> I Timothy 5:17-18 - Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in preaching and teaching. For the Scripture says, You shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain, and, The laborer deserves his wages. (ESV)

We should not be ”destroyers of the earth” so, yes, people are supposed to take care of the world. But this world is passing away and we’re not covenently bound to it:

> Revelation of John 11:18 - The nations raged, but your wrath came, and the time for the dead to be judged, and for rewarding your servants, the prophets and saints, and those who fear your name, both small and great, and for destroying the destroyers of the earth. (ESV)
> Deuteronomy 22:6-7 - If you come across a bird’s nest in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs and the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young. You shall let the mother go, but the young you may take for yourself, that it may go well with you, and that you may live long. (ESV)

3.20.4 As Christians, we've got to repent of evil deeds and keep Jesus' works - keep imitating Christ, even in holiness

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

> II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)

We follow Christ's teachings:

> Revelation of John 2:15-16 - So also you have some who hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans. Therefore repent. If not, I will come to you soon and war against them with the sword of my mouth. (ESV)

We absolutely must put a stop to sexual immorality and idolatry:

> Revelation of John 2:17-24 - He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, with a new name written on the stone that no one knows except the one who receives it. And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write: The words of the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and whose feet are like burnished bronze. I know your works, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your latter works exceed the first. But I have this against you, that you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess and is teaching and seducing my servants to practice sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols. I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. Behold, I will throw her onto a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her I will throw into great tribulation, unless they *repent of her works, and I will strike her children dead. And all the churches will know that I am he who searches mind and heart, and I will give to each of you as your works deserve. But to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not learned what some call the deep things of Satan, to you I say, I do not lay on you any other burden. (ESV)

We must keep Jesus' teachings to the end:

> Revelation of John 2:25-29 - Only hold fast what you have until I come. The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron, as when earthen pots are broken in pieces, even as I myself have received authority from my Father. And I will give him the morning star. He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. (ESV)

3.20.5 We absolutely cling to Jesus as well

> I Corinthians 7:25-31 - Now concerning the betrothed, I have no command from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. I think that in view of the present distress it is good for a person to remain as he is. Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. But if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a betrothed woman marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that. This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. (ESV)

> Luke 20:33-36 - In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife. And Jesus said to them, The sons of this age (G165 aion) marry (G1060 gameo) and 'are given' (women are given) in marriage (G1061 gamisko), but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age (G165 aion) and to the resurrection (G386 anastasis) from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. (ESV)

3.21 Disobedience towards God is sin. Treasuring anything else more than God is sin

Sermon God is very happy about obedience, and listening to His word. Disobedience is sin, and disobedience is rejecting the word of the LORD:

I Samuel 15:22-23 - And Samuel said, Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king. (ESV)

Leviticus 5:17 - If anyone sins, doing any of the things that by the LORD's commandments ought not to be done, though he did not know it, then realizes his guilt, he shall bear his iniquity. (ESV)

The disobedience of mankind started in the Garden of Eden:

Genesis 3:17 - And to Adam he said, Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree of which I commanded you, You shall not eat of it, cursed is the ground because of you; in pain you shall eat of it all the days of your life; (ESV)

Jesus helps us to overcome sin. Jesus delivers us from it:

Romans 7:22-25 - For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV)

God's commandments through Jesus is within the Law of God:

I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

3.22 God makes us born-again, so we can love Him, obediently

John 3:7 - Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again. (ESV)

We must follow Jesus:

John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

We must believe Jesus is who He says He is:

John 8:24 - I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins. (ESV)

We must love Jesus:

John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

In my understanding, I consider all who are repentantly trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ, who is God the Son, for their salvation, if they are willing turn to and obey Him, if Father God puts them in, obediently trusting Jesus Christ who is their life, to be in Christ Jesus, no matter what else I say in this document.

I have been just trying to figure out my theology. One God, three persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. I don't have the say though. God puts a person in. AMEN!!

> I Corinthians 1:30 - But by His doing you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption, (NASB)

We are given the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit cleanses our hearts by faith. As we obey Jesus, going against the resistance, our hearts are being cleansed:

> Acts 15:8-9 - And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith.

If we have faith in Jesus then we obey Jesus' commandments when presented with opportunities. We walk by faith, not sight. When other people discourage you from following Jesus' commandments, but you choose to obey Jesus anyway, this is overcoming the enemy by faith:

> II Corinthians 5:7 - for we walk by faith, not by sight. (ESV)

With God's help, we must drop the old selfish self and allow Jesus to come in with the new obediently loving self:

> Psalms 37:27 - Turn away from evil and do good; so shall you dwell forever. (ESV)

Selfish people killed Jesus. Jesus was selfless. Christian selfless love is based upon God having loved us first; i.e. Christ's love has more nuance to it than mere charity.

> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

Jesus was obedient to God unto death. We identify with Christ with a death like His (dying to sin and living to serve God), to be united with Him in a resurrection like His! This is why obedience to Jesus is so important. How can a person be resurrected if they don't die? We need to die a death to be resurrected:

> II Timothy 2:11 - The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; (ESV)

Dying to sin an immediate thing and living to Christ, becoming like Jesus in His death is a lifelong (while on this earth) process. Also, starting to live for God is an immediate thing, and to be with God is the long-term thing:

> Romans 6:8-10 - Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. (ESV)

I think that what the following is saying is that in a real sense a person who has died with Christ has already died the death that people typically think of as the death of the body in a real sense. The resurrection body is something that we do look forward to receiving. I think these verses are saying that as people who have received the Holy Spirit, we expect that later our physical bodies (which are dead) will be made alive again:

> Romans 8:10-11 - But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. (ESV)
> 1 Cor 15:36,38 - You foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body. (ESV)

I think baptism of water is an appeal to God and identifying oneself into Christ's death and resurrection but the sacrament maybe is not strictly required to be saved (as far as I understand).

> Romans 6:3 - Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? (ESV)
> Romans 6:1 - What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Being dead to sin seems to not mean "unable to let indwelling sin reign in our mortal body", so it seems that being dead to sin and having been set free (and sin no longer having power over oneself), it's still possible for a person to then "let sin reign in the mortal body" (allow it to reign), and we definitely do not want to allow sin to reign in our mortal body. I think what Paul is saying here is that we have been set free from sin and that to let sin reign after you've been set free would be something like a king allowing his enemy to reign in his own kingdom. Rather than doing that, we should be walking in faith and obedience to Jesus Christ:

> Romans 6:11 - So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. (ESV)
> Romans 6:12-14 - Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. (ESV)

As I understand it, in water baptism we make an appeal to partake in the resurrection of Christ, and live to serve Christ. Also in being born of the Spirit / regeneration, we definitely die to sin and live to serve Christ, being able to see the Kingdom of God. But then we spend the rest of our lives on earth becoming like Jesus in His death - being obedient to death here on earth, to become like Him in His resurrection:

> Philippians 3:8-11 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. (ESV)

I think that water baptism in part is an appeal to partake in the baptism of the Holy Spirit:

> I Corinthians 12:13 - For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:1-4 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. (ESV)

Being baptised into Christ, becoming a slave of righteousness, being set free from sin, I assume, also involves becoming obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which were are committed:

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

Having become a slave of righteousness, the fruit we get leads to sanctification and at its end eternal life:

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

Nevertheless the one who trusts in Jesus and dies will yet live. AMEN!! And the following verse, I believe actually applies to baptism (identifying with Christ in His death and resurrection)! So a nice way of reading the following is: If someone, while believing in Jesus Christ, dies to their old selfish nature to live as someone who loves selflessly, they will live, and the one who lives abiding in Jesus Christ's love, having died to their old selfish nature, and believes in Him will never die:

> John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never (G3756) (G3361) die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV)

ou mé Not at all, never, by no means. G3756 (- no) and G3361 (- no)] a double negative strengthening the denial, ”not at all” Strong's Exhaustive Concordance anymore, at all, neither, never

I like that way of thinking of it because it encapsulates both belief and obedience to Jesus - both which I think are important.

Jesus' selfless love also faithful to God. Without breaking faith with God, Jesus loved back his persecutors:

> Hebrews 5:8-9 - Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

No-one took Jesus' life, but Jesus laid it down of His own accord. Nevertheless, he was killed by sinners. To put it another way, while needing to fulfill the law and the prophets, he did not sin, and sinners killed Him and cast lots with His clothes, but actually you could say that Jesus gave His life, and let them have His clothes:

> John 10:17-18 - For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:40 - And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:22 - He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. (ESV)

> Matthew 27:35 - And when they had crucified him, they divided his garments among them by casting lots. (ESV)

> I Peter 3:17-18 - For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil. For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, (ESV)

And Jesus prayed for his persecutors:

> Luke 23:34 - And Jesus said, Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do. And they cast lots to divide his garments. (ESV)

Likewise, that's the type of selfless love we should have. Selfless love while trying to maintain faithfulness to God:

> I Peter 2:20 - For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:19 - Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)

The purest selfless love loves while not breaking faith with God. Jesus maintained faithfulness to God while maintaining selfless love. We should endeavour to have the same mind:

> Philippians 2:5-8 - Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

The Apostle Paul strove to maintain a clear conscience with God:

> Acts 24:14-16 - But this I confess (G3670 homologeó) to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the Law and written in the Prophets, having a hope in God, which these men themselves accept, that there will be a resurrection of both the just and the unjust. So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man. (ESV)

Yes, it's very important for Christians to practice their righteousness sincerely:

> I John 3:7 - Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)

We are commanded to be innocent, and to bear witness of Jesus before men who persecute us:

> Matthew 10:16-18 - Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of men, for they will deliver you over to courts and flog you in their synagogues, and you will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them and the Gentiles. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:15-16 - that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

Forgive one another in Christ and be obedient, and hold no grudge for those in darkness, but try to be the light of the world to them, show them the love of God and the truth of God. Be obedient to Christ in everything that we are not outwitted by Satan:

> II Corinthians 2:5-11 - Now if anyone has caused pain, he has caused it not to me, but in some measure—not to put it too severely—to all of you. For such a one, this punishment by the majority is enough, so you should rather turn to forgive and comfort him, or he may be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. So I beg you to reaffirm your love for him. For this is why I wrote, that I might test you and know whether you are obedient in everything. Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ, so that we would not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs. (ESV)
> I conjecture that, effectively, `Obedience = Believing the gospel, and Selfless love` (no longer serving yourself but serving Christ. It's obeying Jesus.).
> Nevertheless, where we fall short of obedience, Jesus has us covered. But if we are keeping Jesus' commandments then we're abiding in His love.
> Is it crucial to obey the gospel? Yes. Is that a 'works-based' gospel? If we must put a label on it, I'd describe it more of a my-willingness-to-work-serving-Christ-based-on-Jesus'-finished-works-and-God-working-in-me-based gospel.

When we walk in trusting, believing, obedient faith, God works in us and to deliver us and makes our paths straight for us:

> Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Jude 1:21 - keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. (ESV)

Although, we will arrive at rest:

> Heb 4:1-6 - Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us fear lest any of you should seem to have failed to reach it. For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said, As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest, although his works were finished from the foundation of the world. For he has somewhere spoken of the seventh day in this way: And God rested on the seventh day from all his works. And again in this passage he said, They shall not enter my rest. Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience,

> Heb 4:9-11 - So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience.

We work then find rest:

> Revelation of John 14:13 - And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on. Blessed indeed, says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them! (ESV)

That rest looks like living for the will of God (i.e. faith in Jesus, faith in God, our sanctification, keeping His commandments, putting a stop to breaking the 10 commandments from the heart, putting a stop to false-witnessing, idolatry etc., so faith in God beliving the gospel, producing agape love especially for our family in Christ):

> I Peter 4:1-2 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. (ESV)
> I John 5:3 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)
> Psalms 46:10 - “Cease striving and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.” (NASB)

Jesus is our rest:

youtube.com: Are Christians Required to Keep the Sabbath? | Sam Shamoun Responds {@faith$_{\textbf{withreaso}}$

> The Ten Commandments is still binding on Christians. They’re right because the New Testament says we still follow those ten commandments. So why don’t we keep the Sabbath? Brother, we do keep the Sabbath, but we don’t keep the Sabbath given to Israel. We keep God’s Sabbath. There is the original Sabbath and the Sabbath enjoined on Israel, which is a shadow, not the reality.
> The moment you trusted in Christ that day, you entered God’s rest and you remained there by faith till the end.

As you can see, the disciples still generally followed the commandment to rest on the Sabbath day:

> Luke 23:56 - Then they returned and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment. (ESV)

But Jesus is lord of the Sabbath:

> Mark 2:27-28 - And he said to them, The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. So the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath. (ESV)

And we enter into God’s rest as we are trusting in Jesus:

> Hebrews 4:6-11 - Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, again he appoints a certain day, Today, saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts. For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God’s rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. (ESV)
> Colossians 2:16-17 - Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. These are a shadow of the things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. (ESV)

Resting from our works doesn’t mean resting from love (which is in the heart) and it doesn’t mean resting from obedience (which is in the heart), since we have to hold our faith in Jesus in a law-abiding way (that is loving God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength and and our neighbour as ourself). Without the law-abiding love, the type of faith one would be resting in would be an unlawful faith, a demonic faith:

> Hebrews 4:8-10 - For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. (ESV)

> Matthew 12:12 - Of how much more value is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath. (ESV)

The peace Jesus gives is not "peace on Earth" with just anyone:

> Matthew 10:32-38 - So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

It's peace between those who God is pleased with:

> Luke 2:14 - Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased! (ESV)

It's peace "in Christ" with each other and with God's Kingdom in heaven and earth:

> Colossians 1:20 - and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. (ESV)

It's peace with God for those for those who have faith in Jesus Christ:

> Romans 4:23-25,5:1-2 - But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (ESV)

It's peace for those who do good:

> Romans 2:9-11 - There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

> Matthew 12:12 - Of how much more value is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath. (ESV)

God trains us through discipline for holiness to behave righteously and the fruit of that yields peace:

> Hebrews 12:10-11 - For they disciplined us for a short time as it seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. (ESV)

So in resting from our works, we remain ready and prepared to do good works opportunistically (as they are given to us, as keeping a good conscience with God would require them to be done).

> Galatians 6:10 - So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

So the rest is resting with a faith that is still maintaining a genuine agape-love for God and for one's neighbour, especially their family in Christ. But so long as we are keeping Christ's law lawfully trusting in Him and loving one-another as He has commanded and demonstrated, we are permitted to rest and are not duty bound to perform tasks that are not within Christ's law.

Since God has prepared the good works for us to walk in, God is ultimately in control of dispensing these good works, as we receive them, walking in them faithfully, lovingly and obediently!

What resting from our works means is that maintaining our law-abiding obedience and good conscience with God takes priority over just doing things habitually or under constraint. It doesn't mean habitual or religious tasks are evil. It just means that we are allowed to rest in a law-abiding faith in Jesus, and that when religion tries to rob you of that rest, that's when religion is unhelpful.

Now, a law-abiding faith doesn't close their heart to a brother in need. A law-abiding faith is still ready and prepared to love our family in Christ in word and deed and truth. But like Paul says, if he has not love, such good works profit him nothing. The heart attitude of law-abiding love and the works that come from that heart are different things. So even when resting from one's works, we must retain the law-abiding love.

> I Corinthians 13:2 - And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love (26. agapé - treasuring, valuing love), I am nothing. (ESV)

So when we do rest from our works, it would be either because we have exhausted our current supply of good works, or because doing them would be unlawful (i.e. would be not done in faith, or not done in love). For example, if doing some "good deed" would at the same time break the 2 Great Commandments, then it would be unlawful.

And it's absolutely fine to continue doing good as a Christian. So resting from our works is not about ceasing to do good, it's just about having faith in / trusting in Christ. Having put our faith in Christ, we enter His rest. We want to do that obediently, putting down idols, etc. ("Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience"). We must not misconstrue doing good and obeying God as opposing the cross of Christ. But it's perfectly fine to work out (perform) our salvation, taking every thought captive for obedience to Christ, and arrive at the point where it's not burdensome to keep Christ's commandments:

> Luke 6:9-10 - And Jesus said to them, I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it? And after looking around at them all he said to him, Stretch out your hand. And he did so, and his hand was restored. (ESV)

> Hebrews 4:3 - For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said, As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest, although his works were finished from the foundation of the world. (ESV)

> Hebrews 4:8-10 - For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. (ESV)

We enter God's rest while we are believing in Christ. The day is today. Every day is the Sabbath:

> Hebrews 4:7-12 - again he appoints a certain day, Today, saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts. For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. (ESV)

We obey Jesus' commandments in faith and we persevere with that, striving to obey Jesus, striving to remain faithful to Jesus and at some point we enter rest which Jesus gives us. Our Master, Jesus, who we obey gives us the rest, and He gives it to us while we hold our faith in Him and abide in His commandments. OK so, living by total dependance on Jesus, giving yourself away to others, believing that Jesus will provide what we need as we continue trying to do the right thing by Jesus, can sometimes feel like living precariously when we lose faith, but it is not precarious. Like God providing manna in the wilderness to the Israelites and all the Israelites had to do was continue trusting and obeying God, and God provided what they needed, we too go through this phase where God is teaching us to depend on Him. But at some point we arrive in the "promised land" of rest as He sanctifies us and His commandments no longer feel burdensome. At some point, it starts to feel like not just trying to help others but now others helping us. We enter the promised land of God's rest together. That's how I think it generally works. But Jesus gives the rest, right? So there's no onus on us or command from Jesus to us to purposefully cease endeavouring to make spiritual sacrifices in order to enter this rest. As far as I understand, we continue obeying Jesus and Jesus grants the rest:

> Matthew 11:28-30 - Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (ESV)

The people who walked past the man dying on the street were resting in the way that the devil wants us to rest - i.e. to rest in sin. But Jesus has commanded us to do as the good Samaritan did. A person who takes the yoke of Jesus, keeps Jesus' commandments and at the point where they are no longer burdensome to us, we can know that we have come to know Him:

> Luke 10:25-37 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

> II John 1:4-7 - I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. (ESV)

> I John 5:2-3 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

This rest Jesus gives us involves taking Jesus' yoke, keeping His commandments and making spiritual sacrifices that are pleasing/acceptable to God like what the good Samaritan did:

> Matthew 11:27-30 - All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (ESV)

> II John 1:8-10 - Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

When we talk about 'merit' or 'credit', we were enabled to even be able to have merit in suffering for righteousness sake because Jesus bore our sins on the tree that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. 'Live to righteousness' means walking in the light, walking in love and truth, practicing works that please God, making spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. I Corinthians 13:1-8 says that without love (love that rejoices with the truth) we gain nothing. God loved us first and has chosen us to be a holy people for His possession, and we can now make spiritual sacrficies which God finds acceptable through Jesus Christ our Lord who we are holding faith in and who has loved us first, laying down His life for us first:

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

While trying to keep Jesus' commandments, and resist the lies deterring me from keeping Jesus' commandments (including to commandments to turn away from sin and to do as the good Samaritan does, and to have faith in Father God and in Him), the devil tries to deter me from obedience to Jesus. Other Christians, exclusively protestants, I have found, will say things like, "accept grace", "stop trying to work for your salvation, etc." and calling obedience to Jesus what I need to 'rest' from doing, etc. but missing the point in that my labouring isn't labouring in worldly ways, such as trying to get ahead in the "rat race" or to "keep investing my time and money and attention in the stock market until my money is supporting me", but, rather, it's labouring to resist sin and take every thought captive for obedience to Christ, as I do this the God of Peace will crush Satan under my feet. So the pressure from worldly / misinformed / 'disobedient' Christians does make it even more challenging to maintain Jesus' works.

> Jeremiah 23:32 - Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams, declares the LORD, and who tell them and lead my people astray by their lies and their recklessness, when I did not send them or charge them. So they do not profit this people at all, declares the LORD. (ESV)

So it's still extremely important for us to try to keep His commandments, and His commandments are to love God and one another as He loved us, selflessly.

> Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV)

And I wont stop following Jesus Christ until I know Him as personally as possible - I want His thoughts running through my mind like Father God's thoughts ran through His. Anything less than that and I am unsatisfied.

> I Corinthians 2:11-16 - For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (ESV)

> Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

Jesus knows us and we know Jesus:

> John 10:14 - I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, (ESV)

We must be keeping Jesus' commandments for us to be sure that we have come to know Him:

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him,

Jesus commands us to take His yoke (obey Him) and learn from Him (believe Him):

> Matthew 11:29 - Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. (ESV)

So receive the words of Jesus and the Apostles to know the thoughts of God inside your own mind:

> I Corinthians 2:11-14 - For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. (ESV)

We need to perform our salvation in obedience to God:

> Philippians 2:12 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out (G2716 katergazomai) your own salvation with fear and trembling, (ESV)

Jesus first made Paul His own, now Paul wants to press on to perfection/completion:

> Philippians 3:11-12 - that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

When it comes to be being saved to serve Christ, we can’t boast that in some way we earned salvation outside of God’s gift/grace:

> Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV)

> Romans 11:32 - For God has consigned all to disobedience (543. apeitheia - willful unbelief, obstinancy, disobedience), that he may have mercy on all. (ESV)

Let’s see what the word katergazomai (the word for ’work out’) means:

’Work out’ (G2716 katergazomai) means here to perform your salvation by work (which has yet still been gifted to us, and the salvation which we are performing is not the result of works) - so I think it’s more like ’walk’*’perform”*obey’ similarly to the Israelites through the Red Sea, but with respect to obeying the gospel, rather than ’work’ in any way that is not in obedience to the gospel:

gospel-of-grace-faq.josephprince.org: Is Philippians 2:12 telling us we need to work for our salvation? - Questions About the Gospel of Grace

If you have trusting faith in God then you will walk according to the will of God (walk the way Jesus Christ calls us to walk in obedience to Jesus, as a response of love to God in the knowledge He loved us first). Led by the Spirit = following Jesus.

> John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)

That's not working but it is walking and it is being obedient to Jesus. The Israelites through the Red Sea were being led by the Spirit - they were not working for God as they walked in obedience:

> Galatians 5:16-18 - But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

Obedience to Christ is walking by the Spirit. We walk "in" the flesh (in fleshly bodies) but walk "by" the Spirit and in obeying Christ we are walking "by" the Spirit:

> II Corinthians 10:3-6 - For though we walk in the flesh, we are not waging war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)

> Romans 8:3-5 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. (ESV)

And this walking in obedience to Christ "is" sowing to the Spirit:

> Galatians 6:8 - For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. (ESV)

Obeying Jesus', keeping Jesus' commandments and walking by the Spirit are not mutually exclusive. In fact, it's very important to realise that, having gone from serving things that are not God to serving God, serving Jesus, to be walking in obedience to Jesus is to be walking by the Spirit:

> John 6:63-64 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe. (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.) (ESV)

So I think trusting Jesus, obeying Jesus and believing Jesus' words, and believing in Him should be true simultaneously, because people misconstrue Jesus' words to their own destruction. Do we have to obey Christ? Yes we do. We must abide by His teaching:

> Matthew 7:13-16 - Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow (4728 stenos ie. narrow, small) and the way is hard (2346 thlibó - meaning: like when circumstances "rub us the wrong way" that make us feel confined (hemmed in); restricted to a "narrow" place) that leads to life, and those who find it are few. Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?

We are saved from doing evil deeds, and brought into the will of God. Our faith is tested. That sounds like the straight and narrow to me:

> I Peter 4:12-19 - Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. But let none of you > suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler. Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And If the righteous is scarcely saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner? Therefore let those who suffer according to God’s will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)

3.22.1 The Christian life is both gift and duty

Fighting sin is both a gift from God and a duty we act.

We have been given stewardship to exercise love that issues from a pure heart, good conscience and sincere faith, as Paul was given stewardship:

> I Timothy 1:4-5 - nor to devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies, which promote speculations rather than the stewardship (3622. oikonomia) from God that is by faith. The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

> Ephesians 3:2 - assuming that you have heard of the stewardship (3622. oikonomia) of God’s grace that was given to me for you, (ESV)

3622. oikonomia Usage: management of household affairs, stewardship, administration.

Increasing holiness is both a gift and a duty.

It is a gift of grace that we receive from Jesus and the way that we receive a gift that involves your thoughts, desires and behaviour is by having the thoughts, the desires and actions. It is a gift you live out, work out. It’s a ’$_{working}$ out_’ of the salvation that is free-grace.

3.22.2 Jesus’ obedience

I think that the ESV doesn’t translate this very well because Jesus really was something. I prefer ”emptied himself” as this appears to be more literally correct. See: interlinear.

> Philippians 2:7-9 - but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, (ESV)

> Philippians 2:7-9 - but emptied Himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to death— even death on a cross. Therefore God exalted Him to the highest place and gave Him the name above all names, (engbsb2020eb)

I actually that emptied Himself seems more accurate than ”made Himself of no reputation”.

> Philippians 2:7-9 - But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: (KJV)

Consider this passage. The meanings of the words really matter as to modern English readers, we would consider ”fame” and reputation to be very related:

> Matthew 4:24 - So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought him all the sick, those afflicted with various diseases and pains, those oppressed by demons, epileptics, and paralytics, and he healed them. (ESV)

For this reason, I would say that ”emptied Himself” might be more accurate.

3.22.3 Our following His example

How to grow in Christlikeness.

> Philippians 2:12-18 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. Do all things without grumbling or questioning, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all. Likewise you also should be glad and rejoice with me. (ESV)

We follow the one who obeyed and was rewarded.
We work out the salvation He worked for.

> Philippians 2:12 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, (ESV)

- We self-humblingly obey in joy for the reward.
- We self-humblingly obey to please our Father.

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

God's people no longer offer slaughtered animals, but we offer ourselves, all we are, our lives in obedience to Him. We are to practice personal holiness, putting a stop to sin, and living to serve God, and love one another:

> Romans 12:1 - I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. (ESV)

Do nothing from selfish-ambition or conceit:

> Philippians 2:3 - Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. (ESV)

Do all things without grumbling or disputing:

> Philippians 2:14 - Do all things without grumbling or questioning, (ESV)

It seems like we're saved (delivered) from (among other things):

- selfish ambition
- conceit
- grumbling
- [petty] disputing
- sin that leads to death

> Titus 3:1-7 - Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show perfect courtesy toward all people. For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

3.22.4 God working in us

God loved us first. We must accept that:

> I John 4:10-11 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. (ESV)
> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 5:21 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)
> Ephesians 4:32 - Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

When we are believing in Jesus Christ's finished work and obeying Jesus, obeying His commandments, it is actually God who is working in us, transforming us, sanctifying us, restoring us:

> Philippians 2:13 - for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Yet Not I, But Through Christ In Me - Selah ~ 1 Hour Lyric Video

We serve Christ:

> Matthew 25:40 - And the King will answer them, Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me. (ESV)
> Mark 9:37 - Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me. (ESV)

If a person serves Christ, this is not a dead works-based gospel, but is simply obeying the gospel. That person has been brought into obedience by the grace of God.

> II Peter 3:14-18 - Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. And count the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you according to the wisdom given him, as he does in all his letters when he speaks in them of these matters. There are some things in them that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist to their own destruction, as they do the other Scriptures. You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, take care that you are not carried away with the error of lawless people and lose your own stability. But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

We are supposed to then proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called us out of darkness into His marvelous light:

> I Peter 2:9 - But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (ESV)
> God is amazing. Because He made me born-again so I could come into a relationship with Him where I can truthfully say that I was stuck in my sin and God broke that sin off me through making me born-again, and has given me a new Spirit so I can walk in obedience to Him.

It's only possible through what Jesus Christ has achieved for us on the cross, because the blood of Jesus Christ redeems us as we abide in Him:

> Ephesians 1:7 - In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, (ESV)

Song Chris Tomlin - Holy Forever {Lyric Video} - YouTube

> Hebrews 12:28-29 - Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, for our God is a consuming fire. (ESV)

Even having faith in God through faith in Jesus is obedience according to Romans 16:26. If a person is trusting in Him when they die, they will live.

> Romans 16:26 - but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith — (ESV)

Also, faith in Jesus is obedience to Jesus, because we are instructed to hold the faith without partiality - that's faithfulness to God regarding seeking to do His will which includes obedience to His commandments:

> James 2:1 - My brothers, show no partiality as you hold the faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. (ESV)

The Apostle Paul says something similar. Faith is a matter of being accountable to God (Hebrews 4:12-13), even with respect to law-keeping (Romans 3:19):

> Romans 14:22 - The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. (ESV)

> Romans 3:19 - Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. (ESV)

> Hebrews 4:12-13 - For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account. (ESV)

Through faith to Jesus we are justified - that's believing obedience, accountable to God - so it's quite important to bear one another's burdens because Jesus, our Master, commanded us to do it. We keep accountable to God with what we believe/do in obedience to Him:

> Galatians 2:16 - yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified. (ESV)

We must go to Jesus to receive eternal life.
Our obedience is penitent, but our our justification doesn't hang on our perfection. Our obedience should also be without partiality.

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him,

Also I conclude that obeying Jesus Christ is having faith in Him.

3.22.5 God acts for those who wait for Him

God wants to be our strength. AMEN!!

What we should do now is acknowledge the LORD, keep our eyes on Jesus, and live godly lives (godliness is behaviour in accordance with the knowledge of God, believe the truth and walk in that truth, love the light, walk in the light, walk in the truth). Trust in the LORD to save us as we walk in the light (in obedience):

> Proverbs 3:5-6 - Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. (ESV)

God acts for those who wait for Him:

> Isaiah 64:4 - From of old no one has heard or perceived by the ear, no eye has seen a God besides you, who acts for those who wait for him. (ESV)

Also, waiting on the LORD our strength is renewed:

> Isaiah 40:31 - but they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint. (ESV)

We receive an anointing from God. God teaches us and we learn from it and abide in Him:

> I John 2:27 - But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything—and is true and is no lie, just as it has taught you—abide in him. (ESV)

God leads us into the truth:

> John 16:13 - When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. (ESV)

We should meditate on the word of God while holding our faith in Jesus Christ (while trusting and loving and obeying Jesus):

> II Timothy 2:7 - Think over what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything. (ESV)

In relying on dreams, and despising authority, rather than using reason, some speak evil of that which is glorious:

> Jude 1:8 - Yet in like manner these people also, relying on their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority, and blaspheme the glorious ones (G1391 doxas; glorious [ones]). (ESV)

In speaking evil of things they don't understand (getting it wrong), they get destroyed:

> Jude 1:10 - But these people blaspheme (G987 blasphēmousin; they speak evil of) all that they do not understand, and they are destroyed by all that they, like unreasoning animals, understand instinctively. (ESV)

This isn't saying that the devil is glorious. I believe it's saying that even Michael the archangel didn't presume to know exactly what the purpose of God was in this situation. It looks like Michael just knew that God knows everything and is Holy and if anyone can rebuke the devil justly, it's God:

> Jude 1:9 - But when the archangel Michael, contending with the devil, was disputing about the body of Moses, he did not presume to pronounce a blasphemous judgment, but said, The Lord rebuke you. (ESV)

We certainly should have the love of the truth in us, and be loving one-another in Christ as commanded as we are meditating on Scripture, because if we are walking in darkness then we wont be able to understand:

> I John 2:11-12 - But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his name's sake. (ESV)
> John 17:17 - Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. (ESV)
> Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Trusting and obeying Jesus' words and commandments, a person has life:

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)
> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)
> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

We walk the way in which Jesus walked to abide in Jesus' love:

> I John 2:6 - whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)
> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)
> I John 4:12 - No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)
> I John 4:16 - So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. (ESV)
> I John 4:15 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. (ESV)
> I John 3:14 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. (ESV)

> I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)

As we walk in the Spirit of Jesus, we are strengthened to walk as Jesus walked. We are ourselves empowered to walk as Jesus walked thanks to Jesus' own endurance, and that is unlocked by having believing, obedient, trusting, following faith in Jesus where we are being led by His Spirit, and are walking by His Spirit:

> Hebrews 12:1-3 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. (ESV)

> Philippians 4:13 - I can do all things through him who strengthens me. (ESV)

God provides the strength by which we do service to Him so that Jesus may be glorified and God may be glorified through Jesus:

> I Peter 4:11 - Whoever speaks, is to do so as one who is speaking the utterances of God; whoever serves is to do so as one who is serving by the strength which God supplies; so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. (NASB)

God literally helps us if we ask Him for help:

> Psalms 46:1-3 - God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. To the choirmaster. Of the Sons of Korah. According to Alamoth. A Song. Therefore we will not fear though the earth gives way, though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble at its swelling. Selah (ESV)

See how we obey Him and he helps us:

> I John 3:21-23 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

As obedient children of God we ask God in prayer and if it's according to His will He hears us and he grants us our requests:

> I Peter 1:14 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, (ESV)

> I John 5:14-15 - And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of him. (ESV)

But we must forgive:

> Mark 11:24-25 - Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. (ESV)

Polycarp 6:2 If then we entreat the Lord that He would forgive us, we also ought to forgive: for we are before the eyes of our Lord and God, and we must all stand at the judgment-seat of Christ, and each man must give an account of himself.

If God is for us, who can be against us?

Romans 8:31 - What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Everlasting God

Psalms 68:5 - Father of the fatherless and protector of widows is God in his holy habitation. (ESV)

Psalms 82:3-4 - Give justice to the weak and the fatherless; maintain the right of the afflicted and the destitute. Rescue the weak and the needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked. (ESV)

3.22.6 The free gift is God - God is the Gospel

The Gospel includes:

- God as Creator, King of the world
- Jesus' Reign as King
- God's Kingdom coming through the arrival of God's Son
- Jesus giving his life as a ransom for sinners

0 min 31 sec And if we ask, "How much did various people understand in order to be saved?" Because people were saved by the death of Christ before the death of Christ. We know that from Romans 3:25. The best way to answer that question, I think, is to say people generally embraced Christ with very different levels of understanding and whether that initial faith was real and saving (with its imperfect understanding), whether or not it was real was proved by whether or not a person kept on embracing the gospel as more and more of it was revealed to them. And I think that's exactly the way it is today.

Luke 2:10-11 - And the angel said to them, Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. (ESV)

Romans 3:25 - whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. (ESV)

We get out of the way everything that is an obstacle to enjoying God when we are forgiven. AMEN:

Ephesians 1:7 - In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, (ESV)

Colossians 1:14 - in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

youtube.com: The Gospel Is Jesus Christ - Bishop Barron's Sunday Sermon {@BishopBarron} So by the gospel, he meant Jesus' great ethical teaching to to love, especially the poor and the marginalized. And he indeed was a man of great commitment to social justice. So that's what he meant by the gospel. But that's not the gospel. That's an ethical implication of the gospel. This is again many years ago. I was in a a Protestant Catholic dialogue and the challenge given to us by the moderator (who was a Protestant) was I want each one around the table to say what's the gospel? So my Protestant interlocators, most of them did a version of the gospel, "Is justification by grace through faith. That's the good news. You know, the great message of of of Romans and Galatians, justification by grace through faith." Well, that indeed is Luther's interpretation of Paul. And whatever you say about the relationship between, you know, faith and works and all that. May I suggest that's not the gospel. That's a doctrinal implication of the gospel. Now, I'm saying this because of this passage. Listen to Paul, the first great evangelizer, should know what he's talking about. Remember Jesus Christ raised from the dead, a descendant of David. Such is my gospel. What's the gospel, everybody? It's Jesus. And that's the answer, by the way, I gave around the table that day when they said, "Well, what's the gospel?" I said, "Jesus Christ, he's the good news. He's the glad tidings. Jesus himself." Mind you, I've said it before, but it it bears repeating. Christianity is not a philosophy. It's not a set of ideas. It's not a "noble spiritual path." It's not a spirituality. It might be all those things by a kind of implication. Christianity is a relationship to Jesus. It's about him. It's about him. Not primarily his moral teachings. All that's great and it follows from him. But the gospel is Jesus.

> II Timothy 2:8 - Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, the offspring of David, as preached in my gospel, (ESV)

3.22.7 God the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus - the righteousness of God apart from the law is received by faith

> Romans 3:21-26 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

3.22.8 The point of justification - we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God, and we are transformed

Sermon John Piper: God is the Gospel - YouTube @time: 40 min 42 sec

> Romans 5:1-2 - Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (ESV)

We rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. That's the point of justification. Who cares if we are righteous. We don't want to be God - we want to see the glory of God. But we want to be ready for it, walking righteously:

> Luke 17:22-27,30 - And he said to the disciples, The days are coming when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. And they will say to you, Look, there! or Look, here! Do not go out or follow them. For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day. But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. Just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of Man. They were eating and drinking and marrying and being given in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. so will it be on the day when the Son of Man is revealed. (ESV)

> Luke 21:33-36 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth. But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man. (ESV)

The reason we want to be righteous is so we get God. We don't get put in hell.

> John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

Not only are we able to behold the glory of God, but we are transformed!

> II Corinthians 3:18 - And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)

3.22.9 Why do we want to live righteously? To honour Christ

We want to honour/exalt/magnify Christ in our lives, to trust Him, honour Him, believe His promises, and even faithfully wait/hold to those promises, and even want others to see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ who is the image of God:

> Philippians 1:20-21 - According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. (KJV)

> II Corinthians 4:4 - In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. (ESV)

> John 14:9 - Jesus said to him, Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, Show us the Father? (ESV)

We want to obey God, and we will be transformed in this life:

There's a lot in the Bible to explain what is the revealed will of God. Continuing on in discerning the will of God we should have a renewed mind. We should obey Jesus:

youtube.com: How Do We Know the Will of God? | John Piper Clip {@desiringGod} The Bible does not tell you which person to marry, or whether to marry. The Bible does not tell you which car to drive, or buy, rent. The Bible doesn't tell you whether to buy a home or not which home to buy. [The] Bible doesn't tell you which brand of orange juice to drink. There are 10,000 decisions you must make that are not explicitly addressed in the Bible so what do you do? If you want to obey the will of command my answer is you must have a renewed mind. That's what the text says.

> Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

We end up thinking in a similar fashion to Jesus:

> I Corinthians 2:16 - For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (ESV)

We're must be lawful to Christ (abiding in the 'law of Christ'). Though we don't commend ourselves for doing this. We should normally be doers of Christ's law. What's not done in faith is sin, after all. And whoever has no love for Christ has a curse upon them. And whoever hates their brother who they have seen can't love God who they have not seen. So our duty and normal walk should be doing Christ's commandments such as to have faith in Him and to love one another as He commanded:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of (G1772 ennomos; lawful to, law-abiding to, in the law of) Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

The word "ennomos" used in I Cor 9:21 for being "law-abiding" is closely related to the word "onnomō" which is used in Acts 19:39:

> Acts 19:39 - But if you want anything beyond this, it shall be settled in the lawful (G1772 ennomō lawful) assembly (G1577 ekklēsia; assembly). (NASB)

i.e. "settled in the legal / assembly / law-abiding assembly / lawful assembly".

Doing the will of God is what it means to be led by the Spirit. So you have to do the will of God, being a servant of Christ, lawful (law-abiding) to Christ, to Christ' commandments, to have the blessing of not being condemned by the law of Moses:

> Psalms 143:10 - Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! (ESV)

And have communion with God:

> Revelation of John 3:4 - Yet you have still a few names in Sardis, people who have not soiled their garments, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. (ESV) youtube.com: Are There Some Things In The Bible That Christians Shouldn't Know? - Michael Heiser Jesus said, "You have seen me. If you've seen me, you've seen the Father." And that's what we're supposed to do. We're supposed to be disciples of Jesus, follow him, and we will be conformed to His image, and He is the ultimate imager of God. Being a disciple is imaging God. You know, Jesus is our example, but that little subject has an important long history in the Old Testament. We talked about the the command, "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain" yesterday." We think that that refers to verbal abuse and misuse of God's name. And again, that's bad, but that isn't actually what the command means. The word "take", here we go back to Hebrew. The word [thou shalt not] 'take' [the name of the Lord thy God in vain]. Take there is)H5375 'nāśā', pronounciation: naw-saw'), which means to lift up, to support, to carry, to bear, like in bearing a burden. So the idea is don't bear the name of the Lord in a worthless manner in vain. See what does it mean to bear the name? If you're an employee of a company, you already know what it means. You bear the name of that company, you're that company's representative. If you're, you know, just a schmuck or something, then you know, somebody's going to meet you and this person treated me bad and so that company's bad. I mean, they're going to transfer the experience to the thing that is named. And that's the same thing that that that these commands are talking about. The New Testament equivalent is kind of the verse that Paul gives Timothy in second Timothy where he says, "Let everyone who names the name of Christ depart from iniquity." You bear the name. You represent the thing named. And that's really what the command is about. So again, all of these things are are have an Old Testament backdrop.

> Psalms 102:15 - Nations will fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth will fear your glory. (ESV)

> Proverbs 8:13 - The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate. (ESV)

I do agree with what Michael Heiser has said about bearing God's name. I think that breaking the commandment also involves declaring God's name in vain. Taking the Lord's name in vain involves using it in vain.

> Matthew 6:9 - Pray then like this: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. (ESV)

> Psalms 113:2 - Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and forevermore! (ESV)

3.23 Saved not by my own works done outside of Him but by His work

A thought If Jesus, your Lord, asked you to buy an icecream for someone to cheer them up, and then you obediently buy them an icecream, giving the glory to Jesus, then could it be said that it was Jesus who bought the icecream? Or could it be said that that work was done in Christ?

Not of our own works means not of works done outside of Jesus. Good works are works which are done out of faith, out of trusting obedience to His will.

> Romans 15:17 - In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God. (ESV)

When Clement says 'justified by works', he's talking about being justified by faith working through love, doing the law of God by doing the law (commandments) of Christ such as to love one another as He has loved us:

1Clem 30:3 Let us therefore cleave unto those to whom grace is given from God. Let us clothe ourselves in concord, being lowlyminded and temperate, holding ourselves aloof from all back biting and evil speaking, being justified by works and not by words.

1Clem 32:3 They all therefore were glorified and magnified, not through themselves or their own works or the righteous doing which they wrought, but through His will.

> Romans 2:12-13 - For all who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. (ESV)

Yes, I believe that Jesus Christ has paid the price in full for me to be saved, and that is surely what I am leaning on. The price has been paid in full for me to be saved.

We are slaves to Christ and no other. We're not slaves to sin, we're not slaves to law, we're not slaves to men:

> I Corinthians 6:19-20 - Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:23 - You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. (ESV)

> II Peter 2:1 - But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. (ESV)

We still do not want to allow sin to reign in our bodies. We're dead to sin, and alive to God, we've been set free from sin and now we must let Jesus reign in our bodies. We must go on obeying Christ Jesus, and not obeying sin:

> Romans 6:6-7 - We know that our old self was crucified with Him so that the body of sin might be rendered powerless, that we should no longer be slaves to sin. For anyone who has died has been freed from sin. (engbsb2020eb)

> Genesis 4:7 - If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is for you, but you must rule over it. (ESV)

> Romans 6:11-12 - So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. (ESV)

Yes, I am having faith in Jesus Christ of Nazareth as the Messiah, who paid the price for my sin. It's continuing to live by faith in Jesus:

> Galatians 2:20 - I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. (ESV)

As we hold faith in Jesus, we continue to work for the Lord. Price paid in full doesn't mean going back to being a slave to sin. Price paid in full means Jesus bought us and we're slaves/bondservants to Jesus now:

> Colossians 3:23-25 - Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality. (ESV)

Not by my works done outside of Him am I saved. He bought me. He will save me from the wrath of God. I continue to have faith in Him and serve and obey Him:

> Romans 5:9 - Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. (ESV)

By grace I am saved, through faith. The works that I do were prepared for me in advance that I should walk in them.

> Ephesians 2:8-10 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them. (ESV)

Through faith in Jesus Christ, Jesus dwells in our hearts. We are able to better comprehend the love of Christ while we are rooted and grounded in love:

> Ephesians 3:14-21 - For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

We must continue to hold our faith in Jesus,. We are saved to perpetually trust, believe, love and obey God:

> Romans 11:17-23 - But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, although a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing root of the olive tree, do not be arrogant toward the branches. If you are, remember it is not you who support the root, but the root that supports you. Then you will say, Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in. That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:2 - and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

We want to abide in God's love through following Jesus' commandments, and then nothing can separate us from His love. Remember it's nothing in creation (that excludes God Himself because God is not 'created') that can separate us from God's love:

> I Thessalonians 3:8 - For now we live, if you are standing fast in the Lord. (ESV)

> Romans 11:20-23 - That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. (ESV)

> Romans 8:36-39 - As it is written, For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered. No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

> John 15:4-7 - Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me. I am the vine and you are the branches. The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For apart from Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in Me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers. Such branches are gathered up, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you remain in Me and My words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (engbsb2020eb)

Worldly wisdom says you don't need to keep Jesus' commandments to abide in Him. That is because the world cannot receive Holy Spirit.

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

The world who does not love the Truth, and does not agree with Jesus cannot accept this teaching from Him. But God's wisdom says, like in Romans 2, that peace goes to those who do good.

> Romans 2:9-11 - There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

The issue is, though, that although God's law is correct when it says that we reap what we sow, a person in their time on the earth may not reap all that is due for their faith and for their works, but will reap the rest of what is coming for them at judgement upon/after they die or at the close of the age:

> Hebrews 11:39-40 - And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. (ESV)
> Acts 24:14-16 - But this I confess to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the Law and written in the Prophets, having a hope in God, which these men themselves accept, that there will be a resurrection of both the just and the unjust. So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man. (ESV)
> John 5:28-29 - Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment. (ESV)
> Matthew 13:30-39 - Let both grow together until the harvest, and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn. He put another parable before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field. It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown it is larger than all the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches. He told them another parable. The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened. All these things Jesus said to the crowds in parables; indeed, he said nothing to them without a parable. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet: I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter what has been hidden since the foundation of the world. Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples came to him, saying, Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field. He answered, The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. (ESV)

Now when a person has faith that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and has faith in His death and His resurrection, then they will naturally be persecuted while in this world if they also strive to love as commanded according to the law. If someone is actively striving to adhere to Christ's commandments without willfully breaking any of them, whilst holding their faith in the blood of Jesus Christ then the world is going to hate them. That is because "All who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted" and because the world cannot receive Holy Spirit.

As we hold our faith in Jesus Christ's finished work we still continue to obey God and repent from sin and are sanctified into better obedience, better faith, better obedience of faith. We must get rid of the idols. Holiness is important.

When we believe God's word given through Jesus, we have passed from death to life. We should definitely then listen to Jesus to see what He has actually spoken.

We must be slaves of Christ, not slaves of sin, in order to abide forever in Him:

> John 8:34-36 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)

So what do we mean by "salvation"? In my understanding it's to be saved to continue in the knowledge of Jesus and Father God forever (if anyone claims to know Jesus but do not follow His commandments, they are a liar), believing the gospel, trusting His Word and obeying God. Abide in love. The one who abides in love abides in God. Important in defining what love is is that God loved us first by sending His Son to be propitiation for our sin. So the gospel and finished works of Christ is the cornerstone but we must not put Christ to the test. We must forsake idols, etc. follow God's commandments. We should be growing in holiness, and being sanctified, and we should be getting closer to Jesus, not futher away. We must continue trusting and obeying Jesus:

> I Corinthians 10:7-12 - Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. (ESV)

> John 17:1-3 - When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

> Acts 10:43 - To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name. (ESV)

I believe that former sins are forgiven when we trust in His name, but that we must walk in the light, in the truth, confessing sin and loving one another (particularly our family in Christ) as He commanded for Jesus' blood to continue cleaning us. Jesus is our High Priest Advocating for us as we do this.

> II Peter 1:9 - For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. (ESV)

> I John 1:7-10 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

We obey the Law by obeying Jesus first and foremost. Serving Jesus we are able to fulfill the requirement of the law, so it's not lawlessness:

> Romans 7:4 - Likewise, my brothers, you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. (ESV)

youtube.com: John Piper and Tim Keller Wrestle with Sanctification {@desiringGod} @time: 2 min 9 se

> I think Walder Marshall's The Gospel Mystery of Sanctification says it this way, that "you need the comforts of the Gospel in order to fulfill the law". So that's pretty much what I would say too.

We've got to follow Jesus to walk in the light:

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

> I John 1:6-10 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

We must love our family in Christ:

> I John 3:13-17 - Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)

For eternal salvation it's still vitally important to be getting holy trusting the gospel. The one who practices righteousness is obeying Jesus (obeying righteousness) while holding faith in the finished works of Christ (trusting in His righteousness). We must practice righteousness:

> Romans 6:20-23 - When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-7 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)

It's vitally important for the believer to abide in love, abide in God, and love comes from God.

> I John 4:15-16 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. (ESV)

It's also vitally important for the believer for their eternal security to love our family in Christ:

> Psalms 139:20-21 - They speak against you with malicious intent; your enemies take your name in vain! Do I not hate (H6962. quwt, loathe) those who hate you, O LORD? And do I not loathe those who rise up against you? (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

> I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:15 - Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-19 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. (ESV)

I want to make a distinction between simply ”works” (which may be dead, not done in faith) and obedience. There are things such as loving our family in Christ and forgiving them, or not withholding from helping their family in Christ who is in need which is obedience to God which is not dead works. For example, if I choose to not lie to one another that isn't a work.

> I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)

> Romans 13:8 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (ESV)

We're saved to live like this.

Could receiving ”one such child in Jesus Christ's name” be regarded as a work that is trusting in oneself apart from Christ? No, because trusting Jesus is obeying Jesus and obeying Jesus is trusting Jesus. Trusting and obeying Jesus are not mutually exclusive:

> Mark 9:37 - Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me. (ESV)

> John 13:20 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever receives the one I send receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. (ESV)

I personally believe that we cooperate with God for ”salvation”. i.e. reception is obedience is working with God. I.e. faith and obedience are not mutually exclusive, but ”obedience” shouldn't be misconstrued with Mosaic-law-keeping:

> II Corinthians 5:21-6:1 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. (ESV)

> Matthew 10:40 - Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. (ESV)

We believe him and that's not our work but God's work.

> John 6:28-29 - Then they said to him, What must we do, to be doing the works of God? Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him whom he has sent. (ESV)

God wants to bring people to the obedience of faith. We have to hear Jesus' word and believe God who sent Him - we have to believe what God has told Jesus to tell us:

> Luke 9:35 - And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my Son, my Chosen One; listen to him! (ESV)

Listening to Jesus, we are already obeying the will of God, who commanded us to listen to Him:

> Romans 10:14-21 - But how are they to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news! But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us? So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ. But I ask, have they not heard? Indeed they have, for Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world. But I ask, did Israel not understand? First Moses says, I will make you jealous of those who are not a nation; with a foolish nation I will make you angry. Then Isaiah is so bold as to say, I have been found by those who did not seek me; I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me. But of Israel he says, All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people. (ESV)

God does work in us when we put our trust in Him, when we trust and obey His Word.

3.23.1 Under the right conditions, I don't see a problem with 'working' for God

The motivation has to be right. We do work for God to honour God, and as a response to Him loving us first, and as a response of love for Him forgiving us first, and giving us the gift of eternal life.

We are instructed to work for God:

> II John 1:8 - Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. (ESV)

In believing in Jesus, we are guaranteed an inheritance in heaven:

> Ephesians 1:13,14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)

The inheritance is in heaven:

> I Peter 1:4 - to obtain an inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, (ESV)

We work for the Lord while believing in Jesus:

> Colossians 3:23-25 - Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality. (ESV)

So once again, we are actually instructed to work for God, but it's not wrong under the right conditions:

> Hebrews 6:10 - For God is not so unjust as to overlook your work and the love that you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do. (ESV)

All the Apostle Paul is saying here, I think is that in ”working for God” doesn’t imply you have accepted a gift. But, yes, you can accept the gift (believe in Jesus) and under that condition work for God:

> Romans 4:4 - Now to the one who works, his wages are not counted as a gift but as his due. (ESV)

We still really do need to accept the free gift!

It’s imperative, no matter how much we’ve been attempting to work for God, that we accept the free gift from God, and that does require at least some point at which we have rested/abstained from working while holding faith in Jesus Christ while ceasing from working altogether. In holding faith in Jesus while abstaining from working in a legitimate way (i.e. in a way that is obedient to God as opposed to abstaining from working in a way that is committing sin as a ”sin of omission” - see James 4:17), while acknowledging their ungodliness (their sin) one receives the gift of righteousness:

> Romans 4:5-8 - And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin. (ESV)

Yes, we must turn from our wicked ways to obey God - absolutely!:

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ’s teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

The free gift is eternal life in Christ Jesus, our Lord:

> Romans 6:20-23 - When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

After believing in Jesus, we must turn from our wicked ways and serve God:

> Luke 6:46-49 - Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

Jesus is the definitive Son of God. But we may be adopted as sons through faith in Jesus:

> John 1:14 - And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:26-29 - for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise. (ESV)

Jesus has literally taught people that that if we love our enemies, do good and lend, expecting nothing in return we will be rewarded and be sons of the Most High. This shows that obedience to Jesus is just part of having faith in Jesus:

> Luke 6:35-36 - But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)

The prophets, saints, and servants of Jesus will be rewarded:

> Revelation of John 11:18 - The nations raged, but your wrath came, and the time for the dead to be judged, and for rewarding your servants, the prophets and saints, and those who fear your name, both small and great, and for destroying the destroyers of the earth. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:12-14 - We ask you, brothers, to respect those who labor among you and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, and to esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves. And we urge you, brothers, admonish the idle, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all. (ESV)

I just want to be clear that good works we do in obedience to Jesus are still considered a gift to us. We work out what God has worked for. It's even a gift to be in position of being able to do good works in service to Jesus after He has washed us:

> Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV)
> - Eph 2:8 - For by grace you have been saved through faith (G4102 pistis); and that not of yourselves, it is the gift (G1435 doron) of God; (NASB)
> - Eph 2:9 - not as a result of works (G2041 ergon), so that no one may boast. (NASB)
> - Eph 2:10 - For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works (G2041 ergon), which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them. (NASB)

:  1435  doron  do'-ron

 a present; specially, a sacrifice:--gift, offering.

 from a primary (but obsolete) ergo (to work); toil (as an effort or occupation); by implication, an act:--deed, doing, labour, work.

Work being done by God in us to sanctify us and bring us fruit for everlasting life is work done in faith:

> Romans 6:22 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. (ESV)

> Matthew 3:8 - Bear fruit in keeping with repentance. (ESV)

We must be abiding in Jesus to produce fruit, and that means we must have faith in Jesus:

> John 15:4 - Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. (ESV)

OK, so we should confess (G3670 homologeó) that Jesus is the Son of God and continue obeying Him in faith:

> I John 4:15 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. (ESV)

So the problem isn't work (even work relating to salvation) but the problem is work that is not done in faith (i.e. dead work).

> Hebrews 6:1 - Therefore let us leave the elementary doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, (ESV)

> Philippians 3:9 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith — (ESV)

I think that the breastplate of righteousness (breastplate of faith and love) depends on faith and love. To love God and our neighbour is our duty:

> I Thessalonians 5:8 - But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. (ESV)

> Ecclesiastes 12:13 - The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. (ESV)

> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to (G3784 opheilei; ought to, obligated to, has a duty to) walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

> Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)

Everything we do should be done in faith in Jesus Christ, trusting, hoping in, obeying Jesus Christ:

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

Everything that we do should be done in real agape love for God and our neighbour and family in Christ, in love for the Truth:

> I Corinthians 16:14 - Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)

> Matthew 22:37-40 - And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.

Everything we do shuold be to the glory of God:

> I Corinthians 10:31 - So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. (ESV)

Persevere to lack in nothing. This perseverance is done in faith:

> James 1:2-4 - Consider it pure joy, my brothers, when you encounter trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance. Allow perseverance to finish its work, so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything. (engbsb2020eb)

The faith Paul talks about is faith towards God. The faith towards God believes God and believes Jesus:

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> I believe that anyone who trusts (is trusting) in the Lord Jesus Christ for their salvation, even they have no works, but only a trusting heart, believing what Jesus said, and putting their hope in Jesus for their salvation, repentant and willing to obey (obedient), theoretically are to be in Christ if God does it. I consider that obedience to Jesus and turning away from sin is essential to be found in Him. If someone dies while trusting in Him they will live. If someone trusts in Him while they live they will never die.

3.24 Eternal security for those who follow Jesus

Sermon Eternal Security - Charles Spurgeon Sermon - YouTube @time: 25 min 13 sec

> At the stage they trust in Jesus, they may have no work but I believe at that stage they are justified, when in their heart is obedient, trusting, believing faith in Christ who is their life. But I'm not the one to justify them, God is. And I assume that Jesus knows who those people are - He knows that they are His sheep, and that Father God draws those people to Him. And when they go through Jesus Christ, the door, they are saved.
> I believe that if a person trusts and believe on God in their heart, believing that they need saving and that Jesus Christ is their Lord and that Jesus Christ died for their transgressions and was raised for their justification - that they have a hearing heart and a heart that follows Him - that they will be saved.

I simply see no enmity between trusting God for justification through the finished work of the cross by Jesus Christ and trusting God by obeying Jesus Christ. I believe that is a false dichotomy. While faith alone saves, I believe that both belief and obedience (willingness to do the will of God) are intrinsic qualities of faith. God justifies the one who places their faith in Jesus. Having faith in Jesus looks like believing Him and obeying Him. Faith in Jesus looks like trusting Jesus. Therefore, I just focus on trusting Jesus in belief and obedience, and assume God is taking care of the justification issue.

Talk Believing Loving and Obeying and abiding in the presence of the Holy Spirit - YouTube

We want Jesus, so we should treasure Jesus:

> Psalms 37:4 - Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:21 - For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. (ESV)

Jesus must be our number 1 heart's desire. If we treasure Jesus and His words and deeds, and are obediently turning from our sin, confessing sin as sin and confessing our sin as sin as we go along (i.e. we are being corrected by obedience to the Truth, walking in the light), then we should not feel unworthy to be able to come to church. If we admit we are great sinners in need of a great Saviour with an attitude of love for Jesus, then you'd be amongst fellow believers who also know they are great sinners in need of a great Saviour with an attitude of love for Jesus:

> Matthew 10:37 - Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. (ESV)
> Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

God wants Him to be our treasure. We must obey Jesus and Jehovah Jireh will provide:

> Job 22:23-26 - If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored. If you remove injustice from your tents and consign your gold to the dust and the gold of Ophir to the stones of the ravines, then the Almighty will be your gold and the finest silver for you. Surely then you will delight in the Almighty and lift up your face to God. (engbsb2020eb)

We must love Jesus by keeping His commandments:

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

If we treasure Jesus, and make Jesus our number 1 heart's desire, we will be able to keep Jesus' commandments:

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

We must give ourselves first to the Lord Jesus:

> II Corinthians 8:3-5 - For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own free will, begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints— and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us. (ESV)

And following Jesus' commandments we will love one another:

> John 13:34-35 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (ESV)

3.25 Assurance of salvation

For full assurance, do all the will of God for you (I Thessalonians 5:18).

The will of God:

- Arrive at maturity and fully assured in all the will of God

  - We must look at what all of the will of God is for us and endeavour to be mature and fully assured with all of it
    - Colossians 4:12 - Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always struggling on your behalf in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God. (ESV)

- Have faith in Jesus Christ
  - John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)
  - Continuing to have faith in Jesus:
    - John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on (G2334 theōrōn; is beholding; V-PPA-NMS) the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)
    - II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)
    - John 20:24-30 - Now Thomas, one of the Twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into his side, I will never believe. Eight days later, his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, Peace be with you. Then he said to Thomas, Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe. Thomas answered him, My Lord and my God! Jesus said to him, Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed. Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; (ESV)
    - Luke 24:25 - And he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! (ESV)
    - John 6:35-45,53-69 - Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe. All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. So the Jews grumbled about him, because he said, I am the bread that came down from heaven. They said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, I have come down from heaven? Jesus answered them, Do not grumble among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not as the fathers ate and died. Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever. Jesus said these things in the synagogue, as he taught at Capernaum.

    When many of his disciples heard it, they said, This is a hard saying; who can listen to it? But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were grumbling about this, said to them, Do you take offense at this? Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe. (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.) And he said, This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father. After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him. So Jesus said to the Twelve, Do you want to go away as well? Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, and we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God. (ESV)

- Be transformed by the renewal of your mind
  - Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)
  - We must take every thought captive to be obedient to Christ
    - II Corinthians 10:5-6 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)
  - We want our mind to be the mind of Christ
    - I Corinthians 2:16 - For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (ESV)
- Be a servant of Christ
  - Ephesians 6:6 - not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, (ESV)
- Give thanks in all circumstances
  - I Thessalonians 5:18 - give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. (ESV)
  - Ephesians 5:17-21 - Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. (ESV)
- Abstain from evil
  - I Thessalonians 4:3-8 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you. (ESV)

  - Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)
  - I Thessalonians 5:20-23 - Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. Abstain from every form of evil. Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)
  - Romans 13:10 - Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

- Die to sin and produce good from a love for the truth, enduring while suffering unjustly
  - I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)
  - I Peter 4:12-19 - Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. But let none of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler. Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And If the righteous is scarcely saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner? Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)
  - I Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)
  - Romans 8:3-4 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)
  - I John 3:3-11 - And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

  - Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)
  - I Corinthians 16:13-14 - Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)

The servant who is disobedient to God will receive a beating:

> Luke 12:47 - And that servant who knew his master's will but did not get ready (G2090 hetoimasas; having prepared) or act (G4160 poiēsas; having done) according to his will, will receive a severe beating. (ESV)

Holding faith in Jesus while going through suffering is sanctifying. Obeying Jesus while going through suffering is sanctifying. Suffering in and of itself is not sanctifying.

youtube.com: Jim Carrey Delivers Powerful Speech About Jesus , Suffering & Forgiveness { MUST WA

> Base your forgiveness on what God has done for you, rather than on what the person has done to you. ... When I realise how much I've been forgiven, how can I not forgive you?

Sanctification is always salvific because sanctification is by faith in Jesus (Acts 16:31, Acts 26:16-18) and by obedience to Jesus Christ (I Peter 1:22) and both faith and obedience to Jesus Christ is to do with salvation (Hebrews 5:9).

If a person by faith in Jesus Christ keeps His instruction to "not worry about tomorrow", for example, while enduring suffering, that is sanctifying. If Jesus instructed it then to keep the instruction by faith in Jesus Christ while enduring suffering is sanctifying:

> Matthew 6:30-34 - But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble. (ESV)

However, it is very important to continue abiding in the teaching of Christ which includes walking according to His commandments:

> II John 1:1-11 - The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all who know the truth, because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever: Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love. I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him takes part in his wicked works. (ESV)

> II Timothy 4:1-4 - I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. (ESV)

> John 15:4-7 - Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (ESV)

Jesus' sacrifice is propitiation for sin (I Peter 2:24).

youtube.com: Why Most Christians Misunderstand Sin and Animal Blood Sacrifices - Michael Heiser {©

> ”Take this bird, take this animal, do this and that and you will be ’cleansed from your sin’”... The Hebrew word for sin and ”sin offering” (H2402 chattaah; sin, sin offering) in many circumstances has nothing to do with moral violation. It actually refers to being decontaminated. And it's about doing something to the person to decontaminate them so that they don't contaminate sacred space. All these rituals weren't about curing moral violation. If you committed a moral offence, an abomination, there's no sacrifice for you. You're either put to death or exiled from the community. So the writer of Hebrews actually knows what he was talking about:

And thus we are actually able to love properly because we can be healed by Jesus from moral sin to not practice them anymore:

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

Then we arrive at having done the will of God for us, to the salvation of our souls:

> Hebrews 10:36-39 - For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:6-9 - In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (ESV)

> Mark 3:35 - Whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother. (ESV)

We must receive Jesus, come to Jesus and believe His words, and endeavour to keep His commandments, loving one another in Christ:

> John 5:39-47 - You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life. I do not receive glory from people. But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you: Moses, on whom you have set your hope. If you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words? (ESV)

> John 6:35-41 - Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe. All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. So the Jews grumbled about him, because he said, I am the bread that came down from heaven. (ESV)

We come to Jesus by faith obeying Him from the heart:

> Hebrews 11:8 - By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. (ESV)

> Matthew 14:28-29 - And Peter answered him, Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water. He said, Come. So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. (ESV)

- Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God
- everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments

> I John 5:1-6 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ; not by the water only but by the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. (ESV)

The Apostle John delivers I John 5 to his audience (and to us) that we can have assurance of eternal life. Receiving Jesus, accepting the gospel and keeping God's commandments given through Jesus certainly should give us assurance of our salvation. God's testimony is greater. We must believe the Gospel.

> I John 5:9-13 - If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God that he has borne concerning his Son. Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

II Corinthians 6:1,6:16-18,7:1 - Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV) web.sermonaudio.com: DTBM - body, soul and spirit - Dr. John Barnett The reason we're supposed to keep clean and not let our flesh and spirit get defiled is that God made a promise. He says, "I'm going to dwell in you. I'm going to walk among you. I'm going to be your God. You're going to be my people." And this is what we're supposed to do, verse 17: "Come out from among them, be separate. Don't touch what is unclean and I will receive you. I will be a Father to you. You'll be my sons and daughters," says the Lord Almighty. Boy, that is about the most assuring verse in the Bible. God says, I'm gonna live in you. I'm your father, you're my children. You're going to know and go through life knowing that you belong to me and that I live within you and you're never alone and I'm always with you and all that stuff. What happens if you don't obey the "don't touch what is unclean" part, verse 17? You lose that assurance.

3.26 Some indicators to know for sure you are saved and being saved

Talk This is how you can know for SURE that you are saved | Assurance of Salvation | Kaci Nicole - YouTube @time: 12 min 59 sec

For assurance of salvation, here's some indicators:

- Trust in Jesus. Pursuaded by Jesus Christ
  - Believe that He is the Messiah and Son of God
- Humility. Broken over their sin, and grateful by what Jesus has done.
  - A change of heart like the example of the repentant thief (Read: Matt 27:43-44 and Luke 23:39-43).
    - the repentant thief had come to a place of humility and fear of God
    - he had an awareness of his own sin and the reality of judgement
    - he knew that it was only by Jesus, not by his own works that he could be saved
    - he affirmed the Lordship and deity of Christ
  - A hatred of one's own sin
  - Accepted forgiveness from God
- Treasuring and valuing Jesus and His words
- Obedience to Jesus
  - Passing forward forgiveness and mercy to others
- That you have kept the faith despite trials and testing
  - What I mean by this is that confidence grows as you go through trials
- Receiving the Spirit of God

- Believing the testimony that God has borne of His Son (Read: I John 5:9-13 and Hebrews 6:17-20)
- Treasuring our family in Christ (Read: I John 3:14-20)
  - It's true that like Abraham, confidence will come as a result of keeping the faith and continuing to obey God

> I John 3:21-23 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

An indication that we have passed from death to life is that we agapé / treasure our family in Christ:

> I John 3:14-20 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love (agapōmen) the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

We must believe God's testimony concerning Jesus. God's testimony is greatest:

> I John 5:9-13 - If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God that he has borne concerning his Son. Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

> Hebrews 6:17-20 - So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he guaranteed it with an oath, so that by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to hold fast to the hope set before us. We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner place behind the curtain, where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

Doing what pleases God brings confidence, as I John 3:21-23 says.

1. A change of heart towards humility, fear of God, belief and trust in Jesus to be saved, an awareness of one's own sin and the reality of judgement, and acknowledging Jesus' Lordship and deity:

All the thief could do was look to Jesus and cry out for mercy but thankfully that is all he needed.

> My thoughts: I still think that the thief obeyed the gospel by submitting to the righteousness of God. He had obeyed the gospel, even preached the gospel from his cross, and was no longer an enemy of the cross of Christ. I think if given the opportunity he would have continued on in obedience to Jesus and even in good works of service to Jesus because of his repentant heart. He acknowledged Jesus was righteous and did not deserve the punishment that they deserved, he asked Jesus to remember him in His kingdom, and had the fear of God in his heart which would have caused him to not turn from God.

Is repentance from sin necessary for salvation? It generally is necessary. We renounce the sinful habits and God cleans us up as we obey Him by faith. The liberty that God provides is not being a slave/servant of sin/corruption. God's grace trains us to renounce sin, and it's not for us to double-down on sin:

> II Peter 2:14-20 - Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet. These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviou

If a person is unrepentant from sin then it is better that their body is destroyed so their spirit may be saved. In the case of the thief on the cross, his body was destroyed. If he stayed around, he probably would have renounced ungodliness and pursued holiness:

> I Corinthians 5:1-5 - It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you. For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. (ESV)

This was all that was required of him for salvation and the same is true for us (in terms of minimums) but we should continue in faith, love and obedience:

> The thief didn't get to go learn the bible, or get baptised or begin to follow Jesus in the way that he lived, but that is not to say that those things are not important because they are. Those are things that God has commanded us to do, and if we love God then we should want to be obedient in doing those things. The distinction is that those things don't earn our salvation but they are the fruit of a heart that has truly put faith in Jesus. I think that the thief would have gone on to do those things, he just never had a chance. But you might be thinking: I don't always obey Jesus. I still wrestle with sin and the answer is that you won't perfectly obey Jesus. You will still have sin in your life because Jesus will be continuing to work that out in you until the day that you die. But if you desire to know the God of the Bible and to love God and to obey God's word, that in itself is evidence that God is at work in your heart because we cannot do those things on our own. Even if we aren't yet fully where we know we ought to be with those things, the fact that they're there is an indication and that we are continuing to grow in grace.

Both robbers start off mocking Jesus but then one of the robbers has a change of heart:

> Matthew 27:43-44 - He trusts in God; let God deliver him now, if he desires him. For he said, I am the Son of God. And the robbers who were crucified with him also reviled him in the same way. (ESV)

> Mark 15:32 - Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross that we may see and believe. Those who were crucified with him also reviled him. (ESV)

> Luke 23:39-43 - One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him, saying, Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us! But the other rebuked him, saying, Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong. And he said, Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom. And he said to him, Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise. (ESV)

The fear of God should mean we want to do what pleases God - it's a heart that wishes to have a good conscience with God - wishes for God's commendation and not His wrath:

> Proverbs 16:6 - By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil. (ESV)

We want to always have the fear of God:

> Proverbs 14:27 - The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, that one may turn away from the snares of death. (ESV)
> Malachi 1:6 - A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. But you say, How have we despised your name? (ESV)

It's great having a good conscience with God, and a relationship with God:

> Proverbs 23:17 - Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day. (ESV)

We're supposed to live this way as Christians:

> Acts 9:31 - So the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and was being built up. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it multiplied. (ESV)

2. We must have a hatred of one's own sin:

> Proverbs 8:13 - The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate. (ESV)
> To be a Christian doesn't mean that we are without sin this side of heaven, but it does mean that we have a hatred for our own sin, that we are wrestling with the flesh that is still inside us even as Jesus is making us new, rather than being complacent over our sin.
> Romans 7:19-20 - For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. (ESV)

It's really important to turn from sin:

> I John 3:5-6 - You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him.

We endeavour to be justified through faithful obedience to Jesus, and if we fall short, we still believe Christ has us covered. But we do endeavour, we do try:

> Galatians 2:17 - But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! (ESV)
> I Peter 3:15 - but in your hearts regard Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; (ESV)

youtube.com: Paul Washer - Ongoing Sin @time: 2 min 16 sec

3. Our faith has been tested, and results in praise and glory and honour at the revelation of Jesus Christ:

> I Peter 1:6-7 - In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

3.26.1 By the Spirit Jesus has given us

> II Corinthians 1:22 - and who has also put his seal on us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee. (ESV)
> I John 4:13-16 - By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. (ESV)
> II Timothy 1:7-9 - for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control. Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel by the power of God, who saved us and called us to a holy calling, not because of our works but because of his own purpose and grace, which he gave us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, (ESV)

3.27 Indicators that we are of the truth

A strong indicator that we are of the truth is that against every condemnation, we know God is greater than our heart and knows everything

> I John 3:18-20 - Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything.

A strong indicator that we are of the truth is that we have the fear of Jehovah God in our hearts, that we do not turn from Him:

> Jeremiah 32:40 - I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me. (ESV)

More strong indicators that we are of the truth are that:

- if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God:
- whatever we ask of God, we receive from Him
    - because we keep His commandments and do what pleases Him
        - we know we are believing in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and
        - we know we are loving one another in just the way He has commanded us (I John 3:14-20, I John 5:1-2),
            - and in deed also gives us extra confidence
            - His commandments have become unburdensome for us
            - Things like not rendering evil for evil, doing as the good Samaritan, not committing blasphemy, idolatry, adultery, false-witness, etc.
            - Even thanking God, praying, etc.

> I John 3:21-23 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

Who is of God listens to us:

> I John 4:6 - We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

We know that God abides in us by the Spirit whom He has given us:

> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us.

4 Following Jesus

> Isaiah 30:20-21 - And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your Teacher will not hide himself anymore, but your eyes shall see your Teacher. And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, This is the way, walk in it, when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.

God wants us to do things His way.

> Numbers 22:28-32 - Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times? And Balaam said to the donkey, Because you have made a fool of me. I wish I had a sword in my hand, for then I would kill you. And the donkey said to Balaam, Am I not your donkey, on which you have ridden all your life long to this day? Is it my habit to treat you this way? And he said, No. Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, with his drawn sword in his hand. And he bowed down and fell on his face. And the angel of the LORD said to him, Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to oppose you because your way is perverse before me. (ESV)

I believe the above prophetically talks about Jesus. We must obey Jesus. God doesn't guarantee that following Jesus will be easy.

Song youtube.com: Steve Apirana - I Have Decided

> John 6:44-46 - No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. (ESV)

> II John 1:6 - And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. (ESV)

> II Peter 2:20-21 - For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.

> Matthew 21:32 - For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him.

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

> Romans 14:18 - Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

4.1 Being led by the Spirit is not license to sin

Freedom isn't "license to sin without consequences" but it's license to choose who you will obey, but to choose sin would be defiling and enslaving, but to choose to obey Jesus is purifying and liberating.

youtube.com: Donald Trump: "Two Corinthians..." {C-SPAN} {@CSPAN} @time: 26 sec 2 Corinthians 3:17. That's the whole ball game. Where the spirit of the Lord is there is liberty.

> Joshua 24:15 - And if it is evil in your eyes to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your fathers served in the region beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:19-21 - Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. (ESV)

Repenting from sin, including such things as idolatry, witchcraft, jealousy and sexual immorality is all a part of following Jesus and being led by the Spirit.

But, you know, how back in the day people would dress in costumes to look like they are evil spirits to camouflage so they would conform to the evil to be left alone.

Now isn't that so true in our christian walk when we are a light when we are Christ's we are then attacked. I mean, I had no idea when I was involved in the occult that was really riddled with demons, really riddled with so much darkness until I came to Christ and He filled me with his light and then those things were revealed and exposed for what they were.

Being led by the Spirit and obeying God, repenting from sin and passing forward love and forgiveness, we have our souls purified:

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

4.2 Walk by the Spirit = Obey Jesus = Led by the Spirit = Walk in the light as He is in the light

- Walk in the truth
  - Walk in a way that is in alignment, allegiance and agreement with Jesus and Jesus' teachings.
- Under Christ, in Christ, following Christ, aligning to Christ and His teachings
- Being sanctified in the Truth

> John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)

Keeping a clean room can be walking in the light but it might also not be. What matters is whether or not a person is trusting, believing and obeying Jesus. It's the heart that matters.

The Spirit is Jehovah. So if we trust His word and obey Him (and we're instructed to follow Jesus):

> Romans 8:12 - So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. (ESV)
> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)
>
> Jeremiah 17:5 - Thus said Jehovah: Cursed is the man who doth trust in man, And hath made flesh his arm, And from Jehovah whose heart turneth. (YLT)
> Isaiah 61:1 - The Spirit of the Lord GOD (H3068. Yhvh - Phonetic Spelling: (yeh-ho-vaw'), Jehovah, Yahweh) is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; (ESV)
> Luke 4:18-21 - The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor. And he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. And he began to say to them, Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 3:14-18 - But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. But when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord (G2962 Kyrios; Lord) is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord (G2962 Kyriou; of [the] Lord [is]) is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord (G2962 Kyriou; of [the] Lord), are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord (G2962 Kyriou; [the] Lord) who is the Spirit. (ESV)

Jesus is our Teacher and Lord. So we must trust Him and imitate Him as Teacher, and trust in Him and obey Him as Lord:

> John 13:12-16 - When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

4.2.1 The light

Light Light is effectively, the agape (treasuring, soul-binding) love of the Truth in Truth - in Truth, agape loving the Truth and those who belong to the Truth. Darkness is not having the agape love of the Truth but rather agape-loving darkness. Light is walking in agape love of the Truth and and agape love of those who belong to the Truth. And doing good to all, desiring all to come to the knowledge of the Truth, and for the sake of the Truth and God's desire of all to come to the knowledge of the Truth to demonstrate obedience to the Truth for others and do good to others, even our enemies. We must agape those who are in the light, who are our family in Christ. We don't bind ourselves to darkness or to demons.

> John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV)
> I John 2:9-10 - Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. (ESV)

> II Thessalonians 2:9-10 - The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. (ESV) John 12:46 - I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. (ESV)

We don't want to remain in darkness:

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

Loving the Truth, we also want those who are in darkness to come to the knowledge of the Truth. We follow Jesus' example to be lights of world:

> John 14:30-31 - I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no claim on me, but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go from here. (ESV)

> John 1:9 - The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. (ESV)

> John 9:5 - As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. (ESV)

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:14 - You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. (ESV)

The new commandment is true in Jesus and should be true in us. The commandment is to love one another - we must love those who are in Christ:

> II John 1:5 - And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. (ESV)

> I John 2:4-13 - Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment that you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word that you have heard. At the same time, it is a new commandment that I am writing to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his name's sake. I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, children, because you know the Father. (ESV)

To be reassured that we are of the Truth and for our hearts to be reassured, we should also practice our love for the Truth, for God and our family in Christ and we should do good to all people and love them in the Truth which means to not agree with darkness and to not agree with those who are in darkness but to love them desiring that they too come to the knowledge of the Truth. We can do nothing apart from Jesus after all, so we have to do all things in love:

> I John 3:18-20 - Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:10 - So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

> I Timothy 5:8 - But if anyone does not provide for his relatives, and especially for members of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. (ESV)

> Psalms 145:9 - The LORD is good to all, and his mercy is over all that he has made. (ESV)

> II John 1:1-3 - The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all who know the truth, because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever: Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love. (ESV)

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

We should speak the truth in love:

> John 15:5 - I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. (ESV)

4.2.2 God loved us first, and forgave us first

Forgiveness from God is received by faith:

> Romans 3:25 - whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. (ESV)

Which commandments must we keep? Jesus' commandments - Jesus' sayings and commandments which Father God commanded Him to speak. Also, it's worth learning from the Apostles who were with Jesus. Some commandments of Jesus are divulged and better understood from their writings.

Jesus kept Father God's commandments including the commandment of what to say and speak to us. Jesus' words and sayings and commandments which God gave Him to speak to us are what we should keep. His commandments are eternal life for us:

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

From infants in Christ to maturity, people who keep Jesus' commandments are found in Christ who is in God:

> Romans 10:10 - For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:14 - For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. (ESV)

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)
> John 6:35-40 - Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe. All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)
> Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)<
> Ephesians 5:1-5 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. (ESV)

If you love Jesus, keep His commandments. The one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one who loves Jesus:

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

Because God loved us first:

- The Apostle Paul endeavours to know Jesus ('makes it his own'. See Php 3:9-13) because Jesus made Paul His own
    - To be found in Jesus is what Paul describes as the righteousness from God that depends on faith
        - Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

    - I Thessalonians 5:8 - But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. (ESV)
    - I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)
    - Ephesians 6:14 - Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, (ESV)
    - James 1:19-23 - Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness that God requires. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. (ESV)
  - We know Jesus by believing in Him and obeying His commandments, and when we love and forgive we know God loved us and forgave us first
    - I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

- We must love because He loved us first for God to abide in us
  - Romans 5:7-8 - For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (ESV)
  - I John 4:9-12 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)
  - Ephesians 4:30-32 - And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)
- We must forgive as we have been forgiven
  - Colossians 3:12-14 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (ESV)
- We must be conformed to holiness
  - I Peter 1:14-16 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. (ESV)

God cancelled the record of debt of our sin with the blood of Jesus Christ:

> Colossians 2:14 - by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. (ESV)

I believe when I was born-again of the Spirit on 2 April 2022, my debt was cancelled. It's like being given a clean-slate. New creation (kainē ktisis) - All things new. Being born-again, we continue to

Now we must put to death what is earthly in us:

> Colossians 2:11-17 - In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him. Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. These are a shadow of the things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:1-6 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:7-15 - In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all. Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:5-12 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

4.2.3 God's kindness is meant to lead us to repentance from sin

We are supposed to have a response of repentance from sin. God's kindness is meant to lead us to repentance from sin. And turning from sin is a loving response to grace given:

> Romans 2:4 - Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? (ESV)

We are supposed to have a response of love for Jesus. God's forgiveness should lead us to love God and want to obey Him:

> Luke 7:42-43 - When they could not pay, he cancelled the debt of both. Now which of them will love him more? Simon answered, The one, I suppose, for whom he cancelled the larger debt. And he said to him, You have judged rightly. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: In Christ Alone {My Hope Is Found} - Adrienne Liesching | LYRIC VIDEO

It's for our own good that we stop sinning. Sin is burdensome and obeying sin leads to death:

> II Timothy 3:6-9 - For among them are those who creep into households and capture weak women, burdened with sins and led astray by various passions, always learning and never able to arrive at a knowledge of the truth. Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, men corrupted in mind and disqualified regarding the faith. But they will not get very far, for their folly will be plain to all, as was that of those two men. (ESV)

> Hebrews 12:1 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, (ESV)

> Ezekiel 18:23 - Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked, declares the Lord GOD, and not rather that he should turn from his way and live? (ESV)

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

Sin made against our own body is really bad for us. This is a warning:

> I Corinthians 6:16-20 - Or do you not know that he who is joined to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For, as it is written, The two will become one flesh. But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. (ESV)

> Romans 13:14 - But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires. (ESV)

Sin no more so that nothing worse happens:

> John 5:14 - Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you. (ESV)

> John 8:10-11 - Jesus stood up and said to her, Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you? She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more. (ESV)

Sin enslaves. We're supposed to stop doing it. Jesus payed the price of sin for us to set us free from it and we shouldn't let ourselves become enslaved by sin again.

Quote by Tim Keller When you do a sin, it has a powerful effect in which your own freedom - your freedom to want the good, to will the good, to think the good or understand the good is being undermined so that you are more and more by sin losing your freedom. It undermines your mind, it undermines your emotions and it undermines your will.

4.2.4 Subsequent behaviour - the Golden Rule and the Royal Law, faith working through love

When it comes to 'works' and 'law-keeping', I believe disciples of Jesus should know they have been forgiven by grace through faith and they should also practice their righteousness, but the "works" is not the "obedience". The works come out of obedience, out of being a "doer of the law". Christians should both submit to the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ, having the imputed righteousness of Christ that we believe we have as we are walking with Christ and Christians should practice righteousness too (as Jesus said, "go and sin no more"), and Christians should seek to keep accountability primarily to God in regards to the law because He sees everything, and secondarily have good conscience with men, to love as Jesus loved, and give to Caesar what is Caesar's, but give to God what is God's - and God owns our hearts - and we should be prepared to die for Jesus, and remain faithful to Jesus. When a person practices their righteousness, then they are "doers of the law" from the heart. A person who has accepted forgiveness for their sin by the atonement made in Jesus' blood should certainly endeavour after that to fulfill practically the Royal Law, that is to love one's neighbour as themself, even owing that to other people:

> Romans 13:8 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (ESV)
> Galatians 6:2-6 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. For each will have to bear his own load. One who is taught the word must share all good things with the one who teaches. (ESV)
> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

The Golden Rule, I think explains that we should behave like a child of Father God who is by nature Good and gives good gifts to His children, and gifts that are truly good, far exceeding any amount of favour we might show our own children. As we behave like a child of Father God, believing the gospel of Jesus, and loving with Christ's love, we can really say our Father is God, as a child takes after their parents, and a child of Father God behaves like Jesus and follows Jesus. We try to follow Jesus, and imitate Christ's pattern, as Christ is the Son of God.

youtube.com: Sin as Slavery - Timothy Keller Sermon When it comes to behavior when it comes to the behavior that religions ask and demand and urge upon us, there is almost absolute complete uniformity and universal consensus we're not supposed to tell lies, we're not supposed to break our promises, we're not supposed to rob or murder each other, but respect each other.

> In that sense we're supposed to live with justice and equity. We're supposed to live by the Golden Rule. We're supposed to be generous with with our possessions. There's, you know, several of these things every religion - everybody - understands that we should live that way.
> There's universal consensus that we should live that way, and then of course on top of that we know that the main reason for all the misery in the world is because we don't live that way. The main reason for all the problems of the of our society is because people don't live that way. Now when everybody agrees what we should be doing what's right, there there's no doubt and everybody agrees that the reason that we're miserable is because we're not doing it - the Bible's explanation is that human hearts are sinful but beyond that that we're slaves to sin.

We should love others, as we would want to be loved by others. God gives common grace to all people, even the evil. We should love in this way, as our Father in Heaven:

> Matthew 5:45 - so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. (ESV)

I do not think the Golden Rule is saying that ”God is humanity.” Neither do I think the Golden Rule is saying that God treats us precisely how we treat others.

I think the Golden Rule is really telling us to be loving, and love our enemies, as we would want to be loved by our enemies - love people the way Father God loves us:

> Matthew 7:9-12 - Or which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him! So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

We should be imitators of God’s love:

> Psalms 103:8 - The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:1-2 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. (ESV)

> I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)

Love your enemies as well as your friends. Be like Your Heavenly Father. Be perfect. Love (25. agapaó) your enemies means ”treasuring your enemies” and looks like not repaying evil for evil. It sometimes looks like refusing to do evil and instead doing good to those who do you harm, taking the initiative in overcoming evil with good:

> Matthew 5:43-48 - You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

Also, as far as law-keeping goes, I believe Christians are not prohibited from following other parts of the Mosaic Law by faith.

Also, different to the Apostle Paul’s conviction, I am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that there are things that I should commit to doing for Jesus to be faithful to Him.

Consider downloading N64 ROMS. I don’t want to do it any longer. It feels wrong to me. Also, I consider AI fiction to be unclean, so I would avoid it.

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

Here are a few reasons why I don’t like AI fiction.

Lies and wicked deceit:

- Using AI fiction to write a cover letter for a job application
    - Resulting in increased difficulty in getting a job for refusing to write lies on a resume
- Using AI fiction to misrepresent yourself and lure girls over a dating platform

- Using AI fiction to impersonate or misrepresent people

    - II Thessalonians 2:9-13 - The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. Adultery:

- Fantasizing over AI fiction

The systems are mostly built/trained using theft:

- Stealing intellectual property (code, artwork, style etc.)
- `https://suchir.net/fair_use.html`

Gross. This by no means is OpenAI's fault alone. I think it's a problem with legislation that allows it to happen. Anthropic, Google, Microsoft, OpenAI, whoever is training like this without honoring copyright is raping the earth and stealing from humanity:

youtube.com: Data Crisis {@ ThePrimeTimeagen } …it will only have AI generated content to train on, because at this point, so many different blogs and articles are just being generated by AI, and then the AI trains on that data, and then the AI gives you output based on that trained data. So, there's just this feedback loop, where as soon as one thing is wrong, it all compounds on itself. And this is a problem I think is only going to get worse, because more and more stuff will be generated by AI, and less stuff will be generated by humans, because AI makes it so that it's less profitable for someone to actually do that as a career.

jskfellows.stanford.edu: Just a moment... One of AI's original sins (there are many) is scraping every corner of the Internet for training data, sucking up text, photos, video, music and anything they can find online to feed the large language models tech companies are racing to develop. 'Intellectual property rights and copyrights be damned', in true Silicon Valley style, AI companies are moving fast and breaking things. They need the data, so they take it and claim it's transformative fair use. It's not; it's theft.

The way the Big Tech AI companies have harvested other people's works to build their empires is surely comparable "bagging other people's crops and taking the to the sickle" and is definitely not "fair use":

> Deuteronomy 23:24-25 - If you go into your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes, as many as you wish, but you shall not put any in your bag. If you go into your neighbor's standing grain, you may pluck the ears with your hand, but you shall not put a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain. (ESV)

> James 5:6 - You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous person. He does not resist you. (ESV)

Let’s just say a person was an author, artist, programmer, artisan, inventor, musician, honest worker and they were leaving their life’ work as an inheritance to their children. Then new technology is invented that is able to do more with one’s intellectual property. For example, the technology to turns ”books into movies” with AI is invented in the generation of their children, but the Big Tech opportunists, under the guise of ”no regulation” and ”tech language” and ”transformation”, before regulation was put into effect, stole from the author the future of their life’s work by training their models on their books, and thus can produce movies from the books with their large language models. Now, if that author wanted to apply this new technology to their own work for themselves, they can’t profit from their own work. But Big Tech should not be able to do that because they should not have been allowed to train their models on the books in the first place. Big Tech could apply their AI technology to their own data for sure, legitimately, but should not be able to do that with other people’s data. Big Tech have in reality stolen in order to build their AI models. US legislators have called this legal because it’s ”transformative”. But that’s corruption in the US legislation (it’s endorsing theft) and destroying the country and the business/career ecosystem. It would better if each person could benefit from the natural progression of their data. But sadly, that ”natural progression/future/inheritance” has been stolen by Big Tech. It’s absolutely criminal. I pray to God in Jesus’ name that He will not allow this to continue if it is His will. It’s parasitic behavior. These people who have done this thing are criminals. They should be in jail.

The 2020s, the Slaughter. In the early 21st century, tech entreprenures descended on the internet and began one of the most brutal IP heists in history. They targeted copyrighted software, books, music, movies, artwork. Millions of profitable businesses, careers and children’s inheritances were slaughtered as anything of value online was downloaded and made into large language models. Entire career types vanished. Ecosystems of human collaboration died. Data centers left carrying petabytes upon petabytes of people’s life works used for training AI agents, chatbots that would automating humans out of jobs. By the time regulations finally came, the damage was catastrophic.

Copyright and patents are very different things. A completed product that may have millions of parts may be copyrighted as it is sent out as a product. An idea of a machine comprised of a few specified components may be patented without even a finished prduct and that patent might last for decades.

Let’s say someone patented the simple idea of a hand rail for a staircase as staircases were coming to mass usage, and it’s only natural to have a hand rail, but now no-one is allowed to make knobs at the end of staircase handrails because it involves making a handrail. Handrails and knobs at the end of the handrails are very natural progressions.

So it’s absurd to patent the handrail.

In reality, two people can independently come up with an invention.

oxfordscholastica.com: Newton and Leibniz : The Fathers of Calculus | Oxford Scholastica Calculus is commonly accepted to have been created twice, independently, by two of the seventeenth century’s brightest minds: Sir Isaac Newton of gravitational fame, and the philosopher and mathematician Gottfried Leibniz. The consensus has not always been so peaceful, however: the late 1600s saw fierce debate between the two thinkers, with each claiming the other had stolen his work.

Patents in theory help a fledgling small business to succeed, but software patents actually do far more harm than good now. There was a time when it was more useful and fair, but it doesn't make much sense anymore because the programming is about as common as writing and algebra. It wouldn't make sense for it to be allowable to "patent long division", a "literary device", "an art technique" or a verbal technique such as "verbally communicating using clicking, popping and whistling sounds". Neither does it make sense to be allowable to patent incremental steps in programming now that programming has matured to the point at which it's a basic skill that might be taught in high school. Why? Because upskilling and basic literacy of humans and the natural development of human beings are important to protect. It's bizarre that humans would be stymied from developing useful skills and businesses while machines are trained without restraint because big tech are lawless thieves who the government has endorsed their practice of stealing from others to advance their business. It's parasitic.

Besides those reasons for abolishing software patents, software these days can be hidden behind APIs, and that is a more reasonable alternative form of protection for software mechanisms than patents, similar to how, say, the secret recipes of the 11 Herbs and Spices and of Coca-Cola are guarded secrets.

Software patents no longer make any sense. It would be like patenting a particular arrangement of flowers such that nobody is allowed to make gardens with that arrangement of flowers.

The patent system has been perverted to oppress people and prevent them from thinking and building and doing what is natural with our brains. Language models do for software something similar to what invention of imaginary/complex numbers did for algebra. Applied to other forms of media, the technology extends what can be done with existing media. But new technology isn't licence to boycot the original intention of the protections of the copyright licences on the data, but rather the licenses should also be able to protect the data from being captured by AI models from Big Tech prospectors who prey on vulnerable people to gobble up their data, somehow believing that having this technology gives them licence now to steal (because it's transformative technology). That's as deluded as it would be to think that inventing a gun gives a person licence now to murder with a gun because it's a transformative technology. It would be right in my view that in face of a so-called "transformative technology" that is being introduced to society, that the powers of existing copyright licences are likewise projected into this "new area" of application. As new technology extends what can be feasibly done with existing media, so too the powers of the licences connected with that media should also extend into what that can be done with that media by that new technology.

I think that discussing even man's law is not out of place when when discussing theology as a Christian:

> Exodus 20:17 - You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his male servant, or his female servant, or his ox, or his donkey, or anything that is your neighbor's. (ESV)

But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. (ESV)
> John 19:11 - Jesus answered him, You would have no authority over me at all unless it had been given you from above. Therefore he who delivered me over to you has the greater sin. (ESV)
> Romans 12:17-21,13:1-10 - Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. To the contrary, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head. Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore whoever resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in > authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is the servant of God, an avenger who carries out God's wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be in subjection, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience. For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are ministers of God, attending to this very thing. Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed. Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

Patent law as opposed to copyright law:

youtube.com: The Danger of Software Patents - Richard Stallman {@ techperspectives } @time: 2 min 5

> A patent is a government-issued monopoly on using a certain technique or making a certain kind of thing.

So now there are AI systems owned by large corporations gobbling up entire finished products, circumventing their copyright licences. It's just more exploitation.

Young people should not be bound by the straitjacket of software patents when it comes to imagining designs in their mind having to constantly check to see if anyone has invented them yet.

In the early days of computing, at Darmouth university, it seemed to be a natural progression to invite students from other departments to learn the BASIC programming language. And there were many variants of BASIC. Imagine if the BASIC language was patented.

Even daily AI users, which would be people who use these tools every single day, saw their excitement drop 18 points and hopefulness drop 11 points over the same period. Just think about that. The more they use it, the less hopeful they become. So, it's not just unfamiliarity breeding fear. It sounds more like familiarity breeding understanding. Meanwhile, at universities, you're seeing open rebellion. The University of Pennsylvania student newspaper published an editorial titled Penn has an AI problem that opened with, I'm quoting, AI cannot coexist with education. It can only degrade it. As technology advances and workers are replaced by machines, schools are some of the only places we have left to explore and wrestle with human thought.
> This is basically the first Ivy League school to launch an AI major. They're at the epicenter of AI adoption and higher education. Penn now offers 10 undergraduate programs, 21 graduate programs, and eight doctoral programs in AI. And their own students are writing that AI is degrading education. 83% of Penn undergraduates admit to using AI in academic settings, which means they're not writing from ignorance. They're writing from direct experience with what happens when you can outsource thinking to a chatbot. So on one side, you have executives pushing AI adoptions as fast as possible. And on the other side, you have the people actually being told to use it, saying this is making things worse.

These days, young people face a dystopian employment landscape where it's expected to be automated out of jobs. And if a person makes something and puts it online, then some AI crawler might come along and gobble it up and then all of a sudden somewhere else out there is a robot replicating the style or functionality of your work.

So if I am experiencing persecution for refusing to use AI fiction to misrepresent myself to get ahead, then I am being persecuted for righteousness-sake and I have a lot of faith that God will honour that I want to obey Him and not sin, and I'm grieved by the use of AI to misrepresent and manipulate people.

> Ezekiel 9:4 - And the LORD said to him, Pass through the city, through Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and groan over all the abominations that are committed in it. (ESV)

I think a lot of people are literally blinded from being able to see the truth of this:

> II Corinthians 4:4 - In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. (ESV)

OK, so I want to just point out that "AI fiction", I believe, doesn't have to be "wicked". I think this is an important nuance to point out. Wicked deception is very bad (II Thessalonians 2:9-12). But it needs to be kept in its place. A "Christian"-'personality' chatbot is not not a substitute for Christian fellowship. Watching a fictional movie or book isn't a sin in itself, regardless if AI went into producing it. A fictional movie or book that was produced by stealing from people is a stolen work.

I rebuke 'wicked' AI fiction in Jesus Christ's name and I choose to allow my mind to be conformed to the mind of Christ and I choose to listen to the voice of Christ and follow Christ. All of the generative AI stuff I consider to be unclean.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer "I do believe that the church is one of the foundations of our civilization. That being said, I'm not under old covenant law, but if somebody was observing the command to not eat pig and they could not eat pig in faith, and it was known to me then I would avoid eating pig when around them because I wouldn't want them to stumble in their faith.

Romans 14:18-23 - Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding. > 5:46 There's nothing wrong with observing the commandment to not drink blood, or the commandment to not eat pig. But the error of Outside The Camp's position is that he is saying the commandment is kept by adhering to the external action. Jesus says what goes into a person does not defile them. Something external happening to the person doesn't defile them. So, for example, if someone was assaulted forcefully having pork put down their throat against their will while they want to be keeping the commandment, the person is not defiled by it because they did not will it to happen to them. In fact, perhaps they are even being persecuted for righteousness sake in that hypothetical situation, but undefiled.

> The person born of God is not the indwelling sin of the sinful flesh.
> A person gets born again of the spirit, baptized into Christ's death, and is resurrected spiritually while still carrying around the 'Adamic' flesh which has indwelling sin, until they receive their resurrection body. Water baptism, is an appeal for a good conscience through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. So water baptism, is basically an appeal to God to be baptised into Christ's death, all things new, keeping the commandments of God for them from a pure heart, clean conscience, sincere faith, that is to love God and one-another as we have been commanded to. Being born-again of the spirit is necessary to see and to enter into the Kingdom of God.
> Romans 7:19-23 - For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. (ESV)

In some cases, I might even admire those that go beyond what a law strictly requires, inclusive of what the law requires. If a person wanted to go beyond Exodus 20:13 to avoid eating meat to spare the lives of animals and make themself accountable to God over that in the hope it pleases God then I admire that commitment actually, but I wouldn't let anyone pass judgement on me over eating meat myself:

> Romans 14:16 - So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil. (ESV)

I definitely think that ”killing animals” for no good reason, say for sport, is not good.

> Isaiah 11:6-9 - The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the lion and the fattened calf together; and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze; their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the cobra, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den. They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea. (ESV)

Christians should both submit to the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ, having the imputed righteousness of Christ that we believe we have as we are walking with Christ and Christians should practice righteousness too (as Jesus said, ”go and sin no more”), and Christians should seek to keep accountability primarily to God in regards to the law because He sees everything, and secondarily have good conscience with men, to love as Jesus loved, and give to Caesar what is Caesar's, but give to God what is God's - and God owns our hearts - and we should be prepared to die for Jesus, and remain faithful to Jesus:

> Matthew 23:2-7 - The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat, so practice and observe whatever they tell you—but not what they do. For they preach, but do not practice. They tie up heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on people's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to move them with their finger. They do all their deeds to be seen by others. For they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long, and they love the place of honor at feasts and the best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces and being called rabbi by others. (ESV)

Having placed faith in Christ, been born-again, all things being made new, God making me new, having become a new person entirely, what about worldly debt which I had owed before I was born-again? What are my obligations with that? Could I for example, ”only go to heaven if I payed back that debt?” As far as my ultimate standing with God goes, no, I don't think I would need to pay back all of that debt to go to heaven. But in order to be found blameless to the people I owe in the eyes of non-Christians in this world, then yes, I would. But my identity is in Christ and not in the world.

> Colossians 2:13-14 - And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. (ESV)

So yes, the righteous does give, and pay back what is borrowed, but as far as our legal standing with God goes, our debt was paid, God puts us into Christ and we are made new. He gives us a clean slate in Christ. I've been made new and clean and born-again. Therefore, I have a righteous standing with God. But the principle of the righteous paying back what they borrow and being generous and giving remains. So going forward, debt paid, we must still practice righteousness:

> Psalms 37:21 - The wicked borrows but does not pay back, but the righteous is generous and gives; (ESV)

> Matthew 22:21 - They said, Caesar's. Then he said to them, Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. (ESV)

We love in the knowledge we have already been loved first when God sent Jesus Christ to pay for our sin with His blood. I was born-again of the Spirit and regenerated on 2 April 2022.

That's how we are found in God, by accepting that He loved us first through Jesus Christ, and God puts us into Him.

> John 13:6-7 - He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, do you wash my feet? Jesus answered him, What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand. (ESV)

After being born-again of the spirit I don't say I'm completely sinless, or that I could not commit sin - that would be deceiving myself:

> I John 1:7-9 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

In fact, it's clear that we must continue on in Jesus Christ's teaching after having been forgiven, and that includes being merciful to other people, as we have received mercy.

> Matthew 18:21-35 - Then Peter came up and said to him, Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times? Jesus said to him, I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven. Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything. And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, Pay what you owe. So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, Have patience with me, and I will pay you. He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. Then his master summoned him and said to him, You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you? And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:13 - bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. (ESV)

But what about me with my situation regarding court? I don't know everything. Can I confess what I don't know? Sometimes I think we just have to deny self. I don't have an issue with that. But I do have an issue with what feels like injury my soul, and relentless ongoing spiritual attack after having sought to try to remain faithful to and obey Jesus regarding the situation. But it doesn't feel like freedom has been given to me on the other side of that, that I might live to my conviction, my decision, without what seems like satanic oppression/harassment/torment:

> James 4:17 - So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin. (ESV)

But I continue walking in the light, in trusting obedience to Jesus, and Jesus' blood continues to cleanse me from all sin:

> I John 1:7-9 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

It is clear that following Jesus helps us to not sin, which means that the destructiveness of sin for us is still a reality if we are not following Jesus. We get on top of it by following Jesus and walking by His Spirit:

> Galatians 5:14-16 - For the whole law is fulfilled in one word (G3056 logō): You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. (ESV)

Someone who has just been ”born of God” is an infant in Christ and is counted as a child of God, but an infant. I mention this because an infant grows into maturity, into living in the Spirit the way that God does, into thinking and behaving as a mature child of God:

> I Corinthians 3:1 - But I, brothers, could not address you as spiritual people, but as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. (ESV)
> Romans 8:14 - For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. (ESV)

We’ve got to continue in Jesus’ teachings/commandments:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)
> Hebrews 2:1 - Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. (ESV)

Those who find a place for God’s word in their heart, those who are of the truth, who receive God’s word, they listen to what Jesus has said. They are not repulsed by Jesus’ words, nor are they repulsed by Jesus’ commandments. They are not repulsed by who Jesus is, and they are not repulsed by what Jesus has done as recorded in Scripture:

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)
> John 8:37-47 - I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham’s children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father’s desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)
> John 6:45 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— (ESV)

Jesus’ commandments are rock-solid and they are eternal:

> Matthew 7:24 - Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)
> Proverbs 10:25 - When the tempest passes, the wicked is no more, but the righteous is established forever. (ESV)
> Matthew 24:35 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (ESV)

We can trust Jesus' commandments as we trust Jesus Himself. If a person keeps them out of love for Jesus, with faith in Jesus, God can do some awesome stuff in and through that. Even the commandment to "give to the one who asks", for example, might be met with 'worldly' wisdom to deter someone from trusting God. Distrust for Jesus' commandments deters people from keeping them. But if we obey them out of faith and love for Jesus (and do so in a lawful way, not like a Robin-Hood way, for example), God absolutely sees our efforts in maintaining a good conscience keeping His commandments seeking to please God and not man. He can really use people who are keeping Jesus' commandments in faith:

> Hebrews 6:10 - For God is not so unjust as to overlook your work and the love that you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do. (ESV)

Thinking with faith in Jesus, maintaining a good conscience with God, believing He exist and that He rewards those who seek Him, trusting in God for the outcome, God is not so unjust that He'd punish us for acting in faith. If God works all things for good for those who love Him, and the one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one that loves Him, and since suffering for righteousness-sake is a commendable thing in God's sight then we can trust God to use our obedient commandment-keeping (especially Jesus' commandments) towards our good or for the good of others.

> Romans 8:28 - And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. (ESV)

> Psalms 34:19 - Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all. (ESV)

One of Jesus' teachings we need to continue on in is to love those who hate us.
Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect - love also the ones who hate you:

> Matthew 5:38-48 - You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate (3404. miseó, 3404 miséō – properly, to detest (on a comparative basis); hence, denounce; to love someone or something less than someone (something) else, i.e. to renounce one choice in favor of another.) your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

Keep in mind that what Jesus means by "perfect" is possible, because Jesus said the following, and this is how:

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

> Hebrews 7:11 - Now if perfection had been attainable through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, rather than one named after the order of Aaron? (ESV)

In Christ, we must "be perfect" in the sense that Jesus means when He says "You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect." In Christ, we must not hate one another. In Christ, we must agape love one another:

> Colossians 3:13-14 - Bear with one another and forgive any complaint you may have against someone else. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love (26. agapé), which is the bond of perfect unity. (engbsb2020eb)

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

Another of Jesus' teachings we need to continue on in is to forsake sin:

> John 8:34-36 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)

If you love Jesus, keep His commandments. The one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one who loves Jesus:

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

A person who is mature in Christ has faith in Christ, follows the teachings of Christ and the pattern of His life, and is spiritually minded, and thinks with Christ's wisdom, not worldly wisdom, and lives for the will of God:

> Colossians 1:28 - Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. (ESV)

We must live in the spirit the way God does, not for human passions, but for the will of God:

> I Peter 4:1-6 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the spirit the way God does. (ESV)

> Romans 8:1-17 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

Living by the Golden Rule (or better, the Royal Law) still comes after having been forgiven by Jesus:

> Matthew 7:12 - So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

I've heard it said Christians "do not need to follow the Golden Rule". But the Golden Rule is at the heart of Christ's law and even after being born-again and accepting forgiveness from God, we should walk in the light, following Christ's law.

Applying love to the Golden Rule, we have the second of the great commandments, the Royal Law, which is to: "Love your neighbour as yourself". It's actually very important.

We are supposed to fulfill the Royal Law, even after having received forgiveness:

> James 2:1 - My brothers, show no partiality as you hold the faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. (ESV)

Committing sin can still happen after having been forgiven. Committing sin happens when we do not fulfill the Royal Law, or when we are showing unfair bias as we do it. Therefore being led by the Spirit of Jesus, we should be abiding by the Royal law, and to be deliberately breaking the Royal law, a person could no longer say they are being led by the Spirit of Jesus:

> James 2:8-9 - If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself, you are doing well. But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. (ESV)

But we must love like Christ loved us in the knowledge that He loved us first. We must forgive our family in Christ, as we have been forgiven:

> Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)

> Ephesians 4:30-32 - And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

> Romans 8:23-24 - And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? (ESV)

Also, I believe that abiding by Christ's law and loving your neighbour as yourself does not cancel out the rest of the law of God, but that a person must be actually following Christ by obeying Christ's commandments in order to not be "under the law" and to be "not guilty".

Following Jesus starts with believing in Him and believing He is the Son of God, and Anointed one, the Messiah, and following Jesus continues in getting to know Him through obedience to Him:

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus' name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God's ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth. This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

So an important part of being led by the Spirit of Jesus and being not "under the law" is to continuing to forgive one another as we have been forgiven by Jesus, and walk in the light as He is in the light.

In Christ Jesus, as we are abiding in Jesus, getting to know Jesus through obedience to Him, getting to know Him in Spirit as we get really intimate with Jesus, walking as He walked, we have the peace of God:

> Philippians 4:7 - And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

Following Jesus includes your thought life:

> Philippians 4:8 - Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. (ESV)

All people should seek to follow the Royal Law which is to love one's neighbour as themself, bearing their neighbours burdens and forgiving one another, but who has done that perfectly?

Quote by Tim Keller "I want you to meet the needs of other people with all of the strength, with all of the joy and all of the creativity and with all of the speed with which you meet your own needs. 12 hours, that's all - Golden Rule, just try it"

As Christians we were at one time disobedient, and were not able to do this perfectly, and we have been saved by Jesus, having been forgiven by Him, and after we are grafted into Christ, we now have His righteousness and Almighty God as our Father, and Jesus is our Master and we seek to please our Master, like the All Blacks try to please their coach, and we seek to follow the Royal Law, which is a part of being obedient to Jesus. We have His Spirit, and His Spirit helps us to do this.

Since Jesus is our Master then we should have the fear of God for Jesus who is God the Son of God:

> Malachi 1:6 - A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. But you say, How have we despised your name? (ESV)

Quote by Billy Graham And he fell down before them and says, ”What must I do to be saved? And they gave him a very simple answer, not something complicated. Simple, so that nobody here can ever say that you did you couldn’t do it. He said believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved. Believe, commit your life to Christ, and you shall be saved. It commits the believer wholeheartedly to one about whose person and work he has gained a clear-cut conviction.

Quote by Billy Graham And it’s so simple that millions stumble over it.

People think it’s so complicated to be a Christian, to be a true follower of Christ. No, it is not. You start out very simply.

That first step is to say, ”Lord, I’m sorry for my sin. I turn from my sin. I receive Christ as my Lord and Savior.”

Now two things are involved in believing on the Lord Jesus Christ. One is repentance. It means that you rethink. The word repentance means ”change”. I change my attitude. I change my way of living. But you cannot change by yourself. You need God to help you to change. So he sends the Holy Spirit to help you in the changing process.

And then, secondly, it means trust. Faith is described in the Bible as the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Faith or belief is not faith without evidence, but commitment without reservation. It means that you hold nothing back. You totally commit this life, the future life, and everything you are or everything you hope to be to the person of Jesus Christ.

> Titus 3:8-15 - The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people. But avoid foolish controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels about the law, for they are unprofitable and worthless. As for a person who stirs up division, after warning him once and then twice, have nothing more to do with him, knowing that such a person is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned. When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there. Do your best to speed Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way; see that they lack nothing. And let our people learn to devote themselves to good works, so as to help cases of urgent need, and not be unfruitful. All who are with me send greetings to you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. (ESV)

4.2.5 God’s name must be hallowed. We should not take it in vain

> Matthew 6:9 - Pray then like this: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. (ESV)

Dear Heavenly Father,
hallowed be Your name.
Please forgive me, Father God, for using Your name where it ought not to be used, and for any misrepresentation I have made.
In Jesus Christ's name I ask,
AMEN!!

For this reason, I think that Bible translations such as the ESV, correctly are reserved about printing the LORD's name inline throughout the whole Bible. The JW, as they consolidate their Bible translation (NWT) using the LORD's name, seems to me either like an effort to try to engineer God, or self-affirm their own understanding, which is self-exalting but may (especially by those in their congregation) be done in ignorance. I do not affirm the NWT translation, but I do affirm the doctrine of Sola Scriptura.

However, I also neither like the way in which the names of other so-called gods are used in other translations of Scriptures and I can understand the concern about that:

> Exodus 23:13 - Pay attention to all that I have said to you, and make no mention of the names of other gods, nor let it be heard on your lips. (ESV)

Let's have reverence for Jehovah God and serve Him:

> Malachi 3:15-18 - And now we call the arrogant blessed. Evildoers not only prosper but they put God to the test and they escape. Then those who feared the LORD spoke with one another. The LORD paid attention and heard them, and a book of remembrance was written before him of those who feared the LORD and esteemed his name. They shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, in the day when I make up my treasured possession, and I will spare them as a man spares his son who serves him. Then once more you shall see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him. (ESV)

These Scriptures refers to Jesus' name:

> Matthew 18:20 - For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them. (ESV)

> Matthew 18:19-20 - Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them. (ESV)

The JW are right to affirm that we must remember God's name. Exodus 3:15 and Malachi 3:16 refer to God's name, Yhvh, and Christians within the English speaking world generally affirm the name is spoken as Jehovah or Yahweh. It's right that we must affirm God's name and remember God's name:

> Exodus 3:13-15 - Then Moses said to God, If I come to the people of Israel and say to them, The God of your fathers has sent me to you, and they ask me, What is his name? what shall I say to them? God said to Moses, I AM WHO I AM. And he said, Say this to the people of Israel, I AM has sent me to you. God also said to Moses, Say this to the people of Israel, The LORD (H3068. Yhvh), the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is my name forever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations. (ESV)

> Exodus 9:16 - But for this purpose I have raised you up, to show you my power, so that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth. (ESV)

> Malachi 3:16 - Then those who feared the LORD spoke with one another. The LORD paid attention and heard them, and a book of remembrance was written before him of those who feared the LORD and esteemed his name. (ESV)

Father God has given Jesus Christ all authority in heaven and on earth. In other words, Jesus Christ is God, just as Jehovah is God and Holy Spirit is God:

> Philippians 2:9-10 - Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, (ESV)

> Matthew 28:18-20 - And Jesus came and said to them, All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:6 - but Christ is faithful over God's house as a son. And we are his house if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope. (ESV)

4.2.6 Christ-like humility

> Philippians 2:5-6 - Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, (ESV)

Obedient to His Father's commandments for Him:

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

We're also supposed to have this type of humility, which is obedient to God and supports others. (I think of serving others as "supporting" them because it shows that Jesus supports us to ourselves keep His commandments. We are supported to walk in the way God wants us to walk):

> Philippians 2:5-7 - Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. (ESV)

> Romans 15:1-7 - We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. For Christ did not please himself, but as it is written, The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me. For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. (ESV)

And God in His mercy saves us and brings us to Himself through Jesus His Son:

> Ephesians 2:1-5 - And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience— among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— (ESV)

As I was on my way driving to Elim church today, I was thinking ”external holiness/cleanliness” is a good thing. Jesus told some hypocritical Pharisees who were teachers of the Law but unclean within that they were like _whitewashed tombs.

> Matthew 23:26-28 - You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be clean. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but within are full of dead people's bones and all uncleanness. So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. (ESV)

The Pharisees were focusing on external cleanliness but ignoring their own hearts.

When we think of sin, it involves being enslaved to the practice of it, and it also involves the heart's desire of it. Sinful thoughts should be quickly disposed of and not allowed to be sown in the heart.

If we focus on cleaning the heart through obedience to the Truth and the washing of the Word in our heart, then that's the most important thing. We can be justified by humbling ourselves before God.

> Luke 18:11-14 - The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted. (ESV)

But our external circumstances may be making it difficult to meet the external appearance of obedient faith, such as ”being employed and working money” which is important as to bear one's own load by working is a commandment from the Apostle Paul, but having paid employment in this world to earn your keep is no sure indication of actual obedient faith in the heart of the person.

> II Thessalonians 3:6-12 - Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you keep away from any brother who is walking in idleness and not in accord with the tradition that you received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us, because we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but with toil and labor we worked night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you. It was not because we do not have that right, but to give you in ourselves an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we would give you this command: If anyone is not willing (G2309 thelei; is willing) to work, let him not eat. For we hear that some among you walk in idleness, not busy at work, but busybodies. Now such persons we command and encourage in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. (ESV)

- The mark of the beast seems to be specifically about trading/doing business/buying and selling - as in this mark would be required to partake in this system.
- I think that's inclusive of ”employment”, since it's selling your own services.
- It doesn't make sense to say that someone is being disobedient to Jesus when they want to work but are being prevented from working, otherwise you'd be making ”employment” into an idol.
- The commandment says ”willing to work”, not ”work.” Some people say, if anyone doesn't work they don't eat, but that would be like agreeing that people should take the mark of the beast. It would mean there would be no freedom, for example, to go on strike if the only paid employment was immoral.

Revelation of John 13:15-18 - And it was allowed to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast might even speak and might cause those who would not worship the image of the beast to be slain. Also it causes all, both small and great, both rich and poor, both free and slave, to be marked on the right hand or the forehead, so that no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark, that is, the name of the beast or the number of its name. This calls for wisdom: let the one who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man, and his number is 666. (ESV)

Isaiah 59:14-15 - Justice is turned back, And righteousness stands far away; For truth has stumbled in the street, And uprightness cannot enter. Yes, truth is lacking; And he who turns aside from evil makes himself a prey. Now the LORD saw, And it was displeasing in His sight that there was no justice. (NASB)

I want to know what the Scripture truly says as accurately as I can, so I look up the Greek and Hebrew biblestudytools.com 3-10-compare.html: 2 Thessalonians 3 : 10 - Compare Bible Verse Translations | Bible Study Tools. Interlinear: biblehub.com 3-10.htm: 2 Thessalonians 3:10 Interlinear

I've been born-again, purchased by God, given a new heart and a new spirit, so that I can love God with all my heart, soul, mind and strength and live. I've been bought so that I can practice righteousness. I can now speak about Jesus openly, though do not have monetary employment... I should not take a job where I'm prohibited from talking about Jesus. It would actually be wrong for me to allow myself to exchange this freedom that I have been given as a slave of righteousness (a slave of Christ) for money. And I don't want to suppress the truth by unrighteousness. I don't want the wrath of God!

I Peter 3:2 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

I Corinthians 7:23 - You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. (ESV)

Romans 1:18 - For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. (ESV)

Hebrews 12:16 - that no one is sexually immoral or unholy like Esau, who sold his birthright for a single meal. (ESV)

Matthew 26:15 - and said, What will you give me if I deliver him over to you? And they paid him thirty pieces of silver. (ESV)

We must not in wickedness and in ungodliness suppress the truth. Everything we do ought to be done in faith and love and love certainly has no fear of punishment, or of not being able to get a job. It's not right to bury your light. I believe it's our duty to communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ in testifying to others of Jesus. This is why I mention on my CV that I've been writing theology:

Acts 10:42-43 - And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name. (ESV)

Romans 1:17-18 - For the gospel reveals the righteousness of God that comes by faith from start to finish, just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith." The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness. (engbsb2020eb)

Mark 16:15-16 - And he said to them, Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:14-16 - You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (ESV)
> Mark 4:21 - And he said to them, Is a lamp brought in to be put under a basket, or under a bed, and not on a stand? (ESV)
> Luke 8:16 - , No one after lighting a lamp covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a stand, so that those who enter may see the light. (ESV)
> Luke 11:33 - No one after lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, so that those who enter may see the light. (ESV)

All glory to God:

> John 7:18 - The one who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory, but the one who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and in him there is no falsehood. (ESV)

I've been given much grace. Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required (Luke 12:42-49).

If we focus on cleaning the heart through obedience to the Truth and the washing of the Word, then that's the priority over trying to maintain the external appearance of godliness. The devil can take your job, but should not be allowed to take your obedience and faith and love for the Lord Jesus. It's good and glorifies God to keep obeying Jesus' commandments to serve Him, serving others, even if the devil puts pressure on you to make you fear for your own self-preservation.

That doesn't mean we don't endeavour to meet the commandment of the Apostle Paul but we are baptised into Christ, not into Paul, and Christ is our Master, not Paul, nor the Law of Moses. We are enslaved to Christ who is our righteousness - we are enslaved to Righteousness, obeying Jesus. The requirement of the Law is really fulfilled in our hearts and then that should become apparent on our outside.

We are made clean on the inside of the Word which Jesus has spoken to us:

> John 15:3 - Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. (ESV)
> Ephesians 1:13 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, (ESV)
> Acts 10:43 - To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name. (ESV)

That Word should clean our souls as we believe/obey it. The gospel (that seed of Truth) then cleans our hearts as we believe/obey it. And then we live in good conscience with God (forgiven and repentant), holding to the Truth - all of what we have heard from Jesus including the teaching about godliness (righteous living in accord with the knowledge of God, in accord with repentance). Our exterior behaviour also is cleaned as our hearts and thoughts are cleansed. We must continue to believe and obey Jesus as we read/hear His words.

> Matthew 17:5 - He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him. (ESV)

4.2.7 ”Legalism”

> Galatians 5:1 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. (ESV)

Any issue belonging to ’legalism’ is always about the appearance of obedience, rather than inward obedience and good conscience with God.

Here, Jesus seems to show that saving human life, and doing good is obedient to God's law but that there is an unlawful way to keep the law of God, and as an example, an unlawful way to ”keep the Sabbath”:

> Matthew 12:12 - Of how much more value is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath. (ESV)
> Luke 6:9 - And Jesus said to them, I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it? (ESV)

Legalism doesn’t keep God’s law lawfully.

Legalism would congratulate Robin Hood for giving to the poor because he always does it, though he stole from the metaphorical ’Caesar’ in order to do so. Legalism would condemn the poor person who can’t work but has been obedient gives what they can when someone asks, as in the commandment. Legalism would condemn the person who skipped going to church on Sunday in order to instead spend time showing love to someone who was thinking of killing themself.

There is absolutely one place I can think of where it is necessary to be ultra-strict, and that is in the testing of spirits to see if they are from God. We are told to not trust a spirit which does not confess Jesus, and we are reassured that any spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come (from God, into the world) in the flesh is from God. I wouldn’t trust a person who refuses to confess openly to me that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God who has come in the flesh into the world from God. It’s important to be really strict with that.

Jesus has come from God into the world in the form of flesh (as in, the Word of God having become flesh) is the meaning of the Scripture means where it is written that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh. It’s an important detail and distinction from Jesus being merely in an ordinary body of flesh. The word ”incarnate” when used may incorrectly convey an idea that He was merely the Son of God as a spirit inside of ordinary flesh and His flesh holding no real significance. But His flesh was not ordinary flesh as His flesh is Word become flesh (John 1:1-14), and for the propitiation of our sins He has suffered in His fleshly body, having been scourged in his flesh (Hebrews 10:5-14, Isaiah 53:5), that is the flesh of the Son of God (it’s Word of God flesh). And He had Father God and the Holy Spirit in Him (John 14:8-10, Romans 8:1-17).

> I John 4:1-21 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses (G3670 homologeó, confesses, acknowledges, agrees) that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess (G3670 homologeó, confess, acknowledge, agree with) Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> Matthew 10:32-38 - So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

Knowing God definitely involves not being violent, and it involves saving life.

> Isaiah 11:6-9 - The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the lion and the fattened calf together; and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze; their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the cobra, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den. They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea. (ESV)

4.2.8 Honesty in pleasing God with works

Doing so-called 'good works' to justify yourself while denying Christ's atoning work on the cross, is actually self-righteousness and is very displeasing to God.

When we talk about 'merit' or 'credit', we were enabled to even be able to have merit in suffering for righteousness sake because Jesus bore our sins on the tree that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. 'Live to righteousness' means walking in the light, walking in love and truth, practicing works that please God, making spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. I Corinthians 13:1-8 says that without love (love that rejoices with the truth) we gain nothing. God loved us first and has chosen us to be a holy people for His possession, and we can now make spiritual sacrficies which God finds acceptable through Jesus Christ our Lord who we are holding faith in and who has loved us first, laying down His life for us first:

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

4.2.9 Honesty in asking for help

I don't think it's right for a person (person A) to beg for help to help "them" if the intention is to pay off another's debt (person B), especially if person B is not, say a dependent, such as a spouse or a child, especially if the money was intended to be used to help person A, find employment.

It would be dishonest to be using the money differently while compromising on your 'obligations' to the person giving you money. For example, if I was begging on the street asking for someone to help 'me', it would be dishonest if in reality I was not using this money for the purpose of what I had asked specifically for, i.e. get me on my feet, but instead simply forwarding it onto others to pay off other people's debt would be dishonest.

Just as an aside, for some issues such as having a criminal conviction, or having no reference, I don't think it's always possible to spend money to solve the problem. How do I spend money to get past a criminal conviction or to get references? I can't think of any obvious legitimate way to go about doing that. So what would I do with excess funds but use to help other people get out of their problem?

If you say, please give me money so I can buy food, then the money should be for food. If you say, please give me money because I need money to help me to find work, then the money should be to find work. If you say, I need help and they ask, ”What for?” and you say, ”For food” and instead of spending on food you are paying off someone else's debt, then that is dishonesty.

OK, so what if you have a big debt yourself, like a student loan, and because of that you feel like you have to become debt free before ”giving to the one that asks” and you have to walk past all the beggars, and you are forced to find employment to pay back that loan before you can help other people?

That's the dilemma I've found myself in.

Within the freedom of whatever the money loaning debt system has, I'm thinking of the welfare system, I definitely believe there is flexibility in ”receiving about the same amount as everyone else” but living cheaply and donating excess to those in need.

youtube.com: Bishop Barron @time: 1 hrs 33 min 49 sec Since the whole world belongs to God, ultimately, right? God makes the whole world from nothing, (it belongs to God; it doesn't belong to us) we are stewards of it. So Leo said, ”Everyone has a right to private ownership...” (i.e. private property, such as a house), but when it comes to the use of what we own, he said, ”Once the requirements of necessity and propriety have been met in your own life, everything else you own belongs to the poor.” That's Leo XIII.

> Proverbs 3:27 - Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it. (ESV)

But there are obligations that we are supposed to meet while on welfare that is given for a specific purpose.

Inward obedience to Christ comes first, of course, and we're individually keeping a good conscience with God over that and personally accountable to God over that. I wouldn't want blood on my hands, for example, knowing I refused to feed or house someone and then found out they died overnight because they didn't get what they needed because I was being overly ”legalistic”.

It's starting to feel like witchcraft when you're being controlled by debt.

The reality is though, I think, that when God makes a person a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation), their sin debt to God is cancelled. Now people might start asking them to ”cough up” on material debt all of a sudden.

So what's the next move? I think it's right to find employment to pay back Caesar, to pay my monetary debts. Now if someone prevents me from finding employment, say with a criminal conviction, then that is very much like witchcraft, trying to keep me under a satanic stranglehold. In this world, everything seems to try to prevent me from following Jesus.

I think it's very true that in trying to resist sin, and maintain obedience to Christ's commandments, it would naturally lead a person to rousing demons and to persecution so intense in the likeness of having your blood shed.

> Hebrews 12:4-8 - In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. (ESV)

Anyway, on that note, I think I will endeavour to make a job application today.

4.2.10 Anti-christ-like behaviour

Pride and insubordination against God is antichrist-like behaviour:

> II Thessalonians 2:3-4 - Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God. (ESV)

Now with regards to the way people should (or shouldn't) act:

Quote by Tim Keller Know what the Bible says: Sin is craving something more than God. Sin is making something more important than God. Sin is is living for something more than God. If God is at the periphery of your life, if you're just religious occasionally, if God [is] sort of on the outskirts of your life, that is sin. That's the essence of sin.

It's really important to respect the testimony of the Cross:

Polycarp 6:3 For every one who shall not confess (G3670 homologeó) that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is antichrist: and whosoever shall not confess (G3670 homologeó) the testimony of the Cross, is of the devil; and whosoever shall pervert the oracles of the Lord to his own lusts and say that there is neither resurrection nor judgment, that man is the firstborn of Satan.

Read Polycarp to the Philippians, Chapter 7

Polycarp 7:1 (Greek) Π (G3670 homologeó, confess) (Jesus) X (Christ) ,

Polycarp 7:1 (English) [1] "For whoever does not confess (G3670 homologeó) that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, is antichrist;" and whoever does not confess the testimony of the cross, is of the devil; and whoever perverts the oracles of the Lord to his own lusts, and says that there is neither a resurrection nor a judgment, he is the first-born of Satan.

Bad or unchrist-like behaviour might be making money or some other thing more important than God to "get ahead" materially, placing burdens on others to fulfill the same materialistic/worldly standard, especially on those who have their priorities already in the correct order (they are obeying God, and are keeping their heart clean) and not lifting a finger to help them but actually make things more difficult. What I really mean is, it is the opposite of teaching Christlikeness to force someone to clean up their outward appearance or to meet certain worldly standards when they are in relationship Jesus, spending their time trying to help other people, and the bad outward appearance is a result of sacrificing for others following Jesus - I mean it is anti-christ-like behaviour to try to stop people from following Jesus or punish people for following Jesus.

> Psalms 37:14-17 - The wicked draw the sword and bend their bows to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose way is upright; their sword shall enter their own heart, and their bows shall be broken. Better is the little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked. For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but the LORD upholds the righteous. (ESV)
> John 19:28 - After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the Scripture), I thirst. (ESV)
> Matthew 23:26 - You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be clean. (ESV)

Jesus came to help us, shed His blood for us as atonement to ransom us from our sin, so that we can be set free from it and put a stop to it, and to bring us to God. Jesus certainly has made it easier for us to obey God, and we can be sanctified by His blood:

> Luke 23:36-37 - The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine and saying, If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself! (ESV)

> Psalms 69:21 - They gave me poison for food, and for my thirst they gave me sour wine to drink. (ESV)

I still consider that what matters is obedience to God from the heart:

> John 8:44 - You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. (ESV)

> Matthew 23:27-28 - Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but within are full of dead people's bones and all uncleanness. So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. (ESV)

We are also supposed to speak up for the God's Truth. We should affirm sound Christian teaching when it comes to what is sinful. Just because we may not judge others when it comes to something sinful, that doesn't mean that God wont judge us for practicing and affirming something sinful.

It's not loving to make life harder on people by placing higher standards of exterior 'cleanliness' without helping them to achieve it, when in reality the way to achieve it is to clean the inside first:

> Matthew 23:4 - They tie up heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on people's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to move them with their finger. (ESV)

> Matthew 23:25-29 - Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be clean. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but within are full of dead people's bones and all uncleanness. So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous, (ESV)

> Luke 11:39 - And the Lord said to him, Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. (ESV)

youtube.com: Living For The Lord Jesus - A Fulfilled Life - Mar Mari Emmanuel Specific example:

> Let's say there is a poor by appearances (but rich in God) person on the street who loves God with all their heart but has a rough outward appearance and the reason they have a rough outwards appearance is because the world hates them as a result of their faith in Jesus, being obedient to Jesus. Now along comes a worldly person who loves money, the pride of life and the pride of their possessions, and they love and desire money more than they love God (this is one reason why I don't like the prosperity gospel). This worldly person goes up to the poor person on the street and says they must be burdened with sin because of their outward appearance, that they are poor because of sin, rather than because of obedience, that must should their eyes away from following God and focus on worldly things, that they have demons and need to clean up their appearance to be a real Christian, and they don't lift a finger to help the poor person meet their standard of exterior wellbeing. The worldly ignorant person has just acted like the blind Pharisees, and not like the good Samaritan. The materially poor person may be in that situation because they were the good Samaritan to someone and saved someone's life.

> John 15:18-20 - If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. Remember the word that I said to you: A servant is not greater than his master. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours. (ESV)

The one worrying about the material things isn't in doing so exhibiting the love of the Father in them but the poor person who loves God does - the materially poor but rich in faith person has their priorities in order and doesn't need correction from the natural, worldly person, but rather needs mercy from the materialistic worldly person.

> Revelation of John 2:9 - I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich) and the slander of those who say that they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. (ESV)

And the materialistic, worldly person needs to learn from the poor person so they can put God first:

> Revelation of John 3:17 - For you say, I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing, not realizing that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked. (ESV)

This is not glorifying poverty, but rather is about the truth of the matter that we must have God as our top love in our heart:

> I John 2:15 - Do not love (agapate) the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:21 - For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. (ESV)

> James 2:5-8 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonored the poor man. Are not the rich the ones who oppress you, and the ones who drag you into court? Are they not the ones who blaspheme the honorable name by which you were called? If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself, you are doing well. (ESV)

It's the ones who serve Jesus who God delights in their prosperity:

> Psalms 35:27 - Let those who delight in my righteousness shout for joy and be glad and say evermore, Great is the LORD, who delights in the welfare of his servant! (ESV)

Servants serve:

> Mark 10:43-45 - But it shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:25-34 - Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble. (ESV)

opc.org qa.html: Question & Answer: The Orthodox Presbyterian Church Question:

> Are the Muslim nations descendents of Esau? If not, who?
> Answer:
> Historical data, as well as the locations of the original sons of Esau, suggest that at least some of the descendants of Esau are in fact part of the Islamic world. But to understand the situation properly we may need to go back further, to Ishmael, one of Abraham's sons, to find that he became a mighty nation as well. Islam in fact does look to Ishmael as one of their fathers.
> The existence of both Esau and Ishmael and their descendants must also be traced back to Genesis 3:15 and the conflict that exists between the seed of the Serpent and the Seed of the Woman, who is Christ. Our attention as believers must be upon Christ. All who oppose him, regardless of religious profession, are of their father the devil (see John 8:44). It is only by faith in God's covenant promise of salvation through Christ that salvation may be attained. The real Islamic problem is not their militancy but the fact that they, like all who do not love the Lord Jesus, are destined for God's condemnation.

4.2.12 The spirit of antichrist behind Islam

I'm convinced that Jesus Christ is the Only-begotten Son of God and that He is God's Word and God's Word is Jehovah, as the Father is also Jehovah and Holy Spirit is Jehovah.

> John 1:1-14 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)

> Psalms 33:6 - By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, and by the breath of his mouth all their host. (ESV)

The "invisible" rhēmati (Word) of God created the universe. Father and Son and Holy Spirit are the Co-Creators of the universe:

> Hebrews 11:3 - By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word (G4487 rhēmati) of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible. (ESV)

> Hebrews 1:2 - but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. (ESV)

> Psalms 104:30 - When you send forth your Spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the ground. (ESV)

From what I've seen in the Quran in chapter 19 without quoting from it, because I don't want to pollute my document, it really 'seems' to attempt to scare people away from confessing that Jesus Christ of Nazareth, son of Mary, is also the Son of God.

youtube.com: Distinctive Marks Of The Spirit Of The Antichrist {@DerekPrinceMinistries} @time: 1 m

You have to distinguish between two completely different things. Paganism which is the worship of false gods and idols but is not a denial that Jesus is the Messiah. In fact, in most parts of the pagan world they still haven't heard that Jesus ever came. You cannot be antichrist if you've never even heard of Christ, you see? So, that's paganism. It's satanic, but it's not the spirit of antichrist. The spirit of antichrist can only operate where Christ has first been proclaimed.

So, the second mark of the spirit of antichrist is it's aware of the coming of Jesus, denies His claim to be Messiah. That's not altogether true of Islam. They wouldn't contest that but they have so watered down the concept of Messiah that in actual fact it's meaningless.

...

So, the antichrist does not accept the Biblical revelation of the persons of the Godhead, the Father and the Son. And here Islam is an outstanding example because Moslems are fanatically opposed to the claim that Jesus is the Son of God.

I John 2:22-23 - Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. (ESV)

I know that Jesus is a fair judge.

Mark 4:24 - And he said to them, Pay attention to what you hear: with the measure you use, it will be measured to you, and still more will be added to you. (ESV)

youtube.com: "What About People Who NEVER Heard About Jesus?" {Tough Question Answered!} {

God judges people on the basis of evidence they've had, not on evidence they haven't had. You see that all through the Bible.

John 15:22-24 - If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV)

John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV)

Islam denies that Jesus is the Son of God, and denies various other important facts about Jesus:

I John 2:23-29 - No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you too will abide in the Son and in the Father. And this is the promise that he made to us—eternal life. I write these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you. But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything—and is true and is no lie, just as it has taught you—abide in him. And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him. (ESV)

John 8:24 - I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins. (ESV)

I John 2:23 - No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. (ESV)

> I John 5:12 - Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. (ESV)

Islam is an antichrist religion which denies that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and tries to scare people away from believing He's the Son of God. It's incompatible with Christianity. We've got to fight against the darkness with the word of God.

We have to fight against the darkness with the Word of God:

> Zechariah 4:6 - Then he said to me, This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of hosts. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:4-6 - For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)

The New Testament clearly teaches that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. God speaks though His Apostles and prophets so I do think that in a real sense that this is God saying that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. And since Jesus is the Word of God, this is also, in a sense Jesus claming to be the Son of God.

> Mark 1:1 - The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. (ESV)

And Jesus clearly does claim to have God as His Father:

> John 8:54 - Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, He is our God. (ESV)

> John 10:35-37 - If he called them gods to whom the word of God came—and Scripture cannot be broken— do you say of him whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, You are blaspheming, because I said, I am the Son of God? If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; (ESV)

I think it's correct to say that "in Christ Jesus", people have a spiritual identity as a son of God. I know almost nothing about Islam, but just doing a quick search online now, apparently it says something like, "How could He have children when He has no mate?" in An'am 6:101. But I think it probably misunderstands what it means to be a 'son of God'. Jesus appears to suggest that even women (because Jesus mentions "neither marry nor are given in marriage") if they are sons of the resurrection are sons of God.

> Luke 20:35-36 - but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:28 - There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

I defer to Sam Shamoun who is a Christian who knows more on the subject of Islam: answering-islam.org: Answering Islam, A Christian-Muslim Dialog and Apologetic

This person, has been making lots of posts that seem to be spot on:

youtube.com: Post from Shahriq Khan You know what Muslims, Mormons, and Jews say to me constantly?

> "You don't follow Jesus. You follow Paul." Bro... you don't understand how Christianity works.
> You do NOT need Paul to believe Jesus is the Messiah.
> If Paul disappeared tomorrow, Christianity would still stand. Why?
> Because the Torah and the prophets already did the heavy lifting.

Genesis: sin enters the world. Exodus and Leviticus: blood, atonement, and substitution.

Passover: the spotless lamb. Isaiah: the suffering servant. Daniel: the Messiah.

That's not Paul.

That's Moses, David, Isaiah, Daniel, and the entire prophetic story. Paul didn't invent Jesus. Paul looked at the Scriptures and realized:

This was ALWAYS about Him. And Paul wasn't some random guy making up theology. He was a Pharisee trained in the law. So when he preached, what did he quote?

The Old Testament. Over. And over. And over.

His argument was simple: If the Scriptures are true, Jesus Christ is unavoidable.

So saying Christians follow Paul instead of Jesus is like saying you follow the referee instead of the rulebook.

Paul isn't the point. He's pointing you to the point.

Don't like Paul? Fine.

Read Isaiah 53 without him. Read Psalm 22 without him. Read Daniel 9 without him.

You'll still end up staring directly at Jesus. Christianity isn't built on Paul.

It's built on the Messiah the Scriptures were already pointing to.

And once I finally read Paul charitably… Bro.

The man was an absolute SAVAGE for the faith.

Follow this account for more Christian apologetics, Muslim evangelism, and the biblical truth that led me from Islam to Jesus.

4.2.13 We should welcome people who hear Jesus' words and want to learn how to follow Jesus, and we should give them Jesus' words

If anyone claims to be a believer but does not abide in the teaching of Christ, they do not have God, and we should not associate with them.

> Psalms 26:5 - I hate the assembly of evildoers, and I will not sit with the wicked. (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:1 - Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. (ESV)

We need to cling to Christ's words and teachings and use them to correct our brothers in Christ. If there is resistance to Christ's teachings within the church, then that is not good.

We should let people in who want to follow Jesus. We should give the cold shoulder to people who do not want to follow Jesus.

If anyone claims to be a believer but doesn't abide in Christ's teachings then don't welcome that person in.

It's really important that we continue in the teaching of Christ and about Christ and allow ourselves to come into agreement with the teaching of Christ and about Christ.

We should separate ourselves from people who do not stay/remain/abide in the teaching of Christ (including about service and godliness) and about Christ (doctrine, even from the gospel accounts, eyewitnesses, etc.). If people do not want to continue in the teaching of Christ and about Christ, and they do not abide in it, and do not want to be corrected by the Word of God, then we should separate ourselves from them:

> II John 1:7-11 - For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess (G3670 homologeó) the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching (1322. didaché) of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him takes part in his wicked works. (ESV)

We must also withdraw ourselves from false teachers who bring in destructive heresies, particularly those teaching us we don't need to serve/obey the Master who bought us:

> II Peter 2:1 - But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. (ESV)

II Cor 11:6-15 is saying he was really practicing what he was preaching, authenticly and loving his brethren sincerely to serve them whilst preaching and in continuing to do so he hoped that his continued practicing of the truth without hypocrisy would undermine the claims of the false apostles who don't work on the same terms, and I believe those terms are in part the commitment to practice the truth, to practice righteousness, to righteously serve their brethren, by preaching the gospel and practicing selfless serving love without hypocrisy. The works of the false apostles Paul talks about (which include 'preaching') have been done on different terms to the works which Paul and the other true Apostles were working to. For example these false apostles would not have been practicing Jesus Christ's selfless, serving love as they preached, or exercising the same type of selfless love which Jesus commanded us to exercise for one another. Similar to preaching out of envy and rivalry, the false apostles Paul talks of would have also been preaching in some dishonest way.

> Philippians 1:15-17 - Some indeed preach Christ from envy and rivalry, but others from good will. The latter do it out of love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel. The former proclaim Christ out of rivalry, not sincerely but thinking to afflict me in my imprisonment. (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:5 - An athlete is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 16:13-14 - Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)

The works of the false apostles are not genuinely serving righteousness. The end of these people will correspond to their deeds done in unrighteousness.

> II Corinthians 11:6-15 - Even if I am unskilled in speaking, I am not so in knowledge; indeed, in every way we have made this plain to you in all things. Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached God's gospel to you free of charge? I robbed other churches by accepting support from them in order to serve you. And when I was with you and was in need, I did not burden anyone, for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my need. So I refrained and will refrain from burdening you in any way. As the truth of Christ is in me, this boasting of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia. And why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do! And what I do I will continue to do, in order to undermine the claim of those who would like to claim that in their boasted mission they work on the same terms as we do. For such men are false apostles, deceitful workmen, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ. And no wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light. So it is no surprise if his servants, also, disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. Their end will correspond to their deeds. (ESV)

Anyone who is practicing actual righteousness, if they abide in the truth, has been born of God:

> I John 2:29 - If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him. (ESV)

Read bibleoutlines.com: Bible Outlines - Jude 1-4 - Doctrine Worth Fighting For - Combating False Teachers

> Jude 1:4 - For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Jude 1:4 - For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. (KJV)

We shouldn't exclude those who are following Jesus and being taught by Jesus, and producing the right fruits. The ones who serve Jesus are obedient to Him:

> Romans 16:17-19 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. (ESV)

> Luke 6:22-23 - Blessed are you when people hate you and when they exclude you and revile you and spurn your name as evil, on account of the Son of Man! Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets. (ESV)

We must produce the right fruits:

> Matthew 21:43 - Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruits. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:5-7 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. Certain persons, by swerving from these, have wandered away into vain discussion, desiring to be teachers of the law, without understanding either what they are saying or the things about which they make confident assertions. (ESV)

We must produce the right fruits, not the wrong fruits. And we certainly shouldn't shut out people who are producing the right fruits:

> Matthew 23:13 - But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut the kingdom of heaven in people's faces. For you neither enter yourselves nor allow those who would enter to go in. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:14 - but Jesus said, Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

> I Timothy 6:1-5 - Let all who are under a yoke as slaves regard their own masters as worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be reviled. Those who have believing masters must not be disrespectful on the ground that they are brothers; rather they must serve all the better since those who benefit by their good service are believers and beloved. Teach and urge these things. If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, he is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, evil suspicions, and constant friction among people who are depraved in mind and deprived of the truth*, imagining that godliness is a means of gain.* (ESV)

If anyone claims to be a believer but is an unrepentant sinner then don't allow that person in:

> I Corinthians 5:11-13 - But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler — not even to eat with such a one. For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? God judges those outside. Purge the evil person from among you. (ESV)

Read `https://www.desiringgod.org/interviews/avoid-the-unrepentant-but-what-if-theyre-family`

If anyone claims to be a believer but does not agape (treasure) his brother, they are still in darkness:

> I John 2:9 - Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. (ESV)

We are all stewards of God's varied grace so there is obligation to serve one another:

> I Peter 4:10 - As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: (ESV)

Churches should be teaching Jesus' teachings, and we should be teaching each other to abide in Christ's teachings without hypocrisy (i.e. whilst abiding ourselves in Christ's teachings):

> Luke 12:42-49 - And the Lord said, Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. But if that servant says to himself, My master is delayed in coming, and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will cut him in pieces and put him with the unfaithful. And that servant who knew his master's will but did not get ready or act according to his will, will receive a severe beating. But the one who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, will receive a light beating. Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more. I came to cast fire on the earth, and would that it were already kindled! (ESV)
> II Corinthians 10:11 - Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 9:24-27 - Do you not know that in a race all the runners compete, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it. Every athlete exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. So I do not run aimlessly; I do not box as one beating the air. But I discipline my body and keep it under control, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified. (ESV)

4.2.14 God definitely disciplines us even if we love Jesus - every son he receives

The ones who love Jesus, keep His teachings:

> John 14:23-24 - Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me. (ESV)

God definitely disciplines us, even if we love Jesus and keep Jesus' commandments:

> Hebrews 12:6-8 - For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons.

Those who love God - those who believe and obey Him - those who trust Him - will experience trial:

> James 1:12 - Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him. (ESV)

I believe strongly that I am currently going through this and I have been going through this discipline/testing/repentan others stuff for a year or longer now:

> I Corinthians 11:32 - But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

We have to believe and obey the Truth. We have to agree with the word of God, and allow God to correct our beliefs and behaviour:

> John 17:17-19 - Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. (ESV)

I think we can expect God will discipline us to help us to keep the Royal Law.
Whoever loves with Christ's love knows Father God:

> I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)

4.2.15 Christians should live fulfilling the Royal Law

Those walking (living) according to Jesus' Spirit should be able to do this:

> Romans 8:4 - in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

> James 2:8 - If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself, you are doing well. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. (ESV)

1Clem 49:1 Let him that hath love in Christ fulfill the commandments of Christ.

> Romans 13:10 - Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

> Romans 13:8 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (ESV)

Whoever loves with Christ's love knows Father God:

> I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)

4.2.16 Fulfilling Christ's law is the least we can endeavour to do as an appropriate response of love for Jesus, Jesus having fulfilled the entire law and prophets

> John 15:25 - But the word that is written in their Law must be fulfilled: They hated me without a cause. (ESV)

> John 18:9 - This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken: Of those whom you gave me I have lost not one. (ESV)

> Matthew 26:56 - But all this has taken place that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples left him and fled. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:17 - Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. (ESV)

To love your neighbour as yourself means forgiving them too, and remember that Jesus forgave us. It also means to not take vengeance (Christ's law includes not rendering evil for evil):

> Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)

4.3 Following Jesus is the way of righteousness

By faith, we continue to abide in Jesus, believing Him and following Him in obedience. We do not simply commend ourselves for one act of belief, and then abandon the way:

> Galatians 5:5 - For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. (ESV)

We do receive commendation by faith but God is the one who commends, and He judges our hearts. I believe that justification works like this:

> Hebrews 11:1-2 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 4:5 - Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God. (ESV)

I believe this man here probably received justification in this commendation from Jesus Christ for the righteousness of faith in God:

> Luke 19:1-10 - He entered Jericho and was passing through. And there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich. And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small of stature. So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was about to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today. So he hurried and came down and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all grumbled, He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner. And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold. And Jesus said to him, Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost. (ESV)

We have peace with God and are justified by faith when we are following Jesus Christ who is our Lord. Yes, we have peace because we are following Jesus::

> Romans 5:1 - Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

"Jesus our Lord" means we are following Jesus. Those who trust in God who raised Jesus from the dead and follow Jesus will be justified:

> Romans 4:23-25 - But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

> Luke 6:46-49 - Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

OBEDIENCE!

youtube.com: How Faith Obeys Noah trusts God and builds an ark. Abraham trusts God and leaves his homeland. Abraham trusts God again and lives in tents instead of building (a city) city, and Sarah trusts God and conceives when she's old.

The first thing is God; God exists and God speaks. And when He speaks He's reliable, and we now have something to take hold of in life. If there were no God, if there were no speaking, there'd be no faith in God, and there'd be no future for us.

> Romans 14:18 - Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

A few weeks ago on a <2025-01-13 Mon> Monday, I woke up to a voice which said, "What is your faith in?"

I responded like this, "My faith is in the Word of God. Jesus Christ and His finished works is the cornerstone of my faith, and keeping and doing his commandments is the foundation of my faith. I obey Righteousness because I obey Jesus. I believe in the Truth because I believe in Jesus."

I didn't know but it turned out to be the last day of my sentence.

4.3.1 Separate yourself from unrepentant sinners

> I Corinthians 5:11-13 - But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler — not even to eat with such a one. For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? God judges those outside. Purge the evil person from among you. (ESV)

Separate from the lawless (those who reject Christ's commandments), from the unbelievers (those who reject the gospel), and idolators (from those who unrepentantly treasure/value anything or anyone more than God):

> II Corinthians 6:14-18 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

After being born-again on the 2 April 2022 (which I consider to be spiritual regeneration and receiving a lot of grace from God), it's become even more apparent to me that there is a fight for sanctification involving choosing Jesus over sin. The fight for sanctification involves trusting, believing and obeying Jesus Christ and overcoming resistance, even from people all around me.

That makes sense because if Jesus grants grace to someone then they're expected to use it to be transformed into Christ's image, not to double-down on sin. Just because the fight of faith is challenging and just because we get resistance as we reject darkness and come into agreement with God's word, doesn't mean we should easily give in to the resistance or compromise with darkness. We have to obey the truth from the Word, and love the light. I have noticed that it seems as though if you give the devil an inch, he will take a mile. We have to be strong with speaking and affirming, and walking in the Truth, when confronting situations arise.

We have to abide in the teaching of Christ - it's a war:

> I John 1:6 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:11 - Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:1 - Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. (ESV)

We must expose the darkness and repent from sin and carry out deeds of light done in God - God working in us as we hold faith in and obey the true Jesus Christ:

> John 3:18-21 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

Justified by works = justified by obedient faith (obedience). Commended by God by being obedient to God, including having faith in God. I have explained my view on justification by obedient faith elsewhere in this document:

1Clem 30:1-3 Seeing then that we are the special portion of a Holy God, let us do all things that pertain unto holiness, forsaking evil speakings, abominable and impure embraces, drunkennesses and tumults and hateful lusts, abominable adultery, hateful pride. For God, He saith, resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the lowly. Let us therefore cleave unto those to whom grace is given from God. Let us clothe ourselves in concord, being lowlyminded and temperate, holding ourselves aloof from all back biting and evil speaking, being justified by works and not by words.

concord agreement or harmony between people or groups. "a pact of peace and concord"

It's not impossible to be justified by works as Abraham was justified by works after he was justified by trusting, obedient faith alone.

> James 2:21 - Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up his son Isaac on the altar? (ESV)
> Galatians 3:5-7 - Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith— just as Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness? Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham. (ESV)
> James 2:25 - And in the same way was not also Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way? (ESV)
> Hebrews 11:31 - By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given a friendly welcome to the spies. (ESV)

Walking in God's will, doing works that are not merely our 'own' works, and we come into that when we trust and believe His word:

1Clem 32:3 They all therefore were glorified and magnified, not through themselves or their own works or the righteous doing which they wrought, but through His will.

> John 1:12-13 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

By a sovereign act of God in giving us His Word we are born-again of His will by His word - through faith in His Word:

> James 1:16-18 - Do not err, my beloved brethren. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. (KJV)

Practicing righteousness is done while in a relationship with Jesus - we do good works by Jesus working in us as we are holding fast to the gospel.

> Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:12-16 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out (G2716 katergazomai) your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. Do all things without grumbling or questioning, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

And also, sin is a very big deal now, and conforming to the image of Christ is how I want to be receiving / have received the grace of God, and I don't want to exchange the grace of God for licentiousness.

> Jude 1:4 - For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. (ESV)

I have also learned a scary lesson in personal experience after being born again of the Spirit - being made alive / spiritually regenerated. While there are many positive things that come with being born of the Spirit, such as the relationship with God feeling incredibly real, and days jam-packed with things that it seems God set up (lined up) for me, there's been an incredible amount of spiritual warfare going on.

To engage in uncleanness, sinning or things of darkness has profound impact not just on me but on those around me. It feels as though is a powerful enemy that if I were to allow it to reign in my body, it would become something that I cannot choose not to do anymore. What I don't want to do is consolidate darkness - I don't want to 'make the sin alive / regenerate the sin', as I've been given spiritual regeneration to be conformed to holiness. I don't want to exchange the grace of God for licentiousness.

> Matthew 6:23 - but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness! (ESV)

> Romans 6:12-13 - Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts, and do not go on presenting the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. (NASB)

It's very important, for example, to confess (G3670 homologeó) sin as sin and turn our backs on it, if we don't want to receive the grace of God in vain:

> I John 1:7-10 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:21-6:1 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. (ESV)

I don't like the idea of an invulnerable worm moving through my soul for all eternity if that is what this is:

> Mark 9:47-50 - And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell, where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched. For everyone will be salted with fire. Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, how will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another. (ESV)

We want to be overcome by Christ so that we just do the will of God and can't help but do the will of God. To get there we are instructed to keep Jesus' commandments and resist sin:

> II Peter 2:19 - They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:14-15 - For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. (ESV)

> Romans 6:17-20 - But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. (ESV)

Paul also talks about how sin affects others spiritually. It's serious business to be fighting sin:

> I Corinthians 5:1-6 - It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you. For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? (ESV)

Distance yourself from people who claim to be believers in Jesus but are unrepentant.
For example:

- From those who go after false gods whilst also claiming to believe in Jesus.
- From those who defend sin such as sexual immorality, idolatry and abortion, or defend violence.

Expose the unfruitful works of darkness:

- Then warn them they could be denying Jesus with their works, and that God's wrath falls on the unrepentant, the disobedient.
- Don't associate with them if they continue it

> Ephesians 5:1-11 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. (ESV)

Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

4.4 God endured the cross that we can carry our crosses without getting weary or fainthearted

Matthew 16:24 - Then Jesus told his disciples, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. (ESV)

Hebrews 12:2-5 - looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. (ESV)

4.4.1 Carrying our cross is remaining faithful to Jesus

Any suffering we may receive for the sake of remaining faithful to Jesus and His gospel, that is our cross:

Luke 21:19 - By your endurance you will gain your lives (G5590 psychas: souls). (ESV)

Matthew 16:26 - For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life? Or what shall a man give in return for his life (G5590 psychēs: souls)? (ESV)

Luke 9:23-27 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself? For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God. (ESV)

4.5 Like a soldier under authority, waiting for God to act is not passive

We should just focus on what we are called to do. As we trust in Jesus (maybe to do a miracle for us), we should ourselves do our duty. We should not exalt ourselves. Leave the exalting to God.

Psalms 37:4-7 - Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act. He will bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your justice as the noonday. Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over the one who prospers in his way, over the man who carries out evil devices! (ESV)

Proverbs 16:9 - The heart of man plans his way, but the LORD establishes his steps. (ESV)

James 4:10 - Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you. (ESV)

Ecclesiastes 12:13 - The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. (ESV)

I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to (G3784 opheilei; ought to, obligated to, has a duty to) walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

> Micah 6:8 - He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? (ESV)

> Matthew 8:8-10 - But the centurion replied, Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof, but only say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. And I say to one, Go, and he goes, and to another, Come, and he comes, and to my servant, Do this, and he does it. When Jesus heard this, he marveled and said to those who followed him, Truly, I tell you, with no one in Israel have I found such faith. (ESV)

4.6 Obey the Truth, obey Jesus. Serve one another through love

Even Paul shows that in obeying Jesus, we walk by the Spirit:

> Galatians 5:13-17 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word (G3056 logō): You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. (ESV)

Walking by the Spirit is being led by the Spirit is being obedient to Jesus.

The word ”telē” in I Cor 10:11 is the plural of ”telos” which is used in Romans 10:4. It doesn’t mean ”abolishment”. It’s more like ”culmination”, ”goal, or ”full maturity”, or the ”final stage”, or the ”ultimate purpose” and that if a person has arrived at faith in Jesus then they have arrived at the destination where the Mosaic Law was a ”schoolmaster” to get us to. Now even if the coming faith was not yet ”revealed”, if someone were to have pursued the Mosaic Law by genuine fear of God, love of God, trust of God, hope in God, faith in the heart (rather than the exterior works) then that would still be commendable. But if a person rejects Jesus (say if they reject Him as King, or as Christ, if they don’t submit to God’s righteousness) then it simply shows that they do not have true faith in God, that they do not do what Abraham did, they do not have the love of God, the love of the Truth in them:

> Romans 10:4 - For Christ is the end (G5056 telos) of the law (G3551 nomos) for righteousness (G1343 dikaiosune) to everyone who believes (G4100 pisteuo, trusts). (ESV)

> Galatians 3:22-27 - But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. (ESV)

> Romans 9:30-32 - What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness did not succeed in reaching that law. Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, (ESV)

> John 8:31-47 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas: having believed ’V-RPA-AMP past tense’) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father.

> They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

The faith we must have is still law, but it's not a law of works:

> Romans 3:21-31 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ. Perhaps to distinguish this verse from Romans 6:14-15, it could be written "law-abiding" to Christ's law, rather than "under":

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

We're not anti-law (G459 anomos). We're not without law. We're not lawless. Rather, we're pro-Christ's law and we're law-abiding (G1772 ennomos) to Christ's law.

anomos vs ennomos `https://www.wenstrom.org/downloads/written/word_studies/greek/nomos.pdf`

But notice how the phrase "under law" is written differently for Romans 6:14-15 and means something a little bit different. The english translations should probably rather use a different word in I Corinthians 9:21 to help distinguish one from the other:

> Romans 6:14-15 - For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law (G5259 hypo) (G3551 nomon) but under grace. What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! (ESV)

And we're not under law because Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law. But rather, we are under grace (Jesus is helping us but we are abiding in Jesus' commandments).

Abiding by Christ's law (Christ's commandments), which is a law of faith (we're not under the curse of the law of Moses) and is not a law of works (Romans 3:21-31), is not being under a curse, but, rather is being under grace:

> I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
> John 1:17 - For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

When contrasting being "under law" to being "under grace", Paul is takling about people who "rely" on the "works" (the exterior stuff) of the law, the Mosaic Law (which came in after Abraham), who are under law. But the law of Christ which we are 'under' (abide in) is a different type of law, and the kind of law that it is is a law of faith. It's about the heart. And like Abraham, we should believe in, trust in, trust, agape love and obey Jesus. And just like Abraham's faith, our faith may be tested and a person may be justified by works, like Abraham's faith and that wasn't "works of the law of Moses" which came in later (to increase the trespass). But we don't "rely" on the justification by works of faith in Jesus, though that type of thing may happen.

Paul in Galatians 3:10-13 is takling about people who "rely" on the "works" of the law:

> Galatians 3:10-13 - For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them. Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— (ESV)

Paul here saying that no-one is justified by the works of the law, that is true, but we are justified by the law of Christ, Christ's law being a law of faith.

> Romans 3:27-31 - Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

Those who would pursue the Mosaic law that would lead to righteousness must pursue it by faith, not by works:

> Romans 9:30-32 - What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness did not succeed in reaching that law. Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, (ESV)

The person "doing the will of Father God" is the person who "believes" and is the person who "does in reality" and is the person who "goes to work in the vineyard".

A person might therefore have said the wrong thing but ended up doing the right thing. Man looks at the outwards appearance. God looks at the heart. God wants us to be the one who goes out in reality. This parable doeosn't mention the quality of any potential work done. But it's saying we must be those who go out in reality to do God's will for us:

> Matthew 21:24-32 - Jesus answered them, I also will ask you one question, and if you tell me the answer, then I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, from where did it come? From heaven or from man? And they discussed it among themselves, saying, If we say, From heaven, he will say to us, Why then did you not believe him? But if we say, From man, we are afraid of the crowd, for they all hold that John was a prophet. So they answered Jesus, We do not know. And he said to them, Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, Son, go and work in the vineyard today. And he answered, I will not, but afterward he changed his mind and went. And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, I go, sir, but did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father? They said, The first. Jesus said to them, Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him. (ESV)

God just wants us to take to the plough (Matthew 21:24-32) and not look back:

> Luke 9:62 - Jesus said to him, No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God. (ESV)

I actually want to critique John Piper's except now. I believe that it's Christ's law that we must keep, and that it is a law of faith rather than works, and that we must be doers of Christ's law. The obedience is not the works, so it's not a law of works. I cdon't think at all that saying "law-keeping" intrinsically comes with pride or a desire to show oneself better than another person. Rather, being a "doer of the law of faith that is Christ's law" a person would by necessity be having faith working through Christ's love and I don't see how Christ's love is prideful:

youtube.com: If We Have the Spirit, Why Commands? Galatians 5:22-26, Part 3 @time: 14 min 38 sec

> Don't be conceited. Don't provoke one another. Don't envy, but rather keep in step with the Spirit and the Spirit will incline you to Christ and who and enable you to remember that you are justified by faith and not by law-keeping ~~by which you can show yourself better than somebody~~. Faith is a great leveler; It's so humble and dependent and it enables you to see that this kind of life here is self-exalting which is exactly the opposite of what walking according to the spirit does because walking according to the Holy Spirit is walking in love and love humbles itself to serve others, not exalt ourselves above them.

But the rest of this except I agree with.

4.6.1 Jesus Christ is Jehovah, the Son of God

> Mark 10:18 - And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. (ESV)

> Mark 1:11 - And a voice came from heaven, You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased. (ESV)

> Mark 1:24 - What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God. (ESV)

> Mark 2:5 - And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, My son, your sins are forgiven. (ESV)

Jesus is going to save many lives:

> Mark 10:45 - For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)

Jesus asked to give up everything and follow Him. Jesus does things only God can do:

> Mark 10:21-27 - And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, How difficult it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said to them again, Children, how difficult it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God. And they were exceedingly astonished, and said to him, Then who can be saved? Jesus looked at them and said, With man it is impossible, but not with God. For all things are possible with God. (ESV)

If a person gives up everything for Jesus' and the gospel' then they will receive eternal life:

> Mark 10:28-30 - Peter began to say to him, See, we have left everything and followed you. Jesus said, Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life. (ESV)

God can give eternal life. Jesus can give eternal life. Jesus is God, the Son of God:

> Mark 10:17 - And as he was setting out on his journey, a man ran up and knelt before him and asked him, Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life? (ESV)

> Romans 9:5 - To them belong the patriarchs, and from their race, according to the flesh, is the Christ who is God over all, blessed forever. Amen. (ESV)

> Psalms 49:7-9,15 - Truly no man can ransom another, or give to God the price of his life, for the ransom of their life is costly and can never suffice, that he should live on forever and never see the pit. But God will ransom my soul from the power of Sheol, for he will receive me. Selah (ESV)

Jesus must be God because the Scripture says that salvation for man is impossible for man without God, and Jesus Christ is our Saviour. "God through Jesus Christ":

> Mark 10:26-27 - And they were exceedingly astonished, and said to him, Then who can be saved? Jesus looked at them and said, With man it is impossible, but not with God. For all things are possible with God. (ESV)

> I John 4:14 - And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. (ESV)

> Jude 1:24-25 - Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen. (ESV)

Only God is good and only God can forgive sins. Jesus also knows in His spirit what they are questioning in their hearts:

> Mark 2:5-11 - And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, My son, your sins are forgiven. Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, Why does this man speak like that? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone? And immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they thus questioned within themselves, said to them, Why do you question these things in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, Your sins are forgiven, or to say, Rise, take up your bed and walk? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins—he said to the paralytic— I say to you, rise, pick up your bed, and go home. (ESV)

God tests and knows the secrets of people's hearts. Jesus is God, God the Son.
Jesus:

- forgives sins
- heals diseases
- sees what people sees in their hearts

> I Kings 8:39 - then hear in heaven your dwelling place and forgive and act and render to each whose heart you know, according to all his ways (for you, you only, know the hearts of all the children of mankind), (ESV)

> Psalms 44:21 - would not God discover this? For he knows the secrets of the heart. (ESV)

Jesus forgives sins and heals diseases:

> Psalms 103:1-5 - Bless the LORD, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name! Of David. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. (ESV)

> Mark 10:45 - For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)

Yeah, so everything that we're supposed to praise Jehovah for, Jesus does. We praise Jehovah for forgiving our sins. We praise Jehovah for healing our diseases and redeeming our life for the pit. Jehovah is the only person who knows what people are thinking in their hearts and Jesus knew it immediately.

4.6.2 You cannot serve God, and also be yoked to money

Priorities:

- 1. Jesus
- 2-∞. Everything else

> Matthew 6:24 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. (ESV)

> Job 22:23-26 - If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored. If you remove injustice from your tents and consign your gold to the dust and the gold of Ophir to the stones of the ravines, then the Almighty will be your gold and the finest silver for you. Surely then you will delight in the Almighty and lift up your face to God. (engbsb2020eb)

God wants us to love Him, treasure Him (25. agapaó), value Him with all our heart, and love and value

youtube.com: What Is It Like to Enjoy God? @time: 35 min 16 sec

We should be able to live while having confidence that Jesus is all we need. The fear of not having enough money should not be stopping us from obeying God and treasuring God above all things and loving one another as God has instructed.

> Hebrews 13:5-6 - Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, I will never leave you nor forsake you. So we can confidently say, The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me? (ESV)

You cannot make money master over you:

> Matthew 6:24 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. (ESV)

We must accept Jesus as Master over us:

> Romans 14:4 - Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand. (ESV)

But not only that; We also have to want God, treasure God and love God. And that means loving Him, treasure Him (25. agapaó), love Him in trust and in belief and obedience. In order to follow Jesus, sometimes you will have to sacrifice financial security because there are many people you around you who need you to lighten their burdens because we value/treasure (25. agapaó) people more than material/worldly things. Also God may even test you to see if you love your money more than Him:

> I Peter 4:12 - Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. (ESV)

We should be willing to have our pockets completely emptied as we give mercy to others and get to the point where we're relying on God alone. We should be able to do that if it were required of us. We have to root the love of money out of our own hearts and love God with our whole heart, and trust God who is our life!

> Luke 12:23 - For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. (ESV)

> Job 22:23-26 - If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored. If you remove injustice from your tents and consign your gold to the dust and the gold of Ophir to the stones of the ravines, then the Almighty will be your gold and the finest silver for you. Surely then you will delight in the Almighty and lift up your face to God. (engbsb2020eb)

youtube.com: JESUS | Full Album | Jesus Image @time: 21 min 58 sec God You're still good and I thank You for what we do have. We may not have all that we've been asking for but we thank You that we have everything that we need because we have You, Jesus!

> Deuteronomy 30:6 - And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your offspring, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live. (ESV)

I think I John 2:15-17 is essentially saying, "Do not agape love the world or what's in the world. Do not love the things of this world with the type of love that we have for God and for people, namely agape love." If we fall out of agape love for the world and are not conformed to the world but are transformed by the renewing of our minds then by testing we will be able to discern the will of God:

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love (agapate) the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

> John 14:15-21 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

Sermon Seven Reasons We Must Pursue Supreme Satisfaction in God - YouTube

We must get on the path of having faith in Jesus, believe in the name (onoma) of Jesus, God's Son, and obey God to have confidence:

> Proverbs 10:17 - Whoever heeds instruction is on the path to life, but he who rejects reproof leads others astray. (ESV)

> I John 3:21-22 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. (ESV)

I believe this is really talking about the commandments of Jesus and even of Father God. I personally believe this includes the 10 Commandments which I believe are still important for Christians to follow by faith:

> I John 3:21-24 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 1:20 - For all the promises of God find their Yes in him. That is why it is through him that we utter our Amen to God for his glory. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:8-10 - Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

We must be yoked to Jesus Christ alone. How? By following His commandments in reality. If you're not yoked to Jesus then you're susceptible to being yoked to anything else.

You cannot serve God and cryptocurrency. With money, and with cryptocurrency, you are making a black and white choice between God and money.

> Matthew 8:22 - And Jesus said to him, Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead. (ESV)

> Acts 8:18-21 - Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, saying, Give me this power also, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit. But Peter said to him, May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God.

This widow gave in faith, because she believes God will take care of her even if she gives everything (that's the mindset of faith), so long as it's lawful giving, we can give ourself away for others out of real love if it's in the truth:

> Mark 12:41-44 - And he sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the offering box. Many rich people put in large sums. And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. And he called his disciples to him and said to them, Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on. (ESV)

Following Jesus doesn't mean not providing for family. In fact, following Jesus does mean providing for family. So when you read Jesus' commandments and someone asks you for help, you give them what they need, without stealing though. If the money is for taking care of family, we must keep that. But our neighbour who we must love are more than just our immediate family. We are commanded by the Apostle Paul to provide for our family:

> I Timothy 5:8 - But if anyone does not provide for his relatives, and especially for members of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. (ESV)

Following Jesus comes first, even before following your family. To even love your family best is to put Jesus first. It's for their sake too:

> Matthew 10:36-39 - And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. (ESV)

> Mark 8:34 - And he called to him the crowd with his disciples and said to them, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. (ESV)

It's black and white - we must be yoked to Jesus:

> Mark 10:21 - And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

The thoughts that go through our minds must not be:

- How can I secure my life here on earth with enough crypto to be taken care of so I don't have to worry - that type of thinking is emnity against God. That's making money #1 and Jesus after that.

> James 4:4 - You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. (ESV)

> John 12:25 - Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. (ESV)

The thoughts that go through our minds must be:

- How can I serve God agape-ing God, (valuing and treasuring Him, His name, His words, His precepts), and agape the light of the glory of God in Christ, cease to agape the world or the lusts of the world, and help to bring about the obedience of faith in Christ in other people, and agape other people. Where can I sow into the Kingdom of God? How can I agape people and show people that God agape's them, especially the neglected and needy, like in James 1:27.

> James 1:27 - Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world. (ESV)

> Luke 9:23 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. (ESV)

> Luke 9:59-62 - To another he said, Follow me. But he said, Lord, let me first go and bury my father. And Jesus said to him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead. But as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God. Yet another said, I will follow you, Lord, but let me first say farewell to those at my home. Jesus said to him, No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God. (ESV)

> Luke 18:22 - When Jesus heard this, he said to him, One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

You can't follow Jesus Christ's instructions in faith while asking OpenAI if it's OK. You can not be led by God and be led by an AI such as ChatGPT. You can not be led by God and be led by a Neuralink chip.

> Matthew 8:22 - And Jesus said to him, Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead. (ESV)

We have the Word of God. We can also walk in Jesus' commandments. We've got to be yoked to Jesus Christ. God can speak to us directly without internet, even through His Spirit, even in a dream.

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

youtube.com: Christ is Enough - Hillsong Worship | LYRIC VIDEO Christ is enough for me. Everything I need is in You.

Now consider sermon-writing. If you were to short-circuit the process of writing a sermon by consulting an AI instead of listening to the Holy Spirit, (i.e. while not walking by the Spirit and while not keeping a good conscience with God and while not walking in His ways and while not with a sincere devotion to Christ and while not following Jesus (who is the Spirit) in your heart obedient to His commandments (God can see your heart), while not endeavouring to please God and not man), and you decide to short-change the Holy Spirit as Ananias did and just use an AI to come up with the sermon, or automate the process, then that would be abomination. This is what I'm talking about. That's the type of behaviour which would not be being led by the Holy Spirit. Rather, it would be allowing ones' thoughts to be led astray.

> I Corinthians 2:12 - Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. (ESV)

> I John 2:27 - But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything—and is true and is no lie, just as it has taught you—abide in him. (ESV)

On <2022-07-03 Sun> I recorded a vision on my old blog which I had that day or the day before. It was most likely in the morning of 3 July 2022. It's not backed up on the internet archive. But this was its URL: `https://mullikine.github.io/posts/dream-sacred-heart-of-jesus/` I've still got the git repo offline.

Read mullikine.github.io: Vision: Sacred heart of Jesus, Technology and God's Army // Bodacious Blog

Description A most red swallowtail flag, red on top, blue as the bottom half stripe I think, rolled around a pole, with white on the flag too I think.

The words `"St John 2 June/July 2000 - A very strong force indeed"` were written on the flag.

There was something I remember also before seeing the flag. I was trying to build something. However, upon seeing the flag I thought 'This has already been built for me; The flag, that is'. But this is the year 2000 I thought! Was it possibly me who built this flag back then?

vatican.va 5F20000702.html: Angelus, 2 July 2000 | John Paul II JOHN PAUL II - ANGELUS - Sunday 2 July 2000

Dear Brothers and Sisters!

[1.] Last Friday we celebrated the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, that Heart which began to beat 2,000 years ago in the womb of Mary Most Holy and brought the fire of God's love into the world.

The Heart of Jesus contains a message for everyone; it also speaks to today's world. In a society where technology and informatics are developing at a growing rate, where people are caught up in thousands of often conflicting interests, they risk losing their centre, the centre of their very selves. By showing us his Heart, Jesus reminds us first of all that it is there, deep within himself, that each person's destiny is decided, his death or life in the definitive sense. He himself gives us life in abundance, which allows our hearts, sometimes hardened by indifference and selfishness, to be opened to a higher form of life.

The Heart of the crucified and risen Christ is the inexhaustible source of grace from which every individual can always draw love, truth and mercy, especially during this special year of the Great Jubilee.

[2.] The Blood of Christ has redeemed us. This is the truth which we proclaimed just yesterday, at the beginning of July, the month traditionally dedicated to the Precious Blood of Christ, at the Jubilee of the Sanguis Christi Union.

How much blood has been unjustly shed in the world! How much violence, how much contempt for human life!

This humanity, often wounded by hatred and violence, more than ever needs to experience the efficacy of Christ's redeeming Blood. That Blood, which was not shed in vain, contains all the power of God's love and is the pledge of hope, redemption and reconciliation. But in order to draw from this source, we must turn to the Cross of Christ and fix our gaze on the Son of God, on his pierced Heart, on that Blood poured out.

Also, an interesting fact I recorded on that blog article: Elon Musk meets the Pope July 2, 2022: Elon Musk meets Pope Francis, uses Twitter to announce the audience - NZ Herald

The vision was recorded in advance because I thought it was important at the time to record. We walk by faith (trusting obedience to Jesus), not 'natural/worldly' sight/appearances (II Corinthians 5:6-7):

> Habakkuk 2:2-4 - And the LORD answered me: Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so he may run who reads it. For still the vision awaits its appointed time; it hastens to the end—it will not lie. If it seems slow, wait for it; it will surely come; it will not delay. Behold, his soul is puffed up; it is not upright within him, but the righteous shall live by his faith. (ESV)

> John 7:24 - Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment. (ESV)

Last month the Vatican put out another article:

vatican.va en.html: Antiqua et nova. Note AI and Our Relationship with God

104. Technology offers remarkable tools to oversee and develop the world’s resources. However, in some cases, humanity is increasingly ceding control of these resources to machines. Within some circles of scientists and futurists, there is optimism about the potential of artificial general intelligence (AGI), a hypothetical form of AI that would match or surpass human intelligence and bring about unimaginable advancements. Some even speculate that AGI could achieve superhuman capabilities. At the same time, as society drifts away from a connection with the transcendent, some are tempted to turn to AI in search of meaning or fulfillment-longings that can only be truly satisfied in communion with God.[194]

105. However, the presumption of substituting God for an artifact of human making is idolatry, a practice Scripture explicitly warns against (e.g., Ex. 20:4; Ex. 32:1-5; Ex. 34:17). Moreover, AI may prove even more seductive than traditional idols for, unlike idols that "have mouths but do not speak; eyes, but do not see; ears, but do not hear" (Ps. 115:5-6), AI can "speak," or at least gives the illusion of doing so (cf. Rev. 13:15). Yet, it is vital to remember that AI is but a pale reflection of humanity-it is crafted by human minds, trained on human-generated material, responsive to human input, and sustained through human labor. AI cannot possess many of the capabilities specific to human life, and it is also fallible. By turning to AI as a perceived "Other" greater than itself, with which to share existence and responsibilities, humanity risks creating a substitute for God. However, it is not AI that is ultimately deified and worshipped, but humanity itself-which, in this way, becomes enslaved to its own work.[195]

youtube.com: Should I Use AI to Help Me Write Sermons? {@desiringGod} ... If I had read that to you as my own it would have been wicked. This is what I want the folks to hear - wicked. I’m using a strong word because I feel strongly about this.

...

If you’re going to have ChatGPT write your first draft and you’re going to tweak it then you better say to your people, ”ChatGPT, Artificial Intelligence has composed the word of God for you this morning.”

Everything is coming into subjection, but some things might yet be in rebellion.

> Hebrews 2:8 - putting everything in subjection under his feet. Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. At present, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him. (ESV) youtube.com: Is AI Replacing Christian Discernment? {@ 100huntley } I’m on the same page as Joanna NG and Pastor Tim Woodcock here. There’s no substitute for God, and it just seems to me as though technology and especially AI chatbots are being used as false substitutes for real relationship with God and other people. God wants our attention. Don’t let an AI steal from God what belongs to God. That’s my view anyway. Agape love treasures, values. And we’re commanded to agape love God first of all, and our neighbour as ourself, and we must love God and our family in Christ. And I don’t see how it is loving in truth to be ”offloading” what is sacred to AI. We should never offload prayer, sermon writing, loving one another in deed, etc. to AI! Jesus is Aletheia! Jesus is Reality. Jesus is Truth. And God sees what’s in our hearts. Who needs an AI for that?? Jesus’ throne belongs to Jesus.

The idea of GPT generating sermons to me is abomination.

I think it is dangerous to be using AI like this. Jesus Christ is the Truth. Jesus Christ is Reality. Jesus youtube.com: Catholic Answers to A . I . | EWTN Vaticano {@ ewtnnews }

When John Piper here doesn’t condemn using GPT to give ’inspiration’ for writing sermons, I would condemn that practice, and the reason why I would condemn that practice would be similar to the reason why you wouldn’t ask satan (who can recall bits of the word of God) to provide inspiration for a sermon.

An example: Lets say God wants you to preach a sermon on repentance today because there is someone who needs to hear a particular message, but you don’t take time to listen to God, and instead you listen to the divination of an AI:

> Acts 5:3 - But Peter said, Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back for yourself part of the proceeds of the land? (ESV)

Now you instead preach a sermon on grace but not on repentance as God wanted you to preach on. So God’s will isn’t carried out. That’s the issue. God has to be our only Teacher. Is turning left or right inherently wrong? Not unless God wanted you to turn one way or the other:

> Isaiah 30:20-21 - And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your Teacher will not hide himself anymore, but your eyes shall see your Teacher. And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, This is the way, walk in it, when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.

That’s why AI should not be used as inspiration for sermons.

youtube.com: John Piper Asked ChatGPT to Write a Prayer {@thegospelcoalition} Why were you made? Words? Computers do words better than you. Seriously, better than me. Computers do words. They don’t feel anything. Therefore, the universe is created to have people who feel. This is amazing. Think of it. The universe exists to have people in God’s image who feel the worth of grace, who feel the glory of grace, who feel the beauty of grace, who feel the wonder of grace, and then everything in their life takes on a totally non AI meaning of action and praise to God.

AMEN, John Piper! I love my brother JP. Honestly though, there is more to this. What is a computer program but a bunch of commandments taught by men? They’re not humans. Also, we need to keep the commandments of Christ.

> Isaiah 29:13-14 - And the Lord said: Because this people draw near with their mouth and honor me with their lips, while their hearts are far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment taught by men, therefore, behold, I will again do wonderful things with this people, with wonder upon wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the discernment of their discerning men shall be hidden. (ESV)

> Mark 7:6-8 - And he said to them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men. You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men. (ESV)

I believe the following verse really is more a warning that if God isn’t getting His glory through us praising Him then even the rocks would cry out. If Christianity has gotten to the point where people don’t want to follow the commandments of Christ, but rather offload the ’hard task’ of genuinely keeping Christ’s commandments to some AI, and then ’the rocks cry out’, then this is a warning to Christians. Computers are not people.

> Luke 19:40 - He answered, I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out. (ESV)

Hmm. Yeah, my view is while using as a search engine for other sermons, say, or books, sure. But when deciding, say, topics to preach on or in composing sermons or getting opinions (i.e. getting inspiration for what to preach from something other than God), definitely don't use an AI.

I really don't like the idea of people incorporating AI in sermons, etc. It's so wrong. Considering that the machines are built on theft (stolen intellectual property) and greed (cannot serve both God and money). So if a servant of money (not a servant of God) builds an AI system which the church (who is meant to be the light of the world) uses as inspiration for sermons, then isn't this drinking from a corrupt spring?

You can get a lot of resources from satan too. I mean if one God wanted a pastor to preach on X on a certain day, but they preached on Y because they took inspiration from, say, a fortune-teller who was using divination (her heart wasn't right) to select a book, then satan may give them a book aout Y, and they preach on Y, then that's like not OK. The man behind the pulpit needs to be Holy Spirit inspired.

> Acts 16:16-18 - As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by fortune-telling. She followed Paul and us, crying out, These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation. And this she kept doing for many days. Paul, having become greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out that very hour. (ESV)

So if a pastor is lazy and isn't walking in the ways of the LORD and just getting inspiration from an AI, then they've lost their saltiness.

> Acts 5:3-4 - But Peter said, Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back for yourself part of the proceeds of the land? While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not at your disposal? Why is it that you have contrived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God. (ESV)

Journal <2026-04-05 Sun 13:31> Despite the struggle with spiritual attack early in the morning, I've enjoyed the Bible study which I've done today. I am thankful for Jesus Christ having died for ours sins in order that that we might be saved through faith in Him if we abide in His commandments. And I am thankful for Father God having sent Jesus Christ to us.

On another note, I've had a bit of fun extending working with emacs' eshell over the last few days. It's good fun.

I kept on doing Bible studying. The rest of the day was quite good.

I really don't want to be in this world. I hope God just takes me out of it today.

I don't see a future for me here in this world.

Holy Spirit hasn't spoken to me directly yet to testify of Jesus Christ. That makes it quite difficult. Also, the world is saturated with stolen AI stuff.

I mean, even the Pipes uses the AI stuff and seems to have embraced it. youtube.com: John Piper ' s Urgent Message to The Next Generation {@ FollowRadical }

> Ecclesiastes 3:10-13 - I have seen the business that God has given to the children of man to be busy with. He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also, he has put eternity into man's heart, yet so that he cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end. >
> Blaise Pascal asked exactly that question in seventeenth-century France. Pascal has been called the architect of modern civilization. He was a brilliant scientist at the frontiers of mathematics, even as a teenager. He is viewed by many as the founder of the probability theory, and a creator of the first model of a computer. And of course, you are all familiar with the computer language named for him. Pascal explored in depth our human dilemmas of evil, suffering and death. He was astounded at the phenomenon we’ve been considering: that people can achieve extraordinary heights in science, the arts and human enterprise, yet they also are full of anger, hypocrisy and have – and self-hatreds. Pascal saw us as a remarkable mixture of genius and self-delusion.
> On November 23, 1654, Pascal had a profound religious experience. He wrote in his journal these words: ”I submit myself, absolutely, to Jesus Christ, my redeemer.” A French historian said, two centuries later, ”Seldom has so mighty an intellect submitted with such humility to the authority of Jesus Christ.” Pascal came to believe not only the love and the grace of God could bring us back into harmony, but he believed that his own sins and failures could be forgiven, and that when he died he would go to a place called heaven. He experienced it in a way that went beyond scientific observation and reason. It was he who penned the well-known words, ”The heart has its reasons, which reason knows not of.”

Someone who told me they are atheist (yet who I pray for will to come faith in Jesus) also told me, ”The genie is out of the bottle and there’s no putting it back in.” But I immediately disagreed, at least in my mind I was thinking, ”Jesus can stop it. Nothing is bigger than Jesus”. I think it’s wrong to use what has been stolen.

For me this is a matter of Biblical separation.

> James 4:17 - So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin. (ESV)

> Matthew 10:32-38 - So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person’s enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 6:14-18,7:1 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

I hope that Jesus will be faithful to me and provide me with the testimony of Himself from Holy Spirit. And deliver me from this horrible situation.

Journal <2026-09-01 Tue 08:41> Psalms 11:1-7 - 1 In Yahweh I take refuge; How can you say to my soul, “Flee as a bird to your mountain; 2 For, behold, the wicked bend the bow, They make ready their arrow upon the string To shoot in darkness at the upright in heart. 3 If the foundations are destroyed, What can the righteous do?” 4 Yahweh is in His holy temple; Yahweh’s throne is in heaven; His eyes behold, His eyelids test the sons of men. 5 Yahweh tests the righteous, But the wicked and the one who loves violence His soul hates. 6 May He rain snares upon the wicked; Fire and brimstone and burning wind will be the portion of their cup. 7 For Yahweh is righteous, He loves righteousness; The upright will behold His face. (LSB)

Something I recall John Piper mentioning is that ”AI does words better than us”. But I want to mention this. Real speech comes from the heart, so AI can still be called a speechless idol, even if it produces the imitation of speech or writing:

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

In the words of Ignatius:

> Ignatius to the Magnesians 10 - Therefore, having become His disciples, let us learn to live according to the principles of Christianity. For whosoever is called by any other name besides this, is not of God. Lay aside, therefore, the evil, the old, the sour leaven, and be ye changed into the new leaven, which is Jesus Christ. Be ye salted in Him, lest any one among you should be corrupted, since by your savour ye shall be convicted.

Right or left might both be scripturally correct, but God might want one or the other:

> Isaiah 30:20-21 - And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your Teacher will not hide himself anymore, but your eyes shall see your Teacher. And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, This is the way, walk in it, when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.

JOHN PAUL II - ANGELUS - Sunday 2 July 2000

Dear Brothers and Sisters!

[1.] Last Friday we celebrated the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, that Heart which began to beat 2,000 years ago in the womb of Mary Most Holy and brought the fire of God's love into the world.

The Heart of Jesus contains a message for everyone; it also speaks to today's world. In a society where technology and informatics are developing at a growing rate, where people are caught up in thousands of often conflicting interests, they risk losing their centre, the centre of their very selves. By showing us his Heart, Jesus reminds us first of all that it is there, deep within himself, that each person's destiny is decided, his death or life in the definitive sense. He himself gives us life in abundance, which allows our hearts, sometimes hardened by indifference and selfishness, to be opened to a higher form of life.

The Heart of the crucified and risen Christ is the inexhaustible source of grace from which every individual can always draw love, truth and mercy, especially during this special year of the Great Jubilee.

[2.] The Blood of Christ has redeemed us. This is the truth which we proclaimed just yesterday, at the beginning of July, the month traditionally dedicated to the Precious Blood of Christ, at the Jubilee of the Sanguis Christi Union.

How much blood has been unjustly shed in the world! How much violence, how much contempt for human life!

This humanity, often wounded by hatred and violence, more than ever needs to experience the efficacy of Christ's redeeming Blood. That Blood, which was not shed in vain, contains all the power of God's love and is the pledge of hope, redemption and reconciliation. But in order to draw from this source, we must turn to the Cross of Christ and fix our gaze on the Son of God, on his pierced Heart, on that Blood poured out.

I might point out that even the reformation church would consider themselves as Catholic, but not 'Roman Catholic', and ostensibly 'Roman Catholics' also call would consider themselves to be Catholic. While I have not yet read through the whole of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which I plan on doing, I picked out this section here, after I discovered the term 'anti-gospel' as John Barnett had made reference to it.

saintaloysiuschurch.org: The Gospel vs. the Anti-Gospel Pope St. John Paul II, however, warned about an “anti-Gospel” proclaimed by an “anti-Church.” Before Christ comes again, the Church will undergo a final test, a temptation to “apostasy,” or rejection of the Gospel. The message of the “Antichrist” will be that we can glorify ourselves instead of glorifying God and his Son, Jesus Christ. It will be a temptation to set aside God’s will to do whatever we want and to set aside God’s Word in order to believe whatever we want. Isn’t this precisely the temptation that the West has been giving in to more and more in recent decades? The prevailing cultural secularism has methodically excluded any meaningful reference to God or religion from the public square and refuses to tolerate even private religious convictions that challenge its own orthodoxies. Like John Lennon’s infamous song of the 1970’s, there is an insidious temptation to “imagine” that humanity will find true peace only by rejecting religion and its notions of “sin” and “holiness,” “heaven” and “hell.” This is the “anti-Gospel” in action. If we as Catholics accept this lie that true peace can be found without Jesus Christ and the repentance to which he calls us, then we risk becoming something of an “anti-Church.” If we set aside the hard scriptural truths about things like sin and judgment for the sake of convenience or of winning the favor of others, we become the servants not of Jesus Christ, but of the anti-Christ. To remain faithful to our mission, the Church must live and proclaim all that Jesus Christ calls us to, even when it is no longer popular.

usccb.org: Catechism of the Catholic Church 675 Before Christ’s second coming the Church must pass through a final trial that will shake the faith of many believers. The persecution that accompanies her pilgrimage on earth will unveil the ”mystery of iniquity” in the form of a religious deception offering men an apparent solution to their problems at the price of apostasy from the truth. The supreme religious deception is that of the Antichrist, a pseudo-messianism by which man glorifies himself in place of God and of his Messiah come in the flesh.

Before someone brings this up this verse, I will mention it. If someone stole a child’s meal and then sold it to me, I don’t think that this has made it pure to me. Likewise, if someone steals someone’s creative work and redistributes it, rehashing and redistributing it doesn’t make it pure:

> Titus 1:12-16 - One of the Cretans, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons. This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, not devoting themselves to Jewish myths and the commands of people who turn away from the truth. To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> I Timothy 4:1-5 - Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons, through the insincerity of liars whose consciences are seared, who forbid marriage and require abstinence from foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, for it is made holy by the word of God and prayer. (ESV)

When we consider that the 2 Great Commandments are to love God out of all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind, with all our strength and our neighbour as ourself and that on these 2 Great Commandments depend all the Law and Prophets, how then is is it any way lawful to make something using stolen assets in order to (intenting with it to) build something that serves as a false god, as in so-called ”artificial super intelligence”?

I personally think that holiness involves boycotting generative AI altogether unless it’s guaranteed that the system has been built with the consent of all people who’s work has contributed to the data which was used to train the AI. Even then, the research that has gone into building these systems is comparable to researching with stolen corpses from a graveyard before going legit and using corpses voluntarily donated. Its heads give judgment for a bribe; its priests teach for a price; its prophets practice divination for money; yet they lean on the LORD and say, Is not the LORD in the midst of us? I will deliver my people out of your hand. And you shall know that I am the LORD. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 13:9 - My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and who give lying divinations. They shall not be in the council of my people, nor be enrolled in the register of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. (ESV)

> Genesis 44:4-5 - They had gone only a short distance from the city. Now, here is the vision which I received:

> Deuteronomy 18:20-22 - But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in my name that I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die. And if you say in your heart, How may we know the word that the LORD has not spoken?— when a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the word does not come to pass or come true, that is a word that the LORD has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously. You need not be afraid of him. (ESV)

Well, God is certainly greater than anything, having been able to give me a vision of this way back then. Bring every prophesy to Jesus. Test the spirits. Be like a Berean.

4.6.3 Identity in Christ vs identity in darkness

OK, so regarding where our 'identity' is found.

It is important that we are clinging to Jesus Christ who is our life. We must be trusting and obeying and having faith in God, and not in some device or identity created by man. Through faith in Jesus Christ we are who God tells us we are, and we cling to what God tells us, not to what the world says, not to what any device or scheme of man would say, with hope in God, and not on, say, 'artificial intelligence'. We've got to be yoked directly to Christ, not allowing anything or anyone to come between ourselves and Christ.

Faith in Christ, obedience to Christ, and love for Christ are all from the heart:

> Acts 15:8-9 - And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)

We must have a heart trusting, relying on, believing, believing in, clinging to, yoked to Jesus Christ, and not to darkness:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

And we obey Him from the heart:

> Romans 6:17-18 - But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

Our hearts are trained for obedience to Christ, not trained for greed, not trained to doubt in Christ, or doubt His commandments which are inseparable. The right way involves wanting to be healed (John 5:6) to have a pure conscience before God to serve God (Hebrews 9:13-14). The right way involves agape-loving, treasuring the right way. It involves a love of the Truth, not a love of sin:

> II Peter 2:1-22 - But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. And many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of truth will be blasphemed. And in their greed they will exploit you with false words. Their condemnation from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep. For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to chains of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment; if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; and if he rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked (for as that righteous man lived among them > day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority. Bold and willful, they do not tremble as they blaspheme the glorious ones, whereas angels, though greater in might and power, do not pronounce a blasphemous judgment against them before the Lord. But these, like irrational animals, creatures of instinct, born to be caught and destroyed, blaspheming about matters of which they are ignorant, will also be destroyed in their destruction, suffering wrong as the wage for their wrongdoing. They count it pleasure to revel in the daytime. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions, while they feast with you. They have eyes full of adultery, insatiable for sin. They entice unsteady souls. They have hearts trained in greed. Accursed children! Forsaking the right way, they have gone astray. They have followed the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved gain from wrongdoing, but was rebuked for his own transgression; a speechless donkey spoke with human voice and restrained the prophet's madness. These are waterless springs and mists driven by a storm. For them the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved. For, speaking loud boasts of folly, they entice by sensual passions of the flesh those who are barely escaping from those who live in error. They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. What the true proverb says has happened to them: The dog returns to its own vomit, and the sow, after washing herself, returns to wallow in the mire. (ESV)

And we love our Lord Jesus Christ, agape love Him from all our heart and with all our soul, mind and strength:

> Deuteronomy 30:6 - And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your offspring, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live. (ESV)

> Matthew 10:37 - Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

> Luke 15:21-22 - And the son said to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son. But the father said to his servants, Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. (ESV)

We must have time for Jesus and treasure Him:

> Matthew 22:1-14 - And again Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying, The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son, and sent his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding feast, but they would not come. Again he sent other servants, saying, Tell those who are invited, See, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast. But they paid no attention and went off, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them. The king was angry, and he sent his troops and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, The wedding feast is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore to the main roads and invite to the wedding feast as many as you find. And those servants went out into the roads and gathered all whom they found, both bad and good. So the wedding hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw there a man who had no wedding garment. And he said to him, Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, Bind him hand and foot and cast him into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen. (ESV)

I'm glad that God has given me a testimony. He gave it to me to protect me from what may be coming and whoever else might also use it as evidence. Though I hope and would prefer to be with Jesus and raptured, and not to have to endure a world saturated with artificial intelligence, I'm very thankful that God's given me a testimony.

The world might go down a trajectory of being led astray by this AI stuff, but God made me born-again and gave me a testimony.

I wont neglect Christ to be led astray by AI stuff. Being goaded by AI is not something which I want but I know for sure that God is bigger and Almighty.

> Luke 10:17 - The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name! (ESV)

Praise be to God for His mercy to give me a testimony which I hope leads others to place their faith in Jesus, and find their identity in Christ.

To anyone who might try to push, say, a digital 'identity' onto me in order to get me to conform to that identity and to be obedient to that identity, or to try to push me into living in strict compliance or obedience to the godless 'predictions' of artificial intelligence rather than making a way for me to live independently of it as a conscientious objector, say, that as a Christian standing up for my faith, I would say to them that I am a child of God, and I serve Christ first and foremost and I do my best to maintain a good conscience with God, endeavouring to keep Christ's commandments faithfully, putting off sin as is my right as a believer in Jesus Christ and as I've been commanded to do by Christ, and if anything comes between me and obeying Christ, I will call it out and seek to obey Christ with all my heart, and will not be led by another (John 10:27, John 10:5), and I'll not renounce Christ.

> He was was a very approachable student. Not all students are very warm spirited and I had a great affection for him. He said, "It's Timothy." And I'm thinking, 'He is having me on here.' So I said to him a third time, making a deep emotional appeal to him, "Timothy, what is your real name?" He said, "It's Timothy." And then I said, "What name did your parents give to you?" And out came this equally unpronouncable Asian name and so I said, "So that's your real name."

> So after this all the multitude, marvelling at the bravery of the God-beloved and God-fearing people of the Christians, raised a cry, 'Away with the atheists; let search be made for Polycarp.'

I certainly wish that throughout my own trials that I had never made an upset prayer to God, though I'd affirm that Jesus has never done me wrong. Despite my wavering faith, He's gone on supporting my faith, giving me encouragements through the difficulties:

> But when the magistrate pressed him hard and said, 'Swear the oath, and I will release thee; revile the Christ,' Polycarp said, 'Fourscore and six years have I been His servant, and He hath done me no wrong. How then can I blaspheme my King who saved me?'

There are things I am prepared to stand against. I could imagine greedy atheists or money-worshippers wanting to play god with their money and trying to push digital identity onto people 'backed' by artificial 'intelligence'. One scenario I could imagine would be that a government, say builds some simulation of society with the AI stuff and then try to pin an identity onto people which is rooted in this simulation. and police or reward people according to the predictions made by this system. Even if it appears to be set up with non-malicious intent, say to minimise harm, it's still at the end of the day a man-made system that is not going to be perfect, and sanctification of the heart and soul can't come through obedience to a man-made system.

At the end of the day, God owns our ultimate obedience, and obedience to God should be our first instinct, and we should be maintaining a good conscience with God through repentance and confession, walking in love and Truth. I'll keep trying to remain faithful to and obey Jesus.

I'm still in a position where finding employment has been made practically impossible to attain without either going back to the pre-baptised self (ie. denying Jesus by word or by works), and I'm waiting on a good samaritan or God Himself to open a door for me or rapture me.

I know that so long as I am maintaining a good conscience with God, sincerely endeavouring to obey Christ, my genuine will is to be obedient to Him, and I'm really giving Him sincere obedience, then when I get resistance to continuing to follow Jesus, I know that that resistance comes from the enemy. And I know I just have to be sincerely endeavouring to obey Christ out of a position of having been forgiven through faith in His blood, I know that no servant is greater than His master, and I have confidence.

I've encountered for years now this difficulty with finding work, but it's been far more difficult now after having come to Jesus for me to find work. Praise be to God and all glory to God, He's done in a work in me that I can say I sincerely love Him and have been set free from my selfishness.

Now regarding the threat of AI stuff. I could imagine a scenario, especially given any merger of church and state, that government might try to enforce 'obedience' to the AI system under a guise of trying to police Christ's commandments.

> Ezekiel 33:6 - But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, so that the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any one of them, that person is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand. (ESV)

But as I mentioned earlier, having an AI which can quote Bible verses and pretend to be a preacher is more of a warning to us that people have not been following Christ sincerely, rather than something to glory over. This technological creation is capable of doing a huge range of other tasks including misleading lots of people through false religion and misinformation. So if the rocks cry out, if the computers can scream AI-generated words which sound praiseworthy isn't the verse more of a warning that people themselves have lacked in praise and could be better honouring God from their heart with sincere worship from the heart in obedience and faith and love and hope.

> Luke 19:40 - He answered, I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out. (ESV)

An AI can tell a person, say, that it would be Christlike to feed them, and then reward you with some 'social credit' or something. But trusting its judgement rather than the Holy Spirit, and following the AI directly rather than Christ directly would be following a false-Christ or a false-god. It's putting a false god between you and Christ, and obeying that false-God instead of Christ directly.

> I John 4:4-6 - Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. (ESV)

Jesus Christ is Jehovah, Jesus Christ is Lord.

Consider this commandment:

> Matthew 5:23-24 - So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. (ESV)

If we offload the 'hard task' of "keeping Christ's commandments" to an AI, then it's not taking every thought captive for obedience to Christ, it's not purifying the heart and soul for obedience to the Truth, but rather for obedience to some artificial simulation, training an artificial false-Christ, training a false-god. I think Christians should be mindful of this.

> That's what love does. Love wills the good of the other and actually it's operative, it actually works for the good and sacrifices for the good of the other, and that's necessary for someone to be good, clearly. But again, that doesn't mean someone is going to go to heaven. He can be naturally good because he sees somebody hungry and he wants to feed them. You can be an atheist and still do that. Um, you can be an atheist and still be honest and not steal. You know, just because you're living up to your own standard of being a decent person, that's not going to get you to heaven, no.
> Um, what is rewardable in the eyes of God, what is thanksworthy in the eyes of God is if you actually follow Jesus Christ and follow his example and follow what he says, what he wants of us.

I believe the following verse really is more a warning that if God isn't getting His glory through us praising Him then even the rocks would cry out. If Christianity has gotten to the point where people don't want to follow the commandments of Christ, but rather offload the 'hard task' of genuinely keeping Christ's commandments from the heart to some AI, and then 'the rocks cry out', then this is a warning to Christians. Computers are not people and Christ gave us commandments and those commandments are for us human beings to follow. Christians are aim to arrive at the point where Christ's commandments have become unburdensome and we aim to take every thought captive for obedience to Christ and approach Christ's likeness.

> Luke 19:40 - He answered, I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out. (ESV)

But it certainly helps to yoke myself to Christ now in advance of any potential threat to my ability to obey Christ directly and sincerely from the heart:

> Matthew 22:21 - They said, Caesar's. Then he said to them, Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:5-7 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. Look at what is before your eyes. If anyone is confident that he is Christ's, let him remind himself that just as he is Christ's, so also are we. (ESV)

I have evidence from God that He is real, I live by obedience to God in the fear of God according to His commandments, and not to the fears of men with their commandments.

> Mark 7:6-9 - And he said to them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men. You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men. And he said to them, You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! (ESV)

Christ's commandments must never be misconstrued as the commandments of men. The tradition of Christ, say of taking the Lord's Supper/Communion/Eucharist, which He gave us is not the same thing as the tradition of men.

> I Corinthians 11:2 - Now I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I delivered them to you. (ESV)

Truly, I say to you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town. Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of men, for they will deliver you over to courts and flog you in their synagogues, and you will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them and the Gentiles. When they deliver you over, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say, for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death, and you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next, for truly, I say to you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes. A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. (ESV)

This is a matter of where our identity is found - is it in Christ through faith, taking every through captive for obedience to Christ to His commandments, or is it to something else? If a person finds themself serving an artificial image of God, then their identity is in the AI and not in God.

Putting faith in AI to save you would be clinging to the corpse of the world and not to Christ.

Now consider these verses here:

> Colossians 3:1-10 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. (ESV)

There's a difference between ”having sin” and committing sin. Those who hope in Him (who hope in Jesus Christ), purify themselves, and stop committing sin. If we do commit sin, then we confess it and turn away from it:

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

We should walk in an agape love of the truth, and the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin. So we confess sin as sin, and confess when we have done sin, love God's precepts, and we hate sin and we love one another and love Jesus Christ, and the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin (we are sanctified). Our consciences are purified to serve God:

> I John 1:6-10 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

> I John 3:5-8 - You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. (ESV)

OK, so when we 'have' sin (corruption/defilement), we need purification from sin, and we can be purified as we hold our faith in Jesus Christ and confess our sin, and if we continue in faithful obedience to Him, even loving one another with the type of love which Jesus commanded us to have for one-another, we are washed by His blood. When we commit sin, it defiles and we should confess that sin. We are supposed to keep a good conscience with God:

> I John 1:6-10 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)

Committing new sin is what John says those who are born of God stop doing. Committing new sin is what we must stop doing in order to remain in God's house (John 8:34-35). I believe that Christians must get there (I John 3:1-3, Romans 6:13-23).

OK, so there is a difference between having ”defilement”/sin (if we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.) and committing new ”defilement”/sin (Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him.). Being born-again, holding our faith in Jesus, hoping in Him, we purify ourselves, we stop committing sin and we instead live to obey God, obey Jesus, we have faith in Him and love one other as He commanded us:

> I John 3:9-10 - No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

A person might "have sin" but be repentant and love the truth and hate the sin. They might treasure Jesus and treasure God's Law and grieve their indwelling sin.

It's possible to have sin/defilement while having faith:

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

> I John 1:8 - If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. (ESV)

> Romans 7:17-23 - So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. (ESV)

But it's not possible to simultaneously have faith while committing sin:

> II Thessalonians 3:2 - and that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men. For not all have faith. (ESV)

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> John 16:9 - concerning sin, because they do not believe in me; (ESV)

> I John 3:9 - No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. (ESV)

See how in Romans 7:22-23 Paul says he delights in God's law but "indwelling sin" is fighting against his mind. Paul has the love of the truth in his heart. Paul is in Christ with the love of the truth.

In other words, a person might "have sin" but also love the truth; they love God, they love Jesus, they love what God has done sending Jesus Christ into the world, and they prefer light to darkness, and they want to be pure (John 5:6) as Jesus as pure.

When I make mistakes or commit sin, I do my best to confess it as sin and forsake it.

If a person is being sanctified (cleaned up, set apart) then they might "have indwelling sin" (Romans 7:19-20). But they are resisting sin, as in "stopping sin", consciously choosing to obey Christ instead of obey sin.

That's obviously a battle.

We don't trust in, hope in, have faith in sin as sin is deceitful and would lead us astray:

> Hebrews 3:13 - But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:17-19 - And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

We have to trust in, hope in, have faith in God through Jesus Christ, and stop trusting in sin:

> John 12:44 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. (ESV)

We have to love God, love the truth, love Jesus Christ, serve Jesus Christ, love, trust in, be obedient to Jesus Christ from our hearts and consequently hate darkness, hate indwelling sin, hate evil, hate separation from God:

> Romans 7:19-20 - For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. (ESV)

> Romans 7:22-25 - For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV)

We come into agreement with the truth, we agree with what God says, and that includes agreeing with God over matters of what is sin:

> Romans 7:16 - Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. (ESV)

> I John 1:9 - If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

We should keep the word of truth in our hearts, hold on to it, trust it and obey it and if the word of truth remains in is then we will also remain in the Son and in the Father. We must abide in love:

> I John 2:24-25 - As for you, let what you have heard from the beginning remain in you. If it does, you will also remain in the Son and in the Father. And this is the promise that He Himself made to us: eternal life. (engbsb2020eb)

From infants in Christ to maturity, people who keep Jesus' commandments are found in Christ who is in God:

> John 13:6-8 - He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, do you wash my feet? Jesus answered him, What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand. Peter said to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no share with me. (ESV)

> John 15:1-17 - I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have > spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. These things I command you, so that you will love one another. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

Our relationship with Christ comes first. We must be purified by the Truth, doing what qualifies us to be found with identity in Christ Jesus. What does God want of us? To believe in Jesus Christ is who He and Father God has testified Him to be, and to love Him (Christ), to believe, trust and obey Him from the heart and Christ commanded us to love one another and He also said to love those who hate you:

> Acts 15:8-9 - And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)

> John 5:24 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (ESV)

> John 10:35-38 - If he called them gods to whom the word of God came—and Scripture cannot be broken— do you say of him whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, You are blaspheming, because I said, I am the Son of God? If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:22-25 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

Going forward, being found in Christ, we are safe:

> Titus 1:15 - To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. (ESV)

It's definitely a spiritual battle, and we follow Jesus and wrestle against what tries to prevent us from doing so:

> Ephesians 6:12 - For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. (ESV)

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:24 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. (ESV)

youtube.com: 2,000 YEAR OLD PROPHECY ON AI {@DTBM} @time: 18 min 10 sec But Satan plus the demons into this 'creature', whatever it is, this image, makes me ask to believers, "What's your source of Truth?" Have you ever thought how quickly they update everything on the internet? I mean, did you know that the majority of students - do you know what the majority of them come to class with?

This (a smartphone) is their Bible. Their parents and grandparents have one of these (a hardcover Bible). This (a smartphone) is their (young people) Bible. What happens when Bible Gateway or, I don't even know the names of all of them, the online Bibles that everyone has, what happens when they're either turned off?

I would think carefully about the world we're going into.

I have always this old fuddy-duddy antique thing because this (smartphone) runs out of battery and they can turn Logos off instantly.

You understand that. They can turn off whatever online Bible you use. It's amazing to think about. So what's your source of Truth? Is it the internet or AI spewed out answers, or is it the spirit of Truth through God's word?

4.6.4 Make friends with charity while money hasn't yet failed

Money is temporary. While it's in your hands, make friends with it, by giving in charity to those in need.

Money will fail - bitcoin will fail, ethereum will fail, and when it fails people will see you as a friend.

> Luke 16:1-8 - He also said to the disciples, There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was wasting his possessions. And he called him and said to him, What is this that I hear about you? Turn in the account of your management, for you can no longer be manager. And the manager said to himself, What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do, so that when I am removed from management, people may receive me into their houses. So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he said to the first, How much do you owe my master? He said, A hundred measures of oil. He said to him, Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty. Then he said to another, And how much do you owe? He said, A hundred measures of wheat. He said to him, Take your bill, and write eighty. The master commended the dishonest manager for his shrewdness. For the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than the sons of light. (ESV)

> Luke 16:8-9 - And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails they may receive you into the eternal dwellings. (ESV)

> I Timothy 6:17-19 - As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life. (ESV)

4.6.5 In this world God can see if we are to be trusted with true heavenly wealth by seeing how we used our money

> Luke 16:11-12 - If then you have not been faithful in the unrighteous wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own?

> I Timothy 6:9-10 - But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs. (ESV)

4.6.6 We must actually make following Jesus a reality to take hold of the eternal life to which we are called

We make the confession, but we must then take hold of it.

> I Timothy 6:11-12 - But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. (ESV)

5 Great commission

Obedience to Jesus' commandments (repentance from sin):

> Luke 24:46-47 - and said to them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance (G3341 metanoia) and forgiveness (G859 aphesis) of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

Obedience to Jesus' commandments (becoming disciples, obeying Jesus' commandments):

> Matthew 28:18-20 - And Jesus came up and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

Keeping the commandments is how to love and Christian's are called to keep God's commandments

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

We're sure that we abide in Christ while we are keeping His commandments:

> I John 2:1-6 - My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

The word tereo means (to keep, observe, obey, follow). Commandments are for obeying. That's all they are for. This observance means to remember and practice. Nowhere in the Bible does it teach to disobey God:

> Matthew 28:20 - teaching them to follow all that I commanded you; and behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (NASB2020)

Don't teach against needing to do Jesus' commandments. To do so is to teach people to not be a part of Jesus' family. It's great how God has given us Hebrew and Greek to make this unambiguous:

> Deuteronomy 5:27 - Go near and hear all that the LORD our God will say and speak to us all that the LORD our God will speak to you, and we will hear and do it. (ESV)

It’s not just the red letters:

> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

Obedience to Jesus’ commandments (trusting Jesus and being baptised):

> Mark 16:15-18 - And he said to them, Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover.

After Peter had denied being Jesus’ disciple 3 times (John 18:15-27) before Jesus’ crucifixion, Jesus reintegrated Peter, asking him 3 times if he loved Him. Each time Peter affirmed that he agape-loved Jesus, Jesus gave him a commandment to feed His sheep. Instead of saying, ”Peter, I gave you a chance and you failed me.” Jesus lets Peter reaffirm His love for Him and gives Him another chance to willfully do His will. That’s grace:

> John 21:15-17 - When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these? He said to him, Yes, Lord; you know that I love you. He said to him, Feed my lambs. He said to him a second time, Simon, son of John, do you love me? He said to him, Yes, Lord; you know that I love you. He said to him, Tend my sheep. He said to him the third time, Simon, son of John, do you love me? Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, Do you love me? and he said to him, Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you. Jesus said to him, Feed my sheep.

Abiding in Jesus’ love, we keep His commandments;

> I John 5:2-3 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

Keeping Jesus Christ’s commandments is a requirement to inherit eternal life, not an extra:

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

The original Apostles were instructed to feed Jesus’ sheep with the living bread that is Jesus Christ. Likewise, in living testimony we should teach others to walk the way of righteousness:

> John 6:33 - For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

Repentance leads to the knowledge of the truth, and ceasing to do the devil’s will:

> II Timothy 2:24-26 - And the Lord’s servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will. (ESV)

I’m no expert on Torah, Mitzvah, or Jewish stuff but I know do know Jesus and the Apostles calls people to follow the 2 great commandments and the 10 commandments from the heart. Why would God make a distinction in Exodus 16 between commandments (mitsvah) and instructions/law (towrah)? I think because they are fundamentally different. The 10 commandments are always important for people to follow, even born-again Christians.

> Genesis 26:5 - because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws. (ESV)

> Exodus 16:28 - Then the Lord (H3068 Yhovah) said (H559 ’amar) to Moses (H4872 Mosheh), “How (H575 ’an) long (H5704 ‘ad) do you refuse (H3985 ma’en) to keep (H8104 shamar) My commandments (H4687 mitsvah) and My instructions (H8451 towrah)? (NASB)

The Israelites should have followed the commandments by faith:

> Romans 9:32-33 - Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, as it is written, Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame. (ESV)

Sigh ok rant time. Some ideas. I may be wrong about things by the way. I’m not without sin:

We’re supposted to follow the 10 commandments by faith in God who sees our hearts. It’s not works-based. How could a commandment to rest be works-based anyway? It’s obedience, not works. And then heart obedience should have an after effect of walking uprightly, producing good works. But the way I believe we’re supposed to follow the 10 commandments is from sincerity of heart. It’s following them in reality from the heart, not of the flesh, trying to please God and not man, and should be entirely compatible with obeying Jesus. If for the sake of keeping a smaller law or commandment, a person breaks God’s higher precepts of mercy, justice, faithfulness, etc. in order to enforce a less important issue, then that’s not obeying properly. There’s a lawful way to keep the law. For example, when the Pharisees told Jesus off for healing on the Sabbath, when the 2 great commandments are to love God and one’s neighbour. Obeying God comes first. Having faith in Jesus, serving Jesus, obeying Jesus comes first.

> Heb 4:9-11 - So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God’s rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience.

> I Timothy 1:8-11 - Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, the sexually immoral, men who practice homosexuality, enslavers, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine, in accordance with the glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted. (ESV)

The law judges people who are not walking by the Spirit (walking in obedience to Christ, walking under the law/commandment of Christ):

> Romans 2:11-12 - For God shows no partiality. For all who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. (ESV)

5.1 Even the Old Testament makes a person wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus:

Watch desiringgod.org: How to Get Wisdom: Become a Fool | Desiring God

The law does show us where we fall short. But through faith in Jesus Christ’s name, even in His name, we can be forgiven. And by continued trusting in Jesus Christ, we can, like Lot being taken out of Sodom, or like Noah and his family evading the flood, ourselves not be condemned along with the ungodly, but be saved, being cleaned up to fulfill the law of Christ and abide in Jesus Christ’s love, bearing one-another’s burdens, and loving one another in truth, the way love is described by God’s commandments for us. God cleans us up to love Him with all our heart and live.

Faith in Jesus Christ trusts Jesus Christ, and trusts His words and loves His words and treasures His words and seeks to please God:

> John 5:37-38,42-44 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? (ESV)

Trust and believe:

> Isaiah 53:7-8 - He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he opened not his mouth. By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people? (ESV)

> Isaiah 53:12 - Therefore I will divide him a portion with the many, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong, because he poured out his soul to death and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and makes intercession for the transgressors. (ESV)

Trust and obey:

> II Timothy 3:12-17 - Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil people and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work. 5.2 Jesus

Jesus is the Word. The world was made through Jesus:

> John 1:9-11 - The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. (ESV)

Jesus is the divinely appointed servant of God:

> Isaiah 53:4-6 - Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. (ESV)

> Matthew 20:27-28 - and whoever would be first among you must be your slave, even as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)

He's the image of God:

> Colossians 1:15 - He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. (ESV)

5.3 Belief

Jesus has life in Him, and the life is the Light of men - the true Light.

> John 5:26 - For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself.
> John 5:21 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will.
>
> John 6:33 - For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.
> John 1:4 - In Him was life, and the life was the Light of men. (ESV)
> John 1:9 - The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. (ESV)
> 1 John 2:8 - At the same time, it is a new commandment that I am writing to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. (ESV)
> John 1:6-7 - There came a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to testify about the Light, so that all might believe through him.
> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)
>
> John 9:5 - As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. (ESV)
> John 12:36 - While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light. When Jesus had said these things, he departed and hid himself from them.

We testify about the Light, so that through our testimony, others might believe.

> Matthew 5:14 - You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. (ESV)
> Philippians 2:15 - that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, (ESV)
>
> Colossians 1:12 - giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. (ESV)
> James 1:17 - Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. (ESV)
> I Thessalonians 5:5 - For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. (ESV)

To anyone who receives Jesus, even those who believe on His name, Jesus has given the right to become children of God, to be born of God.

> John 1:11-13 - He came to His own, and those who were His own did not receive Him. But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe (G4100 pisteuo) in His name, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.
> I John 1:6-7 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

> I John 2:10 - Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. (ESV)

Yes, I believe that Jesus can save a person who believes in His name. But He is the judge, and it is written in John's gospel that no person who remains disobedient to Jesus Christ will see life, and I believe that.

> Revelation of John 3:8 - I know your works. Behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one is able to shut. I know that you have but little power, and yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.

We abide in Jesus when He washes us. When the Holy Spirit washes us, the Holy Spirit helps us to put sin to death:

> John 13:8 - Peter said to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no share with me. (ESV)

Peter believed/received/obeyed/trusted like a child of God (he cooperated) to let Jesus wash him but it was Jesus doing the work:

> John 13:9 - Simon Peter said to him, Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head! (ESV)

We call on Jesus to wash us:

> Acts 22:16 - And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on his name. (ESV)

I think Jesus calls us to pursue perfection through following Him, and we should definitely give it a go:

> John 17:23 - I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me.

In God's unconditional love He has paid the price for us to be saved from sin and death and hell. John 3:16 is not only saying that God has done what is needed for our sins to be forgiven, but is also saying that Jesus has come into the world as light so we can even turn away from darkness and towards light. Whoever stops following darkness and instead follows Jesus, whoever trusts in Jesus, whoever looks to Jesus and does what Jesus instructs, turns away from doing evil and in coming to faith in Jesus they will live. Jesus came into the darkness of the world as light so that we can turn to the light and in doing so, live. If Jesus didn't come then we could not receive the light of correction:

John 3:16 (Interlinear) Thus so (Houtōs) (in this way) did God love (G25 agapaó - value,treasure) the world, that He gave His Only-Begotten (G3439. monogenēs - unique,only begotten) Son that (G2443 hina - in order that) everyone who is trusting/believing (G4100 pisteuo) in Him may not perish, but may have life everlasting

> John 12:46 - I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. (ESV)

> I John 4:9-12 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)

Whoever has faith in Jesus Christ is able to not remain in darkness. Whoever has faith in Jesus Christ is able to love their family in Christ:

> I John 2:8-12 - At the same time, it is a new commandment that I am writing to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his name's sake. (ESV)

We must accept God's love and forgiveness and keep Jesus' word, His commandments, and God's love will be perfected in us and He and Father God will make Their abode in us. There is a conditional aspect of God's unconditional love for us:

> John 14:23-24 - Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

> I John 4:15-19 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper Hold fast in obedience to what you have heard and believed. John 14:22 really bothers some people. John 14:22, here's what it says: "Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world?" Jesus answered him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him." This is not unconditional love. This is profoundly conditional. I'll read it again: "Lord how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world, to us - we are your disciples. If anyone loves me he will keep my word and my father will love him - In a way that he doesn't love everybody! My father will love him, and We will come to him to that one who loves us and keeps our word. We will come to that one, make our home, our abode, with him. There is an experience of intimacy and at homeness with Jesus and the father that comes only through obedience. Those who love me so much that keeping my word is not the works of the law, but the overflow of their affections for Me - and how could we not move into such in such a heart with the fullness of the at homeness that you longed for. If anyone keeps My word, holds fast treasures it, in obedience, that person will not be quenching the spirit, that person will not be grieving the spirit, but will know the fullness and sweetness of fellowship with the Father and the Son. If you're watching pornagraphy every week, do not expect this experience - you wont have it. If you're harsh with your wife, you wont have it.

We aim for perfection / to be made complete / full restoration:

> II Corinthians 13:11 - Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. (KJV)

> II Corinthians 13:11-14 - Finally, brethren, rejoice, be made complete, be comforted, be like-minded, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. (NASB)

Paul presses on to try to live like Christ, and his rationale is that Jesus made him (Paul) his own (i.e. Jesus loved him), and Paul loves Jesus back, so he wants to be obedient out of love for Jesus (I'm convinced that's the motivation). He wants to be with Jesus.

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus' name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God's ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth. This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

We are transformed into Christ's image from one degree of glory to another:

> II Corinthians 3:18 - And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

> John 15:8 - By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. (ESV)

Disciples of Jesus have love for one another, just the same way that Jesus loved us (with selfless love):

> John 13:34-35 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (ESV)

> John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)

Serving Jesus literally looks a lot like serving other people with selfless love, just as Jesus has practically defined it through His commandments and His example:

> Matthew 25:40 - And the King will answer them, Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me. (ESV)

Jesus' teaching is extremely important for Christians to abide in. Jesus' teaching comes from the same God, Jehovah:

> John 7:16 - So Jesus answered them, My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 30:19-20 - I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life, that you and your offspring may live, loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them. (ESV)

If someone is holding to the truth then consider them a partner and receive them. But if they're not, then separate from them:

> Philemon 1:17 - So if you consider me your partner, receive him as you would receive me. (ESV)

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

> I Timothy 6:3-4 - If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, he is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, evil suspicions, (ESV)

> Colossians 3:16 - Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. (ESV)

I'm pretty convinced that what Jesus means by the following is that by giving up worldly treasure in the pursuit of Jesus, heavenly treasure is acquired. I'd say it's likely that the heavenly treasure is simply helping those people. Selling what a person possesses and giving to the poor is actually serving Jesus, so doing that is already starting to obediently follow Jesus.

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.

Jesus' perfect example of patience in mercy towards Paul is to:

- reassure us that we can trust Jesus as we hope for the promise of eternal life to be received from Him,
- for us to see that trusting in Him, we are loved by God and led by His love, following Him in patient [endurance] out of a response of love for Him, trusting in Him, as we receive mercy from Him

> I Timothy 1:16 - But I received mercy for this reason, that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display his perfect patience as an example to those who were to believe in him for eternal life. (ESV)

We are set free from sin to become slaves of God. The fruit of being a slave to God leads to sanctification and at its end, eternal life:

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> James 1:13-15 - Let no one say when he is tempted, I am being tempted by God, for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)

Salvation is something which we are destined for at the end of our sanctification:

> I Thessalonians 5:9-10 - For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. (ESV)

Can you be overcome by sin again? Yes, you can. But we're supposed to be overcome by practicing righteousness. Jesus sets us free, washes and regenerates us. Once that happens, we must not go back into sin.

> Hebrews 6:4-8 - For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, if they then fall away, since they are crucifying once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt. For land that has drunk the rain that often falls on it, and produces a crop useful to those for whose sake it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God. But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed, and its end is to be burned. (ESV)

> Romans 6:7 - For one who has died has been set free from sin. (ESV)

Believers are sanctified in God's Truth, His Word - they are corrected to obey in word and deed:

> John 17:14-17 - I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. (ESV)

> Romans 15:18 - For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed, (ESV)

> Isaiah 45:19 - I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness; I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, Seek me in vain. I the LORD speak the truth; I declare what is right. (ESV)

Keeping Jesus' commandments, we come to know Him:

> John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

> I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)

> I John 4:20-21 - If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

You are not your own:

> I Corinthians 6:17-20 - But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. (ESV)

> Romans 13:14 - But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires. (ESV)

We must keep ourselves in the love of God by obeying Jesus Christ's commandments, because we're awaiting to receive eternal life:

> Jude 1:21 - keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. (ESV)

Keeping Jesus Christ's commandments is a requirement to inherit eternal life, not an extra:

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

True belief:

> John 5:46-47 - If you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words? (ESV)

Whoever truly believes Jesus trusts in and is obedient to Jesus. We must obey Jesus Christ, and that obedience means being a slave of righteousness, leading to sanctification, which leads to eternal life:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

- G4100 (pisteuōn): This is the present participle form of the verb ” ” (G4100 pisteuō), meaning ”to believe” or ”to have faith.” In the participle form, it functions as a verbal adjective and can be translated as ”believing.”

> I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

I think believing in the Son is also obedience, but it is an act of obedience which is a gift to us.

It's God's grace that enables us to be saved through faith. While we are saved exercising obedient, trusting, believing faith, Paul says it was actually God's doing:

> Ephesians 2:8 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, (ESV)

> John 6:68 - Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, (ESV)

> Luke 9:35 - And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my Son, my Chosen One; listen to him! (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Show Us Christ - Sovereign Grace

> Romans 10:14-21 - But how are they to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news! But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us? So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ. But I ask, have they not heard? Indeed they have, for Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world. But I ask, did Israel not understand? First Moses says, I will make you jealous of those who are not a nation; with a foolish nation I will make you angry. Then Isaiah is so bold as to say, I have been found by those who did not seek me; I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me. But of Israel he says, All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people. (ESV)

> John 4:14 - but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty forever. The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life. (ESV)

The word for 'believe' which is used in the New Testament is the verb for faith and actually means to 'trust':

- In John 3:16, 'Believe' Means More than Believe | by Eric Sentell | Koinonia | Medium

> The ancient Greek word for "believe" is pisteuó, which derives from "belief" or "pistis." The word "/pistis/" stems from peíthō, to persuade or be persuaded.
> The Greek word pisteuó carries connotations of deep trust and confidence. It means to believe, to entrust, to have confidence in something.

Have faith in God and have faith in Jesus:

> John 14:1 - "Do not let your heart be troubled; believe (G4100 pisteuo) in God, believe (G4100 pisteuo) also in Me.

Pisteuo means to trust. Trust in God, trust also in God's Son Jesus:

> Romans 4:5 - And to the one who does not work but trusts (G4100 pisteuo) him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, (ESV)

I think faith is more like hopeful/trusting belief that results in action (walking by faith).
Examples:

- sailing across the Atlantic to find America.
- obeying Jesus' commandments out of seeking Jesus, or out of belief and love for Jesus, believing that God sees.

5.4.1 A H.A.N.D.S. Approach to Showing Jesus is God

Firstly, I understand that Jesus Christ is God in that He is the Son of God, but that also Jehovah is God. I believe that Jesus Christ is Jehovah in that He is God the Son, but there is also God the Father:

Proverbs 30:4 and John 3:13-7 talk about God and His Son:

> Proverbs 30:4 - Who has ascended to heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name? Surely you know! (ESV)
> John 3:13-17 - No one has ascended into heaven except he who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. (ESV)
> Colossians 2:9-10 - For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. (ESV)

What reasons do we have for thinking that Jesus is truly God? Robert M. Bowman Jr. and J. Ed Komoszewski in their book Putting Jesus in His Place:The Case for the Deity of Christ published by Kregel in 2007, offer a simple and memorable way to do this. Using the acronym H.A.N.D.S., they reason that the Bible teaches that Jesus shares the Honour due only to God, that Jesus shares the Attributes of God, that Jesus shares the Names ascribed to God, that Jesus does the Deeds that only God can do, and that Jesus is Seated on the throne of God. Here are a few of the lines of evidence from the Scriptures that we can draw on.

H - Honour:

Scripture indicates that God alone is to be worshipped:

> Deuteronomy 6:13 - It is the LORD your God you shall fear. Him you shall serve and by his name you shall swear. (ESV)
> Matthew 4:9-10 - And he said to him, All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me. Then Jesus said to him, Be gone, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve. (ESV)

Yet Jesus is worshipped and accepts such worship:

> Matthew 14:33 - And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, Truly you are the Son of God. (ESV)
> Hebrews 1:6 - And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, Let all God's angels worship him. (ESV)
> Revelation of John 1:17 - When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. But he laid his right hand on me, saying, Fear not, I am the first and the last, (ESV)

So who does that mean Jesus truly is? If Jesus were merely human it would be wrong to honour Him as God alone is to be honoured. Yet, we read that devout Jews in the New Testament bowed down and worshipped Jesus (i.e. "doubting" Thomas in John 20:28) and Jesus accepted that worship:

> John 20:28 - Thomas answered him, My Lord and my God! (ESV)

If Jesus were merely human it would be wrong to honour Him as God. Yet devout Jews in the New Testament bowed down and worshipped Jesus.

A - Attributes:

The Bible tells us that Jesus has the same attributes as God, being eternal:

> John 1:1-3 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. (ESV)
> Psalms 33:6 - By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, and by the breath of his mouth all their host. (ESV)

all-powerful:

> Matthew 28:18 - And Jesus came and said to them, All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. (ESV)

all-knowing:

> John 21:17 - He said to him the third time, Simon, son of John, do you love me? Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, Do you love me? and he said to him, Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you. Jesus said to him, Feed my sheep. (ESV) loving:

> Romans 8:35-39 - Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written, For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered. No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

If someone possessed the same characteristics, the same nature as God, in the same way that God did, what would that make Him?

I do recognise that if it wasn't for the salvation which God gives us in His Son Jesus, God would be against us because of sin. But God, out of His love, has appeased His own wrath towards those who are saved by Jesus:

> Romans 1:18 - For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness (763. asebeia) and unrighteousness (93. adikia) of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:5-8 - Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. (ESV)

N - Names:

(Phil. 2:9-11). Jesus is called God (John 20:28), Lord (Acts 1:24), the King of kings (Rev 19:16), Saviour (Luke 2:11), and the First and the Last (Rev 1:7-8):

Jesus is said to have been given the name that is above every other name:

> Philippians 2:9-11 - Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess (G1843 exomologeó) that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (ESV)

> John 20:28 - Thomas answered him, My Lord and my God! (ESV)

> Acts 1:24 - And they prayed and said, You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two you have chosen (ESV)

> Revelation of John 19:16 - On his robe and on his thigh he has a name written, King of kings and Lord of lords. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Petra - King of Kings / Jesus, Jesus, Glorious One {@UnknownPetraFan}

> Luke 2:11 - For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 1:7-8 - Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him, and all tribes of the earth will wail on account of him. Even so. Amen. I am the Alpha and the Omega, says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty. (ESV)

It would be wrong to call any older man our father, so if Jesus receives such titles, that is saying a lot about who He is:

> Isaiah 9:6 - For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. (ESV)

D - Deeds:
All things were made through Him:

> John 1:3 - All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. (ESV)

The sustainer of all things:

> Hebrews 1:2-3 - but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, (ESV)

He is sovereign over the forces of nature:

> Matthew 8:23-27 - And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep. And they went and woke him, saying, Save us, Lord; we are perishing. And he said to them, Why are you afraid, O you of little faith? Then he rose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. And the men marveled, saying, What sort of man is this, that even winds and sea obey him? (ESV)

He is the one who forgives sins:

> Matthew 9:1-8 - And getting into a boat he crossed over and came to his own city. And behold, some people brought to him a paralytic, lying on a bed. And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, Take heart, my son; your sins are forgiven. And behold, some of the scribes said to themselves, This man is blaspheming. But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, Why do you think evil in your hearts? For which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven, or to say, Rise and walk? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins — he then said to the paralytic—Rise, pick up your bed and go home. And he rose and went home. When the crowds saw it, they were afraid, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to men. (ESV)

He is one who gives life:

> John 1:4 - In him was life, and the life was the light of men. (ESV)

> John 5:21 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. (ESV)

In fact it could be said that everything that God does for us, Jesus does for us. How should one respond to such blessings?

S - Seat:
Jesus sits on God's throne:

> Revelation of John 3:21 - The one who conquers, I will grant him to sit with me on my throne, as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne. (ESV)

Jesus is ruling over all things:

> Revelation of John 5:13 - And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying, To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever! (ESV)

This is nothing short of claiming to be equal with God:

> John 10:27-33 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are one. The Jews picked up stones again to stone him. Jesus answered them, I have shown you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you going to stone me? The Jews answered him, It is not for a good work that we are going to stone you but for blasphemy, because you, being a man, make yourself God. (ESV)

Jesus is the judge of all history, of the entire world, of each person – to Him every knee will bow. Just as Buckingham Palace is the residence of the Queen, so the one who reigns sovereignly from heaven can be none other than the God of gods.

5.5 Our obedient faith should be penitent, and should be without partiality. We aim for perfection, to be conformed to Christ's image

> John Piper - "Faith is the baking our hope on the mercy of God."

Obeying Jesus should be impartial:

> James 2:1 - My brothers, show no partiality as you hold the faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. (ESV)

> John Piper - "Mercy means that our obedience doesn't have to be perfect, it has to be penitent."

> II Corinthians 13:11 - Finally, brethren, rejoice, be made complete, be comforted, be like-minded, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. (NASB)

> II Corinthians 13:11 - Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. (KJV)

> II Corinthians 13:11-14 - Finally, brothers, rejoice. Aim for restoration, comfort one another, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. (ESV)

5.5.1 Faith is not merely belief, but faith is walking as Abraham did - believing and obedient Obedience to God is faith. Abraham went to live in the land of promise by obedience:

> Genesis 12:1-8 - Now the LORD said to Abram, Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and him who dishonors you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed. So Abram went, as the LORD had told him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions that they had gathered, and the people that they had acquired in Haran, and they set out to go to the land of Canaan. When they came to the land of Canaan, Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, To your offspring I will give this land. So he built there an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him. From there he moved to the hill country on the east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. And there he built an altar to the LORD and called upon the name of the LORD. (ESV)

Hebrews 11:9 says that Abraham went to live in the land of promise by faith:

> Hebrews 11:9 - By faith he went to live in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise. (ESV)

Disbelief causes disobedience. Disbelief caused the Israelites to not walk in obedience:

> Hebrews 3:16-19 - For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:13 - though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, (ESV)

By unrighteousness and ungodliness, people suppress the Truth of God:

> Romans 1:17-18 - For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, The righteous shall live by faith. For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness (763. asebeia) and unrighteousness (93. adikia) of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. (ESV)

When people give up the Truth of God and suppress the Truth of God, then God gives them over to destruction:

> Romans 1:19-25 - For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise, they became fools, and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles. Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen. (ESV)

We love God and God's power through His Spirit helps us to serve Him to do works that are pleasing to Him:

> II Timothy 3:1-5 - But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God (5377. philotheos), having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. (ESV)

Paul taught that we accept God's forgiveness for our sins by placing our trusting faith in Jesus, paid Jesus' blood. God cleans our heart. And out of a pure heart and good conscience and sincere faith we love God and one another:

> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

While our good works can't make atonement for our sin, we are sanctified by Jesus' blood as we hold fast to the Truth and are corrected by and believe the Truth when we hear it and as we obey Righteousness (Jesus, the Truth). The Truth is the Word of God. Be believe and obey Jesus and we are sanctified in the Truth as we believe and obey Jesus. We must still be granted forgiveness from God. We know that anyone who places their trust in Jesus receives this forgiveness:

> Hebrews 9:22 - Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

God judges very fairly, but we must not reject Jesus:

> John 12:48 - The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)

God judges very fairly. He judges the hearts of all people. Christians should naturally serve and obey Jesus as they hold their faith in Jesus. The gospel of Jesus is the power of salvation to all that believe/trust/obey:

> Romans 2:1-16 - Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who do such things. Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God? Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. For all who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

We still need to accept forgiveness from God that our sins are forgiven. We can't reject the forgiveness of God. We need God's forgiveness:

> Romans 4:7-10 - Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin. Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. (ESV)

Therefore we must trust Jesus, trust in Jesus, receive Jesus Christ Son of God as our Lord and Saviour:

> Acts 10:43: Of Him all the prophets bear witness that through His name everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins."

Once again, we must not reject Jesus:

> Hebrews 3:15-19 - As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

We hear the gospel, and we receive salvation through faith. Reaching it is a journey of applied faith:

> Hebrews 4:1-2 - Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us fear lest any of you should seem to have failed to reach it. For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. (ESV)

The rest goes to the one who takes Jesus' yoke and learns from Him. Obedience to Jesus will result in finding rest for your soul:

> Matthew 11:28-29 - Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. (ESV)

The rest goes to those who have believed. Believing in Jesus is obedience to the gospel:
Hebrews 4:3 Interlinear: for we do enter into the rest – we who did believe, as He said, 'So I sware in My anger, If they shall enter into My rest – ;' and yet the works were done from the foundation of the world,

> Hebrews 4:3 - For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said, As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest, although his works were finished from the foundation of the world.

We find rest from our labours:

> Revelation of John 14:13 - And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on. Blessed indeed, says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them! (ESV)

That rest looks like living for the will of God (i.e. faith in Jesus, faith in God, our sanctification, keeping His commandments, putting a stop to breaking the 10 commandments (the Christian way) from the heart, putting a stop to false-witnessing, idolatry etc., so faith in God beliving the gospel, producing agape love especially for our family in Christ):

> I Peter 4:1-2 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. (ESV)

Polycarp 2:2 Now He that raised Him from the dead will raise us also; if we do His will and walk in His commandments and love the things which He loved, abstaining from all unrighteousness, covetousness, love of money, evil speaking, false witness; not rendering evil for evil or railing for railing or blow for blow or cursing for cursing;

> Philippians 3:8-11 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:12 - Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on (G1377 diōkō; I am pursuing) to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

HELPS Word-studies G1377 diṓkō – properly, aggressively chase, like a hunter pursuing a catch (prize). G1377 (diṓkō) is used positively ("earnestly pursue") and negatively ("zealously persecute, hunt down"). In each case, G1377 (diṓkō) means pursue with all haste ("chasing" after), earnestly desiring to overtake (apprehend)

> Philippians 3:13 - Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own (G2638 kateilēphenai; to have taken hold [of it]). But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

The demons have belief and believe certain facts about God, but they don't have a response of love towards God. They don't have a trusting, yielding, loving, serving response which seeks to come under the Lordship of Jesus and keep Jesus' commandments, turning away from what God hates:

> James 2:19 - You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder! (ESV)

> Matthew 8:29 - And behold, they cried out, What have you to do with us, O Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time? (ESV)

The demons without a love for the truth, also do not have forgiveness. But those who love Jesus are forgiven by Him:

> Luke 7:40-50 - And Jesus answering said to him, Simon, I have something to say to you. And he answered, Say it, Teacher. A certain moneylender had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. When they could not pay, he cancelled the debt of both. Now which of them will love him more? Simon answered, The one, I suppose, for whom he cancelled the larger debt. And he said to him, You have judged rightly. Then turning toward the woman he said to Simon, Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not ceased to kiss my feet. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little. And he said to her, Your sins are forgiven. Then those who were at table with him began to say among themselves, Who is this, who even forgives sins? And he said to the woman, Your faith has saved you; go in peace. (ESV)

The demons are still subject to Jesus:

> Luke 10:17 - The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name! (ESV)

> Mark 9:25-27 - And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again. And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that most of them said, He is dead. But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. (ESV)

> Luke 8:30-33 - Jesus then asked him, What is your name? And he said, Legion, for many demons had entered him. And they begged him not to command them to depart into the abyss. Now a large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside, and they begged him to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned. (ESV)

Judas was like a demon:

> John 6:70 - Jesus answered them, Did I not choose you, the Twelve? And yet one of you is a devil. (ESV)

> Matthew 26:50 - Jesus said to him, Friend, do what you came to do. Then they came up and laid hands on Jesus and seized him. (ESV)

The love of the truth (treasuring the truth) must be received and accepted to be saved:

> II Thessalonians 2:10 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. (NASB)

People will put their trust in and love what is false:

> II Thessalonians 2:11 - For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe (G4100 pisteuo) what is false (G5579 pseudos), (NASB)

Those people who did not have faith in the truth but took pleasure in unrighteousness may be condemned. True 'pistis' faith involves an agape love of the truth as II Thes 2:10-13 shows:

> II Thessalonians 2:12 - in order that all may be condemned who did not believe (G4100 pisteuo) the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

The love of the truth involves faith in the truth (which agape-loves the truth) and sanctification (being corrected, cleaned up by the truth through trusting and obeying the Truth, trusting and obeying Jesus Christ):

> II Thessalonians 2:10-13 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false, in order that they all may be judged who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness. But we should always give thanks to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

Agape love not only assents to but rejoices with the truth:

> I Corinthians 13:4-8 - Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears (G4722 stegei; it bears; to cover with silence (endure patiently)) all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. (ESV)

Yes, believing certain facts about God are important:

> John 20:29-31 - Jesus said to him, Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed. Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name. (ESV)
> Luke 24:25-26 - And he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory? (ESV)

There are some doctrines that are so essential that to deny them is to not be a Christian:

> I John 4:2 - By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses (G3670 homologeó, confesses, acknowledges, agrees) that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, (ESV)
> I John 2:22 - Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. (ESV)
> II John 1:7 - For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess (G3670 homologeó) the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. (ESV)

Love for God in love for Jesus is an important part of our faith in. God loves us because we love Jesus obeying His commandments even to trust in Him and believe the facts about Him, believing He came from God:

> John 16:26-27 - In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. (ESV)
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)
> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

Jesus was and is obedient to Father God:

> John 6:38 - For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. (ESV)
> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

Jesus loves Father God. Jesus obeyed God with perfect self-humbling obedience so that the world may know that He loves Father God:

> John 14:31 - but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go from here. (ESV)
> John 8:44 - You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. (ESV)

In response to forgiveness, we must love:

> Luke 7:47 - Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little. (ESV)

He loved us first, and that is why and how we love (knowing we've already received mercy). Christ's love is not simply charity but a) it's passing-forward Christ's love, and b) it's to relieve other's burdens (mercy, not sacrifice):

> John 15:9-13 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. (ESV)
> Acts 2:45 - And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. (ESV)

We should have a loving response to God for Him having saved us. It certainly appears that not having a loving/obedient/thankful response to God for His mercy, we may miss out on 'entering into the joy of our master':

> Matthew 25:23 - His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master. (ESV)

Our response might be a positive response of proclaiming to others how much God has done for them - giving God the glory:

> Luke 8:39 - Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you. And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him. (ESV)

We must have a response of love for Jesus:

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

So we want to have a response of love for Jesus:

> Luke 12:48 - But the one who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, will receive a light beating. Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more. (ESV)

As a husband loves his wife, so Jesus loves us. As a wife respects her husband, so must the members of Christ's body respect Christ:

> Ephesians 5:30-33 - because we are members of his body. Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church. However, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband. (ESV)

Jesus is so generous that He saves people who turn out to be unthankful, but we should definitely love Jesus as a response. This story should be taken not only to see how Good God is, but also taken as a warning against unthankfulness:

> Luke 17:11-19 - On the way to Jerusalem he was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. When he saw them he said to them, Go and show yourselves to the priests. And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus answered, Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner? And he said to him, Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well. (ESV)

We must know that God loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. We must believe:

> I John 4:10 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

We must obey:

> II John 1:5-6 - And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. (ESV)

> Acts 5:29 - But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. (ESV)

We must obey Jesus and love one another:

I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)

Luke 6:46-48 - Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. (ESV)

The knowledge comes from having obeyed God's voice. Love becomes perfected in us when we abide in God:

I John 4:15-17 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world.

I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

John 8:55 - But you have not known him. I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and I keep his word. (ESV)

In order to know God we must love one another in the way that God has loved us:

I John 4:7-12 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)

5.5.2 Joy and obedience - we want both of them at the same time

John Piper stresses that although obeying sin steals your joy, making Jesus your Pearl of Great Price makes it much easier to forsake sin.

youtube.com: What Comes First: My Obedience to Jesus or My Joy in Jesus? When we are living in disobedience to Christ our joy in him will be minimal or non-existent depending on the depth and duration of the disobedience.

By all means forsake bad behaviors but mainly the battle is look to Jesus look to all that God is for you in him and pray for eyes to see his all satisfying beauty and worth so that you rest in him and are so satisfied that the root of sin is severed and you walk in obedience.

I personally believe that joy comes from having been given and maintaining a good conscience with God.

II Corinthians 1:12 - For our boast is this: the testimony of our conscience that we behaved in the world with simplicity and godly sincerity, not by earthly wisdom but by the grace of God, and supremely so toward you. (ESV)

I Corinthians 16:13-14 - Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)

johnrasicci.wordpress.com: JOY FROM A CLEAR CONSCIENCE | John Rasicci We cannot deceive ourselves either by simply proclaiming we are the righteousness of God in Christ while living in sin.

There is a difference in claiming to be the righteousness of God in Christ (2 Corinthians 5:21) and actually living righteously (Titus 2:12; also called the fruits of righteousness Philippians 1:11).

The former speaks of our spiritual position in Christ by the grace of God but the latter speaks of our practice, the obedience of our faith, our behavior, and our actual daily conduct.

Our position was by the work of Jesus; our practice is by our work.

God sees both our position in Christ and our practice (Hebrews 4:13). Calvary didn't blind God.

> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

> II Timothy 1:3 - I thank God whom I serve, as did my ancestors, with a clear conscience, as I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. (ESV)

I also affirm the Didache here which shows that the upwards-call of the Christian absolutely involves making earthly sacrifices as we serve Jesus, and there are degrees of glory as we are conformed to Jesus' image:

> Didache Chapter 6 - See that no one causes you to err from this way of the Teaching, since apart from God it teaches you. For if you are able to bear the entire yoke of the Lord, you will be perfect; but if you are not able to do this, do what you are able.

Now from John Piper:

> I'm dealing with the issue of God's glory and our gladness. Can they really be one? And I'm doing that under the bigger banner of "How can I spread a passion for the supremacy of God?" because I think that phrase "passion for the supremacy of God" pulls together the two things:
> 1. "passion" signifies "I'm joyful" and
> 2. "supremacy of God" signifies "he's being magnified".
> So my biggest longing in life is to be used by God to help people see him for who he really is in his magnificence, and then have emotions that are appropriate to that magnificence. Why do we watch the World Series? Why do we watch gymnastics when the Olympics rolls around? Why do we go to the Grand Canyon? Why do we go to the Alps? Why do we go to the ocean and look out over... Why do we want to get near bigness and beauty and magnificence and excellence? It's because that's what we were made for. We were not made for mirrors. So I want to be absolutely candid, the Christian Life Is War and I'm in the business of helping people know how to fight in the way that they're supposed to, namely for joy.
> There's a text in 2 Corinthians 1:24:
> Ecclesiastes 3:12-13 - I perceived that there is nothing better for them than to be joyful and to do good as long as they live; also that everyone should eat and drink and take pleasure in all his toil—this is God's gift to man. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 1:24 - Not that we lord it over your faith, but we work with you for your joy, for you stand firm in your faith. (ESV)
> I was amazed when I saw that. Paul says "I'm a worker for your joy" as though Joy requires apostolic work, and if it does for him it does for me. And so yeah there are times in the ministerial life or the Christian Life when we're low. It seems like all the joy is gone, we want to quit, give up the ministry, give up the faith, and at those moments we need to fight like heaven to hold on.

Sermon youtube.com: Sustaining Joy in Christ

I believe that the freedom we have in Christ is for serving Jesus, and we have a heavenly perspective:

> Colossians 3:22-25 - Slaves, obey in everything those who are your earthly masters, not by way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality. (ESV)

5.5.3 We are bought with the precious blood of Christ and we should be obedient to God

> I Peter 1:17-19 - And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

Faith that from a good conscience with God produces Christ's love:

> I Corinthians 16:13-14 - Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

5.5.4 Eternal salvation goes to those who obey Him

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him,

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

If you keep Jesus' commandments then the Spirit of Truth will come to you, and help you, and be in you. If we obey Jesus, the Holy Spirit helps us, even before He's inside us:

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

The above definitely indicates that we should try to keep Jesus Christ's commandments even before receiving the Holy Spirit.

We receive of God's Spirit. That is how we know we abide in Him:

> I John 4:13 - By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. (ESV)

5.5.5 Praying to Father God in the Holy Spirit in Jesus' name

youtube.com: Does it matter which Person of the Trinity we pray to? - John Piper {@DigitalCodex} @t

Pray in the name of Jesus, which I think means "on the basis of what Jesus has done to make our access to God possible, namely His blood and righteousness". So when I say in 'Jesus' name' at the end of a prayer I mean "because Jesus died for me and rose again and covered my sins and imparted and imputed righteousness to me, I have access to the father because of Him". That's what in Jesus name means.

5.5.6 Faith in Jesus Christ's name to be saved

> Acts 4:12 - And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved. (ESV)

It's faith in Jesus' name that is powerful, and it's with faith in Jesus' name that we are saved.

We are granted repentance to life; being a slave to righteousness leading to sanctification and at its end, eternal life. We expect to receive salvation as we have faith in Jesus Christ:

> Romans 3:21-25 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins.

AMEN!!

Something like this:

> I Thessalonians 1:3 - remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Acts 3:2-9 - And a man lame from birth was being carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple that is called the Beautiful Gate to ask alms of those entering the temple. Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive alms. And Peter directed his gaze at him, as did John, and said, Look at us. And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk! And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. And leaping up he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising God,

> Acts 3:16 - And his name—by faith in his name—has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all.

> Acts 4:7-10 - And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, By what power or by what name did you do this? Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, Rulers of the people and elders, if we are being examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by him this man is standing before you well.

> Acts 4:12 - And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.

Keep God's word:

> John 17:6 - I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world. Yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. (ESV)

Keeping God's word given through Jesus, having God's name revealed:

> John 17:6 - I have revealed (G5319 phaneroó) Your name (G3686 onoma) to those You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours; You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. (engbsb2020eb)

G5319 phaneroó Definition: To make manifest, to reveal, to make known, to show openly. Meaning: I make clear (visible, manifest), make known. Word Origin: From the Greek word (phaneros), meaning ”visible” or ”manifest.”

Be convinced and keep having and doing faith in Jesus Christ. John uses the verb for faith:

> John 20:31 - but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: His Voice in Yours: How Christ Wins the World @time: 12 min 52 sec

> Jeremiah 23:5-6 - Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely. And this is the name by which he will be called: The LORD is our righteousness. (ESV)

5.6 By God’s grace God has saved us and provided us with a means to be reconciled to Him through trusting faith in Him

God has called us out of darkness and into His marvelous light:

> I Peter 2:9 - But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (ESV)

*Romans 10:14-21 shows that people need to receive, and believe the Good News (Jesus Christ and His words). We have to hearken to the gospel.

So real saving faith has to be faith in the Truth, the word of Christ:

> Romans 10:14-21 - But how are they to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news! But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us? So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ. But I ask, have they not heard? Indeed they have, for Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world. But I ask, did Israel not understand? First Moses says, I will make you jealous of those who are not a nation; with a foolish nation I will make you angry. Then Isaiah is so bold as to say, I have been found by those who did not seek me; I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me. But of Israel he says, All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people. (ESV)

I believe that saving faith must arrive and settle in the heart, and as the heart is made clean, a person’s outside changes:

> Matthew 23:26 - You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be clean. (ESV)

There are some doctrines that are so essential that to deny them is to not be a Christian:

> I John 4:2 - By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses (G3670 homologeó, confesses, acknowledges, agrees) that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, (ESV)

> I John 2:22 - Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. (ESV)

> II John 1:7 - For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess (G3670 homologeó) the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. (ESV)

I confess (G3670 homologeó) that God was acting through Jesus Christ of Nazareth as He walked the earth in the flesh, around 2000 years ago, and that God is still working through us who are in Christ Jesus.

> John 10:32 - Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?"

I also think it's important to have an accurate Christology:

> Luke 24:25-27 - And he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory? And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. (ESV)

While I believe that it is central to the gospel that Jesus was raised from the dead, the object of our faith should be Jesus Himself and we should trust Jesus to believe and obey Him - teachings included. We believe the Word of God: We believe Jesus and we believe in Jesus Himself, and we believe the Holy Scriptures which say Jesus was raised from the dead, and we should get a clearer picture of Jesus as we follow Him.

> I Corinthians 15:17 - And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. (ESV)

> Luke 24:44-48 - Then he said to them, These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled. Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. (ESV)

Let's not focus on minimums, but maximums:

Sermon youtube.com: How Much Error Can I Believe and Still Be Saved?

We must also accept that Jesus Christ, God's Only-Begotten Son was raised from the dead:

> I Corinthians 15:14-17 - And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain. We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified about God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised. And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. (ESV)

> Luke 24:24-27 - Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but him they did not see. And he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory? And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. (ESV)

> Romans 10:9 - because, if you confess (G3670 homologēsēs, acknowledge, agree) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. (ESV)

We should definitely confess (G3670 homologeó) Jesus to others:

> Luke 12:8-9 - And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. (ESV)

I believe that trusting Jesus and obedience in the heart towards Jesus is required. Obedience to Jesus is love.

> I Corinthians 13:13 - So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

5.7 Grace

Imagine you want to be able to live-out Jesus' commandments and you feel like they're just so challenging or daunting, or impossible. Fulfilling Christ's law is not impossible. All things are possible with God. And to fulfill the law of Christ is what Paul challenged us to do.

Well, Jesus bought for us the ability to live out His commandments, and live out Father God's commandments to us authentically and without fear of punishment, and with the hope of a future with God.

Analogy Like how getting an extension for an exam gives a person the means to pass the test, when a person is given grace, they are given the means to fulfill the law of Christ. I don't believe this is "necessarily" a theology test. But, like Abraham when he was tested, God tests our faith, our love for the truth, our love for God and for our family in Christ.

Grace is "the goodness and loving kindness of God our Saviour that has appeared" which enables us to live righteously (upright).

Justified by faith in Jesus apart from any of our works (not because of works done by us in righteousness). If we have life, then we have it owing totally to God (and not owning to ourself):

> Titus 3:4-7 - But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

So that we are able to walk righteously (i.e. fulfilling the law of Christ but still by God's grace):

> Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

youtube.com: What Is the Grace of God ? Titus 2 : 11 - 15 , Part 1 {@ desiringGod } @time: 11 min 4
'The grace is the power of God to make sinners good, not just declare them righteous.'

God's grace enabled Paul to "work":

> I Corinthians 15:10 - But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. (ESV)

blueletterbible.org: G5485 - charis - Strong's Greek Lexicon {kjv} ... of the merciful kindness by which God, exerting his holy influence upon souls, turns them to Christ, keeps, strengthens, increases them in Christian faith, knowledge, affection, and kindles them to the exercise of the Christian virtues

While I agree God's grace comes as unmerited favour, I also believe that God's grace actively teaches us to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts. So I believe that while we are in grace, God's in His grace leads us, teaches us, convicts us, chastises us etc. I believe that God's grace is more than just ”unmerited favour”, but that it is also transformative.

hymnary.org: Abide With Me | Hymnary.org 3 I need thy presence every passing hour. What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power? Who like thyself my guide and strength can be? Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me. (youtube.com: The MOST BEAUTIFUL HYMN TUNE EVER WRITTEN {@SalisburyOrganist})

Grace should help us to keep God's commandments, including the 10 commandments.

Endeavouring to keep God's commandments is not ”falling from grace” or strictly ”coming under the law”. Rather, grace helps us to deny ungodliness. We can and should seek to keep the great commandments from the heart. We can seek to keep God's commandments and be under grace at the same time, and we should try to keep God's commandments, even the 10 commandments from the heart.

5.7.1 Grace teaches us to deny ungodliness

> Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

5.7.2 By the blood of Jesus

The Blood of Jesus empowers us to do works that are pleasing to God.

We are purchased by Jesus' blood:

> I Peter 1:18-19 - knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

God works in us to help us to practice righteousness:

> Hebrews 13:20-21 - Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

Because sanctification is happening, because a person is trying to maintain a good conscience with God, a person born of God can't simply sin without violating their good conscience and sinning is going to have a real noticable effect on them and on other people and sin leads to death so we are trying to purify ourselves and stop committing it:

> I John 3:8-10 - Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

5.7.3 We should not pervert grace into something which is disobedient to God

> Jude 1:4 - For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. (ESV)

5.7.4 God works in us by His transforming grace as we work

> Hebrews 13:20-21 - Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:10 - But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. (ESV)

5.7.5 Disciplined to look like a child of God, an analogy

We're allowed to call ourselves children if we believe on Jesus' name, even if we're not looking like a child of God (i.e. even if we're not perfected in holiness, and in love, and in obedience). But let's be real, someone who has just come to faith is an infant. Now if an infant in Christ starts calling themself a child of God then they're going to be trained to maturity, so they really look and behave and think like children of God.

Christians who are keeping Christ's commandments agape love even people who are infants in Christ, people who have just been born of God:

> I John 5:1-2 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

But we aim to be children of God without blemish:

> Philippians 2:12-16 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out (G2716 katergazomai) your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. Do all things without grumbling or questioning, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

Our own 'effort' being involved is not against faith as some people say. The heart attitudes are involved. The heart changes so there is good treasure in it and from there there is good fruit:

> II Peter 1:5-10 - For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. (ESV)

We don't want "sinful desire". Jesus searches the hearts and minds:

> II Peter 1:3-8 - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

An analogy:

Let's say there is an 800m sprint that everyone has to be able to make within the "Beginner time" and call themselves "fit" in order to be able to be able to take a trip to the international space station. Likewise, children of God need to be the good soil:

> Mark 4:20 - But those that were sown on the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold. (ESV)

Table taken from `https://marathonhandbook.com/average-time-to-run-800m/`:

Age Group	Beginner	Novice	Intermediate Recreational	World Record
18-39	3:37	3:13	2:38	1:40
40+	3:54	3:28	2:51	1:48
45+	3:57	3:30	2:52	1:49
50+	4:16	3:48	3:06	1:58
55+	4:25	3:55	3:13	2:02
60+	4:38	4:07	3:22	2:08
65+	4:49	4:17	3:30	2:13
70+	5:04	4:30	3:41	2:20
75+	5:26	4:50	3:57	2:30
80+	5:49	5:11	4:14	2:41

Most people might just assume they can do it within "Beginner time" and so don't make an attempt at training for test of fitness required to go to space. To not make any attempt at obeying Jesus' commandments by faith would be like the second son who did not go out to the vineyard:

> Matthew 21:28-31 - What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, Son, go and work in the vineyard today. And he answered, I will not, but afterward he changed his mind and went. And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, I go, sir, but did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father? They said, The first. Jesus said to them, Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. (ESV)

youtube.com: What is Repentance ? - Tim Conway {@ illbehonest } @time: 22 min 51 sec Let me ask you something. Two sons. Which son is the sinner who truly gets saved? First son or second son? First. The father says this: Go and work. The first son says, "No. I will not." What a great picture of sinners! We may have created a god of our own imagination who smiled at us, but when it came to the true God of Scripture and the things He wanted us to do, we shook our fist. Uh huh. Not me. Not me. If that's what God is like, I'm going to create my own. I've got the god of my own imagination, but I don't want the God from there because what He wants me to do? Uh huh, I don't want to do. That is just a perfect picture of sinners. Defiant, rebellious, stubborn. But what happens to the first son? Obviously, he came to a point where he reconsidered, right? He thinks again. What happened was, the sinner comes to the place where he reexamines the claims of Christ that he had formerly ignored and dismissed, but now he thinks again. And he doesn't just think again, he changes his mind. In the past, he thought his father's commandments, they were intrusive. They were inconvenient. Going my own way is much better. His way is too narrow. It's too constricted. I don't like that way. I want freedom. The devil's right there saying, "Yeah, you don't want that way." "It's bad." But then something happens. Something happens. He rethinks. And this time, his thinking changes. And you can see when the change of mind is real. When the mind changes - listen, if I'm going this way and my mind changes, you can see that it changes because the whole self follows the change. If the mind turns, the whole self follows.

The person "doing the will of Father God" is the person who "believes" and is the person who "does in reality" and is the person who "goes to work in the vineyard".

A person might therefore have said the wrong thing but ended up doing the right thing. Man looks at the outwards appearance. God looks at the heart. God wants us to be the one who goes out in reality. This parable doeosn't mention the quality of any potential work done. But it's saying we must be those who go out in reality to do God's will for us:

> Matthew 21:24-32 - Jesus answered them, I also will ask you one question, and if you tell me the answer, then I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, from where did it come? From heaven or from man? And they discussed it among themselves, saying, If we say, From heaven, he will say to us, Why then did you not believe him? But if we say, From man, we are afraid of the crowd, for they all hold that John was a prophet. So they answered Jesus, We do not know. And he said to them, Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, Son, go and work in the vineyard today. And he answered, I will not, but afterward he changed his mind and went. And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, I go, sir, but did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father? They said, The first. Jesus said to them, Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him. (ESV)

> 1 Samuel 16:7 - But the LORD said to Samuel, Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him. For the LORD sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart. (ESV)

God just wants us to take to the plough (Matthew 21:24-32) and not look back:

> Luke 9:62 - Jesus said to him, No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God. (ESV)

Our own 'effort' being involved is not against faith as some people say. The heart attitudes are involved. The heart changes so there is good treasure in it and from there there is good fruit:

> II Peter 1:5-10 - For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. (ESV)

A person might question whether or not they are managing to keep Jesus' commandments "well enough". They might even tell God something like, "I'm not going to do it unless You do this for me first." But when testing happens, they end up actually doing what God wants them to do.

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

Now let's say there is someone now ranting and raving about some cataclysmic event on the horizon threatening the earth but only those who can make "Beginner time" for their age bracket are allowed to depart on a rocket - now the situation becomes more serious. As children of God, we know we need to by faith obey Jesus, turning away from sin and loving our family in Christ, etc. and practice righteousness:

> Acts 17:30-31 - The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed; and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead. (ESV)

If we start claiming that we are ourselves ”fit”, saying we can make ”Beginner time”, and we actually are not fit enough then people might start pointing that out saying, ”You’re not fit enough, etc. Do some working out at the gym to get fitter. Likewise, if we start calling ourselves children of God, then God will chastise us to get us into shape. He doesn’t want us to be disobedient like the second son (in Matt 21:38-31), but He wants us to walk in His ways, not just make a claim to walk in His ways:

> I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one’s deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)
> Hebrews 12:6 - For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 11:32 - But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

What does being in shape look like? It looks like practicing righteousness, putting a stop to sin and treasuring your family in Christ:

> I John 3:7-10 - Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God’s seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

Some people heed this advice and some people do not. And to connect with another passage, I want to be counted among the wise:

> Matthew 25:7-12 - Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out. But the wise answered, saying, Since there will not be enough for us and for you, go rather to the dealers and buy for yourselves. And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, Lord, lord, open to us. But he answered, Truly, I say to you, I do not know you. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 8:3 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)

Be doer of God’s will:

> Matthew 25:24-30 - He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours. But his master answered him, You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sowed and gather where I scattered no seed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (ESV)

> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

The penitent thief on the cross next to Jesus didn't have obligation to do more than he accomplished in repenting and putting his faith in Jesus:

> Luke 12:48 - But the one who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, will receive a light beating. Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more. (ESV)

The Apostle Paul was under massive obligation though:

> I Corinthians 9:16 - For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! (ESV)
> Luke 12:42-49 - And the Lord said, Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. But if that servant says to himself, My master is delayed in coming, and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will cut him in pieces and put him with the unfaithful. And that servant who knew his master's will but did not get ready or act according to his will, will receive a severe beating. But the one who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, will receive a light beating. Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more. I came to cast fire on the earth, and would that it were already kindled! (ESV)

Everyone falls short and we are reliant on the mercy of God:

> Romans 11:32 - For God has consigned all to disobedience, that he may have mercy on all. (ESV)
> Luke 18:13-14 - But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted. (ESV)

We are cleaned up so that we are obedient to Jesus, and God cleans us up so that we fulfill Christ's law (Christ's commandments):

> II Corinthians 10:5-6 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)
> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. (ESV)

1Clem 49:1 Let him that hath love in Christ fulfill the commandments of Christ.

We are not the justifiers of ourselves. We seek God's commendation, his justification, and we seek it by our obedient faith in Jesus:

> II Corinthians 10:18 - For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)
> III John 1:11-12 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. Demetrius has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself. We also add our testimony, and you know that our testimony is true. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:5-7 - For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

We're obligated to obey Jesus:

> Ecclesiastes 12:13 - The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. (ESV)

> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to (G3784 opheilei; ought to, obligated to, has a duty to) walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

We still need to submit to God's righteousness. We were all in disobedience so we all need mercy from God. We all need Jesus' blood to be justified. We're not trying to establish our own righteousness outside of Christ. We all need to be washed by the Holy Spirit:

> Romans 10:3 - For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. (ESV)

> John 13:7-8 - Jesus answered him, What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand. Peter said to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no share with me. (ESV)

> Titus 3:3-7 - For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

No-one in Christ is condemned. No-one who is walking by faith in Jesus obeying Jesus as Lord and Master is condemned:

> Romans 8:1-6 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. (ESV)

No-one who is trusting in Jesus is condemned:

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

No servant of Jesus is condemned. Servants of God may fall short, but will not be condemned. We need to have been "converted" to serve God through serving Jesus:

I Corinthians 3:15 - If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. (ESV)

John 13:16 - Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

Psalms 34:22 - The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned. (ESV)

I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

5.8 Receiving Jesus

5.8.1 Receiving Jesus may be as easy as receiving the one who He sends, or receiving a child in His name

John 13:20 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever receives the one I send receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.

Mark 9:37 - Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me.

A person may need to ask and seek to receive Jesus:

Luke 11:10 - For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.

5.8.2 Receive Jesus and His words, and then put to death the deeds of the body

Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Trusting and obeying Jesus' words and commandments, a person has life:

John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ:

I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

> Romans 8:13-25 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

5.8.3 God through His mercy saves us. We should respond well

Christ died for us, so through His mercy alone, he purchased us.

> Ephesians 1:13-14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)

> Ephesians 2:4 - But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, (ESV)

> I John 4:10 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (ESV)

5.8.4 Those who have a heart of faith towards Him (and anyone who He wills) may receive forgiveness of sins through his name

It's impossible for man to save himself:

> Matthew 19:25-26 - When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished, saying, Who then can be saved? But Jesus looked at them and said, With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible. (ESV)

Anyone God wills He may forgive and make clean:

> Matthew 8:1-3 - When he came down from the mountain, great crowds followed him. And behold, a leper came to him and knelt before him, saying, Lord, if you will, you can make me clean. And Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, I will; be clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. (ESV)

> Matthew 9:5-8 - For which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven, or to say, Rise and walk? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins — he then said to the paralytic—Rise, pick up your bed and go home. And he rose and went home. When the crowds saw it, they were afraid, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to men. (ESV)

We certainly must trust in the name of the Only-Begotten Son of God if we want to be born of God:

> John 1:12-13 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

Faith in God involves having confidence in God:

> Psalms 40:1-4 - I waited patiently for the LORD; he inclined to me and heard my cry. He drew me up from the pit of destruction, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure. He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and put their trust (H982 wə · yiḇ · ṭə · ḥū,; and will trust. From "batach": trust, trusts, trusted, put confidence) in the LORD. Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust (H4009 miḇ · ṭa · ḥōw; his trust. From "mibtach": trust, confidence, security, assurance), who does not turn to the proud, to those who go astray after a lie! (ESV)

An heart of faith looks like:

- Loving the truth (the truth being God, God's Word, Jesus Christ)
- Having confidence in the truth
- Wanting to do God's will
    - Obedience and repentance from sin: even if it just means wanting to turn from sin
    - because God makes the new heart to enable the person to obey
- Wanting to follow Jesus
- Accepting Jesus Christ as one's Lord
- Accepting through faith the atonement for sin through Jesus Christ
- Turning away from sin

Return to obedience to God through obedience to Jesus. Turn from sin:

> Joel 2:12-13 - Yet even now, declares the LORD, return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; and rend your hearts and not your garments. Return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love; and he relents over disaster. (ESV)

God provides the new heart, and God works through us:

> Ezekiel 11:19-20 - And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I will put within them. I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, that they may walk in my statutes and keep my rules and obey them. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. (ESV)

So to be saved a person must have an obedient heart, prepared for the good works which are prepared for us to walk in:

> Ephesians 2:8-10 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

> I Peter 2:9 - But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (ESV)

The tax collector here has an obedient heart (yielding to Jesus), but the Pharisee in the story has a self-righteous heart:

> Luke 18:9-14 - He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.his house justified, rather than the other._ For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.

It's those that believe in him (trust Him, receive Him, expect to receive Him, have an obedient heart towards Him) that receive forgiveness of sins through his name:

> Acts 10:41-44 - not to all the people but to us who had been chosen by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name. While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word. (ESV)

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life.

We must honour Jesus Christ in our bodies and in our lives - fruitful labour, so that we can be confident with John 5:24. AMEN!! We must be slaves of righteousness, leading to sanctification, which at its end is eternal life:

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes (G4100 pisteuo) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

I believe John 5:24 is a true statement and that it should not be read outside of the words Jesus said directly before it (`Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him`).

We do not nullify the rest of what Jesus has commanded of and asked of us. If Jesus is your judge, then I think it's wise to take on board the rest of what Jesus has said:

> Philippians 1:15-22 - Some indeed preach Christ from envy and rivalry, but others from good will. The latter do it out of love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel. The former proclaim Christ out of rivalry, not sincerely but thinking to afflict me in my imprisonment. What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed, and in that I rejoice. Yes, and I will rejoice, for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance, as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell.

Paul and the other faithful Apostles were exhibited as last of all, like men sentenced to death for following Jesus:

> I Corinthians 4:9-13 - For I think that God has exhibited us apostles as last of all, like men sentenced to death, because we have become a spectacle to the world, to angels, and to men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we in disrepute. To the present hour we hunger and thirst, we are poorly dressed and buffeted and homeless, and we labor, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure; when slandered, we entreat. We have become, and are still, like the scum of the world, the refuse of all things. (ESV)

God still makes apostles and prophetic people:

> Ephesians 4:11-16 - And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love. (ESV)

Paul was an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's command:

> I Timothy 1:1-2 - Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope, To Timothy, my true child in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

I myself, after being born-again, have had visions of planting churches in the South Pacific. However, to make this more complicated, I've also been going through daily testing and refinement on doctrine, etc. as the Holy Spirit has been teaching me and sanctifying me with the Word.

> An apostle, in its literal sense, is an emissary. The word is derived from Ancient Greek , literally "one who is sent off", itself derived from the verb , "to send off".

I've also had a vision of a star rising in a purple sky (like a morning sunrise), and many other such prophetic visions - anyway, my point is the 'prophetic' is a reality, and we believe in a living God, and we believe in the Holy Spirit:

> II Peter 1:19 - And we have something more sure, the prophetic word, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts, (ESV)

I believe that cessationists are in error. Modern-day apostles, I believe, like branches on a tree, still branch from the original Apostles, and should preach the same Jesus, and the same gospel, in the same Spirit, and any apostle must have Jesus as their cornerstone:

> Matthew 7:14-20 - For the gate is narrow (4728 stenos ie. narrow, small) and the way is hard (2346 thlibó - meaning: like when circumstances "rub us the wrong way" that make us feel confined (hemmed in); restricted to a "narrow" place) that leads to life, and those who find it are few. Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. (ESV) youtube.com: An Apostle by Command: 1 Timothy 1:1-2, Part 1 @time: 8 min 0 sec Paul claims extraordinary authority. Here's what he says in 1 Corinthians 14. If anyone thinks that he's a prophet or spiritual (in other words, if somebody claims to be speaking for God or in the spirit) he should acknowledge that the things that I as apostle am writing to you are a command of the Lord. If anyone does not recognize this, he's not recognized. In other words, Paul claims that his authority trumps vaunted claims to prophecy or spirituality. If you don't recognize the authority of the Apostle, you're not recognized.

> Ephesians 2:19-20 - So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, (ESV)

We have the opportunity to receive correction from God and make the tree good and its fruit good:

> Matthew 12:33-35 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. (ESV)

I believe Jesus still appoints apostles, and I'm prophetic myself so I have no doubts regarding this. I personally still see all things being placed into subjection under Christ and have no reason to think that Jesus has stopped appointing apostles and prophets as God is growing and guiding His church:

> Ephesians 2:20-22 - built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit. (ESV)

I think a good reason Jesus would still be doing this is for sake of the unity of the church, and demonstration of the Spirit and power of God. We need the prophetic in the church:

> 1 Corinthians 2:4,5 - and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God. (ESV)

> Proverbs 29:18 - Where there is no prophetic vision the people cast off restraint, but blessed is he who keeps the law. (ESV)

youtube.com: A stern warning to spiritually equip yourself for this end time. {@TorchofChristMinistries}

From our perspective it may look like things are still being brought into subjection to Him. It still looks that way to me:

> Ephesians 1:22 - And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church,

> Hebrews 2:5-8 - Now it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. It has been testified somewhere, What is man, that you are mindful of him, or the son of man, that you care for him? You made him for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned him with glory and honor, putting everything in subjection under his feet. Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. At present, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him.

Anyway, I am very confident that God still makes apostles and I know the 'prophetic' is a reality. God certainly still appoints people with spiritual gifts and is still working on the earth through people in the power of the Holy Spirit. Cessationists are quite simply incorrect.

However apostolic and prophetic people have the truth revealed to them. These roles are service roles though for helping the body of Christ grow in the knowledge of the Son of God, so there's no bragging, just serving one another, as we have different roles in the body of Christ:

> Ephesians 3:5 - which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 2:4 - and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, (ESV)

I'll let the Didache speak for itself here But not every one who speaks in the Spirit is a prophet but only if he holds the ways of the Lord. Therefore from their ways shall the false prophet and the prophet be known. And every prophet who orders a meal in the Spirit does not eat it, unless he is indeed a false prophet. And > every prophet who teaches the truth, but does not do what he teaches, is a false prophet. And every prophet, proved true, working unto the mystery of the Church in the world, yet not teaching others to do what he himself does, shall not be judged among you, for with God he has his judgment for so did also the ancient prophets. But whoever says in the Spirit, Give me money, or something else, you shall not listen to him. But if he tells you to give for others' sake who are in need, let no one judge him.

Also, this seems relevant:

> Matthew 11:11 - Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. (ESV)

But we should listen to sound teaching first and always test the spirits:

> II Timothy 4:1-4 - I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. (ESV)

> Daniel 2:28 - but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and he has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days. Your dream and the visions of your head as you lay in bed are these: (ESV)

God is loving and altogether gracious:

> Exodus 34:5-8 - The Lord descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, The Lord, the Lord, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation. And Moses quickly bowed his head toward the earth and worshiped.

> Ezra 9:13 - And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, seeing that you, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserved and have given us such a remnant as this, (ESV)

Having faith in God involves following Jesus:

> Hebrews 10:32-39 - But recall the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings, sometimes being publicly exposed to reproach and affliction, and sometimes being partners with those so treated. For you had compassion on those in prison, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one. Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls.

> Luke 6:30 - Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. (ESV)

Faith is a "way of life":

> Hebrews 13:7 - Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. (ESV)

I agree whole heartedly with this guy:

- Are All Christians Disciples? (Lordship Salvation)

I believe that generally-speaking, there is no difference between being a disciple of Jesus and a Christian because those who have faith in Jesus will do works He does. Some disciples of Jesus turned away. Some believers in Jesus became His disciples:

> Acts 11:21 - And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord. (ESV)

We're clearly instructed to be disciples:

> Matthew 28:19-20 - Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. (ESV)
> John 13:35 - By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (ESV)
> John 15:8 - By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. (ESV)
> Luke 14:33 - So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple. (ESV)
> Luke 14:27 - Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. (ESV)

In fact I think we should be both a believer and a disciple to be sanctified by the truth and regarded by God as on of His saints:

> II Corinthians 3:18 - And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)

Jesus said to these believers that if they abide in His word (and I believe that means keep His word, even in obedience), they are His disciples - so a person can be a believer before they are a disciple. But we're supposed to make this transition:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

I believe that Simon the magician after initially believing the gospel and being baptised needed to continue in obedience to God, continue trusting in Jesus, turn away from wickedness, purify his heart, draw near to God and receive Holy Spirit and be sanctified. We're instructed to "draw near to God through Jesus Christ" to be saved:

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)
> Hebrews 7:23-28 - The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office, but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself. For the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever. (ESV)

I am increasingly of the opinion that there is a subtle difference between simply 'believer' and 'saint' who is also a believer. Saints both believe and keep the God's commandments. Believing disciples of Jesus may become saints.

> II Thessalonians 1:9-12 - They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might, when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed. To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

There is a transformation in the heart of a born-again Christian that involves changing allegiance towards Jesus Christ, resulting in the will to obey Jesus, and God gives us the spirit to help us to obey Him.

> Ezekiel 11:19-20 - And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I will put within them. I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, that they may walk in my statutes and keep my rules and obey them. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. (ESV)

> Romans 6:18-20 - and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. (ESV)

Quote by Joe Rigney We receive salvation as a gift. But we do work out our own salvation, and we do so because God is at work within us to will and to work for his good pleasure. We are working out what God is working in. And he is working at the level of our will — our desires, our affections, our choices. Fundamental to salvation is heart change, the transformation of our wills by God so that we will and work for his good pleasure.

> Hebrews 13:20-21 - Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:12-13 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

5.9 I believe that a loving, trusting (believing and obedient) heart for Jesus Christ is essential for permanent abiding in Him

If someone is holding to the truth then consider them a partner and receive them. But if they're not, then separate from them:

> Philemon 1:17 - So if you consider me your partner, receive him as you would receive me. (ESV)

After believing in Him we must go ahead in the teaching of Christ:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

> Romans 6:17-19 - But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. (ESV)

Jesus’ disciples (who had made Jesus their Lord) heard his words and were developing their belief for a while:

> John 16:29-31 - His disciples said, Ah, now you are speaking plainly and not using figurative speech! Now we know that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you; this is why we believe that you came from God. Jesus answered them, Do you now believe? (ESV)

If a person truly believes Jesus is who He says He is then they have eternal life and they will go on at some point to do the works Jesus did:

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

Like the Apostle Peter, they may be quick to belief, and stumble their way to obedience:

> Matthew 16:15-18 - He said to them, But who do you say that I am? Simon Peter replied, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (ESV)

Thomas had extreme love towards Jesus and obedience to following Jesus:

> John 11:8 - The disciples said to him, Rabbi, the Jews were just now seeking to stone you, and are you going there again? (ESV)

> John 11:16 - So Thomas, called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him. (ESV)

Hearkening, listening and obeying seems to be what we’re called to do:

> Deuteronomy 28:1 - “Now it shall be, if you diligently obey the LORD your God, being careful to do all His commandments which I command you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth. (NASB)

If a person continues to obey Jesus they will eventually, like Thomas, arrive at the Truth and believe Jesus is who He says He is.

> John 20:27-31 - Then he said to Thomas, Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe. Thomas answered him, My Lord and my God! Jesus said to him, Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed. Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name. (ESV)

Here is another example where obeying Jesus led to belief:

> John 21:4-7 - Just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, Children, do you have any fish? They answered him, No. He said to them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some. So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in, because of the quantity of fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved therefore said to Peter, It is the Lord! When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment, for he was stripped for work, and threw himself into the sea. (ESV)

And another example where obedience to Jesus leads to belief:

> Luke 5:4-8 - And when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch. And Simon answered, Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets. And when they had done this, they enclosed a large number of fish, and their nets were breaking. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. (ESV)

youtube.com: Devotions with DeMarcus - Luke 5
Obeying Jesus and witnessing His glory should brings us to faith in Him. Obeying Jesus should lead us to seeing His glory and an understanding:

> Mark 8:17-21 - And Jesus, aware of this, said to them, Why are you discussing the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened? Having eyes do you not see, and having ears do you not hear? And do you not remember? When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up? They said to him, Twelve. And the seven for the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up? And they said to him, Seven. And he said to them, Do you not yet understand? (ESV)

Learning to trust in Jesus, learning to trust Jesus, as we obey Him and witness His glory, and come to trust in Him, to believe in Him. Obedience to Jesus leads to witnessing His glory which inspires our faith:

> John 2:7-11 - Jesus said to the servants, Fill the jars with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast. So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now. This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples (G3101 mathetes) believed (G4100 pisteuo) in him. (ESV)

Both belief and obedience lead to a knowledge of the Truth, and I believe we must essentially arrive at belief and understanding in the heart and ultimately an actual knowledge:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

> I John 4:16 - So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. (ESV)

And I believe too that we must arrive at willing to do the will of God:

> John 7:17 - If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. (ESV)

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him,

Jesus loved us before we loved Him:

> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

If someone obeys Jesus they should arrive at belief in Jesus and who He is and what He has accomplished; they should accept Him:

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me.

If a person believes on Jesus and what He has accomplished they should arrive at obedience, and if they want to be counted as a friend of Jesus, they certainly they must obey Jesus' commandments:

> John 15:10-14 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you.

I think faith in Jesus grows as both of these qualities increase, and leads to actual knowledge of Christ:

- Whoever believes in Jesus Christ, the Only-Begotten Son of God, is not condemned.
- Otherwise, those who don't believe that fully and do not obey the gospel, I think fall into condemnation or tribulation.
- Those who obey in part yet do not believe the gospel, I think fall into condemnation or tribulation.

Nevertheless, if someone believes on Him they have begun to obey Him, and so I believe they are in the Lord while they trust in His name, Jesus Christ (Messiah) the Son of God, to be saved, as the following applies:

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

We still have life in Jesus Christ's name while we believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God:

> John 20:31 - but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name. (ESV)

That's confirmed here by saying that these people are not 'spiritual' but they are still in Christ:

> I Corinthians 3:1 - But I, brothers, could not address you as spiritual people, but as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. (ESV)

And as we know, no-one in Christ is condemned:

> Romans 8:1 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

So if a person is still believing/trusting (verb) in Him - I don't think they fall into condemnation, no matter their other failures.

You must walk in the truth, including agape (treasuring) loving your family in Christ or you are not in the light, and the blood of Jesus doesn't "continue" cleansing you.

> I John 1:6-7 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

Actually, at some stage I think we have to just rest in the knowledge that it's all about what He did, as far as being saved goes, not what we've done for Him. But that does not mean that resisting sin and practicing our righteousness is contrary to receiving saving grace. Salvation is a process inclusive of sanctification. God wants us to no longer desire evil, but to desire Him. God wants use to come to a love of the truth and to desire what is good and not what is evil:

> I Corinthians 10:6-12 - Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:11-19 - As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest. Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

youtube.com: Salvation is NOT Momentary {@Onesoul1.2} Nahum 3:5 - Behold, I am against you, declares the LORD of hosts, and will lift up your skirts over your face; and I will make nations look at your nakedness and kingdoms at your shame. (ESV)

We see that the Lord gives grace to those who repent, but they didn't stay walking in the way of repentance. They didn't change their direction and accept that the Lord was who he says he was. They just saw they just saw that they were going to be destroyed and that all that they loved was going to be taken away from them.

Now, if we're going to "2025 this", how often do those who claim to profess Christ cling on to this idea of taking care of the body, ... we get preached not so much a gospel of Christ and not so much The gospel of God is who he says he is, but rather we get preached an opportunity to save ourselves from suffering. Talking about salvation, do we seek salvation from sin and living incorrectly or do we just seek salvation from personal suffering? And and that's what I want to talk about. That's my Bible thought for the day. Are we saved just from hell or are we saved from a life living anti-god? Are we antichrists in that we accept a truth of God, this freedom, this life eternal [but] we don't focus on what it's about. It's serving the Lord. Jonah preached to Nineveh and Nineveh believed that God was going to destroy them. And because they didn't want to be destroyed, they repented. And it would seem that they lived justly for a time, a season, and then the whoredom came back where they went..

Nahum 3:4 - Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts. (KJV)

How much do we we cling to the Lord in one season, but then when something that comes up that we want to idolize, that we want to put before him, when that comes up, do we turn away from the Lord? Do we not trust him? Do we not seek him? Do we not obey?

This is that false gospel that we can pray a prayer of salvation and then not witness in ourselves a life changed. Instead, we just accept the gift of God without the works of God.

It it says in several parts in the Bible, in fact, II Peter 3:14, we'll start there:

II Peter 3:14 - Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless. (KJV)

We're not supposed to just accept it as a one-time thing, but a walking faith. It isn't something we believe in a moment or in a season, but it's something that we carry through for throughout our entire lives.

Jesus says, "You will know them by their fruits." Well, if we claim to have prayed a prayer of salvation, if we claim to accept Christ as Lord, are we doing the things that he says to do? Are we making him Lord?

Amen brother. I think of it like the Israelites leaving Egypt to go to the promised land (rest). During this salvation we believe, trust, obey God, forsake idols. Like leaving Egypt to go out and worship God, we also leave the Egypt of slavery to sin. By trusting and obeying Christ, we go out to to worship God and to our promised land of rest where in Him we are keeping Christ's commandments and they're not burdensome (abiding in His love). As we see to do this, and walk as Jesus walked, keeping Jesus' commandments, we also know that Father God loved us first, Father God demonstrating His love for us in sending Jesus Christ to be propitiation for our sins. Jesus says the one who keeps his commandments is the one who loves Him. Paul says he decided to know nothing except Christ AND Him crucified. John says we have confidence we have come to know Him when we are keeping His commandments. Paul says if anyone loves God then he is known by God. We want to be known by Jesus, not turned away by Him. So having arrived in the promised-land, have become very trusting and obedient to Christ (fit, and keeping His commandments is not burdensome). So the salvation isn't 'dilutedly' momentary but in a sense you can say that we are saved when God shows up to lead us out of Egypt, but salvation continues. God saves us from the inside-out to make the tree good, so faith in Jesus purifies our heart, and obedience to a sincere love of our family in Christ, purifies our souls. Basically, I consider salvation to be inclusive of our sanctification.

Hebrews says it better than I can. So a lot of people's idea of salvation is it happens in an instant. Then you're eternally saved, and nothing you can do to "add to it" or to "have assurance". Sanctification is normally still regarded as a 'lifelong' process of "getting cleaned up" to look like a child of God "practicing righteousness, loving family in Christ and no longer making a practice of sinning". But I don't see two separate things there. Rather I think salvation is the sanctification. But it happens from the inside-out.

This sanctification is the salvation: We are sanctified (perfected in love and holiness) while having faith in the Truth. We are saved through sanctification and faith. This sanctification is the sanctification of the heart and of the soul:

II Thessalonians 2:13 - But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. (ESV)

> Justified by faith in Jesus. Saved through sanctification while holding faith in Jesus. This justification by faith is required for us to continue holding on to sanctification:
> I Corinthians 6:11* - And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. (ESV)
> Evil things coming from the heart of man defile the man. So with good thoughts proceeding from a pure heart, that would purify the man? And this purification I would call ”soul purification”, the soul being the rest of the spirit-man, I think. So there’s the heart, where our faith, trust, love and obedience to God are, and where the word is sown. And the is the soul / the rest of the soul, and God wants all of it to be purified. Not just the heart, but the soul.
> To be saved involves being cleaned up by the process of sanctification, and we are conformed to the image of Christ from one degree of glory to the next. I realise that God is the author and finisher of our faith, and it’s all grace, and there is no remission of sin without the shedding of blood, and by faith in Jesus’ blood we may be delivered from sin, healed to serve God.
> Romans 3:25 - Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; (KJV)
> Hebrews 9:13-14 - For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? (KJV)
> Hebrews 10:7-10 - Then I said, Behold, I have come to do your will, O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book. When he said above, You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings (these are offered according to the law), then he added, Behold, I have come to do your will. He abolishes the first in order to establish the second. And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. (ESV)
> We must continue in the faith:
> Colossians 1:21-23 - And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. (ESV)
> Perhaps it could be said like this: Our hearts might be considered ’saved’ when we received the word but then there is Jesus’ parable about how the devil takes away the word so they can’t believe and be saved, so we must persevere in faith. The rest of our soul is saved as that word grows in good soil, as we trust in, trust and obey Jesus. So the salvation includes the salvation of our souls.
> I’m trying to understand and be corrected by the Word.

But it is certainly possible during this life to arrive at the point where you can say you no longer practice those sinful things which would have lead to death:

> I Corinthians 6:9-12 - Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. All things are lawful for me, but not all things are helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be enslaved by anything. (ESV)

> John 8:34-35 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever.

Also, everyone who continues on hoping in Him purifies themself as He is pure. It's important to purify ourselves, as we hope in Him. At the end of sanctification is eternal life:

> I John 3:1-3 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. (ESV)

There is something miraculous about having seen God. Upon seeing Him, we must have come to the point where we have stoppen sinning and where we agape-love our family in Christ:

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

No-one who keeps on sinning has either seen Him or known Him:

> I John 3:6 - No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:34 - Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. (ESV)

If we don't love our family in Christ then we have not even seen Jesus:

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

So it is the will of Father God that those who have seen Jesus Christ, Son of God, and have faith in Him should have eternal life and Jesus will raise them on the last day, and having seen Him means that we would be loving our family in Christ and and put a stop to committing sin:

> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

> John 20:27-29 - Then he said to Thomas, Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe. Thomas answered him, My Lord and my God! Jesus said to him, Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed. (ESV)

> I John 4:20-21 - If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

God is the justifier, and God is the one who decides who is in Christ.

> I Corinthians 1:30 - But by His doing you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption, (NASB)

Love (obedience) and belief:

> John 16:27-28 - for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father.

> John 15:16 - You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

It’s possible to follow Jesus’ voice even before having come to perfect knowledge and obedience, but Jesus knows His sheep. We must hear Jesus’ voice, obey Him, become a slave to righteousness, following His commandments and at its end, Jesus gives us eternal life:

> John 10:26-29 - but you do not believe because you are not part of my flock. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand. (ESV)

Trust in God (Trusting in God involves trusting God and trusting God enough to do what He says):

- We should trust in God.
- We should have faith in God.
- We should have faith in Jesus.
- God justifies the one who puts their faith in Jesus, who trusts in Jesus.

Putting faith in Jesus means trusting in Jesus and trusting.

We don’t love the Christmas presents more than our parents. Rather, we simply love our parents and they provide the Christmas presents. Likewise, we trust in Jesus and we believe that God justifies the one who trusts in Jesus.

The true believers follow Jesus. They are Jesus’ sheep, and they keep His teachings and trust in Him (enough to obey Him penitently):

- trust Jesus
  - youtube.com: I trust in God !
  - even for their justification
- hear Jesus’ voice
  - youtube.com: How to Hear God’s Voice & Why You’re Not Hearing Him ?
  - desiringgod.org: The Morning I Heard the Voice of God | Desiring God
- love Him
- follow Him (they’re being obedient)
- Jesus knows them

> John 8:47 - Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

I believe that what this says is that at the point Jesus knows you listen to His voice and obey His voice, He counts you as one of His sheep and He will not let you go.

The righteousness that comes through having faith in Jesus Christ - faith (not mere belief) is required to have the righteousness - to be found in Jesus:

> Philippians 3:9 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— (ESV)

The words Jesus Christ spoke were altogether a commandment of eternal life which Father God had given Jesus to speak:

> John 12:49-50 - For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)
> John 6:40-47 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. So the Jews grumbled about him, because he said, I am the bread that came down from heaven. They said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, I have come down from heaven? Jesus answered them, Do not grumble among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me—not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. (ESV)

Believing:

- youtube.com: His Voice in Yours: How Christ Wins the World

Our heart must be close to Jesus:

> Matthew 15:8 - This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; (ESV)
> John 6:35 - Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. (ESV)
> Matthew 5:6 - Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. (ESV)

If we trust God, we trust in Him. If we trust in Him, we trust Him. We trust Jesus' words. We trust Jehovah's words. Trusting in is not naturally separate from trusting. For the one trusting (it says trusting, not trusted), out of their belly will flow living water:

> John 7:38 - The [one] believing (4100. pisteuó) in Me as has said the Scripture Rivers out of the belly of him will flow of water living (Interlinear)

Jesus came into the world to bear witness to the truth:

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

Someone learning from Father God is coming to Jesus, and they will never hunger:

> II Timothy 3:14-15 - But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. (ESV)
> John 5:37-42 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life. I do not receive glory from people. But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. (ESV)

> John 6:45 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— (ESV)

We should keep coming to Jesus, keep learning from Jesus:

> John 6:37 - All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. (ESV)
> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

Learning from Jesus is actually a commandment that we should obey:

> Matthew 11:29 - Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. (ESV)
> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)

Grace is opportunity to put Jesus' commandments into practice:

> Matthew 7:24 - Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)
> John 12:47-48 - If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)
> Revelation of John 2:21 - I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. (ESV)
> Matthew 7:24-27 - Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it. (ESV)

5.9.1 The Holy Spirit is the living water

We trust Jesus (Yeshua), so we accept and treasure His words, so we trust in Him and obey Him out of trust and He is our strength, and song and Yahweh becomes our salvation. In trusting Jesus (Yeshua) we trust Jehovah (Yahweh) who has sent Jesus (Yeshua). It's Jesus Christ who saves us. It's Yahweh who saves us:

> Isaiah 12:1-3 - You will say in that day: I will give thanks to you, O LORD (H3068. Yhvh), for though you were angry with me, your anger turned away, that you might comfort me. Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust (982. batach), and will not be afraid; for the LORD GOD (H3068. Yhvh) is my strength (5797. oz) and my song (2176. zimrath), and he has become my salvation (3444. yeshuah). With joy (8342. sason) you will draw water (4325. mayim) from the wells of salvation. (ESV)

> John 7:37-39 - On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts (1372. dipsaó), let him come to me and drink (4095. pinó). Whoever believes (4100. pisteuó) in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. (ESV)

If we trust God, we trust in Him. If we trust in Him, we trust Him. We trust Jesus' words. We trust Jehovah's words. Trusting in is not naturally separate from trusting. For the one trusting (it says trusting, not trusted), out of their belly will flow living water:

> John 7:38 - The [one] believing (4100. pisteuó) in Me as has said the Scripture Rivers out of the belly of him will flow of water living (Interlinear)

1372. dipsaó Definition: to thirst. Usage: I thirst for, desire earnestly.

I desire You, Lord Jesus Christ! Please, God, let me always believe in You, trusting in You! Thank You God for Your mercy!

> Revelation of John 22:17 - The Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let the one who hears say, Come. And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who desires take the water of life without price (1432. dórean). (ESV)

1432. dórean Definition: as a gift, to no purpose. Usage: as a free gift, without payment, freely. Cognate: 1432 dōreán(the adverbial form of 1431/dōrea) – something freely done (as gratis), i.e. without "cause"; unearned (undeserved); freely given (without cost) hence not done out of mere obligation or compulsion. See 1431 (dōrea).

If you're thirsty for Jesus then trust in Jesus! Jesus is always there to satisfy that desire for Him. If you're thirsty, put your trust in Jesus. Keep trusting Jesus, trusting in Him, treasuring and trusting His words, trusting in God and you'll never be thirsty again.

> Matthew 5:6 - Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. (ESV)

> Luke 8:6 - And some fell on the rock, and as it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture. (ESV)

> Luke 8:12 - The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. (ESV)

> Romans 3:24 - and are justified by his grace as a gift (1432. dórean), through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, (ESV)

> Isaiah 44:2-4 - Thus says the LORD who made you, who formed you from the womb and will help you: Fear not, O Jacob my servant, Jeshurun whom I have chosen. For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants. They shall spring up among the grass like willows by flowing streams. (ESV)

> Isaiah 58:9-11 - Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry, and he will say, Here I am. If you take away the yoke from your midst, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness, if you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday. And the LORD will guide you continually and satisfy your desire in scorched places and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail. (ESV)

John 7:38 - The [one] believing (4100. pisteuó) in Me as has said the Scripture Rivers out of the belly of him will flow of water living (Interlinear)

5.9.2 Trusting belief (through grace) leads to continued obedience, which leads to knowledge of the Truth

John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

Seeking God in truth and not seeking glory from one another is a good place to start in coming to believe:

John 5:44 - How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? (ESV)

Willing to actually do the will of God, you'll receive revelation:

John 7:17 - If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. (ESV)

In seeking God, and coming to Jesus, we must believe that God exists and that in seeking Him, God rewards them:

Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

We come to Jesus by faith and not by sight:

Hebrews 11:1 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. (ESV)

II Corinthians 5:7 - for we walk by faith, not by sight. (ESV)

We must come to Jesus for eternal life:

John 5:39-40 - You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life. (ESV)

We come to Jesus by faith obeying Him from the heart:

Hebrews 11:8 - By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. (ESV)

> Matthew 14:28-29 - And Peter answered him, Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water. He said, Come. So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. (ESV)

Jesus is the Rock:

> I Corinthians 10:4 - and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. (ESV)

Belief is important (and is an initial act of obedience). But everything we do should be done in faith and so belief is not just initial but present and ongoing:

> Matthew 16:15-18 - He said to them, But who do you say that I am? Simon Peter replied, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (ESV)

Being a "doer" of the word is important. We can "do" (4163. poiétés) faith, do love, do the law of Christ, do the law of faith in Christ, do the law of the Spirit of life in Christ, do obedience. A person can even "do" rest. "Doing" does not mean "working" and it doesn't mean "not working". When Jesus commands us to have faith in Him then we should do it. We should hear, trust, receive, treasure His word. If we have the obedience, then we will obey. If we have the love of God within us, the love of the Truth, then we will produce good deeds. Obedience is important. And obedience is a heart attitude:

> Luke 6:46-49 - Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

We believe the Lord Jesus is who He is, the Christ, the Son of the living God, and Jesus builds the house as we obey Him.

> Psalms 127:1 - Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain.

> I John 4:10-16 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. (ESV)

It means loving Jesus which involves obeying Jesus including His commandment to trust Him and His other commandments. Jesus is preparing the place for us. Like a bridegroom for their bride, Jesus is building an extension:

> John 14:1-7 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going. Thomas said to him, Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way? Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him. (ESV)

`https://israelmyglory.org/article/coming-for-his-bride/` A local onlooker told us both families had arranged the marriage and that the couple had an unnecessarily long, drawn-out betrothal. According to ancient Jewish marriage custom, the man uses the betrothal period to prepare a home for his bride and himself in his father's house. The bystander told us the lazy bridegroom had needlessly delayed the marriage by procrastinating his building of an extension to his parents' house.

5.9.3 As we come to Jesus, we are conformed to His image

> Romans 8:29 - For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. (ESV)

5.9.4 Peter was quick to belief, and his belief led to obedience

> Matthew 16:15-18 - He said to them, But who do you say that I am? Simon Peter replied, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (ESV)

Peter's obedience wasn't perfect after that, but His belief did lead to doing works that Jesus Himself did. Peter's belief and obedience worked together for a miracle but He wavered:

> Matthew 14:28-33 - And Peter answered him, Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water. He said, Come. So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, Lord, save me. Jesus immediately reached out his hand and took hold of him, saying to him, O you of little faith, why did you doubt? And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, Truly you are the Son of God. (ESV)

5.9.5 Thomas was following Jesus around for a long time and was slow to belief, but arrived

His obedience eventually led to belief. This is in line with the gospel.

> John 20:27-31 - Then he said to Thomas, Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe. Thomas answered him, My Lord and my God! Jesus said to him, Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed. Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

Then obeying Jesus and believing His words leads to Jesus:

> Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Trusting and obeying Jesus' words and commandments, a person has life:

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

5.9.6 Believing Jesus

The drink is to believe (and agape love) and trust in Jesus Christ, including trusting and treasuring that Jesus is the Christ (Messiah), the Son of God, who has come into the world, and drinking is receive the Holy Spirit:

> John 4:10-56 - Jesus answered her, If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, Give me a drink, you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water. Jesus said to her, Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty forever. The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life. So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. (ESV)

The Holy Spirit is the living water:

> John 7:37-39 - On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. (ESV)

This belief is a free gift which has to be received in faith (you have to believe it):

> John 7:37-38 - On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. (ESV)

God wants to bring people to the obedience of faith. We have to hear Jesus' word and believe God who sent Him - we have to believe what God has told Jesus to tell us:

> Luke 9:35 - And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my Son, my Chosen One; listen to him! (ESV)

Listening to Jesus, we are already obeying the will of God, who commanded us to listen to Him:

> Romans 10:17 - So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ. (ESV)

Trusting in Jesus, trusting Jesus, trusting in God, we are becoming obedient to Jesus. Faith in Jesus and obedience to God and faith in God and obedience to Jesus are two sides of the same coin:

> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)

> Isaiah 26:3-4 - You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

Holy Spirit goes to those who obey Him and/or have faith in Him:

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:14 - so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

Trusting Jesus' words we do not come into judgement, but change direction, and instead our destiny is life eternal. We do not come into judgement. Jesus is the judge of that:

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word (191. akouó) and believes (4100. pisteuó) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed (3327. metabain) from death to life. (ESV)

I think John 5:24 reads that the one who is trusting the words spoken through Jesus, trusting God, trusting Jesus is holds/posesses eternal life and has passed/is passing/passes from death into life.

3327. metabain to pass over, withdraw, depart

> John 5:24 - Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. (KJV)

Therefore, I believe that believing Jesus is the Christ (Messiah), the Son of God, who has come into the world, is God's gift to us and it is a very easy to receive (low barrier to entry) act of obedience to Him:

> I John 5:1-2 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

> Romans 16:26 - but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith — (ESV)

Obedience should grow. A change should have taken place in the person's life:

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

The Holy Spirit leads us:

> Romans 8:14-17 - For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

We must have believing, obedient faith in God regarding Jesus Christ His Son as Abraham had faith in God:

> Romans 4:9-12 - Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

It's obedience which leads to righteousness, even the righteousness of faith:

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

The righteousness of faith:

Verse Ref	Believing God as Abraham believed God	Walking obediently in the footsteps of faith of our father Abraham
Genesis 15:6	And he believed the Lord, and he counted it to him as righteousness
Genesis 22:17-18		because you have obeyed my voice
Galatians 3:6	Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness
James 2:21-23	Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness	he offered up his son Isaac on the altar
Genesis 26:4-5		because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws

Abraham had righteousness attributed to him when he believed God, while he had an obedient and faithful heart towards God:

> Genesis 15:5-6 - And he brought him outside and said, Look toward heaven, and number the stars, if you are able to number them. Then he said to him, So shall your offspring be. And he believed (539. aman) the Lord, and he counted it to him as righteousness.

The blessing was assured to him by God because of obedience (the obedient works of faith brought him assurance for God's blessing):

> Genesis 22:17-18 - I will surely bless you, and I will surely multiply your offspring as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your offspring shall possess the gate of his enemies, and in your offspring shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice.

oneplace.com why-the-believer-doubts-part-1-1-1172653.html: Why the Believer Doubts, Part 1 {#1} - I

> John MacArthur - "Assurance is not necessarily always going to be the believer's experience. Assurance is a gift to an obedient deliever, and when there is disobedience in your life as a believer, or when there is sin in your life, or when you have sort of loosened up your intimacy and relationship with the LORD, doubt will begin to grow."

Therefore, we should believe with an obedient heart, and obey to receive God's assurance.

I believe that every one of Jesus' sheep have a believing, obedient heart, and Jesus knows who they are and no-one will be able to snatch them from Jesus' hand.

No man has the power to take the salvation of Jesus Christ away from another. No Pope has the power to take the salvation of Jesus Christ away from another, even by 'excommunication'. Amen.

> John 10:28-30 - I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are one. (ESV)

> John 6:37-39 - All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. (ESV)

> Galatians 1:10 - For am I now seeking the approval of man, or of God? Or am I trying to please man? If I were still trying to please man, I would not be a servant of Christ. (ESV)

> Romans 14:22 - The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. (ESV)

I personally believe that it's God's role to justify, not ours, and if we want personal assurance that we are saved, we must seek and follow Jesus, and arrive at the door.

Abraham was obedient the entire time, even when God counted Abraham's belief as righteousness. We should, likewise be obedient when we believe. Abraham was justified when He believed with an obedient heart but faith was completed by the works of faith and Abraham was given assurance of the blessing:

False obedience is where there is no love for God in the heart:

> Psalms 81:15 - Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever. (engbsb2020eb)

John 3:19 connects faith with deeds. Evil deeds come from a love of darkness. Luke 6:45 also connects faith with deeds. Good deeds come from a love of the truth.

Abraham's faith being active along with his "deeds" is a more accurate way to put this, because as He had faith and the fear of God in His heart Abraham was producing good deeds. That doesn't mean "works" (i.e. as in "working for"). So the faith that justifies is faith that not only "believes" but "loves". There is an allegiance to the object of the belief:

> James 2:22-24 - You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works (G2041 ergois; works/deeds); and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness—and he was called a friend of God. You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone (G3440 monon; only). (ESV)

> Psalms 25:14 - The friendship of the LORD is for those who fear him, and he makes known to them his covenant. (ESV)

So if a person is in agreement with Jesus Christ, then they must also have the fear of God in them because Jesus testifies about the world that its works are evil:

> John 7:7 - The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. (ESV)

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

Where previously I said ”I'm going out on a limb when I say that without an obedient heart the so-called belief doesn't qualify as belief:”, my best interpretation of this now is that, believing in Jesus Christ, a person has obeyed Jesus and currently holds eternal life at that point or in their future, which is to know Jesus and Father God, but Jesus is the one to justify that person when He looks at the heart. We must trust Him Himself:

> Romans 4:5-8 - And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin.

This trust of Jesus should mean a person is believing in the heart to Jesus, and to a greater or lesser degree, obedient to Him. If they don't continue in accepting Jesus' words/commandments they may not ”see life” and the wrath of God may remain on that person - so we must actually repent from sin (confess sin as sin, attempt to stop obeying sin) and seek to know Jesus by being taught by Him as we follow His commandments:

> John 12:48 - The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day.

This faith/trust/belief towards Jesus listens to Jesus' voice. So if a person is rejecting Jesus' teachings then they need to repent and trust Jesus' words. If the belief is true then we'll continue believing Jesus with all the other things He said:

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

We need unity in faith and truth and love. We are to be taught by Jesus from the gospels. We are supposed to learn Jesus, being taught about Him, and taught in Him, to put off the old serve which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. The Truth is in Jesus, the correct Jesus:

> Ephesians 4:11-25 - And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love. Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. (ESV)

> Proverbs 14:25 - A truthful witness saves lives, but one who breathes out lies is deceitful. (ESV)

We are under grace now. We're not slaves to the Mosaic Law:

> Romans 6:14-15 - For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! (ESV)

But we are obedient slaves now to righteousness, slaves of God, as slaves of Christ:

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We need to obey Jesus in order to be in relationship with Him, even to live a godly life which has its benefits, and without being persuaded by Jesus (trusting Jesus' voice), the wrath of God remains:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

That word apeitheó, means to be persuaded by (with connotations of obedience). Therefore, it really means to fully hearken to Jesus, accepting Jesus' words, believing Him, trusting Him, accepting Him, including accepting His teachings, and believing His teachings.

I really believe we should both believe and obey Jesus, but I don't want to condemn people when I am not the judge, and nor can I see the person's heart.

We need to obey Jesus to see the life. That obedience isn't ”working” but it is ”performing/carrying out” but our justification isn't contingent on ”working”:

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

On the other hand, if we obey Jesus we will never see death:

> John 8:51 - Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. (ESV)

> John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 10:13 - and to keep the commandments and statutes of the LORD, which I am commanding you today for your good? (ESV)

It's definitely about belief in in the heart:

> Proverbs 4:23 - Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 17:10 - I the LORD search the heart and test the mind, to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds. (ESV)

> Acts 28:27 - For the heart of this people has become dull, And with their ears they scarcely hear, And they have closed their eyes; Otherwise they might see with their eyes, And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart and return, And I would heal them."'

Belief is in the heart and God looks at our hearts:

> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)

> Isaiah 26:3-4 - You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock. (ESV)

> John 7:38 - Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. (ESV)

> Luke 24:38-39 - And he said to them, Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have. (ESV)

> John 12:40 - He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, lest they see with their eyes, and understand with their heart, and turn, and I would heal them. (ESV)

Luke 24:25 - And he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! (ESV)

Acts 15:8 - And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, (ESV)

Romans 8:27 - And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. (ESV)

Mark 2:5-11 - And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, My son, your sins are forgiven. Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, Why does this man speak like that? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone? And immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they thus questioned within themselves, said to them, Why do you question these things in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, Your sins are forgiven, or to say, Rise, take up your bed and walk? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins—he said to the paralytic— I say to you, rise, pick up your bed, and go home. (ESV)

Acts 8:21 - You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. (ESV)

Romans 10:8-10 - But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess (G3670 homologēsēs, acknowledge, agree) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)

II Timothy 2:22 - So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. (ESV)

Hebrews 3:12 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. (ESV)

I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)

I John 3:21 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; (ESV)

I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

Hebrews 4:12 - For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. (ESV)

Eternal salvation goes to those who obey Jesus:

Hebrews 5:8-9 - Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

God's commandment is to bring about the obedience of faith (having faith is in God and through Jesus Christ is being obedient to God):

Romans 16:26 - but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith — (ESV)

So to be saved a person must have an obedient heart, prepared for the good works which are prepared for us to walk in:

> Ephesians 2:8-10 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

> I Peter 2:9 - But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (ESV)

Abraham believed and obeyed:

> Genesis 26:4-5 - I will multiply your offspring as the stars of heaven and will give to your offspring all these lands. And in your offspring all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws. (ESV)

youtube.com: Steven Curtis Chapman - For The Sake Of The Call We will abandon it all for the sake of the call; No other reason at all but the sake of the call; Wholly devoted to live and to die; Not for the sake of a creed or a cause; Not for a dream or a promise; Simply because it is Jesus who called; And if we believe we'll obey

One of the criminals crucified next to Jesus came to the obedience of faith and obeyed the gospel:

> Luke 23:39-43 - One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him, saying, Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us! But the other rebuked him, saying, Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong. And he said, Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom. And he said to him, Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise. (ESV)

In this way we must have faith in God the Father of Jesus Christ, and believe and obey Jesus because God commanded it.

According to Paul, Abraham trusted God and that trust he had meant he didn't waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he have glory to God.

That's right, and Abraham's faith included:

- faithfulness
  - No apistia
- giving glory to God
- obedience
- works of faith
  - not works of the law (which came later), but the works of faith such as:
    - not accepting gifts from the king of Sodom (Genesis 14:21-23)
      - An interesting parallel is how the Apostle John's children/disciples were walking in love while walking in the truth, and rejecting offerings from Gentiles who were not walking in the truth:

    - III John 1:4-8 - I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth. Beloved, it is a faithful thing you do in all your efforts for these brothers, strangers as they are, who testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God. For they have gone out for the sake of the name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles. Therefore we ought to support people like these, that we may be fellow workers for the truth. (ESV)

  - placing Isaac on the Altar
  - etc.

What I mean to say is, the faithful trust in God that Abraham had concerning the promise of God is exhibited plainly in Abraham's action, and was faithful, enduring, unwavering, over an amount of time.

> Romans 4:20-25 - No distrust (apistia) made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. That is why his faith was counted to him as righteousness. But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

In Hebrews, we are also instructed to "not waver" in our confession. So what we are agreeing with and continuing to agree with certainly does matter. We should keep confessing what we are hoping for and hold fast to that confession and not waver. God is faithful and His promises are trustworthy and we should agree with and be corrected by and keep agreeing with God:

> Hebrews 10:23 - Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

Interlinear biblehub.com 4-20.htm: Romans 4:20 Interlinear: and at the promise of God did not stagger in unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, having given glory to God,

Therefore, when we trust wholeheartedly in God who has raised from the dead Jesus Christ (who is our Lord, meaning we obey Him), and because we believe, we then inevitably produce working faith.

We're supposed to do good works of faith by Jesus' power so that Jesus' name is glorified - and those works done in Jesus' power are entirely given by grace to us:

> II Thessalonians 1:11-12 - To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

When we talk about 'merit' or 'credit', we were enabled to even be able to have merit in suffering for righteousness sake because Jesus bore our sins on the tree that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. 'Live to righteousness' means walking in the light, walking in love and truth, practicing works that please God, making spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. I Corinthians 13:1-8 says that without love (love that rejoices with the truth) we gain nothing. God loved us first and has chosen us to be a holy people for His possession, and we can now make spiritual sacrficies which God finds acceptable through Jesus Christ our Lord who we are holding faith in and who has loved us first, laying down His life for us first:

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:4-5 - As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Our faith is exhibited plainly in our action. Our own actions and way of expressing that faith paint a unique picture, with a faith towards God that may be expressed a little bit differently, in different works of faith, or simply keeping Jesus Christ's words and not denying His name - patient endurance.

> Colossians 3:17 - And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

But it is all by God's grace that we are saved. A believing and obedient heart is a trusting heart - a heart of faith - and our obedience gives us confidence. All glory to God alone. We must obey Jesus to become like Jesus:

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

We should both believe and obey:

> Deuteronomy 30:20 - loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them. (ESV)

Believe and obey (follow) Jesus:

> John 10:24-28 - So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me, but you do not believe because you are not part of my flock. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand.

> Exodus 33:17 - And the Lord said to Moses, This very thing that you have spoken I will do, for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name.

> John 10:16 - And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. (ESV)

Jesus knows us and we know Jesus:

> John 10:14 - I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, (ESV)

We must be keeping Jesus' commandments for us to be sure that we have come to know Him:

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him,

Jesus commands us to take His yoke (obey Him) and learn from Him (believe Him):

> Matthew 11:29 - Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. (ESV)

Whoever believes Jesus obeys Jesus - His sheep hear his voice, trust and obey:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

- G4100 (pisteuōn): This is the present participle form of the verb ” ” (G4100 pisteuō), meaning ”to believe” or ”to have faith.” In the participle form, it functions as a verbal adjective and can be translated as ”believing.”

> I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

God loves those who love Him and keep His commandments:

> Nehemiah 1:5 - And I said, O Lord God of heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments,

If a person has an obedient and believing heart - a heart of faith - towards Jesus, then they will be saved:

- If a person truthfully confesses (admits) with their mouth that Jesus is Lord, they have an obedient heart.
  - They believed that Jesus is Lord, King, Master.
  - This must result in the person obeying Jesus; freely forgiving others, loving others as He loved us, keeping Jesus' commandments
- If they believe in their heart that God raised Jesus from the dead, they believe Jesus, and believe God who sent Him.
  - They obey Jesus' commandment to trust in Him / trust Him.
  - This must result in the person accepting forgiveness for sin.

> Romans 10:9 - because, if you confess (G3670 homologēsēs, acknowledge, agree) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. (ESV)

We should definitely confess (G3670 homologeó) Jesus to others:

> Luke 12:8-9 - And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. (ESV)

I believe that a person does not have any security of eternal salvation unless they have in their heart obedient, believing faith in Jesus Christ, and even then there is often a race and a journey to receive it.

The knowledge of the truth is for those who abide in Jesus' word and follow Him:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

I believe that obedience is as intrinsic and necessary to faith as belief is.

The good news must be united by obedient faith (putting Jesus' words into action):

> Hebrews 4:1-2 - Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us fear lest any of you should seem to have failed to reach it. For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:12 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out (G2716 katergazomai) your own salvation with fear and trembling, (ESV)

I believe in 'once saved, always saved, while doing the will of God'.

We become enslaved to righteousness in Christ, not enslaved to corruption, but through persevering obedience to Jesus, we consolidate walking in the light, in obedience and faith to Jesus and we are conformed to practicing righteousness, walking as He walked:

> II Peter 2:19 - They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. (ESV)

> I John 2:6 - whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

> John 8:31-47 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas: having believed 'V-RPA-AMP past tense') in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

So someone must be a both a believer and a follower of Jesus. We must have Jesus as our number one agape love, treasuring Him, obeying His commandments, particularly to believe in Him and love one another as He loved us.

> Hebrews 7:23-25 - The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office, but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. (ESV)
> I John 2:17 - And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever.
> I Corinthians 10:7-12 - Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. (ESV)

We need to participate, and we need to continue in faith and as we do that Jesus will continue His work in us until its completion:

> Philippians 1:3-7 - I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel. (ESV)
> Hebrews 3:6-19 - but Christ is faithful over God's house as a son. And we are his house if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope. Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness, where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years. Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, They always go astray in their heart; they have not known my ways. As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest. Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

youtube.com: {@ NicholasBowling } I commented, "I believe that receiving a new spirit is a different event from when first coming to 'believe' or 'hope' in Jesus but that it may or may not happen at the same time. It's an act of God. But for me, I was a 'believer' before I was born-again, but it wasn't until I began turning away from sin and turning to Jesus, believing His words in reality and endeavouring to practice God's commandments in reality for God to see, that I got "born of the spirit" (received a new spirit). I try to understand what has happened by what the Bible teaches. It really happened to me, and I didn't do it, God did it, but that doesn't mean God hasn't instructed us on what we can do to receive salvaiton, because the Bible certainly does teach that there are things we can do to receive salvation - such as believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, for example. Having faith in Jesus is something we can do. I didn't have much control over my natural birth, nor when I was born-again of the spirit. I believe that from the experience of having observed receiving a new spirit and calling out to Jesus after having received the new spirit. I called out to Jesus and was praying to God to receive Holy Spirit before I got born-again of the spirit, and then when happened I called out to Jesus to save me as I was lying there and all I could see was what appeared to be my regenerated soul. My body appeared as though it was made entirely of blue fire/light. I didn't know what was going on so I just called out to Jesus to save me. That was on 2 April 2022. I got born-again of the spirit and received a new spirit on 2 April 2022. However, prior to that I was seeking Jesus and I was a "believer" for most of my life, someone who confessed to be a Christian, but I was unable to understand spiritual things or have much loyalty to Jesus (so a believer in a sense) but God needed to fix me and give me a new heart so that I would not be an idolator and so I would really hate sin, and so I would really trust Him and love Him with my whole heart. If I had any fear of God before it was insignificant to what I received when I got born again of the spirit. I was feeling oppressed by evil and I decided to give God a chance and try to repent in reality. I was grieving my sin and I called out to God to deliver me from sin and evil and to make Himself apparent to me. I got born-again and received a new heart and a new spirit after turning like it says in Ezekiel 18."

John 3:3-10 - Jesus answered him, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus said to him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born? Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again. The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. Nicodemus said to him, How can these things be? Jesus answered him, Are you the teacher of Israel and yet you do not understand these things? (ESV)

Ezekiel 18:20-32 - The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not suffer for the iniquity of the father, nor the father suffer for the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself. But if a wicked person turns away from all his sins that he has committed and keeps all my statutes and does what is just and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. None of the transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him; for the righteousness that he has done he shall live. Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked, declares the Lord GOD, and not rather that he should turn from his way and live? But when a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice and does the same abominations that the wicked person does, shall he live? None of the righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered; for the treachery of which he is guilty and the sin he has committed, for them he shall die. Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not just. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way not just? Is it not your ways that are not just? When a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice, he shall die for it; for the injustice that he has done he shall die. Again, when a wicked person turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he shall save his life. Because he considered and turned away from all the transgressions that he had committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die. Yet the house of Israel says, The way of the Lord is not just. O house of Israel, are my ways not just? Is it not your ways that are not just? Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, declares the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions, lest iniquity be your ruin. Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live. (ESV)

Ezekiel 36:25-28 - I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my > rules. You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. (ESV)

The type of faith that saves is a faith that agape loves the truth. So we have faith in Jesus and we agape love Him. Sanctification is a process that lasts some period of time. But we come to Jesus, we trust and obey Him, Jesus takes our idols from us (we give them up for Him), we shed the things of the old sinful nature and then Jesus gives us rest at some point, and at that point our hearts have been transformed to love our family in Christ sincerely.

For permanent abiding we need to have been perfected in holiness (sanctification must have come to completion with us having put off sinful stuff that would prevent a person from abiding forever). If we hold hate for anyone in Christ, (i.e. the opposite of agape love for them), then we would not have eternal life. At the end of sanctification, is being "always saved" and having eternal life that cannot be lost. Can a person fall way before arriving at this point? I think so. We have to continue holding faith in Jesus and obeying Jesus and Jesus gives us rest. But the slave to sin does not remain in the house forever. This is why we trust and obey Jesus and it is Jesus who gives the rest when He gives it because He transforms our hearts to love the light, to love the truth.

It's imperative that as we go ahead, we must abide in the teaching of Christ, or we won't have God (Jehovah God), and God is love and love comes from God, so we need to abide in Christ's teachings, by belief and by obedience. For example, in Mark 10:18, Jesus affirmed that God is Good. Therefore when we read this, we must also be sanctified by this truth, affirming and coming into agreement that God is Good. Also, Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us John 13:34-35:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

I think we are permanently saved when we are following Jesus.

We are saved from dying by Jesus giving us His Spirit and then, so long as we are His sheep, coming to Him (by following His commandments), we will live forever, in Him.

> John 6:37 - All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. (ESV)

I believe that anyone who is trusting Jesus is saved by Him through His finished work. That's not a call to not abide in / obey Jesus' teachings. God raised Jesus from the dead for our justification. If we believe this fact we believe God's testimony about Jesus - that's important and it shows we trust God. Believing the gospel and trusting Father God, trusting Jesus, trusting God's words, trusting Jesus and God's words spoken through Jesus is obeying the gospel.

God's words are fulfilled in their time, which may be immediately! God's words are reliable!

> Luke 1:20 - And behold, you will be silent and unable to speak until the day that these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time. (ESV)

When we trust Jesus, we believe who He is and what He accomplished and we believe His words.

If a person thinks Jesus is untrustworthy then if they say they put trust in Jesus they have put their trust in the wrong Jesus because the real Jesus is trustworthy and His words are trustworthy. So the one who truly puts their trust in Jesus is the one who trusts Jesus, hears His voice and believes Him and follows Him.

> John 12:48 - The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day.

I also think there's more to faith in Jesus than just an intellectual belief as far as getting to know your Saviour (knowing God) and abiding forever. I think we need to actually trust Jesus - so we believe His words when we hear them. Because we must bear fruit etc. and follow His commandments (having genuine agape love for Jesus Christ and our family in Christ) to come to know Him. I don't condemn anyone who is believing on Him for life through His name. That faith has to be one which agape loves Jesus Christ.

We're must be lawful to Christ (abiding in the 'law of Christ'). Though we don't commend ourselves for doing this. We should normally be doers of Christ's law. What's not done in faith is sin, after all. And whoever has no love for Christ has a curse upon them. And whoever hates their brother who they have seen can't love God who they have not seen. So our duty and normal walk should be doing Christ's commandments such as to have faith in Him and to love one another as He commanded:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of (G1772 ennomos; lawful to, law-abiding to, in the law of) Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

The word "ennomos" used in I Cor 9:21 for being "law-abiding" is closely related to the word "onnomō" which is used in Acts 19:39:

> Acts 19:39 - But if you want anything beyond this, it shall be settled in the lawful (G1772 ennomō lawful) assembly (G1577 ekklēsia; assembly). (NASB)

i.e. "settled in the legal / assembly / law-abiding assembly / lawful assembly".

Doing the will of God is what it means to be led by the Spirit. So you have to do the will of God, being a servant of Christ, lawful (law-abiding) to Christ, to Christ' commandments, to have the blessing of not being condemned by the law of Moses:

> Psalms 143:10 - Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! (ESV)

Jesus Christ is the Lord referred to:

> II Corinthians 3:15-18 - Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. But when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord (K , Kyrios, Lord, Master) is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)

If you have trusting faith in God then you will walk according to the will of God (walk the way Jesus Christ calls us to walk in obedience to Jesus, as a response of love to God in the knowledge He loved us first). Led by the Spirit = following Jesus.

> John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)

That's not working but it is walking and it is being obedient to Jesus. The Israelites through the Red Sea were being led by the Spirit - they were not working for God as they walked in obedience:

> Galatians 5:16-18 - But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

Jesus' disciples here were being led by Jesus. As I understand it, we're only not guilty if we're trusting Jesus who justifies the ungodly. Trusting Him who justifies the ungodly has noticeable fruit of following Him because those who trust Him follow Him:

> Matthew 12:1-8 - At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath. He said to them, Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him: how he entered the > house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him to eat nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? Or have you not read in the Law how on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless? I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. And if you had known what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the guiltless. For the Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath. (ESV)

Those who love Him, obey Him:

> John 14:15-16 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, (ESV)

> James 1:12 - Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him. (ESV)

We love God and our brothers and sisters in Christ by following God's commandments:

> I John 5:1-3 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

The crown of life is gifted to those who are obedient, and have been tested. I think this verse can also be taken in the literal sense:

> Revelation 2:10 - Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. (ESV)

And I also think people have free will to sabotage their race.

> Deuteronomy 30:19-20 - I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life, that you and your offspring may live, loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them. (ESV)

Clearly 'believe' means also 'to be obedient' to because the ones that follow Jesus (which means obey His commandments) are the ones who are counted as believing (pisteuo):

> John 10:26-38 - but you do not believe (G4100 pisteuo) because you are not part of my flock. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are one.

We come into walking in the will of God:

> Romans 8:13-17 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

Those in the process of being sanctified by Jesus are sons:

> Hebrews 12:5-8 - And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:10-13 - For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering. For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, saying, I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise. And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, I and the children God has given me. (ESV)

We put our trust in Jehovah God. We put our trust in Jesus:

> Isaiah 12:2 - Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the LORD GOD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation. (ESV)

People fall away if they are not freed from sin. We're seeking to be freed from sin:

> John 8:34-36 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)

We seek to be adopted as sons. To receive the Spirit of God's Son in our hearts is what I think it means to be set free by the Son:

> Galatians 4:4-9 - But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God. Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? (ESV)

I guess that means we should become slaves of Christ! We should be overcome by Christ:

> Romans 6:22-23- But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

Christ's Spirit is a spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, ”Abba! Father!” It's not a spirit of slavery. So with a spirit of adoption we are slaves to God:

> Romans 8:13-17 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

Abba, Father!
We must be in Christ Jesus as a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation):

> II Corinthians 5:17 - Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

A new creation has faith working through love and keeps Jesus Christ's commandments:

> Galatians 6:15 - For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). (ESV)
> Galatians 5:6 - For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

A new creation lives for Christ:

> II Corinthians 5:14-17 - For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh (G4561 sarx). Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh (G4561 sarx), we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

Following Jesus Christ is not having a religious spirit, but it's serving God in reality:

> Ephesians 5:13-16 - But when anything is exposed by the light, it becomes visible, for anything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you. Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. (ESV)
> Galatians 3:26 - for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. (ESV)

Jesus is asking of us to believe that He is the resurrection and the life; Coming to a belief which [in John's terminology] involves personally committing oneself to Jesus as Son of God, Saviour, Lord, Lamb of God and King:

- Alistair Begg: The Hour Has Come - Part One

Jesus has to know us:

> Matthew 25:1-13 - Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a cry, Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him. Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out. But the wise answered, saying, Since there will not be enough for us and for you, go rather to the dealers and buy for yourselves. And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, Lord, lord, open to us. But he answered, Truly, I say to you, I do not know you. Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.

I believe that Jesus has a lot of grace for the weak and the powerless, the children and the humble:

> Revelation of John 3:8 - I know your works. Behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one is able to shut. I know that you have but little power, and yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.

And it's about the heart:

> Mark 12:41-44 - And he sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the offering box. Many rich people put in large sums. And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. And he called his disciples to him and said to them, Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on. (ESV)

Good work is rewarded. Lazy, disobedient belief is punished, and the worthless servant who was entrusted with some work but was unfaithful with his work (doesn't matter how much work it is) is cast away. Jesus isn't a hard taskmaster but wants our whole heart. Jesus must be our Master:

> Matthew 25:14-30 - For it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he made five talents more. So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, Master, you delivered to me five talents; here I have made five talents more. His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master. And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, Master, you delivered to me two talents; here I have made two talents more. His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master. He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours. But his master answered him, You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sowed and gather where I scattered no seed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

And if Jesus is our Master then we should have the fear of God, even for the Lord Jesus Christ:

> Malachi 1:6 - A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. But you say, How have we despised your name? (ESV)

It's all about the heart though, as Ignatius says ”Let us not, therefore, be insensible to His kindness. For were He to reward us according to our works, we should cease to be.”:

> Ignatius to the Magnesians 10 - Let us not, therefore, be insensible to His kindness. For were He to reward us according to our works, we should cease to be. Therefore, having become His disciples, let us learn to live according to the principles of Christianity. For whosoever is called by any other name besides this, is not of God. Lay aside, therefore, the evil, the old, the sour leaven, and be ye changed into the new leaven, which is Jesus Christ. Be ye salted in Him, lest any one among you > should be corrupted, since by your savour ye shall be convicted. It is absurd to profess Christ Jesus, and to Judaize. For Christianity did not embrace Judaism, but Judaism Christianity, that so every tongue which believeth might be gathered together to God.

The righteous obey Jesus, and love our neighbour as He loved them; as He commanded:

> Matthew 25:31-40 - When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me. Then the righteous will answer him, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you? And the King will answer them, Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.

There is earthly food and drink and spiritual food and drink:

> I Corinthians 10:1-4 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. (ESV)

The ones who do not obey Jesus go to eternal punishment:

> Matthew 25:41-45 - Then he will say to those on his left, Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me. Then they also will answer, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you? Then he will answer them, saying, Truly, I say to you, as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.

The ones who are slaves to righteousness, following Jesus Christ, go to eternal life:

> Matthew 25:46 - And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.

5.9.7 Believing Jesus, we have the right to become a child of God

> John 1:12 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, (ESV)

OK, so how? We must continue in what we have learned from the Holy Scriptures and continue in what we have firmly believed:

> II Timothy 3:14-15 - But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

We hear the gospel and believe in Him:

> Ephesians 1:13-14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)

Believers then commit to the Lord:

> Acts 14:23 - And when they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed. (ESV)

This commitment to the Lord I believe is having a love for Jesus, which shows itself in obedience:

> John 16:27 - for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. (ESV)

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

To abiding in His word is to commit to Jesus:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

Believers are generally sealed with the Holy Spirit when they first believe:

> Acts 11:17 - If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God's way? (ESV)

> Acts 19:2 - And he said to them, Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? And they said, No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

We are saved as we are believing:

> Romans 13:11 - Besides this you know the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed. (ESV)

In this case, a great number of the total number of believers ended up turning to the Lord:

> Acts 11:21 - And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord. (ESV)

In this case, the full number of the total believers had turned to the Lord:

> Acts 4:32 - Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. (ESV)

Father God who has spoken through the Prophets draws us to Jesus. We believe in Jesus and we are drawn to Jesus:

> John 6:64-66 - But there are some of you who do not believe. (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.) And he said, This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father. After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him. (ESV)

> John 6:44-51 - No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh. (ESV)

Going forward, we must remain faithful to Jesus:

> Acts 11:23-24 - When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad, and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose, for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were added to the Lord. (ESV)

We receive the Holy Spirit after / at the same time as believing. We want to be found in Jesus:

> John 7:39 - Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:13-14 - But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. (ESV)

In this situation, all of the believers were of one heart and mind:

> Acts 4:32 - Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Who You Say I Am - Hillsong Worship

We believe and then we come to know Jesus:

> John 6:68-69 - Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, and we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God. (ESV)

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

Receive Jesus, believing in His name:

> John 1:12 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, (ESV)

> Matthew 18:5 - Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, (ESV)

We must abide by Jesus Christ's teaching. Whoever does not abide in Jesus Christ's teaching does not have God:

> II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.

> Matthew 4:17 - From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. (ESV)

We must obey righteousness. Yes, obey Jesus' commandments and obey Father God's commandments:

> Romans 2:6-8 - He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. (ESV)

The children of God are the ones who love other children of God by following God's commandments:

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

Don't squabble about free-will and sit on the fence until the second coming. Just do it:

I Chronicles 28:20 - Then David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and courageous and do it. Do not be afraid and do not be dismayed, for the LORD God, even my God, is with you. He will not leave you or forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished. (ESV)

Ezra 10:4 - Arise, for it is your task, and we are with you; be strong and do it. (ESV)

Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

God loves us by allowing us to know Him and be called children of God:

Romans 8:16 - The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, (ESV)

I John 3:1 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. (ESV)

John 11:50-52 - Nor do you understand that it is better for you that one man should die for the people, not that the whole nation should perish. He did not say this of his own accord, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, and not for the nation only, but also to gather into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. (ESV)

Romans 8:21 - that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. (ESV)

God adopts us and cleans us up and puts us on display:

Philippians 2:15 - that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, (ESV)

I John 3:18 - Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. (ESV)

Children look like their Father:

I John 3:7 - Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)

People who do not practice righteousness, and do not abide in Christ's teachings probably don't actually believe or have faith in Jesus:

II Thessalonians 3:1-6 - Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may speed ahead and be honored, as happened among you, and that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men. For not all have faith. But the Lord is faithful. He will establish you and guard you against the evil one. And we have confidence in the Lord about you, that you are doing and will do the things that we command. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ. Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you keep away from any brother who is walking in idleness and not in accord with the tradition that you received from us. (ESV)

II John 1:4 - I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. (ESV)

III John 1:4 - I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth. (ESV)

Whoever loves with Christ's love knows Father God:

I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)

I John 2:13 - I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, children, because you know the Father. (ESV)

5.9.8 My understanding of repentance

We need all of these:

- Belief in Jesus and His atoning sacrifice
- Obedience to Jesus' commandments
  - Obeying the law of Christ
- Putting a stop to sin

youtube.com: Is Lordship Salvation Biblical? {The "Cheap Grace" Gospel EXPOSED!!}

> II Chronicles 7:14 - if my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land. (ESV)

Repentance leads to belief and obedience to Jesus:

- Someone who has only belief in the gift of grace and no obedience to Jesus (which is effectively hating Jesus) must repent and come to have an obedient heart.
  - II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)
- Someone who has only obedience to Jesus' precepts but unbelieving and unsubmissive to the righteousness of God must repent and come to have a believing heart.
  - John 20:27-28 - Then he said to Thomas, Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe. Thomas answered him, My Lord and my God!

Jesus' sheep hear His voice and they follow Him:

> John 10:26-29 - but you do not believe because you are not part of my flock. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. (ESV)

We love Jesus by keeping His commandments:

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

Nothing will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. He has to be our Lord:

> Romans 8:38-39 - For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

I repeat this:

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

Maintain faith in Jesus. Remain in Him:

> John 15:4-7 - Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me. I am the vine and you are the branches. The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For apart from Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in Me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers. Such branches are gathered up, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you remain in Me and My words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (engbsb2020eb)

Analogy for abiding in Jesus Since Jesus is the Telos of the Law and we're not "under the Law" but "law-abiding" to Christ's law then the person "under the Law" trying to fulfill the whole law might be compared to a person who is walking to a train station but the journey is impossibly difficult. God has done this in Jesus Christ. What is impossible for man to have done, Jesus did. And the other thing God does which is impossible for man to do without God is put us into Christ. According to the metaphor, then, God then puts us at the train station. And the person who is "law-abiding" to Christ's law would be someone who has come to Jesus, someone who Father God has drawn to Christ, and is now at the metaphorical train station (Jesus Christ who is the Telos of the law). God put them at the train station in Jesus. And Jesus asks us to "remain in Him". And so the analogy would be "remain at the train station" (i.e. You're already there, just don't leave the train station). Jesus won't expell you (i.e. no-one can snatch us from His hand) but He asks you to remain (i.e. abide) in Him. Don't go off wondering away. Don't leave the metaphorical train station. We examine ourselves to see if we are in the faith. For example, if we hate our brother then we have left the train station. If we do not believe Jesus is the Son of God then we have left the train station, and like the prodigal son, we must return to God by repentance. If we the branches remain in a place of not abiding in Christ then we wither. And at the end of the age the branches that are not abiding in Jesus are collected and burned.

We want to abide in God's love through following Jesus' commandments, and then nothing can separate us from His love. Remember it's nothing in creation (that excludes God Himself because God is not 'created') that can separate us from God's love:

> I Thessalonians 3:8 - For now we live, if you are standing fast in the Lord. (ESV)
> Romans 11:20-23 - That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. (ESV)
> Romans 8:36-39 - As it is written, For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered. No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
> John 15:4-7 - Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me. I am the vine and you are the branches. The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For apart from Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in Me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers. Such branches are gathered up, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you remain in Me and My words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (engbsb2020eb)

God draws the person to Jesus:

> John 6:44-46 - No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Draw Me Close | feat. Michael Bethany | Gateway Worship

Jesus said He will not cast people out who have come to Him, and it's His sheep who come to Him, those who follow Him:

> John 6:37 - All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. (ESV)

Coming to Jesus is the requirement for not being cast out, and coming to Jesus Christ means obedience and following Jesus.

We must receive the kingdom of God like a child - like Father God's child. Children easily trust, believe, follow and obey their parents - they also act like their parents. We must receive the kingdom of God like a child of God:

> Luke 18:16-22 - But Jesus called them to him, saying, Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it. And a ruler asked him, Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother. And he said, All these I have kept from my youth. When Jesus heard this, he said to him, One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.

> John 6:45 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— (ESV)

> John 6:37-39 - All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. (ESV)

> Luke 6:27-36 - But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. To one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak do not withhold your tunic either. Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them. If you love those who love you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)

Following Jesus may simply mean going to Him for mercy; asking Him for mercy or forgiveness:

> Hebrews 4:15-16 - For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. (ESV)

Jesus' sheep follow Him:

> John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)

There are wandering sheep, too, sheep that aren't exactly making a bee-line:

> Isaiah 53:6 - All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. (ESV)

Coming to Jesus involves denying ourself and taking up our cross daily to follow Him:

> Luke 9:23 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:31 - I protest, brothers, by my pride in you, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die every day! (ESV)

Christ Jesus judged Paul faithful - Paul was faithful, and Jesus Christ is Paul's Lord. Paul received mercy to become obedient. Paul received mercy because he was acting ignorantly - behaving in a way which came from disbelief. So then, Christ Jesus displays in Paul His perfect patience to those who would trust in Him for eternal life and be brought from ungodliness into godliness - disobedience into obedience.

> I Timothy 1:12-16 - I thank him who has given me strength, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he judged me faithful, appointing me to his service, though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the foremost. But I received mercy for this reason, that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display his perfect patience as an example to those who were to believe in him for eternal life. (ESV)

We must believe:

> Romans 11:20-23 - That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again.

God acts for those who wait for Him:

> Isaiah 64:4 - From of old no one has heard or perceived by the ear, no eye has seen a God besides you, who acts for those who wait for him. (ESV)

We must love the truth:

> I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)

We must be obedient:

> John 15:1-6 - I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.

Also, waiting on the LORD our strength is renewed:

> Isaiah 40:31 - but they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint. (ESV)

We are ourselves empowered thanks to Jesus' own endurance, and that is unlocked by having believing, obedient, trusting, following faith in Jesus where we are being led by His Spirit, and are walking by His Spirit:

> Hebrews 12:1-3 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. (ESV)

We must put a stop to sin - it's for our own good:

> Ezekiel 18:20-21 - The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not suffer for the iniquity of the father, nor the father suffer for the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself. But if a wicked person turns away from all his sins that he has committed and keeps all my statutes and does what is just and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. (ESV)
> Romans 6:2-3 - By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? (ESV)
> Mark 1:8 - I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit. (ESV)
>
> Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)
> Acts 1:5 - for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now. (ESV)
> Romans 6:17-17 - But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, (ESV)
> James 1:14-15 - But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)
> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)
> Jeremiah 4:4 - Circumcise yourselves to the LORD; remove the foreskin of your hearts, O men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn with none to quench it, because of the evil of your deeds. (ESV)

So I believe that Jesus saves us by giving us of His Spirit and helping us to put sin to death, through obedient faith:

> 1 John 3:4-9 - Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. (ESV)

Walking in obedient faith is walking in forgiveness and love towards other people, forgiveness and love that flows out from having been loved and having been forgiven.

The faith working through love towards God and other people flows out of believing in and accepting Jesus and His atoning sacrifice and from being freely forgiven by Jesus.

I think the person who has arrived at this point has repented from dead work and is now living for Jesus.

5.9.9 We must have a changed heart, which longs to serve the living God, to be a bondservant of Jesus. AMEN!!

- Firstly, obedience is a heart attitude, so a person can have obedient faith without any work.
  - Psalms 119:34 - Give me understanding, that I may keep your law and observe it with my whole heart. (ESV)
  - For example, to keep the command to not work on the Sabbath is to obey but not to work! Thus this example shows that obedience to God doesn't strictly mean working. That's the only point I want to make. Of course, doing good works out of faith/obedience on the Sabbath as Jesus did is also still obedience. What is not done in faith is sin.
    - Deuteronomy 16:8 - For six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work on it. (ESV)
- Secondly, obedient action is nothing to boast about before God, because God commanded you to do it.
  - Romans 4:2 - For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. (ESV)
- Thirdly, "working for God" is as step beyond obedient action.
  - Paul doesn't claim his full rights in the gospel (even rights shown by God's precepts in God's law) that He might receive reward from God for going beyond the call of His duty:
  - I Corinthians 9:12,9:15-18 - If others share this rightful claim on you, do not we even more? Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right, but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ. But I have made no use of any of these rights, nor am I writing these things to secure any such provision. For I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of my ground for boasting. For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward, but not of my own will, I am still entrusted with a stewardship. What then is my reward? That in my preaching I may present the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel. (ESV)

Being a slave to righteousness is essential for eternal life.

Are we slaves and/or bondservants? Both.

If Jesus entrusts us with stewardship then we must be obedient slaves to Jesus Christ in this regard. We also are rewarded for going beyond the call of duty - as bondservants.

> I Corinthians 9:17-18 - For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward, but not of my own will, I am still entrusted with a stewardship. What then is my reward? That in my preaching I may present the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel. (ESV)

When it comes to be being saved to serve Christ, we can't boast that in some way we earned salvation outside of God's gift/grace:

> Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV)

> Romans 11:32 - For God has consigned all to disobedience (543. apeitheia - willful unbelief, obstinancy, disobedience), that he may have mercy on all. (ESV)

Even with stewardship (being brought into service to God with a calling), we have different gifts, a different calling. We cannot compare or boast in this regard because we are stewards of His varied grace. We're different parts of the body of Christ. Being a steward, we are obligated to fulfill our calling. But, technically, we may have something to boast about if we go beyond what is required of us.

> I Peter 4:10 - As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: (ESV)

Paul preaches free of charge so as not to make full use of his right in the gospel, and understands he will be rewarded for this:

> I Corinthians 9:15-18 - But I have made no use of any of these rights, nor am I writing these things to secure any such provision. For I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of my ground for boasting. For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward, but not of my own will, I am still entrusted with a stewardship. What then is my reward? That in my preaching I may present the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 2:19 - For what is our hope or joy or crown of boasting before our Lord Jesus at his coming? Is it not you? (ESV)

> Galatians 6:4 - But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. (ESV)

We boast in Lord who has given us an area of influence. For me that might be on GitHub, I guess, since that's where I'm writing my Bible Study. We still hope that this influence spreads and the gospel message is taken further.

> II Corinthians 10:12-18 - Not that we dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who are commending themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding. But we will not boast beyond limits, but will boast only with regard to the area of influence God assigned to us, to reach even to you. For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we did not reach you. We were the first to come all the way to you with the gospel of Christ. We do not boast beyond limit in the labors of others. But our hope is that as your faith increases, our area of influence among you may be greatly enlarged, so that we may preach the gospel in lands beyond you, without boasting of work already done in another's area of influence. Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord. For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)

Boasting should never be with selfish ambition:

> James 3:14 - But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth. (ESV)

We are all stewards of God's varied grace so there is obligation to serve one another:

> I Peter 4:10 - As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: (ESV)

> Romans 13:8 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (ESV)

We shouldn't be deterred from using the word "slave" by the bad connotations of the word "slave" when we're talking about being a "slave to righteousness" or a "slave to God".

When we are called by God, what matters is keeping the commandments of God. I disagree with the added word "conversely" which the BSB translation inserts into I Corinthians 7:22 where it does not exist in the Greek. In fact, the Greek says "likewise" (G3668 homoiós, likewise, in a similar manner). Whether slaves to men or not, under the Mosaic Law or not, as a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation) in Christ we go on keeping God's commandments for us, and that counts for something for all of us (Galatians 3:28), not just some of us. We have to continue on abiding in Jesus' commandments. Everyone who is "in Christ" is both a freedman of the Lord Jesus Christ and a slave of the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus sets us free from slavery to sin to serve Him instead. Before we were "free in regard to righteousness" but no longer:

> I Corinthians 7:17-24 - Only let each person lead the life that the Lord has assigned to him, and to which God has called him. This is my rule in all the churches. Was anyone at the time of his call already circumcised? Let him not seek to remove the marks of circumcision. Was anyone at the time of his call uncircumcised? Let him not seek circumcision. For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. Each one should remain in the condition in which he was called. Were you a slave when called? Do not be concerned about it. But if you can gain your freedom, avail yourself of the opportunity. For he who was called in the Lord as a slave is a freedman of the Lord. Likewise (G3668 homoiós, likewise, in a similar manner) he who was free when called is a slave of Christ. You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. So, brothers, in whatever condition each was called, there let him remain with God. (ESV)

> John 8:34-36 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)

The Bible condemns the slave trade:

> I Timothy 1:8-11 - Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, the sexually immoral, men who practice homosexuality, enslavers (G405 andrapodistés, man-stealers, kidnappers, slave-traders, enslavers), liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine, in accordance with the glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted. (ESV)

God gives us the new heart when we seek to have that new heart.

To be saved we need to have an obedient heart to God.

Will to do God's will - will to be obedient, and God will give you the heart to obey Him.

When you trust Jesus, you will to do His will.

Living as a new Creation in Christ means God has given you the heart to desire to obey Jesus' commandments. We are under Christ's law.

It means, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to no longer practice lying, adultery, idolatry, and covetousness, and to no longer dishonour our parents, and to now honour Jesus Christ in our lives and bodies.

It's going from disobedience to God (as Adam was disobedient) to obedience to God (as Christ is obedient):

> Romans 15:17-18 - In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God. For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed,

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

Faith works through love; we must be like Jesus - exercising sacrificial, merciful love. The term 'new creature' is used in Galatians 6 after saying we must 'put sin to death and do good', sowing to the spirit and not to the flesh. Don't obey/sow into the dead/inanimate body, but rather put to death / end the deeds of the body.

Sowing to the Spirit is obediently following Jesus:

> Galatians 6:7-8 - Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. (ESV)

> Romans 8:10 - But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. (ESV)

> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

Faith is obedient. Love is applied faith in Jesus:

> Galatians 5:6 - For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:15 - For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). (ESV)

Talk youtube.com: No changed life salvation? Refuting Free Grace and @jacksmack77

Grace is free, but a person must become obedient - God gives the heart to obey, but a person must desire to do God's will to receive it.

> Revelation of John 22:3 - No longer will there be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him. (ESV)

I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

I believe that becoming the righteousness of God is cooperative when we begin trusting God through trusting Jesus and as we continue walking by faith, submitting to the righteousness of God (Jesus' righteousness), being found in Jesus and continuing to be found in Jesus, trusting in Him and not denying Him, letting Jesus wash us, and work in us and we working out our own salvation, transform us and purify us as we cleanse ourselves while trusting in Him, and that a childlike trust in Jesus (a believing and obedient trust), following Jesus, walking in faith, and behaving as one of God's children, following Jesus our Lord and Saviour is how we receive and walk into the kingdom which is given to us and that walking in a childlike faith in Jesus is how we have the righteousness that is by faith.

I believe we have righteousness because we are found in Him, and He is our High Priest and or Lord and King, and Saviour. Living by faith is a lifestyle to be found in Jesus and that's how we have righteousness from Him, because we are found in Him and are being perfected and sanctified (in genuine agape love and holiness) like a branch getting healthier because it's connected to Jesus. It does not mean we are able to displace Him as the head of the body because we don't have righteousness apart from Him (as far as I understand):

> II Corinthians 5:21-6:1 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

> Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

We must live for the will of God:

> I Peter 4:1-2 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. (ESV)

If a person doesn't obey Jesus and His commandments then they probably are not saved because they either deny they have the spiritual circumcision which causes us to obey, or they do not have the heart to obey and receive salvation - so they are a goat, not a sheep.

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

- G4100 (pisteuōn): This is the present participle form of the verb ” ” (G4100 pisteuō), meaning ”to believe” or ”to have faith.” In the participle form, it functions as a verbal adjective and can be translated as ”believing.”

> I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

5.9.10 Trusting God, we must serve God through serving Christ to have the light of life

There are ordinances from God that are against us, and there are ordinances that are for us and for us Christians specifically. For example, we must forgive as we have been forgiven:

> Colossians 3:12-13 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. (ESV)

> Ephesians 4:30-32 - And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

Some commandments are against our faith God and Christ, and some commandments that are for our faith in God and Christ:

> Colossians 2:14 - Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; (KJV)

The law isn't contrary to the promises of God, but we are justified by faith in Jesus Christ apart from the works of the law. Now faith is in Jesus Christ and faith is in the heart. So trust and love for Jesus Christ matters and His Word matters for justification:

> Galatians 3:18-21 - For if the inheritance comes by the law, it no longer comes by promise; but God gave it to Abraham by a promise. Why then the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring should come to whom the promise had been made, and it was put in place through angels by an intermediary. Now an intermediary implies more than one, but God is one. Is the law then contrary to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could give life, then righteousness would indeed be by the law. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:22-26 - But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. (ESV)

We must worship and serve God through Christ:

> Malachi 3:18 - Then once more you shall see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 22:3 - No longer will there be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him. (ESV)

> Matthew 4:10 - Then Jesus said to him, Be gone, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve. (ESV)

> I Samuel 7:3 - And Samuel said to all the house of Israel, If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you and direct your heart to the LORD and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. (ESV)

> Hebrews 12:28-29 - Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, for our God is a consuming fire. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 4:23-26 - Take care, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make a carved image, the form of anything that the LORD your God has forbidden you. For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God. When you father children and children's children, and have grown old in the land, if you act corruptly by making a carved image in the form of anything, and by doing what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, so as to provoke him to anger, I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that you will soon utterly perish from the land that you are going over the Jordan to possess. You will not live long in it, but will be utterly destroyed. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:23-25 - Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality. (ESV)

We must serve God by serving Christ who is the fulfillment of the law and prophets of God to have the light of life:

> II Timothy 1:3 - I thank God whom I serve, as did my ancestors, with a clear conscience, as I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. (ESV)

> Romans 14:17-18 - For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

Having our old self crucified with Jesus, the body of sin might be brought to nothing so we would no longer be enslaved to sin:

> Romans 6:6 - We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. (ESV)

Jesus having fulfilled the law, we are called to meet the requirement of the law ourselves:

> Galatians 5:14-16 - For the whole law is fulfilled in one word (G3056 logō): You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. (ESV)

Loving your neighbour as ourself involves not sinning against our own body as we seek not to sin against others:

> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

Sin made against our own body is really bad for us. This is a warning:

> I Corinthians 6:16-20 - Or do you not know that he who is joined to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For, as it is written, The two will become one flesh. But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. (ESV)

> Romans 13:14 - But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires. (ESV)

Sin no more so that nothing worse happens:

> John 5:14 - Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you. (ESV)

> John 8:10-11 - Jesus stood up and said to her, Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you? She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more. (ESV)

I take it to mean what Paul calls the "body of sin" and the "flesh" are the same thing. We are called to serve God through Christ:

> Romans 7:25-8:1 - Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

> Romans 1:9 - For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I mention you (ESV)

> John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

> Psalms 56:11-13 - in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can man do to me? I must perform my vows to you, O God; I will render thank offerings to you. For you have delivered my soul from death, yes, my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of life. (ESV)

5.9.11 Examples of obedience without 'works'

Resting on the Sabbath:

> Leviticus 23:3 - Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation. You shall do no work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwelling places. (ESV)

Forgiveness:

> Colossians 3:12-14 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (ESV)

Not lying:

> Ephesians 4:25 - Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. (ESV)

> Proverbs 12:19 - Truthful lips endure forever, but a lying tongue is but for a moment. (ESV)

Not stealing:

> Ephesians 4:20-28 - But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil. Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. (ESV)

Not committing idolatry and not bowing to idols:

> Romans 11:3-6 - Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have demolished your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life. But what is God's reply to him? I have kept for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal. So too at the present time there is a remnant, chosen by grace. But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace. (ESV)

A person has the right to eat if they are willing to work. It's wrong withhold food from someone strictly on the basis of them not having a job because they might want a job but not be allowed one.

> Ephesians 4:28 - Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. (ESV)

So for someone who used to be a thief but has changed their ways (perhaps they were convicted of the crime of theft) but are finding it difficult to get a job because the government has made it very difficult for them to be able to secure work because they now must share with people that they have a criminal conviction, for example, well if they want to work and have no intention to go about stealing again but for whatever reason are having difficulty in securing work now, then their neighbour should be supporting in the way they need help. If it's not their fault that they are unable to work despite a change of heart now desire to walk justly, then it's not their fault and if they have the right attitudes now and they need support to obtain worldly goods that they need to be OK, then it's right to give them such worldly goods.

5.9.12 God works in us and we obey Jesus. We keep Jesus' commandments as He works in us

We rest from our own works, and let God work through us. We still obey Jesus. God sets up opportunities and we choose to obey Him. It's not burdensome. We just have to choose to obey God:

> Hebrews 4:8-11 - For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. (ESV)

Paul makes it clear that our own involvement is nothing. Without God it can't be fruitful. But we still obey God:

> I Corinthians 3:6-8 - I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. (ESV)

5.9.13 Doing the will of God from the heart

The will of God:

- Arrive at maturity and fully assured in all the will of God
  - We must look at what all of the will of God is for us and endeavour to be mature and fully assured with all of it
    - Colossians 4:12 - Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always struggling on your behalf in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God. (ESV)
- Have faith in Jesus Christ
  - John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)
- Be transformed by the renewal of your mind
  - Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)
  - We must take every thought captive to be obedient to Christ
    - II Corinthians 10:5-6 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)
  - We want our mind to be the mind of Christ
    - I Corinthians 2:16 - For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (ESV)
- Be a servant of Christ
  - Ephesians 6:6 - not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, (ESV)

- Give thanks in all circumstances
  - I Thessalonians 5:18 - give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. (ESV)
  - Ephesians 5:17-21 - Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. (ESV)
- Abstain from evil
  - I Thessalonians 4:3-8 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you. (ESV)
  - Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)
  - I Thessalonians 5:20-23 - Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. Abstain from every form of evil. Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)
  - Romans 13:10 - Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)
- Die to sin and produce good from a love for the truth, enduring while suffering unjustly
  - I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)
  - I Peter 4:12-19 - Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. But let none of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler. Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And If the righteous is scarcely saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner? Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)

- I Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

- Romans 8:3-4 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

- I John 3:3-11 - And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

- Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

- I Corinthians 16:13-14 - Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)

The servant who is disobedient to God will receive a beating:

> Luke 12:47 - And that servant who knew his master's will but did not get ready (G2090 hetoimasas; having prepared) or act (G4160 poiēsas; having done) according to his will, will receive a severe beating. (ESV)

Holding faith in Jesus while going through suffering is sanctifying. Obeying Jesus while going through suffering is sanctifying. Suffering in and of itself is not sanctifying.

youtube.com: Jim Carrey Delivers Powerful Speech About Jesus , Suffering & Forgiveness { MUST WAT

> Base your forgiveness on what God has done for you, rather than on what the person has done to you. ... When I realise how much I've been forgiven, how can I not forgive you?

Sanctification is always salvific because sanctification is by faith in Jesus (Acts 16:31, Acts 26:16-18) and by obedience to Jesus Christ (I Peter 1:22) and both faith and obedience to Jesus Christ is to do with salvation (Hebrews 5:9).

If a person by faith in Jesus Christ keeps His instruction to "not worry about tomorrow", for example, while enduring suffering, that is sanctifying. If Jesus instructed it then to keep the instruction by faith in Jesus Christ while enduring suffering is sanctifying:

> Matthew 6:30-34 - But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble. (ESV)

However, it is very important to continue abiding in the teaching of Christ which includes walking according to His commandments:

> II John 1:1-11 - The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all who know the truth, because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever: Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love. I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him takes part in his wicked works. (ESV)

> II Timothy 4:1-4 - I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. (ESV)

> John 15:4-7 - Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (ESV)

Jesus' sacrifice is propitiation for sin (I Peter 2:24).

youtube.com: Why Most Christians Misunderstand Sin and Animal Blood Sacrifices - Michael Heiser {

> "Take this bird, take this animal, do this and that and you will be 'cleansed from your sin'"... The Hebrew word for sin and "sin offering" (H2402 chattaah; sin, sin offering) in many circumstances has nothing to do with moral violation. It actually refers to being decontaminated. And it's about doing something to the person to decontaminate them so that they don't contaminate sacred space. All these rituals weren't about curing moral violation. If you committed a moral offence, an abomination, there's no sacrifice for you. You're either put to death or exiled from the community. So the writer of Hebrews actually knows what he was talking about:

And thus we are actually able to love properly because we can be healed by Jesus from moral sin to not practice them anymore:

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

Then we arrive at having done the will of God for us, to the salvation of our souls:

> Hebrews 10:36-39 - For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:6-9 - In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (ESV)

> Mark 3:35 - Whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother. (ESV)

> Romans 8:27 - And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. (ESV)

There's a lot in the Bible to explain what is the revealed will of God. Continuing on in discerning the will of God we should have a renewed mind. We should obey Jesus:

youtube.com: How Do We Know the Will of God? | John Piper Clip {@desiringGod} The Bible does not tell you which person to marry, or whether to marry. The Bible does not tell you which car to drive, or buy, rent. The Bible doesn't tell you whether to buy a home or not which home to buy. [The] Bible doesn't tell you which brand of orange juice to drink. There are 10,000 decisions you must make that are not explicitly addressed in the Bible so what do you do? If you want to obey the will of command my answer is you must have a renewed mind. That's what the text says.

> Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

We end up thinking in a similar fashion to Jesus:

> I Corinthians 2:16 - For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (ESV)

We're must be lawful to Christ (abiding in the 'law of Christ'). Though we don't commend ourselves for doing this. We should normally be doers of Christ's law. What's not done in faith is sin, after all. And whoever has no love for Christ has a curse upon them. And whoever hates their brother who they have seen can't love God who they have not seen. So our duty and normal walk should be doing Christ's commandments such as to have faith in Him and to love one another as He commanded:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of (G1772 ennomos; lawful to, law-abiding to, in the law of) Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

The word "ennomos" used in I Cor 9:21 for being "law-abiding" is closely related to the word "onnomō" which is used in Acts 19:39:

> Acts 19:39 - But if you want anything beyond this, it shall be settled in the lawful (G1772 ennomō lawful) assembly (G1577 ekklēsia; assembly). (NASB)

i.e. "settled in the legal / assembly / law-abiding assembly / lawful assembly".

Doing the will of God is what it means to be led by the Spirit. So you have to do the will of God, being a servant of Christ, lawful (law-abiding) to Christ, to Christ' commandments, to have the blessing of not being condemned by the law of Moses:

Psalms 143:10 - Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! (ESV)

I Corinthians 1:1 - Paul, called by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and our brother Sosthenes, (ESV)

II Corinthians 1:1 - Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the church of God that is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia: (ESV)

II Corinthians 8:5 - and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us. (ESV)

Faith is Faith is not mental ascent to a set of propositions. Faith is not believing that Jesus exists. That's not what faith is. That's what we mean a lot of the times when we talk about faith in modern culture, right? Do you believe in Santa Claus? Yes or no? That means, do you think he's real or do you not? But whether you think he's real or not, I'll bet you for 99.9% of us, whether or not you think he's real, even if you did, it doesn't affect what you do on June 13th or May 14th, it has no bearing on your life. It doesn't affect anything. Even if on a scantron, true or false, Santa's real, you would say true. That's what we mean by modern easy beliefism.

I think that's true. So a lot of people scour the historicity and they scour the annals of time and they look at the person of Jesus and they say, "Do you believe in Jesus?" And when they say that they mean do you think he existed? Do you think he actually miraculously healed people? Do you think he died on the cross? Do you think he was resurrected? Do you think he was seen after death? This is not what Paul means when he says do you believe in Christ?

Do you have faith? This word pistus in the Greek, do you are you a faithful of Christ? The term that we have to recognize that is going to be upsetting to many of us as we walk through the book of Ephesians. When you pick up Paul's dictionary, when he says the word faith, he does not mean do you ascribe to a set of mental propositions about the historicity or the person of Jesus. Do you think he was real? Do you think he died on the cross? Do you think he came back from the dead? This is not what Paul means. Okay. In the same way, here's this. I gotta get this chair. Hold for the president. This is all of you watching in Bethl on the other side of campus. I'm back. Okay. They can't see me when I go there. This is a chair. Okay. It has chairness. It's not a table. It's not a chicken. It's a chair. When you look at it, even from a distance, you could probably understand that this is a chair. Now, uh if I told you, I built the chair. I put it together with my own two hands from organic resources. I put this chair together. If I'm asking you to believe (like Paul does) in this chair, the question is not, do you think I built it? Do you think it has chairness? Do you think it has four legs? Do you think it has a place to sit? Do you think it has a back? This is what we understand to be belief. I believe in Jesus. Look, there he is. Look, that's what he did. Look, there he went. Look, there's who he healed. Paul's going, "No, no, no. That's a list of mental propositions." Paul says, "When I'm asking you, do you believe into Christ? Are you found in Christ? Do you have faith?" He doesn't mean, "Do you ascribe to all of the accidents of chairness and the characteristics of chair? Do you even think you know who built it? No. When Paul says, "Do you have faith in Christ?" He means this. "Are you willing to cross your arms, close your eyes, and go like this?"

[sits down on the chair with his eyes closed]

Could you imagine if that chair broke right now? It would have ruined my whole analogy. Paul says, "Do you believe in Christ? Are you betting your life on it? Are you taking your eternity in your hands, closing your eyes, and leaning in?" Now, it is an informed belief. I don't sit down in the chair until I go, "Yes, yeah, you did. You actually did die on a cross. You did come back from the dead. You have been faithful to your people historically speaking. I do have the Old Testament to show me how you've been faithful to your chosen people. Now, I'm part of the chosen people. It's an informed faith. It's not foolishness. I run a ramp of reason before I take my leap of faith. But once it's time, like we're going to talk about in baptism today, there is a moment where you need to go, got it. I believe into Christ. I don't just think he's there. I bet myself on it. The the way that um I think this is explained really well. From Yale Divinity, there's a a > teacher of the New Testament. Her name is Teresa Morgan. Here's what she says," Faith. (Okay, this is this word that Paul's going to use again and again. Pistis. In the Greek) is not primarily ascent. Okay, that's like nodding to propositions. Ascent like yeah, technically I guess it's not ascent to propositions. Propositions being like the apostles creed. I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary. These are propositions. Uh suffered under Pontious Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He rose again on the third day. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father. From then he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the dead, and the life everlasting. Those that's a set of propositions. If you go, yeah, all those things are true. Paul goes, that is demonic faith. Why? They believe all that, too. They were there for it. They watched him come back and they went, "Oh no. Oh no. What do we do now? propositions you can ascent to them. That's not faith. That's not pistus in the Greek. It is because of this I bet my life on it. That's why when Paul talks about baptism, what does he talk about? A death to self.

The love of the truth (treasuring the truth) must be received and accepted to be saved:

> II Thessalonians 2:10 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. (NASB)

People will put their trust in and love what is false:

> II Thessalonians 2:11 - For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe (G4100 pisteuo) what is false (G5579 pseudos), (NASB)

Those people who did not have faith in the truth but took pleasure in unrighteousness may be condemned. True 'pistis' faith involves an agape love of the truth as II Thes 2:10-13 shows:

> II Thessalonians 2:12 - in order that all may be condemned who did not believe (G4100 pisteuo) the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

You can come to know God exists. I believe I have that been given that kind of knowledge after the experience of being born-again. So faith while it involves believing that God exists certainly involves more than that, because if a person comes to 'know God' exists, what then do they do with that knowledge? A demon would shudder. We also must love the truth and have a response of love for God. And we must continue to abide in Jesus. We must continue holding our faith in Him. Even the book of Hebrews here shows that faith involves believing that God rewards those who seek Him. It's wrong to say "merit doesn't exist" for Christians, but I firmly believe any merit which we might have is also grace. For example, we receive the opportunity to practice righteousness. No-one can say they have practiced true righteousness by themselves outside the grace of God.

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

The love of the truth involves faith in the truth (which agape-loves the truth) and sanctification (being corrected, cleaned up by the truth through trusting and obeying the Truth, trusting and obeying Jesus Christ):

> II Thessalonians 2:10-13 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false, in order that they all may be judged who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness. But we should always give thanks to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

Agape love not only assents to but rejoices with the truth:

I Corinthians 13:4-8 - Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears (G4722 stegei; it bears; to cover with silence (endure patiently)) all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. (ESV)

Pistis (faith) ”Faith is not primarily assent to propsitions but trust in a person - a trust that results in loyalty.” - Teresa Morgan (Yale Divinity)

youtube.com: The Life-Changing Benefits of Being in Christ - {Ephesians 1:3-14} {@collegeave.church} It’s not ascent to propositions. It’s trust in a person. And it’s a trust that results in loyalty. The language that she uses in this book that she writes is about allegiance. It’s pledging allegiance to something. Pledging allegiance to a person, the king. That pledge of allegiance will change everything. Here’s a way of putting it that helped me to summarize it in my mind. Faith is confidence. Confed that means with faith. Okay, fed is this word for faith. Faith is confidence with consequence. I don’t mean consequences in punishment all the time. Consequence means there’s there’s something next in the sequence. Okay? It creates something else. It doesn’t stop there. It is with something new. There’s something that proceeds from it. It affects something else. It’s catalytic. It’s not static. It changes something else in life. So faith is confidence, but has consequence. I change who I am. I change often times who I’m with. I change how I perceive myself. I change everything. trusting Jesus so deeply that it changes everything. That’s what that’s what Paul means by faith.

Ephesians 1:1 - Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are in Ephesus, and are faithful in Christ Jesus: (ESV)

Be a servant of Christ:

Ephesians 6:6 - not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, (ESV)

Colossians 1:1 - Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, (ESV)

Arrive at maturity and fully assured in all the will of God:

Colossians 4:12 - Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always struggling on your behalf in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God. (ESV)

I Thessalonians 4:3 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; (ESV)

Give thanks in all circumstances:

I Thessalonians 5:18 - give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. (ESV)

II Timothy 1:1 - Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God according to the promise of the life that is in Christ Jesus, (ESV)

Hebrews 10:36 - For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. (ESV)

Doing good = holding to our confession and maintaining godly behaviour:

I Peter 2:15 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. (ESV)

I John 2:17 - And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

5.9.14 Work may be burned up, and the person who has a believing and obedient heart is still saved

This person worked - served God - and this verse guarantees that the one who tried to work for God is still saved:

> 1 Corinthians 3:15 - If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. (ESV)

I feel as though I Cor 3:11-15 probably applies to me right now, in that as I am writing theology, or "building a foundation" in the sense that Paul uses it, God could easily have it erased, or fellow brethren/family in Christ may simply not affirm it and my writings would be blown away by the wind. I think the passage probably applies now, already, rather than some far off thing like "purgatory" (if that is even a thing). However if purgatory is simply Roman Catholicism's way of explaining how a person may be cleaned up after death in a way similar to Isaiah 6:5-7, then, well honestly I do not know, but if I'm still certainly feeling unclean then I hope God would fully purge the sin. It's not an absurd idea.

> I John 1:8-9 - If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 3:11-15 - For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw—each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. (ESV)

Isaiah actually confessed to God he had unclean lips. When I stand before Jesus I hope that I do not find myself trying to defend sin. But like Isaiah, confessing sin as sin:

> Isaiah 6:5-7 - And I said: Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts! Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a burning coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar. And he touched my mouth and said: Behold, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away, and your sin atoned for. (ESV)

I hope that I'm perfected in love by the time I stand before Jesus:

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

I mean, protestants often call I John 1:9 the bar of soap. I know that walking in the light, in the love in truth, which includes agape-loving one another and confessing sin, the blood of Jesus cleanses us:

> I John 1:9 - If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

5.9.15 Forever abiding is believing and being a disciple, a servant

> John 15:4-8 - Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.

We don't try to save our worldly life. We seek the Kingdom of God:

> John 12:20-26 - Now among those who went up to worship at the feast were some Greeks. So these came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, Sir, we wish to see Jesus. Philip went and told Andrew; Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. And Jesus answered them, The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)

AMEN!!

Obey God, obey Jesus. This doesn't say that obeying the 10 commandments is not important. To love God and your neighbour in truth from the heart is the way to do this. But Mark 10:17-21 does say that following Jesus (treasuring Jesus, His words and putting them into practice) is vitally important:

> Mark 10:17-21 - And as he was setting out on his journey, a man ran up and knelt before him and asked him, Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. You know the commandments: Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother. And he said to him, Teacher, all these I have kept from my youth. And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.

5.10 God opens the eyes to see the light of the gospel

Sovereign God, looks into dead, glory-ignoring heart and says, ”Let there be light!”

> II Corinthians 4:3-6 - And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who said, Let light shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

youtube.com: The Gospel of the Glory of Christ

5.11 Gospel

Amen youtube.com: The Holy Spirit took over my preaching in Las Vegas and left me in awe and trembling

We are being saved by the gospel as we hold fast to the word:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

By the grace of God, Christ died for our sins:

> I Corinthians 15:3-8 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. (ESV)

We believe the gospel and reckon ourself dead to sin, and alive to God:

> Romans 6:11 - So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

By the grace of God we are transformed as we work out our salvation, and it's the grace of God working:

> I Corinthians 15:9-11 - For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed. (ESV)

We must not deny Jesus. Jesus and not sin must be our Master:

> Jude 1:4-5 - For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. (ESV)

God will sustain us to the end:

> I Corinthians 1:4-9 - I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that was given you in Christ Jesus, that in every way you were enriched in him in all speech and all knowledge—even as the testimony about Christ was confirmed among you— so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will sustain you to the end, guiltless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. (ESV)

> Jude 1:24-25 - Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen. (ESV)

It's important that we do not go back into sinful practices:

> Galatians 5:24 - And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. (ESV)

Consider ourselves dead to sin because of what Jesus did for us. I was born-again and baptised into Jesus's death. We must not fall for the enemy's temptations.

> Hebrews 3:13 - But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. (ESV)

The whole of Romans 6 shows that by faith we are enslaved to practicing righteousness (obedience):

> Romans 6 - What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

God opens/softens our hearts to be receptive or hardens them to be unreceptive to what is said to us, but from our angle, we still receive or reject voluntarily. God guides and leads we're still asked to seek, receive, trust, obey and follow Jesus Christ and His teachings. Yes, salvation is by grace through faith, and it's a free gift, but we still trust and obey Jesus to be saved:

> Acts 16:13-14 - And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together. One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul. (ESV)

This is grace working in us as we obey God:

> Romans 11:6 - But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:10 - But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:12-13 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

Message youtube.com: C S Lewis message 2024 - Faith in action God fights for you, but you must also act

The Good News of Jesus Christ is the power of God for salvation (stress: power of God for salvation) to everyone who believes:

- salvation from sin, and
- eternal life in Christ Jesus.

We have to repent and believe:

> Mark 1:14-15 - Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel. (ESV)

We have to believe and obey the Truth. We have to agree with the word of God, and allow God to correct our beliefs and behaviour:

> John 17:17-19 - Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. (ESV)

We have to be corrected by the word of God:

> II Timothy 3:16-17 - All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work. (ESV)

For those who believe, it is the power of God for salvation:

> Romans 1:16 - For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. (ESV)

The power of God works in us to sanctify us! We must realise that, that the gospel is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes.

We have believing, obedient faith in the powerful working of God:

> Colossians 2:12 - having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. (ESV)

God works his power mightily towards those who believe:

> Ephesians 1:19 - and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might (ESV)

Our faith should rest in the power of God - we should know God's power experientially:

> I Corinthians 2:5 - that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God. (ESV)

Paul toils, struggling with all God's energy that God works powerfully within him:

> Colossians 1:29 - For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me. (ESV)

Paul could noticeably see the power working within him and the others:

> Ephesians 3:20 - Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, (ESV)

The true gospel comes in power:

> I Thessalonians 1:5 - because our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction. You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake. (ESV)

By the power of God, we share in suffering for the gospel:

> II Timothy 1:8 - Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel by the power of God, (ESV)

The gospel allows us to become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the lusts of the world:

> II Peter 1:3-4 - seeing that His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence. For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world by lust. (NASB) youtube.com: Assurance for Battle @time: 18 min 2 sec If you don't fight you're probably not born again. At least, if you go on and on and on and on, slipping away from the vigilance of faith and fighting sin and the devil, you got no reason to think you're saved. Doesn't really matter what you prayed a long time ago, doesn't matter what card you signed. Doesn't matter. Baptism doesn't matter, what your parents did... Salvation is real. It's real! It's real! It's the work of God in a human heart, and there are effects from it, and one of the effects is when the lion comes you fight. I'm a believer and he will keep me safe through faith - that He, Himself works in me.

Some people will deny the power of the gospel:

> II Timothy 3:1-7 - But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God (5377. philotheos), having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. For among them are those who creep into households and capture weak women, burdened with sins and led astray by various passions, always learning and never able to arrive at a knowledge of the truth. (ESV)

Jesus Christ bore the punishment for our iniquity to bring us peace with God:

> Isaiah 53:5 - But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed. (ESV)

We must yield to Jesus. The Spirit we receive causes and helps us to obey. Our obedience is accredited to God working through us:

> Ezekiel 11:19-20 - And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I will put within them. I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, that they may walk in my statutes and keep my rules and obey them. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. (ESV)

Jesus does work through us as we are believing in Him:

> Philippians 2:13 - for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

Jesus makes it clear that the ones who believe do the same works He does:

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

We have always obeyed, participating in the Spirit, having one mind, that of a servant - God works through us:

> Philippians 2:1-13 - So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess (G1843 exomologeó) that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 3:6-8 - I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: John Fischer - Naphtali - 09 Live in the Power

'Believing obedience' produces work.
We are saved through faith - it's not our own doing - it's not a result of works - the works are a gift:

> Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV)

Whoever trusts in Jesus Christ shouldn't perish, but they should have eternal life. We've just got to have faith in Jesus:

> John 3:16-21 - For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever (G3956 pas) believes (G4100 pisteuo) in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

The gospel involves having believing and obedient heart. The entrypoint is believing in Jesus Christ to be saved - that itself is an act of obedience to the commandment of faith (John 14:1):

> John 6:28-29 - Then they said to him, What must we do, to be doing the works of God? Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him whom he has sent. (ESV)
> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)
>
> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

The obedience of heart:

- having of faith in Jesus and Jesus' name.

The obedience produces work:

- carrying out deeds done in God.
- coming to the light.

If belief and obedience can even be separated, I think being saved starts with belief or obedience and arrives at both belief and obedience. Belief and obedience are both fundamental qualities of faith.

Notice how just after John 3:16 it says, "whoever does what is true comes to the light."

Whoever has faith in and puts their trust in in Jesus Christ is not condemned and should not perish.

We have always obeyed - God works through us:

> Philippians 2:12-13 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out (katergazomai) your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

We must honour Jesus Christ:

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes (G4100 pisteuo) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

I believe John 5:24 is a true statement and that it should not be read outside of the words Jesus said directly before it (`Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him`).

We do not nullify the rest of what Jesus has commanded of and asked of us. If Jesus is your judge, then I think it's wise to take on board the rest of what Jesus has said:

> Philippians 1:15-22 - Some indeed preach Christ from envy and rivalry, but others from good will. The latter do it out of love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel. The former proclaim Christ out of rivalry, not sincerely but thinking to afflict me in my imprisonment. What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed, and in that I rejoice. Yes, and I will rejoice, for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance, as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell.

We're not justified through the works of the law but we are through faith, and faith involves obedience to Jesus Christ. Being a "doer" of the law of Christ is whether or not a person's heart is right and "doing works of the Law" is different to being a "doer" of the Law:

> Galatians 2:15-16 - “We are Jews by nature and not sinners from among the Gentiles; nevertheless knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the Law but through faith in Christ Jesus, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the Law; since by the works of the Law no flesh will be justified.
> Romans 2:13-16 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers (G4163 poiētai) of the law who will be justified. For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

It's by faith in Christ that we are justified, and faith involves active belief, active trust - obedience (of the heart).

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuo) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

Verses such as this demonstrate the holy justice of God. God nearly put Moses to death:

> Exodus 4:24-26 - At a lodging place on the way the LORD met him and sought to put him to death. Then Zipporah took a flint and cut off her son's foreskin and touched Moses' feet with it and said, Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me! So he let him alone. It was then that she said, A bridegroom of blood, because of the circumcision. (ESV)

Thus so (Houtōs) (in this way) did God love (G25 agapaó - value,treasure) the world, that He gave His Only-Begotten (G3439. monogenēs - unique,only begotten) Son that (G2443 hina - in order that) everyone who is trusting/believing (G4100 pisteuo) in Him may not perish, but may have life everlasting biblehub.com 3-16.htm: John 3:16 Interlinear: for God did so love the world, that His Son – the only begotten – He gave, that every one who is believing in him may not perish, but may have life age-during.

It’s faith in the heart which we need; obedience to Jesus Christ and belief in Jesus Christ in the heart, and belief and obedience to God who has raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

> 1 John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

> Matthew 22:37-39 - And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. (ESV)

Jesus Christ is the Son of the Living God. Believing on His name is God’s will for us, and loving one another is God’s will for us as He has commanded. There is more that Jesus has commanded us, too.

The promise to Gentiles:

> Galatians 3:8 - And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, In you shall all the nations be blessed. (ESV)

> Genesis 12:3 - I will bless those who bless you, and him who dishonors you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed. (ESV)

Because Abraham obeyed God’s voice:

> Genesis 22:18 - and in your offspring shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice. (ESV)

Repentance from sin, repentance from disbelief, and coming to the light are absolutely part of the gospel!

> 1 Corinthians 15:1-4 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you-unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, (ESV)
> John 8:34-35 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever.

The grace given to Paul allowed him to turn from his evil ways and pursue Jesus, working diligently for Jesus. Therefore, the grace given to Paul was not in vain, because Paul responded well to the grace:

> I Corinthians 15:10 - But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. (ESV)
>
> Acts 2:47 - Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: John Piper's Sermon with Scripture only

5.11.1 Living a godly life in Christ Jesus is part of the gospel

We are freely forgiven that we may freely forgive others out of an existing righteous standing we have with God thanks to God paying the price of our sin with Jesus' blood, and we may thus become the righteousness of God.

We are freely given mercy that we may freely give mercy to others out of an existing righteous standing we have with God thanks to God paying the price of our sin with Jesus' blood, and we may thus become the righteousness of God.

I think that believers in Jesus Christ, those that have faith in Jesus, arrive at doing Christ's love, fulfilling Christ's law, while affirming a certain standard of judgement to which they are also held accountable, derived from the original standard being God's Law, and affirming the precepts of God are a good thing where the most important matters are justice, mercy and faithfulness and Jesus' blood sanctifies us. We are also supposed to speak up for the God's Truth. We should affirm sound Christian teaching when it comes to what is sinful. Just because we may not judge others when it comes to something sinful, that doesn't mean that God wont judge us for practicing and affirming something sinful.

I think Mari would be better to have said, "By loving God and keeping His commandments, a person loves their neighbour, which is our duty as Christians." Sure, love everyone, even no-believres, but in the way that Jesus Christ loves them and that includes speaking the truth to them and bearing with them in patience that they will repent. But loving them doesn't mean affirming error or endorsing a sinful way of life:

Quote from Mari Mari Emmanuel So fear nothing, love everyone, but be firm when it comes to speaking the truth. Truth cannot be compromised. ... The one who is all love, He was sharper than a sword; When it came to holding the Truth, fighting for the Truth, He stood firm, never gave way, never compromised. Now that is love. If you truly love someone, wouldn't you want them to be living in the Truth? If you truly love the person, you will tell them, "This is right... This is wrong..."

Amen youtube.com: The Holy Spirit took over my preaching in Las Vegas and left me in awe and trembling

> II Timothy 3:1-7 - But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God (5377. philotheos), having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. For among them are those who creep into households and capture weak women, burdened with sins and led astray by various passions, always learning and never able to arrive at a knowledge of the truth. (ESV)

Godliness (behaviour in accordance with the knowledge of the truth) has the power to change a person's life to go from being selfish to selfless.

We have knowledge of the truth through obedience to the gospel.

5.11.2 Faith is disqualified in people who disregard the teachings - they never arrive at the knowledge of the truth

> II Timothy 3:8-12 - Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, men corrupted in mind and disqualified regarding the faith. But they will not get very far, for their folly will be plain to all, as was that of those two men. You, however, have followed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, my persecutions and sufferings that happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra—which persecutions I endured; yet from them all the Lord rescued me. Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, (ESV)

> Galatians 2:14 - But when I saw that their conduct was not in step with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, If you, though a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews? (ESV)

> II Timothy 3:12-13 - Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil people and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. (ESV)

People who go astray:

- suffering wrong as the wage for their wrongdoing.
- they count it pleasure to revel in the daytime.
- they are blots and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions, while they feast with you.
- they have eyes full of adultery, insatiable for sin.
- They entice unsteady souls.
- They have hearts trained in greed.
- Accursed children! Forsaking the right way, they have gone astray.

God forgive us and grant us sanctification. I know I still have issues, and I want to put to death the sensuality, I want to be healed (John 5:6):

> II Peter 2:1-22 - But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. And many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of truth will be blasphemed. And in their greed they will exploit you with false words. Their condemnation from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep. For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to chains of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment; if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; and if he rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked (for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority. Bold and willful, they do not tremble as they blaspheme the glorious ones, whereas angels, though greater in might and power, do not pronounce a blasphemous judgment against them before the Lord. But these, like irrational animals, creatures of instinct, born to be caught and destroyed, blaspheming about matters of which they are ignorant, will also be destroyed in their destruction, suffering wrong as the wage for their wrongdoing. They count it pleasure to revel in the daytime. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions, while they feast with you. They have eyes full of adultery, insatiable for sin. They entice unsteady souls. They have hearts trained in greed. Accursed children! Forsaking the right way, they have gone astray. They have followed the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved gain from wrongdoing, but was rebuked for his own transgression; a speechless donkey spoke with human voice and restrained the prophet's madness. These are waterless springs and mists driven by a storm. For them the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved. For, speaking loud boasts of folly, they entice by sensual passions of the flesh those who are barely escaping from those who live in error. They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. What the true proverb says has happened to them: The dog returns to its own vomit, and the sow, after washing herself, returns to wallow in the mire. (ESV)

John 8:34-35 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever.

5.12 Be a disciple of Jesus to be set free and abide forever

- To be Jesus' disciple, we must abide in Jesus' word / obey His commandments.
  - Have love for one another.
  - Love Jesus as He loved us.
  - Carry our cross:
    - bear one-another's burdens.
    - renounce all that we have.
  - Put following Jesus before all else.
- To come to know the truth, we must be Jesus' disciple.
- To be set free, we must know the truth.

John 13:34-35 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (ESV)

John 8:31-36 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)

Luke 9:23-24 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. (ESV)

> Luke 14:26 - If anyone comes to me and does not hate (3404. miseó, 3404 miséō – properly, to detest (on a comparative basis); hence, denounce; to love someone or something less than someone (something) else, i.e. to renounce one choice in favor of another.) his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. (ESV)

> Luke 14:27 - Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. (ESV)

If someone exhibits love toward others, learns and lives the expectations unearthed in Scripture, denies self in all situations, has as their first relational allegiance Jesus Christ, and will die for the cause of Christ, then they can rest assured, they are a disciple of Jesus Christ.

See:

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now having been freed from sin and enslaved to God, you derive your benefit, resulting in sanctification, and the outcome, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (NASB)

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> James 1:13-15 - Let no one say when he is tempted, I am being tempted by God, for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)

Can you be overcome by sin again? Yes, you can. But we're supposed to be overcome by practicing righteousness. Jesus sets us free, washes and regenerates us. Once that happens, we must not go back into sin.

> Hebrews 6:4-8 - For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, if they then fall away, since they are crucifying once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt. For land that has drunk the rain that often falls on it, and produces a crop useful to those for whose sake it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God. But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed, and its end is to be burned. (ESV)

> Romans 6:7 - For one who has died has been set free from sin. (ESV)

5.12.1 The high cost of following Christ

Billy Graham said here, ”Change your mind and He will change your heart.”

Sermon youtube.com: The High Cost of Following Christ | Billy Graham Classic Sermon

> Matthew 13:44 - The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. (ESV)

We are supposed to treasure people, that is true. But Jesus has to be our number 1. Jesus is worth more than anyone or anything. Marriage cannot be idolatry. God is worth more and needs to come first.

> Matthew 10:37 - Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

> Luke 14:26-33 - If anyone comes to me and does not hate (3404. miseó, 3404 miséō – properly, to detest (on a comparative basis); hence, denounce; to love someone or something less than someone (something) else, i.e. to renounce one choice in favor of another.) his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build and was not able to finish. Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple. (ESV)

Do not love the world:

- do not love desires of the flesh, and
- do not love the desires of the eyes, and
- do not love pride in possessions

I think I John 2:15-17 is essentially saying, ”Do not agape love the world or what’s in the world. Do not love the things of this world with the type of love that we have for God and for people, namely agape love.” If we fall out of agape love for the world and are not conformed to the world but are transformed by the renewing of our minds then by testing we will be able to discern the will of God:

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love (agapate) the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

> Romans 12:1 - I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. (ESV)

> Matthew 24:9-13 - Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for my name’s sake. And then many will fall away and betray one another and hate one another. And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. (ESV)

Do not resist the one who is evil - but do good to them:

- Romans 12:21 - Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (ESV)
- if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also
- if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well
- if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles
- Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you
- Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you

> Matthew 5:38-48 - You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. Give > to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate (3404. miseó, 3404 miséō – properly, to detest (on a comparative basis); hence, denounce; to love someone or something less than someone (something) else, i.e. to renounce one choice in favor of another.) your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

With Jesus' commandments in mind, we should have joy when the time of testing happens and things are taken away from us. It can take a really long time. But we need to not shrink back. I'm also speaking to myself.

> Hebrews 10:34-39 - For you had compassion on those in prison, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one. Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

> Luke 6:30 - Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. (ESV)

We must draw closer to Jesus and seek Jesus first and trust Jesus because to be in relationship with God is the most important thing. To not be in relationship with God is to abide in death:

> Matthew 6:31-33 - Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. (ESV)

We are commanded to reject the idols to treasure God first. If we do this then we draw near to God and God draws near to us:

> II Corinthians 6:17-18 - Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

> Psalms 73:25-28 - Whom have I in heaven but you? And there is nothing on earth that I desire besides you. My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. For behold, those who are far from you shall perish; you put an end to everyone who is unfaithful to you. But for me it is good to be near God; I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, that I may tell of all your works. (ESV)

> James 4:7-10 - Submit (G5293 Hypotagēte) yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. Be wretched and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you. (ESV)

G5293 Hypotagēte hupotassó: To subject, to subordinate, to submit, to be under obedience. From hupo and tasso; to subordinate; reflexively, to obey – be under obedience (obedient), put under, subdue unto, (be, make) subject (to, unto), be (put) in subjection (to, under), submit self unto.

I'd like to point out for the following excerpt that just because faith and repentance are gifted to us from God doesn't mean that we wait for it before trying to will to have faith or to repent - i.e. it may seem as though we initiated it at the time.

youtube.com: Is repentance an aspect of faith, or is repentance a good work? {@ligonier} @time: 3 min

> PARSONS: It is important that we distinguish between an act and 'works'. The word "work" or "works" in the New Testament is language that the Apostle Paul uses and others use in reference to things that we do in order to earn our salvation, things that we do that sort of either initiate with us, begin with us, things that we do to earn our salvation. (That language of work or works is different than something we do.)
> We do repent, we do believe, but we have to understand why we believe and why we repent. It's Romans 2:4, I believe, that Paul says, "Don't you know that it's the kindness of God that's meant to lead you to repentance?" So, do we repent? Yes. Is it something we do? Is it an act? Yes. Is it a work, technically? No, it is something that God by His kindness leads us to, just as He grants us the gift of faith according to Ephesians 2:8-10. The entirety of the believer's conversion and coming to the Lord, of course, is all of grace.
> LAWSON: And repentance is a sovereign gift that God gives us as well. He gives both saving faith and repentance. That's why God is the author of our salvation. He provides everything. All we provide, as you said, is the sin that we hold in our hands that was laid upon Christ.

5.12.2 Give our mind to Christ

> 1 John 2:3-5 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: (ESV)

We should use the Word of God to come against even arguments and opinions which are raised against the knowledge of God. Even our thoughts must be brought into obedience to Christ:

> II Corinthians 10:2-6 - I beg of you that when I am present I may not have to show boldness with such confidence as I count on showing against some who suspect us of walking according to the flesh. For though we walk in the flesh, we are not waging war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)

"ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete" I think means to even be ready to come against slip-ups.

> Proverbs 16:32 - Whoever is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city. (ESV)

Follow God's statutes until the end. It's very blessed to do so.:

> Psalms 84:11 - For the LORD God is a sun and shield; the LORD bestows favor and honor. No good thing does he withhold from those who walk uprightly. (ESV)

Allow God to change our heart and take our idols away from us and teach us to love Him and others as we take our thoughts captive to be obedient to Jesus:

Encouragement youtube.com: Psalm 119:33 follow Gods statutes until the end.

For example: Having given your money away to the poor, then when the devil typically tempts us through other people or through a dream, or whatever way, by saying that "Christians still have their vices". Then instead of spending money on whatever has previously been a vice, we should put that money into God's Kingdom, and I truly believe that God sanctifies and works in us as we choose to obey Jesus and are taught (corrected) by Jesus Himself by His teachings. God sets up the opportunities.

> Luke 11:39-41 - And the Lord said to him, Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also? But give as alms those things that are within, and behold, everything is clean for you. (ESV)

1Clem prologue:1 (from the first epistle of Clement to the Corinthians) The Church of God which sojourneth in Rome to the Church of God which sojourneth in Corinth, to them which are called and sanctified by the will of God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Grace to you and peace from Almighty God through Jesus Christ be multiplied.

> Psalms 119:1-19 - Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the LORD! Aleph Blessed are those who keep his testimonies, who seek him with their whole heart, who also do no wrong, but walk in his ways! You have commanded your precepts to be kept diligently. Oh that my ways may be steadfast in keeping your statutes! Then I shall not be put to shame, having my eyes fixed on all your commandments. I will praise you with an upright heart, when I learn your righteous rules. I will keep your statutes; do not utterly forsake me! How can a young man keep his way pure? By guarding it according to your word. Beth With my whole heart I seek you; let me not wander from your commandments! I have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you. Blessed are you, O LORD; teach me your statutes! With my lips I declare all the rules of your mouth. In the way of your testimonies I delight as much as in all riches. I will meditate on your precepts and fix my eyes on your ways. I will delight in your statutes; I will not forget your word. Deal bountifully with your servant, that I may live and keep your word. Gimel Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of your law. I am a sojourner on the earth; hide not your commandments from me! (ESV)

The Apostle John is teaching Jesus' teachings. Even if we / when we sin, we should just confess (G3670 homologeó) the sin we did, confess (G3670 homologeó) it as sin, turn away from it and try to not cease obeying Jesus, practicing His commandments. We shouldn't be deterred from "getting back up" when we make mistakes, but we want to continue with a good conscience having confessed the sin as sin and continuing endeavouring to practice Jesus' commandments, serving Jesus. We want to be walking in the light, practicing our righteousness (obeying Jesus who is our righteousness) with a good conscience with God:

> I John 1:5-10 - This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)
> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

5.13 The free gift of salvation is to be set free from sin to be a slave of righteousness

The free gift is to be set free from sin to be a salve of righteousness - that is received through faith, received by those who obey Jesus.

The faith that receives the free gift of salvation is obedient to Jesus.

So when the Spirit begins working in you, and you obey, you are receiving the salvation.

Is this considered being saved by works or being saved by faith?

This is considered being saved by faith and not by works.

We must now consider ourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. We must now present ourselves as obedient slaves to righteousness - yes, practicing personal righteousness in accordance with Jesus Christ's commandments.

> Romans 6 - What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

Therefore, to be in Christ Jesus our Lord, God puts us in and we then have a change of mindset, presenting ourselves as obedient slaves to Jesus Christ. Is that considered a bad thing to be a slave to righteousness? No, it's considered as being in Christ Jesus.

The Holy Spirit in us is the gift which is in us:

> II Timothy 1:6-7 - For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 1:21-22 - And it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, and who has also put his seal on us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee. (ESV)

Sanctification is a part of salvation which results in a heart and mind that agape loves the truth:

> Hebrews 10:10-39 - And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying, This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds, then he adds, I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more. Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin. Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great > priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has spurned the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? For we know him who said, Vengeance is mine; I will repay. And again, The Lord will judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. But recall the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings, sometimes being publicly exposed to reproach and affliction, and sometimes being partners with those so treated. For you had compassion on those in prison, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one. Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

Lawless acts come from unbelief:

> I Timothy 1:12-14 - I thank him who has given me strength, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he judged me faithful, appointing me to his service, though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

youtube.com: Vigil - Who is my Mother and My Brethren ? {@ orthodoxnet } I commented, > Something I would add to this sermon is the simultaneous immediate and teleogolical status of the true believer as a son of God. We are disciplined by God into greater holiness as we hold our faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and remain in Him, abiding in His teaching including His commandments. If we hate our brother then we are not abiding in Him.

> Scripture teaches in John 8:31-47 that there were some Jews who had believed in Jesus but who Jesus subsequently called children of the devil. Those Jews had believed in Jesus but then went on to want to kill Jesus and to not receive His words. They had stopped having faith in Jesus. So we must continue in faith in Jesus and as we continue, continue to abide in His teachings including His commandments.
> I do agree with my Orthodox brothers and sisters that sanctification is a necessary part of salvation (II Thessalonians 2:10-13). Sanctification happens as we are continuing on in faith in Jesus Christ from a love for the truth obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching of Jesus Christ and His Apostles (Romans 6:16-18). God will finish the good work He has started in us. To abide in Jesus Christ is to have life and salvation, but we must go on abiding in Him. God puts us into Him (I Corinthians 1:30) but Christ instructs us to remain in Him. From love for the truth (Psalm 81:15) we need to be obeying the commandment to have faith in Jesus Christ and continue in faith in Him, abiding in Christ's law (all his commandments are grace) to continue abiding in Him. Abiding in Jesus through faith in Him is possible "here and now" (Romans 10:4-11) as our faith must be a present faith which we must also continue in to remain in Him. What does not proceed from faith is sin, after all, which is lawlessness and the slave to sin does not remain in God's house forever. Salvation is teleological; We are cleaned up, sanctified to look like the Lord Jesus Christ as we abide in Him. Those who do not bear fruit in Christ (and in Christ, fruit is always good because Jesus is a good tree) are cast out and wither, but if they return to faith then God may graft them back in (Romans 11). Father God is the vinedresser and takes care of the grafting and pruning. We should just do our duty > which is to fear God and keep His commandments for us to have faith in Jesus Christ and to love one another the way we are commanded to.

>
> Now Jesus said that those who have faith in Him will do His deeds, and Jesus did not sin, and Jesus referred to God as His father rather than any man on earth. In fact He has commanded His disciples to call no man on earth 'father' for they have one father who is in heaven. If anyone is brother to Jesus Christ, then their Father is Father God, and their mother, brothers and sisters are those who do the will of God who hear the word of God and do it. Walking by the spirit, this is what a person would be doing. We are sanctified into doing this better and better, and also into controlling our own body in holiness, and loving one another as commanded.
> God have mercy. We all fall short of His glory. Let us continue in faith in Jesus, abstaining from evil as we seek to overcome evil with good and put to death the deeds of the sinful flesh.
> I Thessalonians 4:3-8 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you. (ESV)
>
> Romans 7:16-23 - Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. (ESV)
> Romans 6:16-18,7:25,8:1-4 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

OK, so as a people that Jesus purchased for His own posession, we are brought to no longer be lawless, and the deeds we committed when we were lawless is what God will no longer remember. But we are corrected:

> Hebrews 10:16-17 - This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds, then he adds, I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more. (ESV)

5.13.1 Receiving the Holy Spirit

God poured out His Holy Spirit richly on us through Jesus Christ our Saviour. This would not be possible without having sent Jesus Christ to die for our sins and be raised for our justification. To be able to be justified is pure grace. To be able to have faith in Jesus is pure grace. But we must put our faith in Jesus Christ!

> Titus 3:4-7 - But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the > Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

So we should ask God to receive the Holy Spirit, and believe He will give the Holy Spirit to us:

> Luke 11:13 - If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him! (ESV)

This says Father God gives the Holy Spirit to His children. Then we should seek to behave as His children and ask Him for the Holy Spirit:

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

Who receives the Holy Spirit? The ones who obey God!

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

youtube.com: How to Seek the Holy Spirit @time: 48 min 13 sec "If anyone keeps Jesus' word, holds fast, treasures it, in obedience, that person will not be quenching the Spirit, that person will not be grieving the Spirit, but will know the fullness and sweetness of fellowship with the Father and the Son." - AMEN to that, John Piper

The Holy Spirit is received through faith:

> Galatians 3:14 - so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

We need to obey Jesus to see the life. That obedience isn't "working" but it is "performing/carrying out" but our justification isn't contingent on "working":

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

- G4100 (pisteuōn): This is the present participle form of the verb " " (G4100 pisteuō), meaning "to believe" or "to have faith." In the participle form, it functions as a verbal adjective and can be translated as "believing."

> I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

On the other hand, if we obey Jesus we will never see death:

> John 8:51 - Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. (ESV)

We receive the spirit by getting Jesus' words into us, believing them and obeying them. Feeding on them, we get Jesus' spirit and life into us:

> Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Trusting and obeying Jesus' words and commandments, a person has life:

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)
> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

The Spirit was given after Jesus was glorified:

> John 7:37-39 - On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. (ESV)

Jesus was glorified and God glorified in Him when He laid down His life for us and bore much fruit:

> Luke 24:26 - Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory? (ESV)
> John 12:23-24 - And Jesus answered them, The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. (ESV)
>
> John 17:1 - When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, (ESV)
> John 13:31 - When he had gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. (ESV)

This seems to show that to follow Jesus we must also lay our lives down for Him:

> John 13:36-38 - Simon Peter said to him, Lord, where are you going? Jesus answered him, Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but you will follow afterward. Peter said to him, Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for you. Jesus answered, Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the rooster will not crow till you have denied me three times. (ESV)

So to receive the Holy Spirit:

- Have faith in Jesus,
  - believe Jesus,
  - obey Jesus,
- practice righteousness, and
  - ask God for the Holy Spirit!
- lay your life down for Jesus

5.14 The work of the Holy Spirit

5.14.1 The Holy Spirit may teach us even before He is in us, by helping us as He dwells with us

> John 14:16-21 - And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

5.14.2 Teaching us, leading us into the Truth

> John 16:13 - When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. (ESV)

We should meditate on the word of God while holding our faith in Jesus Christ (while trusting and loving and obeying Jesus):

> II Timothy 2:7 - Think over what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything. (ESV)

We certainly should have the love of the truth in us, and be loving one-another in Christ as commanded as we are meditating on Scripture, because if we are walking in darkness then we wont be able to understand:

> I John 2:11-12 - But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his name's sake. (ESV)

> I John 2:27 - But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything—and is true and is no lie, just as it has taught you—abide in him. (ESV)

5.14.3 The fruit of the Spirit

The fruit of the Spirit are the fruit of Christ's Spirit. Christ's law is not contrary to the fruit of the Spirit. We must also seek to fulfill Christ's law (though it is the righteousness of Christ Himself which justifies us before God).

1Clem 49:1 Let him that hath love in Christ fulfill the commandments of Christ.

> Galatians 5:22-23 - But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. (ESV)

The fruit of the Spirit while lawful we want to encourage. If someone acts in the fruit of the Spirit, and another person is offended then they should apply the law of Christ when they realise their actions are harming their family in Christ and they should stop those actions. But at the same time, the person has maybe done nothing wrong while acting in the fruit of the Spirit. This goes both ways. So when a person acts innocently with the fruit of the Spirit but causes their family in Christ injury in doing so, they should stop doing the thing which causes them injury, and seek to love them by doing no harm to our brother or sister, even if at first our actions seemed to us to be good:

> Romans 14:21 - It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble. (ESV)

To continue those actions knowing it was harming your neighbour in Christ would be to lack "love" or "self-control".

> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. (ESV)

1Clem 49:1 Let him that hath love in Christ fulfill the commandments of Christ.

Love is:

> I Corinthians 13:4-8 - Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears (G4722 stegei; it bears; to cover with silence (endure patiently)) all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. (ESV)

We shouldn't punish acting while exhibiting the fruit of the Spirit, made with pure motivations, and place arbitrary laws against what is good, motivated by fear, by banning the actions every time someone is offended.

But it seems that sometimes with pure motivations, we can still offend others, and there needs to be room to "back off":

> Romans 14:17-22 - For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding. Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats. It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble. The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. (ESV)

But causing offense without warning isn't strictly the same thing as causing crime. Jesus continued to offend some people and be loved by others but he committed no crime:

> Matthew 11:6 - And blessed is the one who is not offended by me. (ESV)

youtube.com: Girls told to remove Christian crosses at religious school hit out against staff @time: 1 mi

> Nobody has a right [to be not] offended, especially to not be offended when other by other people exercising their normal rights in any liberal democracy. And what I want to say to all the girls at this school is wear your crosses if you have a cross turn up to school and wear that cross and send a message to other students and to teachers and to the school in general that this is a Christian School it is not a Marxist, woke school.

> Luke 18:16 - But Jesus called them to him, saying, Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. (ESV)

Meanwhile in SA youtube.com: Nyanga High School - "His name is Yahweh" {@saschoolsgottalent}

Crossing other people's boundaries, though, when we know their boundaries, and knowing it may cause harm, though, is breaking Christ's law:

> Exodus 8:26 - But Moses said, It would not be right to do so, for the offerings we shall sacrifice to the LORD our God are an abomination to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice offerings abominable to the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone us? (ESV)

> Romans 14:21 - It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble. (ESV)

We should seek to love everyone, even our enemies, but not to always agree with our enemies, but the love we have for our enemies should always be Christ's love and not "the devil's definition of love".

I also think it is loving to not inhibit the gospel message.

> Acts 5:29 - But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. (ESV)

We should always love with Christ's love:

> Romans 12:20 - To the contrary, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head. (ESV)

Even if it becomes anathema to speak the truth and to live out the truth, I would still speak God's truth and act with Christ's love to the end for the sake of truth:

> Matthew 24:9-13 - Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. And then many will fall away and betray one another and hate one another. And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. (ESV)

> Proverbs 14:25 - A truthful witness saves lives, but one who breathes out lies is deceitful. (ESV)

We don't want to cultivate what is opposite to the fruit of the Spirit; things such as hate, depression, fear and anxiety, being inconsiderate, abusiveness, unwholesomeness, faithlessness, abrasiveness and quick-temperedness by punishing people who are prompted by the Holy Spirit to act.

But if we are afraid we should seek to have a genuine affection for God, loving Him with our whole heart, and seek to obey Jesus and build one another up in love, and that should cast out fear:

> I John 4:18 - There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. (ESV)

> Romans 14:17-20 - For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding. Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats. (ESV)

Christ's Spirit is selfless and bears one another's burdens, and considers others more significant than themselves:

> Philippians 2:3 - Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. (ESV)

youtube.com: Hope and the Fruit of Love @time: 10 min 14 sec One of the great obstacles to love is fear – that if you pay the price of love, you won't get the flower of the world.

I mean the flowers of the world are very pretty. Money is pretty, and power is pretty, and sex is pretty, and reputation is pretty, and leisure is pretty, and comfort is pretty.

The world has lots to offer. There's a lot of flowers out there.

There are grassy meadows in the world that are tremendously attractive, and this feeling rises up in our hearts: If you pay the price to love you won't get as many flowers, you won't get as much grass.

And therefore we resist loving.

If you endure wrong meekly, if you renounce boasting, don't call attention to yourselves, if we spend time and energy supplying the needs of others without fretting over our own, if we risk making necessary reproofs that are almost surely to be interpreted as unloving, if we receive reproofs without animosity and defensiveness, if we cover a multitude of sins and put away our list of grievances, if we rejoice when others prosper while > we don't, if we bless those who curse us, and do good to those who despise us, if we love each other earnestly from the heart, the fear is we won't get any flowers; our grassy Fields will turn brown on us.

> And the way we are freed from that fear is to hear God say, "the flower falls and the grass fades but my word that gave you life lasts forever and leads to an inheritance that is unfading, imperishable, undefiled, kept in heaven for you. You are free go ahead pay the price. It doesn't matter what they think. It doesn't matter whether you get the flowers. If you're born of God you are alive and you will last forever.

Amen.

In order to avoid another situation with the pandemic where there was a lack of love (people making decisions on fear instead of on love) like the one in 2020-2021, we should not cease to maintain freedom, faith in God, peace, forgiveness, and love for people. Let our decisions be based on love and not fear:

> I Corinthians 16:14 - Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)
>
> II Timothy 1:7 - for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control. (ESV)
>
> II Timothy 1:7 - For God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and discipline. (NASB)
> II Timothy 1:7 - For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. (KJV)

> And I think as we think of the current world we're in dominated by news of COVID-19, the reason I think so many people around the world are struggling is that for many this is the first time we've collectively faced the issue of our own mortality, and we don't know how to respond in the light of it, so our response has mainly been fear. Now obviously we need to be responsible in light of everything that's going on and what's happening, but we shouldn't be driven by fear. And even the Biblical idea of isolating yourself, you know you read it in Leviticus 13, if you have an infectious disease put yourself out of the camp. But that's not out of fear for yourself, that's out of love for your neighbor, because I don't want to pass this on to anyone else, my people, this is what I'll do, whereas a lot of our response so far has been driven very much by fear.

On the topic of COVID, Dr. John Campbell who I recall was level-minded throughout the pandemic has done a presentation on the shroud of Turin which I have been watching this morning <2025-05-10 Sat>.

Watch youtube.com: Shroud studies {@Campbellteaching}

Without certifying the authenticity of the shroud of Turin, something I find consistent with the way I was born-again is the spear wound on the right side. It's consistent with my own testimony.

Brand new creation, born-again of the Spirit:

I was born-again of the Spirit on the first day of Nisan on 2 April 2022.
During the day in the afternoon I took a nap on my bed and woke up to observing my regenerated spirit man. It looked like a body made of blue light/electricity/fire with a dark bit around the bottom right of my rib cage.
I'm unsure if that relates to Adam's rib taken or to the spear in Jesus' side.
Anyway, in this state I called out to Jesus to save me because I didn't know what was going on, then I returned to observing the world through my physical body. To this day, I feel this spirit/fire/light energising my body/soul, so it's like being born-again with a second body literally.

5.15 Becoming a servant, humbling oneself and following Jesus is what we should do

A religious spirit is:

- not being a servant
- neglects the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness
- an emphasis on outward appearances over inner transformation
- hypocrisy
- uses the law as a beating tool on other people
  - they use the law superficially
- but are lawless in reality
  - their relationship with God is really busted up - not being faithful to God

True religion:

- focuses on purifying the heart and soul, and obeying God's commandments in truth, accountable to God
- as far as the law is concerned
  - externally prioritises justice, mercy and faithfulness
  - inwardly tries to maintain a holy heart, and a relationship with God
- serving Jesus
- avoids judging people with the law to cut people down, but encourages people to be accountable to God with it
- bear one another's burdens

We're under the law of Christ, and that shouldn't be a heavy burden:

> Matthew 23:4 - They tie up heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on people's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to move them with their finger. (ESV)
>
> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.
> I John 5:3 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

You must obey Jesus, and that is choosing light and choosing agape love towards God and people and not towards the world or worldly things:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuo) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)
> Matthew 23:11-33 - The greatest among you shall be your servant. Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted. But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut the kingdom of heaven in people's faces. For you neither enter yourselves nor allow those who would enter to go in. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel across sea and land to make a single proselyte, and when he becomes a proselyte, you make him twice as much a child of hell as yourselves. Woe to you, blind guides, who say, If anyone swears by the > temple, it is nothing, but if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound by his oath. You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold or the temple that has made the gold sacred? And you say, If anyone swears by the altar, it is nothing, but if anyone swears by the gift that is on the altar, he is bound by his oath. You blind men! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift sacred? So whoever swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it. And whoever swears by the temple swears by it and by him who dwells in it. And whoever swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by him who sits upon it. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe the mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others. You blind guides, straining out a gnat and swallowing a camel! Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be clean. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but within are full of dead people's bones and all uncleanness. So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous, saying, If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets. Thus you witness against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers. You serpents, you brood of vipers, how are you to escape being sentenced to hell? (ESV)

We must keep and accept the precepts of God over the precepts of men:

> Mark 7:6-9 - And he said to them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men. You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men. And he said to them, You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! (ESV)

This passage is condemning submitting to worldly / human precepts and imploring us to submit to God's precepts. It's not condemning God's precepts but imploring us to put to death what is against God's precepts:

> Colossians 2:20-23,3:1-6 - If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations— Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch (referring to things that all perish as they are used)—according to human precepts and teachings? These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh. If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. (ESV)

Watch youtube.com: HUMILITY to receive CORRECTION so you can GROW in Christ. {@MarkHemans}

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

5.16 I believe that I should try as hard as I can to enter via the narrow gate

5.16.1 Narrow is the gate and hard is the way that leads to life

I think this shows the strait and narrow way involves repentance and sanctification:

> Matthew 7:13-16 - Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow (4728 stenos ie. narrow, small) and the way is hard (2346 thlibó - meaning: like when circumstances ”rub us the wrong way” that make us feel confined (hemmed in); restricted to a ”narrow” place) that leads to life, and those who find it are few. Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?

> Luke 13:24 - Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able.

The Way is Jesus Christ - believing in and becoming obedient to Jesus Christ.
It's being begotten as a servant of God, a disciple of Jesus, one of Jesus' sheep.
Believe:

> I John 4:9 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him.

Obey:

> I John 5:3 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

Believe and obey and treasure God and people:
In treasuring Jesus' words, keeping them, guarding them, observing them, in Him the agape (treasuring, valuing love) has truly been perfected. Having Jesus' teachings in us clearly should result in us walking as He did:

> I John 2:5-6 - but whoever keeps (5083. téreó) His word (G3056 logos), in him the love (G26 agape) of God (G2316 theos) has truly been perfected (G5048 teleioo). By this we know (G1097 ginosko) that we are in Him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

> Jude 1:21 - keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life.

5.16.2 Wide gate

Either of:

- Pursuing holiness without submitting to the righteousness of God
  - This is denying Jesus and becoming guilty of sin by denying the atonement
  - John 15:22-23 - If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also.
- Pursuing justification without becoming obedient to God
  - This is being cast out and withering and being thrown into the fire
  - John 15:5-6 - I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.

A person needs to have obedient, believing faith in Jesus Christ to take the narrow gate.
These people did not believe and obey Jesus, and produced bad fruit:

> Matthew 7:13-16 - Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow (4728 stenos ie. narrow, small) and the way is hard (2346 thlibó - meaning: like when circumstances ”rub us the wrong way” that make us feel confined (hemmed in); restricted to a ”narrow” place) that leads to life, and those who find it are few. Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?

Those in the following example that prophesied here who cast out demons in Jesus’ name and did many mighty works in Jesus’ name,

- didn’t have God as their #1 agape love, treasuring Jesus and His words, and
- didn’t in faith keep and obey Jesus’ words including commandments, and
- didn’t have a relationship with Jesus involving doing Jesus’ words
- didn’t end up coming into the will of God to do their works out of God’s will rather than their own will
    - they were probably not really being truly believing and obedient of the words Jesus spoke:

> Matthew 7:21-24 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock.

Was there ever a time that we have loved Jesus and and were known by Jesus? I wouldn’t test Jesus on this regarding absolute minimums for salvation / entering the Kingdom of God. I think we need to persevere in the faith, and hold our faith in Jesus and keep His commandments for confidence at the day of judgement:

> Matthew 7:22-23 - On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. (ESV)

We need to allow God’s will to be done in us:

> Matthew 6:10 - Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. (ESV)

We need to endure in faith:

> Matthew 7:13-14 - Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow (4728 stenos ie. narrow, small) and the way is hard (2346 thlibó - meaning: like when circumstances ”rub us the wrong way” that make us feel confined (hemmed in); restricted to a ”narrow” place) that leads to life, and those who find it are few.

Paul says if anyone loves God they’re known by God. And John says if anyone claims to have come to know Him (Christ) but doesn’t keep His commandments they do not tell the truth. Jesus said the one who loves Him is the one who keeps His commandments. So we come to know Him when we abide in His love. He loved us first, laying His life down for us, and we ought to do the same for our brothers and sisters in Christ. Love everyone, sure, but those who are in Christ are one spirit with the Lord Jesus. We must love one another in Christ with the same love Jesus showed us. Jesus commanded that whoever loves God must also love their brother. Some people might be all big on stuff like the ”benefits” of Christianity, i.e. casting out demons etc. or being healed from physical infirmity, but wouldn't deny self to follow Jesus, haven't yet given up money as an idol - would just follow Jesus for more gains in this life without, say forgiving that brother of theirs who asked them for forgiveness, say, or really without coming to love the truth.

I think the reason that repentance and faith work together like this is because saving faith is a faith that loves the truth, as opposed to hates the truth, where mere 'belief' could be either love or hate for the truth:

> II Thessalonians 2:10 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. (NASB)

We have to love God and hate sin:

> John 3:14-19 - And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than (G3123 mallon, rather/more than, in preference to, instead of) light, because their deeds were evil. (KJV

These people just sat around watching Jesus but didn't obey Him:

> Luke 13:24-26 - Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. When once the master of the house has risen and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, open to us, then he will answer you, I do not know where you come from. Then you will begin to say, We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets. But he will say, I tell you, I do not know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of evil!

We strive to enter through Jesus who is the door:

> John 10:9-16 - I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly. I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. He flees because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. (ESV) youtube.com: Strive to Enter or Believe to Enter?? Apparently the author of Hebrews believes that making every effort to labor to get into God's rest and believing in order to get into God's rest are not incompatible partners.

We must hear His voice today:

> Hebrews 3:7-11 - Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness, where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years. Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, They always go astray in their heart; they have not known my ways. As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest. (ESV)

Psalm 95’s today is now. Today is the day to strive to enter God’s rest:

> Psalms 95:6-11 - Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker! For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts, as at Meribah, as on the day at Massah in the wilderness, when your fathers put me to the test and put me to the proof, though they had seen my work. For forty years I loathed that generation and said, They are a people who go astray in their heart, and they have not known my ways. Therefore I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest. (ESV)

youtube.com: Striving Faith: Few Pursue What Jesus Commands {Luke 13:24} - Tim Conway @time: 3

> This is no small matter. All sorts of professing Christians look to enter in based on yesterday’s victories or yesterday’s whatever. And they procrastinating expect to somehow live for Christ tomorrow. This writer is saying that neither of those types of Christianity work as far as striving after God’s rest. The Christianity of the Bible is the today kind of Christianity.

It was unbelief which led to these people’s sin of idolatry and covetousness which prevented them from entering into God’s rest:

> Hebrews 3:7-15 - Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness, where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years. Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, They always go astray in their heart; they have not known my ways. As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest. Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:16-19 - For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

> Hebrews 4:7-11 - again he appoints a certain day, Today, saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts. For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. (ESV)

It was idolatry that was the disobedience which prevented these from entering into God's rest:

> I Corinthians 10:1-14 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:14-31 - Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. I speak as to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. Consider the people of Israel: are not those who eat the sacrifices participants in the altar? What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? All things are lawful, but not all things are helpful. All things are lawful, but not all things build up. Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor. Eat whatever is sold in the meat market without raising any question on the ground of conscience. For the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof. If one of the unbelievers invites you to dinner and you are disposed to go, eat whatever is set before you without raising any question on the ground of conscience. But if someone says to you, This has been offered in sacrifice, then do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience— I do not mean your conscience, but his. For why should my liberty be determined by someone else's conscience? If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of that for > which I give thanks? So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. (ESV)

Friendship with the world, like idolatry, is demonic and, would prevent a person from entering into God's rest:

> James 4:4-5 - You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. Or do you suppose it is to no purpose that the Scripture says, He yearns jealously over the spirit that he has made to dwell in us? (ESV)

Bitter jealousy and selfish ambition is "earthly", "unspiritual", and "demonic":

> James 3:14-17 - But if you have bitter (G4089 pikron) jealousy (G2205 zēlon) and selfish ambition (G2052 eritheian; self-interest) in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth. This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but is earthly (G1919 epigeios), unspiritual (G5591 psychikē -> psuchikos -> psuche, what is natural, as it relates to physical, tangible life alone apart from God's inworking of faith), demonic (G1141 daimoniōdēs; of the devil / demon-like). For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:3 - Do nothing from rivalry or conceit (G2052 eritheian; self-interest/rivalry/conceit/selfish-ambition/strife/bitter-conflict), but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. (ESV)

> There's a land of rest that we may enter now, Freed from all our works and freed from Satan's power, Just resting in the Lord each moment and each hour. There's a land of rest that we may enter now.

> Jeremiah 20:9 - If I say, I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name, there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot. (ESV)

If you keep Jesus' commandments then the Spirit of Truth will come to you, and help you, and be in you. If we obey Jesus, the Holy Spirit helps us, even before He's inside us:

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

5.16.3 Obedience to Jesus has everything to do with receiving Him, and receiving Salvation

> Hebrews 3:18 - And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? (ESV)

> Ezekiel 33:31 - And they come to you as people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear what you say but they will not do it; for with lustful talk in their mouths they act; their heart is set on their gain. (ESV)

Jesus' sheep follow Jesus. Jesus knows them:

> John 10:25-28 - Jesus answered them, I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me, but you do not believe because you are not part of my flock. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. But you do not believe (G4100 pisteuo) because you are not of My sheep. My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow (G190 akoloutheo) Me; and I give eternal life to them, and they will never perish; and no one will snatch them out of My hand. (NASB)

The gospel teaches us to serve the Lord Jesus. Those who teach others that the gospel does not, are deceivers, and they do not obey Jesus.

> Matthew 7:16 - You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? (ESV)
>
> I Peter 5:14 - Greet one another with the kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

The gospel teaches us to serve the Lord Jesus.

> Romans 14:18 - Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)
>
> Romans 16:17-20 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
>
> II Chronicles 7:14 - if my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land. (ESV)
>
> II Corinthians 13:14 - The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. (ESV)

5.16.4 Disobedience

Let us continue following and obeying Jesus, and not turn back:

> John 6:66 - After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him.
>
> Luke 9:62 - Jesus said to him, No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God. (ESV)

Judas betrayed Jesus after being chosen:

> John 6:70-71 - Jesus answered them, Did I not choose you, the Twelve? And yet one of you is a devil. He spoke of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he, one of the Twelve, was going to betray him.
> Hebrews 6:4-8 - For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, if they then fall away, since they are crucifying once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt. For land that has drunk the rain that often falls on it, and produces a crop useful to those for whose sake it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God. But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed, and its end is to be burned. (ESV)

Judas fell by transgression which necessitates a lack of faith:

Acts 1:25 - to receive the share of this ministration and apostleship, from which Judas, by transgression, did fall, to go on to his proper place;' (YLT)

Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

I John 3:4 - Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

John 17:12 - While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. I have guarded them, and not one of them has been lost except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. (ESV)

II Thessalonians 2:3 - Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: God's Delight in Obedience

I Samuel 15:22-23 - And Samuel said, Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king. (ESV)

5.16.5 The way is easy that leads to destruction

Matthew 7:13-16 - Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow (4728 stenos ie. narrow, small) and the way is hard (2346 thlibó - meaning: like when circumstances "rub us the wrong way" that make us feel confined (hemmed in); restricted to a "narrow" place) that leads to life, and those who find it are few. Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?

I'm not the judge. But Jesus's words which He left us will be the judge.

5.16.6 Narrow gate

II Peter 1:5-10 - For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. (ESV)

Hebrews 4:11 - Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. (ESV)

Luke 13:24 - Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. (ESV)

I Corinthians 9:24-27 - Do you not know that in a race all the runners compete, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it. Every athlete exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. So I do not run aimlessly; I do not box as one beating the air. But I discipline my body and keep it under control, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:12-13 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

Asking Jesus to save me:
I can only say that salvation was a total gift for me, an unrighteous sinner. But I'm still working it out.

5.16.7 The narrow gate vitally requires submitting to God's righteousness. We need God's forgiveness and His justification that comes through faith

> Romans 3:21-26 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

> Romans 10:3 - For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. (ESV)

Like the following example of the tax collector, we must submit to God's righteousness:

> Luke 18:9-14 - He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.

Jesus is the Lamb of God. We must accept God's forgiveness through faith in Jesus:

> John 1:29 - The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!

God's righteousness is received by faith - through obedience to the gospel:

- Romans 3:25 - whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. (ESV)

We must receive atonement for sin through faith.

The tax collector in the story above has an obedient and believing heart. The tax collector has faith. It's not our own righteousness which is sufficient, but Jesus Christ's righteousness imputed onto us when we are in Him. We must have faith in Jesus.

5.16.8 We have to receive the Kingdom like a child. Don't resist Jesus or His teachings - follow Jesus

I accept that I need Jesus to have mercy on me. Because my own righteousness isn't good enough. I want to obey Jesus for the rest of my life, and live for Him, and I trust Him because I believe His gospel. I know that the Holy Spirit goes to those who obey Him.

> Luke 18:15-17 - Now they were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them. And when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. But Jesus called them to him, saying, Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it.

And I'm still trusting and having faith in Jesus Christ even up until now. So while through obedience to Jesus we are saved, Jesus is still the source of that salvation:

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him,

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.

Jesus gave us teachings:

> Luke 12:33-34 - Sell your possessions, and give to the needy. Provide yourselves with moneybags that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. (ESV)

The Apostle Paul taught these teachings, and taught people to remember Jesus' teachings:

> Acts 20:35 - In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. (ESV)

And the Holy Spirit helps us to follow His teaching:

> Luke 24:49 - And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high. (ESV)

Those who seek to know Jesus, following His commandments, may receive His Spirit:

> John 14:16-21 - And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

5.16.9 We have to believe in and obey Jesus. We all fall short but we still must have faith in Jesus

He is the Light, and He wants to give us the light of life but we have to allow Him to lead us:

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

We have to obey Jesus and take heed to all that He has said. Those who don't take heed to His words walk in darkness:

> John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil.

Jesus is God's Son. Jesus is the Lamb of God. Jesus is God the Son of God.

> Psalms 49:7-9,15 - Truly no man can ransom another, or give to God the price of his life, for the ransom of their life is costly and can never suffice, that he should live on forever and never see the pit. But God will ransom my soul from the power of Sheol, for he will receive me. Selah (ESV)

We must receive the redemption that is in Christ Jesus through faith:

> Romans 3:22-25 - the righteousness of God through faith (G4102 pistis) in Jesus Christ for all who believe (G4100 pisteuo). For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God displayed publicly as a propitiation in His blood through faith. This was to demonstrate His righteousness, because in the forbearance of God He passed over the sins previously committed;

The redemption in Christ Jesus is a gift, and is a substitutionary atonement that is received through faith in Jesus.

As far as glory goes, or sharing in Jesus' holiness, I think in part this works like a blood transfusion, that should be received by faith, faith which includes the belief of faith and the obedience of faith, such as obedience to the discipline of Christ, that should yield the peaceful fruit of righteousness:

> II Corinthians 5:21 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

We should be sanctified by the Truth, as we trust in God, trust in Jesus, trust in God's Word:

> John 17:8-26 - For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am praying for them. I am not praying for the world but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. I have guarded them, and not one of them has been lost except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me. Father, I desire that they also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory that you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father, even though the world does not know you, I know you, and these know that you have sent me. I made known to them your name, and I will continue to make it known, that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.

We're not being justified by our works - we've already been redeemed, and we are justified by faith in Jesus, but we are also sanctified by faith in Jesus Christ. God is the one who justifies:

> Romans 3:21-26 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that > is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

We must be obedient to God, we must be obedient to Jesus, repenting and following His commandments to share His holiness:

> Hebrews 12:9-11 - Besides this, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? For they disciplined us for a short time as it seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. (ESV)

We're not being justified by our works - we've already been redeemed, but we do works out of love for Jesus, and out of ongoing faith, ongoing obedience:

> Titus 3:8 - The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people. (ESV)

We accept that God justifies us, given we place our faith in Jesus, and that means trusting Jesus. Then we continue following Jesus out of faithful obedience.

All of these I believe belong under the umbrella of faith, not works:

- Taking communion is not 'dead works'. It's obedience / walking in obedient faith.
- Getting baptised is not 'dead works'. It's obedience / walking in obedient faith.
- Obeying Jesus Christ's commandments are not 'dead works'. It's obedience / walking in obedient faith.

Faith presses on, faithful to Jesus, walking in the manner which Jesus walked - even to spend the rest of the time on earth being obedient to Jesus to know Jesus and the power of His resurrection, becoming like Him in His death (i.e. being faithful to God, stopping sin, exercising righteousness, becoming a scapegoat (James 5:6), even to death like the Apostles, sharing in His sufferings, living has He lived) and His resurrection:

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus' name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God's ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth. This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

God will be the judge of who has had faith in Jesus; who has obeyed Him and who has trusted in Him and who has made Him their Lord and who has accepted Him as their Saviour.

> John 12:48 - The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day.

> Hebrews 10:10-17 - And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying, This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds, then he adds, I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.

> Hebrews 10:26 - For if we go on sinning willfully after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

God please forgive and heal us.

5.16.10 All judgement has been given to Jesus

We must love Jesus and follow Him. Jesus is the judge. Our obedience to Jesus matters. Because the righteousness of God is received through faith. We are implored to strive to follow Jesus to our best ability:

> John 5:17-29 - But Jesus answered them, My Father is working until now, and I am working. This was why the Jews were seeking all the more to kill him, because not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God. So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise. For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing. And greater works than these will he show him, so that you may marvel. For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed from death to life. Truly, truly, I say to you, an hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself. And he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man. Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment. (ESV)

5.16.11 The gospel has to be obeyed

Read gbtseminary.org: Cheap Grace: Bonhoeffer and the Cost of Discipleship - Grace Bible Theological Seminary

> II Thessalonians 1:4-8 - Therefore we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions that you are enduring. This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering— since indeed God considers it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you, and to grant relief to you who are afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

> I Peter 4:12-19 - Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. But let none of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler. Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And If the righteous is scarcely saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner? Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good.

Faith in God is obedient. Faith in Jesus is obedient:

> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)

> Isaiah 26:3-4 - You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock. (ESV)

While people may debate whether faith is exactly obedience, we must conclude that there is at least some overlap. Faith is obedient because it's commanded. True obedience to Jesus qualifies as loving Jesus:

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

It might also be said that true obedience to Jesus can only be done in faith. Because what does not proceed from faith is sin (Romans 14:23).

We know that true faith is obedient to the commandment of God. To say that faith isn't obedient is heresy:

> I John 3:22-23 - and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

> Romans 16:25-27 - Now to him who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith— to the only wise God be glory forevermore through Jesus Christ! Amen. (ESV)

Jesus wants us to keep His commandments. If a person keeps Jesus' commandments and abides by His teachings then that surely shows they have agape love for Jesus and I don't believe a person can have agape love for Jesus without faith in Him. Jesus has authority to command the wind and the waves and even demons but the type of obedience I think Jesus wants from us is to keep His Law in unity of faith, truth and love:

> II Corinthians 10:5-7 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. Look at what is before your eyes. If anyone is confident that he is Christ's, let him remind himself that just as he is Christ's, so also are we. (ESV)

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

> Titus 1:9 - He must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it. (ESV)

> Psalms 81:12-15 - So I gave them up to their stubborn hearts to follow their own devices. If only My people would listen to Me, if Israel would follow My ways, how soon I would subdue their enemies and turn My hand against their foes! Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever. (engbsb2020eb)

The gospel of Jesus is in accordance to sound doctrine, and being lawless and disobedient is contrary to sound doctrine:

> I Timothy 1:5-11 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. Certain persons, by swerving from these, have wandered away into vain discussion, desiring to be teachers of the law, without understanding either what they are saying or the things about which they make confident assertions. Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, the sexually immoral, men who practice homosexuality, enslavers, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine, in accordance with the glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted. (ESV)

We renounce ungodliness and live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in the present age:

> Titus 2:9-14 - Slaves are to be submissive to their own masters in everything; they are to be well-pleasing, not argumentative, not pilfering, but showing all good faith, so that in everything they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior. For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

Whilst I like to make a distinction between the words obedience and 'works', the following verse illustrates that there is some overlap between faith and good works, and thus faith and obedience:

> James 2:18 - But someone will say, You have faith and I have works. Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

Where there is perfect belief, I think there is perfect obedience. i.e. if we hold firm to belief in Jesus, keeping and believing His sayings and obey Jesus through testing, we have eternal life and will see life:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

- G4100 (pisteuōn): This is the present participle form of the verb ” ” (G4100 pisteuō), meaning ”to believe” or ”to have faith.” In the participle form, it functions as a verbal adjective and can be translated as ”believing.”

  I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)
>
> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

I am confident also that if we hold firm to obedience in Jesus keeping and obeying His sayings and believe Jesus through testing, we have eternal life and will see life:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

Bonhoeffer seems to have a very similar view to my own Though we are not saved by our works, Bonhoeffer believes that there is a great peril in ascribing "chronological distinctions" between belief (faith) and obedience as some often do. He believes that if we divorce the two (faith/obedience) we will inevitably overlook their essential unity to our detriment. You cannot have one without the other. Bonhoeffer says it like this, "Only he who believes is obedient, and only he who is obedient believes."

> Matthew 5:44-45 - But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven; for He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

> Matthew 5:48 - Therefore you are to be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

This is talking about loving fellow human beings:

> Didache Chapter 1 - ... Bless those who curse you, and pray for your enemies, and fast for those who persecute you. For what reward is there for loving those who love you? Do not the Gentiles do the same? But love those who hate you, and you shall not have an enemy. ...

We still have enemies (that is, the forces of evil, satan and satan's demons and his fallen angels, principalities, powers etc.):

> I Peter 5:8 - Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. (ESV)

> Ephesians 6:12 - For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. (ESV)

Loving all people or forgiving them for wrongs against you doesn't mean approving of sin. Forgiveness involves letting go, not bearing a grudge and not pushing God to get justice (in the form of compensation/"making them cough up") for what you perceive as wrongs done against you, because agape love is "merciful". We should speak the truth:

> Acts 24:16 - So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man. (ESV)

> Romans 12:20 - To the contrary, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head. (ESV)

> Proverbs 14:25 - A truthful witness saves lives, but one who breathes out lies is deceitful. (ESV)

We want others to come to the truth:

> Acts 26:29 - And Paul said, Whether short or long, I would to God that not only you but also all who hear me this day might become such as I am—except for these chains. (ESV)

I think Mari would be better to have said, ”By loving God and keeping His commandments, a person loves their neighbour, which is our duty as Christians.” Sure, love everyone, even no-believres, but in the way that Jesus Christ loves them and that includes speaking the truth to them and bearing with them in patience that they will repent. But loving them doesn't mean affirming error or endorsing a sinful way of life:

Quote from Mari Mari Emmanuel So fear nothing, love everyone, but be firm when it comes to speaking the truth. Truth cannot be compromised. … The one who is all love, He was sharper than a sword; When it came to holding the Truth, fighting for the Truth, He stood firm, never gave way, never compromised. Now that is love. If you truly love someone, wouldn't you want them to be living in the Truth? If you truly love the person, you will tell them, ”This is right… This is wrong…”

> John 8:44 - You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. (ESV)

5.16.12 God will be the judge of who has had faith in Jesus, and who has obeyed Him. I wouldn't take obedience lightly

> Luke 20:13-18 - Then the owner of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him. But when the tenants saw him, they said to themselves, This is the heir. Let us kill him, so that the inheritance may be ours. And they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others. When they heard this, they said, Surely not! But he looked directly at them and said, What then is this that is written: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone? Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, and when it falls on anyone, it will crush him.

5.16.13 Jesus was extremely humble here. Likewise, we should be able to recognise that we need Him as our Lord looking over us

Also, Jesus didn't actually deny that He is good:

> Luke 18:18-19 - And a ruler asked him, Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone.

> Isaiah 64:6 - We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. (ESV)

Here also, Jesus asks a question regarding something without denying it as Peter was indeed to die a Martyr's death:

> John 13:37-38 - Peter said to him, Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for you. Jesus answered, Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the rooster will not crow till you have denied me three times. (ESV)

> John 21:18-29 - Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you used to dress yourself and walk wherever you wanted, but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go. (This he said to show by what kind of death he was to glorify God.) And after saying this he said to him, Follow me. Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them, the one who had been reclining at table close to him and had said, Lord, who is it that is going to betray you? When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, Lord, what about this man? Jesus said to him, If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow me! So the saying spread abroad among the brothers that this disciple was not to die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he was not to die, but, If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? This is the disciple who is bearing witness about these things, and who has written these > things, and we know that his testimony is true. Now there are also many other things that Jesus did. Were every one of them to be written, I suppose that the world itself could not contain the books that would be written. In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. To them he presented himself alive after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. And while staying with them he ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, you heard from me; (ESV)

Fox's Book of Martys is not Scripture, but here is what it says regarding the Apostle Peter's martyrdom:

Fox's Book of Martyrs (Author: Foxe, John, 1516-1587. A historical account written in the mid-16th cen

> Among many other saints, the blessed apostle Peter was condemned to death, and crucified, as some do write, at Rome; albeit some others, and not without cause, do doubt thereof. Hegesippus saith that Nero sought matter against Peter to put him to death; which, when the people perceived, they entreated Peter with much ado that he would fly the city. Peter, through their importunity at length persuaded, prepared himself to avoid. But, coming to the gate, he saw the Lord Christ come to meet him, to whom he, worshipping, said, "Lord, whither dost Thou go?" To whom He answered and said, "I am come again to be crucified." By this, Peter, perceiving his suffering to be understood, returned into the city. Jerome saith that he was crucified, his head being down and his feet upward, himself so requiring, because he was (he said) unworthy to be crucified after the same form and manner as the Lord was.

Nevertheless, we should follow Jesus.

5.16.14 Let us serve Jesus Christ in truth, and have confidence

> I John 3:21 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God;

> Hebrews 3:14 - For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end.

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world.

5.16.15 We must recognise that where our efforts to obey falls short, Jesus's blood covers us. But we must still have the heart to make Jesus our Lord and King, and be following Him

But we must be walking in the light, just as He is in the light.

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

So the blood of Jesus covers us while we are following Him.

The Apostle John's children/disciples were walking in love while walking in the truth, and rejecting offerings from Gentiles who were not walking in the truth:

> III John 1:4-8 - I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth. Beloved, it is a faithful thing you do in all your efforts for these brothers, strangers as they are, who testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God. For they have gone out for the sake of the name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles. Therefore we ought to support people like these, that we may be fellow workers for the truth. (ESV)

I really affirm Christa's message:

youtube.com: THE BATTLE IS IN YOUR MIND!! If you're asking the Lord, "Will you cleanse my will? Will you cleanse my emotions, my heart?

"Cleanse my body with the blood of Jesus. I plead the blood of Jesus over 'so and so'. I plead the blood of Jesus over their mind, over their heart, heal them."

You know, if you start saying this it might really help you, okay, because it's helped me. It has helped me tremendously. And just to encourage you all, just renounce and cancel stuff from the enemy. close those doors, okay.

We got to lead a life of repentance and when you do that friends you are more you are more protected, and you are more covered.

I John 1:6-9

But if you're over there and you're not coming out of agreement with sin if you are not asking the Lord to forgive you of your sin we get be become dirty we become spiritually dirty. And we want to become spiritually clean because when we are spiritually clean we can hear the voice of God.

II Corinthians 7:1

When we are spiritually clean we can see the things of the lord, we can hear things, and he can speak to us more.

We can hear him more when we are spiritually clean.

Walking in the light is about walking in the Truth and God's guidance, God's will for us, God's instruction for us:

> Psalms 43:3 - Send out your light and your truth; let them lead me; let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling! (ESV)

> Psalms 119:105 - Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. (ESV)

The ones in the light agape their family in Christ:

> I John 2:9 - Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. (ESV)

The ones in the light practice the truth. Confessing the truth, even the truth of when we have sinned, that is something which people who walk in the light (practice the truth) do:

> I John 1:6-9 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

We should be cleansing ourselves of every defilement of body, and spirit with faith, the Word of God and the Spirit of God:

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body (4561. sarx) and spirit (4151. pneuma), bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

God cleanses our hearts as we practice our faith in Him:

> Acts 15:9 - and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)

We walk in the light (God's light, truth) in trust, faith, obedience:

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

We should be seeking Him out with our heart:

> Jeremiah 29:13 - You will seek me and find me. When you seek me with all your heart, (ESV)
>
> Proverbs 8:17 - I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me. (ESV)
>
> Psalms 14:2 - The LORD looks down from heaven on the children of man, to see if there are any who understand, who seek after God. (ESV)
> Psalms 24:3-4 - Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. (ESV)
> Hebrews 10:22 - let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. (ESV)

Jesus can see it and Jesus can heal the heart - sprinkled clean as Hebrews 10:22 says:

> Jeremiah 17:9-10 - The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately sick; who can understand it? I the LORD search the heart and test the mind, to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds. (ESV)

When I read Jeremiah 17:9 or Romans 3:3-20, I only think of it as ”falling short”, not as ”total depravity”. I believe people can do good and evil. But without the atonement we can't be made perfect. This is the way I believe that Paul the Apostle also viewed it:

> Romans 3:21-26 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

We must do good. Christians must do good. Those who are self-seeking and do not obey the Truth, who do not obey Jesus, there will be wrath and fury:

> Romans 2:5-11 - But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but _for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

Even after we have been healed by Jesus, and also as we are being healed by Jesus, we must turn away from evil and do good. We must obey Jesus rather than obey sin:

> John 5:11-14 - But he answered them, The man who healed me, that man said to me, Take up your bed, and walk. They asked him, Who is the man who said to you, Take up your bed and walk? Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in the place. Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you. (ESV)

5.16.16 Do not condemn others. Speak the truth and leave judgement to the Judge

There is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. Jesus has said, ”Do not condemn and you will not be condemned.”

It follows that we can’t condemn our family in Christ because in Christ Jesus there is no condemnation.

Those who are one in Spirit with Jesus Christ need to love one-another as themselves. Whoever hates their brother abides in death. So if a person were to tell someone who is in Christ to ”go to hell” and they really meant it and they do not repent from this, then that is the type of thing, I believe that is ”not remaining in Jesus”.

Maintain faith in Jesus. Remain in Him:

> John 15:4-7 - Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me. I am the vine and you are the branches. The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For apart from Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in Me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers. Such branches are gathered up, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you remain in Me and My words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (engbsb2020eb)

Analogy for abiding in Jesus Since Jesus is the Telos of the Law and we’re not ”under the Law” but ”law-abiding” to Christ’s law then the person ”under the Law” trying to fulfill the whole law might be compared to a person who is walking to a train station but the journey is impossibly difficult. God has done this in Jesus Christ. What is impossible for man to have done, Jesus did. And the other thing God does which is impossible for man to do without God is put us into Christ. According to the metaphor, then, God then puts us at the train station. And the person who is ”law-abiding” to Christ’s law would be someone who has come to Jesus, someone who Father God has drawn to Christ, and is now at the metaphorical train station (Jesus Christ who is the Telos of the law). God put them at the train station in Jesus. And Jesus asks us to ”remain in Him”. And so the analogy would be ”remain at the train station” (i.e. You’re already there, just don’t leave the train station). Jesus won’t expell you (i.e. no-one can snatch us from His hand) but He asks you to remain (i.e. abide) in Him. Don’t go off wondering away. Don’t leave the metaphorical train station. We examine ourselves to see if we are in the faith. For example, if we hate our brother then we have left the train station. If we do not believe Jesus is the Son of God then we have left the train station, and like the prodigal son, we must return to God by repentance. If we the branches remain in a place of not abiding in Christ then we wither. And at the end of the age the branches that are not abiding in Jesus are collected and burned.

A person can by faith out of Jesus’ words not condemn believing that they will not be condemned if they do not condemn. I would imagine that that person would probably receive persecution if they are by faith in Jesus’ words avoiding condemning others, but realise that under persecution, they would have to not condemn those persecuting them!

What I can’t say is whether or not a person would be condemned if a person did condemn another. If a murderous disbeliever was stopped in their actions to prevent them from killing someone and they were stopped by lethal force in an effort to preserve the lives of others, then that’s in a different category. I wouldn’t say it’s condemning a righteous person. I’d say the loss of life should be avoided though, as God would want even that person to repent.

> James 5:6 - You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous person. He does not resist you. (ESV)

But condemning sin is OK, for sure. Saying those who reject Jesus are condemned is OK. Saying that those who do not repent but continue loving the darkness rather than the light will be condemned is correct and OK to say.

It’s safe to just entrust oneself to a faithful Creator while doing good, rather than to retaliate:

> I Peter 4:19 - Therefore let those who suffer according to God’s will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)

> John 8:11 - She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more.]] (ESV)

We are allowed to say that the world's works are evil:

> John 7:7 - The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. (ESV)
>
> John 16:23 - Whoever hates me hates my Father also. (ESV)
>
> John 8:16-18 - Yet even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for it is not I alone who judge, but I and the Father who sent me. In your Law it is written that the testimony of two men is true. I am the one who bears witness about myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness about me.
> Luke 6:37 - , Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; (ESV)

Jesus is also extremely merciful to the woman who was brought before Jesus:

> John 8:10-11 - Jesus stood up and said to her, Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you? She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more. (ESV)

5.16.17 Jesus Christ is the word of life, Jesus Christ is the eternal life

> I John 1:1-3 - That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we looked upon and have touched with our hands, concerning the word of life— the life was made manifest, and we have seen it, and testify to it and proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was made manifest to us— that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. (ESV)

That is why we must believe in Him and obey His commandments:

> I John 5:3-5 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)

5.16.18 Simply tell the truth from God. We must not reject Jesus

> John 8:21-24 - So he said to them again, I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come. So the Jews said, Will he kill himself, since he says, Where I am going, you cannot come? He said to them, You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins.

We must follow Jesus for eternal life:

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.

Jesus knows Father God, and Jesus keeps His word. Likewise, we must follow Jesus and keep His word. Jesus is obedient to Father God. We must be obedient to Jesus Christ:

> John 8:55-58 - But you have not known him. I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and I keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day. He saw it and was glad. So the Jews said to him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham? Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am.

> John 10:27-29 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

5.16.19 Jesus is Almighty God's Son and is sitting in Power next to His Father

Jesus obeyed His Father - He willed to do His Father's will:

> Luke 22:41-42 - And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, saying, Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done. (ESV)

> John 6:38 - For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. (ESV)

Jesus obeyed Father God perfectly and became the source of salvation to all who obey Him:

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

> John 17:19 - And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. (ESV)

We serve Jesus so Jesus is our Master:

> John 13:16 - Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

Serving Jesus brings Father God glory:

> John 15:8 - By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. (ESV)

Jesus being in the form of God took the form of the likeness of men:

> Philippians 2:5-7 - Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 8:9 - For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich. (ESV)

Jesus was appointed by God, learned obedience and made a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek:

> Hebrews 5:5-10 - So also Christ did not exalt himself to be made a high priest, but was appointed by him who said to him, You are my Son, today I have begotten you; as he says also in another place, You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek. In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

Jesus is One with Almighty God and their will is in perfect alignment. Jesus demonstrated perfect obedience to Father God:

> John 10:30 - I and the Father are one.
> John 5:30 - I can do nothing on my own. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is just, because I seek not my own will but the will of him who sent me. (ESV)

Father God has been working through Jesus, His Son:

> John 14:8-10 - Philip said to him, Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us. Jesus said to him, Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, Show us the Father? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. (ESV)

Even throughout His ministry on earth, He had power over nature - the power of Father God:

> Mark 4:35-41 - On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, Let us go across to the other side. And leaving the crowd, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. And other boats were with him. And a great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already filling. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. And they woke him and said to him, Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing? And he awoke and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, Peace! Be still! And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. He said to them, Why are you so afraid? Have you still no faith? And they were filled with great fear and said to one another, Who then is this, that even wind and sea obey him? (ESV)
> John 17:4 - I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do. (ESV)
>
> John 17:7 - Now they know that everything that you have given me is from you. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 28:16-20 - Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. (ESV)
> Revelation of John 3:12 - The one who conquers, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God. Never shall he go out of it, and I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down from my God out of heaven, and my own new name. (ESV)

Father God keeps us in His name so that we may be one with Them:

> John 17:10-11 - All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. (ESV)

By posing the question, Jesus doesn't deny that he is good. But we agree, affirming what Jesus has spoken that God is good:

> Mark 10:18 - And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. (ESV)

Mathetes to Diognetus For, who of men at all understood before His coming what God is? Do you accept of the vain and silly doctrines of those who are deemed trustworthy philosophers? … But such declarations are simply the startling and erroneous utterances of deceivers; and no man has either seen Him, or made Him known, but He has revealed Himself. And He has manifested Himself through faith, to which alone it is given to behold God. For God, the Lord and Fashioner of all things, who made all things, and assigned them their several positions, proved Himself not merely a friend of mankind, but also long-suffering [in His dealings with them.] Yea, He was always of such a character, and still is, and will ever be, kind and good, and dispassionate (~~free from wrath~~), and true, and the only one who is [absolutely] good; and He formed in His mind a great and unspeakable conception, which He communicated to His Son alone. As long, then, as He held and preserved His own wise counsel in concealment, He appeared to neglect us, and to have no care over us. But after He revealed and laid open, through His beloved Son, the things which had been prepared from the beginning, He conferred every blessing all at once upon us, so that we should both share in His benefits, and see and be active [in His service]. Who of us would ever have expected these things? He was aware, then, of all things in His own mind, along with His Son, according to the relation subsisting between them.

I believe there is only one good shepherd, and that is Jesus Christ, Immanuel (God with us, God incarnate, and not merely in the flesh, but the Word became flesh):

> John 10:14-15 - I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. (ESV)
> I Peter 2:24-25 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 13:20-21 - Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)
> John 1:14 - And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)

Jesus makes intercession for those who draw near to God through Him:

> Hebrews 7:25 - Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

Likewise, the Holy Spirit is Almighty God:

> Isaiah 48:16-17 - Draw near to me, hear this: from the beginning I have not spoken in secret, from the time it came to be I have been there. And now the Lord GOD has sent me, and his Spirit. Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you in the way you should go. (ESV)
>
> Acts 5:3-4 - But Peter said, Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back for yourself part of the proceeds of the land? While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not at your disposal? Why is it that you have contrived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God. (ESV)
> Matthew 3:16-17 - And when Jesus was baptized, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; and behold, a voice from heaven said, This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. (ESV)

Immanuel or Emmanuel is a Hebrew name that appears in Isaiah 7:14 as a sign that God will protect the House of David:

> Matthew 1:21-23 - She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins. All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel (which means, God with us). (ESV)
>
> Matthew 1:24-25 - When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him: he took his wife, but knew her not until she had given birth to a son. And he called his name Jesus. (ESV)
> Isaiah 7:10-20 - Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz, Ask a sign of the LORD your God; let it be deep as Sheol or high as heaven. But Ahaz said, I will not ask, and I will not put the LORD to the test. And he said, Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary men, that you weary my God also? Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. He shall eat curds and honey when he knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good. For before the boy knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be deserted. The LORD will bring upon you and upon your people and upon your father's house such days as have not come since the day that Ephraim departed from Judah—the king of Assyria. In that day the LORD will whistle for the fly that is at the end of the streams of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. And they will all come and settle in the steep ravines, and in the clefts of the rocks, and on all the thornbushes, and on all the pastures. In that day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired beyond the River—with the king of Assyria—the head and the hair of the feet, and it will sweep away the beard also. (ESV)

Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. We believe in one God, the Father almighty,
      maker of heaven and earth,
      of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
      the only-begotten Son of God, of the same essence as the Father.

      Through him all things were made.
      For us and for our salvation
           he came down from heaven;
           he became incarnate by the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary,

The Father is the Father. He is the origin of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. The Son is the only begotten of the Father and the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father.

That which they do not share in common they share uniquely meaning that only the Father is the Father, only the Son is the Son and only the Holy Spirit is the Holy Spirit.

The development of the concept of the papacy we think is directly a tied to this downplaying of the presence of the Holy Spirit that naturally follows the invention of the Filioquay doctrine. And it culminated in 1870 with the so-called dogma of "Papal infallibility".

The Holy Spirit of Yahweh is also the Spirit of Christ:

Romans 8:9-17 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh > you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. So Philip ran to him and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet and asked, Do you understand what you are reading? And he said, How can I, unless someone guides me? And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. Now the passage of the Scripture that he was reading was this: Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter and like a lamb before its shearer is silent, so he opens not his mouth. In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth. > No, no, Jesus is called the monogenēs (G3439) for a very specific reason; what makes Jesus unique among all other sons of God? He's Yahweh. He has the unique set of attributes of Yahweh. He was the son who preexisted his birth. Okay, that one is the one that God sent to be an offering for sin. None of the other ones, that one. So you can have multiple sons of God who are supernatural beings, that doesn't impinge on the uniqueness of Jesus anymore that it impinges on the uniqueness of Yahweh, because Jesus is the Son. Okay, Trinitarian Godhead thing.

> Question; was Isaac, Abraham's only son? No, he'd already had a boy, Ishmael. In fact, Isaac wasn't even the firstborn. At least of all Abraham's sons. He's the firstborn of Sarah. But why would Isaac be called monogenēs? Why would Isaac be unique? It's because he was the son of Sarah by supernatural act of God and he was the inheritor of the covenant. None of Abraham's other sons could say that. Okay, what's the point? The point is that the term means unique, and we can see that in this parallel. This is why Isaac is specifically isolated, it doesn't mean the only one that exists.

youtube.com: Why Does It Matter That Christ Was 'Begotten, Not Made'? {@desiringGod} @time: 2

> I think a compelling case can be made biblically from the first 14 verses of the Gospel of John. That phrase begotten not made is biblical. So John begins like this in the beginning was the word and the word was with god and the word was God. He (this word is a person) was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him and without Him was not anything made that was made.

That's verses 1 through 3 of John 1. And then he adds [in] verse 14: That Word, the Word, became flesh - so we're talking Jesus Christ - that Word became flesh and dwelt among us and we have seen His glory, glory as of the Only (and the Old King James said, 'Only-Begotten' - i'll come back to that) Son. So what I'm focusing on here is sonship is introduced. What he called Word in verse 1, he called Son in verse 14. Son from the father full of grace and truth. Now, there's a good deal of dispute over whether the Greek term monogenés means Only Son or Only-Begotten Son. Now here's the catch, and I want all just ordinary run-of-the-mill faithful pastors and teachers to take heart, I don't think the truth of the doctrine of begotten not made depends on the translation of that verb. If it did, we would we would be in the middle of a dispute that continues. What is essential is that in the first three verses of this gospel the Word of God is said to be God and to be with God: In the beginning was the Word and the Word was God and the Word was with God, meaning you have two Persons, God and the Word of God, and the second Person the Word of God is God and with God. And then it says that through the Word everything was made that was made, and that precise wording rules out the possibility that the Word of God itself was made because everything that is in the category of made or coming into being was in fact brought into being (was made) by the Word, which means He's not in that category, he was not made. Then verse 14 uses sonship language - quite apart from whether you say Only Son or Only-Begotten Son - He's Son. Sonship language to describe the relationship between God and the Word. Not only is the Word God, the Word is also Son of God, which means that what is said about the Word applies to the Son, and what was said about the word was he was not made.

So how then does the Son exist? As Son. Not as Father, but as Son. If we just stay with the language of Son and Father, the answer would be not made but begotten - that's what Sons are. Sons are begotten; That's what it means to be the son of a father. But this begetting of the Son clearly then is very unique, I mean it's really different because this Son, this Word had no beginning.

In the beginning was God, the Word of God was there and God was there and the two of them were eternally there. God was the Word, the Word was God, they had no beginning.

He was always there with God as God. So the text itself pushes us to the conclusion that the peculiar kind of begetting that we're talking about is an eternal begetting.

There never was a time when the Son did not exist and yet He is Son, and not Father. They're not reversible, ever in the New Testament. And the Christian church is right to argue that it is fitting to speak of this eternally existent Son who is God and yet is not the Father.

He has been eternally begotten by the Father - not coming into being but eternally begotten. So the point stressed but biblically and confessionally is that eternal begetting of the Son secures the Son's very same exact nature with the Father. That's the point of Hebrews 1:3. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature. Or Philippians 2:6. Though he was in the form of god he did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped.

Now C.S. Lewis was really criticized for trying to make things understandable for ordinary people but most of us bless him for it, right? Right, and here's what he wrote: when you beget you beget something of the same kind as yourself. A man begets human babies, a beaver begets little beavers and a bird begets eggs which turn into little birds. But when you make you make something different a different kind from yourself, a bird makes a nest, a beaver builds a dam, a man makes a wireless set ... the Son is not a creature, He's not made, He's not different from the very essence and nature of God.

I affirm the doctrine of the Trinity:

> Thus, the Son is not one-third of the being of God; he is all of the being of God. The Father is not one-third of the being of God; he is all of the being of God. And likewise with the Holy Spirit. Thus, as Wayne Grudem writes, "When we speak of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit together we are not speaking of any greater being than when we speak of the Father alone, the Son alone, or the Holy Spirit alone" (Ibid., 252).
> There is only one God. If each Person of the Trinity is distinct and yet truly God, then should we conclude that there is more than one God? Obviously we cannot, for Scripture is clear that there is only one God: "There is no other God besides me, a righteous God and a Savior; there is none besides me. Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other".

> Zechariah 12:10 - And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and pleas for mercy, so that, when they look on me, on him whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a firstborn. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth, before he had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the world. When he established the heavens, I was there; when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master workman, and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the children of man. And now, O sons, listen to me: blessed are those who keep my ways. Hear instruction and be wise, and do not neglect it. Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors. > Ezekiel 36:23 - And I will vindicate the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, and which you have profaned among them. And the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Lord GOD, when through you I vindicate my holiness before their eyes. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 37:13-15 - And you shall know that I am the LORD (H3068. Yhvh), when I open your graves, and raise you from your graves, O my people. And I will put my Spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will do it, declares the LORD. The word of the LORD came to me: (ESV)
> Psalms 111:9 - He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever. Holy and awesome is his name! (ESV)

Isaiah 64:8 (Interlinear) But now Yahweh our Father You [are] we [are] the clay and You our potter and the work of Your hand we all [are]

> Isaiah 64:8 - But now, O LORD, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. (ESV)

When God revealed His name, He also revealed what His name means:

> Exodus 3:13-15 - Then Moses said to God, If I come to the people of Israel and say to them, The God of your fathers has sent me to you, and they ask me, What is his name? what shall I say to them? God said to Moses, I AM WHO I AM. And he said, Say this to the people of Israel, I AM has sent me to you. God also said to Moses, Say this to the people of Israel, The LORD (3068. Yhvh), the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is my name forever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations. (ESV)

Knowing God coincides with keeping His word. I think that if we're having trouble understanding the Godhead, we should try to keep God's word:

> John 8:54-58 - Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, He is our God. But you have not known him. I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and I keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day. He saw it and was glad. So the Jews said to him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham? Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am. (ESV)

God wants us to know Him and obey Him and to do good as He has commanded:

> Hosea 6:5-8 - Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light. For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings. But like Adam they transgressed the covenant; there they dealt faithlessly with me. Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with blood. (ESV)
>
> James 1:22 - But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. (ESV)
> Psalms 90:2 - Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God. (ESV)

John 1:18 (Interlinear) God no one has seen ever yet [the] only begotten God the [One] being in the bosom of the Father He has made [Him] known

> Exodus 3:15 - God also said to Moses, Say this to the people of Israel, The LORD (3068. Yhvh), the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is my name forever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations. (ESV)

Jesus referred to God as Father:

> Mark 14:36 - And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will. (ESV)

Father God put the Spirit of His Son into our heart:

> Galatians 4:6 - And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! (ESV)

And we are adopted:

> Romans 8:15-16 - For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, (ESV)

Jesus also taught us to call the same God our God and Father:

> John 20:17 - Jesus said to her, Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God. (ESV)

We're supposed to do God's will. It's our food to do God's will:

> John 12:27 - Now is my soul troubled. And what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour? But for this purpose I have come to this hour. (ESV)
>
> John 4:34 - Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. (ESV)

Jesus and Father God are very close:

> John 12:28 - Father, glorify your name. Then a voice came from heaven: I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again. (ESV)
>
> John 5:19 - So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise. (ESV)

Jesus pre-existed before Creation:

> John 1:3 - All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. (ESV)
> John 17:5,24 - And now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had with you before the world existed. Father, I desire that they also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory that you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world. (ESV)

Further evidence from Scripture for the Triune nature of God:

> Isaiah 63:8-10 - For he said, Surely they are my people, children who will not deal falsely. And he became their Savior. In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them; in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old. But they rebelled and grieved his Holy Spirit; therefore he turned to be their enemy, and himself fought against them. (ESV)

The Septuagint translation of the Book of Isaiah explains the term in the most explicit language as a reference to God: ”not an ambassador, nor an angel, but the Lord Himself (Greek:) saved them”:

> Isaiah 63:8-10 - And he said, Is it not my people? the children surely will not be rebellious: and he became to them deliverance out of all their affliction: not an ambassador, nor a messenger, but himself saved them, because he loved them and spared them: he himself redeemed them, and took them up, and lifted them up all the days of old. But they disobeyed, and provoked his Holy Spirit: so he turned to be an enemy, he himself contended against them.

The LORD answered the ”Angel of the Lord”. Therefore, they are different persons who can speak to one another:

> Zechariah 1:12-14 - Then the angel of the LORD said, O LORD of hosts, how long will you have no mercy on Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, against which you have been angry these seventy years? And the LORD answered gracious and comforting words to the angel who talked with me. So the angel who talked with me said to me, Cry out, Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am exceedingly jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion. (ESV)

Hastings commentary on Isaiah 63:9 The angel of His Presence.—This singularly beautiful expression carries with it associations which must be dear to every heart. “The angel of his presence”—how the mind loves to linger on the music of those words, and how near they seem to bring us to high and holy things, things unspeakably precious and helpful to our souls! No one can stand in much doubt as to what they mean, strange and unaccustomed though the phrase may be. The “angel of the Lord” is an expression often used in the Old Testament to denote a special manifestation of God Himself; it does not denote a messenger coming from God; it frequently signifies a coming of God into human affairs. The still stronger phrase, “the angel of his presence” certainly denotes any form under which God chooses to make His immediate presence felt by His children. The form chosen may, or may not, be that of an angelic being or a human instrument, but it is always a means whereby God Himself comes right into human experience to help and heal and save.

5.16.20 Faith and law-keeping as a Christian

When it comes to following the law as a Christian, it’s a matter of being accountable to God personally over our own commitment to law adherence while we follow and adhere to Jesus first and foremost, but we should be being sanctified by obedience to the Truth, so we should be becoming more holy and loving and coming to imitate Jesus.

> Romans 7:4-6 - Likewise, my brothers, you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. For while we were living in the flesh, our sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death. But now we are released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve not under the old written code but in the new life of the Spirit. (ESV)

I think it’s safe to say that the Mosaic law still has spiritual importance for Christians, and rather than necessarily being taken literally, the Mosaic Law is profitable (useful) for training in righteousness:

> I Corinthians 9:9-10 - For it is written in the Law of Moses, You shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain. Is it for oxen that God is concerned? Does he not speak entirely for our sake? It was written for our sake, because the plowman should plow in hope and the thresher thresh in hope of sharing in the crop. (ESV)

> II Timothy 3:14-17 - But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work. (ESV)

We pursue righteousness while holding our faith in Jesus, and all of God's Word is useful in instructing us on how to walk righteously:

> II Timothy 3:14-17 - But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work. (ESV)
>
> I Timothy 6:11-16 - But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, to keep the commandment unstained and free from reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will display at the proper time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen. (ESV)

John Piper on Faith and Law-Keeping youtube.com: How Our Faith and Law-Keeping Work Together in the Christian Life

> II Corinthians 3:18 - And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)
>
> Romans 2:11-12 - For God shows no partiality. For all who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. (ESV)

Even Christians as children of the promise are supposed to keep the way of the LORD so that the LORD may bring to Abraham what He has promised to him:

> Genesis 18:17-19 - The LORD said, Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do, seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him? For I have chosen him, that he may command his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice, so that the LORD may bring to Abraham what he has promised him. (ESV)
>
> Romans 9:6-8 - But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel, and not all are children of Abraham because they are his offspring, but Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring. (ESV)

Christians are supposed to "do righteousness" (i.e. from a love of the truth, by faith obey Jesus Christ):

> Genesis 18:19 - For I have chosen him, that he may command his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice, so that the LORD may bring to Abraham what he has promised him. (ESV)
> Ezekiel 18:27 - Again, when a wicked person turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he shall save his life. (ESV)

God is still collecting children of the promise, children of God:

> Hebrews 11:13 - These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. (ESV)

Fear of God is not only about having the heart to repent from sin and "beat hand on chest and ask God for mercy", but it is also having a changed heart, endeavoring to please Christ with our actions:

> II Corinthians 5:6-11 - So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. (ESV)

Disbelief causes disobedience. Disbelief caused the Israelites to not walk in obedience:

> Hebrews 3:16-19 - For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:13 - though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, (ESV)

Jesus was pleased with some of the Israelites here. But we must learn from the example here so that we still walk in righteousness and desire to do good and not evil according to God's precepts but also called to literally not practice evil either, but most importantly to not desire evil/to do evil:

> I Corinthians 10:1-10 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:16-19 - For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses. But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness? And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not? So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief. (KJV)

It's not "having (having possession of) the law" which counts, but "doing it". I think this part of Romans is really talking about how the Law of God is effectively used to judge people. And what's interesting is that it seems as though, through Christ Jesus, God judges the secrets of men, and that happens to all people:

> Romans 2:12-16 - For all who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers (4163. poiétés) of the law who will be justified. For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

In those who walk according to the Spirit, the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled:

> Romans 8:3-4 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

With regards to those that have faith in Christ Jesus, this be thought of as doing the law (loving one another) shows evidence for or confirming a person's faith in Jesus. I honestly believe that obedience and faith are not mutually exclusive, so in obeying Jesus God may make the person born again, and God may justify them. That's up to God. I think that's fine. God tests the hearts:

> Romans 3:26 - It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

We certainly still will to do the will of God after being saved:

> Romans 7:20-22 - Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, (ESV)
>
> Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)
>
> Romans 2:13 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers (4163. poiétés) of the law who will be justified. (ESV)

We of course may be imperfect doers of the law, especially as Christians because we are justified by our faith in Jesus:

Quote by John Piper A person today may be a doer of the law who trusts Jesus as the only basis of their justification before God, who in the power of that faith by the Spirit walks in a manner worthy of the LORD and then at the last judgement Christ will be the basis of our acceptance - Christ alone, the basis of our acceptance with the Father and our life of obedience doing the law will be brought in to confirm that our faith was real, because faith works through love. So "doing the law" will not be the basis of our being in God's favour, but the evidence that we are trusting Christ, united to Christ, and thus necessary at the last day.

AMEN!! This has totally been my stance, but John Piper hit the nail on the head with this one.
We can certainly "be obedient to God's commandments" and that is "doing":

> I Peter 1:14-16 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. (ESV)
>
> Titus 3:3 - For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. (ESV)
>
> James 1:22 - But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. (ESV)
> Hebrews 11:31 - By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given a friendly welcome to the spies. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper The only sin that you can conquer in life is a forgiven sin. The only sin that you can successfully strive against without incurring the judgement of God on your legalism is a forgiven sin. This is glorious. It's a glorious way to become holy.

That's really cool. I think what John Piper says here using the word 'legalism' is that upon confessing a sin and affirming the sinfulness of that sin (if I were to confess (G3670 homologeó) that I consider X to be sinful), and I want to repent from the sin, if Jesus has forgiven it, Jesus has also given us the grace to be healed and set free from it.

> Acts 13:39 - from which you could not be freed by the law of Moses. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

Remember that sin enslaves. Jesus' blood sets us free from sin. Jesus sets us free.

Quote by John Piper Namely, that the only sin that can be successfully fought is a forgiven sin. And not only that, but also since the forgiveness has been secured infallibly by the blood of Jesus, the fight will be successful.

Perfect obedience though is something Jesus reached but I certainly have not:

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

The nations have a form of God's law written on our hearts:

> Romans 2:14-16 - For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

> Romans 3:28-29 - For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, (ESV)

> Romans 5:1-2 - Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (ESV)

There is no problem with keeping the law to your level of commitment accountable to God, but we should not feel under the law that we must keep all of it all the time. Also, our obedience to the law of Moses is not what justifies us, but obedience to Christ's law/commandments is but in Christ's law is the commandment to have faith in Him:

> Galatians 5:3-4 - I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. (ESV)

Those who annul and teach others to annul the law will be 'called' least in the kingdom. It's not humility to do so. They're teaching people against bearing good fruit.

We should not forsake Jesus as our Master:

> Jude 1:4 - For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Jude 1:4 - For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. (KJV)

We certainly should not forsake the higher precepts of the law - mercy, justice and faithfulness:

> Matthew 23:23 - Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others. (ESV)

We certainly should not annul and teach others to annul the Great Commandments or the 10 Commandments:

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

It's prideful to say that God is wrong, Jesus behaved badly and that the Law is wrong, and we shouldn't love God and our neighbour:

> Galatians 5:6 - For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

Love is the fulfillment of the law. Love does the commandments of God that the law requires. The person who does them can be described as a doer of the law:

> Romans 13:8 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper That's who we are as Christians. When we walk according to the Spirit, we fulfill the just requirement of the law. That is, we keep the commandments, we love. We are doers of the law. Not sinlessly perfect law-keepers. Nobody is nor anybody has been except Jesus, which is why we depend on Him, but rather, radically transformed people, through faith, in the power of the Holy Spirit, leaning on the grace of God that comes to us through Jesus Christ.

AMEN!!

Jesus' atonement means that the requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who walk according to the Spirit - keeping the commandments of God:

> Romans 8:3-4 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

We're justified by our faith in Jesus Christ, and that means in faith obeying Jesus, hoping in Him. Abraham had faith in Jesus Christ, and he obeyed Jesus Christ out of faith. But the Mosaic law came after Abraham. Abraham could have eaten pork if he wanted and Christians are allowed to as well:

> Romans 4:16 - That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, (ESV)

We abide in Jesus Christ, as we keep His commandments, and the commandments of Christ which pertain to the New Covenant are a different set of commandments to the Mosaic Law:

> Hebrews 8:13 - In speaking of a new covenant, he makes the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away. (ESV)

We set our hope in, our faith in Jesus, and trust Him and keep His commandments:

> John 5:45-47 - Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you: Moses, on whom you have set your hope. If you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words? (ESV)

> Romans 15:12-13 - And again Isaiah says, , The root of Jesse will come, even he who arises to rule the Gentiles; in him will the Gentiles hope. May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope. (ESV)

Jesus being our Lord and Teacher, we learn from Him and imitate Him and trust and obey Him directly, abiding in His teachings and commandments:

> John 13:34 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:22,28,32,34-37,39,44-45,27-28,30-31,35,40 - But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery. And whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. But I say to you, Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply Yes or No; anything more than this comes from evil. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell. It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce. or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. (ESV)

> Luke 6:34-36,40 - And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. (ESV)

> John 13:14-16 - If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

Some teachings / commandments of Christ, for example, which Christians are taught to keep:

> I Corinthians 7:10-11 - To the married I give this charge (not I, but the Lord): the wife should not separate from her husband (but if she does, she should remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband), and the husband should not divorce his wife. (ESV)
> Luke 16:18 - Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and he who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery. (ESV)

Yes a Christian can abide in Jesus' commandments without needing to "adhere" to the full Mosaic law, because a person can trust and obey Jesus, holding their faith in Him and loving one-another as Jesus commanded:

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)
>
> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:7-21 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

The law of Christ is a law of faith (not works), so what counts is not the works but what is in the heart (trust, obedience, love, hope, fear of God). A good heart produces good:

> Romans 3:26-28 - It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. (ESV)
>
> Romans 3:28 - For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. (ESV)
>
> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)
>
> Titus 1:15 - To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. (ESV)

The issue with being "under Mosaic law" is needing to keep the "entire" Mosaic law all of the time:

> Galatians 5:3 - I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. (ESV)

But Jesus brought with Himself commandments that Christians have to abide in, commandments that are recorded in the gospels and epistles:

> Isaiah 42:4 - He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law. (ESV)
>
> Romans 15:12-13 - And again Isaiah says, , The root of Jesse will come, even he who arises to rule the Gentiles; in him will the Gentiles hope. May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope. (ESV)
> John 14:1 - "Do not let your heart be troubled; believe (G4100 pisteuo) in God, believe (G4100 pisteuo) also in Me.

So long as we are actually keeping Jesus' law/commandments, we abide in Jesus Christ and there is freedom from the Mosaic law as our master. But if a person still thinks pork is unclean then they shouldn't eat it. For what is not done in faith is sin. But also, what is not done in love is unlawful as Jesus said that all the law (including Mosaic law and Christ's law) and prophets depend on the great 2 commandments:

> Romans 14:14-16,18,20 - I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean. For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died. So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats. (ESV)
> I Timothy 4:4-5 - For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, for it is made holy by the word of God and prayer. (ESV)
>
> Romans 11:20-23 - That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. (ESV)
> John 15:6 - If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. (ESV)

God's precepts exist regardless if much of it was codified inside the Mosaic law. Adultery and sodomy has always been sinful. In the story of Genesis, adultery and sodomy are clearly shown to be sinful:

> Ezekiel 16:49-50 - Behold, this was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, excess of food, and prosperous ease, but did not aid the poor and needy. They were haughty and did an abomination before me. So I removed them, when I saw it. (ESV)
>
> Genesis 19:4-7 - But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house. And they called to Lot, Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may know them. Lot went out to the men at the entrance, shut the door after him, and said, I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly. (ESV)
> II Peter 2:6-8 - if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; and if he rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked (for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); (ESV)

> Jude 1:5-8 - Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day— just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire. Yet in like manner these people also, relying on their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority, and blaspheme the glorious ones. (ESV)

This is why non-Mosaic law adhering Christians, in knowledge that such things are sinful (sinful even apart from the Mosaic law) would still not endorse sinful practices such as sodomy:

> Matthew 19:8-9 - He said to them, Because of your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery. (ESV)

We obey Jesus Christ instead of sin:

> Romans 6:16-23 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> Romans 7:6-12 - But now we are released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve not under the old written code but in the new life of the Spirit. What then shall we say? That the law is sin? By no means! Yet if it had not been for the law, I would not have known sin. I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, You shall not covet. But sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of covetousness. Apart from the law, sin lies dead. I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin came alive and I died. The very commandment that promised life proved to be death to me. For sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. So the law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good. (ESV)

We need to abide in Jesus' commandments, and there is freedom in that, even freedom from needing to adhere to the Mosaic law. So we trust and obey Jesus Christ who is the telos of the law of God. But we're yoked directly to Christ Jesus abiding in His commandments under the New Covenant law, Christ's law, there is freedom from many of the ordinances of the old Covenant law:

> Romans 4:14 - For if it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. (ESV)

> Romans 7:4 - Likewise, my brothers, you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. (ESV)

> Romans 7:25,8:1-4 - Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in > Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)
>
> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)
>
> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Everything we do must be done in faith in the truth and love as Christ defined it, and to the glory of God. We've got to be repentant and prefer God to evil.

Some commandments such as the great 2 commandments we must still keep, but God's promise is that He will circumcise our heart and cause us to love Him with our whole heart so that we can live, so God is going to help us to do that as we trust and obey Jesus Christ, treasuring God and his Word, treasuring Jesus Christ above all. So we must not be idolators. Just because much of God's precepts are described in the Mosaic law doesn't mean that we are under the Mosaic law. But the Mosaic law is a schoolmaster which points to Christ.

Teaching others to not obey Jesus' commandments and to not obey the 10 Commandments is teaching people against walking by the Spirit. Christians actually still keep the precepts of the 10 commandments.

> Romans 13:9 - The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. (ESV)
>
> Hebrews 4:8-10 - For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. (ESV)

Teaching others to break the law is teaching bad behaviour.

> Romans 2:6-7 - He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; (ESV)

It refuses to acknowledge sin and it refuses to agree with God and it refuses to acknowledge loving God and one another, and it refuses to acknowledge holiness and being a living sacrifice for God:

> Luke 1:5-6 - In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, of the division of Abijah. And he had a wife from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and statutes of the Lord. (ESV)

Jesus, the original Apostles and the founding fathers of Christianity still taught us to keep the 2 Great commandments and the 10 Commandments which is sound doctrine:

- I Corinthians 7:19 - Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. (KJV)

So long as we hold faith in Christ, we're no longer victims of the curse of the law (which is to rely on keeping the full law perfectly including perfectly fulfilled in works to avoid being cursed):

> Galatians 3:10-13 - For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them. Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— (ESV)

Those who keep God's commandments and and the righteousness of faith / the testimony of Jesus will be called great in the kingdom:

> Matthew 5:19 - Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

It is humility to keep God's commandments by faith (and not works), accountable to God who sees in secret.

Quote by John Piper "Pride is insubordinate. [It says,] You don't have a right to tell me what to do. That's what happened in the Garden of Eden right at the beginning of our sinful plight. And that's what all of us do apart from God's grace."

It's God who tests the faith, and God who justifies:

> II Corinthians 10:18 - For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)

> III John 1:11-12 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. Demetrius has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself. We also add our testimony, and you know that our testimony is true. (ESV)

We 'endeavour' to be justified in Christ. We want to be found in Christ. We don't justify ourselves, and we don't put ourselves in, but we endeavour to be justified by God by being in Christ:

> Galatians 2:17 - But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! (ESV)

Surely to be found in Christ we would be trusting Him and and trusting in Him and living for Him, and even serving Him.
We must believe, believe in and obey Christ.
The will of the Father is to believe on the Son, and it's also for us to love.

> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

God gifts us repentance as we believe in Jesus:

> Acts 16:31-32 - And they said, Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household. And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. (ESV)

> Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV)

We need God to know us:

Galatians 4:4-9 - But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God. Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? (ESV)

Yes we must trust Him:

Romans 4:5-8 - And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin. (ESV)

We must do the will of the Father:

Matthew 7:15-20 - Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. (ESV)

We must not be workers of lawlessness, but our belief should produce more obedience:

Matthew 7:21-23 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness (458. anomia). (ESV)

Matthew 6:10 - Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. (ESV)

We must be doers of Jesus' word:

> Matthew 7:24-28 - Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it. And when Jesus finished these sayings, the crowds were astonished at his teaching, (ESV)

> Proverbs 10:25 - When the tempest passes, the wicked is no more, but the righteous is established forever. (ESV)

The words which Jesus had just spoken which he was probably referring to. We should be doers of the Law, specifically to love - to fulfill the Royal Law - and the ”strait and narrow” involves repentance and sanctification:

> Matthew 7:1-20 - Judge not, that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you. Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, Let me take the speck out of your eye, when there is the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye. Do not give dogs what is holy, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, lest they trample them underfoot and turn to attack you. Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. Or which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him! So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets. Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow (4728 stenos ie. narrow, small) and the way is hard (2346 thlibó - meaning: like when circumstances ”rub us the wrong way” that make us feel confined (hemmed in); restricted to a ”narrow” place) that leads to life, and those who find it are few. Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. (ESV)

> Romans 13:10 - Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

We should continue serving God:

> John 4:34 - Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. (ESV)

> John 8:29 - And he who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him. (ESV)

There are varieties of service, and God empowers us to serve Him:

> I Corinthians 12:4-6 - Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. (ESV)

We must keep and accept the precepts of God over the precepts of men:

> Mark 7:6-9 - And he said to them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men. You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men. And he said to them, You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! (ESV)

This passage is condemning submitting to worldly / human precepts and imploring us to submit to God's precepts. It's not condemning God's precepts but imploring us to put to death what is against God's precepts:

> Colossians 2:20-23,3:1-6 - If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations— Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch (referring to things that all perish as they are used)—according to human precepts and teachings? These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh. If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. (ESV)

6 Jehovah is Almighty God, Creator of Heaven and Earth

> Jeremiah 31:33 - But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the LORD (H3068 Yhovah): I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. (ESV)

> Genesis 2:7 - then the LORD (H3068 Yhovah) God (H430 'elohiym) formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: God's Own Name

> II Timothy 2:19 - But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: The Lord knows those who are his, and, Let everyone who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: The Superior Name of the Son

The life which God has given us is in Jesus. And by believing He is who He is, we may have life in His name:

> John 20:31 - but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name. (ESV)

Jehovah God gave Jesus His name, Jesus Christ, Son of God:

> Matthew 1:21 - She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins. (ESV)

> Matthew 3:17 - and behold, a voice from heaven said, This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. (ESV)

Jesus says that Jehovah God gave Him His name, Jesus, and that Jesus is Jehovah God's name:

> John 17:11 - And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. (ESV)

God's name is also Yahweh (Jehovah):

> Exodus 3:13-15 - Then Moses said to God, If I come to the people of Israel and say to them, The God of your fathers has sent me to you, and they ask me, What is his name? what shall I say to them? God said to Moses, I AM WHO I AM. And he said, Say this to the people of Israel, I AM has sent me to you. God also said to Moses, Say this to the people of Israel, The LORD (3068. Yhvh), the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is my name forever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations. (ESV)

> Exodus 34:5-7 - The LORD (3068. Yhvh) descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD (3068. Yhvh). The LORD (3068. Yhvh) passed before him and proclaimed, The LORD (3068. Yhvh), the LORD (3068. Yhvh), a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation. (ESV)

Jesus manifested / made known this name. Jesus, the Only Begotten Son from God, with God's character and likeness, manifested / made known God's name onoma:

> John 17:6 - I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world. Yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. (ESV)

> John 17:6 - I have revealed (G5319 phaneroó) Your name (G3686 onoma) to those You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours; You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. (engbsb2020eb)

> John 17:26 - I made known to them your name, and I will continue to make it known, that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them. (ESV)

> Psalms 22:22 - I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will praise you: (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:11-12 - For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, saying, I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise. (ESV)

> John 1:18 - No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known. (ESV)

Jesus' name is the name above all names:

> Philippians 2:9-11 - Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess (G1843 exomologeó) that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (ESV)

Father God is greater than all:

> John 10:29 - My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. (ESV)

> John 20:17 - Jesus said to her, Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God. (ESV)

Thoughts:

- Jesus' name is the name above all names
- Father God is greater than the Son of God
- The name of Jesus belongs to both the Father and the Son
- God is to be remembered as YHWH

> I Corinthians 6:17 - But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. (ESV)

Father God has a voice and a form, and sent Jesus:

> John 5:37-38 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. (ESV)

Father God spoke here:

> John 12:27-30 - Now is my soul troubled. And what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour? But for this purpose I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name. Then a voice came from heaven: I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again. The crowd that stood there and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, An angel has spoken to him. Jesus answered, This voice has come for your sake, not mine. (ESV)

Holy Spirit certainly also has a voice and does speak:

> Acts 13:2-4 - While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them. Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off. So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus. (ESV)

Father God glorifies Himself as He glorifies Jesus:

> John 13:31 - When he had gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:11 - and every tongue confess (G1843 exomologeó) that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (ESV)

I believe that Jesus Christ is Jehovah and is Immanuel, and I believe in one God revealed in 3 Persons.
I believe that Jesus Christ is Jehovah, in that Jesus is God the Son, and the name Jesus belongs to Jehovah God:

> John 1:1-3 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. (ESV)

> Romans 9:5 - To them belong the patriarchs, and from their race, according to the flesh, is the Christ who is God over all, blessed forever. Amen. (ESV)

Ezekiel 34:11-12 - For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I, I myself will search for my sheep and will seek them out. As a shepherd seeks out his flock when he is among his sheep that have been scattered, so will I seek out my sheep, and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. Video youtube.com: Gospel of Mark calls Jesus God in every chapter

God the Father and God the Son are one:

John 10:30 - I and the Father are one.

Matthew 11:25-27 - At that time Jesus declared, I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. (ESV)

Yeshua, Jesus	Yahweh, Jehovah
Mark 1:3 - the voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight, (ESV)	Isaiah 40:3 - A voice cries: In the wilderness prepare the way of the LORD; make straight in the desert a highway for our God. (ESV)
Mark 2:7 - Why does this man speak like that? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone? (ESV)	Isaiah 43:25 - I, I am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and I will not remember your sins. (ESV)
Mark 4:38 - But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. And they woke him and said to him, Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing? (ESV)	Psalms 107:28-29 - Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress. He made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed. (ESV)
Mark 5:35-43 - While he was still speaking, there came from the ruler's house some who said, Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further? But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, Do not fear, only believe. And he allowed no one to follow him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. They came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and Jesus saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. And when he had entered, he said to them, Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but sleeping. And they laughed at him. But he put them all outside and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him and went in where the child was. Taking her by the hand he said to her, Talitha cumi, which means, Little girl, I say to you, arise. And immediately the girl got up and began walking (for she was twelve years of age), and they were immediately overcome with amazement. And he strictly charged them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat. (ESV)	I Kings 17:21-22 - Then he stretched himself upon the child three times and cried to the Lord, O Lord my God, let this child's life come into him again. And the Lord listened to the voice of Elijah. And the life of the child came into him again, and he revived. 2 Kings 4:32-35 - When Elisha came into the house, he saw the child lying dead on his bed. So he went in and shut the door behind the two of them and prayed to the LORD. Then he went up and lay on the child, putting his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. And as he stretched himself upon him, the flesh of the child became warm. Then he got up again and walked once back and forth in the house, and went up and stretched himself upon him. The child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. (ESV)

Mark 6:48 - And he saw that they were making headway painfully, for the wind was against them. And about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. He meant to pass by them, (ESV)	Job 9:8 - who alone stretched out the heavens and trampled the waves of the sea; (ESV)
Mark 7:31-47 - Then he returned from the region of Tyre and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had a speech impediment, and they begged him to lay his hand on him. And taking him aside from the crowd privately, he put his fingers into his ears, and after spitting touched his tongue. And looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. And Jesus charged them to tell no one. But the more he charged them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, He has done all things well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak. In those days, when again a great crowd had gathered, and they had nothing to eat, he called his disciples to him and said to them, I have compassion on the crowd, because they have been with me now three days and have nothing to eat. And if I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way. And some of them have come from far away. And his disciples answered him, How can one feed these people with bread here in this desolate place? And he asked them, How many loaves do you have? They said, Seven. And he directed the crowd to sit down on the ground. And he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and they set them before the crowd. And they had a few small fish. And having blessed them, he said that these also should be set before them. And they ate and were satisfied. And they took up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full. And there were about four thousand people. And he sent them away. And immediately he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha. (ESV)	Exodus 4:11 - Then the LORD said to him, Who has made man's mouth? Who makes him mute, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Is it not I, the LORD? (ESV)

Yeshua, Jesus	Yahweh, Jehovah
Mark 8:1-10 - In those days, when again a great crowd had gathered, and they had nothing to eat, he called his disciples to him and said to them, I have compassion on the crowd, because they have been with me now three days and have nothing to eat. And if I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way. And some of them have come from far away. And there were about four thousand people. And he sent them away. And immediately he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha. (ESV)	Exodus 16:4 - Then the LORD said to Moses, Behold, I am about to rain bread from heaven for you, and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in my law or not. (ESV)
Mark 9:2-5 - And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became radiant, intensely white, as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. And Peter said to Jesus, Rabbi, it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah. (ESV)	Only 2 people to climb a mountain to commune with God. Moses in Exodus 24, and Elijah in I Kings 19
Mark 14:61-62 - But he remained silent and made no answer. Again the high priest asked him, Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? And Jesus said, I am, and you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven. (ESV)	Daniel 7:13-14 - I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him. And to him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed. (ESV)

John 8:18-19 - I am the one who bears witness about myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness about me. They said to him therefore, Where is your Father? Jesus answered, You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also. (ESV)

I Corinthians 10:9-11 - We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. (ESV)

I John 5:20 - And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that > we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. (ESV)

> I John 5:11 - And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. (ESV)
> Isaiah 43:10 - You are my witnesses, declares the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen, that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he. Before me no god was formed, nor shall there be any after me. (ESV)

To have the Spirit of Christ is to have the Spirit of Jehovah God:

> Romans 8:9-10 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. (ESV)

God sends the Spirit of His Son into our heart, crying, ”Abba! Father!” We experience this as our own cry. This is how we are given the assurance that we are the children of God:

> Galatians 4:1-7 - I mean that the heir, as long as he is a child, is no different from a slave, though he is the owner of everything, but he is under guardians and managers until the date set by his father. In the same way we also, when we were children, were enslaved to the elementary principles of the world. But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God. (ESV)

We, personally cry ”Abba, Father!” We call to Father God.

> Romans 8:13-17 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: The Spirit in Us Cries ’Abba Father’: Galatians 4:1-7, Part 5

I really want to hear the voice of the Holy Spirit cry ’Abba Father’, and acknowledge to me in a voice that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh.

> I John 4:1-3 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses (G3670 homologeó, confesses, acknowledges, agrees) that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess (G3670 homologeó, confess, acknowledge, agree with) Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

As of now (28 April ’24), though, I have not actually heard that confession through the Spirit (as I expect to hear it) that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh - just being honest.

I still profess that Jesus Christ is the Only-Begotten Son of God who has proceeded from Father God, come from heaven to earth in the flesh, born of the virgin Mary, was crucified and died for the sins of mankind and raised from the dead on the third day and has ascended to the Father and sits at His right hand, and I pray daily to Father God.

Also, I have had as of 28 May ’24 in my dreams:

- A picture of "Jehovah " - Jehovah's name with a rose by it, and
- A distinctly male voice which said, "Jesus is God"

> Psalms 49:7-9,15 - Truly no man can ransom another, or give to God the price of his life, for the ransom of their life is costly and can never suffice, that he should live on forever and never see the pit. But God will ransom my soul from the power of Sheol, for he will receive me. Selah (ESV)

star.net.nz: The Word for Today - The right balance - May 28th

Interesting. It's not exactly what I'm still having faith for, but Jesus is indeed God the Son, and Jehovah is God and is Love. I will be still waiting for the Biblical acknowledgement I am waiting for "Jesus is the Son of God who has proceeded forth from Father God in the flesh from heaven to earth". Otherwise I'm simply not going to trust the spirit sending dreams/visions.

Song youtube.com: Petra: Love

Petra - Love (Lyrics) Love is patient, love is kind; No eyes of envy, true love is blind; Love is humble, it knows no pride; No selfish motive hiden inside; Love is gentle, makes no demands; Despite all wrong, true love still stands; Love is holy, love is pure; It lasts forever, it will endure

Love is loyal, believes the best; It loves the truth, love stands the test; Love is God sent in His Son; Love forgives all we have done

Love knows when to let go; Love knows when to say no; Love grows in the light on the Son; And love show the world that the Son of Love has come

In this world where hatred seems to grow; True love goes against the flow; And becomes so hard to show

They can get very tactical sometimes, so I have to be very discerning. Though I will test them because I still get some true visions/dreams sometimes.

> I John 4:2-3 - By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses (G3670 homologeó, confesses, acknowledges, agrees) that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess (G3670 homologeó, confess, acknowledge, agree with) Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

Some stuff happened last week I might mention.

Tues <2024-10-08 Tue>:

- I woke up to a very puffy face - like I got beat up - by spiritual attack which has happened a few times in the last year on specific dates like Halloween.
    - But I went to Don's Bible study anyway
    - One of the guys walked out early
    - I blame witchcraft / satanic stuff / still feeling like I'm under a lot of spiritual attack

Also in this week, the guy from India told me by email he'd "beat me up" if I didn't help him financially. - Definitely a spiritual attack thing.

Wednesday <2024-10-09 Wed>:

- JWs came to my door
    - I mentioned how I implore them to accept that Holy Spirit is a person, not merely a force

Thursday <2024-10-10 Thu>:

- In the morning, on the verge of waking up, I heard a voice that said, ”Shane” - same voice as when I heard them say ”Jesus is God.”
    - then I thought/spoke in my mind, ”Please speak to me God.” and I got a bright white flash immediately, then I woke up and got out of bed

What’s interesting about this, is it’s as if, connecting both of these events hearing this same voice, I’m hearing, ”God is telling me that Jesus is God.” This seems correct, and I affirm.

I’ve strangely still been getting a huge amount of spiritual attack as I resist bad doctrine. The fight is ongoing.

Mari Mari Emmanuel loves Jesus and this is a great sermon. I wish I heard and understood this earlier. Mari is speaking a lot of truth here. I can’t fact-check the entire thing but it could have brought me up to speed a bit faster I think if I watched it earlier:

youtube.com: Part 1 Of Works Of The Holy Spirit | Bishop Mari Mari Emmanuel He (Jesus Christ) is the only one who fulfilled all God’s Commandments and laws He is the perfect human, like the Lord said in Matthew 5:48 be as perfect as your Heavenly Father is.

> This man is the perfect one like his Heavenly Father.
> Therefore this human being can be the Son for God. This human only can be the Son - qualifies to be the Son because he has fulfilled all God’s demands, requests, criterias. That’s why, lawfully, he qualifies to be the Son. Not in any other way but by law, by law. So no one can challenge his authenticity in any court of law because he has fulfilled all laws.
>
> So whenever he stands in any court of law he can stand with his head up, high up, and can say, ”Anyone of you can convict me of sin?” No-one. He’s the only human being who never broke God’s word, because everything in Him was the yes and the AMEN!!
>
> We are talking here about the Lord’s humanity, not divinity. Divinity is God. He’s the perfect God. We’re talking about the human being, perfect like God.
>
> Hebrews 7:26-28 - For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself. For the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever. (ESV)
> I Thessalonians 5:20-22 - Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. Abstain from every form of evil. (ESV)

But I am still seeking hearing that acknowledgement by continuing in Jesus’ word, endeavoring to keep Jesus’ commandments. I certainly have heard many false and deceptive voices, even blasphemy. So I mean, if the devil or evil spirits can speak lies to me then I just have total confidence that at the right time I’ll hear from God.

And even up till now I still am seeking irrefutable personal assurance of God’s justification beyond the unseen evidence I already hold out for by faith in God, and the faith in the promises of God written in Scripture that say I am justified for my faith in Jesus.

Not everything I have had in my dreams is against the truth. For example, recently I heard this in a dream:

> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

Therefore, I will continue to endeavour to keep Jesus’ commandments:

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

So it's really important that I remain faithful to Jesus and do my best to not compromise or be swayed by people who deter me from keeping Jesus' commandments.

And eventually His commandments become unburdensome, and we're keeping them, and we have confidence we have come to know Him:

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

Knowing God coincides with keeping His word. I think that if we're having trouble understanding the Godhead, we should try to keep God's word:

> John 8:54-58 - Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, He is our God. But you have not known him. I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and I keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day. He saw it and was glad. So the Jews said to him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham? Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am. (ESV)

This kind of sounds like people can use their intellect to avoid obeying Jesus, and we must come against that disobedience:

> II Corinthians 10:5 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, (ESV)

As we abide in the Word of God and are sanctified in the Truth, our spiritual eyesight becomes clearer:

> Luke 6:41-42 - Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye, when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye.

Also, the Holy Spirit may teach us even before He is in us, by helping us as He dwells with us, and eventually will be in us:

> John 14:16-21 - And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

Also, everyone who continues on hoping in Him purifies themself as He is pure. It's important to purify ourselves, as we hope in Him. At the ned of sanctification is eternal life:

> I John 3:1-3 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. (ESV)

> Colossians 1:18 - And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. (ESV)

This entire chapter is very important for testing the spirits:

> I John 4:1-17 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses (G3670 homologeó, confesses, acknowledges, agrees) that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess (G3670 homologeó, confess, acknowledge, agree with) Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

- every spirit that confesses (G3670 homologeó, confesses, acknowledges, agrees) that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God

We must hold fast to Jesus, the Head:

> Colossians 2:18-19 - Let no one disqualify you, insisting on asceticism and worship of angels, going on in detail about visions, puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind, and not holding fast to the Head, from whom the whole body, nourished and knit together through its joints and ligaments, grows with a growth that is from God. (ESV)

Believing Father God Jehovah, loving Him, obeying His commandments, loving and obeying Jesus Christ His son, all must be true together, even to have a sound definition of what love is:

> I John 5:1-3 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me.

6.1 Seven I AM statements in the Gospel of John

6.1.1 The Bread of Life

> John 6:35 - Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. (ESV)

> John 6:48 - I am the bread of life. (ESV)

6.1.5 The Resurrection and the Life

> John 11:25 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, (ESV)

It's interesting the way this verse has been interpreted and some words removed. I want to do a more in-depth study on ages and generations.

> John 11:25-26 - Said to her - Jesus I am the resurrection and the life the [one] believing in Me even if he should die he will live and everyone - living and believing in Me never not shall die to the age Believe you this (Interlinear)

6.1.6 The Way, the Truth and the Life

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

youtube.com: 2013 05 26 A I Am The Way Truth and Life Dr Steven J Lawson 526131753512 @time: 9

Jesus Himself is personally the way to the Father. Religion is not the way to the Father. Ritual is not the way to the Father. Neither is good works or church or a church attendance or baptism. But Jesus Christ Himself is the way to the Father. And when he says THE way he is making an exclusive claim to be the one and only true way of salvation that leads from this world into the very presence of God.

Jesus came to actually be the way to provide the way by his life and by his death.

youtube.com: 2013 05 26 A I Am The Way Truth and Life Dr Steven J Lawson 526131753512 @time: 25

He who believes in Him is not judged. He who does not believe has been judged already because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. What is it to believe in Jesus Christ? It is to believe that you're lost, that you cannot save yourself. It is to believe that Jesus Christ has come into the world to save sinners. It is to come to a place where you recognize this, you confess your sin, and you commit your life entirely to Jesus Christ. It is to come to the end of yourself. It is to surrender your life to Christ. It is to say I can no longer direct my life. I can no longer be the one who presides over my life. It is to surrender and to submit to the lordship of Jesus Christ. It is to deny yourself, take up a cross and begin to follow after Jesus Christ. This is the truth concerning how to enter the way.

He who believes in the son has eternal life but he who does not obey the son will not see life but the wrath of God abides on him.

Please note how believe and obey are used synonymously in parallel fashion. To believe is to obey Jesus Christ.

Saving faith is always an act of obedience to God who says you must submit your life to my son Jesus Christ.

Unbelief is disobedience true faith is a step of obedience and this requirement of faith.

youtube.com: 2013 05 26 A I Am The Way Truth and Life Dr Steven J Lawson 526131753512 @time: 37

There's now a third and final aspect in which Jesus says I am the way, and the truth and the life. This is not a multiple-choice. It's not, "Who here today would like to have one of these three. Who here today we'd like to have two of these three? The word 'and' joins them all together that they are inseparably bound, and what Jesus is saying as He is the Life, that the one who believes the Truth will enter the Way and all who are on the Way will have the Life, will know the Life, will have the Life of God within them. They're not just on a path, they are on a path, which is Christ, but they also have Christ inside of them as they are on the way they will never travel the way solo. They will never travel the way by themselves. They will always have Jesus Christ Himself with them and more than just with them they will have Him in them. They will have the Life within them.

Jesus says, "I am the way and the truth and the life. This third heading is Jesus is the only life in God, or from God. Those who receive the truth, receive the life. Those who refuse the truth refuse the life.

Acts 4:12 - And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved. (ESV)

I John 5:11-13 - And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

youtube.com: 2013 05 26 A I Am The Way Truth and Life Dr Steven J Lawson 526131753512 @time: 40

Life is to know God. Eternal life is to have God within you, within your soul, and to commune with God, and to fellowship with God, and to work to walk with God. Without this life, we are spiritually dead. Without this life, we are spiritually empty and hollow and have nothing. But all who believe in Christ are made spiritually alive. They know God. They love God, they adore God, they respond to God. This is the life that Jesus has come to give.

6.1.7 The True Vine

John 15:1 - I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. (ESV)

John 15:5 - I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. (ESV)

6.2 Jesus

6.2.1 Jesus has overcome the world

John 16:33 - I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world. (ESV)

John 15:7 - If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (ESV)

AMEN!!

I John 5:12-15 - Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of him. (ESV)

That's really good news for us:

- He carries our burdens
- He carries our shame

AMEN!!

6.2.2 Jesus is the Lamb of God who sits with God on God's throne

Jesus Christ is our God. Forever, He is Father God's revelation to us of Himself.

> Revelation of John 7:9 - After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, (ESV)

> Revelation of John 7:10-12 - and crying out with a loud voice, Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb! And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying, Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 7:17 - For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 19:4 - And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who was seated on the throne, saying, Amen. Hallelujah! (ESV)

> Revelation of John 22:3 - No longer will there be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him. (ESV)

6.2.3 Follow Jesus for eternal life. Jesus is the Bread of Life

> Luke 18:18-22 - And a ruler asked him, Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother. And he said, All these I have kept from my youth. When Jesus heard this, he said to him, One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.

6.2.4 Believe Jesus and allow His word to abide in you

> John 5:46-47 - If you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words? (ESV)

> Proverbs 7:1-3 - My son, keep my words and treasure up my commandments with you; keep my commandments and live; keep my teaching as the apple of your eye; bind them on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart.

Jesus' word:

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.

These Jews had believed but didn't abide in Jesus' words, and so prove to be Jesus' disciples:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.

They didn't believe they needed Jesus to set them free from sin:

> John 8:33-36 - They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

We need to believe Jesus is who He says He is:

> John 8:24 - I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins. (ESV)

We need to keep Jesus' word until we are set free:

> John 8:51 - Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. (ESV)

They couldn't accept that they needed to be saved:

> John 8:37 - I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you.

Jesus speaks of what He has seen with His Father:

> John 8:38 - I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father.

6.2.5 We are implored to love Jesus and follow Him

We need to love Jesus because He came from God, to show us the Way as the Light of the world.

Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life:

> John 8:39-42 - They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me.

> John 8:43 - Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word.

We must obey His commandments to walk in the same way He walked so we get to know Him and are sanctified by faith in the truth, which leads to eternal life:

> Hebrews 5:8-9 - Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

6.2.6 We must listen to Jesus

> Luke 9:35 - Then a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is My Son, My Chosen One; listen to Him!”

> John 8:44-47 - You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God.

youtube.com: Look at Jesus!

> John 1:1 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (ESV)

John 1:14 - And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)

Hebrews 1:2 - but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. (ESV)

Hebrews 2:1 - Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. (ESV)

6.2.7 We are implored to honour Jesus

John 8:48-49 - The Jews answered him, Are we not right in saying that you are a Samaritan and have a demon? Jesus answered, I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me.

John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes (G4100 pisteuo) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

6.2.8 We are implored to keep Jesus' words

John 8:50-51 - Yet I do not seek my own glory; there is One who seeks it, and he is the judge. Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death.

6.2.9 We must receive Jesus. Jesus is God's Only-Begotten Son

John 8:52-59 - The Jews said to him, Now we know that you have a demon! Abraham died, as did the prophets, yet you say, If anyone keeps my word, he will never taste death. Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do you make yourself out to be? Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, He is our God. But you have not known him. I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and I keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day. He saw it and was glad. So the Jews said to him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham? Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am. So they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out of the temple.

6.2.10 Even those who have faith in Jesus Christ's name may have the right to be born of God and become children of God

The worldly people rejected Him. Neither did His own people receive Him.

John 1:1-13 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being. In Him was life, and the life was the Light of men. The Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. There came a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to testify about the Light, so that all might believe through him. He was not the Light, but he came to testify about the Light. There was the true Light which, coming into the world, enlightens (G5461 photizo) every man. He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him. He came to His own, and those who were His own did not receive Him. But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

> John 5:17 - But Jesus answered them, My Father is working until now, and I am working. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 10:1-7 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play.
> Revelation of John 3:8 - I know your works. Behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one is able to shut. I know that you have but little power, and yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.

AMEN!!

6.2.11 We must do the will of God, which is the food and drink which Jesus gives us

> John 6:27 - Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal. (ESV)
>
> John 7:34-39 - You will seek me and you will not find me. Where I am you cannot come. (ESV) The Jews said to one another, Where does this man intend to go that we will not find him? Does he intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks? What does he mean by saying, You will seek me and you will not find me, and, Where I am you cannot come? On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.
> Jeremiah 20:9 - If I say, I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name, there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot. (ESV)

Certainly, people are judged on their faith in Jesus:

> John 5:28-29 - Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment.

Whoever honours Jesus by obeying Him, honours Father God. Whoever hears these words from Jesus and trusts Father God has eternal life and doesn't come into judgement; When we start trusting (believing and obeying) Jesus, we have passed from death into life.

And in obeying Jesus we are performing good works which are works done in faith towards God.

> John 5:17-29 - But Jesus answered them, My Father is working until now, and I am working. This was why the Jews were seeking all the more to kill him, because not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God. So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father > doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise. For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing. And greater works than these will he show him, so that you may marvel. For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed from death to life. Truly, truly, I say to you, an hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself. And he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man. Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment. (ESV) youtube.com: John MacArthur "Jesus is God" He is to be obeyed in a way that is due only to God.

6.2.12 Having faith (living in accordance with the truth, and in relationship with God) is asked of us - faith continues

What I mean by relationship is:

- being obedient to God,
  - abiding in Jesus
- being accountable to God,
- waiting on God,
- trusting on God,
- being led by the Spirit of God,
- etc.

Faith certainly is a way of life, it continues. It's how we walk:

> Hebrews 13:7-9 - Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited those devoted to them. (ESV)

Led by the Spirit of God is doing God's will:

> Psalms 143:10 - Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! (ESV)

> II Corinthians 3:18 - And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 3:6 - who has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. (ESV)

From our perspective we are obedient as we are participating in the Spirit, but God works through us:

> Philippians 2:1-13 - So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess (G1843 exomologeó) that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

We must obey! This obedience is being led by the Spirit.

Sermon youtube.com: Love Is the Fruit of the Spirit

Our freedom is for serving one another, and if we are not abiding by Christ's law, producing love which fulfills the law, then we can't say we are being led by the Spirit:

> Galatians 5:13-16 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word (G3056 logō): You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:22-23 - But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. (ESV)

6.2.13 We must abide by his teaching

We must abide by Jesus Christ's teaching. Whoever does not abide in Jesus Christ's teaching does not have God:

> II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.

> Matthew 4:17 - From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. (ESV)

We must obey righteousness:

> Romans 2:6-8 - He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. (ESV)

It is a gift to be able to be obedient to Lord Jesus Christ, trusting in Him so that we may become obedient to Him:

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> James 1:13-15 - Let no one say when he is tempted, I am being tempted by God, for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)

Can you be overcome by sin again? Yes, you can. But we're supposed to be overcome by practicing righteousness. Jesus sets us free, washes and regenerates us. Once that happens, we must not go back into sin.

> Hebrews 6:4-8 - For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, if they then fall away, since they are crucifying once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt. For land that has drunk the rain that often falls on it, and produces a crop useful to those for whose sake it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God. But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed, and its end is to be burned. (ESV)

6.2.14 We must live sowing to the Spirit

> Galatians 6:7-8 - Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. (ESV)

> Romans 8:10 - But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. (ESV)

> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

6.2.15 We must be servants of Christ

Also, from the heart:

> Ephesians 6:5-6 - Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, (ESV)

> Revelation of John 22:3 - No longer will there be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him. (ESV)

> John 12:23-26 - And Jesus answered them, The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

6.2.16 We must remain ultimately faithful to Jesus Christ, and never deny Him as our only Master and Lord

> Jude 1:4 - For certain persons have crept in unnoticed, those who were long beforehand marked out for this condemnation, ungodly persons who turn the grace of our God into licentiousness and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. (NASB)

> Colossians 2:18-19 - Let no one disqualify you, insisting on asceticism and worship of angels, going on in detail about visions, puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind, and not holding fast to the Head, from whom the whole body, nourished and knit together through its joints and ligaments, grows with a growth that is from God.

> Revelation of John 2:10 - Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. (ESV)

6.2.17 We must endeavour to live faithfully to our Jesus Christ

> Acts 11:21-24 - And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord. The report of this came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad, and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose, for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were added to the Lord. (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:13 - if we are faithless, he remains faithful - for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

6.2.18 Christian faith looks like this

We worship God by the Spirit, following Jesus, not the flesh:

> Philippians 3:2-3 - Look out for the dogs, look out for the evildoers, look out for those who mutilate the flesh. For we are the real circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— (ESV)

> Hebrews 12:28-29 - Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, for our God is a consuming fire. (ESV)

Paul says that pursuing the righteousness that is by Mosaic law, is placing confidence in the flesh:

> Philippians 3:4-7 - though I myself have reason for confidence in the flesh also. If anyone else thinks he has reason for confidence in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness, under the law blameless. But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. (ESV)

But to put confidence in the Spirit is to not to abandon obedience, but to seek instead to know Christ Jesus, our Lord, with obedient faith to Jesus. Paul wants to know the power of Christ's resurrection in this life:

> Philippians 3:8-11 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. (ESV)

The righteousness from God that depends on faith, faith in Christ:

- Know him and the power of His resurrection
- Share His sufferings
- Become like Him in His death

Jesus literally commanded us to behave in this way, so keep Jesus' commandments:

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

One example of a command from Jesus:

> Matthew 5:42 - Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. (ESV)
> Mark 12:30-31 - And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these. (ESV)

With Christ's commandments we should endeavour to keep them as they're described. Give to the one who begs from you. If someone didn't need your so-called "help" but you tried to force your help onto them then that's not really the way this commandment is supposed to be kept:

> Matthew 5:42 - Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. (ESV)
>
> Luke 6:30 - Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. (ESV)

We are commanded to be innocent, and to bear witness of Jesus before men who persecute us:

> Matthew 10:16-18 - Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of men, for they will deliver you over to courts and flog you in their synagogues, and you will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them and the Gentiles. (ESV)
> Philippians 2:15-16 - that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)
>
> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 10:39 - Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 16:25 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. (ESV)

Video youtube.com: The Gospel Jesus Preached Is Different than What Most Have Been Taught Video youtube.com: Did Jesus Preach the Gospel?

Video notes:

Tim Keller says that the synoptic gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke), and Paul all say these 3 things:

- 1. Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, who came to earth in human form.
  - Luke 3:22 - and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form, like a dove; and a voice came from heaven, You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased. (ESV)
- 2. Jesus died to atone for our sins and it justifies by grace.

  - Mark 10:45 - For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)
  - Luke 24:44-47 - Then he said to them, These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled. Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. (ESV)
  - Luke 18:9-14 - He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted. (ESV)

- 3. On the cross and resurrection He overcame the power of evil and death and at the end of time He will come back to complete that victory.

Jesus is definitely reigning as King. That is for sure.

Quote John Piper The King, risen, reigning, replaces "Jesus, the King, saying the Kingdom is coming", in which He meant, "I'm here. The Kingdom is in your midst." And now He's come. He's done His ruling work. He's died to establish that. He's risen. He's reigning.

The gospel of the Kingdom of God (God's reign on earth):

Revelation of John 11:15 - Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign forever and ever. (ESV)

Revelation of John 2:26 - The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, (ESV)

Acts 8:12 - But when they believed Philip as he preached good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. (ESV)

Acts 19:8 - And he entered the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, reasoning and persuading them about the kingdom of God. (ESV)

Zechariah 14:4,9 - On that day his feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives that lies before Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley, so that one half of the Mount shall move northward, and the other half southward. And the LORD will be king over all the earth. On that day the LORD will be one and his name one. (ESV)

Acts 28:31 - proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance. (ESV)

It's the same gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-11 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed. (ESV)

We must follow Jesus Christ who died for our sins, the light of the world, the Good Shepherd, and come into the truth, and into the Kingdom of God. Jesus is Lord of Lords, our Lord, our Saviour, our Master, our King, our God, the Light, the Truth:

> John 12:44-47 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. (ESV)

> Mark 8:35 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it. (ESV)

> John 3:14-16 - And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. (ESV)

> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

> Mark 10:19-30 - You know the commandments: Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother. And he said to him, Teacher, all these I have kept from my youth. And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, How difficult it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said to them again, Children, how difficult it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God. And they were exceedingly astonished, and said to him, Then who can be saved? Jesus looked at them and said, With man it is impossible, but not with God. For all things are possible with God. Peter began to say to him, See, we have left everything and followed you. Jesus said, Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life. (ESV)

> Mark 13:9-10 - But be on your guard. For they will deliver you over to councils, and you will be beaten in synagogues, and you will stand before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them. And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations. (ESV)

> Luke 9:23-26 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life > for my sake will save it. For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself? For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. (ESV)

6.2.19 We should clean ourselves with the aid of the Word and the Holy Spirit

While we may have been justified, we still want to stop willfully sinning so that God can make better use of us:

> Proverbs 16:32 - Whoever is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city. (ESV)

We should clean ourselves up:

> II Timothy 2:21 - Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work.

Through faith, the Holy Spirit cleanses us:

> Acts 15:8-9 - And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith.

By obedience to the word of God:

> Ephesians 5:25-27 - Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.

By the Holy Spirit washing and renewing us:

> Titus 3:4-6- But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior,

It's the will of God:

> I Thessalonians 4:3 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality;

Our will must align to God's will:

> Psalms 143:10 - Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! (ESV)

Jesus' words speak for themselves:

> John 7:17 - If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. (ESV)

Paul echos this - a willing mind (readiness to obey). They gave themselves first to the Lord and then by God's will to us:

II Corinthians 8:3-12 - For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own free will, begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints— and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us. Accordingly, we urged Titus that as he had started, so he should complete among you this act of grace. But as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in our love for you—see that you excel in this act of grace also. I say this not as a command, but to prove by the earnestness of others that your love also is genuine. For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich. And in this matter I give my judgment: this benefits you, who a year ago started not only to do this work but also to desire to do it. So now finish doing it as well, so that your readiness in desiring it may be matched by your completing it out of what you have. For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have. (ESV)

And doing the will of God is what it means to be led by the Spirit of God:

Psalms 143:10 - Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! (ESV)

6.2.20 We must clean ourselves up with God's help

Daniel 12:9-10 - He said, Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. Many shall purify themselves and make themselves white and be refined, but the wicked shall act wickedly. And none of the wicked shall understand, but those who are wise shall understand.

Revelation of John 21:27 - But nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is detestable or false, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Revelation of John 22:14 - Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life and that they may enter the city by the gates. (ESV)

Philippians 2:13 - for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

6.2.21 We must be wanting to be cleaned of sin

We must look upon Jesus and stop sexual immorality and stop idolatry. The stories mentioned here are examples for us to follow:

I Corinthians 10:1-7 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play.

We must take heed of this, because we don't want to fall:

I Corinthians 10:8-13 - We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

> II Peter 2:2-11 - And many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of truth will be blasphemed. And in their greed they will exploit you with false words. Their condemnation from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep. For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to chains of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment; if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; and if he rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked (for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority. Bold and willful, they do not tremble as they blaspheme the glorious ones, whereas angels, though greater in might and power, do not pronounce a blasphemous judgment against them before the Lord. (ESV)

> II Peter 2:19-20 - They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first.

Therefore, the way of truth involves believing the truth and to not blaspheme it involves also practicing the truth and obeying Righteousness (trusting and obeying Jesus) and turning away from sin is certainly a consequence of turning to trust and obey Jesus.

I agree with Billy Graham youtube.com: Billy Graham Classic Sermon

> II Peter 2:2 - And many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of truth will be blasphemed. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 21:8 - But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death." (ESV)

6.2.22 We should put the ignorant to silence through doing good

> I Peter 2:15 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people.

Jesus says you must obey God to be part of His family:

> Luke 8:21 - But He answered and said to them, "My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."

> Hebrews 2:11 - For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, (ESV)

Jesus implies you must obey Him (Jesus) to be part of His family:

> John 7:16 - So Jesus answered them, My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me.

Devotional Word for today - Do God's word - March 7th

6.2.23 The obedient children are the ones who are not conformed to the passions of our former ignorance

> I Peter 1:14-16 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy.

I know I can testify to this fiery trial being a real thing:

> I Peter 1:17-19 - And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

6.2.24 The sons of disobedience are the ones who are conformed to sexual immorality, impurity, or covetousness, etc.

> Ephesians 5:5-7 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them;

> Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

6.2.25 If we trust in the name of the Son of God, Jesus Christ, we have eternal life

> I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

It's imperative that as we go ahead, we must abide in the teaching of Christ, or we won't have God (Jehovah God), and God is love and love comes from God, so we need to abide in Christ's teachings, by belief and by obedience. For example, in Mark 10:18, Jesus affirmed that God is Good. Therefore when we read this, we must also be sanctified by this truth, affirming and coming into agreement that God is Good. Also, Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us John 13:34-35:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

You must obey Jesus, and that is choosing light and choosing agape love towards God and people and not towards the world or worldly things:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

- G4100 (pisteuōn): This is the present participle form of the verb ” ” (G4100 pisteuō), meaning ”to believe” or ”to have faith.” In the participle form, it functions as a verbal adjective and can be translated as ”believing.”

> I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

6.2.26 Get to know Jesus by believing Him and following His commandments

> John 10:14-15 - I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. (ESV)

Believing and obeying (loving) Jesus, we will be known by God:

> I Corinthians 8:3 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)

We believe and obey Jesus:

> John 3:36 - He who believes in the Son has eternal life; but he who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him."

By His grace we have to actually come into obeying Jesus to find life. Think about what it means to obey Jesus: It's to walk in the Spirit, to abide in Jesus' Spirit, to be obeying Jesus' commandments, to seek to follow the pattern of life that He lived to be found in Him. You can abide in Jesus' Spirit if you have faith in Him, believing in Him, believing, trusting and obeying Him, knowing Him, and being found in Him! Faith in Christ I believe means believing in Him and being obedient to Him, having communion with Him, etc. becoming intimate with Him, following Him. This isn't our own merit, but we still obey Jesus to be found in Him. In Him we have Jesus' righteousness:

> Matthew 16:25 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. (ESV)

God loved us first. We must accept that:

> I John 4:10-11 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)
>
> John 3:35 - The Father loves the Son and has given all things into his hand. (ESV)

We must also obey the teaching of Jesus, believe on His name and follow His commandments:

> Matthew 7:21-27 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it. (ESV)
> Matthew 6:10 - Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. (ESV)
>
> Luke 6:46-49 - Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

> Proverbs 10:25 - When the tempest passes, the wicked is no more, but the righteous is established forever. (ESV)

You can't have an abundant life without knowing Jesus, so we must have faith in God and follow Jesus' commandments to get to know Him:

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

In order to know God we must love one another in the way that God has loved us:

> I John 4:7-12 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)

You must obey Jesus:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuo) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

We must have a response of love for Jesus:

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

We want to go ahead towards knowledge of Jesus, and not remain in darkness:

> John 12:46 - I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. (ESV)

In believing and obeying Jesus, we have the Son:

> I John 5:12 - Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. (ESV)

We must obey God. We have faith in God who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification, and having faith in God is having faith in His Son which is believing in and obeying Jesus Christ:

> Romans 4:23-25 - But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

We must obey Jesus' commandments to know Jesus, just as Jesus obeyed Father God's commandments, and knows Father God:

> John 8:55-58 - But you have not known him. I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and I keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day. He saw it and was glad. So the Jews said to him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham? Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am.

6.2.27 Atonement

Jesus' sacrifice is the only atonement for our sin we need. It's comprehensive. It must be received through faith in Jesus Christ - and that is not mere belief but obedience:

> Romans 3:25 - whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. (ESV)

Fear of God and hoping in God's steadfast love are strongly associated. Hoping in God's steadfast love and having the fear of God (wanting to please God, not wanting to sin against God), are strongly linked together. And because the faith we have is one which loves the truth of God, having the fear of God and having a love for the truth and a hatred of evil are all strongly linked together:

> Psalms 33:18-19 - Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine. (ESV)

With some amount of fear of God a person would have some compunction about sinning against God; A person with the fear of God is averse/adverse to sinning against God and so repentance from sin goes hand in hand with the fear of God:

> Genesis 20:11 - Abraham said, I did it because I thought, There is no fear of God at all in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife. (ESV)

> Proverbs 16:6 - By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil. (ESV)

Ultimately, when we sin, we sin against God and we ultimately needed God to have loved us first in sending Jesus Christ while we were all still sinners in order that we might be cleansed from our sin as without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin:

> Psalms 51:1-4 - Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet went to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin! For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:22 - Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

Given Proverbs 16:6 which says that "steadfast love and faithfulness atones for iniquity" and Jesus saying that "greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends" and Him saying "You are my friends if you do what I command you" I believe that as Jesus was walking in love and faithfulness, perfectly obedient to Father God, Jesus' blood atones for the sins of those who abide in His commandments:

> John 15:9-14 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

We are absolutely supposed to be not committing sin. But if we do sin then we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ. That propitiation for sin is available to all people to be received through faith in Jesus Christ:

> I John 2:1-6 - My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

There is a righteousness that we can have through faith (imputed righteousness) and there is propitiation for sin that we might commit even after coming to faith:

> Romans 3:21-31 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

We are sanctified through faith and obedience to Jesus Christ.

Faith in Jesus Christ looks like trusting, believing, receiving, accepting, having confidence in Jesus Christ and what Jesus Christ has said. The one who is receptive to, the one who who receives Jesus Christ, the one who loves Jesus Christ, the one who continues to receive Jesus Christ, the one who does not push Jesus away but who accepts Jesus Christ and His words and His deeds, that is the person who has eternal life:

> John 5:24 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (ESV)

If a person believes what He said and has confidence what would come out of trusting Him above what would come out of, trusting in man's own strength, then they such a person would act on Jesus' commandments and with confidence in God and the outcome of obeying His instructions, they would walk in the light.

> Jeremiah 17:5 - Thus says the LORD: Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, whose heart turns away from the LORD. (ESV)

The faith we have is a faith that trusts Jesus Christ in Jesus saying that whoever is trusting in Him has eternal life. The faith is counted as righteousness apart from our works. Previous works don't factor into gaining God's forgiveness so long as the person is presently trusting in, holding their faith in, trusting Christ. Trusting Christ, not something else. So we must believe truly what Jesus Christ says. And if we truly believe the truth then we'll produce good:

> Romans 4:3-8 - For what does the Scripture say? Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness. Now to the one who works, his wages are not counted as a gift but as his due. And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin. (ESV)

Romans 4:5 is saying that whoever is simply actively believing (trusting, faithing) in God, even obeying Him, accepting what God has said as true, just like Abraham did, but not "working for" what God has already promised, as in, accepts that God forgives the one who is presently trusting in Jesus Christ (just as Abraham who simply trusted that God was telling the truth was not "working for" what God had already promised), that person's faith is counted as righteousness. The type of faith in Jesus Christ that we have believes that as long as we are walking by faith in Jesus Christ, our sins are forgiven. Christ's commandments are a law of faith, not works.

Romans 4:5 (Interlinear) To the [one] however not (G3361 mē) working (G2038 ergazomenō) believing (G4100 pisteuonti) however on the [One] justifying the ungodly is reckoned the faith of him for righteousness

But this faith continues to be correctable by God from His word. If the word of God contradicts a false belief which someone has, then the person who has faith in Jesus receives God's word as correction and comes into agreement with God.

Faith in Jesus Christ looks like by faith obeying Him, just as Abraham did (Hebrews 11:8) and continues to agree with the same Jesus (II John 1:9-10).

So we mere human persons of God's creation are not justified on the basis of our own righteousness (how good we are, even how good we endeavour to be):

> Romans 3:4,20,26-28,31 - By no means! Let God be true though every one were a liar, as it is written, That you may be justified in your words, and prevail when you are judged. For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

But the word of Truth (Jesus' words, the gospel, Jesus Christ Himself) in the heart, when believed, treasured, and trusted and hoped in will make a person good from the inside out:

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

> Titus 1:15 - To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. (ESV)

> Isaiah 40:8 - The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever. (ESV)

> Luke 21:33 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (ESV)

So what matters is who you have faith in because we follow who we have faith in (Matthew 15:13-14; John 12:23-26). A person is justified by their faith in Jesus Christ. We're not justified by having faith in ourself. We need to be found by God as doers of the law of Christ which is a law of faith, and it's faith in Him, Christ:

> Romans 3:26-28 - It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. (ESV)

One's own righteousness is not enough to be saved. It's not enough to rely on one's own righteousness, to rely on "being law-abiding enough". We do need to rely on God that through faith in Jesus we can be forgiven our lawless deeds. Because we all need forgiveness from God in order to be able to move forward with a good conscience:

> Romans 4:4-8 - Now to the one who works, his wages are not counted as a gift but as his due. And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

God purchases, redeems us so that we can love in the Truth / reality, that our faith would be in God, in the Truth:

> I Peter 1:14-25 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

What is uttely essential is that we have faith in the same God who raised Jesus Christ from the dead, Jesus Christ who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. So when holding faith in God we also can also not deny Jesus Christ or that would not be true faith in God. So our faith in God, while it does look like Abraham's faith (by faith obeying God, trusting God's promises, hoping in God, having the fear of God not wanting to sin against God, agape loving God more than anyone or anything), it also is not in disagreement that we have all fallen short of God's glory having committed sin, and have needed Jesus Christ to have been delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. Because we all have sinned and are justified by His grace as a gift, though the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

> Romans 4:16-25 - That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, as it is written, I have made you the father of many nations—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, So shall your offspring be. He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead (since he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. That is why his faith was counted to him as righteousness. But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

> Romans 3:23-26 - for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

Justification and propitiation are received by faith in Jesus Christ (by trusting and obeying Jesus Christ). The reason why faith in Jesus Christ is effective for propitiation is because of Jesus Christ's blood:

> Romans 3:21-26 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

Our faith in Jesus Christ, hoping in Jesus Christ, is not in vain if Jesus Christ was raised from the dead. Believing that Jesus was raised from the dead, we are motivated to follow Him. Jesus is the Way, so we follow Him through faith in Him, trusting Him, hoping in Him, obeying Him:

> I Corinthians 15:14-16 - And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain. We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified about God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 15:17-18 - And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 15:19 - If in this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied. (ESV)

Faith in the blood of Jesus looks like by faith obeying Jesus Christ as Abraham did (Hebrews 11:8), while also having faith in the passion (Isaiah 53:5), death and resurrection of Jesus Christ (Galatians 2:20). We trust and obey God, trusting and obeying Jesus, not under the old code but in the new life of the Spirit, so we endeavour to please God, but if we sin then we confess them and we have an advocate with Father God, Jesus Christ, the Righteous, and if we abide in Jesus' commandments, we abide in Jesus and have access to propitiation. Jesus Christ's teachings and commandments for us are all spirit and life, grace and truth, and it's not going back "under law rather than grace" to believe we must be "doers of Christ's law", because it's a law of faith, not works. We trust and obey Jesus, but our faith isn't relying on us being able to carry out perfect deeds, but we still have a heart of obedience that desires, even tries to please God with our actions, but like Paul, sometimes what we end up doing isn't what we really want, and indwelling sin is not grounds for condemnation. Rather, those who abide in Jesus Christ, abiding in Jesus' commandments are not condemned. So the intention of the heart is important, even the intention of the heart to obey Jesus out of faith. And Jesus has commanded us to have faith in Him and to love one another as He commanded:

- Trusting that Jesus Christ's propitiation for sin is available to wash away one's sin. This is available even after we have first come to faith

    - Galatians 2:20 - I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. (ESV)
    - I John 4:9-10 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (ESV)
    - Romans 3:21-31 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris: "alongside but distinct from i.e. isolated from" rather than "completely without", as used in Matt 14:21. So, "manifested alongside but distinct from. i.e. separate from") the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

- ∗ And by saying "apart from the law", it's talking about the law of Moses (which came in after Abraham). So in talking about the faith being distinct from the Mosaic law, it's not taking obedience out of the equation because by faith Abraham obeyed. We are to by faith obey Jesus Christ directly.
- ∗ Matthew 14:21 - And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides (G5565 chōris) women and children. (ESV)
  - · Specifying the number of men, it's not saying there were only men, but that the count is counting only the men.
  - · So in Romans 3:21-31, the 'righteousness of God "apart from" the law' is not saying the law doesn't exist alongside the faith but that it's the faith in Jesus Christ that is counted, rather than the works of the law. We shouldn't rely on the works of the law, though good deeds do naturally come from good faith, and we should certainly strive to trust and obey God better, increasingly, with less failure. Paul himself said sometimes he doesn't do what he wants to do. So if he wants to do what is right, the heart is right, he has the right faith. Intentions matter. Heart faith, obedience, hope, love, fear of God matters.
  - · Romans 3:28 - For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from (G5565 chōris) works of the law. (ESV)
  - · James 2:26 - For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart (G5565 chōris) from works is dead. (ESV)
  - · Galatians 3:10 - For as many as are of the works of the Law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not abide by all things written in the book of the law, to perform them." (NASB)
- ∗ John 15:5 - I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from (G5565 chōris) me you can do nothing. (ESV)
  - · So we must "abide in Jesus".
- ∗ John 1:3 - All things were made through him, and without (G5565 chōris) him was not any thing made that was made. (ESV)
- ∗ Romans 3:28 - For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from (G5565 chōris) works of the law. (ESV)
  - · The faith (trusting, loving, obedient to, the truth) and the works (successfully carrying out intended actions from a desire to please God) are distinct though the faith does try (II Peter 1:5-10, Luke 13:24-27)

    - Romans 7:9 - I was once alive apart from (G5565 chōris) the law, but when the commandment came, sin came alive and I died. (ESV)

  - I John 2:1-6 - My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

  - John 13:7-11 - Jesus answered him, What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand. Peter said to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no share with me. Simon Peter said to him, Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head! Jesus said to him, The one who has bathed does not need to wash, except for his feet, but is completely clean. And you are clean, but not every one of you. For he knew who was to betray him; that was why he said, Not all of you are clean. (ESV)

- Believing what is said by Jesus' Apostles regarding sanctification and doing the will of God:

  - That we are sanctified by faith (actively trusting in, hoping in) in Jesus Christ

    - Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

  - That we are sanctified by obedience to the Truth for a sincere love of our family in Christ

    - I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

    - I John 5:1-2 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

    - God has described what this love looks like in several places

      - Colossians 3:8-10 - But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. (ESV)

      - Galatians 6:2-6 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. For each will have to bear his own load. One who is taught the word must share all good things with the one who teaches. (ESV)

      - Romans 13:10 - Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

      - Mark 10:17-21 - And as he was setting out on his journey, a man ran up and knelt before him and asked him, Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. You know the commandments: Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother. And he said to him, Teacher, all these I have kept from my youth. And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.

- John 15:9-14 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)
- Agape love is definitely valuing, treasuring, preserving
- Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 16:14 - Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)
- Isaiah 43:4 - Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life. (KJV)

Jesus' sacrifice was done once for all (but we still need to recieve it through faith in Jesus Christ):

> Hebrews 9:24-28 - For Christ has entered, not into holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true things, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the holy places every year with blood not his own, for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:5-14 - Consequently, when Christ came into the world, he said, Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body have you prepared for me; in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure. Then I said, Behold, I have come to do your will, O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book. When he said above, You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings (these are offered according to the law), then he added, Behold, I have come to do your will. He abolishes the first in order to establish the second. And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. (ESV)

"Cancelling our debt" is a metaphor that some people might try to incorrectly make Jesus' words conform to, rather than the other way around. We must abide in Jesus Christ's commandments so that we are justified and sanctified. We must have faith in the truth. We must love the truth. We must abide in love. We must be repentant, preferring God to sin.

We have been crucified with Christ and we died to sin, as Jesus "cancelled our debt", so now we must cease to walk in sin, and not go back to the vomit:

> Colossians 2:13-14 - And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross.

We should do what is valuable in stopping the indulgence of the flesh, and not what is invaluable from human precepts, but instead we should following Christ and His teachings, and His example of what love looks like:

> Colossians 2:21-23 - Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch (referring to things that all perish as they are used)—according to human precepts and teachings? These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh.

Instead, let's follow Jesus Christ's teachings:

> Colossians 3:1-4 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

Firstly, obedient children are children who hear the word of God, believe and love God, and we should be holy in all our conduct if we call on the LORD God who judges impartially according to each one's deeds:

> I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

I'm quite convinced that the substitutionary atonement is there to help us put a stop to sin, and live to righteousness and holiness:

> II Corinthians 5:21 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

If people including free-grace Christians do not repent from sin, they may still receive the wrath of God, but I'm not the judge here:

> Colossians 3:5-10 - Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator.

> Revelation of John 9:20-21 - The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands nor give up worshiping demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk, nor did they repent of their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their thefts. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 18:2 - And he called out with a mighty voice, Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place for demons, a haunt for every unclean spirit, a haunt for every unclean bird, a haunt for every unclean and detestable beast. (ESV)

We must forgive. And we don't want the wrath of God, so we must put away what is earthly:

> Colossians 3:11-13 - Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all. Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. (ESV)

> Romans 2:2-11 - We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who do such things. Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God? Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

Being a Christian means God helps us to put the sin to death. And us being commanded to not obey the body of sin, the flesh, what is earthly, etc. that absolutely is what we are supposed to do. That sinful stuff includes not loving our family in Christ:

> I Corinthians 11:32 - But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

> I John 3:10-14 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. (ESV)

Whether we circumcise our hearts or God does it or it happens at the same time, we are circumcised in the heart that we might die to sin and practice righteousness. Repenting, we are not resisting the Holy Spirit:

> Acts 7:51 - You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so do you. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 10:12-17 - And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and to keep the commandments and statutes of the LORD, which I am commanding you today for your good? Behold, to the LORD your God belong heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth with all that is in it. Yet the LORD set his heart in love on your fathers and chose their offspring after them, you above all peoples, as you are this day. Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no longer stubborn. For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who is not partial and takes no bribe. (ESV)

> Romans 2:5-8 - But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. (ESV)

We must stop doing evil and do what God wants of us, which is to have faith in Jesus, and do good, serving Christ:

> Romans 2:9-11 - There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

> Romans 2:12-13 - For all who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. (ESV)

> Romans 2:14-16 - For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

We must live out the truth:

> Romans 6:11 - So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

We stop obeying sin and start obeying righteousness, and God's Spirit helps us to do that:

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

> Romans 6:17-18 - But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

> Romans 6:2-3 - By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? (ESV)

> Mark 1:8 - I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

> Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)

> Acts 1:5 - for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now. (ESV)

> Romans 6:17-17 - But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, (ESV)

> James 1:14-15 - But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> Romans 7:25 - Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV)

We are debtors. We are debtors to God for His mercy on us so we should by His grace put to death the deeds of the body, the deeds of the flesh:

> Romans 8:12-15 - So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! (ESV)

> Romans 8:20-21 - For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. (ESV)

We must make it our aim to please God:

> Ecclesiastes 12:13-14 - The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. For God will bring every deed into judgment, with every secret thing, whether good or evil. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:9-12 - So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart. (ESV)

> Luke 12:1-9 - In the meantime, when so many thousands of the people had gathered together that they were trampling one another, he began to say to his disciples first, Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. Therefore whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed on the housetops. I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do. But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him! Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God. Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows. And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:3-4 - Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to please the one who enlisted him. (ESV)

There's nothing wrong with following the law by faith, knowing God sees our hearts, seeking praise from God and not men, but when presented with Jesus Christ, we should love Him and accept Him and place our faith in Him as He commanded:

> Romans 9:32-33 - Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, as it is written, Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame. (ESV)

> Romans 10:8-10 - But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess (G3670 homologēsēs, acknowledge, agree) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)

We should still be obedient to God. This verse clearly shows that God desires us to be obedient to Him:

> Romans 10:21 - But of Israel he says, All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people. (ESV)

> Romans 13:3-5 - For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is the servant of God, an avenger who carries out God's wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be in subjection, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience. (ESV)

We should be compassionate on one another and accept one another, knowing Jesus welcomed us even though we had lots of faults ourselves:

> Romans 15:7 - Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. (ESV)
>
> Romans 16:17-19 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. (ESV)
>
> Romans 15:18-19 - For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed, by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God—so that from Jerusalem and all the way around to Illyricum I have fulfilled the ministry of the gospel of Christ; (ESV)

Absolutely:

> I Peter 4:17 - For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? (ESV)

youtube.com: Keep Rejoicing @time: 6 min 1 sec For it is time for judgment to begin with the household of God. You see the purposefulness in suffering? Now, this is God's judgment upon the church, in this text. For it is time for judgment to begin with the household of God and if it begins with us, Christians whom he loves with all of his heart and gave his son to die for, what will be the outcome of those who do not obey the gospel? So that Judgment of God is moving through the earth and it begins with churches. And the Judgment of God comes upon churches. Why? Because he hates us? Not at all. But because he loves us so much he will not spare us anything to get out of us what he hates. Did you get that? It's not because he hates us when a church or a Christian goes through times of darkness and trial. It's because he loves us so much he will spare us nothing to to get out of us what he hates, namely sin.

> Matthew 5:21-22 - You have heard that it was said to those of old, You shall not murder; and whoever murders will be liable to judgment. But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. (ESV)
> Ephesians 5:5-7 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them;
>
> Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)
>
> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuo) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)
>
> Colossians 3:23-25 - Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality.

We must serve our Lord:

> Colossians 3:23-24 - Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ.

We serve God in various ways:

> I Corinthians 12:4-11 - Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills. (ESV)

Walk how Jesus taught us to walk, with faith in Him, and in so doing receive fellowship with one another and the cleansing of the blood of Jesus:

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

Be led by God's Spirit by doing God's will:

> Psalms 143:10 - Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! (ESV)

We receive reconciliation through Jesus Christ who is our Lord:

> Romans 5:11 - More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation. (ESV)

We are being made into people who walk in the light, not just intellectually but actually obeying God's commandment to love Him and to love one another:

> Romans 5:19 - For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous. (ESV)

Our loving obedience abounds more as we grow in the knowledge of Jesus Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness which looks like stopping sin and being obedient to Jesus, letting Jesus' righteousness shine through us:

> Philippians 1:9-11 - And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

Follow Jesus through the new and living Way:

> Hebrews 10:19-27 - Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries.

We are ransommed by the blood of Jesus and the blood of Jesus continues to cleanse us as we walk in the light, as we obey the truth:

> I Peter 1:16-22 - since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

> I John 1:6-7 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 7:14 - I said to him, Sir, you know. And he said to me, These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. (ESV)

I don't believe "limited atonement" is correct.

> Deuteronomy 30:19-20 - I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life, that you and your offspring may live, loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them. (ESV)

> Proverbs 1:28-31 - Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently but will not find me. Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD, would have none of my counsel and despised all my reproof, therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way, and have their fill of their own devices. (ESV)

> II Peter 3:9 - The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. (ESV)

To have been loved by God we only need to be any human, even those who will be condemned (because God did love everyone, offering Jesus).

John 3:16 (Interlinear) Thus so (Houtōs) (in this way) did God love (G25 agapaó - value,treasure) the world, that He gave His Only-Begotten (G3439. monogenēs - unique,only begotten) Son that (G2443 hina - in order that) everyone who is trusting/believing (G4100 pisteuo) in Him may not perish, but may have life everlasting

God indeed does open and harden hearts to listen. But that certainly doesn't void the value of the advice which God gives for us to take initiative to trust and receive God's word:

> Acts 16:13-14 - And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together. One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul. (ESV)

I believe there is opportunity for anyone to repent. But we should not be hard-hearted:

Ezekiel 18:31 - Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? (ESV)

Matthew 12:33-37 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned. (ESV)

Acts 3:19 - Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, (ESV)

Luke 13:5 - No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish. (ESV)

Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

6.2.28 Everyone needs saving

Romans 11:32 - For God has consigned all to disobedience (543. apeitheia - willful unbelief, obstinancy, disobedience), that he may have mercy on all. (ESV)

Romans 3:1-19 - Then what advantage has the Jew? Or what is the value of circumcision? Much in every way. To begin with, the Jews were entrusted with the oracles of God. What if some were unfaithful? Does their faithlessness nullify the faithfulness of God? By no means! Let God be true though every one were a liar, as it is written, That you may be justified in your words, and prevail when you are judged. But if our unrighteousness serves to show the righteousness of God, what shall we say? That God is unrighteous to inflict wrath on us? (I speak in a human way.) By no means! For then how could God judge the world? But if through my lie God's truth abounds to his glory, why am I still being condemned as a sinner? And why not do evil that good may come?—as some people slanderously charge us with saying. Their condemnation is just. What then? Are we Jews any better off? No, not at all. For we have already charged that all, both Jews and Greeks, are under sin, as it is written: None is righteous, no, not one; no one understands; no one seeks for God. All have turned aside; together they have become worthless; no one does good, not even one. Their throat is an open grave; they use their tongues to deceive. The venom of asps is under their lips. Their mouth is full of curses and bitterness. Their feet are swift to shed blood; in their paths are ruin and misery, and the way of peace they have not known. There is no fear of God before their eyes. Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. (ESV)

Romans 3:20 - For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. (ESV)

We are delivered from this evil age:

Galatians 1:3-5 - Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

We are saved from this crooked generation:

> Acts 2:40 - And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation. (ESV)

As we trust and obey Him:

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)
>
> II Peter 2:20-21 - For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.
>
> Psalms 18:1-2 - I love you, O LORD, my strength. To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who addressed the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD rescued him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said: The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. (ESV)
> Zephaniah 3:17 - The LORD your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you by his love; he will exult over you with loud singing. (ESV)

God is our deliverer from this generation (Consider if you were stuck in Sodom and wanted to escape - God can make that happen. God can pull a person out of the sinful generation):

> Psalms 18:1-2 - I love you, O LORD, my strength. To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who addressed the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD rescued him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said: The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. (ESV)

Jesus picks us out and purifies us so we are set apart for His own possession who are zealous for good works. Jesus rescues us from the crooked generation:

> Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

But Jesus doesn't pull us out of the world entirely until later. Here on earth Jesus decouples us from unbelievers, and we become one spirit with Jesus, and we also unyoke ourselves from unbelievers and distance ourselves from unrepentant sinners who claim to be believers, and we are expected to clean ourselves up by obedience to the Truth with God's help, but we still live among sinners of the world until God makes an entirely new heavens and earth in which righteousness dwells. So we can't expect God to remove all the sinners from the city in which we live, for example, but we are called to live for the Lord Jesus while we are here, and Jesus brings us together with other believers who forsake their sin and live for righteousness:

> II Peter 3:10-14 - But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people > ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 5:9-11 - I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. (ESV)

When we talk about 'merit' or 'credit', we were enabled to even be able to have merit in suffering for righteousness sake because Jesus bore our sins on the tree that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. 'Live to righteousness' means walking in the light, walking in love and truth, practicing works that please God, making spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. I Corinthians 13:1-8 says that without love (love that rejoices with the truth) we gain nothing. God loved us first and has chosen us to be a holy people for His possession, and we can now make spiritual sacrficies which God finds acceptable through Jesus Christ our Lord who we are holding faith in and who has loved us first, laying down His life for us first:

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:4-5 - As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Jesus sets us free by His Spirit in us:

> Galatians 5:1 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. (ESV)

> I John 4:4 - Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. (ESV)

We can resist the devil because Christ is in us:

> I John 4:4 - Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. (ESV)

Jesus freely gifts His Spirit to the one who cries out to Him to be saved and wants to be saved:

> Psalms 34:17-18 - When the righteous cry for help, the LORD hears and delivers them out of all their troubles. The LORD is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit. (ESV)

Our sins are blotted out so that we can return to God:

> Isaiah 44:22 - I have blotted out your transgressions like a cloud and your sins like mist; return to me, for I have redeemed you. (ESV)

We are zealous to do good works, Jesus having redeemed us and given us His Spirit, but we resist coming under condemnation from those who try to make us feel as though we must do them in order to be saved, when we have already been saved. Now repenting from sin is a little bit different. We are zealous to do good works, and we also want to repent from sin, and stop committing bad deeds:

> Romans 8:1-2 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

> Psalms 34:19 - Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all. (ESV)

People who are now in Christ are a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation), and we should be transitioning into the new. That might take some shaking off of old things, and involves being sanctified by obedience to the Truth. But those who are in Christ are a brand new creation, born-again:

Our sins were paid for by Jesus' death. Jesus rose from the dead:

> I Corinthians 15:1-5 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. (ESV)

Jesus went to the place of the dead so people who had died (those who Paul is referring to here) may also be saved. Also, it seems that the rapture doctrine was made known from a word from the Lord:

> I Thessalonians 4:14-17 - For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. (ESV)

Jesus made me born again and I'm a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). Now we wait for ultimate salvation:

> I Thessalonians 5:1-10 - Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, There is peace and security, then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. (ESV)

6.2.29 Righteous deeds

Sermon youtube.com: John Pipe - Your Holy Deeds Are Not Filthy Rags

Talk youtube.com: Catholic Good Works are NOT Filthy Rags! {Good Works are Good!} {@CatholicTruthOfficial}

When we talk about 'merit' or 'credit', we were enabled to even be able to have merit in suffering for righteousness sake because Jesus bore our sins on the tree that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. 'Live to righteousness' means walking in the light, walking in love and truth, practicing works that please God, making spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. I Corinthians 13:1-8 says that without love (love that rejoices with the truth) we gain nothing. God loved us first and has chosen us to be a holy people for His possession, and we can now make spiritual sacrficies which God finds acceptable through Jesus Christ our Lord who we are holding faith in and who has loved us first, laying down His life for us first:

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:4-5 - As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Nehemiah 13:14 - Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God and for his service. (ESV)

> Nehemiah 13:22 - Then I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves and come and guard the gates, to keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember this also in my favor, O my God, and spare me according to the greatness of your steadfast love. (ESV)

> Nehemiah 13:30-31 - Thus I cleansed them from everything foreign, and I established the duties of the priests and Levites, each in his work; and I provided for the wood offering at appointed times, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good. (ESV)

God does not despise the righteous deeds of His children done by faith:

> Isaiah 64:5-6 - You meet him who joyfully works righteousness, those who remember you in your ways. Behold, you were angry, and we sinned; in our sins we have been a long time, and shall we be saved? We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. (ESV)

6.2.30 Whoever makes an appeal to God, calls upon His name will be saved

We call upon the Lord to be saved. And everyone needs saving.

> Acts 2:21 - And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. (ESV)

> Acts 22:16 - And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on his name. (ESV)

Confessing that Jesus is Lord is becoming obedient to Him:

> Romans 10:8-9 - But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart”– that is, the word (G4487 rhema) of faith (G4102 pistis) which we are preaching, that if you confess (G3670 homologeó) (G3670 homologeo) with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe (G4100 pisteuo) in your heart (G2588 kardia) that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved; (NASB)

It’s faith in the heart which we need; obedience to Jesus Christ and belief in Jesus Christ in the heart, and belief and obedience to God who has raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

> John 7:17 - If anyone’s will is to do God’s will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. (ESV)

Jesus has been perfectly obedient, so Jesus speaks what Father God speaks, and when someone seeks Jesus Christ, they see Father God, because Father God has been revealed to us in Jesus Christ. The Father is in the Son. The Word is God.

Also, through perfect obedience, Jesus has spoken Father God’s commandment of eternal life, which is what He has said:

- ”the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak.”

God sent Jesus:

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

> I Peter 3:17 - For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil. (ESV)

Obeying God's will often leads to suffering by the hands of those who are in darkness:

> I Peter 4:19 - Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)

Whoever has faith in Jesus, has faith in God. Whoever sees Jesus sees the Father:

> John 12:44-48 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day.

Jesus' words bring eternal life. The commandment which Father God gave Jesus is eternal life and the commandment is the words that Jesus Christ has spoken, so we need to abide in Jesus Christ by letting His words abide in us, believing Him and obeying Him; doing what He said:

> John 12:49-50- For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me.

Jesus has the words of eternal life.

We need to obey Jesus Christ and walk and believe as God has commanded and spoken through Jesus:

> John 14:6-11 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him. Philip said to him, Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us. Jesus said to him, Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, Show us the Father? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves.

We must believe Jesus, and have faith in Jesus Christ, obeying Jesus, and that is obeying God and having faith in God:

> John 7:17 - If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. (ESV)

Therefore, to arrive at the knowledge of the truth, you've got to have an obedient heart.

We must hear about Jesus, believe and have faith in Him, and call on Him. In Paul's writing here, the calling on Jesus comes after hearing about Jesus and after believing in Him, and the hear of Jesus, necessitates a preacher:

> Romans 10:14-15- But how are they to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!

6.2.31 Baptism is an appeal to God for a good conscience through the [death and] resurrection of Jesus Christ's, taking part in it

I think baptism of water is an appeal to God and identifying oneself into Christ's death and resurrection but the sacrament maybe is not strictly required to be saved (as far as I understand).

To be baptised is an act of obedience.

I definitely believe that "believer's baptism" is the right way to perform baptism.

Baptism does save, but I believe it must be coupled with belief, and also trust, and I think that obedience comes from trust:

> Romans 6:3-4 - Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. (ESV)
> I Peter 3:18-21 - For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, because they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

Disbelief causes disobedience. Disbelief caused the Israelites to not walk in obedience:

> Hebrews 3:16-19 - For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)
> I Timothy 1:13 - though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, (ESV)

Doubt is very contrary to faith, even contrary to obedient faith. Ask in obedient faith without any doubting:

> James 1:6-7 - But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; (ESV)

Abraham had trust. Abraham had obedience. I believe that trust is very important to have for faith to be counted as righteousness:

> Romans 4:20-22 - No distrust (apistia) made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. That is why his faith was counted to him as righteousness. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 6:14 - And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power. (ESV)

6.3 Obedience - A heart of obedience is the start of faith, and belief is the start of continued obedience

Faith which produces love:

> Galatians 5:6 - For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. (ESV)

Faith that from a good conscience with God produces Christ's love:

> I Corinthians 16:13-14 - Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

God wants us to know Him and obey Him and to do good as He has commanded:

> Hosea 6:5-8 - Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light. For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings. But like Adam they transgressed the covenant; there they dealt faithlessly with me. Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with blood. (ESV)

The only point I want to make from this text here is that faith is supposed to continue in love and holiness. I believe this continuation of obedience with faith, love and holiness (and self-control, which along with love is one of the fruit of the Spirit) applies to all Christians. John Piper explains this well:

> I Timothy 2:13-15 - For Adam was formed first, then Eve; and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor. Yet she will be saved through childbearing — if they continue in faith and love and holiness, with self-control. (ESV)

Quote from John Piper and then all of this: faith, love, holiness, self-control is simply ordinary pathway that all men and women must take in order to come to eternal life and to salvation. We must believe, we must love, that love must yield holiness, and part of the fruit of the Holy Spirit in that holiness is self-control.

6.3.1 Continued revelation comes from having a heart of obedience towards God

> John 7:17 - If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. (ESV)

6.3.2 God's commanded is for everyone to come to the obedience of having faith in Him through Jesus Christ

> Romans 16:26 - but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith — (ESV)

6.3.3 Fear of the Lord

> Isaiah 11:2 - And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord.

Even after Jesus has come, the fear of the Lord is still important in getting God's attention:

Psalms 34:11-22 - Come, O children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. What man is there who desires life and loves many days, that he may see good? Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit. Turn away from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it. The eyes of the Lord are toward the righteous and his ears toward their cry. The face of the Lord is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth. When the righteous cry for help, the Lord hears and delivers them out of all their troubles. The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them all. He keeps all his bones; not one of them is broken. Affliction will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned. The Lord redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

Psalms 34:7 - The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them. (ESV)

We still must obey God by obeying Jesus:

I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

We make it our aim to please him:

II Corinthians 5:9-12 - So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart.

II Timothy 2:3-4 - Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to please the one who enlisted him. (ESV)

Proverbs 1:7 - The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Proverbs 2:5 - then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God.

Proverbs 8:13 - The fear of the Lord is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate.

Proverbs 9:10 - The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight.

Proverbs 10:27 - The fear of the Lord prolongs life, but the years of the wicked will be short.

Proverbs 14:27 - The fear of the Lord is a fountain of life, that one may turn away from the snares of death.

Proverbs 15:33 - The fear of the Lord is instruction in wisdom, and humility comes before honor.

Proverbs 19:23 - The fear of the Lord leads to life, and whoever has it rests satisfied; he will not be visited by harm.

6.4 Repentance does involve turning from sin

Repentance involves:

- turning from serving sin, to serving Jesus
- turning from walking in darkness to walking in the light
- turning from obeying lawlessness, to obeying the commandments of Christ
- turning from trusting in sin, to trusting in Jesus.
- turning from having faith in darkness, to having faith in Jesus.
- turning from agape loving darkness, to agape loving Jesus.
- turning from obeying sin to obeying Jesus.

Jesus is our righteousness. Jesus is the Truth. Jesus is the Light. We must trust in, trust and obey Jesus. Believe the facts about Him. Believe His works, believe His words, trust in Him. Obey Him.

> Romans 6:19 - I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. (ESV)
>
> Luke 24:46-47 - and said to them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance (G3341 metanoia) and forgiveness (G859 aphesis) of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.
>
> Malachi 4:4-6 - Remember the law of my servant Moses, the statutes and rules that I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and awesome day of the LORD comes. And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the land with a decree of utter destruction. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 11:12-14 - From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and the violent take it by force. For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John, and if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come.
> Luke 16:16-17 - The Law and the Prophets were until John; since then the good news of the kingdom of God is preached, and everyone forces his way into it. But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of the Law to become void. (ESV)

Luke 16:16-17 does not have the word ”were” in it in the Greek. But it reads more like ”With regard to the Law and prophets up to John...”. It’s clear that the Law isn’t voided because of what Jesus says next.

> Luke 16:17 - But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of the Law to become void. (ESV)

I think Matthew 11:13 reads in the Greek more like, "All the prophets and the law until John prophesied." The way the ESV reads, it seems to make it Matt 11:13 out to say there were only prophets up until John, and so by implication excludes Jesus Christ Himself, who is also the Son of God, from being a 'prophet'. And it also seems to read like the Law itself was only until John. But I do not believe that Matthew 11:13 actually reads like that the Greek. I believe that the way the Greek reads is more like this: "all the prophets and the Law up to John prophesied". Consider that Jesus Christ is the telos of the Law and Jesus also gave commandments (Christ's Law), it also makes sense that He is the "telos of the prophets". Jesus is the Son of God, but that doesn't mean He is not also regarded as a prophet. Jesus also made prophets Himself.

> Ephesians 4:11-13 - And it was He who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for works of ministry and to build up the body of Christ, until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God, as we mature to the full measure of the stature of Christ. (engbsb2020eb)

And if those who Jesus sends are speaking by the Holy Spirit, then what they say will be speaking the same (G3670 homologeó) Jesus. Their words would not contradict Jesus Christ's words. Their words will not be contradicting who Jesus is. Their words would not contradict what the Old Testament prophets have spoken about Jesus.

> John 14:26 - But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. (ESV)

If we are "in the Spirit" then what other people confess or refuse to confess identifies whether or not the spirit working through them is from God. The principle can and should be used to test dreams, visions, angels, demons and human beings to see if we can trust them. I would never trust someone completely who refuses to give me the testimony that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, as the Apostle John speaks of in I John 4:2-3.

I John 4:2-3 doesn't say that if a spirit speaks the name "Jesus" then it's from God. It doesn't say that at all. Rather, this word confess (G3670 homologeó) surely means that "confess Jesus" is agreeing with, agreeing with Jesus. The spirit must agree that Jesus has come in the flesh and the spirit must agree with Jesus. Now if a spirit does say to me that "Jesus Christ has come from God into the world in the flesh", then that gives me confidence that the message is from God:

> I John 4:2-3 - By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

> Luke 24:25 - And he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! (ESV)

> Mark 9:11-13 - And they asked him, Why do the scribes say that first Elijah must come? And he said to them, Elijah does come first to restore all things. And how is it written of the Son of Man that he should suffer many things and be treated with contempt? But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, as it is written of him.

> Matthew 11:21-21 - Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But I tell you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you.

6.4.1 Justification by having faith like Abraham in He who raised Jesus Christ from the dead

Paul the Apostle met James, brother of Jesus:

> Galatians 1:15-20- But when he who had set me apart before I was born, and who called me by his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son to me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with anyone; nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and remained with him fifteen days. But I saw none of the other apostles except James the Lord's brother. (In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie!)

Abraham trusted God and it was counted to him as righteousness (Romans 4:20-25). And Abraham's works were not ”works of the law” (Galatians 3:17), but were works of faith (Hebrews 11:8):

> Hebrews 11:8 - By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. (ESV)

Interestingly, James believes that a person is justified not by faith alone, but by works of faith (I Thessalonians 1:3), and the justification by faith 'alone' is fulfilled when they are justified by works.

So which comes first? Justification by faith or justification by working faith? Abraham's duty was simply to fear God and keep His commandments. The book of Genesis was written later. Abraham believed (trusted) God and obeyed Him. That's what we should do too and leave the doing of the justifying to God. Even though we believe that God commends faith, we don't commend ourselves for that faith. It's our duty to have faith in God (I John 3:21-24). Our faith should be modelled on Abraham's. Abraham had not read the book of Genesis, nor the letter of James, nor the letters of Paul:

> James 2:21-24 - Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? You see that faith was working with (4903. sunergeó) his works, and as a result of the works, faith was perfected; and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness,” and he was called the friend of God. You see that a man is justified by works and not by faith alone.

> Galatians 2:16-19 - yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified. But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor. For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. (ESV)

Fear-of-God:

> Romans 4:5-8 - And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin.

AMEN!! But this doesn't mean the other elements of working faith can't play a part.
We may rest from our labors when we die in the Lord:

> Revelation of John 14:13 - And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on. Blessed indeed, says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them! (ESV)

Circumcision of the flesh does not matter because salvation by faith is available for both the circumcised (justification by faith with works of faith like Abraham's), and the uncircumcised (justification by faith alone). But we continue to abide in Christ's teachings/doctrines and the facts about Him and as we learn more of His words commandments, are corrected/salted and sanctified by Him:

> Romans 4:9-12 - Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe (G4100 pisteuo) without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

If a Law-adhering person not only adheres to law but also walks in the footsteps of faith which Abraham had before he was circumcised, then that is a valid mode of justification. But we must continue to abide in Christ's teachings/doctrines and the facts about Him as we learn more of His words commandments, are corrected/salted and sanctified by Him. So a Jew when confronted with Jesus Christ needs to receive Jesus:

> Romans 4:11-13 - He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised. For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:6-8 - For it stands in Scripture: Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame. So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe, The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, and A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense. They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. (ESV)

The truly circumcised are the ones who obey the precepts of the law from a heart of faith:

> Romans 2:25-29 - For circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the law, but if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law. For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 9:25-26 - Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will punish all those who are circumcised merely in the flesh— Egypt, Judah, Edom, the sons of Ammon, Moab, and all who dwell in the desert who cut the corners of their hair, for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:3 - For we are the real circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— (ESV)

> Ezekiel 36:25-28 - I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules. You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:15 - For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). (ESV)

Something has a velocity but the distance travelled is a different thing. Likewise, the Christian can have faith but the works done is a different thing. That faith working through love is what counts doesn't mean it's the works which merit justification:

> Galatians 5:6-7 - For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

We must share the faith of Abraham to receive the grace:

> Romans 4:13-17 - For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. For if it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression. That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, as it is written, I have made you the father of many nations—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

In hope, Abraham believed against hope. He didn't weaken in faith, even when it seemed impossible. He trusted and believed God, and grew strong in his faith and gave glory to God. We should do the same.

We must believe on Him (God) who raised Jesus from the dead, with the faith that Abraham had - Abraham's faith was working. The faith at the start justified him and the works justified him too.

If a person lives their life as a living sacrifice to honour and serve Jesus Christ, which is honouring and having faith in God as a continuation of their faith, then all of that is analogous to Abraham's works of faith.

> Romans 12:1-2 - I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

> Hebrews 13:15-16 - Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God. (ESV)

We must trust God in hope against hope, and not weaken in faith, and trust God's promise, and honour Jesus Christ with our lives - that is what I believe.

The most important thing is this faith - but God certainly uses our works of faith:

Our salvation comes from faith alone in God for the promise of forgiveness from sin and hope of eternal life with Christ Jesus for those who believe in God who raised Jesus Christ from the dead, our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

It's because of what Jesus Christ has done that we are justified to get cleaned up, not because of anything we have done. We must trust in God to justify us we hold to our faith.

> Romans 4:18-25 - In hope he believed (G4100 pisteuo) against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, So shall your offspring be. He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead (since he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. That is why his faith was counted to him as righteousness. But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

Therefore, do not put your hope on how little faith you can have for Jesus Christ to scrape through (because Jesus Christ is the judge), but instead live for Him sincerely, doing as He has instructed us.

To follow and obey Jesus Christ with the same type of faith that Abraham had - that is what we should be doing - that's saving faith, I think. Our justification is based on what Jesus Christ has done.

Now as we live by faith, we are justified by this faith and have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ who we are believing, following, obeying and honouring.

And we only have access to the grace if we have faith:

> Romans 5:1-2 - Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

Faith involves obeying Jesus Christ:

> I John 2:3 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments.

> I John 5:3-4 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith.

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:14 - so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

Jesus says you must obey God to be part of His family:

> Luke 8:21 - But He answered and said to them, "My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."

Jesus implies you must obey Him (Jesus) to be part of His family:

> John 7:16 - So Jesus answered them, My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me.

So obeying Jesus Christ is having faith in God:

> Romans 4:23-25 - But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

We are born-again to a living hope. We have a hope for eternal life now and assurance about it. We got that hope by being born-again through faith Jesus' gospel, that He paid the price for our sin on the cross:

> I Peter 1:3 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, (ESV)

Romans 8:23-25 - And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. (ESV)

Being born-again certainly involves being born-again to a living hope. It seems to me that I'm awaiting salvation currently. I've been born-again to a living hope, and I'm still awaiting a future salvation, and I'm waiting for Jesus. And during that time, I'm trying to purify my soul by obedience to the Truth:

I Peter 1:3-5 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. (ESV)

Hebrews 9:27-28 - And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. (ESV)

II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

I Peter 1:22-25 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

KJV is possibly more accurate here:

Romans 8:23-25 - And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it. (KJV)

Hebrews 11:1-2 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. (ESV)

Acts 26:6 - And now I stand here on trial because of my hope in the promise made by God to our fathers, (ESV)

Hebrews 10:23 - Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

Titus 1:2 - in hope of eternal life, which God, who never lies, promised before the ages began (ESV)

6.5 The obedient children are the ones who are not conformed to the passions of our former ignorance

I Peter 1:14-16 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy.

6.5.1 Jesus Christ has explained what the faith of Abraham looks like for someone who believes in Him

Repentance from sin, obeying Jesus Christ, making Jesus your Lord and Saviour:

> Luke 19:1-10 - He entered Jericho and was passing through. And there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich. And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small of stature. So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was about to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today. So he hurried and came down and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all grumbled, He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner. And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold. And Jesus said to him, Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost. (ESV)

> Hebrews 6:20 - where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:20 - For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

6.6 Get to know Jesus by following His commandments

> Matthew 7:21-27 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:10 - Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. (ESV)

> Luke 6:46-49 - Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

You must obey Jesus:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuo) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

We must obey God. We have faith in God who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification, and having faith in God is having faith in His Son which is believing in and obeying Jesus Christ:

> Romans 4:23-25 - But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

`pisteuo` is the faith verb.

So the promise is for all who put their faith in God by obeying Jesus Christ with the faith of Abraham to a greater or lesser degree.

6.7 The sons of disobedience are the ones who are conformed to sexual immorality, impurity, or covetousness, etc.

> Ephesians 5:5-7 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them;

> Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

6.7.1 All sin is lawlessness

If we are led by the spirit then we are not under the Mosaic law. So we should forsake sin as it is described by such works of the flesh as listed:

> Galatians 5:18-21 - But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. (ESV)

The law (Mosaic law) is laid down for those who are lawless and disobedient!:

> I Timothy 1:9 - understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, (ESV)

Sin is lawlessness:

> I John 3:4 - Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

We are under Christ's law, not the Mosaic law:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of Christ) that I might win those outside the law.

We must have faith in Jesus to be justified by faith. God justifies the person who trusts in Jesus and since we trust Jesus we should be doers of Christ's law (which is not outside the law of God, so we are doers of the law), and God justifies the person with the blood of Jesus. If we're trusting in Jesus then we're trusting in God who justifies the ungodly. We're not trusting in God to justify our ungodliness, but to justify us as we keep our faith in Jesus:

> Romans 2:13-16 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers (G4163 poiētai) of the law who will be justified. For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

We must abide in the teachings of Jesus, believing what Jesus has said, believing Jesus:

> John 5:37-38 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. (ESV)

> Job 22:30 - He delivers even the one who is not innocent, who will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands. (ESV)

> Hebrews 13:8 - Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. (ESV)

In His flesh the emnity, which is the Law of commandments contained in ordinances is abolished:

> Ephesians 2:14-16 - For He Himself is our peace, who made both groups into one and broke down the barrier of the dividing wall, by abolishing in His flesh the enmity, which is the Law of commandments contained in ordinances, so that in Himself He might make the two into one new man, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, by it having put to death the enmity. (NASB)

Instead of being under the law, we seek to live for Christ, and follow Christ's teaching:

> Galatians 6:12 - It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh who would force you to be circumcised, and only in order that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. (ESV)

Within Christ there is peace:

> Galatians 5:13 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. (ESV)

We follow Jesus and obey His commandments:

> Galatians 5:14 - For the whole law is fulfilled in one word (G3056 logō): You shall love your neighbor as yourself. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. (ESV)

1Clem 49:1 Let him that hath love in Christ fulfill the commandments of Christ.

We must feed on His flesh to abide in Him:

> John 6:53 - So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. (ESV)

> John 6:55-56 - For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. (ESV)

Jesus' flesh is the way into the holy places:

> Hebrews 10:19-20 - Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, (ESV)

Jesus suffered in the flesh, and we should too, and stop sinning:

> I Peter 4:1 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, (ESV)

> Colossians 1:24 - Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, (ESV)

We're justified by our faith in Christ. We simply follow Jesus:

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

Being justified by the law of faith in Christ (trusting and obeying Christ) rather than being justified by keeping the whole Mosaic law under the old covenant is, I believe, the correct way to understand what Paul is saying. Because I believe we need a law-abiding faith (true faith in Jesus Christ being a non-idolatrous, agape-loving of the truth faith, and loving neighbour as yourself faith):

> Galatians 5:1-7 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you. I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

Obey the Truth means obey Jesus:

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

There are lawless spirits (spirits which work things like idolatry, and falsehood; anything which is against the truth):

> II Thessalonians 2:7-13 - For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. Only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth and bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming. The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. (ESV)

Lawlessness includes idolatry:

> I Peter 4:3 - The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. (ESV)

If idolatry is lawlessness then so is falsely witnessing, so is sexual immorality, adultery, murder/hate, etc. And the Apostles in the New Testament and Jesus, and the Bible generally testifies that we must stop being lawless!

youtube.com: America Under Delusion | David Wilkerson {@world$_{\textbf{challenge}}$} And for this reason, God shall send them strong delusion that they should bring a lie. Now, we can't soften that. Theologians have tried. You can't soften it. God said, "I will send the delusion. I will cause them to accept the lie because God sees that they have so played with the truth, so toyed with the truth, so cast it aside. God after his wooing of the spirit, his gracious message of mercy time and time again, year after year, pleading and wooing, and then finally the door is shut, the truth is rejected, it's cast aside, and the Lord says, "All right, I'll give you over to the lie."

> The same thing in Romans 1 when God turned over those who tried to hold the truth in unrighteousness over to a homosexual lifestyle. He turned them over, in fact, the Bible said, to a reprobate mind because they tried to retain the truth in unrighteousness. They wanted Jesus and their sin at the same time.
> They wanted to be able to go out and lay with a man and a woman lay with the woman and still worship God. God in his forknowledge knows that that individual will never receive the truth, it will never get through. God says, "All right, I give you over to your lie". And the lie is: Finally that I have a false peace, I have a false happiness because I know that I can do what I please.

> And so we've got multitudes of people sitting in front of their internet, sitting in front of their computers watching pornography, renting X-rated movies, and now they have a guilty conscience, and they have their minds warped. And do you think they're going to judge anybody in Congress? The nation is in delusion. They're believing a lie.

Lawlessness includes hate/murder:

> Matthew 24:10-13 - And then many will fall away and betray one another and hate one another. And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. (ESV)

We are commanded by Paul the Apostle to present our members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification - that's called repentance from sin, folks!:

> Romans 6:19 - I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. (ESV)

Here, I read light as basically a synonym for the truth:

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)
>
> I John 2:9-11 - Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. (ESV)

Having fellowship with Him (Jesus) involves practicing the Truth as much as it involves believing the truth:

> I John 1:6 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. (ESV)

We were purchased with the precious blood of Jesus Christ and we are supposed to be changed and purified to no longer being lawless!:

Jesus picks us out and purifies us so we are set apart for His own possession who are zealous for good works. Jesus rescues us from the crooked generation:

> Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

But Jesus doesn't pull us out of the world entirely until later. Here on earth Jesus decouples us from unbelievers, and we become one spirit with Jesus, and we also unyoke ourselves from unbelievers and distance ourselves from unrepentant sinners who claim to be believers, and we are expected to clean ourselves up by obedience to the Truth with God's help, but we still live among sinners of the world until God makes an entirely new heavens and earth in which righteousness dwells. So we can't expect God to remove all the sinners from the city in which we live, for example, but we are called to live for the Lord Jesus while we are here, and Jesus brings us together with other believers who forsake their sin and live for righteousness:

> II Peter 3:10-14 - But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 5:9-11 - I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. (ESV)

We confess (G3670 homologeó) as sinful what the Bible says is sinful, then when we are tempted to obey unrighteousness we instead obey Righteousness (we obey Jesus) and when we continue learning from Jesus we believe and affirm what He says, becoming sanctified by the Truth as we go, while holding to the Truth of who He is with belief in His name (onoma) we also maintain we are forgiven by faith in His name. For example, if we confess that what is sinful is sinful instead of denying that it is sinful then when we are tempted to commit sin, we instead choose to put our time/money/effort that would have been spent practicing that sinful (such as a vice) towards supporting your neighbour out of obedience to Jesus (especially those you consider are in the family of Christ), we are being sanctified by obedience to the truth:

> I John 1:9 - If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

> Luke 11:39-41 - And the Lord said to him, Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also? But give as alms those things that are within, and behold, everything is clean for you. (ESV)

Believe and obey Jesus:

> Luke 6:32-36 - If you love those who love you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)

We must submit to the Righteousness of God, and that means accepting the testimony of God regarding His Son:

> John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV)

> I John 4:10 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (ESV)
>
> John 9:39 - Jesus said, For judgment I came into this world, that those who do not see may see, and those who see may become blindn. (ESV)

So the righteous ones walk in the light as He is in the light, believing and obeying Jesus, loving their neighbour as Jesus loved them first, and they submit to the Righteousness of God (Jesus Christ).

Our faith we keep between ourself and God. You're accountable to Jesus for your beliefs:

> Romans 14:22 - The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. (ESV)

We must not allow ourselves to be conformed to or carried away by the error of lawless people. The error is their lawlessness:

> II Peter 3:17 - You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, take care that you are not carried away with the error of lawless people and lose your own stability. (ESV)

We must follow Jesus, and obey Jesus and stop obeying sin!

> Matthew 7:21-24 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)

Part of the will of Father God is that we repent/turn away from sin to start serving Jesus:

> I Thessalonians 4:3-7 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. (ESV)

7 Try to clarify what sin looks like from Bible verses

- 1. Rejecting Jesus
  - John 15:22-24 - If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV)
  - John 16:8-11 - And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: concerning sin, because they do not believe in me; concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will see me no longer; concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged. (ESV)
- 2. Disobeying God - absolutely 100%
  - Romans 5:19 - For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

    - Breaking God's law? Sure.
        - Breaking the Mosaic Law is sin for Jews and disobedient people.
        - Christians still 'do' the law in faith but don't rely on perfectly doing it for their justification, and don't rely on perfect compliance to it for their justification. We still rely on faith in Jesus for our justification. But the law outlaws a lot of sinful practices which are still very damaging to us
            - We can only do obedience to God while we are in the truth.
            - We must do love as commanded as we believe the gospel.
            - I John 4:10-15 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. (ESV)

- 3. An evil heart or mind which is hostile to God
    - We must repent from idols etc. even after coming to believe the gospel
        - I Corinthians 10:9-11 - We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. (ESV)
- 4. Evil deeds. Absolutely How is that defined though?
    - I would say it's breaking the Great Commandments
    - To not love God with all one's heart, mind, soul and strength, and to not love their neighbour.

7.1 Sin is disobedience

Instead of being a slave of sin, we become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching of the gospel:

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)
>
> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

7.1.1 Creation

> Revelation of John 4:11 - Worthy are you, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created. (ESV) youtube.com: Seriously ?! THIS Is What " Christian " Schools Are Teaching ? {@ aigkenham } Yeah, I agree with Ken Ham here. My present understanding is that the Genesis account is literally true, but that God made the first man Adam as what would appear to us as though he already had age (A fully grown man? I think so? God knows). I believe that God has done the same with creation, as in has made a "mature-looking" creation. But just because God made a mature-looking creation, that doesn't mean it had sin in it, nor a vicious history of survival of the fittest as some people imagine. When God made the world it was good and without sin.

youtube.com: Watch out for this Christian Leader {@ aigkenham } I commented, "Same, I'm with Ken on this. I believe the Genesis creation account is literally true, but that Adam was made mature, like the stars together with their starlight, and the whole of creation. When the elements of creation were made, they were made in a mature state. Like when an author writes a story with characters that have a backstory, there's nothing to stop God from creating in such a way that it appears like history goes back further than it does in reality."

I think it is important to trust what the Scripture says here in a literal way. Here's some reasoning as to why: Jesus says, "If you believed Moses, you would believe me." (John 5:28-29,37-47) and Jesus in making reference to the Genesis creation account corrects someone who is reasoning from their carnal mind (Mark 12:24-27). The Scripture says that God is the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, and since God is the God of the living, then Abraham, Isaac and Jacob are in reality alive and not dead. Reasoning from the carnal mind, someone else says, "Let me first go and bury my father." when if, trusting Jesus, they were actually doing as Jesus instructed to call no man on earth their father (Matthew 23:1, Matthew 23:9), then they would be referring to God as their father, and God is certainly not dead. Jesus responds to the man, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead." (*Matthew 8:21-22)

7.1.2 Where Cain got his wife

Adam and Eve were quite literally the first humans. Adam and Eve had other children:

> Genesis 5:4 - The days of Adam after he fathered Seth were 800 years; and he had other sons and daughters. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:45 - Thus it is written, The first man Adam became a living being; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. (ESV)

> Genesis 3:20 - The man called his wife's name Eve, because she was the mother of all living. (ESV) youtube.com: The BEST Answer to Where Cain Got His Wife {@ aigkenham } 1 Corinthians 15:45 says Adam was "the first man"; Genesis 3:20 [says] Eve was "the mother of all the living". So there was only one man and one woman to start with which means brothers had to marry sisters. But it wasn't against God's law until the time of Moses in Leviticus. Remember, Abraham was married to his half sister and that wasn't a problem but at the time of Moses God brought in this law that no longer could close relations marry.

Abram was married to his half-sister:

> Genesis 11:29 - And Abram and Nahor took wives. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran the father of Milcah and Iscah. (ESV)

> Genesis 20:12 - Besides, she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father though not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife. (ESV)

The Mosaic Law which came in later, forbade marriage between close relatives:

> Leviticus 18:6 - None of you shall approach any one of his close relatives to uncover nakedness. I am the LORD. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:16-19 - Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring. It does not say, And to offsprings, referring to many, but referring to one, And to your offspring, who is Christ. This is what I mean: the law, which came 430 years afterward, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to make the promise void. For if the inheritance comes by the law, it no longer comes by promise; but God gave it to Abraham by a promise. Why then the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring should come to whom the promise had been made, and it was put in place through angels by an intermediary. (ESV)

The Old Testament Scripture is still a) able to make a person wise for salvation through Christ Jesus, and b) very much profitable for teaching, reproof, correction and training in righteousness. So the Law of Moses, book of Proverbs, etc. are still very much profitable in educating oneself about righteous living, understanding better what God loves and hates, and even to make oneself wise for salvation through faith in Jesus Christ:

> II Timothy 3:14-17 - But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 9:7-9 - Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard without eating any of its fruit? Or who tends a flock without getting some of the milk? Do I say these things on human authority? Does not the Law say the same? For it is written in the Law of Moses, You shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain. Is it for oxen that God is concerned? (ESV)

7.1.3 Adam and Eve's disobedience

> I Timothy 2:13-15 - For Adam was formed first, then Eve; and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor. Yet she will be saved through childbearing—if they continue in faith and love and holiness, with self-control. (ESV)

I do not believe the motivation of Adam that ”he had decided to take upon himself death in order to save his wife” is true. I don't think it would be right to call what he did a sacrifice that was motivated by love, and if it were motivated by agape love, which is a treasuring, compassionate love, then that treasuring would have actually been idolatry to choose his wife over God, worshiping the creature over the Creator. The essence of sin is loving anything more than God. I neither think it would have been a predicament for him to choose between obeying the commandment to be fruitful and multiply and the commandment to not eat of the fruit.

It looks like Adam simply followed suit in willful disobedience. I think it's extremely contrived to read into this verse or add to this passage the idea that Adam ate this in order to save his wife. It's just not there in the text, and I don't think it can be read into it. ”and he ate” can be read ”and he sinned” or ”and he disobeyed God”. ”and he ate” shows at least some level of him acting out the deed.

Eve was deceived and disobeyed God. Then Adam disobeyed God.

> Genesis 3:6 - So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate, and she also gave some to her husband who was with her, and he ate. (ESV)

Adam should have been seeking to keep God's commandments mindfully and that would have protected him against disobeying this specific commandment to not eat or touch the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. This commandment was for their protection. If Adam was mindfully keeping God's commandment and sought to keep it then he might have avoided eating the thing that would invoke his death. God said to him if they eat or touch it, they'll die.

> Genesis 2:15-17 - The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and keep it. And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, You may surely eat of every tree of the garden, but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die. (ESV)

So it was a commandment intended to protect them from doing something that would kill them. So, therefore you could say that, even if Adam (as in, not Eve) was not being mindful of God's commandment and he touched and ate it 'accidentally' after Eve gave it to him, it still brought death for him.

Paul still calls it Adam's disobedience. Even if Adam's disobedience started with Eve's disobedience, and even if it was Eve who was deceived, Adam (as in the male partner, not Eve) still disobeyed. 'Mindful" or not, deceived or not, it was still disobedience that brought Adam into a state of unrighteousness, and brought death to them:

> Romans 5:19 - For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous. (ESV)

> Genesis 3:17-18 - And to Adam he said, Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree of which I commanded you, You shall not eat of it, cursed is the ground because of you; in pain you shall eat of it all the days of your life; thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you; and you shall eat the plants of the field. (ESV)

I think it's fair to understand Paul's words that "Adam was not deceived" to mean that Adam willfully transgressed knowing he was disobeying God. He should have been seeking to keep God's commandments and that would have protected him against disobeying them. This commandment to not eat of the tree wasn't merely a dietary food law. God said that if they eat or touch it, they'll die. I don't think it's right to say this was being done out of some sort of desire to save Eve, or out of a desire to fulfill the commandment to be fruitful and multiply. That would be extremely contrived.

> I Timothy 2:14 - and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor. (ESV)

Anyway, willfully disobeying in order to obey another commandment wouldn't be trusting God for a better solution, but regardless I don't think the text shows that he purposefully disobeyed in order to obey.

I don't think eating of the tree was an act of mercy either. Nor do see how the commandment to be fruitful and multiply 'trumped' the commandment to not eat of the tree:

> Matthew 12:3-7 - He said to them, Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him: how he entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him to eat nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? Or have you not read in the Law how on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless? I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. And if you had known what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the guiltless. (ESV)

It certainly seems as though they were guilty of sin:

> Genesis 3:10-11 - And he said, I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself. He said, Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat? (ESV)

I don't think we can say that Adam was motivated to eat of the fruit out of love for Eve in order to save her. But if we were to say that that is why he did it, then Adam took matters into his own hands, rather than trusting God with a legitimate solution that he had to trust God would come up with. The whole, "Adam as a messianic archetype for Christ" thing is really contrived. In fact, I think the idea might come out of gnosticism - "Christ and Sophia".

Adam being referred to as a 'type' of the one who was to come (Christ) is really just talking about what I Cor 15:21-22 says:

> I Corinthians 15:21-22 - For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. (ESV)

> Romans 5:14-19 - Yet death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sinning was not like the transgression of Adam, who was a type of the one who was to come. But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if many died through one man's trespass, much more have the grace of God and the free gift by the grace of that one man Jesus Christ abounded for many. And the free gift is not like the result of that one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brought justification. If, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ. Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men. For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:45 - Thus it is written, The first man Adam became a living being; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. (ESV)

If Adam had trusted God with the issue then he could have and should have simply asked God for mercy for his wife. If Adam was motivated to "save Eve" then what he did was clearly done in distrust of God, and in distrust for God to be able to save them.

> Psalms 78:21-22 - Therefore, when the LORD heard, he was full of wrath; a fire was kindled against Jacob; his anger rose against Israel, because they did not believe in God and did not trust his saving power. (ESV)

I think the "two conflicting commandments" idea doesn't really fly. If Adam remained faithful to God and did not disobey God, then God might have come up with another solution, in order for Adam to fulfill that initial directive to be fruitful and multiply.

It's so, so important for Christians to endeavour to keep Christ's commandments.

> II Timothy 2:21 - Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work. (ESV)

Didache says, "But not every one who speaks in the Spirit is a prophet but only if he holds the ways of the Lord."

So Adam should have kept God's commandments, and he wouldn't be disobeying God's commandment to be fruitful and multiply by "not eating of the fruit".

If Adam simply was seeking to maintain a good conscience with God, then that would involve keeping God's commandments, and whatever happened would not have involved Adam eating of the fruit. Anyway, as Christians, we also have to have our first allegiance to Christ.

> II Corinthians 11:3 - But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ. (ESV)

> Matthew 10:37 - Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

> Luke 14:26-33 - If anyone comes to me and does not hate (3404. miseó, 3404 miséō – properly, to detest (on a comparative basis); hence, denounce; to love someone or something less than someone (something) else, i.e. to renounce one choice in favor of another.) his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it?

> Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build and was not able to finish. Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple. (ESV)

Adam wasn't deceived, and so he must have willfully disobeyed God's commandment for them to not eat the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

That's not a lot of commandments to follow, but he disobeyed God's Law at the time.

> Romans 5:18-21 - Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men. For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous. Now the law came in to increase the trespass, but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more, so that, as sin reigned in death, grace also might reign through righteousness leading to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. (ESV)

If Adam did so willfully then that alone would defile himself. If Adam did so mindlessly taking the fruit from Eve, it still brought death upon him because God said that if he touched or ate it then he would die.

And it seems to me that Adam didn't resist sin. Adam didn't resist disobeying God, when he should have made effort to remain faithful to God, effort to continue in obedience to God. And Adam may not have been mindful of God's commandment which was for his protection.

> Hosea 4:6 - My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children. (ESV)

And I do not believe that the commandment to be fruitful and multiply required Adam to eat of the fruit in order to fulfill the commandment. Thus there was no predicament.

> Hebrews 12:4 - In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. (ESV)

Adam's 'predicament' (if we can even call it that) is that while Eve had disobeyed God, Adam and Eve were also commanded to be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth, etc. So what was he to do? Just let Eve get booted out of the garden and him to stay? I think that if Adam trusted in God then he would have believed in God even for potential salvation of Eve:

> Genesis 1:22 - And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth. (ESV)

> Genesis 2:17 - but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die. (ESV)

> Psalms 78:21-22 - Therefore, when the LORD heard, he was full of wrath; a fire was kindled against Jacob; his anger rose against Israel, because they did not believe in God and did not trust his saving power. (ESV)

I had an interesting conversation and the end of the day today <2025-06-11 Wed> with someone answering questions about the LDS organisation. I had prayed yesterday for God to help sanctify the LDS people in the Truth, and myself as well.

I got home at the end of the day and fed my cat, and opened up StarCraft 2 to play a game and then I saw someone was answering questions about the LDS organisation / their doctrine. And so I struck a conversation. I confessed my faith to them: Jesus is the Christ, Jesus is Jehovah the Son of God, died on a tree, rose from the dead for my justification. They amened that. And we got talking.

As part of that Adam's let's call it "predicament" was brought up.

Adam's predicament theory. I do not believe the motivation that Adam had decided to take upon himse

Adam, in his desire to fulfill God's command - decided to take upon himself death (I disagree with this) - in order to save his wife. For we know that the woman is saved in childbearing. Adam was not deceived. He knew what he was doing. And was willing to sacrifice himself to be with his wife and save her. The Lord Jesus Christ is not deceived - He was willing to come into our world - to inherit the same fallen nature - in order to sacrifice Himself and thus saving us.

> I Timothy 2:15 - Yet she will be saved through childbearing—if they continue in faith and love and holiness, with self-control. (ESV)

So given the commandment to be fruitful and multiply and also the commandment to not eat of the fruit. I think Adam was wrong to take the fruit. We should resist disobeying God.

> Hebrews 12:4 - In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. (ESV)

In the situation, Adam should have not disobeyed God to "obey God". Obeying God should be done in a legitimate way.

> I Timothy 1:8 - Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, (ESV)

If I stole money to have something to give to the one that asks, for example, like Robin Hood, that isn't a legitimate way to give to the one who asks. Adam could have left the garden freely with his wife, without eating the fruit, as far as I understand. Eve would have been booted, and he could have gone with her. That would have been the correct thing to do. The first thing he should have done is supplicated to God, as the head of the wife, in the fear of God, he should have asked God for mercy for his wife:

> James 4:6 - But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble. (ESV)

> I Peter 5:5 - Likewise, you who are younger, be subject to the elders. Clothe yourselves, all of you, with humility toward one another, for God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble. (ESV)

7.2 Iniquity and sin: In this case, sin is the verb, I think, and iniquity is the noun

> Job 10:14 - If I sin, you watch me and do not acquit me of my iniquity. (ESV)

> Job 14:16-17 - For then you would number my steps; you would not keep watch over my sin; my transgression would be sealed up in a bag, and you would cover over my iniquity. (ESV)

> Psalms 38:18 - I confess (G3670 homologeó) my iniquity; I am sorry for my sin. (ESV)

> Psalms 51:2 - Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin! (ESV)

7.3 God searches the heart and tests the mind

> Jeremiah 17:10 - I the LORD search the heart and test the mind, to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds. (ESV)

> Proverbs 5:21 - For a man's ways are before the eyes of the LORD, and he ponders all his paths. (ESV)

> Job 10:4-8 - Have you eyes of flesh? Do you see as man sees? Are your days as the days of man, or your years as a man's years, that you seek out my iniquity and search for my sin, although you know that I am not guilty, and there is none to deliver out of your hand? Your hands fashioned and made me, and now you have destroyed me altogether. (ESV)

We should ask God to search our heart, and our thoughts, and try us:

> Psalms 139:23-24 - Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting! (ESV)

> Psalms 19:14 - Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O LORD, my rock and my redeemer. (ESV)

7.4 The law is laid down for the sinners

Sinners:

- the lawless and disobedient,
- the ungodly,
- and sinners,
- the unholy and profane

> I Timothy 1:9 - understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, (ESV)

7.5 Whoever transgresses the law is liable to judgement

> Matthew 5:21 - You have heard that it was said to those of old, You shall not murder; and whoever murders will be liable to judgment. (ESV)

7.6 Anger leads to the matter being settled in God's court

Anger is not inherently sinful but anger has to be well-placed:

> Ephesians 4:26-27 - Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil. (ESV)

If someone is angry with his brother, then God may take this matter to judgement:

> Matthew 5:22 - But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. (ESV)

If you're unrighteously angry then watch out:

> John 7:19-25 - Has not Moses given you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why do you seek to kill me? The crowd answered, You have a demon! Who is seeking to kill you? Jesus answered them, I did one deed, and you all marvel at it. Moses gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath. If on the Sabbath a man receives circumcision, so that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me because on the Sabbath I made a man's whole body well? Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment. Some of the people of Jerusalem therefore said, Is not this the man whom they seek to kill? (ESV)

> II Chronicles 28:9 - But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded, and he went out to meet the army that came to Samaria and said to them, Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he gave them into your hand, but you have killed them in a rage that has reached up to heaven. (ESV)

3709. orgé "Orgē comes from the verb oragō meaning, 'to teem, to swell'; and thus implies that it is not a sudden outburst, but rather (referring to God's) fixed, controlled, passionate feeling against sin . . . a settled indignation (so Hendriksen)" (D. E. Hiebert, at 1 Thes 1:10).

Jesus' anger here was a godly grief:

> Mark 3:4-5 - And he said to them, Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to kill? But they were silent. And he looked around at them with anger (3709. orgé), grieved at their hardness of heart, and said to the man, Stretch out your hand. He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. (ESV)

Jesus could say, "You blind fools!" without sinning because Jesus has no sin and could never be found to be a hypocrite. Also, because Jesus is absolutely right:

> Matthew 23:17 - You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold or the temple that has made the gold sacred? (ESV)

There is certainly wrath to come for those who reject Jesus Christ:

> Psalms 2:12 - Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way, for his wrath is quickly kindled. Blessed are all who take refuge in him. (ESV)
> Hebrews 12:25 - See that you do not refuse him who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less will we escape if we reject him who warns from heaven. (ESV)
> Ephesians 5:5-8 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (ESV)
>
> Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

But we should seriously avoid saying "You fool" anyway because we may have a "log in our own eye", and God takes this very seriously:

> James 1:19-20 - Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness that God requires. (ESV)
>
> Luke 6:41-42 - Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye, when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye.
> Matthew 5:22 - But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. (ESV)

James and Paul don't direct this at individuals. And also, they would be speaking in the Spirit. So if we're going to say something is foolish, it's loving to do it in a way which doesn't harm the other person:

> Galatians 3:1 - O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you? It was before your eyes that Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified. (ESV)

James 2:20 - Do you want to be shown, you foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless? (ESV)

Romans 1:21-23 - For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise, they became fools, and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles. (ESV)

We must forgive our family in Christ from the heart:

Matthew 18:33-35 - And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you? And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart. (ESV)

Ephesians 4:30-32 - And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

And we must love our family in Christ from the heart:

I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

The ”anger of man” is exemplified in John 7:23 where some people blindly were angry at Jesus for doing good:

James 1:19-21 - Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness that God requires. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. (ESV)

God’s anger is just and He is Righteous:

Psalms 7:11 - God is a righteous judge, and a God who feels indignation every day. (ESV)

Deuteronomy 6:15 - for the LORD your God in your midst is a jealous God, lest the anger of the LORD your God be kindled against you, and he destroy you from off the face of the earth. (ESV)

Nahum 1:2-3 - The LORD is a jealous and avenging God; the LORD is avenging and wrathful; the LORD takes vengeance on his adversaries and keeps wrath for his enemies. The LORD is slow to anger and great in power, and the LORD will by no means clear the guilty. His way is in whirlwind and storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. (ESV)

Nahum 1:2-3 - God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies. The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. (KJV)

John 17:25 - O righteous Father, even though the world does not know you, I know you, and these know that you have sent me. (ESV) youtube.com: John Piper - Saved Forever If I say my ongoing salvation depends on Christ’s ongoing intercessory work for me with the Father, what do I need need saving from? The Father, God, else I would not need an intercessor.

Intercessors interpose themselves to help fix something that isn’t fixed, or to keep something fixed.

The big issue is God’s wrath.

This book (the Holy Scriptures) ... was written to help us get right with a wrathful God.

youtube.com: Saved Forever @time: 11 min 17 sec Do not conclude from my first implication that Jesus loves me and God hates me, okay? Let's get this straight. Now the reason that would be a false conclusion is because the priesthood is God's idea, not Jesus idea, and Jesus accepted the father's mandate to come save me from his wrath. You got that? The love of God for me, sinner, interposes his Priestly son to save me from his wrath against me.

The love of God for this worthless sinner interposes his most precious possession, His Son whom he loves, in order that he might save me from his his wrath against me all the while vindicating his justice and upholding his glory in the cross.

That's the beauty of the cross. It is the love of God rescuing sinners from the wrath of God by vindicating the justice of God and upholding the glory of God.

You got to get that otherwise you will sentimentalize God and people are sentimentalizing God everywhere.

  - strengthening the hands of evildoers - supporting evildoers

  - sexual immorality

  - envy, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless.

7.7.1 Transgressing the 10 Commandments

The way to keep the 10 commandments properly is to love your neighbour as yourself. It's lawful to love. It's lawful to save life. It's overarchingly lawful to do good. If we endeavour to keep the 10 commandments, then that is how we should keep them; the way Jesus did and described:

> Galatians 5:13-14 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word (G3056 logō): You shall love your neighbor as yourself. (ESV)

It's lawful to love:

> Luke 6:9-10 - And Jesus said to them, I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it? And after looking around at them all he said to him, Stretch out your hand. And he did so, and his hand was restored. (ESV)

Slaves worship idols. Christians obey God, and in obeying God we are free. We love God and trust God and love Jesus and follow Jesus:

> Exodus 20:2-3 - I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. You shall have no other gods before me. (ESV)

The New Testament writers still taught believers to not break the 10 Commandments:

> James 2:11 - For he who said, Do not commit adultery, also said, Do not murder. If you do not commit adultery but do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. (ESV)

> Romans 13:9 - The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. (ESV)

Even as born-again Christians, keeping the 10 Commandments is very important. Just because we may be justified by faith in Jesus Christ doesn't mean that followers of Jesus obey unrighteousness. Followers of Jesus still obey righteousness:

> Romans 1:29-2:13 - They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless. Though they know God's decree that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but give approval to those who practice them. Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who do such things. Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God? Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. For all who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:8-11 - Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, the sexually immoral, men who practice homosexuality, enslavers, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine, in accordance with the glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted. (ESV)

The righteousness in the actual doing of the law (even doing it whilst not having necessarily heard it) is still upheld but there is now the righteousness that is by faith in Jesus Christ. In other words, keeping the commandments of God and following Jesus are not mutually exclusive. And the law still describes what good behaviour looks like and what bad behaviour looks like. But through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, as we follow and place our faith in Jesus, obeying Jesus to repent from sin and to do good and to pass forward love and forgiveness, etc., we can be justified by our faith in Jesus. As we go on living, we keep our obedient believing faith in Jesus, and no longer want to rebel against God's law. Perfect compliance to the law is no longer the basis of our justification but we seek to not break the law. One of Paul's points here is that the Gentiles did not have the Law given through Moses. So the works of the Law that Paul is talking about are the works of the Mosaic Law:

> Romans 3:21-31 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

1	Exodus 20:2-3 - I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. You shall have no other gods before me. (ESV)	II Corinthians 6:16-17 - What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, (ESV) I John 5:21 - Little children, keep yourselves from idols. (ESV) I Corinthians 10:11-14 - Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. (ESV) I Corinthians 10:7 - Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. 2	Exodus 20:4-6 - You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me, but showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments. 4	Exodus 20:8-11 - Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labor, and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, your male servant, or your female servant, or your livestock, or the sojourner who is within your gates. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy. (ESV)	Genesis 2:3 - So God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all his work that he had done in creation. (ESV) Luke 23:56 - Then they returned and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment. I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, You shall not covet. But sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of covetousness. Apart from the law, sin lies dead. (ESV)

Quote from a friend "God's will is going to be done. If we don't resist it then it will be a blessing to us and if > we resist it then it will be a curse to us.”

Without God, we can’t bear fruit. Jesus Christ who is God is the one who builds His church:

> Matthew 16:18 - And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (ESV)

But we still practice love and build one-another up, and it’s Christ, our Head who is building His church:

> Ephesians 4:11-25 - And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love. Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. (ESV)

God is the one at work and He is unstoppable, AMEN!!

7.7.2 Having a will to do evil, rather than a will to do God’s will

> John 8:44 - You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father’s desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. (ESV)

> Matthew 15:19 - For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, slander. (ESV)

7.7.3 All manner of unrighteousness

> Romans 1:26-32 - For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error. And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind to do what ought not to be done. They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless. Though they know God’s decree that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but give approval to those who practice them. (ESV)

7.7.4 Witchcraft / Sorcery

Witchcraft is satanic, lying, anti-God, anti-holiness.

> Deuteronomy 18:9-14 - When you come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not learn to follow the abominable practices of those nations. There shall not be found among you anyone who burns his son or his daughter as an offering, anyone who practices divination or tells fortunes or interprets omens, or a sorcerer or a charmer or a medium or a wizard or a necromancer, for whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD. And because of these abominations the LORD your God is driving them out before you. You shall be blameless before the LORD your God, for these nations, which you are about to dispossess, listen to fortune-tellers and to diviners. But as for you, the LORD your God has not allowed you to do this. (ESV)
> Jeremiah 27:9-10 - So do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your fortune-tellers, or your sorcerers, who are saying to you, You shall not serve the king of Babylon. For it is a lie that they are prophesying to you, with the result that you will be removed far from your land, and I will drive you out, and you will perish. (ESV)
>
> Malachi 3:5 - Then I will draw near to you for judgment. I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against those who swear falsely, against those who oppress the hired worker in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, against those who thrust aside the sojourner, and do not fear me, says the LORD of hosts. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 21:8 - But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 22:15 - Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. (ESV)

7.7.5 Murder

> I John 3:15 - Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. (ESV)
>
> I John 3:12 - We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. (ESV)
>
> Revelation of John 22:15 - Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. (ESV)

7.7.6 Theft

> Revelation of John 9:21 - nor did they repent of their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their thefts. (ESV)

7.7.7 Rejecting the word of the LORD

> Isaiah 30:9-13 - For they are a rebellious people, lying children, children unwilling to hear the instruction of the LORD; who say to the seers, Do not see, and to the prophets, Do not prophesy to us what is right; speak to us smooth things, prophesy illusions, leave the way, turn aside from the path, let us hear no more about the Holy One of Israel. Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, Because you despise this word and trust in oppression and perverseness and rely on them, therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach in a high wall, bulging out, and about to collapse, whose breaking comes suddenly, in an instant; (ESV)
> 1 Samuel 15:23 - For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king. (ESV)

7.7.8 Presumption and going beyond the Scripture

I Corinthians 4:6 - I have applied all these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brothers, that you may learn by us not to go beyond what is written, that none of you may be puffed up in favor of one against another. (ESV)

II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)

II Corinthians 10:5-6 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)

Psalms 19:13 - Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me! Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression. (ESV)

I Samuel 15:23 - For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king. (ESV)

7.7.9 Wandering / backsliding from God

Jeremiah 14:7 - Though our iniquities testify against us, act, O LORD, for your name's sake; for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against you. (ESV)

Jeremiah 14:10 - Thus says the LORD concerning this people: They have loved to wander thus; they have not restrained their feet; therefore the LORD does not accept them; now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins. (ESV)

7.7.10 Prophesying lies

Jeremiah 14:14 - And the LORD said to me: The prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I did not send them, nor did I command them or speak to them. They are prophesying to you a lying vision, worthless divination, and the deceit of their own minds. (ESV)

7.7.11 Ungodliness

Isaiah 32:6 - For the fool speaks folly, and his heart is busy with iniquity, to practice ungodliness, to utter error concerning the LORD, to leave the craving of the hungry unsatisfied, and to deprive the thirsty of drink. (ESV)

7.7.12 Pride, debauchery, greed

Ezekiel 16:49-58 - Behold, this was the guilt of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, excess of food, and prosperous ease, but did not aid the poor and needy. They were haughty and did an abomination before me. So I removed them, when I saw it. Samaria has not committed half your sins. You have committed more abominations than they, and have made your sisters appear righteous by all the abominations that you have committed. Bear your disgrace, you also, for you have intervened on behalf of your sisters. Because of your sins in which you acted more abominably than they, they are more in the right than you. So be ashamed, you also, and bear your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous. I will restore their fortunes, both the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters, and I will restore your own fortunes in their midst, that you may bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all that you have done, becoming a consolation to them. As for your sisters, Sodom and her daughters shall return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former state, and you and your daughters shall return to your former state. Was not your sister Sodom a byword in your mouth in the day of your pride, before your wickedness was uncovered? Now you have become an object of reproach for the daughters of Syria and all those around her, and for the daughters of the Philistines, those all around who despise you. You bear the penalty of your lewdness and your abominations, declares the LORD. (ESV)

7.7.13 Pride in self and lack of humility towards God youtube.com: The Great Sin by C. S. Lewis Doodle {BBC Talk 16, Mere Christianity, Bk. 3, Chapter 8}.

> Psalms 36:2 - For he flatters himself in his own eyes that his iniquity cannot be found out and hated. (ESV)
> Psalms 10:10-11 - The helpless are crushed, sink down, and fall by his might. He says in his heart, God has forgotten, he has hidden his face, he will never see it. (ESV)
>
> Isaiah 13:11 - I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; I will put an end to the pomp of the arrogant, and lay low the pompous pride of the ruthless. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper "Pride is self-satisfaction."

> Hosea 13:4-6 - But I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt; you know no God but me, and besides me there is no savior. It was I who knew you in the wilderness, in the land of drought; but when they had grazed, they became full, they were filled, and their heart was lifted up; therefore they forgot me. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:14 - And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper "Pride is self-sufficiency / self-reliance."

> Deuteronomy 8:11-16 - Take care lest you forget the LORD your God by not keeping his commandments and his rules and his statutes, which I command you today, lest, when you have eaten and are full and have built good houses and live in them, and when your herds and flocks multiply and your silver and gold is multiplied and all that you have is multiplied, then your heart be lifted up, and you forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, who led you through the great and terrifying wilderness, with its fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty ground where there was no water, who brought you water out of the flinty rock, who fed you in the wilderness with manna that your fathers did not know, that he might humble you and test you, to do you good in the end. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper "Pride considers itself above instruction [from God] - When God speaks and we don't listen."

> Jeremiah 13:9-11 - Thus says the LORD: Even so will I spoil the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who stubbornly follow their own heart and have gone after other gods to serve them and worship them, shall be like this loincloth, which is good for nothing. For as the loincloth clings to the waist of a man, so I made the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah cling to me, declares the LORD, that they might be for me a people, a name, a praise, and a glory, but they would not listen. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper "Pride is insubordinate. [It says,] You don't have a right to tell me what to do. That's what happened in the Garden of Eden right at the beginning of our sinful plight. And that's what all of us do apart from God's grace."

> Psalms 119:21 - You rebuke the insolent, accursed ones, who wander from your commandments. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper "Pride takes credit for what God alone does."

> Daniel 4:30-34 - and the king answered and said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built by my mighty power as a royal residence and for the glory of my majesty? While the words were still in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, O King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: The kingdom has departed from you, and you shall be driven from among men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. And you shall be made to eat grass like an ox, and seven periods of time shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules the kingdom of men and gives it to whom he will. Immediately the word was fulfilled against Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven from among men and ate grass like an ox, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven till his hair grew as long as eagles' feathers, and his nails were like birds' claws. At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and praised and honored him who lives forever, for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom endures from generation to generation; (ESV)

> Daniel 4:37 - Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, for all his works are right and his ways are just; and those who walk in pride he is able to humble. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper "Pride exalts in being made much of."

> Matthew 23:6-7 - and they love the place of honor at feasts and the best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces and being called rabbi by others. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper "Pride aspires to the place of God."

> Acts 12:21-23 - On an appointed day Herod put on his royal robes, took his seat upon the throne, and delivered an oration to them. And the people were shouting, The voice of a god, and not of a man! Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him down, because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and breathed his last. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper "Pride opposes the very existence of God."

> Psalms 10:4 - In the pride of his face the wicked does not seek him; all his thoughts are, There is no God. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper "Pride refuses to trust in God. The opposite of arrogance is not just humility, it's trust. Trust is a very lowly demeanor. [Trust is] a way of saying I don't have what I need in here; I have to trust somebody else to give it to me. I don't have the resources in here to save me, to forgive me, to reconcile me to God, to lead my life in a holy way, to be what my family needs from me, to be what a church needs from me. I do not have th the resources, I cannot do it. And you look around for an answer and God says, I have a mighty hand and I promise you I will care for you. Trust me. Pride cringes at the prospect of saying, I am bankrupt and helpless. I need another to save me, and help me and lead me and guide me, and hold me and strengthen me. Everything comes from outside me. Only humility can talk that way. Trust in the promise of God is the expression of humility."

Arrogance is contrasted with trust in God:

> Proverbs 28:25 - A greedy man stirs up strife, but the one who trusts in the LORD will be enriched. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper "Pride is often anxious about the future."

Anxiety flows from pride. If we don't trust God we will be anxious about the future:

> I Peter 5:6-7 - Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you. (ESV)

7.7.14 Discouraging the righteous, encouraging the wicked, even to misguide them to harm

Ezekiel 13:22 - Because you have disheartened the righteous falsely, although I have not grieved him, and you have encouraged the wicked, that he should not turn from his evil way to save his life, (ESV)

Isaiah 31:2 - And yet he is wise and brings disaster; he does not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers and against the helpers of those who work iniquity. (ESV)

7.7.15 Dishonesty

Isaiah 59:4-8 - No one enters suit justly; no one goes to law honestly; they rely on empty pleas, they speak lies, they conceive mischief and give birth to iniquity. They hatch adders' eggs; they weave the spider's web; he who eats their eggs dies, and from one that is crushed a viper is hatched. Their webs will not serve as clothing; men will not cover themselves with what they make. Their works are works of iniquity, and deeds of violence are in their hands. Their feet run to evil, and they are swift to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; desolation and destruction are in their highways. The way of peace they do not know, and there is no justice in their paths; they have made their roads crooked; no one who treads on them knows peace. (ESV)

7.7.16 Lies and adultery

Jeremiah 23:14 - But in the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery and walk in lies; they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no one turns from his evil; all of them have become like Sodom to me, and its inhabitants like Gomorrah. (ESV)

7.7.17 Iniquity

II Samuel 7:14-15 - I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son. When he commits iniquity, I will discipline him with the rod of men, with the stripes of the sons of men, but my steadfast love will not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you. (ESV)

Psalms 53:1 - The fool says in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, doing abominable iniquity; there is none who does good. (ESV)

7.7.18 Profaning what is holy

Leviticus 19:8 - and everyone who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned what is holy to the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from his people. (ESV)

7.7.19 Blasphemy

I Samuel 3:13 - And I declare to him that I am about to punish his house forever, for the iniquity that he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them. (ESV)

7.7.20 Lawlessness is sin - unresponsive and disobedient to God

I John 3:4 - Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

Isaiah 53:6 - All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. (ESV)

7.7.21 Rebellion against God is sin

Deuteronomy 9:7 - Remember and do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness. From the day you came out of the land of Egypt until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD. (ESV)

Joshua 1:18 - Whoever rebels against your commandment and disobeys your words, whatever you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and courageous. (ESV)

Deuteronomy 13:5 - But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has taught rebellion against the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you out of the house of slavery, to make you leave the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall purge the evil from your midst. (ESV)

I Samuel 15:23 - For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king. (ESV)

7.7.22 Not caring for the innocent

Isaiah 59:7 - Their feet run to evil, and they are swift to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; desolation and destruction are in their highways. (ESV)

7.7.23 Doing evil deeds is sin

Colossians 1:21 - And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, (ESV)

Ecclesiastes 4:3 - But better than both is he who has not yet been and has not seen the evil deeds that are done under the sun. (ESV)

Jeremiah 21:12 - O house of David! Thus says the LORD: Execute justice in the morning, and deliver from the hand of the oppressor him who has been robbed, lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn with none to quench it, because of your evil deeds. (ESV)

Colossians 1:19-23 - For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. (ESV)

7.7.24 unjust gain

Proverbs 1:11-19 - If they say, Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood; let us ambush the innocent without reason; like Sheol let us swallow them alive, and whole, like those who go down to the pit; we shall find all precious goods, we shall fill our houses with plunder; throw in your lot among us; we will all have one purse— my son, do not walk in the way with them; hold back your foot from their paths, for their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed blood. For in vain is a net spread in the sight of any bird, but these men lie in wait for their own blood; they set an ambush for their own lives. Such are the ways of everyone who is greedy for unjust gain; it takes away the life of its possessors. (ESV)

Isaiah 57:17 - Because of the iniquity of his unjust gain I was angry, I struck him; I hid my face and was angry, but he went on backsliding in the way of his own heart. (ESV)

II Peter 2:14-16 - They have eyes full of adultery, insatiable for sin. They entice unsteady souls. They have hearts trained in greed. Accursed children! Forsaking the right way, they have gone astray. They have followed the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved gain from wrongdoing, but was rebuked for his own transgression; a speechless donkey spoke with human voice and restrained the prophet's madness. (ESV)

Jeremiah 6:13-14 - For from the least to the greatest of them, everyone is greedy for unjust gain; and from prophet to priest, everyone deals falsely. They have healed the wound of my people lightly, saying, Peace, peace, when there is no peace. (ESV)

Proverbs 1:19 - Such are the ways of everyone who is greedy for unjust gain; it takes away the life of its possessors. (ESV)

Proverbs 28:15-16 - Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over a poor people. A ruler who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor, but he who hates unjust gain will prolong his days. (ESV)

7.7.25 dishonesty

Isaiah 59:4 - No one enters suit justly; no one goes to law honestly; they rely on empty pleas, they speak lies, they conceive mischief and give birth to iniquity. (ESV)

7.7.26 idolatry

Jeremiah 16:18 - But first I will doubly repay their iniquity and their sin, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable idols, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations. (ESV)

I Corinthians 10:7 - Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. (ESV)

Idolatry is incredibly self-destructive:

Psalms 135:15-18 - The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of human hands. They have mouths, but do not speak; they have eyes, but do not see; they have ears, but do not hear, nor is there any breath in their mouths. Those who make them become like them, so do all who trust in them! (ESV)

But we should worship God and be sanctified:

Colossians 1:15 - He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. (ESV)

7.7.27 sexual immorality

I Corinthians 10:8-9 - We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, (ESV)

Revelation of John 21:8 - But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death. (ESV)

7.7.28 carnal, fleshly things, greed and self-indulgence

James 5:5 - You have lived on the earth in luxury and in self-indulgence. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. (ESV)

Matthew 23:25-26 - Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be clean. (ESV)

7.7.29 unnatural desire

II Peter 2:14-20 - Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet. These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. (KJV)

II Peter 2:14-20 - They have eyes full of adultery, insatiable for sin. They entice unsteady souls. They have hearts trained in greed. Accursed children! Forsaking the right way, they have gone astray. They have followed the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved gain from wrongdoing, but was rebuked for his own transgression; a speechless donkey spoke with human voice and restrained the prophet's madness. These are waterless springs and mists driven by a storm. For them the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved. For, speaking loud boasts of folly, they entice by sensual passions of the flesh those who are barely escaping from those who live in error. They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. (ESV)

I Corinthians 10:8-9 - We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, (ESV)

Paul talks about the 'flesh' mainly as ungodliness.

Colossians 2:23 - These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh. (ESV)

Defiling passion defiles:

II Peter 2:10 - and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority. Bold and willful, they do not tremble as they blaspheme the glorious ones, (ESV)

Jude 1:7 - just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire. (ESV)

7.7.30 Rape is very, very bad

Deuteronomy 22:23-29 - If there is a betrothed virgin, and a man meets her in the city and lies with her, then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones, the young woman because she did not cry for help though she was in the city, and the man because he violated his neighbor's wife. So you shall purge the evil from your midst. But if in the open country a man meets a young woman who is betrothed, and the man seizes her and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her shall die. But you shall do nothing to the young woman; she has committed no offense punishable by death. For this case is like that of a man attacking and murdering > his neighbor, because he met her in the open country, and though the betrothed young woman cried for help there was no one to rescue her. If a man meets a virgin who is not betrothed, and seizes her and lies with her, and they are found, then the man who lay with her shall give to the father of the young woman fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he has violated her. He may not divorce her all his days. (ESV)

7.7.31 Being habitually drunk is sinful

> I Corinthians 6:9-10 - Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. (ESV)

I think John Piper's view on this is sound:

youtube.com: Is Drinking Alcohol a Sin? It could be. Drinking water when you should be giving a glass to someone else in need - that's sin. Drinking water when you should be paying more reverence to the preaching of God's word - that's a sin. Drinking water when just someone just warned you it's contaminated it may kill you - that sin. So drinking water can be sin and presumably then alcohol could be sin, but it may not be.

youtube.com: CAN CHRISTIANS DRINK/SMOKE?! {The Harsh Truth...}

youtube.com: 'Nothing Is to Be Rejected' - Including Pot? {@desiringGod} In what ways would you qualify Paul's "nothing is to be rejected" because that is really the issue. The issue is not "what can I give thanks for". Paul teaches that we should give thanks for everything.

> Ephesians 5:20 - giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, (ESV)

But that does not mean give moral approval to everything. It means, rather, that we recognize that in the providence of God, He makes everything serve his wise and loving purposes, even some very painful and even sinful things. So, I don't think the key question is: what should we thank God for? When Paul said in

> I Timothy 4:4 - For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, (ESV)

He's saying that's why everything exists, namely to reveal the goodness of God and to awaken in the human soul thanksgiving. In other words, we should only use creation, all of it, the way it was designed to be used, namely with thanksgiving.

What does Paul mean when he says nothing in creation is to be rejected? and I think he means nothing is to be rejected because it is ritually unclean. According to Mark 7:19 Jesus declared all foods clean,. so they're all lawful, not to be rejected. None of the Old Testament dietary laws applies anymore. They were a temporary way for Israel to set itself off from the nations. The church doesn't aim to set itself off from the nations in that way anymore with food laws. Nothing is ritually unclean for the Christian in that sense. It's lawful, it's all lawful. None is to be rejected as ritually off limits. Which also means that the false teachers in first Timothy before uh who were forbidding marriage and requiring abstinence from foods were falling back into the old legal way rather than walking in the freedom of Christ.

I mean, pot may be fine medicinally or recreationally if it's not harming people:

> Proverbs 31:6-7

But certainly not OK if it would result in neglecting one's duties or causing harm to others:

> Proverbs 31:4-9 - It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, or for rulers to take strong drink, lest they drink and forget what has been decreed and pervert the rights of all the afflicted. Give strong drink to the one who is perishing, and wine to those in bitter distress; let them drink and forget their poverty and remember their misery no more. Open your mouth for the mute, for the rights of all who are destitute. Open your mouth, judge righteously, defend the rights of the poor and needy. (ESV) youtube.com: 'Nothing Is to Be Rejected' - Including Pot? {@desiringGod} @time: 5 min 50 sec And I think there are at least three principles that Paul mentions as to what do we do with nature, the goodness of nature? One principle is love.

> I Corinthians 10:23-24 - All things are lawful, but not all things are helpful. All things are lawful, but not all things build up. Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor. (ESV)

So we do not simply say I'm free and all foods are clean and that's that I eat what I want. No, that's not the way a Christian talks. We ask, will it be helpful? Will it be profitable? Will other people benefit from my enjoyment of this use of this, doing of this, that's the principle of love.

And then in 1 Corinthians 6:12 he brings out two other principles, I think. He says, "all things are lawful for me" (same beginning, but he continues differently) but not all things are helpful, all things are lawful for me, but I will not be dominated, controlled, taken over, enslaved by anything, even good things.

Here the principle looks the same as First Corinthians 10, but it's not quite. Instead of saying, seek the good of your neighbor in what you eat, he says, "I will not be dominated or enslaved by anything".

You might say this is the principle of self-love, a proper self-love. Be watchful not to be addicted, be watchful not to be damaged. I think those would be the two principles. Is it is it tending toward my slavery, that making me a slave - I'm out of control here, I'm utterly dependent on this thing, and is it hurting me is it doing me damage as my master? So three principles at least, put limits on the statement "nothing is to be rejected". One, love. Will it help or hurt others? Two, addiction. Will I be enslaved? Is it enslaving me? Three, damage to my body or soul, will it dominate me hurtfully?

But maybe the clearest way to show Jameson's friends that they don't really mean it when they say that since everything is that God made is good, absolutely nothing's to be rejected, they don't mean that because they know good and well that there are mushrooms that will kill you if you eat them, there are some people with such severe peanut allergies they would die if they eat a peanut. They won't even let you have peanuts on the airplane when these people are on board.

They don't serve peanuts they know this, these friends know this, they make distinctions themselves. So the question is, whether cannabis is helpful to others when we use. It is it addicting to my mind, is it hurtful to the mind or to the soul? Those the key questions.

Smoking and doing drugs, weed, etc. is all of the flesh. Absolutely. Fast and pray to feed our spirit. youtube.com: Signs You Are Under HEAVY Spiritual Attack {@MarcTheMessengerLive}

Also, this was helpful:

youtube.com: CANNABIS AND CHRISTIANITY {@FatherSpyridonROCOR} In fact sobriety of the mind is one of the key essential components of the spiritual life and the [church] fathers warn us against everything that will distract us from this pursuit of sobriety of mind. Cannabis reduces our ability to develop and maintain sobriety of mind, sobriety which is a spiritual sobriety and the [church] fathers do identify this as one of the main impediments to spiritual change to just to perception of truth when our mind is filled with fantasy and imaginings then to identify truth the revealed truth of god becomes impossible. Now some argue that cannabis opens us up to the spiritual insights that they believe they are capable of or even dare I say visions. Some people will claim particularly in these shamanistic cults to have visions under the influence of cannabis, marijuana. Saint John Cassian warns us that to attempt to open the noetic eyes through drugs is sorcery. It is sorcery. God has dimmed the noetic sight to protect us. It is for our benefit. There are great ascetics those who have progressed in the spiritual life for whom these visions are revealed but for the majority of us it is hugely dangerous to do anything to artificially open noetic sight. It leaves us spiritually vulnerable.

youtube.com: Questions & Answers | Bishop Mari Emmanuel | {@SacredScripts} Imagination is a beautiful gift from the Good God. It's a good gift from the Good God. All of us, we imagine. Through our imagination, we can go to heaven, we can go anywhere we want to go with imagination, there is no limit. God imagines. Since he created us in His image, whatever he is and has He has placed in this human being. This imagination, when it gets tarnished it will affect your subconscious mind. It will shape, mold and form your subconscious mind. And guess what? Before you know it, since you have no control over the subconscious mind, the moment it is shaped and affected, the subconscious mind will send it to the conscience the rational mind. When it gets to your rational mind you're gone.

Here's some more thoughts:

youtube.com: Is Smoking Marijuana Sinful? {@OrthodoxEthos} I would say that there are saints who say smoking period let alone marijuana is sinful and needs to be repented of. And we have St. John of Kronstad, St. Nicodemos of the holy mountain, St. Silan the Aanite. Uh, they don't come down hard, but they definitely say it's a missing of the mark. In other words, a sin, right? It's a missing of the mark. That's what sin is. What? A missing of what mark? Theosis. Not some moralistic, can I? Can I? Can I not do it? Can I do it? We're not like minimalistic. What's the minimum that I have to do to be a Christian? No, this is I want to be in the likeness of Christ. That's why he came to make me like himself. Smoking is not in that picture. We have no image of that. We don't have anybody in an icon with a cigarette. Doesn't exist. Right? That's not an image of virtue. There's no elder spiritual father that I know in this life that would say, "Go for it. Have a smoke or two. You're good."

7.7.32 Slavery

> I Timothy 1:8-11 - Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, the sexually immoral, men who practice homosexuality, enslavers (G405 andrapodistés, man-stealers, kidnappers, slave-traders, enslavers), liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine, in accordance with the glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted. (ESV)

7.7.33 Abortion

Abortion specifically has been condemned as a grave sin since the beginnings of the Church.

The Church has always stood against abortion, and placed it right alongside murder.

> Didache Chapter 2 - The Second Commandment: Grave Sin Forbidden. And the second commandment of the Teaching; You shall not commit murder, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not commit pederasty, you shall not commit fornication, you shall not steal, you shall not practice magic, you shall not practice witchcraft, you shall not murder a child by abortion nor kill that which > is born. You shall not covet the things of your neighbor, you shall not swear, you shall not bear false witness, you shall not speak evil, you shall bear no grudge. You shall not be double-minded nor double-tongued, for to be double-tongued is a snare of death. Your speech shall not be false, nor empty, but fulfilled by deed. You shall not be covetous, nor rapacious, nor a hypocrite, nor evil disposed, nor haughty. You shall not take evil counsel against your neighbor. You shall not hate any man; but some you shall reprove, and concerning some you shall pray, and some you shall love more than your own life.

> Have a look at this exchange over the weekend. While Kamar Harris was promoting abortion without limits, the entire crowd erupted into loud cheers. But then a lone student in the crowd who is a Christian, and so pro-life, called out "Jesus is Lord". Now, instinctively and without pause Kamala mocked him telling him he was at the "wrong rally".

We should fear God. God sees the thoughts and intentions of our heart.

> Hebrews 4:12-13 - For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account. (ESV)

We should fear God and not mankind. We should fear God and not any human institution. We should fear God and not fear being unpopular for standing up for what is right.

These people feared God and chose to not murder babies. Children are a gift and God literally gave families to people who fear Him. I guess God doesn't want to give families to people who can't be trusted with them.

> Exodus 1:15-17 - Then the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah, When you serve as midwife to the Hebrew women and see them on the birthstool, if it is a son, you shall kill him, but if it is a daughter, she shall live. But the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the male children live. (ESV)

> Exodus 1:20-21 - So God dealt well with the midwives. And the people multiplied and grew very strong. And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. (ESV)

7.7.34 More sins condemned by the early Church

> Didache Chapter 3 - Other Sins Forbidden. My child, flee from every evil thing, and from every likeness of it. Be not prone to anger, for anger leads to murder. Be neither jealous, nor quarrelsome, nor of hot temper, for out of all these murders are engendered. My child, be not a lustful one. for lust leads to fornication. Be neither a filthy talker, nor of lofty eye, for out of all these adulteries are engendered. My child, be not an observer of omens, since it leads to idolatry. Be neither an enchanter, nor an astrologer, nor a purifier, nor be willing to took at these things, for out of all these idolatry is engendered. My child, be not a liar, since a lie leads to theft. Be neither money-loving, nor vainglorious, for out of all these thefts are engendered. My child, be not a murmurer, since it leads the way to blasphemy. Be neither self-willed nor evil-minded, for out of all these blasphemies are engendered. Rather, be meek, since the meek shall inherit the earth. Be long-suffering and pitiful and guileless and gentle and good and always trembling at the words which you have heard. You shall not exalt yourself, nor give over-confidence to your soul. Your soul shall not be joined with lofty ones, but with just and lowly ones shall it have its intercourse. Accept whatever happens to you as good, knowing that apart from God nothing comes to pass.

There are heaps more things described as sinful and abomination in the Bible which I have not mentioned.

8 If the world is encouraging you, you're probably in falsehood or taking the wide road

> John 7:7 - The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. (ESV)
>
> John 15:18-19 - If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.
> I John 3:13 - Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you.

Paul and the other faithful Apostles were exhibited as last of all, like men sentenced to death for following Jesus:

> I Corinthians 4:6-16 - I have applied all these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brothers, that you may learn by us not to go beyond what is written, that none of you may be puffed up in favor of one against another. For who sees anything different in you? What do you have that you did not receive? If then you received it, why do you boast as if you did not receive it? Already you have all you want! Already you have become rich! Without us you have become kings! And would that you did reign, so that we might share the rule with you! For I think that God has exhibited us apostles as last of all, like men sentenced to death, because we have become a spectacle to the world, to angels, and to men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we in disrepute. To the present hour we hunger and thirst, we are poorly dressed and buffeted and homeless, and we labor, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure; when slandered, we entreat. We have become, and are still, like the scum of the world, the refuse of all things. I do not write these things to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children. For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. I urge you, then, be imitators of me. (ESV)

9 The times of ignorance are past

Now God commands all people everywhere to repent:

> Acts 17:30-31 - The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed; and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead. (ESV)
> Acts 14:15-17 - Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men, of like nature with you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to a living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them. In past generations he allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. Yet he did not leave himself without witness, for he did good by giving you rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, satisfying your hearts with food and gladness. (ESV)

10 Common grace

God's common grace extends to even the evil:

> Matthew 5:44-45 - But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. (ESV)

Jesus is so generous that He saves even unthankful people, but we should definitely love Jesus as a response. This story should be taken to see how Good God is, but also taken as a warning against unthankfulness:

> Luke 17:11-19 - On the way to Jerusalem he was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. When he saw them he said to them, Go and show yourselves to the priests. And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus answered, Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner? And he said to him, Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Mercies {New Every Morning} {Live from Trafalgar Square} - Matt Redman

We are meant to exercise common grace to other people.

> Luke 6:35-36 - But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)

When we pray, we should desire to do God's will, as Jesus has prayed for us to remain here to do His will:

> Matthew 6:9-12 - Pray then like this: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. (ESV)

> I Chronicles 29:11 - Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and you are exalted as head above all. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:13 - 'And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil. [For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.'] (NASB)

Jesus has us remaining here to be sanctified in the Truth:

> John 17:15-17 - I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth.

Jesus wants us to do God's will, and love Him and be obedient to Him:

> John 8:41-44 - You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies.

God has common grace for evildoers, and for the unjust, and Jesus wants us to help work that common grace into the lives of other people:

> Matthew 5:44-45 - But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. (ESV)

See, our actions reflect who our Father is:

> Luke 6:35-36 - But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)

Talk youtube.com: Christianity is God saves us & we respond to obey, not the other way

11 Justification - declared 'not guilty', if in Christ Jesus

Jesus is God revealed in the flesh.

I think, that means that if a person loves (is obedient to) and has faith in Him, they are most likely saved.

11.1 We must live by faith - live by obedience to God!

Jesus will manifest to those who keep His commandments:

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

Jesus comes to dwell in our hearts through faith, His spirit in our inner being, as we are rooted and grounded in love:

> Ephesians 3:14-21 - For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

The followers of Paul the Apostle live by (walk by) faith; those are the righteous ones. It's a lifestyle:

> Galatians 3:11 - Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. (ESV)

It's obedience which leads to righteousness, even the righteousness of faith:

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

> Habakkuk 2:4 - Behold, his soul is puffed up; it is not upright within him, but the righteous shall live by his faith. (ESV)

II Corinthians 5:7 - for we walk by faith, not by sight. (ESV)

Galatians 2:20 - I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. (ESV)

Being firm in our faith, we can resist:

I Peter 5:8-9 - Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world. (ESV)

11.2 We must be found in Jesus

Ephesians 2:18 - For through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. (ESV)

Ephesians 1:1 - Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are in Ephesus, and are faithful in Christ Jesus: (ESV)

Romans 8:1-2 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Colossians 1:14 - in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

Colossians 2:10 - and you have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. (ESV)

II Corinthians 1:21 - And it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, (ESV)

Colossians 3:3 - For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (ESV)

11.2.1 I believe we have to remain in Christ to remain justified

John 15:1-10 - I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

Read `https://www.catholic.com/magazine/print-edition/is-justification-ongoing`

I'm putting a caveat here. It's an act of obedience to put your faith in Jesus Christ because God commanded it, and Jesus commanded it.

> Our works (our ongoing deeds after initially placing our faith in Jesus) of obedience as Christians don't earn our initial justification. How could they, since such deeds follow and flow from it? The Council of Trent says as much when it observes that "we are therefore said to be justified gratuitously, because none of those things that precede justification, whether faith or works, merit the grace of justification" (Session Six, Chapter VIII).

> At the same time, works of Christian obedience contribute something if the term justification is used to refer not merely to our initial justification, but to our growth in righteousness as regenerated children of God. This is the justification to which James refers when he writes that “a man is justified by works and not by faith alone” (James 2:24).
> When Paul contrasts faith with works, it’s clear from the context (Romans 3:1; Romans 4:9-12) he means works of the Mosaic Law — ritual prescriptions such as circumcision given to identify one as a Jew, to convict of sin, and to point to the Redeemer who would remit sin. This is different from works of Christian obedience which lead to righteousness (Rom. 6:16). With respect to the latter, even faith itself can be spoken of as obedience (Rom. 1:5; Rom. 16:26).
>
> If the gratuitousness of sanctification isn’t undermined by its capacity for increase through obedience or loss through disobedience, why should justification be? Only by assuming that justification is unalterable—an assumption grammatical arguments about the aorist tense will not uphold—could we conclude that increasing or decreasing in justification is, per se, incompatible with justification by grace.
>
> Works of obedience which contribute to our sanctification are as much the result of grace as is our faith. This is why Paul can say, “Work out your salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you both to will and to work” (Phil. 2:12). As Augustine puts it, “When God rewards our merits, he rewards his own gifts to us.”

Being broken off I think means being unjustified:

> Romans 11:17-25 - But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, although a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing root of the olive tree, do not be arrogant toward the branches. If you are, remember it is not you who support the root, but the root that supports you. Then you will say, Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in. That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God’s kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. For if you were cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, the natural branches, be grafted back into their own olive tree. Lest you be wise in your own conceits, I want you to understand this mystery, brothers: a partial hardening has come upon Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. (ESV)

And being unjustified is the same as being disobedient to God to the command of faith:

> Romans 11:30-35 - Just as you were at one time disobedient to God but now have received mercy because of their disobedience, so they too have now been disobedient in order that by the mercy shown to you they also may now receive mercy. For God has consigned all to disobedience, that he may have mercy on all. Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways! For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor? Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid? (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:12-13 - if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Titus 1:15-16 - To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

So we should not deny Jesus. Rather, we should deny ourselves and follow Jesus:

> Matthew 16:24 - Then Jesus told his disciples, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. (ESV)

The answer I think is that God disciplines and chastises even those who He justifies and no-one asides from God Himself can graft a person out (unjustify?) asides from Father God. And if God unjustifies then only God can put a person back in again:

> Romans 8:33-34 - Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. (ESV)

11.3 The ones who are in Jesus have been called out of darkness and into His light

> I Peter 2:9 - But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:38 - but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. (ESV)

> Romans 1:17 - For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, The righteous shall live by faith. (ESV)

11.4 Don't envy evildoers

> Psalms 37:1-4 - Fret not yourself because of evildoers; be not envious of wrongdoers! Of David. For they will soon fade like the grass and wither like the green herb. Trust in the LORD, and do good; dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness. Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart. (ESV)

> Psalms 37:5-7 - Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act. He will bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your justice as the noonday. Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over the one who prospers in his way, over the man who carries out evil devices! (ESV)

11.5 Sanctification (turning from sin and being cleaned) is a marker of those who are in Jesus

> I Corinthians 6:11 - And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. (ESV)

We should also ask God to sanctify us, and we should will to be sanctified. God wants us to be sanctified, and to depart from impurity:

> I John 5:14-15 - And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of him. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 4:3-8 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you. (ESV)

11.6 We are justified by faith in God who delivered up for our trespasses and raised Jesus Christ fr

We're justified by our faith in Christ. We simply follow Jesus:

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

Being justified by the law of faith in Christ (trusting and obeying Christ) rather than being justified by keeping the whole Mosaic law under the old covenant is, I believe, the correct way to understand what Paul is saying. Because I believe we need a law-abiding faith (true faith in Jesus Christ being a non-idolatrous, agape-loving of the truth faith, and loving neighbour as yourself faith):

> Galatians 5:1-7 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you. I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

Obey the Truth means obey Jesus:

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

> Galatians 2:16 - yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:24 - So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. (ESV)

We have to have faith which is characteristic of Abraham's faith, but with regards to following the Lord Jesus. It's obedience which leads to righteousness, even the righteousness of faith:

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

Our justification comes from having trusting faith in God our Father, who has raised from the dead Jesus Christ our Lord (our brother who we obey); the Jesus Christ who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised from the dead for our justification.

Obeying God is obeying Jesus. Having faith in God is having faith in Jesus.

He was raised for our justification; now in order to be justified by faith, we simply need to put our faith in Him - we need to trusting Jesus Christ.

Trusting in Jesus should result in following Him, believing Jesus' words, walking as he walked, entrusting ourselves to Father God who judges righteously.

We have to die to our old self and live for Christ, simply abiding in Him.

> II Corinthians 5:14-15 - For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

If we walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised, and are doing the will of God, then we would love Jesus and Jesus helps us:

> John 8:39-40 - They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:16-18 - For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of Abraham. Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted. (ESV)

> Mark 3:35 - Whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother. (ESV)

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

If we walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised, but having faith in God by obeying Jesus Christ who was raised for our justification then we have Jesus Christ's righteousness; we have the righteeousness of faith in God.

> Romans 4:22-23 - That is why his faith was counted to him as righteousness. But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, (ESV)

And the promise will be ours also, because Jesus is our Lord, and we belong to Him.

> Romans 4:24-25 - but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

Abraham is the the father of all who believe without being circumcised, and the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised. The circumcised are the ones who keep the precepts of the law by faith - so the law must be combined with the faith of Abraham:

> Romans 4:9-12 - Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

If a Law-adhering person not only adheres to law but also walks in the footsteps of faith which Abraham had before he was circumcised, then that is a valid mode of justification. But we must continue to abide in Christ's teachings/doctrines and the facts about Him as we learn more of His words commandments, are corrected/salted and sanctified by Him. So a Jew when confronted with Jesus Christ needs to receive Jesus:

> Romans 4:11-13 - He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised. For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:6-8 - For it stands in Scripture: Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame. So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe, The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, and A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense. They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. (ESV)

The truly circumcised are the ones who obey the precepts of the law from a heart of faith:

> Romans 2:25-29 - For circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the law, but if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law. For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 9:25-26 - Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will punish all those who are circumcised merely in the flesh— Egypt, Judah, Edom, the sons of Ammon, Moab, and all who dwell in the desert who cut the corners of their hair, for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:3 - For we are the real circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— (ESV)

> Ezekiel 36:25-28 - I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules. You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:15 - For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). (ESV)

Something has a velocity but the distance travelled is a different thing. Likewise, the Christian can have faith but the works done is a different thing. That faith working through love is what counts doesn't mean it's the works which merit justification:

> Galatians 5:6-7 - For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

So if we have the faith that Abraham had in his walk before circumcision, such as when he refused the gifts from the king of Sodom, or when he put Isaac on the Altar, but in regards to following Jesus. We must give up our old life to live for Christ:

> Genesis 14:21-23 - And the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the persons, but take the goods for yourself. But Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lifted my hand to the LORD, God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth, that I would not take a thread or a sandal strap or anything that is yours, lest you should say, I have made Abram rich. (ESV)

So what Jesus is saying is quite similar:

> Luke 9:23-24 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. (ESV)

Now it makes sense to me how Zacchaeus received slavation:

> Luke 19:8-9 - And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold. And Jesus said to him, Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. (ESV)

> So the first self, Jesus says, is going to be lost forever. Whoever would save his life will lose it. And the second self is gonna live forever. Whoever loses his life for me, for me, because you fall in love with me, you've seen me, you love me, you're satisfied with me, your treasuring me. I'm everything to you. You live forever. You're on the road. And you stay on it through death and resurrection and we live together, forever.

11.7 Justified by our words

> Matthew 12:37 - for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned. (ESV)

11.8 Justified by grace

> Titus 3:7 - so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

youtube.com: God Is No Longer Against Us

> Romans 5:2 - Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (ESV)

Christ keeps us standing. His grace is actively making us stand:

> Romans 14:4 - Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand. (ESV)

11.8.1 Justified by faith following Jesus

We have peace with God:

> Romans 5:1 - Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

11.8.2 When James mentions "justification by works", he actually is referring to justification by obedient faith (obedient faith is still faith)

I guess that a person may simply become aware through reading the word that faith has been commanded where previously thay may have had the required faith but didnt' know it was commanded.

It's obedience which leads to righteousness, even the righteousness of faith:

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

> James 2:25 - And in the same way was not also Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way? (ESV)

Hebrews 11:31 links obedience to works in James 2:25:

> Hebrews 11:31 - By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given a friendly welcome to the spies. (ESV)

11.8.3 Justified by the blood of Jesus, received through faith in Jesus Christ as Lord

The same Apostle Paul wrote these:

> Romans 5:1-2 - Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
>
> Romans 5:6-9 - For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die—but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God.
>
> Romans 5:9 - Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. (ESV)

The way that Jesus went is the way that we go. The new and living way is the Jesus way:

- self denial
  - Matthew 16:24 - Then Jesus told his disciples, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. (ESV)
  - Mark 8:35 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it. (ESV)
  - I John 2:15-17 - Do not love (agapate) the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)
  - I Peter 4:12-19 - Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. But let none of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler. Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And If the righteous is scarcely saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner? Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)
- obedience
  - Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

  - Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)
  - I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

- sacrifice
  - John 15:13 - Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. (ESV)
- death
  - Mark 8:35 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it. (ESV)
  - II Timothy 3:12-17 - Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil people and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work. (ESV)

We are sanctified by the Father in the way that Jesus was made perfect. We are made perfect the same way He was made perfect, by the sufferings that come through obedience to God's will.

> Hebrews 2:10-11 - For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering. For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, (ESV)
> Matthew 26:39-42 - And going a little farther he fell on his face and prayed, saying, My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will. And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping. And he said to Peter, So, could you not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Again, for the second time, he went away and prayed, My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done. (ESV)

Thee same way Jesus went is the Way, the new and living way, the Jesus way:

> Hebrews 5:8-9 - Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

Receiving this is a mixture of belief and obedience towards Jesus. Faith is a mixture of belief and obedience.

> I Peter 2:21 - For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. (ESV)

Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life - the Only Way to the Father. Amen.
Jesus doesn't say He's the only way to 'heaven', He says He's the only way to Father God.

> I John 5:20 - And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. (ESV)

II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

I John 2:22-23 - Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. (ESV)

I Timothy 2:3-6 - This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time. (ESV)

I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

I John 2:23 - No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. (ESV)

John 1:17-18 - For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth (G225 alē̆theia) came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known. (ESV)

Acts 2:36 - Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified. (ESV)

Acts 2:38 - And Peter said to them, Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

Acts 2:34-35 - For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool. (ESV)

Matthew 22:41-46 - Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, saying, What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he? They said to him, The son of David. He said to them, How is it then that David, in the Spirit, calls him Lord, saying, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet? If then David calls him Lord, how is he his son? And no one was able to answer him a word, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions. (ESV)

John 14:5-11 - Thomas said to him, Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way? Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him. Philip said to him, Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us. Jesus said to him, Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, Show us the Father? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves. (ESV)

Now the Kingdom of Heaven is something different. Jesus is the only way into the Kingdom of Heaven and the only way into Holy Jerusalem.

Matthew 7:21 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

Revelation of John 21:9-11 - Then came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues and spoke to me, saying, Come, I will show you the Bride, the wife of the Lamb. And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great, high mountain, and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, having the glory of God, its radiance like a most rare jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. (ESV)

Even the heavens are to be dissolved, and we need to be in Jesus' Kingdom:

II Peter 3:9-13 - The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. (ESV)

Matthew 24:35 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (ESV)

Revelation of John 21:1 - Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. (ESV)

Isaiah 65:17 - For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth, and the former things shall not be remembered or come into mind. (ESV)

Jesus is the bread of Life.
Satan can probably make spiritually wicked 'heavenly' stuff happen to us to try to deceive us.

Ephesians 6:12 - For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers (G746 arché), against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. (ESV)

II Thessalonians 2:9-10 - The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. (ESV)

Revelation of John 13:14 - and by the signs that it is allowed to work in the presence of the beast it deceives those who dwell on earth, telling them to make an image for the beast that was wounded by the sword and yet lived. (ESV)

We focus on Jesus, keep His words, believe His words, pratice His commandments, imitate Him, etc. reject falsehood, accept the Truth and the Truth is in Jesus. We do this and Jesus saves us.

youtube.com: The Way, the Truth, & the Life: Knowing Christ - The I AM Sayings of Jesus with R.C. S
There is such a unity here in the Godhead between the Father and the Son that if you see the Son, you see the Father. If you know the Son, you know the Father. And conversely, if you know the Father, you know the Son. This was the point of dispute that Jesus had with the Pharisees who claimed to be disciples of God the Father but who rejected Jesus. And He said to them, look, if you know the Father, you have to believe in the Son, because the Father bears witness to Me. And so the way to the Father is through the Son. The way to see the Father is to see the Son. The way to get to the Father is to go through the Son.

> John 14:1-7 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going. Thomas said to him, Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way? Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him. (ESV)

> John 8:48-59 - The Jews answered him, Are we not right in saying that you are a Samaritan and have a demon? Jesus answered, I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. Yet I do not seek my own glory; there is One who seeks it, and he is the judge. Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. The Jews said to him, Now we know that you have a demon! Abraham died, as did the prophets, yet you say, If anyone keeps my word, he will never taste death. Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do you make yourself out to be? Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, He is our God. But you have not known him. I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and I keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day. He saw it and was glad. So the Jews said to him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham? Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am. So they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out of the temple. (ESV)

Obedience to God is an act of faith: (Hebrews 11). On the flip side, disobedience flows from unbelief/faithlessness:

> I Timothy 1:13 - though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, (ESV)

Acting in accordance with faithlessness is sinful behaviour:

> I Timothy 1:13 - even though I was formerly a blasphemer and a persecutor and a violent aggressor. Yet I was shown mercy because I acted (G4160 poieo) ignorantly (G50 agnoeo) in unbelief (G570 apaistia i.e. faithlessness, disobedience); (NASB)

```
:  570  apaistia  ap-is-tee'-ah from 571; faithlessness, i.e. (negatively) disbelief (lack of Christian faith), or (positively) unfaithfulness (disobedience):--unbelief.

bibletools.org - apaistia faithlessness

The wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience:

> Ephesians 5:5-7 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them;

> Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

That means that justifying faith involves obeying Jesus:

> Romans 5:8-11 - but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

We trust in His name. If you trust in Jesus you are not judged:

> John 3:18 - He who believes (G4100 pisteuo) in Him is not judged; he who does not believe (G4100 pisteuo) has been judged (G2919 krino) already (G2235 ede), because he has not believed (G4100 pisteuo) in the name of the only begotten Son of God. (NASB)

It's true that we must "be believing", and continue believing:

> John 3:14-21 - 'And as Moses did lift up the serpent in the wilderness, so it behoveth the Son of Man to be lifted up, that every one who is believing in him may not perish, but may have life age-during, for God did so love the world, that His Son–the only begotten–He gave, that every one who is believing in him may not perish, but may have life age-during. For God did not send His Son to the world that he may judge the world, but that the world may be saved through him; he who is believing in him is not judged, but he who is not believing hath been judged already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 'And this is the judgment, that the light hath come to the world, and men did love the darkness rather than the light, for their works were evil; for every one who is doing wicked things hateth the light, and doth not come unto the light, that his works may not be detected; but he who is doing the truth doth come to the light, that his works may be manifested, that in God they are having been wrought.' (YLT)

> John 3:32-36 - 'And what he hath seen and heard this he doth testify, and his testimony none receiveth; he who is receiving his testimony did seal that God is true; for he whom God sent, the sayings of God he speaketh; for not by measure doth God give the Spirit; the Father doth love the Son, and all things hath given into his hand; he who is believing in the Son, hath life age-during; and he who is not believing the Son, shall not see life, but the wrath of God doth remain upon him.' (YLT)

> John 5:24 - Truly, truly, I tell you, whoever hears My word and believes Him who sent Me has eternal life and will not come under judgment. Indeed, he has crossed over from death to life. (engbsb2020eb)

> John 5:24 - 'Verily, verily, I say to you–He who is hearing my word, and is believing Him who sent me, hath life age-during, and to judgment he doth not come, but hath passed out of the death to the life. (YLT)

True faith is faith which results in us agape loving those who have faith in Jesus Christ:

> I John 3:14-15 - We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers. The one who does not love remains in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that eternal life does not reside in a murderer. (engbsb2020eb)

We are fine to rebuke family in Christ who sin:

> Luke 17:3-4 - Pay attention to yourselves! If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him, and if he sins against you seven times in the day, and turns to you seven times, saying, I repent, you must forgive him. (ESV)

We are to hate sin. Jude says we can hate sin and the product of sin whilst showing mercy to them, and we show mercy with fear (the fear of God):

> Jude 1:20-23 - But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit; keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. And have mercy on those who doubt; save others by snatching them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment stained by the flesh. (ESV)

The free gift of justification is received through faith in God.

And I believe we need a trusting (characteristically believing and obedient) heart towards Jesus to receive this justification.

> John 12:48 - The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)

Trust God's Word given through Jesus:

> John 5:24-26 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed from death to life. Truly, truly, I say to you, an hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself.

It's not about putting our hope on compliance to the Mosaic law to save us but it's about obeying Jesus / loving Jesus / trusting Jesus, and the compliance to God's law will come naturally while obeying Jesus.

The justifying work is finished - Jesus finished it, now we follow Him through the same way he went, by trusting in Him to save us, believing Him, obeying Him and remaining faithful to Him. We want to be teachable by Him and to affirm the words He has spoken. Our behaviour should change to reflect our belief in what Jesus has spoken. We are forgiven to do the will of God.

Now we need faith to receive it and I believe that faith necessitates love for Jesus, which includes obedience to Jesus, and it's the heart that matters most, because all the work may be burned up but we are still saved, because it's not the work that saves, it's faith, but I believe that faith necessitates love/obedience to Jesus, as one of His sheep.

> Romans 3:21-25 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. (ESV)

11.8.4 Believing the Word of Truth - sealed with the promised Holy Spirit

We had faith in him. We had a faithful, obedient heart, and were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit:

> Ephesians 1:13-14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 12:13 - For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit. (ESV)

Paul 'hears of their faith' (their working faith; faith works; otherwise, what is to hear about) and their love toward the saints. (ESV)

Faith in the Lord Jesus means obedience:

> Ephesians 1:15-16 - For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, (ESV)

Knowledge of Him results in the heart being enlightened:

> Ephesians 1:17-20 - that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, (ESV)

Names have power. Jesus' name is above every other name:

> Ephesians 1:21 - far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. (ESV)

> Acts 4:12 - And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:9 - Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, (ESV)

11.9 Faith, Law, Works

We must live by and within the law of God:

> Proverbs 28:9 - If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination. (ESV)

Christians are under the law of Christ, which is within the law of God:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of Christ) that I might win those outside the law.

A result of abiding by the law of God and our accountability to God for the law of Christ is that people will love God and one another. On the other hand, as a result of obeying impurity and obeying lawlessness, and as a result of not abiding by the law of God, people's love grows cold, and the willful sinning of obeying impurity and lawlessness leads to an eventual death:

> Matthew 24:12 - And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. (ESV)

Even though we are under grace, we must still obey God for the hope of righteousness, and we must not obey impurity, and we must not obey lawlessness. We must obey God, and certainly we must turn from our sin and practice righteousness and we rely on God to help us do that:

> Romans 6:14-19 - For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. (ESV)

> I Peter 5:10 - And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. (ESV)

By obedience to God we work out our salvation:

> Galatians 5:5 - For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. (ESV)

11.9.1 Love is defined by Jesus

Sermon The New Commandment of Christ: 'Love One Another As I Have Loved You' | Desiring God

We must love (not just any way you believe it's defined) but in the same way that Jesus loved us:

> John 13:34 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:10-11 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. (ESV)
>
> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

youtube.com: Hope and the Fruit of Love @time: 2 min 0 sec Since you have in obedience to the truth purified your souls for a sincere love of the brethren - there's there's the pillar - therefore, fervently love one another.

So, the first pillar is Soul purifying obedience to the truth. Do we all see that? Since you have purified your souls by obedience to the truth, love.

If you do this you can love. If you don't do this, love falls. If you do this, love stands. So there's pillar number one.

Since there is a soul purifying obedience to the truth, you can love each other.

> Ephesians 5:25-27 - Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.

11.9.2 Christians are not under the Mosaic law because we are under grace as we are under Christ's law, but we don't despise the Torah, nor annul it, nor teach others to annul it

I enjoyed this video, but I still am of the opinion that following the full Mosaic law is not necessary, (but not prohibited, so long as it is pursued by faith and submits to God's righteousness):

Debate youtube.com: Public Debate - Should Christians Keep The Law?

Relying on the 'works of the law' for one's righteousness puts a person under a curse:

> Galatians 3:10 - For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them.

Abiding by Christ's law (Christ's commandments), which is a law of faith (we're not under the curse of the law of Moses) and is not a law of works (Romans 3:21-31), is not being under a curse, but, rather is being under grace:

> I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)
>
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
>
> John 1:17 - For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

The whole world is accountable to God over the law of God:

> Romans 3:19-20 - Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. (ESV)

The law is still used in judgement, but the one who has faith in Jesus is not condemned.
The law is good and just and Jesus both obeyed it flawlessly, but He also fulfilled it like a prophesy:

> Acts 3:18 - But what God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer, he thus fulfilled. (ESV)

> John 15:25 - But the word that is written in their Law must be fulfilled: They hated me without a cause. (ESV)

> John 18:9 - This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken: Of those whom you gave me I have lost not one. (ESV)

> Matthew 26:56 - But all this has taken place that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples left him and fled. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:17 - Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. (ESV)

> John 18:32 - This was to fulfill the word that Jesus had spoken to show by what kind of death he was going to die. (ESV)

> John 19:24 - so they said to one another, Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it shall be. This was to fulfill the Scripture which says, They divided my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots. So the soldiers did these things, (ESV)

> John 19:28 - After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the Scripture), I thirst. (ESV)

It was inevitable. The Scripture had to be fulfilled:

> Acts 1:16 - Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus. (ESV)

11.9.3 Saying obeying God's commandments are exclusively works is false

For example, to obey a commandment to not work is not works.

> Deuteronomy 16:8 - For six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work on it. (ESV)

To obey a commandment to trust in Jesus is not works.

> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)

> Isaiah 26:3-4 - You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

Also, to obey a commandment to not covet idols is not considered 'works' but it is required of us to keep the commandment:

> I Corinthians 10:9-11 - We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 6:16-18 - What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

God said that if you stop idolising then the Almighty will become precious to you. You will treasure God, agape love God.

> Job 22:24-26 - if you lay gold in the dust, and gold of Ophir among the stones of the torrent bed, then the Almighty will be your gold and your precious silver. For then you will delight yourself in the Almighty and lift up your face to God. (ESV)

Those who do not agape love God do not agape love God and God doesn't know them. Agape love is a treasuring love which treasures Jesus and His teachings, God's words and treasures their family in Christ.

> Matthew 7:23-24 - And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 8:3 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)

> I John 4:20 - If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. (ESV)

> I John 5:1-5 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

The problem is being required to keep the whole law to be justified by it. There is no problem with obedience itself. We want faith working through love. Working faith is what we want. We're justified by our faith in Christ. We simply follow Jesus:

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

Being justified by the law of faith in Christ (trusting and obeying Christ) rather than being justified by keeping the whole Mosaic law under the old covenant is, I believe, the correct way to understand what Paul is saying. Because I believe we need a law-abiding faith (true faith in Jesus Christ being a non-idolatrous, agape-loving of the truth faith, and loving neighbour as yourself faith):

> Galatians 5:1-7 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you. I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

Obey the Truth means obey Jesus:

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

11.9.4 Faith in Jesus Christ doesn't exclude obedience. Knowing Jesus is more than knowing about Jesus. About the Galatian error for those who try to use this passage in order to avoid obeying Jesus

> Job 22:23-26 - If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored. If you remove injustice from your tents and consign your gold to the dust and the gold of Ophir to the stones of the ravines, then the Almighty will be your gold and the finest silver for you. Surely then you will delight in the Almighty and lift up your face to God. (engbsb2020eb)

God wants us to love Him, treasure Him (25. agapaó), value Him with all our heart, and love and value

youtube.com: What Is It Like to Enjoy God? @time: 35 min 16 sec

Yeah, I agree with John Piper, for the most part. Loving God is not actually first working for God. But it is to truly desire God, and treasure Him (25. agapaó), and treasure His word, and treasure His commandments, to give Him due praise, and to honour God, and give Him the glory, to love Him in the affectionate and treasuring sense is what God wants of us, and Jesus says that if we love Him then we will keep His commandments. Where John Piper says 'affectionate love comes before obedience', I prefer to say that 'treasuring God includes a heart of obedience, trust, belief, desiring God, and affectionate love' and I also think that obedience (being in the will of God) may produce work for God but doesn't strictly mean work. We want to keep His commandments so I believe we should treasure God with all our heart. God also commands us to love one another as ourselves, so we should also love and value other people with that same treasuring love, but God wants Him to be our number one treasure, and I think we have to make God our number one love.

As I understand it, I John 5:2-3 isn't saying that God's commandments are universally unburdensome to all people. It's saying that when we love God then keeping His commandments is unburdensome. If we're struggling with keeping the commandments of God and struggling with sin then we should make Him our number one love heart's desire and treasure and seek Him first with all our heart and we will be able to find His commandments unburdensome! It's true.

I feel like I could still say, "Loving God is obedience to God," but I would rather rephrase it as, "God in His love gifted me to be able to love Him back and live. I can see in retrospect He had been working in my life and it's awesome and magnificent and I just want to cherish and obey God now, and God made the way for me to do that!"

> I John 5:2-3 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome.

Even the Apostle Paul explains that our freedom is for serving one another:

> Galatians 5:13 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. (ESV)

Our freedom is so that we might live to God:

Galatians 2:19 - For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. (ESV)

God is our life. We must love, obey, and hold fast to Him. Faith is not without obedience, but we are to obey Jesus Christ and to believe in Jesus is to have begun to obey Him:

Deuteronomy 30:20 - loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them. (ESV)

God is our life because Christ is our life. Our life is hidden with Christ in God:

Colossians 3:1-4 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. (ESV)

I John 5:12 - Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. (ESV)

youtube.com: Hope and the Fruit of Love @time: 2 min 0 sec Since you have in obedience to the truth purified your souls for a sincere love of the brethren - there's there's the pillar - therefore, fervently love one another.

So, the first pillar is Soul purifying obedience to the truth. Do we all see that? Since you have purified your souls by obedience to the truth, love.

If you do this you can love. If you don't do this, love falls. If you do this, love stands. So there's pillar number one.

Since there is a soul purifying obedience to the truth, you can love each other.

To get to know Jesus, we must obey His commandments:

I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

Christ Jesus has set us free to serve God, living for Him. Obeying Christ Jesus, we are found in Him:

John 13:34 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. (ESV)

Matthew 5:22,28,32,34-37,39,44-45,27-28,30-31,35,40 - But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery. And whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. But I say to you, Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply Yes or No; anything more than this comes from evil. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. And if your right hand causes you > to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell. It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce. or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. (ESV)

> Luke 6:34-36,40 - And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. (ESV)

In Christ Jesus seek to follow the pattern of His life to get to know Him, and He gave us commandments to follow to do that. Faith in Christ Jesus is not just a belief in the head but faith is trusting Him, and trusting in Him with all our heart, soul, mind and strength. Both our belief in Him and obedience to Him flow from our trust in Him. Anyone who claims to have come to know Jesus but does not do what Jesus says is a liar and they are not in the truth:

> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)
>
> Galatians 2:1-5 - Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me. I went up because of a revelation and set before them (though privately before those who seemed influential) the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, in order to make sure I was not running or had not run in vain. But even Titus, who was with me, was not forced to be circumcised, though he was a Greek. Yet because of false brothers secretly brought in—who slipped in to spy out our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might bring us into slavery— to them we did not yield in submission even for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might be preserved for you. (ESV)
> Galatians 2:6-9 - And from those who seemed to be influential (what they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)—those, I say, who seemed influential added nothing to me. On the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been entrusted with the gospel to the circumcised (for he who worked through Peter for his apostolic ministry to the circumcised worked also through me for mine to the Gentiles), and when James and Cephas and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave the right hand of fellowship to Barnabas and me, that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised. (ESV)

We must like, Paul, will to do the will of God:

> Romans 7:20-22 - Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, (ESV)
>
> Galatians 2:10 - Only, they asked us to remember the poor, the very thing I was eager to do. (ESV)
> Galatians 2:11-15 - But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned. For before certain men came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles; but when they came he drew back and separated himself, fearing the circumcision party. And the rest of the Jews acted hypocritically along with him, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. But when I saw that their conduct was not in step with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, If you, though a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews? We ourselves are Jews by birth and not Gentile sinners; (ESV)

Yes, Jesus has set us free, but it's to serve God by serving Christ. We are freed in order to love and serve God:

> Galatians 5:1 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. (ESV)

We endeavour to be justified in Christ - in Christ means abiding in Christ - through faith; trusting, believing, obedient faith:

> Galatians 2:16-19 - yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith (G4102 pistis) in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed (G4100 pisteuo) in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified. But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor. For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. (ESV)

Trusting, believing, obedient faith is faith which trusts Jesus Christ and obeys Jesus Christ's commandments. The word 'law' should not be anathema. It it possible to be justified by obedience to Christ's commandments which include Christ's law, because obedience to Jesus is a part of faith and is an intrinsic quality of faith, as is belief.

Pisteuo means to trust. Trust in God, trust also in God's Son Jesus:

> Romans 4:5 - And to the one who does not work but trusts (G4100 pisteuo) him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, (ESV)

Paul lives by faith in Jesus Christ:

> Galatians 2:20 - I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. (ESV)

The Apostle Paul lives by faith in Jesus Christ and that involves trust, belief, obedience, and Paul makes a point about faith being becoming like Jesus Christ, and seeking to be found in Christ Jesus. Obeying Jesus is not contrary to faith in Jesus:

> Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith — that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

> Galatians 2:21 - I do not nullify the grace of God, for if justification were through the law, then Christ died for no purpose. (ESV)

11.9.5 Didache

The Didache's estimated range of dating is 50-120 A.D, according to earlychristianwritings.com.

What I like about the Didache is that it upholds righteous living and following God's Great commandments and precepts.

Didache: The Lord's Teaching Through the Twelve Apostles to the Nations

I think it's important to live righteously out of love for God and one's neighbour, and out of faith.

That being said, I think God does justify through faith, and I believe faith works. And working may indeed be called faith if the work is done in faith. I also think God likely saves through works because it may be their way of demonstrating faith to Jesus.

11.9.6 Our point of reference

We are sanctified by the Spirit and faith in the truth (taking God's words as True and using them to combat lies):

> II Thessalonians 2:13 - But we should always give thanks (G2168 eucharisteo) to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning (G746 arche) for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith (G4102 pistis) in the truth (G225 aletheia). (NASB)

- And the Spirit is the Truth
- And God's Word is Truth
  - God's Words are Truth
  - Jesus is the Truth
- We must have faith in the truth (i.e. believe and trust in the truth)

> Deuteronomy 13:4 - You shall walk after the Lord your God and fear him and keep his commandments and obey his voice, and you shall serve him and hold fast to him.

Think of Jesus here:

- keep His commandments
- obey His voice
- serve Him
- hold fast to Him

Christians must do this.
It's Jesus' words are forever true:

> Matthew 24:35 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (ESV)

We will be judged by Jesus' own words which God gave Him, unless we accept Him, and accept His words:

> John 12:48 - The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day.

I believe the following indicates the law exists pretty much forever - there probably isn't an expiry date:

> Luke 16:17 - But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of the Law to become void.

> Psalms 119:160 - The sum of your word is truth, and every one of your righteous rules endures forever. (ESV)

> John 17:17-19 - Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. (ESV)

Those who are in the faith can't do anything against the truth.
I think the Apostle here understands that we must test ourselves to see if we are in the faith, and encourage others to test themselves. But interestingly, he says, ”not that we may appear to have met the test”, and ”though we may seem to have failed”, as if it may appear and seem as though others have failed, but that we should test ourselves.

Sermon youtube.com: Lord, Savior, and Treasure: The Complex Beauty of Jesus Christ @time: 2 min 44 sec

Though there may seem to be apparent paradoxes, and apparent contradictions in the Scripture, I think they either resolve or we rest in God, not relying on our own understanding. But I confidently affirm God is True, though I don't understand everything, and I affirm that my spiritual eyesight is getting cleaned up by the Spirit, through faith, and by the washing of the word, and I have confidence that Jesus Christ is in me:

> II Corinthians 13:5-8 - Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you? —unless indeed you fail to meet the test! I hope you will find out that we have not failed the test. But we pray to God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed. For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth.

Because truth is truth, it is imperishable. Our souls are purified as we obey the Truth - obey the Word of God - obey Jesus. Our souls come out of darkness and into imperishable truth. The good news is the delivered account of everything Jesus said and did, and doesn't contradict. Jesus doesn't contradict Himself, so we can trust the word delivered through Jesus and the apostles. The most important parts have been recorded, and this is the good news, the gospel:

> I Peter 1:23-25 - since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:51-58 - Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (ESV)

We need to be keepers of Jesus Christ's commandments to put on immortality:

> Romans 2:5-11 - But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

Stop sinning by faith in the truth - by faith in Jesus, and trusting obedience in God's words:

> 1 Thessalonians 4:3 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; (ESV)

> Mark 10:19 - You know the commandments: Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother. (ESV)

> 1 John 3:4-9 - Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. (ESV)

Jesus' words will not pass away:

> Matthew 24:35 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (ESV)

> John 6:68 - Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, (ESV)

> I Peter 1:23 - since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God;

> I Peter 1:25 - but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you.

> Ephesians 1:13,14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)

Adhering strictly to the Mosaic law is not needed to be justified by God if we believe in and follow Jesus:

> Galatians 3:15-18 - To give a human example, brothers: even with a man-made covenant, no one annuls it or adds to it once it has been ratified. Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring. It does not say, And to offsprings, referring to many, but referring to one, And to your offspring, who is Christ. This is what I mean: the law, which came 430 years afterward, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to make the promise void. For if the inheritance comes by the law, it no longer comes by promise; but God gave it to Abraham by a promise.

11.9.7 Purity of heart

The Mosaic law is not really in the same category as the 10 commandments, I believe. The 10 commandments if obeyed in truth from the heart would result in a clean heart, I think. So it serves to describe what a pure heart looks like, and the laws we should always try to keep whether Gentile or Jew.

We obey the Truth. We obey Jesus Christ. We obey God. We believe and trust God, even for His finished work on the cross:

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart,

Even belief must be in the heart:

> Romans 10:10- For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)

I found the KJV to be accurate for Mark 7:19:

> Mark 7:18-23 - And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him; Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats? And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: All these evil things come from within, and defile the man. (KJV)

OK, so then a person's willful disobedience to God's will for them is what is what defiles. But the food itself doesn't defile (For example, if God made a new rule, ”don't eat oranges”, then willful disobedience to this command would defile). Food would only be unclean in the sense that if the person willfully disobeyed God and ate it then they would defile themselves with it by willful disobedience to the commandment given to them. But for people who are not under the Mosaic Law it would not defile them to eat food which was not commanded to them not to eat. Since the Jews at the time were under the Mosaic Law and under that law, it was unclean to them because it was a matter of whether they would obey God. But the food itself doesn't do any defiling.

> Mark 7:19 - because not it enters of him into the heart but into the belly and into the sewer goes out purifying all the food (Interlinear)

Evil things coming from the heart of man defile the man. So with good thoughts proceeding from a pure heart, that would purify the man? And this purification I would call ”soul purification”, the soul being the rest of the spirit-man, I think. So there's the heart, where our faith, trust, love and obedience to God are, and where the word is sown. And the soul / the rest of the soul, and God wants it all to be purified.

11.9.8 We should align our hearts and minds to God's precepts, not submit to worldly precepts which are fictions

Sermon + youtube.com: Unstained from the World: The Battle for Purity - Tim Conway @time: 30 min 28 sec

> Colossians 2:20-23,3:1-6 - If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations— Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch (referring to things that all perish as they are used)—according to human precepts and teachings? These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh. If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth.

> For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. (ESV)
> James 1:27 - Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world. (ESV)

11.9.9 We must cleanse ourself of defilement if we want God to use us more, and if we want to see with faith and hear God more clearly

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

youtube.com: Unstained from the World: The Battle for Purity - Tim Conway @time: 46 min 30 sec

> This is not a cleansing from guilt - that's not what this is. This is a cleansing from the pollution of the world.

God's servants may remain 'shelved' because they're unfit for use.

> Daniel 12:10-12 :: Purify themselves, yea, make themselves white, yea, refined are many: and the wicked have done wickedly, and none of the wicked understand, and those acting wisely do understand; (YLT)
> II Timothy 2:20-23 - Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver but also of wood and clay, some for honorable use, some for dishonorable. Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work. So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. Have nothing to do with foolish, ignorant controversies; you know that they breed quarrels. (ESV)

This is a sanctifying cleansing. We are sanctified by obedience to the Truth, faith in Christ, obedience to Christ, trust in Christ:

> John 15:3 - Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. (ESV)
>
> Ephesians 5:25-26 - Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, (ESV)

Since we await Jesus, we want to be found by Him without spot or blemish. We're supposed to put a stop to sin, fall out of agape love with the world, and be sanctified:

> II Peter 3:13-14 - But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. (ESV)
> Revelation of John 22:14 - Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life and that they may enter the city by the gates. (ESV)

Our relationship with God is based on our purity, not just our forgiveness:

> II Corinthians 6:16-18 - What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

Though we are God's children, we should purify ourself as He is pure. Everyone who has this hope acts on that hope:

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

11.9.10 Impurity lies the heart

> Luke 11:41 - But give as alms those things that are within, and behold, everything is clean for you. (ESV)

> Matthew 15:19 - For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, slander. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:28 - But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

> Proverbs 6:25 - Do not desire her beauty in your heart, and do not let her capture you with her eyelashes; (ESV)

Yes, adultery includes looking at pornography, and fantasizing over it. Yes, adultery includes looking at AI-generated pornography as well.

> Revelation of John 2:23 - and I will strike her children dead. And all the churches will know that I am he who searches mind and heart, and I will give to each of you as your works deserve.

Similarly, the heart can be trained in greed, always looking to make more money from people. That's sinful thinking too:

> II Peter 2:14 - They have eyes full of adultery, insatiable for sin. They entice unsteady souls. They have hearts trained in greed. Accursed children!

> II Corinthians 5:11-12 - Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart.

11.9.11 Purifying the heart and the soul

Having faith in Jesus and obeying God, we are given the Holy Spirit. As we hold faith in Jesus, the Holy Spirit cleanses our hearts by faith. As we obey Jesus, going against the resistance, our souls are being cleansed.

derekprince.com: Take Heed That You Are Not Deceived | Sermon | Derek Prince Ministries "People will tell you, "But the Holy Spirit wouldn't dwell in an unclean vessel." That's wrong The Holy Spirit does dwell in unclean vessels. If He didn't, we'd have no hope. Without Him we cannot be purified, so we need Him. It's like if a professor at the university would say to his class, "Now when you've passed your exams, I'll teach you." And they'd say, "But, professor, we need you teach us to pass our exam." After all, David committed adultery and murder and prayed "Take not Thy Holy Spirit from me." And God didn't. Aren't you glad the Holy Spirit doesn't leave you every time you do something wrong?" Derek Prince

God (who knows the heart) gave the Holy Spirit to the Gentiles who had trusted/believed the word of truth, just as he had given the Holy Spirit to those Jews who had believed, and God cleansed their hearts by faith. The Apostle Peter made a point that he (Peter) and the other Apostles were also relying on the grace of God, believing that they (the Apostles) would be saved, just as the Gentiles who believed would be saved:

> Acts 15:5-11 - But some believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees rose up and said, It is necessary to circumcise them and to order them to keep the law of Moses. The apostles and the elders were gathered together to consider this matter. And after there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, Brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe. And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. Now, therefore, why are you putting God to the test by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will. (ESV)

Also, Luke 11:13 says God gives the Holy Spirit to those who ask him. So I think it's typical to believe God, believing the gospel, and to ask God for His Holy Spirit, expecting that God will cleanse our heart through faith, being prepared to continue obeying the truth for a sincere brotherly love:

> Luke 11:13 - If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him! (ESV)

The same Apostle Peter made a point here about how we obey the Truth for a sincere brotherly love from a pure heart, purifying our souls. We believe and obey the good news, the gospel:

> I Peter 1:22-25 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

We must serve God from a heart purified by the gospel, purified by faith in Jesus:

- Step 1 and ongoing: Believe the gospel (good news), the word of the Lord, the words of Christ (even words such as the sermon on the mount), cleansing our heart by faith. Believe that Jesus is the Son of God, that the Father is in Him and He in the Father. Believe that Jesus did and does the works of His Father. We believe Father God by believing in Jesus:
  - The heart is purified by faith in the Truth, God's Word, Jesus Christ, the Holy Scripture. We believe the gospel, be corrected by and come into agreement with God's Word. We become single-minded:
    - Acts 15:8-9 - And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)
    - James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)
    - John 5:24 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (ESV)
    - John 10:35-38 - If he called them gods to whom the word of God came—and Scripture cannot be broken— do you say of him whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, You are blaspheming, because I said, I am the Son of God? If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father. (ESV)

    - Psalms 24:3-5 - Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. He will receive blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation. (ESV)

  - Hold fast to the gospel.

- Step 2 and ongoing: Love one another earnestly from a pure heart, obeying the Truth who is Jesus and the Truth which is the Word of God, even the Scripture.

  - The soul is purified by obeying the Truth for a sincere brotherly love issuing from a pure heart. This obedience to the Truth is primarily continuing to obey Jesus who is the Truth and our Lord and Master and may be done while observing the Law (Torah) which is useful for correction and training in righteousness, but we do not call the Law our Master. We are primarily slaves to Jesus who is our Righteousness. We don't teach against following the Law by faith but we follow Jesus first and foremost and have freedom as we do this, and the law doesn't condemn us as we are following Jesus.

    - I Peter 1:1-2 - Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who are elect exiles of the dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and for sprinkling with his blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you. (ESV)

    - II Peter 2:19 - They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. (ESV)

  - Also we continue holding fast to the gospel.

    - Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

  - James 1:19-23 - Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness that God requires. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. (ESV)

  - This heart and soul purification involves our family in Christ. It involves loving and forgiving one another, not wronging eachother, and cleansing ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit. It's necessary to separate from idolators in order to be received by God and to be sons and daughters to God. There's no partnership between righteousness and lawlessness. And being the temple of God involves turning away from false gods and separating from idolators. II Cor 6:14-8 makes it clear that faith, belief in Jesus involves repentance from sin and walking in God's commandments and including worshiping and serving one True God only. Being a son or or daughter of God involves turning away from false gods. God gives the promise and we respond to that promise by turning away from false gods and turning away from other forms of sin, and this turning from sin is necessary to be a child of the Most High God:

    - Acts 4:32 - Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. (ESV)

- II Corinthians 6:14-18,7:1 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

    - ”be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you”. This is a conditional promise. It’s not promising without the condition. God’s promising that if we separate from the lawless unbelievers and touch no unclean thing, then He will welcome us and be a Father to us.

- I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)
- I John 3:3 - And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. (ESV)
- I John 3:15 - Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. (ESV)

So you see that whoever hopes in Jesus (has faith in Jesus) purifies himself as He is pure by obedience to the Truth. So this is really about turning away from sin, even after having come to faith in Jesus:

> I John 3:2-7 - Beloved, we are God’s children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 15:34 - Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. (ESV)

We must have been switched to be doing works in Christ. We are saved from God’s wrath to come.
Believe on the finished work of Christ:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

Walk obedient to the truth:

> Romans 2:6-8 - He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. (ESV)
> Romans 5:9 - Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. (ESV)

> Romans 13:5 - Therefore one must be in subjection, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:9-10 - For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:5-6 - Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. (ESV)

If we have faith in Jesus then we obey Jesus' commandments when presented with opportunities. We walk by faith, not sight. When other people discourage you from following Jesus' commandments, but you choose to obey Jesus anyway, this is overcoming the enemy by faith:

> II Corinthians 5:7 - for we walk by faith, not by sight. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 16:8-10 - But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost, for a wide door for effective work has opened to me, and there are many adversaries. When Timothy comes, see that you put him at ease among you, for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I am. (ESV)

Do what Jesus says and receive eternal life - obey Jesus:

> Romans 6:13-23 - Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed*, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

11.9.12 Being a slave to righteousness is possible without adhering to the Mosaic law, by being led by Jesus' Spirit

> 1 Corinthians 1:30-31 - He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom and our righteousness and sanctification and redemption. Therefore, as it is written, Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord. (ESV)

God through Jesus is the source of our personal righteousness as we are found in Him, and our righteousness comes through Him. That personal righteousness doesn't belong to us alone, but it also belongs to Christ because it comes from Christ:

> Philippians 1:9-11 - And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

We are set free from sin and become slaves of God (so we obey God!!) and the obedience leads to sanctification, and leads to righteousness:

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

11.9.13 If a person is led by the Spirit then the Lord Jesus is in control of their life, which means that person obeys Jesus' commandments:

Faith is the action word. We must be followers of Jesus Christ, not putting ourselves back under the law of Moses to seek justification through it.

Faith receives and continues to receive the supply of the Spirit and we are led by the Spirit:

> Galatians 3:1-5 - O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you? It was before your eyes that Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified. Let me ask you only this: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by hearing with faith? Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh? Did you suffer so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain? Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith— (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: The Law Refutes Justification by Law: Galatians 3:6a??9, Part 1

Faith receives and continues to receive the supply of the Spirit. So a person needs to be having faith in Jesus to be led by the Spirit.

Sanctification is personal righteousness that is fruit that comes from being in Jesus Christ, Him being our righteousness - we're grafted into Jesus like branches on a tree and become healthier. We must and should forsake sin and obey Jesus.

We must live in the spirit the way God does, not for human passions, but for the will of God:

> I Peter 4:1-6 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the spirit the way God does. (ESV)

> Romans 8:1-17 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of > God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

11.9.14 We must have attention to Jesus Christ our Lord

We are saved from our sins, and from our evil practices.

> Jeremiah 7:9-10 - Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, make offerings to Baal, and go after other gods that you have not known, and then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered!—only to go on doing all these abominations? (ESV)

We are made a new man in Christ Jesus by the power of the Holy Spirit.

> Matthew 12:33 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. (ESV)

> John 10:27 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. (ESV)

11.9.15 Make the tree good and the fruit good

We must simultaneously make the tree good (abide in Jesus) and make the fruit good (be sanctified and glorify God and Jesus in our hearts, minds, bodies and actions).

> Matthew 12:33-37 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned. (ESV)

As we make the tree good, we make the fruit good!
I still think the 10 commandments are special, and following them in truth is repenting from sin.

> Mark 10:19 - You know the commandments: Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother. (ESV)

> Acts 15:28-29 - For it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay on you no greater burden than these requirements: that you abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what has been strangled, and from sexual immorality. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell.

11.9.16 Judgement

I certainly affirm that Jesus will return to save those waiting for Him, and I currently am waiting for His return:

> Hebrews 9:27-28 - And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. (ESV)

Jesus went to the place of the dead so people who had died (those who Paul is referring to here) may also be saved. Also, it seems that the rapture doctrine was made known from a word from the Lord:

> I Thessalonians 4:14-17 - For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. (ESV)

Ultimately, we are waiting for incorruptible bodies, and I totally believe in rapture and ultimately a completely new heavens and earth (not just a renewal, although I do believe God is still taking care of and reigning on the earth), so I think that whatever Paul the Apostle is referring to here, well I have my speculatinons, is something more imminent, and perhaps more to do with God's kingdom work on the earth, but I still hold the eschatological view that there is ultimately an entirely new heavens and earth without any corruption:

> I Corinthians 7:29-31 - This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. (ESV)

> Psalms 37:27-29 - Turn away from evil and do good so shall you dwell forever. For the LORD loves justice he will not forsake his saints. They are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off. The righteous shall inherit the land and dwell upon it forever. (ESV)

> Habakkuk 2:12-14 - Woe to him who builds a town with blood and founds a city on iniquity! Behold, is it not from the LORD of hosts that peoples labor merely for fire, and nations weary themselves for nothing? For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD as the waters cover the sea. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 11:15 - Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign forever and ever. (ESV)

Also, I do not affirm reincarnation, but I think the truth is that it is appointed for man to die once, and after that, judgement, and the LORD creates an entirely new heavens and a new earth. No recycling. No reincarnation. I await the second coming of Christ. AMEN! Amen to the New Covenant. Jesus Christ is my High Priest.

> Hebrews 9:27-28 - And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. (ESV)

> Isaiah 65:17 - For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth, and the former things shall not be remembered or come into mind.

> Luke 18:8 - I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?

Will anyone be trusting Jesus, trusting in Jesus, believing and obeying Jesus, being found in the kingdom of God?

The kingdom of God is all about serving Christ, and having righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit:

> Romans 14:17-22 - For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding. Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats. It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble. The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. (ESV)

We must also love one another in the way Jesus has loved us. Jesus recognized that Father God loved Him, and Jesus obediently loved us. We must also recognise that we have been loved by God, and love one another:

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

God's law is still used in judgement, but the one who has faith in Jesus is not condemned because they abide in Jesus, are Jesus' sheep, and are led by the Spirit, obeying and following Jesus' voice:

- Whoever is actively believing/trusting/obeying Jesus is not judged.
- Whoever is disbelieving/distrusting/disobeying Jesus is judged even now.

John 3:18 Interlinear: he who is believing in him is not judged, but he who is not believing hath been judged already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

> John 3:18 - He who believes (G4100 pisteuo) in Him is not judged; he who does not believe (G4100 pisteuo) has been judged (G2919 krino) already (G2235 ede), because he has not believed (G4100 pisteuo) in the name of the only begotten Son of God. (NASB)

Firstly, obedient children are children who hear the word of God, believe and love God, and we should be holy in all our conduct if we call on the LORD God who judges impartially according to each one's deeds:

> I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

I'm quite convinced that the substitutionary atonement is there to help us put a stop to sin, and live to righteousness and holiness:

> II Corinthians 5:21 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 3:1-5 - And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: The words of him who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. I know your works. You have the reputation of being alive, but you are dead. Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete in the sight of my God. Remember, then, what you received and heard.

> Keep it, and repent. If you will not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come against you. Yet you have still a few names in Sardis, people who have not soiled their garments, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. The one who conquers will be clothed thus in white garments, and I will never blot his name out of the book of life. I will confess (G3670 homologeó) his name before my Father and before his angels. (ESV)

If people including free-grace Christians do not repent from sin, they may still receive the wrath of God, but I'm not the judge here:

> Colossians 3:5-10 - Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator.

God's still rewarding those who do good and bringing wrath to those who do evil:

> Acts 10:4 - And he stared at him in terror and said, What is it, Lord? And he said to him, Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God. (ESV)

> Genesis 19:13 - For we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against its people has become great before the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it. (ESV)

> Matthew 11:23 - And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You will be brought down to Hades. For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. (ESV)

> Proverbs 11:11 - By the blessing of the upright a city is exalted, but by the mouth of the wicked it is overthrown. (ESV)

Do not be an enemy of the cross of Christ, submit to the righteousness of God - we needed Jehovah God, Father of Jesus Christ, to pay for our sin - and we must imitate Christ, passing forward Christ's love and forgiving as we have been forgiven, and repenting from sin:

> John 3:19 - This is the judgment, that the Light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the Light, for their deeds were evil. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:17 - For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? (ESV)

> Matthew 12:36-37 - I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.

When one speaks evil against a brother, they become a judge of the law.

> James 4:11 - Do not speak evil against one another, brothers. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. (ESV)

Repentance involves turning away from sin, and all believers are supposed to turn away from sin which they themselves condemn:

> Romans 2:1-5 - Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who do such things. Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God? Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. (ESV)

Turn away from sin and be corrected by the Truth:

> Daniel 9:13 - As it is written in the Law of Moses, all this calamity has come upon us; yet we have not entreated the favor of the LORD our God, turning from our iniquities and gaining insight by your truth. (ESV)

We must stop doing evil and do what God wants of us, which is to have faith in Jesus, and do good, serving Christ:

> Romans 2:6-11 - He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

Eternal judgement:

> Hebrews 6:2 - and of instruction about washings, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.

11.9.17 Our Lord is the Son of Man, and we should be ready and on alert

> Matthew 24:42 - Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. (ESV)

> Matthew 24:44 - Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. (ESV)

> Matthew 25:13 - Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour. (ESV)

> Luke 21:34-36 - But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth. But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man. (ESV)

11.9.18 I believe I was saved and born-again by seeking Jesus and calling on the name of the Lord

> Acts 2:17-21 - And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams; even on my male servants and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. And I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke; the sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the day of the Lord comes, the great and magnificent day. And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

I prayed a sinners prayer in my own room, and I had begun trying to repent from sin, but I was still stuck in it and I needed help.

And when we are born-again and given a new heart we should continue in obedience.

11.9.19 We should not rebel against the law - but we should obey the truth in truth

> Matthew 23:2-7 - The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat, so practice and observe whatever they tell you—but not what they do. For they preach, but do not practice. They tie up heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on people's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to move them with their finger. They do all their deeds to be seen by others. For they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long, and they love the place of honor at feasts and the best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces and being called rabbi by others. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: How Preachers Grow Graceless

We should not live a double-life. We should not deny in our private life what we preach in public.

Serving Christ means doing the will of God from the heart, in truth, seeking to please God who sees everything even done in private:

> Ephesians 6:5-8 - Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to man, knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free. (ESV)

I'm not a perfect person. I'm writing this document as I am learning, and interpreting as I go. And I am trying to clean myself up in my own private life.

> Ezekiel 34:8 - As I live, declares the Lord GOD, surely because my sheep have become a prey, and my sheep have become food for all the wild beasts, since there was no shepherd, and because my shepherds have not searched for my sheep, but the shepherds have fed themselves, and have not fed my sheep, (ESV)

> John 21:15-17 - When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these? He said to him, Yes, Lord; you know that I love you. He said to him, Feed my lambs. He said to him a second time, Simon, son of John, do you love me? He said to him, Yes, Lord; you know that I love you. He said to him, Tend my sheep. He said to him the third time, Simon, son of John, do you love me? Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, Do you love me? and he said to him, Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you. Jesus said to him, Feed my sheep.

> I Timothy 4:7-12 - Have nothing to do with irreverent, silly myths. Rather train yourself for godliness; for while bodily training is of some value, godliness is of value in every way, as it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come. The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance. For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. Command and teach these things. Let no one despise you for your youth, but set the believers an example in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. (ESV)

12 Faith requires obedience

youtube.com: C S Lewis message 2024 - Faith in action God fights for you, but you must also act @time: 13 min 33 sec

The Breastplate of Righteousness (according to C. S. Lewis) Protects our hearts against the enemy's attacks. It is a reminder of the righteousness we have through Christ, not because of anything we have done. It is about living in obedience and integrity, knowing that we are clothed in His righteousness.

Luke writes that Peter says the Holy Spirit goes to those who obey Jesus.
If the book of Acts is finished after Paul went to Galatia, then it is in knowledge of the letter to the Galatians, where Paul says the promised Spirit is received through faith.

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:14 - so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

Or since Paul's journey to Galatia happened after Peter said the Holy Spirit is given to those who obey Jesus, and Paul writes that the promised Spirit is received through faith, even in these two passages, it's doubly confirmed that faith necessitates obedience.

> Acts 16:6 - And they went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia.

Jesus says you must obey God to be part of His family:

> Luke 8:21 - But He answered and said to them, "My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."

Jesus implies you must obey Him (Jesus) to be part of His family:

> John 7:16 - So Jesus answered them, My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me.

Love Jesus (being obedient to Him) and believe that He came from God:

> John 16:25-27- I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

Doing the will of God from the heart means obedience, and integrity and seeking to please God:

> Ephesians 6:5-8 - Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to man, knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free. (ESV)

12.1 The obedient children are the ones who are not conformed to the passions of our former ignorance

> I Peter 1:14-16 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy.

12.2 The sons of disobedience are the ones who are conformed to sexual immorality, impurity, or covetousness, etc.

Ephesians 5:5-7 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them;

Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

12.3 Get to know Jesus by following His commandments

Matthew 7:21-27 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it. (ESV)

Matthew 6:10 - Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. (ESV)

Luke 6:46-49 - Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

You must obey Jesus:

John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuo) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

We must obey God. We have faith in God who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification, and having faith in God is having faith in His Son which is believing in and obeying Jesus Christ:

Romans 4:23-25 - But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

13 True religion

- Be a disciple and representative of Jesus
    - Obedient to Jesus

- Being a servant to other people
- Sticking up for truth
  - Be faithful to Jesus
    - Be personally accountable to God and to Jesus
    - Do not deny Jesus
- Have a pure heart
  - Obey God, being accountable to God
- Have Jesus' heart
- Serving Jesus
- Endeavour to please God
- Be holy
- Be godly (behaviour in accordance with the knowledge of God)

God does not despise the righteous deeds of His children done by faith:

> Isaiah 64:5-6 - You meet him who joyfully works righteousness, those who remember you in your ways. Behold, you were angry, and we sinned; in our sins we have been a long time, and shall we be saved? We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. (ESV)

Given a good conscience with God by faith in Jesus, we then do good works in love out of a forgiven heart:

> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

Quote from John Piper That misunderstanding of Isaiah 64:6 has caused many Christians to believe that it is impossible for a Christian to please God. If their best works are filthy rags, there's nothing they can do to please him - this is a profoundly unbiblical notion through and through.

> Philippians 4:18 - I have received full payment, and more. I am well supplied, having received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. (ESV)

> Hebrews 13:16 - Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God. (ESV)

Our works must be done in faith:

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

Quote from John Piper Think what a horrible thing it would be to say that the fruit of the Holy Spirit in the Christian Life is filthy rags. I can hardly stand to think about it. They are not filthy rags.

> Galatians 1:10 - For am I now seeking the approval of man, or of God? Or am I trying to please man? If I were still trying to please man, I would not be a servant of Christ. (ESV)

youtube.com: Unstained from the World: The Battle for Purity - Tim Conway @time: 57 min 19 sec

> You have to do it. Those reflexive pronouns mean your responsibility. God doesn't do it for you. You do it. The person sitting next to you, your spouse doesn't do it for you, your friends don't do it. You need to be determined ,and deliberate and intentional, and this is a battle, and we are up against these great strongholds of thought that the world and the god of this world bombards us with. This is no easy thing.

> James 1:27 - Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world. (ESV)

> Matthew 15:8-9 - This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men. (ESV)

> 1 Samuel 16:7 - But the LORD said to Samuel, Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him. For the LORD sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart. (ESV)

I do actually consider theology to be quite important but we should not be whitewashed tombs.
I think the person's lifestyle should be 'pure and undefiled religion' as James defines it.

> 1 Peter 3:16 - a conscience having good so that in this they might speak against you they shall be ashamed those reviling your - good in Christ manner of life (391. anastrophé) (Interlinear)

I should probably actually do my own Bible study though because there's a lot of false religion out there. Rather than fill my mind with other people's doctrines and religion, we should obey God, knowing God knows.
Also endeavor to also do lots of service as that is what Jesus' Kingdom is all about.

14 Repentance from sin

Repentance leads to the knowledge of the truth, and ceasing to do the devil's will:

> II Timothy 2:24-26 - And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will. (ESV)

We must cease to do the devil's will:

> Hebrews 10:26-31 - For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has spurned the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? For we know him who said, Vengeance is mine; I will repay. And again, The Lord will judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. (ESV)

Before 2 April 2022 when I was born-again and a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation), I was especially stuck in sin - all sorts of things: pornography, pride, like the prodigal son, but I was also quite oppressed. I hated feeling like I was in a stranglehold of lies where I wasn't able to act on anything I believed was true, and in poverty, and so I continued in sin. Some time in 2021, I had begun putting my trust in God to work, and trying to keep God's commandments. And on 2 April 2022, I was born-again of the Spirit. After that, things had become 'tangibly' spiritual and I was given 'knowledge' that God exists and I believed (and still do) that Jesus is God, so that means ever since then I then had a strong belief that Jesus is with me and Jesus granted me to keep on holding faith in Him without the full knowledge, which is really cool. So now I feel even more urgency with regards to repentance from sin and a desire to be holy. I'm a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation), so I'm not going back to the way things were. Thank You Jesus.

> I Thessalonians 5:20-21 - Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. (ESV)

14.1 Parable of the prodigal son - God’s joy over a sinner that repents from sin

prodigal Wasteful.

    Spending money or using resources freely and recklessly; wastefully extravagant.
    "prodigal habits die hard"

    A person who spends money in a recklessly extravagant way.
    "he hated rich prodigals who lived useless, imprudent lives"

The story of the prodigal son is about a person coming to repentance, and there is great joy over it. It’s not saying that following God’s commandments are wrong. It’s not even saying that ’rulekeeping’ is wrong. It does say that sin leads to destruction. It also says that God and the angels are overjoyed when people repent from sin and turn back to Him, and that God forgives and welcomes us back when we do this.

> Luke 15:7 - Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

> Luke 15:10 - Just so, I tell you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents.

> Luke 15:24 - For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to celebrate.

The father was always happy with the obedient son, but he was simply full of joy that his wayward son had returned:

> Luke 15:31-32 - And he said to him, Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to celebrate and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found.

Yes, we must feel sorry for our sin:

> Luke 18:13 - But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! (ESV)

We must turn from our wicked ways:

> 2 Chronicles 7:14 - if my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land. (ESV)

Yes, we must turn from our wicked ways to obey God - absolutely!:

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ’s teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

Assuming you are following Jesus, then when we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sin, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins. I've heard people say we only need to confess (G3670 homologeó) our sin, but we also need to be following Jesus / walking in the light. Repentance is still totally about changing our ways from wickedness to obedience:

> I John 1:7-9 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

God wants us to know Him and obey Him and to do good as He has commanded:

> Hosea 6:5-8 - Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light. For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings. But like Adam they transgressed the covenant; there they dealt faithlessly with me. Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with blood. (ESV)

15 Obtain a faith of equal standing with the Apostles by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ

> II Peter 1:1 - Simeon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who have obtained a faith of equal standing with ours by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

We obtain a strong faith by the righteousness of Jesus Christ.
This requires obedience to Jesus.

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?

Faith:

- Belief and Obedience => true knowledge => fruit
    - Belief and obedience leads to true knowledge, and after true knowledge, fruit

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

Also, the Old Testament speaks a lot about how to walk in righteousness:

> II Timothy 3:16 All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness,

This is why it's a good idea to study the Old Testament including Old Testament law, the nature of faith etc. and God's character, precepts and statues, to love God and one's neighbour.

15.1 Knowing and being found in Christ Jesus is what it's all about Suffering for righteousness sake (suffering for being Christlike).

> Philippians 3:8-11 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. (ESV)

Jesus' servants (people who obey Him) are found in him. Jesus' servants are those who have been washed, and they ought to then wash:

> Psalms 34:22 - The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned. (ESV)

It involves:

- believing the truth
- sanctification while believing the truth
  - putting a stop to sin
  - becoming holy
  - being a slave to righteousness, obeying Jesus
    - being obedient to Jesus, instead of being obedient to the world
  - I Peter 1:16-22 - since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)
- loving selflessly as Jesus loved

Also, through perfect obedience, Jesus has spoken Father God's commandment of eternal life, which is what He has said:

- ”the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak.”

God sent Jesus:

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)
>
> I Peter 3:17 - For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil. (ESV)

Obeying God's will often leads to suffering by the hands of those who are in darkness:

> I Peter 4:19 - Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)

15.2 There is no salvation without repentance - we must turn away from sin

3340. metanoeó Corresponding Greek / Hebrew Entries: The Hebrew equivalent often associated with repentance is ” ” (shuv, Strong’s H7725), which means to turn back or return, emphasizing a return to God and His ways.

Usage: The term ”metanoeó” is primarily used in the New Testament to denote a profound change of mind and heart, often associated with turning away from sin and turning towards God. It involves a recognition of wrongdoing, a sincere regret or remorse, and a commitment to change one’s behavior and align with God’s will. This concept is central to the Christian message of salvation and is often linked with faith and conversion.

We need to heed Jesus’ warning that we need to change our minds or perish. We have to stop believing falsehood and believe the truth, believe/trust Jesus and Jesus’ words:

> Luke 13:3 - No, I tell you; but unless you repent (3340. metanoeó), you will all likewise perish. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)

> Matthew 9:13 - Go and learn what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice. For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners. (ESV)

> Acts 20:20-21 - how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and teaching you in public and from house to house, testifying both to Jews and to Greeks of repentance toward God and of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

James exhorts us to turn away from sin and to become single-minded about the Word of God, trusting the Word of God (trusting God’s testimony of Jesus, believing the Scripture. Trusting Jesus’ Words). Drawing near to God seems to involve turning away from sin, and trusting God’s Word:

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

Jesus is our Lord and Master, not sin. Being under grace means we have been forgiven and now present ourselves as slaves of Righteousness, obeying Jesus:

> Romans 6:9-14 - Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. (KJV)

We should be obedient slaves of Righteousness (slaves of Jesus). If you’re not enslaved to Christ you’re enslaved to something else - either yourself or to sin or to the world or to satan. I realise that word ’enslaved’ carries connotations of slavery but it’s slavery to Jesus, and freedom from slavery to sin, slavery from walking in disobedience to God, to instead serve God through Jesus. No servant is greater than their master, but at least the servant of Jesus has Jesus has their master.

If we continue on serving, trusting, obeying sin, we will die. But of we continue serving, trusting, obeying Jesus we will be sanctified and have eternal life: Faith is commanded so is inseparable from obedience. It’s the real gospel, the one that calls people to obedience by word and deed, obedience to Jesus. Obedience which leads to righteousness. Faith is commanded of us:

Romans 6:15-23 - What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

15.3 We must believe the truth, forsake sin, and live to righteousness

Jesus didn't sin. We need to have the same way of thinking as Jesus had. We need to attempt to cease from sin, and live for the will of God.

1 Peter 4:1-2 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. (ESV)

II Thessalonians 2:13 - But we should always give thanks (G2168 eucharisteo) to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning (G746 arche) for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith (G4102 pistis) in the truth (G225 aletheia). (NASB)

Jesus has enabled us to die to sin and live to righteousness:

1 Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

Matthew 25:46 - And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life. (ESV)

Cleaned up by having faith in the truth.

See how faithfulness is related to faith - faith is faithful to God. Having faith in God is keeping accountability with God with regard to His commands and promises and maintaining faithfulness with God who sees in secret:

II Timothy 2:13 - if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

Faith in the truth - strong faith word! Belief and ongoing faithfulness, trust, reliance.

 from 3982; persuasion, i.e. credence; moral conviction (of religious truth, or the truthfulness of God or a religious teacher), especially reliance upon Christ for salvation; abstractly, constancy in such profession; by extension, the system of religious (Gospel) truth itself:--assurance, belief, believe, faith, fidelity.

> II Thessalonians 2:11-14 - Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We want to obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ - we do this by being Christlike through obeying Jesus Christ, which brings glory to Jesus and glory to God. We obey when we believe and are being sanctified.

> Ephesians 6:14 - Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness,

We must have faith in Jesus for the righteousness of God that comes by faith. We must believe what He's achieved, and we must be born-again of the Spirit.

> Romans 10:4 - For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes (G4100 pisteuo has faith in Jesus).

Saved, and being saved. Being cleaned while believing.
Jesus is our High Priest.

> Romans 8:1 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

> Romans 8:3-4 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

Jesus condemned sin in the flesh. Now we walk according to the spirit so that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us.

It's still really important to put a stop to sin! And we must walk according to Jesus' commandments:

> John 14:24 - Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me.

15.3.1 Holiness

I have so far found this series by R. C. Sproul to help clarify the meaning of the word 'holiness':

I will defer to the following video by R. C. Sproul:

15.3.2 Personal 'holiness' / 'righteousness' (i.e. devotion to Christ)

Quote by R C Sproul "What makes something sacred, what makes something holy is the touch of God upon it. When the one who himself is other and different touches that which is ordinary, it becomes extraordinary."

Undivided devotion to Christ:

> I Corinthians 7:32-35 - I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord. But the married man is anxious about worldly things, how to please his wife, and his interests are divided. And the unmarried or betrothed woman is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit. But the married woman is anxious about worldly things, how to please her husband. I say this for your own benefit, not to lay any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord. (ESV)

Sincere and pure devotion to Christ:

> II Corinthians 11:2-3 - I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I betrothed you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ. (ESV)

When we repent from sin, and serve Jesus with undivided, sincere and pure devotion, we allow Jesus' holiness to shine through us increasingly.

Therefore, it's really not our own holiness or power that is responsible for miracles that happen through us or in cooperation with us, but it is Jesus' power and holiness.

Jesus is the True Vine. We are the branches. AMEN!! We can do nothing apart from Him. AMEN!!

> Acts 3:12 - And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? (KJV)

Everyone who names the name of the Lord must depart from iniquity:

> I Corinthians 6:17-20 - But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

> II Timothy 2:19-22 - But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: The Lord knows those who are his, and, Let everyone who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity. Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver but also of wood and clay, some for honorable use, some for dishonorable. Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work. So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.

Our bodies are a vessel for Jesus' holiness to shine out of. It's the vessel of the Holy Spirit:

> 1 Thessalonians 4:3-5 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that is, that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each of you know how to possess his own (G1438 heautou) vessel (G4632 skeuos) in sanctification and honor, not in lustful passion, like the Gentiles who do not know God; (NASB)

We should not deceive our brothers by lying about the matter of sanctifying our bodies:

> I Thessalonians 4:6-7 - and that no man transgress and defraud his brother in the matter because the Lord is the avenger in all these things, just as we also told you before and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for the purpose of impurity, but in sanctification. (NASB)

Jesus is the light in us, and we must let our light shine:

Luke 8:14-16 - And as for what fell among the thorns, they are those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature. As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience. , No one after lighting a lamp covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a stand, so that those who enter may see the light. (ESV)

Matthew 5:15 - Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. (ESV)

Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it.

The power comes from Jesus:

Luke 8:46 - But Jesus said, Someone touched me, for I perceive that power has gone out from me.

When we repent and clean ourselves up, we allow Jesus' light to shine through us. The sanctification process is like cleaning a muddy window.

Luke 6:40 - A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher.

Luke 6:41-42 - Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye, when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye.

John 15:5 - I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.

Luke 6:43 - For no good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit,

We are the temple of God:

I Corinthians 3:17 - If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple. (ESV)

Philippians 2:15-16 - that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

15.3.3 We approach Christ's very image

Romans 8:29 - For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.

Hebrews 2:11-12 - For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, saying, I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise. (ESV)

15.3.4 Repentance: Put off the old self

> Colossians 3:4-9 - When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices

- Stop sexual immorality.
- Stop idolatry.
- Stop gossip and slander.
- Stop being hateful of people.

> I Corinthians 10:7-14 - Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry.

15.3.5 Put on the new self: Christ-likeness

> Colossians 3:10-17 - and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all, and in all. Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love (26. agapé), which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

youtube.com: Should Christians Play Games That Involve Lying? - Ask Pastor Tim Brethren, I don't know about you but when I was lost I was a big liar, a big liar and one of the things that I [did], just being saved, is going back and actually opening up with people about some of the big lies that I told and had a lot of impact or effect that I just felt God brought to my mind and if anything, I mean we should really be striving to be people that tell the truth.

Now I recognize sometimes we're going to say things and we don't remember exactly the right way, and we unintentionally say things, but that's entirely different than you honing your skills to deceive. Biblically speaking, that is a devilish thing. Yeah, I don't think you can get away from it. He (the devil) is a liar, he's the father of Lies. God [has] no lie in Him. Jesus - you cannot find [any deception in Him). Well, there were times he was silent, there were times he didn't want it to be known who he was, but you cannot charge him with deception at all.

Yeah, I really don't like the game Coup which seems to be training people to deceive each other - training people to think in that way. That's the big problem I think, that it trains people to think in that way, to lie to gain advantage over someone else. But it's not at all a healthy way of thinking. Wow, a scripture to back this up.

> Jeremiah 9:5 - Everyone deceives his neighbor, and no one speaks the truth; they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves committing iniquity. (ESV)

15.3.6 What must be believe, and what we must do: Walk in truth and love the way Jesus has commanded us

We must receive Jesus' words through faith, walk in them through faith and come to know in truth (we must truly know) that Jesus came from God, and continue in faith, continuing to be sanctified.

We must practice the truth:

> John 3:21 - But he who practices the truth comes to the Light, so that his deeds may be manifested as having been wrought in God."

> Hebrews 10:14 - For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.

This is what we must come to know in truth - that Jesus came from Father God, and that Father God sent Him - it is Father God's will:

> John 17:8 - For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me.

15.3.7 Come to the knowledge of the truth

> I Timothy 2:3-6 - This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time.

Therefore, we should receive Jesus' words and obey Jesus and arrive at the truth. Obedience is an essential part of faith. Like Abraham obeying God, or like Israel crossing through the Red Sea, it's obedience which leads to sure belief, and obedience that leads a person into sure knowledge of the truth, and obedience which cooperates with sanctification by the Spirit.

> Exodus 14:31 - When Israel saw the great power which the Lord had used against the Egyptians, the people feared the Lord, and they believed (H539 'aman) in the Lord and in His servant Moses.

> Hebrews 11:29 - By faith the people crossed the Red Sea as if on dry land, but the Egyptians, when they attempted to do the same, were drowned. (ESV)

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus was saying to those Jews who had believed Him, "If you continue in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." (NASB)

The true knowledge of Jesus grants us everything pertaining to life and godliness, allowing us to partake in the divine nature:

> II Peter 1:3-4 - seeing that His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence. For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world by lust. (NASB)

God wants us to know Him and obey Him and to do good as He has commanded:

> Hosea 6:5-8 - Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light. For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings. But like Adam they transgressed the covenant; there they dealt faithlessly with me. Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with blood. (ESV)

Being set free through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is at least in part being set free from the defilements of the world. We are redeemed, saved from the sinful generation, set free and forgiven, saved by Jesus, to go on obeying God:

> II Peter 2:20-21 - For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.

Then we continue to add Work/Love/Walking-By-Faith/Virtue to be fruitful:

But we must practice Jesus' commandments even before we have arrived at the knowledge of the truth, in order to arrive at the knowledge of the truth:

> II Peter 1:8 - For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they render you neither useless nor unfruitful in the true knowledge (G1922 epignosis) of our Lord Jesus Christ.

> I John 2:3 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments.

We come to know Him through obeying Him. He is the Truth. God sent Him. The point at which we have come to know Him is if we are managing to actually keep His commandments.

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

Jesus is the living Word. He obeyed God perfectly, and fulfilled the Law, Prophets and Psalms.

> Psalms 119:160 - The sum of Your word is truth, And every one of Your righteous ordinances is everlasting. (ESV)

> John 17:17-19 - Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. (ESV)

Jesus is eternally our Great High Priest. I believe this says Father God has sworn and will not change His mind.

> Psalms 110:4 - The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

> Hebrews 4:14 - Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.

In Hebrews, we are also instructed to "not waver" in our confession. So what we are agreeing with and continuing to agree with certainly does matter. We should keep confessing what we are hoping for and hold fast to that confession and not waver. God is faithful and His promises are trustworthy and we should agree with and be corrected by and keep agreeing with God:

> Hebrews 10:23 - Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him,

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

And the obedience doesn't end. We continue to be sanctified, as slaves of righteousness, abiding by the teaching of Christ:

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We must continue abiding in Christ, abiding in His love:

> John 15:1-14 - I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

And the obedience doesn't end. We continue to be sanctified through faith. We are saved from darkness, believing the word of God, and in obedience we are saved from sinning and try to fulfill the Royal Law, and even using our freedom in Christ to do good works that are pleasing to God:

> II Peter 1:1-11 - Simeon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who have obtained a faith of equal standing with ours by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ: May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

> II Thessalonians 2:11-14 - Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, > because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Continuing to be sanctified by faith is a process where a person continues in Jesus' words because they are sanctified by faith in Jesus and that means ongoing trust and faithful obedience.

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

To be sanctified by faith in Jesus is an applied process, I think:

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

In similar fashion to Jesus continually obeying Father God as he endured suffering, I think we should learn to submit and follow Jesus' commandments

> Hebrews 5:7-10 - In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

15.3.8 Identity in Christ

- I am a child of God, a born-again son of the Most-High God.
  - Galatians 3:26-29 - for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise. (ESV)
- I have been bought with the precious blood of Jesus Christ, God's Only-Begotten Son, redeemed out of the hand of the enemy and called to be seated in heavenly places with Christ Jesus.
  - I Peter 1:19 - but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)
  - Psalms 107:2-3 - Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he has redeemed from trouble and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south. (ESV)
  - Ephesians 2:6 - and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, (ESV)
  - Psalms 106:10 - So he saved them from the hand of the foe and redeemed them from the power of the enemy. (ESV)
- I have been born-again, not with corruptible seed, but with the incorruptible seed of the word of God and the washing of regeneration by the Holy Spirit.
  - I Peter 1:23-25 - since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

- I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.
  - Philippians 4:13 - I can do all things through him who strengthens me. (ESV)
- The same Holy Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead lives in me and greater is He that is in my than he that is in the world.
  - Romans 8:11 - If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. (ESV)
- I am more than a conqueror through Christ Jesus who loved me and gave His life for me, and how much more all things also will God graciously give me having delivered His Son up for us all.
  - Romans 8:37 - No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. (ESV)
  - Matthew 7:11 - If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him! (ESV)
  - Romans 8:32 - He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? (ESV)
- I have a new heart, and my desires are for the things of God
  - Ezekiel 36:26 - And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. (ESV)

  - Psalms 119:97 - Oh how I love your law! It is my meditation all the day. (ESV)

    - youtube.com: Rend Collective - YOUR NAME IS POWER {Official Video}
  - Romans 5:5 - and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. (ESV)
  - I John 4:10 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (ESV)
  - I John 5:3 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)
- I love prayer and the disciplines of God that make a vessel of honour for the Lord Jesus and for His mighty good works.
  - Romans 12:1 - I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. (ESV)
  - I Peter 3:15-17 - but in your hearts regard Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, having a good conscience, so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil. (ESV)

  - Luke 9:26 - For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. (ESV)
  - Acts 3:12 - And when Peter saw it he addressed the people: Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk? (ESV)

  - Matthew 6:16-18 - And when you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that their fasting may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, that your fasting may not be seen by others but by your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. (ESV)
  - I Samuel 7:6 - So they gathered at Mizpah and drew water and poured it out before the LORD and fasted on that day and said there, We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the people of Israel at Mizpah. (ESV)

  - Luke 10:38-42 - Now as they went on their way, Jesus entered a village. And a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to his teaching. But Martha was distracted with much serving. And she went up to him and said, Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me. But the Lord answered her, Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, but one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her. (ESV)
  - Ecclesiastes 3:11 - He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also, he has put eternity into man's heart, yet so that he cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end. (ESV)

- He has anointed me with the Holy Spirit and with power, and I go around doing good and healing [all] that are oppressed of the devil, and surely no weapon formed against me shall prosper as I walk in obedience to His word and will.
  - Titus 2:14 - who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

- I am complete/made complete in Christ and if God is for me who can be against me?
  - Colossians 2:9-10 - For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. (ESV)

  - Romans 8:31 - What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? (ESV)

- God leads me in triumph in everything through Christ Jesus my Lord, God and Saviour.

  - Mark 16:15 - And he said to them, Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. (ESV)
  - Matthew 28:20 - teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. (ESV)
  - We are to preach the gospel and not just live out the gospel
    - Romans 10:14-17 - But how are they to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news! But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us? So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ. (ESV)
- I choose to worship Him in spirit and in truth, and I will continually offer up the sacrifices of praise and thanksgiving as I recognise Jesus Christ as my Lord, God and Saviour
  - John 4:23-24 - But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth. (ESV)

And he said to them, You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! (ESV)
  - Psalms 59:17 - O my Strength, I will sing praises to you, for you, O God, are my fortress, the God who shows me steadfast love. (ESV)
- I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me!
  - Philippians 4:13 - I can do all things through him who strengthens me. (ESV)
- AMEN!!

15.3.9 Become what we are by identity - put to death the old leaven

After being born-again and placed into Christ, we must put to death the old leaven. We consider ourselves dead to sin and alive from the dead.

We continue trusting, believing Jesus Christ and we will never die.

A believer in Jesus Christ though he dies, he shall live:

- Whoever believes in Jesus Christ, though he die, yet shall he live.

Everyone who lives and believes in Jesus Christ shall never die.

> John 11:25-26 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this? (ESV)

I believe that after being born-again of the spirit, I had (with very little knowledge of Jesus' commandments) had to learn Jesus' commandments and apply them, and I believe the Holy Spirit taught me to obey Jesus as I read Jesus' sayings and was subsequently tested on those sayings. For example, if I read that we must give to all who ask, and then the Lord sets up a situation where someone asks for money, then I have a choice to obey Jesus, which means resisting those who try to deter me from obeying Jesus. Upon being tested, someone would offer worldly wisdom in an attempt to deter me from following Jesus, and as I obey God I am led by the Holy Spirit, and taught by the Holy Spirit. And this is an ongoing process. I say this for others' sake to explain how I have come to know how faith in Jesus, following Jesus, works practically, that it is more than mere intellectual belief to be led by the Spirit, but it is also obedience, and a process of sanctification, and walking in the light which involves walking in love characteristic of Christ's love.

> Galatians 6:14-17 - But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). And as for all who walk by this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God. From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: Be Who You Are: Living Out Identity in Christ, Part 1

Those who have been united with Christ really are in reality an 'unleavened' lump, and we attack the old leaven to get it out. We have been made new with union in Christ, and then we must then become in experience what we are in reality. The old leaven lingers, so we attack the remaining leaven:

> I Corinthians 5:6-7 - Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? Cleanse out the old leaven that you may be a new lump, as you really are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. (ESV)

We must consider ourselves dead to sin and alive to God:

> Romans 6:2,11 - By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

Because we have died and our life is hidden with Christ in God we should put to death what is earthly in us. We are really unleavened so we should cleanse out the old leaven:

> Colossians 3:3-5 - For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. (ESV) youtube.com: The Narrow Road is Lonely....No One Tells You This @time: 10 min 53 sec Jesus is the example for us to follow and become more like Him. And as we follow Him, we get cleaner, we get purer, our minds are renewed, the impurities start to wash away. He starts to prune us. Our hearts start to soften. We start to align more with His will for us, with his desires for us. We start learning who our identity is, when the enemy our whole lives has been trying to steal the true knowledge of who we are. He never wants us to find out who we are in Christ. [The enemy] wants us to give us identity in this world. That's why we place our identity so much on the things that we have, on the political leaders we follow, on the clothes we wear, on the music artists we listen to. [The enemy] wants us to identify with the things of this world because it'll keep us further away from our true identity in Christ, and so he convinces us that it's our own idea, that this identity that we've created and manufactured for ourselves was our idea, it's our desire, it's exactly what we want - I identify as this, I identify as that, we have flags for everything.

II John 1:1-11 highlights:

- knowing the truth
- the truth abiding in us
- walking in the truth
  - we are commanded to do so
- love one another and loving one another is walking according to Jesus' commandments commandments
  - we are commanded to do so
- lose not what we have worked for, but may win a full reward
- to not abide in this teaching is to work wickedness

> II John 1:1-11 - The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all who know the truth, because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever: Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love. I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess (G3670 homologeó) the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him takes part in his wicked works. (ESV)

Paul has taught the Ephesians to follow the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ. He said we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus:

> Acts 20:35 - In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. (ESV)

It's imperative that as we go ahead, we must abide in the teaching of Christ, or we won't have God (Jehovah God), and God is love and love comes from God, so we need to abide in Christ's teachings, by belief and by obedience. For example, in Mark 10:18, Jesus affirmed that God is Good. Therefore when we read this, we must also be sanctified by this truth, affirming and coming into agreement that God is Good. Also, Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us John 13:34-35:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

Definitely stop obeying sin after receiving the knowledge of the truth:

> Hebrews 10:26-29 - For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has spurned the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? (ESV)

Don't live in fear over the warning in Hebrews 10:26-29, just continue confessing sin and continue being sanctified:

> I Corinthians 13:12 - For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known. (ESV)

Continue to be sanctified by faith in Jesus:

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

Continue to confess (G3670 homologeó) sin:

> I John 1:9 - If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:14 - For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. (ESV)

To know if Jesus' teaching comes from God, one must desire to do God's will.

> John 7:17 - If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. (ESV)

Therefore, to arrive at the knowledge of the truth, you've got to have an obedient heart.

15.3.10 We must resist the devil

youtube.com: Resist the Devil - Tim Conway {@illbehonest} @time: 58 min 47 sec The root of the issue is he's he's a deceiver of the whole world and we want to we want to hit it with truth, it's a matter of Truth, and it's the church alone that can do it. Brethren, there's no one else out there. The great task of life, the great business of life is to keep standing when it comes to this. Gird your loins with truth, take up that sword. Brethren, have a faith that is grounded in the truth. Have the gospel on your feet that comes from the Scriptures. It's a great thing to be able to stand in a world like ours against an enemy like ours, but this is the trumpet call to arms. You've got to wrestle against these cosmic powers, to arms to battle. The enemy isn't just coming, brethren, he's already here. He's upon us, he's arrived, he's infiltrated the church already, he's among us. "Be strong in the Lord in the strength of his might," the Apostle said. Are you ready? You got to keep on the alert, you got to watch, you got to rise up, you got to shake yourself, you got to stand up, do everything to stand. While you and I are alive in this world, the devil is going to be there. He's going to be there with all all of his evil scheming, malignity, trying to bring us down. He'll fight us to the end, brethren. He will fight he'll fight us to our deathbed. Is this hopeless? Just the opposite, brethren, it's just the reverse. It's glorious. We are given the privilege to crush his head.

We're given the privilege of being the one to follow in our Lord's very footsteps and resist him and bring the gospel to this world. That's it. We are to be the champions of the truth. Brethren, we are in the enemy's territory. He has been thrown down to the earth and the sea and that's where we are. Formidable foe. He who's with us is greater than he that's in the world. Brethren, that's our hope, the Lord is with us. He gives us everything we need and the power to use it. You cannot relax. Christ will make you more than a conqueror, but I'll tell you this it's your battle. The battle belongs to the Lord but you've got to fight, and that's what Scripture says. You've got to resist, you've got to wrestle, you've got to be the one. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. God help us. Father, we pray that you would help us. Help us be more than conquerors, we pray in Christ's name. Amen.

> James 4:7-10 - Submit (G5293 Hypotagēte) yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. Be wretched and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you. (ESV)

G5293 Hypotagēte hupotassó: To subject, to subordinate, to submit, to be under obedience. From hupo and tasso; to subordinate; reflexively, to obey – be under obedience (obedient), put under, subdue unto, (be, make) subject (to, unto), be (put) in subjection (to, under), submit self unto.

> Ephesians 6:12 - For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. (ESV)

16 Sanctification

16.1 Allow myself to be corrected

> Psalms 141:5 - Let a righteous man strike me—it is a kindness; let him rebuke me—it is oil for my head; let my head not refuse it. Yet my prayer is continually against their evil deeds. (ESV)

> Proverbs 27:5-7 - Better is open rebuke than hidden love. Faithful are the wounds of a friend; profuse are the kisses of an enemy. One who is full loathes honey, but to one who is hungry everything bitter is sweet. (ESV)

We are being prepared to be presented to Jesus:

> Colossians 1:21-22 - And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, (ESV)

16.1.1 The Holy Spirit will teach you

Word of encouragedment youtube.com: Wilderness How To Come Out / New Wineskin New Season #2024

youtube.com: The Holy Spirit Will Teach You Everything - Bishop Barron's Sunday Sermon {@BishopB Karl Barth, the great Protestant theologian from the last century, said, "The claim that God has spoken implies the trinity." And what he meant was if you say God has spoken, which is a basic biblical intuition, that means there must be in God a speaker, we call him the father, there must be a word spoken. We call that the son. And Bart says there must be an interpreter of the word. Why? Because the divine word, that's too much for our little minds to handle. So we need not a human interpreter. He's not going to help us with that. We need a divine interpreter of the divine word.

16.2 Be corrected by the truth

> John 17:17-19 - Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. (ESV)

As we are have faith in Jesus, even obeying Him to go out into the world, we are also sanctified by the Truth, as Jesus has consecrated Himself.

We are healed, corrected, sanctified by God's word.

I believe that becoming the righteousness of God is initially instantaneous when we believe but going forward it also is cooperative as we live, submitting to the righteousness of God (Jesus' righteousness) and then being found in Jesus, letting Jesus wash us, and work in us, transform us, and that a childlike trust in Jesus (a believing and obedient trust), following Jesus, walking in faith, and behaving as one of God's children, following Jesus our Lord and Saviour is how we receive and walk into the kingdom which is given to us and that walking in a childlike faith in Jesus is how we have the righteousness that is by faith.

An adequate reading of the following which makes sense to me is that being found in Jesus, we have a righteousness which does indeed belong to us but it belongs also to Jesus who we are found in. The righteousness which we have in Jesus doesn't come from the law but through faith in Jesus, depending on faith in Jesus. In other words, the righteousness is not our own apart from Jesus, but the righteousness still belongs to us if it is the righteousness of faith in Jesus, us being found in Jesus. Our righteousness being found in Jesus doesn't make it self-righteousness to obey God's commandments:

> Philippians 3:9 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith—(ESV)

I believe we have righteousness because we are found in Him, and He is our High Priest and or Lord and King, and Saviour. Living by faith is a lifestyle to be found in Jesus and that's how we have righteousness from Him, because we are found in Him and are being perfected and sanctified (in genuine agape love and holiness) like a branch getting healthier because it's connected to Jesus. It does not mean we are able to displace Him as the head of the body because we don't have righteousness apart from Him (as far as I understand):

> II Corinthians 5:21-6:1 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

> Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

The Holy Spirit goes to those who obey God, and causes the person to walk in God's precepts - stopping lying, stealing, coveting, idolizing, cheating, etc.

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

16.3 Repent of evil deeds, feelings and thoughts

> Ephesians 4:30-32 - And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

16.4 Renew our minds

> Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

Believe in the power of God's Word, allow myself to be corrected, and sanctified by the washing of the Word. Actually read the Scriptures to see what God finds acceptable:

> Ephesians 5:26 - that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, (ESV)

We are being prepared to be presented to Jesus:

> I Peter 1:13 - Therefore, preparing your minds for action, and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

16.5 Be qualified regarding the faith - renewed in mind, not opposing the truth

> II Timothy 3:8 - Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, men corrupted in mind and disqualified regarding the faith. (ESV)

> Colossians 2:18 - Let no one disqualify you, insisting on asceticism and worship of angels, going on in detail about visions, puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind, (ESV)

> I Timothy 6:5 - and constant friction among people who are depraved in mind and deprived of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain. (ESV)

> I Timothy 3:2 - Therefore an overseer must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, sober-minded, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, (ESV)

16.5.1 Set our mind on heavenly things, not earthly things

> Colossians 3:2 - Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:19 - Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. (ESV)

> II Thessalonians 2:1-2 - Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. (ESV)

16.6 Put a stop to sin and practice personal righteousness

Which commandments must we keep? Jesus' commandments - Jesus' sayings and commandments which Father God commanded Him to speak. Also, it's worth learning from the Apostles who were with Jesus. Some commandments of Jesus are divulged and better understood from their writings.

Jesus kept Father God's commandments including the commandment of what to say and speak to us. Jesus' words and sayings and commandments which God gave Him to speak to us are what we should keep. His commandments are eternal life for us:

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

From infants in Christ to maturity, people who keep Jesus' commandments are found in Christ who is in God:

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)
>
> Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)
>
> Ephesians 5:1-5 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. (ESV)

If you love Jesus, keep His commandments. The one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one who loves Jesus:

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)
>
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
>
> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

Because God loved us first:

- The Apostle Paul endeavours to know Jesus ('makes it his own'. See Php 3:9-13) because Jesus made Paul His own
  - To be found in Jesus is what Paul describes as the righteousness from God that depends on faith
    - Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

    - I Thessalonians 5:8 - But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. (ESV)
    - I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)
    - Ephesians 6:14 - Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, (ESV)
    - James 1:19-23 - Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness that God requires. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. (ESV)
  - We know Jesus by believing in Him and obeying His commandments, and when we love and forgive we know God loved us and forgave us first
    - I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

- We must love because He loved us first for God to abide in us
  - Romans 5:7-8 - For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (ESV)
  - I John 4:9-12 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)
- We must forgive as we have been forgiven
  - Colossians 3:12-14 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (ESV)
  - Ephesians 4:30-32 - And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)
- We must be conformed to holiness
  - I Peter 1:14-16 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. (ESV)

Practicing righteousness is an indicator that someone is born of God:

> I John 3:7 - Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous.

> I John 2:29 - If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him. (ESV)

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother.

> I Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed.

We must honour God with our bodies:

> Romans 6:13 - Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 6:19-20 - Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. (ESV)

We must be born of God, die to sin and practice righteousness.
Then while practicing righteousness after dying to sin, we may suffer for practicing righteousness.
Therefore this righteousness is a personal righteousness, which we practice after dying to sin.

> I Peter 3:14 But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you will be blessed. Have no fear of them, nor be troubled, Faith working through love is obeying Jesus.

> Galatians 5:5-6 - For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love.

Paul awaits Christ to be formed in the person:

> Galatians 4:18-19 - It is always good to be made much of for a good purpose, and not only when I am present with you, my little children, for whom I am again in the anguish of childbirth until Christ is formed in you!

We want Christ to dwell in our hearts through faith:

> Ephesians 3:14-19 - For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith — that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. (ESV)

16.6.1 Did Jesus pay the price for all our sins? (poll)

That's a very loaded question. It depends on how God's grace is received.

Jesus died for our sins so we can be healed, so that we can practice righteousness / walk in the light / walk in love / walk in the truth, and be conformed into His image, and there is a point at which a person would arrive at Christian perfection, conformed to the image of Christ, so long as they continue abiding in Jesus, because we are saved through sanctification while holding faith in Jesus.

Jesus was made sin, Jesus who knew no sin, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God, and in Him be able to enter the kingdom of God, abiding in His commandments, abiding in His love.

Empowered by Jesus in us to stop practicing sin, we may inherit the kingdom (sanctified, cleaned up and holy, and able to inherit the kingdom).

But what if a person who has come to know Jesus, practicing His commandments, received the testimony of Jesus from the Holy Spirit in the heart, seen and entered the kingdom, then turns back to sin, or rejects Jesus, or doesn't continue on abiding in Jesus' teachings?

There is a point in our journey where we receive knowledge of the truth, where we really need to have put a stop to deliberate sin. We need to not be bearing grudges. We need to love our family in Christ.

> John 8:34-36 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)

If a person hates their brother they don't have eternal life:

> I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:15 - Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:24-29 - And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has spurned the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? (ESV)

For example, to hold on to unforgivenses while we are keeping faith in Jesus, this would be defiling:

> Hebrews 12:15 - See to it that no one fails to obtain the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springs up and causes trouble, and by it many become defiled;

Abding in Jesus' sound teachings, we know that if we continue to sin like Jesus describes here, this defiles a person. So if after being regenerated, receiving the grace of God, a person continues in willful, deliberate sin, this would still defile a person:

> Matthew 15:18-21 - But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this defiles a person. For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, slander. These are what defile a person. But to eat with unwashed hands does not defile anyone. And Jesus went away from there and withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon. (ESV)

So how do we become the righteousness of God in Jesus Christ? I think of it like this:

The Apostles were working with Christ. I believe the Apostles also here are exhorting believers to work with Christ to receive the grace of God. The Apostles also practiced what they preached. OK, so imagine a situation where someone is just being so irrationally abusive, or so irrationally hateful and unloving towards people. It might be worth picturing that person as Jesus and Jesus putting Himself in that situation so that you can carry out His commandments and demonstrate God's love towards them. It might also be worth picturing that person as someone who God has set before you to love them and so pass forward the love of God, and perhaps lead them to Jesus. God bought that opportunity for you to love them, and He also trust you with it, as you trust His commandments. He puts us in the position of being able to demonstrate the love of God, and He entrusts you with it, to show that person the love of God, for their sake, and for Jesus' sake, and for your sake.

That's the freedom which Jesus bought for us. Imagine you want to be able to live-out Jesus' commandments and you feel like they're just so challenging or daunting, or impossible. Fulfilling Christ's law is not impossible. All things are possible with God. And to fulfill the law of Christ is what Paul challenged us to do.

Well, Jesus bought for us the ability to live out His commandments, and live out Father God's commandments to us authentically and without fear of punishment.

Analogy Like how getting an extension for an exam gives a person the means to pass the test, when a person is given grace, they are given the means to fulfill the law of Christ. I don't believe this is ”necessarily” a theology test. But, like Abraham when he was tested, God tests our faith, our love for the truth, our love for God and for our family in Christ.

Grace is ”the goodness and loving kindness of God our Saviour that has appeared” which enables us to live righteously (upright).

Justified by faith in Jesus apart from any of our works (not because of works done by us in righteousness). If we have life, then we have it owing totally to God (and not owning to ourself):

> Titus 3:4-7 - But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

So that we are able to walk righteously (i.e. fulfilling the law of Christ but still by God's grace):

> Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

”Grace as power gets … inside of us and changes us.”

youtube.com: What Is the Grace of God ? Titus 2 : 11 - 15 , Part 1 {@ desiringGod } @time: 11 min 44
'The grace is the power of God to make sinners good, not just declare them righteous.'

God's grace enabled Paul to ”work”:

> I Corinthians 15:10 - But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. (ESV)

And when we arrive at being given rest from Jesus, which He gives us, then keeping His commandments has become unburdensome, and though we might sin sometimes, we repent, and it is not deliberate sin. God brings us to the point when we're continue on in His commandments, and we try our best, we might intend to do the right thing but our plans might not always work out as we had intended, but we're not sinning deliberately.

Yes, we make mistakes, but God just continues working with us and in us, and Jesus teaches us to obey His commandments better, and live in this way. And since the Holy Spirit goes to those who obey Jesus, it's as if Jesus helps us to do it. So He gives us His commandments, and we put our faith in Him and obey Him and He helps us to continue doing them:

I Corinthians 5:21-6:1 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. (ESV)

II Corinthians 10:11 - Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. (ESV)

Through the power of God working in us as we hold faith in Jesus we may enter the Kingdom of God:

Mathetes to Diognetus This was not that He at all delighted in our sins, but that He simply endured them; nor that He approved the time of working iniquity which then was, but that He sought to form a mind conscious of righteousness, so that being convinced in that time of our unworthiness of attaining life through our own works, it should now, through the kindness of God, be vouchsafed to us; and having made it manifest that in ourselves we were unable to enter into the kingdom of God, we might through the power of God be made able.

God makes a person born-again of the Spirit, and they receive power, and this power should be used to empower you to enter into the Kingdom of God, to enter into God's rest through faith and obedience to Christ, to enter into peace, joy and righteousness in the Holy Spirit.

Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

As born-again Christians, we should be obeying Jesus, being sanctified by the truth for a sincere love of our family in Christ, and this should be purifying for us:

I Peter 4:7-8 - The end of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers. Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. (ESV)

I John 1:9 - If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

Proverbs 16:6 - By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil. (ESV)

We must agree with God over what is sinful.

G3670 homologeó Homologéō (”confess”) means to speak the same thing, i.e. ”assent, agree with, confess, declare, admit” (Vine, Unger, White, NT, 120).

And we should confess to one another when we have done wrong:

James 4:17 - So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin. (ESV)

James 5:16 - Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. (ESV)

James 5:19-20 - My brothers, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone brings him back, let him know that whoever brings back a sinner from his wandering will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins. (ESV)

James 1:14-15 - But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 6:11 - And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. (ESV)

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

But after we are born-again and baptised with the Holy Spirit, the devil comes along, like he did to Jesus when Jesus went into the wilderness after Jesus was baptised, and the devil tries to deter a person from continuing to walk in faith and obedience to Christ, and so we must quickly become familiar with the Scripture, especially Jesus' commandments and sayings. And use the Scripture to combat the lies of the enemy, and to continue walking in faith and obedience to Jesus:

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

OK, but what happens if instead of continuing on, abiding in Jesus' teachings, we pervert the grace of God (which is meant to be used to help sanctify us and to help us to inherit the kingdom of God) into sensuality / idolatry / sin? Worse things. Doubling down on sin after receiving the grace of God which was meant to help you forsake sinful practices, I think produces a state worse than before.

There is the redemption of our spirit, and then the redemption of our bodies. Our spirit is regenerated and then with a regenerated spirit, and with spiritual gifts, etc., and spiritual power which we didn't have when we were not regenerated. With a born-again, regenerated spirit and Jesus having paid out debt of sin, we are supposed to be sanctified in love and holiness. Our hearts are sanctified by faith and our souls are sanctified by obedience to the truth for a sincere love of the brethren.

Jesus paid the price for our sanctification.

Sanctification is a process that happens by faith and obedience to Jesus Christ:

> I Thessalonians 5:23 - Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:26 - that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

Sanctification is the salvation: We are sanctified while having faith in the Truth. This sanctification is the salvation. We are saved through sanctification and faith. This sanctification is sanctification of the heart and soul:

> II Thessalonians 2:13 - But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. (ESV)

If instead we pervert this grace to enable and empower sin and you consolidate towards that instead of trusting and obeying Jesus, then that's like walking from Egypt to Sodom, rather than from Egypt to the Promised land.

So if a person gets baptised in the Holy Spirit and then resists the purifying work of the Holy Spirit, defiling themselves by disobedience, doubling down on sin, indulging in sin, then that leaves a person in a state that is worse than before.

> II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)

> II Peter 2:20-21 - For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. (ESV)

> Jude 1:4-5 - For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. (ESV)

> Mark 14:21 - For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born. (ESV)

An invulnerable worm moving through a person's soul (for all eternity) because of willful disobedience after receiving the knowledge of the truth? If that is what this is?

> Mark 9:47-50 - And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell, where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched. For everyone will be salted with fire. Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, how will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another. (ESV)

16.7 Sanctification by the Spirit and faith / obedience

> 2 Thessalonians 2:13-15 - But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by our spoken word or by our letter. (ESV)

> II Thessalonians 2:13 - But we should always give thanks (G2168 eucharisteo) to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning (G746 arche) for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith (G4102 pistis) in the truth (G225 aletheia). (NASB)

Faith in the truth - pistis is a strong faith word!

> II Thessalonians 2:11-15 - Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by our spoken word or by our letter. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:10 - And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. (ESV)

> 1 Thessalonians 4:3 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain (568. apechó) from sexual immorality; (ESV)

God hates evil and wants to clean us from it. In fact, God hates evildoers, God hates the wicked, but has shown His love for the wicked by sending Christ to die for them, so that they can be saved from their sin:

> Psalms 11:5 - The LORD tests the righteous, but his soul hates the wicked and the one who loves violence. (ESV)

> Romans 5:6-8 - For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (ESV)

> Hebrews 1:9 - You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions. (ESV)

God wants us to love Him genuinely and that involves a hatred of evil:

> Psalms 97:10 - O you who love the LORD, hate evil! He preserves the lives of his saints; he delivers them from the hand of the wicked. (ESV)

> Romans 12:9 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. (ESV)

Psalms 97:10 You who love (H157 ’ō · hă · ḇê) Yahweh (H3068 Yah · weh) hate (H8130 śin · ’ū) evil (H7451 rā‘) He preserves the souls of His saints out of the hand of the wicked He delivers them (Interlinear)

We need the correct desires. The desires of the flesh are against the desires of the Spirit:

> Galatians 5:17 - For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. (ESV)

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

So if we fear God then we also want to turn away from evil and do what is pleasing to God:

> Proverbs 8:13 - The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate. (ESV)

It’s really important to purify ourselves of every defilement of body and spirit. Paul the Apostle quotes the Old Testament on this:

> II Corinthians 6:14-18 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

> Isaiah 52:11 - Depart, depart, go out from there; touch no unclean thing; go out from the midst of her; purify yourselves, you who bear the vessels of the LORD. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

I want to be sanctified completely:

> I Thessalonians 5:23 - Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

There is no lust in the divine nature:

> II Peter 1:4 - by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. (ESV)

I want to bring glory to God by being a living sacrifice - living in a holy manner pleasing to God:

> Romans 12:1 - I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 6:20 - for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. (ESV)

We must keep and accept the precepts of God over the precepts of men:

> Mark 7:6-9 - And he said to them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men. You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men. And he said to them, You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! (ESV)

This passage is condemning submitting to worldly / human precepts and imploring us to submit to God's precepts. It's not condemning God's precepts but imploring us to put to death what is against God's precepts:

> Colossians 2:20-23,3:1-6 - If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations— Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch (referring to things that all perish as they are used)—according to human precepts and teachings? These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh. If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. (ESV)

> 1 Thessalonians 5:23 :: Himself now the God - of peace may sanctify you completely and entirely your - spirit (pneuma) and - soul (psyche) and - body (soma blameless at the coming of the Lord of us Jesus Christ may be preserved (Interlinear)

> I Thessalonians 5:23 - Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

16.8 God is the source of our life in Christ Jesus. Jesus is the source of our wisdom and righteousness and sanctification and redemption

> 1 Corinthians 1:30-31 - He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom and our righteousness and sanctification and redemption. Therefore, as it is written, Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord. (ESV)

16.8.1 We only boast in Christ Jesus, since He is our wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption

He is our wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption.

Yes, but that means we must have faith in Him, obeying Him and becoming like Him, and that brings us confidence, because He's in us, and we don't have our lamp hidden, but are cleaned up:

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

We are wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

> 2 Timothy 3:15 - and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

We must put our trust in Jesus and believe Him and obey Him, and be cleaned up, shining His light:

> I Corinthians 1:28-29 - God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, so that no human being might boast in the presence of God.

> Psalms 5:5 - The boastful shall not stand before your eyes; you hate all evildoers. (ESV)

The cross means a changed life, becoming like Jesus, keeping Jesus' commandments:

> Galatians 6:13-15 - For even those who are circumcised do not themselves keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may boast in your flesh. But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

16.8.2 Filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God

God through Jesus is the source of our personal righteousness as we are found in Him, and our righteousness comes through Him. That personal righteousness doesn't belong to us alone, but it also belongs to Christ because it comes from Christ:

> Philippians 1:9-11 - And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

16.9 Sanctification is being cleaned from sin and brought into believing and practicing truth

It means sin is being stopped in your thoughts and deeds, brought out of believing and practicing darkness into believing and practicing truth - being cleaned from sin.

To be sanctified means to have God's law on one's heart and mind so that they are walking in the light, obeying God, and God forgives them:

> Leviticus 22:31-33 - So you shall keep my commandments and do them: I am the LORD. And you shall not profane my holy name, that I may be sanctified among the people of Israel. I am the LORD who sanctifies you, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am the LORD. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:10-17 - And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying, This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds, then he adds, I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more. (ESV)

How do we get there, to being sanctified? Firstly, we need a new heart that fears God and responds to correction by Him. God gives us that heart and puts a new spirit in us.

God wants use to fear Him and receive correction from Him:

> Zephaniah 3:6-7 - I have cut off nations; their battlements are in ruins; I have laid waste their streets so that no one walks in them; their cities have been made desolate, without a man, without an inhabitant. I said, Surely you will fear me; you will accept correction. Then your dwelling would not be cut off according to all that I have appointed against you. But all the more they were eager to make all their deeds corrupt. (ESV)

When does He do that, though? If we seek God, draw near to God, through faith in Jesus Christ, through obedience to Jesus Christ, trusting in Him, or through obeying Jesus Christ, through repenting from sin and putting faith in God, through obeying God, God will draw near to us. God will help us. He will give us a new heart and put a new spirit in us. From my experience it certainly seems as though a genuine turning away from sin was an important step towards becoming born-again of the spirit. I felt like I needed God to save me. Then I sought after God and he gave me a new heart and a new spirit.

Now with that new heart which fears God, we must respond to correction by God as He disciplines us. We come into agreement with Him over issues of what is sinful. We try to become obedient to God and to Christ is all things that God wants for us. We try to keep Jesus' teachings and commandments. So, for example, we trust in Jesus Christ and trust in His blood, we believe He died for our sins and rose from the dead for our justification. We come into agreement with these things. We confess to others too. We confess sin as sin. We come into agreement with what God says. We fall out of agreement with the lies. Scripture doesn't contradict scripture, so we trust scripture and lean not on our own understanding. When people say to us falsehoods that are against what Scripture says, we trust the scripture. But when people speak to us scripture, and we don't believe it, when we need to recognise the scripture's authority and Holy Spirit will teach us. We confess what the Scripture says is True, even if we don't understand it. Whatever the true meaning behind the scripture was when the scripture was written, that is the truth. We need Holy Spirit to help us understand scripture.

We are sanctified by faith in Jesus (trusting Jesus):

> Acts 26:16-18 - But rise and stand upon your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you as a servant and witness to the things in which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to you, delivering you from your people and from the Gentiles—to whom I am sending you to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

By faith in Jesus (trusting Jesus), we are sanctified in Truth:

> John 17:19 - And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. (ESV)

In trusting Jesus (having faith in Jesus), we are sanctified in Truth by the Holy Spirit:

> Romans 15:15-16 - But on some points I have written to you very boldly by way of reminder, because of the grace given me by God to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles in the priestly service of the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles may be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. (ESV)
> II Thessalonians 2:11-13 - For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false, in order that they all may be judged who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness. But we should always give thanks (G2168 eucharisteo) to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning (G746 arche) for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith (G4102 pistis) in the truth (G225 aletheia). (NASB)

Cleaned up from sin by having faith in the truth.

The elect have soft hearts:

> Romans 11:7-10 - What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was seeking. The elect obtained it, but the rest were hardened, as it is written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear, down to this very day. And David says, Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them; let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and bend their backs forever.

A soft heart is needed to perceive and understand:

> Mark 8:17 - And Jesus, aware of this, said to them, Why are you discussing the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened? (ESV)

God can harden or soften hearts, but so can people harden and soften their own heart:

> II Chronicles 36:12-13 - He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord his God. He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the Lord. He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God. He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the Lord, the God of Israel. (ESV)
> Hebrews 3:8 - do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness,

God opens/softens our hearts to be receptive or hardens them to be unreceptive to what is said to us, but from our angle, we still receive or reject voluntarily. God guides and leads we're still asked to seek, receive, trust, obey and follow Jesus Christ and His teachings. Yes, salvation is by grace through faith, and it's a free gift, but we still trust and obey Jesus to be saved:

> Acts 16:13-14 - And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together. One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul. (ESV)

16.9.1 Corruption remains a problem even for the regenerated

The 1689 Baptist confession affirms that the problem of corruption remains after regeneration:

Paragraph 5

The corruption of nature, during this life, does remain in those that are regenerated;13 and although it be through Christ pardoned and mortified, yet both itself, and the first motions thereof, are truly and properly sin.14

13 Rom. 7:18,23; Eccles. 7:20; 1 John 1:8
14 Rom. 7:23-25; Gal. 5:17

> Romans 7:23-25 - but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:13-14 - For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? (KJV)

I affirm that even after regeneration and being healed, corruption has remained a problem for me, partly because of the influence the world I live in has had on me, but also because I need to be renewed in mind:

- the influences of worldly people, and
    - I Corinthians 15:33 - Do not be deceived: Bad company ruins good morals. (ESV)
- the influences of demons
- I need to just focus on Jesus more

So sanctification has continued for me after being regenerated. Being sanctified by the Truth by faith in Jesus Christ is and has been a fight.

I believe that a person can be an ”unregenerate” ”believer” (Jude 1:20-21) who is coming to Jesus, learning from Father God (John 6:45), and then sin kills them at some point because they cant keep the law though the law isn’t sin (Romans 7:8-11) and then they get born-again, given a new heart of flesh, and are regenerated (given a new spirit) and must go on as a believer after that. But for the regenerated believer with a new heart, they still do go on in faith, receiving correction from God (the circumcision of the heart), and continue in faith onwards. If a person is presently faithing in Jesus Christ then they are not committing sin because what is not done in faith is sin which is lawlessness. A person can’t genuinely obey God without a love for God. So from a love for Jesus Christ, we are able to keep His commandments for us, and that is primarily a heart-attitude thing, and does not mean doing the works of the entire Mosaic law. Being a heart attitude thing, it means, for example, from the love of Jesus Christ who God is pleased with, loving one-another as God commands us, abstaining from bearing false witness, and abstaining from lust and covetousness, and from that faith in Jesus Christ producing the deeds of Jesus, good deeds. But we don’t contrive the deeds for ourselves. God sets them up for the person who has faith in Jesus. Those who have the love of the truth in their heart are promised deeds, and promised fellowship and promised that the blood of Jesus Christ will cleanse them from sin:

> Romans 7:8-11 - But sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of covetousness. Apart from the law, sin lies dead. I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin came alive and I died. The very commandment that promised life proved to be death to me. For sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. (ESV)

> John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never (G3756) (G3361) die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV)

But getting regenerated with a soft heart now, one goes on keeping the commandments of God that are for us to keep:

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

But for the person born of God, they have died to sin, it no longer has a legal hold over them, they cannot keep on doing it, they absolutely hate the sin and we fight against it. We are being sanctified as we come into alignment with the Truth, walking in the light, believing and obeying the Truth, Word of God.

> Romans 8:1-4 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

> I John 1:9 - If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

For it to be said of us that we have "ceased from sin" we must have the same mind of Jesus, as in, we must have "suffered in the flesh", and what I think this means is our old self crucified, the body of sin is being brought to nothing, we resist sin:

> Romans 6:6-9 - We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. (ESV)

> I John 3:9 - No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:1 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, (ESV)

16.9.2 Bad desire - leads to death. We do not want to be enslaved to corruption

Book timothykeller.com: Counterfeit Gods - Timothy Keller

Sermon youtube.com: Counterfeit Gods - Tim Keller

Lust is super bad, even after born-again:

> II Peter 2:19-21 - They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.

16.9.3 Good desire - Love God and one's neighbour

> Deuteronomy 11:13 - And if you will indeed obey my commandments that I command you today, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,
> Deuteronomy 30:6 - And the Lord your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your offspring, so that you will love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live.
>
> Joshua 22:5 - Only be very careful to observe the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, to love the Lord your God, and to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments and to cling to him and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.
>
> Luke 10:27 - And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.
>
> Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the Lord.

17 Clearing up justifying faith vs justifying works

It's faith in Jesus Christ Himself in the heart that matters (Romans 3:26, Romans 10:10). Also, it's God who justifies us, not we who justify ourselves (Romans 3:26). Our duty is simply to have faith in Jesus Christ and keep His commandments (Ecclesiastes 12:13, II Corinthians 10:18, I John 3:23).

With a genuine faith, there will be genuine love in the heart for one's family in Christ:

> I John 3:14 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. (ESV)
>
> John 5:24 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (ESV)

With this love in the heart, having the love of God in them, a person would have the heart to help their family in Christ:

> I John 3:14-20 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love (agapōmen) the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

We must be obedient, ”ready to do” (heart attitudes) good works, someone who will produce good deeds, and that means having the love of God in us:

> II Timothy 2:21 - Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

> Psalms 81:12-15 - So I gave them up to their stubborn hearts to follow their own devices. If only My people would listen to Me, if Israel would follow My ways, how soon I would subdue their enemies and turn My hand against their foes! Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever. (engbsb2020eb)

There is nothing at all wrong with faith working righteousness. That is certainly where we want to be. Working righteousness from faith is what a saved person does (Galatians 5:1-6).

But what is certainly not good is working lawlessness (Matthew 7:7-24). We want to avoid working lawlessness.

But there is a third category, which is faith without working (Romans 4:5).

Someone who believes they are saved by "faith alone" while they are actually working lawlessness does not actually have faith alone, because they are working lawlessness. Faith without working at all is different to faith while working lawlessness.

Like a person who goes bankrupt would be forced to stop trading (think Spirit airlines forced to stop flying their planes), receiving the free gift of righteousness, does necessitate a cessation of work at some point:

> Romans 4:5 - And to the one who does not work but trusts (G4100 pisteuo) him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, (ESV)

It's imperative, no matter how much we've been attempting to work for God, that we accept the free gift from God, and that does require at least some point at which we have rested/abstained from working while holding faith in Jesus Christ while ceasing from working altogether. In holding faith in Jesus while abstaining from working in a legitimate way (i.e. in a way that is obedient to God as opposed to abstaining from working in a way that is committing sin as a "sin of omission" - see James 4:17), while acknowledging their ungodliness (their sin) one receives the gift of righteousness:

Good	Evil
Faith working righteousness (John 3:21, John 4:34, Galatians 6:7-10, John 6:27) Faith without working (G2038 ergazomenō; working) (Romans 4:5, Romans 6:22-23; i.e. the free gift). We all must receive this (Romans 11:29-33, Proverbs 12:3), even the one who works has to have received this (i.e. have ceased trusting in themselves that they are in themselves righteous apart from (G5565 chōris) Jesus Christ and to have refrained from working in order to received the gift), because we must not be establishing a righteousness of our own which is apart from (G5565 chōris) Christ (Romans 10:3-11, John 15:1-6). So there must be a point at which God affirms that we have recognised our own deeds have been evil, and we need His mercy, and we need forgiveness and atonement for the sin incurred due to our history of evil deeds, and had faith in Jesus Christ while resting/abstaining from working so as to not commit sin.	Love for evil working lawlessness (John 3:20, Romans 6:22-23; i.e. the wages of sin)

The cessation of working/deeding (G2038 ergazomenō; working) in Romans 4:5 is a differnet type of working to the work (G2038 ergazesthai) in II Thessalonians 3:10 because in Romans 4:5 it is a cessation of working to stop doing bad works, and into a state of rest that is recognising one's ungodliness, and history of ungodly deeds, but having faith in Jesus, and that is relying on the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus alone. But having received this forgiveness does not mean at all mean a permanent cessation of working or doing deeds for wages (John 4:32-34). Ongoing deeds, even in obedience are both guaranteed (John 14:12), even though it is God working in us, and sowing to the Spirit rather than to the flesh ongoingly, continuing on abstaining from sin, is absolutely necessary for eternal life (Galatians 6:7-10, John 8:34-35,36,42,51, Mark 10:17-21):

> Proverbs 12:3 - No one is established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous will never be moved. (ESV)
> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

II Thessalonians 3:10 (Interlinear) Even for when we were with you this we were commanding you that if anyone not (G3756 ou) is willing (G2309 thelei) to work (G2038 ergazesthai) neither let him eat

Being cleansed from sin involves a cessation of committing sin (I Peter 4:1-3, Ephesians 5:1-21, I John 1:7). To decide, "I will not steal" is to decide to "not work lawlessness".

Keeping a commandment to "not do" something (such as to "not steal") does not mean "working".

And a cessation from working alongside the faith described in Romans 4:5 is necessary to receive the blessing of forgiveness for past sins (Romans 4:6-8).

For a person to be justified by 'faith alone' as some people affirm (not of our own works) person needs to have actually stopped working (i.e. resting, abstaining from working evil) at some point that God alone works (John 6:28-29) in them, while they are acknowledging that they have been ungodly, yet still have faith in Jesus Christ. In other words, if somebody is saying to others "I'm justified by faith alone, not my own work, but Jesus' works only" while they are themselves actually "deeding" (rather than resting), or if they are still doing evil deeds (lying, stealing, lusting, etc.) , then that goes against Romans 4:5. A person has to have stopped working in actuality, while still holding faith, so doing so obediently, not resting, say, with a sin of omission (James 4:17):

> I Peter 4:1-3 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. (ESV)

Ephesians 5:1-21 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) with them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret. But when anything is exposed by the light, it becomes visible, for anything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you. Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. (ESV)

I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

Romans 13:8-10 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

It is not wrong to do good out of faith. But it's wrong to continue deeding when without faith:

Matthew 12:12 - Of how much more value is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath. (ESV)

Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

John 9:4 - We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. (ESV)

John 11:9-10 - Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him. (ESV)

We are instructed to not grow weary of doing good:

> Galatians 6:7-10 - Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

The servant who is disobedient to God will receive a beating:

> Luke 12:47 - And that servant who knew his master's will but did not get ready (G2090 hetoimasas; having prepared) or act (G4160 poiēsas; having done) according to his will, will receive a severe beating. (ESV)

A person can't enter God's rest by sinning, disobeying or doubting (Hebrews 3:14-19, Hebrews 4:1-11). God causes the person to rest (Ezekiel 37:12-14), and we are instructed to strive to enter the rest. That striving, I do believe involves a cessation from committing sin:

> Jeremiah 7:8-11 - Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD. (KJV)

> John 10:1 - Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber. (ESV)

> Psalms 101:7 - He who practices deceit shall not dwell within my house; He who speaks falsehood shall not maintain his position before me. (NASB)

> John 8:34-35,36,42,51 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. (ESV)

> I John 3:6-18 - No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. (ESV)

A person entering the rest of God does coincide with God causing that person to rest from their works as God Himself rested from His works of creation, but this rest is received while having faith in and obeying God rather than committing sin:

Hebrews 4:10 (Interlinear) the [one] (G3588 ho) indeed (G1063 gar) having entered (G1525 eiselthōn) into (G1519 eis) the (G3588 tēn) rest (G2663 katapausin) of him (G846 autou) also (G2532 kai) he (G846 autos) rested (G2664 katepausen) from (G575 apo) the (G3588 tōn) works (G2041 ergōn) of him (G846 autou) as (G5618 hōsper) from (G575 apo) [his] (G3588 tōn) own (G2398 idiōn) - (G3588 ho) God [did] (G2316 Theos)

There is absolutely nothing wrong with keeping up good works as we are sowing to the Spirit towards reaping eternal life. In other words, sowing to the Spirit to reap eternal life is not against meanwhile endeavouring to maintain doing good deeds towards others. If anything, doing good deeds helps a person to sow to the Spirit. When a person is doing good deeds, they are not doing bad deeds! And a person with a genuine faith in Jesus will be inclined to doing good deeds (I John 3:6-18) and to not sin:

> James 4:17 - So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin. (ESV)
> Galatians 6:7-10 - Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

But entering God's rest does involve "abiding in Christ's commandments":

> I John 4:15-21 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

So how can a person have faith while not be working/deeding (i.e. presently doing a deed)? It is possible (Romans 4:5) to have faith while not "working". If a person has faith but is not working/deeding presently, that does not mean that they will not go on to do deeds at some point because Jesus promises in (John 14:12) that someone who has faith in Him will go on to do His deeds. And they must (Luke 13:6-9, John 3:16-21, John 14:12, I Peter 2:15-25).

And if a person has faith but is not working/deeding presently, it does not mean that they do not already have deeds. Those deeds which they have might be bad deeds. But that doesn't mean this person goes on to produce more bad deeds. Rather, their previous deeds which they have are forgiven (Luke 7:40-50) and they now have the love of God in them, and they go on to produce good deeds, and we must continue in faith (Ezekiel 18:20-24, Hebrews 3:12-19) rather than committing sin:

> Romans 4:6-8 - just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin. (ESV)

But this person with faith is not working. This is a person who is not presently making a deed, but has faith and so is poised to produce good deeds and will go on to do good deeds, but is not presently working/doing deeds at all. So I'm thinking of somebody who has stopped what they're doing because they were producing evil deeds.

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

If we think we do not see the "light of this world" then we should not walk, because we do not want not stumble (Mark 9:45-46). We should certainly then rest/abstain from working if continuing to work would mean stumbling, and this cessation of working because one doubts their own faith is not without actually having faith:

> Romans 4:5 - And to the one who does not work but trusts (G4100 pisteuo) him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, (ESV)

God knows our hearts better than ourselves after all. This man considered himself to be a sinner, but being justified, surely he had faith, not faith in Himself, but in God. If a person believes that they are a sinner, that doesn't mean God necessarily does (Hebrews 10:38). Some people don't care about sinning and gladly call themselves sinners, and are totally unrepentant and do not believe that they can be set free from committing sin. And some people reject entirely that a Christian can become "no longer a sinner" (I Peter 4:12-19, I John 3:8-10) and to believe such is against having faith in the blood of Jesus Christ. So just believing that oneself is a sinner is not in and of itself what constitutes a genuine faith. But regardless if someone is the person beating his breast saying, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner!" or the one who has confidence for the day of judgement, in all things we should be in agreemenet with and love the person of Jesus Christ who committed no sin, and be endeavouring to abide in His commandments. The full duty of man is to fear God and to keep His commandments. So we should just do that, believing in the name of Jesus Christ and loving one another as commanded, and trust in what God's word says, and leave the commending to God:

> Luke 18:9-14 - He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted. (ESV)

> I John 4:15-17 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

To keep the command to not work on the Sabbath is to obey but not to work! Thus this example shows that obedience to God doesn't strictly mean working, and that it's possible to have faith while not working. Doing good works out of faith/obedience on the Sabbath as Jesus did is also still obedience and is right as there are weightier matters of the law (Matthew 23:23-25) and also because the Sabbath was made for man (Mark 2:23-28), not man for the Sabbath. It's always permissible to do a good deed. But it's also obedient to take a rest if it doesn't mean doing a bad deed. What is not done in faith is sin. But also, what is done without faith (without the light in us) is sin. And so, when continuing in faith and obedience requires a person to rest rather than work, they should rest.

So obedience sometimes means "not working":

> John 9:4 - We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. (ESV)

> John 11:9-10 - Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:8 - and A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense. They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. (ESV)

> Romans 9:32 - Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, (ESV)

So if a person thinks that they might do evil if they continue working, then they need to stop what they're doing. If a person can't see where they are going then they should stop walking (John 9:4, John 11:9-10).

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

Instead of pride pushing a person forward into continuing to work even while they can't see where they are going, the person should simply cease walking altogether, out of faith.

This does not mean that such a person remains in this place of not deeding. And can a person who has faith in Jesus even remain in such a place of not deeding?

I think of the Terminator stopping his works and just freezing because it knows its works are not serving the mission objectives, and it decides that it's for the best to cease working.

youtube.com: Terminator 3 : T - 850 Corrupted {@ CherryPopper784 } @time: 1 min 42 sec What is your mission? To ensure the survival of John Connor and Katherine Brewster. You are about to fail that mission. I... I cannot.

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> Romans 4:4-6 - Now to the one who works (G2038 ergazomenō; is working for payment), his wages are not counted as a gift but as his due. And to the one who does not work (G2038 ergazomenō; is working for payment) but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from (G5565 chōris) works (G2041 ergōn): (ESV)

> John 9:4 - We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. (ESV)

> John 11:9-10 - Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him. (ESV)

Yet why would a person stop deeding if they had the faith to proceed?

> Jeremiah 20:9 - If I say, I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name, there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot. (ESV)

> Luke 6:9-10 - And Jesus said to them, I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it? And after looking around at them all he said to him, Stretch out your hand. And he did so, and his hand was restored. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:7-10 - Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

So I believe that while everyone "'has' deeds" (as in a history of deeds), it's still possible to have "stopped making deeds" while also still having faith, yet will go on to produce deeds (John 14:12).

Yet even resting in faith, God is working, because the person still has faith:

> John 6:28-29 - Then they said to him, What must we do, to be doing the works of God? Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him whom he has sent. (ESV)

As a body without spirit is inanimate, faith without deeds is inanimate, as in "non-impactful" (James 2:26) because faith is the heart attitudes but the deeds are actions done with that faith, though I'd still say that it is practically impossible to not have deeds (whether good or evil), and so the real question is, "With what faith are one's deeds being done? Faith in the truth or faith in lies?" And another question is "Who is doing the deeds? (a) God working as one obediently abstains from woroking? (Romans 4:4-6), or b) oneself working deeds that are being wrought in God? (John 3:21)" Faith in lies is like doubting the truth (II Thessalonians 2:9-12, Jeremiah 29:31, Jeremiah 28:15, Isaiah 42:17, Habakkuk 2:18, Luke 8:12, John 8:43-47).

It is possible to have faith without working:

Romans 4:5 (Interlinear) To the [one] (G3588 tō) however (G1161 de) not (G3361 mē) working (G2038 ergazomenō) believing (G4100 pisteuonti) however (G1161 de) on (G1909 epi) the [One] (G3588 ton) justifying (G1344 dikaiounta) the (G3588 ton) ungodly (G765 asebē) is reckoned (G3049 logizetai) the (G3588 hē) faith (G4102 pistis) of him (G846 autou) for (G1519 eis) righteousness (G1343 dikaiosynēn)

But it is also totally justified to continue doing good if you have the faith to proceed:

> James 2:14-17 - What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled, without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. (ESV)

A person has works, good or evil. And a person has a heart that might have faith in it, or it might not. And a person might be working or resting.

OK, so there are 2 type of rest I imagine there can be:

1. Obeying to rest from working, out of faith, because one has faith in Jesus Christ and wants to stop doing evil (Romans 4:6-8). Consider this that there is a cessation from doing works, and thus a cessation from committing sin (Romans 14:23).
2. God causing a person to rest as that person is striving in obedience to enter the rest of God (Ezekiel 37:12-14).

I'm not presently convinced that these two types of rest are exactly the same, but I will keep thinking about it. I think that one thing for sure is that in both cases, there has been both faith and a cessation from committing sin.

"Peace" and thus "rest" go to those who obey the truth, who have faith. There is nothing at all wrong with "doing good". There are good wages for doing good. But consider the somebody who has done evil and recognises that, and in faith in God who justifies ungodly people, ceases from working altogether (which means also a cessation from committing sin), that that person's faith is counted as righteousness. Now I do not think that that means that the person will forever remain without good deeds because Jesus promises deeds (John 14:12):

> Romans 2:6-11 - He will render to each one according to his works (G2041 erga; deeds): to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does (G2716 katergazomenou) evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does (G2038 ergazomenō; is working for payment) good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

> Romans 4:4-6 - Now to the one who works (G2038 ergazomenō; is working for payment), his wages are not counted as a gift but as his due. And to the one who does not work (G2038 ergazomenō; is working for payment) but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from (G5565 chōris) works (G2041 ergōn): (ESV)

> Galatians 6:7-10 - Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

But entering God's rest is never done out of disbelief or disobedience.

Similarly, simply listening and learning from the Lord Jesus may be the priority when obeying God. Mary was not being disobedient here. She was being obedient to Father God to listen to Jesus:

> Luke 10:38-42 - Now as they went on their way, Jesus entered a village. And a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to his teaching. But Martha was distracted with much serving. And she went up to him and said, Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me. But the Lord answered her, Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, but one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her. (ESV)

> Mark 9:7 - And a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came out of the cloud, This is my beloved Son; listen to him.

> Luke 9:35 - And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my Son, my Chosen One; listen to him!

There is no difference between the obedience that went into producing a deed and the obedience that is ready to produce a deed. The obedience in the heart is the same for both. There is no difference between the faith went into producing a deed and the faith that is ready to produce a deed. The faith in the heart is the same for both.

A person's faith is counted apart from (G5565 chōris) their works. A person also has works, but it's the "faith component which is counted".

But it is possible to have faith while not working, and that is resting.

It is certainly possible also to be justified by deeds. But God counts the faith/obedience/fear of God in the heart. And so this justification by deeds is really justification by the faith apart (G5565 chōris) from the deeds:

> James 2:25 - And in the same way was not also Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way? (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:31 - By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given a friendly welcome to the spies. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:8 - By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:17 - By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, (ESV)

> Genesis 22:12 - He said, Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me. (ESV)

OK, what about being justified by "works of the Law"? In that case, I think it's not possible, because it would require perfect obedience to the entire law united with perfect deeds:

> Romans 3:20 - For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. (ESV)

Jesus Christ, God's Son was the perfect man with regard even to the whole Law, the whole Old Covenant Law:

> James 3:2 - For we all stumble in many ways, and if anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle his whole body. (ESV)
> Galatians 5:1-6 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you. I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. (ESV)

"The one having completed all of these external deeds will live" is probably an accurate way to understand "the one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them", as if there entire future is dependent on the completion of all of these external tasks:

> Galatians 3:10-13 - For all who rely on works (G2041 ergōn: works, deed, action, task, labor) of the law are under a curse; for it is written, Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them. Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— (ESV)

God sees the faith, love, thought and intention in the heart. A person would have to be a "perfect man" to connect faith with external action flawlessly every time. That doesn't mean the faith and obedience and intention are not in the heart to do the good, as we need to have that faith in Jesus Christ in our heart:

> James 3:2 - For we all stumble in many ways, and if anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle his whole body. (ESV)
>
> Matthew 5:34-37 - But I say to you, Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply Yes or No; anything more than this comes from evil. (ESV)
>
> James 4:15 - Instead you ought to say, If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that. (ESV)
> Romans 7:18 - For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh; for the willing is present in me, but the working out of the good is not. (LSB)

And good works are works that have been wrought in God (i.e. they are God's work in the good person):

> John 6:28-29 - Then they said to him, What must we do, to be doing the works of God? Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him whom he has sent. (ESV)
>
> James 2:22-24 - You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works (G2041 ergois; works/deeds); and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness—and he was called a friend of God. You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone (G3440 monon; only). (ESV)
> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

> I John 3:8-10 - Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

The person who practices the truth does deeds which are being wrought in God:

> John 3:21 - But he who practices the truth comes to the Light, so that his deeds may be manifested as having been wrought in God."

> Philippians 2:13 - for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

A person born of God has God working through them doing good works:

> I John 3:3-7 - And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)

> Titus 2:9-14 - Slaves are to be submissive to their own masters in everything; they are to be well-pleasing, not argumentative, not pilfering, but showing all good faith, so that in everything they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior. For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

Faith is in the heart and confession is speaking the same as God. Justification is by faith in Jesus Christ and is a "here and now" thing. If we are confessing and believing the same as God as regards Jesus Christ then that is what saving faith is. This is important because we must abide in Jesus Christ's teachings and so the person of Jesus Christ and His words are so vital to remain in agreement with. The faith is needed first and good deeds are produced while holding good faith. From faith in Jesus and His words we do what He says:

> Romans 10:3-11 - For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. For Christ is the end (G5056 telos) of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. For Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on the law, that the person who does the commandments shall live by them. But the righteousness based on faith says, Do not say in your heart, Who will ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down) or Who will descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess (G3670 homologēsēs; from homologeó: To confess, to acknowledge, to agree) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame. (ESV)

> II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

We need to be doers of what Jesus Christ says here. Being led by the spirit and not under the law, a person would be "seeking first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness" in preference to worrying about worldly concerns to make the flesh their strength, and so would prioritise by faith obeying Jesus Christ's commandments in reality over, say, "ironing a shirt". God wants us to walk by the spirit (do the will of God which He has commanded us) and to leave the rest to Him which includes providing us with our material needs:

> Matthew 5:43-48 - You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)
> Matthew 6:24-25 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? (ESV)
>
> Matthew 6:31-33 - Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. (ESV)
>
> Psalms 103:17-18 - But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children, to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments. (ESV)
> Matthew 7:7-24 - Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. Or which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him! So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets. Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few. Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)
> II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)

A person is justified by the law of faith (what is in the heart) rather than by a law of works (i.e. inclusive of the successful carrying out of external actions in the world):

> Romans 3:27-31 - Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

The faith which a person is justified by is counted distinctly from (G5565 chōris) any corresponding external actions and distinctly from any corresponding law of works (Galatians 3:12). The Old Covenant Law was pursued by some as though it was based on works and that is the problem:

> Galatians 3:12 - But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them. (ESV)

> Romans 9:30-32 - What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness did not succeed in reaching that law. Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, (ESV)

This is very clearly not implying that a person doesn't have corresponding works (e.g. Abel's offering was done in faith), and very clearly not implying that a person does not seek to keep some law as they exercise their faith (Romans 14:23, Romans 9:30-32). But it's the faith which is counted distinctly from any corresponding external action or law:

> Romans 3:20-25 - For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. (ESV)

Faith 'alone' (G3440 monon; only) which the Apostle James speaks of (James 2:22-24), is not precisely the same thing as faith 'apart from' (G5565 chōris) works which the Apostle Paul speaks of (Romans 4:5).

The Apostle Paul speaks of faith while "not working" (doing deeds), and so faith while "resting" (for example, in faith keeping the Sabbath command to rest).

Even when a person is resting in faith, God is working (John 6:28-29), so long as that resting is truly done in faith (rather than, for example, a "sin of omission" - see James 4:17).

So therefore, faith while resting from working is not alone because God still works. So it's not accurate to take Romans 4:5 and say this "faith without working" is faith that's alone without works.

To make things confusing, people often talk about how a person is justified by "faith alone" while referring to Paul's writings. But Paul doesn't talk about faith alone (G3440 monon; only). Rather, Paul talks about faith "apart from" (G5565 chōris) works.

Faith "apart from" (G5565 chōris) works is what is in the heart counted distinctly from any corresponding works (for example, faith working through love producing good deeds while abiding in Jesus Christ), or faith "apart from" works would be while having "ceased" working (Romans 4:5, Romans 6:22-23; i.e. the free gift), and God still working (John 6:28-29). This latter state of not working, yet having faith, is important for justification, I believe, because given a history of evil deeds, a person must have stopped what they are doing so as for them to not be established by wickedness, otherwise it might be establishing one's own righteousness (Romans 10:3-11, John 15:1-6). A person must be able to stop (Romans 3:19):

> Proverbs 12:3 - No one is established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous will never be moved. (ESV)

It’s imperative, no matter how much we’ve been attempting to work for God, that we accept the free gift from God, and that does require at least some point at which we have rested/abstained from working while holding faith in Jesus Christ while ceasing from working altogether. In holding faith in Jesus while abstaining from working in a legitimate way (i.e. in a way that is obedient to God as opposed to abstaining from working in a way that is committing sin as a ”sin of omission” - see James 4:17), while acknowledging their ungodliness (their sin) one receives the gift of righteousness.

There is ”faith working righteousness” (John 3:21, John 4:34, Galatians 6:7-10, John 6:27), which is a good place to be.

There is also ”love for evil working lawlessness” (John 3:20, Romans 6:22-23; i.e. the wages of sin), which a person must cease doing.

But a third state to be in is ’faith without working’ (G2038 ergazomenō; working) (Romans 4:5, Romans 6:22-23; i.e. the free gift). We all must receive this (Romans 11:29-33, Proverbs 12:3), even the one who works has to have received this (i.e. have ceased trusting in themselves that they are in themselves righteous apart from (G5565 chōris) Jesus Christ and to have refrained from working in order to received the gift), because we must not be establishing a righteousness of our own which is apart from (G5565 chōris) Christ (Romans 10:3-11, John 15:1-6). So there must be a point at which God affirms that we have recognised our own deeds have been evil, and we need His mercy, and we need forgiveness and atonement for the sin incurred due to our history of evil deeds, and had faith in Jesus Christ while resting/abstaining from working so as to not commit sin.

Being cleansed from sin involves a cessation of committing sin (I Peter 4:1-3, Ephesians 5:1-21, I John 1:7). To decide, ”I will not steal” is to decide to ”not work lawlessness”.

Keeping a commandment to ”not do” something (such as to ”not steal”) does not mean ”working”.

And a cessation from working alongside the faith described in Romans 4:5 is necessary to receive the blessing of forgiveness for past sins (Romans 4:6-8).

For a person to be justified by ’faith alone’ as some people affirm (not of our own works) person needs to have actually stopped working (i.e. resting, abstaining from working evil) at some point that God alone works (John 6:28-29) in them, while they are acknowledging that they have been ungodly, yet still have faith in Jesus Christ. In other words, if somebody is saying to others ”I’m justified by faith alone, not my own work, but Jesus’ works only” while they are themselves actually ”deeding” (rather than resting), or if they are still doing evil deeds (lying, stealing, lusting, etc.) , then that goes against Romans 4:5. A person has to have stopped working in actuality, while still holding faith, so doing so obediently, not resting, say, with a sin of omission:

> I Peter 4:1-3 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. (ESV)

This ”faith apart from works” is what so-called ”justification by faith ’alone’” (i.e. what the Apostle Paul speaks of) is based on, I think, (Romans 3:21,9:31,10:4-10), rather than what an antinomian / disobedient / faithless person might think faith alone is.

Also, this ”faith apart from works” is ”obedient” to the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. It’s obedient to God (Acts 5:32), and abiding by the law of faith (John 14:15) by faith in Christ Jesus, and is obeying God’s gospel (Romans 10:14-21).

If someone were to command another to ”go to sleep” or to ”rest”, and they obeyed, then in obeying they have not ”worked”, yet they have still obeyed. So ”working” and ”obeying” are different words meaning different things and should not be confused:

> John 9:4 - We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. (ESV)

Without the love of God, the love for the truth, in them, a person can’t have saving faith:

> John 14:24 - Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father’s who sent me. (ESV)

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

I believe that when a person actually obeys Jesus' commandments out of love for Jesus, this isn't working for justification, but is as if Jesus is working through them.

Jesus is the Rock:

> I Corinthians 10:4 - and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. (ESV)

Belief is important (and is an initial act of obedience). But everything we do should be done in faith and so belief is not just initial but present and ongoing:

> Matthew 16:15-18 - He said to them, But who do you say that I am? Simon Peter replied, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (ESV)

Being a "doer" of the word is important. We can "do" (4163. poiétés) faith, do love, do the law of Christ, do the law of faith in Christ, do the law of the Spirit of life in Christ, do obedience. A person can even "do" rest. "Doing" does not mean "working" and it doesn't mean "not working". When Jesus commands us to have faith in Him then we should do it. We should hear, trust, receive, treasure His word. If we have the obedience, then we will obey. If we have the love of God within us, the love of the Truth, then we will produce good deeds. Obedience is important. And obedience is a heart attitude:

> Luke 6:46-49 - Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

Jehovah is the Rock:

> Deuteronomy 32:3-4 - For I will proclaim the name of the LORD (3068. Yhvh); ascribe greatness to our God! The Rock, his work is perfect, for all his ways are justice. A God of faithfulness and without iniquity, just and upright is he. (ESV)
>
> Isaiah 44:8 - Fear not, nor be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? And you are my witnesses! Is there a God besides me? There is no Rock; I know not any. (ESV)
>
> I Corinthians 10:4 - and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. (ESV)

It seems reasonable to me to say that God the Father and God the Son share their names/onoma:

> John 5:43 - I have come in my Father's name (onomati), and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. (ESV)

Genesis 19:24 seems to read that while the LORD was on earth investigating Sodom He rained sulfur and fire from the LORD in heaven. Does this indicate more than one Person acting as the LORD? Starting at Genesis 18:1:

> Genesis 18:1 - And the LORD appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the door of his tent in the heat of the day. (ESV)

> Genesis 18:20-23 - Then the LORD said, Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great and their sin is very grave, I will go down to see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry that has come to me. And if not, I will know. So the men turned from there and went toward Sodom, but Abraham still stood before the LORD. Then Abraham drew near and said, Will you indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked? (ESV)

It's definitely Almighty God, the Judge of all the earth:

> Genesis 18:25-26 - Far be it from you to do such a thing, to put the righteous to death with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just? And the LORD said, If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will spare the whole place for their sake. (ESV)

> Genesis 18:32-33 - Then he said, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak again but this once. Suppose ten are found there. He answered, For the sake of ten I will not destroy it. And the LORD went his way, when he had finished speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place. (ESV)

> Genesis 19:24 - Then the LORD rained on Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the LORD out of heaven. (ESV)

The "invisible" rhēmati (Word) of God created the universe. Father and Son and Holy Spirit are the Co-Creators of the universe:

> Hebrews 11:3 - By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word (G4487 rhēmati) of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible. (ESV)

> Hebrews 1:2 - but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. (ESV)

> Psalms 104:30 - When you send forth your Spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the ground. (ESV)

There wasn't an age in which He (Jesus, God's Word, God's Son) didn't exist:

youtube.com: You Should Know This As A Christian | Sam Shamoun {@ApologeticsCut-ec2bp} So, the Father and Son and Spirit equally are the Creator. The second cause of the universe after the Father, the true and only begotten son of God, the Lord and God and King of all created things.

Proverbs 8 is Jesus Christ speaking through Solomon as prehuman wisdom. He says that's Jesus speaking as wisdom. So I don't need to read that. Proverbs 8. Let me skip that. He's quoting Proverbs 8. It's verses 1 to 36.

So what does he say about this wisdom that's speaking? I wisdom.

> Proverbs 8:12 - I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, and I find knowledge and discretion. (ESV)

Who is this wisdom speaking saying the Lord created me meaning begott me and then use me to create everything. Who is that? That the divine word therefore pre-existed appeared to some if not all has thus been briefly shown by us. You see what he's saying? He's saying look he spoke through Solomon. He spoke through David. He made himself known to David and Solomon. He spoke and made himself known to Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, to Moses, to Joshua, to Isaiah. That's Jesus.

The Father speaking to His Son:

> Genesis 1:26 - Then God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth. (ESV)

The Son carrying out the will of the Father:

> Genesis 1:6-7 - And God said, Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters. And God made the expanse and separated the waters that were under the expanse from the waters that were above the expanse. And it was so. (ESV)

> Hebrews 1:2 - but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. (ESV)

> Colossians 1:16-17 - For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. (ESV)

Jesus is commander in chief:

> Joshua 5:13-15 - When Joshua was by Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man was standing before him with his drawn sword in his hand. And Joshua went to him and said to him, Are you for us, or for our adversaries? And he said, No; but I am the commander of the army of the LORD. Now I have come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped and said to him, What does my lord say to his servant? And the commander of the LORD's army said to Joshua, Take off your sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy. And Joshua did so. (ESV)

Building our lives on Jesus means believing Him and obeying Him:

> Matthew 7:24-27 - Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it. (ESV)

> John 5:37-40 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life. (ESV)

If I hear Jesus' commandment to repent from sin, for example, and I obediently repent, then that is walking by faith. Since faith comes from hearing the word of Christ - and there faith could come from any part of His teaching:

> Proverbs 10:17 - Whoever heeds instruction is on the path to life, but he who rejects reproof leads others astray. (ESV)

So if I try to actually follow Jesus' commandments, and that leads me to believe that Jesus is who He says He is (consider the Apostle Thomas and his slow belief), then when I arrive at a belief that Jesus is who He says He is, the Son of God, and the Christ, the Messiah, the Anointed one, the obedience of one of Jesus commandments leads to more belief and more obedience.

The demons believe and shudder. They do not love God. They do not love the light. And because they do not love the truth, they don't practice the truth. All the law and prophets depend on the 2 great commandments to love the Lord our God out of all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind and with all our strength and to love our neighbour as ourself:

We must ”walk in the light” (love in the truth, love in the light, love in actuality, from the heart). We can’t love in truth while denying Christ, for example (John 3:14-19, I John 4:1-3). And we can’t love in the truth while hating our family in Christ (I John 3:14-20). We love because God loved us first (I John 4:6-19). Loving in the truth also means that it is out of faith in the truth (Romans 14:23), out of sincere love for God (I Corinthians 16:22), endeavouring to do what God wants us to do, seeking to please God (Hebrews 11:6, Romans 8:3-10, Hebrews 11:6, Galatians 1:1-10), in the truth (accepting God loved us first, II John 1:1-3), unlike a whitewashed-wall Pharisee who doesn’t do their works from a truly obedient heart (I Peter 2:6-9). Good deeds come out of sincerely obeying Jesus Christ out of faith in Him. Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us and He commanded us to love our family in Christ as a must. We must love our family in Christ. The deeds will come from a genuine love in the truth from the heart:

> I John 3:14-20 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love (agapōmen) the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world’s goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God’s love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

No joke, we must take care of our family in Christ who are in need. That is a must. Be the good Samaritan to our family in Christ when they need our help. If a person knows what good he ought to do and doesn’t do it then for that person it is sin. If we are to love in truth then when we know what good we ought to do, we should then be doing it:

> James 2:14-17 - What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled, without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. (ESV)

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

When James ask the question, ”Can that faith save him?” John asks the question, ”How does God’s love abide in him? John also shows that it’s a matter of the heart, and it’s a matter of having the love of God. So what James is talking about with dead faith is having a faith that doesn’t do the good they ought to have done because the love of God wasn’t there in the heart. So we can’t take genuine agape-love out of the equation when we talk about good deeds. We need the breastplate of faith and love. Holding faith in (trusting) the truth and loving the truth and obeying the truth are all important. The deed needs to come out of faith and love. What’s not done in faith is sin, and what is not done out of apape-love is unlawful:

> I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world’s goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God’s love abide in him? (ESV)

It’s not possible to be simultaneously walking in faith and knowing the right thing to do but not doing it. So that means walking by faith involves endeavouring to maintain a good conscience with God:

> James 4:17 - So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin. (ESV)

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> I John 3:14-20 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love (agapōmen) the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

The breastplate of righteousness is a breastplate of faith and love. We need to keep Jesus Christ's commandments lawfully and that means holding our faith in love of the truth. It means loving the truth. We don't believe and shudder. We believe and love God, and love those who are born of Him. We have to keep the 2 Great Commandments as well:

- I Thessalonians 5:8 - But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. (ESV)

God gives us a new heart which fears Him, trusts Him and receives and accepts His words, trusts Him and loves to obey Him, and finds His commandments to not be grievous. God puts a new spirit in us and causes us to walk in His precepts. At the same time we want to. We want to obey God. He does it in a way where He adopts children who love keeping His commandments, Christ's commandments, rather than doing it by being forced to. And His number one commandment is to love Him with all our heart, soul, mind and strength. So God gives us a heart in order to love Him. And to love one-another. God gives us a new heart. But we still obey those commandments willfully:

God wants us to desire to do His will, not grieve doing it:

> II Corinthians 9:7 - Each one must give as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. (ESV)
> Mark 12:41-44 - And he sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the offering box. Many rich people put in large sums. And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. And he called his disciples to him and said to them, Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on. (ESV)

We love Jesus and want to be around Him. We desire/love to do God's commandments instead of greive to do them. We love God and His commandments and desire to do His will.

> I John 5:1-2 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)
>
> I John 5:3-5 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)
>
> Acts 28:27 - For the heart of this people has become dull, And with their ears they scarcely hear, And they have closed their eyes; Otherwise they might see with their eyes, And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart and return, And I would heal them."'

In Christ Jesus, we may boast of our works that Christ accomplishes through us:

> Romans 15:17-18 - In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God. For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed, (ESV)

Even from James' perspective, it's clearly apparent that God surely can forgive people without work on their part:

> James 5:15-16 - And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. (ESV)

I think the solution to the justification by 'faith without work' and justification by 'faith with works' apparent paradox is that:

- if a person is actually obeying Jesus then the works can be attributed to Jesus, and
- obedience is just one aspect of faith.

Because it's faith in Jesus Himself that matters.
Jesus makes it clear that the ones who truly believe in Him will do the works/deeds which He does:

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

James believes that people can see the evidence of faith by works:

> James 2:22-26 - You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works; and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness—and he was called a friend of God. You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone. And in the same way was not also Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way? For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead. (ESV)

False obedience is where there is no love for God in the heart:

> Psalms 81:15 - Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever. (engbsb2020eb)

John 3:19 connects faith with deeds. Evil deeds come from a love of darkness. Luke 6:45 also connects faith with deeds. Good deeds come from a love of the truth.
Abraham's faith being active along with his "deeds" is a more accurate way to put this, because as He had faith and the fear of God in His heart Abraham was producing good deeds. That doesn't mean "works" (i.e. as in "working for"). So the faith that justifies is faith that not only "believes" but "loves". There is an allegiance to the object of the belief:

> James 2:22-24 - You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works (G2041 ergois; works/deeds); and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness—and he was called a friend of God. You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone (G3440 monon; only). (ESV)

> Psalms 25:14 - The friendship of the LORD is for those who fear him, and he makes known to them his covenant. (ESV)

So if a person is in agreement with Jesus Christ, then they must also have the fear of God in them because Jesus testifies about the world that its works are evil:

> John 7:7 - The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. (ESV)

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

But works by us done in righteousness are not the reason God showed mercy on us to save us. In fact we were all at one point disobedient. God in His mercy simply gave us His Holy Spirit in abundance to wash us, to regenerate us and to renew us, and He did this so that being justified by His grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. We were once really disobedient, but by God's grace through faith in Jesus we are now obedient. The faith was becoming obedient to Jesus, and out of it flows good works and obedience:

> Titus 3:3-8 - For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people. (ESV)

So Jesus saves us to become set free from various passions and pleasures and to become far more obedient to righteousness, and this is done through faith in Jesus Christ. Believing in Jesus Christ is the entry point for the salvation that is through Him.

So the point I'm trying to make is that the free gift of the Holy Spirit is received by faith alone, just be trusting in Jesus Christ to be saved, but Jesus Christ helps us to become slaves of righteousness which leads to eternal life.

Therefore I still think there's a false dichotomy between faith and works - because obedience is intrinsic to faith, but the gift of the Holy Spirit remains a completely free gift which is received through faith and that merit by works of righteousness is not the reason why it's given to us, but nevertheless, the Holy Spirit is given to those who obey Him.

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:14 - so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

Some people think that this obedience means it's no longer a free gift, where I do not agree with those people. I think that the obedience to Jesus is receiving the free gift through faith.

> John 6:28-29 - Then they said to him, What must we do, to be doing the works of God? Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him whom he has sent. (ESV)

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

True faith is always obedient; faith is always prepared to obey more:

> John 7:17- If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority.

Through faith in Jesus / obedience to Jesus we can have faith in Father God:

> I Peter 1:20-22 - He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

You can't even have faith in God without obeying Jesus because the one who has faith in God has already obeyed Jesus whether they know about Mark 11:22 or not. So it's not a dead work.

> Philippians 2:12 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out (G2716 katergazomai) your own salvation with fear and trembling, (ESV)

Having believed in Jesus, having begun to trust in Jesus, we have become obedient to Jesus. Jesus works on us as we trust in Him even before we understand what He's doing, and we have become obedient because he commanded us to trust Him:

> John 13:6-7 - He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, do you wash my feet? Jesus answered him, What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper God is saying, "I have done everything from eternity past in the for knowing of my son to eternity future in the glorifying of my son that you might hope in Me, God!" So that you might not hope in what sin can offer you, but hope in what God can offer you.

The wages of sin is death but the free gift of God is eternal life. Therefore, he who hopes in sin dies, and he who hopes in God lives forever.

Everything has been done for you that you might escape from the futile way of sin and put your hope in God forever.

I close by calling you to wake up to the folly of hoping in sin and to stop trying to satisfy your hearts with sin and to start satisfying your hearts with God.

We should be hoping to be transformed into Christ's image through sanctification, through faith in Christ and obedience to Christ. And resisting sin can be challenging. But if, rather than fight that good fight of faith, we instead believe lies and are led not by Holy Spirit but by a different spirit, say the spirit of the world, and if we hope in different promises that are contrary to God's promises, and if we, rather than obeying Jesus, obey the sinful flesh, if we trust in, and obey evil and hope for what "disobedience to Jesus" can provide, then that is hoping in sin.

So, for example, if one willfully chooses to not obey Jesus' commandment, and instead trust in some worldly wisdom that promises a "benefit" of some kind, then that is not trusting the wisdom of God, and in trusting what is contrary to God's law, that is distrusting God. It's those who are presently holding faith in Jesus Christ who have eternal life, so our normal mode of operation should be trusting and loving God's word, trusting and loving Jesus Christ and His commandments. But trusting and hoping in and obeying sin, produces evil deeds.

We should be hoping to be with the Lord Jesus Christ someday, and everyone who hopes in Jesus purifies themself as He is pure.

> I John 3:3 - And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. (ESV)

And justifying faith is having obedient faith in God with regards to the promise given to Abraham.
Obeying God is having faith in God. Obeying God is loving God. AMEN!!

> Mark 11:22 - And Jesus answered them, Have (G2192 echo) faith (G4102 pistis) in God (G2316 theos). (ESV) pistis is the faith noun.

> John 14:1 - “Do not let your heart be troubled; believe (G4100 pisteuo) in God, believe (G4100 pisteuo) also in Me. (NASB) pisteuo is the faith verb.

echo means ’to hold’ - so in Mark 11:22 Jesus says ’hold faith’ in God. And in John 14:1 Jesus tells us to ’do faith’ in God and to ’do faith’ in Him.

If you are believing in Jesus, then you are obediently working. But we need to continue in the doctrine of Christ, the teaching of Christ, the commandments of Christ:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

To be justified by working faith, a person must have the faith of Abraham. By faith Abraham obeyed. So the faith has the fruit of walking in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

> Romans 4:9-12 - Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

Having faith in God is obeying God. Loving God is obeying God. AMEN!!

So what Jesus is saying is quite similar - we must have the faith that Abraham had when he put Isaac on the Altar, but in regards to following Jesus:

> Luke 9:23-24 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. (ESV)

17.0.1 Salvation by obedience

We need to believe and then call on Jesus to save us, (usually out of desperation). This is another act of obedience to the Gospel. We don’t call on a law to save us; we call on Jesus to save us. That looks like beating hand on chest, wanting to turn from sin and begging God to save us:

> Romans 10:12-14 - For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. But how are they to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? (ESV)

Ironically, I feel like this word hupakoúó which means to ”fully hearken” (it’s an intensification of the verb ”to listen” with connotations of paying attention and responding to obey) may have been ”demoted” in meaning by many people to not at all mean ”fully hearken to / become obedient to the command”:

> Romans 10:16 - But they have not all obeyed (G5219. hupakoúó - I listen, hearken to, obey, answer) the gospel. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed (G4100 pisteúó) what he has heard from us? (ESV)

> Acts 5:29-32 - But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

youtube.com: Came To My Rescue - Emmy Rose | Moment {@BethelMusic} I called, You answered; And You came to my rescue; And I, I wanna be where You are

> Luke 11:9-13 - And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him! (ESV)

Faith in God is obedient. Faith in Jesus is obedient:

> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)

> Isaiah 26:3-4 - You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock. (ESV)

While people may debate whether faith is exactly obedience, we must conclude that there is at least some overlap. Faith is obedient because it's commanded. True obedience to Jesus qualifies as loving Jesus:

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

It might also be said that true obedience to Jesus can only be done in faith.
We know that true faith is obedient to the commandment of God. To say that faith isn't obedient is heresy:

> Romans 16:25-27 - Now to him who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith— to the only wise God be glory forevermore through Jesus Christ! Amen. (ESV)

Jesus Christ was obedient to Father God. We are saved through obedience to Jesus Christ, Son of God:

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9-10 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

> I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

We are found inside Christ, keeping Christ's commandments:

> II Corinthians 5:21 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

Jesus wants us to keep His commandments. If a person keeps Jesus' commandments and abides by His teachings then that surely shows they have agape love for Jesus and I don't believe a person can have agape love for Jesus without faith in Him. Jesus has authority to command the wind and the waves and even demons but the type of obedience I think Jesus wants from us is to keep His Law in unity of faith, truth and love:

> II Corinthians 10:5-7 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. Look at what is before your eyes. If anyone is confident that he is Christ's, let him remind himself that just as he is Christ's, so also are we. (ESV)
> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)
>
> Titus 1:9 - He must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it. (ESV)

The gospel of Jesus is in accordance to sound doctrine, and being lawless and disobedient is contrary to sound doctrine:

> I Timothy 1:5-11 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. Certain persons, by swerving from these, have wandered away into vain discussion, desiring to be teachers of the law, without understanding either what they are saying or the things about which they make confident assertions. Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, the sexually immoral, men who practice homosexuality, enslavers, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine, in accordance with the glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted. (ESV)

We renounce ungodliness and live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in the present age:

> Titus 2:9-14 - Slaves are to be submissive to their own masters in everything; they are to be well-pleasing, not argumentative, not pilfering, but showing all good faith, so that in everything they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior. For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

Whilst I like to make a distinction between the words obedience and 'works', the following verse illustrates that there is some overlap between faith and good works, and thus faith and obedience:

> James 2:18 - But someone will say, You have faith and I have works. Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. (ESV)

Where there is perfect belief, I think there is perfect obedience. i.e. if we hold firm to belief in Jesus, keeping and believing His sayings and obey Jesus through testing, we have eternal life and will see life:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

- G4100 (pisteuōn): This is the present participle form of the verb ” ” (G4100 pisteuō), meaning ”to believe” or ”to have faith.” In the participle form, it functions as a verbal adjective and can be translated as ”believing.”

  I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

I am confident also that if we hold firm to obedience in Jesus keeping and obeying His sayings and believe Jesus through testing, we have eternal life and will see life:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

Since Jesus commanded us to have faith in Him, to trust in Jesus is to have obeyed Him.

Quote by John Piper God is saying, "I have done everything from eternity past in the for knowing of my son to eternity future in the glorifying of my son that you might hope in Me, God!" So that you might not hope in what sin can offer you, but hope in what God can offer you.

> The wages of sin is death but the free gift of God is eternal life. Therefore, he who hopes in sin dies, and he who hopes in God lives forever.
> Everything has been done for you that you might escape from the futile way of sin and put your hope in God forever.
> I close by calling you to wake up to the folly of hoping in sin and to stop trying to satisfy your hearts with sin and to start satisfying your hearts with God.

Through faith in Jesus, and obedience to Jesus we can have faith in Father God:

> I Peter 1:20-22 - He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

Have faith in God:

> Mark 11:22 - And Jesus answered them, Have (G2192 echo) faith (G4102 pistis) in God (G2316 theos).

Have faith in God and have faith in Jesus:

> John 14:1 - "Do not let your heart be troubled; believe (G4100 pisteuo) in God, believe (G4100 pisteuo) also in Me.

Pisteuo means to trust. Trust in God, trust also in God's Son Jesus:

> Romans 4:5 - And to the one who does not work but trusts (G4100 pisteuo) him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, (ESV)

Learning to trust in Jesus, learning to trust Jesus, as we obey Him and witness His glory, and come to trust in Him, to believe in Him. Obedience to Jesus leads to witnessing His glory which inspires our faith:

> John 2:7-11 - Jesus said to the servants, Fill the jars with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast. So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now. This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples (G3101 mathetes) believed (G4100 pisteuo) in him. (ESV)

As we see trusting in Jesus and trusting Jesus go hand-in-hand. Jesus has already spoken, and Jesus' words still speak and are active. Do we trust His words? Trusting His words and trusting Him go hand-in-hand. If we trust Jesus, we will obey Him. If we obey Jesus, we will see His glory. If we see see His glory, our faith in Him will increase.

We trust in God to take care of us, as He leads us.

Having believed in Jesus, having begun to trust in Jesus, we have become obedient to Jesus. Jesus works on us as we trust in Him even before we understand what He's doing, and we have become obedient because he commanded us to trust Him:

> John 13:6-7 - He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, do you wash my feet? Jesus answered him, What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand. (ESV)

We abide in Jesus when He washes us. When the Holy Spirit washes us, the Holy Spirit helps us to put sin to death:

> John 13:8 - Peter said to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no share with me. (ESV)

Peter believed/received/obeyed/trusted like a child of God (he cooperated) to let Jesus wash him but it was Jesus doing the work:

> John 13:9 - Simon Peter said to him, Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head! (ESV)

Jesus' servants (people who obey Him) are found in him. Jesus' servants are those who have been washed, and they ought to then wash:

> Psalms 34:22 - The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned. (ESV)

The Israelites didn't ”work for God” as they obeyed God to walk through the Red Sea. Walking in obedience is not the same as ”working”. The Israelites were an actual part of the miracle of going through the Red Sea. The miracle wasn't just the water splitting, the Israelites walking through it was also miraculous. By obeying God, God sent them through the Red Sea.

In obeying God, God helps us:

> Joshua 1:9 - Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go. (ESV)

God gave Moses conditional power to split the sea if Moses was obedient. I believe that's what God wants to do with us in terms of abiding in Christ and God working through us. Jesus just wants us to believe Him and obey Him. I believe Jesus wants us to both believe Him and obey Him:

> Exodus 14:14-16 - The LORD will fight for you, and you have only to be silent. The LORD said to Moses, Why do you cry to me? Tell the people of Israel to go forward. Lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the people of Israel may go through the sea on dry ground. (ESV)

I just want to be clear that good works we do in obedience to Jesus are still considered a gift to us. We work out what God has worked for. It's even a gift to be in position of being able to do good works in service to Jesus after He has washed us:

> Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV)

No-one can boast to God:

> I Corinthians 1:28-29 - God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, so that no human being might boast in the presence of God. (ESV)

Before God, no-one can boast of being justified by works done apart from God:

> Romans 4:2 - For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. (ESV)

See even the Apostle Paul from my perspective has entertained the idea that a person could be justified by works but that they cannot boast before God, and I would say because they were saved by their work because they were obedient to God and out of that obedient heart, they did what God had instructed them to do to be saved:

> James 2:24 - You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone (G3440 monon; only). (ESV)

Justification and redemption are a total gift:

> Romans 3:21-26 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

The redemption (ongoing sanctification) is granted as a gift through faith in Jesus:

> Romans 3:24-25 - and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. (ESV)

Justification by working-faith (obedience to the gospel producing works) and justification by so-called 'faith alone' is, in my opinion, not a dichotomy, because all the good works we do as a consequence of being redeemed are a gift to us - us being in Him:

- Eph 2:8 - For by grace you have been saved through faith (G4102 pistis); and that not of yourselves, it is the gift (G1435 doron) of God; (NASB)
- Eph 2:9 - not as a result of works (G2041 ergon), so that no one may boast. (NASB)
- Eph 2:10 - For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works (G2041 ergon), which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them. (NASB)

John Piper puts it this way: "The first act of saving faith justifies and the subsequent ones justify too". That's an interesting theory, but it's also God who justifies, not us, so we should let God be God, trust Jesus and serve Him:

youtube.com: Though Our Faith May Falter @time: 8 min 52 sec The faith to which God looks when He justifies us is a kind of faith which perseveres by God's design so that He can look at that faith at it's first twinkling awakening and say, ”Not guilty. You are justified, accepted, forgiven and the righteousness of my Son is yours on the basis of that faith.” And, He can look at any given point at the unfolding of that faith throughout your life and say, ”For this you are justified, and for this you are justified and for this you are justified.” So the continuance of faith is the faith which justifies and the reason you can say, ”I am and have been justified”, as Romans 5:1-2 does say ”having been justified”, is because that perseverance is a property as it were contained in the authenticity of the first act of saving faith.

> I Corinthians 1:4-8 - I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that was given you in Christ Jesus, that in every way you were enriched in him in all speech and all knowledge— even as the testimony about Christ was confirmed among you— so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will sustain you to the end, guiltless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Romans 3:26 - It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

By His grace we have to actually come into obeying Jesus to find life. Think about what it means to obey Jesus: It's to walk in the Spirit, to abide in Jesus' Spirit, to be obeying Jesus' commandments, to seek to follow the pattern of life that He lived to be found in Him. You can abide in Jesus' Spirit if you have faith in Him, believing in Him, believing, trusting and obeying Him, knowing Him, and being found in Him!

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus' name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God's ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth. This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

Faith in Christ I believe means believing in Him and being obedient to Him, having communion with Him, etc. becoming intimate with Him, following Him. This isn't our own merit, but we still obey Jesus to be found in Him. In Him we have Jesus' righteousness:

Jesus' servants (people who obey Him) are found in him. Jesus' servants are those who have been washed, and they ought to then wash:

> Psalms 34:22 - The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned. (ESV)

> Matthew 16:25 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. (ESV)

We are instructed to work for God:

> II John 1:8 - Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. (ESV)

Once again, we are instructed to work for God:

> Colossians 3:23-25 - Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality. (ESV)

Jesus has literally taught people that that if we love our enemies, do good and lend, expecting nothing in return we will be rewarded and be sons of the Most High. This shows that obedience to Jesus is just part of having faith in Jesus:

> Luke 6:35-36 - But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)

The prophets, saints, and servants of Jesus will be rewarded:

> Revelation of John 11:18 - The nations raged, but your wrath came, and the time for the dead to be judged, and for rewarding your servants, the prophets and saints, and those who fear your name, both small and great, and for destroying the destroyers of the earth. (ESV)

> Ephesians 6:6 - not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, (ESV)

We are slaves to Christ Jesus:

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

As a result of being born of the Spirit and subsequent obedience to Jesus' commandments has resulted in a huge amount of worldly resistance, and also I've had to fight against a spirit of justification by law compliance, and I've had to fight against a spirit which denies my sins were atoned for and tries to get me to do good works for justification. I still do good works out of obedience but I resist the spirit pressuring me to work for justification (it is a very vindictive, Christ-denying spirit, and it is incredibly persistent):

> Galatians 4:29 - But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. (ESV)

I have no problem with explaining myself as the Apostle Paul also led by example and used his own life experience as an example to teach others:

> II Timothy 4:7-8 - I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:17-18 - Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. (ESV)

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now having been freed from sin and enslaved to God, you derive your benefit, resulting in sanctification, and the outcome, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (NASB)

Connecting Romans 6:22 to Hebrews 13:12, the result of being enslaved to God, obeying God and Christian suffering, results in our sanctification.

Jesus' sacrifice outside Jerusalem is so that we might be sanctified through His own blood and come into Jerusalem. I still think that there's nothing wrong with bearing the reproach Jesus endured - in fact it's encouraged. I think we bear His reproach in order to be sanctified and then call new Jerusalem our home:

> Hebrews 13:12-14 - So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through his own blood. Therefore let us go to him outside the camp and bear the reproach he endured. For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:12-13 - Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. (ESV)

So to be a slave of righteousness serving Jesus results in sanctification and also calling the Jerusalem above our mother and our home:

> Galatians 4:25-26 - Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. (ESV)

> Galatians 4:27 - For it is written, Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear; break forth and cry aloud, you who are not in labor! For the children of the desolate one will be more than those of the one who has a husband. (ESV)

We are not children of the slave woman but we are children of the free woman:

> Galatians 4:28-31 - Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

So John Piper is taking the Apostle John's writing in II John 1:9 and saying that Apostle John is warning against people talking about justification through works, but I don't think that's what the Apostle John is talking about. But I think it's important to affirm Lord Jesus's teaching. And we should be corrected by the Lord's teaching. For example, in Mark 10:18, Jesus affirmed that God is Good. Therefore when we read this, we must also be sanctified by this truth, affirming and coming into agreement that God is Good:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

> I Timothy 6:3-4 - If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, he is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, evil suspicions, (ESV)

I think the Apostle John means that new believers need to go on to abide in Jesus' teachings, and I suspect that John Piper may be interpreting the verse the same way, but focusing on interpreting the Apostle John's verse to be against justification by works - but I read II John 1:9 as saying we must abide in the full set of teachings of Jesus and the Apostle John is warning about people who oppose Jesus' teachings to love one another, forgive one another, repent from sin, etc., and oppose the truth which is that Jesus has come in the flesh.

> John 10:27-28 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. (ESV)

I feel like having love for Jesus is inseparable with believing Him and believing in Him for one of Jesus' sheep:

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

> II John 1:5-10 - And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess (G3670 homologeó) the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

Noah's obedience, or Abraham's obedience, I think are just living by faith, and that's how I reconcile James 2:14-26.

> Hebrews 11:7 - By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. (ESV)

Obedience / living by faith is just working faith / walking by faith:

We must "walk in the light" (love in the truth, love in the light, love in actuality, from the heart). We can't love in truth while denying Christ, for example (John 3:14-19, I John 4:1-3). And we can't love in the truth while hating our family in Christ (I John 3:14-20). We love because God loved us first (I John 4:6-19). Loving in the truth also means that it is out of faith in the truth (Romans 14:23), out of sincere love for God (I Corinthians 16:22), endeavouring to do what God wants us to do, seeking to please God (Hebrews 11:6, Romans 8:3-10, Hebrews 11:6, Galatians 1:1-10), in the truth (accepting God loved us first, II John 1:1-3), unlike a whitewashed-wall Pharisee who doesn't do their works from a truly obedient heart (I Peter 2:6-9). Good deeds come out of sincerely obeying Jesus Christ out of faith in Him. Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us and He commanded us to love our family in Christ as a must. We must love our family in Christ. The deeds will come from a genuine love in the truth from the heart:

> I John 3:14-20 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love (agapōmen) the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

No joke, we must take care of our family in Christ who are in need. That is a must. Be the good Samaritan to our family in Christ when they need our help. If a person knows what good he ought to do and doesn't do it then for that person it is sin. If we are to love in truth then when we know what good we ought to do, we should then be doing it:

> James 2:14-17 - What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled, without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. (ESV)
>
> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

Notes for James 2:14-26:

- Can that faith save him? - Good question.
- If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled, without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. - True. I believe a person receives God's work in us by being obedient to Him.
- Do you want to be shown, you foolish person, faith apart from works is useless? - I agree. That's why I think God saves us by working in us while we are obedient to Him.
- faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works - AMEN. In Abraham's case, his faith was completed by his works.
- You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone. - I believe that Jesus has done the work that we may be justified by faith alone with His works, and that Jesus, having first been perfectly obedient Himself, works in us to save us, sanctify us as we are obedient to Him, following Him.

Before God, no-one can boast of being justified by works done apart from God:

> Romans 4:2 - For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. (ESV)

See even the Apostle Paul from my perspective has entertained the idea that a person could be justified by works but that they cannot boast before God, and I would say because they were saved by their work because they were obedient to God and out of that obedient heart, they did what God had instructed them to do to be saved:

> James 2:24 - You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone (G3440 monon; only). (ESV)

Also, Jesus' own work on the cross is sufficient work for us to be justified by faith alone without our own work, but that does not mean we should not 'work'/walk for God through obedience which is characteristic of faith, even for our salvation, or be sanctified in the Truth through trusting obedience to God, and arrive at the knowledge of the Truth, even that Jesus Christ is the propitiation of our sin and works in us to save us.

> Philippians 2:12 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out (G2716 katergazomai) your own salvation with fear and trembling, (ESV)

Faith that from a good conscience with God produces Christ's love:

> I Corinthians 16:13-14 - Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong. Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)
>
> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

When James mentions ”justification by works”, he actually is referring to justification by obedient faith (obedient faith is still faith):

> James 2:25 - And in the same way was not also Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way? (ESV)

Hebrews 11:31 links obedience to works in James 2:25:

> Hebrews 11:31 - By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given a friendly welcome to the spies. (ESV)

Jesus bore our sins in His body on the tree so that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. We are also supposed to live in the truth and in the love of God, ourselves practicing the love of Christ, and entrust ourselves to God, even when others make things more difficult.

> I Peter 2:22-24 - He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

You'll be able to see who has been healed by their fruits.

God is still very busy working:

> John 5:17 - But Jesus answered them, My Father is working until now, and I am working. (ESV)

We are God's workmanship:

> Ephesians 2:7-10 - so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them. (ESV)

We absolutely must have a response of love for God - we must abide in Christ's love to abide in God.

Which commandments must we keep? Jesus' commandments - Jesus' sayings and commandments which Father God commanded Him to speak. Also, it's worth learning from the Apostles who were with Jesus. Some commandments of Jesus are divulged and better understood from their writings.

Jesus kept Father God's commandments including the commandment of what to say and speak to us. Jesus' words and sayings and commandments which God gave Him to speak to us are what we should keep. His commandments are eternal life for us:

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

From infants in Christ to maturity, people who keep Jesus' commandments are found in Christ who is in God:

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:1-5 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. (ESV)

If you love Jesus, keep His commandments. The one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one who loves Jesus:

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

Because God loved us first:

- The Apostle Paul endeavours to know Jesus ('makes it his own'. See Php 3:9-13) because Jesus made Paul His own
  - To be found in Jesus is what Paul describes as the righteousness from God that depends on faith
    - Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)
    - I Thessalonians 5:8 - But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. (ESV)
    - I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)
    - Ephesians 6:14 - Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, (ESV)

        - James 1:19-23 - Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness that God requires. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. (ESV)

    - We know Jesus by believing in Him and obeying His commandments, and when we love and forgive we know God loved us and forgave us first

        - I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

- We must love because He loved us first for God to abide in us

    - Romans 5:7-8 - For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (ESV)

    - I John 4:9-12 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)

- We must forgive as we have been forgiven

    - Colossians 3:12-14 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (ESV)

- We must be conformed to holiness

    - I Peter 1:14-16 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. (ESV)

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus' name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God's ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth. This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)
> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

The redemption in Christ Jesus is a gift, and is a substitutionary atonement that is received through faith in Jesus, which is supposed to result in us passing forward love and forgiveness, and putting sin to death.

As far as "obtaining the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ" goes, or sharing in Jesus' holiness, a limited analogy may be that this works like a blood transfusion, or a like Jesus' car battery recharging our car battery, that should be received by faith, faith which includes the belief of faith and the obedience of faith, such as obedience to the discipline of Christ, that should yield the peaceful fruit of righteousness as we then seek to imitate Christ, passing forward love and forgiveness and endeavoring to be holy.

Holiness is brought to completion in the fear of God:

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)
>
> John Piper's aim in this sermon is that:
> - 1st: those of you who preach and teach the word of God would do so in a way that makes clear the effective connection between the sin bearing work of Christ and the sin killing work of the Christian
> - 2nd: that you would make clear the effective connection between canceled sin and conquered sin
> - 3rd: that you would make clear the effective connection between the horrors of Christ's suffering and the holiness of Christ's people
> - 4th: that you would make clear the release of people from guilt and how it effectively connects with the securing of their lives of righteousness
> - 5th: that you would make clear the effective connection between justification by his blood and progressive sanctification by that same blood, and
> - 6th: Finally, that you would make clear the effective connection between the the tearing off of the flesh of Christ in crucifixion and the tearing out of your eye in the battle against lust.

Referring to 1 Peter 1:18-20:

Quote by John Piper "He does not say you were ransommed from guilt. He does not say you were ransommed from condemnation. He does not say you were ransommed from satan. He does not say you were ransommed from hell. He said you were ransommed from ways. Live in holy conduct because He bought it with blood."

> I Peter 1:14-20 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, (ESV)

Quote by John Piper "Conduct yourself in holiness because you know you were ransommed from unholiness. You were ransommed from futile ways into holy ways."

Quote by John Piper It's not enough to say that God paid the ransom for His wife - so God's wife is kidnapped, she's across the plaza, and He's going to get her, for Himself, and he pays an infinite price, and it's not as though she steps out free from her captors and goes and shacks up with another man! That didn't happen at the cross. It doesn't happen. He doesn't fail in His purchases. He's not impotent. His blood is not ineffective. It was not in vain. The ransom bought a new life for His people, a new holiness for His people. They will walk in the way He bought. If they don't, they have no warrant to believe they're His.

AMEN!!
If we keep His commandments, keep His works we will reign with Him:

> II Timothy 2:12-13 - if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)
> Revelation of John 2:26 - The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, (ESV)

I believe that becoming the righteousness of God is cooperative when we begin trusting God through trusting Jesus and as we continue walking by faith, submitting to the righteousness of God (Jesus' righteousness), being found in Jesus and continuing to be found in Jesus, trusting in Him and not denying Him, letting Jesus wash us, and work in us and we working out our own salvation, transform us and purify us as we cleanse ourselves while trusting in Him, and that a childlike trust in Jesus (a believing and obedient trust), following Jesus, walking in faith, and behaving as one of God's children, following Jesus our Lord and Saviour is how we receive and walk into the kingdom which is given to us and that walking in a childlike faith in Jesus is how we have the righteousness that is by faith.

I believe we have righteousness because we are found in Him, and He is our High Priest and or Lord and King, and Saviour. Living by faith is a lifestyle to be found in Jesus and that's how we have righteousness from Him, because we are found in Him and are being perfected and sanctified (in genuine agape love and holiness) like a branch getting healthier because it's connected to Jesus. It does not mean we are able to displace Him as the head of the body because we don't have righteousness apart from Him (as far as I understand):

> II Corinthians 5:21-6:1 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. (ESV)
>
> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)
>
> Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Jesus carried His cross, bore our shame, bore our sin that we might become the righteousness of God; that we might bear others' shame, and pass forward love and forgiveness:

> I Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

A limited analogy If I had $10 and wanted to help a person who asked for money, I could choose to give them only $5 and wait around for the next person who needed money, or I could give the $10 to the person who asked and then suggest to them that they ought to help someone else instead of use it all themself. In this way, God gifts us the ability to gift others.

So working together with Jesus, and thanks to being born-again and empowered by Jesus' spirit, Jesus helps us to put to death sin in our own body, forgive those who we had a grudge with, do good works, etc. repent, be sanctified, forgive as we have been forgiven, love as we have been loved:

> Hebrews 12:1-3 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. (ESV)

By His stripes we are healed, and then we live to serve Jesus:

> Isaiah 53:5 - But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed. (ESV)

Jesus washed out feet. Now we wash others' feet. A saint, having been forgiven and love by Jesus passes forward this love and forgiveness and bears other people's burdens:

> John 13:14-15 - If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. (ESV)

A saint, having been forgiven and love by Jesus passes forward this love and forgiveness and bears other people's burdens:

> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. (ESV)

1Clem 49:1 Let him that hath love in Christ fulfill the commandments of Christ.

I believe we should have a noticable change of heart and behaviour as a result of trusting obedient faith in Jesus:

> II Corinthians 5:21 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

We are healed by His wounds - a lot of Christians try to suppress the ”We are healed” bit. We should also notice that healing comes with stopping sinning. Jesus bore our sins in His body on the tree so that we might forsake sin, stop obeying it, and live righteous lives in holiness and doing good out of obedience to God:

> I Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

I think we should always be seeking the glory of our Jesus Christ, not seeking our own glory. Personally, my motivations for writing this Bible Study document, and for 'good works' etc. is simply because:

- I am remorseful for the sin which I've had in my life and want to be healed so that I no longer serve sin, but instead I live to righteousness (being obedient to God)
- I want to serve God, and I want to live in the truth
- I have a lot of joy in showing people that Jesus Christ is real
- I want to love Jesus. It seems to me like it's the reason for living
- I want my life to honour Jesus
- Jesus is worthy of all love, all praise, all glory
- I need Jesus
- I want to be found as a friend of Jesus

- I don't want to mislead anyone, so as things get clearer to me, if I notice mistakes or things that are ambiguous, I want "make improvements" to the document for the purpose of expressing as clearly as I can my present understanding of the Scripture

But God chose some to be saved through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth:

> II Thessalonians 2:13 - But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth.

Jesus called us to sanctified (i.e. repent from sin, and live to God). We seek the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. Interestingly, we don't seek our own glory, but Paul says that God chose us to be sanctified by the Spirit and belief in the truth:

> II Thessalonians 2:14 - To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We seek the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ, not our own glory. We should aim not to speak on our own authority, but instead to speak the Truth from God:

> John 7:18 - The one who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory, but the one who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and in him there is no falsehood. (ESV)
> I don't want to speak about things I am not confident in affirming, such as monergism because I haven't even scratched the surface of the doctrines surrounding that -it's beyond my study. But I have a childlike trusting, obedient faith in Jesus, which is what Jesus wants of us I think. Something that gives me confidence before God is that I have been brought into obedience to Jesus' commandments in word and deed. Not just intellectually knowledgeable, and I have confidence because I have confidence that Jesus is working in my life). Yes, I believe that we should desire to cooperate with God and do the word of God. We want to be obedient and believing. We trust God. God's faithfulness is greater than our own. That's how it works. God is our life. God works through us and His love is made perfect in us and we love with the same love that Jesus loved us with. Love comes from God. Christ's love is not vain philosophy.

I believe the Holy Spirit can absolutely take over as this evangelist puts it:

Amen youtube.com: The Holy Spirit took over my preaching in Las Vegas and left me in awe and trembling

> I Corinthians 3:9 - For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building. (ESV)

For sure, I just want to speak the truth from God, and I want to be sanctified by the Truth, and I want to be corrected by the Truth:

> Ephesians 4:15-19 - Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love. Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. (ESV)

Seeking God in truth and not seeking glory from one another is a good place to start in coming to believe. I guess that seeking the glory that comes from the only God involves seeking to glorify God:

> John 5:44 - How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? (ESV)

I believe we should have a noticable change of heart and behaviour as a result of trusting obedient faith in Jesus:

> II Corinthians 5:21 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

We are healed by His wounds - a lot of Christians try to suppress the ”We are healed” bit. We should also notice that healing comes with stopping sinning. Jesus bore our sins in His body on the tree so that we might forsake sin, stop obeying it, and live righteous lives in holiness and doing good out of obedience to God:

> I Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

I don’t think James contradicts Paul because I think faith alone is sufficient but that working faith is fine ”You’ll know them by their fruits.”. Also it’s God, not us, who justifies:

> Matthew 7:15-20 - Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. (ESV)

But I think that when we obey Jesus it’s Jesus working.
Jesus worked:

> John 5:17 - But Jesus answered them, My Father is working until now, and I am working. (ESV)

> John 19:30 - When Jesus had received the sour wine, he said, It is finished, and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit. (ESV)

Jesus is still working through us:

> Philippians 2:13 - for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Way Maker - Paul McClure | Moment @time: 4 min 12 sec

So when we obey Jesus’ words and commandments, Jesus works in us:

> Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Trusting and obeying Jesus’ words and commandments, a person has life:

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ’s teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

When we walk in trusting, believing, obedient faith, God works in us and to deliver us and makes our paths straight for us:

> Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Jude 1:21 - keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. (ESV)

So we are saved by obeying Jesus:

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

Quote from John Piper Jesus has done everything necessary: He was loved and foreknown and chosen, He appeared at the end of the times, He was crucified for sins, He was raised from the dead, He was glorified at the Father's right hand, and now He is sent by his Spirit into this world and he is doing his purposes to gather his people and through him you have become believers in God.

You've been ransomed from a futile way of life by an infinitely valuable price: namely, the blood of Jesus.

The command to lead your life in fear rises with the value of the ransom paid to rescue you from the sin that some people try to fund with the ransom.

He was born to die and he died to rescue you from this afternoon's sinning. And tomorrow's, as well as all the ones in the past.

We should not treat that ransom with contempt.

But I feel like a lot of people have a problem with salvation by obedience, but it's totally Scriptural. Noah and the Israelites through the Red Sea and the Apostle Thomas after following Jesus around for ages and finally arrived at belief. And I think this is the correct teaching.

> Romans 10:17 - So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ. (ESV)

Faith comes from hearing Jesus' words and we can hear a commandment of Jesus such as 'love your enemies' and that faith can come from that, and it's Jesus working through them when they hear Jesus' words and obey them, and I think a person can be saved this way if they continue in Jesus' word.

> Luke 6:35 - But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. (ESV)

A person is justified when God justifies the person, not just because a person says they are justified. So I think God's the justifier of a person's faith and that both obedience and belief are parts of faith, and like Abraham we should keep the faith until and beyond when we receive personal assurance of justification from God.

It's God who tests the faith, and God who justifies:

> II Corinthians 10:18 - For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)

> III John 1:11-12 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. Demetrius has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself. We also add our testimony, and you know that our testimony is true. (ESV)

And I do not believe the following verse necessarily is merely talking about justification but also talking about being saved from falsehood, corruption, demons, sin in our bodies and from the wrath of God, and also my definition of faith includes obedience:

> Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved (sesōsmenoi) through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV) sesōsmenoi (saved) `https://biblehub.com/greek/seso_smenoi_4982.htm`

We don't justify ourselves. The lawyer here was desiring to justify himself. God is the justifier. Jesus explains that the one who proved to be a neighbour is the one who showed compassion for and took care of the helpless person, taking care of them with mercy:

> Luke 10:25-37 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

Polycarp 2:1 Wherefore gird up your loins and serve God in fear and truth, forsaking the vain and empty talking and the error of the many, for that ye have believed on Him that raised our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead and gave unto him glory and a throne on His right hand; unto whom all things were made subject that are in heaven and that are on the earth; to whom every creature that hath breath doeth service; who cometh as judge of quick and dead; whose blood God will require of them that are disobedient unto Him.

17.0.2 Draw near to God

Because of what Jesus has done, we can draw near to God's throne of grace with a true heart (purified by faith in Jesus, single-mindedly trusting God's Word) in full assurance of faith. Forsake sin, turn away from idols, repent and have faith in Jesus. Trust his Words, works, believe He died for our sins and God raised Him from the dead and trust in Him. Trust that He will reward you for seeking Him out in this way because His Word says so.

> Hebrews 7:19-20 - On the one hand, a former commandment is set aside because of its weakness and uselessness (for the law made nothing perfect); but on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God. (ESV)

> II John 1:4-6 - I was very glad to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received commandment to do from the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it.

> Hebrews 4:16 - Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. (ESV)

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:22 - let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

17.0.3 Be perfected and made complete in love and holiness. Jesus is the Way

Know Jesus, be sanctified, obeying Jesus.

> Hebrews 10:1 - For since the law has but a shadow of the good things to come instead of the true form of these realities, it can never, by the same sacrifices that are continually offered every year, make perfect those who draw near. (ESV)

> I John 2:3 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. (ESV)

So long as we are being sanctified (through obedience to the Truth for a sincere love of our family in Christ), we are or will be perfected in love:

> Hebrews 10:14 - For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. (ESV)

> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

> James 1:2-4 - Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:8-19 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. Only let us hold true to what we have attained. Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. (ESV)

Jesus was made perfect and become the source of eternal salvation to all those who obey Him. What does being made perfect mean here? He completed the works which Father God gave Him to do and suffered in the flesh and was made alive in the spirit:

> Hebrews 7:28 - For the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever. (ESV)

We must walk not as enemies of the cross of Christ, but walk in godliness, behaviour that is in accordance with true knowledge about God:

> Titus 1:1-3 - Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the sake of the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth, which accords with godliness, in hope of eternal life, which God, who never lies, promised before the ages began and at the proper time manifested in his word through the preaching with which I have been entrusted by the command of God our Savior; (ESV)

> I John 2:3 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:8-19 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. Only let us hold true to what we have attained. Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. (ESV)

”He learned from the things He obediently suffered” makes more sense to me. Is that a plausible translation?:

> Hebrews 5:8 - though being a Son He learned from the things He suffered - obedience (Interlinear)

> Hebrews 5:7-10 - In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

> James 3:2 - For we all stumble in many ways, and if anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle his whole body. (ESV)

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

Jesus was ”perfected” (think of what that word is being used to mean), being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit. We should definitely have the mindset of having suffered in the flesh and ceased from sinning. Be repentant, be spiritually minded, be trying to do the will of God, be prepared to stand before God:

> I Peter 3:18 - For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, (ESV)

> I Peter 4:1-5 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:16 - From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh (G4561 sarx). Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh (G4561 sarx), we regard him thus no longer. (ESV)

17.1 Walking in trusting faith in Jesus

I honestly don't know everything and I don't have all the answers. But I think God is sanctifying me through faith. As we hold our faith, willing to do God's will, and trusting Him, we are sanctified - cleaned, washed, and things will become clearer. His spirit sanctifies us. His word sanctifies us. We are sanctified as we hold our faith in Him.

Just keep trusting in, trusting Jesus, believing and obeying and treasuring from the heart and I think things will become clearer. That's what I'm doing.

We trust Jesus (Yeshua), so we accept and treasure His words, so we trust in Him and obey Him out of trust and He is our strength, and song and Yahweh becomes our salvation. In trusting Jesus (Yeshua) we trust Jehovah (Yahweh) who has sent Jesus (Yeshua). It's Jesus Christ who saves us. It's Yahweh who saves us:

> Isaiah 12:1-3 - You will say in that day: I will give thanks to you, O LORD (H3068 Yhvh), for though you were angry with me, your anger turned away, that you might comfort me. Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust (H982 batach), and will not be afraid; for the LORD GOD (H3068 Yhvh) is my strength (H5797 oz) and my song (H2176 zimrath), and he has become my salvation (H3444 yeshuah). With joy (H8342 sason) you will draw water (H4325 mayim) from the wells of salvation. (ESV)

> John 7:37-39 - On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts (G1372 dipsaó), let him come to me and drink (G4095 pinó). Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuó) in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 20:9 - If I say, I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name, there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot. (ESV)

> John 7:38 - The [one] believing in Me as has said the Scripture Rivers out of the belly of him will flow of water living (Interlinear)

God is our #1 treasure. Family in Christ is also treasure - we love one another as ourselves as companded. We must treasure family in Christ. Also God wants all people to be saved. We are called to agape treasure all people, even our enemies. We want them to be saved too:

> Leviticus 19:9-18 - When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field right up to its edge, neither shall you gather the gleanings after your harvest. And you shall not strip your vineyard bare, neither shall you gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard. You shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am the LORD your God. You shall not steal; you shall not deal falsely; you shall not lie to one another. You shall not swear by my name falsely, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD. You shall not oppress your neighbor or rob him. The wages of a hired servant shall not remain with you all night until the morning. You shall not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God: I am the LORD. You shall do no injustice in court. You shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great, but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor. You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not stand up against the life of your neighbor: I am the LORD. You shall not hate your brother in your heart, but you shall reason frankly with your neighbor, lest you incur sin because of him. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)

Anyway, we should just keep trusting the Lord and maintain a good conscience before God, follow Him faithfully, trust Him and treasure his words and commandments. Love as he loved, walk as he walked. Like Peter on the water, we keep our eyes on Jesus - the eyes of our heart, and God takes care of us:

> Matthew 14:28-33 - And Peter answered him, Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water. He said, Come. So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, Lord, save me. Jesus immediately reached out his hand and took hold of him, saying to him, O you of little faith, why did you doubt? And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, Truly you are the Son of God. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:18-20 - This charge I entrust to you, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies previously made about you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith, among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme. (ESV)

The other thing is, we should put out faith on the Truth in the Bible because dreams and visions are very often lying:

> Ezekiel 13:6 - They have seen false visions and lying divinations. They say, Declares the LORD, when the LORD has not sent them, and yet they expect him to fulfill their word. (ESV)

I get lied to in dreams and visions from the devil very often, even through other people. This is why it helps to do a good Bible study. So I trust what God has spoken through Bible:

> Ephesians 4:11-14 - And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. (ESV)
