lie in order to get out of punishment. We want to choose the path of love even if it means we might be punished for it. It would be wrong to plea guilty to a lesser charge if you knew you were not guilty of the charge in order to get out of taking a greater charge carrying a greater sentence but where the charge is true. Because love doesn't fear punishment. We're not supposed to fear what mankind might do to us, or fear prison time because if we are doing what pleases God, we have a good conscience. We're supposed to fear God and do what pleases God:

> Matthew 18:7-8 - Woe to the world for temptations to sin! For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes! And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire. (ESV)

> I John 4:18 - There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. (ESV)

I am despairing right now because the fight against sin and error has been so difficult and I keep caving into temptation.

I get spiritually attacked fairly frequently through other people sometimes.

This week someone just blurted out to me ”fiery arrows” like ”you have a long way to go”, after I tell them that Jesus is the way the truth and the life and there's no way to Father God except through Him and that we need to focus on Jesus by trusting and obeying Him and that if someone keeps Jesus commandments then the Holy Spirit will come to them and Jesus will manifest to them. Jesus is the reality, the truth. I said this to the person and they just said ”you have a long way to go”. And this in the moment was a fiery dart. I did respond to the person with ”salvation is not just a thing we hope for but is a here and now thing.” And I mentioned Romans 10:8-10.

> Romans 10:6-10 - But the righteousness based on faith says, Do not say in your heart, Who will ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down) or Who will descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)

Someone else in that situation amened it!

Like, when I'm trying to fight against sin, and I'm doing war against sin, when I'm countering lies with the word of God, when I'm doing this, I get fierce resistance. I have had fierce resistance to doing the will of God. It's disgusting stuff.

Anyway I believe we can have eternal life right now if we, in this moment have true faith in Jesus Christ, but I believe we must also continue on in Christ's teaching. I'm a believer in God's word which includes what's written in Romans 11.

> John 5:24 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (ESV)

2Jn 1:9 (Interlinear) Anyone going on ahead and not abiding in the teaching of Christ God not has. The [one] abiding in the teaching this [one] both the Father and the Son has

> Romans 11:20-23 - That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. (ESV)

78.4.45 Journal <2026-01-01 Thu>

I had an interesting conversation today in the comments section youtube.com UgwhjGieoW0cFd1EOc94AaAB cFZwMLj: Post from Tucker Carlson

If a person has the love of God in them, they'd receive Jesus. Yes, there were people before Jesus' crucifixion who had the love of God in them, as in they love God, they love His word, they're receptive to God, and treasure God, and prefer God to evil, etc.

> Romans 2:5-11 - But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

> Luke 16:30-31 - And he said, No, father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent. He said to him, If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone should rise from the dead. (ESV)

> Psalms 112:1,6-8 - Praise ye Jah! O the happiness of one fearing Jehovah, In His commands he hath delighted greatly. For–to the age he is not moved; For a memorial age-during is the righteous. Of an evil report he is not afraid, Prepared is His heart, confident in Jehovah. Sustained is his heart–he feareth not, Till that he look on his adversaries. (YLT)

The law of Christ is a law of faith (not works), so what counts is not the works that come from the faith but what is in the heart (trust, obedience, love, hope, fear of God). A good heart that treasures God's Word produces good. So upon the revelation of the Truth revealed in Christ the Son of God we must trust, love, receive, believe, agree-with Christ and who He is and His words and what God has done in sending Christ into the world to be propitiation for sin, for us to be correctable by God. It's the one who accepts Christ, who puts their faith in Christ who believes, receives, loves, keeps, retains Christ, who God justifies/will justify. But God searches the hearts and minds and does the justifying:

> Romans 3:26-28 - It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. (ESV)
>
> Romans 3:28 - For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. (ESV)
>
> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)
>
> Titus 1:15 - To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. (ESV)

How people respond to the revelation of Jesus Christ though is the test of whether people prefer God to evil, or evil to God:

> John 3:19 - This is the judgment, that the Light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the Light, for their deeds were evil. (ESV)
>
> Acts 24:14-16 - But this I confess to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the Law and written in the Prophets, having a hope in God, which these men themselves accept, that there will be a resurrection of both the just and the unjust. So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 13:18 - Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a clear conscience, desiring to act honorably in all things. (ESV)

`@adamproud7986`, asks "Only christians will enter to heaven?"

`@ShaneMulligan-n7h`, "There's the heavenly places and then there's Holy Jerusalem which is in the heavenly places. So which do you mean precisely :P"

`@adamproud7986`, "heaven when we go to our creator after judgement"

`@ShaneMulligan-n7h`, "Like Tucker, I am a fallible person. But iron sharpens iron so I will try to convey some understanding. Old heaven and earth pass away but so long as we feed on Christ (his words are eternal and will never pass away) we have life in us. He said heaven and earth will pass away but my words will not pass away. And Peter says the heavens and earth will pass away but we wait for a new heavens and earth - a new kosmos (heavens and earth). We want the good future where God is. Something doesn't come back to life unless it dies. Either our mortal bodies die a normal earthly [death] in order for us to be raised with incorruptible bodies and go to the place without corruption, so long as Christ is in us, or Christ comes back and our fallen bodies are transformed along with the other righteous who love God's word. If a person has faith in (trusts, loves, hopes in) Jesus Christ and His words etc. then we have a hopeful expectation of the future. But if a person trusts in wickedness they should expect judgement. If a person is abiding in Christ's commandments then there's no condemnation for them. They will be resurrected with the just. There's no way to Father God except through the Son of God. The way to Father God is through Jesus. So if we abide in His commandments we abide in Christ's love and we live because of His life. The perishable must put on the imperishable to inherit the kingdom of God. Only people who have been sanctified (cleaned up) can inherit the Kingdom of God. Jesus said noone who commits sin remains in the house forever. Who the Son sets free [from sin] is free indeed. Whoever commits sin is a slave to sin. So our desires should be for God. By the spirit we should put to death the deeds of the [sinful] body, and we'll live. Entering the kingdom of God we need to born-again of the spirit. The ”part of a person” that trusts and loves God is the one born-of God. The word of God in a person is incorruptible (I Peter 1:23-25). The sinful nature which rebels against God is the flesh and is condemned. Through faith in the blood of Jesus (loving and treasuring the facts concerning the passion, death and resurrection of Christ), the rest of our being can be cleaned up so we love God with our whole heart, and keeping His commandments to not harm our neighbour from the heart etc.”

> I Peter 1:23 - since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; (ESV)

`@adamproud7986`, ”I read your comment but you didn’t answer my question , do non christians who believe in a creator and do good deeds in their lives will be on god’s side or not ?”

`@ShaneMulligan-n7h`, ”Jesus said whoever is not against us is for us. As I mentioned in a previous comment, how a person responds to the revelation of Christ is the test God uses but God is the one who tests the hearts. Not everyone who calls themself a Jew is a Jew because it’s a matter of the heart. God tests the hearts. It’s not even necessarily the person who even commends themself for faith in Christ who is the one who has faith in Christ. Is this making sense?”

> Romans 10:10 - For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)

`@adamproud7986`, ”Yes, I appreciate your last response it is more clear. It is a matter of heart. thus who ever believe truly in God and does good deed he is indeed in God’s mercy and blessings, am I correct ?”

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

`@ShaneMulligan-n7h`, ”Yes, if it’s actually true. But God knows. It’s the true agreement with God who sees all hearts of all people. But since Jesus Christ came to earth and He is the image of God, we now have seen perfect goodness when we see Jesus. And so how a person responds to this (with love or hate for God) is the test, the judgement. Because all have fallen short of the glory of God. That means, compared to Jesus, the person’s works are not as good as Jesus. The person who agrees with Christ, who He is, what He came for, is in agreement with God, and is not condemned. A person might have this type of faith where they value God, and if they did then they would accept Christ when they hear about Him. But if they reject Him then they become an enemy of God because God has shown us His perfect righteousness. Whoever is in true agreement with God is the one who trusts God, loves God, etc. The word in the bible for that is ”homologeo” (speak the same thing). The one born of God loves God, and practices righteousness from the good treasure of a person’s heart they produce good deeds. So if we treasure God and His words in our heart then we can be cleaned up to look like Jesus. The person born of God can be described in various ways including: they agree with the words of Jesus Christ, agrees that Jesus Christ is the Son of God (that’s essentially agreeing that God was pleased with His good Son and raised Him from the dead) because in God raising Jesus from the dead, it shows He is good, like God. But while we carry the sinful flesh which rebels against God, there is a spiritual battle where we do not carry out perfect deeds because of the sinful flesh (Romans 7:12-25, Galatians 5:17). Only God carries out perfect deeds. But as we hold our faith, God cleans us up and delivers us from ”every lawless deed”. God helps us to practice good deeds. So while we are not fully cleaned up, instead of relying on our deeds, we just, like children, humble, trust and obey Jesus, and not rely on our ability to carry out the perfect deed, but not deny our faith in our Lord who is perfect. God sees the trust we have for Jesus Christ in our heart and doesn’t reject us so long as we do not reject Christ.”

> John 16:26-27 - In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. (ESV)

> John 15:23-24 - Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV)

> John 8:42-47 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

> I Kings 8:39 - then hear in heaven your dwelling place and forgive and act and render to each whose heart you know, according to all his ways (for you, you only, know the hearts of all the children of mankind), (ESV)

`@ShaneMulligan-n7h`: "But the other thing is this. We might not receive what is due for doing good or for doing evil until after judgement. God can bless us here, sure, but the full reward for doing good or the condemnation for doing evil, is on its way, if even if a person receives it after they die the human death and face judgement. Some people don't believe God will reward doing good so they choose to sin because they do not trust God. God is still saving people in this world, bringing people into the kingdom of God, and that is why we don't all just receive immediately what is due for doing good right now Hebrews 11:39-40. But what we sow we will reap (Galatians 6:8). So we can invest into God's kingdom now and the reward will come eventually. We can receive heavenly treasure which is imperishable. So we can give mercy to people in this life, and give up earthly treasure, and store up treasure in heaven, out of faith and love for God, yes, but we don't covet greedily the earthly wealth, and we believe that God that He has something better for us in the future in heaven waiting for us."

> Isaiah 57:1-2 - The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. (KJV)

> Ephesians 6:5-8 - Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to man, knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:39-40 - And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. (ESV)

`@acsberean4092`: I would suggest saying "Whoever keeps Jesus Christ's commandments PROVES they abide in Him."

`@ShaneMulligan-n7h`: `@acsberean4092`, that's true also. Both verses in John 14:15,21 are true. My way of wording it would go as following: The person born of God trusts and loves God, and keeps His commandments and abides in Him and does good by default. Jesus commanded us to have faith in Him (John 14:1), so it is an entrypoint, as in if we are doing this (trusting in Him) then we abide in Him. But a person must continue to abide in His teaching (2 John 1:9), so in hearing more commandments such as to love our family in Christ, it is essential that we do so. After all, to deny that we need to love our family in Christ would be to not trust His words. So we have to be correctable by Jesus and His teachings. But the new creation person born-of God does really love their family in Christ but while we are lugging around the sinful flesh sometimes we make mistakes (as in sin) but they're the mistake and not a part of the new identity but like the prodigal son returning to his father, we confess and turn from sins if we make them. By default a child of God does the will of God and from the good treasure (love of God) in their heart they produce good. We identify as the new child of God, the one who loves God and trusts Him, and we don't identify as the sinful flesh. John 14:15,21 at first seemed like a bit of a chicken-and-egg problem, where which comes first: "If you love Jesus, you will keep Jesus' commandments." or "The one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one who loves Jesus." But a miracle happens where God circumcises the heart so we love Him and live. And God will help us to love Him with our whole heart. God will sanctify us.

78.4.46 Journal <2026-01-03 Sat>

The principle behind being a "doer" rather than merely a "hearer" of God's word still applies:

> Romans 2:13 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. (ESV)
>
> James 1:22 - But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. (ESV)

Those who actually trust God's word, even given through Moses, would trust Jesus' word:

> John 5:46 - If you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. (ESV)
>
> Luke 16:29-31 - But Abraham said, They have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them. And he said, No, father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent. He said to him, If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone should rise from the dead. (ESV)

We must be those who receive Jesus Christ's word and do it:

> John 8:37 - I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. (ESV)

It's certainly not about boasting that we've done the law. But about actually doing it. And a person's praise is from God:

> John 7:19 - Has not Moses given you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why do you seek to kill me? (ESV)

God wants us to listen and obey His Word, and His Word appeared in the flesh. Jesus came into the world in the flesh:

> II Kings 18:11-12 - The king of Assyria carried the Israelites away to Assyria and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. They neither listened nor obeyed. (ESV)

We have to be "doers" of Jesus' word. We have to trust and obey Jesus:

> Romans 4:3 - For what does the Scripture say? Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness. (ESV)
>
> Luke 11:28 - But he said, Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it! (ESV)
>
> John 5:37-42 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life. I do not receive glory from people. But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. (ESV)
>
> John 5:24-25 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. Truly, truly, I say to you, an hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. (ESV)

> John 5:28-29 - Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment. (ESV)

Someone greater than Jonah and greater than John the Baptist is here and something greater than the temple is here:

- Jonah called people to turn from their sinful ways
- John the Baptist called people to turn from their sinful ways and trust in the one who is to come, Jesus.
- Jesus calls us to follow Him, to trust and hope in Him, believe who He is, and imitate Him and keep His commandments

> Romans 2:25-29 - For circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the law, but if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law. For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

> Luke 11:29-32 - When the crowds were increasing, he began to say, This generation is an evil generation. It seeks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah. For as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so will the Son of Man be to this generation. The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon is here. The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here. (ESV)

> Matthew 11:10-11 - This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you. Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least (G3398 mikroteros; the least) in the kingdom of heaven is greater (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) than he. (ESV)

But Jesus is the greatest in the Kingdom, the King of the Kingdom, the greatest servant:

> Luke 3:16 - John answered them all, saying, I baptize you with water, but he who is mightier than I is coming, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

> Matthew 12:1-8 - At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath. He said to them, Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him: how he entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him to eat nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? Or have you not read in the Law how on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless? I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. And if you had known what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the guiltless. For the Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath. (ESV)

78.4.47 Journal <2026-01-05 Mon>

We must be led by the spirit, not by the flesh. If a person is not led by the spirit (i.e. if they are lawless and disobedient, ungodly sinners, unholy and profane, etc.), then they're under the law and will get ”hit by the book”. Being led by the spirit, a person should not be led by anyone who does not confess or agree with Jesus Christ and are not themselves led by the spirit. So even when Jesus was going to people's houses, etc. Jesus was ultimately was not led at all by them but rather by Father God as Jesus mantained His obedience and faithfulness to Father God. So whatever we do as Christians should be bridled by a faithfulness and obedience to God as well. Because whatever is not done in faith is sin:

> I Timothy 1:8-9 - Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, (ESV)
>
> Galatians 5:13-24 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. (ESV)
>
> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

I do not think I John 5:19 passage is saying that the kosmos is controlled/run by Satan. It would be a misreading to think that the planet is controlled by Satan. Rather, I think it's saying that it's laden or it lays with evil and that the people who are still in darkness are under the power of Satan, and that makes sense to me, because as we know there exists spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places:

> I John 5:19 - We know that we are from God, and the whole world (G2889 kosmos; world) lies in the power of the evil one. (ESV)

I John 5:19 (Interlinear) We know that of God we are and the world (G2889 kosmos) whole (G3650 holos) in (G1722 en) the (G3588 tō) evil/evil [one] (G4190 ponērō) lies (G2749 keitai; laid, appointed, set, standing, destined)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

Taking a look at other parts of Scripture helps to understand better, the situation. Those who are ”of the world” rather than ”of God” are in darkness (they don't walk according to the truth, they don't love God, they don't love the truth). But God sent Jesus Christ as light so that whoever is trusting in Him, hearing His word and trusting His word, may not remain in darkness. So the whole world / kosmos being laid in evil, or laying in the power of the evil one (another interpretation), is really saying that Satan has the people who are ”of the world” deceived and walking in darkness, and also reiterating that there are forces of evil in the kosmos, in the world in the heavenly places:

> John 12:44-48 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge (G2919 krinō: do judge) him; for I did not come to judge the world (G2919 krinō: I might judge) but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)

> Ephesians 6:12 - For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. (ESV)

But it's truly God who is ultimately in control of the world. Satan is a defeated foe and his destiny is hell. But Satan tries to bring people down with him:

cefireland.com: Principle 2 - God is sovereign and in control of everyone and everything ! « Child Evang

> He is sovereign in providence. He controls all that is in the world (Daniel 4:35) including the forces of nature (Psalm 147:15-18), all people, including kings and presidents (Isaiah 40:15-17,22,23), Satan and all angels (Job 1), and all the events and circumstances in our lives (Romans 8:28). There are no accidents in a believer's life. Everything that happens to you has one of the two causes – either God sent it or God allowed it.

> Psalms 147:15-18 - He sends out his command to the earth; his word runs swiftly. He gives snow like wool; he scatters hoarfrost like ashes. He hurls down his crystals of ice like crumbs; who can stand before his cold? He sends out his word, and melts them; he makes his wind blow and the waters flow. (ESV)

> Isaiah 40:15-17,22,23 - Behold, the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and are accounted as the dust on the scales; behold, he takes up the coastlands like fine dust. Lebanon would not suffice for fuel, nor are its beasts enough for a burnt offering. All the nations are as nothing before him, they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness. It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to dwell in; who brings princes to nothing, and makes the rulers of the earth as emptiness. (ESV)

And the context in I John 5 really is showing that we can be saved, brought out of darkness, and into the light (the love of the Truth, into Christ), brought into the love of Jesus Christ, and His word, and into relationship with God:

> I John 5:18-21 - We know that everyone who has been born of God does not keep on sinning, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. Little children, keep yourselves from idols. (ESV)

> John 17:6-8 - I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world. Yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything that you have given me is from you. For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. (ESV)

> I John 4:6-7 - We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)

> I John 4:2-5 - By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. (ESV)

78.4.48 Journal <2026-02-11 Wed>

I went into the city today and I met with various people and God encouraged me through those interactions. I have faith that God is still working and will deliver me from all defilement etc. And I'll still be meditating on God's word and trying to put it into practice (be a doer of His word).

God uses law enforcement and as a believer in Jesus, it's very important to be endeavouring to maintain a good conscience and to be a "doer" of love when participating in a court of law:

> Romans 13:1-10 - Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore whoever resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is the servant of God, an avenger who carries out God's wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be in subjection, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience. For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are ministers of God, attending to this very thing. Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed. Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

> Mark 13:9-11 - But be on your guard. For they will deliver you over to councils, and you will be beaten in synagogues, and you will stand before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them. And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations. And when they bring you to trial and deliver you over, do not be anxious beforehand what you are to say, but say whatever is given you in that hour, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 2:10 - Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:6-7 - In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:17-18 - By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, of whom it was said, Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. (ESV)

Love is not afraid of punishment. Love does not intend to do harm to our neighbour. Love abhors evil and rejoices with the truth. We should not be afraid of punishment if we are doing good, but should at all times endeavour to be speaking the truth, maintain a good conscience before God who knows everything, walking by faith and loving one another. We need to be doers of good, having been forgiven by God through faith in Jesus, loving Jesus rather than evil:

> I John 4:17-21 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

And for the record, when I went through court, I was not offered the option of ”no plea” to my memory. I do have a problem with that, because sometimes the right thing to do is stay silent. I was asked to plead guilty or not guilty. And I was pushed into the situation where I had to do that by what felt like witchcraft. It felt like a total stitchup. If a person does not know if they are guilty or not guilty then it would be wrong to plead guilty or not guilty especially when there is not full agreement of the facts which have been filed into court which are given to the judge. But my intentions with pleading guilty was to minimise harm to the other party while acknowledging that I wasn’t without fault. And I would advise others who end up in court to do whatever is the most loving thing, endeavouring to maintain a good conscience with God. I still have unresolved issues because of a continuing defilement of spirit or flesh which I never used to have which I blame on seemingly unending demonic harassment. I have been continually asking God to provide for me the promised testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit and to heal me and deliver me from evil.

78.4.49 Journal <2026-02-16 Mon>

I think that key to walking in victory over the ”sin in the flesh” is to fill one’s mind and heart with thoughts, feelings and intentions that are of the Spirit of God. So when the sin in the flesh is fighting against my mind to try to make me do things that are defiling, the way to disempower it is to fill my mind and heart with thoughts, feelings and intentions that are of the Spirit. This morning I put that into practice and it worked, but there was a battle. I think that walking by the Spirit includes such things as believing the Truth, being obedient to Jesus, willing to love not only in thought but in deed because walking by the Spirit needs to be walking in the Truth.

> Galatians 5:17-18 - For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. (ESV)

78.4.50 Journal <2026-02-23 Mon>

God wants us to love Him genuinely and that involves a hatred of evil:

> Psalms 97:10 - O you who love the LORD, hate evil! He preserves the lives of his saints; he delivers them from the hand of the wicked. (ESV)

> Romans 12:9 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. (ESV)

Psalms 97:10 You who love (H157 ’ō · hă · ḇê) Yahweh (H3068 Yah · weh) hate (H8130 śin · ’ū) evil (H7451 rā‘) He preserves the souls of His saints out of the hand of the wicked He delivers them (Interlinear)

We need the correct desires. The desires of the flesh are against the desires of the Spirit:

> Galatians 5:17 - For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. (ESV)

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

It's been a real spiritual battle.

When it comes to walking by the Spirit, I don't think a person can cheat on it because the desires of the flesh are against the desires of the spirit and the desires of the spirit are against the desires of the flesh. Genuine repentance, genuine faith and genuine love, I strongly believe, involve "doing the word in reality". We must desire God in reality.

Fear of God and faith in God go hand in hand. Love for God and hatred of evil go hand in hand. Abraham did not cheat. He was a doer in reality.

Psalms 115:11 You who fear Yahweh trust in Yahweh their help and their shield He [is] (Interlinear)

See how we must be "doers the word" in reality:

> Luke 6:47-49 - Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does (G4160 poiōn; doing) them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

If we're really keeping Jesus' commandments (as in trusting and loving God, God's word and loving our family in Christ) then we should have confidence that we abide in Jesus. Of course we don't commend ourselves for this, but we should be doing as Jesus instructed (i.e. having faith in Him with love for one another):

> I John 2:3 - And by this we know that we have come to know Him, if the commandments of Him we keep. (Interlinear)
>
> I John 2:4 - The [one] saying, "I have known Him" and the commandments of Him not keeping, a liar he is, and in him the truth not is. (Interlinear)
>
> I John 2:5 - Whoever, however, keeps His word truly (in reality), in him the love of God has been perfected. By this we know that in Him we are. (Interlinear)
>
> John 3:21 - The [one] however practicing (G4160 poiōn; doing) the truth (G225 alētheian) comes (G2064 erchetai) to the Light (G5457 phōs) that may be manifest (G5319 phanerōthē) his works (G2041 erga) that in God (G2316 Theō) have been (G1510 estin) done (G2038 eirgasmena) (Interlinear)

I pray for old friends I have known since before I was born-again. I get pictures of them in my mind in dreams quite frequently - almost on a daily basis, even if the dreams to not seem "true". Even if the dreams seems often also to bring up or refer to mistakes I have made in the past. Even if the dreams seems often to encourage debauchery and sin. If I get pictures of old friends from before I was born-again, and of family members "of the flesh" (i.e. from natural birth), I still pray to God to save them. Of course, I want them all to be saved and to have a genuine faith in Jesus Christ. And I'm trying my best to fight the spiritual battles.

Also, since God wants me to not have desires for evil things, then perhaps God is simply giving me opportunities to say no to various temptations. A major part of the spiritual attacks, I believe are opportunities for me to choose the good, to choose holiness and godliness over lewdness and sinful passion.

I'm so tired of battling, though.

78.4.51 Journal <2026-02-25 Wed>

The righteous still do righteousness, but they don't rely on abiding by and doing all the things written in the Book of the Law including doing the works of the law:

> John 15:14 - You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)
>
> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 22:11 - Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do right, and the holy still be holy. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:38 - but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:2 - Let me ask you only this: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by hearing with faith? (ESV)

> Romans 3:27-31 - Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

> Romans 2:13 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. (ESV)

> Romans 2:29 - But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

Works to faith is like flesh to spirit, and the spirit is willing, at least it should be. So we should have the heart of faith which has the attitudes and intentions God desires that we have, and do God's will from the heart and in reality, and that should produce good deeds. But we don't rely on being able to carry out works perfectly:

> James 2:26 - For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead. (ESV)

Good works still come from good faith. But we don't rely on being able to carry out perfect deeds. But we still have the heart of faith, love, hope, obedience in reality, with intention to do the will of God.

78.4.52 Journal <2026-08-30 Sun 19:47>

I have fond memories of my former life, and thankful to God for a relatively decent previous life, but I'm not agape loving it. But certainly those people I remember, I hope and pray do come to or continue in the knowledge of God through faith in Jesus Christ. But that previous life of mine died, and I am now looking forwards, endeavouring to walk in newness of life, living for the will of God. I don't agape love my previous life.

> Philippians 3:8 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ (ESV)

My former parents are of my previous life. My previous life is dead. My former genaeology is not my present genaeology. Those who I formerly regarded as ”uncle” and ”aunty”, ”nana”, ”grandad” and ”grandpa” and ”grandma” and ”brother” and ”sister” I no longer regard as having those titles. But if any of them are in Christ then they would be brother and sister to me.

I reject calling my former parents (from my former life) who I am still in close physical proximity to as ”my parents”.

I haven't said they are not believers, and neither have I said they are believers. I have simply said they are not my parents.

> Luke 14:26 - If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. (ESV)

Now since these people who appear as my previous parents, are truly no longer my parents in reality, then in understanding Jesus' teaching that anyone who comes to Him and does not hate their mother and father cannot be His disciple, it's correct to say that there is no need for me to hate these people anymore if I am to come to Jesus Christ some more because they are not my parents. Jesus is talking about hating parents and these people are not my parents.

But that doesn't mean that I have never hated people who I considered at some point to be my parents (i.e. those who formerly I had regarded as being my parents) and crucially when they actually were my parents. But if the people I hated are no longer my parents then I don't have to hate them in order to come to Jesus.

Now I hate my previous life.

It is no more the reality that these people are my parents, as I died an actual death when I was born-again, and all things became new, and so those people from my previous life have died along with my previous life.

> II Corinthians 5:14-15 - For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. (ESV)

> John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never (G3756) (G3361) die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV)

I hate my old life. And even this new life now has felt rather spoiled and contaminated in part to what has felt like extreme resistance to walking in newness of life, and a Satanic snare which seems to have been an attempmt to trap me into walking according the flesh by peer pressure. I simply can't affirm that those people I formerly regarded as my parents are my parents anymore if I am to love them in reality how I'm commanded to love them.

> I John 5:1-2 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

I have a new family now, my family in Christ. God has made all thing new.

I would love those who I formerly regarded as family to come to know God through faith in Jesus Christ, walking by the Spirit, abiding in Jesus Christ's commandments in reality. But reflecting on who I pray for, I actually pray for them just about as frequently for them as I do for other people, that they come into the knowledge of God / come into greater knowledge of God through faith in Jesus Christ.

There is a way I love those who are surely family in Christ which is that of true agape love for my true family who are in Christ, which is reserved for those who are making testimony of Jesus Christ to me, who are confessing their faith in Jesus Christ to me; Those who I may observe, say, loving as God has commanded in deed, or receiving and affirming the word of God, and who are not supporting of sinful things which God hates.

But I have after I was born-again, many times been actively resisted by my former parents, for endeavouring to abide in Jesus Christ's commandments. And under those circumstances, I have felt like they were truly not family to me. It hasn't always been like that. And I have had my freedom taken away and bound in these circumstances, in close proximity to them for a long period of time. But at times also it has seemed also as if they were believers. But God knows. I shouldn't bound be in this situation like this. It has felt like Satanic snare.

> Matthew 10:34-37 - Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

I have been pressured so strongly by circumstance and those around me, into calling them my mother and father. I've even been asked by people if ”they are believers”. But who am I to say? Christians are supposed to walk by faith and make testimony of Jesus Christ. If someone wants to find out if they are believers then they should them what they believe about Jesus Christ.

People have gotten angry at me for refusing to call my previous father 'father'. I have even been told by someone that they do not believe I am saved after I insisted that the 5th commandment (the commandment to honor one's father and mother) is applied with God as my father, and mother talking about my family in Christ.

But I have endured so much tribulation on account of the word of God for endeavouring to abide in Jesus' teachings and commandments:

> Mark 4:14-20 - The sower sows the word. And these are the ones along the path, where the word is sown: when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that is sown in them. And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: the ones who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy. And they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately they fall away. And others are the ones sown among thorns. They are those who hear the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. But those that were sown on the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold. (ESV)

I've been born-again, and I have faith in Jesus Christ that my Dad is now is God the Father of Jesus Christ.

> Luke 2:46-50 - After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. And when his parents saw him, they were astonished. And his mother said to him, Son, why have you treated us so? Behold, your father and I have been searching for you in great distress. And he said to them, Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house? And they did not understand the saying that he spoke to them. (ESV)

My mother and brothers and sisters are those who hear the word of God and do it.

The person who used to be my father before I became born of the Spirit (I was born of the Spirit on 2 April 2022) is certainly not my father anymore.

The person who I formerly regarded as mother, I have had a great deal of conflict with after I was born-again, but things have settled down in some sense. If in Christ, though, she could be regarded as still "mother".

> Luke 2:51 - And he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was submissive to them. And his mother treasured up all these things in her heart. (ESV)

> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

The people I formerly regarded as mother and father may still be believers in Jesus and if that were the case, then it would be more fitting to call them sister in Christ (maybe also mother) and brother in Christ, rather than mother and father.

But there are older woman who I have had conversations with about Jesus who I might now call mother or sister.

My old life is literally dead. I died on 2 April 2022 and was born again to a new life. And I have been fighting against the fleshly resistance that has come even from the people around me, just to get set free. The devil set a snare.

So what Jesus is saying here in Luke 14:26, I believe, is that when a person comes to Jesus Christ, their old life has to be left behind, hated, and "lost". The old life needs to be lost. And their new life with their new family in Christ begins:

> Luke 14:26 - If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. (ESV)

> Luke 9:23-27 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits > himself? For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God. (ESV)

I know God knows the hearts of those who I previously called my parents. In my view they have seemed to be worldly at times. And after getting born-again I have had conflict with them especially when I have endeavoured to keep Jesus Christ's teachings and commandments, which vexed me. And I have wished very much that I was not held here in what thas felt to me to be a prison of circumstance, or a snare set by the devil, to hold me in the flesh and to deter me from following Jesus.

I have been frustrated at times by the lack of vocal confession of their faith to me. But at other times they have listened as I spoke about my faith, and have at times agreed. There has been terrible conflict at times with them after I was born-again, though. I had been confined to this household by court-ordained bail conditions after I was born-again and made a marriage proposal, and that to me felt like witchcraft.

I am grateful for my upbringing before I was born-again, and I do feel as though I have lived a privileged life before I was born-again.

When I was water baptised as a teenager (in 2005, I believe), I feel as though I wasn't discipled thoroughly into observing all that Jesus Christ has commanded. And so when I got born-again of the Spirit in 2022, I had to learn what I would call "the hard way". But sadly, the Baptist church which I was attending at the time I was born-again wasn't really teaching the teachings of Jesus Christ accurately, nor thoroughly, as I recall, but rather it often felt as though Sunday morning services were very off topic and dilute.

> Amos 8:11 - Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord GOD, when I will send a famine on the land— not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD. (ESV)

I began reading from the Apocrypha and from the gospels (Matt, Mark, Luke and John) for myself to learn as I sought to learn from "rich" material. And reading even from the gnostic so-called gospels (Thomas, Valentinus and Philip). And also, it was not long after that before I started going to a pentecostal church which was not very strong on theology. Under these circumstances I made a marriage proposal. Also, under these circumstances, as I was doing my learning, I began to receive dreams and visions.

It wasn't long before the police knocked on my door warning me to make no further communication. But not very long after that I made communication again to ask if I could propose again in a year. Sadly, the police returned again to arrest me (it felt very graceless).

Basically, I was drawn into court over the marriage proposal I made after getting born-again, and given bail conditions to keep me bound to this household of the parents of my flesh. And that felt like witchcraft. It also felt very much illegal, as even Reformed Church quiz night results were used as evidence of me breaking bail. There were things which I did which I think were within my rights but still broke bail.

And I was confined here into this household under bail conditions. So I was actually, ironically, prevented from "moving on". And that felt very counter-productive if what was really wanted of me was to back off and move on.

I continued to attend Bible studies and church services, and have endeavoured to be corrected by God, coming into agreement with the Scripture and to abide soundly in Jesus Christ's teachings and commandments, as I endeavour to trust and obey Jesus.

And I began to receive a lot of pushback when trying to affirm sound doctrine, especially the teachings of Jesus Christ.

Now with regards to my previous parents again: Being raised by them in my "previous life" (that is, before I was born-again), I have felt loved by them then.

> Hebrews 12:9 - Besides this, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? (ESV)

And after getting born-again, although there has been necessary division between my previous parents and myself (Jesus Christ said that there would be), and although I have at times been vexed and frustrated by the lack of vocal testimony of their faith in Jesus Christ, I have also at times witnessed my previous father confess His faith in Jesus Christ even after I was born-again. And it has certainly been turbulent.

Despite the conflicts, I have feel as though things have ”stabilized” in some sense, but in an awkward way, where I am refusing to use the words ”mother” and ”father”, ”mum” and ”dad” to refer to them, yet are in very close proximty. And I'm longing for deliverance.

I wish that they would make clear vocal professions of their faith to me. Sometimes I hear Christian music playing in the house from them. They have been attending an Anglican church. I went to an Anglican church service today. It was my first time going there.

I am still very uncomfortable living here as I have not been released yet from what I feel is a prison of circumstance.

There was a schism which happened in the St Matthews Anglican church in Dunedin because St Matthew's began to bless gay 'marriage' (which is not real marriage):

- odt.co.nz: Congregation split complete

I stand firmly against gay so-called 'marriage' which is not real marriage at all. What does not proceed from faith is sin and sin is lawlessness. So as far as I'm concerned, those who practice such things cannot inherit the Kingdom of God and neither are welcome in my house:

> Jeremiah 5:7-12 - How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me and have sworn by those who are no gods. When I fed them to the full, they committed adultery and trooped to the houses of whores. They were well-fed, lusty stallions, each neighing for his neighbor's wife. Shall I not punish them for these things? declares the LORD; and shall I not avenge myself on a nation such as this? Go up through her vine rows and destroy, but make not a full end; strip away her branches, for they are not the LORD's. For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been utterly treacherous to me, declares the LORD. They have spoken falsely of the LORD and have said, He will do nothing; no disaster will come upon us, nor shall we see sword or famine. (ESV)
>
> Jeremiah 7:8-11 - Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD. (KJV)
>
> II Corinthians 6:14-18 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

A person who sins doesn't remain in God's house forever.

People who go ahead and do not abide in Christ's teaching are not welcome in my house, and I will endeavour to avoid them. And Jesus Christ has instructed to, ”sin no more”:

> II John 1:9-11 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him takes part in his wicked works. (ESV)

Since I have a new identity, I have ”divorced” myself from the old identity of who I was before I was born-again. Actually, God made me a new person so I'm simply embracing the new identity based on the promise that those who have faith in Jesus Christ's name have the right to become children of God, and obeying by faith Jesus' instruction to call no man on earth 'father' and also by reason, having witnessed being born-again of the Spirit calling out to Jesus as it happened.

I've been adopted by God the Father of my Lord Jesus Christ, and He is my Father. The people who used to be my parents are not my parents anymore in a definite sense. But the mother of my flesh if truly in Christ I may still call ”mother” as Jesus Christ has said His mother and brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. But I'm still reserved about using the word ”mother” and rightly so because frustratingly people in close proximity to me have generally been withholding making vocal confessions of their faith to me, the type of confession which I yearn to hear from people, especially that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, who has come into the world from God in the flesh (word become flesh).

This body, this tent that I am in is from Adam. But I'm a completely different person now spiritually, and the spirit is my true identity. God is the Father of my spirit and the new spirit is who I am, and I await to receive a new body, that is the resurrection body. I am a child of God now rather than of my previous parents. When Jesus Christ has said that ”If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.” I am understanding that as related to there being a necessary divorce of the previous identity, and that divorce of the previous identity in my experience has been a necessary adjustment which resulted in conflict. But that doesnt' have to be permamently the case. If there is reconciliation then it would need to be as brothers in Christ rather than ”father and son” in Christ. My previous father is not my current father. God the father of Jesus Christ is my current father, I believe. New spirit, new Dad who is God the father of Jesus Christ, and that is non-negotiable. So this is my current position on the issue:

> Hebrews 12:9 - Besides this, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? (ESV)
>
> Matthew 10:34-37 - Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. (ESV)
>
> Luke 14:26 - If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. (ESV)

I realise that it is possible for a person to be ”both” a brother in the flesh and in the Lord, but I'm reserved about giving the noun ”brother” to people unless I observe the testimony of Jesus Christ from them:

> Philemon 1:15-16 - For this perhaps is why he was parted from you for a while, that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, as a beloved brother—especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. (ESV)

78.4.53 Journal <2026-03-20 Fri> - <2026-03-22 Sun>, <2026-03-23 Mon>

More harassing, demonic dreams today. I went to bed asking God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, Yahweh, Jehovah, God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Most High God, that He would protect me in my sleep. I had also asked God to testify of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit to me.

I was still attacked by demons all through the night and was not given the testimony. I was woken up about 4 or 5 times during the night and this morning to demonic dreams. LGBT related dreams. Something invading my mind to push lying, harassing thoughts and dreams into my head. It's disgusting stuff. I rebuke it in Jesus Christ's name.

But I've been born-again, and I'm resisting the pressure that has been applied on me to walk as I used to walk, with the mindset of the former self:

> Ephesians 4:17-27 - Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity.

> But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil. (ESV)

> Matthew 23:9 - And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. (ESV)

> I John 5:20 - And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. (ESV)

We are commanded to obey earthly parents only in the Lord. And being "in the Lord" means abiding in Jesus' commandments:

> Ephesians 6:1-3 - Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. Honor your father and mother (this is the first commandment with a promise), that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land. (ESV)

> I John 3:21-24 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

If a person is abiding in Jesus' commandments then they are loving the children of God:

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

While Paul claims this title, he doesn't ask to be called "father":

> I Corinthians 4:15 - For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. (ESV)

Walking by the spirit, a person calls God their Father, and does not call any man on earth their father, like Jesus Christ did when he said he must be about his Father's business. Walking by the flesh, a person calls the parents of their flesh their father and mother.

I'm born-again. If I was employed and earning money then I'd be able to help more people.

I love them (my previous parents) but I don't like the sparring / the friction that there is when me an unmarried person who is trying to walk by the spirit and set my mind on heavenly things is having arguments with the parents of my flesh. I'm not saying that they are "not Christians". When I am say invited by the father of my flesh to work with him, I'm thinking "I must be about my Father's business." rather than the business of the father of my flesh. I'm a born-again person with a new identity with God as my Father and Jesus Christ as my elder brother.

> Luke 2:49-50 - And he said to them, Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house? And they did not understand the saying that he spoke to them. (ESV)

> Matthew 23:9 - And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. (ESV)

> Luke 12:51-53 - Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. For from now on in one house there will be five divided, three against two and two against three. They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law. (ESV)

> Romans 8:5-8 - For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:26-35 - I think that in view of the present distress it is good for a person to remain as he is. Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. But if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a betrothed woman marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that. This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord. But the married man is anxious about worldly things, how to please his wife, and his interests are divided. And the unmarried or betrothed woman is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit. But the married woman is anxious about worldly things, how to please her husband. I say this for your own benefit, not to lay any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord. (ESV)

Jesus Christ, help me. Again, Jesus Christ, help me.
I'm sick of having the promised testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit withheld from me as I submit to Jesus and resist the devil.

Journal <2026-03-22 Sun> The last 2 days I have been more successful at resisting sin. Praise God.

I'm sick of being given what is not due for my faith.
Father God, help me.
Clean me, deliver me from evil and set me free from this prison of circumstance, please God.

> Ephesians 4:20-28 - But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil. Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:22-26 - So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. Have nothing to do with foolish, ignorant controversies; you know that they breed quarrels. And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 2:9-11 - For this is why I wrote, that I might test you and know whether you are obedient in everything. Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ, so that we would not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs. (ESV)

> I Timothy 3:6-9 - He must not be a recent convert, or he may become puffed up with conceit and fall into the condemnation of the devil. Moreover, he must be well thought of by outsiders, so that he may not fall into disgrace, into a snare of the devil. Deacons likewise must be dignified, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for dishonest gain. They must hold the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience. (ESV)

> I Timothy 6:6-12 - Now there is great gain in godliness with contentment, for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world. But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content. But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs. But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. (ESV)

> Proverbs 14:26-27 - In the fear of the LORD one has strong confidence, and his children will have a refuge. The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, that one may turn away from the snares of death. (ESV)

If a person is faithful with what they already have (not just with money but with how they treat their neighbour, say, or what they do with a knowledge of the word of God) then God may entrust them with stewardship. But if a person seeks and treasures the earthly goods/possessions more than God or more than seeking to please God, then that would be an evil, earthly-minded endeavour that wouldn't be blessed by God. Rather we should "seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness" (Matthew 6:31-33) and "God knows what we need before we ask" (Matthew 6:8-15) and will provide us with what we need.

> Luke 16:11-12 - If then you have not been faithful in the unrighteous wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own?

> I Timothy 6:9-10 - But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:8-15 - Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. Pray then like this: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:31-33 - Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 4:1-2 - This is how one should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy. (ESV)

I don't think it's necessarily wrong that people would want to secure a job or save money to "attract a wife" but if it meant committing evil in order to get there then that is wrong.

In Jesus Christ's Mighty Name I rebuke forever the spirit that puts earthly employment or "money" as a prerequisite for marriage, and tries to push that evil onto me. May that devil spirit be crushed under my feet and may God bury it in hell. I forgive and do not condemn the people who I have heard try to push that lie onto me, but I desire that people stop propagating that lie and oppressing me with it.

> I Corinthians 9:5-9 - Do we not have the right to take along a believing wife, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to refrain from working for a living? Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard without eating any of its fruit? Or who tends a flock without getting some of the milk? Do I say these things on human authority? Does not the Law say the same? For it is written in the Law of Moses, You shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain. Is it for oxen that God is concerned?

What we ought to do the correct way to think is, from the love of God be a good steward of what we've already received of God, and then God will then take care of our needs. I ask God for repentance to those who have been ensnared by the Satan's lies into doing his will.

> II Timothy 2:24-26 - And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will. (ESV)

Let me explain where that devilish lie is. This is the lie: "If you want to get married, you need to have a job (earthly employment) or money."

I rebuke and condemn this lie in Jesus Christ's name. I rebuke it forever and if I ever hear it from someone then I will rebuke them to their face and may God forgive them and grant them repentance.

I have decided to not condemn those who have been deceived by that lie. But I do rebuke the lie and want people to be corrected. But I do condemn the lie itself. After all, the sin is condemned. I want people to be sanctified.

> Romans 8:1-7 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. (ESV)

In Ephesians 4:20-32, we are instructed to do "honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need." And what matters is the willingness to work (2 Thessalonians 3:8-10), not whether or not a person is given work, but the "willingness". If a person is denied work, that is not grounds to then deny them food. If a person is denied work, that is not grounds to deny marriage. It's never OK to lie and tell someone they must "have a job" before they are allowed to marry. God owns the institution of married. It was set up by God and before money existed. God said that it is not good for man to be alone.

> Genesis 2:18 - Then the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him. (ESV)

Our committment to the Lord Jesus Christ comes first, and we must love our family in Christ.

Unrighteous people heap up money for themselves and don't give it to their brother in need:

> Job 27:16-17 - Though he heap up silver like dust, and pile up clothing like clay, he may pile it up, but the righteous will wear it, and the innocent will divide the silver. (ESV)

An unrighteous person might save up money and withhold it from their family in need because they would prefer to get married than to love their family in Christ. To do so would be lawlessness. It would be unloving and evil to let family in Christ suffer when you have the ability to supply them what they need, in order to save up money to get a wife. It's so dishonouring of God to be so unloving and evil that one would covet "having a wife" to the point of letting the people around you suffer, particularly if they profess Christ as their Saviour.

Righteous people give the world's goods to their brother in need of them, to their neighbour:

> I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)

If a person has no money because they are doing as Christ said, they still have a right to take a believing wife! A wife is a gift from God. God instituted marriage. A person does not need earthly goods to be allowed to marry. But that doesn't mean a person can marry whoever they want. If a person says that you need a job or a house or the world's goods in order to take a wife then they are lying or deceived.

If someone says, "A women deserves to get married to a person who will be able to take care of them?" then you can respond to them, "Yahweh owns everything (Deuteronomy 10:14, Exodus 19:4-6) and God delights in the welfare of His servant, and the whole duty of man is to fear God and keep His commandments and God thinks it's not good for man to be alone." I believe there is zero correlation between a man's right to take a wife and the amount of money he has.

Is it not those who are rich with worldly posessions who lay up riches on themselves like clothing, like dust, and oppress the poor, and try to control them through controlling "employment"?

> James 2:6 - But you have dishonored the poor man. Are not the rich the ones who oppress you, and the ones who drag you into court? (ESV)

The money belongs to God and for giving to the poor. Let no-one tell you it is against Christ's teachings to give to the poor. If someone wants to and would if he had the world's goods leave an inheritance to his children and children's children, that is enough. (II Corinthians 8:1-10):

> Proverbs 13:22 - A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the sinner's wealth is laid up for the righteous. (ESV)

> Proverbs 3:27 - Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it. (ESV)

> Proverbs 28:8 - Whoever multiplies his wealth by interest and profit gathers it for him who is generous to the poor. (ESV)

If anyone disagrees with what Jesus says in Matt 19:21, then they are exercising a distrust of Jesus Christ. Rebuke and correct them when they lie and speak contrary to Jesus that they might stop doing the will of Satan by propagating Satan's lies:

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

Consider that for these midwives who feared God (did not want to sin against God), and who preserved existing life, God granted them families. I'm going to make the point that if someone "saves their money" while consciously witholding helping someone in need knowing they could've helped them when it was in their power, but in order to attract a woman or because they believe they need the money (trusting in money rather than in God) to be allowed to take a wife at all, then why would God give a family to someone to someone who can't be trusted with taking care of existing life? On the other hand, if God, testing His servant, saw that they valued the life of their neighbour and family in Christ, then isn't that the type of person God would grant to have a family?

> Exodus 1:17 - But the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the male children live. (ESV)

> Exodus 1:21 - And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. (ESV)

So a person should serve God faithfully and God will take care of their needs:

> Matthew 6:30-33 - But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 11:7 - For a man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God, but woman is the glory of man. (ESV)

OK, so Abraham was rich, but He was also a servant of God. God delights in the welfare of His servant (Psalms 35:27). So if a person is a good steward of God's belongings (and the whole earth belongs to God), then God delights in their welfare, for that person is like the innkeeper in the story of the "good Samaritan". It's clear that Abraham did not receive the King of Sodom's gifts because he wanted God to get all the glory (Genesis 14:21-23). And Abraham did not covet the gifts of God (including his only begotten son Isaac) more than God Himself, and Abraham even tithed. It's clear that Abraham was a servant of God, and also prosperous. So if a person is actually maintaining their faith in God in reality and opportunistically choosing to keep Jesus Christ's teachings including "giving to the one who begs from you", for example, then they can be trusted with prosperity/welfare (not necessarily money). But if a person commits sin by neglecting their family in Christ's needs or their neighbour's needs (that person who is also made in the image of God) and instead decides to put their trust in man's strength and invest in something like bitcoin, gambling the money, and walking past the person who needed their immediate help, and so that they can "have enough money" to get married, say, then that would be a very sinful and unfaithful deed to commit. It would be similar to Abraham sleeping with Hagar (i.e. trusting in man's strength) to get what you want. The whole duty of man is to "fear God and keep His commandments" and if a person is doing then God will take care of the rest:

> Psalms 35:27 - Let those who delight in my righteousness shout for joy and be glad and say evermore, Great is the LORD, who delights in the welfare of his servant! (ESV)

> Psalms 24:1 - The earth is the LORD's and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein, (ESV)

> Matthew 6:30-33 - But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. (ESV)

> Luke 16:10-13 - One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. If then you have not been faithful in the unrighteous wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. (ESV)

> I Timothy 4:1-3 - Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons, through the insincerity of liars whose consciences are seared, who forbid marriage and require abstinence from foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. (ESV)

And while I'm at it, on a different but related note (related because I feel oppressed by it); What has happened with Big Tech stealing from people their intellectual property in order to build their generative AI models is evil. My ability to work as a programmer has been severely impared by the proliferation of stolen goods. Asking people if they consent to using something does not make it OK if what it is has been stolen. Downloading copyrighted material, in order to train AI systems results in an AI system that belongs to the people who's work went into training it. As someone who doesn't want to steal, it's much harder now for me to get a job as a programmer because of the proliferation of AI systems based on theft which I don't want to touch because I'm a Christian and as a Christian who endeavours to abide in the teachings of Christ and of His Apostles, I do not want to steal.

> Ephesians 4:20-32 - But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil. Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

78.4.54 Journal <2026-03-26 Thu>

Going back to what I'd said on <2025-10-25 Sat>, "It feels like someone above has been running the Large Hadron Collider but with people's souls and that's a demented experiment."

Also very evil though, is I think is making it so a person is unable to live like a human being anymore, and part of that would be denying marriage (making it impossible for people to marry). But I would also include along with that, making it so people are subservient to or pressured into supplicating to chatbots. Human beings should be allowed to worship Father God in spirit and in truth, in reality, and when people put pressure on others to not be able to live as God designed to live then that is evil.

What happens to a person who is unable to marry (i.e. a man who is unable to a woman to be his wife) who has a boss that is a chatbot, who has to pretend that a chatbot is a real person, and supplicate to chatbots and forced to do work that is against his moral convictions? What about adding more and more pressure in various other ways which pressure them to think and act not in the way God designed them? It sounds like a recipe on how to destroy someone, or at least a catalyst for it.

We are instructed to not obey the "flesh", and to submit to and obey Christ rather than self-made religion (religious teachings that aren't helpful in reality):

> Colossians 2:20-23 - If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations— Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch (referring to things that all perish as they are used)—according to human precepts and teachings? These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh. (ESV)

Now I'm not saying a person's soul is destructible like an atom by external pressure alone. But pressure can come from one's circumstances (Acts 2:27, I Corinthians 15:33) if united by "giving in to it", allowing oneself to indulge in it (I Corinthians 10:8, II Peter 2:10, Jude 1:7, James 5:5, Colossians 2:23). A Christian should be submitting to God, desiring God, desiring to not sin, and resisting the devil (James 4:7), resisting temptation.

Resisting the devil involves desiring God, because we don't want to desire sin.

> James 1:13-15 - Let no one say when he is tempted, I am being tempted by God, for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. But each person is tempted when he is lured and > enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)

Jesus is clear that what defiles a person comes from within (i.e. willful sin).

> Matthew 15:18 - But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this defiles a person. (ESV)

I know God can destroy the soul in hell (Matthew 10:28). But for a person to be forced into a situation where it's not possible to marry and where they are told to build idols made of software and from stolen property… it feels very soul crushing. It's a hellish existence figuratively speaking - maybe like the Israelites under Pharaoh.

> Proverbs 18:14 - A man's spirit will endure sickness, but a crushed spirit who can bear? (ESV)

78.4.55 Journal <2026-03-28 Sat>

No man on earth is my father (Matthew 23:9). Amen. God Himself, the Father of the Lord Jesus Christ, is my Father. God is who I call upon as my Father.

Yet, I'm still bound by circumstance in this household of the people who used to be (Hebrews 12:9) my parents before I was born-again of the spirit on 2 April 2022.

> Luke 4:24 - And he said, Truly, I say to you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown. (ESV)

> Matthew 13:57 - And they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household. (ESV)

> John 4:43-44 - After the two days he departed for Galilee. (For Jesus himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in his own hometown.) (ESV)

> Mark 6:4-5 - And Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his own household. And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them. (ESV)

I want to be liberated from this household of the parents of my flesh because I do not want to confess or affirm falsehoods, and I'm sick and tired of being ensnared into situations such as what has happened today almost first thing in the morning where I was unable to return a call and the man who was my father before I was born-again said, "This is Shane's dad."

> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

> Luke 12:8-9 - And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. (ESV)

I'm sick of this 'graceless' situation that I am in. I have not heard assurance from God that His grace which He has given is sufficient for me. If what I've received is sufficient for me then it's only sufficient to "do the will of God" no matter how unbearable it is. It could be excruciating, but what grace God has given me may be enough for me to not become a "disbeliever", but only just enough because my life is unbearable. Thinking about my present situation makes me angry at God that He would allow seconds to continue going by while not delivering me. But I know that God grants more grace. In asking God for grace, I'd be asking God for "some grace" (as if I haven't even received any grace) because I feel as though I have received no grace. I know I've been born-again and received grace, but I sometimes question whether what I'm feeling is what "being under condemnation" feels like (like some inescapable prison). I don't think I have received sufficient grace at all. So I complain:

> II Corinthians 12:8-9 - Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that it should leave me. But he said to me, My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness. Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. (ESV)

I feel like I've been trapped in some sort of satanic snare. I have tried to be obedient to Christ in everything (without feigning) and giving Jesus Christ the benefit of the doubt:

> II Corinthians 2:9-11 - For this is why I wrote, that I might test you and know whether you are obedient in everything. Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ, so that we would not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs. (ESV)

I've been unable to work or marry and I've been receiving demonic dreams while having the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit withheld from me. I rebuke the demonic oppression in Jesus Christ's name. I want to be set free immediately in Jesus Christ's name.

I still have not yet received the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit.

God continues to allow me to receive demonic dreams. I recall getting several of these demonic dreams. One was lewd, one was Islamic, one was violent. I think I also recall a Mormon dream. There were more of them. I rebuke the demonic dreams in Jesus Christ's name, and I rebuke the demons behind them in Jesus Christ's name.

My profession has been robbed, along with many other people's professions. I pray that God purges the world of large AI models which have so clearly been built upon stolen property, and then pushed onto society. It's truly disgusting stuff witnessing unrestrained lawlessness.

I don't want to be here in this world anymore.

It's not OK to make AI systems based on stolen property, circumventing licenses, and try to sell services couldn't exist without stealing from people, and then on top of that, sell it back to the people it was stolen from. If the training material has not been lawfully obtained for the training then what was trained is based on stolen property and it cannot be lawfully distributed or used as a service.

Devaluing and exploiting and replacing humans with AI stuff is evil.

The proliferation of AI systems based on theft and the endorsement of their usage is so evil. May God not force me to stay here in this hell on earth. I just feel like it's practically impossible to live for me who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus.

Coercing programmers to use AI models based on stolen goods in order to be employable is what has happened. What has happened would be worse than ”coercing all people everywhere in the world, even vegans, to eat meat by filling the supermarkets with meat-based vege-imitation alternatives, and removing all the real veges”. It's worse because it's not just violating people's moral conviction or preference, but it's trying to force people to accept what is inherently evil as acceptable.

I don't want to hope in it at all. I want it to stop.

The reason why this abomination exists is because greed and godless idolatry has led to theft. When a person downloads software that contains a license on how to use that software, and an AI system saves the source code in artificial neurons rather than in sequential text, they're still saving the source code in a different format.

youtube.com: Linus Lays down the Law {@ ThePrimeTimeagen } @time: 3 min 9 sec Can you ever have clean room engineering if the AI itself likely has the copyrighted code actually stored within its weights or compressed within its weights? Yeah, that's a that's a serious problem.

There was no unanimous consent from all of everyone's individual works (writing, coding, artworks, etc.) used to build the AI models which directly compete back against them and against their work.

The vim license, for example, has been clearly violated:

- `https://github.com/vim/vim/blob/master/LICENSE`

Indulging on stolen property to write software is not OK, so I don't join them in doing that. They need to give account to the Judge:

> I Peter 4:1-5 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. (ESV)

78.4.56 Journal <2026-03-30 Mon>

Today I listened to a sermon which I appreciated very much.

```
Monday March 30, 2026
18:02:31 The Foundations Pulpit: Sunday Evening Service - Dr. H. T. Spence 81:41
```

Without love for God and His word, a person would feign their obedience, and a person might become bitter and despise God's instruction and then God's instruction would feel legalistic. Even in the New Covenant, we need to love God in order to keep covenant. It's not possible to do what God wants without a love for God. I can see that scripturally, but also believe I know that experientially now.

78.4.57 Journal <2026-03-31 Tue 18:03>

God can:

> Matthew 8:5-13 - When he entered Capernaum, a centurion came forward to him, appealing to him, Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, suffering terribly. And he said to him, I will come and heal him. But the centurion replied, Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof, but only say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. And I say to one, Go, and he goes, and to another, Come, and he comes, and to my servant, Do this, and he does it. When Jesus heard this, he marveled and said to those who followed him, Truly, I tell you, with no one in Israel have I found such faith. I tell you, many will come from east and west and recline at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, while the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And to the centurion Jesus said, Go; let it be done for you as you have believed. And the servant was healed at that very moment. (ESV)

From my perspective it seems as though there has been a lot of demonic activity among people I have been interacting with today.

May Jesus Christ clean me and rescue me. I must continue fearing God and keeping His commandments for me. May God deliver me from evil, and deliver me from every evil deed and bring me safely into His Heavenly Kingdom. May God teach me and instruct me and continue to use me. May God deliver from every evil spirit that has been harassing me. May God please give me the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit direct to my heart and deliver me from the spirit of antichrist. I'm tired of the spiritual warfare.

I confess that Jesus Christ is God's Only Begotten Son who has come from God, into the world, in the flesh (word become flesh), and that Jesus died on a tree and rose from the dead and is the one appointed by God to be Judge of the living and the dead.

I have still not heard the testimony of Jesus Christ that ”Jesus Christ has come [from God into the world] in the flesh” spoken to me in any way other than through the Scripture. I want to hear it spoken to my heart. I also want to hear it from others (i.e. from men and women).

I am listening to this sermon by Dr. O. Talmadge Spence right now. I think this is good teaching about foundations.edu: Dr. O. Talmadge Spence - Repentance and the Kingdom | Foundations Bible College

78.4.58 Journal <2026-04-01 Wed>

In Jesus Christ's name, I rebuke every spirit which attacked me this morning to put dreams of young women, etc. into my mind. In Jesus Christ's name I rebuke the sexual defilement spirit which has been causing my genitals to move around in some kind of extremely heightened arousal etc. It's so disgusting. I rebuke the regression spirit in Jesus Christ's name. In Jesus Christ's name, I rebuke the spirit of Islam and the spirit of LGBT which have continued harassing me. I rebuke the spirit of false witness in Jesus Christ's name. I rebuke the spirits of false religion in Jesus Christ's name. In Jesus Christ's name I rebuke whatever demons have been harassing me regarding the marriage proposal and the person I proposed to. I rebuke those demons in Jesus Christ's name. I reneged on that proposal.

Jesus Christ is Lord and He is the Son of God and He died for my sins and He loved me first. I am free from condemnation because I love the Saviour and I believe He came from God. I will be free from sin completely and from every demonic influence.

May Jesus Christ fulfill His promise that Holy Spirit would testify of Him to me. I am very disappointed in the Lord Jesus Christ for continuing to allow me to be harassed by demons. This complaint is going to the throne room of Jesus Christ and of Father God to sit before their feet always and forever until they deliver me.

If God were to speak to me in a dream but not communicate the testimony of Jesus Christ to me from Holy Spirit, then anything said I still cannot trust because I believe that His word must carry this testimony of Jesus Christ or that word is not for me because I will only trust a spirit which makes this testimony that Jesus Christ has come from God in the form of flesh into the world.

This morning among the manifold demonic harassment I had a picture of the open door of a person's house. There was no testimony of Jesus Christ. It's a total write-off. If God were trying to communicate something, He would've testified of Jesus Christ. I'm sick of these demons trying to trick me into thinking this is the voice of the Holy Spirit. It is not. Holy Spirit testifies of Jesus Christ, and these demons which have been harassing me do not do that. I rebuke every one of those demons in Jesus Christ's name. Any spirit which does not confess Jesus is the spirit of antichrist, and that is what that spirit is.

> I John 4:2-3 - By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

Polycarp 6:3 For every one who shall not confess (G3670 homologeó) that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is antichrist: and whosoever shall not confess (G3670 homologeó) the testimony of the Cross, is of the devil; and whosoever shall pervert the oracles of the Lord to his own lusts and say that there is neither resurrection nor judgment, that man is the firstborn of Satan.

The most soul-crushing part of my experience (more soul crushing than being denied marriage) is having to endure my tribulations while not hearing the testimony of Jesus Christ which Jesus promised spoken to my heart by Holy Spirit:

> Proverbs 18:14 - A man's spirit will endure sickness, but a crushed spirit who can bear? (ESV)

I'm not bitter. I'm not harbouring unforgiveness, and that's what makes this so confusing. I have forgiven and the spiritual attacks have continued. I've just become very weary of being attacked by demons and feeling neglected by God. My complaint will be loud until Jesus gives me the testimony which He promised.

78.4.59 Journal <2026-04-01 Wed 20:18>

I love it when Jesus sets up works for me to do. But I want them to be done with clarity of instruction in difficult situations where I ask God for answers. I don't want to feel like I'm only person on planet earth confessing "Jesus Christ has come into the world from God in flesh and blood".

I want God to deliver me from this dark abyss, from the demonic oppression, from what feels like being "under the pump" trying to maintain Jesus' works while people around me so often speak contrary to Scripture or have the appearance of lying to me.

As I have endeavoured to quote from the Scripture, and affirm things from the Scripture and teach others, it's been met with a lot of testing and a strange amount of spiritual adversity. When I receive so much "adversarialness", adversary spirits attacking me, and very likely many of satan's workers attacking, I don't want to continue being put into a position where I'm being put to work without Jesus Christ instructing me on matters directly when I feel as though I need answers for things. It doesn't seem right to me to be in this situation, when I want instruction from the Lord Jesus on so many matters.

I don't want to be committing sin or saying the wrong thing. I don't want to be leaning on my own understanding. If I don't hear the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit as a direct word to my heart, and if I'm not exposed to hearing the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit and if it's just me seeking to understand the Scripture as I endeavour to put Jesus' commandments into practice in reality, when trial comes along and my decisions are being tested it's pushing me to where I'm uncomfortable making decisions or affirming things without clarity.

What's not done in faith is sin.

I want the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit. I want deliverance.

I have no work, I have been receiving an inordinate amount of prolonged spiritual attack, I've endured isolation isolation, a lack of direct instruction speaking to specific situations, and what feels like being asked "loaded questions" by people who I'm trying to lead away from antichrist beliefs, and I'm sick and tired of being placed into these situations with extremely high frequency, and it just feels like being on a battlefield alone without their leader. It's not fun at all and I want Jesus to please deliver me from this situation, heal me and protect me.

And quite honestly, I just don't want to be here in the world. I earnestly want to get raptured and just have my memory erased and for my soul to heal and wake up in heaven where there are still things to do and be excited about.

78.4.60 Journal <2026-04-02 Thu 01:23>

It's just after midnight but around noon today will be 4 years born-again today.

I was singing this to myself in my mind. I woke up to frightening dream. But opened up my laptop and listening to the song again now.

youtube.com: The Solid Rock - from The Hymns Project { Lyric Video } {@ parkwayworship } 1 My hope is built on nothing less than Jesus' blood and righteousness; I dare not trust the sweetest frame, but wholly lean on Jesus' name.

Refrain:

On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand: all other ground is sinking sand; all other ground is sinking sand.

2 When darkness veils his lovely face, I rest on his unchanging grace; in every high and stormy gale, my anchor holds within the veil. [Refrain]

3 His oath, his covenant, his blood, support me in the whelming flood; when all around my soul gives way, he then is all my hope and stay. [Refrain]

4 When he shall come with trumpet sound, O may I then in him be found: dressed in his righteousness alone, faultless to stand before the throne. [Refrain]

Our own 'effort' being involved is not against faith as some people say. The heart attitudes are involved. The heart changes so there is good treasure in it and from there there is good fruit:

> II Peter 1:5-10 - For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. (ESV)

Regarding works, what really matters is that our heart is in the right place:

> Matthew 6:19-21 - Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. (ESV)

Being "generous" and "ready to share" are heart attitudes and as we practice these heart attitudes, the Scripture says we are laying up a good foundation for the future:

> I Timothy 6:17-19 - As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life. (ESV)

> II Peter 1:3-12 - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Therefore I intend always to remind you of these qualities, though you know them and are established in the truth that you have. (ESV)

We don't want "sinful desire". Jesus searches the hearts and minds:

> II Peter 1:3-8 - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

While I cling to Jesus Christ, and continue trusting in His name, this involves remaining obedient to Christ, having the love of God in us, desiring God, and desiring what is good and not what is evil:

> Revelation of John 3:1-5 - And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: The words of him who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. I know your works. You have the reputation of being alive, but you are dead. Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete in the sight of my God. Remember, then, what you received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If you will not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come against you. Yet you have still a few names in Sardis, people who have not soiled their garments, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. The one who conquers will be clothed thus in white garments, and I will never blot his name out of the book of life. I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 3:8 - I know your works. Behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one is able to shut. I know that you have but little power, and yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name. (ESV)

Holding onto Jesus' name is essential. But Jesus also wants us to be doing good deeds and that starts with a love for the truth in our heart, an obedient heart. Being obedient (able to do good deeds i.e. apart from the works), loving the truth in the heart, is still important for salvation, and this "obedience" is essential to true faith, not against it. And keeping Jesus' works of "doing good" is certainly of value and not against "faith alone":

> Revelation of John 2:26-27 - The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron, as when earthen pots are broken in pieces, even as I myself have received authority from my Father. (ESV)

See how we need to be faithful to Jesus. Faithfulness to Jesus involves holding fast our confession, not denying Jesus, not apostasising, but also being faithful with what has been entrusted to us from Jesus:

> Luke 12:42-49 - And the Lord said, Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. But if that servant says to himself, My master is delayed in coming, and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will cut him in pieces and put him with the unfaithful. And that servant who knew his master's will but did not get ready or act according to his will, will receive a severe beating. But the one who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, will receive a light beating. Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more. I came to cast fire on the earth, and would that it were already kindled! (ESV)

> I Corinthians 9:16 - For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:19-23 - Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

We must not be tolerating sin. Jesus searches our minds and hearts. The works we do come from what is in our heart:

> Revelation of John 2:19 - I know your works, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your latter works exceed the first. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 2:20-23 - But I have this against you, that you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess and is teaching and seducing my servants to practice sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols. I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. Behold, I will throw her onto a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her I will throw into great tribulation, unless they repent of her works, and I will strike her children dead. And all the churches will know that I am he who searches mind and heart, and I will give to each of you as your works deserve. (ESV)

> Mark 7:18-23 - And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him; Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats? And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: All these evil things come from within, and defile the man. (KJV)

> Acts 10:36-43 - As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all), you yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, but God raised him on the third day and made him to appear, not to all the people but to us who had been chosen by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name. (ESV)

> Hebrews 6:10 - For God is not so unjust as to overlook your work and the love that you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do. (ESV)

I believe that we have to love the light and hate the darkness:

> Matthew 6:24 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. (ESV)

> John 3:17-21 - For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But whoever does (G4160 poiōn; doing) what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

We should continue prefering God and resisting and rejecting sin and run the race:

> Hebrews 12:1-4 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. (ESV)

We don't want to deny Jesus. We must be obedient to Jesus. We must have the love of the truth in us:

> Titus 1:15-16 - To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Psalms 81:15 - Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever. (engbsb2020eb)

> Colossians 2:6-10 - Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. See to it that no one takes you captive by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the world, and not according to Christ. For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. (ESV) youtube.com: Don Moen - Be Still & Know {@ patrickpwk } @time: 4 min 2 sec He calls us by name. When we go through the deep waters and great trouble, He will be with us. When we go through the rivers of difficulty, we will not drown! When we walk through the fire of oppression, we will not be burned up; and the flames will not consume us. For He is our Lord our God, the Holy one of Israel, our Saviour.

> Isaiah 43:2-4 - When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I give Egypt as your ransom, Cush and Seba in exchange for you. Because you are precious in my eyes, and honored, and I love you, I give men in return for you, peoples in exchange for your life. (ESV)

Amen.

78.4.61 Journal <2026-04-11 Sat 14:41>

No "John 15:26-27, I John 4:2" testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit has yet been spoken to me.

> John 15:26-27 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. And you also will bear witness, because you have been with me from the beginning. (ESV)

> I John 4:2 - By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, (ESV)

I've got the testimony in myself, though:

> I John 5:9-13 - If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God that he has borne concerning his Son. Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

The situation:

- Finding employment has not been easy for me, before or after getting born-again. It's always been difficult. Now it seems impossible. But now I'm reliant on God. God is responsible for providing for me, what I need to do His will, as I endeavour to remain faithful to Jesus.
- God's word instructs I must be willing to work, and I am willing to work. That is enough for me to keep a good conscience regarding that.
- I feel as though God needs to have a hand in providing me with appropriate work.
- God hasn't even provided me with the testimony of Jesus Christ yet via a spoken word.

I'm very tired of demonic goading. I just rebuke it in Jesus Christ's name. The demonic goading is just disgusting stuff. It's satanic when it lies and when it doesn't confess Jesus Christ, and this demonic goading has been happening in various ways. The entire situation is unacceptable because of the lack of the testimony of Holy Spirit to me via a direct spoken word. It feels like trying to escape from a dark cave - darkness all around me - when nobody wants to give me the I John 4:2 testimony, and when it is not spoken to me directly as a word to my heart.

I'm not a thief, Lord. I have the fear of God in me. I do not want to sin against Father God. I do not want to betray my conscience and make use of or hope in the AGI/ASI stuff.

God knows full well what has happened to me. When I proposed on 10 August 2022 after I got born-again on 2 April 2022, after 2021 where I spent a lot of time trying to warn people of the potential of large-scale IP theft, and the various related events...

I do not want to sin. I don't want to be pressured into committing sin. I just feel like God needs to provide me with reasonable employment right now, and provide me with His promised testimony. He's got to provide this for me.

How can I live in this world when I'm being almost ceaselessly ghosted by employers, etc. getting harassed by demons, when I am confined in a household of the people who gave birth to this meat-suit flesh, pressured into thinking and acting and confessing the old-self who is not me, and being opposed by nothing less than the spirit of antichrist which refuses to confess Jesus Christ? I'm so tired of being confronted by people who are affirming falsehoods, and trying to get me to affirm them. I'm so tired of having to endure this without Holy Spirit speaking to me the testimony of Jesus Christ via a spoken word to my heart. What feels like cruel treatment from God, to be quite honest, saddens me with deep disappointment and vexation. Does God ask His followers to endure without providing any comfort for them, comfort that He promised to provide? If not physical comfort then, for the love of God, just a word of encouragement, something to hold on to?

> John 14:18 - I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. (ESV)

Oh really now? Because I feel left as an orphan. I still believe Jesus will come to me. But I am TIRED. Does Jesus feel the need to make every day feel like, "Why has God forsaken me?"

newadvent.org: CHURCH FATHERS : Epistle to Diognetus { Mathetes } "and Christians are confined in the world as in a prison,"

Wow, that rings true.

There is a familiar saying/proverb which goes, "give a man a fish and you feed him for a day; teach a man to fish and you feed him for a lifetime" (i.e. It is better to teach someone to do something themself than to provide the action's reward; education or training is more helpful charity). And what has happened feels like the opposite of that, i.e. "Teach a computer to do what that person does and he'll no longer be able to provide for himself."

I do not want to be here. I do not want to be enduring the trials I'm enduring without receiving testimony from Holy Spirit as word spoken to me directly. May the Lord Jesus Christ rapture me. The present situation is unbearable.

I believe that if God were to speak instruction on which way to go, then He could easily solve part of my problem, that is how to go on in this world. People are infinitely more valuable than chatbots. So I have resolved to keep my vow to the Lord, to renege on that proposal and to go my separate ways because God is above me and Jesus is above me, reigning from heaven, and even if I'm seated with Christ in heavenly places, Jesus is still reigning above me, and my intuition says that God would be able to extend more grace to them if I let it go completely, which I have for a long time despite continue demonic harassmet trying to get me to renege on reneging. May God give them what I can't give. But I believe that God has the capacity to give me clarity on other issues, so that my life here doesn't have to be impossible. I believe God could, for example, by a word from His Holy Spirit say something like, "Shane, this is God's Holy Spirit speaking. Jesus is the Christ, Father God's Only-Begotten, Unique, Precious Son of God who has come from God into the world. He is the Word made flesh. And because you've been faithful to Him and to Father God and Myself in your conscience, regarding these issues, and because you love Jesus and love your neighbour and your family in Christ, in the way you've been instructed to, then although it is true that there has been a massive disaster regarding the AI stuff with the proliferation of stolen goods, I'm going to provide a job for you and instruct you clearly on which way to go, just as the Scripture has promised when it says your Teacher will not hide Himself anymore, but will instruct you.":

Matthew 1:19-25 - And her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame, resolved to divorce her quietly. But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins. All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel (which means, God with us). When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him: he took his wife, but knew her not until she had given birth to a son. And he called his name Jesus. (ESV) aphyr.com: The Future of Everything is Lies , I Guess : Where Do We Go From Here ? Customer service, contractors, and engineers use LLMs to blindly lie to me. … I watch synthetic videos of suffering animals and stare at generated web pages which lie about police brutality. There is LLM spam in my inbox and synthetic CSAM on my moderation dashboard. I watch people outsource their work, food, travel, art, even relationships to ChatGPT. … Governments and industry seem all-in on “AI”, and I worry that by doing so, we’re hastening the arrival of unpredictable but potentially devastating consequences—personal, cultural, economic, and humanitarian.

restofworld.org: ” Techno - Negative ”: Why refusing AI is a fight for the soul - Rest of World There is a growing sense that the latest technological advancements serve the few, not the many. For many, contemporary tech — whether it’s robotaxis or surveillance cameras — is decreasingly in service of our collective wellbeing and growth, and instead, appears as beneficial largely to a very minor portion of the population, including to those who have monetary or political interests in seeing these technologies flourish. In fact, they can seem like they actively run counter to general interests. AI, for instance, promises to revolutionize our everyday working and social lives, but for many, it feels like it is delivering the opposite: the loss of jobs and meaningful social interactions, more efficient ways of surveilling people, and a deepening climate crisis. … The AI promoters are already telling us that without fully embracing AI, we’re second-class citizens.

I’m affirming this Lakepoint church message with the following caveat about AI usage:

- youtube.com: Megachurch Pastor Reacts to Tucker Carlson on Trump , Iran , and Islam | Live Free with Josh Howerton {@ LakepointeChurch } @time: 9 min 15 sec

As an aside, as far as the AI (i.e. Grok) usage goes, I personally think there is spiritual wickedness going on in the proliferation of AI/AGI stuff. Some issues generally are:

- theft (i.e. stealing from people to build these things)
- misuse (i.e. people using them improperly. For example, as a substitute for a relationship with God)
  - `https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XIFDb158HQs` (Wes Huff Explains ”The 10 Commandments”)
- ultimately, lies and misrepresentation. Querying AI for spiritual reality is fallacious. We should never rely on AI, for example, to filter truth from lies at the spiritual level. Judging by AI is judging by ”appearances” as AI makes a simulacrum / an unsatisfactory imitation of whatever it was trained to study. But God’s word discerns the thoughts and intentions of the heart:
  - 1 Samuel 16:7 - But the LORD said to Samuel, Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him. For the LORD sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart. (ESV)
  - Habakkuk 2:18 - What profit is an idol when its maker has shaped it, a metal image, a teacher of lies? For its maker trusts in his own creation when he makes speechless idols! (ESV)
  - John 7:24 - Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment. (ESV)

  - Real speech comes from the heart, so AI can still be called a speechless idol, even if it produces the imitation of speech or writing:
    - Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

So long as people are being like the Bereans, testing everything, and abiding in Jesus' commandments (I John 5:2), "misuse" isn't an issue. I still try to avoid using the AI/AGI stuff until I am assured that they have not been built from theft. If the data which has gone into training(building) the LLMs / MoE models has been willingly put forward/donated by the people who own it, then there isn't a theft issue as far as I see. So, for example, if a bunch of artists got together and decided they wanted to have an AI art generator trained on their own collections, then that is OK. But it would be wrong to take two different artists/producers, such as downloading Lord of the Rings and the Narnia series stuff and then producing and distributing and selling AI generated books and movies that are an interpolation of those works, when the copyright holders did not consent to a collaboration.

I have mentioned this also on John Piper's video (youtube.com: John Piper Asked ChatGPT to Write a Prayer {@ thegospelcoalition }):

At 1:45, JP mentioned as recorded on this video from May 3 2025 that "Computers do words better than you. Seriously, better than me."

It crossed my mind today (April 18 2026) that, "Real speech comes from the heart, so AI can still be called a speechless idol, even if it produces the imitation of speech or writing".

4 words from the heart of a human being saying "Jesus Christ is Lord" or 7 words from the heart of a human being saying "Jesus Christ is the Son of God" to me, even if it sounded wrongly articulated to my ears, but God heard it in the spirit, is worth more than infinite words generated by AI.

The person "doing the will of Father God" is the person who "believes" and is the person who "does in reality" and is the person who "goes to work in the vineyard". A person might therefore have said the wrong thing but ended up doing the right thing. Man looks at the outwards appearance. God looks at the heart. God wants us to be the one who goes out in reality. This parable doesn't mention the quality of any potential work done. But it's saying we must be those who go out in reality to do God's will for us:

> Matthew 21:24-32 - Jesus answered them, I also will ask you one question, and if you tell me the answer, then I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, from where did it come? From heaven or from man? And they discussed it among themselves, saying, If we say, From heaven, he will say to us, Why then did you not believe him? But if we say, From man, we are afraid of the crowd, for they all hold that John was a prophet. So they answered Jesus, We do not know. And he said to them, Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, Son, go and work in the vineyard today. And he answered, I will not, but afterward he changed his mind and went. And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, I go, sir, but did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father? They said, The first. Jesus said to them, Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him. (ESV)
>
> 1 Samuel 16:7 - But the LORD said to Samuel, Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him. For the LORD sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart. (ESV)
>
> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love (agapate) the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

78.4.62 Journal <2026-04-16 Thu 07:42>

For those in Christ, our body is not our own. It's not right to say, "A Christian man has the right to do whatever he wants in his body." A Christian man or woman does not have the right to do whatever they want with their flesh, because it is not their own:

> I Corinthians 6:17-20 - But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. (ESV)

Amen.
Please, God, deliver me from this wretched body.

> Romans 7:22-25,8:1-5 - For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. (ESV)

Please, God, deliver me from the satanic dreams.

> II Corinthians 12:7-8 - So to keep me from being too elated by the surpassing greatness of the revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to harass me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that it should leave me. (ESV)

Please, God, deliver me from the tribulation.

> Matthew 6:13 - And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. (ESV)
>
> II Timothy 4:18 - The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

Amen.

78.4.63 Journal <2026-04-20 Mon 22:38>

It's been an interesting day. God has actually encouraged me a huge amount today. It's been amazing. I feel as though God gave me so much opportunity to share my faith with people on the streets of Dunedin today. It was really cool actually seeing what I perceive is probably God orchestrating a huge number of interactions with other people today. It makes me very happy when people do actually share their faith with me. When I hear people say things like, "Jesus is Lord", or "Jesus is the Son of God", that makes me very happy. And when God sets up opportunities for me to share my faith with people, that makes me very happy. And when God sets up opportunities for good deeds such as when people ask me for help where I can help them, that makes me very happy. It's been a very interesting day today and it was a huge encouragement to me. Thanks Jesus for that. I feel like God has blessed me today.

However, I still wish other people would confess the I John 4:2 testimony to me, and I am still wanting to hear the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit directly.

And so I remain very cautious. There has been a lot of spiritual wickedness that has been harassing me recently. But I know God is above all of that. I believe that Almighty God Yahweh (Jehovah), Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ (Yeshua Hamashiach) is above it all. And the Bible says that Jesus sees what is in the heart of man. Things will be OK. I know that God knows what I'm thinking. God discerns my thoughts from afar.

All glory to God.

78.4.64 Journal <2026-05-16 Sat>

I think that what has happened to me regarding receiving continuous demonic harassment and defilement is a massive injustice. Ever since I was born-again, I have been seeking to follow Christ and seeking to be trusting and obeying Christ to the best of my ability. Yet I have been attacked by demons, by defilement, by persecution, continuously. The promise is that by being a doer of Jesus Christ's word, I will be walking by the spirit and I'll be sanctified. Yet, what has happened to me is I have been attacked continuously by defilement and by demonic harassment and by tribulation and persecution, and even persecution by the so-called church. That is what has happened. To this day, I have experienced defilement affecting me spiritually. I've experienced demonic dreams, and something messing with me "sexually", creating tactile sensations and motions in a very unnatural way. It makes me feel damaged.

I'm particularly demoralised by having my soul attacked by defilement, and sleep interrupted by demonic dreams and other demonic things.

May the Lord of Hosts Yahweh Father Son and Holy Spirit take pity on me and deliver me from this disgusting spiritual adversity. I want to be cleaned. I will not accept anything less than what has been promised.

I have not yet heard the I John 4:2 testimony spoken as a direct word to my spirit. People around me refuse to confess the same to me.

Jesus Christ has promised that those who abide in His word will receive Holy Spirit who will testify of Him. I want this testimony in the name of Jesus Christ, Yeshua Hamashiach. And I'm asking God for that testimony from Holy Spirit in Jesus Christ's name.

And I don't want to be in this world anymore. It sucks being here.

78.4.65 Journal <2026-05-18 Mon>

Walking home today I got a little reminder of a certain feeling that God gave me, a feeling I had felt not long after I was newly born-again. The way that music or an old video game can be nostalgic, experiencing this feeling again that God gave me just after I was born-again of the spirit helps to put things into perspective and reignite a little bit of hope after experiencing despair for such a long time, and it helps me to remember more optimistic times. It's like seeing sunlight after years in darkness. Well I thank God for that moment today.

I had so much joy back then. I felt so close to God as I was trying to understand what had just occurred by looking at scripture and apocryphal texts. I hadn't yet experienced what it was like to be violently attacked and harassed by demons. I wasn't experiencing any issues with defilement of flesh. I even made a marriage proposal. I was very happy and optimistic. But dramatic change was inevitable after getting born-again. In remaining faithful to Jesus after getting born-again, there is the cost of one's previous life. I've been crucified with Christ and it's no longer me that lives, but Christ in me. God's grace isn't given to then renounce Jesus. On the contrary, it's so the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin.

> Romans 6:6 - We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. (ESV)
>
> Jude 1:4-7 - For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day— just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire. (ESV)

God's grace is given for us to be sanctified and God takes us to a new place:

> Luke 14:26-33 - If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build and was not able to finish. Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple. (ESV)
>
> John 21:18-19 - Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you used to dress yourself and walk wherever you wanted, but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go. (This he said to show by what kind of death he was to glorify God.) And after saying this he said to him, Follow me. (ESV)
>
> II Peter 1:13-14 - I think it right, as long as I am in this body, to stir you up by way of reminder, since I know that the putting off of my body will be soon, as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. (ESV)
>
> II Corinthians 4:6-12 - For God, who said, Let light shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you. (ESV)

Another cool thing God did today was set me up with a brief meeting with a friend who is a Christian and who is a Physics tutor. So we got to discuss the "faith equation".

78.4.66 Journal <2026-05-21 Thu>

I do not want to be in a position anymore where I'm being pressured/coerced into trusting in the flesh. I do not want to live in this house of the people who used to be my parents. For the love of Father, Son and Holy Spirit; for the love of Jesus the Christ, Yeshua Hamashiach; For the love of Yahweh, Jehovah; For the love of God, for the love of the family of God, please someone deliver me from this satanic stranglehold trying to force/pressure me into thinking in the flesh and into reverting to the pre-baptism nature.

I have been crucified with Christ and it is no longer I who live but Christ in me.

In Jesus Christ's name is there a single Christian in this world willing to lift a finger to help a brother in need? Or like a soldier working at his own expense am I going to be the only person who so-called Christians who do not confess that "Jesus Christ has come into the world as flesh" to me ask for help? Because no-one is confessing it to me.

Or like Jesus asking for drink when He thirsted, are people going to continue doing the same thing with me?

In a way I need Jesus Himself to lift a finger to help me through a genuine Christian because we can do nothing apart from Christ. Yes, my complaint goes to Jesus and to Father God.

I want potential employers to stop ghostig me. I want people who are unashamed of Christ to appear, such people would agree that the one who hears Jesus' word and does it is like a wise man building a foundation on the Rock who is God. Such people would be willing to lift a finger to help me have paid employment. Do such people even exist? True Christians who practice Christ's commandments in reality appear to be rarer than dinosaurs from my perspective.

Do I sound frustrated like the Apostle Paul sounded frustrated? (I Corinthians 9:5-9) Well it's been years now of almost ceaseless demonic oppression as almost everything around me seems opposed to the will of God, and the spiritual affliction has been palpable.

> II Corinthians 1:8 - For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, of the affliction we experienced in Asia. For we were so utterly burdened beyond our strength that we despaired of life itself. (ESV)

youtube.com: Healing & Order {@ afreshword } I commented, "I'm a born-again Christian who was born-again on 2 April 2022 who in faith in Jesus calls God the Father of Jesus Christ my Father. I'm currently stuck in the household of my previous father who just then was telling me that I'm in error (his reasoning is because I'm not just a spirit but also flesh). But Jesus said call no man on earth your father for you have one father who is in heaven. And in walking by the spirit I am trying to do that. Jesus said whoever does not hate their mother and father cannot be His disciple. As I understand the meaning of this, it is to separate from the previous identity. At best if they are true born-again Christians walking by the spirit then I should call them "brother and sister" rather than "mother and father" now that I have been born a second time. I'm trying to follow Jesus and keep His teachings and commandments. But I'm being held hostage here. As I mention Jesus' words, if it's this person who used to be my father who I am talking to then he can't bear to hear them and runs away, and I feel like I've just been attacked by Satan and just resisted Satan. No-one has been helping me to get unstuck from this situation. I feel like I'm being held hostage and everything around me is opposing the will of God. Please pray for me and if you know me in person assist me. I feel trapped and opposed and harassed by demons as I am trying do the will of God. The people walking by the flesh are partially the problem but I also have received a lot of demonic harassment through dreams etc. and people being led by other spirits have also made things difficult for me. I've been praying to God daily for years asking for deliverance. Jesus is the Christ, Yahweh the Son of God and is the Word of God made flesh and He cam into the world from God and died on a tree and rose from the dead on the 3rd day and ate a broiled fish and ascended to heaven where He is reigning as Lord of Heaven and Earth. May God help me in Jesus' name."

> II Samuel 22:7 - In my distress I called upon the LORD; to my God I called. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry came to his ears. (ESV)

78.4.67 Journal <2026-05-23 Sat>

By faith I believe that God will deliver me from my present situation where I have felt opposed by Satan continually, as I have endeavoured to do the will of God. I have felt downtrodden and been brought to despair for sure. Being set free from this situation would involve hearing Holy Spirit testify to me of Jesus Christ. Anything less than that and no circumstance I could find myself in I would be happy with. I don't want to be corrupted after getting born-again. My present situation feels unlivable, the spiritual warfare and lack of testimony of Jesus Christ from others, and the lack of love, all together feels too extreme. I want to be spoken to by Holy Spirit to make existing as a born-again person in this flesh body even plausible. Because I feel like a total stranger to this world now, I don't have even a wife. I mean, it seems to me as though I was never really given an option to have a wife, even though the Apostle Paul's teachings make it clear that it's OK. Because God hasn't cleared things up for me, I made a vow to not marry.

In the absense of God's instruction, I had to vow, and so it wasn't really a fair on me because I was forced to vow in order to walk by faith and not sin.

This isn't fair in my understanding. God's word says that marriage is an available option for born-again believers. The Apostle Paul says it's an option and it's not a sin. But I was forced to vow for sake of conscience because of what I view as extreme satanic oppression after getting born-again of the spirit. I certainly don't joyfully want to be single. For me it wasn't a choice. Actually, I feel robbed of something which God ordained when He created the world. And not only that, but I feel forsaken on a daily basis as long as the promised testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit is withheld from me.

> Matthew 19:12 - For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let the one who is able to receive this receive it. (ESV)

<2026-05-24 Sun 14:34> The cross is so heavy. May God give me this testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit. I don't know how to be OK right now.

I want to receive the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit. I'm trying to break away from the shackles of the old self, the flesh, the old identity. But I've received extreme resistance to walking in obedience to do the will of God. I've felt as though satan has made so many attempts to try to get me to disbelieve what the word of God says. I've received massive resistance even among people who appear to be professing Christians. But at the same time, I've also been learning to see the truth of Christ better myself. And crucially important to this learning is actually trusting Jesus Christ's words and obeying His instructions and resisting people who lie to me as they contradict Scripture. There is a fight against the carnal mind. It's crucially important to have ultimate obedience to Christ rather than to even professing Christians. As I've been learning and applying Jesus' teachings, I've experienced countless encounters with professing Christians where I had to obey Christ rather than their instruction. There is a lot of dodgy teaching out there. youtube.com: Great is Thy Faithfulness { Tune : Faithfulness - 3vv & chorus } with lyrics for congregations {@ ChetValleyHymnsandSongs }

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)
>
> Luke 8:11-12 - Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. (ESV)

78.4.68 Journal <2026-05-24 Sun>

Last time I attempted to leave this household of my previous parents after I was given an ultimatum by my previous father a few days ago when he said "call me your father or get out", no-one was prepared to accomodate me after I left, even professing Christians that I encountered. There's a real battle against the flesh, like a caterpiller trying to leave its cocoon but the cocoon is jealous and wants to be the butterfly and is trying to prevent it from leaving lest the cocoon die, the cocoon not being merely this physical house but other people who are not walking by the spirit are part of this cocoon. I'll make another attempt. "Escape velocity" might look like having to sleep on the street. I have nowhere to put my things. I think I'll have to throw away some things.

Journal <2026-07-05 Sun 11:38> I commented on Bella's video:

> Yeah I think the Apostle James says uses the phrase, "earthly, demonic" (James 3:15). The spirit of the world, the flesh, the carnal mind etc. are opposed to Jesus. This world is passing away, and so we are not supposed to be thinking like the world thinks. Taking captive every thought for obedience to Christ is what we're supposed to do.
>
> When a person gets born-again, they're born-again by the word which was a seed planted in the person's heart, and the born-again person thinks like Jesus. Being born-again is a new creation moment. But we're supposed to "shake off" the mind of the flesh (if we live by the spirit then let us walk by the spirit, the spirit is the truth). Whoever is believing in Jesus will do the deeds that Jesus did. In the New Testament, Jesus nowhere called anyone else father other than God.
>
> When I got born-again, putting on the mind of Christ and letting go of the mind of the flesh has been like a butterfly trying to leave its cocoon. But the cocoon tries to fight back and prevent the butterfly from being a butterfly. People thinking the way the world thinks around me have gotten angry at me, like they did to Jesus. So when Jesus went around calling God His Father, then people got angry at Him and killed Him (of course Jesus laid down His life willingly, but people crucified Jesus because they thought He was blaspheming by saying that God is His Father). But Jesus said to His disciples to do the same thing: Literally, "Do not call anyone on earth 'father' because you have one father and He is in heaven."
>
> Tradition says that Moses wrote the book of Genesis. Jesus says, "If you believed Moses, you would believe me." (John 5:28-29,37-47) and Jesus in making reference to the Genesis creation account corrects someone who is reasoning from their carnal mind (Mark 12:24-27). The Scripture says that God is the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, and since God is the God of the living, then Abraham, Isaac and Jacob are in reality alive and not dead. Reasoning from the carnal mind, someone else says, "Let me first go and bury my father." when if, trusting Jesus, they were actually doing as Jesus instructed to call no man on earth their father (Matthew 23:1, Matthew 23:9), then they would be referring to God as their father, and God is certainly not dead. Jesus responds to the man, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead." (*Matthew 8:21-22)

I avoid AI stuff such as ChatGPT for various reasons. It seems to me like some combination of golden calf and tower of Babel. It's built on theft. People have been hoping in it instead of Jesus.

- I John 2:24-29, John 3:21, Matthew 16:25, II Corinthians 6:1,6:16-18,7:1, I Corinthians 11:1

The way to imitate Jesus is from faith in Jesus to actually believe what He's saying and do it:

- John 14:12

Putting a stop to calling the person father who was previously my father I've been resisted like the cocoon trying to stop the butterfly from leaving. But the born-again person is a new creation who is supposed to be walking like Jesus walked.

The "doing" of "faith", is the "doing" of the love and trust and confidence and obedience in Jesus. A deed is done in "faith" or without faith. We can "do" faith. So we hold faith in Jesus, and then when we do deeds, they'd be done in "faith". So it's not relying on our "works". But God sees the person's heart and commends them for their faith in Jesus. We don't self commend. Whoever loves Jesus will keep His commandments. Whoever believes in Jesus will do the works that He did - good deeds from good faith.

78.4.69 Journal <2026-05-24 Sun>

I attended a church service today and I was really happy to see that participating in following Jesus Christ was being taught. I had resolved to remove my earlier journal entry about jumping off a cliff. I was just feeling down. I still feel down, and unsure how I'm supposed to live like this (there are several big problems that make living feel impossible). On my way back out through the carpark, a lady struck up a short conversation with, "How are you?" I said, "That's a massive question. The cross is heavy."

God will not leave me:

> Joshua 1:5 - No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life. Just as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you or forsake you. (ESV)
>
> I Chronicles 28:20 - Then David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and courageous and do it. Do not be afraid and do not be dismayed, for the LORD God, even my God, is with you. He will not leave you or forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 13:5 - Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, I will never leave you nor forsake you. (ESV)

After that, there was some interesting interactions today I had on the street.

78.4.70 Journal <2026-05-24 Sun>

Paul received mercy:

- because he had acted ignorantly in disbelief persecuting the church
- for this reason, that in Paul, as the foremost of sinners, Jesus Christ might display his perfect patience as an example to those who were to believe in him for eternal life.

> I Timothy 1:12-16 - I thank him who has given me strength, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he judged me faithful, appointing me to his service, though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the foremost. But I received mercy for this reason, that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display his perfect patience as an example to those who were to believe in him for eternal life. (ESV)

> II Peter 3:15 - And count the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you according to the wisdom given him, (ESV)

We should hold our faith in Jesus Christ, and by faith obey Jesus Christ, abide in Jesus' teachings and commandments, and having our minds conformed to the mind of Christ. Jesus is patient with us as we are saved.

78.4.71 Journal <2026-05-24 Sun>

Thank the Lord Jesus Christ, there is someone who seems to be keen to go flatting with me.

Please, may God just let His will be done. There's been some strange stuff going on. I just want to hear the testimony of Jesus Christ spoken to me from Holy Spirit. I just ask God that this person who is keep to flat with me comes to know the Lord Jesus Christ well, and that we are both able to find employment. And I pray for my previous parents, that God would take care of them. But I know that God will never leave us or forsake us. That is what the Scripture says. I do not need to worry. Individually, our duty is to fear God and keep His commandments for us. In the Lord Jesus Christ's name.

78.4.72 Journal <2026-05-25 Mon 10:13>

When Jesus from the cross mentions "behold, your mother" (John 19:27), I'm convinced that this is firstly meaning to say that Mary was "at that moment" doing the will of God (Luke 8:21) so Jesus was referring to the Mary "born of God" (I John 5:1). But also, it's clear that Jesus loved this disciple of His and so this disciple must have been keeping Jesus' commandments (John 14:21) and so also been born of God (I John 3:23-24): And so Jesus is talking about His family. Now when we say "heavenly Jerusalem" is our mother, we are talking about the New Covenant, and so in a real sense the New Covenant involves keeping Jesus Christ's commandments. To honour our "father" and "mother" according to the commandment by the spirit is to honour our true Father and true mother (New Covenant and family in Christ who have gone before us), and that certainly involves honouring Jesus Christ and honouring Jesus Christ's commandments:

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes (G4100 pisteuo) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

> John 19:26 - When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, Woman, behold, your son! (ESV)

> Galatians 4:24-26 - Now this may be interpreted allegorically: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar. Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. (ESV)

78.4.73 A universal opportunity to accept Jesus

I believe all people are given an opportunity at some stage in one way or another to put their faith in Jesus:

> John 12:32 - And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 7:9 - After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Every Nation Tribe And Tongue Music Video   Cada Nacion, Cada Lengua Adoracion

youtube.com: Paul Harvey interviews Billy Graham at his home in NC {@ OurOnlyHope } @time: 5 mi

> Now Jesus was a man. He was human. He was not a white man. He was not a black man. He came from that part of the world that touches Africa and Asia and Europe and He probably had a brown skin. Christianity is not a white man's religion, and don't let anybody ever tell you that it's white or black. Christ belongs to all people. He belongs to the whole world. His gospel is for everyone, whoever you are, Scriptures say.

People still have to put their trust in Jesus when the testimony of Jesus comes their way / when Jesus is made apparent to them.

> John 12:31-32 - Now is the judgment of this world; now will the ruler of this world be cast out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself. (ESV)
>
> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)
>
> John 15:22-24 - If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV)
>
> John 8:47 - Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)
>
> John 8:42,16:27 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. (ESV)

But I have confidence that those who are 'of God' will naturally hear Jesus' words and they still have to come to believe/trust in Him:

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)
>
> John 8:39-42 - They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)
>
> John 6:45 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— (ESV)

Abraham believed that not even death could prevent receiving the promises that God has given, and that's what our faith should also be like:

> Hebrews 11:17-19 - By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, of whom it was said, Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. He considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 11:39-40 - And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. (ESV)

We still need to believe to avoid condemnation:

> Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)
>
> John 12:44 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. (ESV)
>
> I John 2:23 - No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. (ESV)
>
> I John 5:12 - Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. (ESV)
>
> Proverbs 8:34-36 - Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors. For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD, but he who fails to find me injures himself; all who hate me love death. (ESV)

78.4.74 Journal <2026-05-30 Sat>

Since getting born-again of the spirit, the enemy the devil has clearly been trying to get me ”unequally yoked with unbelievers” and has been bombarding me with these lies that I’m ”of the night”, even using this label of being of the ”night watch”.

After I was regenerated, born-again of the spirit, I was subsequently attacked by satan to hold me in a prison of circumstance, and I was slandered in public, forced out of church assemblies and prevented from getting employment and meeting other people who are believers, etc. It feels like I was buried in demonic harassment. I’ve had to fight and defend against the fiery darts (the lies and various other spiritual attacks) from the enemy.

Now, I do not want to be unequally yoked with unbelievers. To be unequally yoked would be to allow myself to be in a situation where the circumstances are hindering me from serving Christ:

> II Corinthians 6:14-18 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

Sadly, I’ve been ostracised and ghosted and not helped in time of need by those who I thought were ”believers”, even those who profess to be believers. And in wanting to not hurt my former parents through arguments I have sought to leave this household of my former parents. But no actively professing Christians have offered to help me get out of the situation, but rather have put pressure on me to ”appologise to my dad” and ”stay with my parents” as they have said mistakingly referring to my former father as my dad, to my pain.

And the only person who has asked if I want to go flatting has been with extreme frequency referring to my former parents as my ”mum and dad”. It’s a very bizarre situation I have found myself in.

But I was thinking today about ”unqual yoking” and have decided after thinking about the application of Scripture today that going flatting with somoeone of unknown or ambivalent belief/disbelief though is far less that ideal, isn’t in itself ”unequal yoking”, though does seem to be obviously from my perspective not a clean severance from whatever has been trying to keep me ”bound in the flesh”. But it’s closer to ”equal yoking” than ”unequal yoking”, and if I were somewhat ”equally yoked” with a disbeliever with regards to a flatting situation, then I’d take it as an opportunity to serve Christ:

> Ephesians 6:5-8 - Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to man, knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free. (ESV)
>
> Luke 5:30-32 - And the Pharisees and their scribes grumbled at his disciples, saying, Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners? And Jesus answered them, Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. (ESV)

I’m very sick and tired of being asked questions about my ”mum and dad”, alike by people professing to be believers and by unbelievers, suggesting that I ”can’t stay at my mum and dad’s forever.” But my Father is God Himself and my mother is heavenly Jerusalem, and I do want to remain in God’s house forever:

> John 8:31-47 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas: having believed ’V-RPA-AMP past tense’) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham’s children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father’s desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

The Bible says I’m ”of the day”. I’m not part of any ”night watch”. I’ve been born-again, Christ has certainly shone on me and God sees me. When demons have been attacking me, and when the devil has been trying to hold me down, God has seen me through my affliction:

> Ephesians 5:8-21 - for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret. But when anything is exposed by the light, it becomes visible, for anything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you. Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. (ESV)

Ephesians 5:5-8 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (ESV)

Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to (G3784 opheilei; ought to, obligated to, has a duty to) walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

Matthew 23:28 - So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. (ESV)

I John 2:8-12 - At the same time, it is a new commandment that I am writing to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his name's sake. (ESV)

I Thessalonians 5:2-5 - For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, There is peace and security, then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. (ESV)

I Thessalonians 5:8-10 - But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. (ESV)

Psalms 139:12 - even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is bright as the day, for darkness is as light with you. (ESV)

78.4.75 Journal <2026-05-30 Sat 14:35>

But I was thinking today about "unqual yoking" and have decided after thinking about the application of Scripture today that going flatting with somoeone of unknown or ambivalent belief/disbelief though is far less than ideal, isn't in itself "unequal yoking", though does seem to be obviously from my perspective not a clean severance from whatever has been trying to pressure me "into the flesh".

The word (G2086 heterozygéō) that is translated into "unequally yoked" would be better translated as "yoking two different types together", rather than "sharing equal load" which is what I had thought it meant this morning.

blueletterbible.org: G2086 - heterozygeo - Thayer's Greek Lexicon { KJV } , ; (yoked with a different yoke; used in Leviticus 19:19 of the union of beasts of different kinds, e. g. an ox and an ass), to come under an unequal or different yoke (Beza,impari jugo copulor), to be unequally yoked: (on the dative see Winers Grammar, § 31, 10 N. 4; Buttmann, § 133, 8), tropically, to have fellowship with one who is not an equal: 2 Corinthians 6:14, where the apostle is forbidding Christians to have contact with idolaters.

I think that Thayer's Greek Lexicon says this too strongly. Saying that all "contact" is bad is not what is conveyed in the Scripture, to my understanding. Rather, the issue is to be "yoked" to unbelievers. Imagine, for example, if when Jesus Christ was doing His ministry in His 30 or so years in the flesh, He were to be led away from His task. A good example of when Jesus resisted being unequally yoked with someone who was in that moment not walking in faith is when He resisted Peter when he was not setting his mind on the things of God:

> Matthew 16:23 - But he turned and said to Peter, Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man. (ESV)

To be unequally yoked with unbelievers would be to be diverted from doing God's will by yoking oneself to someone who doesn't walk by faith. We are called to live peaceably with all people so much as it depends on us and to obey our earthly masters "in the Lord" which means while abiding in Jesus' teachings and remaining faithful to our primary master. So some kind of contractual agreement, say to get a flat together isn't necessarily bad in itself. Though to me I am frustrated by how I have not had sufficient help from others who profess to have faith in Jesus Christ, but rather have felt crushed between large stones metaphorically speaking as I've tried to remain faithful to Jesus.

> II Corinthians 6:14-16 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. (ESV)

As far as I understand, in terms of marriage, the main issue for a believer is whether or not the other person who they are wondering if they can marry is also a believer, rather than age gap, but there is also this idea of being of "marriagable" age, which I believe the Bible does teach and there are other factors involves such as getting permission, etc.:

> I Peter 3:7 - Likewise, husbands, live with your wives in an understanding way, showing honor to the woman as the weaker vessel, since they are heirs with you of the grace of life, so that your prayers may not be hindered. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:10-28 - To the married I give this charge (not I, but the Lord): the wife should not separate from her husband (but if she does, she should remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband), and the husband should not divorce his wife. To the rest I say (I, not the Lord) that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he should not divorce her. If any woman has a husband who is an unbeliever, and he consents to live with her, she should not divorce him. For the unbelieving husband is made holy because of his wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy because of her husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy. But if the unbelieving partner separates, let it be so. In such cases the brother or sister is not enslaved. God has called you to peace. Wife, how do you know whether you will save your husband? Husband, how do you know whether you will save your wife? Only let each person lead the life that the Lord has assigned to him, and to which God has called him. This is my rule in all the churches. Was anyone at the time of his call already circumcised? Let him not seek to remove the marks of circumcision. Was anyone at the time of his call uncircumcised? Let him not seek circumcision. For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God.

> Each one should remain in the condition in which he was called. Were you a slave when called? Do not be concerned about it. But if you can gain your freedom, avail yourself of the opportunity. For he who was called in the Lord as a slave is a freedman of the Lord. Likewise he who was free when called is a slave of Christ. You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. So, brothers, in whatever condition each was called, there let him remain with God. Now concerning the betrothed, I have no command from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. I think that in view of the present distress it is good for a person to remain as he is. Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. But if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a betrothed woman marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 9:5 - Do we not have the right to take along a believing wife, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? (ESV)
>
> Ephesians 5:23 - For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior.

In terms of splitting bills, I don't see an issue with going into a flatting situation with an unbeliever. But for me there are other complicating factors that are making this difficult for me. First and foremost is the problem that even though I have begged God to just speak to me the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit, that testimony just has not been given to me yet from my knowledge. I've been receiving demonic dreams every night for a long time, and have been receiving so much demonic harassment, and I've been vocal about my faith, but I want God to just speak to me personalised instructioon that is trustworthy (I John 4:2) so that I can be more confident that this is what God wants me to be doing. I do have a measure of confidence when I'm doing what Jesus has instructed in reality (I John 3:18-19) but I don't want my confidence to be so focused on me. I mean, I trust Jesus' commandments because they came from Jesus. So in that sense I'm trusting in Jesus. But I would really prefer it if the Lord Jesus Christ would have Holy Spirit speaking to me instructing me and confessing Jesus Christ.

I'm trying to literally, be with the people of God, and it seems to me as though satan and his demons have been opposing me and setting traps. I'm sick of it. I just want the Lord Jesus Christ to deliver me from this satanic harassment:

> Hebrews 11:24-25 - By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. (ESV)

Journal <2026-09-25 Fri 13:34> I'm quite sick and tired of this satanic stranglehold opposing me from being employed.

My home is in heaven and my true birthday is 2 April 2022 which is the birthday of my new soul which God made me. As a new person with a new birthday, who's home is in heaven, I have found a lot of resistance to being employed here on the earth. The whole world seems set up against the knowledge of God. When people from the ministry of social development ask me for ID, I understand they are asking for a form of ID which is recognised by the New Zealand government, something such as a driver's licence. But my driver's licence has the birthday of my meatsuit. And I don't mind providing that, but I don't want to have to affirm that these details about my flesh are my true reality, because the spirit is the truth. Every time I'm asked for an ID or for my birthay or where my home is, I'm grieved unless I make an affirmation that these details only pertain to the flesh. But my true birthday is the birthday of my new spirit. And I affirm that my true home is in heavenly places with the Lord Jesus Christ. When people ask me for my "home" phone number and what they mean is "landline" phone number, if I were to say, this is my "home" phone number then that is affirming that my home is on earth, when it is not.

Jesus Christ, help me. I'm so sick of being held in this situation.

May God deliver me from these antichrist pressures in Jesus Christ's name, I hope. Is there a Christian on this planet who has the love of God in them who can provide a job opportunity to someone who is professing that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God? Or is there not such a person on earth?

My true home is in heaven. In reality, my true home is not this physical house in New Zealand where I am currently sitting inside. I believe in spirit I'm seated with Christ in heavenly places. But in the flesh I'm in this building made by hands.

I'm so sick and tired of in an ongoing way communicating with other people who are communicating in the language of the flesh. It feels like a battle over what I confess. But God knows my heart.

Going flatting with somebody who is of unknown or ambivalent belief/disbelief does seem less than ideal in this present situation, and I just wish that God would provide suitable accommodation for me. But if no suitable accommodation is given, and I'm forced into another situation that is not a clean severance, then by faith I believe that God sees this predicament and would count me blameless.

Financially speaking, I'm OK with splitting bills fairly, but as I now understand it better, the problem of unequal yoking is literally about yoking together different (types), rather than sharing evenly. Unequal yoking is literally about yoking together believers with unbelievers, and it's advised to not do that. If I were to go flatting with someone who is of unknown or ambivalent belief/disbelief then then I'd take it as an opportunity hopefully to serve Jesus Christ with the hope of leading this person to faith in Jesus or for them to grow in faith in Jesus:

> Ephesians 6:5-8 - Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to man, knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free. (ESV)
>
> Luke 5:30-32 - And the Pharisees and their scribes grumbled at his disciples, saying, Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners? And Jesus answered them, Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. (ESV)

I am not confident that I have sufficient references to go flatting elsewhere. In fact, I'm down to only 1 reference again. I've been facing what feels like overwhelming satanic adversity to getting "unstuck" from a prison of circumstance. What can I do but ask Yahweh (Jehovah) God (Father, Son and Holy Spirit) for deliverance in Yeshua Hamashiach's (Jesus Christ's) name? I typically ask multiple times per day ad-nauseam.

But I'm confessing my faith here again to let people know who my God is.

Jesus Christ has come from God into the world as flesh, and He died on a tree and rose from the dead on the 3rd day. Jesus Christ is LORD. Jesus Christ is Jehovah the Son of God. God is good and never sins. Call every man a liar and God true.

All glory to God. My mother and brothers and sisters are those who hear the word of God and do it. By faith in Jesus Christ Son of God, I call upon God the father of Jesus Christ in heaven as my own father.

> John 1:12-13 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)
>
> John 20:17 - Jesus said to her, Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God. (ESV)
>
> I Peter 1:17-19 - And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

I'm still committed to not marrying until or unless God would speak to instruct me while confirming that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, the Word of God who has come from God into the world as flesh.

78.4.76 Journal <2026-05-30 Sat 15:18>

There were a lot of things Vicky has spoken here which sound correct to me. Seems to be jam packed with good teaching but test the spirits:

- youtube.com: Wormwood , Antichrist & I Come Suddenly 5 - 27 - 26 @ 9 : 06 PM Shared 5 - 29 - 26 {@ mylovelyJesusMinistry777 }

God forgive me. Jesus has blessed me with things to do, and under my breath I had spoken ill of Him but I think I did that by a lapse of faith, and I confess that I was wrong to speak badly of Him under my breath. I'm so tired. I do believe that God does fight for me. I'm just so tired of demonic harassment. It's not God's fault. Surely God has blessed me with sanctification and wants other people to be saved, and God disciplines me.

78.4.77 Journal <2026-06-01 Mon 09:49>

youtube.com: In Your Patience - Preparation for The Coming Days {@ richfyke7392 } When it hurts, be patient. Possess ye your soul. When things don't work out the way you thought it would, be patient. Possess ye your soul. In trouble, be patient. Possess ye your soul in tribulation. Be patient. Possess ye your soul (Luke 21:19). Amen. In life and what it brings to you. No matter what it is, even if it's something like Shadrach, Meshach, and Abedneo, be patient. Yes. Possess ye your soul. Do you love Jesus this morning? Hallelujah. Possess your soul. But if not, even if he decides not to, even if even if I think it's going to come and it didn't come and and I think it's going to come later and it still hasn't come and and it doesn't come. "Even if so", "but if not", I'm still going to maintain my integrity before my God. Thank you, Jesus. Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him. (Job 13:15) Hallelujah. Because God is God. And he never fails. Amen. He never loses a battle. Hallelujah.

I believe surely that God can deliver me from tribulation, but that He may not until His time is right. But I refuse to serve false gods. And to make the matter more concrete that others may understand what I mean, I will continue endure the hardship that has come whilst simply trying to resist committing sin, and while trying to keep Jesus Christ's teachings, and while trying to remain faithful to Lord Jesus Christ and not deny Him and while trying to abide in sound doctrine and while trying to also be a doer of God's word and while resisting being accomplice to what is an anti-human agenda with this so-called AI stuff. I refuse to get a job which forces me to use it. God knows I want to work, but I won't bow before that idol. And if I can't work but am on welfare then in obedience to Jesus I'll give it to people who ask. I'm trying to be blameless. I'd rather be on Christ's team than an enemy of God. When this storm subsides for me, whether it just passes by or if the weight of it kills my flesh (it has been rough) I'm going to be at rest again. This tribulation is nothing compared to what people who receive the wrath of God will have to endure. I wouldn't want to be the one receiving God's wrath.

> Daniel 3:17-18 - If this be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up. (ESV)
>
> II Corinthians 4:16-18 - So we do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal. (ESV)

78.4.78 Journal <2026-06-04 Thu 14:09>

On the one hand, I feel as though over the years before I was born-again I had dug myself a fairly big hole by doing sinful things. But I wholeheartedly believe that God annihilated any generational sin and spiritual defilement from me when I was born-again of the spirit (given a new spirit) and baptised by the Holy Spirit. And while, yes, I believe that Jesus Christ has been there with me during the events that followed, I do feel a bit like a 1 year old kid who was put in the driver's seat of a formula 1 racing car, and I feel like I banged up the F1 car a lot with bad theology and because I was held in flesh-conducive circumstances in what I feel like has been a snare set by the devil, and this snare, though Christ is greater and can put it under my feet, has been a thorn in my side.

78.4.79 Journal <2026-06-05 Fri 12:49>

It's not inherently wrong to own possessions, or to "have money", but if rather than pursuing righteousness and godliness, a person pursues material wealth, then that is wrong. In the pursuit of righteousness, in the pursuit of Jesus Christ, we should serve Christ and trust in and obey Christ rather than serving and trusting in and obeying money:

> Matthew 6:24 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. (ESV)
>
> I Timothy 6:3-11 - If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, he is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, evil suspicions, and constant friction among people who are depraved in mind and deprived of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain. Now there is great gain in godliness with contentment, for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world. But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content. But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs. But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. (ESV)

So I believe that it's sinful for a person to withhold goods from family in Christ who are in need, when they have the means to help:

> I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)
>
> James 4:17 - So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin. (ESV)
>
> Luke 10:36-37 - Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

78.4.80 Journal <2026-06-06 Sat 15:12>

I'm so tired of the reproach and the isolation as I resist false-teaching, false teaching such as "antinomianism". The worst antinomianism is when people teach that keeping the commandments of Christ is not grace. I don't see how anyone can really have assurance if they find themself constantly reasoning away practically all of what Jesus Christ said. Saying such things as, "Oh, He didn't really mean that." Or, "He only meant that for that particular person, but not for us. It doesn't really apply to us."

But the truth is that Jesus spoke many things which are all Gospel:

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

But when people seem to give many different reasons for doubting the words of Christ touching on practically all of what Christ has said, I have now come to accept the very sad reality of what Jesus Christ Himself said in Luke 8:12.

> Luke 8:12 - The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. (ESV)

Often the distorted teaching comes when preachers make these false-dichotomies, and make the gospel fight against itself, claiming that parts of sound gospel such as ”obedience”, ”resisting sin”, ”Christ’s commandments”, ”fear of God”, ”sanctification”, ”Christ’s teaching on loving people”, or ”God’s justice” are ”against grace”.

Actually, I just wish that people would stop saying in public the opposite of what Jesus Christ says, because it appears to me that in people doing so, speaking the opposite of what Christ taught, they are doing the opposite of what Jesus did. I know it’s the devil’s work.

I’m really tired of enduring hardship mostly alone, bearing such extreme reproach by seemingly everyone for no reason it seems, but I know the true reason is that all who desire to live a godly life (behaviour in accordance with the knowledge of God) in Christ Jesus (keeping Jesus Christ’s commandments) will be persecuted and that no disciple is above their Master as Jesus Christ said and so the disciple of Jesus Christ will face tribulation in this world. I believe that fellowship is promised for those who walk in the light, in the love of the truth. And today, indeed I had a small amount of that type of fellowship. But most of the time is spent enduring hardship including demonic harassment while seeking to keep Christ’s commandments.

I’ve had to endure some pretty horrific circumstances, chronically, after getting born-again of the spirit and following Jesus Christ.

I wish that Yahweh, Jesus Christ, would set me free from the extreme satanic oppression trying to keep me walking by the flesh rather than by the spirit. May Father God, in Jesus Christ’s name I pray, set me free from this satanic stranglehold. And may God speak to me the testimony of Jesus Christ as a direct word to my heart, I hope and pray, trusting in what Jesus Christ has promised.

78.4.81 Journal <2026-06-15 Mon>

Here is a confession of my faith:

> I John 4:1-3 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses (G3670 homologeó, confesses, acknowledges, agrees) that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess (G3670 homologeó, confess, acknowledge, agree with) Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

Jesus, the Son of God, is Yahweh and is the Word of God who has come into the world as flesh.

78.4.82 Journal <2026-06-15 Mon 11:21>

I find it truly remarkable the sheer amount of demonic harassment satanic opposition that God has allowed me to be terrorised by. And I’m not happy about it at all. Jesus Christ has promised that Holy Spirit would testify of Him to the one who keeps His commandments.

> John 14:15-18 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. (ESV)

> John 15:26 - But when the Comforter (G3875 Paraklētos; Advocate, Helper, Comforter, Counselor, Intercessor) is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me: (KJV)

May Father God help me. I know that the true (I John 5:20) Jesus Christ knows what is in my heart (John 2:24-25, Romans 8:26-28). So why has He allowed me to be terrorised by lying, harassing demons instead of Holy Spirit testifying of Him to me. And why are there people who are not speaking the same Jesus Christ encountering me with such intense frequency and why are there people encountering me with such intense frequency who are not speaking to me verbally a confession of faith in Jesus Christ to me? Something seems to be wrong, and I want the Lord Jesus Christ to fulfill His promise which is that Holy Spirit would testify of Him to the one who loves Him. And why do "so-called" "Christians" refuse to help me when I'm in need for what I am in need of. God knows. And I want the Lord Jesus Christ to deliver me from evil and provide for me clear instruction.

78.4.83 Journal <2026-06-16 Tue>

> Acts 5:27-32 - And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest questioned them, saying, We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring this man's blood upon us. But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 5:7-14 - In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. About this we have much to say, and it is hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing. For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the basic principles of the oracles of God. You need milk, not solid food, for everyone who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, since he is a child. But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their powers of discernment trained by constant practice to distinguish good from evil. (ESV)

78.4.84 Journal <2026-06-20 Sat 10:31>

OK, so I was yet attacked by a lot of demonic dreams. Imagine God sending an angel messenger to speak to someone on earth, but along the way a pack of demons who are alrealy down here on the earth start harassing the person in advance with a whole lot of lying junk mail.

That's what it feels like has happened to me this morning.

Amongst a huge amount of demonic harassment and soul attacks, and manifestations of a sexual defilement that has affected my soul, there was some stuff that is "worthy to be tested".

Without getting into the absolute litany of dream and vision attacks from demons over the last couple of days that I have had drilled into my head during the moments of closing my eyes and lying down, here is a debrief of some of what I was hit with last night.

The clearly bad stuff:

- A dream conversation where someone posing as a Christian asking for Christian advice began asking about how search engines work and then their face transforming into having some kind of menacing grin as I realise that I was coming under spiritual attack and being pressured into thinking with the "mind and reasoning of the former self", the flesh.

- A dream conversation with a depiction of the heretic James Talarico where I wasn't able to convey from memory accurately what I wanted to say.

- More stuff trying to pressure me into reneging on my commitments to Yahweh, and indicating some kind of goading towards the outcome of reneging on my commitments.

- Spiritual attack targeting my ”soul” making my body actually move sexually. Jesus Christ (because he sees my heart) knows I find this defilement unacceptable and abominable. And from my perspective it seems like He has just let these spiritual attacks continue day after day, night after night and I find that unacceptable. I was cleaned when I got born again and then I was polluted by being put into a garbage dump of demonic oppression and left there for an extremely long time. Unacceptable stuff. I demand cleaning in Jesus Christ’s name.
  - Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)
  - Matthew 15:10-11 - And he called the people to him and said to them, Hear and understand: it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but what comes out of the mouth; this defiles a person. (ESV)
  - Acts 2:27 - For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One see corruption. (ESV)
- No testimony of Jesus Christ was given from Holy Spirit.

Stuff that I believe is to do with sanctification of the church:

- So the last thing that entered my mind before I woke up this morning was a dream of a conversation with a church minister asking for input regarding the passage I John 3:18. And in this dream I put up my hand and explained:
- Managing to execute an external action component of a deed is not what makes love to be in the truth most fundamentally. And this is why the Scripture doesn’t say, ”love in truth by having deeds” but rather the Scripture is saying that we can have confidence that we are ”in the truth”, confidence that comes from doing deeds that are done out of real love for the truth, from our heart. We knows that God can see our heart and it gives us confidence when we are deeding from the heart. But even if our heart condemns us, we know that God is greater than our heart. So the heart attitude when doing the deed is what counts (Hebrews 11:4), but even if we doubt our own faith we know that God is greater than our heart. So we have a conscience and we should be acting on good conscience for confidence (I Timothy 1:5). But God is greater than our conscience. God is greater than our own ability to judge our own faith. But God sees our heart and what is in our heart better than we know ourselves. For love to be done in ”reality” there has to be real love in the heart and then when a deed is done that deed is done in love in reality. If a person is deeding with love for the truth in their heart then that deed is done in love in reality rather than in false pretense (Psalms 81:15). True love is independent, technically, (I Corinthians 13:1-8) from the external actions and can still exist without the external actions. True love for Jesus Christ and keeping His commandments is not contingent on one’s ability to ”make it to ’church’” so to speak, for example. The heart attitude comes first, and the fellowship is a promise given to the person who has the heart attitude of a loving faith in Jesus Christ in their heart.

  I John 3:18-20 - Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

  Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

Stuff that needs testing:

- A voice told me, ”Father, Son and Holy Spirit promised.”
  - I believe this is the type of thing that needs to be tested. But it didn’t carry the testimony that God promised. So it’s a total write-off. It’s probably the voice of a demon again. It’s just a mockery of my faith in Jesus’ promise.

> John 14:15-18 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. (ESV)

> John 15:26 - But when the Comforter (G3875 Paraklētos; Advocate, Helper, Comforter, Counselor, Intercessor) is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me: (KJV)

> I John 4:2-3 - By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

I still feel as though God could do a much better job at protecting me. I prayed earnestly for God to protect me last night and He didn't. Instead I received vast amounds of demonic harassment. At least, that is how things seem from my perspective.

Now, I will personally testify that Jesus is the Christ, Yahweh the Son of Yahweh God, and Jesus Christ has come from Yahweh God into the world as flesh.

And I'm personally also fed up with the spiritual attacks. But I'm hoping in Jesus that He will deliver me from all of it.

78.4.85 Journal <2026-06-28 Sun 09:07>

May God have mercy on me. I love the Lord Jesus Christ.

I believe that if a person has come around to having a genuine faith in Jesus Christ then they are not judged (John 3:16-21, Romans 14:18). And so, while I think that I have not been without fault in my actions and in my heart after getting born-again (because I surely have made mistakes), I do believe that what really matters is where a person is presently at. As in, though I have made mistakes, I hope that God will see me as having faith in Jesus Christ. I have experienced what feels like a hail storm of accusations beating down on me continually (mainly through dreams and visions, but also through flesh and blood humans, 'churchgoers' and non churchgoers alike) after I was trying to be corrected by God after I got born-again and called out to Jesus, made to feel like every single thing I do is illegal, and during this asked questions from people before I had a mature knowledge of Scripture about whether or not particular things I have done are good or evil or holy. If I was resisting sin, then I'd get slammed with idolatrous, adulterous, lewd, lying, demonic dreams in retaliation for standing up for God's precepts in waking life. But one of those issues is the marriage proposal I made. And to be honest it feels as though I have been made to suffer psychologically. What happened doesn't seem fair or reasonable at all, except that I have to see it through the perspective that I've been given grace getting born-again believe it's the right thing to pass forward grace. And I'm also not God and don't have full knowledge of the events which have happened. And I also believe that Scripturally, justification is given to those who are presently holding a genuine faith in Jesus Christ, and that I should be leaving judgement to God who sees everything, and so that's what I'm doing.

> Ezekiel 18:19-24 - Yet you say, Why should not the son suffer for the iniquity of the father? When the son has done what is just and right, and has been careful to observe all my statutes, he shall surely live. The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not suffer for the iniquity of the father, nor the father suffer for the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself. But if a wicked person turns away from all his sins that he has committed and keeps all my statutes and does what is just and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. None of the transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him; for the righteousness that he has done he shall live. Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked, declares the Lord GOD, and not rather that he should turn from his way and live? But when a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice and does the same abominations that the wicked person does, shall he live? None of the righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered; for the treachery of which he is guilty and the sin he has committed, for them he shall die. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

> John 3:16-21 - For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

The person who loves Jesus is the person who loves His word (from the treasuring love of God's word) and keeps His commandments (have faith in Jesus Christ and love one another the way we've been commanded to):

> John 14:21-24 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me. (ESV)

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

Also, I made a vow to the Lord my God which I plan on keeping:

> Deuteronomy 23:21 - If you make a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not delay fulfilling it, for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and you will be guilty of sin. (ESV)

But may God deliver me from evil:

> Matthew 6:13 - 'And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil. [For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.'] (NASB)

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

78.4.86 Journal <2026-07-02 Thu 11:13>

I still haven't been set free from this household of the flesh, but I hope that God will liberate me. It feels as though in this household of the parents of my previous self, of the flesh, that they still speak from the flesh and seem to use coercive language such as "you will be coming along too" to a birthday celebration of the flesh for example, as if I do not even have a choice. But that would be like someone who is not Jesus Christ's true Father in heaven telling Jesus Christ who must be about His Father's business, "You will be coming along too to the beach party." when Jesus is taking instructions from His True Father, obeying His True Father who is God in Heaven, primarily.

> James 4:15 - Instead you ought to say, If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that. (ESV)

I want to be counted among the wise:

> Matthew 25:7-12 - Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out. But the wise answered, saying, Since there will not be enough for us and for you, go rather to the dealers and buy for yourselves. And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, Lord, lord, open to us. But he answered, Truly, I say to you, I do not know you. (ESV)

Since I strive for obedience to Jesus, to take captive every thought for obedience to Christ, that means that Jesus is my primary Master, not anybody else. In striving to do this, I find myself "suffering in the flesh" as people walking by the flesh get angry at me. In trying to maintain faith and a good conscience, and mantaining a good conscience involves "doing good when one knows what good one ought to do and the means to do it", people of contrary mind have been concerned on earthly comfort rather than "doing good to all", "doing good to one's neighbour" etc. and get upset when I choose obedience to Christ over obedience to them. I hope that I will be liberated before there is a harmful conflict because of the event which is coming up, but if God wills me to go to this event, then so be it.

Being ready for Jesus comes first:

> Luke 14:20-24 - And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. So the servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house became angry and said to his servant, Go out quickly to the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor and crippled and blind and lame. And the servant said, Sir, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room. And the master said to the servant, Go out to the highways and hedges and compel people to come in, that my house may be filled. For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste my banquet.

Jesus will serve His servants who are awake:

> Luke 12:33-37 - Sell your possessions, and give to the needy. Provide yourselves with moneybags that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Stay dressed for action and keep your lamps burning, and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the wedding feast, so that they may open the door to him at once when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will dress himself for service and have them recline at table, and he will come and serve them. (ESV)

> Matthew 23:11 - The greatest among you shall be your servant. (ESV)

The day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. But we know it's coming, so we'll be ready for it:

> I Thessalonians 5:4-5 - But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. (ESV)

Keep shining your light, maintaining a heart of service, and do good works of faith to glorify God, as we put our hope fully on the mercy and grace from Jesus Christ:

> I Peter 1:13 - Therefore, preparing your minds for action, and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

I want to be free to live for the will of God:

> Exodus 8:24-32 - And the LORD did so. There came great swarms of flies into the house of Pharaoh and into his servants' houses. Throughout all the land of Egypt the land was ruined by the swarms of flies. Then Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron and said, Go, sacrifice to your God within the land. But Moses said, It would not be right to do so, for the offerings we shall sacrifice to the LORD our God are an abomination to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice offerings abominable to the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone us? We must go three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as he tells us. So Pharaoh said, I will let you go to sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you must not go very far away. Plead for me. Then Moses said, Behold, I am going out from you and I will plead with the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow. Only let not Pharaoh cheat again by not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD. So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD. And the LORD did as Moses asked, and removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; not one remained. But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and did not let the people go. (ESV)
>
> I Peter 2:4-5 - As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. (ESV)
>
> I Peter 4:1-3 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. (ESV)

Journal <2026-07-02 Thu 19:29> My previous dad has let me know it's OK if I can't come along. And I explained. God willing I'll come along but my first allegiance is to obey God. So that pressure is no longer there. However, this doesn't change my believe that I think it is right to become independent from this household.

78.4.87 Journal <2026-07-05 Sun 21:57>

I commented on youtube.com: Quiz from Towards Jesus:

Yeah, Jesus gives the rest though. Jesus says whoever learns from the Father comes to Him. So we learn from God and come to Jesus. Jesus says we will find it if we come to Him, but it's still up to Jesus to actually give the rest.

We are required to rest in a 'sense', but Jesus gives us the rest, and we strive to enter that rest. We don't simply take the rest. Jesus gives it to us. We strive in faith and obedience to Jesus, to keep His commandments, and Jesus gives the rest. So, like with the Israelites leaving Egypt, God was leading them to the promised land and the Israelites had to keep faith in God and continue to keep His commandments, and not regress back into idolatry. And this is they way in which we are also supposed to enter into God's rest, by faith obeying Jesus Christ:

- I Timothy 4:7-10, Matthew 11:28-30, Ezekiel 37:12-14

I think entering into God's rest is not an act of disobedience, and it's not an act of distrst. The starting point of entering into God's rest might be thought of as the point of repentance from dead works and turning to faith in God:

- Hebrews 6:1-2

We ”do” the will of God to enter into God’s rest. After all, how can someone rest if they are being tormented because they did not pass forward forgiveness?

- Matthew 18:32-35

We entering into God’s rest through ”faith and obedience” to Jesus Christ and to His gospel:

- Hebrews 4:1-14

This ”striving” for obedience to Christ and His gospel is a resisting of sin while holding our faith in Jesus Christ:

- Acts 26:18, Genesis 3:15, Romans 16:19-20, II Corinthians 10:5-6, Hebrews 12:4-8

So we don’t simply ”take” the rest for ourselves. We ”come to Jesus” and Jesus gives the rest.

- Ezekiel 37:12-14 - Therefore, prophesy, and thou hast said unto them, thus said the Lord Jehovah: Lo, I am opening your graves, And have brought you up out of your graves, O My people, And brought you in unto the land of Israel. And ye have known that I am Jehovah, In My opening your graves, And in My bringing you up out of your graves, O My people. And I have given My Spirit in you, and ye have lived, And I have caused you to rest on your land, And ye have known that I Jehovah, I have spoken, and I have done it , An affirmation of Jehovah.’ (YLT)

Thank You, Jesus for the rest which I’m trusting on you to provide. I’m tired, like ”son of man has no place to rest his head tired.” I do actually believe when the time is right God will cause me to rest. But I also believe we enter that rest through faith and obedience.

78.4.88 Journal <2026-07-10 Fri 10:08>

I commented on these videos:

youtube.com: SSPX Excommunicated and in Schism ! - No Salvation outside the Church {@ CatholicTr

> Luke 11:11-12 - What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? (ESV)

Inheriting the kingdom of heaven / kingdom of God is like being the master of a house. Other people who have not inherited the kingdom, might enter the house. But can’t stay forever unless they have been sanctified.

> Matthew 13:31-32 - He put another parable before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field. It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown it is larger than all the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches. (ESV)

> Matthew 13:52 - And he said to them, Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:20 - For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

> John 8:34-35 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever.

Notice Jesus mentioning ”eternal dwellings”:

> Luke 16:8-9 - And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails they may receive you into the eternal dwellings. (ESV)
>
> I Timothy 6:17-19 - As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life. (ESV)

If Jehovah builds the house then those who build it do not labour in vain:

> Philippians 2:13 - for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)
>
> Psalms 127:1 - Unless the LORD (H3068. Yhvh - Phonetic Spelling: (yeh-ho-vaw’), Often pronounced: Yahweh or Jehovah) builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain. (ESV)

If God would consider me to be a scribe in the Kingdom of God then I could ”potentially” (only if God-willing) consider the Roman catholic church or the SSPX, for example, to be a ”neighbour household” / ”neighbour households” that I’m not myself a part of because in following Jesus I certainly would not be referring to the pope as my father.

We must hold fast to Jesus, the Head:

> Colossians 2:18-19 - Let no one disqualify you, insisting on asceticism and worship of angels, going on in detail about visions, puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind, and not holding fast to the Head, from whom the whole body, nourished and knit together through its joints and ligaments, grows with a growth that is from God. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 23:8-11 - But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brothers. And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. Neither be called instructors, for you have one instructor, the Christ. The greatest among you shall be your servant. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 11:3 - But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. (ESV)

But a good household being managed by a scribe trained in the Kingdom of God would be, faithfully to Jesus’ teachings (Matthew 28:18-20), producing disciples of Jesus teaching them to keep everything that Jesus has commanded and thus producing other scribes trained in the Kingdom of God and other households for God inside of God’s greater household (G1577 ekklēsiais; churches, [See: Revelation of John 2:7]), people calling God their Father and calling no man on earth their father.

God sees the hearts of the people who got ”excommunicated”. God-willing, He is there to receive them:

> Psalms 27:10 - When my father and my mother Have forsaken me, then doth Jehovah gather me. (YLT)

Jesus instructed His disciples to call no man on earth their ”father”. This instruction, therefore, is for the Christian:

> Matthew 23:1 - Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples, (ESV)
>
> Matthew 23:9 - And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. (ESV)

When Jesus Christ is one's Master, then they follow Jesus. So, for example, out of a love for Jesus, they would "call no man on Earth their father" in obedience to Christ's commandments. If a person is walking by the spirit, keeping Jesus Christ's commandments, then they are not under the law and will not gratify the desires of the flesh:

> Galatians 5:17-18 - For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 11:24-25 - By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. (ESV)
>
> Galatians 5:16 - But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. (ESV)
>
> Romans 8:14-17 - For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)
>
> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 10:32-38 - So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 7:23-24 - And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 8:3 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)
>
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

78.4.89 Journal <2026-07-22 Wed 16:53>

If a person is going around telling people, "I'm a Christian," that doesn't mean that they really are a Christian, so to guage whether or not a person is a Christian wouldn't be to ask, "Are you a Christian?" If a person is going around telling people, "Jesus (or Yeshua) is the Son of God," then there is evidence that they are a Christian. If a person is going around telling people that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, then there is evidence that they are a Christian. If a person is going around telling people the truth about God then there is evidence that they are a Christian. If a person appears to be doing what Christ commanded then there is evidence that they are a Christian. I mean, God knows if they truly are, because God sees the thoughts and intentions of the heart. God sees the person's faith (i.e. sees what's really going on in their heart). But a person's confessions of faith and their deeds are still a witness to others to guage whether or not they are a true follower of Jesus. I mean, would it be right to trust that someone is presently a Christian if once some time ago you heard them make a profession of faith, but now they appear to be rejecting Jesus and His words, or that they became devoted to idols/demons, following after false gods? I'd see no reason to trust that person is presently a Christian if their present witness that they are making is not to the truth. Real faith must continue. And we're all still accountable to God for our deeds (II Corinthians 5:9-12).

A person's testimony to others is not given merely by their words. A person's deeds are also a witness to others. Jesus Christ's deeds did bear witness that God His Father was working through Him (John 10:37-38, John 14:12, Titus 1:16).

So to guage whether or not a person is really a Christian, a much more reliable way than asking them, "Are you a Christian?" would be to ask them what they believe about Jesus Christ, (i.e. Find out if they really believe that Jesus really is the Son of God, and is the Christ, and died on a tree and rose from the dead, for example). Asking someone if they are a Christian is not a reliable way to find out if they are a Christian.

If a person is confessing that God has loved us first in sending Jesus into the world to die for our sins (I Corinthians 15:3), then there is good reason to believe that person is a Christian, because it's the truth of Scripture. It has to be genuine faith that loves the truth, and also must continue (I Corinthians 15:2), though, for a person to be a Christian in reality, though, and God knows. But as far as guaging who the Christians are, if somebody wants some evidence towards if another person is a Christian, there are indicators.

Genuine love loves in the way God has commanded. And the true Christian loves. Someone who says they are a Christian might actually not be a Christian. The true Christians have a genuine faith in Jesus Christ in their heart, and those who have faith in Jesus will do the deeds He did. So you might guage whether a person is a Christian or not by their witness to the truth from their confession to the truth, or from the way they appear to conduct themselves. There's nothing wrong with testifying to God that someone else you saw appeared to testify to the truth at a certain point of time. But God sees the heart. God knows for sure whether or not someone has faith in Him, and whether or not they continue in faith in Him. God sees our faith and our deeds with total clarity. There's no deceiving God at all.

Polycarp 4:3 Our widows must be sober-minded as touching the faith of the Lord, making intercession without ceasing for all men, abstaining from all calumny, evil speaking, false witness, love of money, and every evil thing, knowing that they are God's altar, and that all sacrifices are carefully inspected, and nothing escapeth Him either of their thoughts or intents or any of the secret things of the heart.

A person witnesses to others about what they believe in what others can see about them. So if a person sees another person confessing that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, for instance, then this is a good indication that they are a believer. Do they witness to the truth about God? Does it appear like Jesus Christ is working through them to produce the deeds of Jesus, as in walk like Jesus walked (John 10:37-38, John 14:12, I John 2:3-6)?

> II Corinthians 10:5,7,11-12,18 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, Look at what is before your eyes. If anyone is confident that he is Christ's, let him remind himself that just as he is Christ's, so also are we. Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. Not that we dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who are commending themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding. For it is not the one who commends (G4921 synistanōn: commending) himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)

John 5:31 - “If I alone testify about Myself, My testimony is not true. (NASB)

Hebrews 11:1-3 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible. (ESV)

John 5:32 - There is another who bears witness about me, and I know that the testimony that he bears about me is true. (ESV)

Matthew 17:5 - He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him. (ESV)

I John 5:10 - Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. (ESV)

I John 4:15 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. (ESV)

I John 5:18 - We know that everyone who has been born of God does not keep on sinning, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. (ESV)

I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)

I John 3:13-16 - Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. (ESV)

I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

I John 5:5 - Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)

I John 5:13 - I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

I John 5:20 - And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. (ESV)

John 8:54 - Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, He is our God. (ESV)

John 14:20-24 - In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father’s who sent me. (ESV)

John 8:51 - Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. (ESV)

Jesus was born and came into the world to bear witness to the truth of God, and so that we can be saved by having faith in Him. God has loved us first:

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)
>
> John 10:37-38 - If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father. (ESV)
>
> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)
>
> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)
>
> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)
>
> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth (G225 alētheia), and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:9-10 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (ESV)

78.4.90 Journal <2026-07-24 Fri 10:12>

I'm very weary of getting harassing dreams which do not carry the testimony of Jesus Christ, and I'm weary of defilement messing with me and I'm weary of these imprisoning circumstances. I want to be set free. May God my Father set me free from this satanic stronghold in Jesus Christ's name.

youtube.com: Poll from Ready to Harvest I commented yesterday:

> God judges those outside the church (I Corinthians 5:4-13). God is a just judge.
>
> > II Timothy 2:19 - But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: The Lord knows those who are his, and, Let everyone who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity. (ESV)
> >
> > I Timothy 4:10 - For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. (ESV)
> >
> > Romans 2:13 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. (ESV)
> >
> > Romans 2:4-8 - Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek (G2212 zētousin; are seeking. zéteó: To seek, to search for, to desire, to strive after) for glory and honor and immortality (G861 aphtharsia; Incorruptibility, immortality, imperishability), he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. (ESV)

If a person is going around telling people, ”I'm a Christian,” that doesn't mean that they really are a Christian, so to guage whether or not a person is a Christian wouldn't be to ask, ”Are you a Christian?” If a person is going around telling people, ”Jesus (or Yeshua) is the Son of God,” then there is evidence that they are a Christian. If a person is going around telling people that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, then there is evidence that they are a Christian. If a person is going around telling people the truth about God then there is evidence that they are a Christian. If a person appears to be doing what Christ commanded then there is evidence that they are a Christian. I mean, God knows if they truly are, because God sees the thoughts and intentions of the heart. God sees the person's faith (i.e. sees what's really going on in their heart). But a person's confessions of faith and their deeds are still a witness to others to guage whether or not they are a true follower of Jesus. I mean, would it be right to trust that someone is presently a Christian if once some time ago you heard them make a profession of faith, but now they appear to be rejecting Jesus and His words, or that they became devoted to idols/demons, following after false gods? I'd see no reason to trust that person is presently a Christian if their present witness that they are making is not to the truth. Real faith must continue. And we're all still accountable to God for our deeds (II Corinthians 5:9-12).

A person's testimony to others is not given merely by their words. A person's deeds are also a witness to others. Jesus Christ's deeds did bear witness that God His Father was working through Him (John 10:37-38, John 14:12, Titus 1:16).

So to guage whether or not a person is really a Christian, a much more reliable way than asking them, ”Are you a Christian?” would be to ask them what they believe about Jesus Christ, (i.e. Find out if they really believe that Jesus really is the Son of God, and is the Christ, and died on a tree and rose from the dead, for example). Asking someone if they are a Christian is not a reliable way to find out if they are a Christian.

If a person is confessing that God has loved us first in sending Jesus into the world to die for our sins (I Corinthians 15:3), then there is good reason to believe that person is a Christian, because it's the truth of Scripture. It has to be genuine faith that loves the truth, and also must continue (I Corinthians 15:2), though, for a person to be a Christian in reality, though, and God knows. But as far as guaging who the Christians are, if somebody wants some evidence towards if another person is a Christian, there are indicators.

Genuine love loves in the way God has commanded. And the true Christian loves. Someone who says they are a Christian might actually not be a Christian. The true Christians have a genuine faith in Jesus Christ in their heart, and those who have faith in Jesus will do the deeds He did. So you might guage whether a person is a Christian or not by their witness to the truth from their confession to the truth, or from the way they appear to conduct themselves. There's nothing wrong with testifying to God that someone else you saw appeared to testify to the truth at a certain point of time. But God sees the heart. God knows for sure whether or not someone has faith in Him, and whether or not they continue in faith in Him. God sees our faith and our deeds with total clarity. There's no deceiving God at all.

A person witnesses to others about what they believe in what others can see about them. So if a person sees another person confessing that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, for instance, then this is a good indication that they are a believer. Do they witness to the truth about God? Does it appear like Jesus Christ is working through them to produce the deeds of Jesus, as in walk like Jesus walked (John 10:37-38, John 14:12, I John 2:3-6)?

> II Corinthians 10:5,7,11-12,18 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, Look at what is before your eyes. If anyone is confident that he is Christ's, let him remind himself that just as he is Christ's, so also are we. Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. Not that we dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who are commending themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding. For it is not the one who commends (G4921 synistanōn: commending) himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)

> John 5:31 - “If I alone testify about Myself, My testimony is not true. (NASB)

> Luke 3:8 - Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. (ESV)

True Christians practice righteousness, not wickedness! And true Christians love one another! Thieves and murderers and the sexually immoral, those who practice immoral sexual behaviour, for example, need to repent!

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

> Matthew 23:28 - So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. (ESV)

It's not the Christian's role to judge those who are outside the church.

> I Corinthians 5:12 - For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? (ESV)

God judges those who are outside the church, and God is just. The Christian can and should warn people outside the church about God's righteous judgement which is coming.

> Acts 17:30-31 - The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed; and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead. (ESV)

But God is the righteous judge:

> James 4:11-12 - Do not speak evil against one another, brothers. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. There is only one lawgiver and judge, he who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor? (ESV)

When God judges the world, the saints (Revelation of John 14:12) are involved. But surely they do not practice those sinful things that they do not approve of (Matthew 7:2, Romans 2:1-13, James 4:12), but they rather keep God's commandments for them (Revelation of John 14:12):

enjoin Defintion: Giving an order or direction authoritatively and urgently and often with admonition or solicitude.

Polycarp 11:2 But he who cannot govern himself in these things, how doth he enjoin this upon another? If a man refrain not from covetousness, he shall be defiled by idolatry, and shall be judged as one of the Gentiles who know not the judgment of the Lord, Nay, know we not, that the saints shall judge the world, as Paul teacheth?

Saints should not "directly" judge their neighbours (James 4:12). Admonishing and reproving your neigbour, calling out wickedness, we should do (Acts 8:22, Leviticus 19:17-18). It would be fine to say, I disapprove of this or that, and it's OK to affirm and even speak to others the truth of Scripture, for example that "all who are presently believing in Jesus Christ are presently not condemned and that all who are disbelieving in Jesus Christ are presently condemned", because it's the truth of Scripture, but it's not OK to turn to your neighbour and say with certainty to them that God has judged them because in the end it's God who judges, and also because in imitation of Christ who came to save the world, rather than judge, we should be speaking the truth of Scripture to others (warning people of coming judgement) but leaving that judgement to God. There's certainly an involvement from the saints, though when God does judge:

Psalms 97:10 You who love (H157 ’ō · hă · ḇê) Yahweh (H3068 Yah · weh) hate (H8130 śin · ’ū) evil (H7451 rā‘) He preserves the souls of His saints out of the hand of the wicked He delivers them (Interlinear)

Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

John 12:44-48 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge (G2919 krinō: do judge) him; for I did not come to judge the world (G2919 krinō: I might judge) but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)

I Corinthians 6:2 - Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you incompetent to try trivial cases?

I Corinthians 4:5 - Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God. (ESV)

Revelation of John 14:12 - Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus. (ESV)

Revelation of John 14:14-18 - Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and seated on the cloud one like a son of man, with a golden crown on his head, and a sharp sickle in his hand. And another angel came out of the temple, calling with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, Put in your sickle, and reap, for the hour to reap has come, for the harvest of the earth is fully ripe. So he who sat on the cloud swung his sickle across the earth, and the earth was reaped. Then another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle. And another angel came out from the altar, the angel who has authority over the fire, and he called with a loud voice to the one who had the sharp sickle, Put in your sickle and gather the clusters from the vine of the earth, for its grapes are ripe. (ESV)

Revelation of John 14:19 - So the angel swung his sickle across the earth and gathered the grape harvest of the earth and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. (ESV)

78.4.91 Journal <2026-08-02 Sun 02:58>

So I have just had a couple of interesting dreams. It still bothers me that there was no explicit testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit to me. But I will quote relevant Scripture. Trust God’s word through Scripture, rather than rely on dreams (Jude 1:8). It also bothers me that yesterday there was a greater than average experience of this defilement and demonic dreams etc. It’s been a real spiritual battle. I’ve been feeling sick because of the ongoing spiritual warfare. May Yahweh (Father, Son and Holy Spirit), deliver me completely from it (II Corinthians 7:1) and from this world (Acts 2:40) in Jesus Christ’s name.

First dream The first one was of me walking through a restaurant or conference with dining tables and people seated at them and someone called out to me loudly so that everyone had his attention stating that I have the answer to why Jesus said, ”Call no man on earth your father for you have one father who is in heaven.” And so everyone seemed to pay close attention as I began speaking.

I said, ”Firstly, nowhere in the New Testament…” Then I paused as I thought that these people may not be aware of the New Testament because they may be people who are living in the period before the New Testament was written. But I continued, ”Nowhere is it recorded as Jesus having called anybody on earth ’father’ other than God.” Then all of a sudden, strangely, people lost interest dramatically and just returned to conversing with each other at their tables, even speaking over me in commotion as I continued speaking.

I continued while nobody was listening to me, ”Secondly, when Jesus said, ’You have one father who is in heaven, He was saying that,’” and everyone was speaking so loudly with one another ignoring me that it was difficult to speak or think. ”He was saying that a person has only one....” (and I was thinking of what to say, ’dad’ or ’parent’) He was saying that whoever has been begotten of God, they have a new...” (and I was thinking of what to say, ’dad’ or ’parent’) But everyone was speaking to loudly over top of me it was difficult to think.

> I John 5:1 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. (ESV)

Second dream In this second dream I was in some kind of backyard where there was what appeared to be a vintage carnival going on. In this carnival there might have been themes of ”bad theology”. At least one other person was standing over what appeared to be a attraction comprised of a silverware tray with some teacups on it at one end of a bench, and at the other end of the bench was tree stump that was horizontally oriented to work like a pile-driver. Something triggered the tree stump to whack the silverware tray and send the tray moving down the bench. So I tried to explain to a lady (if I recall correctly) how it worked.

Then I found myself inside and someone was asking me about Jesus. So I said to them, ”About a year after I was born-again, perhaps a little less then a year, I began to get clued up on discerning sound theology. In this dream, I said, ”Jesus said whoever learns from him, comes to him. So we have to actually be learning from Jesus.” And then the lady said, ”And do what he says.” And I said, ”Yes, and do what he says.” And then she sounded, ”Huh,” as if something clicked for her.

Then I woke up.

I immediately reflected on this dream. It did bother me initially that in the dream I had said in this dream, ”Jesus said ’whoever learns from him, comes to him’.” because Jesus actually said that whoever has heard and learned from the Father comes to him. Yet Jesus also said that the Father who sent him has told him what to speak, and he said that the Son can do nothing apart from what he sees the Father doing. So, really, if someone is learning from Jesus who is the Son of God then they are still learning from Father God and as such are coming to Jesus.

As for the ”doing” is concerned, the promise is that those who have faith will do the works of Jesus. If a person has the right faith then the promise to them is that they will do good deeds. We don’t try to contrive the deeds. Rather we walk by faith and the deeds follow (Revelation of John 14:13). Obedience depends on love for the truth (Psalms 81:15).

God sets up the deeds for those who are walking in the light, but we should be obedient and ready to do them as they are given to us. So we don’t contrive the deeds by forcing our way into ”helping” widows and orphans, as if to check off some list and self-commend to tell Jesus when we served Him! No, God gives us the deeds. What does not proceed from faith is sin. We should be obedient, ready for every good deed:

> Titus 3:1 - Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, (ESV)

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

> John 5:19 - So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise.

> Luke 8:12 - The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. (ESV)
>
> Luke 8:21| - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 23:9 - And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. (ESV)
>
> John 6:45 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— (ESV)
>
> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

I also want to say that ever since being born-again, yes there has been a lot of correction going on, but I've had the fear of God since I was newly born-again, and I've had a love for God and for people and desire to do the will of God right from the very beginning. But who am I to self-commend or to say, I love God and my neighbour in the way that God requires? But I'm still called to not hide my light under a bush. Newly born-again, I'm called to tell other people about Jesus.

But the subsequent and prolonged war of attrition against me from chronic demonic/satanic oppression, the sleep interruptions, being opposed with extreme high frequency in even basic daily tasks, as I endeavour to walk in the truth, and the lack of hearing the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit ongoingly, has had me continually seeking guidance from Scripture, and praying for deliverance several times daily for years. And even going back before I was born-again, I would ask God to deliver me.

In the month after getting born-again I was writing about keeping the 10 commandments from the heart, and I was also writing about how a person's beliefs in their heart should be in agreement with the truth about God. No-one in these years has taken time to critique my writings and respond to me. I have not been told how much of the theologising I was doing was correct or incorrect, even at the early stages. I certainly wouldn't throw it all out.

I had written about following God's commandments from the heart. But God is the one who circumcises the heart. The elect have soft hearts.

The elect have soft hearts:

> Romans 11:7-10 - What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was seeking. The elect obtained it, but the rest were hardened, as it is written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear, down to this very day. And David says, Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them; let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and bend their backs forever.

A soft heart is needed to perceive and understand:

> Mark 8:17 - And Jesus, aware of this, said to them, Why are you discussing the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened? (ESV)

God can harden or soften hearts, but so can people harden and soften their own heart:

> II Chronicles 36:12-13 - He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord his God. He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the Lord. He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God. He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the Lord, the God of Israel. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 3:8 - do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness,

When God gives a person a new heart of flesh, He gives a person a new heart that is soft. A heart of stone can't receive correction. God doesn't remove a heart of flesh to put in a heart of stone. God removes the heart of stone and puts in a heart of flesh that is responsive to correction and then He writes His laws on it.

Just because God circumcises our heart, doesn't mean the new heart of flesh didn't have any love in it. On the contrary, I felt healed when I was made new. But God continued to work on me. In some ways I feel as though ”religious theologising” has put heavy burdens on me who felt so free when I was born-again, but at the same time, I think that it has been prudent and absolutely necessary to receive correction from the Scripture. By learning from Scripture, I have been saved from endorsing some very demonic doctrines.

I haven't been so self-sure as to ignore guidance from my peers too but I've also wisened up to the fact that there is absolutely atrocious theology circulating, and it just seems to me as though even amongst the ”churches” what is being preached is so compromised, and distracts and actively deters people from actually coming into agreement with Jesus Christ's words and actually doing as He says.

Generally-speaking (but not in all cases), people I interact with seem to be actively hostile to, or impatient when talking about theology, or stubbornly resistant to what the Scripture is actually saying. And all the while I've been getting such intense spiritual attacks, and strange dreams. I've felt opposed in every direction.

May God deliver me from this evil which has continued to come against me. The spirtual warfare has been so intense. It's not easy to think sometimes because of the attacks that come against my mind. I'm still waiting for God to testify of Jesus Christ by the Holy Spirit as a direct word to my heart, but in due time I'm sure He will (Hebrews 11:6, Luke 11:2-13).

Father God is the Truth (Saint Justin Martyr). Jesus Christ the Son of God is the Truth (John 14:6). Holy Spirit is the Truth (I John 5:1-6) God is the Truth.

The truth is reality (G225 aletheia). I refuse to imbibe on this delusional AI chatbot theft rubbish.

Journal <2026-09-01 Tue 08:41> Psalms 11:1-7 - 1 In Yahweh I take refuge; How can you say to my soul, “Flee as a bird to your mountain; 2 For, behold, the wicked bend the bow, They make ready their arrow upon the string To shoot in darkness at the upright in heart. 3 If the foundations are destroyed, What can the righteous do?” 4 Yahweh is in His holy temple; Yahweh's throne is in heaven; His eyes behold, His eyelids test the sons of men. 5 Yahweh tests the righteous, But the wicked and the one who loves violence His soul hates. 6 May He rain snares upon the wicked; Fire and brimstone and burning wind will be the portion of their cup. 7 For Yahweh is righteous, He loves righteousness; The upright will behold His face. (LSB)

I hope and pray that God cleans me up, delivers me from the evil, silences the demons and speaks to me clearly as a direct word with the testimony of Jesus Christ.

> John 15:26 - But when the Comforter (G3875 Paraklētos; Advocate, Helper, Comforter, Counselor, Intercessor) is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me: (KJV)

> John 14:15-18 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. (ESV)

78.4.92 Journal <2026-08-04 Tue 18:38>

youtube.com: Poll from Ready to Harvest I commented:

> The only hard requirement for salvation is the mercy of God (1 Tim 4:10, Rom 9:16). Being found in Christ, having the righteousness from God that depends on faith, depends on having faith in Christ. And God is the one who commends faith. God sees a person's faith. Justification depends on having faith in Jesus Christ, even if we are ungodly, and this justification is by God's grace, and sanctification depends on justification. We can't be saved by committing sin. We're saved as we hold our faith in and are obeying Jesus Christ, and we are saved from committing sin and into instead walking by faith. If a person is having faith in Jesus, then they are saved/being saved/will be saved, and they must continue in faith to remain saved. If a person is hating Jesus, rejecting Jesus, distrusting Jesus, not faithing in Jesus, then they are condemned, and they need to repent lest they perish.

In the heart indeed is faith unto righteousness. In the mouth is confession unto salvation.

But there are some promises for how to be saved:

- Those who are having faith in Jesus Christ will be saved.
- Those who are obeying Jesus Christ from a love for the truth (Psalms 81:15) will be saved.
- If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead you will be saved. (So while believing in your heart that God raised Jesus Christ from the dead, confess with the mouth that Jesus is Lord). Faith must continue to be saved, to continue being saved.
- If you have faith in Jesus Christ and are baptized (i.e. into His name) you will be saved, but faith must absolutely continue. Baptism and apostasy doesn't save. Consider Simon Magus who had believed and was baptised but later had the love of evil and was told ”may your silver perish with you” by an apostle.
- If we love Jesus we will keep His commandments.

As we go on we must also go on abiding in the teaching of Christ, even as we are being sanctified by the truth and corrected. For example, we must love one another, forgive one another, etc. If a person continues on but do not abide in the teaching of Christ then they do not have God.

Repentance (metanoia) is a change of mind (from not having faith, to having faith). What does not proceed from faith is sin, and sin is lawlessness. Repentance and faith go hand in hand. While having faith in their heart, a person may confess Jesus with their mouth, or they may get baptised or they may take the Lord's supper (eucharist) or they may do all three. But whatever the true Christian does, they do it by faith. And we need to continue walking by faith to be saved.

A deed is done in faith or not in faith. Whoever has faith in Jesus Christ will do the deeds He does and Jesus didn't sin. So we are saved into doing good deeds that come from faith.

If a person is truly holding faith in God in the matters of first importance of the gospel such as that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, and that God raised Him from the dead, then they will be doing deeds while holding their faith. I'm sure that if they hold their faith, they will be saved.

- I Corinthians 15:1-8 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. (ESV)

Someone might say, ”Confession unto salvation is a work! And we are not saved by works but by faith alone.” But that is nonsense. We are saved by sanctification by the truth. We are saved by sanctification and faith. We're not saved by our own deeds apart from (G5565 chōris) Jesus, but we are saved into doing good deeds from the love of the truth. If someone stops having faith and instead decides to make a practice of committing sin, then they need to repent and return to faith. Salvation is being saved from committing sin and into doing things by faith.

> Romans 6:22 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. (ESV)

We are not delivered/saved to do evil deeds. So we must be those who walk by faith rather than from the love of darkness:

> Jeremiah 7:8-11 - Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD. (KJV)

> John 10:1 - Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber. (ESV)

We are saved into loving God and one another the way God wants us to: Luke 10:25-37

The wrath of God is against all ungodliness. So while God justifies the ungodly who have faith, God also sanctifies them. It's not possible to separate faith and obedience. Obedience necessitates love for the truth (Psalms 81:15). Good deeds are done in faith, done in love for the truth. Good deeds are done in obedience, done in love for the truth. Deeds (external actions done from faith) doesn't equal obedience (which is in the heart). But those who having faith in Jesus are promised to have the deeds of Jesus.

We obey the gospel of Jesus Christ to be saved. We have faith in Jesus Christ to be saved.

OK, so baptism is an appeal to God for a good conscience through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Partaking in the resurrection of Jesus Christ involves being baptised into Jesus' death and raised to walk in newness of life, and so involves being born-again of the Spirit.

A person is gets born of woman, and then they get born of the spirit. Being born of water and the spirit is what needs to happen for a person to be able to see or enter the kingdom of God.

> John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never (G3756) (G3361) die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV)

> Romans 6:3-8 - Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. (ESV)

> II John 1:9-11 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him int o your house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him takes part in his wicked works. (ESV)

> I Peter 3:21 - Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, (ESV)

youtube.com: Poll from Ready to Harvest I made another comment:

@ShaneMulligan-n7h Jesus is Lord

And I got a reply @kov6126 Personally I prefer ”Jesus is God” because it’s stronger and discludes Mormons and Muslims in Jehovah’s witnesses and whatnot.

And I replied to that reply @ShaneMulligan-n7h @kov6126 Clarifying what I believe about Jesus being Lord. Jesus is the Christ who came from God into the world in the flesh (God’s word become flesh, not merely a spirit). Jesus the Son of God is one with (H259. echad) God. The Son of God, God’s Word, is reigning as Lord until he himself is subjected to Father God. Father God has given all judgement to the Son of God.

Jesus (Yeshua, Iesous) is Yahweh (Jehovah). I’m not too hung up about the transliteration of God’s proper name. Who I mean by God is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The God of Israel.

God’s the one who commends faith and God sees the heart. So I’m not too concerned about getting the precise pronunciation, but it is a question I really want to ask God.

Father, Son and Holy Spirit are all Yahweh, and are all God. But God the Father is not the Son. Father God sent Christ the Son His eternal word.

Those who come to know Jesus Christ through faith in Him, who come to know in Truth that Jesus Christ the Son of God has come from God the Father will also be one (H259. echad) with God and God sanctifies them in the Truth.

I was also just thinking about ”confessing faith before other people directly” rather than ”confessing faith on the internet”. My YouTube account isn’t me :D And the computer, and my online accounts are not an extension of me.

I wish that in the city in which I dwell presently on earth that more people would give me direct verbal confessions of faith. I’ve often encountered flat-out hostility or silence when I’ve asked people to confess verbally to me the facts about Jesus such as that Jesus is the Son of God, but especially the confession that Jesus is the Christ who has come from God into the world in the flesh.

I John 4 teaches that we should not trust every spirit, but test the spirits to see if they come from God. That includes human beings because a human being has a spirit.

Asides from affirming various truths about God, I just wanted to point out that an indirect confession of faith via the internet or whatever is far less than ideal to me, and my main hope in writing online is not ”confession unto salvation” but is rather only to seek to lead people to the truth with my writing.

When it comes to making confession of my faith to people, I place more value on face-to-face interactions than I do with the internet. But if God makes use of some internet things to lead people to Jesus, so be it. If the work burns up, so be it also.

I think when it comes to confessing one’s faith unto salvation, the most important thing is that God sees (and He does), and second to that is testifying before other human beings.

John 14:20 - In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. (ESV)

John 14:10-15 - Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it. If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

John 10:30 - I and the Father are one. (ESV)

John 17:14-23 - I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. I do not ask > for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me. (ESV)

>
> Deuteronomy 6:4 - ‘Hear, O Israel, Jehovah our God is one (H259 ’e · ḥāḏ) Jehovah (H3068 Yah · weh; ;((YLT)
>
> Deuteronomy 6:5 - You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. (ESV) ichthys.com 20one.htm: The Hebrew word for ’ one ’ { echadh } and the uniqueness of God .

God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God is Yahweh (Jehovah). God is One God.

It’s not possible to separate Father God from the Son of God, nor from His Holy Spirit. They’re the One True God.

Now just out of my present understanding, just being honest, I would say that Jesus Christ the Son of God, God’s eternal Word is a ”part of God” who cannot be removed from Father God. And there is a oneness also that extends to God’s children who are sanctified by faith in Jesus Christ.

> Colossians 3:3 - For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (ESV)

John 1:18 (Interlinear) God no one has seen ever yet [the] only begotten God the [One] being in the bosom of the Father He has made [Him] known

78.4.93 Journal <2026-08-21 Fri 22:42>

As I was lying down earlier taking a nap, I had a couple of pictures come into my mind:

- a picture of the statue of liberty
- a couple of dogs/puppies licking the ground

And being unsure where these visions came from, but thinking one of two things, that either:

- the visions were to trick me into affirming that sexual immorality can be done under the guise of Christian freedom, or
- perhaps that the visions are just a test to see what I choose to write.

Of course while that might seem odd connections to make to an outsider, I have good reason for thinking they visions symbolised such. Consider Joseph’s dream interpretations (Genesis 41:17-37) may also seem disconnected from the dream but they’re not.

I decided to write on this from the Bible’s teaching as faithfully as I could without peddling the word or giving false assurance:

- I wrote about the freedom which Jesus gives, which is freedom from sin (both from committing sin and from having it as God cleans us too).
- I also considered the grace that Jesus gives.

In Matthew 15:22-28 Jesus gave grace to the woman so that the demon would leave the her daughter. Jesus’ grace was for freedom from being enslaved to evil.

And so, having mentioned this story in my theology document when mentioning LGBT while being confronted with the reality that those who practice sexual immorality will not inherit the Kingdom of God, connecting Matthew 15:22-28 to Revelation of John 22:15, I wanted to write to explain that, being given time to repent is grace, and that since I hoped God would grant grace in a similar way to Matt 15:22-28, I feel hopeful that it is possible, but that the grace would be time to repent rather than free license to practice sexual immorality and idolatry.

> Revelation of John 22:15 - Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. (ESV)

Time to repent is time to turn away from the love of evil, and into having a loving faith in Jesus Christ instead.

> Revelation of John 2:20-23 - But I have this against you, that you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess and is teaching and seducing my servants to practice sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols. I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. Behold, I will throw her onto a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her I will throw into great tribulation, unless they repent of her works, and I will strike her children dead. And all the churches will know that I am he who searches mind and heart, and I will give to each of you as your works deserve. (ESV)

Earlier today in the morning I received a picture of an old Nokia 5110 (I think this model) banana phone someone had charitably given to me while I was at university. And I remember the girl who gave it to me who in modern language would be practicing LGBT at the time. Of course I care about such people from my past and wish for them to be saved.

Of all the humans, only Jesus Christ did not have a sinful past. But knowing that Jesus has paid a very heavy price for me to be born-again and be here today, it’s important for me to be efficient with my words, and to not misrepresent the Gospel of Jesus, because time is precious:

> Ephesians 5:15-16 - Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. (ESV)

So this is what has prompted me to write on what I have written today, and also some other interactions I have had today.

78.5 Prayer of thanks

> I Chronicles 29:11 - Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and you are exalted as head above all. (ESV)

```
Dear Heavenly Father, Almighty Jehovah God!
Your will be done.
We praise Your name! We praise You God! And, Lord Jesus Christ, we praise You also.
And Holy Spirit, we praise You also!
Thank You God for Your mercy!
Thank You Father God for making a way for us to be reconciled with You through Your Son Jesus Chr
Thank You Jesus for dying on the cross to pay the price for our sins.
Thank You Father God for raising Jesus from the dead!
I believe that You've raised Jesus from dead.
Please help us to continue carrying out Your great commission.
And I'm going to do my best to prepare myself to be holy and blameless for the day of Christ Jesu
All glory to You, God.
In Jesus Christ's name I pray,
AMEN!!
```

```
Dear Heavenly Father, Jehovah God,
Please forgive, me, LORD.
Have mercy on me, a sinner!
I want to serve You, God.
I don't deserve any of Your grace, LORD.
Thank You, God, for not condemning me, because Jesus has paid the price for my sin.
I believe that. I know it's already paid for.
```

```
Nevertheless, I live to serve You, God, and to be conformed into the image of Your Son, Jesus Chr
In Jesus Christ's name I pray,
AMEN!!
```

Journal <2026-09-11 Fri 12:06> God knows I'm still fighting a battle against the flesh and wanting to do God's will, endeavouring to resist lies and speak the truth of Scripture into darkness. I do this hoping He has mercy on me, knowing I so often make mistakes. I'm trying to convey the Scripture accurately in the fear of God because I fall so very short of the glory of God. But compromising the truth of Scripture is not something I want to do. Also, being silent and burying the light is also not something I want to do. May God correct me and correct any error in the writings I have made as I seek to understand and convey the God's word faithfully to others.

The gift of justification is received through faith in Jesus Christ apart from (G5565 chōris) works, and God's righteousness is apart from the (G5565 chōris) law, and is through this faith which is apart from (G5565 chōris) works. For someone who has faith presently in Jesus Christ, their former sins are forgiven. We must go on in faith. Whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. We must "stop sinning" and go on in faith. That's true gospel teaching.

> Romans 3:21-26 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)
>
> Colossians 2:13-14 - And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. (ESV)
>
> Isaiah 44:22 - I have blotted out your transgressions like a cloud and your sins like mist; return to me, for I have redeemed you. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 1:5 - and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood (ESV)
>
> Philippians 1:9-11 - And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.
>
> Hebrews 13:20-21 - Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

Download PDF, TEXT, MARKDOWN, ORG, semiosis.github.io