> Matthew 22:41-45 - Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, saying, What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he? They said to him, The son of David. He said to them, How is it then that David, in the Spirit, calls him Lord, saying, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet? If then David calls him Lord, how is he his son? (ESV)

> Numbers 14:21-24 - But truly, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD, none of the men who have seen my glory and my signs that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and yet have put me to the test these ten times and have not obeyed my voice, shall see the land that

> I swore to give to their fathers. And none of those who despised me shall see it. But my servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed me fully, I will bring into the land into which he went, and his descendants shall possess it. (ESV)

Demons can mention Jesus' name. I John 4:2-3 doesn't say that if a spirit speaks the name "Jesus" then it's from God:

> Luke 8:28 - When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him and said with a loud voice, What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me. (ESV)

And we should confess our faith to one-another, and confess truth to one-another, love one-another as Jesus commanded and pray for one-another:

> Colossians 3:8-10 - But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. (ESV)

We should even confess our sins to one another and repent before one-another:

> James 5:16 - Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. (ESV)

> Acts 19:17-19 - And this became known to all the residents of Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks. And fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was extolled. Also many of those who were now believers came, confessing and divulging their practices. And a number of those who had practiced magic arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. And they counted the value of them and found it came to fifty thousand pieces of silver. (ESV)

> Mark 1:5 - And all the country of Judea and all Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. (ESV)

When a person confesses to another, "I did something that God wouldn't like." but they not disclose what it was they did wrong, then it's not possible to come into full agreement with one another that the "something" that they did was wrong. Because both parties are not in agreement with what it was that was done. I mean, for one person it was wrong. And what is not done in faith is sin. Therefore, in that sense it is wrong. But we must be in agreement with Jesus. The word that is translated as "confess" in the Greek New Testament is "homologeo" which means "speak the same". Now, we need to be confessing the same Jesus. So we should be speaking the same as what Jesus would speak regarding this "something" which was done. And when confessing to one-another, we should be speaking the same thing with one-another concerning it.

That's why, I believe, that to be as "watertight" as possible, disclosure should be made of what it is the person believes is is they have done which is sinful, and both parties, the person confessing and the person hearing the confession should also compare with what Jesus says about whether or not it is good or evil, and need to be in agreement with Jesus over it, speaking the same as Jesus regarding it.

It would be wrong to confess that what is good is evil.

Now if somebody told you that they believe they did something that God wouldn't like, and then you asked them to please confess their faith to you and they refused to confess the same Jesus Christ, then when they claim that they did something that God wouldn't like, how do you know they are talking about God? They might be thinking of a different god, actually, rather than the True God, and they might be agreewith with different precepts, and so the confession is not good enough to be trusted by you.

Now God sees all things including the person's faith in their heart. So if a person had a sound faith (but withheld making a confession of that faith in the true Jesus Christ to you) confessed to you that they have sinned withheld disclosing what it was that they believe was sinful, though you can't see, God would still see. So maybe they confess to God, but not to you.

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:19 - Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)

> I Chronicles 28:9 - And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever. (ESV)

No created thing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus. The flesh cannot separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus. If the meeting place (such as a chapel or cathedral or hall) were destroyed by bombs along with all the prayer books, bread and wine inside, then would that separate anyone from the love of God in Christ Jesus their Lord? No. Not even the destruction of the body of flesh can separate a believer from Jesus Christ their Lord:

> Romans 8:38-39 - For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

God is not created though:

> Romans 11:20-23 - That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. (ESV)

> John 15:1-6 - I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. (ESV)

Hebrews 13:5 does not make it untrue that His wrath is against all who forsake Him as Ezra 8:22 speaks of exactly the same God:

> Deuteronomy 31:8 - It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not leave you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed. (ESV)

> Hebrews 13:5 - Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, I will never leave you nor forsake you. (ESV)

> Ezra 8:22 - For I was ashamed to ask the king for a band of soldiers and horsemen to protect us against the enemy on our way, since we had told the king, The hand of our God is for good on all who seek him, and the power of his wrath is against all who forsake him. (ESV)

> Isaiah 65:11-12 - But you who forsake the LORD, who forget my holy mountain, who set a table for Fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny, I will destine you to the sword, and all of you shall bow down to the slaughter, because, when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen, but you did what was evil in my eyes and chose what I did not delight in. (ESV)

With regard to specifically the confession of our hope, we should not waver in our faith, and if we stumble then we need to be those who ”get back up” and continue on in faith:

> Romans 4:20-22 - yet, with respect to the promise of God, he did not waver in unbelief (570. apistia) but grew strong in faith, giving glory to God, and being fully assured that what God had promised, He was able also to perform. Therefore it was also credited to him as righteousness. (NASB)

> Hebrews 10:19-23 - Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

In Hebrews, we are also instructed to ”not waver” in our confession. So what we are agreeing with and continuing to agree with certainly does matter. We should keep confessing what we are hoping for and hold fast to that confession and not waver. God is faithful and His promises are trustworthy and we should agree with and be corrected by and keep agreeing with God:

> Hebrews 10:23 - Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 1:9 - God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:24 - He who calls you is faithful; he will surely do it. (ESV)

We are instructed also to not doubt with our faith:

> Luke 24:38-39 - And he said to them, Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have. (ESV)

> James 1:5-8 - If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. (ESV)

> Isaiah 7:9 - And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If you are not firm in faith, you will not be firm at all. (ESV)

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

So we should not shrink back but be faithful, not doubt, continue living by and not waver in our faith, enduring the trials and tribulations and resistance to our faith so that we can receive. A person’s resisting of sin done in faith is indeed an act of faith (Proverbs 16:6, Psalms 115:11). Repentance from sin (fear of God. See Proverbs 8:13) and faith certainly go hand in hand (Hebrews 6:1):

> Hebrews 10:32-39 - But recall the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings, sometimes being publicly exposed to reproach and affliction, and sometimes being partners with those so treated. For you had compassion on those in prison, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one. Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

Dr. Michael S. Heiser Salvation is not gained by moral perfection. It is a gift that comes by grace, through faith (Eph 2:8-9). That in turn means salvation cannot be lost by moral imperfection (Galatians 2:17-21). What is not at all gained by performance cannot be lost by poor performance. Salvation is about believing loyalty - trusting what Jesus did to defeat Satan's claim and turning from all other gods and the belief systems of which they are a part [See quote].

"Believing loyalty" is an interesting phrase. Michael Heiser doesn't just say "loyalty". He says believing loyalty. "Believing" indicates faith and since salvation is by faith, then that means there must be a preference for God over evil, and a love for Jesus Christ, and genuine agape love hates evil. So a genuine faith in Jesus Christ will hate evil. Biblical "belief" looks like Abraham's belief. Biblical belief involves a love for the truth as opposed to a hatred of the truth. Genuine agape love hates evil. Hating evil will include hating lies. Hating evil will involve hating the suppression of the truth. Believing loyalty will involve a love for God and His word rather than a love for darkness.

Other desires might compete against a person's faith and so while a person might say "salvation is not 'performance-based' because God is there to receive us even when we are at our worst, if we repent, that is" you can still say too that it's certainly advisable to "resist sinful desire" to gain confidence with your salvation because maintaining one's faith is a fight. Seeing salvation as being saved from "sinful desires that are bad for us" helps to see salvation as something that we want too rather than something that only God wants it for us, and so it's not some kind of "soul-crushing performance 'dance monkey, dance,' type thing" that we are unwilling to carry out, but rather something like God giving us opportunites for us to choose obedience to Christ rather than sin, and in doing so, be sanctified by the Truth:

> Mark 4:14-20 - The sower sows the word. And these are the ones along the path, where the word is sown: when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that is sown in them. And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: the ones who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy. And they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately they fall away. And others are the ones sown among thorns. They are those who hear the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. But those that were sown on the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold. (ESV)

For sure, salvation is about believing loyalty. And salvation isn't gained by moral perfection, firstly because a person is "given" salvation even while they are a sinner, and secondly because a person can never arrive at, nor exceed the holiness of God. We can only ever approch the image of Christ as He sanctifies us. But salvation is also about getting cleaned up from sin, and being saved from actually committing sin. Even after receiving cleansing, it's still necessary to retain "believing loyalty" to God:

> Job 15:15 - Behold, God puts no trust in his holy ones, and the heavens are not pure in his sight; (ESV)

> John 8:34-35,36,42,51 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. (ESV)

> I John 3:1-11 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

Dr. Michael S. Heiser The gospel isn't here so that you can keep on sinning (John 5:6-15). The gospel is what it is so that you know it is not performance-based. You can be at your worst and Christ still died for you.

youtube.com: Post from John 14 : 6 I commented:

> We've got to keep having faith, though. God justifies even ungodly people who have faith in Jesus. A person can be at their worst, but they can be saved through sanctification and faith in Jesus. But what is not done in faith is sin, and we're sanctified by faith and obedience to the truth for a sincere love of our family in Christ. We're not sanctified nor saved by committing sin. So we have to stop sinning. We're sanctified by holding faith, even if we haven't been perfected in holiness yet. Jesus said that whoever is having faith in Him will do the deeds He did. And Jesus didn't sin. If we sin we have to return to faith.
> Jesus prayed that Peter's faith wouldn't fail. Peter denied Christ. Moses struck a rock instead of speaking to it. Though they both committed sin, both Peter and Moses held their faith overall and were saved in the end.
> So I just wanted to clarify one thing about that word "performance". Not performance as in, "evaluating the quality of work". But yes, performance, as in "work out your salvation". Perform it. I.e. do faith, and continue abiding in Jesus teachings having faith.
> But otherwise, I'm happy with this quote by Michael Heiser.
>> Matthew 21:24-32 Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you one question, and if you tell me the answer, then I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The baptism of John, from where did it come? From heaven or from man?" And they discussed it among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 26 But if we say, 'From man,' we are afraid of the crowd, for they all hold that John was a prophet." 27 So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. "What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.' 29 And he answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he changed his mind and went. 30 And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, 'I will, sir,' but did not go. 31 Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. 32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him. (ESV)

Not performance-based doesn't mean we do not perform our salvation. We certainly do perform our salvation in that the salvation is "carried out" / "worked out":

> Philippians 2:12-16 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out (G2716 katergazomai) your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. Do all things without grumbling or questioning, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)
> Hebrews 3:14 - For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. (ESV)
> Hebrews 3:5-6 - Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that were to be spoken later, but Christ is faithful over God's house as a son. And we are his house if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope. (ESV)
> Galatians 3:22 - But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. (ESV)
> Matthew 10:32-38 - So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)
> II Timothy 4:7 - I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. (ESV)
> Revelation of John 2:10 - Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. (ESV)
> Psalms 61:5 - For you, O God, have heard my vows; you have given me the heritage of those who fear your name. (ESV)

It's necessary to separate from idolators in order to be received by God and to be sons and daughters to God. There's no partnership between righteousness and lawlessness. And being the temple of God involves turning away from false gods and separating from idolators. II Cor 6:14-8 makes it clear that faith, belief in Jesus involves repentance from sin and walking in God's commandments and including worshiping and serving one True God only. Being a son or or daughter of God involves turning away from false gods. God gives the promise and we respond to that promise by turning away from false gods and turning away from other forms of sin, and this turning from sin is necessary to be a child of the Most High God:

> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 6:14-18,7:1 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean > thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

> Hosea 4:17 - Ephraim is joined to idols; leave him alone. (ESV)
> Exodus 20:2-3 - I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. You shall have no other gods before me. (ESV)
> Exodus 20:4-6 - You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me, but showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments. (ESV)
> Luke 4:7-8 - If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours. And Jesus answered him, It is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve. (ESV)
> Ezekiel 14:7-8 - For any one of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn in Israel, who separates himself from me, taking his idols into his heart and putting the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and yet comes to a prophet to consult me through him, I the LORD will answer him myself. And I will set my face against that man; I will make him a sign and a byword and cut him off from the midst of my people, and you shall know that I am the LORD. (ESV)

If someone is holding to the truth then consider them a partner and receive them. But if they're not, then separate from them:

> Philemon 1:17 - So if you consider me your partner, receive him as you would receive me. (ESV)
> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

I believe we have to remain faithful to Jesus:

> Acts 11:23-24 - When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad, and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose, for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were added to the Lord. (ESV)
> Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; _but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)
> Colossians 1:19-23 - For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. (ESV)

Jesus is the ultimate servant. When we say "we serve Jesus", the Truth is that He has served us, and we're endeavouring to imitate Him and have for others the same type of love He has had for us:

> Matthew 20:25-28 - But Jesus called them to him and said, You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. It shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be your slave, even as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)
> Matthew 25:40 - And the King will answer them, Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me. (ESV)

As Christians we endeavour to exercise the love that Jesus has shown us. Remember no servant is greater than their Master, so while we may fall short in serving Jesus and exercising this love, He's still our Master. And Jesus is pre-eminent, and we are only in this position of being able to serve others because of the grace we have received from God in Him:

> Matthew 10:24-25 - A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household. (ESV)

Jesus is our Teacher and Lord. So we must trust Him and imitate Him as Teacher, and trust in Him and obey Him as Lord:

> John 13:12-16 - When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. > John 13:15-17 - For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. (ESV)

> Colossians 1:15-18 - He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. (ESV)

While we may fall short as concerns the law, we still serve Christ, abiding in Him while we hold our faith in Him, and abiding in His love as we keep His commandments, and Christ is not a servant of sin. We come under Jesus' banner, and are justified though our faith in Him. But there is a sin problem and sanctification (us being cleaned up) happens while we are holding faith in Him and keeping Jesus' commandments. We keep Jesus' commandments and must continue keeping His commandments:

> Galatians 2:17-21 - But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor. For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. I do not nullify the grace of God, for if justification were through the law, then Christ died for no purpose. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:20-25 - Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. Abstain from every form of evil. Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful; he will surely do it. Brothers, pray for us. (ESV)

> John 15:10 - If you keep My commandments, you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love. (engbsb2020eb)

> I Peter 4:7-8 - The end of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers. Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. (ESV)

> Proverbs 16:6 - By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

> John 6:57 - As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. (ESV)

Jesus commanded us to have faith in Him, He commanded us to love one another as He loved us and He also taught people to forsake sin (John 5:14, John 8:10-11). As Christians we are told that we must continue on, abiding in Jesus' teachings (II John 1:9-10). Through Jesus' teaching and commandments we can draw near to God through faith in Him and be saved.

> Zephaniah 3:2 - She listens to no voice; she accepts no correction. She does not trust in the LORD; she does not draw near to her God. (ESV)

> Proverbs 15:10 - There is severe discipline for him who forsakes the way; whoever hates reproof will die. (ESV)

> Hebrews 7:25 - Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. (ESV)

We must not refuse Jesus. We must accept His instruction and not turn away from Him:

Hebrews 12:25 (Interlinear) Take heed lest you refuse the [One] speaking If for they not escaped on earth having refused the [One] divinely instructing [them] much less we - the [One] from [the] heavens , turning away from (G654 apostrephomenoi)

> Hebrews 12:22-25 - But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God, the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel. See that you do not refuse him who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less will we escape if we reject him who warns from heaven. (ESV)

The doing of the law and the actions are subtly different. People can be doers of the law (people who love God and their neighbour) who act (produce good works):

> James 1:21-25 - Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing. (ESV)

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

> Hebrews 7:22-26 - This makes Jesus the guarantor of a better covenant. The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office, but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. (ESV)

> Proverbs 12:12 - Whoever is wicked covets the spoil of evildoers, but the root of the righteous bears fruit. (ESV)

We must continue on in Jesus' teachings, keeping His commandments to abide/remain in love and abide/remain in God:

> I John 4:16 - So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. (ESV)

Even Jesus Christ's commandments depend on the 2 Great Commandments, so as far as I understand we have to do Jesus' commandments lawfully and that means as we follow Jesus' commandments, that shouldn't violate the 2 Great Commandments (Matthew 22:36-40). That shouldn't be daunting or sound impossible that Jesus' commandments depend on the 2 Great Commandments because we are justified by faith. It should also sound correct that Jesus Christ's commandments depend on the 2 Great Commandments because Jesus is our God, and we must love one-another in Christ as ourself. Those in Christ are one in Spirit.

That means we must agape-love God and agape love our neighbor as ourself. So even when we think about keeping God's commandments, such as to have faith in Jesus Christ, we must be doing this while at the same time agape-loving God and at the same time agape-loving our neighbour as ourself.

> John 5:42-47 - But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you: Moses, on whom you have set your hope. If you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words? (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 30:6 - And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your offspring, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live. (ESV)

It's loving God to call Him Father and to stop calling any man on earth one's "father".(I John 5:1-6) out of a loving trusting obedience to Jesus Christ.

The title of "father" belongs to God and to God alone and it's actually loving Jesus Christ to do as He says which is to stop using the title of 'father' for any man on earth. There is nothing wrong with doing so despite what people may say. It is not unloving to out of loving obedience to Jesus Christ put a stop to using the title of "father" for any man on earth.

> Matthew 22:21 - They said, Caesar's. Then he said to them, Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. (ESV)

Jesus says whoever keeps His commandments loves Him and He said whoever hates Him hates His Father and we want to be those who abide in Jesus Christ's commandments.

So it's actually loving to call no man on earth "father" (to literally put a stop to using the title for any man on earth), and this includes "dad", "pa", "pop" or "abba", etc.

Since Jesus Christ has commanded us to do it, if we are doing so in loving faith in Jesus Christ, then it's actually done in love as well. So if done in a love for the truth, then it's loving to stop calling any man on earth one's "father" or "dad", etc. affirming that now God who is in heaven is your only father.

And when a person is of the true circumcision, circumcised in their heart, then they keep the commandment to honor their mother and father when they honor God who is in heaven and Jerulasem which is in heaven. A person who is born-again, their father is not the previous father anymore, and their mother is not the previous mother that they had. We must walk in the truth.

> Philippians 3:3-11 - For we are the real circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— though I myself have reason for confidence in the flesh also. If anyone else thinks he has reason for confidence in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness, under the law blameless. But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. (ESV)

> Galatians 4:22-31 - For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman and one by a free woman. But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, while the son of the free woman was born through promise. Now this may be interpreted allegorically: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar. Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. For it is written, Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear; break forth and cry aloud, you who are not in labor! For the children of the desolate one will be more than those of the one who has a husband. Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

We should still honor everyone and do good to everyone including the ”previous family” the ”family of the flesh”, but especially to those who are of the household of faith. This is not to say that a person cannot be a brother or sister in Christ and at the same time someone who is a brother of the flesh, but since the person born-again of the spirit has a new identity that is in agreement with the truth which is the spirit then the title ”brother” or ”sister” on their own are reserved for one’s family in Christ and not for those outside. Because it’s Christ’s teaching, it’s essential to abide in the teaching that the title of ”father” is for God and God alone, God who is in heaven. Because it’s Christ’s teaching, it’s essential to put a stop to using the title of ”father” to any man who is on the earth:

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:7-10 - Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

Agape love is a treasuring/valuing/preserving/compassion love and God the Father and Jesus God the Son should be our first agape love, and those in the family of Christ we must also agape love, and our spouses we must agape love and we are even called to agape all people, but we're supposed to have no agape for this world:

> Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

It's fair to say that Jesus is not merely a prophet but also the Son of God. Since all the Law and the Prophets depend on the 2 Great Commandments. This means that even Jesus' commandments depend on the 2 Great Commandments:

> Mark 6:4-5 - And Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his own household. And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them. (ESV)

> I John 5:1-2 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

Since Jesus Christ's Law is within the entirety of the Law of God, and if our abiding in Jesus Christ's commandments is acceptable to Him, then we are also acceptable to Father God because Jesus Christ, our Master, was able to satisfy Father God's commandments perfectly:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law.

youtube.com: Are Christians Under the Law? Don Carson Explains 1 Corinthians 9:19-23 {@thegospelc

”I am not free from God's law in some sweeping sense. I am, rather under Christ's law.” That is, he is under this New Covenant, this mandate from God that has been mediated through Christ and that will raise all the questions about how you have continuity and discontinuity between the Old Covenant and the New. But what does he mean when he says then ”though I am not lawless”, I am not antinomian, I am not utterly open to anything that comes along, I am rather under Christ's law, I am under His Lordship. All that the New Covenant of which Jesus Christ is the head secured by his own blood. Everything that He demands in the structure of the New Covenant, I am under that. I can't escape that.

> John 15:9-14 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

Gal 6:2-6 is saying that in bearing one-another's burdens a person fulfills the law/commandments of Christ. So the type of law-fulfilling love of God that those who are in Christ have involves abiding in Jesus' commandments and bearing one-another's burdens:

Galatians 6:2 (Interlinear) One another's burdens bear you and thus you shall fulfill the law of Christ

> Galatians 6:2-6 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. For each will have to bear his own load. One who is taught the word must share all good things with the one who teaches. (ESV)
> Romans 15:1 - We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. (ESV)
> John 13:34 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. (ESV)

youtube.com: The most * MISUNDERSTOOD * verse in the Bible ... {@ LakepointeChurch } This is the most misunderstood Bible verse in the whole New Testament. Matthew 5. If your right eye caused you to sin, gouge it out. If your right hand caused you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. Now, for years as a pastor, I taught that Jesus was just using hyperbole to tell us to take sin so seriously that we were willing to like commit a radical amputation of anything in our life that causes us to sin. While that's true, the meaning is deeper and it is mind-blowing. Here's the clue. So in the verse immediately before Jesus mentions another body part when he says if anybody lusts they've committed adultery in their heart and the whole purpose of the sermon on the mount is that actions are just like fruit that grow from the tree of the heart. So here's like this mind-blowing secret hidden in this passage.

Imagine a lustful man that touches a woman inappropriately. So he cuts off his hands. But then he realizes, man, I can still lust with my eyes. So he cuts out his eyes. But then he realizes he can still say sinful things. Cuts out his tongue. And then he realizes he can still listen to things that stir lust. Cuts off his ears. And on and on and on it goes. And he never seems to be able to cut off the part of him that causes him to sin. Jesus is saying in order to do that, you're going to need to cut out your heart. And I can do that for you. In Ezekiel 36, God prophesies that someday a new heart I will give you. And I'm going to put a new spirit inside you. I'll remove your old heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. Christianity is not primarily behavior modification.

But God still wants us to walk in love, imitating Jesus Christ:

> Matthew 5:22,28,32,34-37,39,44-45,27-28,30-31,35,40 - But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery. And whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. But I say to you, Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply Yes or No; anything more than this comes from evil. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell. It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce. or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. (ESV)

Luke 6:34-36,40 - And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. (ESV)

I Corinthians 4:11-16 - To the present hour we hunger and thirst, we are poorly dressed and buffeted and homeless, and we labor, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure; when slandered, we entreat. We have become, and are still, like the scum of the world, the refuse of all things. I do not write these things to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children. For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. I urge you, then, be imitators of me. (ESV)

I believe that in I Cor 11:1 Paul is asking those who imitate him to imitate him in imitating Christ. He actually commends his own followers for maintaining the traditions that he handed to them, but makes it clear to them that not only is he himself following Christ, seeking to imitate Christ, but that the head of every man is Christ:

- I Corinthians 10:32-33 - Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1-3 - Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ. Now I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I delivered them to you. But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1 (Interlinear) - Imitators (G3402 Mimētai) of me (G1473 mou) be (G1096 ginesthe) as (G2531 kathōs) I also [am] (G2504 kagō) of Christ (G5547 Christou)

Romans 14:4-6 - Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand. One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. (ESV)

Romans 14:14-18 - I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean. For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died. So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil. For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

Ephesians 5:1 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. (ESV)

I Thessalonians 1:6-7 - And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you received the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. (ESV)

Walking in the light is following Jesus. We must abide in Him and so we accept He loved us first, and we must love in the same way that He loves (confess the truth, love the truth and hate evil, laying our lives down for one-another):

> I John 4:12-15 - No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. (ESV)
> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)
> I John 4:16-17 - So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

Imitating Jesus Christ involves imitating His love for righteousness and hatred of wickedness in reality from the heart:

> Hebrews 1:8-9 - But of the Son he says, Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, the scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions. (ESV)
> Ephesians 5:8-21 - for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret. But when anything is exposed by the light, it becomes visible, for anything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you. Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. (ESV)
> Ephesians 5:5-8 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (ESV)
> Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)
> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to (G3784 opheilei; ought to, obligated to, has a duty to) walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

> Matthew 23:28 - So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. (ESV)

Jesus is our example. We can't replace Jesus Christ as the head of His church, though:

John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

Hebrews 13:7 - Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. (ESV)

John 15:12-14 - This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

I Corinthians 4:16 - I urge you, then, be imitators of me. (ESV)

I Corinthians 11:1 - Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ. (ESV)

Ephesians 5:1 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. (ESV)

I Thessalonians 1:6 - And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you received the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Spirit, (ESV)

I Thessalonians 2:14 - For you, brothers, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea. For you suffered the same things from your own countrymen as they did from the Jews, (ESV)

Hebrews 6:12 - so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. (ESV)

Philippians 3:8-11 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. (ESV)

John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

I John 2:9 - Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. (ESV)

Hebrews 12:1-6 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. (ESV)

And as we endeavour to imitate Jesus Christ, we wait for Jesus who delivers us from the coming wrath that is going to come upon the sons of disobedience:

> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from the wrath to come. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:5-8 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

When it comes to following the 10 commandments, we must be followers of them from the heart (the way Jesus commanded).

Jesus Christ's Dad is God, not Joseph, but He kept the commandment to honor one's father and mother. Jesus Christ, Son of God, honored God who is His father and His mother who is of those who "hear the word of God and do it".

> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; _but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

> II Timothy 1:5 - I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, dwells in you as well. (ESV)

So as a born-again Christian, the commandment to honor one's father and mother is applied in imitation of the same way that Jesus Christ applied it:

> Matthew 23:8-11 - But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brothers. And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. Neither be called instructors, for you have one instructor (2519. kathégétés), the Christ. The greatest among you shall be your servant. (ESV)

What about keeping the Sabbath? By the sounds of it, since the Sabbath was made "for man", we should be feel free to rest on the Sabbath. And we should not pervert the purpose of the Sabbath by turning the commandment into a heavy an unnecessary yoke that defeats the purpose of the Sabbath. And we should not cease to do good. A person is supposed to walk by faith and in love:

> Mark 2:27 - And he said to them, The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. (ESV)

> Luke 6:9 - And Jesus said to them, I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it? (ESV)

We're not under law because Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, but only if we are led by the Spirit:

> Galatians 3:12-14 - But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does them shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

We've got to follow after Jesus, obediently, sure, having confidence by doing in reality from the heart, sure, but not relying on the external success (in our own eyes) of deeds for our own confidence:

> Galatians 3:11-14 - Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them (G846 auta; these things) shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

When a the righteous comes before the throne of Jesus Christ, they won't be self-commending, but rather Jesus will let them know when they such things for Him:

> Matthew 25:44-45 - Then they also will answer, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you? Then he will answer them, saying, Truly, I say to you, as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me. (ESV)

Being led by the Spirit, a person is not under the Law and sin has no dominion over them:

> Galatians 5:13-18 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. (ESV)

> Romans 6:14-18 - For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

But rather, we are under grace (Jesus helps us as we by faith in Him do what He has commanded, and as we imitate [but not replace] His faith and love out of faith and obedience to Him and to God). We still are saved by faith and obedience to Jesus Christ Himself (rather than to simply the Law of God).

> Hebrews 12:1-6 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. (ESV)

"The one having completed all of these external deeds will live" is probably an accurate way to understand "the one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them", as if there entire future is dependent on the completion of all of these external tasks. But in doing Christ's law of faith, we should be doing from the heart:

> Galatians 3:10-13 - For all who rely on works (G2041 ergōn: works, deed, action, task, labor) of the law are under a curse; for it is written, Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them. Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— (ESV)

Abraham was tested to see if He had the fear of God in Him. Our faith must be like that. When we talk about "justification by works", it has to be on the basis of faith, on the basis of what's in the heart (in this case, the fear of God), rather than the external deed, otherwise it's no longer grace, but the exterior deed is an indicator of what is going on inside:

> Genesis 22:12 - He said, Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me. (ESV)

Fear of God and hoping in God's steadfast love are strongly associated. Hoping in God's steadfast love and having the fear of God (wanting to please God, not wanting to sin against God), are strongly linked together. And because the faith we have is one which loves the truth of God, having the fear of God and having a love for the truth and a hatred of evil are all strongly linked together:

> Psalms 33:18-19 - Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine. (ESV)

Abiding by Christ's law (Christ's commandments), which is a law of faith (we're not under the curse of the law of Moses) and is not a law of works (Romans 3:21-31), is not being under a curse, but, rather is being under grace:

> I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
> John 1:17 - For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

When contrasting being "under law" to being "under grace", Paul is takling about people who "rely" on the "works" (the exterior stuff) of the law, the Mosaic Law (which came in after Abraham), who are under law. But the law of Christ which we are 'under' (abide in) is a different type of law, and the kind of law that it is is a law of faith. It's about the heart. And like Abraham, we should believe in, trust in, trust, agape love and obey Jesus. And just like Abraham's faith, our faith may be tested and a person may be justified by works, like Abraham's faith and that wasn't "works of the law of Moses" which came in later (to increase the trespass). But we don't "rely" on the justification by works of faith in Jesus, though that type of thing may happen.

Paul in Galatians 3:10-13 is takling about people who "rely" on the "works" of the law.

Christian joy doesn't mean the opposite of sorrow. Christian joy is not merely "happiness":

> Mark 14:32-36 - And they went to a place called Gethsemane. And he said to his disciples, Sit here while I pray. And he took with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly distressed and troubled. And he said to them, My soul is very sorrowful, even to death. Remain here and watch. And going a little farther, he fell on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will. (ESV)
> Hebrews 12:1-3 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. (ESV)

When we talk about ’merit’ or ’credit’, we were enabled to even be able to have merit in suffering for righteousness sake because Jesus bore our sins on the tree that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. ’Live to righteousness’ means walking in the light, walking in love and truth, practicing works that please God, making spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. I Corinthians 13:1-8 says that without love (love that rejoices with the truth) we gain nothing. God loved us first and has chosen us to be a holy people for His possession, and we can now make spiritual sacrficies which God finds acceptable through Jesus Christ our Lord who we are holding faith in and who has loved us first, laying down His life for us first:

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:4-5 - As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Jesus can read all people’s hearts, whether good or evil:

> John 2:23-25 - Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he was doing. But Jesus on his part did not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people and needed no one to bear witness about man, for he himself knew what was in man. (ESV)

> Luke 9:47-48 - But Jesus, knowing the reasoning of their hearts, took a child and put him by his side and said to them, Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For he who is least among you all is the one who is great. (ESV)

> Matthew 9:4 - But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, Why do you think evil in your hearts? (ESV)

> Psalms 139:2 - You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar. (ESV)

> Psalms 139:23 - Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! (ESV)

It’s interesting... Jesus’ disciples also gave a reason for why they trust He came from God. I’m certainly a fallible person and can’t read everyone’s hearts as Jesus can:

> John 16:25 - I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. (ESV)

Jesus was probably answering questions the disciples had in their hearts but hadn’t vocalised. And because they noticed Jesus’ omnicience, they believe that Jesus came from God:

> John 16:29-30 - His disciples said, Ah, now you are speaking plainly and not using figurative speech! Now we know that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you; this is why we believe that you came from God. (ESV)

> Luke 5:22 - When Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answered them, Why do you question in your hearts? (ESV)
> John 1:48-49 - Nathanael said to him, How do you know me? Jesus answered him, Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you. Nathanael answered him, Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel! (ESV)
> John 17:6-8 - I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world. Yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything that you have given me is from you. For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. (ESV)

All have died. Those who now live should live for him who for their sake died and was raised, therefore we no longer regard other people according to the flesh. All things are now new.

> II Corinthians 5:14-15 - For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. (ESV)

Believing in God and believing that He rewards those who seek Him, whilst holding our faith in Jesus Christ, we endeavour to do good out of obedience to Jesus Christ. We want to please God with our lives. God purchased our redemption with Jesus' blood and the blood of Jesus Christ washes us as we walk in the light as He is in the light. Just because God purchased us, that doesn't take away our free will to choose who we will continue to obey. God wants us to choose to continue obediently holding faith in Him, trusting Him and obeying Him, and we want to (John 5:6) do that too because we want eternal life:

> I Peter 3:2 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

If we choose instead to obey the flesh (the sinful nature) then that would lead to corruption (Gal 6:7-8). If we choose to obey sin instead of obey God then that would lead to death (Romans 6:23, James 1:12-15) as sin in the flesh has been condemned (Romans 8:1-6). If we choose to obey Christ instead of sin then we will be saved (Hebrews 5:8-9). If we obey the One True God then we'll receive the Holy Spirit (Hebrews 5:8-9). It's much better to have eternal life and nice rewards from God than it is to be overcome by sin, so we should sow to the Spirit (Gal 6:7-8, James 3:18).

> James 1:12-15 - Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him. Let no one say when he is tempted, I am being tempted by God, for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)
> James 3:18 - And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace. (ESV)
> Proverbs 11:18 - The wicked earns deceptive wages, but one who sows righteousness gets a sure reward. (ESV)
> Psalms 34:19 - Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all. (ESV)

I believe that we have to love the light and hate the darkness:

> Matthew 6:24 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. (ESV)

> John 3:17-21 - For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But whoever does (G4160 poiōn; doing) what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

> Matthew 12:28-30 - But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. Or how can someone enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? Then indeed he may plunder his house. Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters. (ESV)

> Mark 9:40-41 - For the one who is not against us is for us. For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward. (ESV)

If people love their sin more than they love Jesus then I doubt that they would be washed from it. We have to agree with God over matters of sin in order to be cleaned from sin:

> Romans 7:16-17 - Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. (ESV)

> John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV)

> I John 1:9 - If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

> Psalms 52:1-5 - Why do you boast of evil, O mighty man? The steadfast love of God endures all the day. To the choirmaster. A Maskil of David, when Doeg, the Edomite, came and told Saul, David has come to the house of Ahimelech. Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, you worker of deceit. You love evil more than good, and lying more than speaking what is right. Selah You love all words that devour, O deceitful tongue. But God will break you down forever; he will snatch and tear you from your tent; he will uproot you from the land of the living. Selah (ESV)

We should walk by faith in God's word (we should be endeavouring to see things from the perspective of God's word), rather than relying on dreams or relying on "man's" wisdom. If we love the truth then God's light is in us, and Jesus Christ being the image of God, and the Truth and our wisdom, we should be in agreement with Jesus and relying on His word and doing His instruction to have the light of God in us:

> Matthew 6:22-23 - The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light, but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness! (ESV)

> Psalms 119:105 - Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 1:30 - He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom and our righteousness and sanctification and redemption. (ESV)

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

I must have been tired last night <2025-10-08 Wed> as I misreferenced this saying Hebrews quoted Jesus. Rather Jesus quotes the Wisdom of God. But still, Jesus did speak it.

Jesus is the Wisdom of God though, particularly to those who are called by God:

> Luke 11:49-51 - Therefore also the Wisdom of God said, I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute, so that the blood of all the prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be charged against this generation, from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation. (ESV)

> Matthew 23:34-36 - Therefore I send you prophets and wise men and scribes, some of whom you will kill and crucify, and some you will flog in your synagogues and persecute from town to town, so that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of innocent Abel to the blood of Zechariah the son of Barachiah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar. Truly, I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation. (ESV)

> Ephesians 4:11-13 - And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, (ESV)

Jesus is the Wisdom of God to those who are called:

> I Corinthians 1:23-24 - but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 1:30 - He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom and our righteousness and sanctification and redemption. (ESV)

> Colossians 2:3 - in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. (ESV)

As called people, we are to walk in holiness:

> II Chronicles 7:14 - if my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

> Luke 8:15 - As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience. (ESV)

> Luke 3:8 - Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. (ESV)

And we're called to practice righteousness:

> Acts 26:20 - but declared first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout all the region of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds in keeping with their repentance. (ESV)

> I John 5:4 - For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. (ESV)

Finding the Wisdom of God, we find Jesus and find life. Not finding/missing/sinning against the Wisdom of God, we injure ourselves. Those who hate the Wisdom of God hate Jesus and love death:

> Proverbs 8:35-36 - For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD, but he who fails to find me injures himself; all who hate me love death. (ESV)

> Proverbs 8:35-36 - For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD. But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death. (KJV)

The reason we want to be righteous (John 5:6) is so we get God, not that we become God but that we abide in God. To treasure anyone or anything more than God is sin. God rewards us with Himself (I Corinthians 1:9, Hebrews 10:23), so it's righteous to want to be rewarded with God (Col 3:24, Heb 10:35, Heb 11:26, 2Jn 1:8):

> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)

We must be seeking commendation from God:

> John 12:41-46 - Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory and spoke of him. Nevertheless, many even of the authorities believed in him, but for fear of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue; for they loved the glory that comes from man more than the glory that comes from God. And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. (ESV)

> Luke 18:9-14 - He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted. (ESV)

We must do the will of God. The knowledge of the truth accords with godliness (which has a lot to do with having the love of God in us and to do with holiness), and our faith is in God in hope of eternal life. God is faithful (Hebrews 10:23) so we are trusting in someone who is trustworthy and who has made promises that we trust:

> Hebrews 10:36-39 - For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

> Titus 1:1-2 - Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the sake of the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth, which accords with godliness, in hope of eternal life, which God, who never lies, promised before the ages began (ESV)

The type of seeking for glory that is righteous is not a self-seeking seeking. Obeying the Truth, obeying Jesus Christ in actuality will involve making sacrifices, because, for example, Jesus calls us to not render evil for evil but love and do good towards those who hate us, and all of this while remaining faithful to Jesus Christ and holing onto the Truth of the gospel, because without justification through faith in Christ, we can't make acceptable sacrifices to God. And so true obedience to Jesus cannot be said to be self-serving, nor self-righteousness and the type of glory being sought is glory which glorifies Jesus, our Saviour. It does actually say that even without hearing the law, a person who obeys the truth and by patience in well-doing seeks for glory and honor and immortality, God will give eternal life:

> Romans 2:4-8 - Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek (G2212 zētousin; are seeking. zéteó: To seek, to search for, to desire, to strive after) for glory and honor and immortality (G861 aphtharsia; Incorruptibility, immortality, imperishability), he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. (ESV)

> John 5:37-38,42-44 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:54-58 - When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (ESV)

God has works that we are able to work "while it is day":

> John 9:4-5 - We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. (ESV)

Trusting in Jesus we are labouring for this food which Jesus gives us, and it's God's work which He is doing in us, not our "own" work:

> John 6:27-29 - Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal. Then they said to him, What must we do, to be doing the works of God? Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent. (ESV)

> Luke 12:31 - Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you. (ESV)

In Christ Jesus, we may boast of our works that Christ accomplishes through us:

> Romans 15:17-18 - In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God. For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed, (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:57-58 - But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (ESV)

It's right to affirm that we reap reward for doing good. After coming to faith in Jesus we are literally instructed to "do good", to do what is pleasing to God:

> Galatians 6:7-10 - Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 6:11 - And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. (ESV)

We are set free from sin including slavery to anything that is not God, and we become slaves of God:

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> Galatians 4:7-8 - So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God. Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. (ESV)

The Bible says that having salvific righteousness before God in his sight (in his omniscient sight, he can see our hearts and deeds) and peace in our hearts doesn't take much time. We have to place our faith in Christ. Have faith in God. Have faith in Jesus Christ:

> Psalms 78:21-22 - Therefore, when the LORD heard, he was full of wrath; a fire was kindled against Jacob; his anger rose against Israel, because they did not believe in God and did not trust his saving power. (ESV)

> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)

> Isaiah 26:3-4 - You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock. (ESV)

Believing in the Lord Jesus Christ in the heart is how to get saved:

> Romans 3:20 - For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. (ESV)

> Romans 10:4-11 - For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. For Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on the law, that the person who does the commandments shall live by them. But the righteousness based on faith says, Do not say in your heart, Who will ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down) or Who will descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame. (ESV)

> Acts 16:31 - And they said, Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household. (ESV)

> Luke 8:12 - The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. (ESV)

God even hears the words we speak in our hearts:

I Samuel 1:11-16 - And she vowed a vow and said, O LORD of hosts, if you will indeed look on the affliction of your servant and remember me and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a son, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall touch his head. As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli observed her mouth. Hannah was speaking in her h
Therefore Eli took her to be a drunken woman. And Eli said to her, How long will you go on being drunk? Put away your wine from you. But Hannah answered, No, my lord, I am a woman troubled in spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD. Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for all along I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation. (ESV)

Genesis 24:42-45 - I came today to the spring and said, O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, if now you are prospering the way that I go, behold, I am standing by the spring of water. Let the virgin who comes out to draw water, to whom I shall say, Please give me a little water from your jar to drink, and who will say to me, Drink, and I will draw for your camels also, let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master’s son. Before I had finished speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came out with her water jar on her shoulder, and she went down to the spring and drew water. I said to her, Please let me drink. (ESV)

Romans 8:26 - Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. (ESV)

Nehemiah 2:4-5 - Then the king said to me, What are you requesting? So I prayed to the God of heaven. And I said to the king, If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers’ graves, that I may rebuild it. (ESV)

Ecclesiastes 5:2 - Be not rash with your mouth, nor let your heart be hasty to utter a word before God, for God is in heaven and you are on earth. Therefore let your words be few. (ESV)

We also need to have the love of God in us. We need to desire God in preference to desiring what is not God. If people prefer praise and congratulations from men to praise and congratulations from God, then that is desiring what is not God over God. God is the Truth, the True reality, and we should not for fear of man withhold confessing Jesus:

John 12:41-46 - Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory and spoke of him. Nevertheless, many even of the authorities believed in him, but for fear of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue; for they loved the glory that comes from man more than the glory that comes from God. And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. (ESV)

Psalms 56:11 - in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can man do to me? (ESV)

If you are believing in your heart that God raised Jesus Christ from the dead and confessing that Jesus is Lord then you will be saved. God sees your heart and you have a relationship with God through Jesus Christ.

So try to hold these two things together in your heart and make a vocal confession with your mouth if p
Believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead and while believing that also confess Jesus is Lord.

In doing this, it should give a person relief and confidence that they have been heard by God. That message got through. When you do this, it’s like putting out an SOS signal, or calling International Rescue (a reference to Thunderbirds), and knowing you’ve been heard by God and He is rescuing you. God sees the thoughts of our hearts. That’s one reason why the Thunderbirds analogy is cool. In the Thunderbirds, they listen to radios worldwide on any frequency for distress calls. So if you’re in slavery to sin and perishing and want hope for eternal life, then you call out to God like it says in Romans 10:4, believing in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead and confessing Jesus is Lord then your next thoughts can be ”I’m OK. I’m safe. Jesus is saving me.” because He is.

> Proverbs 18:10 - The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous man runs into it and is safe. (ESV)

If a person is holding faith in Jesus Christ with a real faith, one that loves Jesus with agape love then they presently hold eternal life:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

Just keep in mind that we still continue in hope for future salvation, right until we are with the Lord Jesus:

> Acts 15:11 - But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:3-5 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. (ESV)

> Jude 1:19-21 - It is these who cause divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit; keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. (ESV)

> Romans 8:9 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. (ESV)

God has given some assurance to us (by raising Jesus Christ from the dead) that there is a day coming when He will judge the world in righteousness. We should believe this in our heart that God has raised Jesus Christ from the dead. There's plenty of evidence for it. If we want to (John 5:6) be saved, would should believe what God has done. But certainly, we must repent from sin and trust in God, we must come to the love of the truth (that is, love the truth of God):

> Acts 17:30-31 - The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed; and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead. (ESV)

To be saved, we must trust in what is true, we must agape love the truth:

> II Thessalonians 2:9-12 - The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. (ESV)

> Luke 8:12 - The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. (ESV)

To be saved, we must be sanctified by the spirit and trusting in the truth:

> II Thessalonians 2:13 - But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. (ESV)

To be sanctified and thus saved, we must obey the truth for a love of our family in Christ:

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

To be sanctified and thus saved, we must hold faith in Jesus Christ:

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

A lot of English translations insert the words ”at the present time” into Romans 3:26, but I don’t see it in the original text. But it’s clearly linked to and understood better alongside I Peter 1:8-11. We must continue abiding in Christ’s teachings. Yes, we believe that God has put forward Christ Jesus as a propitiation by His blood which is to be received by faith. God has full sovereignty (because He is the justifier) to determine and justify and commend whoever He deems has faith in Jesus Christ. What must we do? What is our duty? Fear Him and keep His commandments. He commanded faith. We must have faith in Jesus Christ. God tests our hearts. The righteousness in the actual doing of the law above (even doing it whilst not having necessarily heard it) is still upheld but there is now the righteousness that is by faith in Jesus Christ. In other words, keeping the commandments of God and following Jesus are not mutually exclusive. And the law still describes what good behaviour looks like and what bad behaviour looks like. But through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, as we follow and place our faith in Jesus, obeying Jesus to repent from sin and to do good and to pass forward love and forgiveness, etc., we can be justified by our faith in Jesus. As we go on living, we keep our obedient believing faith in Jesus, and no longer want to rebel against God’s law. Perfect compliance to the law is no longer the basis of our justification but we seek to not break the law. One of Paul’s points here is that the Gentiles did not have the Law given through Moses. So the works of the Law that Paul is talking about are the works of the Mosaic Law:

> Romans 3:21-31 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God’s righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

We can have and should have a faith that loves the truth, loves Jesus, even if we haven’t seen Him yet:

> I Peter 1:8-11 - Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace that was to be yours searched and inquired carefully, inquiring what person or time (G2540 kairós) the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent (G3326 meta, contingent) glories. (ESV)

”Kairós” is qualitative and ”xrónos” is quantitative:

G2540 kairós time as opportunity. 2540 /kairós (”opportune time”) is derived from kara (”head”) referring to things ”coming to a head” to take full-advantage of.

G5550 xrónos time (in general), especially viewed in sequence (a ”succession of moments”); time in duration in the physical-space world, sovereignly apportioned by God to each person.

In the ESV translation of I Peter 1:11, the word ’subsequent’ represents the Greek word ’meta’ (G3326 meta, contingent), but I think that an English translation would better translate ’meta’ as ”contingent” because that opens up to the reader the potential to be understood in a quantitatively chonological timelessness way as ’kairós’ is also chronologically quantitatively neither here nor there. So in the original text, I think the Greek word ’meta’ fits well alongside the word ’kairós’. It’s not ’xrónos’ which is in I Peter 1:11, but ’kairós’ and so it’s talking about the opportune moment in a qualitative way. The issue, I think, with using ’subsequent’ is that it introduces into the text subliminally an idea that God had to ”wait” for the ”xrónos” time in order to commend the righteousness that is by faith, but that’s evidently not true, and also in the very same verse, I Peter 1:11, it says there in the text that the Spirit of Christ was in them.

Sincerely, in the sight of God, I am seeking to speak the truth about Jesus accurately, and let people know that we should be faithfully waiting for a future salvation, and not trying to give people false comfort with a false gospel:

> II Corinthians 2:14-17 - But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere. For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, to one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? For we are not, like so many, peddlers of God’s word, but as men of sincerity, as commissioned by God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ. (ESV)

I believe that Jesus will judge according to the Truth. Even though my theology has imperfections, I think that ultimately, Jesus will judge according to His word and I’m at His mercy.

I recognize that I am a sinful person and still need God to justify me through faith in Jesus Christ, not of my own works. I think that ”sinful” (i.e. having indwelling sin) is more accurate than saying ”sinner” for someone who God has given a new heart and spirit.

> Luke 5:8-10 - But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish that they had taken, and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men. (ESV)

I do not believe that ’works’ exactly equals ’obedience’, but I believe that Jesus has commanded us to have faith in Him, and to put faith in Him and His blood is obedient to the commandment of faith in Him:

> Romans 3:3-6 - What if some were unfaithful? Does their faithlessness nullify the faithfulness of God? By no means! Let God be true though every one were a liar, as it is written, That you may be justified in your words, and prevail when you are judged. But if our unrighteousness serves to show the righteousness of God, what shall we say? That God is unrighteous to inflict wrath on us? (I speak in a human way.) By no means! For then how could God judge the world? (ESV)

> Romans 3:21-28 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it — the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God’s righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. (ESV)

This is a short preview of where I'm at with my theology. I don't claim to know everything or to have perfect theology:

If we trust God, believing on Yeshua's (Jesus's) name, it's 'typically' but not necessarily the initial act of obedience of a Christian, but it is a vital act of obedience, Jesus having commanded us to trust Him, and believe Him, especialy concerning His name as Son of God, Christ, Messiah as foretold by the prophets, and we are sealed by the Holy Spirit when we do this.

> Acts 10:43 - To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.
> (ESV)

Then we call on Jesus to save us, (usually out of desperation).
Noone calls on a law to save them. We call on Jesus to save us. This is another act of obedience to the Gospel.

> Romans 10:12-16 - For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. But how are they to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news! But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us? (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:22 - So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. (ESV)

> Ephesians 1:7-12 - In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, which he lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his purpose, which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.
> In him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will, so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of his glory.
> (ESV)

Trust, obedience, belief and faith are not really separate things when it comes to believing the Word of God in the heart, and if a person has put their trust in Jesus then they've done something which is in the will of God.

Our faith and obedience are supposed to continue as we are sanctified and are taught by Christ, especially by the teachings He taught while walking the earth even before His crucifixion.

Trust, belief and obedience, and even agape and knowledge of God when they are settled in the heart is what God sees and God is our justifier, and He justifies the one who puts their faith/trust in Jesus Christ, and we continue trusting Him so we are teachable by Him - we accept His sayings and believe Him and are corrected by Him.

> Zephaniah 3:2 - She listens to no voice; she accepts no correction. She does not trust in the LORD; she does not draw near to her God. (ESV)

> Hebrews 7:25 - Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. (ESV)

We believe by faith that we are justified by the blood of Jesus and just get to serving God with agape love proceeding from a good conscience having believed the Gospel and placed our faith in Christ.

We must continue to hold the faith and endeavour to maintain our good conscience with God, and that includes forsaking sin (e.g. blasphemy):

> I Timothy 1:18-20 - This charge I entrust to you, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies previously made about you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith, among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme. (ESV)

Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, He was buried, He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, and He appeared to many eye-witnesses.

In this way did God agape love (treasure/value) the world, that He gave His Only-Begotten Son that everyone who is trusting/believing in Him [may] not perish, but [may] have life everlasting which is to be reconciled to our Creator and His Son, in relationship with God forever, never perishing nor being cut off from our source of life and all that is good.

Even Jesus Christ's commandments depend on the 2 Great Commandments, so as far as I understand we have to do Jesus' commandments lawfully and that means as we follow Jesus' commandments, that shouldn't violate the 2 Great Commandments (Matthew 22:36-40).
That shouldn't be daunting or sound impossible that Jesus' commandments depend on the 2 Great Commandments because we are justified by faith. It should also sound correct that Jesus Christ's commandments depend on the 2 Great Commandments because Jesus is our God, and we must love one-another in Christ as ourself. Those in Christ are one in Spirit.

That means we must agape-love God and agape love our neighbor as ourself. So even when we think about keeping God's commandments, such as to have faith in Jesus Christ, we must be doing this while at the same time agape-loving God and at the same time agape-loving our neighbour as ourself.

> Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart > and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

Agape love is a treasuring/valuing/preserving/compassion love and God the Father and Jesus God the Son should be our first agape love, and those in the family of Christ we must also agape love, and our spouses we must agape love and we are even called to agape all people, but we're supposed to have no agape for this world.

Agape-loving our neighbour as ourself necessitates not bearing a grudge against our neighbour and not taking vengeance - there is no fear or grudge or vengence in agape love because agape love is selfless and compassionate and agape love gives everything and holds nothing back to have a chance to preserve and protect, to save. God would have sent Jesus even if there was only one more person to save. Agape comes from God. God loved us this way and paid the price for us for sin to be defeated that we may be reconciled back to Him through Jesus. And we pass this type of love, agape love, forward to others.

We move forward serving God with hope to see His glory:

> Hebrews 9:27-28 - And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. (ESV)

As we hope for His glory we renounce ungodliness and defend with authority and without hyprocrisy that this grace is for us to be purified. This purification of the heart leaves us with a "desire" to do good works:

> Titus 2:11-15 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. Declare these things; exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:5 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:11 - Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. (ESV)

> I John 4:8 - Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. (ESV)

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:11 - Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 9:24-27 - Do you not know that in a race all the runners compete, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it. Every athlete exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. So I do not run aimlessly; I do not box as one beating the air. But I discipline my body and keep it under control, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified. (ESV)

Obedience is in the heart, along with belief in the Truth and understanding of the gospel.

> Romans 6:17-17 - But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, (ESV)

Obedience to God, doing the will of God, can exist without work - a willingness of the spirit.

> John 5:39-40 - You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; it is these that testify about Me; and you are unwilling to come to Me so that you may have life. (NASB)

> Isaiah 1:19 - If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; (ESV)

> Titus 3:1-2 - Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show perfect courtesy toward all people. (ESV)

> Romans 7:18 - For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh; for the willing is present in me, but the working out of the good is not. (LSB)

This is obvious when we see the commandment to not work on the Sabbath. But obedience neither strictly means working nor does it strictly mean not working. But rather doing the will of God.

> Luke 6:9 - And Jesus said to them, I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it? (ESV)

Jesus said, "The spirit is indeed willing but the flesh is weak." The law can also be followed by faith where it's a matter of seeking praise from God and not from men.

> Matthew 26:40-43 - And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping. And he said to Peter, So, could you not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Again, for the second time, he went away > and prayed, My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done. And again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. (ESV)

Our faith should be modelled on Abraham's faith.
By faith Abraham obeyed God out of trust. By faith Christians obey Christ out of trust while submitting to His righteousness, not trying to establish our own righteousness.

> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe (trust) in God; believe (trust) also in me. (ESV)

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

We're supposed to have joy in our obedience to God, as we obey Christ.

We're supposed to go from agapeing darkness to agapeing God's light, and into walking in the light, walking in God's will, and we're supported by God's Spirit as we are doing this.

For reassurance, we should be practicing love from the heart, sincerely in deed, obedient from the love for the truth but not relying on the success of external actions, but seeking to please God who can see our intentions:

> I John 3:18-19 - Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 3:13 - so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. (ESV)

Sanctification continues as we walk obediently by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, trusting and obeying Him, obedient to the teaching that Jesus and His Apostles have committed:

> Romans 6:15-23 - What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? May it never be! Do you not know that when you go on presenting yourselves to someone as slaves for obedience, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness? But thanks be to God that though you were slaves of sin, you obeyed from the heart that pattern of teaching to which you were given over, and having been freed from sin, you became slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness, leading to further lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification. For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. Therefore what benefit were you then having from the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. But now having been freed from sin and enslaved to God, you have your benefit, leading to sanctification, and the end, eternal life.  For the wages of sin is death, but the gracious gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

(LSB)

We serve the Only True God, the Most High God, Jehovah and Jesus Christ who He has sent - the same God, and we are found in Christ Jesus:

> I Corinthians 8:5-7 - For although there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth — as indeed there are many gods and many lords — yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist. However, not all possess this knowledge. But some, through former association with idols, eat food as really offered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 10:17 - For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who is not partial and takes no bribe. (ESV)

youtube.com: How to Exercise Real Authority over sickness & demons {@MarkHemans} @time: 12 min

> When you use the name of Jesus, when that name is given to you from heaven, and not just when you want to use it, when it's given to you from heaven, there's authority and Jesus Christ is there. When Jesus Christ, when the Holy Spirit gives you the words to say and you speak them, Jesus Christ is present. Why? Because the words that you speak are from above. They're God's words for the moment and Jesus Christ is the Word of God and you are speaking Him, and He comes on the scene. So authority comes from Jesus Christ, not from you. That's a very fundamental basis. So Jesus said, ”Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations.” Because all authority has been given to Him, you can therefore go with authority. It's got nothing to do with you. It's His authority upon you as His disciple. A disciple comes under the Master. The disciple follows the instructions of the Master. You have been sent. ”Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them” And then it says, ”teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you. And lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” Where does authority come from? Total obedience to the commands of Jesus Christ. Go and teach them what I have commanded you. That is the key to authority. It's total surrender to His authority. His authority comes upon you as you obey and surrender to Him. Praise God. So turn to the person beside you and say, ”Just do as you are told.”

At the end of the day, Jesus can do it, even if a person is demonised or struggling with sin. If a person in trouble calls out to Jesus or uses Jesus' name to cast out a demon, I believe that God can save them. If they confess the sin, or rebuke the demon and they really mean it then that helps massively. But godliness and holiness and lots of faith and walking in the ways of the Lord in obedience all help a huge amount in deliverance and helping others be delivered. If you love the same sin another person is dealing with then there seems to be far more resistance to turning others away from it:

> I Corinthians 9:27 - But I discipline my body and keep it under control, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified. (ESV)

> Luke 6:42 - How can you say to your brother, Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye, when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye. (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:21 - Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work. (ESV)

> Acts 3:12 - And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? (KJV)

> Matthew 7:2 - For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you. (ESV)

Jesus is preparing us to be able to stand before Father God blamelessly. Now blameless is an interesting word. It shows that while we might fall short, God sees everything, and is going to bring us to the point where we can stand before Him with hearts that are blameless in holiness:

> I Thessalonians 3:11-13 - Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you, and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. (ESV)

> Hebrews 4:12-13 - For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account. (ESV)

An established heart is one which has been put on the right track:

> II Thessalonians 2:16-17 - Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word. (ESV)

For reassurance, we should be practicing love from the heart, sincerely in deed, obedient from the love for the truth but not relying on the success of external actions, but seeking to please God who can see our intentions:

> I John 3:18-19 - Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 3:13 - so that he may establish (G4741 stérizó: To establish, strengthen, fix, set firmly) your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. (ESV)

An established heart is one which has become dedicated:

> I Corinthians 7:37 - But whoever is firmly established in his heart, being under no necessity but having his desire under control, and has determined this in his heart, to keep her as his betrothed, he will do well. (ESV)

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

This blamelessness involes approving of what is right/excellent. So if we still have issues, but confess our sin, and we know what is right, and know we still need God's grace and are still holding to our confession of faith in Jesus (and I am still holding to it), and haven't turned away from Jesus, I think we might still be in a position of blamelessness. I think it's looks like a transformed life, transformed into Christ's love, keep His commandments, and agreeing with God and walking in the light, walking in the love of the truth, and as we do that the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin. So there's justification first which is the breastplate of faith and love, loving the truth, and there is sanctification which is being cleaned up:

> Philippians 1:9-11 - And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. (ESV)

> Philippians 1:9-11 - And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. (KJV)

I believe that blamelessness involves not being deceitful. We must be cleaned up to no longer be deceitful. We should then lean on God's Word because His word is reliable:

> Psalms 32:2 - Blessed is the man against whom the LORD counts no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit. (ESV)
> Revelation of John 14:4-5 - It is these who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins. It is these who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These have been redeemed from mankind as firstfruits for God and the Lamb, and in their mouth no lie was found, for they are blameless. (ESV)
> Ephesians 5:25-27 - Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. (ESV)

Our relationship with God is based on our purity, not just our forgiveness:

> II Corinthians 6:16-18 - What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)
> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)

Father God is pleased with showing love for people, especially those who the world neglects. Father God is pleased when we keep ourselves unstained from the world, and not in love with the world and not in love with the lusts of the world. We should have agape love for people (treasuring people) and no agape for the world:

> James 1:27 - Religion that is pure and undefiled (283. amiantos) before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world. (ESV)

Being 'philos with (friends with, allured by, attracted to)', money , self, pleasure, rather than ((G3123 mallon: rather [Adv])) being allured by God (wanting to be around God) is bad. But we should avoid those who are attracted to such things rather than/instead of God. We want to be attracted to God, and certainly must be attracted to God moreso than by pleasure, money, self, etc. And we are instructed to avoid such people who are drawn to such things in preference to God. We are to avoid enemies of God:

> II Timothy 3:1-5 - But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self (G5367 philautoi: lovers of self [Adj-NMP]), lovers of money (G5366 philargyroi: lovers of money [Adj-NMP]), proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good (G865 aphilagathoi: without love of good [Adj-NMP]), treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure (G5369 philēdonoi: lovers of pleasure [Adj-NMP]) rather than (G3123 mallon: rather [Adv]) lovers of God (G5377 philotheoi: lovers of God [Adj-NMP]), having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. (ESV)

> James 4:4 - You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. (ESV)

This morning (<2024-09-14 Sat>) I had this running through my head during my sleep and as I was waking up - I love it when God does that. I feel much cleaner today. This morning <2024-09-18 Wed> (4 days later) I was hit with some spiritual attack (including strange dreams) so I purposefully stayed up singing this song in my heart and mind and as I did, trying to 'will from the heart' to desire to do God's will and I was able to beat the spiritual attack back this morning :):

Sermon youtube.com: Unstained from the World: The Battle for Purity - Tim Conway

To let go and let God purify us is generally incorrect. The Bible teaches that we should cleanse our hearts, and it also teaches that God will cleanse our heart. I like the phrase "let go of darkness and trust God" more. See: youtube.com: Billy Graham Messages 2024 | LET GO & TRUST GOD:

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

> Zephaniah 3:2 - She listens to no voice; she accepts no correction. She does not trust in the LORD; she does not draw near to her God. (ESV)

> Acts 15:9 - and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

Christ is reigning until all things are subjected to Him. We must come under the Lordship of Christ Jesus. I consider any so-called god which is in rebellion to Christ to be a demon:

> I Corinthians 15:25-28 - For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For God has put all things in subjection under his feet. But when it says, all things are put in subjection, it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under him. When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things in subjection under him, that God may be all in all. (ESV)

> Luke 4:8 - And Jesus answered him, It is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve. (ESV)

> Daniel 7:13-14 - I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him. And to him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper So if I were to put a title on this message it would be "No neutrality. [There is] nothing in-between for and against (i.e. there are only two options: for and against) - No neutrality. If you're not for Him, [then] Jesus says you're against Him.

> And I can imagine a person coming into this room and saying, "I'm not against Jesus. I don't even think about Jesus most of the time."
> To which I would respond, "You need to think about what you just said, because to be against Jesus is to be against his purpose for your life, and his purpose for your life does not mean you should spend 99% of your time not thinking about him. That's not his purpose"

We have no other Lord, King, no other Master than Jesus Christ, but we serve Jesus in serving each other:

> Matthew 23:8-11 - But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brothers. And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. Neither be called instructors, for you have one instructor (2519. kathégétés), the Christ. The greatest among you shall be your servant. (ESV)

> Matthew 12:28-30 - But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. Or how can someone enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? Then indeed he may plunder his house. Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 4:5 - For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. (ESV)

We don't worship foreign gods. We don't worship other servants of God, angels or demons. We worship Jehovah God, and most Christians worship Jesus Christ as God the Son, reigning as God with His Father - that's totally all good:

> Revelation of John 22:8-9 - I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me, but he said to me, You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God. (ESV)

> John 4:21-26 - Jesus said to her, Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth. The woman said to him, I know that Messiah is coming (he who is called Christ). When he comes, he will tell us all things. Jesus said to her, I who speak to you am he. (ESV)

In Christ Jesus, we can worship Father God in Spirit and in Truth. We In Christ Jesus, we can worship Father God in reality, the way Father God desires us to worship Him:

> John 4:23-24 - But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth. (ESV)

And we can worship Christ, the Son of God in Spirit and in Truth as well because Jesus Christ is also God, the Son of God:

youtube.com: Jesus Generation: A "California Will Be Saved" Revival Campaign {@cawillbesaved} There's a window. You feel it. I feel it. A window of time to swing the pendulum in our nation from rebellion to revival. Young people are coming to Jesus in ways we haven't seen in decades. Could we be stepping into a third great awakening in America? Throughout the last four years, we have taken a bold stance through worship and proclamation, opposing the enemy's plan to corrupt our generation. We have witnessed God save hundreds of lives, bring healing to families, restore purpose to dormant hearts, and free those in bondage. But we sense that there is still a bigger wave of his spirit coming to California and America. We got to be doers of the word. How do we do it? It's simple. When Jesus is enthroned, false gods are dethroned.

I'm trying to side with Jesus over issues regarding the evil which is still present in the world and "hate the sin (Revelation of John 2:6), not the sinner (Ezekiel 18:23)" but rather mourn for them (I Corinthians 5:1-13, II Corinthians 12:21), and starting by first taking a look at my own problems but by no means endorsing sinful things even things I consider I do which are sinful, I don't endorse them for myself either:

> John 7:6-8 - Jesus said to them, My time has not yet come, but your time is always here. The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. You go up to the feast. I am not going up to this feast, for my time has not yet fully come. (ESV)
> Revelation of John 2:6 - Yet this you have: you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. (ESV)

What's imperative is that we have agape-love for our family in Christ:

> I John 4:20 - If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)
> I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)
> John 15:9-14 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

Where loving your family in Christ (the children of God) is absolutely mandatory, the same level of committment to "do good" is not given to those who are in opposition to God:

> Psalms 139:19-24 - Oh that you would slay the wicked, O God! O men of blood, depart from me! They speak against you with malicious intent; your enemies take your name in vain! Do I not hate (H6962. quwt, loathe) those who hate you, O LORD? And do I not loathe those who rise up against you? I hate them with complete hatred; I count them my enemies. Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting! (ESV)

> Galatians 6:10 - So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

> Mark 9:40 - For the one who is not against us is for us. (ESV)

God will judge those that continue practicing wickedness loving evil:

> Hebrews 13:4 - Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. (ESV)

> II Thessalonians 2:10-13 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false, in order that they all may be judged who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness. But we should always give thanks to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

> Psalms 82:1-8 - God has taken his place in the divine council; in the midst of the gods he holds judgment: A Psalm of Asaph. How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah Give justice to the weak and the fatherless; maintain the right of the afflicted and the destitute. Rescue the weak and the needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked. They have neither knowledge nor understanding, they walk about in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken. I said, You are gods, sons of the Most High, all of you; nevertheless, like men you shall die, and fall like any prince. Arise, O God, judge the earth; for you shall inherit all the nations! (ESV)

youtube.com: Deuteronomy 32 World View - There are Principalities That Rule over Nations @time: 17

> Here's just one observation from `I John 3` and `John 1`. You go back in the Old Testament. Who are the holy ones?
> Overwhelmingly, like `98%` of the time, it's members of the heavenly host, the Divine Council. In the New Testament, holy ones, your English Bible will have 'saints'. That title is never used of the heavenly host, the angels, it's only used of you - of believers. Why the switch? Because we are the new sons and daughters of God. We are going to replace what was lost in all these rebellions both on Earth and ultimately in heaven, or the new Earth, the new Eden. You go to `Hebrews 2` where this is the passage where Jesus is not ashamed to call us brothers, siblings. Where does that scene take place? If go read the passage? Before the congregation. Before the council. It's right there in the text. Paul in `1 Corinthians 6` tells the Corinthians who are basically doing everything wrong, he says "Look, will you stop taking each other to court. Don't you know that you're going to rule or judge angels.
> What it means is: How are we going to judge angels? If you keep reading `Revelation 2`, `Revelation 3`, in the new Eden we are put over the nations. To him that overcomes I will put him over the nations. To the one that overcomes I will let him sit on my throne and rule the nations. Who rules the nations now? The fallen gods, the principalities, the powers the rebellious sons of God. Who gets to replace them? Who judges them? Who will ultimately rule over them and displace and replace them? That would be us. This is not a throwaway line in Paul.

I still think that we really do need to have the fear of God, actually, to be sound in our faith. Otherwise people will actually just say things like "God loves our sinfulness too and doesn't want us to be cleaned up but really just loves us as we are and wouldn't change a thing", and that is not true about God because God would change things about us. God's will is our sanctification (it's what He wants). God disciplines us and cleans us up as we trust and obey Jesus Christ. Also, the agape love we have for family in Christ is a "yoking" love which is not to be shared with those who are enemies of Jesus Christ. It's similar to the way in which a married man has certain duties to His wife that is not extended to other people.

Love is certainly to do with duty / obligation and our duties are described to us through God's word:

> Ecclesiastes 12:13-14 - The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. For God will bring every deed into judgment, with every secret thing, whether good or evil. (ESV)

A Christian does not love all people with the same duty, actually, but rather loves all people in the way that God has commanded us to love them. If we have different duties to different people, then we actually do love people differently, but so long as it's in accordance with sound teaching.

God's universal love for people is demonstrated in what He has done already in sending Jesus Christ. But God has also conditional love that does in fact depend on our heart posture towards God. But everyone is offered this conditional love but not everyone takes it. God offers all without partiality but with conditions His friendship and His eternal love, but by free choice some people reject God's offer by not meeting the conditions:

> James 2:8-13 - If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself, you are doing well. But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. For he who said, Do not commit adultery, also said, Do not murder. If you do not commit adultery but do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged under the law of liberty. For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment. (ESV)

I heard this from somebody this morning, ”God wants us to love everybody equally.” Really? And what is meant by that? God doesn't love everybody equally.

In the imitation of God's love for those who hate Him (i.e. sending rain on the good and the evil alike), to love one's enemies doesn't mean that they are one's friends. To love one's enemies is to do good to them and to not render evil for evil to them, and to bear with them in patience, hoping for their sake that they will turn away from the love of evil:

> Matthew 5:43-48 - You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

If someone is ”of the world” and acting ignorantly in unbelief being mean and nasty and greedy etc. then a Christian is really called to ”do good” to them. But if someone who claims to be a believer but is unrepentant and without the fear of God, then that person is very sinful and should be rebuked and avoided, and left to be chastised (I Corinthians 5:1-13).

This is what God's love looks like. So in imitating God's love, we should ”do good to all” but doing good to a person who professes to have faith in Jesus Christ, might look like avoiding them, and letting them receive discipline.

> Romans 13:10 - Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

> Hebrews 12:4-8 - In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:14-15 - We urge you, brethren, admonish the unruly, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with everyone. See that no one repays another with evil for evil, but always seek after that which is good for one another and for all people. (NASB)

To bear with a person, hoping that they will repent, is not to ”yoke” oneself to them. A Christian living ”in the world” would live in obedience to Christ, with love for Christ,rather than with love for the world or for evil.

The ”God loving everyone the same way and equally and doesn’t want you to change” gospel is actually an antigospel that prevents people from receiving the salvation that Jesus bought. Salvation involves sanctification, and God’s friendship and eternal love is for those who fear Him and abide in His commandments with love for Jesus Christ:

> Psalms 25:14 - The friendship of the LORD is for those who fear him, and he makes known to them his covenant. (ESV)
> Malachi 2:17 - You have wearied the LORD with your words. But you say, How have we wearied him? By saying, Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them. Or by asking, Where is the God of justice? (ESV)
> John 14:21-24 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father’s who sent me. (ESV)
> Matthew 6:24 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. (ESV)
> John 16:27 - for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. (ESV)
> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)
> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

God loved all people in the same way, for sure, in sending Jesus Christ into the world. God has demonstrated His love for us in that while we were sinners, Christ died for us. That is true for everyone. But God loves those who love Jesus in a different way altogether compared with how He loves those who have rejected Jesus. God’s friendship is for those who love Jesus and believe that He came from God.

I mean, on the surface saying that ”God wants us to love everybody equally because God loves everybody equally” may sound nice to ears that are not trained to perceive the lie. But God doesn’t love everybody equally, and since Christians ought to be imitating God’s love, then Christians shouldn’t love everyone equally. Father God’s friendship is for those who love Jesus and believe that He came from God. Jesus Christ’s friendship is for those who have learned from Jesus (John 15:13-17) and do what He says (John 15:9-14). Jesus Christ’s agape love is for those who keep Jesus’ commandments (John 15:10). It’s right to say God has loved us. This is correct. It’s also correct to say, God loves us in bearing with us in patience for us to repent and come to love Him back through faith in Jesus. And it’s right to say that to remain in God’s love we must be keeping Jesus’ commandments. A person who rejects Jesus and continues on that path eventually receives the wrath of God. The Christians’ friendship should be for our family in Christ, and not for the world:

> James 4:4 - You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. (ESV)

A Christian should not be ”led” by evil people. And real love loves in the way prescribed by God (I John 5:2-3).

I think Mari would be better to have said, ”By loving God and keeping His commandments, a person loves their neighbour, which is our duty as Christians.” Sure, love everyone, even no-believres, but in the way that Jesus Christ loves them and that includes speaking the truth to them and bearing with them in patience that they will repent. But loving them doesn’t mean affirming error or endorsing a sinful way of life:

Quote from Mari Mari Emmanuel So fear nothing, love everyone, but be firm when it comes to speaking the truth. Truth cannot be compromised. … The one who is all love, He was sharper than a sword; When it came to holding the Truth, fighting for the Truth, He stood firm, never gave way, never compromised. Now that is love. If you truly love someone, wouldn’t you want them to be living in the Truth? If you truly love the person, you will tell them, ”This is right… This is wrong…”

As Christians we must not ”turn back” like Lot’s wife did, and so we must not ”love our former life”, nor the world, etc., but rather take hold of what is truly life (I Timothy 6:17-19):

> Luke 17:32-37 - Remember Lot’s wife. Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will keep it. I tell you, in that night there will be two in one bed. One will be taken and the other left. There will be two women grinding together. One will be taken and the other left. And they said to him, Where, Lord? He said to them, Where the corpse is, there the vultures will gather. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 6:14-18,7:1 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)
> I John 3:13-16 - Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. (ESV)
> Proverbs 8:35-36 - For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD, but he who fails to find me injures himself; all who hate me love death. (ESV)
> I John 5:12 - Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. (ESV)
> Galatians 6:10 - So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

We may love our enemies (Matthew 5:43-48) but that doesn’t involve lying to one another. Love agrees with God. So speaking the truth in love, etc. this is good. But speaking what is false about God is not love at all.

If someone hates us personally then there is certainly nothing wrong with loving that person. If someone is a hater of Jesus Christ, it’s still not wrong to ”do good” to them. It’s not wrong to loving them in the way that God loves them. But the fact is, God’s love for evil people generally is not one that is controlling or forcing them to love God back. And the fact is, we need to love God to live. Someone who remains a God-hater is someone who perishes in their way, even though they were loved by God, because they don’t end up loving God back, they perish.

> Philippians 3:18-21 - For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself. (ESV)

God's way is best. We should learn what God wants of us:

> Proverbs 1:28-31 - Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently but will not find me. Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD, would have none of my counsel and despised all my reproof, therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way, and have their fill of their own devices. (ESV)

We are not seeking to please those who of the world. We are not seeking to please God-haters. God-haters might congratulate someone on denying being a disciple of Christ. God-haters might say you did the right thing by ignoring your family in Christ's needs.

We have to love our family in Christ especially, even called to lay down our own lives for our family in Christ, as Jesus did for us. That's the type of love we must have for one another in Christ. In Christ we are united in the truth and in agape love. True, selfless, agape love which loves Jesus our family in Christ in the truth:

> I John 3:13-16 - Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. (ESV)

> I John 3:15-21 - Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; (ESV)

> John 15:9-14 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

> John 15:18-19 - If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. (ESV)

> I am convinced that these heavenly beings exist (angels) and that they provide unseen aid on our behalf (Hebrews 1:13-14). I do not believe in angels because someone has told me about a dramatic visitation from an angel. Impressive as such rare testimonies may be. I do not believe in angels because UFOs are astonishingly angelike in some of their reported appearances. I do not believe in angels because ESP experts are making the realm of the spirit world suddenly seem more and more plausible. I do not believe in angels because of the sudden worldwide emphasis on the reality of Satan and demons. I believe in angels because the Bible says there are angels and I believe the Bible to be the true word of God.

Tucker Carlson appears to have gotten into deception after believing the lie from Islam that Isa is the same person as Jesus Christ. I hope to God for Tucker's sake that he gets corrected. The 'Isa' of Islam is not the "same Jesus" as the real Jesus.

Acknowledgement To be able to have affection for God and treasure God, and have a desire for God is such a gift.... Thank you John Piper for helping me to see that, and lead me into that truth... It makes so much sense in hindsight. Nothing in this world could replace the gift of being able to know God Himself and have an affectionate, treasuring, obedient, believing, desiring love for God.

Where we used to be disobedient, we are brought into obedience, accepting the gospel, and as we are sanctified by continued obedience to Jesus Christ, we have the hope of eternal life:

> Titus 3:3-7 - For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

> I believe this is correct teaching except I'm unsure if "regeneration" must always be instantaneous. I believe it was instantaneous for me. On 2 April 2022 I was regenerated and saw my regenerated spirit and called out to Jesus to save me because I didn't know what was happening. I was a "believer" before that but very much a slave to sin. Not long after that, about a month after, on 12 May 2022, I experienced what felt like being "refilled" or topped up with more regeneration. This time I had a vision of healing people with compassion coming out of my soul.
> However, being born-again a person still has the flesh. If someone who lives by the spirit isn't walking by the spirit then the mind of the flesh is dominating. But we should be walking by the spirit which is the truth. So, for example, walking by the spirit a person does not call any man on earth their father, because Jesus Christ has said we have one Father who is in heaven. So if someone is regenerate, sometimes they still obey the flesh. But we have to stop doing that. So until sanctified it appears like a person has 2 personalities. One personality is actually the flesh (the man who died in baptism). The other is the one born of God, the one who loves their brother and agrees with God about the facts concerning Jesus such that He is Christ the Word of God made flesh, that He came from God, that He's the Son of God, that He's Yahweh the Son of God, that He died on a tree and rose from the dead on the 3rd day and ate a broiled fish.
> So a person who is born-again of the spirit on earth before their flesh is resurrected is a person with a spirit with a mind agreeing with God but in a "meat suit" flesh from the people who used to be their father and mother on earth who are now no longer their father and mother because God is the father of our spirits and God is their true Father and Holy Jerusalem is their true mother.

Sanctification is the salvation: We are sanctified while having faith in the Truth. This sanctification is the salvation. We are saved through sanctification and faith. This sanctification is sanctification of the heart and soul:

> II Thessalonians 2:13 - But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. (ESV)

By faith in Jesus we are justified and saved through sanctification while holding faith in Jesus. This justification by faith is required for us to continue being sanctified. We're saved through sanctification:

> Romans 5:9-10 - Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. (ESV)

> Romans 8:23-25 - And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it. (KJV)

The type of faith we need is loving the truth, (i.e. loving Jesus, God's Word). The type of faith we need is faith which loves our family in Christ:

> James 2:14-17 - What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled, without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. (ESV)

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

A person with a heart with the right faith, one that loves the Truth, will produce the right fruit:

> Matthew 12:33-35 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. (ESV)

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

Obeying sin leads to death, but we are sanctified to instead serve God:

> James 1:14-15 - But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 6:11 - And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. (ESV)

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

> I John 2:23-29 - No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you too will abide in the Son and in the Father. And this is the promise that he made to us—eternal life. I write these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you. But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything—and is true and is no lie, just as it has taught you—abide in him. And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him. (ESV)

We have family in the Lord which is different to our family of the flesh:

> Philemon 1:15-16 - For this perhaps is why he was parted from you for a while, that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, as a beloved brother—especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. (ESV)

> Romans 9:3 - For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh. (ESV)

We are family in Christ through abiding in Jesus' commandments, having faith in Jesus and agape loving one another as He commanded:

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

We are brought to the point where we do not hate our family in Christ (i.e. God is sanctifying us, and at the end of this sanctification is eternal life):

> I John 3:15 - Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. (ESV)

> John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

Salvation is ”living with Jesus all the time”:

> I Thessalonians 5:1-10 - Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, There is peace and security, then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. (ESV)

Which commandments must we keep? Jesus’ commandments - Jesus’ sayings and commandments which Father God commanded Him to speak. Also, it’s worth learning from the Apostles who were with Jesus. Some commandments of Jesus are divulged and better understood from their writings.

Jesus kept Father God’s commandments including the commandment of what to say and speak to us. Jesus’ words and sayings and commandments which God gave Him to speak to us are what we should keep. His commandments are eternal life for us:

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

Jesus Christ (God the Son) is commanded to give eternal life to those who Father God has given Him:

> John 17:1-3 - When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

From infants in Christ to maturity, people who keep Jesus’ commandments are found in Christ who is in God:

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends > on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)
> Ephesians 5:1-5 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. (ESV)
> Luke 6:35-36 - But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)

So when Paul says ”not having my own righteousness which [is] of [the] Law” it’s talking about Mosaic law and what the Mosaic Law says about Paul. Rather, in keeping Christ’s commandments, particularly the commandment to faith in Him, Paul receives the righteousness from God that depends on Paul’s faith in Christ and is given independently of Paul’s works, so long as Paul is actually and truly and presently trusting in Jesus Christ which would involve agreeing with Jesus Christ, and having confidence in Jesus and in His words:

Philippians 3:9 (Interlinear) and be found in Him not having my own righteousness which [is] of [the] Law but that through faith from Christ the of God righteousness on the basis of - faith

> II Corinthians 13:5 - Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you fail to meet the test! (ESV)

See how here, Paul says that we should test ourselves to see if we are in the faith, and that ”appearance-wise” it may ”seem” to those people as though he (Paul) had ”failed the test”, but he (Paul) hopes that they will see that he has ”not failed the test”:

> II Corinthians 13:1-9 - This is the third time I am coming to you. Every charge must be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses. I warned those who sinned before and all the others, and I warn them now while absent, as I did when present on my second visit, that if I come again I will not spare them— since you seek proof that Christ is speaking in me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you. For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by the power of God. Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you fail to meet the test! I hope you will find out that we have not failed the test. But we pray to God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed. For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. Your restoration is what we pray for. (ESV)

To be sure that we are in Christ, we should be abiding in Jesus’ teachings and practicing Jesus’ commandments and such a person ought to be walk in the same way Jesus walked:

> I John 2:4-6 - Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

If anyone agape loves Jesus Christ, they agape love the Word of God, agape-loves the Truth, he will keep the Word of God's words. God's word is Truth. The sum of God's word is the Truth. When the Bible mentions ”keeping” Jesus' word (I John 2:4-6), it's really stressing not only holding onto/being mindful of his word but doing His word:

> John 14:23 - Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. (ESV)

Yes, we have faith, confess Jesus to others, and hold the faith, but we also progress into sanctification through faith in Jesus and obedience to Jesus, with Him as our first agape love:

> Matthew 10:32-38 - So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

By remaining faithful to Jesus (Acts 11:19-24) and loving Jesus more than any created thing (Matthew 10:37-38) which includes loving our family in Christ (I John 4:19-21) and in so doing resisting sin (Hebrews 12:3-4), we are sanctified (Acts 26:18).

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

We have to love Jesus more than anything that is created:

> Matthew 10:37-38 - Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

Carrying our cross is resisting sin while remaining faithful to Jesus:

> Hebrews 12:3-4 - Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. (ESV)

Any suffering we may receive for the sake of remaining faithful to Jesus and His gospel, that is our cross:

> Luke 21:19 - By your endurance you will gain your lives (G5590 psychas: souls). (ESV)

> Matthew 16:26 - For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life? Or what shall a man give in return for his life (G5590 psychēs: souls)? (ESV)

> Luke 9:23-27 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself? For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God. (ESV)

> Acts 11:19-24 - Now those who were scattered because of the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except Jews. But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who on coming to Antioch spoke to the Hellenists also, preaching the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord. The report of this came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad, and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose, for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were added to the Lord. (ESV)

God has loved us. Jesus has loved us. Now we must love Him back, keeping His commandments, loving Him and one-another:

> I John 4:6-19 - We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

> Galatians 2:20 - I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. (ESV)

I don't like how Galatians 2:20 has been interpreted with "that (G3588 tē) from the (G3588 tou) Son (G5207 Huiou)" as meaning that it's not our faith in Jesus that we need to have as if to place that requirement says a person is no longer relying on Jesus' finished work of the cross. And how people use this reasoning to refute needing to have faith in Jesus Christ to have eternal life, or even to continue having faith in Jesus Christ to continue having eternal life.

I actually believe that the phrase "that (G3588 tē) from the (G3588 tou) Son (G5207 Huiou)" is talking about the life from the Son of God that we can have through faith in Him, rather than as they put it, "His (Jesus') faith", rather than our faith in Him. And I think that using this verse in this way is evil because it contradicts John 3:16, and also because what is not done in faith is sin and we need to have faith in Jesus Christ in order to live.

Some people use the premise that because Jesus "did all the work" that we do not need to continue having faith to continue as a saved person - that if a person once believed they were totally sanctified and saved at that moment and that by adding your own [ongoing] faith as a requirement, it is now faith + works. But true faith in God having a love for God's word, and thus a love of God, is needed for eternal life.

Galatians 2:20 does not contradict John 3:16.

> I Timothy 6:20-21 - O Timothy, guard the deposit entrusted to you. Avoid the irreverent babble and contradictions (G477 antitheseis; opposing ideas) of what is falsely called knowledge, for by professing it some have swerved from the faith. Grace be with you. (ESV)

I believe that Paul says in Galatians 2:20 that the life he has now is from the Son of God.

Galatians 2:20 (Interlinear):

Christ (G5547 Christō) I have been crucified with (G4957 synestaurōmai)
I live (G2198 zō) now (G1161 de) no longer (G3765 ouketi)
I (G1473 egō) lives (G2198 zē) however (G1161 de) in (G1722 en) me G1473 emoi Christ (G5547 Chris that which (G3739 ho) then (G1161 de) now (G3568 nyn)
  I live (G2198 zō) in (G1722 en) [the] flesh (G4561 sarki)
   ^      through (G1722 en) faith (G4102 pistei) I live (G2198 zō)
   ______________________  _________________________/
      that (G3588 tē) from the (G3588 tou) Son (G5207 Huiou) - (G3588 tou) of God (G2316 Theou)
the [One] (G3588 tou) having loved (G25 agapēsantos) me (G1473 me) and (G2532 kai) having given up (G3860 paradontos) Himself (G1438 heauton) for (G5228 hyper) me (G1473 emou)

Also, Jesus said this:

Luke 7:50 (Interlinear) He said then to the woman The faith (G4102 pistis) of You (G4771 sou) has saved (G4982 sesōken) you go in peace

So we believe that God loved us first:

> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)
> Romans 5:7-10 - For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. (ESV)

John 3:16 (Interlinear) Thus so (Houtōs) (in this way) did God love (G25 agapaó - value,treasure) the world, that He gave His Only-Begotten (G3439. monogenēs - unique,only begotten) Son that (G2443 hina - in order that) everyone who is trusting/believing (G4100 pisteuo) in Him may not perish, but may have life everlasting

So we need to receive the word of God with a love for it. We need to receive Jesus with a love for Him:

> Romans 2:9-11 - There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)
> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)
> Titus 1:15 - To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. (ESV)
> II Thessalonians 2:9-10 - The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. (ESV)
> I John 5:3-5 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)

This lady loved much, she loved the Truth a lot. She received Jesus. Can we be saved by love? Yes, if it's love for the truth:

> Luke 7:47 - Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little.

And because Jesus said we must love our family in Christ we must come into agreement with it and actually be doing it:

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

We live by trusting Him and that includes His words. Receiving and believing His words we receive Jesus.

> John 5:37-38,42-44 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 8:2-6 - And you shall remember the whole way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. Your clothing did not wear out on you and your foot did not swell these forty years. Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the LORD your God disciplines you. So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him. (ESV)

> John 4:46-54 - So he came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water wine. And at Capernaum there was an official whose son was ill. When this man heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went to him and asked him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. So Jesus said to him, Unless you see signs and wonders you will not believe. The official said to him, Sir, come down before my child dies. Jesus said to him, Go; your son will live. The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and went on his way. As he was going down, his servants met him and told him that his son was recovering. So he asked them the hour when he began to get better, and they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. The father knew that was the hour when Jesus had said to him, Your son will live. And he himself believed, and all his household. This was now the second sign that Jesus did when he had come from Judea to Galilee. (ESV)

If you love Jesus, keep His commandments. The one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one who loves Jesus:

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

Because God loved us first:

- The Apostle Paul endeavours to know Jesus ('makes it his own'. See Php 3:9-13) because Jesus made Paul His own
  - To be found in Jesus is what Paul describes as the righteousness from God that depends on faith
    - Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)
    - I Thessalonians 5:8 - But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. (ESV)
    - I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)
    - Ephesians 6:14 - Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, (ESV)
    - James 1:19-23 - Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness that God requires. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. (ESV)
  - We know Jesus by believing in Him and obeying His commandments, and when we love and forgive we know God loved us and forgave us first
    - I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)
- We must love because He loved us first for God to abide in us
  - Romans 5:7-8 - For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (ESV)
  - I John 4:9-12 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)
- We must forgive as we have been forgiven

  - Colossians 3:12-14 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (ESV)
  - Ephesians 4:30-32 - And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

- We must be conformed to holiness
  - I Peter 1:14-16 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. (ESV)

Children of God:

- Do not make a practice of sinning
- Love their family in Christ
- Practices righteousness

Children of the Kingdom of God purify themselves, but children of the devil do not. The children of the devil are the weeds (they affirm (Psalms 52:1-5) rather than forsake sin). We must be cleaned by obedience to the Truth for a sincere love of our family in Christ that we may see Him. At the end of sanctification is having eternal life and not being able to lose that eternal life and the salvation of our souls. The "one born of God" (the new creation self) keeps himself (is mindful for obedience to God) and the devil does not harm him (I John 5:18, Proverbs 16:7, Psalms 115:11):

> I John 3:1-11 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

It's evident that if we're not obedient to in some area, for example, if we're committing willful sin or not agape loving our family in Christ then it's possible for the devil to "outwit us". I think that's the case because the person who hates their family in Christ walks in darkness. True faith in Jesus Christ agape loves the Truth and continue to abide in Christ's teachings:

> II Corinthians 2:9-11 - For this is why I wrote, that I might test you and know whether you are obedient in everything. Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ, so that we would not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs. (ESV)

Justification works together with salvation. A person is able to be saved if they are justified. So we need that heart which loves the truth:

> Romans 10:10 - For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)

The faith that saves is the faith that agape loves (treasures) the truth of God:

> II Thessalonians 2:9-12 - The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. (ESV)

Receiving forgiveness from Jesus, having faith in Jesus and loving Jesus all go hand in hand. In fact, someone who truly has been forgiven by God must love in the truth and someone who does't love in the truth neither has been forgiven because if they were forgiven they would love. And notice how the woman's faith is linked with the love she has:

> Luke 7:40-50 - And Jesus answering said to him, Simon, I have something to say to you. And he answered, Say it, Teacher. A certain moneylender had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. When they could not pay, he cancelled the debt of both. Now which of them will love him more? Simon answered, The one, I suppose, for whom he cancelled the larger debt. And he said to him, You have judged rightly. Then turning toward the woman he said to Simon, Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not ceased to kiss my feet. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little. And he said to her, Your sins are forgiven. Then those who were at table with him began to say among themselves, Who is this, who even forgives sins? And he said to the woman, Your faith has saved you; go in peace. (ESV)

Justification is a state of righteousness which we don't commend ourselves for (God commends people for their faith), but which is dependent on us having faith in the truth and dependent on us having love for the truth. True agape love is for the truth (the light). True faith agape loves the truth (the light). A demonic love is for the darkness (for sin. see John 3:19). A demonic faith is a hatred of the truth, and though a demon might know who Jesus is, would not want to be around Him (Mark 5:7). We must remain in the love of the truth (walk in the light) to remain able to receive sanctification by the blood of Jesus Christ. We must want to be healed (John 5:6) to have purified consciences (Hebrews 9:13-15) to serve God:

> Hebrews 11:1-2 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:18 - For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith — that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:8 - But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. (ESV)
> Ecclesiastes 12:13 - The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. (ESV)
> Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)
> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to (G3784 opheilei; ought to, obligated to, has a duty to) walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)
> Psalms 24:3-5 - Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. He will receive blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation. (ESV)

As more evidence that justification is a state of righteousness which we don't commend ourselves for (God commends people for their faith), Jesus talks about those who humble themselves. The tax collector here remained in a place of knowing they still need mercy from God. So I have an issue with those who treat justification through faith in Jesus' blood as though now they cannot do any wrong, nor need to continue seeking to please God, nor need to forsake sin, nor need to keep Jesus' commandments because such assumptions are prideful. Similarly, the Pharisees described here also didn't remain humble. But humility continue to endeavour to be commended by God:

> Luke 18:9-14 - He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted. (ESV)

youtube.com: Is Repentance Required To Be Saved ?! {@ medic4christ777 } I commented,

> It's not possible to "rape in faith", or to "murder in faith", or to "bear false witness in faith", or to "worship a demon in faith". When a person is believing in Jesus Christ, they are not committing sin.
> We repent by changing our mind to go from disbelief to belief in Jesus Christ, and we must not change mind back to unbelief as the Jews here in John 8:31-32 had returned to unbelief, but rather we must continue believing in Jesus Christ:
>> Mark 1:14-15 - Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel. (ESV)
> It's possible to have sin/defilement while having faith:

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

> I John 1:8 - If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. (ESV)

But it's not possible to simultaneously have faith while committing sin:

> II Thessalonians 3:2 - and that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men. For not all have faith. (ESV)

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> John 16:9 - concerning sin, because they do not believe in me; (ESV)

> I John 3:9 - No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. (ESV)

And if a person's body does something they do not want while they are having faith (with good treasure in their heart, i.e. faith in Jesus), then it's not them who did it but it is sin in their flesh which did it:

> Romans 7:17-23 - So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. (ESV)

This lady had stopped sinning because she was worshiping Jesus:

> Luke 7:39 - Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him, for she is a sinner. (ESV)

The person who is born of God is seated in heavenly places with Christ and is not sinning:

> I John 3:4,8,9 - Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. (ESV)

The saved person practices righteousness:

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We can say that we formerly were practitioners of sinning while we were unbelievers but by the grace of God no longer:

> I Timothy 1:13 - though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, (ESV)

> Romans 11:32,35 - For God has consigned all to disobedience, that he may have mercy on all. Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid? (ESV)

Jesus didn't commit sin. While having faith in Jesus we do His deeds which are good deeds:

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

Turning to faith in Jesus Christ and His words and away from sin. Trusting in Jesus is not trusting in sin. Look away from evil and towards Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:19 - But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: The Lord knows those who are his, and, Let everyone who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity. (ESV)

> Luke 6:49 - But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

See this video (seems to be made private presently, though):

- `https://youtube.com/watch?v=BRTki5haWIs&t=102` (youtube.com: Is repentance an aspect of faith, or is repentance a good work? {@ligonier} @time: 1 min 42 sec)

If that video is down/private, here is an article from the same ministry:

- `https://learn.ligonier.org/articles/what-faith`

Those who have faith in Jesus Christ are saved from committing sin:

> John 1:12-13 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> I John 3:9 - No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. (ESV)

John the Baptist also came in the "way of righteousness". John the Baptist preaching repentance is not contrary to Jesus' preaching. So while John the Baptist was preaching the truth, he himself preached to believe in Jesus Christ. In Matthew 21:24-32, Jesus said to some "you did not believe him". Similarly, in John 5:42-47, Jesus said, "If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote of me". So if someone truly believes John the Baptist or Moses then they would believe Jesus. But we must come to Jesus (John 6:45):

> II Peter 2:19-22, Matthew 21:24-32

If a person loves Jesus then they will keep His commandments (i.e. while having a love for the truth, faith in Jesus, a person produces good deeds):

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)
> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)
> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

So repenting to have faith in Jesus, we then have good treasure in our heart and produce good rather than evil.

We must continue in faith though:

> II John 1:9-11 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him takes part in his wicked works. (ESV)
> Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; _but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)
> I Peter 1:6-9 - In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (ESV)
> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas; having believed) in him, If you abide (G3306 meinēte; remain, abide, stay, continue, dwell, endure) in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth (G225 alētheia; truth, reality; i.e. walking in reality), and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

I think there is ”ongoing repentance” (ongoing mind-changing) as we continue being corrected by God; That is, not repenting away from the truth, but being corrected by God as we learn from Him:

> John 6:45 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— (ESV)
> II Peter 3:17-18 - You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, take care that you are not carried away with the error of lawless people and lose your own stability. But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen. (ESV)

youtube.com: The Whole of the Christian Life Is Repentance {@ligonier} Most of you know the story of Martin Luther nailing his 95 theses to the door of the castle church in Wittenberg. The first of those theses was this: When our Lord Jesus said 'repent', He meant that the whole of the Christian life should be repentance.

Who heard somebody say, "Well, I I repented, you know, 20 years ago, 30 years ago, 10 years ago. It's done and dusted." No, it's not done and dusted for Jesus. It is the whole of the Christian life. This transformation, this newness, this difference that is the Christian life takes place only when we find ourselves bowing down to the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ongoing repentance, I believe, means continuing on in prefering God to sin (we love God (G3123 mallon, rather/more than, in preference to, instead of) than evil). And the most core issue we need to confess (G3670 homologeó: i.e. speak the same thing as God about) is that Jesus Christ is God's Son (perfectly obedient, monogenes Son).

> I John 4:15-16 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. (ESV)

If God made a very important judgement that affects the whole of humanity then we better be in agreement with it:

> Romans 1:4 - and was declared to be the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, (ESV)

> I Timothy 3:16 - Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of godliness: He was manifested in the flesh, vindicated by the Spirit, seen by angels, proclaimed among the nations, believed on in the world, taken up in glory. (ESV)

If a person agrees with Holy Spirit that Father God was just in justifying Jesus and raising Him from the dead for His perfect obedience to Father God while we were yet sinners (i.e. God loved us first before we loved Him), for fulfilling the entire Law and the prophets, for being good as Father God is also good, for practicing perfect righteousness, then that is a very righteous agreement a person is making in agreeing with God over it.

Confessing that, we have access to propitation:

> I John 2:1-6 - My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

It's prideful to think that a person does not need to continue on in faith and abide in Jesus Christ's teachings including confessing and forsaking sin after coming to have faith in His blood:

> Romans 11:20-25 - That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. For if you were cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, the natural branches, be grafted back into their own olive tree. Lest you be wise in your own conceits, I want you to understand this mystery, brothers: a partial hardening has come upon Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. (ESV)

> Matthew 18:21-35 - Then Peter came up and said to him, Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times? Jesus said to him, I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven. Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything. And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, Pay what you owe. So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, Have patience with me, and I will pay you. He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. Then his master summoned him and said to him, You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you? And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart. (ESV)

> John 15:10 - If you keep My commandments, you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love. (engbsb2020eb)

> John 8:34-35 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. (ESV)

Commendation from God certainly involves ”endeavouring”, even if it's a ”faith alone” endeavouring. We don't commend ourselves. We seek to do what God has required of us: Have faith in Him and love one another as commanded (I John 3:23-24):

> Genesis 4:7 - If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is for you, but you must rule over it. (ESV)

> Romans 6:11-12 - So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. (ESV)

> Galatians 2:17-21 - But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor. For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. I do not nullify the grace of God, for if justification were through the law, then Christ died for no purpose. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:4 - By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks. (ESV)

We should not turn away from humility, but remain humble before God with respect to commendation, even if it's commendation for having faith in Jesus's blood, and be obedient to God, endeavouring to keep the commandments God has given to us:

> Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 18:20-24 - The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not suffer for the iniquity of the father, nor the father suffer for the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself. But if a wicked person turns away from all his sins that he has committed and keeps all my statutes and does what is just and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. None of the transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him; for the righteousness that he has done he shall live. Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked, declares the Lord GOD, and not rather that he should turn from his way and live? But when a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice and does the same abominations that the wicked person does, shall he live? None of the righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered; for the treachery of which he is guilty and the sin he has committed, for them he shall die. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

We must rule over sin. I believe that as Christians we're still supposed to do this. And God has given us the power win the fight:

> Genesis 4:7 - If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is for you, but you must rule over it. (ESV)

> Romans 6:11-12 - So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. (ESV)

> Romans 7:20-22 - Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right (John 5:6, we must want to), evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, (ESV)

We must have desires that are the desires of the Spirit and set our minds on the things of the Spirit:

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

> Romans 8:5-6 - For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:16-17 - But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. (ESV)

> Romans 7:18 - For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. (ESV)

> Romans 13:14 - But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires. (ESV)

> I Peter 3:10 - For Whoever desires to love life and see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit; (ESV)

> II Timothy 3:12-13 - Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil people and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:5 - Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:24 - And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. (ESV)

The patience of the Lord Jesus in saving us while we hold our faith in Him for eternal life involves repentance from sin:

> II Peter 3:15 - And count the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you according to the wisdom given him, (ESV)
> Revelation of John 2:21 - I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. (ESV)
> I Timothy 1:16 - But I received mercy for this reason, that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display his perfect patience as an example to those who were to believe in him for eternal life. (ESV)
> Romans 2:4 - Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? (ESV)
> I Peter 3:18-20 - For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, because they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. (ESV)
> II Peter 3:9 - The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. (ESV)

So we should repent and come to love and trust (treasure and trust in, cling/cleave/adhere to and hope in) God and hate (forsake and distrust) sin and desire God in our minds and hearts and trust in, cling/cleave/adhere to God's promises, and keep doing that so that we are counted with the wheat and not the tares:

> II Peter 3:9-13 - The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. (ESV)
> Proverbs 8:13 - The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate. (ESV)
> Proverbs 9:10 - The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight. (ESV)

We need to have escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. We need to be producers of good fruit:

> II Peter 1:3-8 - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Luke 3:8-9 - Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. (ESV)

> Matthew 7:16-23 - You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. (ESV)

> Proverbs 12:12 - Whoever is wicked covets the spoil of evildoers, but the root of the righteous bears fruit. (ESV)

We must love our family in Christ:

> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

Good deeds come out of sincerely obeying Jesus Christ out of faith in Him. Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us and He commanded us to love our family in Christ as a must. We must love our family in Christ. The deeds will come from a genuine love from the heart:

> I John 3:14-20 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love (agapōmen) the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

It's got to be a genuine apape love in the heart where there is a "desire" to love which, if true (I John 3:14-20), should translate into action to see the needs of family in Christ and neighbours being met. I find it very difficult to believe that a genuine love of God abides in a person who closes their heart against other family in Christ who need help in order to, say, overcome obstacles they have to living in a way that is pleasing to God. If there is someone, particularly a brother in Christ, in need of the world's goods who is genuinely with the fear of God, wanting to live a godly life but struggling, because, for example, the devil has been pillaging and plundering and destroying and making things difficult for that person, and Christians turn a blind eye to that person, then a genuine saving faith and love for God probably does not even abide in those so-called Christians who knowingly turned the blind eye:

> II Corinthians 8:8-11 - I say this not as a command, but to prove by the earnestness of others that your love also is genuine. For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich. And in this matter I give my judgment: this benefits you, who a year ago started not only to do this work but also to desire to do it. So now finish doing it as well, so that your readiness in desiring it may be matched by your completing it out of what you have. (ESV)

> II Chronicles 19:2 - But Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, wrath has gone out against you from the LORD. (ESV)

> John 16:2-3 - They will put you out of the synagogues. Indeed, the hour is coming when whoever kills you will think he is offering service to God. And they will do these things because they have not known the Father, nor me. (ESV)

Keep in mind that if Jesus is in that person and you don't really love them, then you could at the very least use further sanctification and at the worst don't love Jesus:

> I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

All of us have a duty to keep God's commandments for us, (notably Christ's commandments). The strong [of faith, of obedience, at keeping God's commandments] are obligated to bear with the failings of those who are weak [of faith, of obedience, at keeping God's commandments]. So we should be supporting one another to live in a way that is pleasing to God:

> Romans 15:1-4 - We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. For Christ did not please himself, but as it is written, The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me. For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. (ESV)

> Romans 13:8-10 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

Let's just say there is a person who used to work in a drug cartel and they get born-again and they repent from their sin, and they want to live a godly life in Christ Jesus, but nobody will hire them for a job, say, because of their past, or because of a criminal conviction, and they're being pressured into going back into their criminal way of life because it's the only way they can get money to survive. As Christians, we don't want to be complicit with the devil in pushing this person back into a life of crime, so we should be supporting them to live a godly life in Christ, supporting them to walk in holiness. We must love our family in Christ. We must be the good Samaritan to our family in Christ.

Christians are not commanded to support each other to sin.

The Samaritan here proved to be a neighbour. We must be supporting our family in Christ in their endeavour to live pleasing to God. Are Christians compelled to give to secular charities and to people who are against Jesus? Firstly, Christians are not compelled to give but are instructed to give willfully. Secondly, we can prove to be a neighbour to people who we may help. But if they're not our neighbour, then its not our duty. But we can prove to be a neighbour and if we prove to be a neighbour then it's our duty to agape-love/value/treasure our neighbours. Christians are duty-bound to love fellow Christians and whoever else is their neighbour:

> Luke 10:25-37 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

Kindness doesn't aways come with conditions.

> II Corinthians 9:7 - Each one must give as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. (ESV)

No joke, we must take care of our family in Christ who are in need. It's mandatory. Be the good Samaritan to our family in Christ when they need our help. If a person knows what good he ought to do and doesn't do it then for that person it is sin. If we are to love in truth then when we know what good we ought to do, we should then be doing it:

> James 2:14-17 - What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, Go in peace, be warmed and filled, without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. (ESV)

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

We ought to be supporting one another walk in the truth and work for the truth:

> III John 1:4-8 - I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth. Beloved, it is a faithful thing you do in all your efforts for these brothers, strangers as they are, who testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God. For they have gone out for the sake of the name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles. Therefore we ought to support people like these, that we may be fellow workers for the truth. (ESV)

I think Jesus wants us to "prove to be a neighbour to others", to show mercy to others, even for the sole reason that they're a fellow human being, without necessarily knowing anything else about them, particularly people who have been afflicted by evil (in this case, robbed, beaten and left for dead):

> Luke 10:25-37 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise > a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

We are able to have faith and love for Jesus Christ even before having seen him. Our souls are saved while holding faith and agape love for Jesus Christ. But it's very important to put a stop to willful sin that we may come to know Jesus and arrive at rest in Him:

> I Peter 1:8-9 - Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (ESV)

> Hebrews 12:1 - Therefore also we such a great having encompassing us a cloud of witnesses weight (G3591 onkon) having laid aside (G659 apothemenoi) every (G3956 panta) and the easily entangling (G2139 euperistaton) sin (G266 hamartian) with endurance should run the lying before us race (Interlinear)

According to Justin Martyr, we need to have come to "know" Jesus, and according to the Apostle John, that means we need to have put a stop to willful sin to have arrived at rest in Him. So we find rest at the end of sanctification, or at some point in that process of sanctification where we stop committing wilful sin:

> I John 3:5-6 - You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him.

Analogy If a person wakes up from sleep then they have "stopped sleeping". Does that mean they will never sleep again? No. But when Jesus said, "Go and sin no more." to people, those people may have stopped sinning at that point. Does that mean they will never sin again? Not necessarily. They could. But there is propitiation for sin.

> 1 John 1:9 - If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:1-10 - Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, There is peace and security, then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. (ESV)

And in light of what Jesus said here, it's also important to stop committing sin, because if someone willfully commits sin then that means means that sin in their master. Rather, our will should be to do Father God's desires, to do what pleases God. We should trust and obey God, and trust and obey God from our heart, desiring to please God:

> John 8:31-47 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas: having believed 'V-RPA-AMP past tense') in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

According to Jude this willful sinning is like denying our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ:

> Jude 1:4 - For certain persons have crept in unnoticed, those who were long beforehand marked out for this condemnation, ungodly persons who turn the grace of our God into licentiousness and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. (NASB)

In a very real way, Jesus leads us by example. He cleans us up, and we are suppost to go on seeking to please God, and helping others come to the obedience of faith in Christ Jesus:

> John 8:29 - And he who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him. (ESV)

> John 13:12-16 - When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

I believe that in I Cor 11:1 Paul is asking those who imitate him to imitate him in imitating Christ. He actually commends his own followers for maintaining the traditions that he handed to them, but makes it clear to them that not only is he himself following Christ, seeking to imitate Christ, but that the head of every man is Christ:

- I Corinthians 10:32-33 - Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1-3 - Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ. Now I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I delivered them to you. But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1 (Interlinear) - Imitators (G3402 Mimētai) of me (G1473 mou) be (G1096 ginesthe) as (G2531 kathōs) I also [am] (G2504 kagō) of Christ (G5547 Christou)

Romans 14:4-6 - Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand. One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. (ESV)

Romans 14:14-18 - I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean. For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died. So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil. For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

Ephesians 5:1-3 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. (ESV)

I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

Matthew 5:48 - You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

I John 5:20 - And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. (ESV)

I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

Justin Martyr says, ”Wherefore those who follow Him, and know Him, having faith in Him as their proof, shall rest in Him.”:

Saint Justin Martyr: Fragments of the Lost Work of Justin on the Resurrection {Roberts-Donaldson} And God, the Father of the universe, who is the perfect intelligence, is the truth. And the Word, being His Son, came to us, having put on flesh, revealing both Himself and the Father, giving to us in Himself resurrection from the dead, and eternal life afterwards. And this is Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. He, therefore, is Himself both the faith and the proof of Himself and of all things. Wherefore those who follow Him, and know Him, having faith in Him as their proof, shall rest in Him. But since the adversary does not cease to resist many, and uses many and divers arts to ensnare them, that he may seduce the faithful from their faith, and that he may prevent the faithless from believing, it seems to me necessary that we also, being armed with the invulnerable doctrines of the faith, do battle against him in behalf of the weak.

John 8:34-35 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. (ESV)

Believing in Jesus Christ, that is with true faith, faith which loves the truth, we have the right to become children of God. We are given the right to be sanctified, delivered from sin, to be able to love our family in Christ and practice righteousness:

> John 1:12-13 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

This right is not for everyone, but only for those who receive Jesus Christ, who God has given Jesus Christ:

> John 17:9 - I am praying for them. I am not praying for the world but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. (ESV)

> John 17:8 - For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. (ESV)

> John 17:17 - Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. (ESV)

Even Simon the magician believed and was baptised but it is evident that even the Apostle Peter recognised that Simon might perish. As far as I can tell Simon had not yet received Holy Spirit. His heart still wasn't right. Just like Simon, we must receive the love of the truth in our heart to be saved. Simon was instructed to repent from sin. While true agape love is the bond of perfection, I think the bond of iniquity might mean a love of darkness. Simon had to relinquish his sinful desire. Likewise, the rich young ruler (in Mark 10:17-27) had a love of worldly possessions. We need to agape love the truth and fall out of love of darkness. Even as believers, we need to continue on in the teachings of Christ to be saved:

> Acts 8:13-23 - Even Simon himself believed, and after being baptized he continued with Philip. And seeing signs and great miracles performed, he was amazed. Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for he had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, saying, Give me this power also, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit. But Peter said to him, May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. Repent, therefore, of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you. For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity. (ESV)

Jesus' words are true. As I understand it, probably Simon Magus "had" salvation when he believed and was baptised but salvation is a process and as Jesus says, the devil steals the word from a person's heart so that they do not believe. So a person must continue in true faith. As I currently understand it, we also must not "fall away". We must endure in our faith. Simon Magus needed to repent from sin to receive Holy Spirit and in order to continue on in true justifying faith in Jesus, as I understand it:

> Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)

Jesus said to these believers that if they abide in His word (and I believe that means keep His word, even in obedience), they are His disciples - so a person can be a believer before they are a disciple. But we're supposed to make this transition:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

youtube.com: Post from Ruben Solorzano Hulk Hogan has passed away at 71. Here is a picture of him getting baptized only a year ago, which he said was "the greatest day of his life." He said, "Knowing of Jesus and knowing Him are two different things. Come to Him, He'll clean you up. He's the only thing that really matters." Our prayers are with his family.

I believe that Simon the magician after initially believing the gospel and being baptised needed to continue in obedience to God, continue trusting in Jesus, turn away from wickedness, purify his heart, draw near to God and receive Holy Spirit and be sanctified. We're instructed to "draw near to God through Jesus Christ" to be saved:

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)
> Hebrews 7:23-28 - The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office, but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself. For the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever. (ESV)
> II Thessalonians 2:10 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. (NASB)

I think this reads that we are set free from everything which the law of Moses condemns as sin. So we become able to put the sin to death:

> Acts 13:38-39 - Let it be known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, and by him everyone who believes is freed from everything from which you could not be freed by the law of Moses. (ESV)
> Hebrews 9:13-15 - For if the sprinkling of defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a heifer sanctifies for the purification of the flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant. (ESV)
> Romans 1:29-32 - They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless. Though they know God's decree that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but give approval to those who practice them. (ESV)

The law of Moses certainly does not condemn the fruit of the Spirit. And neither should we:

> Galatians 5:22-23 - But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. (ESV)

Journal <2026-08-21 Fri 20:38> In conversation today I brought up how Jesus asked a sick person, "Do you want to be healed?" I mentioned this while trying to explain that a person must be repentant, and desire to be healed from committing sin.

And in response, the person conversing with me asked me, "What about, 'Do you want to be gentle?'" And I thought about this, and I think it's definitely in accordance with the truth.

I think that having a love of righteousness is definitely part of what it means to have real faith in Jesus Christ, because Jesus Christ is God's perfect righteousness revealed.

And so, desiring to be gentle, for example, is in accordance with that because Jesus Christ is gentle and gentleness is one of the fruits of the spirit (Galatians 5:19-24). Those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh along with its passions and desires and produce the fruit of gentleness.

So sinful desire is crucified by the person who belongs to Christ.

Crucially, the root matters. With the right root (John 14:12, John 14:15, I Corinthians 15:1-8), the person will produce the right fruit. Since what is not done in faith is sin, the death and resurrection of Jesus the Christ the Son of God cannot be denied as we keep His commandments. Indeed to have faith in Jesus Christ is one of Jesus' commandments:

> Matthew 12:33-37 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 15:1-8 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 10:4-6 - For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 2:1-2 - And I, when I came to you, brothers, did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God with lofty speech or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. (ESV)
> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)
> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

Yes, in our hearts we must love Jesus and prefer Him to anything else, and as we hold our faith, God will discipline us (Hebrews 12:4-8) into loving one-another as He commands. God's grace trains us to renounce ungodliness (Titus 2:11-15). So being under grace and getting cleaned up there is discipline, but not condemnation.

However, if someone was rejecting Jesus by denying that He is the Christ, for example, or by denying that He is the Son of God, or by thinking that Jesus' works are evil, then they would not truly be desiring to be gentle. But if we receive Jesus, with love for Him believing that He has come from God, then Father God loves us.

> John 8:42,16:27 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. (ESV)

> I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

If someone rejects Jesus then they are under condemnation, withers and will eventually perish in the fire.

> John 15:4-7 - Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (ESV)

> John 8:23-24 - He said to them, You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins. (ESV)

> John 15:22-24 - If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV)

Having a love of Jesus Christ, prefering Jesus to evil, a person would desire holiness, and would be on the path to being conformed to the image of Jesus Christ (John 14:15):

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

God is a very fair judge:

> Romans 2:1-13 - Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who do such things. Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself—that > you will escape the judgment of God? Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. For all who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 5:1-13 - It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you. For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? Cleanse out the old leaven that you may be a new lump, as you really are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Let us therefore celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? God judges those outside. Purge the evil person from among you. (ESV)
> II Timothy 2:19 - But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: The Lord knows those who are his, and, Let everyone who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity. (ESV)

I also believe that being given eternal life involves them being led into the knowledge of Father God and of Jesus Christ Son of God, because that is what eternal life is:

> John 3:17-21 - For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But whoever does (G4160 poiōn; doing) what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)
> John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

I still believe that faith alone in the heart justifies (Romans 10:8-13), however faith in Jesus, I believe, continues trusting Him even with respect to His words, and continues abiding in His teachings (II John 1:9-10) and this faith agape loves, treasures Jesus and His words.

I think we're not supposed to believe in vain (I Corinthians 15:1-2), though, but continue in faith in Jesus and hold fast (Hebrews 3:1-6) to the gospel and be transformed by His grace to put sin to death, the fruit (Hebrews 12:11, Luke 8:15) we get leads to sanctification (I Peter 1:22) and at the end of sanctification, eternal life (Romans 6:22-23). And I believe that that faith in the heart which justifies will produce good deeds (John 14:12). I also believe in being justified by works (James 2:21-25) whilst having been justified by faith, just as Abraham was. I believe that the justifying faith 'alone' finds its fulfillment in being completed by works, as James says. Even the penitent criminal on the cross across from Jesus I'd say therefore would have had justification by faith completed by his works/deeds:

> Luke 23:40-43 - But the other answered, and rebuking him said, “Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed are suffering justly, for we are receiving what we deserve for our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong.” And he was saying, “Jesus, remember me when You come in Your kingdom!” And He said to him, “Truly I say to you, today you shall be with Me in Paradise.”

John 3:19 connects faith with deeds. Evil deeds come from a love of darkness. Luke 6:45 also connects faith with deeds. Good deeds come from a love of the truth.

Abraham's faith being active along with his ”deeds” is a more accurate way to put this, because as He had faith and the fear of God in His heart Abraham was producing good deeds. That doesn't mean ”works” (i.e. as in ”working for”). So the faith that justifies is faith that not only ”believes” but ”loves”. There is an allegiance to the object of the belief:

> James 2:22-24 - You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works (G2041 ergois; works/deeds); and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness—and he was called a friend of God. You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone (G3440 monon; only). (ESV)

> Psalms 25:14 - The friendship of the LORD is for those who fear him, and he makes known to them his covenant. (ESV)

So if a person is in agreement with Jesus Christ, then they must also have the fear of God in them because Jesus testifies about the world that its works are evil:

> John 7:7 - The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. (ESV)

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

We must continue to abide in Jesus' word. We must continue on in faith in Jesus, in His word. These Jews ”had” (past tense) believed in Jesus but they needed to go on abiding in Jesus' word to be free from sin, and Jesus promised that if they abide in His word then they are truly His disciples, and will come to know the truth and be set free from sin. Jesus lets these ”believers” in him know that if they were ”of God” then they would ”love” him. We have to hear, receive, believe and treasure (Luke 8:13) Jesus Christ and His words. Our faith must be one which loves the truth:

> John 8:31-47 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas: having believed 'V-RPA-AMP past tense') in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in > you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

It's so important to continue holding our faith in Jesus Christ, to continue trusting in Jesus Christ, to continue abiding in Jesus' word:

John 3:16 (Interlinear) Thus so (Houtōs) (in this way) did God love (G25 agapaó - value,treasure) the world, that He gave His Only-Begotten (G3439. monogenēs - unique,only begotten) Son that (G2443 hina - in order that) everyone who is trusting/believing (G4100 pisteuo) in Him may not perish, but may have life everlasting

> I John 4:9-12 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)

Because justification by faith in the blood of Jesus is by grace, it's not on the basis of works (successfully completed good deeds). But obedience doesn't mean "works" strictly. Obedience means more like "willing to work", or "actually doing from the heart" where the doing is a heart thing, which works its way out, and so that means repentance, too, or a change of heart can be obedience and not "works":

> Romans 7:18 - For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh; for the willing is present in me, but the working out of the good is not. (LSB)

> Romans 10:8-10 - But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)

> Romans 11:5-6 - So too at the present time there is a remnant, chosen by grace. But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace. (ESV)

> Titus 3:4-7 - But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

> 1 Samuel 16:7 - But the LORD said to Samuel, Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him. For the LORD sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart. (ESV)

OK, but is justification by works possible? Yes it is. So how to put this... through faith alone in Jesus Christ, in the blood of Jesus Christ, we are able to call ourselves children of God and everyone who does so purifies themself as Jesus Christ is pure, and Jesus Christ's blood washes those who walk in the light with the love of the truth and Jesus empowers us to make spiritual sacrifices that are pleasing to God through faith in Him (Jesus Christ) and Jesus empowers us to fulfill the requirement of the law and all Christians should strive by faith, obediently to Jesus Christ to have the requirement of the law fulfilled in us. I believe that justification by works (James 2:21-25) is contingent on justification by faith. So whilst we can be justified by works (Gen 22:16-18, James 2:21, James 2:25, Hebrews 11:31), it can't be while denying that we ourselves first needed forgiveness from God through faith in Jesus Christ because then that would be not submitting to God's righteousness (Romans 10:3). So even justification by works happens by God's grace:

> Romans 4:23-25 - But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

The Greek says says, ”law came in” to increase the tresspass. It doesn't say ”The Law came in”. Jesus Hismelf brought commandments:

> Romans 5:18-21 - Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men. For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous. Now the law came in to increase the trespass, but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more, so that, as sin reigned in death, grace also might reign through righteousness leading to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. (ESV)

In Jesus' flesh the dividing wall of hostility has been broken down. Being part of Jesus' body now, our earthly ”body of death”, the body of sin, has been condemned, but our spirit is alive due to righteousness. So we are reconciled to God, even while we have a ”'sinful' body of death” because our spirits have been reconciled.

> II Corinthians 4:16 - So we do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:13-14 - For if the sprinkling of defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a heifer sanctifies for the purification of the flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. (ESV)

Now that earthly body of death must still die an earthly death that we might receive our resurrection body.

> I Corinthians 15:42 - So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:36 - You foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:52 - in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. (ESV)

So the wages of sin is death and Jesus has condemned sin in the flesh, and as Paul says, ”nothing good dwells in his flesh”, so that means that the earthly body will die. As Paul says in I Corinthians 6:13-14, God will destroy/bring to an end (G2673 katargēsei: To abolish, to nullify, to render ineffective, to bring to an end) the body. In our hearts with our new spirits we still must continue on in love, trust and obedience to Father God and to Jesus Christ, and remain faithful to Him even though there is a spiritual battle, there is a battle with the flesh. John 11:25-27 I believe applies in two ways: when a believer gets born-again of the spirit (i.e. a spiritual death and rebirth, being baptised into Christ), and also when the living (born-again of the spirit) believer receives their resurrection body (the physical death and rebirth of their flesh):

> I Corinthians 6:13-14 - Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food—and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power. (ESV)

> Romans 7:16-18 - Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. (ESV)

> Romans 8:3-4 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:36 - You foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. (ESV)

> John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never (G3756) (G3361) die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV)

In Jesus' flesh (Jesus' earthly legacy including His commandments and teachings, His passion and death and resurrection), the "law of commandments and ordinances", that is from the Mosaic Law, is abolished, but it's in Jesus' flesh, which we must eat of (John 6:51-52), and we must abide in Jesus' (John 6:56), so we must be keeping Jesus' Christ's commandments and walking in the truth, in the love of the truth, not contradicting Jesus, but continuing to abide in Jesus' teachings in order to continue abiding in Jesus (John 15:10). So when it says the "law of commandments and ordinances" has been abolished in Jesus' flesh, well we must be abiding in Jesus' Christ's commandments in order to have the freedom (Galatians 5:6-26). We must have faith working through love, keeping the commandments of God, to have faith in Jesus Christ and love one another as commanded, the breastplate of faith and love:

> Ephesians 2:14-16 - For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility by abolishing the law of commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace, and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby killing the hostility. (ESV)

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

So we must be keeping Jesus Christ's commandments to "abide in Him" and to have the blessing of the freedom that is to be had in Christ Jesus. So it's definitely not an abolishment of law in a sweeping sense. But we must be keeping Jesus Christ's law and He is the telos of the Law (who the Mosaic Law was a schoolmaster to guide us to):

> Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

> John 6:63-65 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe. (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.) And he said, This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father. (ESV)

Eph 2:14-16 connects to the verse, our body died due to sin, but the spirit is life due to righteousness:

> Romans 8:10 - But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. (ESV)

The death that we died is linked to now having a ”body of death” because sin in the flesh is condemned.

> Romans 8:3-4 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

I don’t see how a person could be ”justified” without an agape love of the truth in the heart.

Could God ”justify by works” apart from, say, hearing the gospel? Let’s say Gentiles who fear God and are doers of the Law of God (that is, they are exercising law-abiding love, see: Galatians 5:14) and they, say, sacrifically layed down their life for another, say. Is that possible? And I do recognise that even if they were doers of the law, we do all fall short of the glory of God (Romans 3:21-31). But the point I make is, God is judges those outside the church (I Corinthians 5:4-13). I believe that the Apostle Paul’s words in Romans 2:5-11 apply to Christians and potentially people outside the church, but God is the judge:

> Romans 2:13 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. (ESV)

For example, if someone, say, laid down their life for someone else who hated them, and did so out of fear of God and out of a heart of love for God and their neighbour, how does God deal with people, who say, haven’t heard about Jesus? That stuff is totally God’s jurisdiction (because God is the judge of those ’outside’ the church: I Corinthians 5:12-13).

> John 15:9-14 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 13:13 - So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Real faith and genuine agape love and hope in God are ”overlapping”. Love believes and hopes. We’ve got to love the Truth, love Jesus Christ, love Jesus’ words, love Father God, love Holy Spirit, love the Word of God:

> I Corinthians 13:7 - Love bears all things, believes (G4100 pisteuei; believes) all things, hopes all things, endures all things. (ESV)

> John 12:25 - Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. (ESV)

Also, justification by faith in Jesus Christ enables us to be sanctified (cleaned up, I Thessalonians 4:3-8) by the blood of Jesus.

The Bible’s very clear that none of us mere humans has been without sin. So we all need God’s grace ultimately to be saved from sin and death and hell. So what we’d be talking about is an imperfect sinner who laid down their life for someone else who hated them, and did so out of fear of God and out of a heart of love for God and their neighbour and God who sees everything saw this. Can a person be ”justified by works” in that way, and what would be the implications of that?

Firstly, I believe it’s not possible for a person to be justified if they reject Jesus. So the agape love must be in the truth. Christ-denying ”agape” love is not real agape love at all.

And if by being justified means ”can receive sanctification” then can a person be ”justified by works” and saved by their works if they have not rejected Christ? That stuff is all God’s jurisdiction.

> Romans 3:9-12 - What then? Are we Jews any better off? No, not at all. For we have already charged that all, both Jews and Greeks, are under sin, as it is written: None is righteous, no, not one; no one understands; no one seeks for God. All have turned aside; together they have become worthless; no one does good, not even one. (ESV)

> Mark 7:27-29 - And he said to her, Let the children be fed first, for it is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs. But she answered him, Yes, Lord; yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs. And he said to her, For this statement you may go your way; the demon has left your daughter.

OK, so we know that God is the Saviour of all people, even of those who have not heard to believe the gospel.

> I Timothy 4:10 - For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. (ESV)

> Matthew 24:14 - And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come. (ESV)

So could God "justify by works" apart from, say, hearing the gospel? Speculating if it were even possible, I would think that it would require a heart which loves the truth, and therefore would be receptive to receiving more of the truth, and would believe, trust in, believe in, receive and love Jesus Christ, and receive Jesus' words.

> John 6:45 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— (ESV)

And then the whole "justification by works" is about works, so those works would have to be doing what was required of them, what Jesus Christ has commanded, even if they hadn't heard the gospel.

I believe all people are given an opportunity at some stage in one way or another to put their faith in Jesus:

> Revelation of John 7:9 - After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, (ESV)

> Now Jesus was a man. He was human. He was not a white man. He was not a black man. He came from that part of the world that touches Africa and Asia and Europe and He probably had a brown skin. Christianity is not a white man's religion, and don't let anybody ever tell you that it's white or black. Christ belongs to all people. He belongs to the whole world. His gospel is for everyone, whoever you are, Scriptures say.

People still have to put their trust in Jesus when the testimony of Jesus comes their way / when Jesus is made apparent to them.

> John 12:31-32 - Now is the judgment of this world; now will the ruler of this world be cast out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself. (ESV)

The beholding is a continued beholding while we are believing. We must not be those who lose sight of Jesus. We must be those who continue to behold Him (John 14:19-21):

> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on (G2334 theōrōn; is beholding; V-PPA-NMS) the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 3:18 - And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)

> John 15:22-24 - If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV)

> John 8:47 - Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

Our whole duty as human beings is to fear God and keep His commandments. God will commend/justify the person who does this.

We're commanded to have faith in Jesus Christ. Jesus commanded a whole bunch of things and as people who have faith in Jesus Christ that means we should be doing such things too. It's not our duty to say we are justified. It's our duty to trust in, trust and obey Jesus Christ. We endeavour to be justified in Him as we hope in Him, trusting in Him, trying to be obedient in all He commanded of us.

Jesus Christ is the gatekeeper:

> John 10:9-16 - I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly. I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. He flees because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. (ESV)

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

> I John 5:20 - And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. (ESV)

> John 14:1-6 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going. Thomas said to him, Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way? Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

I truly believe that God is fair:

> Acts 10:34-36 - So Peter opened his mouth and said: Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all), (ESV)

> Luke 3:16-18 - John answered them all, saying, I baptize you with water, but he who is mightier than I is coming, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire. So with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people. (ESV)

> Proverbs 11:1 - A false balance is an abomination to the LORD, but a just weight is his delight. (ESV)

> Proverbs 11:18 - The wicked is getting a lying wage, And whoso is sowing righteousness–a true reward. (YLT)

I truly believe that God tests all people to see if they are law-abiding:

> Matthew 7:23-24 - And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 8:3 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)
> Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

This makes it it quite clear that we must be law-abiding:

> Matthew 13:38-42 - The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers (G4160 poiountas 3588 tēn G458 anomian; practicing lawlessness), and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (ESV)

We must love one another the way God has commanded us:

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)
> John 13:34 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. (ESV)
> Matthew 5:22,28,32,34-37,39,44-45,27-28,30-31,35,40 - But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery. And whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. But I say to you, Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply Yes or No; anything more than this comes from evil. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. You have heard that it > was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell. It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce. or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. (ESV)

> Luke 6:34-36,40 - And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. (ESV)
> John 8:31-47 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas: having believed 'V-RPA-AMP past tense') in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)
> I John 5:1-2 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)
> Romans 2:13-16 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers (G4163 poiētai) of the law who will be justified. For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)
> Jeremiah 17:10 - I the LORD search the heart and test the mind, to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds. (ESV)

The faith we must have is still law, but it's not a law of works:

> Romans 3:21-31 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned > and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

Since the judgement is that light has come into the world, upon seeing the light of Jesus and His Gospel, we must not then prefer evil (Psalms 52:1-5), but we must change to prefer God because there remains a later judgement for those who do not.

God sees our hearts in advance of the "last day".

John 12 seems to articulate that when Jesus came He didn't come to judge. But that there remains a latter judgement if Jesus is rejected and those that reject Him or His words are judged by Him (Jesus, the Son of God) on the basis of what they rejected of Him. The Son of God does judge. So God is the Judge of the Living and the dead. But the Father does not judge but the Son does judge. But if in advance of "the last day" a person puts their faith in Jesus then they are saved by Him rather than judged. And following from that, sanctification would then involve ongoing trusting in the voice of Jesus, and that involves trusting in His words, coming into agreement with His words, as they are heard:

John 12:44-47 (Interlinear) And if anyone [of Me hears] the words (i.e. hears Jesus' words) and not keeps [them] (G5442 phylaxē) I not (G2919 krinō: do judge [Tense: V-PIA-1S. i.e. presently judge]) (G846 auton: him) [.] not for I came that I might judge the world but that I might save the world

> John 12:44-48 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge (G2919 krinō: do judge) him; for I did not come to judge the world (G2919 krinō: I might judge) but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)

So it follows that if someone is trusting in Jesus and His words as they are heard, then they will be saved and not condemned.

God commends people for their faith. And in this life, even if we are holding faith in the blood of Jesus, we must continue enduring in that faith seeking commendation from God and we must not be like the son who buried his talent, but we should try to have hearts blameless, ready for that day:

> John 3:14-19 - And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than (G3123 mallon, rather/more than, in preference to, instead of) light, because their deeds were evil. (KJV)
> Luke 18:9-14 - He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the > other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner! I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted. (ESV)

The type of seeking for glory that is righteous is not a self-seeking seeking. Obeying the Truth, obeying Jesus Christ in actuality will involve making sacrifices, because, for example, Jesus calls us to not render evil for evil but love and do good towards those who hate us, and all of this while remaining faithful to Jesus Christ and holing onto the Truth of the gospel, because without justification through faith in Christ, we can't make acceptable sacrifices to God. And so true obedience to Jesus cannot be said to be self-serving, nor self-righteousness and the type of glory being sought is glory which glorifies Jesus, our Saviour. It does actually say that even without hearing the law, a person who obeys the truth and by patience in well-doing seeks for glory and honor and immortality, God will give eternal life:

> Romans 2:4-8 - Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek (G2212 zētousin; are seeking. zéteó: To seek, to search for, to desire, to strive after) for glory and honor and immortality (G861 aphtharsia; Incorruptibility, immortality, imperishability), he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. (ESV)

> John 5:37-38,42-44 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? (ESV)
> I Corinthians 15:54-58 - When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (ESV)
> II Peter 2:20-21 - For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.
> Mark 14:21 - For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born. (ESV)
> John 6:66 - After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him. (ESV)
> I Thessalonians 3:11-13 - Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you, and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. (ESV)

We have to love Jesus more than anything that is created:

> Matthew 10:37-38 - Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

Carrying our cross is resisting sin while remaining faithful to Jesus:

> Hebrews 12:3-4 - Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. (ESV)

Any suffering we may receive for the sake of remaining faithful to Jesus and His gospel, that is our cross:

> Matthew 16:26 - For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life? Or what shall a man give in return for his life (G5590 psychēs: souls)? (ESV)
> Luke 9:23-27 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself? For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God. (ESV)

We must be faithful and loyal to Jesus and it's a daily walk:

> Luke 9:23-27 - And he said to all, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself? For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God. (ESV)

A person might question whether or not they are managing to keep Jesus' commandments "well enough". They might even tell God something like, "I'm not going to do it unless You do this for me first." But when testing happens, they end up actually doing what God wants them to do:

> Matthew 21:28-31 - What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, Son, go and work in the vineyard today. And he answered, I will not, but afterward he changed his mind and went. And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, I go, sir, but did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father? They said, The first. Jesus said to them, Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. (ESV)
> Luke 8:15 - As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience. (ESV)
> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

I'm not judging people until the Lord Jesus Christ does. There comes a day when God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus and when we are judged by Jesus Christ He disciplines us in advance that we may not be condemned with the world. I believe I've personally been going through this discipline after getting born-again. There is a final judgement that happens later. So I hope this testimony can be an extra warning for people that they may come to the obedience of faith in Christ Jesus with a sincere agape love for God and their family in Christ. Lord Jesus Christ, come:

> I Corinthians 4:5 - Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God. (ESV)

> Romans 2:13-16 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers (G4163 poiētai) of the law who will be justified. For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 17:10 - I the LORD search the heart and test the mind, to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:1-10 - Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, There is peace and security, then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 11:32 - But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

> John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV)

God can see what we're actually thinking and cares about the intentions of our heart, and He wants us to seek Him:

G1963 epinoia attention of the mind, i.e. (by implication) purpose:–thought.

> I Chronicles 28:9 - And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever. (ESV)

> Acts 8:22 - Repent, therefore, of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you. (ESV)

Jesus is the Word of God, and God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus:

> Hebrews 4:12 - For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. (ESV)

> Romans 2:16 - on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 17:10 - I the LORD search the heart and test the mind, to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds. (ESV)

> Luke 2:34-35 - And Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign that is opposed (and a sword will pierce through your own soul also), so that thoughts from many hearts may be revealed. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 3:13 - each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. (ESV)

> Genesis 6:5 - The LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every *intention of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. (ESV)

Therefore, we should be obedient from the heart to Christ:

> II Corinthians 10:5 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, (ESV)

The reason why Jesus is the source of eternal salvation to those who obey Him (Hebrews 5:8-9) is because people who obey Him are obedient (I Timothy 1:8-9, Romans 6:16-18, Titus 1:16) to Him and a person who is obedient to Jesus has the love of God in their heart (Luke 6:45, John 14:15-17) and it's the love of the Truth that saves (II Thessalonians 2:10):

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

The Kingdom of God is an everlasting Kingdom that endures from generation to generation. It's a real Kingdom with Jesus Christ as it's head (Daniel 7:14). God does according to His will among the host of heaven and of earth. It is noticeable, but one has to be born of the spirit in order to see (John 3:3) or enter (John 3:5) or inherit (I Corinthians 15:50) the Kingdom. And one must be sanctified (Ephesians 5:5) to have an inheritance in the Kingdom, and that sanctification involves exercising Christ's love (Matthew 25:34):

> Daniel 4:34-35 - At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and praised and honored him who lives forever, for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom endures from generation to generation; all the inhabitants of the earth are accounted as nothing, and he does according to his will among the host of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand or say to him, What have you done? (ESV)

> Acts 2:36 - Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified. (ESV)

> Acts 17:24-25 - The God who made the world and everything in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples made by man, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mankind life and breath and everything. (ESV)

> Psalms 145:13 - Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generaations. [The LORD is faithful in all his words and kind in all his works.] (ESV)

> Daniel 7:18-27 - But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, forever and ever. Then I desired to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the rest, exceedingly terrifying, with its teeth of iron and claws of bronze, and which devoured and broke in pieces and stamped what was left with its feet, and about the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn that came up and before which three of them fell, the horn that had eyes and a mouth that spoke great things, and that seemed greater than its companions. As I looked, this horn > made war with the saints and prevailed over them, until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given for the saints of the Most High, and the time came when the saints possessed the kingdom. Thus he said: As for the fourth beast, there shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and it shall devour the whole earth, and trample it down, and break it to pieces. As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings shall arise, and another shall arise after them; he shall be different from the former ones, and shall put down three kings. He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. But the court shall sit in judgment, and his dominion shall be taken away, to be consumed and destroyed to the end. And the kingdom and the dominion and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High; their kingdom shall be an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey them. (ESV)

> John 3:5 - Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter or inherit (I Corinthians 15:50) the kingdom of God. (ESV)

> Acts 20:25-32 - And now, behold, I know that none of you among whom I have gone about proclaiming the kingdom will see my face again. Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all of you, for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. Pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God, which he obtained with his own blood. I know that after my departure fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock ; and from among your own selves will arise men speaking twisted things, to draw away the disciples after them. Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to admonish everyone with tears. And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. (ESV)

I also think there's a difference between entering and inheriting the Kingdom of God or perhaps the measure of that inheritance is dependent on our embracing sanctification and then Jesus glorifying Himself in us. I am trying to understand these things.

> Romans 8:16-17 - The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:5-6 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. (ESV)

All who call on him are blessed with being conformed to the image of God's son from one degree of glory to another:

> Romans 10:12 - For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 3:18 - And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)

> Romans 8:29-32 - For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? (ESV)

> Ephesians 1:3 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, (ESV)

> I John 5:4 - For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. (ESV)

I also believe in the imputed righteousness which guarantees entry into God's Kingdom, and that is by being found in Christ. Being found in Christ qualifies entrance, but not necessarily straight away. If a person dies while a genuine believer then they are guaranteed entrance into God's Kingdom:

> Acts 14:21-23 - When they had preached the gospel to that city and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch, strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God. And when they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed. (ESV)

> Luke 23:40-43 - But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed are suffering justly, for we are receiving what we deserve for our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong." And he was saying, "Jesus, remember me when You come in Your kingdom!" And He said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you shall be with Me in Paradise."

> John 5:24 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (ESV)

So if we confess (G3670 homologeó) that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, God abides in us and us in God. I confess (G3670 homologeó) Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God and Jesus is Lord. I believe I have the right to call God my Father as someone who believes in Jesus Christ, Son of God. I believe God is my Father through Jesus and that Jesus is mediating this relationship for me.

> Romans 8:14-23 - For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. (ESV)

As people who call God our Father, we must love Jesus Christ and if it's true that God is our Father then it must be true that we love Jesus, which means it must be true that we're practicing Jesus' commandments:

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

We believing on Jesus' name, Jesus Christ Son of God, we have the right to become children of God, and also to love our family in Christ, and to be sanctified and to practice righteousness are also mandatory - both commandments and rights that we have. No-one is allowed to prevent you from obeying God, from obeying Jesus, and we must obey God, obey Jesus.

> Acts 5:29 - But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. (ESV)

We're saved from sin by being placed "in Christ" (justified by Jesus' blood while in Christ) and "brought to God" (sanctified):

> Romans 5:9-11 - Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation. (ESV)

When I say "I believe I am justified through faith in Jesus Christ's blood", what I really mean by that is that, I believe it is faith in Jesus Christ Himself (like Abraham, by faith Abraham obeyed, we by faith obey Jesus and abide in Jesus' commandments) and in the knowledge of His words and deeds (including perfect obedience to Father God even to the point of death on a cross, and including God raising Him from the dead) and what the prophets have spoken about Him (it's faith in all of this as well).

> II Corinthians 10:11-12 - Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. Not that we dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who are commending themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding. (ESV)

Just because someone says they have faith in Jesus, that doesn't necessarily mean that they are sound in the faith:

> II Corinthians 13:1-9 - This is the third time I am coming to you. Every charge must be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses. I warned those who sinned before and all the others, and I warn them now while absent, as I did when present on my second visit, that if I come again I will not spare them— since you seek proof that Christ is speaking in me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you. For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by the power of God. Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you fail to meet the test! I hope you will find out that we have not failed the test. But we pray to God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed. For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. Your restoration is what we pray for. (ESV)

Going forward, we must continue in the teaching of Jesus Christ. We must continue trusting and being corrected by God:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:1 - Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. (ESV)

And I believe that faith in Jesus Christ is the means by which I am or would be justified and the way I should live to be justified, and the means by which people are justified but I don't justify myself or commend myself for that faith. Rather, I endeavour to do as I'm asked to by God, and I focus on Jesus: believe His words, commit my way to Him, obey His commandments, trust in Him, believe His gospel believe His deeds, walk by faith in Him, and He is my advocate and God is the justifier of the one who has faith in Christ Jesus.

> I Corinthians 9:8 - Do I say these things on human authority? Does not the Law say the same? (ESV)

God tests our hearts:

> II Corinthians 10:18 - For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)

> Romans 10:10 - For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)

God commends so we seek His commendation:

> Matthew 25:31-40 - When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me. Then the righteous will answer him, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you? And the King will answer them, Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.

Confidence, I believe, comes from keeping Christ's commandments, believing the Truth, believing in Jesus Christ, believing the gospel and loving one another:

> I John 4:6-19 - We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

Continue walking in the truth. Continue believing the truth and walking in love, walking in the truth with sincere agape love for our family in Christ:

> I John 2:24-29 - Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you too will abide in the Son and in the Father. And this is the promise that he made to us—eternal life. I write these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you. But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything—and is true and is no lie, just as it has taught you—abide in him. And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him. (ESV)

Be the house of God, continuing to believe the gospel and agape love one-another:

> Hebrews 3:1-6 - Therefore, holy brothers, you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, who was faithful to him who appointed him, just as Moses also was faithful in all God's house. For Jesus has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses—as much more glory as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself. (For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.) Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that were to be spoken later, but Christ is faithful over God's house as a son. And we are his house if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope. (ESV)

> Colossians 2:1-7 - For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and for those at Laodicea and for all who have not seen me face to face, that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, to reach all the riches of full assurance of understanding and the knowledge of God's mystery, which is Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. I say this in order that no one may delude you with plausible arguments. For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the firmness of your faith in Christ. Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. (ESV)

We need the Spirit of Christ to be in us. God gives the spirit to those who obey Him, obey Jesus.

> Acts 5:29-32 - But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

The reason why Jesus is the source of eternal salvation to those who obey Him (Hebrews 5:8-9) is because people who obey Him are obedient (I Timothy 1:8-9, Romans 6:16-18, Titus 1:16) to Him and a person who is obedient to Jesus has the love of God in their heart (Luke 6:45, John 14:15-17) and it's the love of the Truth that saves (II Thessalonians 2:10):

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

It's an indisputable fact that God's Holy Spirit of Truth goes to those who obey Him. I think it's important to believe this Truth and it's rock solid teaching:

> Acts 5:29-32 - But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Matthew 12:32 - And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. (ESV)

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

Jesus promised He would send the Helper, the Spirit of Truth to those who love Him and keep His commandments and the Spirit of Truth would bear witness about Him:

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

> John 15:26-27 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. And you also will bear witness, because you have been with me from the beginning. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:5-6 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. (ESV)

As children needing adoption we were enslaved by the elementary principles of the world, fearful people, without God (Ephesians 2:11-13), and then we came to know God / be known by God and we then face a battle with the flesh.

> I Corinthians 8:3 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)

There is certainly a struggle against sin even after coming to faith in Jesus:

> Hebrews 12:4 - In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:13 - No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. (ESV)

That ongoing struggle against sin even after coming to faith in Jesus involves continuing to obey Jesus rather than sin and abide in His teaching and do good:

> Hebrews 10:32-34 - But recall the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings, sometimes being publicly exposed to reproach and affliction, and sometimes being partners with those so treated. For you had compassion on those in prison, and you joyfully accepted the plundering of your property, since you knew that you yourselves had a better possession and an abiding one. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:40 - And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. (ESV)

> Luke 6:29 - To one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak do not withhold your tunic either. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:15 - See that no one repays anyone evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to everyone. (ESV)

> I Peter 3:9 - Do not repay evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary, bless, for to this you were called, that you may obtain a blessing. (ESV)

Wanting to obey the precepts of God's Law, by following Jesus' Law/commandments, as slaves of righteousness, we love/serve God's Law. The enemy tries to stop us from keeping Jesus' commandments:

> Luke 8:12-15 - The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe for a while, and in time of testing fall away. And as for what fell among the thorns, they are those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature. As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience. (ESV)

> James 1:21-25 - Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 33:31-32 - And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness. And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not. (KJV)

> Matthew 13:19 - When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown along the path. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Titus 3:1-2 - Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show perfect courtesy toward all people. (ESV)

While the essence of obedience is in the heart, that should translate into action so that we can be vessels for honorable use:

> II Timothy 2:21 - Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work. (ESV)

> Proverbs 28:13 - Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy. (ESV)

The blood of Jesus cleanses us to serve the living God, serving Jesus. Being washed by the blood of Jesus cleanses our hearts and minds so that we can serve God in pure obedience from a pure heart:

> Hebrews 9:13-14 - For if the sprinkling of defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a heifer sanctifies for the purification of the flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. (ESV)

We have to continue in obedience to Christ:

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

> Romans 7:22-25 - For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV)

God knows us, knows the thoughts of our hearts, knows our intentions. We can then just maintain a good conscience with God, pleasing Him who sees everything and there is real reward for doing what please; God, but there is also consequences for what evil has been done. That's what a relationship with God is like:

> II Corinthians 5:8-12 - Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart. (ESV)

Ultimately, when we sin, we sin against God and we ultimately needed God to have loved us first in sending Jesus Christ while we were all still sinners in order that we might be cleansed from our sin as without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin:

> Psalms 51:1-4 - Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet went to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin! For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:22 - Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

Jesus' sacrifice was done once for all:

> Hebrews 9:24-28 - For Christ has entered, not into holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true things, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the holy places every year with blood not his own, for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. (ESV)

Jesus’ body was made an offering for sin:

> Hebrews 10:5-14 - Consequently, when Christ came into the world, he said, Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body have you prepared for me; in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure. Then I said, Behold, I have come to do your will, O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book. When he said above, You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings (these are offered according to the law), then he added, Behold, I have come to do your will. He abolishes the first in order to establish the second. And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. (ESV)

Jesus’ soul was made an offering for sin:

> Isaiah 53:10 - Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him; he has put him to grief; when his soul makes an offering for sin ({H7760 tā · śîm; You make} {H817 ’ā · šām; an offering for sin} {H5315 nap · šōw,; His soul}), he shall see his offspring; he shall prolong his days; the will of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. (ESV)

It’s not possible to be simultaneously walking in faith and knowing the right thing to do but not doing it. So that means walking by faith involves endeavouring to maintain a good conscience with God:

> James 4:17 - So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin. (ESV)

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 4:3-4 - But to me it is a very small thing that I may be examined by you, or by any human court; in fact, I do not even examine myself. For I am conscious of nothing against myself, yet I am not by this acquitted; but the one who examines me is the Lord. (NASB)

We must ”walk in the light” (love in the truth, love in the light, love in actuality, from the heart). We can’t love in truth while denying Christ, for example (John 3:14-19, I John 4:1-3). And we can’t love in the truth while hating our family in Christ (I John 3:14-20). We love because God loved us first (I John 4:6-19). Loving in the truth also means that it is out of faith in the truth (Romans 14:23), out of sincere love for God (I Corinthians 16:22), endeavouring to do what God wants us to do, seeking to please God (Hebrews 11:6, Romans 8:3-10, Hebrews 11:6, Galatians 1:1-10), in the truth (accepting God loved us first, II John 1:1-3), unlike a whitewashed-wall Pharisee who doesn’t do their works from a truly obedient heart (I Peter 2:6-9).

> Proverbs 26:23 - Like the glaze covering an earthen vessel are fervent lips with an evil heart. (ESV)

> Proverbs 26:24 - Whoever hates disguises himself with his lips and harbors deceit in his heart; (ESV)

> Psalms 81:12-15 - So I gave them up to their stubborn hearts to follow their own devices. If only My people would listen to Me, if Israel would follow My ways, how soon I would subdue their enemies and turn My hand against their foes! Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever. (engbsb2020eb)

Good deeds come out of sincerely obeying Jesus Christ out of faith in Him. Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us and He commanded us to love our family in Christ as a must. We must love our family in Christ. The deeds will come from a genuine love in the truth from the heart:

> I John 3:14-20 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love (agapōmen) the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:6-9 - For it stands in Scripture: Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame. So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe, The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, and A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense. They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (ESV)

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

Having our mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is not a spiritual mindedness, and succumbs to ungodly fear, for example, like when Peter denied Jesus (if Peter had more fear of God in that moment, rather than ungodly fear, then maybe Peter would have feared God more than getting in trouble with the Romans), or succumbs to lies for example, i.e. the flesh doesn't agree with the Truth about God. But we set our minds on the spirit, being spiritually minded and we are able to fulfill the requirement of the law as we do so.

> I think Walder Marshall's The Gospel Mystery of Sanctification says it this way, that "you need the comforts of the Gospel in order to fulfill the law". So that's pretty much what I would say too.

In fact, if we start calling on God as our Father, then we have an obligation to think and act like children of God, and God will chastise us and discipline us to clean us up, and Christ may/will judge us and discipline us that we may not be condemned along with the world:

> John 1:12 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, (ESV)

> Hebrews 12:4-8 - In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. (ESV)

> Proverbs 3:11-12 - My son, do not despise the LORD's discipline or be weary of his reproof, for the LORD reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 11:32 - But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

> Ephesians 2:11-13 - Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called the uncircumcision by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands— remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. (ESV)

Getting born-again, there is our new identity and reality that we must live in and walk out, even while those around you are still walking by the flesh. Jesus calls us out, and we must remain faithful to Jesus Christ first and foremost:

> Galatians 5:25 - If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. (ESV)
> Psalms 27:10 - For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the LORD will take me in. (ESV)
> Matthew 10:32-38 - So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)
> I John 3:13-16 - Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. (ESV)
> John 15:18-19 - If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. (ESV)

We trust Christ and receive the promise. By faith we trust and obey Christ and receive the promise:

> Galatians 3:22-9 - But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. (ESV)
> Galatians 4:1-9 - I mean that the heir, as long as he is a child, is no different from a slave, though he is the owner of everything, but he is under guardians and managers until the date set by his father. In the same way we also, when we were children, were enslaved to the elementary principles of the world. But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God. Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? (ESV)
> I Corinthians 8:3 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)

In trusting Jesus Christ and His words, and obeying His commandments we are led by His Spirit. By faith we trust and obey Jesus Christ to call no man on earth our Father, for we believe Jesus that we have one Father who is in heaven:

> Romans 8:14-17 - For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)
> Hebrews 11:24-25 - By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. (ESV)
> Matthew 23:9 - And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. (ESV)
> I John 5:20 - And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. (ESV)

We must want (agape love, treasure the light) to be healed / sanctified, want to have purified consciences (Hebrews 9:13-15) to serve God and walk in holiness:

> John 5:6 - When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, Do you want to be healed? (ESV)
> Luke 1:73-75 - the oath that he swore to our father Abraham, to grant us that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all our days. (ESV)

> John 5:6-15 - When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, Do you want to be healed? The sick man answered him, Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, and while I am going another steps down before me. Jesus said to him, Get up, take up your bed, and walk. And at once the man was healed, and he took up his bed and walked. Now that day was the Sabbath. So the Jews said to the man who had been healed, It is the Sabbath, and it is not lawful for you to take up your bed. But he answered them, The man who healed me, that man said to me, Take up your bed, and walk. They asked him, Who is the man who said to you, Take up your bed and walk? Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in the place. Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you. The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him. > Ezekiel 18:26-28 - When a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice, he shall die for it; for the injustice that he has done he shall die. Again, when a wicked person turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he shall save his life. Because he considered and turned away from all the transgressions that he had committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die. (ESV)
> Ezekiel 37:23 - They shall not defile themselves anymore with their idols and their detestable things, or with any of their transgressions. But I will save them from all the backslidings in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. (ESV)

We live according to the Spirit and set our mind on the Spirit, and conform to Christ's image, abiding in Christ's teachings including commandments, and have no fear as we follow Jesus. Jesus has made it possible to overcome the world and to live in the Truth, obeying Him instead of obeying fears that worldly people have:

> Romans 8:1-17 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

God did what we could not in order that we might love the way He wants us to love:

> Romans 8:3-4 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

The just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us. We need to die to the law and trust and obey Jesus Christ to fulfill the law:

> Romans 13:8 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (ESV)
> Galatians 5:14 - For the whole law is fulfilled in one word (G3056 logō): You shall love your neighbor as yourself. (ESV)
> Romans 8:7-11 - For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. (ESV)

youtube.com: The most * MISUNDERSTOOD * verse in the Bible ... {@ LakepointeChurch } This is the most misunderstood Bible verse in the whole New Testament. Matthew 5. If your right eye caused you to sin, gouge it out. If your right hand caused you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. Now, for years as a pastor, I taught that Jesus was just using hyperbole to tell us to take sin so seriously that we were willing to like commit a radical amputation of anything in our life that causes us to sin. While that's true, the meaning is deeper and it is mind-blowing. Here's the clue. So in the verse immediately before Jesus mentions another body part when he says if anybody lusts they've committed adultery in their heart and the whole purpose of the sermon on the mount is that actions are just like fruit that grow from the tree of the heart. So here's like this mind-blowing secret hidden in this passage.

Imagine a lustful man that touches a woman inappropriately. So he cuts off his hands. But then he realizes, man, I can still lust with my eyes. So he cuts out his eyes. But then he realizes he can still say sinful things. Cuts out his tongue. And then he realizes he can still listen to things that stir lust. Cuts off his ears. And on and on and on it goes. And he never seems to be able to cut off the part of him that causes him to sin. Jesus is saying in order to do that, you're going to need to cut out your heart. And I can do that for you. In Ezekiel 36, God prophesies that someday a new heart I will give you. And I'm going to put a new spirit inside you. I'll remove your old heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. Christianity is not primarily behavior modification.

youtube.com: John Piper and Tim Keller Wrestle with Sanctification {@desiringGod} @time: 2 min 9 se

I think Walder Marshall's The Gospel Mystery of Sanctification says it this way, that "you need the comforts of the Gospel in order to fulfill the law". So that's pretty much what I would say too.

> Matthew 6:31-33 - Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. (ESV)

Jesus has many commandments but among the most important is to believe who He is: Son of God, Christ, Messiah. Otherwise, as He said…

> John 8:24 - I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins. (ESV)

To be known by God, we have to love God:

> I Corinthians 8:2-3 - If anyone imagines that he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know. But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

We must have faith in, love and obey Jesus:

> Matthew 7:21-24 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)

> II Timothy 4:18 - The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

We must love Jesus:

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

We must love God:

> Psalms 91:14-16 - Because he holds fast to me in love, I will deliver him; I will protect him, because he knows my name. When he calls to me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him. With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation. (ESV)

We must be people who love with agape love in order to say we know God, and essentially, this love comes from God. We know the love God has for us and we love one another:

> John 10:14-16 - I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. (ESV)

We want Jesus, so we should treasure Jesus:

> Psalms 37:4 - Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:21 - For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. (ESV)

Jesus must be our number 1 heart's desire. If we treasure Jesus and His words and deeds, and are obediently turning from our sin, confessing sin as sin and confessing our sin as sin as we go along (i.e. we are being corrected by obedience to the Truth, walking in the light), then we should not feel unworthy to be able to come to church.

We must want (agape love, treasure the light) to be healed / sanctified, want to have purified consciences (Hebrews 9:13-15) to serve God and walk in holiness:

> John 5:6 - When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, Do you want to be healed? (ESV)

And yes, John 5:6 is a matter of wanting to be healed and of continuing on walking in holiness, putting a stop to committing sin, continuing on forsaking sin. Sin is spiritually very destructive. God is prepared to heal us, but I believe we have to want to be clean and we should also stop committing sin so that nothing worse happens to us. We are healed through faith in Jesus, through faith in His blood, through faith in His name and I believe that sanctification involves faith and repentance from sin and wanting to be clean:

> John 5:6-15 - When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, Do you want to be healed? The sick man answered him, Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, and while I am going another steps down before me. Jesus said to him, Get up, take up your bed, and walk. And at once the man was healed, and he took up his bed and walked. Now that day was the Sabbath. So the Jews said to the man who had been healed, It is the Sabbath, and it is not lawful for you to take up your bed. But he answered them, The man who healed me, that man said to me, Take up your bed, and walk. They asked him, Who is the man who said to you, Take up your bed and walk? Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in the place. Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you. The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him. (ESV)

If we admit we are great sinners in need of a great Saviour with an attitude of love for Jesus, then you'd be amongst fellow believers who also know they are great sinners in need of a great Saviour with an attitude of love for Jesus:

> Matthew 10:37 - Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

This purification of the heart leaves us with a "desire" to do good works:

> Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

We must also be repentant from sin to be allowed to continue coming to church. That's discipline. And we are disciplined by God:

> I Corinthians 5:1-13 - It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you. For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? Cleanse out the old leaven that you may be a new lump, as you really are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Let us therefore celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? God judges those outside. Purge the evil person from among you. (ESV)

It's in the truth also that we must repent of wickedness:

> II Corinthians 12:21 - I fear that when I come again my God may humble me before you, and I may have to mourn over many of those who sinned earlier and have not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality, and sensuality that they have practiced. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 13:1-9 - This is the third time I am coming to you. Every charge must be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses. I warned those who sinned before and all the others, and I warn them now while absent, as I did when present on my second visit, that if I come again I will not spare them— since you seek proof that Christ is speaking in me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you. For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by the power of God. Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you fail to meet the test! I hope you will find out that we have not failed the test. But we pray to God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed. For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. Your restoration is what we pray for. (ESV)

Whoever trusts in the the Son has the Father also:

> John 12:44 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. (ESV)
> I John 2:23 - No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. (ESV)

Whoever follows Jesus, follows God:

> John 10:27-28 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. (ESV)

We MUST agape (treasuring) love Jesus and the other children of God:

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

> I John 5:1-2 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

We come to know God, the love God has for us, practicing righteousness, loving our family in Christ, putting sin to death. Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works but is quite related. Obedience is a heart attitude. Disobedient people are unfit for any good work:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> I John 4:8-10 - Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (ESV)

> Romans 12:17-19 - Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 4:3-8 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 8:2-6 - And you shall remember the whole way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. Your clothing did not wear out on you and your foot did not swell these forty years. Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the LORD your God disciplines you. So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him. (ESV)

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus' name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God's ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth.

> Luke 5:30-32 - And the Pharisees and their scribes grumbled at his disciples, saying, Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners? And Jesus answered them, Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. (ESV)

This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood so that we can inherit in the Kingdom of God:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

> II Thessalonians 1:3 - We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing. (ESV)

Those who confess (G3670 homologeó) that Jesus is the Son of God abides in God and God in Him. Whoever abides in agape love abides in God and God abides in Him.

> I John 4:15-16 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. (ESV)

You can't have real agape love while denying the truth:

> I John 2:22 - Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. (ESV)

> I John 4:3 - and every spirit that does not confess (G3670 homologeó, confess, acknowledge, agree with) Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

We must love in the truth:

> II John 1:1-4 - The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all who know the truth, because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever: Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love. I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 33:31-32 - So My people come to you as usual, sit before you, and hear your words; but they do not put them into practice. Although they express love with their mouths, their hearts pursue dishonest gain. Indeed, you are to them like a singer of love songs with a beautiful voice, who skillfully plays an instrument. They hear your words but do not put them into practice. (engbsb2020eb)

youtube.com: The Deception Behind the Saying: God is Love {@DerekPrinceMinistries} @time: 5 min 9

> I agree that love is the greatest thing. But the trouble is that people are not always clear about the nature of love as it is described in the New Testament. First of all, love in us is expressed in obedience to the Lord. Any kind of love that does not result in obedience is unscriptural love. In John 14:15 Jesus said to His disciples: ”If you love Me, keep My commandments.” Or in a perhaps better text, ”...you will keep my commandments.” In other words, what is the evidence that you love Him? The evidence is keeping His commandments. Then in verse 21 (John 14:12), the first part, Jesus says: ”He who has My commandments and keeps them, it is he who loves Me...” And in 1 John 5:3 it says: For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments...”
> Therefore, any kind of love that does not result in the obedience to the will of God revealed in His word, it is not scriptural love. It’s a counterfeit, a substitute for the real thing.
> Then we need to consider the way that God expresses His love toward us. True, God is our Father and He loves us. But as a Father, if necessary, He is prepared to discipline us. In the messages to the seven churches depicted in Revelation, I would say that Laodicea is probably the one that corresponds most closely to the contemporary church in the West. And to that church the Lord said: ”As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent.” So God’s love is not sloppy. It’s not sentimental. It is right down to earth. If we are straying from His ways and if we are disobedient, His love is expressed in rebuking us and chastening us, and He commands us to repent.
> Once again we have the problem of trying to get what God promises, but bypassing the basic condition of repentance which is a deception. I recently read the following comment by a British Bible teacher. ”Some Christians take the text ”God is love” and turn it around to mean ”Love is God.” In other words, nothing can be wrong if it is rooted in love. However, any love that comes between us and God is an illegitimate love. Likewise, any love that diverts us from obedience to God’s word is illegitimate.

It’s perfect self-humbling obedience throughout His sinless life as He walked the earth in the flesh that only Jesus Christ has reached, was able to reach and was destined to reach:

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 15:45 - Thus it is written, The first man Adam became a living being; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. (ESV)

We must be in agreement with the Truth that Jesus never sinned and that He was full of God’s perfect Holy Spirit and that God’s Holy Spirit is God and is Good and is pure:

> Luke 4:1 - And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness (ESV)
> Luke 12:10 - And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. (ESV)
> Mark 3:28-30 - Truly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the children of man, and whatever blasphemies they utter, but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin— for they had said, He has an unclean spirit. (ESV)
> Matthew 12:31-33 - Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. (ESV)

Jesus’ perfect soul was made an offering for sin:

> Isaiah 53:10 - Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him; he has put him to grief; when his soul makes an offering for sin ({H7760 tā · śîm; You make} {H817 ’ā · šām; an offering for sin} {H5315 nap · šōw,; His soul}), he shall see his offspring; he shall prolong his days; the will of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. (ESV)

> Romans 8:11 - If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. (ESV)

Turn away from sin (repent from it) and receive the Word of God in your heart, which is able to save your souls:

> James 1:21-25 - Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)

We are instructed to repent from (confess and forsake) sin both before (James 1:21-25) and after (Romans 8:13) receiving the Spirit:

> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

Even Simon the magician believed and was baptised but it is evident that even the Apostle Peter recognised that Simon might perish. As far as I can tell Simon had not yet received Holy Spirit. His heart still wasn’t right. Just like Simon, we must receive the love of the truth in our heart to be saved. Simon was instructed to repent from sin. While true agape love is the bond of perfection, I think the bond of iniquity might mean a love of darkness. Simon had to relinquish his sinful desire. Likewise, the rich young ruler (in Mark 10:17-27) had a love of worldly possessions. We need to agape love the truth and fall out of love of darkness. Even as believers, we need to continue on in the teachings of Christ to be saved:

> Acts 8:13-23 - Even Simon himself believed, and after being baptized he continued with Philip. And seeing signs and great miracles performed, he was amazed. Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for he had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles’ hands, he offered them money, saying, Give me this power also, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit. But Peter said to him, May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. Repent, therefore, of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you. For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity. (ESV)

We are cleaned by the blood of Christ to serve the living God:

> Matthew 4:10 - Then Jesus said to him, Be gone, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:14 - how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. (ESV)

If a person does not stop committing deliberate sin after receiving the knowledge of the truth, then there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins. As I understand it, if a person spurns the grace of God by continuing to commit sin, then they can't kill the sin anymore, they become hardened in the sin, they become unable to turn away from it, and the wrath of God will come to such people:

> Hebrews 10:23-29 - Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has spurned the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? (ESV)

youtube.com: Is repentance an aspect of faith, or is repentance a good work? {@ligonier} @time: 1 min

> NICHOLS: Yeah, I think what we need to see is faith is the trusting in, and repentance is the turning from. And so, you know, as you come to God, we are all oriented away from God, we are seeking not God, and so a conversion is a 180.
> And as we are turning towards God in faith, we are turning from ultimately the self and from sin, and that's repentance. So, if ever a soul is to get to heaven, the two wings of faith and repentance will get that soul to heaven.
> LAWSON: Yeah, and to even merge that together, all faith is a repentant faith and all repentance is really a believing repentance. I mean, they really are merged together. And you put it so well and it's true, the faith is the turning to and repentance is the turning away from, and you can't have one without the other. I mean, it's a package deal.

learn.ligonier.org: What is Faith ? by Guy Richard My fear is that many of us in the church today may be dangerously close to violating this precept in our preaching of the gospel. There is no question that the call of the gospel is to believe in Jesus Christ, which is why our preaching must regularly call people to faith. But if our preaching stops there without ever calling people to repentance, it is dangerously close to presenting a half-truth as though it were the whole truth. Repentance and faith are inseparable. They are two sides of the same coin. Faith is the positive side of turning to Christ, and repentance is the negative side of turning away from sin. It is impossible to turn to Christ and to turn to sin, just as it is impossible to travel in two different directions at the same time. By definition, traveling east means not traveling west, and turning to Christ correspondingly means not turning to sin. Faith and repentance necessarily go together.

I think the reason that repentance and faith work together like this is because saving faith is a faith that loves the truth, as opposed to hates the truth, where mere 'belief' could be either love or hate for the truth:

> II Thessalonians 2:10 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. (NASB)

We have to love God and hate sin:

> John 3:14-19 - And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but > have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than (G3123 mallon, rather/more than, in preference to, instead of) light, because their deeds were evil. (KJV)

> Psalms 145:20 - The LORD preserves all who love him, but all the wicked he will destroy. (ESV)

Paul here is repentant from the heart (like Paul we must be repentant, we have to receive the love of the truth). He wants to do good (he has an obedient heart, a heart that loves God and loves Jesus Christ and loves what God has done, and loves God's Law) but indwelling sin is an issue and he's doing battle against sin:

> Romans 7:19-20 - For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. (ESV)

As Christians we have changed hearts and minds to desire God, rather than desiring sin:

> James 1:15 - Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)

It's in the truth also that we must repent of wickedness:

> II Corinthians 12:21 - I fear that when I come again my God may humble me before you, and I may have to mourn over many of those who sinned earlier and have not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality, and sensuality that they have practiced. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 13:1-9 - This is the third time I am coming to you. Every charge must be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses. I warned those who sinned before and all the others, and I warn them now while absent, as I did when present on my second visit, that if I come again I will not spare them— since you seek proof that Christ is speaking in me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you. For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by the power of God. Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you fail to meet the test! I hope you will find out that we have not failed the test. But we pray to God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed. For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. Your restoration is what we pray for. (ESV)

The Good News, while a gift, is to turn to a living God, not to walk in our own way but to walk in the ways of God:

> Acts 14:15-16 - Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men, of like nature with you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to a living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them. In past generations he allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. (ESV)

> Luke 3:16-18 - John answered them all, saying, I baptize you with water, but he who is mightier than I is coming, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire. So with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)

youtube.com: America Under Delusion | David Wilkerson {@world$_{\textbf{challenge}}$} I want to walk in liberty and freedom. If that is in your heart, the Bible said you ask for the Holy Ghost and the Holy Ghost will come down and he has all the power and all the provision you need to obey God. He has every right to demand it because he made provision to do it.

Even after we have been healed by Jesus, and also as we are being healed by Jesus, we must turn away from evil and do good. We must obey Jesus rather than obey sin:

> John 5:11-14 - But he answered them, The man who healed me, that man said to me, Take up your bed, and walk. They asked him, Who is the man who said to you, Take up your bed and walk? Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in the place. Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you. (ESV)

Something has a velocity but the distance travelled is a different thing. Likewise, the Christian can have faith but the works done is a different thing. That faith working through love is what counts doesn't mean it's the works which merit justification. We obey the truth. We believe the gospel and obey the truth:

> Galatians 5:6-7 - For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

We live according to the truth. We are saved to serve/obey and be taught by Christ.

> Luke 1:73-75 - the oath that he swore to our father Abraham, to grant us that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all our days. (ESV)

This is still obedience to God's Word, and obedience to God's Law - as Jesus is the Word and the fulfillment of God's Law.

The word ”telē” in I Cor 10:11 is the plural of ”telos” which is used in Romans 10:4. It doesn't mean ”abolishment”. It's more like ”culmination”, ”goal, or ”full maturity”, or the ”final stage”, or the ”ultimate purpose” and that if a person has arrived at faith in Jesus then they have arrived at the destination where the Mosaic Law was a ”schoolmaster” to get us to. Now even if the coming faith was not yet ”revealed”, if someone were to have pursued the Mosaic Law by genuine fear of God, love of God, trust of God, hope in God, faith in the heart (rather than the exterior works) then that would still be commendable. But if a person rejects Jesus (say if they reject Him as King, or as Christ, if they don't submit to God's righteousness) then it simply shows that they do not have true faith in God, that they do not do what Abraham did, they do not have the love of God, the love of the Truth in them:

> Romans 10:4 - For Christ is the end (G5056 telos) of the law (G3551 nomos) for righteousness (G1343 dikaiosune) to everyone who believes (G4100 pisteuo, trusts). (ESV)

> Galatians 3:22-27 - But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. (ESV)

> Romans 9:30-32 - What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness did not succeed in reaching that law. Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, (ESV)

> John 8:31-47 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas: having believed 'V-RPA-AMP past tense') in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

So the meaning of "telos" is more like "ultimate" or "fulfillment" or in context I think it means "final say" or even "foundation" or "cornerstone". So for those who have an agape-loving faith in Jesus Christ, a treasuring for the truth of the gospel, the free gift of righteousness that comes from God ultimately has the final say in judgement. In other words, the righteousness that is not of themselves but which is a free gift through faith in Christ based on His work alone has the ultimate say and also is the foundation for any other righteousness of a believer, such as persecution for the cross of Christ, and if all other righteousness fails, there is still no condemnation.

> Romans 10:11-15 - For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. But how are they to call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news! (ESV)

> John 8:24 - I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins. (ESV)

Topical lexicon - telos - Pastoral Goal of Instruction and Love "The goal of our instruction is love from a pure heart, a good conscience, and a sincere faith" (1 Timothy 1:5). Ministry is evaluated not merely by activity but by its telos—agapē-shaped hearts. This pastoral usage echoes 1 Peter 1:9: believers are "receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls." Peter later exhorts, "the end of all things is near. Therefore be clear-minded and sober" (1 Peter 4:7), tethering practical holiness to the impending consummation.

Topical lexicon - telos - Perseverance and Assurance Hebrews repeatedly ties telos to enduring faith: "We are His house if we hold fast our confidence and the hope in which we boast until the end" (Hebrews 3:6); "We have become partakers of Christ if we hold firmly to the end the assurance we had at first" (Hebrews

> 3:14). Paul prays that God “will also keep you strong to the end” (1 Corinthians 1:8). Revelation 2:26 promises authority to the one “who overcomes and continues in My work until the end.” Telos serves as both the horizon and the incentive for steadfast discipleship.

A true faith in Jesus is one which agape-loves (values, treasures) Jesus and His words and deeds:

> I Peter 1:8-9 - Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (ESV)

By faith we obey Christ first and foremost to be justified and to arrive at the knowledge of Christ and of God - we obey Jesus to arrive at knowing God:

> II Corinthians 10:5 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, (ESV)
> John 8:19 - They said to him therefore, Where is your Father? Jesus answered, You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also. (ESV)
> I John 1:3 - that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. (ESV)
> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)
> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

Being justified by the law of faith in Christ (trusting and obeying Christ) rather than being justified by keeping the whole Mosaic law under the old covenant is, I believe, the correct way to understand what Paul is saying. Because I believe we need a law-abiding faith (true faith in Jesus Christ being a non-idolatrous, agape-loving of the truth faith, and loving neighbour as yourself faith):

> Galatians 5:1-7 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you. I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

Obey the Truth means obey Jesus:

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)
> I John 5:20 - And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. (ESV)
> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to (G3784 opheilei; ought to, obligated to, has a duty to) walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

Jesus wants us to love God and we certainly must love Jesus. The person who receives Jesus, as in accepts His words and His person, agrees with Him and does not reject Him; the person who trusts and treasures Jesus and His words, and doesn't distrust Jesus and His words, but keeps Jesus' words and doesn't disagree with them, that is the person who has the love of God in him:

> John 5:42-43 - But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. (ESV)

The old nature that we lug around until God delivers us completely from it is what rebels against God and is what doesn't want to do what God wants us to do:

> Romans 7:16-21 - Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. (ESV)

The person who has been born-again but still carries around the old creation, the sin in the flesh, has an inner-man who is the new creation who loves, receives, accepts, treasures Jesus Christ and continues to love and abiding in God. But the sinful nature doesn't submit to God. We must be getting sanctified, so we must continue on abiding in God's commandments for us (I John 3:24), because in Him there is no condemnation (Romans 8:1):

John 3:16 (Interlinear) Thus so (Houtōs) (in this way) did God love (G25 agapaó - value,treasure) the world, that He gave His Only-Begotten (G3439. monogenēs - unique,only begotten) Son that (G2443 hina - in order that) everyone who is trusting/believing (G4100 pisteuo) in Him may not perish, but may have life everlasting

> I John 3:7-11 - Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

But the old creation in the sinful flesh rejects Jesus. We want to be sanctified, so as we trust and obey Jesus, continuing to receive Jesus, we are cleaned up to love Him with everything. In the grand scheme of things, youtube.com: I Asked The Lord by John Newton - Indelible Grace 1. I asked the Lord that I might grow;

In faith and love and every grace; Might more of His salvation know; And seek more earnestly His face;

1. Twas He who taught me thus to pray;

And He I trust has answered prayer; But it has been in such a way; As almost drove me to despair;

1. I hoped that in some favored hour;

At once He'd answer my request; And by His love's constraining power; Subdue my sins and give me rest;

1. Instead of this He made me feel;

The hidden evils of my heart; And let the angry powers of Hell; Assault my soul in every part;

1. Lord why is this, I trembling cried;

Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death?; ”Tis in this way” The Lord replied; ”I answer prayer for grace and faith”;

1. ”These inward trials I employ;

From self and pride to set thee free; And break thy schemes of earthly joy; That thou mayest seek thy all in me,; That thou mayest seek thy all in me.”;

It’s in Jesus Christ, abiding in His commandments, that we walk in the light and have fellowship with our family in Christ, and are washed clean by the blood of Jesus Christ. So having fellowship with Jesus isn’t contrived. To go to where Jesus is we keep His commandments. The ”roadmap” for finding Jesus would be instructions like, 1) have faith in God, have faith also in Jesus Christ, 2) love one another as Jesus Christ commanded. So when the Scripture says in I John 2:19, ”They went out from us, but they were not of us”, we should not fear separation from a congregation if they are teaching against Jesus’ teachings, fearing that we are not born-again if we leave the congregation or something like that. Rather, what we’re supposed to do is simply, trust and obey God’s commandments for us as Christians and we will come into fellowship as a result of trusting and obeying Jesus Christ:

> I John 1:6-7 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)
> I John 2:19 - They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us. But they went out, that it might become plain that they all are not of us. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 6:17 - Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, (ESV)
> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)

In sanctification (God’s work of cleaning us up), God redeems every part of us, rescues us, purifies us from every lawless/evil deed, from every deed which is not done in faith or not done in love:

> II Timothy 4:18 - The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)
> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

Loving God and desiring to do what God wants us to do and even trying to do what God wants us to do is commendable by God, despite the false teaching against that which says that’s trusting in oneself. If a person is trusting Jesus that it’s more blessed to give than to receive, and with confidence in God’s word over the confidence of man’s word, a person entrusts God with their earthly posessions, then that is making God their strength, and trusting in God. Endeavouring to keep God’s commandments for us from the heart is trusting in God:

> Psalms 40:4 - Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust, who does not turn to the proud, to those who go astray after a lie! (ESV)

Desire for God is important, and God's everlasting (Mark 13:31) Word is God (John 1:1). We must love God and must increasingly so. Agreeing and coming into agreement with Jesus Christ (who is God's eternal Word), and loving Jesus' Christ's words, loving God's Word, and retaining His word, is important (John 8:37). Jesus and His words are inseparable, and it's the one who loves Jesus' words who loves Jesus and the one who loves Jesus who loves His words. Doing what Jesus says, treasuring, loving, retaining Jesus' words, doing Jesus' commandments, keeping His commandments, agreeing with them, loving one-another in the way we are commanded just as Jesus Christ loved us, we are getting His word inside of us. God feeds us with Jesus Christ:

> John 8:37 - I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. (ESV)

> John 8:37 - I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> Mark 13:31 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (ESV)

> John 1:1 - In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (ESV)

Seeking to please God with our actions is important. Seeking to honour God in resisting sin is important:

> Romans 2:6-8 - He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:22-25 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

We live in the Lord Jesus Christ while we stand fast in Him. How do we stand fast in Him? By continuing to agree with Him, continuing to have confidence in Him and His promises, even the conditional ones. And by not denying Jesus. We stand fast in Jesus Christ by continuing to receive and accept Jesus and keep His teachings and commandments and by not rejecting them:

> I Thessalonians 3:8 - For now we live, if you are standing fast in the Lord. (ESV)

> James 2:5 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? (ESV)

> Ephesians 6:1-3 - Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. Honor your father and mother (this is the first commandment with a promise), that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land. (ESV)

We are to obey our earthly masters and parents "in the Lord" (Ephesians 6:1, Ephesians 6:5-6) and as we would Christ, abiding in His teachings, seeking to please Christ. Our first allegiance for obedience is to God, not to men. There may be times we we have to disobey our earthly master in order to obey God (like how Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego had to disobey Nebuchadnezzar: Daniel 3:10-12). God instructs us to obey our earthly masters in a way that serving the Lord Jesus Christ (Ephesians 6:5-8). If obeying an earthly master is done in a way that is not "doing the will of God", if serving them involves doing evil rather than doing good, or if what they want you to do is not something that you can do in faith and love for the Truth, then we should not obey. Otherwise, we should obey them (Ephesians 6:5-8). Any type of obedience to God that is not originate from a love for the Truth is not genuine obedience (Psalms 81:12-15, I John 5:2).

> Ephesians 6:5-8 - Slaves, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to man, knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free. (ESV)

> Acts 5:29 - But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. (ESV)

It matters as Christians that we keep a clear conscience and that we are actually doing as Jesus has instructed. If an employer has told you to lie or steal or murder or commit adultery or do something that would be evil and be against serving Jesus Christ then the Christian is obligated to disobey the earthly master:

> Acts 24:14-16 - But this I confess to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the Law and written in the Prophets, having a hope in God, which these men themselves accept, that there will be a resurrection of both the just and the unjust. So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man. (ESV)

> Hebrews 13:18 - Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a clear conscience, desiring to act honorably in all things. (ESV)

> Romans 6:17-18 - But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We can't ”earn” salvation on the basis of the ”works”. But we can ”receive what is due for our faith, for being 'doers' of the law of Christ”, and what we receive for that is salvation (I Peter 1:9-10). So we can still ”earn” salvation but it's not earned on the basis of ”the works” which accompany the faith. Salvation is received by faith which resides in the heart. So with Abraham putting Isaac on the altar, he was still walking in faith, and he still did works (works of faith), and God tested his heart and saw that he was faithful to God first and agape loved God even more than his monogenes son (Genesis 22:11-12). Abraham feared God. But God didn't need Isaac to be sacrificed for Abraham to be saved. God had already provided a ram (Genesis 22:13-14). So while justification by works may happen, it doesn't happen on the basis of works (it doesn't happen without faith), and the type of faith Abraham had was with the fear of God (hatred of sin, wanting to do what pleases God, a repentant heart), with God as his first agape love:

> Romans 11:6 - But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace. (ESV)

We must have been changed in the heart so that we ”do good” from the heart. That means from the heart having fear of God, faith in God, agape love for God, loving the truth:

> II Corinthians 5:10 - For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. (ESV)

So to say, ”You can't 'earn' salvation,” I think is a bit of a half-truth, or even blatantly incorrect because it makes it sound like God does not commend people for having faith in Him. But God is both just and merciful:

> Romans 2:13-16 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers (G4163 poiētai) of the law who will be justified. For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 17:10 - I the LORD search the heart and test the mind, to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds. (ESV)

So long as what we mean by it is ”We can’t boast before God that we earned salvation outside of His grace”, then that is OK because even the coming to God and being in a position of being able to receive Jesus is grace. God wants us to seek Him out.

I don’t like pitting our obedience up against our faith. It’s not actually correct. Like, we are saved by obedience to Jesus Christ. Whilst it’s all grace and a gift (noone can come to Jesus unless the Father draws them), there are still things we can certainly do to receive Jesus Christ, such as draw near to God. Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Our obedience to Jesus can be walking into the gift. Justice and mercy are not mutually exclusive (Luke 18:1-14, II Thessalonians 1:5-8). Jesus said blessed are the merciful for they will receive mercy (Matthew 5:7). So if Jesus Christ said it, it’s still true and it’s still through Jesus Christ. When we confess our sin, He is faithful and just to forgive us of our sin. That’s justice and mercy at the same time. Yes we all need God’s mercy, but we also need His justice. We don’t commend ourselves for our faith tho. That’s not our duty as human beings. Our duty is to fear God and keep His commandments. We can’t please God without the spirit of Christ. It’s all grace. It’s good to be grateful. It’s in the truth that we should be grateful. But at the same time it’s also in the truth that we must love our family in Christ. And it’s in the truth that we should believe God send His Son into the world to die for our sins and rise from the dead for our justification. It’s in the truth that we must forgive our family in Christ. It’s in the truth that the Holy Spirit goes to those who obey God. All of that is in the truth.

It’s in the truth also that we must repent of wickedness:

> II Corinthians 12:21 - I fear that when I come again my God may humble me before you, and I may have to mourn over many of those who sinned earlier and have not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality, and sensuality that they have practiced. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 13:1-9 - This is the third time I am coming to you. Every charge must be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses. I warned those who sinned before and all the others, and I warn them now while absent, as I did when present on my second visit, that if I come again I will not spare them— since you seek proof that Christ is speaking in me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you. For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by the power of God. Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you fail to meet the test! I hope you will find out that we have not failed the test. But we pray to God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed. For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. Your restoration is what we pray for. (ESV)

In my view it’s all obedience to the truth and essentially means accepting the gospel and letting it work in your life through faith/obedience to Jesus. The gospel being inclusive of all the sayings which Jesus spoke during His ministry recorded in the books of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John and the deeds which He carried out, including making atonement for sin:

> Luke 4:18-19 - The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor. (ESV)
> Luke 4:42-43 - And when it was day, he departed and went into a desolate place. And the people sought him and came to him, and would have kept him from leaving them, but he said to them, I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns as well; for I was sent for this purpose. (ESV)
> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one > who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

> Luke 8:15 - As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience. (ESV)
> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

When we are living in faith in God for His promises we are living in an obedient way. Belief and obedience are not separate things in my opinion, but we must have both obedience and belief in the heart - we must agree that gospel of Jesus is Truth and live in that reality holding faith and being obedient to Jesus and God will make it happen. So living by faith walks according to the will of God with hope in His promises, trust in Jesus and faithfulness-obedience to His commandments, walking in the ways of God seeking God's commendation, trusting in God, and living as though He exists:

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)
> Acts 15:9 - and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)

Following Jesus means laying our life down for Jesus and not denying Him:

> John 13:36-38 - Simon Peter said to him, Lord, where are you going? Jesus answered him, Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but you will follow afterward. Peter said to him, Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for you. Jesus answered, Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the rooster will not crow till you have denied me three times. (ESV)

And it means loving Jesus which involves obeying Jesus including His commandment to trust Him and His other commandments:

> John 14:1-7 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going. Thomas said to him, Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way? Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him. (ESV)

I think John Piper meant to say cleansed your souls here in the first line:

youtube.com: Hope and the Fruit of Love @time: 13 min 58 sec "You have cleansed your [souls] by obedience to the truth." Acts 15:9 says, "God cleansed their hearts by faith." The gospel demands faith. Therefore, obedience to the gospel is faith and faith is hope - faith in the future that God is providing. Faith in all these truths of chapter 1 (i.e. [I Peter 1]), means "hoping faith is the assurance of things hoped for."

Our faith should be in God and our hope should be for God's promises as we serve God through Jesus. God has spoken a lot already in the Scriptures and about how we should listen to Jesus. Saving faith trusts God:

> I Peter 1:20-23 - He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; (ESV)

Both belief and obedience come out of a trust of God in the heart. So our faith should be based on hope that is based on truth. We must understand the truth in our hearts, and allow it to work itself out in us. The word of God in the heart saves us.

When we trust in the name (onoma) of the Son of God, we receive forgiveness of sins. Everyone who believes/trusts in Jesus receives forgiveness of sins through His name:

> Acts 10:43-45 - To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name. While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word. And the believers from among the circumcised who had come with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out even on the Gentiles. (ESV)

The Apostle Paul was obedient to God. This is Paul exercising his faith in God through obedience. Also, this was obedience to a heavenly vision - a vision in which Jesus was confessed (I John 4:3) - and it was a truthful vision that is in accordance with the gospel which the earlier Apostles were teaching:

> Acts 26:14-15 - And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads. And I said, Who are you, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. (ESV)

> Acts 26:19 - Therefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, (ESV)

We abide in Jesus when He washes us. When the Holy Spirit washes us, the Holy Spirit helps us to put sin to death:

> John 13:8 - Peter said to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no share with me. (ESV)

Peter believed/received/obeyed/trusted like a child of God (he cooperated) to let Jesus wash him but it was Jesus doing the work:

> John 13:9 - Simon Peter said to him, Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head! (ESV)

Jesus' servants (people who believe and obey Him) are found in him. We know Christ by living in the pattern in which he lived. Jesus' servants are those who have accepted Jesus to wash them, and they ought to then wash one another:

> Psalms 34:22 - The LORD redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned. (ESV)

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

And they were put in Him by Him:

> I Corinthians 1:30 - It is because of Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God: our righteousness, holiness, and redemption. (engbsb2020eb)

> Titus 3:5-7 - he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

When we walk in trusting, believing, obedient faith, God works in us and to deliver us and makes our paths straight for us:

> Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)
> Matthew 7:15-20 - Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. (ESV)
> Matthew 12:33-35 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. (ESV)

By trusting in Jesus, and forsaking sin, God pulls us out of darkness, so that we produce fruit that is pleasing to God:

> Ephesians 5:5-12 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret. (ESV)
> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

We need to have escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. We need to be producers of good fruit:

> II Peter 1:3-8 - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)
> Luke 3:8-9 - Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. (ESV)

Matthew 7:16-23 - You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits. Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare to them, I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness. (ESV)

Proverbs 12:12 - Whoever is wicked covets the spoil of evildoers, but the root of the righteous bears fruit. (ESV)

That’s what love does. Love wills the good of the other and actually it’s operative, it actually works for the good and sacrifices for the good of the other, and that’s necessary for someone to be good, clearly. But again, that doesn’t mean someone is going to go to heaven. He can be naturally good because he sees somebody hungry and he wants to feed them. You can be an atheist and still do that. Um, you can be an atheist and still be honest and not steal. You know, just because you’re living up to your own standard of being a decent person, that’s not going to get you to heaven, no.

Um, what is rewardable in the eyes of God, what is thanksworthy in the eyes of God is if you actually follow Jesus Christ and follow his example and follow what he says, what he wants of us. Doing what God wants of you is what ultimately makes you a ’good’ or a bad person, right? In this case, the person who says that, uh, if he says he believes in God, does he believe in Jesus Christ? Does he believe that Jesus Christ is the son of God? If he does then he should read the gospel, he should see what our Lord says, he should do see what our Lord wants of him. And, um, he would find out from the gospel that our Lord says ”Do these things, do these things, do these things.” He says that. He tells them that they must eat of him, receive His body and His blood. He tells them that. If they are to have any life in them they must eat of His sacrifice. This is His way of saying ”I am your sacrifice, you must partake of me to share in the sacrifice, the benefit of the sacrifice I’m gaining for you. You must do this.” He doesn’t leave the option, He says ”You must do this.” He says to his apostles last supper ”You do this in commemoration of me.” He gives them that command he gives the apostles the power to forgive sins. All of these things a ’good’ person who believes in God and believes in Jesus Christ and sees in the gospel, [that] this is what he’s saying to us, cannot brush those aside and say ”I can be good without this.” Basically, if he does, if he sees what Jesus Christ is telling us he wants of us, and then brushes it aside and says, ”Well I can be good without that.” They’re saying, ”I can be good without Jesus Christ. I can be a good person without Jesus Christ.” And so this is the this is the mind of the rationalist, the naturalist who practice the philosophy of naturalism. This is the mind of the masons (the Freemasons) who believe in the natural goodness of man, that we just, um, basically are good by the very fact that we’re human beings, and we don’t need anything, we don’t need grace from God, we don’t need forgiveness from God, we don’t need sanctification from God, we don’t need Jesus Christ. This is the very definition of a Pharisee. This is who a Pharisee is - I am good because I consider myself good and I’m good enough and everybody else should acknowledge that with me, that I am good, okay? Because I live to my own standards of goodness. Our Lord exploded that in the gospel and showed just how false that was that whole mentality. They were good in their own eyes. They are, uh, you know, what’s what’s the expression, ’great in their own eyes’. Like the Pharisee who stood who stood in front of the Holy of Holies, and boasted to God, ”I thank Thee that Thou hast made me not like the rest of men, because I do this and I do that, I don’t do these bad things. I’m not even like this publican back here who’s so bad.

I’m not the one to condemn but Jesus’ word will judge on the last day the one who rejects Jesus’ words. I believe we must be corrected by the Truth, as it is revealed to us through God’s Word as we are walking by the Spirit.

youtube.com: The Gospel Before Jesus Died {@ desiringGod } @time: 10 min 31 sec And if we ask, ”How much did various people understand in order to be saved?” Because people were saved by the death of Christ before the death of Christ. We know that from Romans 3:25. The best way to answer that question, I think, is to say people generally embraced Christ with very different levels of understanding and whether that initial faith was real and saving (with its imperfect understanding), whether or not it was real was proved by whether or not a person kept on embracing the gospel as more and more of it was revealed to them. And I think that's exactly the way it is today.

> Luke 2:10-11 - And the angel said to them, Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. (ESV)

> Romans 3:25 - whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. (ESV)

This quite clearly shows that the Truth is Jesus Christ is Almighty God and God is Father, Son (Jesus Christ, His Eternal Word, made flesh) and Holy Spirit:

> Zechariah 12:10 - And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and pleas for mercy, so that, when they look on me, on him whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a firstborn. (ESV)

> Colossians 2:9 - For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, (ESV)

And uh one cannot in any in any way shape or form in any sense be considered a Christian who denies the doctrine of the blessed Trinity, and yet survey shows 9% of those identifying as Catholics in America believe only 9% believe in the blessed trinity. 91% do not believe. Now that's apostasy. You know, this basically amounts to apostasy because when you deny the belief in the blessed Trinity, you deny everything. You deny the incarnation of the second person of the blessed trinity. If there is no second person of the blessed trinity, you deny if you deny the incarnation of the second person of the blessed trinity, you deny the redemption. You deny all the sacraments, everything, everything goes with that denial. It's called apostasy.

It's the denial of essential teachings about Jesus which is apostasy (Denial/rejection as opposed to not having yet heard).

Journal <2026-05-08 Fri 13:50> To this very day, I've been getting woken up to harassing dreams and visions. I'm sick of it. And I have not yet received as a direct spoken word the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit, and I'm not happy that I haven't received it and not content that I haven't received it when there is a promise that it will be given. I'm sick of harassment from religious and antichrist demons from people. What I mean by that is that I'm tired of being harassed by demons through people who are very hostile to Jesus' teachings or trying to drag me into affirming cults, or affirming people as Christian who themselves have not even spoken to me the testimony of Jesus Christ, etc. It's been a total bombardment of such things. I've been woken up from sleep with intense frequency by harassing spirits for a prolonged amount of time (over 3 years). And I continue to be harassed by dreams and even during the day situations with others that try to oppose my resistance to sin, and oppose my commitments to the Lord Jesus. I resist sin and and commit my way to Jesus in faithfulness and subsequently get seemingly unending resistance from demons. I'm quite tied of it and I want Holy Spirit to testify of Jesus Christ to me. I want Holy Spirit to provide the testimony I John 4:2 says that the Spirit of God is known by:

> I John 4:2 - By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, (ESV)

If I decide to not condemn, that doesn't mean I approve.

I just defer judgement to the righteous judgement of Jesus Christ (II Thessalonians 1:5, Revelation of John 19:1-2) as I separate from those I consider are against Jesus' teachings.

> Jeremiah 11:20 - But, O LORD of hosts, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance upon them, for to you have I committed my cause. (ESV)

> John 5:22-23 - The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. (ESV)

> James 4:12 - There is only one lawgiver and judge, he who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor? (ESV)

While I believe that someone who does not know about, say, the doctrine of the Trinity, can be saved by Jesus, I also believe that it's important to not reject the teaching of the Lord Jesus Christ. After all we are sanctified by faith in Jesus (Acts 26:18), and Jesus' words will judge those who reject them on the last day (John 12:48). Jesus is the judge of this, though. I myself don't claim to know everything. There's teaching I don't fully understand, such as the nature of the 7 spirits of God (Revelation of John 5:6), and when it comes to the doctrine of the blessed trinity, though I don't claim to be an expert, but I do believe that God is One and God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. I have confidence this is correct, but not confidence enough in my own understanding to commend myself or to condemn, for example, the Jehovah's Witnesses. But I do have confidence for the day of judgement. And I do think that there is one God who will judge and we should fear Him and seek to please Him. All judgement has been given to the Son of God, Yeshua Hamashiach, Jesus Christ. And I believe He's God the Son and I would advise people to not reject that He is God. To me this is a matter of "he who is without sin cast the first stone" and I'm not able to condemn because I'm not confident enough in my own understanding to say I can see clearly enough to condemn. I believe I can see clearly enough to "take the spec out of my brother's eye" to a degree. I believe it's right for me to "go out from among" those who appear to not be walking in the truth. I believe that Jesus Christ is God and is not created, and I would warn those who do not think so that they should believe that Jesus Christ is the Word of God and that the Word of God is God, and that Jesus Christ is the Son of Man (Daniel 7:13) and the Son of God and the Messiah and the God (God the Son) of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and that Jesus Christ is Yahweh (Jehovah), because I believe that a person cannot remain in rejection of who Jesus Christ is without risking the receiving the wrath of God (Hebrews 12:25).

> John 9:41 - Jesus said to them, If you were blind, you would have no guilt; but now that you say, We see, your guilt remains. (ESV)

> Hebrews 12:25 - See that you do not refuse him who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less will we escape if we reject him who warns from heaven. (ESV)

> John 15:22-24 - If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV)

> Luke 8:18 - Take care then how you hear, for to the one who has, more will be given, and from the one who has not, even what he thinks that he has will be taken away. (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:1 - Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. (ESV)

> Hebrews 1:9,1:14,2:1-4 - You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions. Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to serve for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation? Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. For since the message declared by angels proved to be reliable and every transgression or disobedience received a just retribution, how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard, while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will. (ESV)

> James 2:5 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? (ESV)

I believe that it's important to not reject key facts about Jesus Christ:

> I John 2:23 - No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. (ESV)

> John 8:24,8:28 - I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins. So Jesus said to them, When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and that I do nothing on my own authority, but speak just as the Father taught me. (ESV)

> John 9:35-37 - Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him he said, Do you believe in the Son of Man? He answered, And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him? Jesus said to him, You have seen him, and it is he who is speaking to you. (ESV) uthOfficial } I commmented, "Oh dear, yes those are some very serious errors from historical JW theology. I pray they are corrected by the truth. Jesus Christ certainly was raised from the dead having flesh and blood. It's right there in the Scripture. If Christ were not raised from the dead, then there would be no power in the gospel."

> I Corinthians 15:12-17 - Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain. We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified about God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised. And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. (ESV)

Jesus Christ is the Son of God whom is the heir of all things, through whom also He created the world, and who is the radiance of the glory of God and is the exact imprint of His nature and who upholds the universe by the word of His power. Jesus upholds the universe by the word of His power. Jesus is to be worshipped. So therefore, Jesus is God, and so Jesus is Yahweh (Jehovah). The Son of God isn't the Father, but they are one. Jesus is the Son of God.

> Hebrews 1:2-9 - but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. For to which of the angels did God ever say, You are my Son, today I have begotten you? Or again, I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son? And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, Let all God's angels worship him. Of the angels he says, He makes his angels winds, and his ministers a flame of fire. But of the Son he says, Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, the scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions. (ESV)

> Zechariah 2:8-10 - For thus says JEHOVAH of hosts: 'For honor he has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye. For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a spoil to those who served them; and you will know that JEHOVAH of hosts has sent me. Sing and rejoice, daughter of Zion; for, behold, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of you,' says JEHOVAH. (NHEBJE)

Jesus is the Word of God made flesh and all His words are spirit and life

While I do absolutely believe in the effectiveness of partaking in the Lord's supper as a means of grace, I believe it has to be done in a worthy manner which means loving Jesus Christ more than any created thing, and also carrying our cross which involves remaining faithful to Jesus. I do not believe a good case can be made for the only way to have participated is exclusive to having imbibed on the Lord's supper (as in the sacrament).

I John 3:23 says that God's commandment is to have faith in the name of His Son Jesus Christ and love one another just as He has commanded us. I believe this commandment to have faith in Jesus and love one another as commanded is what we should be doing as we do other things including taking the Lord's supper. Because what is not done in faith is sin and what is not done in love is also sin. If a person trusting in Jesus Christ blesses a cup and bread in the tradition of the Lord's supper in rememberance of Jesus, and did in such a way that is loving of God and of one another, then that would be feeding on the Lord Jesus Christ because it would be done in faith in Jesus Christ God's Son and in love for one-another and we're meant to do this with one another. But a person may have faith in Jesus Christ and love one-another as commanded by trusting Jesus Christ not just in obedience to the instruction to "eat and drink of the Lord's supper in rememberance of Jesus", but as well as in other teachings and instructions of Jesus Christ generally, such as "getting baptised in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit", or perhaps in sharing the gospel obeying Jesus' instruction of the Great Commission, for example. And this is because, I believe, the Life is in Jesus Christ, and Jesus Christ is the Word of God become flesh and Jesus' words are spirit and life and the legacy of Jesus' ministry in the flesh is what we must partake of. In other words, I do not think that partaking in the blood and body of the Lord Jesus Christ is limited to partaking specifically of the ritual sacrament known as the eucharist, but it is more generally to eat and drink of Jesus' legacy including the teachings about Jesus and the words of Jesus, doing the commandments of Jesus.

> John 6:51 - I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:16-22 - The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. Consider the people of Israel: are not those who eat the sacrifices participants in the altar? What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? (ESV)

> John 6:51-56 - I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh. The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. (ESV)

> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

I have a section further in this document on feeding on Jesus Christ.

> Deuteronomy 8:2-6 - And you shall remember the whole way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. Your clothing did not wear out on you and your foot did not swell these forty years. Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the LORD your God disciplines you. So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him. (ESV)

> John 6:32-35 - Jesus then said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world. They said to him, Sir, give us this bread always. Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. (ESV)

> John 14:19 - Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. (ESV)

> John 6:57 - As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. (ESV)

> John 6:63-65 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe. (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.) And he said, This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father. (ESV)

There is earthly food and drink and spiritual food and drink:

> I Corinthians 10:1-4 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. (ESV)

> Amos 8:11-13 - Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord GOD, when I will send a famine on the land— not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD. They shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, to seek the word of the LORD, but they shall not find it. In that day the lovely virgins and the young men shall faint for thirst. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 8:2-6 - And you shall remember the whole way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. Your clothing did not wear out on you and your foot did not swell these forty years. Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the LORD your God disciplines you. So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him. (ESV)

> John 4:32-34 - But he said to them, I have food to eat that you do not know about. So the disciples said to one another, Has anyone brought him something to eat? Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. (ESV)

> John 6:40-65 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. So the Jews grumbled about him, because he said, I am the bread that came down from heaven. They said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, I have come down from heaven? Jesus answered them, Do not grumble among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me—not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh. The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not as the fathers ate and died. Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever. Jesus said these things in the synagogue, as he taught at Capernaum. When many of his disciples heard it, they said, This is a hard saying; who can listen to it? But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were grumbling about this, said to them, Do you take offense at this? Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe. (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.) And he said, This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father. (ESV)

The beholding is a continued beholding while we are believing. We must not be those who lose sight of Jesus. We must be those who continue to behold Him (John 14:19-21):

> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on (G2334 theōrōn; is beholding; V-PPA-NMS) the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 3:18 - And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)

Maybe this is the way understand it: Jesus, God's eternal Word, Father God's Son, became flesh. And what Jesus has accomplished in His flesh (His natural body) including the teachings and commandments He gave, and His passion and resurrection, we must feed on (agape love (treasure), believe, trust, do). Jesus gave His flesh for the life of the world.

After Jesus was resurrected, He had flesh and bones. I'm leaning towards this as also counting when Jesus said the bread He gives for the life of the world is His flesh:

> Luke 24:38-39 - And he said to them, Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have. (ESV)

> John 20:17 - Jesus said to her, Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:42-45 - So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. Thus it is written, The first man Adam became a living being; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:14-16 - For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. (ESV)

Jesus, the Word of God, having come from God into the world in the flesh said that He is the bread of life. And the words which He spoke as He said these things, He said are spirit and life and that all who trust/believe [what He said] have eternal life:

> John 6:40-65 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. So the Jews grumbled about him, because he said, I am the bread that came down from heaven. They said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me—not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. Yesterday, a brother of mine from a pentecostal church I have attended gave me a cross keyring (it's like a rosary without the beads) with the following verse on it:

> John 6:35 - Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. (ESV)

I truly believe that we receive the body and blood of Jesus through faith. There is a section in this document talking more about my beliefs regarding communion.

While I do absolutely believe in the effectiveness of partaking in the Lord's supper as a means of grace, I believe it has to be done in a worthy manner which means loving Jesus Christ more than any created thing, and also carrying our cross which involves remaining faithful to Jesus. I do not believe a good case can be made for the only way to have participated is exclusive to having imbibed on the Lord's supper (as in the sacrament).

I believe this commandment to have faith in Jesus and love one another as commanded is what we should be doing as we do other things including taking the Lord's supper. Because what is not done in faith is sin and what is not done in love is also sin. If a person trusting in Jesus Christ blesses a cup and bread in the tradition of the Lord's supper in rememberance of Jesus, and did in such a way that is loving of God and of one another, then that would be feeding on the Lord Jesus Christ because it would be done in faith in Jesus Christ God's Son and in love for one-another and we're meant to do this with one another. Regarding being or becoming a 'good person'. Jesus clearly taught to make the tree good:

> I John 2:1-6 - My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

When it comes to be being saved to serve Christ, we can't boast that in some way we earned salvation outside of God's gift/grace:

> Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV)

> Romans 11:32 - For God has consigned all to disobedience (543. apeitheia - willful unbelief, obstinancy, disobedience), that he may have mercy on all. (ESV)

We still need to submit to God's righteousness. We were all in disobedience so we all need mercy from God. We all need Jesus' blood to be justified. We're not trying to establish our own righteousness outside of Christ. We all need to be washed by the Holy Spirit:

> Romans 10:3 - For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. (ESV)

Remember commendation comes from God. So if someone says such and such then it requires God's approval. If someone 'compliments' me saying I am a 'good man' for example, I usually just shrug it off. I am actually quite indifferent about it. I'd rather see people come to faith in the Lord Jesus Christ themself and praise God for His goodness than receive appraisal from men. I await commendation from God, particularly at day of judgement:

> Hebrews 11:1-4 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible. By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:18 - For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)

> III John 1:11-12 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. Demetrius has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself. We also add our testimony, and you know that our testimony is true. (ESV)

Make the tree good is what Jesus has spoken/commanded. This clearly demonstrates our hearts must be cleansed through the gospel:

> Matthew 12:33-35 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. (ESV)

Believe the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, accurately, trust in Him. This cleanses the heart. God heals restores us from the inside-out. Believe He came from God. Confess with your mouth that Jesus is LORD, Jesus is Jehovah, believe in the heart that God raised Him from the dead. Continue trusting in God through trusting in Jesus, continue hearing, coming into agreement with and obeying Jesus' word:

> Acts 15:8-9 - And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)

G3670 homologeó Definition: To confess, to acknowledge, to agree

> Romans 10:8-13 - But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess (G3670 homologeó) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. (ESV)

youtube.com: STOP Trying To Be a Better Christian... {Let Me Explain} So I want to give you an illustration say for example you take a piece of fruit and this represents righteous living, as the Bible commands us to live as Christians.

Now, what I want to say is that Christians spend too much time focusing on the fruit rather than the tree. There are so many Christians that are trying to live right in order to be made, right rather than knowing that they've been made right, so they live right out of that place.

Now, if I was to take a piece of fruit and I was to stick it on a tree that is not a fruit tree, would that make it a fruit tree? Of course not. Why? Because that tree can't produce fruit naturally on its own. But what if we were to look at a fruit tree? How would we know that it's a fruit tree? Because that fruit tree produces fruit on its own. If it's planted in good soil, if it has water, if it has adequate sunlight, that tree is going to produce good fruit naturally on its own. It's not going to stress and strive to produce the fruit. It's going to produce the fruit in due season simply because it is a fruit tree and that's what a fruit tree does.

And this is very similar for the Christian. So many Christians spend their time basically trying to stick pieces of fruit on a tree rather than recognizing that they are a tree that has been made right.

David Mathis "Don't think that becoming like Jesus in his death means that Paul is anticipating that he himself will be crucified, or that we will be crucified, but that he wants us to know Christ as we live in the pattern in which he lived; That we would have his heart, we would have his mind (mindset). We would know him by walking in that mind, in that heart. That's the pattern Paul wants to be conformed to. And knowing Christ by sharing in his sufferings means walking in the footsteps of his self-humbling, and experiencing Jesus' help and the fellowship of having Him near and His resurrection power on the path of our obedience when it's the hardest".

Very well put by David Mathis. I'd say that in obeying Christ and imitating Christ, we endeavour to be found in Him, and He is our righteousness, and He is also our strength. We believe Truth because we believe Jesus. We obey Righteousness because we obey Jesus.

Polycarp 8:1 Let us therefore without ceasing hold fast by our hope and by the earnest of our righteousness, which is Jesus Christ who took up our sins in His own body upon the tree, who did no sin, neither was guile found in His mouth, but for our sakes He endured all things, that we might live in Him.

Since the real Jesus is Faithful and True, He is trustworthy. If we trust in Jesus then we trust the real Jesus which means we trust the words He spoke. We are teachable by Jesus:

> Revelation of John 19:11 - Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! The one sitting on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war. (ESV)
> Zephaniah 3:2 - She listens to no voice; she accepts no correction. She does not trust in the LORD; she does not draw near to her God. (ESV)
> Hebrews 10:19-23 - Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

I still believe that the upward call of God in Christ Jesus may result in some being martyred.

Holding to the Truth (remaining faithful to the Word of God concerning one's confession of faith in Jesus) while also ”applying their faith in deed”, practicing righteousness (being obedient to Jesus, obedient to His commandments), a person will receive persecution:

> II Timothy 3:12-13 - Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil people and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. (ESV)
> John 21:19 - (This he said to show by what kind of death he was to glorify God.) And after saying this he said to him, Follow me. (ESV)
> I Timothy 6:12 - Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. (ESV)

We must act out our new nature:

youtube.com: The Hidden Snare of Bitterness @time: 4 min 6 sec So when Paul says, ”Put it on, this new nature, he means, 'Act it out'.” If you have been created anew after the likeness of God clothe yourselves with godly garments. Now what is clothing? Clothing is what people see. When you put clothing around yourself you give something for people to look at that's presentable. So when Paul says ”clothe yourselves, put on your new nature,” he means, ”let that inner reality that God has created work itself out in visible actions and behaviors and attitudes. Become what you are within.”

Mathetes to Diognetus They dwell in their own countries, but simply as sojourners. As citizens, they share in all things with others, and yet endure all things as if foreigners. Every foreign land is to them as their native country, and every land of their birth as a land of strangers. They marry, as do all [others]; they beget children; but they do not destroy their offspring. They have a common table, but not a common bed. They are in the flesh, but they do not live after the flesh. They pass their days on earth, but they are citizens of heaven. They obey the prescribed laws, and at the same time surpass the laws by their lives. They love all men, and are persecuted by all. They are unknown and condemned; they are put to death, and restored to life. They are poor, yet make many rich; they are in lack of all things, and yet abound in all; they are dishonoured, and yet in their very dishonour are glorified. They are evil spoken of, and yet are justified; they are reviled, and bless; they are insulted, and repay the insult with honour; they do good, yet are punished as evil-doers. When punished, they rejoice as if quickened into life; they are assailed by the Jews as foreigners, and are persecuted by the Greeks; yet those who hate them are unable to assign any reason for their hatred. To sum up all in one word–what the soul is in the body, that are Christians in the world. The soul is dispersed through all the members of the body, and Christians are scattered through all the cities of the world. The soul dwells in the body, yet is not of the body; and Christians dwell in the world, yet are not of the world. The invisible soul is guarded by the visible body, and Christians are known indeed to be in the world, but their godliness remains invisible.

> Philippians 2:15 - that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, (ESV)

Jesus follows us and supports us:

> I Corinthians 10:4 - and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. (ESV)

Thanks to Jesus' endurance, His spirit empowers us to live as He lived, and to be conformed to His image. Jesus wants us to practice His love, His faith, His commandments:

> Hebrews 12:1-3 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. (ESV)
> Hebrews 2:16-18 - For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of Abraham. Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted. (ESV)

Christ's law is His Torah, Christ's commandments which are summarised in this commandment to love one another as He has loved us:

> John 15:12 - This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. (ESV)

Here are some verses that show what the love of Jesus that we should have looks like:

> Romans 12:9-21 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be conceited. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. To the contrary, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head. Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (ESV)
> I Thessalonians 5:15 - See that no one repays anyone evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to everyone. (ESV)
> Colossians 3:9 - Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices (ESV)
> Galatians 6:2-6 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. For each will have to bear his own load. One who is taught the word must share all good things with the one who teaches. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:8-10 - But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. (ESV)

Dying to the law to make Jesus our Master isn't forsaking Jesus' commandments. And it's certainly not forsaking "obeying the truth", and it's not forsaking "keeping God's commandments". And it's not forsaking commandments altogether.

> Matthew 5:19 - Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

When talking about "The Law" the Apostles are usually referring to the Mosaic Law. And when talking about "being under the law", Paul I believe is saying that such people who are "under the Law" are trying to be justified by the Old Covenant Law, rather than "coming to Jesus":

> Galatians 5:4-7 - You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

I believe that the people Jesus is talking to here are/were "under the Law" (the Mosaic Law):

> John 5:39-47 - You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life. I do not receive glory from people. But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you: Moses, on whom you have set your hope. If you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words? (ESV)

> Galatians 3:23 - Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. (ESV)

So how to come to Jesus (John 5:39-47)? Take His yoke. Abide in His commandments. Trust and obey Jesus:

> Matthew 11:28-30 - Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (ESV)

All Jesus' commandments are grace and truth:

> John 1:17 - For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Isaiah 42:1-4 - Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations. He will not cry aloud or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law. (ESV)

> Matthew 12:15-21 - Jesus, aware of this, withdrew from there. And many followed him, and he healed them all and ordered them not to make him known. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: Behold, my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved with whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the Gentiles. He will not quarrel or cry aloud, nor will anyone hear his voice in the streets; a bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not quench, until he brings justice to victory; and in his name the Gentiles will hope. (ESV)

> Romans 15:12-13 - And again Isaiah says, , The root of Jesse will come, even he who arises to rule the Gentiles; in him will the Gentiles hope. May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope. (ESV)

> Isaiah 11:10 - In that day the root of Jesse, who shall stand as a signal for the peoples—of him shall the nations inquire, and his resting place shall be glorious. (ESV)

Jesus has taught us how to love one another, through commandments:

> John 15:13-17 - Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. These things I command you, so that you will love one another. (ESV)

And we must love our family in Christ. This commandment to love our brothers in Christ is a commandment to love our whole family in Christ, male or female:

> I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

I think saying "neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female" is Paul exhorting people to see that those who have been baptized into Christ are members of Christ, and have an identity in Christ which transcends the worldly categories, similar to saying that a slave has an identity in Christ and so earthly masters should be wary of that fact, being aware that a person in Christ Jesus has an identity that totally transcends the worldly divisions between people:

> Galatians 3:25-29 - But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise. (ESV)

We become bondservants (slaves) of God, servants of Christ, and we are also brothers in Christ. We don't give up being servants of Christ. Rather we serve Christ and now see each other as family in Christ. In this passage in Philemon, Paul talks about "family of the flesh" as contrasted with "family in the Lord". Paul encourages Philemon to receive Onesimus as more than a slave (of the flesh, like the person's worldy "employment") but as a brother in Christ:

> Philemon 1:15-16 - For this perhaps is why he was parted from you for a while, that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, as a beloved brother—especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. (ESV)

Servants of Christ have the fear of God, seeking to please God:

> Romans 14:17-18 - For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

> Galatians 1:10 - For am I now seeking the approval of man, or of God? Or am I trying to please man? If I were still trying to please man, I would not be a servant of Christ. (ESV)

The Apostle John says to be able to know that we are loving the children of God, we must be keeping His commandments. If people are offended at us while we are sincerely from the heart and in reality abiding by Jesus Christ's commandments, we should not be deterred from continuing to try to abide by Jesus Christ's commandments. We may, sometimes need to be corrected into better obedience, but it's not the commandments which are at fault:

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

Even the Gentiles wait for His (Jesus') Law (Torah):

> Isaiah 42:1-4 - Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations. He will not cry aloud or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law. (ESV)

> Matthew 12:15-21 - Jesus, aware of this, withdrew from there. And many followed him, and he healed them all and ordered them not to make him known. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: Behold, my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved with whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the Gentiles. He will not quarrel or cry aloud, nor will anyone hear his voice in the streets; a bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not quench, until he brings justice to victory; and in his name the Gentiles will hope. (ESV)

> Romans 15:12-13 - And again Isaiah says, , The root of Jesse will come, even he who arises to rule the Gentiles; in him will the Gentiles hope. May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope. (ESV)

> Isaiah 11:10 - In that day the root of Jesse, who shall stand as a signal for the peoples—of him shall the nations inquire, and his resting place shall be glorious. (ESV)

We must have faith in Jesus to be justified by faith. God justifies the person who trusts in Jesus and since we trust Jesus we should be doers of Christ's law (which is not outside the law of God, so we are doers of the law), and God justifies the person with the blood of Jesus. If we're trusting in Jesus then we're trusting in God who justifies the ungodly. We're not trusting in God to justify our ungodliness, but to justify us as we keep our faith in Jesus:

> Romans 2:13-16 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers (G4163 poiētai) of the law who will be justified. For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 17:10 - I the LORD search the heart and test the mind, to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds. (ESV)

God's strength does not guarantee that we will not suffer as a result of following Jesus. But God gives us the power at the time we need it to endure the suffering:

> Hebrews 12:1-3 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. (ESV)
> Jeremiah 17:5 - Thus says the LORD: Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, whose heart turns away from the LORD. (ESV)

youtube.com: Sanctify Christ as Lord @time: 21 min 49 sec When I stress that the glory of Christianity is that God wants His name to be hallowed through your hoping in what He does for you rather than for what you do for Him, that does not lead to passivity. It never has in the history of the Christian church.

The people that believe that most dearly and most intently have the Holy Spirit working not instead of them but inside of them, stirring them up to maximise their enjoyment of the grace of God shed abroad in their labours.

God took the sting out of death and He took the futility out of labour, so that He says, "You will mount up like wings like eagles. You will run and not grow weary. You will walk and not faint." His power doesn't take the joy of meaningful labour and productivity away from up.

It gets under it. It gets behind it. It gets in it. It gets in front of it with reward.

It empowers it so that it's satisfying and freeing and liberating and you come to the end of your day wonderfully weary, not excruciatingly weary.

The main point of the message is that God's name and His Son's name should be hallowed in our hearts and it should be hallowed best when we hope most in Him.

Quote from John Piper God took the sting out of death and He took the futility out of labour, so that He says, "You will mount up like wings like eagles. You will run and not grow weary. You will walk and not faint."

AMEN to that!

I don't think that it's always the case though that we will not be "excruciatingly weary", particularly if there is a big calling on the person:

> Luke 12:42-49 - And the Lord said, Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. But if that servant says to himself, My master is delayed in coming, and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will cut him in pieces and put him with the unfaithful. And that servant who knew his master's will but did not get ready or act according to his will, will receive a severe beating. But the one who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, will receive a light beating. Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more. I came to cast fire on the earth, and would that it were already kindled! (ESV)
> II Corinthians 1:8 - For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, of the affliction we experienced in Asia. For we were so utterly burdened beyond our strength that we despaired of life itself. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 4:8-12 - We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you. (ESV)

I think we certainly can get very weary. But waiting on the LORD our strength is renewed:

> Daniel 7:25 - He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. (ESV)

> Isaiah 40:31 - but they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint. (ESV)

youtube.com: Post from Hangin Out With Stan Commented, 'Satan also "over-encumbers you" too, I think to try to get a person to no longer walk in the truth. We're supposed to walk by faith and love. So we wouldn't "rest" from love ever. Like Jesus also loved till the end. We might rest from our "works", sure, but never from love, and never from faith. Satan tries to wear out the saints of the Most High and steal our rest and tries to pressure us into breaking faith with God. But God provides strength to get through difficult stuff.'

The followers of Paul the Apostle live by (walk by) faith; those are the righteous ones. It's a lifestyle:

> Galatians 3:11 - Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. (ESV)

The crown of life is gifted to those who are obedient, and have been tested. I think this verse can also be taken in the literal sense:

> Revelation 2:10 - Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. (ESV)

Jesus will manifest to those who keep His commandments:

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

> John 14:22-23 - Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

Even the Apostle Paul explains that our freedom is for serving one another:

> Galatians 5:13 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

Our freedom is so that we might live to God:

> Galatians 2:19 - For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. (ESV)

> Psalms 119:45 - And I will walk at liberty, For I seek Your precepts. (NASB)

> Galatians 5:13 - For you were called to freedom (G1657 eleutheria; freedom), brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. (ESV)

God is our life. We must love, obey, and hold fast to Him. Faith is not without obedience, but we are to obey Jesus Christ and to believe in Jesus is to have begun to obey Him:

> Deuteronomy 30:20 - loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them. (ESV)

God is our life because Christ is our life. Our life is hidden with Christ in God:

> Colossians 3:1-4 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. (ESV)

Obey God, obey Jesus. This doesn't say that obeying the 10 commandments is not important. To love God and your neighbour in truth from the heart is the way to do this. But Mark 10:17-21 does say that following Jesus (treasuring Jesus, His words and putting them into practice) is vitally important:

> Mark 10:17-21 - And as he was setting out on his journey, a man ran up and knelt before him and asked him, Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. You know the commandments: Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother. And he said to him, Teacher, all these I have kept from my youth. And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.

To get to know Jesus, we must obey His commandments:

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

Christ Jesus has set us free to serve God, living for Him. Obeying Christ Jesus, we are found in Him:

> John 13:34 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. (ESV)
> Matthew 5:22,28,32,34-37,39,44-45,27-28,30-31,35,40 - But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery. And whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. But I say to you, Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply Yes or No; anything more than this comes from evil. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell. It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce. or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. (ESV)
> Luke 6:34-36,40 - And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. (ESV)

In Christ Jesus seek to follow the pattern of His life to get to know Him, and He gave us commandments to follow to do that. Faith in Christ Jesus is not just a belief in the head but faith is trusting Him, and trusting in Him with all our heart, soul, mind and strength. Both our belief in Him and obedience to Him flow from our trust in Him. Anyone who claims to have come to know Jesus but does not do what Jesus says is a liar and they are not in the truth:

> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)
> Galatians 2:1-5 - Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me. I went up because of a revelation and set before them (though privately before those who seemed influential) the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, in order to make sure I was not running or had not run in vain. But even Titus, who was with me, was not forced to be circumcised, though he was a Greek. Yet because of false brothers secretly brought in—who slipped in to spy out our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might bring us into slavery— to them we did not yield in submission even for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might be preserved for you. (ESV)

Yes, Jesus has set us free, but it's to serve God by serving Christ. We are freed in order to love and serve God:

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)
> Galatians 5:1 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 7:23 - You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. (ESV)
> Galatians 2:4 - Yet because of false brothers secretly brought in—who slipped in to spy out our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might bring us into slavery— (ESV)
> Galatians 5:13 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. (ESV)
> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. >
> Daniel 7:27 - Then the sovereignty, the dominion and the greatness of all the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints of the Highest One; His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all the dominions will serve and obey Him.' (NASB)

Song youtube.com: Satellite - Let Freedom Ring {Live at Eastercamp 2013}

Slaves worship idols. Christians obey God, and in obeying God we are free. We love God and trust God and love Jesus and follow Jesus:

> Exodus 20:2-3 - I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. You shall have no other gods before me. (ESV)

In believing we have eternal life, but we need to continue in obedience to Jesus Christ or will not see life, so there should be a change of behaviour. We should have changed to serve God:

youtube.com: Romans 16 19 Bob Fitts {@isbaptist} Be excellent in what is good; Be innocent of evil; Be excellent in what is good; Be innocent of evil; [Chorus:]; And the God of Peace will soon crush Satan; God will crush him underneath your feet!

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

When we are in God's rest, God continues working in us:

> Hebrews 13:20-21 - Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

Forgive one another in Christ and be obedient, and hold no grudge for those in darkness, but try to be the light of the world to them, show them the love of God and the truth of God. Be obedient to Christ in everything that we are not outwitted by Satan:

> II Corinthians 2:5-11 - Now if anyone has caused pain, he has caused it not to me, but in some measure—not to put it too severely—to all of you. For such a one, this punishment by the majority is enough, so you should rather turn to forgive and comfort him, or he may be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. So I beg you to reaffirm your love for him. For this is why I wrote, that I might test you and know whether you are obedient in everything. Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ, so that we would not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs. (ESV)

> Luke 17:3-4 - Pay attention to yourselves! If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him, and if he sins against you seven times in the day, and turns to you seven times, saying, I repent, you must forgive him. (ESV)

Even if ”apeitheó” is better translated to ”not be pursuaded”, trusting in Jesus Christ is still obedience. Unless you believe that trusting in Jesus is disobedience, which it is not. It’s obedient to trust in Jesus because He commanded it in John 14:1. They’re not separate things. A heart that is pursuaded to trust Jesus is an obedient heart:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

- G4100 (pisteuōn): This is the present participle form of the verb ” ” (G4100 pisteuō), meaning ”to trust” / ”to believe” / ”to have faith.” In the participle form, it functions as a verbal adjective and can be translated as ”believing” / ”trusting.”

> I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, > if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

> Proverbs 28:13 - Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy. (ESV)

We must not deny the faith. The type of faith we must have is a love for the truth. Not a demonic faith.

It's unrighteous to take away from those depending on you what they need to survive on. You can give yourself away for others completely (like how the widow gave all she had), but not give other people away completely for others. Sacrificing one's own children (especially against their will) to save others isn't right. If I gave away my family's only provisions that they needed to "survive" on (i.e. they needed it) to someone else who didn't "need" it, but wanted it or asked for it, then that is a faithless thing to do. How can a person say they trusted in God if they were to give their baby's food in charity and in doing so put their own baby in mortal danger? Faith in the truth doesn't sacrifice children or relatives to help. That would be an unlawful way to provide for relatives. It would be more lawless than Robin Hood's stealing to give to the poor and closer to murdering to give to the poor. Obviously if it is not required for dependents to survive on, as the head of the household they can make the call to give family provisions to help others in need. True faith in God trusts God and trusts His precepts and commandments, and loves the truth, loves His precepts. True faith in God doesn't hate the truth (like a demon would hate the truth) but true faith loves the truth:

> I Timothy 5:8 - But if anyone does not provide for his relatives, and especially for members of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. (ESV)

In the family of faith, we ultimately share all things, and since all we have belongs to God, and since we must love our family in Christ, it's evil to not be a "good Samaritan" to those in the body of Christ who are in need:

> Acts 4:32 - Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. (ESV)

> Proverbs 3:27 - Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it. (ESV)

> I John 3:17-18 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. (ESV)

Also those who are in Christ we should treat as family, and I think it's right to share evenly with our wider family, even in a survival situation:

> I Timothy 5:1-2 - Do not rebuke an older man but encourage him as you would a father. Treat younger men like brothers, older women like mothers, younger women like sisters, in all purity. (ESV)

The passage in I Kings 17:8-16 shows a clear exception to the rule. Because Christians have commandments and doctrine which is different to this specific commadment to feed Elijah. She acted in faith in this situation after hearing "For thus says the LORD the God of Israel, The jar of flour shall not be spent, and the jug of oil shall not be empty, until the day that the LORD sends rain upon the earth":

> I Kings 17:8-16 - Then the word of the LORD came to him, Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to feed you. So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, Bring me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. And as > she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand. And she said, As the LORD your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. And now I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it and die. And Elijah said to her, Do not fear; go and do as you have said. But first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterward make something for yourself and your son. For thus says the LORD the God of Israel, The jar of flour shall not be spent, and the jug of oil shall not be empty, until the day that the LORD sends rain upon the earth. And she went and did as Elijah said. And she and he and her household ate for many days. The jar of flour was not spent, neither did the jug of oil become empty, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by Elijah. (ESV)

On a different but related topic (i.e. not regarding taking care of dependents), I wonder though, did Elijah end up eating it and on this specific teaching regarding ”every prophet who orders a meal in the Spirit does not eat it, unless he is indeed a false prophet” is the Didache correct? It seems like Elijah ordered a meal in the Spirit. I agree wholeheartedly with the remainder of this didache excerpt. For example, I agree with ”But not every one who speaks in the Spirit is a prophet but only if he holds the ways of the Lord.” And I agree with ”And every prophet who teaches the truth, but does not do what he teaches, is a false prophet. And every prophet, proved true, working unto the mystery of the Church in the world, yet not teaching others to do what he himself does, shall not be judged among you, for _with God he has his judgment for so did also the ancient prophets.”:

I'll let the Didache speak for itself here But not every one who speaks in the Spirit is a prophet but only if he holds the ways of the Lord. Therefore from their ways shall the false prophet and the prophet be known. And every prophet who orders a meal in the Spirit does not eat it, unless he is indeed a false prophet. And every prophet who teaches the truth, but does not do what he teaches, is a false prophet. And every prophet, proved true, working unto the mystery of the Church in the world, yet not teaching others to do what he himself does, shall not be judged among you, for with God he has his judgment for so did also the ancient prophets. But whoever says in the Spirit, Give me money, or something else, you shall not listen to him. But if he tells you to give for others' sake who are in need, let no one judge him.

> Isaiah 61:1 - The Spirit of the Lord GOD (H3068. Yhvh - Phonetic Spelling: (yeh-ho-vaw'), Jehovah, Yahweh) is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; (ESV)
> Luke 4:18-21 - The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor. And he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. And he began to say to them, Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 3:14-18 - But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. But when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord (G2962 Kyrios; Lord) is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord (G2962 Kyriou; of [the] Lord [is]) is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord (G2962 Kyriou; of [the] Lord), are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord (G2962 Kyriou; [the] Lord) who is the Spirit. (ESV)

We love others, even those who hate us. And we endeavour to never render evil for evil, but do good to all. We don't render evil for evil:

> Matthew 5:38-48 - You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have > your cloak as well. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate (3404. miseó, 3404 miséō – properly, to detest (on a comparative basis); hence, denounce; to love someone or something less than someone (something) else, i.e. to renounce one choice in favor of another.) your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

> Romans 12:21 - Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (ESV)
> Proverbs 24:17-18 - Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles, lest the LORD see it and be displeased, and turn away his anger from him. (ESV)
> Galatians 6:10 - So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

If a person was distrusting the teaching of Christ while trusting someone on the basis of, say, a dream they had, or something like that, then I think that would be unloving because we know we are walking in love when we're keeping God's commandments for us, and if we're not walking in faith in God then we'd not be walking in real love either. Under such circumstances of not walking in faith in the truth, Jesus' teachings wouldn't be followed the way He wanted, similar to how Moses struct the rock instead of speaking to it (Numbers 20:8-12). So I think we must be walking faithfully in the teaching of Christ. And so long as that is being done, then there is room for "benefit of the doubt". There are situations I have found where I meet new people with their own religious background and in interacting with them, I try to remain faithful to Jesus' teachings. So long as a doer in reality (not a hypocrite), and I'm trying to please God, and I'm walking in Jesus' teachings faithfully (even in my private life) then I have confidence that God would be working in situations as I act on other of Jesus' teachings when interacting with people in the world, which the world might consider "risky", such as "giving to the one who asks".

Comments on the news about this tragedy I recognise it's a horrifying situation. God is the avenger. Put no confidence in the flesh. Putting our faith in guns and security teams is not what Christianity is about. Christians should not be killing people. God does use people in government and in law-enforcement etc. but rendering evil for evil is not what Christians are commanded to do (I Thessalonians 5:15). We're supposed to overcome evil with good. In this life we are called to "do good to all" and we must love one another in the family of Christ with agape love, and we're blessed if we are persecuted for righteosness-sake. I think that "stealing or lying or killing" in order to "save" is not practicing righteousness. Strong Christian faith looks like endeavouring to not sin while trusting God. (I Peter 4:19) Do we trust God will take care of us even when things "appear" to be precarious? We walk by faith and not by sight. Worldly wisdom would say "Shoot the person dead before he kills anyone." Walking by faith, a person would be seeking to keep God's commandments for us, and not want to sin against God, as we hate sin and fear God, and if God wills it, we live or die, or will be here the next day. But God is our avenger. Walking by faith would look like trying to imitate Jesus who was obedient to God even to the point of death on a cross.

> Mark 8:35 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it. (ESV)

Satan can't take our eternal life in Christ from us. I don't believe in "killing to save". It's not the way.

Our intentions in helping people are supposed to be towards giving mercy, but not at the cost of sacrificing our own children - that would be hypocrisy. Agape love lays down one's own life for others but doesn't steal in order to give or and doesn't sacrifice the needs of one's own dependents in order to bless someone else. The parents are obligated to support their children who are depending on their parents to provide for them what they need to survive. Not what they need to live in luxury, but what they need to survive:

> Isaiah 58:6-7 - Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover him, and not to hide yourself from your own flesh? (ESV)

> II Corinthians 12:14 - Here for the third time I am ready to come to you. And I will not be a burden, for I seek not what is yours but you. For children are not obligated to save up for their parents, but parents for their children. (ESV)

Good works must be done in love. Love is not strictly the works, but is from the heart. And the love we have is a love of the truth, not a love of sin:

> I Corinthians 13:1-8 - If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing. Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears (G4722 stegei; it bears; to cover with silence (endure patiently)) all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. (ESV)

One person's luxury might be what someone else could really use as an act of mercy. When I was pretty young, like about 12, I'd say, I lived on the Gold Coast in Australia. I had a Sega Master System which I got in a pass-the-parcel at I think it was my Japanese friend's birthday. My mum and dad had met a new young family who lived in the neighbourhood who were struggling. I can't remember if this new family were Christians, but mum and dad were really involved with their "bread of life" ministry. Mum and dad got permission to go to Brumby's bakeries and pack from their shelves unsold food and distribute it to people who needed it. I think that might be why we were there at this new family's house. I remember going around there to visit them with mum and dad. I remember their dad just like toasting mouldy bread because they couldn't afford food. And then I remember mum asked me to give up my Sega Master System and the video games to give it to the new dad. Mum was really excited about the idea. I was gutted. Mum really wanted me to give it away. Dad also I think thought it was a good idea. I remember complaining very much. I wasn't happy. But I didn't need it to survive on. I think my parents made an executive decision to give it. In retrospect, it's a blessed memory. To give up what you don't need to help someone else. It's something that I didn't need to survive on. My parents made the call to give it. They made the right decision.

And we must not neglect our family in Christ:

> Galatians 6:10 - So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

Remember commendation comes from God. So if someone says such and such then it requires God's approval:

> Hebrews 11:1-4 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the people of old received their commendation. By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible. By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:18 - For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. (ESV)

> III John 1:11-12 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. Demetrius has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself. We also add our testimony, and you know that our testimony is true. (ESV)

Who is to say God can't justify by faith alone? Is JP's teaching here useful? I think it is. JP is taking from the word. We must continue abiding in Jesus' teachings though. We've got to be taught by, coming into agreement with and confessing the same Jesus Christ as the Apostles.

I think JP is OK here to state a position on how faith in Jesus, being justified and placed into Christ and sanctified while obeying the truth for a sincere brotherly love, working by love gets a person to heaven. He's simply helping others by stating his understanding/this position (at the time he said it) of the process of salvation and getting to heaven. It's not up to us to say that Jesus can't save someone by faith alone - I think He could. But it's accurate to use other parts of scripture to talk about how to "get to know God, be brought to God, 'get to heaven' ", as JP has done here. If we get to heaven with love for Jesus then I think that qualifies us to "get into heaven". Repenting, turning away from sin is an act of love to God I'm sure as it's obedient to Jesus.

I actually think there is a false dichotomy made between faith and obedience which is where the confusion lies.

The fact the Scripture says that God's righteous one lives by faith is no reason to believe that we "don't have to obey God". Faith is in no way in opposition to obedience. "Living by faith" does not mean a person cannot also be living by obedience. A person can trust and obey at the same time, as Abraham did.

> Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:8 - By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. (ESV)

A person either obeys the truth or they obey unrighteousness. It's one or the other:

> Romans 2:8 - but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. (ESV)

A person either prefers light to darkness, or they prefer darkness to light:

> John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV)

A person either has faith in the truth, or faith in a lie. Even trusting in idols is trusting in lies:

> Jeremiah 29:31 - Send to all the exiles, saying, Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah of Nehelam: Because Shemaiah had prophesied to you when I did not send him, and has made you trust in a lie, (ESV)

> Jeremiah 28:15 - And Jeremiah the prophet said to the prophet Hananiah, Listen, Hananiah, the LORD has not sent you, and you have made this people trust in a lie. (ESV)

> Isaiah 42:17 - They are turned back and utterly put to shame, who trust in carved idols, who say to metal images, You are our gods. (ESV)

> Habakkuk 2:18 - What profit is an idol when its maker has shaped it, a metal image, a teacher of lies? For its maker trusts in his own creation when he makes speechless idols! (ESV)

Real speech comes from the heart, so AI can still be called a speechless idol, even if it produces the imitation of speech or writing:

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 9:20-21 - The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands nor give up worshiping demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk, nor did they repent of their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their thefts. (ESV)

Mathetes to Diognetus CHAPTER VI – THE RELATION OF CHRISTIANS TO THE WORLD.

To sum up all in one word–what the soul is in the body, that are Christians in the world. The soul is dispersed through all the members of the body, and Christians are scattered through all the cities of the world. The soul dwells in the body, yet is not of the body; and Christians dwell in the world, yet are not of the world. The invisible soul is guarded by the visible body, and Christians are known indeed to be in the world, but their godliness remains invisible. The flesh hates the soul, and wars against it, though itself suffering no injury, because it is prevented from enjoying pleasures; the world also hates the Christians, though in nowise injured, because they abjure pleasures. The soul loves the flesh that hates it, and [loves also] the members; Christians likewise love those that hate them. The soul is imprisoned in the body, yet preserves that very body; and Christians are confined in the world as in a prison, and yet they are the preservers of the world. The immortal soul dwells in a mortal tabernacle; and Christians dwell as sojourners in corruptible [bodies], looking for an incorruptible dwelling in the heavens. The soul, when but ill-provided with food and drink, becomes better; in like manner, the Christians, though subjected day by day to punishment, increase the more in number. God has assigned them this illustrious position, which it were unlawful for them to forsake.

youtube.com: What the AI Race Reveals About America {@ PatristicNectarFilms } And this is a message from the church right now that I would like to present um to those who are in leadership in our land both politically and uh in uh technology and commerce the so-called tech titans. America needs its soul back.

Being smart does not mean that you should have power given to you by a reasonable country.

...

This is the free market completely unhinged from morality and that is a demonic market. Now where is our political leadership? Well, sadly appear it appears that our political leadership it appears that even President Trump is in even worse condition than the tech titans. President Trump says there can be no halt. There can be no evaluation because if we halt at all, China will win. So, we're going to take a 10 to 20% chance of the destruction of the human race because we don't want China to win. I'm sorry. That's a quest for power that is deeply immoral and a self-concept, a concept of America's place in the world that is also deeply immoral. Let us lead as human beings. Let us lead as people who have moral sense.

Let's pray that God would give our leaders some sense to care about what's most important. I hope that we will exalt the cross and not technology. Godless, unrestrained, immoral technology driven by titans who have no respect for God and for morality at all.

Repent and believe and allow the love of God to govern our nation. Let's exalt the cross. Let's put love at the top, not power, not greed. May God save us. Amen.

Sin does not proceed from faith in the truth. So we should be trusting in the truth, trusting in God, trusting God's commandments, obey God rather than anything else. So we need to be trusting and obeying Jesus:

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

We have to have true faith, and have faith in the truth. We must abide in the teaching of Christ, though. We need to have faith in the real Jesus Christ:

> Revelation of John 21:8 - But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death. (ESV)

We need faith in Jesus:

> Revelation of John 14:12 - Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus. (ESV)

To have eternal life we come to know The One True God and Jesus Christ who He has sent:

> John 17:1-3 - When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

And that faith in the Truth must be a saving love of God, the Truth. Genuine faith and genuine love are inseparable:

> II Thessalonians 2:9-10 - The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. (ESV)

So ”saving faith” and ”saving love” are not in contradiction:

1Clem 50:1-4 Ye see, dearly beloved, how great and marvelous a thing is love, and there is no declaring its perfection. Who is sufficient to be found therein, save those to whom God shall vouchsafe it? Let us therefore entreat and ask of His mercy, that we may be found blameless in love, standing apart from the factiousness of men. All the generations from Adam unto this day have passed away: but they that by God’s grace were perfected in love dwell in the abode of the pious; and they shall be made manifest in the visitation of the Kingdom of God. For it is written; Enter into the closet for a very little while until Mine anger and Mine wrath shall pass away, and I will remember a good day and will raise you from your tombs. Blessed were we, dearly beloved, if we should be doing the commandments of God in concord of love, to the end that our sins may through love be forgiven us.

> Luke 7:47 - Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven—for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little, loves little.

> Proverbs 16:6 - By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

> John 8:11 - She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more.]] (ESV)

If we love the Truth, treasure the truth, then we have good treasure in our heart which produces good. And so obedience to God may be defined as having a genuine love of God in our heart. While saving faith and saving love are not in contradiction with each other, neither is saving obedience:

> Psalms 119:11 - I have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

By faith we obey Christ including His commandment to have faith in Him:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

Faith in Jesus can be regarded as proof:

> I John 4:15 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. (ESV)

Justin Martyr says, ”Wherefore those who follow Him, and know Him, having faith in Him as their proof, shall rest in Him.”:

Saint Justin Martyr: Fragments of the Lost Work of Justin on the Resurrection {Roberts-Donaldson}

> And God, the Father of the universe, who is the perfect intelligence, is the truth. And the Word, being His Son, came to us, having put on flesh, revealing both Himself and the Father, giving to us in Himself resurrection from the dead, and eternal life afterwards. And this is Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. He, therefore, is Himself both the faith and the proof of Himself and of all things. Wherefore those who follow Him, and know Him, having faith in Him as their proof, shall rest in Him. But since the adversary does not cease to resist many, and uses many and divers arts to ensnare them, that he may seduce the faithful from their faith, and that he may prevent the faithless from believing, it seems to me necessary that we also, being armed with the invulnerable doctrines of the faith, do battle against him in behalf of the weak.

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

G3670 homologeó Definition: To confess, to acknowledge, to agree

> Romans 10:8-13 - But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess (G3670 homologeó) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

> Matthew 23:10 - Neither be called instructors, for you have one instructor (G2519 kathégétés), the Christ. (ESV)

> Zephaniah 3:2 - She listens to no voice; she accepts no correction. She does not trust in the LORD; she does not draw near to her God. (ESV) kathégétés Definition: Teacher, Leader, Guide. Meaning: a leader, teacher, guide, master.

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> Romans 16:26 - but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith — (ESV)

> Romans 15:17-18 - In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God. For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed, (ESV)

Faith is commanded so is inseparable from obedience. It's the real gospel, the one that calls people to obedience by word and deed. Obedience which leads to righteousness. The elementary doctrine/teachings/commandments of repentance from dead works and faith towards God - these are commandments. But there are more teachings/commandments and we have to not pervert the oracles of God but continue abiding in the teachings/doctrines/comman of Christ:

> Hebrews 6:1 - Therefore let us leave the elementary doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We've got to continue in Jesus' teachings/commandments:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:1 - Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. (ESV)

Those who find a place for God's word in their heart, those who are of the truth, who receive God's word, they listen to what Jesus has said. They are not repulsed by Jesus' words, nor are they repulsed by Jesus' commandments. They are not repulsed by who Jesus is, and they are not repulsed by what Jesus has done as recorded in Scripture:

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

> John 8:37-47 - I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

> John 6:45 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— (ESV)

Jesus' commandments are rock-solid and they are eternal:

> Matthew 7:24 - Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)

> Matthew 24:35 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (ESV)

We can trust Jesus' commandments as we trust Jesus Himself. If a person keeps them out of love for Jesus, with faith in Jesus, God can do some awesome stuff in and through that. Even the commandment to "give to the one who asks", for example, might be met with 'worldly' wisdom to deter someone from trusting God. Distrust for Jesus' commandments deters people from keeping them. But if we obey them out of faith and love for Jesus (and do so in a lawful way, not like a Robin-Hood way, for example), God absolutely sees our efforts in maintaining a good conscience keeping His commandments seeking to please God and not man. He can really use people who are keeping Jesus' commandments in faith:

> Hebrews 6:10 - For God is not so unjust as to overlook your work and the love that you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do. (ESV)

Thinking with faith in Jesus, maintaining a good conscience with God, believing He exist and that He rewards those who seek Him, trusting in God for the outcome, God is not so unjust that He'd punish us for acting in faith. If God works all things for good for those who love Him, and the one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one that loves Him, and since suffering for righteousness-sake is a commendable thing in God's sight then we can trust God to use our obedient commandment-keeping (especially Jesus' commandments) towards our good or for the good of others.

> Romans 8:28 - And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. (ESV)

> Psalms 34:19 - Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all. (ESV)

If you love Jesus, keep His commandments. The one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one who loves Jesus:

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

A person might question whether or not they are managing to keep Jesus' commandments "well enough". They might even tell God something like, "I'm not going to do it unless You do this for me first." But when testing happens, they end up actually doing what God wants them to do:

> Matthew 21:28-31 - What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, Son, go and work in the vineyard today. And he answered, I will not, but afterward he changed his mind and went. And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, I go, sir, but did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father? They said, The first. Jesus said to them, Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. (ESV)

Also, where we fall short in keeping Jesus' commandments, He's still our Master and He's perfect:

> Galatians 2:17-21 - But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor. For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. I do not nullify the grace of God, for if justification were through the law, then Christ died for no purpose. (ESV)

> John 14:22-23 - Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer says it like this, "Only he who believes is obedient, and only he who is obedient believes."

I can't say I agree with everything Bonhoeffer is purportedly said to have believed, but as I said at the top of this document, just because I have quoted some pastors and authors does not mean that I affirm everything they have ever said, but I have selected quotes which I have found to be relevant and helpful:

Although I can see how listening to Jesus and having faith in Jesus can be seen as being obedient to God, God having commanded us to do so, I also understand that it's God who miraculously purifies our heart as we put our faith in Jesus.

> John 13:7 - Jesus answered him, What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand. (ESV)

> Acts 15:8-9 - And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)

These people remained faithful to God:

> Romans 11:4-6 - But what is God's reply to him? I have kept for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal. So too at the present time there is a remnant, chosen by grace. But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace. (ESV)

Dr. Michael S. Heiser Salvation is not gained by moral perfection. It is a gift that comes by grace, through faith (Eph 2:8-9). That in turn means salvation cannot be lost by moral imperfection (Galatians 2:17-21). What is not at all gained by performance cannot be lost by poor performance. Salvation is about believing loyalty - trusting what Jesus did to defeat Satan's claim and turning from all other gods and the belief systems of which they are a part [See quote].

Dr. Michael S. Heiser The gospel isn't here so that you can keep on sinning (John 5:6-15). The gospel is what it is so that you know it is not performance-based. You can be at your worst and Christ still died for you.

Gratitude is not precisely faith. Faith isn't deluding oneself. Faith is trusting and hoping and receiving and loving the truth. Faith is not lying to oneself or trusting in lies. Faith continues trusting for more of God's word and remains loyal to God. Gratitude does not encompass faith. Otherwise Abraham's faith would simply look like gratitude. But our faith should look like Abraham's faith.

Grace through faith comes before gratitude, not the other way around. Gratitude isn't the activator of grace, but faith is!

> Luke 17:11-19 - On the way to Jerusalem he was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. When he saw them he said to them, Go and show yourselves to the priests. And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus answered, Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner? And he said to him, Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well. (ESV)

Gratitude instead of guilt? If the following ”verse for the day” means gratitude instead of ”fear of God” (love for God and hatred of sin) then the following ”verse for the day” is demonic. Grace does have prerequisites, the prerequisite is faith. Otherwise noone could go to hell.

> Romans 3:29-30 - Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. (ESV)

The prerequisite is just not ”works of the law.” The prerequisite is faith in Christ. The prerequisite is obedience to Christ's commandments, His law of faith.

I found a misleading word for today today from `https://versefortheday.com/todays-verse-reflection/` that contains a demonic lie, can you spot it? It's in the first line of the reflection. The lie is ”grace has no prerequisites”:

But if we have faith in the blood of Jesus, in the fear of God seeking mercy, then we may find grace:

> Romans 10:6-13 - But the righteousness based on faith says, Do not say in your heart, Who will ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down) or Who will descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess (G3670 homologeó) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes (G4100 pisteuōn, believing) in him will not be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. (ESV)

> Hebrews 4:16 - Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. (ESV)

> Job 4:6 - Is not your fear of God your confidence, and the integrity of your ways your hope? (ESV)

However, I do also believe in the imputed righteousness that we can have from God who is the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus, and that’s the righteousness of Jesus. However, God is the justifier, the one to grant this righteousness, and I maintain the hope that God will justify me or has already justified me as I continue in obedience. I think this is the right way to think about it.

> Luke 16:15 - And he said to them, You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. (ESV)

Receiving Jesus, we have the ’right’, the ’authority’ to become children of God, even by receiving Him through the knowledge of His name (onoma):

> John 1:12 - As many as however received Him He gave to them authority children of God to be to those believing in the name of Him (Interlinear)

OK, so we have the right to call God our Father if believe on Jesus’ name. So we should definitely renounce ungoliness, and live holy lives:

> I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one’s deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

I call upon Father God (the Father of my Lord Jesus Christ) as my father and endeavour to put off my old self:

> Ephesians 4:20-32 - But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil. Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

We are disciplined so that we are not condemned along with the world. The way I read this… we are disciplined so that we may be found in Christ because those in Christ are not condemned. So when is a person found in Christ?:

> I Corinthians 11:32 - But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

If we are trusting in Jesus we are not condemned. I guess then our trust may falter in various ways even resulting in disobedience and Jesus may judge us and discipline us to correct us. So long as we are trusting in Jesus we are still found in Christ. So we don't want our faith in Jesus to fail:

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

Our salvation looks like being cleaned up by His spirit, behaving in a way now reflecting that we have knowledge of God (i.e. godliness), and not worldliness, treasuring God and one another, and letting go of treasuring/valuing worldly things, with hope for eternal life. This purification of the heart leaves us with a ”desire” to do good works:

> Titus 2:11-13 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, (ESV)

God's grace trains/has taught us to renounce ungodliness, and renounce worldly passions and then live discreetly and righteously and piously in this present age - to repent from sin and practice godly behaviour in the present world, which is full of wickedness as we are in the end times.

Titus 2:11 Has appeared for the grace - of God bringing salvation to all men

Titus 2:12 instructing us that having denied - ungodliness and - worldly passions discreetly and righteously and piously we should live in the present age

Is repentance from sin necessary for salvation? Yes. We renounce the sinful habits and God cleans us up as we obey Him by faith. The liberty that God provides is not being a slave/servant of sin/corruption. God's grace trains us / has taught us to renounce sin, and to live holy lives with holy behaviour in this present age:

> II Peter 2:14-20 - Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet. These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a > tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviou (KJV)

> Proverbs 28:13 - Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy. (ESV)

If a person is unrepentant from sin then it is better that their body is destroyed so their spirit may be saved. In the case of the thief on the cross, his body was destroyed. If he stayed around, he probably would have renounced ungodliness and pursued holiness:

> I Corinthians 5:1-5 - It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you. For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. (ESV)

God put a new spirit in me. God made me alive together with Christ:

> Ephesians 2:4-7 - But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

We should disobey sin, and present ourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and our members as instruments of righteousness to God. We should be practicing righteousness, practicing love and holiness and truth:

> Romans 6:12-13 - Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts, and do not go on presenting the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. (NASB)

We need to receive the Holy Spirit:

Quote by John Piper Hold fast in obedience to what you have heard and believed.

Father God loved Jesus, Jesus loved us, we love God back by loving Jesus back by keeping Jesus' commandments, and Jesus sends His Holy Spirit to us, and we come to know Jesus intimately:

> John 15:9 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

We love in the way Jesus loved us, which is how God loved Jesus:

> John 17:26 - I made known to them your name, and I will continue to make it known, that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them. (ESV)
> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)
> I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)
> I John 4:13 - By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. (ESV)

God loves Jesus, God loved us first through Jesus. Jesus loved us. Love comes from God. We then endeavour to love one another in the way Jesus loved us, passing forward this love. We don't take Jesus (God the Son) out of the equation, nor do we take Father God out of the equation. We were loved first by God:

> I John 4:9-10 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (ESV)
> I John 3:16 - By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. (ESV)
> I John 5:2-3 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

Jesus and Father God manifest to those who keep His word and obey Him:

> John 14:22-23 - Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.
> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

Quote by John Piper Hold fast in obedience to what you have heard and believed. John 14:22 really bothers some people. John 14:22, here's what it says: "Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world?" Jesus answered him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him." This is not unconditional love. This is profoundly conditional. I'll read it again: "Lord how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world, to us - we are your disciples. If anyone loves me he will keep my word and my father will love him - In a way that he doesn't love everybody! My father will love him, and We will come to him to that one who loves us and keeps our word. We will come to that one, make our home, our abode, with him. There is an experience of intimacy and at homeness with Jesus and the father that comes only through obedience. Those who love me so much that keeping my word is not the works of the law, but the overflow of their affections for Me - and how could we not move into such in such a heart with the fullness of the at homeness that you longed for. If anyone keeps My word, holds fast treasures it, in obedience, that person will not be quenching the spirit, that person will not be grieving the spirit, but will know the fullness and sweetness of fellowship with the Father and the Son. If you're watching pornagraphy every week, do not expect this experience - you wont have it. If you're harsh with your wife, you wont have it.

AMEN!!

An unconditional promise:

> Genesis 9:11 - I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of the flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth. (ESV)

A couple of conditional promises:

> James 2:5 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? (ESV)
> Ephesians 6:1-3 - Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. Honor your father and mother (this is the first commandment with a promise), that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land. (ESV)

youtube.com: Accept the Holy Spirit - Derek Prince Sermon @time: 9 min 47 sec I don't believe you can be saved without meeting Jesus. I don't mean that you mean that you meet him visibly as the disciples did but I don't believe there's any way into the true church of Jesus Christ except Jesus. He said, "I am the door. By me, if any man enter in, he shall be saved." So I believe this is a pattern for the new birth for every person. We have to meet Jesus. Not just believe a Doctrine or join a church, but have a personal encounter with the resurrected Christ and receive from him the in breathed Breath of God which is the Holy Spirit and become a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). We pass from death to life. I remember when I met Jesus face to face, not visibly, but face to face in an army barracks room in the British Army in World War II. I didn't have any doctrinal knowledge of Salvation. I couldn't say I was born again. I didn't know what you had to do to be saved, but believe me I was saved. Later on I got the doctrine. But I'd met Jesus and I just want to tell you dear friends that you cannot meet Jesus and stay the same. You can join a church and remain unchanged. You can believe all sorts of things with your head and remain unchanged, but when you meet the resurrected Christ it's transforming and it's permanent.

youtube.com: Jesus Is Not Just A Prophet Or A Guru @time: 3 min 52 sec I'd been deeply involved in yoga. And when I was challenged with the gospel and the presentation of Jesus Christ, I simply was not able to acknowledge Him as Son of God and Messiah until I had a tremendous deliverance.

That was the first deliverance I was ever in, it was the middle of the night, it was in an army barrack room.

I was flat on my back on the floor and I have no idea how many demons came out of me. But many. And the moment that yoga demon left I knew that Jesus is the Son of God, I didn't have any more doubt.

When I was born again of the Spirit, in faith I confessed Jesus - I wasn't told "this is Jesus here making you born-again" - I asked Jesus to save me, and then continued walking in faith, believing I had an experience with God, so I believed God existed, but I sought then to demonstrate my faith to Jesus in my walk, through my inward thoughts, my prayer life with Jesus, my outward actions and my outward words:

> Romans 8:23-25 - And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. (ESV)

Then after a month I confessed Jesus a second time after "giving God my first-fruits" in response.

OK, so in response for being forgiven and born-again, we should live to serve God through serving Christ, getting to know Christ, and disobeying sin.

> Romans 7:1-4 - Or do you not know, brothers—for I am speaking to those who know the law—that the law is binding on a person only as long as he lives? Thus a married woman is bound by law to her husband while he lives, but if her husband dies she is released from the law of marriage. Accordingly, she will be called an adulteress if she lives with another man while her husband is alive. But if her > husband dies, she is free from that law, and if she marries another man she is not an adulteress. Likewise, my brothers, you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. (ESV)

I was born-again on the 1 day of Nisan (the Feast of Firstfruits).

> The Feast of Firstfruits was a festival commanded by the Lord that took place within the Passover celebration. One of seven feasts of the Lord, the Feast of Firstfruits was celebrated in the Jewish month Nisan (roughly late March to early April). The Feast of Firstfruits served as a reminder to the Israelites of God's provision in the Promised Land. Ultimately, the Israelites were to acknowledge that God had rescued them from slavery in Egypt and provided them a place to live and grow crops (Deuteronomy 26:1-11).

I believe that if I am disobeying sin and obeying Jesus then I am cooperating with Jesus as He fights for me to overcome the sin and to put the sin to death:

> Colossians 3:5 - Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. (ESV)

That is the obvious conclusion. I should not be a hypocrite about it.

A test is a test until you respond inappropriately at which point it becomes a temptation. Now please stay with me, this is so important, you are going to encounter all kinds of stuff and it's either going to make you grow in your relationship with God or it's going to take you further away from God, but you will not remain the same.

youtube.com: I Fell Short Of God's Glory... Again {@MarcTheMessengerLive} @time: 1 min 24 sec

> You're going to fall short many times. Your flesh is going to get weak. Um and you know, you're going to start to entertain those thoughts. And let me tell you guys, man, whenever you fall short of the glory of God, you got to get back up instantly because if you stay down, if you stay in your sin, it's going to be a lot harder to get back up. And one thing about sin, right, is that we're giving that spiritual talk. Every every sin you do, whether it's willfully or unwillfully, you're opening up a door in the spiritual realm for these demons to come in, for these strongholds to build in. And every time you just give into your willful sin, you're building a stronghold.

We must receive Jesus in humility but avoid falling into sin and not cause other believers to sin / lead them into to sinning because there are major consequences:

> Matthew 18:3-10 - and said, Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe to the world for temptations to sin! For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes! And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire. And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the hell of fire. See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

desiringgod.org: The High Cost of Sexual Sin | Desiring God I'm trying to explode the doctrine that the battle for obedience is optional because only faith is necessary for salvation. This is very tricky the way words are used here. The battle for obedience is absolutely necessary for salvation because it is the fight of faith. The battle for obedience is absolutely necessary for getting to heaven because it is the battle against unbelief. It is the fight of faith. There are not two battles: one to get yourself saved by a single act of faith, and the other to collect rewards by work. There is only one battle - it's the one that gets you started, it's the one that gets you there, and it's the fight of faith not works! Faith is what severs the root of covetousness, misplaced shame, anxiety, lust, envy, and six more before we are done this year. There is one warfare, and it is the warfare of faith.

AMEN!! If only someone had told me this first. Repentance (metanoia) from sin is an important part of salvation.

youtube.com: What is Repentance ? - Tim Conway {@ illbehonest } @time: 9 min 7 sec Re-pent. Re- (prefix) pent. A pensive person is a thoughtful person. Re-think. That's what the English word means. It means to re-think. It is in the mind.

See, repentance does not start with the turn of the actions.

It starts with a turn in the mind. It's to re-think. Or you know the Greek word: metanoia. The idea of afterthought. But again, after - re; thought - think. It's basically to change the mind. It's to think again and to think differently when you think again. It's to re-think. And it's to change the mind. That's the idea behind repent. That is the idea. The change of life - yes. It happens. Because if you change your mind - listen, for a person to say, well, it only means to change the mind, not the life - if your life doesn't change, then your mind hasn't changed. Because when the mind changes, everything else follows - if it really changes. If you become really convinced of something, everything else will follow. You will do what you're convinced of. That's the issue. It isn't repentance itself, it's repent and then turn - turn in the mind, and the whole self follows. So, our Lord Jesus Christ said this: "I say to you, unless you repent, you will likewise perish." This is essential. This is life and death. So we do not want to be wrong on this term.

> Proverbs 4:23 - Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life. (ESV)

The love of the truth (treasuring the truth) must be received and accepted to be saved:

> II Thessalonians 2:10 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. (NASB)
> Psalms 145:20 - The LORD preserves all who love him, but all the wicked he will destroy. (ESV)
> Psalms 7:12 - If a man does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and readied his bow; (ESV)

People will put their trust in and love what is false:

> II Thessalonians 2:11 - For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe (G4100 pisteuo) what is false (G5579 pseudos), (NASB)

Those people who did not have faith in the truth but took pleasure in unrighteousness may be condemned. True 'pistis' faith involves an agape love of the truth as II Thes 2:10-13 shows:

> II Thessalonians 2:12 - in order that all may be condemned who did not believe (G4100 pisteuo) the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

The love of the truth involves faith in the truth (which agape-loves the truth) and sanctification (being corrected, cleaned up by the truth through trusting and obeying the Truth, trusting and obeying Jesus Christ):

> II Thessalonians 2:10-13 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false, in order that they all may be judged who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness. But we should always give thanks to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

youtube.com: HOW CAN WE BECOME HOLY? {@FatherSpyridonROCOR} Love for God is the beginning of every virtue. And love for the world nurtures evil within us. Love of the world cultivates rejection of holiness, rejection of God. If we love the world and the things of the world, we are rejecting God. And of course, Jesus said, "If any man loves the world, he cannot love the father. The love of the father is not in him."

Agape love not only assents to but rejoices with the truth:

> I Corinthians 13:4-8 - Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears (G4722 stegei; it bears; to cover with silence (endure patiently)) all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. (ESV)

Jesus will clean us up as we obey Him. He'll set up opportunities to obey His commandments:

> Hebrews 5:8-9 - Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

youtube.com: Don't give up - God is still working | Fr. Frankie Cicero {@sttimothymesa} @time: 10 mi
And we have this desire to follow the Lord and then this spirit of fear begins to rise up, the spirit of man begins to rise up and it begins to shake, and instead of us pushing deeper into the Lord and believing that it's going to happen, we allow that to begin to push it down, and we give in, and we give in... No, that's the moment when the Lord is doing a work. You see, when you give your life to Jesus, when you say I'm going > to follow You, the Holy Spirit is going to convict your heart. He's gonna shake you. And you're going to see areas of your life where you're like, "Man, I'm not trusting the Lord… I'm not pushing in… I'm not believing the Lord that He's going to be faithful…" And all of a sudden He kinda shakes us. And this is the moment, not to like give in, this is the moment to push in. This is amazing. Why? Because you're not to live by the spirit of the world anymore. You're not to live by the flesh anymore. You're not to allow the things of the world and what other people say to distract you from what the Word of God says. My brothers and sisters, the Apostles pushed in. They believed. It didn't happen this day, fine, it's going to happen. Well how do you know it's going to happen? Cause He said so. Well I don't see it. Doesn't matter. My faith is not in my sight. My faith is in Him and if He said it, it's going to happen. … Cause even in the midst of this faith, the Lord is moving and He's getting things out and He's preparing us to live in the fulfillment of that blessing.

We obey Jesus' commands. We disobey sin and obey Jesus:

> James 1:13-15 - Let no one say when he is tempted, I am being tempted by God, for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)

> James 1:14-15 - But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

We are brought into being cleaned up by God as we trust and obey Him, trusting and obeying Jesus Christ:

> Titus 2:11-15 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. Declare these things; exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you. (ESV)

> James 5:19-20 - My brothers, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone brings him back, let him know that whoever brings back a sinner from his wandering will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:14-25 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

If we receive him then we are born of God - infants in Christ, and grow up to become children of God:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

We get to call ourselves children of God, and we forsake sin:

> I John 3:1-11 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

> Proverbs 28:13 - Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy. (ESV)

All who hope in Him purify themselves. And during this sanctification process, we still get to call ourselves children of God:

> I John 3:1-11 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

Forsaking sin is important for salvation:

> Hebrews 12:1 - Therefore also we such a great having encompassing us a cloud of witnesses weight (G3591 onkon) having laid aside (G659 apothemenoi) every (G3956 panta) and the easily entangling (G2139 euperistaton) sin (G266 hamartian) with endurance should run the lying before us race (Interlinear)

> Hebrews 12:1 - Therefore also we such a great having encompassing us a cloud of witnesses weight (G3591 onkon) having laid aside (G659 apothemenoi) every (G3956 panta) and the easily entangling (G2139 euperistaton) sin (G266 hamartian) with endurance should run the lying before us race (Interlinear)

> I John 3:14:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> James 1:12 - Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him. (ESV)

> I John 3:14 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. (ESV)

> James 2:5 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? (ESV)

> I John 4:6-13 - We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. (ESV)

We are called to belong to Jesus Christ and to be saints, and in Christ Jesus there is no condemnation. So we should, by faith in Jesus, obey God, obeying Jesus:

> Romans 1:1-7 - Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God, which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh and was declared to be the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations, including you who are called to belong to Jesus Christ, To all those in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

John Piper - We should rely entirely on the righteousness of Christ imputed to us by faith alone as the ground of God being 100% for us after which necessary sanctification comes.

This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

I don't think repentance from sin is a separate issue from salvation but is a continuation of accepting the gospel. We continue to believe the Truth, being washed in the Truth, God's Word, and alongside that our souls are being purified through obedience to the Truth, God's Word. Jesus is the Son of God, the Word of God, the Word of God made flesh. God's spoken Word is the Word of God. Jesus' Words are also the Word. We trust, believe and obey the Word of God, and this repentance is absolutely necessary for salvation.

We must embrace sanctification, and be slaves of God, obeying God, obeying righteousness:

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

> Romans 6:20-23 - When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

At the end of sanctification, the age to come and eternal life:

> Luke 18:29-30 - And he said to them, Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the age to come eternal life. (ESV)

I recognize that I am a sinful person and still need God to justify me through faith in Jesus Christ, not of my own works. I think that "sinful" (i.e. having indwelling sin) is more accurate than saying "sinner" for someone who God has given a new heart and spirit.

> Luke 5:8-10 - But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish that they had taken, and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men. (ESV)

youtube.com: Cliffe Knechtle on the Protestant vs. Catholic vs. Orthodox Debate {@TCNetwork}

I'm making these comments for posterity. Firstly, I consider Cliffe to be a brother in Christ. 6:12 Cliffe says, "I'm a dirty, rotten sinner." - I believe that Christians actually change from serving sin to serving Jesus Christ, so while Christians are tempted and do sin, Christians now are fighting a battle against sin, seeking to obey Jesus. So there's a different way of using that word sinner. Born-again regenerate Christians are doing battle against sin. In a sense they have stopped being sinners when they are born-again. While they still "have" indwelling sin, they are being sanctified, and they stop committing it, and at the end of sanctification is eternal life.

Christians are actually saved not only from sin but from sinning, from committing new sin until they're perfected. But God not only sent Jesus Christ to die for us while we were still sinners, but He makes us born-again, spiritually regenerate and sends us His spirit while we are sinners and cleans us up as we hold our faith in Him and obey Him.

6:25 Cliffe says, "I'm a follower of Christ because I need God's forgiveness because I've messed up." - This is a good attitude.

6:32 Cliffe says, "If I think that my faith in Christ has produced a morally superior person named Cliffe Knechtle, I have parted company with reality." - While Cliffe speaks for himself here, I think that when a person becomes born-again they receive a new heart, the fear of God is put in their heart they seek to serve God. And we are saved through sanctification and faith in Jesus. And we're cleaned up. We are saved from dead works to serve the living God and getting cleaned up through sanctification is necessary.

> Titus 2:14 - who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:1 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, (ESV)

> I Corinthians 6:9-12 - Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. All things are lawful for me, but not all things are helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be enslaved by anything. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:5-7 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them;

> Romans 6:12-13 - Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts, and do not go on presenting the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. (NASB)

> John 8:34-35 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever.

Being dead to sin seems to not mean "unable to let indwelling sin reign in our mortal body", so it seems that being dead to sin and having been set free (and sin no longer having power over oneself), it's still possible for a person to then "let sin reign in the mortal body" (allow it to reign), and we definitely do not want to allow sin to reign in our mortal body. I think what Paul is saying here is that we have been set free from sin and that to let sin reign after you've been set free would be something like a king allowing his enemy to reign in his own kingdom. Rather than doing that, we should be walking in faith and obedience to Jesus Christ:

> Romans 6:11 - So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

> Romans 6:12-14 - Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. (ESV)

Being baptised into Christ, becoming a slave of righteousness, being set free from sin, I assume, also involves becoming obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which were are committed:

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

Having become a slave of righteousness, the fruit we get leads to sanctification and at its end eternal life:

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

I do believe that now. After receiving the Holy Spirit, we must use the spirit to put sin to death, and stop willfully sinning. Committing sin against our own bodies is very, very unwise:

> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

The Apostle Paul still recognises that we are supposed to have a heart of obedience to Jesus. And I imagine the others who Paul came into an argument with were also concerned about going on without love. In return for the grace given to us, we are supposed to love Jesus back in obedience to His commandments:

> Galatians 2:10 - Only, they asked us to remember the poor, the very thing I was eager to do. (ESV)

Those who teach others to disobey Jesus, calling Jesus' commandments contrary to grace, are not being humble:

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

> John 15:10 - If you keep My commandments, you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love. (engbsb2020eb)

We're not being set free from Jesus - we're getting married to Him. But Jesus indeed did give us freedom. We can resist people who try to put us under a yoke of slavery, but we don't teach people to disobey Jesus as to do so is to teach pride and lawlessness and against trusting in Jesus, and against obeying Jesus, and against believing Jesus regarding all the warnings about disobedience and disbelief, and I think it's without the fear of God to teach others to disobey Jesus.

Yes, Jesus has set us free, but it's to serve God by serving Christ. We are freed in order to love and serve God:

> Galatians 5:1 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:13 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

> Daniel 7:27 - Then the sovereignty, the dominion and the greatness of all the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints of the Highest One; His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all the dominions will serve and obey Him.' (NASB)

God gives grace to the humble (not the self-righteous). That is true. But recognising your own sin and calling it sin is humility. And in wanting to turn from it, God may give grace to do so:

> James 4:6 - But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble. (ESV)

youtube.com: HUMILITY to receive CORRECTION so you can GROW in Christ. {@MarkHemans} @

> Jesus said, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Humility is acknowledging the truth of God's word and repenting. While you justify your sin, you're in a state of pride and rebellion against God. But when you humble yourself and you say, "Yes, Lord. Yes, God. I recognize that you are right and I'm wrong." That's where it all begins. That's when the kingdom of heaven will be manifest in your life. You can be born again. You can start walking with the father in righteousness, joy, peace, and love when you say, "You're right and I'm wrong."

We are supposed to have a response of repentance from sin. God's kindness is meant to lead us to repentance from sin. And turning from sin is a loving response to grace given:

> Romans 2:4 - Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? (ESV)
> Matthew 5:6 - Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

The righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ is available for all who believe. It is received by faith, and God is the one who justifies us. We must hold faith in Jesus and seek God's justification. We don't justify ourselves. Faith continues. I think it's really important to believe, trust in and obey Jesus since that's what Abraham's faith was like - it was believing, trusting and obedient:

> Romans 3:20-26 - For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

Those in the kingdom of God hold faith in Jesus and serve Jesus:

> Romans 14:17-18 - For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

And we serve in the strength that God provides. If we find ourselves in a position to demonstrate serving others out of love, and the Scriptures have a lot to say about what that that love looks like (such as in the 10 commandments. God sets up opportunities. See Romans 13:9-10), then we should do so and give God the glory:

> I Peter 4:11 - whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

There are commandments from God which even Paul the Apostle regarded as important to follow for all people who serve Jesus, such as the 10 Commandments and the commandments which came from Jesus Himself, including the Golden Rule:

> Romans 13:9-10 - The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

Quote by John Bunyan Interpreter explained, "This parlor is the heart of a man which has never been sanctified by the sweet grace of the Gospel. The dust is his original sin and inward corruptions, which have defiled the whole man. He who began to sweep at first, is the Law. The maiden who brought and sprinkled the water, is the Gospel. "You saw that as soon as the man began to sweep, that the dust thickly swirled around the room, and became even more difficult to cleanse, nearly choking you to death. This is to show you that the Law, instead of cleansing the heart from sin—does in fact arouse sin, giving greater strength to it—and causing it to flourish in the soul. The Law both manifests and forbids sin—but it has no power to subdue sin. "Again, you saw the maiden sprinkle the room with water, upon which it was cleansed with ease. This is to show you, that when the Gospel comes in the sweet and precious influences thereof to the heart—then, I say, even as you saw the maiden subdue the dust by sprinkling the floor with water—just so is sin vanquished and subdued, and the soul made clean, through faith, and consequently fit for the King of glory to inhabit." youtube.com: Servants or Secret Agents? @time: 17 min 4 sec Sin is a power and not just an act. So many people think that sin is like stealing or killing or lying. And of course that is sin, but that's not the main problem.

If that were the main problem, willpower could save us. The main problem is that sin is a power, and it takes captive desires.

The law is good. The Law apart from Christ is not our source of justification but we don't teach people to disobey it, especially those who follow it by faith.

> Romans 14:10-14 - Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God; for it is written, As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess (G1843 exomologeó) to God. So then each of us will give an account of himself to God. Therefore let us not pass judgment on one another any longer, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother. I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean. (ESV)

The command to believe is a command to obedience, the obedience of faith. The command to obedience is to Jesus Christ who has fulfilled the law. It's still obedience to law but Jesus is our Master, not the old written code, so it's obedience to Jesus primarily. In other words, it's law-abiding obedience, but you can't obey the law and disobey Jesus at the same time.

We must be lawful to Christ (abiding in the 'law of Christ'). Though we don't commend ourselves for doing this. We should normally be doers of Christ's law. What's not done in faith is sin, after all. And whoever has no love for Christ has a curse upon them. And whoever hates their brother who they have seen can't love God who they have not seen. So our duty and normal walk should be doing Christ's commandments such as to have faith in Him and to love one another as He commanded:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of (G1772 ennomos; lawful to, law-abiding to, in the law of) Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

The word ”ennomos” used in I Cor 9:21 for being ”law-abiding” is closely related to the word ”onnomō” which is used in Acts 19:39:

> Acts 19:39 - But if you want anything beyond this, it shall be settled in the lawful (G1772 ennomō lawful) assembly (G1577 ekklēsia; assembly). (NASB)

i.e. ”settled in the legal / assembly / law-abiding assembly / lawful assembly”.

The distinction is being under the law vs being Christ's-law-”abiding” through faith. The law isn't abolished, but established:

> Galatians 3:23-24 - Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. (ESV)

> Romans 3:31 - Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

We don't rely on our works. How many times have we written an email or CV with good intent, but made a mistake? We must not be those who rely on our works:

> Romans 3:28 - For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. (ESV)

God's power is made perfect in our weaknesses. And so, God, I believe can actually use our shortcomings for His purposes:

> II Corinthians 12:9 - But he said to me, My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness. Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. (ESV)

We are commanded to have faith in Jesus, to trust in Jesus, to trust Jesus, to have Christ as our Master, to obey (out of real obedience, a love for the truth) Jesus first and foremost:

> Exodus 20:2-3 - I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. You shall have no other gods before me. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:1-4 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:24-26 - By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward. (ESV)

> Psalms 81:15 - Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever. (engbsb2020eb)

While the law of God revives the soul while we are actually meditating on it and doing it, the law doesn't 'save' to perfection, and it finds fault in all of us who have sinned. All have sinned and fall short of God's glory. We need to follow Christ first and foremost:

> Psalms 19:7-9 - The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple; the precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes; the fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; the rules of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether. (ESV)

> Romans 3:19-20 - Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. (ESV)

> Psalms 1:1-2 - Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night. (ESV)

The Mosaic Law was a former commandment, and the Mosaic Law does not save, but we have new commandments from Jesus Christ who saves us as we trust in, have faith in and obey Him:

> Hebrews 7:19-20 - On the one hand, a former commandment is set aside because of its weakness and uselessness (for the law made nothing perfect); but on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God. (ESV)

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

> II John 1:4-6 - I was very glad to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received commandment to do from the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it.

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

The obedience we have in the heart which saves is trust in Jesus Christ Himself where we become trusting, believing and obedient to Jesus, and as we hold fast to His gospel, Jesus brings us to God. God purifies our heart as we hold faith in Jesus:

> I Peter 3:18-20 - For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, because they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. (ESV)

And, if we live in the flesh, the sinful passions are aroused by the law to bear fruit for death:

> Romans 7:5 - For while we were living in the flesh, our sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death. (ESV)

We are not perfected by the law, but by the Spirit:

> Galatians 3:3 - Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh? (ESV)

Instead we focus on following Jesus first and foremost:

> Romans 14:22-23 - The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

It's not possible to be simultaneously walking in faith and knowing the right thing to do but not doing it. So that means walking by faith involves endeavouring to maintain a good conscience with God:

> James 4:17 - So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin. (ESV)

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> I John 3:14-20 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love (agapōmen) the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

The Law is not against the promises of God:

> Galatians 3:21 - Is the law then contrary to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could give life, then righteousness would indeed be by the law. (ESV)

The promises are still conditional and the promises are reliable. We can trust God to fulfill His promises. Faith and obedience are not mutually exclusive:

> I Kings 17:8-16 - Then the word of the LORD came to him, Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to feed you. So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, Bring me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. And as she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand. And she said, As the LORD your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. And now I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it and die. And Elijah said to her, Do not fear; go and do as you have said. But first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterward make something for yourself and your son. For thus says the LORD the God of Israel, The jar of flour shall not be spent, and the jug of oil shall not be empty, until the day that the LORD sends rain upon the earth. And she went and did as Elijah said. And she and he and her household ate for many days. The jar of flour was not spent, neither did the jug of oil become empty, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by Elijah. (ESV)

It's necessary to separate from idolators in order to be received by God and to be sons and daughters to God. There's no partnership between righteousness and lawlessness. And being the temple of God involves turning away from false gods and separating from idolators. II Cor 6:14-8 makes it clear that faith, belief in Jesus involves repentance from sin and walking in God's commandments and including worshiping and serving one True God only. Being a son or or daughter of God involves turning away from false gods. God gives the promise and we respond to that promise by turning away from false gods and turning away from other forms of sin, and this turning from sin is necessary to be a child of the Most High God:

> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 6:14-18,7:1 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)
> Revelation of John 22:14 - Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life and that they may enter the city by the gates. (ESV)

The blessing is for both the circumcised and the uncircumcised who have faith in God through Jesus Christ:

> Romans 4:5-9 - And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin. Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. (ESV)

While faith is commanded by Jesus, and is one of Jesus' commandments (Christ's law, Christ's torah), God still recognises when people have faith in Him regardless of whether they see it as 'law' or not:

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)
> Romans 4:13 - For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. (ESV)
> Mark 11:22 - And Jesus answered them, Have faith in God. (ESV)
> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)
> John 12:44 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. (ESV)
> Romans 2:14-16 - For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)

God wants us to have faith in Him:

> Romans 16:26 - but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith— (ESV)

The Law is not against the teachings of Jesus Christ and His Apostles, but we are obedient to Jesus first and foremost:

> I Corinthians 14:31-34 - For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all be encouraged, and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. For God is not a God of confusion but of peace. As in all the churches of the saints, the women should keep silent in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak, but should be in submission, as the Law also says. (ESV)

And we are perfected through obedience to the Truth (Jesus) and faith in Jesus as His Spirit sanctifies us:

> I Peter 1:22-25 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect - love also the ones who hate you:

> Matthew 5:38-48 - You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you. You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate (3404. miseó, 3404 miséō – properly, to detest (on a comparative basis); hence, denounce; to love someone or something less than someone (something) else, i.e. to renounce one choice in favor of another.) your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father > who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

The Apostle Paul also teaching on ”being perfect (complete)”:

> Romans 12:9-21 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be conceited. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. To the contrary, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head. Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (ESV)

The Apostle John also teaching on ”being perfect (complete)”:

> I John 4:16-20 - So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. (ESV)

Keep in mind that what Jesus means by ”perfect” is possible, because Jesus said the following, and this is how:

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

> Hebrews 7:11 - Now if perfection had been attainable through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, rather than one named after the order of Aaron? (ESV)

In Christ, we must ”be perfect” in the sense that Jesus means when He says ”You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.” In Christ, we must not hate one another. In Christ, we must agape love one another:

> Colossians 3:13-14 - Bear with one another and forgive any complaint you may have against someone else. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love (26. agapé), which is the bond of perfect unity. (engbsb2020eb)

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

youtube.com: HOW CAN WE BECOME HOLY? {@FatherSpyridonROCOR} Christ calls the members of his church not just to be good but to be holy. He says be perfect. We must be holy. But when we reflect on our sins, we may be tempted to give up. We may be tempted to think it's impossible for this sinful creature to ever be saintly.

In the fifth chapter of the gospel of St. Matthew, Jesus makes it very clear what holiness looks like. This teaching that we often call the Beatitudes.

Quote by John Piper That's who we are as Christians. When we walk according to the Spirit, we fulfill the just requirement of the law. That is, we keep the commandments, we love. We are doers of the law. Not sinlessly perfect law-keepers. Nobody is nor anybody has been except Jesus, which is why we depend on Him, but rather, radically transformed people, through faith, in the power of the Holy Spirit, leaning on the grace of God that comes to us through Jesus Christ.

We're saved and rescued from idolatry and from other lawlessness, and in order to serve God and obey His commandments as Jesus has taught us to keep them:

> Ezekiel 36:25-27 - I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules. (ESV)

Polycarp 2:1 Wherefore gird up your loins and serve God in fear and truth, forsaking the vain and empty talking and the error of the many, for that ye have believed on Him that raised our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead and gave unto him glory and a throne on His right hand; unto whom all things were made subject that are in heaven and that are on the earth; to whom every creature that hath breath doeth service; who cometh as judge of quick and dead; whose blood God will require of them that are disobedient unto Him.

A short version of my testimony of being born-again and Jesus setting me free:

- Baptised as a teenager in Vanuatu in 2005
- I've been writing software since then
- Life had been hard. I was a slave to the world, to sin and was in darkness (I could only see the world, and didn't have a love for God)
  - I was a hopeless case. I was looking for salvation through working harder, and trying to get ahead of the curve with AI stuff
    - Ephesians 2:12 - remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. (ESV)
  - I was full of guilt, and I had so much shame and life has always been difficult
  - I didn't have much love for Jesus. I struggled to believe He was for-me.
  - My priorities were not in order. God wasn't my number one love or treasure
- I began seeking God out, particularly in the second half of 2020, and began having bolder faith in Jesus
  - web.archive.org mullikine.github.io: Prayer // Bodacious Blog

  - trying to follow God's commandments from the heart, accountable to God, and getting more confident talking about God
  - began taking steps of faith, believing in God and standing up for what I considered good and condemning what I considered evil
    - One thing which made me very angry is how big tech was/is using AI to steal GNU software
      - "When a few people steal software, everyone loses."
  - It seems that God was working in my life
  - I think God was working in my heart, making a new heart for me
  - I had begun seeking God, but I still needed God to rescue me from darkness:
    - Psalms 14:2-3 - The LORD looks down from heaven on the children of man, to see if there are any who understand, who seek after God. They have all turned aside; together they have become corrupt; there is none who does good, not even one. (ESV)
- I started researching AI fiction in 2021, invested in the Aletheia AI crypto with their Noah's Ark project for preserving personalities on the block chain
  - I was building Pen.el. Initially the software was
    - to insulate myself against AI fiction, and
    - to inform people about what was coming around the corner
    - as a labour of love for the person I really like
    - It was like an 'Ark'
      - However, I wouldn't say I was instructed to build it as Noah was, but I thought it was more important for the world for me to do good than for me to get paid work, and as I did this I was saying on Reddit, etc. that people should not use this AI large language model stuff to rule like gods over others
      - Hebrews 11:7
- I got born-again of the Spirit on 2 April 2022
  - I woke up to observing my regenerated 'spirit-man' and called out to Jesus in this spirit body saying I didn't know what was going on but asking him to save me
  - I found out recently this was the 1st day of Nisan
  - `https://www.jhiblog.org/2017/05/29/the-first-of-nisan-the-forgotten-jewish-new-year/`
- I put down the AI stuff and began pursuing God full-time
  - I wrote about God's law written on my heart, for example:
  - web.archive.org mullikine.github.io: The Tapestry of Truth // Bodacious Blog
- I had an immersive vision of healing people with compassion soon after, just 2-3 weeks before Pentecost that year

    - Agape love feels like ”A deep longing or very intense treasuring compassion and desperate yearning in the heart for someone to be OK, for them to not perish or be in pain.” - This is what it felt like coming out of me.
        - John 7:37-38 - On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. (ESV)

I really affirm Marc’s message here:

- youtube.com: When You Become Chosen You Will Find Yourself Alone

I’ll also add Geoff Winter’s testimony:

- youtube.com: Testimony of Geoff Winter, 2017

> Romans 10:12-13 - For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. (ESV)

AMEN!!

1 Confessions of faith

I believe Catechisms and creeds are very useful but the catechism is not the personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Remember, a person can take a sacrament without discerning (G1252 diakrinó) the body, and people were able to receive Christ before there were modern creeds/catechisms.

> I Corinthians 11:28-32 - Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning (G1252 diakrinōn: discerning) the body eats and drinks judgment on himself. That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. But if we judged ourselves truly, we would not be judged. But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

So we need to have the love of the truth to be saved.

When taking communion / eucharist, we should have Jesus as our #1 agape love and be taking our cross and following Him:

> Matthew 10:37-38 - Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

> II Thessalonians 1:11-12 - To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

When we drink the cup of the Lord, we must drink it in a worthy manner (I Corinthians 11:24-29)

- Whatever you do, do all to the glory of God
    - We must not be idolators
        - Matthew 10:37-38
        - I Corinthians 10:14-31

- We must be taking up our cross and following of Jesus
  - Matthew 10:37-38
  - John 15:13 - Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. (ESV)
- In other words, we should have a law-abiding faith in Jesus Christ
  - Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

G1252 diakrinó Discernment That Strengthens Faith

> The faithful use of appears in passages that call believers to sift evidence, reach sound conclusions, and thus fortify trust in the Lord. In Matthew 16:3 Jesus rebukes His hearers for failing to "discern the signs of the times," implying that right discernment would have led them to confess Him as Messiah. Likewise, Acts 15:9 celebrates that God "made no distinction between us and them, and purified their hearts by faith," a divine act of discernment that opened the church to Gentiles. Such texts show that careful distinguishing can serve redemptive purposes.

> John 5:42-47 - But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you: Moses, on whom you have set your hope. If you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words? (ESV)

The love of the truth (treasuring the truth) must be received and accepted to be saved:

> II Thessalonians 2:10 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. (NASB)

We need a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

> II Corinthians 11:2-3 - I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I betrothed you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ. (ESV)

So we need to receive Jesus Christ.

When I receive the Apostle Paul's words, I think of myself as receiving Paul. When I receive the Apostle Peter's words, I think of myself as receiving Peter. So I do not think that the Roman Catholic church has some kind of monopoly on the Apostle Peter. But people can receive Christ through receiving Peter through the gospel.

> Matthew 10:40 - Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. (ESV)

> I John 5:9-13 - If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God that he has borne concerning his Son. Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

The reason why Jesus is the source of eternal salvation to those who obey Him (Hebrews 5:8-9) is because people who obey Him are obedient (I Timothy 1:8-9, Romans 6:16-18, Titus 1:16) to Him and a person who is obedient to Jesus has the love of God in their heart (Luke 6:45, John 14:15-17) and it's the love of the Truth that saves (II Thessalonians 2:10):

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)
> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

It's an indisputable fact that God's Holy Spirit of Truth goes to those who obey Him. I think it's important to believe this Truth and it's rock solid teaching:

> Acts 5:29-32 - But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)
> Matthew 12:32 - And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. (ESV)
> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

We need Holy Spirit to help us to understand Scripture.

youtube.com: The Holy Spirit Will Teach You Everything - Bishop Barron's Sunday Sermon {@BishopB

> Karl Barth, the great Protestant theologian from the last century, said, ”The claim that God has spoken implies the trinity.” And what he meant was if you say God has spoken, which is a basic biblical intuition, that means there must be in God a speaker, we call him the father, there must be a word spoken. We call that the son. And Bart says there must be an interpreter of the word. Why? Because the divine word, that's too much for our little minds to handle. So we need not a human interpreter. He's not going to help us with that. We need a divine interpreter of the divine word.
> II Timothy 2:7 - Think over what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything. (ESV)

For example, we know that salvation is though sanctification and faith in Christ (II Thessalonians 2:9-13), and sanctification is through faith in Christ (Acts 26:14-20), and that sanctification is also though obedience to Christ (I Peter 1:22-25, Hebrews 5:9). The Scripture says we are saved both through faith in Christ (Ephesians 2:8-9) and through obedience to Christ (Hebrews 5:9). The Scripture is not lying, so while we might not understand how that works, we can lean not on our own understanding but trust the Scripture does not lie. We trust what God has spoken. And if we obey God, then His Holy Spirit will come to us, and if we love Jesus Christ and keep His commandments, Spirit of Truth will come to us and lead us into all the Truth (John 14:15-17).

I strongly believe that no matter who baptised you, or which ”denomination” we have been part of, that people need to have their own personal relationship with Jesus Christ, and the church should be leading people to grow in their knowledge and grace of Jesus Christ, rather than ”lording” over their flock. People are to be led to Christ and to having their own personal relationship with Jesus Christ where their knowledge of Christ grows as they abide in Him and abide in His love, keeping His commandments. Churches should be teaching Christ's commandments.

> Nehemiah 5:15 - The former governors who were before me laid heavy burdens on the people and took from them for their daily ration forty shekels of silver. Even their servants lorded it over the people. But I did not do so, because of the fear of God. (ESV)

I Peter 5:1-3 - So I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as a partaker in the glory that is going to be revealed: shepherd the flock of God that is among you, exercising oversight, not under compulsion, but willingly, as God would have you; not for shameful gain, but eagerly; not domineering over those in your charge, but being examples to the flock. (ESV)

II Thessalonians 3:9 - It was not because we do not have that right, but to give you in ourselves an example to imitate. (ESV)

Philippians 3:17 - Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. (ESV)

Philippians 4:9 - What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you. (ESV)

I Thessalonians 1:5-6 - because our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction. You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you received the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Spirit, (ESV)

youtube.com: How to go to heaven in each denomination {@redeemedzoomer6053} Hey guys, I'm ”Redeemed Zoomer” and today we're going to talk about how salvation works in each Christian denomination, because all Christians worship the same God, all Christians worship Jesus, but not all Christians agree exactly how to worship God and part of that is due to different views on salvation.

But first let's talk about what all Christians do agree on regarding salvation. All Christians would agree that we're all sinners, … we all deserve to go to hell, but Jesus, who is truly human and truly God, He died for our sins and salvation is only possible because of Jesus.

Jesus is the only way we can be reconciled to God, and that means you must have faith in Jesus to be saved. And just the way Jesus rose from the dead, we're also going to be raised from the dead to eternal life. So all Christians agree on that stuff. If you don't agree with that you're not a Christian because that's like the core of Christianity.

But in the specific process of salvation, that's where Christians start to disagree.

So I'm going to talk about the Baptist view first because it's the most straightforward and it's what most American evangelicals are familiar with, because Baptist theology has defined American evangelicalism for many years.

So, the Baptist view centers on a born-again experience where you go from not Christian to Christian, that everyone is born, you know, not being a Christian, but at some point in your life you need to have this conversion experience, this radical born-again experience, where you go from not Christian to Christian. And this is a completely individual and personal, internal thing. It has nothing to do with whether you grew up in church, has nothing to do with whether you were baptized or how much of a good person you are, it's a complete born-again experience where you go from not believing to believing. And once you have this experience, at that moment, all your sins are forgiven, you get saved so to speak, and most Baptists believe that you're always going to be a Christian, that you're always going to believe, and if you ever stop believing it means that you never truly believed in the first place. Most Baptists, not all, but most, believe in once saved always saved. Even Baptists who don't believe in predestination, even Baptists who have a more free will perspective, tend to still believe in once saved always saved. And it's only after this born again experience that you should get baptized because according to Baptists, baptism doesn't save, it's a symbol that you already have been saved. According to Baptists, you should be baptized by full immersion as believer to represent dying and rising again to new life. They believe that you know because you're a changed person, because you're a new person, you're not going to fall away from the faith, because you truly have been born-again. So that's the Baptist view, but there are many other views not just within Christianity but within protestantism, because there's also the Lutheran view that's very unfamiliar to most American evangelicals.

So Lutheran, because they're Protestant, they do believe we're saved by faith and not by works, we're saved by faith alone. But they also believe that baptism saves and communion saves. How does that work? So they believe that baptism, communion, the scriptures and prayer are these means of grace which God uses to give us faith. So it's only faith that saves, but Lutherans also believe that whenever a baby is baptized, that baby is given faith, that baby has faith as a baby. Now there is you know biblical evidence for infant faith, because John the Baptist had faith as an unborn child. That's also a reason to believe that unborn children are people and we shouldn't murder them just as a side note. But John the Baptist lept in his mother's womb at the presence of Jesus, so that is a sign of a primitive, infant faith. And Lutherans believe that babies who are baptized have this faith and it justifies them. It means that if they were to die, they would instantly go to heaven. But Lutherans believe that you can lose your salvation. Lutheran are not like most Baptists because lutherans believe that baptism always saves a baby when a baby is baptized, but obviously common experience tells us that not every baby who is baptized grows up to be Christian, so Lutherans believe that you can lose your salvation later if you stop having faith, but then if you come back to the faith then you'll be restored to a state of justification. And so Lutherans don't believe you're saved by good works but they do believe that faith must produce good works and that if you live in unrepentant sin you're eventually going to stop caring about the faith, you're going to fall away from the faith, and you will lose your salvation, essentially. Lutherans are often accused of being like antinomian or not caring about good works at all but that's just not accurate, and I'm not even Lutheran but I am Reformed.

So I hold to the Reformed Calvinist view because I'm a Presbyterian and this often gets conflated with the Baptist view but it's it's very different, because the Reformed and Baptist traditions were historically very different and it's only a very modern thing for Baptists to start calling themselves Reformed. So Reformed Christianity believes in predestination. It's God who decides who is saved and who is not saved, but this cannot be separated from covenant theology. Covenant theology focuses a lot on God's promises. We do baptize babies because we think babies are part of God's covenant, just like they were in the Old Testament. So, whenever an infant is baptized they might not have faith in that moment, so contra to the Lutherans' [understanding]. But they are part of God's covenant. They're a part of God's covenant and you can call them a Christian in a covenantal sense. Even if they might not be elect, they're still a Christian just by being part of God's people, part of God's covenant, they're a Christian collectively even if they're not a Christian individually. So how does salvation work? Well, the primary cause of salvation is just God's decision, whether or not they're elect. But we know who really is elect based on who responds to God's promises. So if an infant is baptized as a baby and then later on they come to faith that shows that their baptism was effective and in that sense baptism saves them. But, if someone was baptized and never comes to faith we would say that baptism didn't save them because baptism is a promise from God in which salvation is offered but that salvation is only actually given to those who respond to that promise with faith. So, Calvinists believe salvation is by faith alone, it's also by predestination because only those who are predestined are actually going to respond to God's promises with faith, if that makes sense. So our view of baptism is complicated, yes we believe baptism technically saves but it doesn't save everyone, it only saves the elect. And the outward part of baptism which is the water sometimes happens at a different time than the inward part of the baptism which is, you know, being born again and having that conversion experience. So, it's complicated but you know there's a lot of things in theology that are complicated like the Trinity and the two Natures of Christ. And a lot of times heresy comes from when we try to simplify a complicated thing in theology. So that's the Reformed view.

Next you have the Catholic view. Now a lot of people straw-man Catholics [saying they believe] we're saved by faith plus works, that's not true. Catholics don't believe we're saved by faith plus works, they believe we're saved by faith but faith includes works and the ordinary means of salvation is through the church.

They believe the church dispenses faith, essentially. So Catholics believe that baptism washes away original sin and brings one into a state of grace, but if you commit a mortal sin that sort of 'kills' faith. So they don't exactly believe you're saved by works, they believe you're saved by faith, but they don't think faith is just like a one-time thing. They think faith is like a living organism that can be killed off by mortal sin, and if you do commit mortal sin you need to go to confession and do penance to be restored to a state of grace. And they believe that as long as you die in a state of grace, as long as you've been baptized and you don't have mortal sin, you're going to be saved eventually but you still might need to be purified, so that's what purgatory is for. Now, Purgatory isn't really extra punishment, it's not like Jesus's sacrifice wasn't enough to pay for your sins, it's just that when you die you're probably not perfect, you're probably not good enough for heaven yet. You probably wouldn't even enjoy heaven because you're not purified enough. so purgatory is just extra sanctification, it's just extra purification. And the Catholic Church believes that generally the church has the authority to give the sacraments, to give baptism too, you know, basically, be the 'guides' of your salvation. But modern Catholics are a bit more open-minded and they don't necessarily think that God is bound [only] to the [Roman Catholic] church. They believe God could work outside the [Roman Catholic] church even if he ordinarily does work through the Roman Catholic Church.

Okay, now let's get to the Methodist or the Wesleyan view of salvation. So, methodists generally believe in free will. Now, there are some calvinistic methodists like George Whitfield, but generally methodists have a strong belief in free will, they tend to reject predestination. They also tend to believe in two different, you know, moments in your salvation journey. The first work of grace is when you make the free free will choice to accept the gospel. But you need to constantly be striving for the second work of grace which is entire sanctification. So methodists really depart from classical Protestants, believing that it's possible to reach a state of Christian perfection where you are fully sanctified in this life. So technically Methodists do believe we're saved by faith alone but they believe that once we are saved we need to constantly be striving for perfection and that if we're not constantly striving for perfection then we might lose our salvation. So just like Lutherans, methodists believe that we can lose our salvation, but unlike Lutherans, Methodists have a much stronger view of the necessity of good works and the possibility of achieving final sanctification. And the holiness tradition basically emerged out of Methodism because they thought the Methodists weren't 'Method-ing' hard enough and they wanted to really focus on, you know, this part between the first and second works of grace where you really need to be striving for holiness, if you have a true faith. So it can often sound like methodists believe salvation is by trying really hard, if that makes sense.

All right, now let's get to the Pentecostal view which did emerge from the Methodist and Holiness views but they add a third work of grace. So the first work of grace is, once again, where you start being a believer, and they believe that you are a Christian once you are a believer but you might not be a "spirit filled" Christian, because Pentecostals really focus on the fruit of the Holy Spirit which 'normally'/['usually'] includes speaking in tongues. So they believe that Spirit baptism is actually a different thing from coming to faith. Most other Christians think that, you know, the baptism of the Holy Spirit, that's just being born again, that's just when you come to faith. The Pentecostals tend to think that the baptism of the Holy Spirit is a separate event that happens after you become a Christian. So yeah, you might be a believer, but you're not a Spirit-filled believer yet and once you are a spirit fill believer then you have the gifts of the Spirit which 'usually' includes speaking in tongues, and then only then you are empowered to work for that final sanctification that we talked about with the Methodists. And, you know, Pentecostals are a very diverse bunch and there's not really Pentecostal confessions of faith so a lot of Pentecostals might believe different things but this is generally the model of how salvation works according to Pentecostalism. There are some Pentecostals that are heretical that deny Trinity they're called "Oneness Pentecostals". Oneness Pentecostals are heretics - they're not Christians - because they deny the Trinity and The Trinity is like the most basic belief of Christianity. But there are also a lot of Trinitarian Pentecostals so, they're not technically heretical.

All right, now let's talk about the Eastern Orthodox view of Salvation. Now, debates about salvation are mostly a western thing, so Eastern Orthodox soteriology is not very developed and they don't like to talk in these legal terms for salvation the way Catholics and Protestants do, but generally their view of Salvation is theosis. I mean, all Christians believe in theosis of some kind, but they believe that theosis is how we should talk about salvation. We should talk about salvation as just union with God, that we are polluted, not necessarily totally dead in sin the way Calvinists believe, we're just corrupted, uh, but through the mysteries and the sacraments of the church we can be united with God and therefore purified. So, because they believe salvation is by theosis they tend to believe salvation is sanctification and sanctification is salvation. They don't really make the distinction that Protestants make between justification and sanctification and according to Orthodoxy there's no way to know if you are saved or are not saved it's just a lifelong process and the more united you are to God the better of a chance you will have at salvation in the hereafter. Another thing they believe, I mean I'm not sure if this is like an official confessional belief (a commenter has said "In Orthodoxy, the idea that Heaven and Hell are the same place is controversial and not shared by all, or even most, Orthodox Christians."), but they generally say that heaven and hell are the same place but depending on how united to God you are in this life, the same afterlife might feel like heaven or hell to you. So if you are really united to God, if you're a devout Orthodox monk who meditates for many years, the presence of God after you die is going to feel like heaven, but if you're a sinner who totally rejects God, totally rejects Jesus, and just lives a life of complete vice and self-indulgence, the presence of God is going to feel like hell. That's the standard Orthodox belief and some of them believe in toll houses but since not all of them believe in that I'm not going to go into that here.

1.1 The order of salvation

I plan on adhering to what the Word of God says, even if it offends other Christians when it comes to contentious topics as the order of salvation, or salvation by obedience and I want my theology to be 'raw and real', and always Scriptural.

The gospel in a nutshell:

> Acts 26:14-20 - And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads. And I said, Who are you, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. But rise and stand upon your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you as a servant and witness to the things in which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to you, delivering you from your people and from the Gentiles—to whom I am sending you to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. Therefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, but declared first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout all the region of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds in keeping with their repentance. (ESV)

> Acts 28:25-28 - And disagreeing among themselves, they departed after Paul had made one statement: The Holy Spirit was right in saying to your fathers through Isaiah the prophet: Go to this people, and say, You will indeed hear but never understand, and you will indeed see but never perceive. For this people's heart has grown dull, and with their ears they can barely hear, and their eyes they have closed; lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them. Therefore let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will listen. (ESV)

The general order of salvation from what I can dilvulge from Acts 26 and Acts 28:

- See with their eyes
    - II Corinthians 4:6 - For God, who said, Let light shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. (ESV)
    - Isaiah 42:6-7 - I am the LORD; I have called you in righteousness; I will take you by the hand and keep you; I will give you as a covenant for the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness. (ESV)
    - Luke 4:18-19 - The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor. (ESV)

  - John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

- Hear with their ears
  - Luke 9:35 - And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my Son, my Chosen One; listen to him! (ESV)
  - Matthew 11:15 - He who has ears to hear, let him hear. (ESV)
  - Romans 10:17 - So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ. (ESV)
    - *Romans 10:14-21 shows that people need to receive, and believe the Good News (Jesus Christ and His words). We have to hearken to the gospel. So real saving faith has to be faith in the Truth, the word of Christ.

- Understand with their heart
  - Romans 10:10 - For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)
  - Matthew 13:23 - As for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it. He indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty. (ESV)

- Turn from darkness to light
  - They believe the truth, and place their faith in Jesus
    - Ephesians 1:13-14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)
  - They believe in / trust in Jesus Christ's name
    - Acts 10:43-45 - To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name. While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word. And the believers from among the circumcised who had come with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out even on the Gentiles. (ESV)
  - They become trusting to God, pursuaded in the heart, believing and obedient
    - John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)
    - Hebrews 11:8 - By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. (ESV)
  - There is no condemnation for those who are presently trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ (i.e. walking by faith)
    - Romans 8:1-2 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

    - Psalms 145:20 - The LORD preserves all who love him, but all the wicked he will destroy. (ESV)
    - John 16:25-28 - I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father.

- Turn from the power of Satan to God
  - Satan stops controlling them. God starts working through them, as we believe and obey, and our house is built.
    - Philippians 2:13 - for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)
    - Psalms 127:1 - Unless the LORD (H3068. Yhvh - Phonetic Spelling: (yeh-ho-vaw'), Often pronounced: Yahweh or Jehovah) builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain. (ESV)
      - If Jehovah builds the house then those who build it do not labour in vain
    - Luke 6:48 - he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. (ESV)
    - II Timothy 2:24-26 - And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will. (ESV)
    - II Corinthians 5:1-3 - For we know that if the tent, which is our earthly home, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this tent we groan, longing to put on our heavenly dwelling, if indeed by putting it on we may not be found naked. (ESV)
    - Hebrews 3:4 - (For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.) (ESV)
    - John 14:1-3 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. (ESV)
  - It means loving Jesus which involves obeying Jesus including His commandment to trust Him and His other commandments. Jesus is preparing the place for us. Like a bridegroom for their bride, Jesus is building an extension:
    - John 14:1-7 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going. Thomas said to him, Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way? Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him. (ESV)

                - A local onlooker told us both families had arranged the marriage and that the couple had an unnecessarily long, drawn-out betrothal. According to ancient Jewish marriage custom, the man uses the betrothal period to prepare a home for his bride and himself in his father's house. The bystander told us the lazy bridegroom had needlessly delayed the marriage by procrastinating his building of an extension to his parents' house.

- Sin is forgiven as a person turns from darkness to light and turns from satan's will to God's will
    - Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)
- God heals
    - Sanctification is received through working faith, obedience, belief, trust - receiving healing, being renewed in mind, being conformed to Christ's image
        - Luke 8:15 - As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience. (ESV)
        - I John 4:17 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)
        - I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)
- Receive the inheritance

God is the justifier, not us:

> Romans 3:26 - It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

God raised Jesus up on the cross of Calvary and word got around with the preaching of gospel the Kingdom of God, so that those who trust in Him and believe Him, putting their trust in Him for who He is (the Son of God, the Messiah, our Lord and Saviour) and what He taught might be saved from the wrath of God and have eternal life.

I also take John 3:14 in the sense that in a way God still does this to remind us. For example, with the popular TV series the Chosen, I feel like God has reminded the world about Jesus.

There is also the 1979 film:

> John 3:14-19 - And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than (G3123 mallon, rather/more than, in preference to, instead of) light, because their deeds were evil. (KJV)

Jesus is brought into the spotlight. Those who would put their trust in Jesus, believing in Him are not condemned.

I really like John MacArthur's church's doctrinal statement. I just think it's helpful and quite accurate, but I may have my disagreements.

I think it's correct that the meaning of the Scripture is the Truth and I think that's really good way to read the Scripture, to seek it's meaning, because the meanings of the words are very important.

It makes sense to me that what matters when it comes to believing the truth is whether or not a person is understanding correctly God's word in their heart, and being taught also comes though experience. Faith is not merely a memorisation exercise with no observable effect. God's name which Jesus manifested is not merely about phonemes. And if a person thinks a word means something that it doesn't mean, well God sees the heart:

> Proverbs 23:7 - For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee. (KJV)

> Acts 2:6-11 - And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one was hearing them speak in his own language. And they were amazed and astonished, saying, Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians—we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God. (ESV)

> John 17:6 - I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world. Yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. (ESV)

> John 17:8 - For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. (ESV)

> Matthew 17:14-20 - And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, said, Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him. And Jesus answered, O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me. And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, Why could we not cast it out? He said to them, Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, Move from here to there, and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you. (ESV)

I try to not lean on my own understanding but trust in God and endeavour to obey/be obedient to Him:

> Proverbs 3:5-8 - Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil. It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones. (ESV)

> Psalms 143:8 - Let me hear in the morning of your steadfast love, for in you I trust. Make me know the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 17:5-7 - Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is. (KJV)

> I Corinthians 15:3-5 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9-10 - And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him; Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec. (KJV)

When we are born of God, I believe we have willed/done something which is in God's will. John 1:12-14 I think shows that when a person's will becomes God's will through believing (4100. pisteuó) faith in Jesus Christ's name, they have the authority to become children of God:

> John 1:12-14 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)

By a sovereign act of God in giving us His Word we are born-again of His will by His word - through faith in His Word:

> James 1:16-18 - Do not err, my beloved brethren. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. (KJV)

1.1.1 What does Jesus want us to do? Continue in Jesus teachings, have faith and obedience towards Him

Do Christians have to do anything? Yes. They've got to do the will of God.

What must a person do for their faith to be counted as righteousness? What must a person do to be saved?

> Isaiah 45:22 - Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other. (ESV)

> Acts 16:30-31 - Then he brought them out and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household. (ESV)

A person "does" the will of God. And the will of God is our sanctificaation. So sanctification is something that is done. And we are sanctified by faith and by a sincere love of our family in Christ. The faith and the love overlap. A person is justified by something that they do (i.e. faith). Faith is something that is done. But it all still depends on God who has mercy. If a person has come around to doing the will of God, then praise God for His mercy.

I think it's perverting the scriptures to say we have to 'do nothing' or that obedience to Jesus is in conflict with faith in Jesus. People pervert the scriptures their own destruction. We follow Christ's law/commandments. Even to believe in Jesus is to be obedient to the elementary doctrine of Christ. We have to do the will of God.

Right after the parable of the soil, Jesus says this:

> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

The righteous still do righteousness, but they don't rely on abiding by and doing all the things written in the Book of the Law including doing the works of the law:

> John 15:14 - You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 22:11 - Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do right, and the holy still be holy. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:38 - but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:2 - Let me ask you only this: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by hearing with faith? (ESV)

> Romans 3:27-31 - Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

> Romans 2:13 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. (ESV)

> Romans 2:29 - But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

Works to faith is like flesh to spirit, and the spirit is willing, at least it should be. So we should have the heart of faith which has the attitudes and intentions God desires that we have, and do God's will from the heart and in reality, and that should produce good deeds. But we don't rely on being able to carry out works perfectly:

> James 2:26 - For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead. (ESV)

Good works still come from good faith. But we don't rely on being able to carry out perfect deeds. But we still have the heart of faith, love, hope, obedience in reality, with intention to do the will of God.

For what?	What do we have to do?	Verse ref
To receive eternal life	Be sanctified through being an obedient slave of God, obeying Him obeying Jesus' commandments	Romans 6:20-23 - When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)
To be destroyed	Twist the scriptures and be carried away by the error of lawless people	II Peter 3:14-18 - Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. And count the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you according to the wisdom given him, as he does in all his letters when he speaks in them of these matters. There are some things in them that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist to their own destruction, as they do the other Scriptures. You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, take care that you are not carried away with the error of lawless people and lose your own stability. But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.
To be saved	Trust in, believe on, trust, obey the Lord Jesus Christ	Acts 16:30-34 - Then he brought them out and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household. And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds; and he was baptized at once, he and all his family. Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in

To have our hearts purified	Have faith in Jesus	Acts 15:8-9 - And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)
To have our souls purified	Obediently obey Jesus's commandments to agape love our family in Christ	I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)
To receive the inheritance	Be sanctified by God's training grace through faith in Jesus	Titus 2:11-13 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, (ESV)
To receive the inheritance	Walk in love, put away sin	Ephesians 5:1-5 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. (ESV)
To have eternal life	Continue doing the will of God	I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

For what?	What do we have to do?	Verse ref
To have God draw near to you	Draw near to Him. Give up idols, believe He exists, be corrected by and come into agreement with what He has said, even be corrected by Jesus, turn from sin, etc.	Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV) James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV) James 1:13-15 - Let no one say when he is tempted, I am being tempted by God, for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV) Hebrews 7:23-28 - The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office, but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself. For the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever. (ESV)
To have Jesus to remain in you	Remain in Him. Continue in the teaching of Christ. Practice righteousness, serve Jesus.	John 15:1-6 - I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spo-

For what?	What do we have to do?	Verse ref
To have been loved by God	Be any human, even those who will be condemned (because God did love everyone, offering Jesus)	Thus so (Houtōs) (in this way) did God love (G25 agapaó - value,treasure) the world, that He gave His Only-Begotten (G3439. monogenēs - unique,only begotten) Son that (G2443 hina - in order that) everyone who is trusting/believing (G4100 pisteuo) in Him may not perish, but may have life everlasting. (Interlinear) God loved us before we love Him back. That's the same way we must love others. We are called to love those who hate us. I John 4:6-19 - We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear

To be loved by God	Receive Jesus. Agape love Jesus Christ and believe He came from God	John 16:25-28 - I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father.
To be loved by God	Keep Jesus' commandments	John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
To be hated by God	Reject Jesus, continue on in walking in darkness rather than accepting His grace	John 15:22-24 - If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV) John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV) Psalms 11:5 - The LORD tests the righteous, but his soul hates the wicked and the one who loves violence. (ESV) Proverbs 28:9 - If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination. (ESV)
To be Jesus' disciple	Abide in Jesus' word	John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)
To be sons of God	Imitate God. Love even those who hate you	Matthew 5:43-48 - You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, Love

Jesus wants us to live holy lives:

> I Thessalonians 4:1-8 - Finally, then, brothers, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to live and to please God, just as you are doing, that you do so more and more. For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you. (ESV)

Holy Spirit gives life. Jesus' words are spirit and life:

> Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Trusting and obeying Jesus' words and commandments, a person has life:

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ. Perhaps to distinguish this verse from Romans 6:14-15, it could be written "law-abiding" to Christ's law, rather than "under":

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

We're not anti-law (G459 anomos). We're not without law. We're not lawless. Rather, we're pro-Christ's law and we're law-abiding (G1772 ennomos) to Christ's law.

anomos vs ennomos `https://www.wenstrom.org/downloads/written/word_studies/greek/nomos.pdf`

But notice how the phrase "under law" is written differently for Romans 6:14-15 and means something a little bit different. The english translations should probably rather use a different word in I Corinthians 9:21 to help distinguish one from the other:

> Romans 6:14-15 - For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law (G5259 hypo) (G3551 nomon) but under grace. What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! (ESV)

We're not under law because Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, but only if we are led by the Spirit:

> Galatians 3:12-14 - But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does them shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

We've got to follow after Jesus, obediently, sure, having confidence by doing in reality from the heart, sure, but not relying on the external success (in our own eyes) of deeds for our own confidence:

> Galatians 3:11-14 - Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them (G846 auta; these things) shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

When a the righteous comes before the throne of Jesus Christ, they won't be self-commending, but rather Jesus will let them know when they such things for Him:

> Matthew 25:44-45 - Then they also will answer, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you? Then he will answer them, saying, Truly, I say to you, as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me. (ESV)

Being led by the Spirit, a person is not under the Law and sin has no dominion over them:

> Galatians 5:13-18 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. (ESV)

> Romans 6:14-18 - For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

But rather than being ”under law”, we are under grace (Jesus helps us as we by faith in Him do what He has commanded, and as we imitate [but not replace] His faith and love out of faith and obedience to Him and to God). We still are saved by faith and obedience to Jesus Christ Himself (rather than to simply the Law of God):

> Hebrews 12:1-6 - Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. (ESV)

Though not ”under law”, we still need to be ”law-abiding”. And I believe that is to the law of faith in Christ Jesus. What is not done in faith is sin and sin is lawlessness. Having faith in Jesus Christ is being law-abiding:

> Romans 3:27-31 - Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

”The one having completed all of these external deeds will live” is probably an accurate way to understand ”the one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them”, as if there entire future is dependent on the completion of all of these external tasks:

> Galatians 3:10-13 - For all who rely on works (G2041 ergōn: works, deed, action, task, labor) of the law are under a curse; for it is written, Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them. Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— (ESV)

Abiding by Christ’s law (Christ’s commandments), which is a law of faith (we’re not under the curse of the law of Moses) and is not a law of works (Romans 3:21-31), is not being under a curse, but, rather is being under grace:

> I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
> John 1:17 - For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. (ESV)

We must love one-another as commanded to be ”law-abiding”. We can come to Jesus with baggage, with sin, but we can’t come to Jesus by sinning:

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> James 2:8-9 - If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself, you are doing well. But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. (ESV)

> Romans 13:9 - The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. (ESV)

> I John 4:7-21 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

When contrasting being "under law" to being "under grace", Paul is takling about people who "rely" on the "works" (the exterior stuff) of the law, the Mosaic Law (which came in after Abraham), who are under law. But the law of Christ which we are 'under' (abide in) is a different type of law, and the kind of law that it is is a law of faith. It's about the heart. And like Abraham, we should believe in, trust in, trust, agape love and obey Jesus. And just like Abraham's faith, our faith may be tested and a person may be justified by works, like Abraham's faith and that wasn't "works of the law of Moses" which came in later (to increase the trespass). But we don't "rely" on the justification by works of faith in Jesus, though that type of thing may happen.

Paul in Galatians 3:10-13 is takling about people who "rely" on the "works" of the law:

> Galatians 3:10-13 - For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them. Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for The righteous shall live by faith. But the law is not of faith, rather The one who does (G4160 poiēsas; having done) them shall live by them. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— (ESV)

Paul here saying that no-one is justified by the works of the law, that is true, but we are justified by the law of Christ, Christ's law being a law of faith.

> Romans 3:27-31 - Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, since God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law. (ESV)

Those who would pursue the Mosaic law that would lead to righteousness must pursue it by faith, not by works:

> Romans 9:30-32 - What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness did not succeed in reaching that law. Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, (ESV)

This is why I think Jesus speaks quite abstractly about the way, because the Way is Him. How do you get close to Him? By believing in, trusting and obeying Him:

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

> John 6:51 - I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:16-22 - The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. Consider the people of Israel: are not those who eat the sacrifices participants in the altar? What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? (ESV)

Jesus is stronger than anything:

> Luke 11:19-22 - And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. But if it is by the finger of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are safe; but when one stronger than he attacks him and overcomes him, he takes away his armor in which he trusted and divides his spoil. (ESV)

> Luke 4:4-8 - And Jesus answered him, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone. And the devil took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time, and said to him, To you I will give all this authority and their glory, for it has been delivered to me, and I give it to whom I will. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours. And Jesus answered him, It is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve. (ESV)

The redemption is a gift that is received through faith in Jesus, faith in His blood:

> Romans 3:21-26 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

Faith is commanded so is inseparable from obedience. It's the real gospel, the one that calls people to obedience by word and deed. Obedience which leads to righteousness. The elementary doctrine/teachings/commandments of repentance from dead works and faith towards God - these are commandments. But there are more teachings/commandments and we have to not pervert the oracles of God but continue abiding in the teachings/doctrines/comman of Christ:

> Hebrews 6:1 - Therefore let us leave the elementary doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

If you love Jesus, keep His commandments. The one who keeps Jesus' commandments is the one who loves Jesus:

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

> John 14:22-23 - Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

It's obedience which leads to righteousness, even the righteousness of faith:

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

At the start of Jesus' ministry, He was baptised. God commanded us to listen to Him:

> Matthew 17:5 - He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him. (ESV)

Jesus commanded us to have faith in God and in Him, to trust in Him, to trust Him, to believe His words, to believe He is the Son of God, the Christ, the Son of Man:

> John 14:1 - "Do not let your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me.

We must believe that Jesus came from God, that He is the Christ (Messiah), the Son of God, the Son of Man (Daniel 7:13):

> John 8:24 - I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins. (ESV)

During Jesus' ministry from His baptism to His cruxificion, He demonstrated real agape love and gave his listeners commandments. Jesus never broke God's law. Jesus never sinned:

> Mark 3:28-30 - Truly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the children of man, and whatever blasphemies they utter, but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin— for they had said, He has an unclean spirit. (ESV)

But He fulfilled the law and loved even His enemies. We want to abide in Jesus' love:

> John 15:10 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. (ESV)

Jesus kept Father God's commandments including the commandment of what to say and speak to us. Jesus' words and sayings and commandments which God gave Him to speak to us are what we should keep. His commandments are eternal life for us:

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

> John 13:14 - If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. (ESV)

> John 10:27-28 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. (ESV)

Following Jesus, we serve Jesus and abide by correct doctrine, Christ's doctrine:

> I Timothy 4:6-11 - If you put these things before the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, being trained in the words of the faith and of the good doctrine that you have followed. Have nothing to do with irreverent, silly myths. Rather train yourself for godliness; for while bodily training is of some value, godliness is of value in every way, as it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come. The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance. For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. Command and teach these things. (ESV)

At the end of Jesus' ministry, after demonstrating love to His disciples, loving the to the end, and having given commandments on how to love as He did, He commanded His disciples to love one another as He did and to observe all His commandments which He had given. So Jesus' commandments and life show us what law-fulfilling love looks like. This is what Jesus has commanded us to do, to love as He did, and Jesus both demonstrated how and gave us specific commandments to do so. Then He loved us by going to the cross and laying down His life for us, demonstating ultimate love, laying down His life. Also He had not sinned ever. Jesus Christ is the Lamb of God, the perfect sacrifice for sin, having lived a perfect life and layed down His life for us:

> John 15:12-14 - This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

The Apostle John says to be able to know that we are loving the children of God, we must be keeping His commandments. If people are offended at us while we are sincerely from the heart and in reality abiding by Jesus Christ's commandments, we should not be deterred from continuing to try to abide by Jesus Christ's commandments. We may, sometimes need to be corrected into better obedience, but it's not the commandments which are at fault:

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

Jesus calls us to trust in Him, to believe He came from God, to believe He is the Christ and Son of God and to love one another as He did. He commanded many other things but these commandments from Him are of greatest importance, to have faith in Him, to believe He is who He is and to love as He did. Believing the facts about Jesus are very important. All His commandments are important and to do with grace and truth and eternal life. Trusting in, trusting and obeying Jesus, are all important for following Jesus. Jesus gives His sheep (his followers) eternal life:

> John 17:1-3 - When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

The Apostle John reiterated these two commandments of Jesus, commandments of top importance, to have faith in Him and to love one another the same way that He did:

> II John 1:4-6 - I was very glad to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received commandment to do from the Father. And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it.

We must walk in Jesus' commandments and believe that He came from God:

> John 16:25-28 - I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father.

Christ's law is His torah, Christ's commandments which are summarised in this commandment to love one another as He has loved us:

> Matthew 28:18-20 - And Jesus came and said to them, All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. (ESV)

Jesus perfectly fulfilled the requirement of the law by not sinning even once. He never did any wrong:

> Romans 13:9-10 - The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

We should be obeying Jesus's commandments but also sharing His words, His commandments with others, so other people we love and help, learn about Jesus and learn for themselves to have faith in God, and in Him, believe in what God has done for them, how He loved them, and to love God believing what God has done for us, and love God by receiving Jesus and to love God in loving one another has He commandment:

> John 13:12-16 - When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

We should share Jesus' teachings and commandments with people as we endeavour to keep Jesus' teachings and commandments ourselves, as we want others also to come to know God, to know the love that God has had for them, to have faith in Jesus and in His blood, to understand what God has done for us, and teaching them also keep Jesus' commandments:

> Luke 21:1-4 - Jesus looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the offering box, and he saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins. And he said, Truly, I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 12:9 - But he said to me, My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness. Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. (ESV)

We love because He first loved us:

> I Corinthians 15:10 - But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. (ESV)
> II Corinthians 6:1,6:16-18,7:1 - Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)
> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)
> I John 3:16 - By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. (ESV)
> I John 4:7-21 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)
> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 5:2-3 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

1.1.2 Walking in the light

Light is loving in the truth or walking in the love of the truth, the love for the truth, love for God and the children of God (in the way that God has commanded us to love). Darkness is a lack of love for the truth, or simply a love for evil, love for the "world" rather than for God, believing in lies and rejecting the truth of God.

Without Jesus Christ coming into a dark world (Luke 17:26, Genesis 6:5) as light that people may look upon Him and believe in Him and live (Numbers 21:9, John 3:14-15, John 6:40), people would destroy themselves (Ezekiel 18:30-32, Romans 6:23) and would perish in their sin. Humans would all be reprobates doing evil continually. The human race would be completely lost. But if we look upon Jesus Christ and love Jesus, we will keep His commandments (John 14:15). If we have faith in Him, we will do His deeds (John 14:10-15). So we must be those who love God's righteousness revealed and from the love of the truth (Luke 6:45), we will practice righteousness (I John 3:3-11), doing good deeds (III John 1:11).

> Luke 17:26 - Just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of Man. (ESV)

> Genesis 6:5 - The LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intention of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. (ESV)

> John 12:46 - I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. (ESV)

> Numbers 21:9 - So Moses made a bronze serpent and set it on a pole. And if a serpent bit anyone, he would look at the bronze serpent and live. (ESV)

> John 3:14-15 - And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. (ESV)

> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

Paul clearly led people to be imitators of Christ for themself as he is an imitator of Christ, so Paul's followers should imitate him in imitating Christ:

> I Corinthians 11:1-3 - Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ. Now I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I delivered them to you. But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:1-2 - Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. (ESV)

Practicing righteousness from the love for the truth (I John 2:29, I John 3:7), a person walks by faith rather than committing sin (Romans 14:23), sin being lawlessness (I John 3:4). Someone who walks by faith is law-abiding and not lawless and not committing sin (I John 5:18), being law-abiding (Matthew 7:23, I Corinthians 8:3) to the law of faith (John 14:15) by faith in Christ Jesus. Someone who walks by faith is led by the Spirit and is not under the law (Galatians 5:18). If someone walks by the Spirit (Galatians 5:16) then they will not gratify the desires of the flesh (Galatians 5:17), and not being under the law there is no condemnation (Romans 8:1) for them.

> Romans 8:5-8 - For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. (ESV)

> I John 5:18 - We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. (KJV)

> II Corinthians 6:14 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? (ESV)

> I John 1:5 - This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:9 - But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:5 - For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. (ESV)

Walking in the light involves loving the brothers:

> I John 2:9 - Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 6:14 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? (ESV)

> I John 3:13-16 - Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. (ESV)

We must be those who receive God's salvation. So we must love the light and walk in the light:

John 3:17-21 - For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But whoever does (G4160 poiōn; doing) what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

1.2 Children of God, born of promise, have faith in Christ and purify themselves

Genesis 27:41 - Now Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him, and Esau said to himself, The days of mourning for my father are approaching; then I will kill my brother Jacob. (ESV)

Romans 9:13 - As it is written, Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated. (ESV)

web.sermonaudio.com: DTBM - body, soul and spirit - Dr. John Barnett The reason we're supposed to keep clean and not let our flesh and spirit get defiled is that God made a promise. He says, "I'm going to dwell in you. I'm going to walk among you. I'm going to be your God. You're going to be my people." And this is what we're supposed to do, verse 17: "Come out from among them, be separate. Don't touch what is unclean and I will receive you. I will be a Father to you. You'll be my sons and daughters," says the Lord Almighty. Boy, that is about the most assuring verse in the Bible. God says, I'm gonna live in you. I'm your father, you're my children. You're going to know and go through life knowing that you belong to me and that I live within you and you're never alone and I'm always with you and all that stuff. What happens if you don't obey the "don't touch what is unclean" part, verse 17? You lose that assurance.

1.2.1 How to walk by the Spirit and so not be under the law and so not be under condemnation

There is a difference between being "under the law" and being "law-abiding". The Christian must be law-abiding.

If we love Jesus Christ and His word (John 14:21) then we will be law-abiding by the law (commandments) of Christ:

John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

John 14:21-24 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me. (ESV)

Matthew 13:37 - He answered, The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. (ESV)

Romans 3:27 - Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. (ESV)

I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

Matthew 13:38-43 - The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close > of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers (G458 anomian; wicked i.e. those who hate righteousness, those who prefer evil to > and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear. (ESV)

Being presently led by the spirit certainly involves presently having faith and presently not committing sin. Now faith involves a love for the truth, otherwise it's a hatred of the truth and is like the demons "believe".

> John 8:39-42 - They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

Those must by true at the same time in order to be true.

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:1-3 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. (ESV)

Thanks to what Jesus Christ has done, we are able to die to sin and live to righteousness, no longer committing sin:

> I Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

If a person is led by the Spirit then they are not under the law, and they are not condemned. A person isn't not under the law because they say they're not under the law. A person is not under the law only if they're led by the Spirit.

So being led by the Spirit involves having faith in Jesus Christ, and not rejecting Jesus Christ, and involves having a love (Luke 6:45) for Jesus Christ too (John 8:39-42):

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

And being led by the Spirit also involves maintaining a good conscience with God over what God approves of us doing, since to willfully do what Christ does not want you to do would be not in faith:

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> Matthew 15:10-14 - And he called the people to him and said to them, Hear and understand: it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but what comes out of the mouth; this defiles a person. Then the disciples came and said to him, Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying? He answered, Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be rooted up. Let them alone; they are blind guides. And if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit. (ESV)

Something external happening to the person doesn't defile them. So, for example, if someone was assaulted forcefully having pork put down their throat against their will while they want to be keeping the commandment, the person is not defiled by it because they did not will it to happen to them. In fact, perhaps they are even being persecuted for righteousness sake in that hypothetical situation, but undefiled.

And a person who is born of God who "sinneth not" who has an inwards desire to do God's will for them, may be "assaulted" in such a way by indwelling sin which is in their sinful flesh.

The person born of God agrees with the person and work of Jesus Christ Son of God, and loves as God has commanded and does not sin. When Jesus was painted as a criminal, and crucified, that doesn't mean that Jesus was a criminal. When something happens to a person from the outside merely to their flesh, if it does not enter the heart, can't defile a person.

> Mark 7:18-20 - and he saith to them, 'So also ye are without understanding! Do ye not perceive that nothing from without entering into the man is able to defile him? because it doth not enter into his heart, but into the belly, and into the drain it doth go out, purifying all the meats.' And he said–'That which is coming out from the man, that doth defile the man; (YLT)

It's not right to say "I am not under law" if a person really is under the law because they're not being led by the Spirit. A person has to be led by the Spirit to have the blessing of not being under the law. Now if a person is practicing sexual immorality, impurity, etc. or anything else on the following list (Galatians 5:16-25) of the works of the flesh, or anything like what is on that list, then that person is not walking by the Spirit, and so they are under the law:

> Galatians 5:16-25 - But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. (ESV)

> Romans 3:19 - Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. (ESV)

We have to be those who want to be healed to practice righteousness, and to not want to sin. If the flesh has been crucified, that means, that those who belong to Christ are repentant, and have stopped committing sin from evil desire, but rather they have faith in Jesus Christ:

> John 5:5-15 - One man was there who had been an invalid for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, Do you want to be healed? The sick man answered him, Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, and while I am going another steps down before me. Jesus said to him, Get up, take up your bed, and walk. And at once the man was healed, and he took up his bed and walked. Now that day was the Sabbath. So the Jews said to the man who had been healed, It is the Sabbath, and it is not lawful for you to take up your bed. But he answered them, The man who healed me, that man > said to me, Take up your bed, and walk. They asked him, Who is the man who said to you, Take up your bed and walk? Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in the place. Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you. The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him. (ESV)

> I John 3:1-11 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

As John 3 and also Luke 6:45 show, unrighteousness is practiced from a love for darkness rather than the love of the light. And so if a person loves to do what is wicked, then they are under the law:

> John 3:17-21 - For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But whoever does (G4160 poiōn; doing) what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

John 3:19 connects faith with deeds. Evil deeds come from a love of darkness. Luke 6:45 also connects faith with deeds. Good deeds come from a love of the truth.

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

And so it's clear to see that those who practice unrighteousness, those who do evil, receive their reward which is tribulation and distress, and that those those who by faith obey Jesus Christ receive eternal life:

> Romans 2:9-11 - There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

> Proverbs 11:18 - The wicked earns deceptive wages, but one who sows righteousness gets a sure reward. (ESV)

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

Now for those who walk according to the Spirit rather than the flesh, there is no condemnation, and it is so that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us. So we present ourselves to God as obedient slaves. Now being an obedient slave of God must be done in love for God (Psalms 81:15). We don't contrive the works, but rather are obedient, ready for every good work (II Timothy 2:21, Titus 1:16), and God sets them up for us to carry out (John 14:10-15, Ephesians 2:10). So walking by the spirit is involves having obedience in the heart (I Peter 1:22-25), and that obedience involves having a love for God (Psalms 81:15). And so the desires of the Spirit (loving God) are against the flesh (loving evil).

> Romans 6:16-18,7:25,8:1-4 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:13-17 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word (G3056 logō): You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. (ESV)

> Romans 13:8-10 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

OK, so whoever keeps Jesus Christ's commandments abides in Him, so we should persevere with by faith obeying Christ Jesus, keeping His words, and applying them, and be set free from committing sin:

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas; having believed) in him, If you abide (G3306 meinēte; remain, abide, stay, continue, dwell, endure) in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth (G225 alētheia; truth, reality; i.e. walking in reality), and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

> John 17:8 - For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. (ESV)

> John 14:23-24 - Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me. (ESV)

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

Someone who has true faith in Jesus Christ is somebody who loves the brethren (family in Christ):

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes (G4100 pisteuo) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

> I John 3:13-16 - Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. (ESV)

We are also cleaned from sin if we walk in the light. There is a difference between "having sin" and "committing sin". A person can "have sin" and have faith at the same time. But a person can't "commit sin" and have faith at the same time. So walking in the light involves having faith rather than committing sin. Walking in the light, with faith and love for Jesus Christ not committing sin, a person is cleaned up:

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

True freedom in Christ is freedom from committing sin. Jesus Christ, Son of God, sets a person free:

> John 8:33-36 - They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)

True freedom in Christ is still while keeping the commandments of God that are for us to keep, from the love of Christ Jesus:

> Galatians 5:1-7 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you. I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

> Psalms 81:15 - Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever. (engbsb2020eb)

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18,7:25,8:1-4 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

1.2.2 Being born-again of the Spirit and entering the Kingdom of God

I'm trying to understand these scriptures and help others to understand, but I'm a falible person and I say the wrong thing sometimes. God have mercy on me for when I speak erroneously and may any errors be corrected.

People were being born according to the Spirit for quite some time before Jesus was born of the virgin Mary but it has been restricted to the children of promise i.e. Abraham's descendants through Isaac. They were born of the spirit through promise, but Jesus was not yet glorified, but they would still receive the life-giving glorified spirit of Christ as promised. I think it's also true that the spirit of Christ dwelt in Abraham and his descendants as in Elijah or Isaiah:

> Galatians 4:28-31 - Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

> Romans 8:9 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. (ESV)

> John 7:39 - Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. (ESV)

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Romans 4:16 - That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, (ESV)

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing/trusting (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does no t obey (I544 apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:15-17 - Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant. For where a will is involved, the death of the one who made it must be established. For a will takes effect only at death, since it is not in force as long as the one who made it is alive. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:10-11 - Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace that was to be yours searched and inquired carefully, inquiring what person or time the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent glories. (ESV)
> Isaiah 42:4 - He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law. (ESV)
> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)
> Galatians 3:13-14 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

The ”the promised spirit which has been promised by the spirit” is how I'm understanding the promise. I John 3:24 shows that we receive the spirit through abiding in Jesus Christ's commandments (i.e. through faith in Jesus Christ):

> Galatians 3:14 - That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. (KJV)
> Romans 8:9-11 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. (ESV)

Jesus is the 'telos' of the law for righteousness to all who have faith (believing, trusting, hoping in) Him. So we abide in Jesus, keeping His commandments.

As far as I understand from reading Scripture, prophets such as Abraham, and some descendants of Abraham such as Isaac had the Spirit of Christ living inside of them. The Gentiles had to wait for Jesus to be glorified for Holy Spirit to come live inside of them. But the Old Testament prophets did have the Spirit of Christ, Holy Spirit inside of them.

> Luke 24:44-53 - Then he said to them, These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled. Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high. Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. While he blessed them, he parted from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, and were continually in the temple blessing God. (ESV)

Rather than being born according to the flesh, to be born according to the Spirit happens being born through promise:

> Galatians 4:23 - But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, while the son of the free woman was born through promise. (ESV)

I Peter 1:8-11 reveals that the Spirit of Christ dwelt also in the Old Testament prophets (that includes Abraham). The prophets are in the kingdom of God (Luke 13:23-30, Matthew 8:11).

> Matthew 8:11 - I tell you, many will come from east and west and recline at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, (ESV)

The Old Testament prophets served those who would later receive grace after Jesus was glorified (I Peter 1:10-12).

> I Peter 1:10-12 - Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace that was to be yours searched and inquired carefully, inquiring what person or time the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent glories. It was revealed to them that they were serving not themselves but you, in the things that have now been announced to you through those who preached the good news to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven, things into which angels long to look. (ESV)

John the Baptist was a messenger of God sent from God:

> Luke 7:24-30 - When John's messengers had gone, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are dressed in splendid clothing and live in luxury are in kings' courts. What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more (G4053 perissoteron, 1. over and above, more than is necessary, superadded) than a prophet. This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you. I tell you, among those born of women none is greater than John. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he. (When all the people heard this, and the tax collectors too, they declared God just, having been baptized with the baptism of John, but the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the purpose of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.) (ESV)

As I try to understand Luke 7:26, I see two plausible interpretations for what Jesus means saying "A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet". Jesus might there be saying they came out to see "a prophet (John) and someone who is more than a prophet (Jesus)", or He could be saying they came out to see "a prophet (John) who is more than a prophet", or He could be saying they came out to see "a prophet who is a prophet in abundance (a very excellent prophet)". I lean towards that latter interpretation. "a prophet who is a prophet in abundance".

Luke 7:26 (Interlinear) But what have you gone out to see A prophet (G4396 prophētēn) Yes I say to you and [one] (G2532 kai) more excellent (G4053 perissoteron, 1. over and above, more than is necessary, superadded) than a prophet G4396 prophētou

G4053 perissós (an adjective, derived from 4012 /perí, "all-around, excess") – properly all-around, "more than" ("abundantly"); beyond what is anticipated, exceeding expectation; "more abundant," going past the expected limit ("more than enough")

> John 10:10 - The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly (G4053 perissos). (ESV)

> John 5:31-37 - If I alone bear witness about myself, my testimony is not deemed true. There is another who bears witness about me, and I know that the testimony that he bears about me is true. You sent to John, and he has borne witness to the truth. Not that the testimony that I receive is from man, but I say these things so that you may be saved. He was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. But the testimony that I have is greater than that of John. For the works that the Father has given me to accomplish, the very works that I am doing, bear witness about me that the Father has sent me. And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, (ESV)

> Luke 11:33-36 - No one after lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, so that those who enter may see the light. Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light, but when it is bad, your body is full of darkness. Therefore be careful lest the light in you be darkness. If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly bright, as when a lamp with its rays gives you light. (ESV)

Being ”born of women” is different to being ”born of God”:

> John 1:12-13 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)
> Luke 11:28 - But he said, Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it! (ESV)
> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)
> Galatians 4:22-31 - For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman and one by a free woman. But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, while the son of the free woman was born through promise. Now this may be interpreted allegorically: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar. Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. For it is written, Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear; break forth and cry aloud, you who are not in labor! For the children of the desolate one will be more than those of the one who has a husband. Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

Someone being in the Kingdom necessitates that they have been born of water and the Spirit as it says in John 3:5.

So did Abraham’s descendents who were truly (Romans 9:6-8) Abraham’s descendents (children of promise), receptive to Jesus (John 8:39-40), who got baptised by John (Luke 7:29-30), able to enter the Kingdom of God by this point? Perhaps.

> Matthew 5:20 - For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)
> Matthew 11:12 - From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and the violent take it by force. (ESV)
> Romans 9:6-8 - But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel, and not all are children of Abraham because they are his offspring, but Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring. (ESV)

Matt 11:10-11 does not actually strictly rule out the John the Baptist who is born the spirit from being in the Kingdom of God but it says that who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than the John the Baptist who is born of woman. A person needs to be born again to enter the Kingdom of God:

> Matthew 11:10-11 - This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you. Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least (G3398 mikroteros; the least) in the kingdom of heaven is greater (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) than he. (ESV)
> Isaiah 40:3-5 - A voice cries: In the wilderness prepare the way of the LORD; make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain. And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken. (ESV)

A person who has been born of God may still be lugging around the ”body of death” that has ”indwelling sin” in it. But it’s the new creation person who is born of God (as opposed to the ”indwelling sin” which cannot submit to God’s law) who doesn’t sin and who loves God and loves God’s law and desires to please God. The person who has been born of God must put a stop to sin. So we identify not as the indwelling sin but as the new creation. Taking also into consider what Paul is says in II Corinthians 7:1, if a person has bodily or spiritual defilement, they can still be cleansed and the new creation born-again person hope in Jesus Christ and purifies himself:

> I John 3:3-10 - And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God’s seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

> Romans 7:15-25 - I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

Perhaps Jesus is refering to the body of sin when using the word corpse. Notice how there are 2 in one bed (is that the one born of God and the one born of woman?). And Jesus refers to 2 women. Likewise is talking about a person born of God who has indwelling sin? It’s important to be the person who is born of God, the person who is trusting and obeying and hoping in Jesus Christ. The one who is against trusting and obeying Jesus Christ is the sinful flesh:

> Luke 17:32-37 - Remember Lot’s wife. Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will keep it. I tell you, in that night there will be two in one bed. One will be taken and the other left. There will be two women grinding together. One will be taken and the other left. And they said to him, Where, Lord? He said to them, Where the corpse is, there the vultures will gather. (ESV)

> Romans 8:7-11 - For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God’s law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. (ESV)

Though I certainly do not take the Gospel of Thomas as authoratitive, I’m also trying to see if any of it can make sense from a Biblical perspective. That’s the main reason why I quote ”Gospel of Thomas” here. Because many of the sayings in the Gospel of Thomas do come from Scripture, I'm trying to see if there is way to understand the sayings that are not found in Scripture through the filter of canon:

Thomas 56 Jesus said: He who has known the world has found a corpse; and he who has found a corpse, the world is not worthy of him.

We must test everything:

> I Thessalonians 5:20-23 - Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. Abstain from every form of evil. Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

There is ultimately a total ending of this present heavens and earth and an entirely new creation, and we have hope for a good future in an entirely new heavens and a new hearth and we prepare ourselves for this by walking in faith, love and holiness. We're instructed to do the will of God. We trust in God's promises through the eyes of faith:

> II Peter 3:10-14 - But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. (ESV)

> Genesis 8:22 - While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night, shall not cease. (ESV)

> Luke 21:33 - Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:8 - By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:37-40 - They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword. They went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, mistreated— of whom the world was not worthy—wandering about in deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. (ESV)

I think that the creation itself ultimately gets "born-again" (so to speak):

> Romans 8:19-22 - For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. (ESV)

The creation's "old self" also dies. That is the world we find ourself presently in:

> II Peter 3:10-14 - But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:15 - For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). (ESV)

As previously mentioned, the prophets are in the kingdom of God (Luke 13:23-30, Matthew 8:11), and that must include John the Baptist.

> Psalms 51:5 - Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me. (ESV)

Also, John the Baptist may have become or been born of the Spirit and so the John the Baptist born of woman (Psalms 51:5), of the flesh may have been a prophet but "the John the Baptist who has been born of the Spirit (1John 5:18) and in the Kingdom of Heaven" may be greater (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) that the John the Baptist of the flesh. I wonder if that is a correct interpretation:

> John 3:5-7 - Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again. (ESV)

Jesus here also appears to make a distinction between His family of the flesh and His family of the Spirit:

> Luke 8:19-21 - Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him because of the crowd. And he was told, Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you. But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

Matt 11:10-11 might imply that those in the kingdom of heaven are "older" that one who was born of the flesh, indicating that the spirit is older:

> Matthew 11:10-11 - This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you. Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least (G3398 mikroteros; the least) in the kingdom of heaven is greater (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) than he. (ESV)

Having the spirit of Elijah, John the Baptist in that sense was older than his flesh:

> Luke 1:13-17 - But the angel said to him, Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, for he will be great before the Lord. And he must not drink wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God, and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared. (ESV)

> Matthew 17:12 - But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man will certainly suffer at their hands. (ESV)

> Mark 9:11-13 - And they asked him, Why do the scribes say that first Elijah must come? And he said to them, Elijah does come first to restore all things. And how is it written of the Son of Man that he should suffer many things and be treated with contempt? But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, as it is written of him. (ESV)

Isaiah, Elijah and the other prophets had the Spirit of Christ in them before He became flesh. But they were the oracles of God. And Jesus Christ, the Son of God became flesh and became a life-giving spirit:

> I Peter 1:10-12 - Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace that was to be yours searched and inquired carefully, inquiring what person or time the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent glories. It was revealed to them that they were serving not themselves but you, in the things that have now been announced to you through those who preached the good news to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven, things into which angels long to look. (ESV)
> John 1:14 - And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 15:45 - Thus it is written, The first man Adam became a living being; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. (ESV)
> John 5:26 - For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself. (ESV)

The spirit of Christ being given to more people through abiding in Jesus Christ's commandments, through faith in Jesus Christ, yet we needed to wait for Jesus to be glorified:

> Galatians 3:13-14 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

The "the promised spirit which has been promised by the spirit" is how I'm understanding the promise. I John 3:24 shows that we receive the spirit through abiding in Jesus Christ's commandments (i.e. through faith in Jesus Christ):

> Galatians 3:14 - That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. (KJV)
> Romans 8:9-11 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. (ESV)
> Isaiah 42:4 - He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law. (ESV)
> Ephesians 3:4-6 - When you read this, you can perceive my insight into the mystery of Christ, which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit. This mystery is that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. (ESV)
> John 7:37-39 - On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. (ESV)

Being "born of the spirit" being born of promise (Galatians 4:23-12) a person would receive the promised spirit though faith. Now I still believe that Abraham by faith obeyed God, obeying Jesus Christ and that's the same type of faith that we must have towards Jesus Christ.

The Old Testament prophets (including Abraham) are also in the Kingdom of God being in the household of God and members of the body of Christ.

Isaiah and the other prophets had the Spirit of Christ in them:

> I Peter 1:10-12 - Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace that was to be yours searched and inquired carefully, inquiring what person or time the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent glories. It was revealed to them that they were serving not themselves but you, in the things that have now been announced to you through those who preached the good news to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven, things into which angels long to look. (ESV)
> Romans 3:2 - Much in every way. To begin with, the Jews were entrusted with the oracles of God. (ESV)

In Christ Jesus, we can receive the promised Spirit through faith:

> John 7:39 - Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. (ESV)
> Galatians 3:13-14 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)
> Ephesians 2:18-21 - For through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. (ESV)
> Hebrews 11:39-40 - And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. (ESV)
> Romans 4:16-18 - That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, as it is written, I have made you the father of many nations—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, So shall your offspring be. (ESV)
> Galatians 3:28-29 - There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 12:12-13 - For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit. (ESV)

I take it that John the Baptist was "born-again" of the spirit anyway. He went in the spirit of Elijah but also was filled with the Holy Spirit. But I think there is a difference between receiving the spirit of Christ before Jesus was glorified (i.e. as a prophet) and after Jesus was glorified (through faith in Jesus Christ just like Abraham's):

> Luke 1:14-17 - And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, for he will be great before the Lord. And he must not drink wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God, and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared. (ESV)

God chose us in Jesus Christ before the foundation of the world. This may also be to do with the "olderness":

> Ephesians 1:3-6 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love he predestined us for adoption through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved. (ESV)

Luke 13:30 is talking about entering the Kingdom of God. The first-ness and the last-ness might be chronological, or perhaps is about older/elders entrants serving the younger/newer entrants:

Luke 13:30 (Interlinear) And behold there are (G1510 eisin) last (G2078 eschatoi) who will be (G1510 esontai) first (G4413 prōtoi) and there are (G1510 eisin) first (G4413 prōtoi) who will be (G1510 esontai) last (G2078 eschatoi)

> Luke 13:24,29-30 - Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. And people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and recline at table in the kingdom of God. And behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last. (ESV)

Jesus is before all things (John 1:1-2) and is the ultimate servant (Matthew 23:8-11). He is pre-eminent (Colossians 1:15-20, John 8:56-58) and is our leader (Luke 22:26-27). The older (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) will serve the younger (Romans 9:12):

> Romans 9:12 - she was told, The older (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) will serve the younger. (ESV)

Jesus was sent by Father God (John 8:42) who assigned Jesus a Kingdom (Luke 22:29). No servant is greater than their master, nor messenger than the one who sent him (John 13:12-16).

> John 13:12-16 - When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

Jesus humbled Himself (Philippians 2:8) the most (Matthew 18:4) and though He is King and the greatest (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) in the Kingdom, yet He serves as though He is lesser (G3501 neōteros; lesser/younger). In Jesus' Kingdom (Luke 22:30), leaders (the elders) serve the lesser/newer as though they are the greater, like King Jesus serves His subjects (Matthew 23:8-11). In Jesus' Kingdom, humility (Matthew 18:4) and teaching whilst keeping God's commandments for us without hypocrisy (Matthew 5:19, II Corinthians 10:11-12) go hand in hand.

> Matthew 18:4 - Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:19 - Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

> Luke 22:25-30 - And he said to them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those in authority over them are called benefactors. But not so with you. Rather, let the greatest among you become (G1096 ginomai means "to become, and signifies a change of condition, state or place") as the youngest, and the leader as one who serves. For who is the greater, one who reclines at table or one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at table? But I am among you as the one who serves. You are those who have stayed with me in my trials, and I assign to you, as my Father assigned to me, a kingdom, that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. (ESV)

Jesus is pre-eminent:

> Colossians 1:15-20 - He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities — all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

Jesus was sent by Father God who is greater than all:

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

> John 10:29 - My Father, who has given them to me, is greater (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. (ESV)

Father God, Who is greater than all, is One with Jesus Christ, His Son, His Word. No-one who has been created can see Father God except in the face of Jesus Christ:

> Colossians 1:15 - He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. (ESV)

> John 1:18 - No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, he has made him known. (ESV)

> John 1:3-10 - All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. (ESV)

> John 10:30 - I and the Father are one. (ESV)

> John 14:6-12 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him. Philip said to him, Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us. Jesus said to him, Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, Show us the Father? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 4:6 - For God, who said, Let light shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Colossians 1:15 - He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. (ESV)

youtube.com: THE FACE OF GOD : WHY MOSES HAD TO WAIT FOR JESUS . {@ Voiceoffaith04 }

> Like I love the Bible. I can't believe how it all fits together. Okay, so remember you got John 1 and I'm just going to read it, okay. It says John 1:14, "And the word became flesh", that's Christmas (i.e. Jesus' birthday), ”and dwelt among us.” This language is really important. ”And we have seen his glory.” <Bookmark that> ”...glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.” Okay, so here here’s what’s awesome here. Okay, so you go back to the garden and what do they lose? What what they lose in the garden is access to the face of the Father. You know, in in the garden, they walk with him as in the cool of the day, side by side as a friend. We lose the face of the Father because sin separates. Okay? So then you fast forward to Moses. This is going to be really important. It’s all going to tie together, okay? So then you fast forward to Moses. Moses, the Bible says, is the only guy who talked face to face with God, quote, as with a friend. But we know that language is mitigated because Moses actually has this moment where he’s like with God and he just like almost just like blurts out - like it’s the cry of every Christian’s heart - He just almost like blurts out like, ”show me your glory”, right? And you guys remember what God says to him. He’s like, ’Man, there’s a lot of things I can do for you, Mo. There’s one thing I can’t do. Uh, I can’t, I can’t show you my face.’ And He says, ”Because no man shall see my face and live.” And it’s one of my favorite passages of the whole Old Testament.

> Exodus 33:20-23 - But, he said, you cannot see my face, for man shall not see me and live. And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock, and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by. Then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back, but my face shall not be seen. (ESV)

If you remember what he does, that’s when God takes Moses and he sticks him literally in his hand, puts him in the cleft of a rock, covers him with his hand, and then the Bible literally says that God, it’s - I’m not trying to be jokey or weird or gross, it’s like literally what the Bible says - the Hebrew literally says that God turns his back to Moses and causes his quote hind parts to pass in front of Moses and then instead of showing him his face, He declares verbally his glory:

> Exodus 34:6-7 - The LORD passed before him and proclaimed, The LORD, the LORD, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children and the children’s children, to the third and the fourth generation. (ESV)

Okay. So now, Moses, who the Bible says prophesies forward about Jesus. When Moses dies it’s prophesied someday there will come again a prophet like me, Moses says, who speaks with God face to face as a man with a friend. But remember, Moses was not allowed two things in his life. He was not allowed to see God’s face, and because of Moses’ disobedience, (he struck the rock instead of speaking to it) Moses was never allowed to enter into the promised land. All right. Now, I love this so much. So then you fast forward to John chapter 1, and the Bible literally says right here, it says then ”the Word became flesh.” And then it says, ”we have seen his glory. Glory as of the only Son from the Father.”

> John 1:14 - And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (ESV)

So Jesus is the glory of God. In fact, if you go back to the ten commandments, okay. The second commandment is ’don’t make any graven images’ i.e. ’Don’t make any images of Me’. The reason that God commanded ’don’t make any images of Me’ is He was saying don’t make any images because someday I’m going to send one. So then Jesus comes in John chapter 1.

He himself is the ”image of the invisible God. the exact representation of his nature”.

> Colossians 1:15 - He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. (ESV)

> Hebrews 1:3 - He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, (ESV)

When people are looking at the face of Jesus, they are looking at the face of God.

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

Okay, bro. This is where it gets pretty amazing. I'm excited. So then, you fast forward to the transfiguration.

All right, so Jesus goes up on the mountain. He brings three dudes with Him: Peter, James, and John. What they record is they see Jesus face quote transformed like lightning. And they see the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. And then two dudes appear on the top of the mountain. By the way, the mountain was Mount Hermon, most people think, which is inside the promised land.

The two dudes who see the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ are Moses and Elijah.

And so, thousands of years later, after Moses was denied two things, Moses, I'm real sorry. You can't see my face and you can't go into the promised land.

And then in Jesus, Moses is on that mountain and he sees two things. He's seeing the face of God in the glory of Jesus Christ. And guess where he is? He's in the promised land.

Being born of the spirit:

> John 7:37-39 - On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. (ESV)

> Romans 8:3-4 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

1.2.3 Justification (having access to God's grace) and sanctification (getting cleaned up)

While having faith in Jesus Christ (trusting in Him, trusting Him) we obey Jesus Christ's commandments. That's justification and sanctification working together:

> Romans 4:23-25,5:1-2 - But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (ESV)

Access the saving grace by faith in Jesus. The grace is for us to be sanctified:

> Romans 5:1-2 - Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (ESV)

> Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

The law could not condemn sin in the flesh but God condemned sin in the flesh by sending his own son in the likeness of sinful flesh in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us (in order that we might walk in love and holiness), who walk not according to the flesh but according to the spirit (according to the teachings of Christ):

> Romans 8:2-4 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. (ESV)

OK, so if we trust/obey Jesus, we receive the Spirit of God, and God sanctifies us as we continue trusting/obeying Jesus.

If we walk according to the spirit, then we may fulfill the requirement of the law. Jesus' commandment to "be perfect" in the way in which He meant is possible with Jesus supporting us with the Spirit of God in us.

We are in the Spirit if the Spirit of God dwells in us.

And Christ's words are spirit and life. We walk according to His commandments and by faith in Jesus.

It's the standard of teaching that has been committed to us by the Apostles and but especially Jesus Christ Himself that we are to be obedient to:

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

The elect have soft hearts:

> Romans 11:7-10 - What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was seeking. The elect obtained it, but the rest were hardened, as it is written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear, down to this very day. And David says, Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them; let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and bend their backs forever.

A soft heart is needed to perceive and understand:

> Mark 8:17 - And Jesus, aware of this, said to them, Why are you discussing the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened? (ESV)

God can harden or soften hearts, but so can people harden and soften their own heart:

> II Chronicles 36:12-13 - He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord his God. He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the Lord. He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God. He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the Lord, the God of Israel. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:8 - do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness,

Someone learning from Father God is coming to Jesus, and they will never hunger:

> John 6:45 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— (ESV)

> II Timothy 3:14-15 - But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

> John 5:37-42 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life. I do not receive glory from people. But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. (ESV)

> John 6:45 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— (ESV)

We should keep coming to Jesus, keep learning from Jesus:

> John 6:37 - All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. (ESV)

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:1 - Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. (ESV)

I believe that a person can be an ”unregenerate” ”believer” (Jude 1:20-21) who is coming to Jesus, learning from Father God (John 6:45), and then sin kills them at some point because they cant keep the law though the law isn’t sin (Romans 7:8-11) and then they get born-again, given a new heart of flesh, and are regenerated (given a new spirit) and must go on as a believer after that. But for the regenerated believer with a new heart, they still do go on in faith, receiving correction from God (the circumcision of the heart), and continue in faith onwards.

> Romans 7:8-11 - But sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of covetousness. Apart from the law, sin lies dead. I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin came alive and I died. The very commandment that promised life proved to be death to me. For sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. (ESV)

> John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never (G3756) (G3361) die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV)

If a person is presently faithing in Jesus Christ then they are not committing sin because what is not done in faith is sin which is lawlessness.

> Proverbs 12:3 - No one is established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous will never be moved. (ESV)

A person can't genuinely obey God without a love for God (Luke 6:45, Psalms 81:15). So from a love for Jesus Christ, we are able to keep His commandments for us, and that is primarily a heart-attitude thing, and does not mean doing the works of the entire Mosaic law. Being a heart attitude thing, it means, for example, from the love of Jesus Christ who God is pleased with, loving one-another as God commands us, abstaining from bearing false witness, and abstaining from lust and covetousness, and from that faith in Jesus Christ producing the deeds of Jesus, good deeds. But we don't contrive the deeds for ourselves. God sets them up for the person who has faith in Jesus. Those who have the love of the truth in their heart are promised deeds, and promised fellowship and promised that the blood of Jesus Christ will cleanse them from sin:

> Romans 7:8-11 - But sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of covetousness. Apart from the law, sin lies dead. I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin came alive and I died. The very commandment that promised life proved to be death to me. For sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. (ESV)

> John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never (G3756) (G3361) die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV)

But getting regenerated with a soft heart now, one goes on keeping the commandments of God that are for us to keep:

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

God doesn't condemn a person if they are learning from Him, coming to Jesus:

> John 6:37 - All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. (ESV)

God judges those outside the church and God is a fair judge of their deeds:

> Romans 2:1-13 - Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who do such things. Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God? Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. For all who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 5:12-13 - For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? God judges those outside. Purge the evil person from among you. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:17-19 - And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

But if people reject Jesus, as in hate Him, God's righteousness revealed, they are condemned. They are condemned because anyone who hates Jesus hates Father God and Father God repays all who hate Him:

> John 15:22-24 - If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV)
> Deuteronomy 32:43 - Rejoice with him, O heavens; bow down to him, all gods, for he avenges the blood of his children and takes vengeance on his adversaries. He repays those who hate him and cleanses his people's land. (ESV)
> Deuteronomy 7:9-10 - Know therefore that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations, and repays to their face those who hate him, by destroying them. He will not be slack with one who hates him. He will repay him to his face. (ESV)
> I Chronicles 28:9 - And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever. (ESV)

God is good all the time. A son of God practices righteousness from the love of righteousness (Jesus said, if God were your Father, you would love me):

> John 8:39-42 - They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

The children of the devil practice unrighteousness:

> John 8:43-47 - Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)
> I John 3:4,8,9 - Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. (ESV)
> 1 John 3:12 - We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. (ESV)
> Matthew 13:38-43 - The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all > causes of sin and all law-breakers (G458 anomian; wicked i.e. those who hate righteousness, those who prefer evil to > and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear. (ESV)

If a person really thinks that Jesus was evil, then they are condemned, and they must repent (change their mind and come to faith in Jesus) or they will perish:

> John 15:22-24 - If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates me hates my Father also. If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. (ESV)

> Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned (G2919 krinetai: is judged V-PIM/P-3S), but whoever does not believe is condemned already (G2919 kekritai: has been judged V-RIM/P-3S), because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

> John 12:47-48 - If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)

> Luke 13:3 - No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish. (ESV)

If a person blasphemes the Son of Man, they need to repent. They can be forgiven for it but they need to repent. But I'm trying to make the point that Jesus is God's righteousness revealed and we need to be in agreement with God about Him, and Father God is well pleased with Jesus Christ His Son:

> Matthew 12:31-33 - Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. (ESV)

> Mark 3:28-30 - Truly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the children of man, and whatever blasphemies they utter, but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin— for they had said, He has an unclean spirit. (ESV)

> Matthew 17:5 - He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him. (ESV)

Since all people will be drawn to Jesus, everyone ultimately must either have faith in Jesus or reject Him:

> John 12:31-32 - Now is the judgment of this world; now will the ruler of this world be cast out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself. (ESV)

God's wrath is coming for the ungodly who remain ungodly and reject Jesus (i.e. The wrath of God comes for the ungodly who are not being cleaned up by faith in Jesus Christ):

> Romans 1:18-25 - For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. For although they knew God, they did > not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise, they became fools, and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles. Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen. (ESV)

Ungodliness is because of sinful desire, so what we need is to change to be those who desire God rather than desire evil. So we should love Jesus:

> II Peter 1:3-9 - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. (ESV)

Those who do wicked things do it from a hatred of the light, and having a hatred of the light, they do not learn from God, and do not come to Jesus who is the light.

If we love Jesus Christ in preference to other things, we can learn from Him and be cleaned up. From the love of God we can learn from God and come to Jesus and practice good deeds. If we have faith in Jesus Christ then we will do His deeds:

> John 3:17-21 - For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But whoever does (G4160 poiōn; doing) what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

The promises are to those who love God, so we have to love God rather than sin:

> II Corinthians 6:17-18,7:1 - Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

> II Peter 1:3-9 - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. (ESV)

But God's word promises that those who seek Him will find Him:

> Matthew 7:7 - Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. (ESV)

> I Chronicles 28:9 - And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever. (ESV)

> Acts 17:24-28 - The God who made the world and everything in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples made by man, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mankind life and breath and everything. And he made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their dwelling place, that they should seek God, in the hope that they might feel their way toward him and find him. Yet he is actually not far from each one of us, for In him we live and move and have our being; as even some of your own poets have said, For we are indeed his offspring. (ESV)

It's not too late to seek God. But we need to not be deceived so we need the love of the truth, the love of God, the love of God's word, the love of God's precepts, the love of God's children:

> II Thessalonians 2:1-12 - Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God. Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things? And you know what is restraining him now so that he may be revealed in his time. For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. Only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth and bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming. The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness. (ESV)

> Luke 8:12 - The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. (ESV)

So having faith in God who justifies the ungodly, their faith is counted as righteousness. So we are talking about someone who has up until this point of coming to faith, has been ungodly, and they have recognised the fact that they have been ungodly, but in this moment they have faith in God and also they recognise their ungodliness. Someone who has not yet brought holiness to completion in the fear of God is in some way "ungodly". But that doesn't mean that they do not have faith. But we do need to bring holiness to completion, because "the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth":

> Romans 4:4-6 - Now to the one who works (G2038 ergazomenō; is working for payment), his wages are not counted as a gift but as his due. And to the one who does not work (G2038 ergazomenō; is working for payment) but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from (G5565 chōris) works (G2041 ergōn): (ESV)

> Romans 1:18-25 - For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise, they became fools, and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles. Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:1-10 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. (ESV)

But if we are believing in Jesus Christ then we will not remain in darkness. And since those who hate their brother are in darkness (I John 2:9-10), then those having faith in Jesus will be sanctified by the truth into loving God with their whole heart which includes loving God's children. A person believing in the name of Jesus Christ receives forgiveness for former sin and has the right to become a child of God, and children of God walk in the light with a love for the truth, a love for God, and from the heart of love for God, also love God's children. Their family do the will of God the father of Jesus Christ:

> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

> James 1:22 - But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. (ESV)

> Mark 3:34-35 - And looking about at those who sat around him, he said, Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother. (ESV)

> Luke 8:15 - As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience. (ESV)

> I John 2:17-29 - And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. Children, it is the last hour, and as you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come. Therefore we know that it is the last hour. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us. But they went out, that it might become plain that they all are not of us. But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all have knowledge. I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you too will abide in the Son and in the Father. And this is the promise that he made to us—eternal life. I write these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you. But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything—and is true and is no lie, just as it has taught you—abide in > him. And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him. (ESV)

Former sin being forgiven through faith in Jesus Christ, the Christian must now continue walking by faith in Jesus Christ as what is not done in faith is sin which is lawlessness. So a person isn't sanctified by sinning, but rather by continuing on in the love of the truth, by faith and obedience to Jesus Christ, and the type of faith in Jesus that a person is sanctified by having is the type of faith that leads to producing good deeds done from faith in Jesus:

> II Peter 1:3-9 - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. (ESV)

God helps us to put to death the deeds of the sinful flesh and we hold out faith in Jesus:

> Colossians 3:1-10 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. (ESV)

For this reason did Jesus Christ the Son of God appear, to destroy the works of the devil. The true gospel of Jesus Christ saves a person from committing sin. It is not committing sin to confess that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God because the one born of God confesses that Jesus is the Christ and sinneth not (I John 5:18). And the Christian from there needs to continue in faith. We are not those who shrink back and are destroyed, but those who continue walking by faith to the preservation of our souls:

> John 12:46 - I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. (ESV)

> I John 2:9-10 - Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. (ESV)

> John 1:12 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, (ESV)

> Matthew 12:50 - For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother. (ESV)

> I John 3:8 - Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. (ESV)

> I John 5:18 - We know that everyone who has been born of God does not keep on sinning, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. (ESV)

And we are perfected through obedience to the Truth (Jesus) and faith in Jesus as His Spirit sanctifies us:

> I Peter 1:22-25 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)
> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

Jesus has many commandments but among the most important is to believe who He is: Son of God, Christ, Messiah. Otherwise, as He said…

> John 8:24 - I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins. (ESV)
> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)
> John 15:9-14 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

And we can't love God with our whole heart if we don't love our family in Christ:

> I John 3:14 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. (ESV)

We should just do good to everyone, even to those who hate us:

> Galatians 6:7-10 - Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

Like the Samaritan in this story, we should just do good to people:

> Luke 10:25-37 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

> Hebrews 13:2 - Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. (ESV)

And when God sees, He remembers. The person may not know when they served Jesus' family in their hour of need. The Bible does teach to do good to all:

> Matthew 25:31-40 - When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me. Then the righteous will answer him, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you? And the King will answer them, Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.

To have the love of God completed in us we need to be those who love others as we have been loved by God. To love God in a complete way involves not simply loving His word but loving His children:

> I John 4:12 - No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)
> I John 4:16-17 - So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)
> Matthew 5:43-48 - You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect (G5046 teleioi; complete, mature), as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

Father God's commandment is for us to have faith in Jesus Christ's name and to love one-another as He has commanded:

> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)
> John 16:25-28 - I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves (G5368 philei) you, because you have loved (G5368 pephilēkate) me and have believed that I came from God. I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father.

Real faith loves the truth rather than hates the truth and Jesus is the Truth and Father God and Holy Spirit are also the Truth. And God's word is the truth:

> I Corinthians 13:1-13 - If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing. Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I gave up childish ways. For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known. So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest (G3173 meizōn; [the] greatest, most preceeding) of these is love. (ESV)

A person gets born of God through having faith in the gospel of Jesus Christ:

> I John 5:1-6 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ; not by the water only but by the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. (ESV)

> James 1:21-25 - Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing. (ESV)

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

By faith in Jesus Christ (trusting Jesus' words), we do what Jesus says. The reality is that a born-again person does not have a father on the earth. When a person is born-again of the spirit and they call God their own father out of a loving faith in Jesus Christ, it's true in an absolute sense. No-one else is that person's father:

> Matthew 23:9 - And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. (ESV)

Faith in Jesus Christ brings us into being law-abiding by the law of faith in Christ.

We must be lawful to Christ (abiding in the 'law of Christ'). Though we don't commend ourselves for doing this. We should normally be doers of Christ's law. What's not done in faith is sin, after all. And whoever has no love for Christ has a curse upon them. And whoever hates their brother who they have seen can't love God who they have not seen. So our duty and normal walk should be doing Christ's commandments such as to have faith in Him and to love one another as He commanded:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of (G1772 ennomos; lawful to, law-abiding to, in the law of) Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

The word "ennomos" used in I Cor 9:21 for being "law-abiding" is closely related to the word "onnomō" which is used in Acts 19:39:

> Acts 19:39 - But if you want anything beyond this, it shall be settled in the lawful (G1772 ennomō lawful) assembly (G1577 ekklēsia; assembly). (NASB)

Jesus Christ is the righteousness that God has revealed who we must love first and foremost as Christians but loving Him includes loving His family and serving Him involves serving His family. No Christian can exceed God's righteousness and no Christian can take the place of Christ who is the head of His body the church (Colossians 1:15-18). No messenger is greater than the one who sent them (John 13:12-16):

> Romans 3:23-26 - for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

> I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

1.3 Entering into God's rest

We are required to rest in a 'sense', but Jesus gives us the rest, and we strive to enter that rest. We don't simply take the rest. Jesus gives it to us. We strive in faith and obedience to Jesus, to keep His commandments, and Jesus gives the rest. So, like with the Israelites leaving Egypt, God was leading them to the promised land and the Israelites had to keep faith in God and continue to keep His commandments, and not regress back into idolatry. And this is they way in which we are also supposed to enter into God's rest, by faith obeying Jesus Christ:

> I Timothy 4:7-10 - Have nothing to do with irreverent, silly myths. Rather train yourself for godliness; for while bodily training is of some value, godliness is of value in every way, as it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come. The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance. For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. (ESV)

> Matthew 11:28-30 - Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 37:12-14 - Therefore, prophesy, and thou hast said unto them, thus said the Lord Jehovah: Lo, I am opening your graves, And have brought you up out of your graves, O My people, And brought you in unto the land of Israel. And ye have known that I am Jehovah, In My opening your graves, And in My bringing you up out of your graves, O My people. And I have given My Spirit in you, and ye have lived, And I have caused you to rest on your land, And ye have known that I Jehovah, I have spoken, and I have done it , An affirmation of Jehovah.' (YLT)

I think entering into God's rest is not an act of disobedience, and it's not an act of distrst. The starting point of entering into God's rest might be thought of as the point of repentance from dead works and turning to faith in God:

> Hebrews 6:1-2 - Therefore let us leave the elementary doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, and of instruction about washings, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. (ESV)

We ”do” the will of God to enter into God’s rest. After all, how can someone rest if they are being tormented because they did not pass forward forgiveness?

> Matthew 18:32-35 - Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me: Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses. (KJV)

Real faith loves God rather than evil. Real faith in Jesus prefers Him to evil. Real faith in Jesus prefers Him to other things. And God cleans us as we hold our faith in Jesus Christ preferring Him.

There is no rest for the unrepentant. Whether a person has a disease/illness or not, they need to come to faith in Jesus with the love of God. A sick person finds no cure in being unrepentant. Real love and compassion encourages people to turn from the error of their ways. It’s not right to say, ”The ill/diseased are excused from needing to repent and have faith.” We don’t just take the rest from Jesus without coming to Jesus (learning from Him). Jesus gives the rest to those who come to Him. We need to come to have a genuine faith in Jesus which loves the truth. Whoever is presently having faith in Jesus is not committing sin. God justifies the ungodly who have faith in Jesus and in having faith in Jesus they have repented and in having faith in Jesus are not committing sin (I John 5:18, I John 5:1-6, Romans 14:23).

Those who love the darkness rather than love God (John 3:14-19, II Timothy 3:1-5) are unrepentant people (II Timothy 3:6-8) who are disqualified in their faith and who do not come to the knowledge of the truth which God desires all people to come to know (I Timothy 2:4). So having the love of God in us is important for being saved. And unless someone is keeping God’s commandments, for them, then they surely cannot have come to the knowledge of the truth (I John 2:3-6). We have to have the love of God in us to have genuine faith in Jesus:

> Isaiah 48:22 - There is no peace, says the LORD, for the wicked. (ESV)

> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 7:8-11 - Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD. (KJV)

> John 10:1 - Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber. (ESV)

> I John 5:18 - We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. (KJV)

> John 5:6-15 - When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, Do you want to be healed? The sick man answered him, Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, and while I am going another steps down before me. Jesus said to him, Get up, take up your bed, and walk. And at once the man was healed, and he took up his bed and walked. Now that day was the Sabbath. So the Jews said to the man who had been healed, It is the Sabbath, and it is not lawful for you to take up your bed. But he answered them, The man who healed me, that man said to me, Take up your bed, and walk. They asked him, Who is the man who said to you, Take up your bed and walk? Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in the place. Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you. The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him. (ESV)

> John 5:42-43 - But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. (ESV)

Journal <2026-05-28 Thu 08:09> We entering into God's rest through "faith and obedience" to Jesus Christ and to His gospel:

> Hebrews 4:1-14 - Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us fear lest any of you should seem to have failed to reach it. For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said, As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest, although his works were finished from the foundation of the world. For he has somewhere spoken of the seventh day in this way: And God rested on the seventh day from all his works. And again in this passage he said, They shall not enter my rest. Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, again he appoints a certain day, Today, saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts. For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account. Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. (ESV)

This "striving" for obedience to Christ and His gospel is a resisting of sin while holding our faith in Jesus Christ:

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

> Genesis 3:15 - I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel. (ESV)

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:5-6 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)

> Hebrews 12:4-8 - In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. (ESV)

> The enemy, the devil, tries to pull people back into distrusting Jesus and His gospel and into disobeying Him and His gospel. The devil comes along and speaks lies, perhaps through other people, things like, "you don't need to love your brother", or "you don't need to test the spirits", or "you can't expect God to give you the testimony of Jesus Christ from Holy Spirit", or "you can't be saved by obeying Christ", or "you can't be saved by faith in Christ". The enemy so often uses "half truths" which are actually lies, pitting parts of Jesus Christ's gospel against each other to try to neuter/sterilize/disempower the gospel, saying such things as "it's by faith in Jesus Christ that a person is saved, not obedience", for example:
>> Genesis 3:1-4 - Now the serpent was more crafty than any other beast of the field that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, Did God actually say, You shall not eat of any tree in the garden? And the woman said to the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden, but God said, You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the midst of the garden, neither shall you touch it, lest you die. But the serpent said to the woman, You will not surely die. (ESV)
>> Luke 8:12-15 - The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe for a while, and in time of testing fall away. And as for what fell among the thorns, they are those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature. As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience. (ESV)
> But through persevering in faith and resisting all the opposition, God leads us into the truth:
>> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)
> God's word is trustworthy. The shield of faith involves trusting what God says rather than the lies:
>> Psalms 18:30 - This God—his way is perfect; the word of the LORD proves true; he is a shield for all those who take refuge in him. (ESV)

But it's clear that this repentance brings us into service to God:

> Hebrews 9:13-14 - For if the sprinkling of defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a heifer sanctifies for the purification of the flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. (ESV)

So it's a continuing thing that submits to God's will, by turning away from wanting to do sin, and turning towards wanting to serve God, serving Jesus, out of faith and obedience, and while entering into God's rest by coming to Jesus may be very quick for some people, it may take more time for others, as they shake off idols, as they are purified in love and holiness. And entering the rest, we rest from our works, but it's God who grants that rest to us on an individual basis:

> Hebrews 4:9-11 - So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. (ESV)

See how it's God who makes us lie down in green pastures. Jesus gives the rest, but he gives it to His followers, those who trust and obey Him:

> Psalms 23:1-2 - The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. A Psalm of David. He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 7:3-7 - Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these. For if ye throughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye throughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour; If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt: Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever. (KJV)

A false gospel would say we are not saved from committing sin.

To be saved is to be saved from committing sin while having faith in Jesus Christ (John 8:34-36, Romans 8:8-13) and so so-called grace or salvation that is denying of being saved from committing sin is not true grace or true salvation.

> Jeremiah 7:8-11 - Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD. (KJV)

> John 10:1 - Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber. (ESV)

> I John 3:3-11 - And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

So long as I'm being harassed by demons opposing sanctification and holiness, I wont rest from striving obediently to the LORD Jesus Christ. When the God of Peace has crushed satan under my feet then I will rest.

The God of Peace will sanctify me completely:

> I Thessalonians 5:19-24 - Do not quench the Spirit. Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. Abstain from every form of evil. Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful; he will surely do it. (ESV)

The God of Peace will equip me to do His will so my working will be done in His strength:

> Hebrews 13:20-21 - Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

The God of Peace will crush satan under my feet as I obey Him:

> Romans 16:17-21 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you; so do Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen. (ESV)

When we are in God's rest, God continues working in us:

> Hebrews 13:20-21 - Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

Remember that weeds are removed from God's Kingdom.

> Matthew 13:24-30 - He put another parable before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field, but while his men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared also. And the servants of the master of the house came and said to him, Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have weeds? He said to them, An enemy has done this. So the servants said to him, Then do you want us to go and gather them? But he said, No, lest in gathering the weeds you root up the wheat along with them. Let both grow together until the harvest, and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn. (ESV)

> Matthew 13:37-42 - He answered, The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers (G4160 poiountas 3588 tēn G458 anomian; practicing lawlessness), and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (ESV)

At the close of the age we want to have believed the gospel and we want to be serving Christ and abiding in His love, doing God's will, practicing Christ's commandments:

> Matthew 13:49 - So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous (ESV)

I think entering into the Kingdom of heaven as a child of God is entering into God's rest. Entering into God's rest is resting in the spirit of Truth.

> Romans 14:17 - For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

We have even more fullness of joy when God commends us:

> Matthew 25:21 - His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master. (ESV)

1.3.1 What the striving looks like

- Hold the faith
- Trust in Jesus Christ, trust His words, have confidence in Him and His words and His commandments and His work
    - Unite the good news with faith
- Hold confidence with a good conscience, loving the truth, and hating sin
    - Proverbs 10:28 - The hope of the righteous brings joy, but the expectation of the wicked will perish. (ESV)
    - Job 4:6 - Is not your fear of God your confidence, and the integrity of your ways your hope? (ESV)
- Hold the hope of salvation
- Train yourself for godliness
- Be obedient
- Do the will of God
    - Give up idols
    - Love one another as Jesus commanded
- Jesus gives the rest. Jesus grants the rest at some point as we are striving to maintain faithful, trusting faith in Jesus and striving to keep His commandments faithfully

  Hebrews 3:1-6 - Therefore, holy brothers, you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, who was faithful to him who appointed him, just as Moses also was faithful in all God's house. For Jesus has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses—as much more glory as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself. (For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.) Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that were to be spoken later, but Christ is faithful over God's house as a son. And we are his house if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope. (ESV)

  Hebrews 3:7-19 - Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness, where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years. Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, They always go astray in their heart; they have not known my ways. As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest. Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

I Timothy 4:7-12 - Have nothing to do with irreverent, silly myths. Rather train yourself for godliness; for while bodily training is of some value, godliness is of value in every way, as it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come. The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance. For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. Command and teach these things. Let no one despise you for your youth, but set the believers an example in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. (ESV)

The ’good news being united with faith” literally means trusting Jesus Christ’s words:

Hebrews 4:1-13 - Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us fear lest any of you should seem to have failed to reach it. For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said, As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest, although his works were finished from the foundation of the world. For he has somewhere spoken of the seventh day in this way: And God rested on the seventh day from all his works. And again in this passage he said, They shall not enter my rest. Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, again he appoints a certain day, Today, saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts. For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God’s rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account. (ESV)

John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never (G3756) (G3361) die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV)

ou mé Not at all, never, by no means. G3756 (- no) and G3361 (- no)] a double negative strengthening the denial, ”not at all” Strong’s Exhaustive Concordance anymore, at all, neither, never

I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

Matthew 18:21-22 - Then Peter came up and said to him, Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times? Jesus said to him, I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven. (ESV)

We must follow wholeheartedly:

Numbers 32:11 - ‘None of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob; for they did not follow Me fully, (NASB)

Numbers 32:11 - They do not see–the men who are coming up out of Egypt from a son of twenty years and upward–the ground which I have sworn to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, for they have not been fully after Me; (YLT)

1.3.2 Inheritance in Christ by imitating Him, having been washed first by Him

We need to be ”imitators” (not replacers) of Christ in order to share in Him.

> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)
> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)
> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

Inheritance by continued perseverance in doing good while having a clean conscience with God, trusting in God, acknowledging that Christ died for use while we were still sinners.

Unless Jesus washes us first, we have no share in Him (John 13:8):

> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)
> John 15:3 - Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. (ESV)
> John 13:8 - Peter said to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no share with me. (ESV)
> Isaiah 26:3 - You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. (ESV)
> I John 4:10 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (ESV)
> Titus 2:14 - who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)

We hold our faith in Christ and we endeavour to imitate Christ:

> John 13:6-17 - He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, do you wash my feet? Jesus answered him, What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand. Peter said to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no share with me. Simon Peter said to him, Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head! Jesus said to him, The one who has bathed does not need to wash, except for his feet, but is completely clean. And you are clean, but not every one of you. For he knew who was to betray him; that was why he said, Not all of you are clean. When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. (ESV)
> I John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:5-8 - Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

We just perservere in faith in trusting obedience to Jesus, and if we face persecution while endeavouring to practice righteousness, then so be it, but like Jesus, we should just entrust ourselves to a faithful Creator while continuing to do good:

> I Peter 2:21-23 - For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. (ESV)

We should have confidence if we are doing what Jesus said, and if we are doing what Jesus has said to do, then we should have hope:

> Hebrews 3:6 - but Christ is faithful over God's house as a son. And we are his house if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope. (ESV)

We need to continue trusting Jesus. It's not possible to simultaneously commit sin and have faith in Jesus Christ. So we must resist committing sin:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

We are to keep our faith in Jesus (God has loved us first) and love one-another as commanded by Christ, in the same way that Christ loved us:

> Colossians 1:3-14 - We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel, which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth, just as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf and has made known to us your love in the Spirit. And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

> Romans 8:16-18 - The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. (ESV)

Philippians 1:27-30 - Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side (G4866 synathlountes; striving together) for the faith of the gospel, and not frightened in anything by your opponents. This is a clear sign to them of their destruction, but of your salvation, and that from God. For it has been granted to you that for the sake of Christ you should not only believe in him but also suffer for his sake, engaged in the same conflict that you saw I had and now hear that I still have. (ESV)

This endeavour to love one-another (in truth and in deed) does result in suffering, but also inheritance:

I Peter 4:12-13 - Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. (ESV)

1.3.3 The good news to enter into God's rest also went to the Israelites who followed Moses

Hebrews 3:14-19 - For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

Baptised in water (cloud and sea), baptised into Moses:

I Corinthians 10:1-6 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. (ESV)

Hebrews 4:2-3 - For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said, As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest, although his works were finished from the foundation of the world. (ESV)

When we are in God's rest, God continues working in us:

Hebrews 13:20-21 - Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

Do not put Christ to the test by desiring and practicing evil:

- Do not desire evil
- Do not be idolaters
- Do not indulge in sexual immorality

I Corinthians 10:6-14 - Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the > test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 9:20-21 - The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands nor give up worshiping demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk, nor did they repent of their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their thefts. (ESV)

This makes it it quite clear that we must be law-abiding:

> Matthew 13:38-42 - The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers (G4160 poiountas 3588 tēn G458 anomian; practicing lawlessness), and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (ESV)

1.3.4 Keeping our peace with God

The Bible says that having salvific righteousness before God in his sight (in his omniscient sight, he can see our hearts and deeds) and peace in our hearts doesn't take much time. We have to place our faith in Christ. Have faith in God. Have faith in Jesus Christ:

> Psalms 78:21-22 - Therefore, when the LORD heard, he was full of wrath; a fire was kindled against Jacob; his anger rose against Israel, because they did not believe in God and did not trust his saving power. (ESV)

> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)

> Luke 24:38 - And he said to them, Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? (ESV)

> Isaiah 26:3-4 - You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock. (ESV)

Do not bear a grudge against family in Christ:

> Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:8-15 - Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. Pray then like this: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. (ESV)

> Matthew 18:32-35 - Then his master summoned him and said to him, You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you? And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:12-14 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (ESV)

Receive God's discipline and be transformed to share His holiness:

> Hebrews 12:10-11 - For they disciplined us for a short time as it seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. (ESV)

> II Peter 3:14 - Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. (ESV)

Be found in Christ knowing Him well as Lord, imitating and passing forward His love for us:

> I Peter 5:14 - Greet one another with the kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:8-14 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

Believe the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

> Ephesians 2:13-16 - But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility by abolishing the law of commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace, and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby killing the hostility. (ESV)

Do good. Love your neighbour as yourself:

> Romans 2:9-10 - There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. (ESV)

Take care of family in Christ:

> Acts 4:31-35 - And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness. Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of > the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold and laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need. (ESV)

We should bless our family in Christ, and not curse them.

And when we talk about true Israel, what we really mean is those who do the works of Abraham who are Abraham's children who if we bless, we shall be blessed:

> Genesis 12:3 - I will bless those who bless you, and him who dishonors you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed. (ESV)

> John 8:39-42 - They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

> John 6:45 - It is written in the Prophets, And they will all be taught by God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— (ESV)

Be obedient to Jesus Christ in all His commandments for us:

> Romans 16:17-20 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

Maintain a good conscience, resist doing evil, remain faithful and obedient to Jesus Christ:

> I Timothy 1:18-19 - This charge I entrust to you, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies previously made about you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith, (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 5:22-24 - Abstain from every form of evil. Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful; he will surely do it. (ESV)

We can't be unfaithful to Jesus Christ and expect to have joy. Joy comes from maintaining faith and a good conscience with God. I doubt Peter had joy right after denying being a disciple of Jesus, and I doubt Judas had any joy when he chose to hang himself after betraying Jesus:

> Job 20:4-5 - Do you not know this from of old, since man was placed on earth, that the exulting of the wicked is short, and the joy of the godless but for a moment? (ESV)

> Hebrews 1:9 - You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions. (ESV)

> Ecclesiastes 9:7 - Go, eat your bread in joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart, for God has already approved what you do. (ESV)

> John 15:9-14 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

We can have Jesus' joy from hearing and trusting Christ's teachings, putting our faith in the Truth of God and from doing His word:

> John 17:13-14 - But now I am coming to you, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. (ESV)

This is the road we should be on:

> Hebrews 12:2 - looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. (ESV)

1.4 Purging the old leaven through obedience to Jesus Christ's commandments while holding faith in Him

Those who continue to obey Jesus Christ will be justified or may be led to justification by faith because to have faith in God and Christ Jesus is commanded:

> John 14:1 - Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. (ESV)

> Isaiah 26:3-4 - You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock. (ESV)

The reason why Jesus is the source of eternal salvation to those who obey Him (Hebrews 5:8-9) is because people who obey Him are obedient (I Timothy 1:8-9, Romans 6:16-18, Titus 1:16) to Him and a person who is obedient to Jesus has the love of God in their heart (Luke 6:45, John 14:15-17) and it's the love of the Truth that saves (II Thessalonians 2:10):

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

Those who are obedient to Christ, even striving to take every thought captive to Christ, have probably been justified already - though God is the justifier:

> Ezekiel 36:26-27 - And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules. (ESV)

We should be obedient to Jesus' commandments without grumbling or questioning:

> Philippians 2:12-16 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. Do all things without grumbling or questioning, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

We serve Christ as slaves of Righteousness, trusting in Him and His words, and increasing in obedience to Christ as we take captive our thoughts for obedience to Christ:

> Romans 6:16-23 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

Jesus always does what is pleasing to Father God. And we are instructed to increasingly do what is pleasing to God:

> John 8:29 - And he who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 4:1-7 - Finally, then, brothers, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to live and to please God, just as you are doing, that you do so more and more. For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. (ESV)

Someone who has true faith in Jesus Christ is somebody who loves the brethren (family in Christ):

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes (G4100 pisteuo) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

> I John 3:13-16 - Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. (ESV)

The work of God is to 'believe' on (have faith in) whom He (God) sent. I believe that this means that God works good deeds through those who are having faith in Him. This type of faith is a love for the truth, and coincides with a love of one's family in Christ. This is the type of faith which from faith in Jesus produces good deeds:

> John 6:28-29 - Then they said to him, What must we do, to be doing the works of God? Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him whom he has sent. (ESV)

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

> John 12:44-50 - And Jesus cried out and said, Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak. And I know that his commandment is eternal life. What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me. (ESV)

The devil steals the word when people lose faith. The work of the devil is that people distrust God, even after they have received the word of God in their hearts:

> Luke 8:11-12 - Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. (ESV)

We must not let the devil steal the word of God from our hearts, but continue on in faith in God and in Christ:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly works unless we are referring to God's work that we are doing, God working through us:

> John 6:28-29 - Then they said to him, What must we do, to be doing the works of God? Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him whom he has sent. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:10 - But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. (ESV)

Having faith in Jesus and obeying Jesus, Jesus is working.

> Luke 7:6-9 - And Jesus went with them. When he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to him, Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof. Therefore I did not presume to come to you. But say the word, and let my servant be healed. For I too am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me: and I say to one, Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my servant, Do this, and he does it. When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turning to the crowd that followed him, said, I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith. (ESV)

So Jesus having given commandments, if we obey them (while holding faith in Him), Jesus works. This might seem very ordinary, but, actually it's really powerful. It might be really timely, for example, and lead someone to the Lord Jesus Christ and change the whole trajectory of their life, like the butterfly effect.

So Jesus gave rules/commandments to follow such as:

- if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also,

- if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well,
- if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles,
- Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you,
- Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,
- Sin no more - forsake sin (John 8:11, John 5:14, Prov 28:13).
  - II Timothy 2:21 - Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work. (ESV)
- Obey God
  - Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

When the situation arises for us to obey the commandment (which God may simply set up for us), and we keep His commandments, it may be attributed as Jesus working. If God is setting up the situations, and we are obeying, then God is providing the growth. We might be under the impression that we are obeying His commandments, but at the end of the day it's God who provides the growth, and God is sovereign to to make things grow.

> John 21:6 - He said to them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some. So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in, because of the quantity of fish. (ESV)

Analogy If the police put out a rule/commandment to the public, "If anyone sees this person then contact the police." And someone in the community obeyed this rule and phone called the police, then it's as if the police were working through the people in the community. Sometimes the community gets things wrong. So their obedience is useful, ultimately the police decide what phone calls to responde to / accept (i.e. "let grow"). So the obligation of the public is to follow the rules and when we follow God's rules, we do so with faith in God. God is still active regardless of what we do, but that's not incentive to not obey God.

OK, so while the Amundsen–Scott South Pole Station is under the jurisdiction of the United States it is not under the sovereignty of the United States - there is a higher authority. God is sovereign over all things:

> Daniel 7:27 - Then the sovereignty, the dominion and the greatness of all the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints of the Highest One; His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all the dominions will serve and obey Him.' (NASB)

If we want God to do mighty works among us, then we need faith. We have to believe God can do it and that God does to it:

> Mark 6:4-5 - And Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his own household. And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them. (ESV)

> Matthew 17:14-20 - And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, said, Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. And I brought him to your disciples, and they could not heal him. And Jesus answered, O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him here to me. And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, Why could we not cast it out? He said to them, Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, Move from here to there, and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you. (ESV)

Jesus is the one with authority. So our own godliness is just in order that God may use us for honourable use. So repenting from sin, obedience to God, walking in holiness and obedience etc. and having faith in God, makes it easier for God to work his miracles amongst us:

> John 6:27-29 - Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal. Then they said to him, What must we do, to be doing the works of God? Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent. (ESV)

> Acts 3:12 - And when Peter saw it he addressed the people: Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk? (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:21 - Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work. (ESV)

James also mentions forsaking sin, repentance, and faith in God's word here:

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

What's going on outside is an indication of what is going on inside:

> Matthew 23:26 - You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be clean. (ESV)

> Matthew 15:19 - For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, slander. (ESV)

> Isaiah 55:6-7 - Seek the LORD while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the LORD, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. (ESV)

We are called to love and pursue righteousness (walking not sinfully but truthfully and lovingly in line with God's precepts), and holiness from a pure heart. We are called also to have our souls purified:

> II Timothy 2:22 - So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

The purification of the heart results in practicing righteousness:

> I John 3:7 - Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)

It's obedience from the heart. In that way it's God's work in us, rather than our own works:

> Romans 6:17-18 - But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

Where we used to be disobedient, we are brought into obedience, accepting the gospel, and as we are sanctified by continued obedience to Jesus Christ, we have the hope of eternal life:

> Titus 3:3-7 - For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

After coming to faith we are called to put on the new self. To speak truth to one another, in love:

> Ephesians 4:24-25 - and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. (ESV)

A deed is evil if it comes from evil in a person's heart:

> Jeremiah 4:4 - Circumcise yourselves to the LORD; remove the foreskin of your hearts, O men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn with none to quench it, because of the evil of your deeds. (ESV)

> Romans 2:6-11 - He will render to each one according to his works (G2041 erga; deeds): to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does (G2716 katergazomenou) evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does (G2038 ergazomenō; is working for payment) good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

> Titus 1:15 - To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. (ESV)

> Romans 4:4-6 - Now to the one who works (G2038 ergazomenō; is working for payment), his wages are not counted as a gift but as his due. And to the one who does not work (G2038 ergazomenō; is working for payment) but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from (G5565 chōris) works (G2041 ergōn): (ESV)

We must put on the new self. After receiving grace, we are instructed to put to death sinful thoughts and practices. While holding our faith we are given grace to be transformed to no longer be a worker of evil:

> Colossians 3:1-10 - If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. (ESV)

I think saying ”neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female” is Paul exhorting people to see that those who have been baptized into Christ are members of Christ, and have an identity in Christ which transcends the worldly categories, similar to saying that a slave has an identity in Christ and so earthly masters should be wary of that fact, being aware that a person in Christ Jesus has an identity that totally transcends the worldly divisions between people:

> Galatians 3:25-29 - But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise. (ESV)
> Colossians 3:22 - Slaves, obey in everything those who are your earthly masters, not by way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. (ESV)

Just because a woman person may have an identity in Christ as a son of God (as Paul says neither male nor female), this transcendent reality is not a reason to pervert the natural order of things regarding natural gender. Paul is certainly not endorsing LGBT, etc. or same-sex marriage, and certainly not endorsing that slaves should not submit to their earthly master (Titus 2:9-10):

> Titus 2:9-10 - Slaves are to be submissive to their own masters in everything; they are to be well-pleasing, not argumentative, not pilfering, but showing all good faith, so that in everything they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior. (ESV)

Interestingly, I think Jesus is implying by saying that the sons of this age marry and 'are given' (women are given) in marriage, that a woman may be considered a ”son of this age”, and it really gets me thinking about what that word 'son' is being used to mean. It's not a natural gender thing:

> Luke 20:33-36 - In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife. And Jesus said to them, The sons of this age marry and 'are given' (women are given) in marriage, but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. (ESV)

And we must love our family in Christ. This commandment to love our brothers in Christ is a commandment to love our whole family in Christ, male or female:

> I John 4:21 - And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

A person may joke something false, not meaning harm, but speaking falsehood about one another, for example, calling a dude something like 'babygirl' is still speaking falsehood. If someone isn't aware of an in-joke and gets called something false, for example, you don't really know how they could take it, but it might have been done out of ignorance. But corrective action would involve no longer doing that, especially someone felt cursed by it, or it was made apparent to the person who said it that it caused the other person harm:

> Ephesians 4:19-27 - They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and give no opportunity to the devil. (ESV)

> Ephesians 4:29 - Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:4 - Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. (ESV)

Obedience to Christ is not against faith in Christ but is a natural consequence of obeying Christ and obeying His gospel, of trusting Christ and trusting His gospel. Taking every thought captive for obedience to Christ is not against trusting in God and in Christ Jesus our Lord, God's Son, and is not against trusting, believe His words.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ does not contradict itself:

> I Timothy 6:20-21 - O Timothy, guard the deposit entrusted to you. Avoid the irreverent babble and contradictions (G477 antitheseis; opposing ideas) of what is falsely called knowledge, for by professing it some have swerved from the faith. Grace be with you. (ESV)

We are sanctified by, agree with and speak the truth:

> Ephesians 5:5-11 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

We must have faith in God and not be rebellious, but we must be trusting obedient to God and it is God who works and does miracles through us. For example, God did amazing works amongst the Israelites as they were liberated from Egypt:

> Hebrews 3:7-11 - Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness, where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years. Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, They always go astray in their heart; they have not known my ways. As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest. (ESV)

By holding our faith in Jesus and obediently keeping His commandments, we can come to know Jesus - we can know His ways, and we can see Jesus working:

> I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

Jesus is the Truth (John 14:6) and we must obey the Truth (Romans 2:8). Jesus is our Righteousness (I Corinthians 1:30) if we keep His commandments from faith in and love for Him (John 14:1, John 14:15, Hebrews 1:8-9, John 16:27, Psalms 103:17-18) and we must obey Righteousness (Romans 6:13-23) and if we love Him we will keep His commandments (John 14:15) and without feigning obedience (Psalm 81:15).

Romans 4:4 is saying there is reward for working for God but that we must accept the free gift of justification through faith in Jesus Christ / through faith in Jesus' blood / through faith in Jesus Christ's atoning sacrifice, His passion, death and resurrection, and that justification through faith in His blood comes from work which He did and is totally independant of our work.

Also I think Romans 4:4-8 is saying that we have to recognise that as ungodly people, we needed Jesus Christ to have make atonement for our sin, and that we have to have faith God who has done this for us and we can’t deny these facts about God.

It would be silly to say that the Israelites were trusting in their own works as they walked through the Red Sea.

The Israelites were not working as they walked obediently through the Red Sea.

So to the one who ”does not work” but trusts Him (the one who justifies the ungodly), trusting/having faith in Christ Jesus, his (their) faith is counted as righteousness. I do not believe that Romans 4:4-8 is saying that it is against salvation to continue working for God as the Apostle Paul continued to do. God works through us. I also don’t think that Romans 4:4-8 is saying that ordinances such as baptism are not effecatious for salvation. I think baptism is an important part of salvation, but I still think that God can save without baptism. I also think that baptism should be coupled with faith and turning away from sin. One truth doesn’t contradict another truth.

> Romans 4:4-8 - Now to the one who works, his wages are not counted as a gift but as his due. And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin. (ESV)

Regarding the term ”means of grace” used in this video, the sacraments such as baptism and eucharist (

> learn.ligonier.org: Joel Kim: Relying on the Means of Grace: 2025 National Conference

I think the love that we show one another is a means of grace for our souls to be sanctified. Means of grace are usually referred to the sacrament of eucharist/communion, for example:

> I Peter 4:7-11 - The end of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers. Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. Show hospitality to one another without grumbling. As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God’s varied grace: whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

> Proverbs 16:6 - By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

Just as confessing sins is a means of grace, walking in the light, exercising the same love that Jesus exercised is a means of grace:

> I John 1:9 - If we confess (G3670 homologeó) our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

> I John 1:7 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

Obedience to Jesus, keeping His commandments is a means of grace:

> Hebrews 5:8-9 - Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

> I John 3:20-24 - for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> John 15:10 - If you keep My commandments, you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love. (engbsb2020eb)

Circumcision of the flesh does not matter because salvation by faith is available for both the circumcised (justification by faith with works of faith like Abraham's), and the uncircumcised (justification by faith alone). But we continue to abide in Christ's teachings/doctrines and the facts about Him and as we learn more of His words commandments, are corrected/salted and sanctified by Him:

> Romans 4:9-12 - Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. How then was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe (G4100 pisteuo) without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

If a Law-adhering person not only adheres to law but also walks in the footsteps of faith which Abraham had before he was circumcised, then that is a valid mode of justification. But we must continue to abide in Christ's teachings/doctrines and the facts about Him as we learn more of His words commandments, are corrected/salted and sanctified by Him. So a Jew when confronted with Jesus Christ needs to receive Jesus:

> Romans 4:11-13 - He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised. For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:6-8 - For it stands in Scripture: Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame. So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe, The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, and A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense. They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. (ESV)

The truly circumcised are the ones who obey the precepts of the law from a heart of faith:

> Romans 2:25-29 - For circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the law, but if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law. For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 9:25-26 - Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will punish all those who are circumcised merely in the flesh— Egypt, Judah, Edom, the sons of Ammon, Moab, and all who dwell in the desert who cut the corners of their hair, for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart. (ESV)

> Philippians 3:3 - For we are the real circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— (ESV)
> Ezekiel 36:25-28 - I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules. You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)
> Galatians 6:15 - For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). (ESV)

Something has a velocity but the distance travelled is a different thing. Likewise, the Christian can have faith but the works done is a different thing. That faith working through love is what counts doesn't mean it's the works which merit justification:

> Galatians 5:6-7 - For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)
> I Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

We rest from our own works as we come into God's rest through faith and obedience to Christ Himself (not to religion, but to Christ Himself), and our obedience continues as we let God work through us. We still obey Jesus. God sets up opportunities and we choose to obey Him. It's not burdensome, because there is great confidence in keeping His commandments, that we know God is pleased as we do this, and rewards the faithful and obedient. We just have to take every thought captive for obedience to Christ in faith to Christ. That's no contradiction:

> Hebrews 4:8-11 - For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. (ESV)

Paul makes it clear that our own involvement is nothing. Without God it can't be fruitful. But we still obey God:

> I Corinthians 3:6-8 - I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. (ESV)

Without God, we can't bear fruit. Jesus Christ who is God is the one who builds His church:

> Matthew 16:18 - And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (ESV)

But we still practice love and build one-another up, and it's Christ, our Head who is building His church:

> Ephesians 4:11-25 - And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by > the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love. Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. (ESV)

We should keep away from any brother who is walking in idleness and not in accord with the Apostolic tradition:

> II Thessalonians 2:13-15 - But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by our spoken word or by our letter. (ESV)

> II Thessalonians 3:3-8 - But the Lord is faithful. He will establish you and guard you against the evil one. And we have confidence in the Lord about you, that you are doing and will do the things that we command. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ. Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you keep away from any brother who is walking in idleness and not in accord with the tradition that you received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us, because we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but with toil and labor we worked night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you. (ESV)

Trusting Jesus to obey Him and to take every thought captive for obedience to Christ is what we are called to do for the salvation of our souls, that we may be sanctified to agape love one another, especially our family in Christ, in the truth from the heart, which is necessary for eternal life. Sin leading to death includes hate for family in Christ:

> I Peter 1:6-9 - In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (ESV)

> I John 3:14-17 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)

> I John 5:16 - If anyone sees his brother committing a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life—to those who commit sins that do not lead to death. There is sin that leads to death; I do not say that one should pray for that. (ESV)

> James 5:19-20 - My brothers, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone brings him back, let him know that whoever brings back a sinner from his wandering will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:14-25 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

Sin not leading to death may involved saying something false about someone else to someone else, but not meaning any harm to them. Perhaps, an in-joke, perhaps even from an agape loving heart for their family in Christ. However, it's still wrongdoing. Paul calls us to speak truth to one-another, as we put on the new self. This is a holiness issue, and it's important:

> Ephesians 4:24-25 - and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness. Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 5:7-13 - Cleanse out the old leaven that you may be a new lump, as you really are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Let us therefore celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? God judges those outside. Purge the evil person from among you. (ESV)

1.4.1 Ishmael, the son of the slave women Hagar, shall not not inherit with the son of the free woman.

> I Chronicles 1:28 - The sons of Abraham: Isaac and Ishmael. (ESV)

> Genesis 25:12 - These are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's servant, bore to Abraham. (ESV)

Ishmael was born according to the flesh:

> Galatians 4:18-23 - It is always good to be made much of for a good purpose, and not only when I am present with you, my little children, for whom I am again in the anguish of childbirth until Christ is formed in you! I wish I could be present with you now and change my tone, for I am perplexed about you. Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not listen to the law? For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman and one by a free woman. But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, while the son of the free woman was born through promise. (ESV)

> Galatians 4:22-31 - For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman and one by a free woman. But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, while the son of the free woman was born through promise. Now this may be interpreted allegorically: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar. Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia; she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. For it is written, Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear; break forth and cry aloud, you who are not in labor! For the children of the desolate one will be more than those of the one who has a husband. Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

It is interesting that Ishmael was circumcised:

> Genesis 17:21-26 - But I will establish my covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this time next year. When he had finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham. Then Abraham took Ishmael his son and all those born in his house or bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very day, as God had said to him. Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. That very day Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised. (ESV)

1.4.2 The children of God are children of the promise, but we must belong to Christ

> Galatians 3:29 - And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise. (ESV)

God blessed the Jews by sending Christ to them first to turn them away from their wickedness. We are supposed to turn from our wickedness:

> Acts 3:25-26 - You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant that God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, And in your offspring shall all the families of the earth be blessed. God, having raised up his servant, sent him to you first, to bless you by turning every one of you from your wickedness. (ESV)

Jesus helps the offspring of Abraham:

> Hebrews 2:14-18 - Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery. For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of Abraham. Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted. (ESV)

The children of Abraham do what Abraham did:

> John 8:37-45 - I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for

> I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. (ESV)

It's children of the promise who are counted as offspring, Abraham's descendants through Isaac. The promise goes to those who share the faith of Abraham in Jesus Christ (those who trust and obey Jesus Christ like Abraham did):

> Romans 9:6-7 - But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel, and not all are children of Abraham because they are his offspring, but Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. (ESV)
> Romans 9:8-9 - This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring. For this is what the promise said: About this time next year I will return and Sarah shall have a son. (ESV)
> Romans 4:13-18 - For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. For if it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression. That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, as it is written, I have made you the father of many nations—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, So shall your offspring be. (ESV)
> John 1:12-13 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)
> Psalms 73:1 - Truly God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart. (ESV)

I Timothy 1:5 And the goal (G5056 telos) of [our] instruction is love (G26 agapē) out of a pure heart and a conscience good and a faith sincere

> Galatians 5:1 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. (ESV)
> John 8:36 - So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)
> Hebrews 2:14-15 - Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery. (ESV)

All children of God (children of the promise) purify themselves:

> I John 3:1-3 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. (ESV)

1.5 Living in observance of the Law is fine, and even encouraged

Paul serves the law of God with his mind:

> Romans 7:25 - Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV) youtube.com: The Christian's Mind {@desiringGod} Romans 7:14-25 is a description of a Christian man not a pre-christian man a converted, saved, justified, born-again, Spirit-indwelt man is being described in Romans 7:14-25. This man is new and he is old. This man is spirit indwelt and this man has indwelling sin. This man is dead to sin and he must reckon himself dead to sin.

The culprit is not the law, that's the point he's been trying to make through the whole chapter. The culprit is my flesh or as he says in verse 17 indwelling sin or as he says in verse 21 evil that is present with me Any one of those descriptions will do.

...

What about flesh? What does that refer to? It's Not body. We know that because, for example, Galatians 5:20, when it's talking about the works of the flesh, works of the flesh includes things like strife, jealousy, anger, envy, not just immorality. Impurity, sensuality - those are mental, emotional sins, not just physical sins. And the flesh is the origin of those. So what is flesh? I would put it like this: flesh is the untransformed part of Paul's old nature.

...

The flesh can express itself through the mind, the flesh can express itself through the body.

Our war is not against our bodies mainly, it's against the flesh that can set up operations there, and against indwelling sin and against evil and the devil and the world.

Given that Moses had been already been proclaimed in those cities of the Gentiles mentioned, they sought to remind them to observe these 4 things:

> Acts 15:19-21 - Therefore my judgment is that we should not trouble those of the Gentiles who turn to God, but should write to them to abstain from the things polluted by idols, and from sexual immorality, and from what has been strangled, and from blood. For from ancient generations Moses has had in every city those who proclaim him, for he is read every Sabbath in the synagogues. (ESV)

God (who knows the heart) gave the Holy Spirit to the Gentiles who had trusted/believed the word of truth, just as he had given the Holy Spirit to those Jews who had believed, and God cleansed their hearts by faith. The Apostle Peter made a point that he (Peter) and the other Apostles were also relying on the grace of God, believing that they (the Apostles) would be saved, just as the Gentiles who believed would be saved:

> Acts 15:5-11 - But some believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees rose up and said, It is necessary to circumcise them and to order them to keep the law of Moses. The apostles and the elders were gathered together to consider this matter. And after there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, Brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe. And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. Now, therefore, why are you putting God to the test by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will. (ESV)

Also, Luke 11:13 says God gives the Holy Spirit to those who ask him. So I think it's typical to believe God, believing the gospel, and to ask God for His Holy Spirit, expecting that God will cleanse our heart through faith, being prepared to continue obeying the truth for a sincere brotherly love:

> Luke 11:13 - If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him! (ESV)

The same Apostle Peter made a point here about how we obey the Truth for a sincere brotherly love from a pure heart, purifying our souls. We believe and obey the good news, the gospel:

> I Peter 1:22-25 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you. (ESV)

If we love the Truth, treasure the truth, then we have good treasure in our heart which produces good. And so obedience to God may be defined as having a genuine love of God in our heart. While saving faith and saving love are not in contradiction with each other, neither is saving obedience:

> Psalms 119:11 - I have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you. (ESV)

We must serve God from a heart purified by the gospel, purified by faith in Jesus:

- Step 1 and ongoing: Believe the gospel (good news), the word of the Lord, the words of Christ (even words such as the sermon on the mount), cleansing our heart by faith. Believe that Jesus is the Son of God, that the Father is in Him and He in the Father. Believe that Jesus did and does the works of His Father. We believe Father God by believing in Jesus:
  - The heart is purified by faith in the Truth, God's Word, Jesus Christ, the Holy Scripture. We believe the gospel, coming into agreement with God's Word. We become single-minded:
    - Acts 15:8-9 - And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)
    - James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)
    - John 5:24 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (ESV)
    - John 10:35-38 - If he called them gods to whom the word of God came—and Scripture cannot be broken— do you say of him whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, You are blaspheming, because I said, I am the Son of God? If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father. (ESV)
    - Psalms 24:3-5 - Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. He will receive blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation. (ESV)
  - Hold fast to the gospel.
- Step 2 and ongoing: Love one another earnestly from a pure heart, obeying the Truth who is Jesus and the Truth which is the Word of God, even the Scripture.

- The soul is purified by obeying the Truth for a sincere brotherly love issuing from a pure heart. This obedience to the Truth is primarily continuing to obey Jesus who is the Truth and our Lord and Master and may be done while observing the Law (Torah) which is useful for correction and training in righteousness, but we do not call the Law our Master. We are primarily slaves to Jesus who is our Righteousness. We don't teach against following the Law by faith but we follow Jesus first and foremost and have freedom as we do this, and the law doesn't condemn us as we are following Jesus.

    - I Peter 1:1-2 - Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who are elect exiles of the dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and for sprinkling with his blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you. (ESV)

    - II Peter 2:19 - They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. (ESV)

- Also we continue holding fast to the gospel.

    - Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

- James 1:19-23 - Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness that God requires. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. (ESV)

- This heart and soul purification involves our family in Christ. It involves loving and forgiving one another, not wronging eachother, and cleansing ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit. It's necessary to separate from idolators in order to be received by God and to be sons and daughters to God. There's no partnership between righteousness and lawlessness. And being the temple of God involves turning away from false gods and separating from idolators. II Cor 6:14-8 makes it clear that faith, belief in Jesus involves repentance from sin and walking in God's commandments and including worshiping and serving one True God only. Being a son or or daughter of God involves turning away from false gods. God gives the promise and we respond to that promise by turning away from false gods and turning away from other forms of sin, and this turning from sin is necessary to be a child of the Most High God:

    - Acts 4:32 - Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. (ESV)

    - II Corinthians 6:14-18,7:1 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

    - ”be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you”. This is a conditional promise. It’s not promising without the condition. God’s promising that if we separate from the lawless unbelievers and touch no unclean thing, then He will welcome us and be a Father to us.

  - I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)
  - I John 3:3 - And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. (ESV)
  - I John 3:15 - Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. (ESV)

So you see that whoever hopes in Jesus (has faith in Jesus) purifies himself as He is pure by obedience to the Truth. So this is really about turning away from sin, even after having come to faith in Jesus:

> I John 3:2-7 - Beloved, we are God’s children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:34 - Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. (ESV)

Sanctified by obedience to Jesus Christ:

> I Peter 1:1-2 - Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who are elect exiles of the dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and for sprinkling with his blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you. (ESV) web.sermonaudio.com: DTBM - body, soul and spirit When God looks at us, he sees us as spirit and soul and body. But when humans describe themselves, how do they describe themselves? Body, soul, and spirit. It shows what’s dominant. Most of us think more about our body, then we think about our soul, and then we think about our spirit. So, real quickly, sorry, we’ll never get to the microphones. the trichotomist, the reason that Bill Gothard, Tim LaHaye, and that whole crowd, you know, Charles Stanley, what they’re trying to say is, when you got saved, you got a new operating system inside of this old fleshly monster, and this (the soul) is where the storm is. And so what you have to do is choose to allow the spirit to radiate outward and mortify the flesh and control us so that we can walk more and more pleasing to him.

> II Corinthians 6:1,6:16-18,7:1 - Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

web.sermonaudio.com: DTBM - body, soul and spirit - Dr. John Barnett The reason we're supposed to keep clean and not let our flesh and spirit get defiled is that God made a promise. He says, "I'm going to dwell in you. I'm going to walk among you. I'm going to be your God. You're going to be my people." And this is what we're supposed to do, verse 17: "Come out from among them, be separate. Don't touch what is unclean and I will receive you. I will be a Father to you. You'll be my sons and daughters," says the Lord Almighty. Boy, that is about the most assuring verse in the Bible. God says, I'm gonna live in you. I'm your father, you're my children. You're going to know and go through life knowing that you belong to me and that I live within you and you're never alone and I'm always with you and all that stuff. What happens if you don't obey the "don't touch what is unclean" part, verse 17? You lose that assurance.

Psalm 37 is talking about a personal righteousness. Being in Jesus, we should do battle against sin to practice righteousness (purify ourselves as He is pure):

> Psalms 37:39 - The salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; he is their stronghold in the time of trouble. (ESV)

It's the flesh which is weak thanks to sin in the flesh. But in our inner being, we delight in the law of God. This is definitely true to me:

> Romans 7:16-25 - Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. (ESV)

We must rule over sin. I believe that as Christians we're still supposed to do this. And God has given us the power win the fight:

> Genesis 4:7 - If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is for you, but you must rule over it. (ESV)

> Romans 6:11-12 - So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. (ESV)

> Romans 7:20-22 - Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, (ESV)

And whoever doesn't have the heart to do this is of the devil. God cleans us from the inside out. God's seed does not sin. Whatever is born of God does not sin. I think while trusting in Jesus, thankful for what God has done for us, we will naturally produce the type of love and continued obedience which pleases God:

> I John 3:7-11 - Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

> Romans 7:24 - Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? (ESV)

Practicing righteousness is done while in a relationship with Jesus - we do good works by Jesus working in us as we are holding fast to the gospel.

> Philippians 2:12-16 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. Do all things without grumbling or questioning, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

But also, not only the flesh but worldly people rebel against us when we want to obey God. I get all sorts of opposition against me for obedience to God or when I say we must obey God.

> I John 5:19 - We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. (ESV)

We must believe in, trust, believe, obey, follow Jesus:

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)

> John 12:46 - I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. (ESV)

It seems that people can indeed be both zealous for the Law (Torah), observing the Law (Torah), and at the same time be believers in Jesus. Paul wasn't telling people to forsake Moses, as far as I understand, but there was some circulating rumor that he had been doing that:

> Acts 21:20-25 - And when they heard it, they glorified God. And they said to him, You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed. They are all zealous for the law, and they have been told about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or walk according to our customs. What then is to be done? They will certainly hear that you have come. Do therefore what we tell you. We have four men who are under a vow; take these men and purify yourself along with them and pay their expenses, so that they may shave their heads. Thus all will know that there is nothing in what they have been told about you, but that you yourself also live in observance of the law. But as for the Gentiles who have believed, we have sent a letter with our judgment that they should abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what has been strangled, and from sexual immorality. (ESV)

> Colossians 4:10-11 - Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, and Mark the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you have received instructions—if he comes to you, welcome him), and Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only men of the circumcision among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me. (ESV)

1.5.1 It's interesting that the KJV reads quite differently here, but I'm comfortable with the ESV

> Acts 21:20-25 - And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law: And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

> Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them; Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law. As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication. (KJV)

> Proverbs 28:9 - If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination. (ESV)

1.6 I'm non-denominational

I do not consider myself to be a part of any particular denomination; I have an affinity to churches which have strong Biblical teaching, and a focus on applying Jesus' commandments.

Saint Justin Martyr: Fragments of the Lost Work of Justin on the Resurrection {Roberts-Donaldson}
The word of truth is free, and carries its own authority, disdaining to fall under any skilful argument, or to en
But it would be believed for its own nobility, and for the confidence due to Him who sends it.

> Romans 14:22 - The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. (ESV)

Christ the head of the man, and man the head of the wife. Not the Pope as head of the man, but Christ Himself as head of the man.

> II Corinthians 11:2-3 - I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I betrothed you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ. (ESV)

> Ephesians 5:23 - For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior.

> I Corinthians 11:3 - But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. (ESV)

Now the apostle Peter for instance puts it in a phrase like this: that Christ came into the world to bring us to God. That's why Christianity must never be thought of as a sort of cult which heals your body, enables you to sleep at night and to stop worrying and all. No, that's to turn it into a cult. the the real object is to bring men to his true position, which is that he's in communion with his maker and is living to the glory of his maker.

youtube.com: " What ' s mans chief end ?" - R . C . Sproul # Christianity # Sermon # ligonierministri
The point of the catechetical question was this, that man's ultimate joy, his ultimate fulfillment is found in the seventh day, in the pursuit of holiness, in the pursuit of the glory of God, to glorify God, to manifest his greatness, to mirror and to reflect his character. That's the reason why God placed us here, so that we see that the world was not created just for man, it doesn't end on the sixth day but it's the seventh day, that God blesses and hallows, it's that day He sanctifies to tell us that our origin and our destiny is in holiness.

reformedclassicalist.com: Q1 . What is the chief end of man ? - The Reformed Classicalist The two words CHIEF END are just the old way of addressing the question: Why are you here? What is my life all about? For what main purpose did God make you? Not the many reasons we could list; but the main reason.

1.7.1 XIII. Of Sanctification

`I. They who are effectually called and regenerated, having a new heart and a new spirit created in them, are further sanctified, really and personally, through the virtue of Christ’s death and resurrection, by his Word and Spirit dwelling in them; the dominion of the whole body of sin is destroyed, and the several lusts thereof are more and more weakened and mortified, and they more and more quickened and strengthened, in all saving graces, to the practice of true holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord.`

> Acts 20:32 - And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. (ESV)
> Romans 6:5-6 - For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 6:11 - And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. (ESV)
> Philippians 3:10 - that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, (ESV)
> John 17:17 - Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:24 - And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. (ESV)
> Ephesians 3:16-19 - that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. (ESV)

1.8.2 1689 Baptist confession of faith: Notes for Chapter 2, paragraph 1

> Numbers 14:18 - The LORD is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but he will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, to the third and the fourth generation. (ESV)

> Romans 4:5 - And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, (ESV)

> Romans 14:18 - Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

Serving Christ involves serving His family. Jesus Christ didn't come to "be served" but to serve, and to being a servent of Christ actually involves serving His family (i.e. those born of God):

> Matthew 20:25-28 - But Jesus called them to him and said, You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. It shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be your slave, even as the Son of Man came not to be served (G1247 diakonēthēnai: To serve, to minister, to attend to) but to serve (G1247 diakonēsai: To serve, to minister, to attend to), and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)

> John 13:12-16 - When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

If you have trusting faith in God then you will walk according to the will of God (walk the way Jesus Christ calls us to walk in obedience to Jesus, as a response of love to God in the knowledge He loved us first). Led by the Spirit = following Jesus.

> John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)

That's not working but it is walking and it is being obedient to Jesus. It would be silly to say that the Israelites were trusting in their own works as they walked through the Red Sea. The Israelites through the Red Sea were being led by the Spirit - they were not working for God as they walked in obedience:

> Galatians 5:16-18 - But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

Song youtube.com: Shane & Shane: I Will Wait For You {Psalm 130}

Jesus' disciples here were being led by Jesus. As I understand it, we're only not guilty if we're trusting Jehovah God who justifies the ungodly by trusting Jesus. Serving Jesus = Following Jesus. We've got to follow Jesus:

> John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)
> Matthew 8:22 - And Jesus said to him, Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead. (ESV)
> Luke 9:60 - And Jesus said to him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead. But as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God. (ESV)

We follow Jesus that we may walk in the light. God delivers us as we follow Jesus so that we can walk in the light:

> John 8:12 - Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. (ESV)
> Psalms 56:13 - For you have delivered my soul from death, yes, my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of life. (ESV)
> Job 33:27-30 - He sings before men and says: I sinned and perverted what was right, and it was not repaid to me. He has redeemed my soul from going down into the pit, and my life shall look upon the light. Behold, God does all these things, twice, three times, with a man, to bring back his soul from the pit, that he may be lighted with the light of life. (ESV)

Trusting Him who justifies the ungodly has noticeable fruit of following Him because those who trust Him follow Him:

> Matthew 12:1-8 - At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath. He said to them, Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him: how he entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him to eat nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? Or have you not read in the Law how on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless? I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. And if you had known what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the guiltless. For the Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath. (ESV)

youtube.com: Chris Tomlin - I Will Follow {@ChrisTomlinVEVO} Who You love, I'll love; How You serve I'll serve; If this life I lose, I will follow You; I will follow You

As you can see, the disciples still generally followed the commandment to rest on the Sabbath day:

> Luke 23:56 - Then they returned and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment. (ESV)

But Jesus is lord of the Sabbath:

> Mark 2:27-28 - And he said to them, The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. So the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath. (ESV)

And we enter into God's rest as we are trusting in Jesus:

> Hebrews 4:6-11 - Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, again he appoints a certain day, Today, saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts. For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. (ESV)

> Colossians 2:16-17 - Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. These are a shadow of the things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. (ESV)

Jesus will serve His servants who are awake:

> Luke 12:37 - Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will dress himself for service and have them recline at table, and he will come and serve them. (ESV)

> Matthew 23:11 - The greatest among you shall be your servant. (ESV)

1.8.3 Notes for Chapter 9, paragraph 3

Paragraph 3

Man, by his fall into a state of sin, has wholly lost all ability of will to any spiritual good accompanying salvation;4 so as a natural man, being altogether averse from that good, and dead in sin,5 is not able by his own strength to convert himself, or to prepare himself thereunto.6

4 Rom. 5:6, 8:7
5 Eph. 2:1,5
6 Titus 3:3-5; John 6:44

I don't entirely agree with this paragraph saying all ability of will is lost (I could be wrong). Rather, I think that without God's help in sending us Jesus to make atonement for sin, even if we willed to do things which are part of God's will for us, such as being freed from our sin, it's not possible. Without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin. I do believe that without God's assistance in drawing us to Jesus, it is impossible for us to be saved. And I believe that without Jesus' help, it's impossible for us to be sanctified and brought to Father God. Willingness is very much linked with obedience of the heart.

> Isaiah 1:19 - If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; (ESV)

Man's inability to do any spiritual good accompanying salvation is essentially like a broken-down car's inability to drive and without God's assistance by empowering us with His Holy Spirit (either inside or around us), though a person might seek after God or will to repent, they're not able to save themself.

> Acts 17:26-27 - And he made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their dwelling place, that they should seek God, in the hope that they might feel their way toward him and find him. Yet he is actually not far from each one of us, (ESV)

So the problem in my opinion is not the will to do the will of God but the ability to carry out the will of God:

> Romans 7:20-22 - Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, (ESV)
> John 7:17 - If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. (ESV)
> Isaiah 1:19 - If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; (ESV)
> Matthew 7:7 - Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. (ESV)
> Matthew 26:40-43 - And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping. And he said to Peter, So, could you not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Again, for the second time, he went away and prayed, My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done. And again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. (ESV)
> Romans 7:16-18 - Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. (ESV)

God gives us His Holy Spirit and we then fight against the sin.
God helps us to conquer sin as we turn from it:

> I Thessalonians 4:3-8 - For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you. (ESV)

We obey God and disobey sin and God puts satan under our feet:

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

1.9 Catechism of the Catholic Church

usccb.cld.bz: Catechism of the Catholic Church - Page 415 All the ordained ministers of the Latin Church, with the exception of permanent deacons, are normally chosen from among men of faith who live a celibate life and who intend to remain celibate "for the sake of the kingdom of heaven." Called to consecrate themselves with undivided heart to the Lord and to "the affairs of the Lord", they give themselves entirely to God > and to men. Celibacy is a sign of this new life to the service of which the Church's minister is consecrated; accepted with a joyous heart celibacy radiantly proclaims the Reign of God. In the Eastern Churches a different discipline has been in force for many centuries: while bishops are chosen solely from among celibates, married men can be ordained as deacons and priests. This practice has long been considered legitimate; these priests exercise a fruitful ministry within their communities. Moreover, priestly celibacy is held in great honor in the Eastern Churches and many priests have freely chosen it for the sake of the Kingdom of God. In the East as in the West a man who has already received the sacrament of Holy Orders can no longer marry.

We have the right to take a believing wife, but that doesn't mean whoever we want. It doesn't mean we can't ask someone. I still think we have the right to propose. But we might not be allowed to marry them. That's the right way to understand it, I think. God gives us "choice".

This verbiage "take along" does sound like "lead about". So what Paul says he might be written more unambiguously as, "Are we not allowed to take around (bring) with us a wife who is a sister in Christ, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?" If that's the way it was meant, then that still implicitly does carry with it the idea that they are allowed to have a wife. But the passage doesn't necessarily speak about merely "becoming married" (i.e. the right to 'become married') but does seem to entail that idea too because if someone has the right to bring along or spend time with their wife then that presupposes that a state of marriage is something someone has the right to be in:

> I Corinthians 9:5 - Do we not have the right (G1849 exousian: authority [N-AFS]) to take along (G4013 periagein: to take about [V-PNA], to lead about with oneself) a believing (G79 adelphēn: a sister [N-AFS]. i.e. a sister in Christ) wife, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? (ESV)

See how it says that a person does not sin by taking a wife, even after they are called. But Paul says for those who marry after they are called there will be worldly troubles. And also, Paul points out that the present form of the world is passing away, so after we are called by God, we should really be anticipating the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ:

> I Corinthians 7:24-31 - So, brothers, in whatever condition each was called, there let him remain with God. Now concerning the betrothed, I have no command from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. I think that in view of the present distress it is good for a person to remain as he is. Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. But if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a betrothed woman marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that. This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. (ESV)

And marriage was instituted by God at the dawn of Creation. And anyone who is not God is not permitted to separate a marriage partner. And anyone who defiles the marriage bed would be judged. I would imagine that includes people who defile other people's marriages:

> Hebrews 13:4 - Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:15 - To give a human example, brothers: even with a man-made covenant, no one annuls it or adds to it once it has been ratified. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:4-9 - He answered, Have you not read that he who created them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold > fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh? So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate. They said to him, Why then did Moses command one to give a certificate of divorce and to send her away? He said to them, Because of your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery. (ESV)

A wife is a gift from God:

> I Corinthians 7:7 - I wish that all were as I myself am. But each has his own gift from God, one of one kind and one of another. (ESV)

> James 1:17 - Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. (ESV)

> Proverbs 19:14 - House and wealth are inherited from fathers, but a prudent wife is from the LORD. (ESV)

> Proverbs 18:22 - He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from the LORD. (ESV)

For the sake of the Kingdom, we may choose to be single:

> Matthew 19:12 - For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let the one who is able to receive this receive it.

> I Corinthians 7:8-9 - To the unmarried and the widows I say that it is good for them to remain single as I am. But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to be aflame with passion.

> Revelation of John 14:4 - It is these who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins. It is these who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These have been redeemed from mankind as firstfruits for God and the Lamb,

To take a wife is a right that God has given to men but not whoever they want because a wife is a gift from God. For a Christian, the man has a right to take a woman who has faith in Jesus, but not whoever they want because a wife is a gift from God.

Forced marriage denial is I think a cause or a catalyst for sin.

1.10 Heidelberg Catechism

- `https://www.crcna.org/welcome/beliefs/confessions/heidelberg-catechism`

I affirm almost all of the Heidelberg Catechism. However, I see it as a teaching resource, and not Scripture. Though, after doing the independent Bible study below, I am pleasantly surprised to be in (from what I can currently tell) almost full agreement with it, with some minor differences. For example, when I read its logical statements such as "Q. What is the aim of the tenth commandment? A. That not even the...", I think there's a bit more to it.

Also, I believe that believer's baptism is Scriptural and should result in following Jesus.

I link the Heidelberg Catechism here for others' reference. By all means read the Heidelberg Catechism first.

Also, I think that Q&A 133 could more greatly emphasise that we should covet God alone; that Jesus must be our #1 treasure, our Pearl of Great Price:

> Luke 12:15 - And he said to them, Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions. (ESV)

> Colossians 3:5 - Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. (ESV)

Lord’s Day 44
Q&A 113
Q. What is the aim of the tenth commandment?
A. That not even the slightest desire or thought contrary to any one of God’s commandments should ever arise in our hearts.

   Rather, with all our hearts
   we should always hate sin and take pleasure in whatever is right.

1 Ps. 19:7-14; 139:23-24; Rom 7:7-8

I may use the catechism to make adjustments to my theology document if I find errors in my understanding.

2 My thoughts and bible references regarding theology

I’ve been thinking about belief, faith, works, law and receiving the Holy Spirit! Please let me know what you think if you have the time.

I’m trying to get clearer on this. Please feel free to discuss it with me.

2.1 Bible versions used in this document

Almost all of verses are taken from the ESV (English Standard Version) bible with the odd NASB (New American Standard Bible), KJV (King James Version), and BSB (Berean Study Bible) used here and there.

I have also used the original Hebrew and Greek from the Interlinear Bible on Biblehub.com a couple of times.

By default I will use the ESV and where it is not from the ESV, I have almost certainly marked it with the alternative version used.

youtube.com: Frank Turek & David Wood Respond to KJV Only Position {@ CrossExamined } @time:

> There are things in the King James that if you read it with current English usage, you’ll get the opposite idea of what the Word is saying.
> II Thessalonians 2:7 - For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. (KJV)
> II Thessalonians 2:7 - For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only he who now restrains will do so until he is taken out of the way. (LSB)

I’m not KJV-only but I trust in Jesus and I trust that God justifies the one who places their faith in Jesus Christ. Jesus and Jesus’ words are the rock, the sure foundation.

> Matthew 7:24 - Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: (KJV)
> Proverbs 10:25 - When the tempest passes, the wicked is no more, but the righteous is established forever. (ESV)

youtube.com: Post from Truth is Christ I commented,

> > Proverbs 30:5-6 - Every word of God is flawless; He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him. Do not add to His words, lest He rebuke you and prove you a liar. (engbsb2020eb)

> II Thessalonians 3:10 - For even when we were with you, we would give you this command: If anyone is not willing (G2309 thelei; is willing) to work, let him not eat. (ESV)

> II Thessalonians 3:10 - For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. (KJV)

> II Thessalonians 3:10 - For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: If anyone will not work, neither shall he eat. (NKJV)

What about the disabled person who can no longer work, or the person who cannot continue working in their profession, or for Paul who said "who is a soldier at his own expense"? Would a person deprive them also of food because they will not work? The best translation for II Th 3:10 out of the 3 I represented I believe is the ESV and that is because even if the original intent of the people who translated the Scripture into the KJV was to convey a willingness to work rather than currently working to earn, people these days read it through the lens of modern English. The NKJV seems less accurate than the KJV because at least the KJV can be understood to mean "would if they could", because it says "if any would not work", but the NKJV says "will not work" and that could be mistakenly understood as a "works-based" reliance on the success of their own work (or completing works successfully) lest they be not allowed to eat rather than "faith-based" 'the precept is good' and I want to do what God wants me to do.

A person has the right to eat if they are willing to work. It's wrong withhold food from someone strictly on the basis of them not having a job because they might want a job but not be allowed one.

> Ephesians 4:28 - Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. (ESV)

The original meaning of the Scripture (what God intended to convey) is the Truth. When I want accuracy, I look into the Greek, and I also try to be a "doer" of the word, maintaining faith and love for the truth, and being amenable to correction from Christ because the Holy Spirit teaches those who are abiding in Jesus' teachings.

So if a person would work employment to earn in order to contribute if they could, but can't because they're unable to because they're prevented from working for some reason, then it's wrong to prohibit that person from eating on the basis of II Thes 3:10. And that's where in this verse, I think the KJV does not accurately convey the intended meaning of the Scripture in modern English.

Any type of obedience that doesn't come from the love of the truth is feigned and not real obedience:

> Psalms 81:15 - Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever. (engbsb2020eb)

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

It's evident that in the KJV, the word "would" at the time of writing the KJV is used also to mean "to will" or "to wish that". Even though the Greek words are different here, the KJV uses the word "would" to mean "to will" / "to be willing" and so the intent of the writers of the KJV was probably to convey willingness:

> I Corinthians 4:8 - Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would (G3785 ophelon; I wish that) to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. (KJV)

> II Thessalonians 3:10 - For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would (G2309 thelei; is willing) not work, neither should he eat. (KJV)

Without commenting on the Bible translation itself, I'm very concerned about the Recovery version's footnotes and echo this person's sentiment:

bible-researcher.com recovery-version.html: Recovery Version (Reviewed by Murray Grindlay, February

> Conclusion: The Recovery Version is a conservative translation, for the most part similar in its style and translation to versions such as the NASB and the ESV. There are a few places in the Old Testament where the desire to be literal and perhaps following an older style of English has produced renderings that are misleading or difficult to understand. Such places are more common in the New Testament. There are also unusual translations in a few places. But on the whole, the Recovery Version is a reliable translation. However, I cannot recommend the edition of the New Testament which has extensive footnotes, because invariably those using it will read the footnotes. This edition has been distributed freely to all who have requested a copy by a body linked to The Local Church, and it appears that many copies have been distributed. While I was working with Bible Society I received several enquiries from people who had obtained one of these New Testaments – usually wanting to know what some of the footnotes meant! In view of what is in some of the footnotes, anyone using this edition should be cautious and test them against what the Bible actually says (1 Thessalonians 5:21). Murray Grindlay - February 2009

As I've been listening to `https://hymnsradio.com/ways-to-listen/` today (and hearing excerpts from the Recovery version footnotes/commentary), I think it they try to over-explain Scripture to the point of neutralising or opposing what the Scriptures actually teach. I like the hymns a lot. But I'm really concerned about the use of the Recovery version footnotes! And I think this becomes particularly dangerous with the footnotes for the Book of Revelation (Revelation of John 22:18-19).

Speaking of Christian radio stations, I have since been listening to FBC Radio and really like it for its high quality Christian and sermons. It's an Outreach Ministry of Foundations Bible College.

3 Being born-again

Billy Graham really explains this quite well Born Again | Billy Graham Classic - YouTube @time: 10 min 50 sec

I believe we are set free from sin and from being condemned by / under the Mosaic Law to become a slave to Christ Jesus under grace - a slave to righteousness.

> Romans 6:20 - When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. (ESV)

> Romans 8:1-2 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

> Romans 6:22-23 - But now having been freed from sin and enslaved to God, you derive your benefit, resulting in sanctification, and the outcome, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (NASB)

> Galatians 4:8 - Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. (ESV)

> Romans 6:18-20 - and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. (ESV)

We are saved while believing in the name of Jesus of Nazareth, the only Son of God:

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

And brought into doing the will of God:

> Romans 15:17-18 - In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God. For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed,

> Job 22:23-26 - If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored. If you remove injustice from your tents and consign your gold to the dust and the gold of Ophir to the stones of the ravines, then the Almighty will be your gold and the finest silver for you. Surely then you will delight in the Almighty and lift up your face to God. (engbsb2020eb)

God wants us to love Him, treasure Him (25. agapaó), value Him with all our heart, and love and value youtube.com: What Is It Like to Enjoy God? @time: 35 min 16 sec

Yeah, I agree with John Piper, for the most part. Loving God is not actually first working for God. But it is to truly desire God, and treasure Him (25. agapaó), and treasure His word, and treasure His commandments, to give Him due praise, and to honour God, and give Him the glory, to love Him in the affectionate and treasuring sense is what God wants of us, and Jesus says that if we love Him then we will keep His commandments. Where John Piper says 'affectionate love comes before obedience', I prefer to say that 'treasuring God includes a heart of obedience, trust, belief, desiring God, and affectionate love' and I also think that obedience (being in the will of God) may produce work for God but doesn't strictly mean work. We want to keep His commandments so I believe we should treasure God with all our heart. God also commands us to love one another as ourselves, so we should also love and value other people with that same treasuring love, but God wants Him to be our number one treasure, and I think we have to make God our number one love.

I affirm John MacArthur's message here. If we love the Lord our God with all our heart, soul mind and strength, it will be much easier to kill sin:

youtube.com: Killing the Sin in Your Life {@gracetoyou} Help us to live so conscious of Your glory in Your majesty that we love You supremely that we love You with all our heart, soul, mind and strength and if we love You like that there never will be a replacement for you, certainly not us, and Lord remind us that sin is always the result of dethroning you and usurping your sovereignty for ourselves.

God wants Him to be our treasure. We must obey Jesus and Jehovah Jireh will provide:
I have also had a lot of suffering as I keep a good conscience with God, having been obedient to Him.

> I Timothy 1:3-5 - As I urged you when I was going to Macedonia, remain at Ephesus that you may charge certain persons not to teach any different doctrine, nor to devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies, which promote speculations rather than the stewardship from God that is by faith. The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

> I Timothy 1:18-20 - This charge I entrust to you, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies previously made about you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith, among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme. (ESV)

But a good conscience with God remaining obedient to Him, enduring suffering and continuing to be faithful to God, and keeping the commandments of Jesus Christ while feeling like a zombie having what you love stolen from you by the enemy - this is still love for God to continue keeping the commandments of Jesus Christ.

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

youtube.com: Especially for someone who is feeling downcast - Lamentations 3: 22-23 | 29th September

The book of Lamentations is unlikely to be the most popular book in the Bible, and the reason for this is it's a book of laments. It's written round about the time of the Babylonian exile and it's it's written from the point of view of someone who has lost everything and doesn't hold back in how he feels about this. But nevertheless, if you look hard enough, you'll find that the book of Lamentations does contain some nuggets of pure, pure gold, and this week's verses are a case in point.

They help us show the difference it can make if we focus our eyes not so much on what we have lost but on what we still have. If all we do is focus on our eyes on all that we have lost, the result will be a soul that is downcast. Whereas, if we remember to focus on what we still have, the result is a soul that still has hope for better times to come.

> Lamentations 3:19-23 - Remember my affliction and my wanderings, the wormwood and the gall! My soul continually remembers it and is bowed down within me. But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope: The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. (ESV)

Consider Job. Obedience is in the heart, along with belief in the Truth and understanding of the gospel. Obedience can exist without work. Jesus said, "The spirit is indeed willing but the flesh is weak."

> Matthew 26:41 - Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. (ESV)

Actually keeping Jesus' commandments in reality so that our joy can be made full:

> John 15:10-11 - If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. (ESV)

Joy is a fruit of the Holy Spirit who if a person abides in Jesus' commandments will come and live inside them:

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:22-23 - But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. (ESV)

Some people endure great suffering for serving God. Our obedience to God, having accepted Jesus, and passing forward love and forgiveness, is having a heart close to Jesus through keeping Jesus' commandments - see I John 4, John 14,15,16 and 17.

A cool discussion about Christian Joy youtube.com: Live Free with Josh Howerton {@ LakepointeChurch }

Joy can exist alonglide sorrow (like Jesus Isaiah 53:3) and even grief (like in Romans 7, grief for sin), but joy does come from keeping a good consience with God and joy would be undermined when we commit willful sin:

> II Corinthians 6:10 - as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing everything. (ESV)

Now having affections for God is great. Having a good conscience with God is great.

John Piper I think incorrectly says just after 9:39 here that loving Jesus cannot mean obedience to Jesus' commands in this verse. We have to remain faithful to Jesus above all, I think. For the sake of making testimony of Jesus to those who are in darkness, for example. To bear the reproach that Jesus did for the sake of Jesus and His gospel. To remain obedient to the Truth as things are taken away from you, like what happened to Job - this is still love for God, but God wants us to treasure Him more than anything.

As I understand it, I John 5:2-3 isn't saying that God's commandments are universally unburdensome to all people. It's saying that when we love God then keeping His commandments is unburdensome. If we're struggling with keeping the commandments of God and struggling with sin then we should make Him our number one love heart's desire and treasure and seek Him first with all our heart and we will be able to find His commandments unburdensome! It's true.

I feel like I could still say, "Loving God is obedience to God," but I would rather rephrase it as, "God in His love gifted me to be able to love Him back and live. I can see in retrospect He had been working in my life and it's awesome and magnificent and I just want to cherish and obey God now, and God made the way for me to do that!"

> John 16:27-28 - for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father. (ESV)

We have confidence when we keep His commandments, believing in the name of God's Son Jesus Christ and loving one another and our heart doesn't condemn us:

> I John 3:21-24 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

When the apostles said that Jesus rose again, they meant that his physical body came back to life. The risen Jesus wasn't a phantom or ghost, but a breakfast-eating, flesh-and-bone, human being. This is gospel Truth:

> Luke 24:36-43 - As they were talking about these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, Peace to you! But they were startled and frightened and thought they saw a spirit. And he said to them, Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have. And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they still disbelieved for joy and were marveling, he said to them, Have you anything here to eat? They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate before them. (ESV)

> John 21:10-14 - Jesus said to them, Bring some of the fish that you have just caught. So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, 153 of them. And although there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, Come and have breakfast. Now none of the disciples dared ask him, Who are you? They knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus was revealed to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. (ESV)

Holding the mystery of the faith (believing the Truth, believing Jesus, holding faith in Jesus, believing the gospel Truth and the facts about Jesus) with a clear conscience, we serve Christ:

> I Timothy 3:9-13 - They must hold the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience. And let them also be tested first; then let them serve as deacons if they prove themselves blameless. Their wives likewise must be dignified, not slanderers, but sober-minded, faithful in all things. Let deacons each be the husband of one wife, managing their children and their own households well. For those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves and also great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

God desires all people to be saved, coming to a knowledge of the Truth (not without coming to a knowledge of the Truth), ceasing to do the will of the devil (not without ceasing to do the will of the devil):

> I Timothy 2:3-6 - This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time. (ESV)

We agape love even the people who are lost in the hope that God will grant them repentance to life, leading to a knowledge of the Truth, that they might cease to do the devil's will. Make no mistake, spreading dangerous heresy about Jesus Christ is the devil's will. So we hope that God grants the heretics repentance to come to a knowledge of the Truth, to be sanctified in the Truth. Jesus Christ is the Son of God and is the Word of God and is God's revelation of Himself to us and is the Bread of Life. Amen:

> II Timothy 2:24-26 - And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will. (ESV)

God's mercy is ultimately not dependent on human will, but on God who has mercy to grant us repentance to Life:

> Romans 9:15-16 - For he says to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. So then it depends not on human will or exertion, but on God, who has mercy. (ESV)

It's obedience which leads to righteousness, even the righteousness of faith. God grants us repentance:

> Romans 6:16 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Delirious? - Touch

We end up thinking in a similar fashion to Jesus:

> I Corinthians 2:16 - For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (ESV)

We're must be lawful to Christ (abiding in the 'law of Christ'). Though we don't commend ourselves for doing this. We should normally be doers of Christ's law. What's not done in faith is sin, after all. And whoever has no love for Christ has a curse upon them. And whoever hates their brother who they have seen can't love God who they have not seen. So our duty and normal walk should be doing Christ's commandments such as to have faith in Him and to love one another as He commanded:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of (G1772 ennomos; lawful to, law-abiding to, in the law of) Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

The word "ennomos" used in I Cor 9:21 for being "law-abiding" is closely related to the word "onnomō" which is used in Acts 19:39:

> Acts 19:39 - But if you want anything beyond this, it shall be settled in the lawful (G1772 ennomō lawful) assembly (G1577 ekklēsia; assembly). (NASB)

i.e. "settled in the legal / assembly / law-abiding assembly / lawful assembly".

Doing the will of God is what it means to be led by the Spirit. So you have to do the will of God, being a servant of Christ, lawful (law-abiding) to Christ, to Christ' commandments, to have the blessing of not being condemned by the law of Moses:

> Psalms 143:10 - Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! (ESV)
> Philippians 2:5-7 - Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. (ESV)

Jesus was self-humbling and obedient to God, and we end up thinking this way:

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

We become enslaved to righteousness in Christ, not enslaved to corruption, but through persevering obedience to Jesus, we consolidate walking in the light, in obedience and faith to Jesus and we are conformed to practicing righteousness, walking as He walked:

> II Peter 2:19 - They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. (ESV)
> I John 2:6 - whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

We become conformed to Christ's image practicing righteousness - doing works of righteousness which are done in faith in Him:

> Romans 8:29 - For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. (ESV)
> I John 3:7-8 - Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. (ESV)

In Christ Jesus there is freedom from things which were bad for us, including selfishness, condemnation, slavery to sin and death, and feeling like we're not good enough for God. There is freedom from anything that tries to hinder us from obeying God in truth:

> I Peter 2:16 - Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. (ESV)
> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

Being justified by the law of faith in Christ (trusting and obeying Christ) rather than being justified by keeping the whole Mosaic law under the old covenant is, I believe, the correct way to understand what Paul is saying. Because I believe we need a law-abiding faith (true faith in Jesus Christ being a non-idolatrous, agape-loving of the truth faith, and loving neighbour as yourself faith):

> Galatians 5:1-7 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you. I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

Obey the Truth means obey Jesus:

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

Abraham Lincoln Sir, my concern is not whether God is on our side; my greatest concern is to be on God's side, for God is always right.

Freedom isn't "license to sin without consequences" but it's license to choose who you will obey, but to choose sin would be defiling and enslaving, but to choose to obey Jesus is purifying and liberating.

youtube.com: Donald Trump: "Two Corinthians..." {C-SPAN} {@CSPAN} @time: 26 sec 2 Corinthians 3:17. That's the whole ball game. Where the spirit of the Lord is there is liberty.

> Joshua 24:15 - And if it is evil in your eyes to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your fathers served in the region beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. (ESV)

The freedom in Jesus is to be able to obey Righteousness and the freedom to be able to choose to deny sin, it's the freedom to present ourselves as slaves of Righteousness to God, and God supporting us to do His commandments, setting up the opportunities for us. When temptation comes along, we have the freedom to choose to say no to it and keep accountability with God, seeking to please God.

> Matthew 6:30-34 - But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble. (ESV)

Yes, Jesus has set us free, but it's to serve God by serving Christ. We are freed in order to love and serve God:

> Galatians 5:1 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. (ESV)

> Galatians 5:13 - For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

> Daniel 7:27 - Then the sovereignty, the dominion and the greatness of all the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints of the Highest One; His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all the dominions will serve and obey Him.' (NASB)

We are also freed from, for example, making the worries of the world our first thought in the day such as thinking always in terms of ”will I have enough money, for example”, to instead, with the Holy Spirit in us, thinking correctly, having joy in being able to live out the great commandments in actuality, to be able to trust God and love God, I believe with our whole heart, soul, mind and strength and to love our neighbour as ourselves, and as we abide in Jesus Christ, focused on Jesus as our Pearl of Great Price, obeying God in word and deed, passing-forward Christ's love to others, the blood of Jesus cleanses us from all sin:

> II Corinthians 3:17 - Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. (ESV) youtube.com: Toward Need, Not Comfort: The Blood-Bought Path of the Good Samaritan Father, I ask now that [in this room] you would put all of us onto the blood-bought path that leads to eternal life, the path of love, the path where we move toward need, not comfort.

...

One of the things we're saved from is this awful bent towards sinning.

Without blood atonement, corruption gets progressively worse and we perish:

> Hebrews 9:22 - Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

Our salvation looks like being cleaned up by His spirit, behaving in a way now reflecting that we have knowledge of God (i.e. godliness), and not worldliness, treasuring God and one another, and letting go of treasuring/valuing worldly things, with hope for eternal life:

> Titus 2:11-13 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, (ESV)

God's grace trains/has taught us to renounce ungodliness, and renounce worldly passions and then live discreetly and righteously and piously in this present age - to repent from sin and practice godly behaviour in the present world, which is full of wickedness as we are in the end times.

Titus 2:11 Has appeared for the grace - of God bringing salvation to all men

Is repentance from sin necessary for salvation? Yes. We renounce the sinful habits and God cleans us up as we obey Him by faith. The liberty that God provides is not being a slave/servant of sin/corruption. God's grace trains us / has taught us to renounce sin, and to live holy lives with holy behaviour in this present age:

> II Peter 2:14-20 - Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet. These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviou

If a person is unrepentant from sin then it is better that their body is destroyed so their spirit may be saved. In the case of the thief on the cross, his body was destroyed. If he stayed around, he probably would have renounced ungodliness and pursued holiness:

> I Corinthians 5:1-5 - It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you. For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. (ESV)

> Romans 13:10-11 - Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. Besides this you know the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed. (ESV)

We are justified in order that we may receive eternal life. We then purify ourselves. Eternal life is at the end of sanctification:

> Titus 3:3-7 - For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But > when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-7 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:34 - Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. (ESV)

We're supposed to arrive at doing the will of God from the heart, loving one another in peace:

> I Timothy 2:1-4 - First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. (ESV)

We must embrace sanctification:

> Romans 6:20-23 - When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

At the end of sanctification, the age to come and eternal life:

> Luke 18:29-30 - And he said to them, Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the age to come eternal life. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Jesus All for Jesus {Lyrics}

Lyrics Jesus, all for Jesus; All I am and have and ever hope to be; All of my ambitions, hopes and plans; I surrender these into your hands; For it's only in your will that I am free;

I believe this. If anyone is trusting that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, then they have life in His name. That doesn't mean they have come to know Him yet. But if they have just begun to trust that Jesus is the Christ, they have started on their journey to get to know Him. They are an infant in Christ:

> John 20:31 - but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name. (ESV)

We must get on the path of having faith in Jesus, believe in the name of Jesus, God's Son, and obey God to have confidence:

> Proverbs 10:17 - Whoever heeds instruction is on the path to life, but he who rejects reproof leads others astray. (ESV)

> I John 3:21-22 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. (ESV)

Quote by John Piper Christ by his death and resurrection dealt a decisive defeating blow against Satan, he cannot destroy you except by tempting you to distrust Jesus and walk in sin. Believe in the triumph that you already have - down payment by the spirit in your life and walk in this victory.

As we hold our faith in God, we understand that He loved us first. As we hold our faith in God, we draw closer to God as we practice Christ's love towards others:

> I John 4:8-11 - Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

> Ephesians 2:10 - For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them. (ESV)

While obedience exists in the heart, as belief does, as faith is believing and obedient trust, works are the actions we do out of that obedience, that love for Jesus, and out of ongoing believing, obedient faith, out of obedience to the Holy Spirit. Doing the will of God isn't "work", but is a just mode of walking. It's a mode of walking that is different from doing the will of satan. Satan is not God's equal and opposite.

> John 3:36 - The [one] believing (G4100 pisteuōn) in the Son has life eternal; the [one] however not obeying (apeithōn) the Son not will see life but the wrath - of God abides on him (Interlinear)

We need a trusting, obedient heart. It's not just about obeying one point of belief in Jesus, but about having a heart which believes Jesus, trusts Jesus, obeys Jesus, and accepting Him and His words.

The reason Abraham's faith was counted as righteousness is because no distrust made him waver (Abraham faithfully trusted God regarding the promise). Abraham believed God was able to do what He had promised. So a good indicator that Abraham was totally trusting of God is that Abraham walked in the promise of God. I think the most important takeaway from this is that faith is trusting, even if our trusting faith may waver, our faith intrinsically is trusting of God, and trust naturally elicits both belief and obedience:

> Romans 4:20-22 - No distrust (apistia) made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. That is why his faith was counted to him as righteousness. (ESV)

And the obedience doesn't end. We continue to be sanctified through faith. We are saved from darkness, believing the word of God, and in obedience we are saved from sinning and try to fulfill the Royal Law, and even using our freedom in Christ to do good works that are pleasing to God:

> Titus 3:8 - The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people. (ESV)
> Hebrews 2:14-18 - Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery. For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of Abraham. Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted. (ESV)

youtube.com: John Lennox: How do I choose which religion to follow? @time: 8 min 12 sec You've heard about my wife. Well, over fifty years ago, I saw this vision in Cambridge, so I decided I'd like to marry her. So I came to her one day and I had a little present wrapped up for her. It was a cookbook. So I said, "I'd like to marry you, Sally. Now the condition would be this: Let's look at page 147 - it's apple cake, and here are the laws for making apple cake. Thou shalt take some what's flour, thou shall take some what sugar, and there you are. Now, here's the way it's gonna be: If you keep these laws for the next forty years, I think about accepting you. If you don't, you can go back to your mother."

But, look why are you laughing? That is what many of you sitting here think about God. And you would never insult a fellow human being by basing a relationship on merit. You wouldn't. And so my marriage, it's been good, why? Because my wife is not cooking in order to gain my acceptance. She likes cooking because she's got it. And the wonderful thing about Christianity is precisely that. It's not religion in that sense, it's a relationship.

Amen to that.
Christianity is a relationship, like a marriage:

- Acceptance comes at the beginning; Jesus gives us the benefit of the doubt. Just start serving Jesus
  - We must still forgive and love our family in Christ. This isn't 'work', but it is obedience, and it is a required heart attitude
  - Romans 14:18 - Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)
  - As an analogy, you could imagine a hypothetical Hebrew slave living in ancient Egypt who had faithful, agape-loving faith in God (the faith that God required from them given the revelation of Him they had been given) and was believing that God would save them and they treasured God more than anything, worshiped God, but still in physical slavery in Egypt. If they were to have died there in the mud pits, would God let them into heaven? If their heart was good already then does the physical journey matter or even lead them to a better place? Or is what is really important what is going on in a person's heart? I believe it's what's going on in the heart that matters. A person might be considered "saved" at any point if they have the righteousness of faith in God that God requires of them, but we are expected to continue holding our faith in God for a future salvation. We must have the faith in God that God requires, faithfully receiving Jesus and hold onto that faith, and if you've got the right faith and you died with the right faith then you'd go to heaven with the right faith. That is because of Heb 11:39-40.

  - Hebrews 11:39-40 - And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. (ESV)

- Salvation is based on Jesus' merit but also on our working-out of that free salvation gift with hope, faith, repentance and obedience

  - Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

  - Philippians 2:12-16 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out (G2716 katergazomai) your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. Do all things without grumbling or questioning, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

- We must have a response of love for Jesus

  - John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

  - John 16:27 - for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. (ESV)

- In whatever we do, we should be serving the Lord Jesus Christ

  - I Corinthians 10:31 - So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. (ESV)

  - Colossians 3:17 - And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. (ESV)

  - I Corinthians 16:14 - Let all that you do be done in love. (ESV)

  - Romans 12:9 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. (ESV)

- Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

- Philippians 2:12-16 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out (G2716 katergazomai) your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. Do all things without grumbling or questioning, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

  Proverbs 3:5-6 - Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.
  In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. (ESV)

Belief in Jesus Christ continues in obedience, and imitating Christ as we continue trusting Him and in Him:

John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

It’s imperative that we continue in obedience to abide by the Lord Jesus’ teachings, and that includes repentance from sin because He taught us to turn from our sin:

> Colossians 3:23-25 - Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality.

If we love the Truth, treasure the truth, then we have good treasure in our heart which produces good. And so obedience to God may be defined as having a genuine love of God in our heart. While saving faith and saving love are not in contradiction with each other, neither is saving obedience:

> Psalms 119:11 - I have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you. (ESV)

We must forgive each other:

> Colossians 3:13 - bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. (ESV)

We must love our brother and our sister in Christ. It’s imperative that we follow Jesus Christ’s teachings and commandments:

> I John 4:20-21 - If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

Jesus is our brother - He is not ashamed to call those brothers who He sanctifies:
gotquestions.org Jesus-our-brother.html: Is Jesus our brother? | GotQuestions.org

> Hebrews 2:11 - For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, (ESV)

> Romans 8:29 - For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. (ESV)

> Mark 3:34-35 - And looking about at those who sat around him, he said, Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother. (ESV)

> Galatians 4:4-5 - But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:20-23 - But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. (ESV)

The will of Father God is for us to love, trust and obey His Son Jesus Christ:

> II Thessalonians 1:8 - in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. (ESV)

> Romans 2:7-8 - to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. (ESV)

I confess (G3670 homologeó) that Jesus is the Son of God, and I believe that God loved us first and that we must love God and love one another:

> I John 4:15 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. (ESV)

I've met someone who confessed to me that Jesus is the Son of God. However, last I saw them they continued on in a Hindu religion, serving a false god who is not Jesus. Due to all the warnings against idolatry, etc. I'd say that one person's confession at one point doesn't guarantee that they are still in the faith the next moment. So I think that either God will discipline such disobedience that they will be saved from the wrath of God, or they will be unrepentant and condemned along with the world.

> Isaiah 42:8 - I am the LORD; that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to carved idols. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:24 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 7:3-11 - Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Amend your ways and your deeds, and I will let you dwell in this place. Do not trust in these deceptive words: This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD. For if you truly amend your ways and your deeds, if you truly execute justice one with another, if you do not oppress the sojourner, the fatherless, or the widow, or shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not go after other gods to your own harm, then I will let you dwell in this place, in the land that I gave of old to your fathers forever. Behold, you trust in deceptive words to no avail. Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, make offerings to Baal, and go after other gods that you have not known, and then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered! — only to go on doing all these abominations? Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I myself have seen it, declares the LORD. (ESV)

Servants of Jesus must follow Jesus, not someone or something else:

> John 12:26 - If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. (ESV)

> Hebrews 3:7-14 - Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, on the day of testing in the wilderness, where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years. Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, They always go astray in their heart; they have not known my ways. As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest. Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:5-14 - Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end (G5056 telē; ends i.e. multiple ends) of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 11:28-32 - Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning (G1252 diakrinōn: discerning) the body eats and drinks judgment on himself. That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. But if we judged ourselves truly, we would not be judged. But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

When taking communion / eucharist, we should have Jesus as our #1 agape love and be taking our cross and following Him:

> Matthew 10:37-38 - Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

When we drink the cup of the Lord, we must drink it in a worthy manner (I Corinthians 11:24-29)

- Whatever you do, do all to the glory of God
  - We must not be idolators
    - Matthew 10:37-38
    - I Corinthians 10:14-31
- We must be taking up our cross and following of Jesus
  - Matthew 10:37-38
  - John 15:13 - Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. (ESV)
- In other words, we should have a law-abiding faith in Jesus Christ
  - Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:20-22 - No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? (ESV)

G1252 diakrinó Discernment That Strengthens Faith

> The faithful use of appears in passages that call believers to sift evidence, reach sound conclusions, and thus fortify trust in the Lord. In Matthew 16:3 Jesus rebukes His hearers for failing to “discern the signs of the times,” implying that right discernment would have led them to confess Him as Messiah. Likewise, Acts 15:9 celebrates that God “made no distinction between us and them, and purified their hearts by faith,” a divine act of discernment that opened the church to Gentiles. Such texts show that careful distinguishing can serve redemptive purposes.

> John 5:42-47 - But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. I have come in my Father’s name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you: Moses, on whom you have set your hope. If you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words? (ESV)

Someone who has just put their faith in Jesus for the first time and is believing that Jesus is the Christ is a newborn Christian:

> I John 5:1 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. (ESV)

The Jesus which the Apostles proclaimed is the same Jesus we need to proclaim in Church - so Jesus' teachings should be taught right along with the gospel and along with all that the prophets have spoken which relate to Jesus:

> II Corinthians 11:4 - For if someone comes and proclaims another Jesus than the one we proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or if you accept a different gospel (G3844 par', contrary to) from the one you accepted, you put up with it readily enough. (ESV)
> I Thessalonians 2:2-4 - But though we had already suffered and been shamefully treated at Philippi, as you know, we had boldness in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in the midst of much conflict. For our appeal does not spring from error or impurity or any attempt to deceive, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please man, but to please God who tests our hearts. (ESV)
> Mark 1:14-15 - Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel. (ESV)
> I Peter 4:17 - For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? (ESV)
> Romans 1:1-7 - Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God, which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh and was declared to be the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations, including you who are called to belong to Jesus Christ, To all those in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Notice how II Cor 11:4 uses the greek word `par` which seems to translate to "contrary". OK, so if someone is speaking the same thing as Jesus and the Apostles, then great. But if they are preaching, say, against "repentance from sin" then they are not speaking the same gospel, they're not speaking the same thing as Jesus and the Apostles.

Talk by John Piper youtube.com: You Cannot Obey God Without God

If someone is holding to the truth then consider them a partner and receive them. But if they're not, then separate from them:

> Philemon 1:17 - So if you consider me your partner, receive him as you would receive me. (ESV)

It's imperative that as we go ahead, we must abide in the teaching of Christ, or we won't have God (Jehovah God), and God is love and love comes from God, so we need to abide in Christ's teachings, by belief and by obedience. For example, in Mark 10:18, Jesus affirmed that God is Good. Therefore when we read this, we must also be sanctified by this truth, affirming and coming into agreement that God is Good. Also, Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us John 13:34-35:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

Jesus said to these believers that if they abide in His word (and I believe that means keep His word, even in obedience), they are His disciples - so a person can be a believer before they are a disciple. But we're supposed to make this transition:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

I believe that Simon the magician after initially believing the gospel and being baptised needed to continue in obedience to God, continue trusting in Jesus, turn away from wickedness, purify his heart, draw near to God and receive Holy Spirit and be sanctified. We're instructed to "draw near to God through Jesus Christ" to be saved:

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

> Hebrews 7:23-28 - The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office, but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself. For the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever. (ESV)

Don't stop believing. We must continue trusting and believing the Truth to be saved:

> Luke 8:12 - The ones along the path are those who have heard. Then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. (ESV)

Be grounded in the Truth and able to overcome testing / trial / tribulation:

> Luke 8:13 - And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe for a while, and in time of testing fall away. (ESV)

Continue walking in the light, and does not go back to falling in love with the world. (i.e. they gave up earthly treasure, and in doing so stored up heavenly treasure, and go after Jesus, their Pearl of Great Price), trusting, believing and obeying Jesus:

> Luke 8:14 - And as for what fell among the thorns, they are those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature. (ESV)

Holding fast in faith, out of an honest and good heart, bear good fruit including works of righteousness, even remaining steadfast through trial and tribulation:

> Luke 8:15 - As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience. (ESV)

Quote from John Piper If God in fact in his grace and power enables us to do things that are good, He is going to reward them, not ignore them. He's going to say, "Well done good and faithful servant (Matthew 25:21). Works of Faith are going to be rewarded, not thrown away as filthy rags.

> II Corinthians 5:10 - For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. (ESV)

God considers being obedient from a forgiven heart, trusting in Jesus, to faithful service:

> Matthew 25:23 - His master said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master. (ESV)

Quote from John Piper He bought us by grace, he sustains us by grace, he enables us to do good works by grace and we do the works trusting that grace.

> Ephesians 6:8 - knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:36 - For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. (ESV)

> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

> Titus 1:15 - To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. (ESV)

Bearing fruit looks like ”walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God”.

> Colossians 1:3-12 - We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel, which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth, just as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf and has made known to us your love in the Spirit. And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. (ESV)

Right after the parable of the soil, Jesus says this:

> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

Bear good fruit to prove to be a disciple of Jesus:

> John 15:8 - By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. (ESV)

People will recognise we are Jesus’ disciples by the love we have for one another:

> John 13:35 - By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (ESV)

Jesus is the Rock:

> I Corinthians 10:4 - and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. (ESV)

Belief is important (and is an initial act of obedience). But everything we do should be done in faith and so belief is not just initial but present and ongoing:

> Matthew 16:15-18 - He said to them, But who do you say that I am? Simon Peter replied, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (ESV)

Being a ”doer” of the word is important. We can ”do” (4163. poiétés) faith, do love, do the law of Christ, do the law of faith in Christ, do the law of the Spirit of life in Christ, do obedience. A person can even ”do” rest. ”Doing” does not mean ”working” and it doesn't mean ”not working”. When Jesus commands us to have faith in Him then we should do it. We should hear, trust, receive, treasure His word. If we have the obedience, then we will obey. If we have the love of God within us, the love of the Truth, then we will produce good deeds. Obedience is important. And obedience is a heart attitude:

> Luke 6:46-49 - Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and not do what I tell you? Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great. (ESV)

Our obedience is not without trust. We obey because we trust God - we obey out of faith in God:

> Jeremiah 17:5-8 - Thus says the LORD: Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, whose heart turns away from the LORD. He is like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see any good come. He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land. Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose trust is the LORD. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit. (ESV)

Our obedience is in the heart. We want to obey because we love Jesus (we will to):

> Luke 10:25-37 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

youtube.com: The Joy of the Puritans Love for God is from the heart. Now, Luke's version of the great commandment gives a clue that that's the case. Luke's version: Just to read it now in the ESV, the lawyer expresses this and Jesus approves it, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, with all your mind" but that translation isn't exactly right. Because those four prepositional phrases in the English are all the same, and in Greek they're not. The first one heart has a different preposition than the other three. It has the preposition EX "from or out-of" and the others are all EN "in or with/by".

So literally I would say it goes like this, "You shall love the Lord your God from (or out of) your heart, with your soul, and with your strength and with your mind." Now, why does that matter?

That's a clue, that's a that's a hint that the human heart is unique in its role that it plays in loving God.

Quote by John Piper The essence of love is heart work, not mind work.

AMEN.

We learn Christ, and are taught by Christ (becoming obedient to His teachings and commandments) while we are in Him:

> Ephesians 4:20-21 - But that is not the way you learned Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus, (ESV)

Therefore, even before I was noticeably ”born-again of the water and the Spirit” in 2022, I had begun to try to practice Jesus’ commandments in 2020/2021 in an effort to seek God, Jesus must have been already working in me, but I say this to explain how I believe that it might be quite hard to pinpoint the starting point, but we know that it’s God’s grace through faith (believing, obedient, trusting faith) that it happens, but that doesn’t mean believing and obeying Jesus are not important to receive the Holy Spirit, because they are.

> Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV)

By His grace we have to actually come into obeying Jesus to find life. Think about what it means to obey Jesus: It’s to walk in the Spirit, to abide in Jesus’ Spirit, to be obeying Jesus’ commandments, to seek to follow the pattern of life that He lived to be found in Him. You can abide in Jesus’ Spirit if you have faith in Him, believing in Him, believing, trusting and obeying Him, knowing Him, and being found in Him!

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus’ name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God’s ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth. This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

Faith in Christ I believe means believing in Him and being obedient to Him, having communion with Him, etc. becoming intimate with Him, following Him. This isn’t our own merit, but we still obey Jesus to be found in Him. In Him we have Jesus’ righteousness:

> Matthew 16:25 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. (ESV)

And we should be building each other up, helping each other attain unity of faith and knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God:

> Ephesians 4:12-13 - to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, (ESV)

It’s unity in faith and truth and love:

> Colossians 3:14 - Beyond all (G3956 pas) these things put on love (G26 agape), which (G3739 hos) is the perfect bond of unity.

> John 17:23 - I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me. (ESV)
> II Timothy 1:13 - Follow the pattern of the sound words that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

Unity in the truth and in serving Jesus (being a bondservant/slave of Christ):

> Luke 12:51 - Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. (ESV)
> Romans 16:17-18 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 11:18-19 - For, in the first place, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you. And I believe it in part, for there must be factions among you in order that those who are genuine among you may be recognized. (ESV)

John 17 shows that the unity is not at all unity with the world:

> John 17:8-17 - For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am praying for them. I* am not praying for the world but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours.* All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. I have guarded them, and not one of them has been lost except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. (ESV)
> Philippians 3:18-21 - For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself. (ESV)

Judas was a son of destruction. But also, anyone who is an enemy of the cross of Christ (Philippians 3:18-21) is a son of destruction. Jesus didn't say Judas Iscariot in John 17:11-12, but rather Jesus used the words "son of destruction (perdition)", which Judas Iscariot was. So I think this passage is talking about any son of perdition, not merely Judas Iscariot:

> John 17:11-12 - And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. I have guarded them, and not one of them has been lost except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. (ESV)
> Luke 6:45 - The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. (ESV)

> I Chronicles 28:9 - And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever. (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 16:22 - If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! (ESV)

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned (G2919 krinetai: is judged V-PIM/P-3S), but whoever does not believe is condemned already (G2919 kekritai: has been judged V-RIM/P-3S), because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

Such a person who has denied Jesus must repent while there is opportunity:

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

> Acts 8:22 - Repent, therefore, of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you. (ESV)

Being prone to stir up division, particularly over foolish controversies, is bad. Rather, we want unity in faith, love and Truth. The Truth does matter:

> Titus 3:10-11 - The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people. But avoid foolish controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels about the law, for they are unprofitable and worthless. As for a person who stirs up division (141. hairetikos), after warning him once and then twice, have nothing more to do with him, knowing that such a person is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned. (ESV)

No-one comes to Father God except through Jesus Christ:

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

There is salvation in no one else other than Jesus Christ of Nazareth:

> Acts 4:8-12 - Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, Rulers of the people and elders, if we are being examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by him this man is standing before you well. This Jesus is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved. (ESV)

- 141. hairetikos:: Definition: causing division. Usage: disposed to form sects, sectarian, heretical, factious.

We must agape love God, and our family in Christ and called to agape love even our enemies - How Christians agape love:

Agape is definitely a treasuring love. God is worth infinitely more than anything. God must be our first agape. People are worth infinitely more than chatbots or anything worldly, for example.

26 (agápē) typically refers to divine love (= what God prefers).

See where else this word used to describe agape love is used:

- `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/1_john/2-15.htm`
- `https://biblehub.com/greek/agapa_25.htm`
- `https://biblehub.com/greek/agapate_25.htm`
- `https://biblehub.com/greek/26.htm`

Agape-love can be misplaced. We go from agape-loving (treasuring, valuing) darkness to agape-loving (treasuring, valuing) light:

> John 3:16-20 - For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved (25. agapaó) the darkness rather than the light (5457. phós) because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. (ESV)

Genuine agape loves the light. The Truth of God is light and is good and is not wicked:

> Romans 12:9 - Let love (G26 agapé) be genuine (G505 anupokritos). Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. (ESV)

I think it's fine to say, "I love Jesus and Jesus loves you" to people, if indeed you do love Jesus and if Jesus lives in you and you love that person with agape love. And it's also, in that way, OK to say, "God loves you" because Jesus is the Son of God.

In giving Jesus, in sending Jesus to us, and in Christ dying for us, God demonstrates His love for us (John 3:16, Romans 5:7-10).

A person who truly loves Jesus is forgiven by necessity just as it is that someone who is truly forgiven by Jesus must also have love for Jesus (Luke 7:47). But God loved us first (I John 4:19), so it follows that someone can have been loved without having yet loved back. A person is forgiven by faith in Jesus' name (Acts 10:43), which necessitates the fear of God, so a love for truth (i.e. the truth of who Jesus is: Son of God, Son of Man, Messiah), rather than a hatred of the truth. A person is condemned for rejecting Jesus (Mark 16:16, John 15:22-24). Continuing in faith in God and love for God is necessary for ongoing forgiveness (Acts 26:18, John 8:42, John 1:12, I John 3:10, Colossians 1:13-14, I John 1:7), then God bears with us in hope (I Corinthians 13:7) that we will love Him back (I Timothy 2:4, I John 4:7-21) so that we will live (Deuteronomy 30:6). A person must not remain hateful towards God, nor towards those who are their family in Christ (I John 5:2, I John 4:21).

> Matthew 6:24 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. (ESV)

God shows His love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. But we must receive Him and not reject Him. We must be for Him and not against Him. We must love Him back and not hate Him:

> Romans 5:7-8 - For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (ESV)

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

Jesus loved us first:

> John 15:9-12 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. (ESV)

But for anyone to remain in God's love, even through Jesus Christ, we must remain in Jesus' love, and to remain in Jesus' love we must keep His commandments. So believers must go on in Jesus' love for one another as one of Jesus' commandments.

Keep Jesus' commandments. Remain in His love:

> John 15:10 - If you keep My commandments, you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love. (engbsb2020eb)

Maintain faith in Jesus. Remain in Him:

> John 15:4-7 - Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me. I am the vine and you are the branches. The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For apart from Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in Me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers. Such branches are gathered up, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you remain in Me and My words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (engbsb2020eb)

Analogy for abiding in Jesus Since Jesus is the Telos of the Law and we're not "under the Law" but "law-abiding" to Christ's law then the person "under the Law" trying to fulfill the whole law might be compared to a person who is walking to a train station but the journey is impossibly difficult. God has done this in Jesus Christ. What is impossible for man to have done, Jesus did. And the other thing God does which is impossible for man to do without God is put us into Christ. According to the metaphor, then, God then puts us at the train station. And the person who is "law-abiding" to Christ's law would be someone who has come to Jesus, someone who Father God has drawn to Christ, and is now at the metaphorical train station (Jesus Christ who is the Telos of the law). God put them at the train station in Jesus. And Jesus asks us to "remain in Him". And so the analogy would be "remain at the train station" (i.e. You're already there, just don't leave the train station). Jesus won't expell you (i.e. no-one can snatch us from His hand) but He asks you to remain (i.e. abide) in Him. Don't go off wondering away. Don't leave the metaphorical train station. We examine ourselves to see if we are in the faith. For example, if we hate our brother then we have left the train station. If we do not believe Jesus is the Son of God then we have left the train station, and like the prodigal son, we must return to God by repentance. If we the branches remain in a place of not abiding in Christ then we wither. And at the end of the age the branches that are not abiding in Jesus are collected and burned.

We want to abide in God's love through following Jesus' commandments, and then nothing can separate us from His love. Remember it's nothing in creation (that excludes God Himself because God is not 'created') that can separate us from God's love:

> I Thessalonians 3:8 - For now we live, if you are standing fast in the Lord. (ESV)

> Romans 11:20-23 - That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. (ESV)

> Romans 8:36-39 - As it is written, For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered. No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

> John 15:4-7 - Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me. I am the vine and you are the branches. The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For apart from Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in Me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers. Such branches are gathered up, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you remain in Me and My words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (engbsb2020eb)

But when talking about Father God, it's correct to say that God loved you, sending Jesus, and Father God will love you if you love Jesus and believe He was sent from God.

If anyone loves Jesus, they will keep His word, and Father God will love them, and Father God and Jesus Christ, Son of God will come to them and make our home with them:

> John 14:22-23 - Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him.

I think it's more edifying when sharing Jesus to people to say that "God loved us and sent Jesus to be the propitiation for our sins and wants us to repent and believe the gospel and obey His commandments", and to say "God loved you", rather than "God 'loves' you". Because God loved us and expects us to continue to abide in His love. If we put our faith in Jesus, if we believe He is the Son of God, and the Christ and if we believe God sent Him to be propitiation for our sin, and if we agape-love, treasure Jesus, abiding in Jesus' commandments, then Father God will continue to love us.

> John 16:25-27- I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

God expects us to receive and to not reject His Son Jesus, and Jesus expects us who receive Him, to trust and obey Him and abide in His commandments. Jesus said, "If you love me you will keep my commandments." And He said, "Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him." He expects us to keep His commandments. We want to remain in God's love:

> Jude 1:20-21 - But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit; keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 9:7 - Each one must give as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. (ESV)

> John 16:26-27 - In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. (ESV)

If we agape love, treasure, value God, agape-loving, treasuring, valuing Jesus Christ, and we obey God's commandments for us, obey Christ's commandments, then we may know that we are loving our family in Christ:

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

God loved us before we love Him back. That's the same way we must love others. We are called to love those who hate us:

> I John 4:6-19 - We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

> Galatians 2:20 - I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. (ESV)

I don't like how Galatians 2:20 has been interpreted with "that (G3588 tē) from the (G3588 tou) Son (G5207 Huiou)" as meaning that it's not our faith in Jesus that we need to have as if to place that requirement says a person is no longer relying on Jesus' finished work of the cross. And how people use this reasoning to refute needing to have faith in Jesus Christ to have eternal life, or even to continue having faith in Jesus Christ to continue having eternal life.

I actually believe that the phrase "that (G3588 tē) from the (G3588 tou) Son (G5207 Huiou)" is talking about the life from the Son of God that we can have through faith in Him, rather than as they put it, "His (Jesus') faith", rather than our faith in Him. And I think that using this verse in this way is evil because it contradicts John 3:16, and also because what is not done in faith is sin and we need to have faith in Jesus Christ in order to live.

Some people use the premise that because Jesus "did all the work" that we do not need to continue having faith to continue as a saved person - that if a person once believed they were totally sanctified and saved at that moment and that by adding your own [ongoing] faith as a requirement, it is now faith + works. But true faith in God having a love for God's word, and thus a love of God, is needed for eternal life.

Galatians 2:20 does not contradict John 3:16.

> I Timothy 6:20-21 - O Timothy, guard the deposit entrusted to you. Avoid the irreverent babble and contradictions (G477 antitheseis; opposing ideas) of what is falsely called knowledge, for by professing it some have swerved from the faith. Grace be with you. (ESV)

I believe that Paul says in Galatians 2:20 that the life he has now is from the Son of God.

Who Christians must agape love:

- God (Father God, Jesus Christ and Holy Spirit)
  - `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/1_john/2-15.htm`
  - `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/matthew/22-37.htm`
  - Matthew 22:37 - And He said to him You shall love (25 Agapēseis) [the] Lord the God of you with all the heart of you and with all the soul of you and with all the mind of you (Interlinear)
  - `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/john/14-23.htm`
- Your spouse
  - `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/ephesians/5-28.htm`
- Others in Christ
  - Colossians 3:13-14 - Bear with one another and forgive any complaint you may have against someone else. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love (26. agapé), which is the bond of perfect unity. (engbsb2020eb)
  - I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)

> Proverbs 3:27 - Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it. (ESV)

It's within our power to not bear grudges agaist our family in Christ and to not bear grudges with our neighbour. It's within our power to love our neighbour in deed because primarily it's a matter of what is in a person's heart. It's also within our power, if we have the world's goods and have met existing obligation for using those goods, to love our neighbour in deed with those goods:

> Colossians 3:12-14 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (ESV)

Who Christians are called to agape love:

- All people, even enemies (those who hate you)
  - `https://biblehub.com/greek/agapa_25.htm`
  - `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/matthew/5-44.htm`
  - Matthew 5:43-48 - You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (ESV)

We should honor and be respectful to everyone. But when we talk about the brotherhood, it means our family in Christ. We must love our family in Christ:

- I Peter 2:17 - Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. (ESV)
- I John 4:19-21 - We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

We should do good to all and try to love whoever is our neighbour. We must love our neighbour as ourself. That person could be family in Christ, and if they are then we must love them. So we have to endeavour to be blameless/innocent as the good Samaritan was. I am a firm believer that if someone is a confirmed family in Christ who loves Jesus, with the fear of God, someone who is being taught by Jesus, someone who is following Jesus, then we must certainly be prepared to share their burdens and share the world's goods with them, we must not neglect them, but support them. It would be sin to neglect family in Christ knowingly when they needed support. We should be supporting each-other to abide in Christ's teachings. As Jesus Christ said, "Let the children be fed first." What about loving those outside the church? We give grace to others, but not at the expense of our own children/family in Christ's basic needs. We must let our family in Christ "be fed first". OK, so an example: If family in Christ needs employment (they are willing to work, they're trying to do what God wants them to do, but being being prevented by their fellow man from living as God would have them), and you as family in Christ have work that they can do, and they have asked you for it, then you must prioritise giving them the work above giving it to someone who is not confirmed family in Christ, otherwise it's sin:

- Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)
- Galatians 6:2-6 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. For each will have to bear his own load. One who is taught the word must share all good things with the one who teaches. (ESV)
- I John 3:17 - But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? (ESV)
- Philip, an Evangelist in Brazil - We have to treat every single person that we encounter with the love of God as much as possible. We fall short, we make mistakes, we're not always at our best, but as much as possible. We provide a testimony.

- Mark 7:27-29 - And he said to her, Let the children be fed first, for it is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs. But she answered him, Yes, Lord; yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs. And he said to her, For this statement you may go your way; the demon has left your daughter.

We should not fear those who kill the body (mankind or Satan):

- Matthew 10:28 - And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. (ESV)
- Revelation of John 2:10 - Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 5:5 - you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. (ESV)
- John 12:42 - Nevertheless, many even of the authorities believed in him, but for fear of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue; (ESV)

We should fear God, and hate evil. Even as concerns the gospel, we should be repentant, seeking God's mercy:

- Luke 23:40 - But the other rebuked him, saying, Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? (ESV)
- Proverbs 23:17 - Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day. (ESV)
- Proverbs 14:27 - The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, that one may turn away from the snares of death. (ESV)
- Proverbs 16:6 - By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil. (ESV)
- Job 1:1 - There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job, and that man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil. (ESV)
- Proverbs 8:13 - The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate. (ESV)
- Ecclesiastes 12:13 - The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. (ESV)
    - I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to (G3784 opheilei; ought to, obligated to, has a duty to) walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)
- I Peter 2:17 - Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. (ESV)

What Christians must not agape love:

- `https://biblehub.com/interlinear/1_john/2-15.htm`

The ruler of this world has been judged:

> John 16:11 - concerning judgment, because the ruler (G758 archōn: ruler) of this (G3778 toutou: this) world (G2889 kosmou: world) is judged (G2919 kekritai: has been judged). (ESV)

> I Corinthians 11:32 - But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned (G2919 krinetai: is judged V-PIM/P-3S), but whoever does not believe is condemned already (G2919 kekritai: has been judged V-RIM/P-3S), because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

People who love God would receive Jesus and they wouldn't be idolators and they wouldn't have no agape love for their nighbour and they wouldn't have no love for Jesus Christ:

> Matthew 22:36-40 - Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law? And he said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. (ESV)

> John 16:27 - for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved (5368. phileó) me and have believed (4100. pisteuó) that I came from God. (ESV)

I "think" what is essentially being said is that what is condemned we are not to agape love, since the world's ruler is judged/condemned and anyone who is against Jesus is of the "world" and is presently judged/condemned and presently devoted to destruction (they are basically on their way to hell). How to put this.. I think we must separate from God-haters. So if, for example, someone gave an ultimatum that unless you renounce Jesus, unless you stop telling people about Jesus, unless you have all your memories of Jesus erased, unless you burn all those Bibles, unless you steal from someone, or unless you choose to not help that homeless believer in Jesus, then you can't be friends, what are you to do? We of course because we love and treasure Jesus, me must choose Jesus, choose to obey Him and choose to be faithful to Jesus instead of being friends with the who person gave the ultimatum. We treasure Jesus, want to be around Him and there are times when we must choose to separate from people who reject Jesus. That's what I think it means to not agape love the world. We must not agape love the world. We must instead agape love Father God, Jesus Christ, and Holy Spirit and those who belong to Jesus Christ.

Basically, an extreme version of II Cor 6:14-18. There is a "letting go" of the "world" (G2889 kosmō). Not a letting go of believers, but the world. Perhaps like "wheat letting go of tares":

> II Corinthians 6:14-18 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 5:7-12 - How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me and have sworn by those who are no gods. When I fed them to the full, they committed adultery and trooped to the houses of whores. They were well-fed, lusty stallions, each neighing for his neighbor's wife. Shall I not punish them for these things? declares the LORD; and shall I not avenge myself on a nation such as this? Go up through her vine rows and destroy, but make not a full end; strip away her branches, for they are not the LORD's. For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been utterly treacherous to me, declares the LORD. They have spoken falsely of the LORD and have said, He will do nothing; no disaster will come upon us, nor shall we see sword or famine. (ESV)

A different word is used for land/ground/soil here:

> John 17:4 - I glorified you on earth (G3588 tēs: the) (G1093 gēs: earth. land, ground, soil), having accomplished the work that you gave me to do. (ESV)

Agape love must not be for anything of the world:

Personally, when I am reading these passages, I am thinking of ”world” as an evil generation but I don’t necessarily think of it as distinct from literally the cosmos. So Jesus’ disciples are in the world but ”not of the world”, not of the evil generation, at least no longer.

> John 17:6 - I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world. Yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. (ESV)

> John 17:16 - They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. (ESV)

The same word for world is used when talking about the Earth. But I don’t think it’s merely talking about the phisical Earth. And to be honest, Romans 1:20 is talking about God’s divine nature being perceived in the things that have been made. So when thinking of the word world as it’s used, there’s definitely a spiritual aspect to think about:

> Romans 1:20 - For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. (ESV)

The world is created (G2889 kosmō):

> John 17:5 - And now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had with you before the world existed. (ESV)

The ”world” is reconcilable. I think what ”reconciliation of the world” is means is that people who are taken from the world who come to abide in Christ are no longer ”of the world”:

> Romans 11:15 - For if their rejection means the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance mean but life from the dead? (ESV)

I Corinthians 4:9 (Interlinear)]] I think for - God us - apostles last has exhibited as appointed to death because a spectacle (G2302 theatron) we have become (G1096 egenēthēmen) to the (G3588 tō) world (G2889 kosmō) both (G2532 kai) to angels (G32 angelois) and (G2532 kai) to men (G444 anthrōpois)

II Peter 3:6-8 does actually connect ”world” to the world used for ”heavens and Earth”, so they’re not separate things. But the terms for ”heavens and Earth” are not about the people who reside there. When we talk about the ”world”, it’s referring to both an evil generation of people and it’s referring to a ”heavens and earth” which are to be destroyed:

> II Peter 3:6-8 - and that by means of these the world (G2889 kosmos: world) that then (G5119 tote: at that time) existed was deluged with water and perished. But by the same word the heavens (G3772 ouranoi: the heavens) and earth (G1093 gē: earth) that now exist are stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly. But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. (ESV)

However it works, there is no escaping the fact that we must stand before the judgement seat of Christ. Even if JW believe they go on residing living on the Earth from age to age, there is still no escaping the judgement seat of Christ, and there is certainly a separation that happens:

> Matthew 13:37-43 - He answered, The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers (G4160 poiountas 3588 tēn G458 anomian; practicing lawlessness), and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear. (ESV)

> Matthew 24:31 - And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. (ESV)

As children of promise, walking by faith rather than by sight, we should be desiring a heavenly country, not an earthly one:

> Hebrews 11:12-19 - Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as many as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore. These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. For people who speak thus make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of that land from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared for them a city. By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, of whom it was said, Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. He considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back. (ESV)

> II Timothy 4:18 - The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:1-7 - For we know that if the tent, which is our earthly home, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this tent we groan, longing to put on our heavenly dwelling, if indeed by putting it on we may not be found naked. For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened—not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee. So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. (ESV)

I do not believe in "reincarnation" into the same 'kosmos' (G2889 kosmos: world). At the close of the age the bad people get sent to the bad place (Luke 12:5) and the good people go to a distinct 'kosmos' where righteousness dwells. I believe that the righteousness go to heaven with incorruptible bodies, rather than back to Earth:

> Matthew 13:45-52 - Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. When it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into containers but threw away the bad. So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Have you understood all these things? They said to him, Yes. And he said to them, Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.

> II Peter 3:1-8 - This is now the second letter that I am writing to you, beloved. In both of them I am stirring up your sincere mind by way of reminder, that you should remember the predictions of the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles, knowing this first of all, that scoffers will come in the last days with scoffing, following their own sinful desires. They will say, Where is the promise of his coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all things are continuing as they were from the beginning of creation. For they deliberately overlook this fact, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth was formed out of water and through water by the word of God, and that by means of these the world that then existed was deluged with water and perished. But by the same word the heavens and earth that now exist are stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly. But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. (ESV)

I do not believe that with the bodily resurrection that we will return to an Earth with corruption in it:

> Acts 2:27 - For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One see corruption. (ESV)

With the resurrection of the body, we do not die anymore, and do not marry anymore:

> Matthew 22:30 - For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 15:42 - So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 15:36 - You foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. (ESV)

Being born-again of the spirit, yet still on the Earth, I do not believe it is sinful for me to marry. Except that I have made committment to the Lord Jesus already that I would not. As I told Jesus, everything is on the backburner until He speaks to me.

Some fall asleep in Christ and then are raised. But some do not all sleep but are changed in a moment:

> I Corinthians 15:17-22 - And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If in this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied. But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. (ESV)

The body needs to die to be raised to life:

> I Corinthians 15:36 - You foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 15:51-58 - Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (ESV)

We need to be keepers of Jesus Christ's commandments to put on immortality:

> Romans 2:5-11 - But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. (ESV)

I think this is how it works: First there is the resurrection of the spirit (2 April 2022 for me), which is being baptised into Christ's death and raised to new life. Then there is the resurrection of the body. It's normal for a born-again Christian to also die an earthly death but this is not the death of the spirit. The person's consciousness continues after bodily death. And the physical body is resurrected also to life:

> I Corinthians 15:42 - So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:36 - You foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. (ESV)

When people the righteous rise from the dead with their resurrection body, they are like angels - imperishable, never to die anymore. There is certainly no reincarnation for them. While I believe there are "many" ages of the Earth, I do not believe in an earthly reincarnation. After one go in this Earth, I believe the righteous go to heaven. And heaven is a place without corruption. That's my beliefs:

> Mark 12:25 - For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. (ESV)

> Luke 20:33-36 - In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife. And Jesus said to them, The sons of this age marry and 'are given' (women are given) in marriage, but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. (ESV)

Personally, I am anticipating rapture, and look forwards to ultimately an entirely new heavens and earth where righteousness dwells. I don't want to live in the AI Golden [Calf] Age (which is what I've started calling it). It's not for me:

> II Corinthians 5:9-10 - So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. (ESV)

We detach from the "world", (Biblical separation. i.e. while there might not be physical distancing, we distance ourselves by applied holy living), but remain in the world as lights:

> I Corinthians 7:31 - and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 5:9-11 - I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:15 - that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, (ESV)

Being crucified with Christ, there is a real separation between us and "the world". It's growing as a wheat:

> Galatians 6:14 - But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. (ESV)

> James 1:27 - Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world. (ESV)

And God takes us to a new heavens and earth where righteousness dwells, like Noah here:

> Hebrews 11:7 - By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. (ESV)

We die to the ”elemental spirits of the world” and are no longer enslaved to the ”elementary principles of the world”:

> Colossians 2:20 - If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations— (ESV)
> Galatians 4:3 - In the same way we also, when we were children, were enslaved to the elementary principles of the world. (ESV)

Agape love is essentially a treasuring, preserving love. We have a real Biblical separation from the world. Like Noah:

> Hebrews 11:7 - By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. (ESV)

We must heed Jesus’ word rather than earthly/worldly words:

> I John 4:5 - They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. (ESV)
> John 3:31-36 - He who comes from above is above all. He who is of the earth belongs to the earth and speaks in an earthly way. He who comes from heaven is above all. He bears witness to what he has seen and heard, yet no one receives his testimony. Whoever receives his testimony sets his seal to this, that God is true. For he whom God has sent utters the words of God, for he gives the Spirit without measure. The Father loves the Son and has given all things into his hand. Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

We are instructed to not agape love the world ”possessions”, nor take pride in our ”possessions”:

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 7:28-35 - But if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a betrothed woman marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that. This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord. But the married man is anxious about worldly things, how to please his wife, and his interests are divided. And the unmarried or betrothed woman is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit. But the married woman is anxious about worldly things, how to please her husband. I say this for your own benefit, not to lay any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord. (ESV)

OK, so people who do not know God wouldn’t know the children of God:

> I John 3:1 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. (ESV)

We’ve got to love God:

> James 2:5 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? (ESV)

Hate the sin but not the sinner (Ezekiel 18:23). So long as we are in this world the objective is to get people saved. Love people but love truth, and hate falsehood. Because agape love is a treasuring, preserving love, it's absolutely mandatory to agape love our family in Christ. Agape love without truth is not agape love:

> James 4:4 - You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:15-25 - For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. (ESV)

> Ephesians 2:1-3 - And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience— among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. (ESV)

> Galatians 4:9 - But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? (ESV)

> I Corinthians 5:9-11 - I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 2:12 - Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. (ESV)

There's a lot in the Bible to explain what is the revealed will of God. Continuing on in discerning the will of God we should have a renewed mind. We should obey Jesus:

youtube.com: How Do We Know the Will of God? | John Piper Clip {@desiringGod} The Bible does not tell you which person to marry, or whether to marry. The Bible does not tell you which car to drive, or buy, rent. The Bible doesn't tell you whether to buy a home or not which home to buy. [The] Bible doesn't tell you which brand of orange juice to drink. There are 10,000 decisions you must make that are not explicitly addressed in the Bible so what do you do? If you want to obey the will of command my answer is you must have a renewed mind. That's what the text says.

> Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

We end up thinking in a similar fashion to Jesus:

> I Corinthians 2:16 - For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (ESV)

Doing the will of God is what it means to be led by the Spirit. So you have to do the will of God, being a servant of Christ, lawful (law-abiding) to Christ, to Christ' commandments, to have the blessing of not being condemned by the law of Moses:

> Psalms 143:10 - Teach me to do your will, for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground! (ESV)

Where loving your family in Christ (the children of God) is absolutely mandatory, the same level of committment to "do good" is not given to those who are in opposition to God:

> Psalms 139:19-24 - Oh that you would slay the wicked, O God! O men of blood, depart from me! They speak against you with malicious intent; your enemies take your name in vain! Do I not hate (H6962. quwt, loathe) those who hate you, O LORD? And do I not loathe those who rise up against you? I hate them with complete hatred; I count them my enemies. Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting! (ESV)

> Galatians 6:10 - So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

> Mark 9:40 - For the one who is not against us is for us. (ESV)

The Apostle John says to be able to know that we are loving the children of God, we must be keeping His commandments. So the way to love our family in Christ is clearly defined for us. People don't have a legitimate claim to say "You're not loving me" if you're keeping God's commandments:

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

We're called to still share the Truth of God to the World:

> John 3:17 - For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. (ESV)

> John 18:20 - Jesus answered him, I have spoken openly to the world. I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret. (ESV)

> John 12:47 - If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. (ESV)

> Matthew 13:38-39 - The field is the world, and the good seed is the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:14 - You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. (ESV)

Agape-ing things of this world is worldly-mindedness and makes it very difficult to discern the will of God:

> Luke 11:43 - Woe to you Pharisees! For you love (agapate) the best seat in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces. (ESV) youtube.com: Petra - Beyond Belief @time: 29 min 43 sec I've been looking over your recent stats. You're going to have to run well in this one, guy. yes sir. We still think you've got potential. The scholarship could be yours, but you're going to have to really want it. I do sir. Good, cuz as far as your concerned this race is the most important thing in your life. Be out there in 30 minutes.

Danny, can I ask you something? Sure. When you grow up and move away, would you still be my brother? Chad, you can't change that. You think you'll forget about us? How can I forget about you? You're my brother. Hey, tell you what, I've been wanting to give this to you for a long time. As God is our witness, brothers forever. Woww. okay boys, let's settle down. Dad, can I ask you something? Sure, pal. When we grow up and move away, will you still be my dad? I'll always be your dad and that'll never change. Do you promise? Son, the most important thing in our our Lives is that we always love each other. Now, you remember that, okay? Okay boys, prayers.

It's not just about agape loving our neighbour / other people. We must agape love (treasure, value) God too and that means remembering His name and His Son and His words. This is an absolute must. The gospel still needs to be preached:

> Psalms 9:17 - The wicked shall return to Sheol, all the nations that forget God. (ESV)

Lord of Eternity - Fernando Ortega (Live) Lord of Eternity; Blessed is the man; Who walks in Your favor; Who loves all Your words; And hides them like treasure; In the darkest place; Of his desperate heart, They are a light; A strong, sure light.

> Psalms 84:11 - For the LORD God is a sun and shield; the LORD bestows favor and honor. No good thing does he withhold from those who walk uprightly. (ESV)

Those who will to agape love God must also will to love his brother or they are not loving God:

> I Peter 1:8 - Though you have not seen him, you love (G25 agapate) him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, (ESV)

> I John 4:20-21 - If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves (G25 agapōn) God must also love (G25 agapa) his brother. (ESV)

If we keep Jesus' commandments and love our family in Christ, God all things will work together for our good:

> Romans 8:28 - And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. (ESV)

> Psalms 34:19 - Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all. (ESV)

We believe in Him, and keep His commandments, and come to know Him:

> John 20:29 - Jesus said to him, Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed. (ESV)

I think I John 2:15-17 is essentially saying, "Do not agape love the world or what's in the world. Do not love the things of this world with the type of love that we have for God and for people, namely agape love." If we fall out of agape love for the world and are not conformed to the world but are transformed by the renewing of our minds then by testing we will be able to discern the will of God:

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love (agapate) the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

OK, so we accept forgiveness from God, we forgive others, and we then walk in that reality and don't turn back - we live that reality out. We accept that God has loved us by making atonement through Jesus' blood, and then we pass-forward that loving forgiveness to others and we walk in that reality and don't turn back.

> II Corinthians 4:11-12 - For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you. (ESV)

We must have faith in Jesus to be justified by faith. I believe the finished work of Christ is enough, but that God is still working, His grace extending through faithful obedience to Jesus, Jesus grace reaches more people:

> II Corinthians 4:11-15 - For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you. Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, I believed, and so I spoke, we also believe, and so we also speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence. For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God. (ESV)

We also try to live holy lives - be holy as He is Holy.
We put on Christ:

> Galatians 3:27-28 - For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

When the day of judgement comes, we must have accepted forgiveness from God, or face the wrath of God:

> Romans 4:7-8 - Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin. (ESV)

When the day of judgement comes, we should be loving our brother and sister in Christ, or we may face the wrath of God:

> I John 4:17-21 - By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

Our sins are forgiven and we love one another the way Christ loved us. It should be our aim to have arrived at this point where we are living in this reality as soon as possible:

> I John 2:11-12 - But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his name's sake. (ESV)

If we are merciful then we will receive mercy:

> Matthew 5:7 - Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.

> James 2:13 - For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

> Psalms 18:24-26 - So the LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight. With the merciful you show yourself merciful; with the blameless man you show yourself blameless; with the purified you show yourself pure; and with the crooked you make yourself seem tortuous. (ESV)

To get to know Jesus, we must obey His commandments:

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

Belief leads to obedience which leads to knowledge of the truth:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

Eternal life is knowing God and Jesus Christ who He has sent:

> John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

We need to take hold of it:

> I Timothy 6:12 - Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. (ESV)

In order to know God we must love one another in the way that God has loved us:

> I John 4:7-12 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)

We live through the life of Jesus in this intellectual and experiential knowledge - a bit like an umbilical cord:

> I John 4:8-11 - Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

Jesus Himself is the bread of God - Jesus Himself is the source of life:

> John 6:33 - For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

We should labor for the food that endures to eternal life:

> John 6:27 - Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal. (ESV)

> John 4:34 - Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. (ESV)

We have to put sin away after we come to believe in Him:

> Colossians 3:5-10 - Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator.

A new creation lives for Christ:

> II Corinthians 5:14-17 - For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh (G4561 sarx). Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh (G4561 sarx), we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

Being born-again, my old man died and now my life is hidden with Christ in God, and I'm seated with Him in the heavenly places in Christ living to serve Jesus:

> Colossians 3:3 - For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (ESV)

> Ephesians 1:3 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, (ESV)

> Ephesians 2:6 - and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, (ESV)

Being born-again, we are called to to separate from darkness. And what happens if a person does not? Well, I would say to make an analogy that it would be like remaining in Egypt after God has called them out. Can a person remain in the metaphorical house of Egypt (in the house of slavery to sin) as someone who has been born-again, washed but then caught up in sin again and still claim to be saved?

Even Simon the magician believed and was baptised but it is evident that even the Apostle Peter recognised that Simon might perish. As far as I can tell Simon had not yet received Holy Spirit. His heart still wasn't right. Just like Simon, we must receive the love of the truth in our heart to be saved. Simon was instructed to repent from sin. While true agape love is the bond of perfection, I think the bond of iniquity might mean a love of darkness. Simon had to relinquish his sinful desire. Likewise, the rich young ruler (in Mark 10:17-27) had a love of worldly possessions. We need to agape love the truth and fall out of love of darkness. Even as believers, we need to continue on in the teachings of Christ to be saved:

> Acts 8:13-23 - Even Simon himself believed, and after being baptized he continued with Philip. And seeing signs and great miracles performed, he was amazed. Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for he had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, saying, Give me this power also, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit. But Peter said to him, May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. Repent, therefore, of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you. For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity. (ESV)

Jesus' words are true. As I understand it, probably Simon Magus "had" salvation when he believed and was baptised but salvation is a process and as Jesus says, the devil steals the word for a person's heart so that they do not believe. So a person must continue in true faith. As I currently understand it, we also must not "fall away". We must endure in our faith. Simon Magus needed to repent from sin to receive Holy Spirit and in order to continue on in true justifying faith in Jesus, as I understand it:

> Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)

Jesus said to these believers that if they abide in His word (and I believe that means keep His word, even in obedience), they are His disciples - so a person can be a believer before they are a disciple. But we're supposed to make this transition:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

I think after having my spirit washed and regenerated engaging in sinful things is still dangerous. Like, sin was a big issue before I was born-again but after being regenerated and washed, doubling down on sin seems like it would put someone in a worse position. Where before the slavery would be like, "I know it's sin and I don't want to stop." God gives us the opportunity to be a position of "knowing it's sin and Holy Spirit helping us to be blameless and to not sin and feeling clean and confident", but to go on sinning and get oneself enslaved to it again would enter a position of "I know it's sin and I can't stop, and I wish I could get back to the place where Holy Spirit washed me." So we have to leave the Egypt of slavery to sin and walking in darkness. When God pulls us out of the pit, we must shake off the flesh mindset, and shake off the ways of the world (the wisdom of the world is actual folly in light of the truth) and walk the way God wants us to walk, and this is being rescued:

> John 8:34-35 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. (ESV)

I think Paul is warning here that it's best that it's better that the flesh be destroyed than to remain practicing sinful things, so that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. That's a firm warning. While we are in the world we are to cleanse out the old leaven, and put on the mind of Christ, and walk in holiness and in love.

God washes us and regenerates us and gives us the power to walk the way He wants us to walk, and to live in the Truth, so it doesn't make sense to return to worldly explanations of we're experiencing, but it does make sense to be renewed in mind and be corrected by the Scripture, and taught by Holy Spirit:

> Ezekiel 36:25-28 - I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules. You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. (ESV)

Because Jesus is the Truth, and before our eyes are opened we were in darkness, God is opening our eyes to see more truth, and see things in greater clarity the way they really are:

> II Corinthians 5:17-22 - Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 6:14-18 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

> Galatians 4:3-9 - In the same way we also, when we were children, were enslaved to the elementary principles of the world. But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God. Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? (ESV)

> I Corinthians 5:4-13 - When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? Cleanse out the old leaven that you may be a new lump, as you really are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Let us therefore celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? God judges those outside. Purge the evil person from among you. (ESV)

We have authority in God:

> Matthew 28:18-20 - And Jesus came and said to them, All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. (ESV)

> Matthew 20:27-28 - and whoever would be first among you must be your slave, even as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. (ESV)

We must be in Christ Jesus. Those who have been born-again have become obedient to Jesus Christ. Having been born-again, we walk by faith, not sight:

> Romans 8:23-25 - And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:6-7 - So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. (ESV)

We don't transition away from being servants of Jesus when we become friends of Jesus - we still serve and obey Him. Jesus started calling His servants His friends because Jesus had explained to them all He heard from Father God. Jesus' friends still serve Jesus, and they obey Jesus but they also know what Jesus is doing.

> John 15:14-15 - You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.

We must be born-again:

> Quote of John Piper Your life becomes a foretaste for others of your cherished future. But if your future that you cherish is grace coming to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ and that is your treasure, and that is your hope and that is your faith and that is your vision and what you hold onto and embrace, you cannot return evil for evil. You know why you cannot return evil for evil? (If that's where your heart is.) Because the cherished grace that's coming is that He's not going to return evil for evil to you. Then we cannot turn around and have a lifestyle of returning evil for evil or insulting for insulting, and therefore the point of saying it's a condition for that is simply this, "You must be born again." Therefore, it's a condition, not in the sense of earning anything but in the sense of bearing witness that you've fallen in love and live out of that confidence.

Amen. I want to say though that I obey Jesus when I'm feeling depressed and having a bad day myself, it most certainly still counts as love to Jesus. If I'm suffering for exercising obedient faith in Jesus, that obedience is still loving Jesus. In fact, it's more blessed to give than to receive. The obedience is still done out of love for Jesus and out of faith in Jesus. I believe that obedience to Jesus is an expression of faith in Jesus, and an expression of love for Jesus, and hope in Jesus. I've invested my life in Jesus, and happy about it because I believe and hope in Jesus.

Jesus was obedient while sorrowful:

> Mark 14:32-36 - And they went to a place called Gethsemane. And he said to his disciples, Sit here while I pray. And he took with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly distressed and troubled. And he said to them, My soul is very sorrowful, even to death. Remain here and watch. And going a little farther, he fell on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will. (ESV)

To love your neighbour as yourself means forgiving them too, and remember that Jesus forgave us. It also means to not take vengeance (Christ's law includes not rendering evil for evil):

> Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)
> Romans 12:9-21 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be conceited. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. To the contrary, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head. Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (ESV)

OK, so to be obedient while enduring suffering, which God has allowed is love which is greater than faith and hope which both abide; It's more blessed to give than to receive. I would argue though that to maintain an affectionate love for God while enduring suffering which God has allowed to happen is even more difficult and more blessed than to maintain good works while suffering. Love gives - love obeys Jesus' teaching. Love forgives and gives while being stolen from and abused - love obeys. Love praises God and affectionately loves God despite experiencing being thrown into darkness and God allowing them to be tormented by the enemy..

Faithfulness to Jesus, though, is a baseline requirement:

> Matthew 24:12-13 - And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. (ESV)

See how faithfulness is related to faith - faith is faithful to God. Having faith in God is keeping accountability with God with regard to His commands and promises and maintaining faithfulness with God who sees in secret:

> II Timothy 2:13 - if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

I have a strong desire to do what God wants me to do as I feel comfortable that God is on my side and will not put me to shame for my shortcomings because I am trusting Him. If the devil tries to damage me to make me sin and I sin I know I have confidence that God is still taking care of me and knows everything. Now I know I want to love other people because I have joy in knowing God. But on a bad day, especially during this intense trial that I face, I have confidence that even though I may have a Job 23:1-17 day, I will still I will still keep my heart of obedience to God, especially the call to love others because I do not want to misrepresent God or shame God in public which would be akin to taking His name in vain.

> Job 23:1-17 - Then Job answered and said: Today also my complaint is bitter; my hand is heavy on account of my groaning. Oh, that I knew where I might find him, that I might come even to his seat! I would lay my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments. I would know what he would answer me and understand what he would say to me. Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No; he would pay attention to me. There an upright man could argue with him, and I would be acquitted forever by my judge. Behold, I go forward, but he is not there, and backward, but I do not perceive him; on the left hand when he is working, I do not behold him; he turns to the right hand, but I do not see him. But he knows the way that I take; when he has tried me, I shall come out as gold. My foot has held fast to his steps; I have kept his way and have not turned aside. I have not departed from the commandment of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my portion of food. But he is unchangeable, and who can turn him back? What he desires, that he does. For he will complete what he appoints for me, and many such things are in his mind. Therefore I am terrified at his presence; when I consider, I am in dread of him. God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me; yet I am not silenced because of the darkness, nor because thick darkness covers my face. (ESV)

So I have a joy that's in God, yes, but it does not mean that on a bad day (when I complain to God and feel as though I have no joy) that I have no love for God. I'm fully convinced that Job still loved God, and the "joy" of God was most likely still deep in Job's heart even though he felt bitter. That's how I feel sometimes. I love Jesus but I tell him I'm angry at him. Perhaps a bit like Martin Luther's psychosis:

youtube.com: The Insanity of Luther: The Holiness of God with R.C. Sproul He had such a fear of the wrath of God that early on in his ministry somebody put this question to him: "Brother Martin, do you love God?" You know what he said? He said, "Love God? You ask me if I love God? Love God? Sometimes I hate God. I see Christ as a consuming judge who is simply looking at me to evaluate me and to visit affliction upon me.

And I am convinced that God still loves Job even when he had a bad complaint and he felt bitterness. And I'm convinced that Martin Luther also loved God and God loved Martin Luther.

Jesus says that the one who loves Him is the one who keeps His commandments. Amen.

> I Corinthians 1:10-15 - I appeal to you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there is quarreling among you, my brothers. What I mean is that each one of you says, I follow Paul, or I follow Apollos, or I follow Cephas, or I follow Christ. Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one may say that you were baptized in my name. (ESV)

When I receive the Apostle Paul's words, I think of myself as receiving Paul. When I receive the Apostle Peter's words, I think of myself as receiving Peter. So I do not think that the Roman Catholic church has some kind of monopoly on the Apostle Peter. But people can receive Christ through receiving Peter through the gospel.

> Matthew 10:40 - Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. (ESV)

> I John 5:9-13 - If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God that he has borne concerning his Son. Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

Pope Francis was wrong here when he says that all religions are a path to God:

Watch youtube.com: MUST SEE!!! This is REALLY BAD for Christians!!! | MacArthur, Baucham, Issues with the new Pope {@PreachingforGodsGlory} @time: 8 min 19 sec

It's a real shame this happened. Also he's wrong that all people are sons and daughters of God. At best the Pope is the leader of the Roman Catholic church but certainly not of Christendom. Even still, the true Apostle Paul led people to Christ so Christ can be their Lord. Paul didn't lord over his flock, but asked his flock to imitate him in imitating Christ.

> II Corinthians 4:5 - For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. (ESV)

youtube.com: When You See This Sign, the Antichrist is Imminent {@OrthodoxEthos} When salvation like the perennialists teach can be found, we can arrive at communion with God whether we're Hindus or Muslims or Christians or when that is become accepted among Christians. That's going to be a sign that the antichrist is imminent.

...

No, there there would be no one world religion in in the sense of uniting, manifesting externals, you know, rituals converging doesn't there doesn't need to be. If you know anything about perennialism, that's really I think a type of perennialism will be what the what the antichrist will preach. And this has been taken up by a few Christians including the previous pope which is a terrible terrible thing. This idea that God willed the religions and that the religions are paths for union with God; a total 'innovation', unprecedented, unheard of in the petristic teachings.

Let's hope that the new Pope is not a blind guide as Francis was. I believe in the right to become a child of God to those who believe in Jesus Christ as Son of God, so I believe they have the right to be corrected and sanctified by the Truth:

> II John 1:7-11 - For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess (G3670 homologeó) the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching (1322. didaché) of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, for whoever greets him takes part in his wicked works. (ESV)

> Matthew 15:13-14 - He answered, Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be rooted up. Let them alone; they are blind guides. And if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit. (ESV)

"Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life" (I Timothy 6:19).

The Coming One-World Religion
Part 1

We are rapidly approaching a one-world religion! Movements are stirring in the world to bring all faiths under a unified, global religious system. The Holy Bible has foretold that this would happen, "And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon...and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast...And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth..." (Revelation 13:11,12,14). I make reference to this most powerful area of scripture to show that this second beast, more commonly referred to as the false prophet, will cause the world to be deceived by worshiping, "...the dragon (Satan, the Devil) which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast (the first beast), saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?" (Revelation 13:4).

This one-world religious system is drawing very rapidly upon us! We must do everything in our power, "...to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:" (II Peter 1:10). The tragedy that happened on September 11 is truly that--a tragedy. Yet everything is set in order by God and nothing is allowed to happen in this world unless He allows it. The events of September 11 have catapulted the world towards this final, prophesied, global religious system. It is important to remember what Jesus said, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you; depart from me, ye that work iniquity" (Matthew 7:21-23). We are rapidly approaching the pinnacle of when many would have, "...a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof..." (II Timothy 3:5).

In the days ahead there will be two types of religious people: those that acknowledge and worship all gods and those that acknowledge Jesus Christ, yet deny His power and lordship as the One and Only True Son of God. Both will say that there are many roads to salvation. They will deny that Only Jesus Christ can save from sin. But, Jesus has already told us that there is only One way to salvation, and that is His Way, "...I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14:6). Every man can believe as he chooses. Muslims can call out to their god. Buddhists and Hindus can call out to their gods. People cannot be forced to believe in Jesus Christ as Lord, only the work and the drawing of The Holy Spirit can impress upon a man's heart His need to be saved and receive salvation through Jesus Christ. Yet, we as Christians, must adhere to and maintain that, truly, Jesus Christ is the ONLY Way to salvation. We must stand firm on The Solid Rock, which is Christ. These are the days, Saints of God, when we must choose THIS DAY whom we will serve! Will we serve all gods--just any god--or The One and Only True and Risen Lord, Jesus Christ? Now is the time to set our houses in order! There is little time left! Satan is coming in like a flood and intends to sweep the whole world away into global apostasy! This day is vast approaching and on a collision course with the judgment and wrath of Almighty God! It has been foretold that a global religion would come, and now, most assuredly, one is coming!

Many would say that all religions coming together under one blanket is a wonderful thing--that it would bring about global harmony and peace. Assuredly, peace and good will towards all men is what Christians desire, for it is stated in the Word of God, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men" (Luke 2:14). Christians seek peace and certainly condemn the type of evil atrocities committed on September 11 by Islamic terrorists, for it clearly says in The Holy Bible, "Thou shalt not kill" (Exodus 20:13). Christians desire that all be saved, for it says in God's Word, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance" (II Peter 3:9). Jesus said to love your neighbor as yourself. Yet, true Christians also know and believe that, "...there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12), than at The Name of Jesus Christ. "Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:10-12). We must stand firm in our faith in Jesus Christ--unshakeable and unmoveable--without compromise. Christians cannot compromise the Gospel of Jesus Christ to attain religious unity. Our fellowship should be only, "...with the Father, and with his son Jesus Christ" (I John 1:3).

The time is coming where, just as the early apostles began by proclaiming, "Christ and Him crucified," under intense persecution, so the last church on earth will close out the age by professing The Name of Jesus Christ to a lost and dying world that has scorned, rejected and compromised His call of mercy and repentance. The time is near to where, "...all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution" (II Timothy 3:12). As Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego were unwilling to fall down and worship the gods and image of Nebuchadnezzar, so must the children of God today be unwilling to bow the knee to any other than Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

The world is undoubtedly moving towards global ecumenism under the guise of peace and tolerance. Serving Jesus Christ ONLY will not be accepted in the new global religion. You will be considered intolerant for serving and claiming the Name and lordship of Jesus Christ only. Many will fall away at this time according to II Thessalonians Chapter 2, verse 3. God will allow a great shaking to take place within the Body of Christ to determine--truly--just who is and who is not, one of His, for it is written in Hebrews 12:27, "And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain." Truly, everything that can be shaken will be shaken out of the Body of Christ! Yet through all of this, Jesus has told us that not a hair of our heads should perish. The peace that Jesus gives, no man can take from us. This does not mean that we will not suffer, for Christians have always suffered and will continue to do so until the return of Jesus Christ. He has already told us, that in serving Him, we must be willing to count the cost, "For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? (Luke 14:28). Yet, in every trial and temptation that we go through in this life, we must always remember that He is with us, "even unto the end of the world" (Matthew 28:20). Hallelujah!

Let us, "...Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest" (Joshua 1:9). Let us meditate upon the never changing word of God, "I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore" (Psalms 121).

I make typos sometimes! I don't rely on my works. Rather, it's by faith in Jesus Christ Son of God that we are justified. God sees our hearts. Only God carries out perfect deeds and Jesus Christ kept God's law flawlessly and died on a cross and rose from the dead and we can be saved by faith in Jesus Christ. Jesus is Yahweh the Son of God. God’s word is authoritative, not mine. Jesus gave us teachings and commandments that we’ve been instructed to abide in. I’m endeavouring to do that from my heart. I’ll try lead people to Jesus. Have faith in Jesus Christ, not in me. Follow Jesus Christ, not me, as I’m also seeking to follow Jesus. Imitate and be corrected by Christ who is perfect. I make mistakes. I’m trying to be corrected by my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. That’s the message I’m personally trying to put out there as I try to lead people to Jesus.”

> John 14:6-7 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him. (ESV)

> Romans 12:16-21 - Live in harmony with one another (G240 allēlous; one another). Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be conceited. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all (G3956 pantōn; all) (G444 anthrōpōn; men). Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. To the contrary, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head. Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (ESV)

Yes, people want ”peace” but the Christian is only called to peace so much as it depends on us. We are to do good and not deny Jesus and that involves abhoring what is evil because genuine agape love also abhors what is evil. Islam is a false religion that is opposed to essential tenets of the Christian faith such as:

- Jesus Christ being Son of God
- Jesus Christ being God the Son (Yahweh)
- Jesus Christ having risen from the dead.

Islam is a religion that is opposed to Jesus Christ. And there’s no partnership at all between the spirit of Christ and that of antichrist. The religion of Islam is evil because it’s opposed to the gospel of Jesus. Christians must abhor what is evil (Romans 12:9) and not tolerate it (Revelation of John 2:2). But we still want to be people who overcome evil with good, and seek to live in peace with others without being unfaithful to Jesus. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego did not bow before the idol (Daniel 3:12) and neither should Christians be unfaithful to Jesus. I would say the Pope has been very lukewarm (Revelation of John 3:15-20) and unsalty (Mark 9:47-50) in his dealings with Islam. Remaining faithful to Jesus is about more than merely refusing to physically bow to an idol, and I think the Pope should not tolerate the evil religion and should not make false equivalences between Christianity and Islam such as suggesting that worship of the Most High God is done in both religions.

> I John 2:23 - No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. (ESV)

Thoughts regarding the Pope’s visit to the Mosque where he did not bow, relating to a passage from II

Most importantly, remaining faithful to Jesus is a matter of where one’s loyalties lie in their heart (II Kings 5:16-27), but the physical bowing also seems significant (see how there were real consequences for it, such as Elisha not accepting from Naaman, and there were knockoff consequences, such as Gehazi who was judging by appearances aqcuiring goods secretly and lying about it). So Pope Leo has visited a mosque recently and may have had the appearance of not bowing before an idol (youtube.com: POPE LEO XIV DECLINES to PRAY in the Blue MOSQUE , although it was planned in his schedule {@ romereports }). But Gehazi also had the ”appearance” of not bowing before idols. Gehazi here (II Kings 5:16-27) was judging things by appearances, and then he lied. Naaman, however, appealed to God in honesty.

Just because Christians seek to live in peace does not mean there will be peace (Romans 12:18).

Christians need to be firm with their beliefs, and set apart. When the Pope, and Donald Trump and King Charles seem very tolerant and non-threatening to antichrist religion, and talk about peace among people of different faiths etc. that appears like ”equal yoking” to me and lukewarmness and unholiness. Gross! Jesus Christ will spit such people out of His mouth.

> Revelation of John 3:15-20 - I know your works: you are neither cold nor hot. Would that you were either cold or hot! So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth. For you say, I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing, not realizing that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked. I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, so that you may be rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness may not be seen, and salve to anoint your eyes, so that you may see. Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline, so be zealous and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 6:14-18 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)

It's not possible for there to be peace in a spiritual sense with Islam because of necessary disunity as Jesus is separating the his sheep from the goats. It is futile to fight against God's purposes. Jesus came to bring a sword, the sword of His word (Matthew 10:34, Luke 12:51) which will divide the follower of Jesus from the one who is not a follower of Jesus.

> Matthew 10:35-37 - For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

Christians must not seek for unity with Islam, nor with any religion that is opposed to Jesus. There is no true unity between the body of Christ and those who are not in the body of Christ.

> Romans 12:9-19 - Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Never be conceited. Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:5-6 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)

I'm concerned about the apparent lack of "abhorrence" that Pope Leo in my view should have towards the religion of Islam. What is he doing at a Mosque? I don't think the Pope should be tolerating the evil.

- youtube.com: Pope Leo Asked if Islam is a Threat For Christians & Europe , Watch His Response | AK1G {@ DRMNewsInternational }
- vaticannews.va pope-leo-apostolic-journey-algeria-grand-mosque-algiers-dialogue.html: Pope visits Grand Mosque of Algiers and calls for mutual respect and peacebuilding - Vatican News

This type of language by the Pope is extremely concerning. I think Pope Leo has crossed a line here. I would say that based on this very Islam-affirming language Pope Leo is a ”false apostle” Revelation of John 2:2 as he seems to tolerate the evil of Islam, and even affirm it in part. That's just my impression from these words taken from here:

Welcomed by the Rector of the Mosque, Mohamed Mamoun al Qasim who offered words of fraternity, the Pope said "I thank you for these reflections and for these important words during this visit, from a place that represents the space that belongs to God, a divine and sacred space, where many people come to pray and to seek the presence of the Most High in their lives."

Islam teaches lies, and the Pope should be rebuking those who contradict the truth and exercising Biblical separation:

> II Corinthians 6:14-18 - Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. (ESV)
> I John 2:21-23 - I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. (ESV)
> Titus 1:9-14 - He must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it. For there are many who are insubordinate, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision party. They must be silenced, since they are upsetting whole families by teaching for shameful gain what they ought not to teach. One of the Cretans, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons. This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, not devoting themselves to Jewish myths and the commands of people who turn away from the truth. (ESV)

We have to be in agreement with the truth, walking in the light, to be children of God:

> I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)
> Galatians 3:5-7 - Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith — just as Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness? Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham. (ESV)

> Meaning, hey, Peter the rock baptized me. See, I'm better. Paul baptized you. So, what you find today was true back then in the lifetime of the apostles. Even the presence of the apostles could not guarantee perfect union among the churches. So why would you expect in the absence of the apostles were not physically with us that today we're going to have perfect union? If they could be divided even in lifetime of the apostles, expect us to be divided now without this implying we're not brothers and sisters in Jesus.

So now let’s take a modern example, the Roman Catholic Church appeals to Peter as being the rock upon which the church is built and I agree with that but they also say and then Peter appointed the bishop of Rome as a successor.

So now imagine the situation is the same today. Roman Catholics say well I belong to Peter. The Coptics say well we belong to John Mark because tradition says it was John Mark who established the church in Egypt. And then the Assyrian church and he says well we belong to Bartholomew, to Thomas.

So you’re doing the same thing that they were doing back then.

> I Corinthians 1:10-15 - I appeal to you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment. For it has been reported to me by Chloe’s people that there is quarreling among you, my brothers. What I mean is that each one of you says, I follow Paul, or I follow Apollos, or I follow Cephas, or I follow Christ. Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one may say that you were baptized in my name. (ESV)

When you say I’m the church of the east, well, you’re basically saying, well, I’m I’m of Thomas Bartholomew. When you say I’m the Roman Catholic church, well, I’m Peter. When you say you’re doing the same thing today that they were doing at the time of Paul and Paul says, no, Peter baptized you, you’re still a brother in Christ. Paul baptized you, you’re still a brother in Christ. Apollos baptized you. It doesn’t matter who led you to faith, who discipled you, because we’re all one body and we have one head. Praise God you follow Apollos. Praise God you follow Paul. Praise God you follow Peter. Because we are all one body. We’re not different bodies preaching a different head.

AMEN!!

Now on some of Martin Luther’s comments. I certainly agree with Martin Luther on some of these points. I’m not a Roman Catholic.

youtube.com: 13 Reasons Luther Was EXCOMMUNICATED from the Catholic Church! {@LuxVeritati

#1 ”there is no true, basic difference between laymen and priests.” #2 ”they play about with words..., trying to persuade us that the pope cannot err in matters of faith.” #3 ”if we are all priests... why should we not also have the power to test and judge what is right or wrong in matters of the faith?” #4 ”leave every man free to marry or not marry” #5 ”popes, bishops and monks. God has not instituted these offices.” #6 ”What spirit gave the pope authority to canonize saints?” #7 ”Transubstantiation is a Monsterous idea.” #8 ”He describes as ’wicked’ the belief that ’the mass is a good work and a sactifice.’” #9 ”Christ has given every one of his believers the power to absolve even open sins.” #10 ”I deny that they (the 7 sacraments) can be proved from Scripture.”

I agree with Luther on most of his points made in this video, actually.

I believe he must have had a real relationship with Jesus. I’m not a Roman Catholic. But I love Jesus Christ and trust His teachings, I believe He’s the Son of God, came from God, that He is Jehovah as Father God is Jehovah and they are One and I believe Jesus died for my sins and rose from the dead and endeavour to keep and teach His commandments. And God made me born-again of the Spirit as I was seeking Him. I’m a born-again Christian but I’m not a Roman Catholic. I don’t think that means that [all] Roman Catholics are not Christians. There is one Judge. I profess to be a follower of Christ, and I certainly do not think that the Roman Catholic church has any authority over me.

Journal <2026-07-09 Thu 12:06> There have been times I have been in conversation with others who have from my perspective at some point appeared to have a real belief and love for Jesus Christ, but have at some stage later I have heard them or seen them do things which appear to be ungodly, but I do not judge them, but I believe that Jesus is above us. Even if I were to have expressed condemnation, my say is not the final word. God has the final word in judgement.

I think that Jesus does have some expectation that people should be able to read the what the prophets have spoken but that we do need Holy Spirit to help us to interpret the Scriptures. I think that William Tyndale has done a good thing in helping to distribute the Holy Scripture, as the meaning of the Scripture, what God actually meant, is the Truth:

> Luke 24:25-27 - And he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory? And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. (ESV)
> Luke 24:32 - They said to each other, Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the Scriptures? (ESV)

I love it when I have the II Corinthians 8:2 joy which spills over into following Jesus' commandments - it makes it much easier!

I have joy in understanding that God will always be holier than me, and no amount of sanctification will get me to being as holy as Jesus Christ my Master. But there is a way a disciple can be "like" His Master. Of course, that still comes with commendation from God, rather than self-commendation, and so I believe that while a person may look "like" Jesus, conformed to His image, they still can't be as holy as Jesus. Far from equal in holiness, as well, I'd say.

We should be serving in gladness and joy because we have perspective - we have God, and we should have joy in serving God and being used by God:

youtube.com: Overcoming Spiritual Dryness @time: 9 min 7 sec The fight for joy is not a fight to be comfortable or have security or be prosperous or any other of the American 'ideals' that are advertised to us every day. It is a fight to join Jesus on the Calvary road. The fight to be happy is a fight to join Jesus on the Calvary road.

> It's not a praise God anyhow road. It's a road of suffering, it's a road of tears, it's a road of empathy with all the dying people that you're aware of, or who's marriages are in trouble or who's kids are on drugs. It's the people you know that are broken in your vicinity and your joy is going to become a high pressure zone that begins to make wind when it bumps up against low-pressure zones of need and that wind is called love. Because your joy is moving out and spilling over - "I have so much in Jesus, I know I have a lot of stuff but oh I'm brimming with what really counts in life and I'm going to use my stuff and my time and my energy to make your day for Jesus. I want to serve you for Jesus."

Joy in God spilling over into serving God is where we want to be:

> II Corinthians 8:2 - for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. (ESV)

This is the road we should be on:

> Hebrews 12:2 - looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. (ESV)

- youtube.com: Overcoming Spiritual Dryness

It's good to have God. Having God is truly having everything we need:

> II Corinthians 6:10 - as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing everything. (ESV)

We're actually commanded to delight ourselves in God, and it's for our own good. It's the correct way to think:

> Psalms 37:4 - Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart. (ESV)

Fear of God and love for God go hand in hand:

> Psalms 37:4 - Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart. (ESV)
> Psalms 145:19 - He fulfills the desire of those who fear him; he also hears their cry and saves them. (ESV)
> Proverbs 8:13 - The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate. (ESV)
> Philippians 4:4 - Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. (ESV)

Cesare Borgia (Atheist) While I lived, I provided for everything but death. Now I must die and I'm unprepared to die.

Sir Thomas Scott a privy councillor of James V. of Scotland, was a noted persecutor of the reformers. Being taken suddenly ill, and finding himself dying, he cried out to the Roman priests who sought to comfort him, "Begone, you and your trumpery; until this moment I believed that there was neither a God nor a hell. Now I know and I feel that there are both, and I am doomed to perdition by the just judgment of the Almighty." youtube.com: The Gift Trap {@ desiringGod } @time: 9 min 41 sec Everybody is going to die unless Jesus comes back first. Might happen when you're 15, might happen when you're 95. But it is going to happen. And when that time comes, everything but Jesus will lose its comforting power. All our possessions, all our accomplishments, all our personal looks and intellect, all our family and friends, all of them will fail as a foundation for hope and joy in our dying. But if you know Jesus personally, the day of of your death will not be a day of just leaving things behind that you're familiar with, but it will be a day of stepping into the presence of the one that we care about most.

If you're keeping Jesus' words, and valuing them and seeking to live by them then you'll be loved by Jehovah God, Abba Father God for loving Jesus:

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)
> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

The following is Scripture and trumps my own thoughts. I affirm these verses wholeheartedly:

> II Corinthians 5:17 - Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

A new creation has faith working through love and keeps Jesus Christ's commandments:

> Galatians 6:15 - For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). (ESV)

We both love/obey (25. agapaó) Jesus and believe/trust (4100. pisteuó) in Him and receive the outcome of our faith, the salvation of our souls. :

> I Peter 1:8-9 - Though you have not seen him, you love (25. agapaó) him. Though you do not now see him, you believe (4100. pisteuó) in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (ESV)

If we choose instead to obey the flesh (the sinful nature) then that would lead to corruption (Gal 6:7-8). If we choose to obey sin instead of obey God then that would lead to death (Romans 6:23) as sin in the flesh has been condemned (Romans 8:1-6). If we choose to obey Christ instead of sin then we will be saved (Hebrews 5:8-9). If we obey the One True God then we'll receive the Holy Spirit (Hebrews 5:8-9). It's much better to have eternal life and nice rewards from God than it is to be overcome by sin, so we should sow to the Spirit (Gal 6:7-8).

And our trusting love is not merely obedient by affectionate:

> John 16:27 - for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved (5368. phileó) me and have believed (4100. pisteuó) that I came from God. (ESV)

Steve Apirana - Born Again - YouTube Lyrics: Got to be born again! Yes, you do. Cause mister, you were born wrong the first time. I know it sounds impossible, but it's an easy thing to do. Just give your heart to Jesus (John 14:15), and let Him take you through.

> Got to be born again, yes, it's true. Cause sister your ”old man” has to pass away. You may be thinking, ”Now, that's a funny thing to say.” But why should you cling to something that's destined to decay?
> For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. But God commended his love in that while we were yet sinners His only son Jesus came and paid the price for us by dying on the cross and giving up his blood.
> Then he went into hell (more accurately ”into hades” (the place of the dead, the 'prison' Ephesians 4:8-10, I Peter 3:17-22, Luke 16:22-31 rather than ”into hell” Rev 20:13-14) and took away the keys from death. Then he rose into heaven where he now sits at the right hand of God the Father (Hebrews 12:1-4). From whence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead, and the doorway to salvation is in the words he said,
>
> ”Got to be born again” Yes, indeed! Just let go of the old (stop loving evil, darkness), and grab hold of the new (love God's word, love the Light, love Jesus. Acts 26:18). And all the sins of the past He will remember no more (Ephesians 1:3-10, Ezekiel 18:21-22). And all the years the locusts have eaten He will restore.
> Got to be born again; Start all over. For the son of the flesh will not inherit but the son of the promise will. (Romans 9:6-8) The son of the promise will. Born of the water, born of the spirit, presented to the Father, without a spot or blemish.

The son of the promise is the one who loves God, who treasures His word and hopes in His promise because the kingdom is promised to those who love God. So we need to walk by love for Jesus Christ and Jesus Christ's word (John 16:25-28):

> James 2:5-8 - Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonored the poor man. Are not the rich the ones who oppress you, and the ones who drag you into court? Are they not the ones who blaspheme the honorable name by which you were called? If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself, you are doing well. (ESV)

> John 14:15 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

Out with the old selfish self and in with the new selflessly loving self:

> Galatians 5:6 - For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. (ESV)

Baptism should result in faith working through/by love; maintaining faith in Jesus, and passing-forward love. This is really what it means to have put on Christ - to have received forgiveness and love from God through faith and then to forgive and love others:

> Galatians 3:25-27 - But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. (ESV)

Out with the old selfish self and in with the new selflessly loving, and obedient to God self:

> I Corinthians 7:19 - For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. (ESV)

There is a change in our lives:

> Ephesians 2:3-7 - among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ by grace you have been saved and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

And eventually His commandments become unburdensome, and we're keeping them, and we have confidence we have come to know Him:

> I John 2:3-4 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, (ESV)

> Hosea 6:6 - For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings. (ESV)

We must live in the spirit the way God does, not for human passions, but for the will of God:

> I Peter 4:1-6 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the spirit the way God does. (ESV)

> Romans 8:1-17 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

Ephesians 2:8-9 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. (ESV)

Why does Jesus's ministry begin by the sea, and why does he first call fishermen to follow him, and why does his ministry resemble the stories of certain Biblical characters? You're about to see how Jesus's Ministry is framed up as a new Exodus and a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation) at the same time. And you're also about to see how Jesus is presented as both a new Moses and a new Joshua.

Jesus is the light of God coming into the darkness and the condition of our dark world to bring the light of God and the life of God. He's initiating a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). At the same time, though, there's water language, there's the Gentiles, there's the darkness present, and I'm going to show you how Jesus is also bringing about a new exodus as the greater Moses.

So for those dwelling in the region and shadow of death on them a light has dawned and Jesus is that light as John's gospel tells us.

So let's just go to Isaiah chapter 9 real quick. This is what Matthew is quoting from.

Isaiah 9:1-2 - But there will be no gloom for her who was in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he has made glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shined. (ESV)

Jesus's ministry is, number one, the light of God descending upon His people in darkness, just like the light of God at creation shines into the darkness to bring life. Number two: the ministry of Jesus is framed up as the salvation of God coming down to rescue his people who are in death and oppression like Israel in the Exodus story. So this is not only a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation) story, this is a new Exodus story. Which both of those are actually connected. So Jesus here is the light of God shining into the darkness of the world to bring God's New Creation to bring new life, and Jesus at the same time is the salvation of God coming down to rescue people who are in a new kind of Egypt, which is the death and the consequence of sin. They're in oppression, they're enslaved, they need rescue. So there's a new Exodus and a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation) that's in its formation and it looks like the kingdom of God coming. And how does that kingdom of God come into the world to bring the light and the life of God? Well it looks like verse 17. From that time Jesus began to preach saying repent (change your mind) for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand or here. And with this preaching and kingdom comes the light and the life that you need as you're in the shadow of death and darkness. So there's this new King and His heavenly kingdom is bringing the light and salvation of God that Humanity needs. You know, just like at the Exodus God heard the cries of his people in oppression and visited them in their affliction. Well now Jesus is the answer of God to humanity's cry in their affliction and in their, you know, slavery to sin.

My thoughts (an analogy) If someone was living in Egypt and was given daily food on the basis that they would bow to an idol once every day, and then by faith they heeded God's call to leave Egypt and go to a promised land of abundance without idolatry, and then in the wilderness they began getting very hungry and it looked like they might run out of food and die in the desert, but by faith they believed that God would supply their needs instead of pining over an idolatrous way of life, then God or someone God had sent (maybe a "good samaritan" bedouin for example) brought them some food and they ate the food then the initial leaving of Egypt or the receiving of the food itself could both be described as that initial step of faith, or having arrived at salvation but the "putting hand to the plough and not looking back" and the actual consumption of the food could be described as the "working out of that salvation" which is a process that continues. And the 'process' of being saved is the salvation.

> I Peter 1:8-9 - Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. (ESV)

> I Cor 1:18,21,27 - For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, it pleased God through the folly of what we preach to save those who believe. But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:1-3 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, (ESV)

God needed to then get the Egypt out of the Israelites, and train them to trust Him, and this removal of idols etc. to come to follow God's commandments is part of the working out of the salvation. We are saved to serve God and we're still being saved as we are getting the Egypt out of us.

> Luke 1:73-75 - the oath that he swore to our father Abraham, to grant us that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all our days. (ESV)

All this is done as we hold our faith in Jesus, believing in His finished work on the cross and His passion. Jesus supports us as we do this.

> I Corinthians 15:2 - and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

As we hold our faith in Jesus Christ's finished work we still continue to obey God and repent from sin and are sanctified into better obedience, better faith, better obedience of faith.

> I Corinthians 10:4-5 - and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. (ESV)

So if someone says that when they first believed in their heart the gospel they were saved, based entirely on Jesus' finished works, this is correct in a way, but Jesus has purchased the salvation which is a process to be worked out, and I just think the fullness of hte gospel has a lot more to it.

We must continue to hold our faith. We are saved to perpetually trust, believe, love and obey God:

> Romans 11:17-23 - But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, although a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing root of the olive tree, do not be arrogant toward the branches. If you are, remember it is not you who support the root, but the root that supports you. Then you will say, Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in. That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. (ESV)

We want to abide in God's love through following Jesus' commandments, and then nothing can separate us from His love. Remember it's nothing in creation (that excludes God Himself because God is not 'created') that can separate us from God's love:

> I Thessalonians 3:8 - For now we live, if you are standing fast in the Lord. (ESV)

> Romans 11:20-23 - That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but stand in awe. For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. (ESV)

> Romans 8:36-39 - As it is written, For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered. No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

> John 15:4-7 - Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me. I am the vine and you are the branches. The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For apart from Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in Me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers. Such branches are gathered up, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you remain in Me and My words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. (engbsb2020eb)

When we believe God's word given through Jesus, we have passed from death to life. We should definitely then listen to Jesus to see what He has actually spoken.

We must be slaves of Christ, not slaves of sin, in order to abide forever in Him:

> John 8:34-36 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)

God help us put sin to death please.

Whoever is believing the words of God which Jesus has spoken has eternal life:

> John 5:24 - Truly truly I say to you that the [one] the word of Me hearing and believing the [One] having sent Me he has life eternal and into judgment not comes but has passed out of - death into - life (Interlinear)

I think John 5:24 reads that the one who is trusting the words spoken through Jesus, trusting God, trusting Jesus is holds/posesses eternal life and has passed/is passing/passes from death into life.

3327. metabain to pass over, withdraw, depart

In trusting Jesus' words - or even His name (onoma) and He is the judge - we do not come into judgement, but change direction, and instead our destiny is life eternal. Jesus is the judge of that. We do not come into judgement:

> John 5:24 - Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. (KJV)

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears (191. akouó) my word (3056. logos) and believes (4100. pisteuó) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed (3327. metabain) from death to life. (ESV)

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn) in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name (onoma) of the only Son of God. (ESV)

An indication that we have passed from death to life and we have the trusting faith that receives eternal life is that we agapé / treasure our family in Christ:

> I John 3:14-20 - We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love (agapōmen) the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. (ESV)

> John 5:17-29 - But Jesus answered them, My Father is working until now, and I am working. This was why the Jews were seeking all the more to kill him, because not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God. So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise. For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing. And greater works than these will he show him, so that you may marvel. For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed from death to life. Truly, truly, I say to you, an hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself. And he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man. Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment. (ESV)

Belief (in the heart) that Jesus is the Son of God leads to:

- experiencing the love of God, and
- overcoming the world, which feels like:
  - God's commandments are not burdensome
    - Having agape for God and family in Christ and even for other people, and
    - not having agape for the world or worldly things
    - we love Jesus and want to be around Him
    - we desire/love to do God's commandments instead of greive to do them

> I John 5:3-5 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)

> Acts 28:27 - For the heart of this people has become dull, And with their ears they scarcely hear, And they have closed their eyes; Otherwise they might see with their eyes, And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart and return, And I would heal them."'

New creation love:

Quote from John Piper Love is the overflow of joy that meets the needs of others.

> II Corinthians 8:1-2 - We want you to know, brothers, about the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia, for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. (ESV)

Quote from John Piper Christ-exalting love for people is the overflow of joy in God or it's not love in a Biblical sense.

Agape love rejoices with the Truth:

> I Corinthians 13:1-8 - If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing. Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears (G4722 stegei; it bears; to cover with silence (endure patiently)) all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. (ESV)

New creation love is emulating Christ's love towards others from a position of a good conscience with God having been obedient to the gospel or it's not love in a Biblical sense.

Feel free to quote me on that. It's continued obedience to God that proceeds from a good conscience with God.

Doing righteousness with a good conscience, one's hope brings joy:

> Proverbs 10:28 - The hope of the righteous brings joy, but the expectation of the wicked will perish. (ESV)

> Job 4:6 - Is not your fear of God your confidence, and the integrity of your ways your hope? (ESV)

> John 15:9-14 - As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

Quote by Mari Mari Emmanuel Until I had a true encounter with Christ, the love of my life, there was never joy within, never joy. When my sins are forgiven, when that beautiful voice, that loving tender kind voice says to me, "I forgive you," then I rejoice. That's why joy is to do with salvation.

Fear of God is not only about having the heart to repent from sin and "beat hand on chest and ask God for mercy", but it is also having a changed heart, endeavoring to please Christ with our actions:

> II Corinthians 5:6-11 - So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God, and I hope it is known also to your conscience. (ESV)

> Isaiah 66:2 - All these things my hand has made, and so all these things came to be, declares the LORD. But this is the one to whom I will look: he who is humble and contrite in spirit and trembles at my word. (ESV)

> Psalms 138:6-8 - For though JEHOVAH is high, yet he looks after the lowly; but the proud, he knows from afar. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will revive me. You will stretch forth your hand against the wrath of my enemies. Your right hand will save me. JEHOVAH will fulfill that which concerns me; your loving kindness, JEHOVAH, endures forever. Do not forsake the works of your own hands. (NHEBJE)

> Psalms 51:1-7 - For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba. Have mercy on me, God, according to your loving kindness. According to the multitude of your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity. Cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions. My sin is constantly before me. Against you, and you only, have I sinned, and done that which is evil in your sight; that you may be proved right when you speak, and justified when you judge. Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity. In sin my mother conceived me. Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts. You teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean. Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow. (NHEBJE)

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

The repentant sinner next to Jesus on the cross knew he deserved his punishment, and he even demonstrated that he had a heart that obeys the gospel (whereas the other person appears to have been disobedient to the gospel to death):

> John 7:17 - If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority.

The unrepentant sinner wanted Jesus to save his present life:

> Luke 23:39 - One of the criminals who were hanged there was hurling abuse at Him, saying, "Are You not the Christ? Save Yourself and us!"

The repentant sinner feared God and put his hope on Jesus Christ, not to save him from the cross, but to save his soul:

> Luke 23:40-43 - But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed are suffering justly, for we are receiving what we deserve for our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong." And he was saying, "Jesus, remember me when You come in Your kingdom!" And He said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you shall be with Me in Paradise."

Was it the same age which Paul was in that we are in, or is it a different one? Anyway, rather than speculating on that, I think the main takeaway from this passage is that we should forsake idols, and abide in Christ's teachings, remaining faithful to Jesus in word and deed. I know I have felt tested on giving up idols and it has felt like the end of an age, and we're to remain faithful to Jesus so not join ourselves to people following false-gods. I think Paul surely refers to the end of all ages, at least from his perspective:

> Matthew 28:19-20 - Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. (ESV)

Hebrews 9:25-26 - Nor was it to offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the holy places every year with blood not his own, for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. (ESV)

I Corinthians 10:1-33 - I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things took place as examples for us, that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play. We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents, nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, but they were written down for our instruction, on whom the end of the ages has come. Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. I speak as to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. Consider the people of Israel: are not those who eat the sacrifices participants in the altar? What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? All things are lawful, but not all things are helpful. All things are lawful, but not all things build up. Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor. Eat whatever is sold in the meat market without raising any question on the ground of conscience. For the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof. If one of the unbelievers invites you to dinner and you are disposed to go, eat whatever is set before you without raising any question on the ground of conscience. But if someone says to you, This has been offered in sacrifice, then do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience— I do not mean your conscience, but his. For why should my liberty be determined by someone else's conscience? If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of that for which I give thanks? So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved. (ESV)

youtube.com: How Much of Christianity Remains a Secret? {@desiringGod} Paul says in the coming ages - that's a lot of Ages, right like they're all coming and they last forever - in the coming ages God will show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness to us in Christ Jesus. In other words since the riches of God's grace are infinite since he's God Paul calls them immeasurable. You can't measure them. You never can get to the end of measuring them, and since we are finite and cannot contain all the infinite riches of God's grace it appears that this is why we will have ages upon ages upon ages of being shown them - eternal life.

So we build our life on the Eternal Rock (the Rock of Ages) Jehovah and we have eternal life throughout the ages:

Isaiah 26:4 - Trust ye in Jehovah for ever, For in Jah Jehovah is a rock of ages, (YLT)

Isaiah 26:4 - Trust in the LORD forever, because GOD the LORD is the Rock eternal. (engbsb2020eb)

God knows how many ages there are and God knows the day Jesus comes for us:

> Isaiah 45:17 - But Israel will be saved by the LORD with an everlasting salvation; you will not be put to shame or humiliated, to ages everlasting. (engbsb2020eb)
> Isaiah 45:17 - Israel hath been saved in Jehovah, A salvation age-during! Ye are not ashamed nor confounded Unto the ages of eternity! (YLT)
> Matthew 24:36 - 'And concerning that day and the hour no one hath known–not even the messengers of the heavens–except my Father only; (YLT)
> Matthew 24:42-44 - Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. (ESV)
> John 3:8 - The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. (ESV)

In all likelihood the eschatology of the tribulation and rapture happens at the end of the age. How many ages are there? I simply do not know. Just the next one? Perhaps. More? Perhaps.

Our Father in Heaven,

thank You, God, for loving us first by paying the price for our sin with Jesus' blood.

Thank You God that we can now love You and our neighbour from a good conscience with You, showing others forgiveness and love as we have received forgiveness and love.

Please God, help us to trust and obey You through trusting and obey Jesus Christ our Lord.

Please God never let us fall away but sanctify us through Your Spirit.

In Jesus Christ's name I ask.

AMEN!!

We should think as Paul did because Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever:

> Hebrews 13:7-9 - Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited those devoted to them. (ESV)

Walk as an imitator of Christ:

> Philippians 3:17-18 - Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. (ESV)

I believe that in I Cor 11:1 Paul is asking those who imitate him to imitate him in imitating Christ. He actually commends his own followers for maintaining the traditions that he handed to them, but makes it clear to them that not only is he himself following Christ, seeking to imitate Christ, but that the head of every man is Christ:

- I Corinthians 10:32-33 - Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1-3 - Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ. Now I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I delivered them to you. But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1 (Interlinear) - Imitators (G3402 Mimētai) of me (G1473 mou) be (G1096 ginesthe) as (G2531 kathōs) I also [am] (G2504 kagō) of Christ (G5547 Christou)

> Romans 14:4-6 - Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand. One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. (ESV)

> Romans 14:14-18 - I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean. For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died. So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil. For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

We must be imitators of Christ Jesus. See what Paul is doing as an example of imitating Christ. We repent from sin, we do what God says, we are accountable to God with His precepts and are doers of His commandments, we forgive others as we've been forgiven and we love others as we've been loved, and we have our minds set on heavenly things and the promises of God. Our eschatological beliefs should not instill fear in us to forsake faith, obedience, love and hope in Jesus:

> Philippians 3:12-21 - Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. Only let us hold true to what we have attained. Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself. (ESV)

3.1 Being born-again of the Spirit

People were being born according to the Spirit for quite some time before Jesus was born of the virgin Mary but it has been restricted to the children of promise i.e. Abraham's descendants through Isaac. They were born of the spirit through promise, but Jesus was not yet glorified, but they would still receive the life-giving glorified spirit of Christ as promised. I think it's also true that the spirit of Christ dwelt in Abraham and his descendants as in Elijah or Isaiah:

> Galatians 4:28-31 - Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

Rather than being born according to the flesh, to be born according to the Spirit happens being born through promise:

> Galatians 4:23 - But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, while the son of the free woman was born through promise. (ESV)

OK, so the Spirit is received through faith (faith like Abraham's) in Jesus Christ to all who believe. The promise was made to Christ. Now we must be found in Christ. Amen:

> Galatians 3:13-16 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. To give a human example, brothers: even with a man-made covenant, no one annuls it or adds to it once it has been ratified. Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring. It does not say, And to offsprings, referring to many, but referring to one, And to your offspring, who is Christ. (ESV)

It's a very big mystery to me that I was born-again of the Spirit on the first day of Nisan, and had a meeting with the Holy Spirit (apparently) at the tail end of Nisan. Well, whatever it was that happened to me happened.

I had confessed Jesus to the spirit, as documented. But I asked, "Are you the Holy Spirit?" They said, "Yes, I'll take a look at you." But that doesn't mean that it was the Holy Spirit.

Interestingly, the 2 April also line up very closely with Ramadan but not quite. Ramadan started in the evening of 1 April 2022, but it was actually the first day of Nisan, which was a Saturday (Shabbat) that I was born-again:

youtube.com: Prophetic Fulfillment of the Biblical Feasts {@livingstrategically} @time: 57 sec In Colossians 2:16-17 Paul says that these feasts are a mere shadow of what is to come but the substance belongs to Christ. Paul is making the point that these biblical feasts are directly linked to the Messiah and to me that makes them worth studying, even though we're not under the law today. The feast can be grouped into two categories, the spring holy days and the Autumn holy days. The spring feasts include Passover, Unleavened bread, First fruits and Pentecost.

The Autumn feasts include the Feast of trumpets the day of atonement and Tabernacles. You may have heard these feasts called by other names, which we'll mention later on. What did these feasts foreshadow? Well this is where things get interesting. The four spring feasts were all specifically fulfilled in the crucifixion, resurrection and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit that we read about in the Gospels in the Book of Acts. But it wasn't enough for God to merely fulfill the prophetic meaning of each feast, He orchestrated events so that each one was fulfilled on the exact day of the feast.

God's word is incredibly precise and accurate.

> Colossians 2:16-17 - Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. These are a shadow of the things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. (ESV)

I just want to say that I don't observe any of these seasons, but it still happened that way. I guess God has liberated me from observing them, among others things, if that makes sense:

> Galatians 4:6-11 - And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba! Father! So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God. Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? You observe days and months and seasons and years! I am afraid I may have labored over you in vain. (ESV)

As for my circumstances with the marriage proposal, I have no idea if she was ever a believer, only that she used to attend my old Baptist church, but she didn't confess (G3670 homologeó) Jesus to me, and I never received a visitation from an angel endorsing it as Joseph received from an angel in a dream regarding taking Mary to be his wife.

> James 5:12 - But above all, my brothers, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your yes be yes and your no be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:36-37 - And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply Yes or No; anything more than this comes from evil. (ESV)

> James 4:13-17 - Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit." Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. You are just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away. Instead, you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we will live and also do this or that." But as it is, you boast in your arrogance; all such boasting is evil. Therefore, to one who knows the right thing to do and does not do it, to him it is sin. (NASB)

See how it says that a person does not sin by taking a wife, even after they are called. But Paul says for those who marry after they are called there will be worldly troubles. And also, Paul points out that the present form of the world is passing away, so after we are called by God, we should really be anticipating the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ:

> I Corinthians 7:24-31 - So, brothers, in whatever condition each was called, there let him remain with God. Now concerning the betrothed, I have no command from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. I think that in view of the present distress it is good for a person to remain as he is. Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. But if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a betrothed woman marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that. This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. (ESV)

And marriage was instituted by God at the dawn of Creation. And anyone who is not God is not permitted to separate a marriage partner. And anyone who defiles the marriage bed would be judged. I would imagine that includes people who defile other people's marriages:

> Hebrews 13:4 - Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:15 - To give a human example, brothers: even with a man-made covenant, no one annuls it or adds to it once it has been ratified. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:4-9 - He answered, Have you not read that he who created them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh? So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate. They said to him, Why then did Moses command one to give a certificate of divorce and to send her away? He said to them, Because of your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery. (ESV)

I think this passage must be given consideration because all scripture is useful for correction and training in righteousness. In my circumstance, I should endeavour to be faithful and obedient to Jesus:

> Genesis 6:1-9 - When man began to multiply on the face of the land and daughters were born to them, the sons of God saw that the daughters of man were attractive. And they took as their wives any they chose. Then the LORD said, My Spirit shall not abide in man forever, for he is flesh: his days shall be 120 years. The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of man and they bore children to them. These were the mighty men who were of old, the men of renown. The LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intention of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And the LORD was sorry that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him to his heart. So the LORD said, I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the land, man and animals and creeping things and birds of the heavens, for I am sorry that I have made them. But Noah found favor in the eyes of the LORD. These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his generation. Noah walked with God. (ESV)

> II Timothy 3:16-17 - All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work. (ESV)

I'm committed to just moving forward and waiting on Jesus to speak to me regarding it or there's no change in my decision to renege on the marriage proposal. I want to be found blameless in this situation, like Noah, and don't want anyone to get hurt.

youtube.com: Does the Bible Say You Can Marry a Non-Christian in 1 Corinthians 7:12-16? {@Apply-GodsWordcomMarkBallenger} @time: 1 min 25 sec

Points from I Cor 7:12-17, I Cor 9:5 and Matthew 1:20-25. These passages:

- are not endorsing divorcing an unbelieving spouse.
- only endorsing divorce if the unbelieving spouse wants to leave the believing spouse.
- endorse taking believing wife.
- show that God can clear up any confusion by speaking to us.
- God assigns a wife.

> I Corinthians 7:12-17 - To the rest I say (I, not the Lord) that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he should not divorce her. If any woman has a husband who is an unbeliever, and he consents to live with her, she should not divorce him. For the unbelieving husband is made holy because of his wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy because of her husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy. But if the unbelieving partner separates, let it be so. In such cases the brother or sister is not enslaved. God has called you to peace. Wife, how do you know whether you will save your husband? Husband, how do you know whether you will save your wife? Only let each person lead the life that the Lord has assigned to him, and to which God has called him. This is my rule in all the churches. (ESV)

This verbiage "take along" does sound like "lead about". So what Paul says he might be written more unambiguously as, "Are we not allowed to take around (bring) with us a wife who is a sister in Christ, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas?" If that's the way it was meant, then that still implicitly does carry with it the idea that they are allowed to have a wife. But the passage doesn't necessarily speak about merely "becoming married" (i.e. the right to 'become married') but does seem to entail that idea too because if someone has the right to bring along or spend time with their wife then that presupposes that a state of marriage is something someone has the right to be in:

> I Corinthians 9:5 - Do we not have the right (G1849 exousian: authority [N-AFS]) to take along (G4013 periagein: to take about [V-PNA], to lead about with oneself) a believing (G79 adelphēn: a sister [N-AFS]. i.e. a sister in Christ) wife, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? (ESV)
> Matthew 1:20-25 - But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins. All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel (which means, God with us). When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him: he took his wife, but knew her not until she had given birth to a son. And he called his name Jesus. (ESV)

I know I'm still waiting for God to help me with this. I need explicit and unambiguous instruction from God which is clearly from the Holy Spirit and not from some other spirit. I've received so much spiritual attack from antichrist spirits right up to today <2025-02-17 Mon>, and so many deceptive dreams and visions etc. and the Bible teaches only to trust spirits which confess (G3670 homologeó) that Jesus Christ has proceeded from God and arrived in the flesh. Anyway, there are Biblical ways of discerning if a message is from God or not, and as of today I still need God's help to deliver me from this situation.

There's no guarantee the vision I had on 6 Aug 2022 depicting her on the beach next to a door was from God. In fact, Jesus wasn't confessed. It's pretty horrific what has happened to me. The marriage proposal was done while I was holding faith in God, and in Jesus, and I think the devil played on that, knowing that God's grace teaches us to renounce ungodliness, that I needed correction, and I was testing in court if I was prepared to agape love God and obey God and also as my first agape love. And I believe that believers must agape love their family in Christ, and we must love with agape love and that this love is testable and in the court situation I wanted to remain faithful to Jesus. And now I need to be healed because I feel like a newborn Christian thrown into the abyss right after being born-again on what I think might be the anniversary of Jesus' death on the cross, and I've subsequently been exposed to the corrupting influence of demons continually assailing my soul and relationships etc. for nearly 3 years.

This happened to Ezekiel but there was a good reason God had for it and Ezekiel seems to have handled it well:

> Ezekiel 24:15-27 - The word of the LORD came to me: Son of man, behold, I am about to take the delight of your eyes away from you at a stroke; yet you shall not mourn or weep, nor shall your tears run down. Sigh, but not aloud; make no mourning for the dead. Bind on your turban, and put your shoes on your feet; do not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died. And on the next morning I did as I was commanded. And the people said to me, Will you not tell us what these things mean for us, that you are acting thus? Then I said to them, The word of the LORD came to me: Say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and the yearning of your soul, and your sons and your daughters whom you left behind shall fall by the sword. And you shall do as I have done; you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. Your turbans shall be on your heads and your shoes on your feet; you shall not mourn or weep, but you shall rot away in your iniquities and groan to one another. Thus shall Ezekiel be to you a sign; according to all that he has done you shall do. When this comes, then you will know that I am the Lord GOD. As for > you, son of man, surely on the day when I take from them their stronghold, their joy and glory, the delight of their eyes and their soul's desire, and also their sons and daughters, on that day a fugitive will come to you to report to you the news. On that day your mouth will be opened to the fugitive, and you shall speak and be no longer mute. So you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD. (ESV)

Believing in the Lord Jesus Christ in the heart is how to get saved:

> Romans 10:6-13 - But the righteousness based on faith says, Do not say in your heart, Who will ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down) or Who will descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess (G3670 homologeó) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes (G4100 pisteuōn, believing) in him will not be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. (ESV)

For those in Christ, we are commanded to agape love others who are in Christ, and that is a must. But for those outside of Christ, who are of the world, we don't unite ourselves to. We do good to all, we love all. But those in Christ we must love with agape love or else we are in darkness. So there is an upwards call to agape love everybody. I think Christians do typically love everyone. We love the sinner, but we hate the sin. And we do good to all but take care of our own who depend on us. And Jesus is our first love:

> Psalms 139:21 - Do I not hate (H6962. quwt, loathe) those who hate you, O LORD? And do I not loathe those who rise up against you? (ESV)

H6962. quwt Definition: To loathe, to be disgusted, to feel a sickening dread. Usage: The Hebrew verb "quwt" conveys a strong sense of aversion or disgust. It is often used to describe a deep emotional response of loathing or abhorrence, typically in the context of a person feeling repulsed by something or someone. This term can also imply a sense of weariness or being fed up with a situation.

He loved us first, and that is why and how we love (knowing we've already received mercy). Christ's love is not simply charity but a) it's passing-forward Christ's love, and b) it's to relieve other's burdens (mercy, not sacrifice):

> I John 4:19 - We love because he first loved us. (ESV)

> Acts 2:45 - And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 2:4 - But I have this against you, that you have left your first love. (NASB)

> I Corinthians 13:7 - Love bears (G4722 stegei; it bears; to cover with silence (endure patiently)) all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

> 1 Timothy 1:5 - The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 13:13 - So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

> John 13:35 - By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (ESV)

> Matthew 10:37 - Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. (ESV)

We are instructed to not agape love the world "possessions", nor take pride in our "possessions":

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 7:28-35 - But if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a betrothed woman marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that. This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord. But the married man is anxious about worldly things, how to please his wife, and his interests are divided. And the unmarried or betrothed woman is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit. But the married woman is anxious about worldly things, how to please her husband. I say this for your own benefit, not to lay any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord. (ESV)

Agape love is defined by God's commandments, rather than by the way in which the world says. God's commandments tell us how we are supposed to love people. They tell us how we are supposed to love God's family. We are supposed to take care of our family in Christ, and provide for them what they need if we are able to. We should be supporting them as they walk in faith. God's commandments tell us how we are supposed to love people who profess to be a Christian brother or sister but who make a practice of committing sin. Loving such people involves discipline which may include putting them out of the assembly. God's commandments also tell us how we are to love unbelievers. We should do good do them God's commandments also tell us how we should love our neighbours. One should love their neighbour as theirself. If one's neighbour is hungry and they need food, and you are going to dinner, then ask them to go to dinner with you, for example.

Love your neighbour as yourself is an interesting command. It's basically saying, do not do wrong to your neighbour, and that is defined how God has defined it. So "loving one's neighbour as oneself" and doing "no wrong to one's neighbour" involves "not lying to them, and not sleeping with one-another's spouses" etc. Just because a person might have their conscience seared to thin it's OK to do evil such as to "commit adultery or commit idolatry etc." it doesn't mean that is now how they love their neighbour as theirself. Loving one's neighbour as oneself is defined on God's terms, not ours. If somebody is an adulterer then they are not loving their neighbour as themself.

> Romans 13:9-10 - The commandments, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. (ESV)

To love your neighbour as yourself means to love your neighbour the way God wants you to love them. Is an idolator that you separate from (II Corinthians 6:1,6:16-18,7:1) still a neighbour? Or in what way/s are they a neigbour? So longer as we are sharing planet earth then they remain neighbours in some sense. If you've come to the knowledge of God through Jesus Christ, then you'd want them also to come around to the knowledge of God. We are supposed to do good to all people. Sure, we are supposed to separate from idolators. We're not supposed to be yoked with people who are walking their way into to hell. But separating from them doesn't mean to murder them in order to get rid of them. We're still supposed to love even evil people in the way that God wants us to.

> II Corinthians 6:1,6:16-18,7:1 - Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God said, I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty. Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

God's commandments also tell us how we should love our enemies. Maybe there is some wicked person who actively tries to do evil things to you (e.g. slander, steal from, destroy your work, etc.). We should do good to such people and pray for them, for example. God's commandments also tell us how we are to love our spouses. It's not accurate to say we should love all people "equally" and in the same way. But we should love all people in the way that God wants us to love them, without showing partially. Showing partiality might be treating people differently because they are of a different race, for example. To show racism would be to show partiality. But to separate from idolators or to show discipline to sinning people who profess to be believers in Jesus, this can be done without showing partiality.

Not showing partiality means that God is a God of fairness and that God shows discretion, sound judgement:

> Acts 10:34-35 - So Peter opened his mouth and said: Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:14-19 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

> John 7:24 - Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment. (ESV)

But we should love all people in the way that God commands us to love them, and imitate God's love and God is a God who certainly does love both unconditionally and conditionally:

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:10 - So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith. (ESV)

> John 13:34 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. (ESV)

> Matthew 5:22,28,32,34-37,39,44-45,27-28,30-31,35,40 - But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, You fool! will be liable to the hell of fire. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery. And whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. But I say to you, Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply Yes or No; anything more than this comes from evil. But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun > rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery. But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell. It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce. or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. (ESV)

> Luke 6:34-36,40 - And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. (ESV)
> I John 3:15 - Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. (ESV)
> I Timothy 2:3-4 - This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. (ESV)

Christians are instructed to not love the world or the things that are in the world. Just because there are aeroplanes and telephones and the internet certainly doesn't mean that we are "all one". The light is not one with the darkness. Christ's kingdom is not one with Satan's kingdom. All in Adam die, but all in Christ shall be made alive, and so redeemed humanity is not one with unredeemed humanity. Father God takes people out of the world and gives them to Jesus.

> John 17:6 - I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world. Yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. (ESV)

The Bible says that God "loved" the world in a very specific way, that He gave His Only-Begotten Son so that who ever has faith in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. These people who have faith in Jesus Christ are no longer of the world. The world is passing away. Christians should agape love their family in Christ, and treasure them, and they should love those who are their family in Christ in a way which is not fitting to love those outside of their family in Christ. That's the truth. Whoever hates their brother does not have eternal life abiding in them. That's how serious it is. But not everyone in the world are brothers. Those in the family in Christ are family and those who are outside of Christ are not family. Whoever loves God must also love their brother.

> Matthew 23:8-11 - But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brothers. And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. Neither be called instructors, for you have one instructor, the Christ. The greatest among you shall be your servant. (ESV)

We want others to come to the truth:

> Acts 26:29 - And Paul said, Whether short or long, I would to God that not only you but also all who hear me this day might become such as I am—except for these chains. (ESV)

I think Mari would be better to have said, "By loving God and keeping His commandments, a person loves their neighbour, which is our duty as Christians." Sure, love everyone, even no-believres, but in the way that Jesus Christ loves them and that includes speaking the truth to them and bearing with them in patience that they will repent. But loving them doesn't mean affirming error or endorsing a sinful way of life:

Quote from Mari Mari Emmanuel So fear nothing, love everyone, but be firm when it comes to speaking the truth. Truth cannot be compromised. … The one who is all love, He was sharper than a sword; When it came to holding the Truth, fighting for the Truth, He stood firm, never gave way, never compromised. Now that is love. If you truly love someone, wouldn't you want them to be living in the Truth? If you truly love the person, you will tell them, "This is right… This is wrong…"

> ... Third one, Pergamos, where the church and the state became united as in the betrothal, matrimonial bond, just like husband and wife become one, the church and state government became one in Pergamos. And that was after the third Century. Heresy came out when Church united to government. Heresy came out. False teachings came out because of this unity. You have to be very careful who to unite to. Church is needs to be united to Christ and Christ only. We pray for the world but we have no part of the world, my beloved. For the world is darkness. The church is the light to this world.

Where church and state are in conflict, Christians must obey God:

> Titus 3:1-2 - Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show perfect courtesy toward all people. (ESV)

> Acts 5:27-29 - And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest questioned them, saying, We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring this man's blood upon us. But Peter and the apostles answered, We must obey God rather than men. (ESV)

If we stick to our convictions to keep a good conscience with God, and act in love:

> I Peter 3:12-16 - For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayer. But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil. Now who is there to harm you if you are zealous for what is good? But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you will be blessed. Have no fear of them, nor be troubled, but in your hearts regard Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, having a good conscience, so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame. (ESV)

> Acts 24:16 - So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man. (ESV)

> Titus 2:7-8 - Show yourself in all respects to be a model of good works, and in your teaching show integrity, dignity, and sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that an opponent may be put to shame, having nothing evil to say about us. (ESV)

Baptism saves as an appeal for a good conscience through the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

> I Peter 3:21 - Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, (ESV)

> Colossians 2:11-12 - In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. (ESV)

Our hearts are circumcised in order for us to love God with all our heart and soul that we may live. So, yes, we must love God and continue to love God after the surgical operation that God does on our hearts in order that we may live:

> Deuteronomy 30:6 - And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your offspring, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 11:19-20 - And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I will put within them. I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, that they may walk in my statutes and keep my rules and obey them. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 18:32 - For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 18:30-32 - Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, declares the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions, lest iniquity be your ruin. Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live. (ESV)

> Colossians 2:11-14 - In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. (ESV)

> I Timothy 2:1-4 - First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. (ESV)

> Romans 13:1-7 - Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore whoever resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is the servant of God, an avenger who carries out God's wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be in subjection, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience. For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are ministers of God, attending to this very thing. Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed. (ESV)

On <2025-01-13 Mon> Monday, I woke up to a voice which said, "What is your faith in?"

I responded like this, "My faith is in the Word of God. Jesus Christ and His finished works is the cornerstone of my faith, and keeping and doing his commandments is the foundation of my faith. I obey Righteousness because I obey Jesus. I believe in the Truth because I believe in Jesus."

I didn't know but it turned out to be the last day of my sentence.

This is so cool what is happening over in the USA. Praise God! I think my heart just softened a bit more towards Trump after seeing the sincerity in his eyes and voice and words and reverence for God, and I'm encouraged by what's happening at the White House these days. Listening to him confess (G3670 homologeó) elementary doctrine of Christ, and seeing his reverence for Father God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and for Jesus' words, and his faith in Jesus' atoning sacrifice and having witnessed that he has heard the cornerstone of the gospel of Jesus and how we are called to love as Jesus did, and seeing him give due reverance for the Lord and Trump still confessing his faith in God through Jesus, I'm convinced the man is a genuine Christian with a sincere faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. After listening to him and hearing what he had to say, and his belief in Jesus' atoning sacrifice, His death and resurrection, it eases so much anxiety I had. It's easy to despair when the world gets so dark because there's not a lot of light in it. Jesus is the light of the world and Christ's disciples are also the light of the world. Gotta keep that light shining.

> Proverbs 29:18 - Where there is no prophetic vision the people cast off restraint, but blessed is he who keeps the law. (ESV)

I believe that God uses imperfect people such as Donald Trump.

> Ecclesiastes 5:8 - If you see in a province the oppression of the poor and the violation of justice and righteousness, do not be amazed at the matter, for the high official is watched by a higher, and there are yet higher ones over them. (ESV)

Before I got born-again of the spirit in 2021, I was neck-deep in AI fiction research and was using OpenAI, but I have turned my back on that stuff now after Jesus made me born-again, and are focusing on genuinely keeping Jesus' commandments, and I don't think pursuing AI fits in with that vision at all.

I don't see anything wrong inherently with "Imaginary Programming", as I'd called it, as I was only using the existing models that were out there to run my prompts. I was designing prompts, and I was trying to be responsible and not use the AI systems to do bad things.

Sure, a person could do evil using prompting, and also the models themselves could be made in an unlawful manner. I think spreading AI fiction everywhere would be very unresponsible.

Imaginary Programming was essentially using LLMs in place of programming tools such as interpreter/compiler/linter so that a person could program the computer more abstractly at the user's conceptual level.

But after getting born-again several things became apparent:

- I needed to drop everything I was doing to focus on Jesus. Being born-again of the spirit, it was right to focus on God and not on the AI stuff. Obviously, I want other people to be saved as well, so I wouldn't want to brush it under the rug/shrug it off
- I needed more humility. I was feeling quite prideful, and sometimes we just have to decrease
  - John 3:28-31 - You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but I have been sent before him. The one who has the bride is the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom's voice. Therefore this joy of mine is now complete. He must increase, but I must decrease. He who comes from above is above all. He who is of the earth belongs to the earth and speaks in an earthly way. He who comes from heaven is above all.
- Not everyone doing the AI research and working on the AI technology was God-fearing, nor law-abiding and pulling out was intuitively the right thing to do in order to be good influencer, I think
- The AI fiction stuff was spreading like cancer
- More moral/ethical issues with how people might use the AI stuff
- How to put it? Feeling like I woke up in Hades and just don't want to be here. I want to be on the side of the God-fearing, God-loving people, rather than with the world
  - Acts 2:40 - And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation. (ESV)
- I began receiving extreme amounts of satanic harassment, and needed to focus on Jesus, faith in and obedience to Jesus, getting to know Jesus. There's simply more important things in this life. Christ is our life
  - Mark 8:35-36 - For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it. For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? (KJV)

It's important to go on faithful to God after getting born-again:

Deuteronomy 32:5-6 - They have dealt corruptly with him; they are no longer his children because they are blemished; they are a crooked and twisted generation. Do you thus repay the LORD, you foolish and senseless people? Is not he your father, who created you, who made you and established you? (ESV)

Deuteronomy 32:18-20 - You were unmindful of the Rock that bore you, and you forgot the God who gave you birth. The LORD saw it and spurned them, because of the provocation of his sons and his daughters. And he said, I will hide my face from them; I will see what their end will be, For they are a perverse generation, children in whom is no faithfulness. (ESV)

Isaiah 1:2 - Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the LORD has spoken: Children have I reared and brought up, but they have rebelled against me. (ESV)

II Peter 2:1 - But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. (ESV)

Ephesians 5:5-8 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (ESV)

Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

I have been receiving overtly satanic dreams and conversations in my sleep. It's disgusting stuff. But the situations I find myself in my waking environment also reflects the satanic oppression.

> John 3:19 - And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. >
> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

I think a better translation for I John 5:17-18 might say that the person born of God (born again of the Spirit) protects themself (i.e. avoids sinning), and the evil does not touch him. It seems to flow on better with verse 19. A way of understanding this might be that the one born of God stops practicing sin and instead practices righteousness and they come out from the power/influence of Satan and turn to the power of God and come into the Kingdom of God. That makes more sense to me because in refraining from committing sin, that doesn't mean that the enemy is not going to try to attack you through evil people, or try to tempt with demonic dreams, etc. But it should mean that a person stops damaging themselves by sinning.

> John 5:6-15 - When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, Do you want to be healed? The sick man answered him, Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, and while I am going another steps down before me. Jesus said to him, Get up, take up your bed, and walk. And at once the man was healed, and he took up his bed and walked. Now that day was the Sabbath. So the Jews said to the man who had been healed, It is the Sabbath, and it is not lawful for you to take up your bed. But he answered them, The man who healed me, that man said to me, Take up your bed, and walk. They asked him, Who is the man who said to you, Take up your bed and walk? Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in the place. Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you. The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him. Interesting the KJV says the same, at least for the 19th verse:

> I John 5:19 - And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. (KJV)

I don't want to be in this world. The spiritual tribulation is unbearable. I want to be repaired, protected from demonic attacks and spoken to. I've faithfully waited for a long time for Holy Spirit to testify to me of Jesus Christ. It's pitch black in this world from my standpoint. If God wants me to will being here for whatever work He wants me to do then He can provide the promised testimony to me, Amen. Otherwise, I don't want to be here. I'm not wanting to be here if God is unwilling to provide this simple testimony which He promised. May Jesus Christ come and get me because I haven't been given the testimony and I don't want to be here without the testimony.

However, pursuing God through relationship with Jesus is my new focus:

We gotta keep the commandments of Christ, have faith in God, have faith in Jesus and love one another as He commanded. There's no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, even for infants in Christ. It's so good to have Christian leadership in the US, and I'm glad that Trump is also fellowshipping and listening to Christians who are strong in their faith, and I'm glad that JD Vance is in office, and also I'm happy that Roman Catholicism is being represented alongside Protestantism. If I was a US citizen then Trump would have my vote. As for the big political and economic turbulence, it's to be expected I, think, for the big changes of policy in the White House and a concerted effort to turn away from ungodliness and back towards promoting faith in God through Jesus Christ. We walk by faith in God, trusting God and not sight! We gotta put God first, we gotta treasure God, love and treasure Jesus before anything or anyone else and build our lives on the rock on the foundation of Christ and His commandments. Can't let our foundations be compromised or the whole thing will rot. Jesus is the Way the Truth and the Life. Praise God.

The Genesis creation story has spiritual significance and seems to be abstract in the way that I was born-again of the Spirit and becoming a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation) in Christ seems abstract as the Genesis creation story seems abstract, but nonetheless true. I am emphasising the spiritual reality of the Genesis story while not discounting at all a literal interpretation of Genesis such as the 7 day account of creation and rest.

- Genesis, creation and rest, 1 set of 7 days (abstract)
- Mosaic law (Deuteronomy, Leviticus), weekly (not abstract - literal)
  - Colossians 2:16-17 - Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. These are a shadow of the things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. (ESV)
- New creation in Christ (abstract)
  - Born-again of the Spirit on 1 Nisan
  - Commandments such as these taken spiritually:
    - I Corinthians 9:8-11 - Do I say these things on human authority? Does not the Law say the same? For it is written in the Law of Moses, You shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain. Is it for oxen that God is concerned? Does he not speak entirely for our sake? It was written for our sake, because the plowman should plow in hope and the thresher thresh in hope of sharing in the crop. If we have sown spiritual things among you, is it too much if we reap material things from you? (ESV)
    - Hebrews 4:8-11 - For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. (ESV)

Commenting on Sam Shamoun's video on the spirtiual circumcision, which is highly relevant I've been watching your videos recently, and they have been very helpful in sharpening my theology.

Would you mind if I share my testimony of being born-again of the Spirit. I though I would because you mentioned the new creation moment at the time of baptism, which is the only thing in this video I do not agree is strictly always the case.

My experience particularly after being born-again of the spirit certainly felt like being baptised into Jesus' death. All things have become new now. I wanted to share this part of my testimony with you because it shows that while a person is sealed with the Holy Spirit when they first trust in Christ, they may be born-of the Spirit (whatever happened to me) when God does it. And that makes sense because Jesus says:

> John 3:8 - The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. (ESV)

I was baptised in 2005 (pretty confident it was, it may have been 2004) into the names Father, Son and Holy Spirit in Vanuatu by some nice people at a little church called Family Worship Center in Port Vila. But I began really seeking the Lord Jesus in 2021, and sought to repent from sin, and keep the 10 commandments from the heart because I lost confidence in my work and in the world and wanted to seek God authentically to give God a go. I'd seen too much hypocrisy with regards to people not loving one another or speaking the truth and being so disillusioned with all the hypocrisy, I earnestly endeavoured to seek God by trying to keep His commandments. I think God was putting faith in my heart and opening my eyes. Really, I was just trying to have real faith in God and be serious about His word and obey Him etc. This is totally in line with what Stephen says in Acts 7:51 - we have to not be resistant in our heart to God:

> Acts 7:51 - You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so do you. (ESV)
> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

I was born-again of the Spirit on the first day of Nisan on 2 April 2022. During the day in the afternoon I took a nap on my bed and woke up to observing my regenerated spirit man. It looked like a body made of blue light/electricity/fire with a dark bit around the bottom right of my rib cage. I'm unsure if that relates to Adam's rib taken or to the spear in Jesus' side. Anyway, in this state I called out to Jesus to save me because I didn't know what was going on, then I returned to observing the world through my physical body. To this day, I feel this spirit/fire/light energising my body/soul, so it's like being born-again with a second body literally.

It feels like the whole universe reproduced like a meiosis, and the Bible has really come alive etc. God put the fear of Him in me so I would not turn from Him.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Crucifixion_of_Jesus According to the Gospel of Mark, he endured the torment of crucifixion from the third hour (between approximately 9 a.m. and noon), until his death at the ninth hour, corresponding to about 3 p.m. Shout out to Larry Sanger: youtube.com: How the Co-Founder of Wikipedia Found Christ {@SeanMcDowell}

For me, from my perspective, it felt as though all my relationships were reset after 2 April 2022. As we are reconciled to God, all things become new.

Indeed I was set free from sin on 2 April 2022 because I was baptised into Christ's death. I am extremely confident that that is what it is.

The flesh, the old self, was crucified. The body of sin will be brought to nothing.

> Romans 8:13 - For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. (ESV)

I was regenerated. I was made a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). Now the body of sin must be brought to nothing, so there is a battle.

Yet I believe that sanctification is ongoing in some sense. The entire time I've been holding my faith in Jesus. Yet whatever happened in an attempt to corrupt me after getting born-again happened to me regardless of the fact that I was keeping my faith, and also trying to hold a good conscience with God. God gave me the fear of Him and a new spirit and then I had to become obedient to the standard of teaching which I'm called to become obedient to.

> Romans 6:6-7 - We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:16-21 - From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh (G4561 sarx). Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh (G4561 sarx), we regard him thus no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

> Romans 8:9 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. (ESV)

Being made new continues:

> II Corinthians 4:16 - So we do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. (ESV)

People were being born according to the Spirit for quite some time before Jesus was born of the virgin Mary but it has been restricted to the children of promise i.e. Abraham's descendants through Isaac. They were born of the spirit through promise, but Jesus was not yet glorified, but they would still receive the life-giving glorified spirit of Christ as promised. I think it's also true that the spirit of Christ dwelt in Abraham and his descendants as in Elijah or Isaiah:

> Galatians 4:28-31 - Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

God washes us (regenerates us) and makes our spirits new. Jesus baptizes us with the Holy Spirit:

> Titus 3:4-7 - But when the goodness and loving kindness (G5363 philanthrōpia; love of mankind) of God our Savior appeared (G2014 epephanē; appeared), he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (ESV)

> Acts 11:16-17 - And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit. If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God's way? (ESV)

> John 13:7-11 - Jesus answered him, What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand. Peter said to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no share with me. Simon Peter said to him, Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head! Jesus said to him, The one who has bathed does not need to wash, except for his feet, but is completely clean. And you are clean, but not every one of you. For he knew who was to betray him; that was why he said, Not all of you are clean. (ESV)

And the Holy Spirit dwells within us:

> II Timothy 1:14 - By the Holy Spirit who dwells within us, guard the good deposit entrusted to you. (ESV)

So God makes us born-again of the spirit through promise. This promise to goes to those who put their faith in Jesus Christ. God sends Jesus' spirit to live in us. So is this one and the same event, being born-again of the spirit and having the spirit of Jesus Christ dwell in us? So I wonder, Isaac being a child of promise, born according to the spirit, did the spirit of Jesus Christ live inside him, or is being born-again of the spirit and receiving the spirit of Jesus Christ two different things?

At this stage, how I would word this is I would say that I have a regenerated spirit, and even with a regenerated spirit, willful disobedience to God is defiling, sin is defiling, so even after being regenerated, it's correct to continue, loving others, especially family in Christ, and forgiving others, and forsaking sinful habits, and being renewed in mind, and endeavour to please God with our thoughts and actions, learning about God's will for us and putting it into practice:

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

And Holy Spirit is the one Who washes us, teaches us, interprets the Scripture for us. Jesus washes us, teaches us reminds us of His words with Holy Spirit as we obey the Truth, as we have faith in Jesus Christ, trusting and obeying Him. And God comes to live in us:

> John 14:23 - Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. (ESV)
> Romans 8:8-11 - Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. (ESV)
> John 16:7 - Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. (ESV)

OK, so God's spirit lives in us and there is some kind of distinction between God's Spirit and our spirit. So that is a little more evidence to me to suggest that being born-again of the Spirit, the regeneration of our spirit may very well easily been going on for

> Romans 8:16-18 - The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. (ESV)
> Proverbs 20:27 - The spirit of man is the lamp of the LORD, searching all his innermost parts. (ESV)

This explanation seems correct:

youtube.com: The difference between being born again and receiving the Holy kSpirit ? {@CWOWI}
Hey everybody, John Fen here, Church of Without Walls International, cwi.org. We are a house church network. We celebrate the gathering of saints in homes as they did in the early church for the first 300 years. And similarly, we take turns hosting, we take turns leading so that a core group of people who uh become used to hosting and leading. And when you outgrow a house, you just multiply out because you have a core group of people who've been used to hosting and leading. So, it's very easy and to to multiply out. And that's what happened in the early church from 120 people on the day of Pentecost to saturating the Roman Empire in under 300 years. Check it out. cowi.org. All right. Today, I'm following up on what happens when you're born again. A lot of people think, you know, I'm born again. I've got the Holy Spirit, right? And there is a lot of uh incorrect teaching out there. And I want to share today what Jesus actually said, what the apostles said, what scripture says, what what was believed in the early church. All right. First off, people point to uh to John chapter 20 and verses 21-22 where Jesus at his resurrection breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit." And so people say, see right there, you know, they believed on him because the core elements are that you must believe that Jesus is the Lord is is God's son. That he was crucified, that he was raised from the dead. Romans 10:es 9 and 10. Believe in your heart and confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, you'll be saved. This was the born again experience. He he gave them the he said breathed on them and and he said receive the Holy Spirit. And people say, "I've got the Holy Spirit." Well, what what what happened then? Jesus does not contradict himself. And so we go to Acts chapter 1 and from verse three on it says that he showed himself alive with many infallible proofs. Acts 1:3 and and he said he showed himself alive for 40 days with many infallible proofs. And he said this to them in in uh verses four and 5. He said, he said, "Wait in the city for the promise from the father, for you will be baptized with the holy spirit not many days from now." And in verse 8, he said, "You will receive power when the holy spirit has come upon you." So Jesus doesn't contradict himself. So, how would he say in John chapter 20 at his resurrection when they believed on him and said receive the Holy Spirit and then turn around 40 days later and say you'll receive power when you get the Holy Spirit when you receive the Holy Spirit and wait for the promise for you'll be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days hence. So Jesus doesn't contradict himself. It is clear that when he said breathed on them and said received the Holy Spirit at his resurrection, that is the born again experience. So in my little illustration here today, this is like the unborn spirit. You may not think of it this way, but people who don't know the Lord are still eternal. They still have eternal life, but they don't have God's eternal life. Okay? We're everybody's in eternity. You belong to one kingdom or the other. The kingdom of darkness or the kingdom of light. So this is so this is a person before they're born again. So Jesus breathed on them and said receive the Holy Spirit and boom, their spirit man was born again. Ephesians 5:'8 says you were before times darkness but now are you light. And so here's their brand new spirit now created by the Holy Spirit. You would say okay this is a glass glass. This is a glass made of glass. Obviously it's glass. It's a person's spirit is recreated by the spirit. They go from their normal human spirit to old things that passed away and now all things have become new. Their new new spirit is is made of the Holy Spirit of the of the uh nature of God recreated by the spirit. You know Jesus told Nicodemus in John chapter 3 he said you must be born again. You must be born of the spirit. And so when the when Jesus was res resurrected from the dead, they believed on him and he said receive the Holy Spirit. Their spirits became brand new. So you receive when you believe you receive the Holy Spirit to the recreation of your spirit. All right? That's what happens. I shared last week how in Luke chapter uh 5 37 38 Jesus said you have to make the the wine skin new before you add the new wine. So here's the new wine skin and here's the new wine which represents the Holy Spirit. And so now the Holy Spirit is in a person. This is what happens when a person receives the baptism with the Holy Spirit. So they have the first encounter with the Holy Spirit which is that they believe and then when they receive the Holy Spirit like Jesus said you'll receive the Holy Spirit and you'll receive power when you're baptized with the Holy Spirit. And so this understanding is what Peter, James, John, Paul, Jude, all of them had. In fact, the whole of the New Testament was written by charismatic Christians, apostles who were charismatic, writing to people who were charismatic. You say, "How do you know that?" Well, for to the Corinthians, 1 Corinthians 12, 13- 14 is all about the gifts of the spirit. In Galatians chapter 3, Paul asks them, he says, "When God does miracles among you, does he do it by the spirit or does he do it by the hearing of the Mosaic law?" In Ephesians chapter 5:es 18, 19, and 20, Paul says, you know, you can be filled with the spirit by singing, making melody in your heart, you know, singing spiritual songs. Jude in verse 20 said, "Build yourself up on your most holy faith, praying in the spirit," praying in tongues, in other words, praying in the Holy Spirit, which was the phrase then. So we have throughout this you've got to realize that people were baptized with the Holy Spirit. We go to to Acts chapter 8 and verses 3-1 17 and it says that Philip went down and preached Christ to to those in Samaria which is the area north of Jerusalem. And it says when they believed they were baptized both men and women and then Peter and John came down > from Jerusalem and it says they laid hands on them that they had received the Holy Spirit. In fact, verse uh 15 says uh says that they had not yet received the Holy Spirit only they believed and were baptized. So that's Acts chapter 8. So what we have here is the fact that that these people were born again when Philip was preaching to them. They were born again. Their spirits were recreated. They went from this to being brand new, born again in Christ. But Peter and John came so that they could receive the Holy Spirit. And that's what happened on the day of Pentecost in Acts chapter 2. They were born again, but on the day of Pentecost, they received the Holy Spirit. All right? So, that's what happens to a person.

3.1.2 Repentance from sin after being born of the Spirit

It's very clear that even after God's spirit comes to dwell within a person, we must not defile ourselves through committing sin. And it's also clear that everyone who hope in Jesus Christ, purifies themselves as He is pure.

It's also clear if we are abiding in Jesus, keeping His commandments, then we will not make a practice of sinning, so we should definitely be abiding in Jesus, keeping His commandments.

To put this concisely, I think that we get born of the spirit and then use the spirit to put sin to death, and when we see Him we will be like Him.

We should definitely avoid committing sin after we are born-again. Rather, we purify ourselves as we hope in Him (we will get to see Jesus as He is):

> I John 3:2-7 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 3:16-17 - Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 6:18-20 - Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. (ESV)

We should be keeping Jesus' commandments to abide in Him and live:

> Luke 10:25-37 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

> Romans 8:1-17 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, Abba! Father! The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

I guess I could take a page from Justin Martyr and the Apostle John. According to Justin Martyr, we need to have come to "know" Jesus, and according to the Apostle John, that means we need to have put a stop to willful sin to have arrived at rest in Him. So we find rest at the end of sanctification, or at some point in that process of sanctification where we stop committing wilful sin. That makes sense to me. I would agree that I am still in need or would desire to have further sanctification. I think it's quite a good thing to want to improve at loving people. That's what I want to do. But now I have confidence that the rest is on the horizon. All who hope in Him purify themselves. And during this sanctification process, we still get to call ourselves children of God:

> I John 3:1-11 - See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

Justin Martyr says, "Wherefore those who follow Him, and know Him, having faith in Him as their proof, shall rest in Him.":

Saint Justin Martyr: Fragments of the Lost Work of Justin on the Resurrection {Roberts-Donaldson}

> And God, the Father of the universe, who is the perfect intelligence, is the truth. And the Word, being His Son, came to us, having put on flesh, revealing both Himself and the Father, giving to us in Himself resurrection from the dead, and eternal life afterwards. And this is Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. He, therefore, is Himself both the faith and the proof of Himself and of all things. Wherefore those who > follow Him, and know Him, having faith in Him as their proof, shall rest in Him. But since the adversary does not cease to resist many, and uses many and divers arts to ensnare them, that he may seduce the faithful from their faith, and that he may prevent the faithless from believing, it seems to me necessary that we also, being armed with the invulnerable doctrines of the faith, do battle against him in behalf of the weak.

As I have repented to be corrected by the Word of God, agreeing with it and endeavoring to obey the Gospel of Jesus Christ, it feels as though I have been rejecting lots and lots of heresies, and rejecting lots and lots of false religion, and I hope that this helps others also to be corrected. I have been trying to be corrected by obedience to the Gospel of Jesus a lot since recording this 'dream' / conversation in my sleep. After actively trying to be obedient to the Truth (obedient to Jesus), corrected and believing the Truth (Jesus and His words, Scripture), I have come to distrust odd spirits which speak to me in my sleep, and I've been harassed by them even to to this day <2025-05-31 Sat>, including an impostor of the Holy Spirit which never confesses the truth about Jesus. But the True Holy Spirit bears witness about Jesus

> John 15:26 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. (ESV)

        - On 7 April 1844 Joseph Smith spoke evil of God when he said (url), "God himself was once as we are now, and is an exalted man, and sits enthroned in yonder heavens! ...for I am going to tell you how God came to be God. We have imagined and supposed that God was God from all eternity. I will refute that idea, and take away the veil, so that you may see. These ideas are incomprehensible to some, but they are simple. It is the first principle of the gospel to know for a certainty the character of God, and to know that we may converse with Him as one man converses with another, and that He was once a man like us; yea, that God himself, the Father of us all, dwelt on an earth, the same as Jesus Christ Himself did; and I will show it from the Bible." and to no surprise to me, Joseph Smith died soon after that on June 27, 1844. I say by no surprise because Joseph Smitch blasphemed God publicly and pridefully. No-one would say that a person is martyred for blasphemy. Sometimes people are struck down by God Himself (Acts 12:21-23), and even Paul instructed for a blasphemer (I Timothy 1:18-20) be handed over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh. It doesn't surprise me that Joseph Smith would have had his time on earth rapidly terminated after preaching some very slanderous, blasphemous lies about God which also appear to come from both haughtiness and error and an unbridled tongue without a Berean mindset, and his words appear to belittle or to explain away God. By comparison, look at Paul's humility (II Corinthians 12:7). I know that God in His love teaches me and has in His mercy pulled me out of heresy myself and has been very gracious to me as He's done that. I know that God sees where I have spoken incorrectly, and where I believe incorrectly. But when I read what Joseph Smitch wrote there, it sounds arrogant and prideful and also to his shame, false.

So, why do you think that the Quran is so adamant about saying that Jesus is not the Son of God and that Allah is not a father to anyone. And even if Muhammad was a descendant of Ishmael, it wouldn't even matter because the covenant was made through Isaac, not Ishmael. People think that something has to be obviously evil to be from Satan, but he's smarter than that. I appreciated Bryce's testimony here as he also had to turn away from false religion to follow Jesus:

So there was a night I was going to take my life - it was on Christmas of 2020 - and I went to go have my last meal and I had a supernatural encounter with Jesus - not religion - Jesus Christ I had a supernatural encounter with. Right before, a few months before, I had actually looked into all these other religions cuz like you said, you were like, "Oh, any sort of faith provides good structure and that's what I had heard all my life. So I was like, "Man, if I just believe in something, maybe it will get me out of this depression pit." So I was looking at Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism, New Age, like everything on the planet. And when I was looking at these things, like in Islam, for example, you have like the five pillars of Islam, basically. You got to pray five times a day, give alms to the poor, and the goal is to be a good person. When you die, Allah is > going to weigh your good and your bad, and if you did more good than bad you're good but if you did more bad than good, not good.

> And then I was like, "Well, it doesn't say how much is enough, so how do I know if by the time I'm dead if I did enough? And then, you know, Buddhism and Hinduism, they've got thousands of gods and you're trying to get enlightened and not get bad karma cuz then you might get reincarnated into something bad. And so I was like looking at all these religions and I felt hopeless because I thought, "I have a hole in my heart. And if I'm a broken human being - you know how wicked this world is - and [with] a broken heart - I couldn't even heal the broken heart with the broken world." So I was like, "If I live in a broken world with a broken heart how could I ever work to perfection?"
> It seemed impossible, and I knew I couldn't do it, so I was ready to take my life that night in Waffle House and I had this Supernatural Encounter With Jesus. I realized, man, I'm not following religion. I mean, yes, like Christianity is like a labeled religion but I'm not following structured religion, I'm following Jesus. I'm putting my faith and trust in him.

Apostle Paul exhorts us to pursue the knowledge of Christ Jesus as Paul also does:

> Philippians 3:7-17 - But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. Only let us hold true to what we have attained. Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. (ESV)

G3671 homologia Definition: Confession, profession, acknowledgment

> Hebrews 10:23-25 - Let us hold fast the confession (G3671 homologia) of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. (ESV)

With all respect to Stan, and I agree with Him in that we need to put our faith in Jesus first and foremost and not mere man, I also think we must obey Jesus first and foremost and not mere man. God made me born of His Spirit completely outside the Roman Catholic church, and I have a relationship with Father God, mediated by Jesus Christ. I'm not totally against religion but relationship with Jesus comes first. We need direct relationship with Christ.

We need to be doing Father God's will from a faithful and obedient heart. Also, I think that Jesus' ongoing work does save and His ongoing work is based on His prior work.

> II John 1:8-9 - Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)

We must become obedient to the will of Father God in heaven. We are saved to serve God, amen.

I still think that we can experience the Kingdom of God on earth, doing God's will, but the kingdom of heaven is not an earthly kingdom. It's a spiritual kingdom, and those who are in it are servants of Christ. And I believe that heaven is a separate place to earth.

For what can a man give in return for his life? For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him will the Son of Man also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. At 1 min 15 seconds:

web.sermonaudio.com: BAR-2014-03 - Life of Paul - Part 3 (At 1 min 15 seconds): Matthew 7:21 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

By the way, some people say, well, the Kingdom of Heaven, that's for the Jews. But what's interesting is Jesus uses those terms, and so does Daniel and others, synonymously. Kingdom of God / Kingdom of Heaven is talking about where we're all wanting to go. It's not talking about living in a perfect, you know, Earth for the Jews someday, somewhere, or something.

So it's not those who say the right words, Lord, Lord, that will enter the Kingdom of Heaven. But, Jesus said in verse 21, ""he who does the will of my father in heaven". Jesus said salvation is when you come to the point that you want to do the will of another. Do you know what a slave is? We have all this history in America of the tragic slave trade and everything that went on and all that's happened in our culture since then. Do you know what a slave is? A person that does the will of another. They have to do what someone else wants them to do. They're a slave. Do you know what God says the inhabitants of heaven will be? Bond slaves of God. That's the only people that are going to heaven. that have, by God's grace, done what... Jesus, by the way, is the one... He's the door of heaven. If anybody can talk about who's coming through the door... I mean, more than Paul and Peter and everybody else. But they, by the way, all say the same thing. Praise the Lord. But Jesus, the door, says, it's not you saying the right words, but it's whether or not you do the will of my Father in heaven.

Those are the four worst words anybody will ever hear in eternity. But it gets from there downhill, depart from me, you, who practice lawlessness. And that leads to a theological phrase that some have used, that if you've never been saved from sin, you've never been saved from hell.

Jesus said salvation is a breaking of the pattern of practicing, verse 23, lawlessness. See, for a believer, we're not sinless. We sin. We we are so far short of the glory of God, God says even the ploughing of the wicked is sin to Him. I mean you can't even plough in a righteous way without His grace and mercy and his marvelous work. But, in a believer the hold, the power, the overwhelming desire for sin is broken. The connection. The non-stop pipeline of sin is severed. Now it dribbles out. You ever seen, you know, like a pipeline spill? You know, or what happened in LA, the water line breaks, and it's broken, but the Lord doesn't say we're sinless, but he says we do not practice. It's not our heart's desire to be lawless. We want to submit to him.

...

What is it we're supposed to do to be saved? And look what Peter says. And Peter said to them, repent and let every one of you be baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ for the remission of sins and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. Salvation is, first of all, coming to Christ away from religion.

> There are a lot of people that you ask them when they got saved and they said, I joined the church in, or I went forward in, and it's always I did something. And I always listen to that and I say, yep, I did something too. I called the name of the Lord. But it's Christ that saved me. I didn't do anything. All I did is respond and He transformed me. There has to be a human response. What must I do? Believe. What must I do? Repent. What must I do? Call. So I must do something. But the saving is done by God, not by me.

> They think that you have to straighten out your life to get saved. That's not ever what the Bible says. Do you know what the Bible says? I'll put it in common terms. You catch the fish, then you clean them. Do you think about that? People get caught by the Lord, then he cleans them. You don't get cleaned up to come to the Lord. You come to the Lord dirty, hopelessly, helplessly lost.

> Acts 16:30-34 - Then he brought them out and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household. And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds; and he was baptized at once, he and all his family. Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God. (ESV)

We must have faith in Jesus to be justified by faith. I believe the finished work of Christ is enough, but that God is still working, His grace extending through faithful obedience to Jesus, Jesus grace reaches more people:

> II Corinthians 4:11-15 - For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you. Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, I believed, and so I spoke, we also believe, and so we also speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence. For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God. (ESV)

I affirm that the only way is through Jesus. But I don't believe in subtracting Jesus' teachings or His ongoing work from Jesus when we talk about Him or refer to having faith in Him. Nevertheless, without the work of Christ in His passion, death and resurrection, there'd be no reconciliation to Father God.

> Ecclesiastes 3:14 - I perceived that whatever God does endures forever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it. God has done it, so that people fear before him. (ESV)

Nevertheless, I think Stan has valid concerns here but just want to make out that this is not a call to disobedience to Jesus, but we are saved by grace through faith and become obedient to Christ. We want relationship with God through Jesus Christ, through faith in Him and in His Word, in obedience to Christ and His teachings.

G3671 homologia Definition: Confession, profession, acknowledgment

> Hebrews 10:23-25 - Let us hold fast the confession (G3671 homologia) of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. Quote from Mari Mari Emmanuel Buddhist monks, you ask, why are you leaving the world and living in absolute isolation? They'll tell you we are trying frantically to achieve what one thing. To kill the human desire, because when we are able to kill the human desire we are in control.

Why do you become enslaved to something? Because of your desire if you did not desire this thing you wouldn't have been so weak when you faced it. True.

When you desire money money becomes your God you start worshiping money when you desire fame fame becomes your God.

But they have failed to realize this truth: They can never kill desire. You know why? Because the one who put desire in the human being is God and what God gives no one can take away. God put desire in us so we can desire Him in order to worship Him. Without desire, there is no worship.

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

In my view it doesn't seem as though the Roman Catholic church are not Christians, as some people say, but know very little about Roman Catholicism. Their doctrine is different from the Reformists, but they are judged by the doctrine they affirm, and by Jesus Christ's words.

> Matthew 12:36-37 - I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned. (ESV)

I found it fascinating and encouraging today (Pentecost Sunday) to hear this testimony of an encounter with God from Joelle Maryn who is a Roman Catholic:

youtube.com: Joelle Maryn's Catholic Awakening {@KeithNester} @time: 16 min 21 sec Someone who I loved very much just said to me bad things about the Catholic church, and I didn't have a strong catechesis or education, you know, I knew, OK, Jesus loves you. But they were like, oh, it's so political, it's all about power. I didn't have an answer. They made me feel really bad about the faith and like there was something bad and wrong with it and like as if I was deceived, and I just apologised, and just kinda fell away and bought the lie. So you had this moment where you, like, OK, well maybe the Catholic church is wrong. Did you think about becoming a different kind of Christian, or like becoming a protestant or something or did you just say, that's just God, I'm just done with this. Yeah, I mean I still sometimes would like go to Times Square. There'd be like a non-demoninational Christian church, but I don't know what denomination it was. Yeah, I mean there was like no crucifix anywhere, no image (picture) of God and you know, but I have a lot of friends who are like Protestant too, so I know that the Holy Spirit's in other churches but I just didn't understand the beauty of our faith and the sacraments. How long did that last? About 12 years.

youtube.com: Joelle Maryn's Catholic Awakening {@KeithNester} @time: 24 min 41 sec Like I said, I hit a spiritual rock-bottom and there was nowhere to go but up. Well the illumination of conscience, first of all, Scriptures tells us that we're all going to have to make an account for what we did or didn't do in this life and we are judged on love. It's in the catechism, it's in the Bible. We're told that we get this at our > death and at the second-coming of Jesus if we're here at that time, so we're all going to get this, and that's why you've probably heard of a lot of people having it like on an operating table, this near-death experience, but I was wide-awake. So this was kind-of a supernatural, mystical experience I was not expecting, and I believe, I'd spoken to some other people that've had it happen and it's shown in different ways to everybody, so I think according to your personality or how God wants to show you your soul, but for me it was shown in columns. I was shown immediately, like a left column, and my left column had all my sins in it, so my life flashed before my eyes. I saw all of my sins. I didn't even know that I was in sin. So this was shocking because I thought I had a 'free' ticket to heaven. Here I'm thinking that I'm a great person, and I'm literally watching in the light of God in His presence, not seeing him but like an illumination of my soul, that I know.

We've got to make a distinction between thoughts the enemy puts in a person's head (Satan also tried to tempt Jesus, and there was a messenger from Satan going to Paul) and God's voice:

> Romans 2:13-16 - For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law who will be justified. For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 11:32 - But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 4:5 - Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God. (ESV)

In confessing sin as sin, the law is in our heart.

If it's in our heart then it has to be a love for the truth. So when we confess sin as sin, we agape-love, treasure the truth.

I would never confess, for example, that gay-marriage is good and that marriage proposal to someone who is of elligable age is evil in an of itself. We have to agree with and agape love the truth so that we can be sanctified by the truth.

So long as I hate sin, (and I do hate sin) and agree with God, even if I still "have" sin (I John 1:6-10), I think I'm still in a position of blamelessness.

This blamelessness involes approving of what is right/excellent. So if we still have issues, but confess our sin, and we know what is right, and know we still need God's grace and are still holding to our confession of faith in Jesus (and I am still holding to it), and haven't turned away from Jesus, I think we might still be in a position of blamelessness. I think it's looks like a transformed life, transformed into Christ's love, keep His commandments, and agreeing with God and walking in the light, walking in the love of the truth, and as we do that the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin. So there's justification first which is the breastplate of faith and love, loving the truth, and there is sanctification which is being cleaned up:

> Philippians 1:9-11 - And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. (ESV)
> Philippians 1:9-11 - And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. (KJV)

Journal <2025-08-09 Sat> I don't know what has been attacking my soul trying to tempt and arouse me, and fill my mind with adulterous, sexually immoral, lying antichrist dreams and visions, but I ask God that He would destroy it so that it doesn't affect me anymore. If God needs to send it to hell forever in order that the defilement no longer affects me, that's OK.

We should walk in an agape love of the truth, and the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin. So we confess sin as sin, and confess when we have done sin, love God's precepts, and we hate sin and we love one another and love Jesus Christ, and the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin (we are sanctified). Our consciences are purified to serve God:

> I John 1:6-10 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. (ESV)
> Proverbs 28:13 - Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy. (ESV)

The wrath of God still comes on people who are not repentant from sin, who do not turn from their wickedness and don't have the fear of God, who don't have true faith God, who don't have the fear of God and a love for the truth, but who still love their sin. People born-again of Spirit absolutely must be repentant, and not be suppressing the truth of God, and must agape love the truth, and agape love the children of God:

> Romans 1:17-18 - For the gospel reveals the righteousness of God that comes by faith from start to finish, just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith." The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness. (engbsb2020eb)
> Hebrews 10:38 - but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. (ESV)
> Revelation of John 21:8 - But as for the cowardly (G1169 deilós), the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death. (ESV)
> Ezra 8:22 - For I was ashamed to ask the king for a band of soldiers and horsemen to protect us against the enemy on our way, since we had told the king, The hand of our God is for good on all who seek him, and the power of his wrath is against all who forsake him. (ESV)
> Isaiah 65:11-12 - But you who forsake the LORD, who forget my holy mountain, who set a table for Fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny, I will destine you to the sword, and all of you shall bow down to the slaughter, because, when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen, but you did what was evil in my eyes and chose what I did not delight in. (ESV)

We must be those who continue to have faith in Jesus Christ, who continue to be obedient to Jesus Christ:

> I Timothy 1:8-9 - Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, (ESV)

If we confess sin as sin, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. And in confessing our sin to one another, we who are in Christ have our souls sanctified. So continuing on in Christ, we are still walking in the truth, in the light, in the love of the truth.

> Hebrews 8:10-13 - For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws into their minds, and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall not teach, each one his neighbor and each one his brother, saying, Know the Lord, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest. For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more. In speaking of a new covenant, he makes the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

> Proverbs 20:27 - The spirit of man is the lamp of the LORD, searching all his innermost parts. (ESV)

We must not only confess sin but forsake it, as in, not continue committing it. Jesus' blood washes our sins away, grants a clean conscience and takes the power of it away which helps us to not sin anymore. And we need to not go back to committing it again:

> Proverbs 28:13 - Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy. (ESV)

I love doing good works, etc., love striving to be obedient to Jesus in all things commanded of me. I love living in faith in Jesus Christ with the fear of God, living as though He exists, knowing God's wrath will come upon the wicked, and instead choosing to live with a clean conscience seeking to serve Jesus. That's what I believe a purified conscience looks like:

> Hebrews 9:13-14 - For if the sprinkling of defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a heifer sanctifies for the purification of the flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. (ESV)
> Titus 1:13-16 - This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, not devoting themselves to Jewish myths and the commands of people who turn away from the truth. To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)
> Titus 2:1-8 - But as for you, teach what accords with sound doctrine. Older men are to be sober-minded, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, and in steadfastness. Older women likewise are to be reverent in behavior, not slanderers or slaves to much wine. They are to teach what is good, and so train the young women to love their husbands and children, to be self-controlled, pure, working at home, kind, and submissive to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be reviled. Likewise, urge the younger men to be self-controlled. Show yourself in all respects to be a model of good works, and in your teaching show integrity, dignity, and sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that an opponent may be put to shame, having nothing evil to say about us. (ESV)

It's true that we have to agape love God and our family in Christ. But we know that He loved us first:

> I John 4:10 - In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. (ESV)

I also have Catholic friends that are not going to heaven.I have Orthodox friends that aren't going to heaven. It's not about which way the tree blows in the wind, it's if it bears fruit or not. Okay? So what is the fruit? A lot of these denominations have secondary issues that they disagree on and that's why they're denominations, but is it a Bible believing church? Do they preach that Jesus Christ is Lord, that He lived a sinless life, he was born of a virgin, he died on the cross and resurrected on the third day? I think there's crucial things that are very crucial to the doctrine of Christianity that we say, man if this church is missing one of these things, that's a no-o for me. But if this church I maybe some secondary issues that don't matter about salvation but man do they really preach the core principles that are true.

So sometimes people believe different things about secondary issues, whatever. But if the core beliefs of Christianity (Triune God, Jesus Christ is both man, 100% man 100% God, He live a sinless life, died on the cross, resurrected, we can have salvation in Him, we're saved by grace through faith. All these basic things if that church preaches it, praise God.

I agree with @CatholicTruthOfficial here:

youtube.com: Catholics Serving Jesus without Jesus {@CatholicTruthOfficial} We first need to have a relationship with Christ and it changes us from the inside out. From there we know who we are, we know our identity, we know what he wants, we know our calling, and then we go out and serve in the way that he wants us to, not the other way around. We don't just start serving. Many people serve but they don't have a relationship with Christ. How can you serve Christ if you don't have a relationship with him? So the relationship comes first then the identity and who we are and then serving him in love.

But also I agree with John Piper here:

In providing what I hope is constructive 'criticism' here I'm not really trying to criticise but rather trying to be corrected by the Word and strengthen my brothers/family in Christ:

Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

We should take ear to Christ's commandments, and we should not suppress discussion of and obedience to Christ's words and commandments:

Proverbs 28:9 - If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination. (ESV)

I have certainly needed correction, and Holy Spirit to help me:

> Because the two times that Paul uses the term predestination in chapter 8 (Romans 8) and in Ephesians 1 are both about God predestining people to become conformed in the image of his Son and predestining people to become holy and blameless, which is exactly the same thing, it's synonymous. Becoming holy and blameless is the same as being conformed to the image of his Son. It doesn't say he's conforming he's predestining certain people to become believers, it says predestined believers to become like Jesus. He's predestined believers, those who are in Christ, to become holy and blameless.
> Hebrews 2:11-12 - For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, saying, I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise. (ESV)
> Romans 8:29-30 - For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. >
> Ephesians 1:3-10 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love he predestined us for adoption through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, which he lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his purpose, which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. (ESV)

I do indeed believe that we are allowed to read the Word of God for ourselves, and have our own relationship with Jesus, where we are trusting His word and acting out of obedience to it.

And I believe that is part of God's gift to us, to be able to be in a relationship where we believe in something God has said, and then act on that basis - there should be unity between believers, but we're going to have our own individual journeys and personal relationship with God.

So I would say that the common foundation between Protestants and Catholics is faith in Jesus Christ Himself, including faith in Jesus Christ's words, and Jesus has purchased the redemption, and God justifies the one who puts their faith in Jesus, and it's God who tests the heart.

I was watching this video yesterday on <2025-05-01 Thu> about an artwork, en.wikipedia.org: The An

> One of the loot strings appears broken and curled, and one of the flutes is missing from the case. These instruments are typically symbols of harmony, but in this context, Holine conveys the opposite, the loss of harmony during the ecclesiastical crisis of the reformation. Below that we come across a coral book, specifically a Lutheran hymnal written in German. This hymnal was also real, but in the original the two pages shown in the painting are not placed consecutively. Holine deliberately chose and arranged them this way. The left page features Martin Luther's hymn, 'Come Holy Spirit', while the right page displays the shortened version of the Ten Commandments also by Luther. This can be interpreted as a plea for reconciliation, but it could also reflect Georges's desire to heal the religious divide, highlighting the idea that the Ten Commandments were something that united both Catholics and Protestants.

We should certainly be allowed to have faith in Jesus' words:

Saint Justin Martyr: Fragments of the Lost Work of Justin on the Resurrection {Roberts-Donaldson}

> The word of truth is free, and carries its own authority, disdaining to fall under any skilful argument, or to e

> But it would be believed for its own nobility, and for the confidence due to Him who sends it. Now the word of truth is sent from God; wherefore the freedom claimed by the truth is not arrogant. For being sent with authority, it were not fit that it should be required to produce proof of what is said; since neither is there any proof beyond itself, which is God. For every proof is more powerful and trustworthy than that which it proves; since what is disbelieved, until proof is produced, gets credit when such proof is produced, and is recognised as being what it was stated to be. But nothing is either more powerful or more trustworthy than the truth; so that he who requires proof of this is like one who wishes it demonstrated why the things that appear to the senses do appear. For the test of those things which are received through the reason, is sense; but of sense itself there is no test beyond itself. As then we bring those things which reason hunts after, to sense, and by it judge what kind of things they are, whether the things spoken be true or false, and then sit in judgment no longer, giving full credit to its decision; so also we refer all that is said regarding men and the world to the truth, and by it judge whether it be worthless or no. But the utterances of truth we judge by no separate test, giving full credit to itself.

So, for example, a Protestant may simply lean very heavily on their understanding of this verse, and that would be their faith. That's fine. At the end of the day, I'm also trusting on Jesus Himself and His finished work to deliver me from death and receive eternal life or that He has already delivered me from death and I've already received and receiving and awaiting eternal life (because I've been baptised into His death):

> John 5:24 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life. (ESV)

There's many other things which Jesus has taught though. Jesus didn't drive his points home to inflict harm. Rather, He left words that we need to come into agreement with, trust and obey to be saved:

> John 12:46-48 - I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. If anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)

For that reason, I would have more confidence before God if I was serving Him endeavouring to be pleasing to God through serving Jesus with a sincere faith, turning away from sin, renouncing ungodliness , loving the brethren, and trying to be holy and selfless and loving in faith towards Jesus, than if like a lawyer looking for a loophole I put confidence on doctrine but had no changed life / love for Jesus.

> I John 2:24-28 - Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you too will abide in the Son and in the Father. And this is the promise that he made to us—eternal life. I write these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you. But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything—and is true and is no lie, just as it has taught you—abide in him. And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. (ESV)

youtube.com: The Strongest Case for Protestantism | @TruthUnites {@GospelSimplicity} @time: 5 min

> I actually think it's been a Protestant influence in many ways that has caused us to think with less institutional restriction when we think about the church. And that's actually what I see as one of the great things about protestantism, and why it can function as a renewal effort within the entire church, even if it's not functioning technically in this church over here or that church over there because we do not restrict the church to one institution. And that I think that is actually the key difference between protestantism as such and the major non-protestant options ([eg.] Roman Catholicism, Eastern Orthodoxy) is this lack of institional exclusivism. ...
> When I make that point the concern is, so what are you advocating for universalism? Not at all. There are boundaries to the church. We are exclusivists as Protestants. We think the church is 'here' and not 'there' - there's boundaries. But, we're not restricting it to one single institution with a visible hierarchy and so forth. It's a way of saying the people who aren't technically connected to me in my tribe or in my group or in my church are still fully Christian with their own valid church. And we lament the schism but we recognize it as a schism in the church, not a schism from the church, one direction or the other. That's a very Protestant instinct. It's kind of deep rooted in Protestant ways of thinking. I see it as a very good thing, simply because to be able to recognize the body of Christ where it is, is such a good thing. And you know in the book I talk about Mark 9 a lot where the disciples are threatened by this other exorcist who's casting out demons in Jesus's name, and John actually tries to stop him. And Jesus says, "Don't stop him. Whoever is not against us is for us." And it's challenging that sort of sense of um, maybe, a humanly constructed boundary that actually doesn't reflect where the kingdom of God lies. So I'm not applying that passage to all these questions right now, but it's trying to capture something of the Protestant ethos and instinct in terms of catholicity which is what I talk about a lot in the early parts of the book.

Mark 9 is one passage there's others. the ones I really go to a lot are Matthew 7 and Matthew 12 and the commandment from Christ himself to measure the tree by its fruit. That's with respect to prophets in Matthew 7 and with respect to an exorcism in Matthew 12. There's the doctrinal test of I Corinthians 12:3.

I Corinthians 12:3 - Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking in the Spirit of God ever says Jesus is accursed! and no one can say Jesus is Lord except in the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

So you've got this sense of, you know, you realize Paul is trying to give us a criterion here, and he expects us to use that.

It is actually commanded by the New Testament to measure by spiritual fruit. And, again I can bring a clarification there, maybe, spiritual fruit doesn't mean general good vibes. Uh this means what the Holy Spirit works in connection to the work of Christ.

...

So yeah it's not feelgoodism, it's a desire to be obedient to Jesus. I think, actually, when we obey Jesus is in response to those passages seeing the work of Jesus and acknowledging it as such.

...

The nub of the disagreement is the institutional exclusivism. Is the church a singular institution? And that's just a nub of disagreement where I think the Protestant side actually has a lot of argumentation for it. I think it's actually more coherent.

...

I think a Protestant way of thinking is more consistent because you're able to just say, no you don't have true Christians outside a visible Church. You just recognize the visible church has some fractures, but the church coheres within multiple institutions, and we try to heal those fractures, but we're recognizing there fractures within the one true visible Church.

Matthew 23:8 - But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brothers.
(ESV)

youtube.com: The Strongest Case for Protestantism | @TruthUnites {@GospelSimplicity} @time: 18 mi

The whole church is not restricted to one institution, it coheres within multiple institutions. It's visible. We're not denying a visible church. It's visible and invisible. We have that distinction, but we're not saying it's only invisible. There's a visible church but she's got these rends and fractures through her. I just feel that's a very compelling way to look based upon the principle of examining spiritual fruit. I see genuine exorcisms from Catholic exorcists and from Pentecostal exorcists. I think the demons hate us both. I think we're both casting back the demons, and I think a Protestant can say, yeah, you know because 1 Corinthians 12:3. That Catholic, that Pentecostal both affirm the Lordship of Jesus in the sense that Paul affirmed. They have the shell of Orthodoxy. But that's not to minimize our differences. But, uh, you know exorcisms are one example. We could give other examples of where you see that fruit.

Now I had gone into court willingly after being born-again as I held my faith in Jesus and submitted to the authorities, but not perfect. After breaking bail to get baptised and bring everything into the light, obeying God and not man (See this video), the whole thing felt outside of my control (extremely graceless), and I was under clear impression especially later in 2022 that I was battling an antichrist spirit pressuring me into several things:

- Justification by works in a way that denies justification by faith in Jesus' blood (i.e. justification by works outside of Christ) when I had already received the Spirit earlier that year and had faith in the blood of Jesus and had believed my sins had been forgiven:
  - Galatians 3:3 - Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh? (ESV)
  - Philippians 3:9 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith — (ESV)
- Tempting me to out of faith with Jesus, by making me fearful of jail
  - Hebrews 12:16 - that no one is sexually immoral or unholy like Esau, who sold his birthright for a single meal. (ESV)
  - I John 4:18 - There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. (ESV)
- Pressuring me to not pass forward the love of Christ
  - Matthew 6:14-15 - For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. (ESV)
  - Colossians 3:13 - bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. (ESV)
- Pressuring me to affirm all my error instead of embracing sanctification:
  - I Peter 1:2 - according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and for sprinkling with his blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you. (ESV)

As interesting as the parallels or similarities are with my own testimony, I think this Mormon doctrine shows interesting parallels or similarities with my own testimony but I cannot affirm everything, nor their extra books, and I am not a Mormon :: thechurchnews.com: Isaac: Child of the promise and heir of the promises - Church News (Mormonism)

I don't need to prove myself to men, as God sees the heart, but I have my relationship with God:

- I Chronicles 29:17 - I know, my God, that you test the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. In the uprightness of my heart I have freely offered all these things, and now I have seen your people, who are present here, offering freely and joyously to you. (ESV)

So through obedience to the gospel, I came into the light, I pleaded guilty, I made testimony of Jesus, etc. "whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." This is Biblical gospel teaching, that through faith in Jesus we may be saved, and I disagree with the Mormans' interpretation.

- John 3:21 - But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his deeds have been carried out in God. (ESV)

- Matthew 16:25 - For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. (ESV)

It's really interesting what has happened regarding my testimony of getting born-again, my blog writings of 2022 and of course, court and how it relates to Isaiah 1:12-17. I think the take-away from this is that we should cease to do evil and learn to do good. It is odd that although I do not observe new moons or religious 'feasts', whatever has happened has happened. I think everyone involved should repent before God going forward:

> Isaiah 1:12-17 - When you come to appear before me, who has required of you this trampling of my courts? Bring no more vain offerings; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and Sabbath and the calling of convocations— I cannot endure iniquity and solemn assembly. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hates; they have become a burden to me; I am weary of bearing them. When you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood. Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your deeds from before my eyes; cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression; bring justice to the fatherless, plead the widow's cause. (ESV)
> John 9:31 - We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him. (ESV)

I also do not affirm the LDS doctrine here. I see the LDS stuff here as heretical, and I do not consider their extra books to be Scripture.:

- en.wikipedia.org: Melchizedek priesthood {Latter Day Saints} - Wikipedia

  > Hebrews 5:1-6 - For every high priest chosen from among men is appointed to act on behalf of men in relation to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He can deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is beset with weakness. Because of this he is obligated to offer sacrifice for his own sins just as he does for those of the people. And no one takes this honor for himself, but only when called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not exalt himself to be made a high priest, but was appointed by him who said to him, You are my Son, today I have begotten you; as he says also in another place, You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

I've been attending Bible studies and allowing myself to be corrected and renewed in mind by the Truth which is the Word of God:

> John 17:17 - Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. (ESV)

And I think that the spirits which I attacked me tried to bundle in my desire to marry the girl I had met with false religion.

I affirm that I wanted to marry her when I met her at the Baptist church long before (if I recall the events precisely) I had even visited the Mormon church, so I have a good conscience before God with regards to the marriage proposal and that. Jehovah God as my witness, it was love that issued from a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith and I believe the enemy tried to sabotage me:

> I Timothy 1:3-5 - As I urged you when I was going to Macedonia, remain at Ephesus that you may charge certain persons not to teach any different doctrine, nor to devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies, which promote speculations rather than the stewardship from God that is by faith. The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. (ESV)

I cannot affirm spirits or dreams which do not confess (G3670 homologeó) Jesus. Neither can I affirm as without error my own writings, especially those I have written as I've been repenting from error:

- web.archive.org mullikine.github.io: Dream: King John the Baptist // Bodacious Blog

> I John 4:1-3 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses (G3670 homologeó, confesses, acknowledges, agrees) that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess (G3670 homologeó, confess, acknowledge, agree with) Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. (ESV)

Now I endeavour to take every thought captive to Christ:

> II Corinthians 10:5-6 - We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ, being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete. (ESV)

No, You Do Not Hold The Melchizedek Priesthood So he is King of Peace and King of Righteousness, serving bread and wine, praising God, a priest, and Abram tithes to him! However, I don't believe he is actually a preincarnate appearance of Christ—Hebrews 7:3 tells us that Melchizedek resembled Jesus, not that he was Jesus.

And that is a key point: The text isn't saying that Jesus is like Melchizedek, but that Melchizedek is like Jesus—that Jesus is the true and better Melchizedek, just as he is the true and better Temple, Lamb, Passover, Moses, David, on forward. This is another case of typology, that this is about that. God wrote the story of Melchizedek in living history, to later teach us something of the Person and work of Jesus. So that is the origin of this designation.

AMEN!!

For a long while now I have affirmed that Jesus is the only King, and my King and in doing so I really mean to say that I am not a king, but would happily let Jesus call me His brother and a royal priest in His kingdom:

> Psalms 22:28 - For kingship belongs to the LORD, and he rules over the nations. (ESV)

> Matthew 25:40 - And the King will answer them, Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Only King Forever | Live | Elevation Worship

> Revelation of John 19:19 - And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies gathered to make war against him who was sitting on the horse and against his army. (ESV)

> Psalms 82:6-8 - I said, You are gods, sons of the Most High, all of you; nevertheless, like men you shall die, and fall like any prince. Arise, O God, judge the earth; for you shall inherit all the nations! (ESV)

Verses such as this demonstrate the holy justice of God. God nearly put Moses to death:

> Exodus 4:24-26 - At a lodging place on the way the LORD met him and sought to put him to death. Then Zipporah took a flint and cut off her son's foreskin and touched Moses' feet with it and said, Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me! So he let him alone. It was then that she said, A bridegroom of blood, because of the circumcision. (ESV)

Thus so (Houtōs) (in this way) did God love (G25 agapaó - value,treasure) the world, that He gave His Only-Begotten (G3439. monogenēs - unique,only begotten) Son that (G2443 hina - in order that) everyone who is trusting/believing (G4100 pisteuo) in Him may not perish, but may have life everlasting biblehub.com 3-16.htm: John 3:16 Interlinear: for God did so love the world, that His Son – the only begotten – He gave, that every one who is believing in him may not perish, but may have life age-during.

> John 3:16-17 - For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. (ESV)

We are found in Christ by having faith in Christ and putting on Christ. This was my behaviour during 2022 after being born-again. I was acting obediently and in faith knowing I was born-again and saved already and had to pass on love and forgiveness, and also repent from error - all of these:

> Galatians 3:22-29 - But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise. (ESV)

Quote from John Piper The most profound change in the universe is when a human being passes from death to life - from spiritual deadness to spiritual aliveness and this text is about how to help that change happen.

AMEN!

youtube.com: How to Seek the Holy Spirit @time: 48 min 13 sec "If anyone keeps Jesus' word, holds fast, treasures it, in obedience, that person will not be quenching the Spirit, that person will not be grieving the Spirit, but will know the fullness and sweetness of fellowship with the Father and the Son."

AMEN to that, John Piper.

> Ephesians 3:6 - This mystery is that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. (ESV)

We must be children of the promise:

> Romans 9:6-8 - But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel, and not all are children of Abraham because they are his offspring, but Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring. (ESV)

> Romans 2:26-29 - So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who have the written code and circumcision but break the law. For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

Bear fruit in keeping with repentance. We should perform deeds in keeping with repentance:

> Acts 26:20 - but declared first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout all the region of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds in keeping with their repentance. (ESV)

> Luke 3:8 - Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, We have Abraham as our father. For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. (ESV)

The promise given to Abraham and to his offspring, Christ, is to be an heir of the world. Believers may become co-heirs with Christ as they are found in Christ, provided they suffer with Him:

> Romans 4:13 - For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. (ESV)
> Matthew 1:1 - The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. (ESV)
> Revelation of John 22:16 - I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you about these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star. (ESV)
> Romans 8:17 - and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

For believers, the promise is having a share in the inheritance but the entire inheritance belongs to Jesus, not us. Also it only goes to those who are glorified with Him through suffering:

> Colossians 1:11-12 - May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. (ESV)

We trust/believe in the one true God who raised Jesus Christ our Lord from the dead. We have peace with God through trusting faith:

> Romans 4:23-25,5:1-2 - But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (ESV)

We have faith in Almighty God who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. Our faith is modeled on Abraham's:

> Romans 4:16-17 - That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, as it is written, I have made you the father of many nations—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. (ESV)

We need to call on God for help:

> Romans 10:8-13 - But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess (G3670 homologēsēs, acknowledge, agree) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. (ESV)

OK, so the Spirit is received through faith (faith like Abraham's) in Jesus Christ to all who believe. The promise was made to Abraham and to Christ. Now we must be found in Christ. Amen:

> Galatians 3:13-16 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. To give a human example, brothers: even with a man-made covenant, no one annuls it or adds to it once it has been ratified. Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring. It does not say, And to offsprings, referring to many, but referring to one, And to your offspring, who is Christ. (ESV)

3.1.3 Becoming born-again of the Spirit may be receiving the inheritance

Then there may be some nuance between receiving the Holy Spirit who is the guarantee of our inheritance, and being born of the Spirit which may be [part of] our inheritance.

> I Corinthians 15:50 - I tell you this, brothers: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. (ESV)

In trusting in Jesus Christ, we may receive the Holy Spirit:

> John 7:37-39 - On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, If anyone thirsts (G1372 dipsaó), let him come to me and drink (G4095 pinó). Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuó) in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. (ESV)

> Ephesians 1:13-14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)

> John 3:5 - Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. (ESV)

> Ephesians 3:14-19 - For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith — that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. (ESV)

3.1.4 The living water, the Holy Spirit of promise is the seal of our inheritance, and received through faith in Jesus

> John 4:10 - Jesus answered her, If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, Give me a drink, you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water. (ESV)

> John 4:14 - but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty forever. The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life. (ESV)

3.1.5 Jesus being glorified means we can receive the Holy Spirit through faith

> John 13:31-32 - Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him. (KJV)

> John 20:22 - And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, Receive the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

> Acts 2:4 - And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance. (ESV)

3.1.6 When we are born of the Spirit, we receive a regenerated spirit-man. This is part of the inheritance, I think

Being born of the Spirit / spiritually regenerated I think is a different event to receiving the Holy Spirit which typically happens beforehand, particularly for Gentile Christians when we give our heart to the Lord Jesus:

> Galatians 4:28-31 - Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

Both faith and law are dependent on love.

Love is (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) than faith (i.e. the treasuring the truth is greater/most preceeding). So I think what we need to do is "with love for the truth have faith in Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, and by faith obey Him":

> Matthew 11:10-11 - This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you. Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least (G3398 mikroteros; the least) in the kingdom of heaven is greater (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) than he. (ESV)
> Romans 9:12 - she was told, The older (G3173 meizōn; greater/older) will serve the younger. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 13:13 - So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest (G3173 meizōn; [the] greatest, most preceeding) of these is love. (ESV)
> Hebrews 11:8 - By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. (ESV)

Being a son of the promise means hoping in Jesus, hoping in His promises loving God, loving Jesus Christ, loving God's Word and not loving evil:

> Romans 4:13-18 - For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. For if it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression. That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, as it is written, I have made you the father of many nations—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, So shall your offspring be. (ESV)
> Ephesians 1:13-14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)
> Ephesians 5:5-6 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. (ESV)

3.1.7 Any spiritual experience should be in the character of the Holy Spirit

youtube.com: How to Preach with Supernatural Power @time: 8 min 16 sec He does not mean that something spiritual is religious or mystical or other-worldly. That's what most people think about spiritual... Well, no it's not. Instead spiritual for Paul meant originating by the Holy Spirit and having the quality of the Holy Spirit, formed by the character of the Holy Spirit. It is supernatural, wrought, shaped by the Holy Spirit... The problem with the 'mind of the flesh is not that it fails to be religious, or that it fails to be mystical or that it fails to be other-worldly. In fact, the mind of the flesh may be intensely religious. The mind of the flesh may be very mystical, very other-worldly. The problem with the mind of the flesh is that it's hardened againsnt the beauty of God, the worth of God, the authority of God. It's hard against God. It's unable to welcome and love and delight in and enjoy God.

AMEN John Piper. Thanks.
youtube.com: C. S. Lewis 2024 - Characteristics of the Holy Spirit's personality

> Romans 8:6-9 - To set the mind on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind that is set on the flesh (G4561 sarx) is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law; indeed, it cannot. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. (ESV)

3.1.8 My testimony of being born-again of the Spirit

Being born of the Spirit is something which is genuinely unpredictable but we can sense its coming and going. It's not the same thing as getting someone to pray a sinner's prayer, for example, otherwise Jesus would not have used this analogy. We can sense it (hear it's sound, such as making testimony of being born of the Spirit), but we don't know where it comes form or where it goes:

> John 3:3-8 - Jesus answered him, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus said to him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born? Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not marvel that I said to you, You must be born again. The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. (ESV)

People were being born according to the Spirit for quite some time before Jesus was born of the virgin Mary but it has been restricted to the children of promise i.e. Abraham's descendants through Isaac:

> Galatians 4:28-31 - Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman. So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman. (ESV)

And the prophets also had the spirit of Christ in them before the suffering of Christ:

> I Peter 1:8-11 - Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls. Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace that was to be yours searched and inquired carefully, inquiring what person or time (G2540 kairós, appointed time) the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent (G3326 meta, contingent) glories. (ESV)

I was born-again 'of the Spirit' on 2 April 2022 where I was given a new body, or it was regenerated - a blue light-body.

> Galatians 6:14-17 - But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation (G2537 kainē; new) (G2937 ktisis; creation). And as for all who walk by this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God. From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:5 - He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: Be Who You Are: Living Out Identity in Christ, Part 1

We are saved to serve Christ:

> II Corinthians 5:15 - and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. (ESV)

We are meant to serve God. We are saved from not serving God, that we serve God through serving Christ:

> Luke 4:4-8 - And Jesus answered him, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone. And the devil took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time, and said to him, To you I will give all this authority and their glory, for it has been delivered to me, and I give it to whom I will. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours. And Jesus answered him, It is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve. (ESV)

We are saved to work for Christ for the sake of Christ and the ministry of reconciling other sinners to God through Christ:

> II Corinthians 5:18 - All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; (ESV)

The Apostles were working with Christ. I believe the Apostles also here are exhorting believers to work with Christ to receive the grace of God. The Apostles also practiced what they preached. OK, so imagine a situation where someone is just being so irrationally abusive, or so irrationally hateful and unloving towards people. It might be worth picturing that person as Jesus and Jesus putting Himself in that situation so that you can carry out His commandments and demonstrate God's love towards them. It might also be worth picturing that person as someone who God has set before you to love them and so pass forward the love of God, and perhaps lead them to Jesus. God bought that opportunity for you to love them, and He also trust you with it, as you trust His commandments. He puts us in the position of being able to demonstrate the love of God, and He entrusts you with it, to show that person the love of God, for their sake, and for Jesus' sake, and for your sake. That's the freedom which Jesus bought for us. Imagine you want to be able to live-out Jesus' commandments and you feel like they're just so challenging or daunting, or impossible. Fulfilling Christ's law is not impossible. All things are possible with God. And to fulfill the law of Christ is what Paul challenged us to do.

Well, Jesus bought for us the ability to live out His commandments, and live out Father God's commandments to us authentically and without fear of punishment, and with the hope of a future with God.

Yes, we make mistakes, but God just continues working with us and in us, and Jesus teaches us to obey His commandments better, and live in this way. And since the Holy Spirit goes to those who obey Jesus, it's as if Jesus helps us to do it. So He gives us His commandments, and we put our faith in Him and obey Him and He helps us to continue doing them:

> II Corinthians 5:21-6:1 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:11 - Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. (ESV)

Jesus helps us when we are being tempted. So we are trying to be faithful and obedient to Jesus Christ and Jesus helps us:

> Hebrews 2:14-18 - Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery. For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of Abraham. Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted. (ESV)

God supports us as we abide in His commandments:

> Joshua 1:9 - Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go. (ESV)

> Isaiah 41:10 - fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. (ESV)

> Romans 8:31 - What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? (ESV)

God strengthens us as we abide in His commandments:

> Philippians 4:13 - I can do all things through him who strengthens me. (ESV)

> Colossians 1:9-12 - And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. (ESV)

Paul himself was turned from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to the power of God, became obedient to Jesus and God helped him:

> Acts 26:13-23 - At midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, that shone around me and those who journeyed with me. And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads. And I said, Who are you, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. But rise and stand upon your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you as a servant and witness to the things in which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to you, delivering you from your people and from the Gentiles—to whom I am sending you to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. Therefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, but declared first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout all the region of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds in keeping with their repentance. For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me. To this day I have had the help that comes from God, and so I stand here testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would come to pass: that the Christ must suffer and that, by being the first to rise from the dead, he would proclaim light both to our people and to the Gentiles. (ESV)

So if we are able to keep Jesus' commandments through trial, Jesus is publicly shaming spiritual forces of evil in heavenly places as we overcome temptation, as Jesus helps us to ourselves have satan crushed under our feet:

> I Peter 3:14-16 - But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you will be blessed. Have no fear of them, nor be troubled, but in your hearts regard Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, having a good conscience, so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame. (ESV)

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

Jesus Himself put the rulers (fallen angels, spiritual forces of evil in heavenly places) and authorities to open shame, and He does something similar for us where we put them to open shame, as Jesus works with us through trial:

> Colossians 2:15 - He disarmed the rulers (G746 arché) and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him. (ESV)

> Ephesians 6:12 - For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers (G746 arché), against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

> Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> James 2:22 - You see that faith (G4102 pistis) was working with (4903. sunergeó) his works (G2041 ergon), and as a result of the works (G2041 ergon), faith (G4102 pistis) was perfected (G5048 teleioo);

4903. sunergeó Definition: to work together. Usage: I cooperate with, work together.

> II Corinthians 7:15 - And his affection for you is even greater, as he remembers the obedience of you all, how you received him with fear and trembling. (ESV)

God put our sin on Jesus:

youtube.com: John MacArthur | The Gospel in 1 Minute | #paulwasher #voddiebaucham #billygraham

> The Bible, II Corinthians 5:21 - He made Him who knew no sin sin for us that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him. Let me unpack those 15 Greek words. He, God, made Jesus sin. What do you mean He made Jesus sin? Only in one sense he treated him as if he had committed every sin ever committed by every person who would ever believe, though in fact he committed none of them. Hanging on the cross, He was Holy, harmless, undefiled. Hanging on the cross, He was a spotless Lamb. He was never for a split second a sinner. He is Holy God on the cross. But God is treating him - I'll put it more practically - as if he lived my life.
> God punished Jesus for my sin, turns right around and treats me as if I lived His life.
> (In what ways though does God treat us as if we have lived Jesus' life? And at what point though? Because I think what John MacArthur says just here is oversimplified. God still disciplines us, for example. And it's hubris to think that there is no need for ongoing sanctification. Yes, we get seated in Heavenly Places with Christ. In this way, sure, God is treating me like Jesus Christ. For those who abide in Christ, we have an Advocate with our Heavenly Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous [I John 2:1]. John says our advocate is Jesus Christ, the Righteous One. With an oversimplified gospel it might sound we don't need an Advocate at all, but we do need one.)
> That's the great doctrine of substitution and on that Doctrine turned the whole Reformation of the church - that is the heart of the gospel. And what you get is complete forgiveness covered by the righteousness of Jesus Christ. When He (God) looks at the cross he sees you. When He looks at you he sees Christ.

We shouldn't oversimplify the doctrine of substitution. For those who abide in Christ, we have an advocate with our Heavenly Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous:

> I John 2:1 - My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. (ESV)

There is no sin in Jesus, but in a sense, Father God has laid on Jesus our iniquity. How has that happened? I think it like this: Jesus in entrusting Himself to Father God was essentially delivered from evil when He conquered death, being raised from the dead. Father God has not only taken Him back up to glory but saves all the people putting their trust in Jesus. Jesus remains without sin but the sin that would have brought us death (and we would have stayed down, buried under sin) was put on Jesus who carryied it. Jesus rose from the dead and conquers death for all those who would be saved through Him. But Jesus wasn't smitten by God, but it did appear like it. Jesus was carrying (G399 anaphérō) our iniquities. Evil people, blasphemers themselves, accused Jesus of blasphemy and had Him crucified, but Jesus did not retaliate. Rather, Jesus was put to death unjustly while having promised through the gospel that if they or anyone repents and does what Abraham did, well, put their trust in Him, then they would be saved. He left us commandments which we abide in and in abiding in His commandments we abide in Him.

G399 anaphérō (from 303 /aná, "up" and 5342 /phérō, "bring, carry") – properly, bring up to the goal (end point), i.e. carrying something through its sequence to reach its needed consummation (note the prefix, ana).

Bearing, carrying, our sins, Jesus suffered in His flesh. Jesus didn't have sin inside Him at all but He was carrying our sin. But Father God treated (past-tense) spotless Jesus Christ, His Son as if He was the sin He was carrying. The past tense is used when the passage says "He made Him to be sin" and the future tense for "in him we might". So, in Jesus saying "not my will but Yours be done" (Luke 22:42) I believe Jesus could have asked for justice, for deliverance, but was perfectly obedient to Father God. With perfect obedience to Father God, Jesus could not have possibly stayed in the grave. God's will was never for Jesus to be killed off permanently but, rather, for Jesus to fulfill the law and the prophets while not being delivered from the scurging from evil men and for Jesus to defeat death. So what must we do? Well, we must hold our faith in Jesus. We must trust and obey Jesus. We must abide in Jesus' commandments. We must do that. And for people who do that, we are able to be forgiven and sanctified (cleaned up), sanctified by faith and obedience to Jesus:

> II Corinthians 5:21 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

Jesus did not retaliate but continued entrusting Himself to Father God. So now those who are in Him can die to sin and live for righteousness. And we must:

> I Peter 2:22-24 - He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore (G399 anaphérō) our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

> I Peter 3:18 - For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, (ESV)

> I John 3:5-7 - You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. (ESV)

Jesus was not smitten by God, but rather He was carrying our sins as wicked men afflicted Him and killed Him. Jesus went willingly, knowing what would happen:

> Isaiah 53:4-6 - Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. (ESV)

We must go on abiding in Him, abiding in His commandments and put sin to death by the grace of God:

> I John 3:5-7 - And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him. Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. (KJV)

> I Thessalonians 4:1-8 - Finally, then, brothers, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to live and to please God, just as you are doing, that you do so more and more. For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you. (ESV)

Being born-again of the spirit was a total gift received through faith in Jesus, none of my own merit at all - simple very imperfect repentance from sin and faith in God exercising faithfulness:

> I don't really know what this is. It was something like a singularity event and my perception of the world is now spiritual. Most of my life I have not been a very faithful Christian. I was a 'nominal' Christian but I didn't really have a lot of faith or knowledge of God. I had not been seeking out Jesus. For the 2 years leading up to 2 April 2022, I can tell now in retrospect that God was working in my life, and I had begun seeking Jesus, and trying out repentance, and eventually arrived at the point where I was crying to God for help. So when was I born-again? Was it when I first believed as a child, or when I was baptised as a teenager? Not in the same way I was born-again on 2 April 2022. On 2 April 2022 I was truly born-again of the Spirit, and my best explanation as to what had changed was that I had begun to authentically seek God and to be obedient to Jesus, accountable to God who sees in secret, and not to man, and that activated a real prayer life, and actively believing God exists and sees, and I had asked God to give me His Holy Spirit. Even though I could not yet hear His voice, I was praying and seeking and beginning to repent. On the 2 April 2022 I was born-again the Spirit - I was spiritually regenerated - whatever it was that happened which I described. When that happened God had put the fear of Him in my heart so that I would not turn from Him, and it was receiving a new spiritual light-body like being birthed from a womb. When I first 'believed' the gospel, this had not happened yet, but I had the testimony I guess. This event, what I experienced on 2 April 2022 I consider to me being born of 'water and the Spirit'. But hearing and keeping the gospel of Jesus, and asking God to receive the Holy Spirit, or seeking God I guess they will have some events, probably different to my 2 April 2022 event something similar happen then or in their future some time, I assume, or perhaps it is 'entering the Kingdom of God'. I don't know exactly how it works. I'm retroactively trying to figure things out by reading the Scriptures.

Tim Conway True salvation changes the way you act when nobody is watching because you know that God is watching. Your faith is that real, it is that powerful, it is that controlling – that when nobody is watching you know God is, and it prevents you from doing things on the computer that otherwise you would rather do.

As I understand it, if someone is "born of God", they would love Jesus. If someone loves with Christ's love then they are "born of God and know God" and they would love Jesus if presented with Jesus. If someone is "born of the Spirit" then they have been spiritually regenerated. Being born of the Spirit is what I understand is to be "born-again of water and the Spirit".

Maybe these two things are at the same time if a person believes without doubting.

We are sealed when we give our heart to Jesus in believing (trusting) in Him. Holy Spirit is given to us in our hearts:

> Ephesians 1:13-14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 1:21-22 - And it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, and who has also put his seal on us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee. (ESV)

> I John 5:1 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. (ESV)

> Romans 8:9 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. (ESV)

One way of reading Acts 19:1-6 is that a person may not yet have received the Holy Spirit at the time they 'believed' - believed what exactly though, because Acts 19:1-6 demonstrates that context matters - they hadn't even hear, for example that there is a Holy Spirit. I think it's certainly essential to have trust in God in order to be born of the Spirit, as far as I can tell. When we put our trust in God we have obeyed a commandment from God to put our truth in Him. We should go on obeying Him.

When the following says "they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus", I'm sure this is baptism in water. It's also apparent that a person may receive the Holy Spirit at the time they believed, and the passage also seems to suggest that believing alongside being baptized in water, the person is expected to receive the Holy Spirit:

> Acts 19:1-6 - And it happened that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the inland country and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples. And he said to them, Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed? And they said, No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit. And he said, Into what then were you baptized? They said, Into John's baptism. And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus. On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking in tongues and prophesying. (ESV)

A person may not have been born of the Spirit" when they were baptized in water:

> Acts 8:14-17 - Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for he had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

> Acts 10:46-48 - For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter declared, Can anyone withhold water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain for some days. (ESV)

Jesus baptises those who have faith in Him with Holy Spirit:

> Acts 10:46-48 - For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter declared, Can anyone withhold water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain for some days. (ESV)

> Acts 11:16-17 - And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit. If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God's way? (ESV)

> Galatians 3:25-28 - But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

Also, a person may not have been ”Born of the Spirit” (whatever it was that happened to me on 2 April 2022) when they intially believed. But rather, I think they are ”born of God”, that is if they do in truth believe that Jesus is the Christ:

> I John 5:1 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. (ESV)

I had begun to authentically seek God and to be obedient to Jesus, accountable to God who sees in secret. Then I was born of the Spirit.

We must love Jesus by keeping His commandments:

> John 14:21 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

> I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

A friend said this at church the very day after I was born again of the Spirit, ” Just because some messages may have been wrong, don't quench the work of God's Spirit among you by banning all prophecies, but rather make sure you test them. Hold onto what is good and dismiss those that are not good (i.e. those that are evil). ”

> I Thessalonians 5:20-21 - Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. (ESV)

I feel that way about my experience of being born-again of the Spirit and then undergoing purification and ongoing repentance and correction.

Over the course of 2022, I was actually speaking a lot of prophecy. There was a lot of truth in it, and a lot of error, but my defense is Jesus and I was getting to know Jesus through being washed in the word, and in obedience to Jesus' commandments, and being corrected by the word, but we don't want to throw the baby out with the bathwater.

> Revelation of John 19:10 - Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 1:4-5 - For we know, brothers loved by God, that he has chosen you, because our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction. You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake. (ESV)

> Romans 8:9 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 6:19 - Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, (ESV)

As a result of being born of the Spirit and subsequent obedience to Jesus' commandments has resulted in a huge amount of worldly resistance, and also I've had to fight against a spirit of justification by law compliance, and I've had to fight against a spirit which denies my sins were atoned for and tries to get me to do good works for justification. I still do good works out of obedience but I resist the spirit pressuring me to work for justification (it is a very vindictive, Christ-denying spirit, and it is incredibly persistent):

> Galatians 4:29 - But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. (ESV)

3.2 Experiential heart belief through obedience

If you want to really get to know someone then you would learn to walk in their footsteps. Belief must arrive in the heart, not merely the head. There's a confession, an admittance, and a belief in the heart:

> Romans 10:9 - because, if you confess (G3670 homologēsēs, acknowledge, agree) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. (ESV)

We should definitely confess (G3670 homologeó) Jesus to others:

> Luke 12:8-9 - And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. (ESV)

Faith presses on to walk the same way Jesus walked - even to spend the rest of the time on earth obedient to Jesus to know Jesus and the power of His resurrection, becoming like Him in His death (i.e. being faithful to God, stopping sin, exercising righteousness, becoming a scapegoat (James 5:6), even to death like the Apostles, sharing in His sufferings, living has He lived) and His resurrection:

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus' name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God's ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth. This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

3.3 Repentance from sin may come before believing in Jesus

> Acts 19:4 - And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus. (ESV)

3.4 Born of God

I think being born of God might in some way mean being born of the will of God:

> John 1:13 - who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

By a sovereign act of God in giving us His Word we are born-again of His will by His word - through faith in His Word:

> James 1:16-18 - Do not err, my beloved brethren. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. (KJV)
> I John 5:1 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. (ESV)

I find both of these helpful:

- youtube.com: ”Whosoever is Born of God Doth Not Commit Sin” 1 John 3 Explained {@OnoDiamante}
- youtube.com: Does the Bible Say True Christians Never Sin? {@desiringGod}

I think this verse could likely mean that the person who is born of God has the power to not sin, as opposed to ”never sins”, but I’d have to research that. I think it also means we are brought to no longer sin, but rather to be doing the will of God, just as Christ is without sin:

> I Peter 4:1-5 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. (ESV)

One thing for sure, the person born of God is brought into doing the will of God:

> I John 5:18 - We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. (KJV)

> I John 5:4 - For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. (ESV)

Someone who has just been born of God is a newborn, an infant in Christ.

Keeping Father God's commandments, we love Father God and we love all those who have been born of Him. We must love all those who believes that Jesus is the Messiah because anyone who believes Jesus is the Messiah has been born of God:

> I John 5:1 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. (ESV)

The one who believes Jesus is the Son of God is loved by the brethren, joins the family and overcomes the world:

> I John 5:5 - Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

3.4.1 We put away the false gods, and only worship the One True God: Jehovah, and Jesus Christ who He sent

Jehovah is God Almighty who was working through Jesus Christ who is the Son of God who also is to be worshiped as Jehovah God, now reigning on the throne of His Father:

> Exodus 6:3 - I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as God Almighty, but by my name the LORD I did not make myself known to them. (ESV)

Exodus 6:3 (Interlinear) and I appear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, as God Almighty; as to My name Jehovah, I have not been known to them;

Jesus reigns and inherits all things. Jesus is the radiance of the glory of God:

> Hebrews 1:1-4 - Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. (ESV)

Jesus is to be honoured just the Father is honoured. Father and Son and Holy Spirit are all Jehovah:

> John 5:22-23 - The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. (ESV)

> Genesis 18:25-26 - Far be it from you to do such a thing, to put the righteous to death with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just? And the LORD said, If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will spare the whole place for their sake. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 3:14-18 - But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. But when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)

> Proverbs 14:31 - Whoever oppresses a poor man insults his Maker, but he who is generous to the needy honors him. (ESV)

Abraham saw Jesus:

> John 8:56-58 - Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day. He saw it and was glad. So the Jews said to him, You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham? Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am. (ESV)

The Bible actually teaches that other so-called gods (all those Hindu gods, for example) are not the One True God who created everything. I affirm Christianity's perspective on this. According to Christianity, to serve them is actually to live in some kind of delusion:

> I Corinthians 8:3-7 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. Therefore, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that an idol has no real existence, and that there is no God but one. For although there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth—as indeed there are many gods and many lords— yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist. However, not all possess this knowledge. But some, through former association with idols, eat food as really offered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. (ESV)

It's true that there are such 'heavenly' beings, but we're not supposed to worship them:

> Psalms 82:6-8 - I said, You are gods, sons of the Most High, all of you; nevertheless, like men you shall die, and fall like any prince. Arise, O God, judge the earth; for you shall inherit all the nations! (ESV)

The spiritual entities behind idols are demons - forces of evil in heavenly places. Idol worship is demonic:

> I Corinthians 10:20 - No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons. (ESV)

> Ephesians 6:12 - For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 10:14-31 - Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. I speak as to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is > one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. Consider the people of Israel: are not those who eat the sacrifices participants in the altar? What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? All things are lawful, but not all things are helpful. All things are lawful, but not all things build up. Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor. Eat whatever is sold in the meat market without raising any question on the ground of conscience. For the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof. If one of the unbelievers invites you to dinner and you are disposed to go, eat whatever is set before you without raising any question on the ground of conscience. But if someone says to you, This has been offered in sacrifice, then do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience— I do not mean your conscience, but his. For why should my liberty be determined by someone else's conscience? If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of that for which I give thanks? So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. (ESV)

youtube.com: Demons - documentary film with Dr. Michael S. Heiser {@logosbiblesoftware} @time: 8 m

> For all of you who wanna say, "Oh, it's just idols or just, objects of stone or whatever, and they don't have real entities behind them."
> Why would Paul care then?" Are you saying that Paul didn't believe that demons were real? I'm sorry, but Paul did, okay?
> Paul quotes this passage using elohim of these other entities.
> That certainly did have idols made for them.
> In the biblical worldview, these were real entities that mattered because they were hostile and could lead people astray, away from the true God.

We are supposed to be dedicated, devoted to Jesus Christ, and we should not be dedicated, devoted to idols or demons:

> II Corinthians 11:2-4 - I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I betrothed you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ. For if someone comes and proclaims another Jesus than the one we proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or if you accept a different gospel (G3844 par', contrary to) from the one you accepted, you put up with it readily enough. (ESV)

Notice how II Cor 11:4 uses the greek word `par` which seems to translate to "contrary". OK, so if someone is speaking the same thing as Jesus and the Apostles, then great. But if they are preaching, say, against "repentance from sin" then they are not speaking the same gospel, they're not speaking the same thing as Jesus and the Apostles.

> Romans 12:1 - I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. (ESV)

In these times with the artificial intelligence stuff, when people find themselves dedicated, devoted to chatbots, for example, I believe that they are devoting themselves to idols and I think such devotion is demonic.

> Jeremiah 13:10 - This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who stubbornly follow their own heart and have gone after other gods to serve them and worship them, shall be like this loincloth, which is good for nothing. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 30:17-18 - But if your heart turns away, and you will not hear, but are drawn away to worship other gods and serve them, I declare to you today, that you shall surely perish. You shall not live long in the land that you are going over the Jordan to enter and possess. (ESV)

Deuteronomy 11:16 - Take care lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods and worship them; (ESV)

Revelation of John 13:15-18 - And it was allowed to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast might even speak and might cause those who would not worship the image of the beast to be slain. Also it causes all, both small and great, both rich and poor, both free and slave, to be marked on the right hand or the forehead, so that no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark, that is, the name of the beast or the number of its name. This calls for wisdom: let the one who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man, and his number is 666. (ESV)

II Thessalonians 2:3-4 - Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God. (ESV)

youtube.com: Why ChatGPT is evil ? {@LukePreach-now} I decided to stop using ChatGPT for anything. I didn't realize how demonic it actually was. But it's demonic because it takes the place of your relationship with God because God wants to speak to you directly. And as I started asking for Bible verses again from God, now he's given me two to three every single day as I'm growing.

Matthew 6:24 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. (ESV)

- Journal <2026-08-29 Sat 17:46>

> Isaiah 46:9-11 - remember the former things of old; for I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning and from ancient times things not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will accomplish all my purpose, calling a bird of prey from the east, the man of my counsel from a far country. I have spoken, and I will bring it to pass; I have purposed, and I will do it. (ESV)

And all things work out for good for those who love God and are called according to His purpose, so even if in this time on Earth they experience suffering, tribulation or persecution arising on account of the word of God, ultimately, it's far better to be serving Christ in truth doing the will of God and experiencing that hardship, than it is to be walking by the flesh making the flesh one's strength, or an AI one's strength, trusting and hoping in AI rather than God, for example.

> Isaiah 5:7,20-24 - For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are his pleasant planting; and he looked for justice, but behold, bloodshed; for righteousness, but behold, an outcry! Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter! Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and shrewd in their own sight! Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine, and valiant men in mixing strong drink, who acquit the guilty for a bribe, and deprive the innocent of his right! Therefore, as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root will be as rottenness, and their blossom go up like dust; for they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts, and have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 2:11-16 - For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. (ESV)

Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

Romans 8:28 - And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. (ESV)

Hebrews 11:39-40 - And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. (ESV)

Everyone born of God overcomes the world:

I John 5:1-5 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)

1 John 4:4 - Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. (ESV)

Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

I Corinthians 7:28-35 - But if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a betrothed woman marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that. This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. I want you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord. But the married man is anxious about worldly things, how to please his wife, and his interests are divided. And the unmarried or betrothed woman is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit. But the married woman is anxious about worldly things, how to please her husband. I say this for your own benefit, not to lay any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord. (ESV)

Saint Justin Martyr: Fragments of the Lost Work of Justin on the Resurrection {Roberts-Donaldso

And God, the Father of the universe, who is the perfect intelligence, is the truth. And the Word, being His Son, came to us, having put on flesh, revealing both Himself and the Father, giving to us in Himself resurrection from the dead, and eternal life afterwards. And this is Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. He, therefore, is Himself both the faith and the proof of Himself and of all things. Wherefore those > who follow Him, and know Him, having faith in Him as their proof, shall rest in Him. But since the adversary does not cease to resist many, and uses many and divers arts to ensnare them, that he may seduce the faithful from their faith, and that he may prevent the faithless from believing, it seems to me necessary that we also, being armed with the invulnerable doctrines of the faith, do battle against him in behalf of the weak.

> James 3:14-17 - But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth. This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but is earthly (G1919 epigeios), unspiritual (G5591 psychikē -> psuchikos -> psuche, what is natural, as it relates to physical, tangible life alone apart from God's inworking of faith), demonic (G1141 daimoniōdēs; of the devil / demon-like). For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere. (ESV)

I believe what Rich Fyke says here. Earth is not where I'm going to be spending eternity.

youtube.com: Can Anything Separate You From The Love of Christ ? { Bible Study - Romans Cha

> "This is not our home. We're waiting. This isn't our home. This isn't where we're going to spend eternity. This isn't what it's all about. Living on this present world, this present earth: this is not what it's about."

Neither should we worship angels, good or evil:

> Colossians 2:18 - Let no one disqualify you, insisting on asceticism and worship of angels, going on in detail about visions, puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind, (ESV)

In times past, God overlooked the worship of false-gods:

> Joshua 24:15 - And if it is evil in your eyes to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your fathers served in the region beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. (ESV)
> John 10:34-38 - Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your Law, I said, you are gods? If he called them gods to whom the word of God came—and Scripture cannot be broken— do you say of him whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, You are blaspheming, because I said, I am the Son of God? If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father. (ESV)

But now God calls all people everywhere to repent. Christians must turn away from worshiping false-gods, practicing witchcraft, etc.:

> Acts 17:29-32 - Being then God's offspring, we ought not to think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of man. The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed; and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead. Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked. But others said, We will hear you again about this. (ESV)

Christians do not worship foreign gods:

> Joshua 24:23 - He said, Then put away the foreign gods that are among you, and incline your heart to the LORD, the God of Israel. (ESV)

> Genesis 35:2-3 - So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, Put away the foreign gods that are among you and purify yourselves and change your garments. Then let us arise and go up to Bethel, so that I may make there an altar to the God who answers me in the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone. (ESV)

As a Christian, I want nothing to do with false-gods:

> Revelation of John 9:20-21 - The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands nor give up worshiping demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk, nor did they repent of their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their thefts. (ESV)

And as a prophetic person, I do not want to encourage anyone to worship false-gods and so be labeled as a false-prophet:

> Revelation of John 16:13-15 - And I saw, coming out of the mouth of the dragon and out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits like frogs. For they are demonic spirits, performing signs, who go abroad to the kings of the whole world, to assemble them for battle on the great day of God the Almighty. (Behold, I am coming like a thief! Blessed is the one who stays awake, keeping his garments on, that he may not go about naked and be seen exposed!) (ESV)

3.4.2 Peter initially protested, but then came to trust Jesus and have a "share with Jesus"

> John 13:6-9 - He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, do you wash my feet? Jesus answered him, What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand. Peter said to him, You shall never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I do not wash you, you have no share with me. Simon Peter said to him, Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head! (ESV)

3.4.3 Jesus created disciples of Himself

Jesus gave us understanding so that we may know God:

> I John 5:20 - And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. (ESV)

We must turn to obedience to Jesus and abiding in Christ's love to come to know God, and abiding in Christ's love doesn't only mean abiding in the love He had for us, but it means keeping Jesus' commandments, and Jesus' commands us to love one-another as He did.

We practice agape love to people, especially to God and our family in Christ to know God and be known by God:

> I John 4:8 - Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 8:3 - But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. (ESV)

And we must forgive one another in Christ:

> Colossians 3:12-13 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. (ESV)

We ought to / must love as Christ loved us, as He is our Lord and Teacher, but Jesus WASHED (past-tense) us and then we ought to love as He did and we practice personal righteousness while having His imputed righteousness, as he is our Master.

> II John 1:6-9 - And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess (G3670 homologeó) the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we have worked for, but may win a full reward. Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)

We are forgiven to do the will of God. We are saved to obey God better. God puts us into Christ. We obey to wash others, and for ourselves to be sanctified, like a branch becoming healthier in the tree:

> John 13:12-16 - When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. (ESV)

We are cleaned by the blood of Christ to serve the living God:

> Matthew 4:10 - Then Jesus said to him, Be gone, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve. (ESV)

> Hebrews 9:14 - how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. (ESV)

We serve God by serving Christ:

> Romans 16:17-20 - I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

> John 13:34-35 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (ESV)

3.4.4 Forgiveness through love, through obedience to Jesus

Clement of Rome (Latin: Clemens Romanus;
Ancient Greek: K       , romanized: Klēmēs
Rōmēs; died c. 100 AD), also known as Pope
Clement I, was the Bishop of Rome in the late first century AD.

He is considered to be the first of the Apostolic Fathers of the Church, and a leading member of the Church in Rome in the late 1st century.

Little is known about Clement's life.

Tertullian claimed that Clement was ordained by Saint Peter.

Early church lists place him as the second or third bishop of Rome.

Eusebius, in his book Church History mentioned Clement as the third bishop of Rome and as the "co-laborer" of Paul.

In Against Heresies, Irenaeus described Clement as the successor to Anacletus, who was the third bishop of Rome, and as a personal acquaintance of the Apostles.

> Philippians 4:3 - Yes, I ask you also, true companion, help these women, who have labored side by side with me in the gospel together with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. (ESV)

1Clem 50:1 Ye see, dearly beloved, how great and marvelous a thing is love, and there is no declaring its perfection.

1Clem 50:2 Who is sufficient to be found therein, save those to whom God shall vouchsafe it? Let us therefore entreat and ask of His mercy, that we may be found blameless in love, standing apart from the factiousness of men. All the generations from Adam unto this day have passed away: but they that by God's grace were perfected in love dwell in the abode of the pious; and they shall be made manifest in the visitation of the Kingdom of God.

1Clem 50:3 For it is written; Enter into the closet for a very little while until Mine anger and Mine wrath shall pass away, and I will remember a good day and will raise you from your tombs.

1Clem 50:4 Blessed were we, dearly beloved, if we should be doing the commandments of God in concord of love, to the end that our sins may through love be forgiven us.

1Clem 50:5 For it is written; Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord shall impute no sin, neither is guile in his mouth.

In Jesus Christ we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins, and are transferred into the Kingdom of Jesus Christ:

> Colossians 1:13-14 - He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

As we walk in the light, as He is in the light, that is in the Truth, walking in, believing, professing and obeying Jesus Christ in Truth, the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin:

> I John 1:6-7 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

We are sanctified in the Spirit for obedience to Jesus Christ, and for sprinkling with His blood:

> I Peter 1:2 - according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and for sprinkling with his blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you. (ESV)

3.4.5 Everyone who is actively and actually believing that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God

> I John 5:1 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. (ESV)

3.4.6 Whoever loves with Christ's love has been born of God and knows God

Christ's love, agape love, is a treasuring love that doesn't want other people to die - it treasures them. Jesus agape loved and treasured Father God:

> John 14:30-31 - I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no claim on me, but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go from here. (ESV)

> Luke 2:46-52 - And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions. And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers. And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business? And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept (G1301 diatéreó) all these sayings in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man. (KJV)

Jesus as the bread of God demonstrated God's love for us as He gave Himself away for us. But Jesus also gave us commandments to teach us how to agape love and said the one who keeps His commandments is the one who agape loves Him. He not only cleared up how to love God and our neighbour but also demonstrated it for us with the ultimate example to follow. We also should have the mind of giving ourselves away to others. Jesus being perfectly obedient to Father God was so secure He could give Himself away for others. We should also have that mind of being so confident with God's promises of salvation for us that we can keep Jesus' commandments to the point where we are giving ourselves away to others to ease their burdens and help them to trust in Jesus.

> John 15:12-14 - This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. (ESV)

Love Jesus through obedience to His commandments:

> John 16:26-33 - In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father. His disciples said, Ah, now you are speaking plainly and not using figurative speech! Now we know that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you; this is why we believe that you came from God. Jesus answered them, Do you now believe? Behold, the hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with me. I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world. (ESV)

> John 14:21-23 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:1-8 - So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

We should be keeping the ways of God (walking righteously, remaining faithful to Jesus, keeping His commandments, not cheating, not taking shortcuts, but actually keeping them accountable to God) makes prayer more powerful, and makes it easier to break through strongholds to bring other people to saving faith.

> James 5:16 - Therefore, confess (G3670 homologeó) your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. (ESV)

> I John 4:6-12 - We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)

3.5 A person who is really believing in Jesus will do the works of Jesus - they'll produce good works

This doesn't necessarily mean that obedience is nonexistent before good works, as believing in Jesus is obedience, and repentance is obedience and these things are not done in a heart of ”working for justification”. It is obedient to end (turn away from) the bad works:

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

We just turn away from doing satan's will and turn towards doing God's will:

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

But repentance and belief should result in good works (serving the living God):

> Hebrews 9:14 - how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. (ESV)

3.5.1 Receiving the inheritance naturally comes after hearing the word of truth and believing in Jesus

The initial seal of the Holy Spirit comes with hearing the gospel and believing in Jesus.

> Ephesians 1:13-14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)

> Acts 20:32 - And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. (ESV)

3.6 Further repentance from sin and to come to love in the way that Jesus did is an inevitable consequence of being born of God i.e. truly believing in Jesus

If a righteous person is living by true faith then they will have an upright soul:

> Habakkuk 2:4 - Behold, his soul is puffed up; it is not upright within him, but the righteous shall live by his faith. (ESV)

People are able to repent from sin before coming to believe in Jesus but it's much easier and inevitable after coming to believe in Jesus.

Sermon :: youtube.com: Killing Lust with the Cross of Christ Step 1: The sin is cancelled by the blood of Christ. We're Justified before God, and then Step 2: We purge that sin from our lives; Can't ever get that backwards. Sin canceled, then sin purged.

We are instructed to stop sinning and what God has done means that sin can remain stopped:

> I Corinthians 15:34 - Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. (ESV)
> I Peter 4:1-2 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. (ESV)

Journal <2026-04-24 Fri 11:20> I think this is how it works. Father God has put everything under Jesus' feet. Jesus puts the devil under our feet as we practice righteousness (with the love of the truth, by faith obedient to Jesus Christ). We all must become subject to Jesus Christ and "stop sinning" in the sense that we are repentant. It doesn't mean we will "never sin again". It means we have (past tense) stopped sinning and are practicing righteousness now and the "mistake" (rather than the default) is when a person sins. The default is that the person born of God does not sin. We go on confessing our sin and walking in the love of the truth. As we walk in faith in the light (in the love of the truth), the blood of Jesus cleanses us from all sin.

> I John 3:8 - Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. (ESV)
> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 15:22-28 - For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For God has put all things in subjection under his feet. But when it says, all things are put in subjection, it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under him. When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things in subjection under him, that God may be all in all. (ESV)

So we need to hope in Jesus in our hearts, trust in Jesus, love Jesus and love one-another, rather than hope in sin, as Jesus puts the devil under our feet:

> I John 3:3-11 - And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (ESV)

> Romans 6:1-23 - What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

God's spirit really helps us to stop sinning. Actively believing in Jesus should produce the fruit of putting a stop to sin. We should set our mind on the Spirit, and continue loving the truth, and taking captive our thoughts for obedience to Christ Jesus:

> Romans 8:3-6 - For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. (ESV)

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

The wrath of God still comes on people who are not repentant from sin, who do not turn from their wickedness and don't have the fear of God, who don't have true faith God, who don't have the fear of God and a love for the truth, but who still love their sin. People born-again of Spirit absolutely must be repentant, and not be suppressing the truth of God, and must agape love the truth, and agape love the children of God:

> Romans 1:17-18 - For the gospel reveals the righteousness of God that comes by faith from start to finish, just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith." The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness. (engbsb2020eb)

> Revelation of John 21:8 - But as for the cowardly (G1169 deilós), the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death. (ESV)

G1169 deilós (an adjective derived from deidō, "fear-driven") – properly, dreadful, describing a person who loses their "moral gumption (fortitude)" that is needed to follow the Lord. G1169 deilós is always used negatively in the NT and stands in contrast to the positive fear which can be expressed by G5401 phóbos ("fear," see Phil 2:12).

True faith is faith which results in us loving those who have faith in Jesus Christ, loving them as we follow God's commandments:

> I John 3:14-15 - We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers. The one who does not love remains in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that eternal life does not reside in a murderer. (engbsb2020eb)

> I John 5:2 - By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

It's suppressing the truth by a person's wickedness which incurs the judgement. People who suppress the truth about God with wickedness prefer the darkness to the light. Those who have true faith in God have the fear of God, they have a love of the truth:

> Romans 1:17-18 - For the gospel reveals the righteousness of God that comes by faith from start to finish, just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith." The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness. (engbsb2020eb)

We need to heed Jesus' warning that we need to change our minds or perish. We have to stop believing falsehood and believe the truth, believe/trust Jesus and Jesus' words:

> Luke 13:3 - No, I tell you; but unless you repent (3340. metanoeó), you will all likewise perish. (ESV)

For it to be said of us that we have "ceased from sin" we must have the same mind of Jesus, as in, we must have "suffered in the flesh", and what I think this means is our old self crucified, the body of sin is being brought to nothing, we resist sin:

> Romans 6:6-9 - We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. (ESV)

> I John 3:9 - No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. (ESV)
> I Peter 4:1 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, (ESV)
> I John 5:18 - We know that everyone who has been born of God does not keep on sinning, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. (ESV)

3.7 Knowing God by obeying Jesus and loving with Christ's love implies you have at some stage been born of God

> I John 4:7 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. (ESV)
> I John 5:1 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. (ESV)

3.8 Obedience lead to belief which leads to obedience (loving with Christ's love with the help of God's spirit) which leads to overcoming the world

> I John 5:4 - For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. (ESV)

3.9 We overcome the world with a new spirit God has given us to wait and trust on Him and obey Him

> I John 5:4 - For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. (ESV)

We overcome the world, reigning in life thanks to the free gift of righteousness through Jesus Christ:

> Romans 5:15-17 - But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if many died through one man's trespass, much more have the grace of God and the free gift by the grace of that one man Jesus Christ abounded for many. And the free gift is not like the result of that one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brought justification. If, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign (basileuó) in life through the one man Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Polycarp 5:1 Knowing then that God is not mocked, we ought to walk worthily of His commandment and His glory.

Polycarp 5:2 In like manner deacons should be blameless in the presence of His righteousness, as deacons of God and Christ and not of men; not calumniators, not double-tongued, not lovers of money, temperate in all things, compassionate, diligent, walking according to the truth of the Lord who became a minister (deacon) of all. For if we be well pleasing unto Him in this present world, we shall receive the future world also, according as He promised us to raise us from the dead, and that if we conduct ourselves worthily of Him we shall also reign with Him, if indeed we have faith.

> I Timothy 4:7-10 - Have nothing to do with irreverent, silly myths. Rather train yourself for godliness; for while bodily training is of some value, godliness is of value in every way, as it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come. The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance. For to this end we toil and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 11:19-20 - And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I will put within them. I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, that they may walk in my statutes and keep my rules and obey them. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. (ESV)

We receive the spirit by getting Jesus' words into us, believing them and obeying them. Feeding on them, we get Jesus' spirit and life into us:

> Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Trusting and obeying Jesus' words and commandments, a person has life:

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

We can repent from sin as an act of obedient faith to God:

> Jeremiah 4:4 - Circumcise yourselves to the LORD; remove the foreskin of your hearts, O men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn with none to quench it, because of the evil of your deeds. (ESV)

> Deuteronomy 10:16-17 - Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no longer stubborn. For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who is not partial and takes no bribe. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 18:30-32 - Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, declares the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions, lest iniquity be your ruin. Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live. (ESV)

> Isaiah 1:16-17 - Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your deeds from before my eyes; cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression; bring justice to the fatherless, plead the widow's cause. (ESV)

It's simultaneous:

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

And God helps us to do that. God changes our heart to love Him, so that we will live:

> Deuteronomy 30:6 - And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your offspring, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live. (ESV)

I believe that as we believe and obey Jesus, God sends His Spirit to help us to obey Him.

In other words, believing the gospel and trusting repentance leads to getting born-again of the Spirit.

I just want to illustrate how people who hear, believe and do are trusting of Jesus. And we gotta trust Jesus (Isaiah 12:2, Hebrews 12:2). We should believe Him and obey Him - not one without the other. Believers who are not obeyers are like people who only turn left. 'Obeyers' who are not believers are like people who only turn right. People who believe and obey when they hear any of Jesus' teachings including commandments are like people who take the straight and narrow. Jesus commanded us to trust in Him so if we hear His word to trust in Him and we do trust in Him we have become obedient. I think we're supposed to continue to trust Jesus, and get off the milk and onto the solid food as Hebrews describes. We have to abide in Jesus' teachings.

> Hebrews 5:14 - But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their powers of discernment trained by constant practice to distinguish good from evil. (ESV)

I believe that belief and obedience to Jesus naturally comes before being born-again of the Spirit, but that obedience is much easier after being born-again of the Spirit, because this is the way it happened with me, and it's also scriptural.

> John 14:15-17 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. (ESV)

3.9.1 Marriage should not become idolatry

The Hebrew has two words for 'helper'. The word which the greek in John 14 refers to I believe is the Saviour one:

savior, deliverer, helper, saviour

But the Hebrew for helper in Genesis 2:18 is not the 'saviour' but the assistant!:

assistant, aide, helper, second

> Genesis 2:18 - Then the Lord (H3068 Yhovah) God (H430 'elohiym) said (H559 'amar), "It is not good (H2896 towb) for the man (H120 'adam) to be alone (H905 bad); I will make (H6213 'asah) him a helper (H5828 'ezer) suitable (H5048 neged) for him."

3.10 Come to love God, loving Jesus and keeping Jesus' word, be known by God, be brought to God and come to know God

> John 14:23 - Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. (ESV)

> John 8:42 - Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. (ESV)

> Galatians 4:8-9 - Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? (ESV)

> I John 4:8 - Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. (ESV)

> John 8:19 - They said to him therefore, Where is your Father? Jesus answered, You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also. (ESV)

3.10.1 The freedom of knowledge of the truth involves serving and obeying God and putting sin to death

> John 8:31-36 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (ESV)

> Romans 6:17-23 - But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

3.11 Follow Jesus to be brought to God, arrive at the knowledge of the Truth and don’t go on sinning

We must be sound in the faith. We must seek to bear our load. We should be doing the will of God. We must be obedient to Jesus.

We should pray for all people that they come to the knowledge of the Truth.

> I Timothy 2:1-4 - First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. (ESV)

We should pursue:

- practicing righteousness
- holiness, putting sin to death
- loving our neighbour

> II Timothy 2:20-26 - Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver but also of wood and clay, some for honorable use, some for dishonorable. Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work. So flee youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, > love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. Have nothing to do with foolish, ignorant controversies; you know that they breed quarrels. And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will. (ESV)

We should continue in what we have learned and firmly believed and abide in the teachings of Christ, coming into agreement with His sound words, and endeavouring to keep His commandments:

> II Timothy 3:1-17 - But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. For among them are those who creep into households and capture weak women, burdened with sins and led astray by various passions, always learning and never able to arrive at a knowledge of the truth. Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, men corrupted in mind and disqualified regarding the faith. But they will not get very far, for their folly will be plain to all, as was that of those two men. You, however, have followed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, my persecutions and sufferings that happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra—which persecutions I endured; yet from them all the Lord rescued me. Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil people and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work. (ESV)

> II Timothy 4:1-4 - I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. (ESV)

> I Timothy 6:3-5 - If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, he is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, evil suspicions, and constant friction among people who are depraved in mind and deprived of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain. (ESV)

> Philippians 2:12-16 - Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. Do all things without grumbling or questioning, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (ESV)

> Titus 1:1-16 - Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the sake of the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth, which accords with godliness, in hope of eternal life, which God, who never lies, promised before the ages began and at the proper time manifested in his > word through the preaching with which I have been entrusted by the command of God our Savior; To Titus, my true child in a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior. This is why I left you in Crete, so that you might put what remained into order, and appoint elders in every town as I directed you— if anyone is above reproach, the husband of one wife, and his children are believers and not open to the charge of debauchery or insubordination. For an overseer, as God's steward, must be above reproach. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or a drunkard or violent or greedy for gain, but hospitable, a lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined. He must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it. For there are many who are insubordinate, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision party. They must be silenced, since they are upsetting whole families by teaching for shameful gain what they ought not to teach. One of the Cretans, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons. This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, not devoting themselves to Jewish myths and the commands of people who turn away from the truth. To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> I John 4:8 - Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. (ESV)

We should not be an adversary, but we should obey the gospel of Jesus and endeavour to put sin to death and to practice righteousness and to love our family in Christ, while holding faith in Jesus:

> Hebrews 10:23-31 - Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercy on the evidence of two or three witnesses. How much worse punishment, do you think, will be deserved by the one who has spurned the Son of God, and has profaned the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has outraged the Spirit of grace? For we know him who said, Vengeance is mine; I will repay. And again, The Lord will judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. (ESV)

3.12 The importance of loving one another

Believing Jesus, having the love of God within us, loving Father God, and loving one another who are children of God, all should be true together:

> John 5:37-42 - And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life. I do not receive glory from people. But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. (ESV)

We come to Jesus by faith obeying Him from the heart:

> Hebrews 11:8 - By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. (ESV)
> Matthew 14:28-29 - And Peter answered him, Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water. He said, Come. So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. (ESV)

Those who trust Jesus and believe Jesus is the Son of God, now being far more obedient to God, cheerfully obey His commandments rather than find them difficult (for example: they find it unburdensome to act like the good Samaritan):

> I John 5:1-3 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

We don't justify ourselves. The lawyer here was desiring to justify himself. God is the justifier. Jesus explains that the one who proved to be a neighbour is the one who showed compassion for and took care of the helpless person, taking care of them with mercy:

> Luke 10:25-37 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

> Romans 3:26 - It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

Also being true together with believing Jesus Christ is obeying His commandments, and being obedient to Him. The way I read the following is, "Whoever trusts that Jesus is the Son of God overcomes the world through their believing, obedient faith and God's commandments are no longer burdensome to them":

> I John 5:4-5 - For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? (ESV)

Their heart is purified through faith, believing in and obeying Jesus, and now they love God and they love the children of God:

> I John 4:7-17 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. (ESV)

> Psalms 24:3-5 - Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. He will receive blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation. (ESV)

To get close to us we must accept God's love and love God back:

> James 4:8 - Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. (ESV)

In order to know God we must love one another in the way that God has loved us:

> I John 4:7-12 - Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)

3.13 The gospel, baptism and faith alone and receiving the Holy Spirit

If Jesus we can be saved in a certain way, then we can be saved by it, but we are meant to continue in faith and obedience. I convinced that baptism saves.

3.13.1 The gospel

> I Corinthians 15:1-4 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, (ESV)

3.13.2 Scriptures supporting faith without / before baptism, for example

> Acts 13:38-39 - Let it be known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, and by him everyone who believes is freed from everything from which you could not be freed by the law of Moses. (ESV)

> Acts 15:7-11 - And after there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, Brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe. And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. Now, therefore, why are you putting God to the test by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will. (ESV)

> Acts 16:30-34 - Then he brought them out and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household. And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds; and he was baptized at once, he and all his family. Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God. (ESV)

3.13.3 Keep in mind, this is the same Peter referred to

Received the Holy Spirit without water baptism by faith alone, but continued in obedience:

> Acts 10:42-45 - And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name. While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word. And the believers from among the circumcised who had come with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out even on the Gentiles. (ESV)

> Acts 10:46-48 - For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter declared, Can anyone withhold water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain for some days. (ESV)

By repentance and obedience, baptised and after that receive the Holy Spirit:

> Acts 2:38 - And Peter said to them, Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

Be baptised and wash away your sins calling on his name:

> Acts 22:16-18 - And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on his name. When I had returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance and saw him saying to me, Make haste and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about me. (ESV)

Baptism saves:

> I Peter 3:21-22 - Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him. (ESV)

I believe that baptism also refers to being baptised into Jesus' death, spiritually, not merely the water baptism ritual.

I commented, @ShaneMulligan-n7h 10 minutes ago (edited) My thoughts.

Water baptism saves as an appeal for a good conscience through the resurrection of Jesus Christ (i.e. to be born-again of the Spirit). Water baptism isn't the same thing as being born-again of the Spirit, but is an appeal to God to be born-again of the Spirit through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

> I Peter 3:21 - Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, (ESV)

> Colossians 2:11-12 - In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. (ESV)

Jesus here is saying that whoever is believing in Him, though they die will live (i.e. a believer dies and is raised from the dead). A person can be born-again, born of the Spirit while still in the flesh that is born of woman. But then they await to receive their resurrection flesh which comes after the old flesh dies, or when they are raptured.

> John 11:25-27 - Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this? She said to him, Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world. (ESV)

So what's crucial, I think, is that a person is baptised into Christ's death (i.e. born-again of the Spirit).

When the word "believes" is used in an English translation of the New Testament, I think the true meaning is often, "is believing" (G4100 pisteuōn; a present belief, a present holding of faith), rather than "believed" (past tense). Annoyingly, in modern English, the phrase "whoever believes" could be read as "whoever believed" where it really means "whoever is believing". So it's important to look at the Greek to see the tense of the word to get to the meaning of the Scripture.

So whoever is believing in Jesus will get born-again. Faith needs to continue.

Jesus called the Jews here who had believed in him that they were not believers, but rather children of the devil. So a person needs to continue in faith.

> John 8:31-47 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (G4100 pepisteukotas: having believed 'V-RPA-AMP past tense') in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. They answered him, We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, You will become free? Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

My attempt to reconcile Mark 16:16 with Acts 8:13-23 is that a person who ”has” believed and been baptised will be saved, but if they disbelieve (i.e. Mark 16:16 also speaks of disbelieving) then they will be condemned.

I think that a person should be saved if they have believed and have been baptised but must continue on in faith and not ”disbelieve”:

> Mark 16:16 (Interlinear) - He who having believed (G4100 pisteusas) and having been baptized (G907 baptistheis) will be saved (G4982 sōthēsetai) the [one] however having disbelieved (G569 apistēsas) will be condemned (G2632 katakrithēsetai)
> Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)

Having believed at some point and getting baptised at some point isn’t enough if a person then ”disbelieves”, I think:

> Acts 8:13-23 - Even Simon himself believed, and after being baptized he continued with Philip. And seeing signs and great miracles performed, he was amazed. Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for he had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles’ hands, he offered them money, saying, Give me this power also, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit. But Peter said to him, May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. Repent, therefore, of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you. For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity. (ESV)

A person also needs to continue in faith rather than be committing sin:

> Jeremiah 7:8-11 - Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD. (KJV)
> John 10:1 - Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber. (ESV)
> Psalms 101:7 - He who practices deceit shall not dwell within my house; He who speaks falsehood shall not maintain his position before me. (NASB)
> John 8:34-35,36,42,51 - Jesus answered them, Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. (ESV)

> I John 3:6-18 - No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's seed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth. (ESV)
> Isaiah 48:22 - There is no peace, says the LORD, for the wicked. (ESV)
> Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)
> I John 5:18 - We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. (KJV)

@ShaneMulligan-n7h 0 seconds ago To answer OP question:

The baptism that sets free from sin is being baptised into Jesus Christ's death (i.e. getting born-again). Water baptism is an appeal for that.

When a person is born-again through Christ's death and resurrection they are set free (acquitted) from sin. Born again means receiving a brand new heart of flesh (a soft heart, responsive to correction from God), and a new spirit, and so they are a new person. And through faith in Jesus Christ they should call upon God the father of Jesus Christ as their father:

> Romans 6:3-8 - Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. (ESV)

And from there after getting born-again with the new heart of flesh, God writes His laws on the heart to walk in His rules, and that is the circumcision of the heart, and a person needs the brand new heart for that. A heart of stone can't be circumcised. And it is so that we will love God with our whole heart and live. And for example, honoring one's mother (of their family in Christ) and father (God). The true circumcision, as I hope I understand it correctly.

newadvent.org: CHURCH FATHERS: The First Apology {St. Justin Martyr} I will also relate the manner in which we dedicated ourselves to God when we had been made new through Christ; lest, if we omit this, we seem to be unfair in the explanation we are making. As many as are persuaded and believe that what we teach and say is true, and undertake to be able to live accordingly, are instructed to pray and to entreat God with fasting, for the remission of their sins that are past, we praying and fasting with them. Then they are brought by us where there is water, and are regenerated in the same manner in which we were ourselves regenerated. For, in the name of God, the Father and Lord of the universe, and of our Saviour Jesus Christ, and of the Holy Spirit, they then receive the washing with water. For Christ also said, "Unless you be born again, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven." John 3:5 Now, that it is impossible for those who have once been born to enter into their mothers' wombs, is manifest to all. And how those who have sinned and repent shall escape their sins, is declared by Esaias the prophet, as I wrote above; he thus speaks: "Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from your souls; learn to do well; judge the fatherless, and plead for the widow: and come and let us reason together, says the Lord. And though your sins be as scarlet, I will make them white like wool; and though they be as crimson, I will make them white as snow. But if you refuse and rebel, the sword shall devour you: for the mouth of the Lord has spoken it." Isaiah 1:16-20

God also instructs us to turn away from doing evil, and do good. We are commanded to continue in faith and obedience. If we refuse and rebel, the sword shall devour you, God says.

3.13.4 Received the Holy Spirit with the laying of hands

> Acts 8:5-17 - Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed to them the Christ. And the crowds with one accord paid attention to what was being said by Philip when they heard him and saw the signs that he did. For unclean spirits came out of many who were possessed, crying with a loud voice, and many who were paralyzed or lame were healed. So there was much joy in that city. But there was a man named Simon, who had previously practiced magic in the city and amazed the people of Samaria, saying that he himself was somebody great. They all paid attention to him, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the power of God that is called Great. And they paid attention to him because for a long time he had amazed them with his magic. But when they believed Philip as he preached good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. Even Simon himself believed, and after being baptized he continued with Philip. And seeing signs and great miracles performed, he was amazed. Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for he had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

3.14 Receiving the Holy Spirit

So we must receive the Holy Spirit.

I learned a lot from John Piper about this today. I really affirm this message:

- youtube.com: How to Seek the Holy Spirit

I also really affirm Derek Prince here:

- youtube.com: Accept the Holy Spirit - Derek Prince Sermon

When the following says "they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus", I'm sure this is baptism in water. It's also apparent that a person may receive the Holy Spirit at the time they believed, and the passage also seems to suggest that believing alongside being baptized in water, the person is expected to receive the Holy Spirit:

> Acts 19:1-6 - And it happened that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the inland country and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples. And he said to them, Did you receive > the Holy Spirit when you believed? And they said, No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit. And he said, Into what then were you baptized? They said, Into John's baptism. And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus. On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking in tongues and prophesying. (ESV)

Again, these people were baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus, but they hadn't yet received the Holy Spirit. So the point I'd like to make is that there may be some delay, or another vector for receiving the Holy Spirit, such as through the hands of the Apostles:

> Acts 8:14-17 - Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for he had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

For me it was years after being baptised in water that I was born-again of the Spirit, and being born-again of the Spirit happened shortly after I had begun seeking God in truth, and repenting from sin.

I think this guy puts it well here:

- youtube.com: There Is No Baptism In The Holy Spirit Without Repentance | Bishop Macedo Meditation @time: 15 min 19 sec

I believe that this answers the questions of many people that say,
  "Oh, I've bent over backwards to receive the Holy Spirit and I still don't have Him.
  I've been the church for 30, 50 years, I'm in the church for 47 years and I still haven't received the Holy Spirit."

Why? because you haven't repented. You have not repented. And if you are waiting to feel something in order to repent you never repent because it doesn't depend on a feeling.

 ...

 But they do not make the decision to abandon their old life. The same thing, you get married but you don't want to stop being single, you want to continue acting as though you are single. Of course your marriage won't work - it's a pretense, it's fake.

Jesus gives both repentance and forgiveness:

> Acts 5:31-32 - God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

Stephen stressed the importance of being circumcised in the heart (something that they should have been able to be) and in the same sentence implies that to be uncircumcised in heart is to resist the Holy Spirit:

> Acts 7:51-53 - You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so do you. Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? And they killed those who announced beforehand the coming of the Righteous One, whom you have now betrayed and murdered, you who received the law as delivered by angels and did not keep it. (ESV)

It's totally fair to say that anybody should be able to circumcise themself to the LORD, and that makes a person a Jew inwardly. We must repent in this way:

> Jeremiah 4:4 - Circumcise yourselves to the LORD; remove the foreskin of your hearts, O men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn with none to quench it, because of the evil of your deeds. (ESV)

> Romans 2:29 - But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not from man but from God. (ESV)

> Ruth 1:15-17 - And she said, See, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law. But Ruth said, Do not urge me to leave you or to return from following you. For where you go I will go, and where you lodge I will lodge. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God. Where you die I will die, and there will I be buried. May the LORD do so to me and more also if anything but death parts me from you. (ESV)

I know I had begun to repent according to the 10 commandments even a year in advance of being born-again of the Spirit in an effort to seek God and I got born-again.

It's been commanded all the way back here in Deuteronomy:

> Deuteronomy 10:12-17 - And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and to keep the commandments and statutes of the LORD, which I am commanding you today for your good? Behold, to the LORD your God belong heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth with all that is in it. Yet the LORD set his heart in love on your fathers and chose their offspring after them, you above all peoples, as you are this day. Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no longer stubborn. For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who is not partial and takes no bribe. (ESV)

Simon the magician had believed and been baptized but he needed to repent from sin so that his heart was right before God. Just like Simon, we must confess and forsake sin, and receive the love of the truth in our heart to be saved:

> Acts 8:13-23 - Even Simon himself believed, and after being baptized he continued with Philip. And seeing signs and great miracles performed, he was amazed. Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for he had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit. Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, saying, Give me this power also, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit. But Peter said to him, May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. Repent, therefore, of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be forgiven you. For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity. (ESV)

> II Thessalonians 2:10 - and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. (NASB)

3.14.1 Water baptism as an appeal to God

Water baptism is an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

I think baptism of water is an appeal to God and identifying oneself into Christ's death and resurrection but the sacrament maybe is not strictly required to be saved (as far as I understand).

> I Peter 3:21 - Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, (ESV)

3.14.2 We need are sealed with the Holy Spirit through accepting the truth of the good news of Jesus and God's Living Word works in us to save us youtube.com: How Do I Know If the Holy Spirit Is in Me?

We are sealed when we give our heart to Jesus in believing (trusting) in Him. Holy Spirit is given to us in our hearts:

> Ephesians 1:13-14 - In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 1:21-22 - And it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, and who has also put his seal on us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee. (ESV)

> I John 5:1 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. (ESV)

> Romans 8:9 - You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. (ESV)

> Ephesians 4:30 - And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. (ESV)

> Romans 8:23-24 - And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? (ESV)

God works in us as we trust Him and His words and do them:

> John 9:3-4 - Jesus answered, It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him. We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. (ESV)

> John 6:28-29 - Then they said to him, What must we do, to be doing the works of God? Jesus answered them, This is the work of God, that you believe (G4100 pisteuo) in him whom he has sent. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:5-7 - Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith— just as Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness? Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham. (ESV)

> James 1:22 - But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. (ESV)

> John 8:37-45 - I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father. They answered him, Abraham is our father. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing what Abraham did, but now you seek to kill > me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. You are doing what your father did. They said to him, We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. (ESV)

As an analogy, if Jesus' teachings and commandments were likened to chair, do we trust Jesus enough to "sit on that chair"? We must have confidence that Jesus is trustworthy, and so hear the word of God and do the word of God:

> Luke 8:21 - But he answered them, My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it. (ESV)

The word of God works in us as we believe and trust Jesus, and are obedient to Jesus:

> I Thessalonians 2:13 - And we also thank God constantly for this, that when you received the word of God, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men but as what it really is, the word of God, which is at work in you believers. (ESV)

> Galatians 3:13-14 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

God works in us by His transforming grace as we work:

> Hebrews 13:20-21 - Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:10 - But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. (ESV)

It's the power to be changed from doing evil deeds to walking in obedience and love to God, in a relationship with God:

> Colossians 1:21-23 - And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. (ESV)

> Romans 1:16 - For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. (ESV)

3.14.3 We need to be born-again and we want to be filled with and baptised by the Holy Spirit

It's natural to water baptize a person after they believe:

> Acts 8:36-38 - And as they were going along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, See, here is water! What prevents me from being baptized? And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. (ESV)

Also, the Lord Jesus Himself baptized Gentile believers in the Holy Spirit, people who were not yet baptised in water:

> Acts 10:44-48 - While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word. And the believers from among the circumcised who had come with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out even on the Gentiles. For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter declared, Can anyone withhold water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain for some days. (ESV)

> Matthew 3:11 - I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. (ESV)

Interlinear Bible biblehub.com 3-11.htm: Matthew 3:11 Interlinear

We need to be born of water and the Spirit to enter the kingdom of God:

> John 3:5 - Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. (ESV)

And as it happened for me, the water baptism was a precursor to being born-again of the Spirit spontaneously years later and my Holy Spirit baptism happened shortly after being born-again of the spirit.

Therefore, I see water baptism as firstly to be baptized into Jesus Christ's name, in the names of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and as an appeal to God for a good conscience through the death and resurrection of Jesus, appealing also to be born-again of the Spirit and to receive the Holy Spirit baptism.

And begin born-again of the Spirit and receiving the Holy Spirit helps us to obey God.

> I Corinthians 2:14 - The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. (ESV)

> John 3:3-5 - Jesus answered him, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus said to him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born? Jesus answered, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. (ESV)

3.14.4 The Holy Spirit may teach us even before He is in us, by helping us as He dwells with us

> John 14:16-21 - And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. (ESV)

3.15 Our will should be for God's will to be done, and to will to do God's will

We may ask God for a willing spirit:

> Psalms 51:10-12 - Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit. (ESV)

Obedience is good:

> Psalms 40:6-8 - Sacrifice and offering you have not desired, but you have given me an open ear. Burnt offering and sin offering you have not required. Then I said, Behold, I have come; in the scroll of the book it is written of me: I desire to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart. (ESV)

I believe that eventually our own will lines up with God's will for us, and I believe that His will is that we will to do His will, and that we will for His will to be done. So I believe we should desire both to do His will as God has revealed to us though the Scriptures, and also to desire that God's will be done over our own will, but that our will may become His will.

Song So Will I {100 Billion X} - Hillsong Worship - YouTube

> Matthew 6:10 - Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. (ESV)

> Matthew 26:42 - Again, for the second time, he went away and prayed, My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done. (ESV)

> I Peter 3:17 - For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:19 - Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)

> Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

What God does by way of initiative and what we do as a response is inextricably woven together [to the point where our obedience and God's work may be indistinguishable]. God turns our enmity to love and our disbelief to faith:

Sermon Born Again - Alistair Begg, Parkside Church - YouTube @time: 34 min 12 sec

> Philippians 2:13 - for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. (ESV)

1Clem 33:8 Seeing then that we have this pattern, let us conform ourselves with all diligence to His will; let us with all our strength work the work of righteousness.

Paul toils, struggling with all God's energy that God works powerfully within him:

> Colossians 1:29 - For this I toil, struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me. (ESV)

Father God in Jesus was also doing His work through Jesus:

> John 14:10 - Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on My own initiative, but the Father abiding in Me does His works. (NASB)

Here it is further echoed by Paul that though these people were acting of their own free will, they were doing God's will:
Paul commends giving oneself to others by the will of God (their will was doing God's will):

> II Corinthians 8:3-5 - For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own free will, begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints— and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us. (ESV)

Paul commends both desiring to do the will of God, and then encourages to complete the work they desire to do, but says that if the will (obedience of heart) is there, it is acceptable according to what a person has:

> II Corinthians 8:10-12 - And in this matter I give my judgment: this benefits you, who a year ago started not only to do this work but also to desire to do it. So now finish doing it as well, so that your readiness in desiring it may be matched by your completing it out of what you have. For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have. (ESV)

Duty and free will are not mutually exclusive:

> Philemon 1:13-14 - I would have been glad to keep him with me, in order that he might serve me on your behalf during my imprisonment for the gospel, but I preferred to do nothing without your consent in order that your goodness might not be by compulsion but of your own free will. (ESV)

Obeying Jesus', keeping Jesus' commandments and walking by the Spirit are not mutually exclusive. In fact, it's very important to realise that, having gone from serving things that are not God to serving God, serving Jesus, to be walking in obedience to Jesus is to be walking by the Spirit:

> John 6:63-64 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe. (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.) (ESV)

In "The Blazing Center: Part 3 - YouTube" John Piper says, "Maybe my will could correspond to God's will so I could do His will and it would be my will?!" I agree with him.

And through our obedience to Jesus we are saved. The Bible is clear - a works-based gospel based on God working through us saves:

> Hebrews 5:8-9 - Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

It's actually a faith-based gospel, and the works are a gift. So believing, obedient faith comes first and God works in us to change our heart to be transformed to love in the likeness of Jesus:

> Ephesians 2:8-10 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them. (ESV)

Jesus can work in a person to bring them to belief in Him.

When you obey Jesus' commandments, Jesus may be working in you, and you may arrive at belief.

> Psalms 127:1 - Unless the LORD (H3068. Yhvh - Phonetic Spelling: (yeh-ho-vaw'), Often pronounced: Yahweh or Jehovah) builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain. (ESV)

> Matthew 7:24 - Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)

Can a person be saved through:

- reading their Bible, or
- listening to the word of Christ?

There are people who would say that a person is not saved through obedience to the gospel, but by making that claim they are contradicting many scriptures:

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him,

Like the:

- Israelites walking through the Red Sea, or
- Noah building the ark, or
- The lame man standing up to be healed, or
- Peter allowing Jesus to wash his feet

Obedience to the gospel leads to eternal salvation. I believe obedience should arrive at belief, and belief should yield obedience, and knowledge.

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

Obeying Jesus is quite simply one aspect of having faith in Jesus.

Jesus is the vine. We can do nothing without Jesus working through us. We just have to be a believing, willing, obedient vessel for Him:

> John 15:4 - Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. (ESV)

That obedience may, for example, look like proclaiming the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:

> Luke 8:39 - Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you. And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:9 - But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (ESV)

Therefore, we teach people to both believe and to obey the Gospel. When we obey Jesus' commandments it's actually Jesus working in and through us. We want Jesus to be able to carry out work in us, so we obey Him - our will and God's will come into alignment when we obey Jesus' commandments.

In Christ Jesus, through faith in Him (through trusting Him, believing Him, believing in Him and obeying Him), we have Jesus as our righteousness, and sanctification and redemption:

> I Corinthians 1:30 - He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom and our righteousness and sanctification and redemption. (ESV)

Song youtube.com: Be Thou My Vision - Audrey Assad

Believing in your heart is an initial act of obedience to Christ and to Christ's Law before continuing in the teaching of Christ. If we believe in Him we have obeyed Him, but belief doesn't end there:

> John 14:1 - "Do not let your heart be troubled; believe (G4100 pisteuo) in God, believe (G4100 pisteuo) also in Me. (NASB)

If someone is holding to the truth then consider them a partner and receive them. But if they're not, then separate from them:

> Philemon 1:17 - So if you consider me your partner, receive him as you would receive me. (ESV)

It's imperative that as we go ahead, we must abide in the teaching of Christ, or we won't have God (Jehovah God), and God is love and love comes from God, so we need to abide in Christ's teachings, by belief and by obedience. For example, in Mark 10:18, Jesus affirmed that God is Good. Therefore when we read this, we must also be sanctified by this truth, affirming and coming into agreement that God is Good. Also, Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us John 13:34-35:

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:1 - Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. (ESV)

And our obedience is not burdensome:

> I John 5:3 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

We receive the spirit by getting Jesus' words into us, believing them and obeying them. Feeding on them, we get Jesus' spirit and life into us:

> Romans 8:2 - For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. (ESV)

Trusting and obeying Jesus' words and commandments, a person has life:

> John 6:63 - It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no avail. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

We're under the law (commandments) of Christ:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

We rest in believing what Jesus has accomplished on our behalf, but our heart should have become obedient to Jesus.

We don't claim perfect obedience, but God also helps us and supports us:

> Isaiah 64:4 - From of old no one has heard or perceived by the ear, no eye has seen a God besides you, who acts for those who wait for him. (ESV)

Also, waiting on the LORD our strength is renewed:

> Isaiah 40:31 - but they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint. (ESV)

It's crucial to keep Jesus Christ's commandments:

> I John 3:20-24 - for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

Work flowing from obedience is still totally by grace because we needed Jesus to obey God perfectly first! We must still obey Jesus.

> II Timothy 1:6-14 - For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control. Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel by the power of God, who saved us and called us to a holy calling, not because of our works but because of his own purpose and grace, which he gave us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, and which now has been manifested through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, for which I was appointed a preacher and apostle and teacher, which is why I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that he is able to guard until that Day what has been entrusted to me. Follow the pattern of the sound words that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. By the Holy Spirit who dwells within us, guard the good deposit entrusted to you. (ESV)

Believing in Jesus should result in continued loving obedience to Jesus (following Jesus), and doing the work which is similar to the work that Jesus did:

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

I think works that we can expect to come from believers in Jesus are:

- helping to bring about the obedience of faith
- loving selflessly while not breaking faith with God

> John 13:34-35 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (ESV)

The Apostle John also commands us to:

- follow Jesus' commandment to believe in the name of God's Son Jesus Christ, and
- love one another just as He commanded us.

> 1 John 3:23 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. (ESV)

Whoever keeps (5083. téreó) His commandments (plural) abides in Jesus, and Jesus in them. Yes, so I think we must believe Jesus and obey Him:

> I John 3:24 - Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> John 14:10-15 - Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it. If you love me, you will keep my commandments. (ESV)

> John 15:13 - Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. (ESV)

> John 4:32-34 - But he said to them, I have food to eat that you do not know about. So the disciples said to one another, Has anyone brought him something to eat? Jesus said to them, My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. (ESV)

> Romans 16:26 - but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith — (ESV)

> Romans 15:17-18 - In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God. For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed,

Like Jesus, we should do the will of God:

> Hebrews 10:7 - Then I said, Behold, I have come to do your will, O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book. (ESV)

3.15.1 Being filled with the Holy Spirit

- Being a servant of God is a likely precursor to being filled with the Holy Spirit
  - Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)
- Speaking the word of God with boldness is a sure sign of being filled with the Holy Spirit.
- Saying one's own belongings are not our own [but belong to God] is a sure sign of being filled with the Holy Spirit.
  - Giving to others freely to relieve the burdens of others is a another sure sign.
    - Acts 2:45 - And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. (ESV)
  - Job 1:21 - And he said, Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD. (ESV)
  - Romans 11:36 - For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen. (ESV)

> Acts 4:24-35 - And when they heard it, they lifted their voices together to God and said, Sovereign Lord, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them, who through the mouth of our father David, your servant, said by the Holy Spirit, Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers were gathered together, against the Lord and against his Anointed— for truly in this city there were gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, to do whatever your hand and your plan had predestined to take place. And now, Lord, look upon their threats and grant to your servants to continue to speak your word with all boldness, while you stretch out your hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus. And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness. Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold and laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need. (ESV)

1Clem 2:1 And ye were all lowly in mind and free from arrogance, yielding rather than claiming submission, more glad to give than to receive, and content with the provisions which God supplieth. And giving heed unto His words, ye laid them up diligently in your hearts, and His sufferings were before your eyes.

1Clem 2:2 Thus a profound and rich peace was given to all, and an insatiable desire of doing good. An abundant outpouring also of the Holy Spirit fell upon all;

3.16 In God's mercy, we come to obedient faith and come into Christ Jesus

"At one time disobedient…" means we are brought to obedience. Therefore, God's mercy is that we become obedient:

> Romans 11:30-32 - Just as you were at one time disobedient to God but now have received mercy because of their disobedience, so they too have now been disobedient in order that by the mercy shown to you they also may now receive mercy. For God has consigned all to disobedience (543. apeitheia - willful unbelief, obstinancy, disobedience), that he may have mercy on all. (ESV)

Mercy is so that we can be forgiven and change our ways:

> John 8:11 - She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more. (ESV)

Song King of Kings {Lyric Video} - Hillsong Worship - YouTube

3.16.1 In Christ Jesus, the blood of Jesus cleanses us from all sin

We trust that our sin is covered by Jesus Christ's blood, as we abide in Him through belief and obedience:

> Romans 4:5-8 - And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 1:4-6 - John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

In Jesus Christ we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins, and are transferred into the Kingdom of Jesus Christ:

> Colossians 1:13-14 - He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

As we walk in the light, as He is in the light, that is in the Truth, walking in, believing, professing and obeying Jesus Christ in Truth, the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin:

> I John 1:6-7 - If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

We are sanctified in the Spirit for obedience to Jesus Christ, and for sprinkling with His blood:

> I Peter 1:2 - according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and for sprinkling with his blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you. (ESV)
> Hebrews 7:22 - This makes Jesus the guarantor of a better covenant. (ESV)
> Hebrews 10:9-14 - then he added, Behold, I have come to do your will. He abolishes the first in order to establish the second. And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. (ESV)

1Clem 50:1 Ye see, dearly beloved, how great and marvelous a thing is love, and there is no declaring its perfection.

> I John 4:12 - No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)
> I John 4:16-21 - So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

1Clem 50:4 Blessed were we, dearly beloved, if we should be doing the commandments of God in concord of love, to the end that our sins may through love be forgiven us.

1Clem 50:5 For it is written; Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord shall impute no sin, neither is guile in his mouth.

> I Corinthians 11:32 - But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. (ESV)

We are ransomed, and cleaned up by God:

> I Peter 1:18-19 - knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. (ESV)

The blood of Jesus secures an eternal redemption:

> Hebrews 9:11-15 - But when Christ appeared as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and more perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation) he entered once for all into the holy places, not by means of the blood of goats and calves but by means of his own blood, thus securing an eternal redemption. For if the sprinkling of defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a heifer sanctifies for the purification of the flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant. (ESV)

The eternal redemption is in Christ Jesus:

> Ephesians 1:7 - In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:9-10 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

3.17 Obedience is absolutely within our ability

God's commandments are not too difficult to follow.

We may ask God for a willing spirit:

> Psalms 51:10-12 - Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit. (ESV)

Love the LORD your God:

> Deuteronomy 30:10-11 - when you obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes that are written in this Book of the Law, when you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. For this commandment that I command you today is not too hard for you, neither is it far off. (ESV)

Serve God:

> Joshua 22:5 - Only be very careful to observe the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments and to cling to him and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul. (ESV)

Love God [from the heart and soul] so that we may live:

> Deuteronomy 30:6 - And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your offspring, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live. (ESV)

To love your neighbour as yourself means forgiving them too, and remember that Jesus forgave us. It also means to not take vengeance (Christ's law includes not rendering evil for evil):

> Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)

Jesus' commandments us to even love one another, anyone around you, with selfless love:

> John 13:34-35 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (ESV)

And the Apostle John echos that the commandment is still extremely important:

> II John 1:5-6 - And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. (ESV)

Loving our neighbour as ourself should look like showing merciful love to those around you:

> Luke 10:29-37 - But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back. Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers? He said, The one who showed him mercy. And Jesus said to him, You go, and do likewise. (ESV)

We should be loving our neighbour continually:

> John 13:1 - Now before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. (ESV)

> Mark 12:30-31 - And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these. (ESV)

> Mark 12:32-34 - And the scribe said to him, You are right, Teacher. You have truly said that he is one, and there is no other besides him. And to love him with all the heart and with all the understanding and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. And when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, You are not far from the kingdom of God. And after that no one dared to ask him any more questions. (ESV)

We are supposed to fulfill the Royal Law, even after having received forgiveness:

> James 2:1 - My brothers, show no partiality as you hold the faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. (ESV)

> James 2:8-9 - If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, You shall love your neighbor as yourself, you are doing well. But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. (ESV)

youtube.com: John Piper and Tim Keller Wrestle with Sanctification {@desiringGod} @time: 2 min 9 se

> I think Walder Marshall's The Gospel Mystery of Sanctification says it this way, that "you need the comforts of the Gospel in order to fulfill the law". So that's pretty much what I would say too.

The same way that Jesus loved, selflessly:

> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. (ESV)

1Clem 49:1 Let him that hath love in Christ fulfill the commandments of Christ.

Loving one another includes forgiving one another. Forgiving others means not holding a grudge:

> Leviticus 19:18 - You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. (ESV)

We should aim to fulfill these great commandments while being merciful:

> James 2:11-13 - For he who said, Do not commit adultery, also said, Do not murder. If you do not commit adultery but do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged under the law of liberty. For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment. (ESV)

It's perfect self-humbling obedience without committing sin which only Jesus Christ managed to reach, was able to reach and was destined to reach:

> Philippians 2:8 - And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (ESV)

We come to having obedient faith in God through obedient faith in Jesus Christ.
Jesus Christ obeyed Father God perfectly, and sinners put Him to death, and He became the source of eternal salvation to all those who obey Him:

> Hebrews 5:8-9 - Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

> John 1:29 - The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! (ESV)

3.17.1 Observing Jesus, continuing to believe in Him and believe His words and abide in His word, we will live forever

We should be led into the knowledge of the Truth:

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

We should come into a relationship with Jesus Christ and with Father God:

> John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

Anyone who believes in Jesus Christ, the Only Son of God, is not condemned. But the person who is not believing in Jesus Christ, the Only Son of God is condemned already:

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

There is always more chances to believe:

> Romans 11:23-24 - And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. For if you were cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, the natural branches, be grafted back into their own olive tree. (ESV)

In believing we have eternal life, but we need to continue in obedience to Jesus Christ or will not see life, so there should be a change of behaviour. We should have changed to serve God:

youtube.com: Romans 16 19 Bob Fitts {@isbaptist} Be excellent in what is good; Be innocent of evil; Be excellent in what is good; Be innocent of evil; [Chorus:]; And the God of Peace will soon crush Satan; God will crush him underneath your feet!

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

Even if ”apeitheó” is better translated to ”not be pursuaded”, trusting in Jesus Christ is still obedience. Unless you believe that trusting in Jesus is disobedience, which it is not. It’s obedient to trust in Jesus because He commanded it in John 14:1. They’re not separate things. A heart that is pursuaded to trust Jesus is an obedient heart:

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

- G4100 (pisteuōn): This is the present participle form of the verb ” ” (G4100 pisteuō), meaning ”to believe” or ”to have faith.” In the participle form, it functions as a verbal adjective and can be translated as ”believing.”

> I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

Jesus Christ is our Lord and Teacher - that means we believe and obey Him:

> John 13:13-14 - You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. (ESV)

If you hear Jesus' word and believe Father God, then you have eternal life, and don't come into judgement. I don't doubt it. We must continue trusting. But the enemy will certainly try to condemn the person after they are born-again.

Trusting Jesus' words we do not come into judgement, but change direction, and instead our destiny is life eternal. We do not come into judgement. Jesus is the judge of that:

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word (191. akouó) and believes (4100. pisteuó) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (G2064 erchomai) into judgment, but has passed (G3327 metabain; changes place; From meta and the base of basis; to change place – depart, go, pass, remove.) from death to life. (ESV)

I think John 5:24 reads that the one who is trusting the words spoken through Jesus, trusting God, trusting Jesus is holds/posesses eternal life and has passed/is passing/passes from death into life.

G2064 erchomai to come, go

G3327 metabain to pass over, withdraw, depart; changes place; From meta and the base of basis; to change place – depart, go, pass, remove.

> John 5:24 - Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. (KJV)

If we actually believe Jesus Christ is who He says He is, the Son of God, Messiah, we are not condemned. We're never condemned if we are believing in Jesus Christ, Son of God:

> John 6:35 - Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. (ESV)

If you look upon Jesus Christ and believe in Him, you should have eternal life:

> John 6:40-44 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. So the Jews grumbled about him, because he said, I am the bread that came down from heaven. They said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, I have come down from heaven? Jesus answered them, Do not grumble among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

The beholding is a continued beholding while we are believing. We must not be those who lose sight of Jesus. We must be those who continue to behold Him (John 14:19-21):

> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on (G2334 theōrōn; is beholding; V-PPA-NMS) the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 3:18 - And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit. (ESV)

> John 6:47-51 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh. (ESV)

> John 6:53-58 - So Jesus said to them, Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not as the fathers ate and died. Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:7-10 - In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

I think Jesus in His resurrection body still counts as Jesus, the Word of God, become flesh. I think it's still in the days of His flesh:

> Luke 24:39 - See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have. (ESV)

Thomas looked upon the resurrected Jesus:

> John 20:27-29 - Then he said to Thomas, Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe. Thomas answered him, My Lord and my God! Jesus said to him, Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed. (ESV)

We can say we have faith in Jesus before we see Him:

> Hebrews 11:1 - Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. (ESV)

We can even love Him before seeing Him:

> I Peter 1:8 - Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, (ESV)

There is something miraculous about having seen God. Upon seeing Him, we must have come to the point where we have stoppen sinning and where we agape-love our family in Christ:

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

No-one who keeps on sinning has either seen Him or known Him:

> I John 3:6 - No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:34 - Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. (ESV)

If we don't love our family in Christ then we have not even seen Jesus:

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

So it is the will of Father God that those who have seen Jesus Christ, Son of God, and have faith in Him should have eternal life and Jesus will raise them on the last day, and having seen Him means that we would be loving our family in Christ and and put a stop to committing sin:

> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

The beholding is a continued beholding while we are believing. We must not be those who lose sight of Jesus. We must be those who continue to behold Him (John 14:19-21):

> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on (G2334 theōrōn; is beholding; V-PPA-NMS) the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:7-10 - In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

I think Jesus in His resurrection body still counts as Jesus, the Word of God, become flesh. I think it's still in the days of His flesh:

> Luke 24:39 - See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have. (ESV)

Thomas looked upon the resurrected Jesus:

> John 20:27-29 - Then he said to Thomas, Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe. Thomas answered him, My Lord and my God! Jesus said to him, Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed. (ESV)

> I John 4:20-21 - If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV)

Eternal life is given to anyone who believes in Him. I guess there are simply some things I wont understand fully, but I do believe it. I trust in God, and lean not on my own understanding. I believe Jesus' words that are written in the Scriptures:

> John 6:47 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. (ESV)

> I John 2:27 - But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything—and is true and is no lie, just as it has taught you—abide in him. (ESV)

> I John 2:24 - Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you too will abide in the Son and in the Father. (ESV)

God commanded eternal life for those who believe: God's word never comes back void:

> Isaiah 55:11 - so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it. (ESV)

In this current time (world) we may receive more than we lose for the sake of the kingdom, and eternal life is also received in the age to come. But there seems to be a difference in the way :

> Luke 18:29-30 - And he said to them, Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the age to come eternal life. (ESV)

I do not affirm all religions. But I affirm Romans 10:9. I affirm that individual people are saved through belief and I think it should be true belief that's in the heart:

> Romans 10:9 - because, if you confess (G3670 homologēsēs, acknowledge, agree) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. (ESV)

What is meant by "good person"? Someone who "out of his good treasure brings forth good". So we should treasure Jesus Christ. We need faith in order to please God. And Jesus has to be our #1 agape love. And we should make spiritual sacrifices that are pleasing to God through Christ Jesus our Lord.

Bishop Mari here uses the word "assume", probably because it's not possible to change a bad person into a good person without being made into a living one. When Bishop Mari uses the word "good", it's just to try help people who think they know what "good" means understand a point of difference between Jesus and perhaps some other "role models". I take it that Mari is not using it here in the "only God is good sense", but rather trying to explain a point about how God makes a dead person into a living person and noone else does that:

youtube.com: Questions & Answers | Bishop Mari Emmanuel | ? {@SacredScripts} @time: 19 min 12 se

> Let's assume this for a moment, the ultimate these leaders could have done to humanity [is] change a bad person into a good person. Let's say they brought some good values and morals and ethics and principles of life, the ultimate they could have done a favor to the human race was one thing: change a bad person into a good person. The love of my life Jesus Christ of Nazareth did not [merely] come to change a bad person into a good person, He came to change a dead person into a living one.
> In this there is no comparison. It is only Jesus Christ of Nazareth as a human being on the face of this Earth, He is the only human who dared to claim this statement and this truth. He said, ”He who hears My word and believeth in My word, even if he dies he shall live. But he who takes My body and drinks My blood will live in me, forever. I am the life and the resurrection.

We are supposed to practice righteousness, and Jesus did come to redeem us, to make us alive together with Him, to sanctify us, so that we do practice good:

> I Peter 3:9-17 - Do not repay evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary, bless, for to this you were called, that you may obtain a blessing. For Whoever desires to love life and see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit; let him turn away from evil and do good; let him seek peace and pursue it. For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayer. But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil. Now who is there to harm you if you are zealous for what is good? But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you will be blessed. Have no fear of them, nor be troubled, but in your hearts regard Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, having a good conscience, so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil. (ESV)
> Titus 2:11-14 - For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works. (ESV)
> Matthew 12:33 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. (ESV)
> I Peter 2:4-5 - As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. (ESV)
> Hebrews 11:6 - And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. (ESV)
> Matthew 12:35 - The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. (ESV)

God is good. Father God is good. The Son of God is good. Holy Spirit is good. Imitate good:

> Mark 10:18 - And Jesus said to him, Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. (ESV)
> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)
> Luke 6:35-36 - But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful. (ESV)

We should definitely confess (G3670 homologeó) Jesus to others:

> Luke 12:8-9 - And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. (ESV)

Everything is in subjection to Jesus, God has left nothing outside Jesus' control. In the grand scheme of things, Satan is a defeated foe. However, we also face a battle against the devil, which Jesus helps us with:

> Romans 16:19-20 - For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. (ESV)

> Hebrews 2:14-18 - Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery. For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of Abraham. Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted. (ESV)

And also satan will be defeated in this eschatological sense:

> Revelation of John 12:10-11 - And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death. (ESV)

From our perspective it may look like things are still being brought into subjection to Him. It still looks that way to me:

> Ephesians 1:22 - And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church,

> Hebrews 2:5-8 - Now it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. It has been testified somewhere, What is man, that you are mindful of him, or the son of man, that you care for him? You made him for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned him with glory and honor, putting everything in subjection under his feet. Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. At present, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him.

Everything is put in subjection under Jesus and in subjection under Father God:

> I Corinthians 15:24-28 - Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For God has put all things in subjection under his feet. But when it says, all things are put in subjection, it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under him. When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things in subjection under him, that God may be all in all.

Including our own mortal bodies!

> Philippians 3:21 - who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself. (ESV)

Consider that in truthfully confessing that Jesus is Lord, that person has faith in Jesus, and in believing in their heart that God raised Him from the dead, that person has faith in God even in the matter that Jesus was resurrected, even for our justification. So it's faith not only in the finished work of Christ on the cross, but faith in Jesus Himself.

That's important in my opinion because we must trust Jesus Himself to follow Him, to love Him, to keep His words, to keep His commandments, to keep our eyes on Him, to abide by His teaching.

youtube.com: John Piper - Saved Forever @time: 9 min 58 sec Salvation is not static, as though I did something once to get saved (I believed), and God did something once to save me (He sent Jesus to die and rise from the dead) and that's all there is to it. Now this verse is one screaming announcement that is not all there is to it and what I want to try to do in these last moments is is take a Sunday school understanding that's true that simple past, "I believe, He died, I'm saved - period" and grow it into biblical proportions with a verse like Hebrews 7:25 because Hebrews 7:25 says there is not only more that Jesus did, there is more that you do as well. What Jesus does is go on praying for you, interceding for you, coming between you and the Father and making a case for you, and standing up for you.

And out of the heart should flow rivers of living water. Now that re-emphasises that belief should be in the heart:

> John 7:38 - Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. (ESV)

Walk as an imitator of Christ:

> Philippians 3:17-18 - Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. (ESV)

I believe that in I Cor 11:1 Paul is asking those who imitate him to imitate him in imitating Christ. He actually commends his own followers for maintaining the traditions that he handed to them, but makes it clear to them that not only is he himself following Christ, seeking to imitate Christ, but that the head of every man is Christ:

- I Corinthians 10:32-33 - Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1-3 - Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ. Now I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I delivered them to you. But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. (ESV)
- I Corinthians 11:1 (Interlinear) - Imitators (G3402 Mimētai) of me (G1473 mou) be (G1096 ginesthe) as (G2531 kathōs) I also [am] (G2504 kagō) of Christ (G5547 Christou)

> Romans 14:4-6 - Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand. One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. (ESV)

> Romans 14:14-18 - I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean. For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died. So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil. For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. (ESV)

We must be imitators of Christ Jesus. See what Paul is doing as an example of imitating Christ. We repent from sin, we do what God says, we are accountable to God with His precepts and are doers of His commandments, we forgive others as we've been forgiven and we love others as we've been loved, and we have our minds set on heavenly things and the promises of God. Our eschatological beliefs should not instill fear in us to forsake faith, obedience, love and hope in Jesus:

> Philippians 3:12-21 - Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. Only let us hold true to what we have attained. Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself. (ESV)

Remember the toilet paper shortage of 2020, and during the COVID outbreak, how people greedily bought up all the toilet paper and horded food and supplies. How people are so quick to think of self-preservation.

Now consider the "stock up on food" to be prepared mindset when it comes to end times stuff. It can easily become fear and panic and about self-preservation. This is not the way Christians are supposed to think, even in an end-times scenario. I think the mindset of taking care of dependents and eating cheaply to have something to give to others is a good mindset but never at the expense of mantaining Christ's commandments.

Some time in 2022, I believe, after I was born-again, I had listened to a dream (that in retrospect was untrustworthy and clearly not from God), and I had taken it as a warning to others to "stock up on food". I simply wanted other people to be safe and so I had put it into a blog article for others to be prepared so I had recorded this dream in a blog article. In retrospect, I believe that it was the enemy trying to stop me from giving to people in need and trying to make me walk out of step with Jesus' commandments. God forgive me. Everything was so rushed after I was born-again.

Thankfully, I had not forsaken the fear of God, and was able to be corrected, and was so in love with Jesus' commandments that I kept trying to follow them, and please Jesus. That would be my advice. It's so important:

> Matthew 7:24 - Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. (ESV)

> Romans 12:2 - Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (ESV)

Do not be an enemy of the cross of Christ, submit to the righteousness of God - we needed Jehovah God, Father of Jesus Christ, to pay for our sin - and we must imitate Christ, passing forward Christ's love and forgiving as we have been forgiven, and repenting from sin:

> Hebrews 13:7 - Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. (ESV)

> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)

> Jude 1:4 - For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Jude 1:4 - For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. (KJV)

3.17.2 We are saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ

It's God's grace that enables us to be saved through faith. While we are saved exercising obedient, trusting, believing faith, Paul says it was actually God's doing:

> Ephesians 2:8 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, (ESV)

Just because we're gifted repentance to life, that doesn't mean that to go ahead and obediently repent makes the gift of repentance no longer a gift!

> Acts 11:18 - When they heard these things they fell silent. And they glorified God, saying, Then to the Gentiles also God has granted repentance that leads to life.

There are varying amounts of grace given to each person according to mercy, need or stewardship:

> Romans 12:6-8 - Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness. (ESV)

> Ephesians 3:2 - assuming that you have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for you, (ESV)

> Ephesians 4:7 - But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ's gift. (ESV)

> Romans 12:3 - For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. (ESV)

> I Peter 4:10 - As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: (ESV)

> I Corinthians 12:7-11 - To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills. (ESV)

We can still ask for more grace when we are in need:

> Hebrews 4:16 - Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. (ESV)

God gives grace to the humble (not the self-righteous). That is true. But recognising your own sin and calling it sin is humility. And in wanting to turn from it, God may give grace to do so:

> James 4:6 - But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble. (ESV)

Sermon The Heart of the Gospel - YouTube

We believe on Jesus Christ and receive eternal life, and we are saved through Jesus Christ. We see that Jesus Christ obeyed God perfectly and He is the light. We have our hope on Jesus to save us when we believe on Him. We should trust Jesus enough to obey His commandments when we are presented with opportunities to glorify God with our actions. God works through us as we obey Jesus.

> John 3:16-19 - For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil. (ESV)

> Romans 13:8 - Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (ESV)

> Romans 13:10-11 - Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. Besides this you know the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed. (ESV)

We must hear the words of God. If we hear them then we are of God. I know I hear them. If we keep Jesus' word (obey Jesus) we will not see death:

> John 8:47 - Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God. (ESV)

> John 8:51 - Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. (ESV)

To keep Jesus' word means to hear them and to obey:

> Proverbs 7:1-3 - My son, keep my words and treasure up my commandments with you; keep my commandments and live; keep my teaching as the apple of your eye; bind them on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart. (ESV)

Keeping means, not only having them but also keeping, obeying them:

> John 14:21-24 - Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him. Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world? Jesus answered him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me. (ESV)

Lord of Eternity - Fernando Ortega (Live) Lord of Eternity; Blessed is the man; Who walks in Your favor; Who loves all Your words; And hides them like treasure; In the darkest place; Of his desperate heart, They are a light; A strong, sure light.

Essentially, we must believe Jesus. We must not reject Jesus. We must receive Jesus' words. We must be teachable by Jesus:

> John 12:48 - The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)

Jesus comes to dwell in our hearts through faith, His spirit in our inner being, as we are rooted and grounded in love:

> Ephesians 3:14-21 - For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

> I John 5:3 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. (ESV)

> John 8:55 - But you have not known him. I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and I keep his word. (ESV)

We are not condemned if we believe in the name of Jesus Christ, the only Son of God. That's really good news!:

> John 3:18 - Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. (ESV)

AMEN!!

Trusting Jesus' words we do not come into judgement, but change direction, and instead our destiny is life eternal. We do not come into judgement. Jesus is the judge of that:

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word (191. akouó) and believes (4100. pisteuó) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed (3327. metabain) from death to life. (ESV)

I think John 5:24 reads that the one who is trusting the words spoken through Jesus, trusting God, trusting Jesus is holds/posesses eternal life and has passed/is passing/passes from death into life.

3327. metabain to pass over, withdraw, depart

> John 5:24 - Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. (KJV)

AMEN!!

> II Timothy 2:11 - The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; (ESV)

Justification comes through through the righteousness of living by faith:

> Habakkuk 2:4 - Behold, his soul is puffed up; it is not upright within him, but the righteous shall live by his faith. (ESV)

We are justified by His grace as a free gift through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, received by [living by] faith:

> Romans 3:21-25 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. (ESV)

It's faith in God through faith in Jesus Christ, the same Jesus Christ who atoned for our sin. We go from serving sin to serving God through serving Jesus:

> I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)

We should give up our idols from the heart:

> Luke 11:39-41 - And the Lord said to him, Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also? But give as alms those things that are within, and behold, everything is clean for you. (ESV)

> Mark 10:21-23 - And Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, How difficult it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! (ESV)

Faith in the blood of Jesus (passion and death and resurrection of Christ) seems somehow linked to the redemption that is in Christ which we are partakers of:

> Romans 10:10 - For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. (ESV)

> Romans 3:21-24 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, (ESV)

> Romans 4:20-25 - No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. That is why his faith was counted to him as righteousness. But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV) Romans 5:1 - Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> Romans 5:9 - Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. (ESV)

Even the new believer is not condemned:

> I Corinthians 3:1 - But I, brothers, could not address you as spiritual people, but as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. (ESV)

And as we know, no-one in Christ is condemned:

> Romans 8:1 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

youtube.com: God Is Our Savior from What? 1 Timothy 1:1-2, Part 2 @time: 5 min 20 sec There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. This was the main problem.

...

The main problem is God's response to sin is a legal and just and holy condemnation - we must escape this. And in Christ Jesus we are saved from condemnation.

> Romans 5:9 - Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. (ESV)

We must continue in our faith. We must continue to believe Jesus and trust in Jesus:

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus' name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God's ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth. This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

> John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

> Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

> John 8:31-32 - So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed (4100. pisteuó, pepisteukotas) in him, If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. (ESV)

I believe that we are saved not because of our own merit, but, still, obedience to the Gospel leads to righteousness which leads to salvation:

> Hebrews 5:9 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, (ESV)

> Acts 5:32 - And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him. (ESV)

> John 14:15-16 - If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, (ESV)

> John 15:26 - But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. (ESV)

Obedience is not strictly the same thing as works. Obedience is a heart attitude and we are to be obedient to Christ's teachings:

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

> Romans 6:16-18 - Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. (ESV)

> II Timothy 1:7-10 - for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control. Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel by the power of God, who saved us and called us to a holy calling, not because of our works but because of his own purpose and grace, which he gave us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, and which now has been manifested through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, (ESV)

The Apostles were working with Christ. I believe the Apostles also here are exhorting believers to work with Christ to receive the grace of God. The Apostles also practiced what they preached. OK, so imagine a situation where someone is just being so irrationally abusive, or so irrationally hateful and unloving towards people. It might be worth picturing that person as Jesus and Jesus putting Himself in that situation so that you can carry out His commandments and demonstrate God's love towards them. It might also be worth picturing that person as someone who God has set before you to love them and so pass forward the love of God, and perhaps lead them to Jesus.

God bought that opportunity for you to love them, and He also trust you with it, as you trust His commandments. He puts us in the position of being able to demonstrate the love of God, and He entrusts you with it, to show that person the love of God, for their sake, and for Jesus' sake, and for your sake. That's the freedom which Jesus bought for us.

Imagine you want to be able to live-out Jesus' commandments and you feel like they're just so challenging or daunting, or impossible. Fulfilling Christ's law is not impossible. All things are possible with God. And to fulfill the law of Christ is what Paul challenged us to do.

Well, Jesus bought for us the ability to live out His commandments, and live out Father God's commandments to us authentically and without fear of punishment.

Yes, we make mistakes, but God just continues working with us and in us, and Jesus teaches us to obey His commandments better, and live in this way. And since the Holy Spirit goes to those who obey Jesus, it's as if Jesus helps us to do it. So He gives us His commandments, and we put our faith in Him and obey Him and He helps us to continue doing them:

Jesus helps us when we are being tempted. So we are trying to be faithful and obedient to Jesus Christ and Jesus helps us:

> Hebrews 2:14-18 - Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery. For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of Abraham. Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted. (ESV)

I really wish there was not a chapter break between these two verses because it's revealing to to read them side by side:

> II Corinthians 5:21-6:1 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 10:11 - Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

> Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

> James 2:22 - You see that faith (G4102 pistis) was working with (4903. sunergeó) his works (G2041 ergon), and as a result of the works (G2041 ergon), faith (G4102 pistis) was perfected (G5048 teleioo);

4903. sunergeó Definition: to work together. Usage: I cooperate with, work together.

We should disobey sin, and present ourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and our members as instruments of righteousness to God. We should be practicing righteousness, practicing love and holiness and truth:

> Romans 6:12-13 - Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts, and do not go on presenting the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. (NASB)

A person who believes on Jesus' name has the right to become a child of God:

- John 1:12-13 - But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

A child of God makes a practice of practicing righteousness and does not make a practice of sinning:

- I John 3:10 - By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother. (ESV)

We should definitely have the mindset of having suffered in the flesh and ceased from sinning. Be repentant, be spiritually minded, be trying to do the will of God, be prepared to stand before God:

- I Peter 4:1-5 - Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. The time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. (ESV)

3.17.3 We become obedient to Jesus

The righteous try to be obedient. They make mistakes sometimes, they mess up sometimes but they return to God with the fear of God (they repent):

> Proverbs 24:15-16 - Lie not in wait as a wicked man against the dwelling of the righteous; do no violence to his home; for the righteous falls seven times and rises again, but the wicked stumble in times of calamity. (ESV)
> John Piper - "Mercy means that our obedience doesn't have to be perfect, it has to be penitent."

youtube.com: lord you know that we love you {@PrestonSA} (lyrics) Lord, You know that we love You! Help that love to be true; Fill our lives with Your Spirit's power, Lord of love, make us strong – We who to Christ belong.

Lord, You know that we fail You; Our sins, how sorely they grieve You! Many times have we fallen; Lord, lift us up again. May we walk to be worthy of the call that is ours; May Your will and Your purpose Claim our undivided powers!

He paid the price for our sin:

> Romans 4:25 - who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

And we are justified and have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, who we are following:

> Romans 5:1 - Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Long before we ever believed in / obeyed Jesus, God had chosen us to believe in Him and to take part in His holy calling:

> II Timothy 1:9 - who saved us and called us to a holy calling, not because of our works but because of his own purpose and grace, which he gave us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, (ESV)

> Jeremiah 1:4-5 - Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations. (ESV)

> II Timothy 1:13 - Follow the pattern of the sound words that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

We love our neighbour the way Jesus commanded:

> I Corinthians 9:21 - To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law (G1772 ennomos) of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. (ESV)

> Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. (ESV)

1Clem 49:1 Let him that hath love in Christ fulfill the commandments of Christ.

> John 13:34-35 - A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (ESV)

Jesus loved us selflessly. We should love one another selflessly:

> John 15:13 - Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends. (ESV)

We should disobey sin, and present ourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and our members as instruments of righteousness to God. We should be practicing righteousness, practicing love and holiness and truth:

> Romans 6:12-13 - Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts, and do not go on presenting the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. (NASB)

youtube.com: Discovering the * PROFOUND * Wisdom of Proverbs 24 : 16 {@ LakepointeChurch }

I commented:

> I'm unsure if Proverbs 24:15-16 is a perfect match for this dynamic, but if we tie "getting back up" to "returning to faith, returning to walk in the light", then I think it is true to say the righteous do "get back up"/"return to faith" after stumbling. Typically that looks like confessing and forsaking sin, and continuing on in faith and love.

> I John 1:7-9 - But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (ESV)

> James 1:26-27,3:1-2 - If anyone thinks he is religious and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this person's religion is worthless. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world. Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For we all stumble in many ways, and if anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle his whole body. (ESV)

> Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; _but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

youtube.com: Shawn Ryan to Pastor : " Why Did Jesus Have to Die ?" {@ LakepointeChurch } I commented,

I think that what this illustration doesn't convey is that the blessing is for the ungodly "who are believing (having faith) in Him". Not to all the ungodly, but to the ungodly who have faith in Him. What is not done in faith is sin, and sin is lawlessness. Therefore, the blessing is for those who are repentant because they stop committing sin and instead have faith in Him who justifies the ungodly. Because a person can't be having faith and committing sin at the same time.

> Romans 4:23-25 - But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

> Romans 4:5-8 - And to the one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered; blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin.

And Jesus did say whoever believes in Him will do the deeds he does (John 14:12). And Jesus didn't sin. So once again, the blessing is for those who are holding faith in Jesus rather than committing sin, even if they are ungodly. And as they hold this faith in Jesus Christ, they are being cleaned up (sanctified). I just wanted to clarify that.

> John 14:12 - Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. (ESV)

The wrath of God is against all who forsake Him (Ezra 8:22) and against ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth (Romans 1:18).

All thanks to Jesus Christ for the salvation He has bought with His blood which we receive through faith in Him.

> Jude 1:24-25 - Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen. (ESV).

II Corinthians 5:21-6:1 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. (ESV)

II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

Philippians 1:6 - And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. (ESV)

Hebrews 9:22 - Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins. (ESV)

Hebrews 10:37-39 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; _but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls. (ESV)

II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

A person can't be having faith and committing sin at the same time:

Proverbs 12:3 - No one is established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous will never be moved. (ESV)

Someone having faith that Jesus is the Christ is born of God and isn't committing sin:

I John 5:1-2 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. (ESV)

I John 5:18 - We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. (KJV)

Romans 14:23 - But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. (ESV)

I John 3:2-4 - Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure. Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. (ESV)

3.17.4 There's some bonuses to suffering for Christ's sake and for endurance

Not all Christian suffering is the same:

youtube.com: Your Pain Has Purpose | My Testimony {@itsjameycarrington} @time: 13 min 53 sec

Notice how Jesus in his new creation self is showing the wounds and scars of his old creational self. That's what the power of God is, because once we place once we place our faith in God we are new creations and those scars and wounds that we once had, they are not only healed but they are given purpose. God can turn anything around if I didn't have God I don't know where I'd be.

> I Peter 4:16 - Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. (ESV)

If we keep His commandments, keep His works we will reign with Him:

> II Timothy 2:12-13 - if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Revelation of John 2:26 - The one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, (ESV)

> Romans 8:17 - and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (ESV)

But suffering for Christ's sake should be for giving glory to Jesus:

3.17.5 Eternal life and salvation is a gift received through faith and obedience to God

We put our hope on Him to be our High Priest and Advocate, we obey Him as He saves us.

These should really go hand in hand:

- Believing in Jesus Christ for His finished work to receive justification and eternal life and remain in relationship with Father God and with Jesus
- Obeying Jesus Christ (repenting from sin, loving God and your neighbour) to be saved from the wrath of God should really go hand-in-hand.
  - Toss Me in the Water - YouTube @time: 3 min 37 sec
  - youtube.com: Live Like You Belong in Heaven: Philippians 3:18-21, Part 7

When you believe Jesus' words you are trusting of Jesus. If you believe Jesus then you believe when He says He is the Son of God, for example. Someone who hears Jesus' voice and does it is someone who believes Jesus and trusts Him. A person can have a heart of obedience to Jesus and that's a heart of trust, it's a heart of belief. If you trust Jesus you will believe what He says and you will have obedience to Him.

At it's most basic form repentance (metanoia) means a person changes their mind to believe and trust and have a heart of obedience - accepting of the will of God. To repent means `stop distrusting and start trusting` God.

We have believe Jesus and to trust Jesus. When Jesus says He is the Son of God, we must believe it because we trust Him. Likewise when He commands us to repent from sinning we should agree with Jesus and be obedient:

> John 16:8-9 - And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: concerning sin, because they do not believe in me; (ESV)

We need to heed Jesus' warning that we need to change our minds or perish. We have to stop believing falsehood and believe the truth, believe/trust Jesus and Jesus' words:

> Luke 13:3 - No, I tell you; but unless you repent (3340. metanoeó), you will all likewise perish. (ESV)

We keep eyes on Jesus and trust Him:

> Hebrews 12:2 - looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. (ESV)

> Isaiah 12:2 - Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the LORD GOD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation. (ESV)

We must be taught by Jesus. We must be teachable. We must accept what God says and accept he one He sent (Jesus):

> II John 1:9 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. (ESV)

Here is a verse that shows that repenting from evil deeds is important:

> Revelation of John 2:22 - Behold, I will throw her onto a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her I will throw into great tribulation, unless they repent of her works, (ESV)

> John 17:3 - And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. (ESV)

We endeavour to be justified in Christ - in Christ means abiding in Christ - through faith; trusting, believing, obedient faith:

> Galatians 2:16-19 - yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith (G4102 pistis) in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed (G4100 pisteuo) in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified. But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor. For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. (ESV)

Abraham's trusting faith was counted to him as righteousness. I guess it was counted because he was fully conviced, and trusting God. This same justification will be counted to those who trust in God who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification:

> Romans 4:20-25 - No distrust (apistia) made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. That is why his faith was counted to him as righteousness. But the words it was counted to him were not written for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification. (ESV)

We believe that our justification comes by faith so we place our trust in God and continue trusting; we just get on with living for God and serving God and trusting in God for that justification as we serve God and live in the peace of God. We don't justify ourselves. We have faith in God that He will/does justify us, and we get on with living for and serving God:

> Romans 5:1-2 - Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. (ESV)

Being justified by Jesus' blood, we are saved by Him from the wrath of God. We have faith in God also to be saved from the wrath of God. That come with God asking us to turn from our sin:

> Romans 5:9 - Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. (ESV)

Continuing to be sanctified by faith is a process where a person continues in Jesus' words because they are sanctified by faith in Jesus and that means ongoing trust and faithful obedience.

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

Persevere to lack in nothing. This perseverance is done in faith:

> James 1:2-4 - Consider it pure joy, my brothers, when you encounter trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance. Allow perseverance to finish its work, so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything. (engbsb2020eb)

To be sanctified by faith in Jesus is an applied process, I think:

> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

- Immediately we are reconciled to God by the death of His Son. We are justified,
- and then we are saved from the wrath of God by His life, repenting from sin and keeping His commandments, being sanctified, not resisting the Holy Spirit's work of sanctifying us to correcct out behaviour and thoughts, and separated from the world, since friendship with the world is emnity with God
  - Ephesians 2:3 - among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. (ESV)
- also, we meanwhile rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ

> Romans 5:8-11 - but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation. (ESV)

Jesus' act of obedience leads to:

- justification
- life
  - I believe that the life of Jesus helps us to stop sinning
    - youtube.com: The Effort Needed to Fight Sin: Living Out Identity in Christ, Part 2
  - Even though we are born of the Spirit, we still live the rest of the time on earth in obedience to Jesus to get to know Jesus and become like Him in His death

> Romans 5:18 - Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men. (ESV)

> I Peter 2:24 - He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. (ESV)

Faith presses on, faithful to Jesus, walking in the manner which Jesus walked - even to spend the rest of the time on earth being obedient to Jesus to know Jesus and the power of His resurrection, becoming like Him in His death (i.e. being faithful to God, stopping sin, exercising righteousness, becoming a scapegoat (James 5:6), even to death like the Apostles, sharing in His sufferings, living has He lived) and His resurrection:

So by faith we believe we are children of God, and believing on the name of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God gives us the right and the commandment to be sanctified in the Truth. An analogy I like is that that by believing on Jesus' name as Son of God and Christ, we are allowed to be placed into God's ambulance and brought to God. In other words, we continue in faith and obedience, as slaves of God to be cleaned up as we come to the knowledge of the Truth. This imputed righteousness enables us to be sanctified by faith in Jesus with his blood:

John 1:11-13 - He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (ESV)

Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)

God continues to heal, sanctify, deliver us and help us to grow in knowledge of Him, as we obey Him:

Philippians 3:9-13 - and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, (ESV)

We are saved from the wrath of God by the life of Jesus Christ. I think that's in part saying that the life of Jesus helps us to stop practicing sinful things:

Ephesians 5:5-7 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them;

Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

Ephesians 2:3 - among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. (ESV)

That's confirmed here:

I John 3:5-6 - You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him.

Repent, be sanctified, love God and your neighbour, believe and obey Jesus and you will live:

Luke 10:25-28 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. (ESV)

We must turn away from our idols to not receive the wrath of God:

I Thessalonians 1:9-10 - For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from (G1537 ek; from, out of, by, away from) the wrath to come. (ESV)

Malachi 3:18 - Then once more you shall see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him. (ESV)

> Zephaniah 2:1-3 - Gather together, yes, gather, O shameless nation, before the decree takes effect —before the day passes away like chaff— before there comes upon you the burning anger of the LORD, before there comes upon you the day of the anger of the LORD. Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land, who do his just commands; seek righteousness; seek humility; perhaps you may be hidden on the day of the anger of the LORD. (ESV)

> Psalms 57:1-2 - Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, for in you my soul takes refuge; in the shadow of your wings I will take refuge, till the storms of destruction pass by. To the choirmaster: according to Do Not Destroy. A Miktam of David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave. I cry out to God Most High, to God who fulfills his purpose for me. (ESV)

> Isaiah 26:20-21 - Come, my people, enter your chambers, and shut your doors behind you; hide yourselves for a little while until the fury has passed by. For behold, the LORD is coming out from his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity, and the earth will disclose the blood shed on it, and will no more cover its slain. (ESV)

We need to obey Jesus to see the life. That obedience isn't "working" but it is "performing/carrying out" but our justification isn't contingent on "working":

> John 3:36 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey (544. apeitheó) the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. (ESV)

- G4100 (pisteuōn): This is the present participle form of the verb " " (G4100 pisteuō), meaning "to believe" or "to have faith." In the participle form, it functions as a verbal adjective and can be translated as "believing."

> I John 5:10-13 - Whoever believes (G4100 pisteuōn - is believing (verb)) in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. (ESV)

But we must not believe in vain. We must continue trusting Jesus. We must believe and hold fast to the gospel:

> I Corinthians 15:1-2 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast (2722. katechó) to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. (ESV)

2722. katechó Usage: (a) I hold fast, bind, arrest, (b) I take possession of, lay hold of, (c) I hold back, detain, restrain, (d) I hold a ship, keep its head.

By faith we must continue obeying God, forsaking sin, that we may share in Christ:

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

While our faith may waver, Jesus remain faithful, but we must not turn away forever from Jesus:

> II Timothy 2:10-13 - Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. The saying is trustworthy, for: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful— for he cannot deny himself. (ESV)

> Luke 22:31-32 - Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers. (ESV)

Of first importance is that we are believing in, trusting in, trusting the correct Jesus. We must be teachable / correctable by Jesus (accepting as true His words and his deeds):

> I Corinthians 15:3-9 - For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

On the other hand, if we obey Jesus we will never see death:

> John 8:51 - Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death. (ESV)

In treasuring Jesus' words, keeping them, guarding them, observing them, in Him the agape (treasuring, valuing love) has truly been perfected. Having Jesus' teachings in us clearly should result in us walking as He did:

> I John 2:5-6 - but whoever keeps (5083. téreó) His word (G3056 logos), in him the love (G26 agape) of God (G2316 theos) has truly been perfected (G5048 teleioo). By this we know (G1097 ginosko) that we are in Him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)

Repent, be sanctified, love God and your neighbour, believe and obey Jesus and you will live:

> Luke 10:25-28 - And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said to him, What is written in the Law? How do you read it? And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. (ESV)

youtube.com: Steven Curtis Chapman - For The Sake Of The Call We will abandon it all for the sake of the call; No other reason at all but the sake of the call; Wholly devoted to live and to die; Not for the sake of a creed or a cause; Not for a dream or a promise; Simply because it is Jesus who called; And if we believe we'll obey

Repent from sin and receive with meekness the implanted word, the gospel of Jesus Christ, which is able to save us, and persevere with it and allow it to change us:

James 1:21-24 - Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. (ESV)

Matthew 24:9-13 - Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. And then many will fall away and betray one another and hate one another. And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. (ESV)

Being saved by Him I think involves us becoming obedient, and faithfully obeying Jesus Christ our Lord:

Ephesians 5:5-10 - For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not associate (G1096 ginesthe; be) (G4830 symmetochoi; partakers) wiith them; for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord.

Ephesians 5:7 - Be not ye therefore partakers with them. (KJV)

Eternal life is in Jesus:

Romans 6:2-3 - By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? (ESV)

Mark 1:8 - I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit. (ESV)

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. (ESV)

Acts 1:5 - for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now. (ESV)

Romans 6:17-17 - But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, (ESV)

James 1:14-15 - But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death. (ESV)

Romans 6:22-23 - But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (ESV)

I John 5:11 - And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. (ESV)

We receive / walk into the eternal life through faith in Jesus:

John 10:27-28 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. (ESV)

If you hear Jesus' words which came from God and trust God then you have eternal life:

Trusting Jesus' words we do not come into judgement, but change direction, and instead our destiny is life eternal. We do not come into judgement. Jesus is the judge of that:

> John 5:21-24 - For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word (191. akouó) and believes (4100. pisteuó) him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come (2064. erchomai) into judgment, but has passed (3327. metabain) from death to life. (ESV)

I think John 5:24 reads that the one who is trusting the words spoken through Jesus, trusting God, trusting Jesus is holds/posesses eternal life and has passed/is passing/passes from death into life.

3327. metabain to pass over, withdraw, depart

> John 5:24 - Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. (KJV)

> John 7:16 - So Jesus answered them, My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. (ESV)

If someone is holding to the truth then consider them a partner and receive them. But if they're not, then separate from them:

> Philemon 1:17 - So if you consider me your partner, receive him as you would receive me. (ESV)

> II John 1:9-10 - Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, (ESV)

> I Timothy 6:3-4 - If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, he is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, evil suspicions, (ESV)

3.17.6 Propitiation

> Hebrews 2:14-15 - Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery. (ESV)

youtube.com: Freed from Unforgiven Sin {@desiringGod} @time: 17 min 29 sec There is only one lethal weapon in the artillery of Satan. If you've ever thought about this, listen carefully. There's only one lethal, deadly, final, destructive weapon in the artillery of Satan. You know what it is? Your sin. Nobody goes to hell because of being harassed by the devil. Nobody goes to hell because of being possessed by the devil. Nobody goes to hell because of being oppressed by the devil. Nobody goes to hell because of seeing green apparitions on their ceiling at night and hearing weird noises under the bed, which are real. Nobody goes to hell because of that. People go to hell for one reason: unforgiven sin. That's all. Satan has one way to get you to hell, keep you from a savior and get you to sinning, that's all. And if you're covered by the blood of Jesus, if you're clothed with the righteousness of Jesus Christ, you can look him right in the face and say, "Be gone, Satan." Or if he rages against you such as to put you in jail or to make you sick or to kill you, you can smile back at him and say: I'm free from the fear of this thing. Your power's gone. That's my answer.

The reason verse 17 says that he had to be made like us to propitiate sins by his dying, and the reason verse 14 says he had to be made like us to destroy the one who has the power of death, the reason both of those are true is because in covering sin he takes the power of Satan against us. He (satan) can't destroy us. Only sin destroys, and when your sin is covered Satan has nothing that he can hold against you. The accuser, he's an accuser, right? The accuser has no brief in court. His hands are empty, there's no evidence. He can stand there in front of the judge, and say, "I hate them, they're evil, they committed fornication once upon a time. They lied yesterday. They masturbated this week. They looked at they looked at evil stuff. They made fun of Billy Graham." And his hands are empty and God on the bench says, "I know all that. I know all that. But, look, in their hand is a documents called the New Covenant. It's been signed by the blood of my Son. And in it is a commitment to propitiate all their sins if they would trust him, and I'm the one who decides whether I'm angry or not and I'm not angry."

youtube.com: Freed from Unforgiven Sin {@desiringGod} @time: 11 min 20 sec Let's go to verse 17 and ask, why did Jesus have to become human in order to be a High Priest to make propitiation for sins? Why did he need to be human to be a High Priest? Why couldn't he be a high priest as God the Son? Divine, indestructible, not incarnate. Why could not he be our High Priest? Today he's interceding as a High Priest for us in heaven. Here's the reason: it's given four times in the book of Hebrews. The offering that the high priest Jesus offers for us is himself. Had he brought any other offering, we would not be saved. The blood of bulls and goats, chapter 9, cannot take away sin. Only one blood shedding can take away sin, the divine Son of God, incarnate in Jesus Christ. So when it says he had to become like us in order to do the High Priestly work of propitiating sins, it's because this High Priest is going to offer no other sacrifice than the High Priest.

He lays Himself... All the old high priests, remember what they did in the Old Testament? They had bulls, and they had goats, and they had doves, and they'd go into the holy of holies, and they'd take blood and spill it on the altar, cover the sins of the people for a year, perhaps on the day of atonement, and they had to do it for their own sins too. And here comes Jesus, and He has in his mind, "I'm going to do a High Priestly work one time and it's over."

No more Temple sacrifices when I'm done, because the blood I'm taking is not the blood of a bull, the blood of a goat, the blood of a lamb, the blood of a dove, it's 'My' blood, infinitely valuable blood, and I'm going to pour it out one time, or another image would be, "I'm going to go in there, and I'm going to lie down and I'm going to die." I'm going to do that, I'm going to finish this whole system of sacrificial offerings, once for all by laying down My life that I might propitiate sins.

So the aim of His death is to make propitiation for the sins of his people, verse 17, and the aim of His death is to destroy or nullify the power of the devil and his power over death in verse 14. Christ strips the devil of his power in death by propitiating sins.

youtube.com: Freed from Unforgiven Sin {@desiringGod} @time: 22 min 49 sec So I just want to leave a promise with you, that not only has God covered your sins if you are trusting in Jesus, so that you can be free from the fear of dying, subconsciously and consciously, but also He has pledged himself to come and help you.

I've said this numerous times before and I'll close by saying it again, "Right now, today's grace is sufficient for today, and if you're scared right now that in a year, two or five or 10 or 50, you won't have grace to die well, that's okay. Sufficient under the day is the evil thereof and the steadfast love of the Lord never ceases his mercies are what every morning? New. It's going to be there folks. This promise is going to come true for you in Christ, it's going to come true for you, that when the hour comes and the pain is excruciating or the loved one is being taken from you he'll come with a special mercy for that hour.

Galatians 3:13-14 - Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. (ESV)

In Jesus Christ there is no condemnation. Every drop of the wrath of God does not fall on God's elect.

> Romans 8:1 - There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. (ESV)

In Jesus Christ there is no condemnation.

I agree with this.

God will judge those that continue practicing wickedness loving evil:

> Hebrews 13:4 - Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. (ESV)

We must come into the light and stop practicing the wickedness:

> I John 1:5-7 - This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (ESV)

I think that when it comes to substitutionary atonement, trusting Jesus' commandments in no way impedes or comes into conflict with faith in Jesus' blood:

> Titus 1:7-9 - For an overseer, as God's steward, must be above reproach. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or a drunkard or violent or greedy for gain, but hospitable, a lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined. He must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it. (ESV)

rebuke
    An expression of sharp disapproval or criticism.
    "he hadn't meant it as a rebuke, but Neil

So I just rebuke those people who say that trusting in Jesus' commandments is trusting in one's own works (and not trusting in Jesus) because to trust Jesus to do His commandments is completely in the Truth and doing so has nothing against trusting in His works accomplished in passion, death and resurrection and to think that trusting and obeying Jesus' words and commandments is trusting in one's own works rather than Jesus' works I think is a satanic deception:

> Hebrews 5:9-10 - And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. (ESV)

> John 12:48 - The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 5:21 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

In the name of Jesus Christ I rebuke every spirit which does not agree with the person, work, commandments and doctrines of Jesus Christ. AMEN!!

'Legalism' and religious man-made doctrine can be dangerous:

Rather than try to tell God who He should justify or condemn, we should simply focus on Jesus, work out our own salvation with fear and trembling (fear of God), focus on Jesus' commandments, try to keep Jesus' commandments and works, and maintain a good conscience with God, we should try to be producing Christ's selfless love out of a pure heart, purified by faith in Him and in His blood, and out of a sincere faith and good conscience, and when we are weak, fall short etc, we just go to the throne of grace to ask for mercy.

> Hebrews 4:9-16 - So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account. Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. (ESV)

3.17.7 Faith in the blood of Jesus

Pastors fail us, but Jesus Christ doesn't fail us. That's why Jesus should be ultimately our only Teacher. Jesus is our only sure foundation.

youtube.com: The Holy Spirit Will Teach You Everything - Bishop Barron's Sunday Sermon {@BishopB

> Karl Barth, the great Protestant theologian from the last century, said, "The claim that God has spoken implies the trinity." And what he meant was if you say God has spoken, which is a basic biblical intuition, that means there must be in God a speaker, we call him the father, there must be a word spoken. We call that the son. And Bart says there must be an interpreter of the word. Why? Because the divine word, that's too much for our little minds to handle. So we need not a human interpreter. He's not going to help us with that. We need a divine interpreter of the divine word.
> II Timothy 2:7 - Think over what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything. (ESV)

It's a real shame when mistakes are made though. I have made plenty of mistakes too.

Having faith in the death and resurrection of Jesus is of most importance, but is having faith in Jesus' blood is inclusive of the shed blood of His passion:

> I Thessalonians 4:14 - For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. (ESV)

> I Corinthians 15:1-5 - Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. (ESV)

> Isaiah 53:4-10 - Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD (H3068. Yhvh - Phonetic Spelling: (yeh-ho-vaw'), Often pronounced: Yahweh or Jehovah) has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he opened not his mouth. By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people? And they made his grave with the wicked and with a rich man in his death, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him; he has put him to grief; when his soul makes an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring; he shall prolong his days; the will of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:8-9 - Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, the offspring of David, as preached in my gospel, for which I am suffering, bound with chains as a criminal. But the word of God is not bound! (ESV)

I agree that there's actual power in Jesus' actual blood, and after taking a look at the KJV for Romans 3:25 and the Interlinear, I'm convinced that having faith (trusting) in the actual shed blood of Jesus is Scriptural and I think most importantly this means the atoning sacrifice of Jesus His passion and His death. I'm convinced that Romans 3:25 is better translated in the KJV than the ESV.

> Romans 3:25 - Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; (KJV)

> Hebrews 9:13-14 - For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? (KJV)

Isaiah also appears to show that it's the shedding of Jesus' blood which has made atonement for the sin of the one who has faith in Jesus.

> Isaiah 53:3-7 - He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. (KJV)

I consider doctrines to be helpful but also we need a real relationship with God, so being able to trust God Himself through trusting Jesus Himself is vitally important, I think, and that extends to receiving Jesus and Jesus' words and believing Him and trusting Him and His words. I try to not lean on my own understanding of doctrine but continue trusting in God, and this is dynamic, and while I keep a good conscience with God in this way, I'm content as far as assurance and confidence for the day of judgement goes. The Scripture is useful for correction.

Of course, Jesus' blood made atonement for sin so we can be healed:

> Hebrews 9:22 - And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. (KJV)

Likewise, without Jesus being raised, our faith in Jesus would be in vain:

> I Corinthians 15:14-17 - And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised: And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. (KJV)

Anyway, I think it's faith in Jesus Christ Himself (and God is the Justifier) which is of most importance.

> Romans 4:5 - But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. (KJV)

Jesus' blood bought our redemption. A person who puts their faith in Jesus may receive this redemption which has been purchased with His blood. God justifies and purifies. I think it's faith in Jesus Christ Himself which is most important with God as the Justifier.

> I Corinthians 13:9-12 - For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. (KJV)

The interlinear on biblehub for Romans 3:25 also is reassuring me that faith in the actual blood of Jesus is totally Scriptural. I'm not a "KJV-only" guy but I respect the KJV as a translation although I have found other versions at times to be better translations, and I don't see it as a problem to go into the Greek and to read from other translations, although I think we have to be careful.

- Romans 3:25 - whom set forth as - God a propitiation through - faith in - His blood for a showing forth of the righteousness of Him because of the forbearance of the having taken place beforehand sins in the forbearance - of God (Interlinear)

3.17.8 Salvation is by faith and patience

And disobedience arises from a lack of faith. We can come to Jesus who is our High Priest, but has been tempted as we are tempted but without sin, and who can sympathise with us. Therefore, most importantly, we should hold fast to our confession of faith in Jesus and continue in patience unto salvation and to inherit the promises.

> Hebrews 3:12-19 - Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called today, that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief. (ESV)

We don't want to hear, "I do not know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of evil!":

> Luke 13:23-30 - And someone said to him, Lord, will those who are saved be few? And he said to them, Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. When once the master of the house has risen and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, open to us, then he will answer you, I do not know where you come from. Then you will begin to say, We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets. But he will say, I tell you, I do not know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of evil! In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God but you yourselves cast out. And people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and recline at table in the kingdom of God. And behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last. (ESV)

We must be from God, confessing the same Jesus Christ with hearts healed by God through faith to do good:

> Matthew 12:33-37 - Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned. (ESV)
> Acts 26:18 - to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me. (ESV)
> Acts 15:9 - and he made no distinction between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. (ESV)
> Hebrews 9:14 - how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God. (ESV)
> I John 4:1-6 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the (G1722 en; in [the form of]) flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. (ESV)
> I John 5:18-21 - We know that everyone who has been born of God does not keep on sinning, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. Little children, keep yourselves from idols. (ESV)
> III John 1:11 - Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. (ESV)
> I John 4:15 - Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. (ESV)

We must do the will of Father God to enter the kingdom and enter God's rest:

> Matthew 7:21 - Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

Not being of works doesn't mean "not obedience". What matters is what is that we are doers of God's will for us. What is going on in our heart matters (faith, hope, love):

> Hebrews 4:1-16 - Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us fear lest any of you should seem to have failed to reach it. For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said, As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter my rest, although his works were finished from the foundation of the world. For he has somewhere spoken of the seventh day in this way: And God rested on the seventh day from all his works. And again in this passage he said, They shall not enter my rest. Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, again he appoints a certain day, Today, saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted, Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts. For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his. Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account. Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. (ESV)

> Ephesians 2:8-10 - For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them. (ESV)

> Hebrews 5:12-14 - For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the basic principles of the oracles of God. You need milk, not solid food, for everyone who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, since he is a child. But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their powers of discernment trained by constant practice to distinguish good from evil. (ESV)

> Hebrews 6:1-12 - Therefore let us leave the elementary doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, and of instruction about washings, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. And this we will do if God permits. For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, if they then fall away, since they are crucifying once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt. For land that has drunk the rain that often falls on it, and produces a crop useful to those for whose sake it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God. But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed, and its end is to be burned. Though we speak in this way, yet in your case, beloved, we feel sure of better things—things that belong to salvation. For God is not so unjust as to overlook your work and the love that you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do. And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. (ESV)

Abraham believed that not even death could prevent receiving the promises that God has given, and that's what our faith should also be like:

> Hebrews 11:17-19 - By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, of whom it was said, Through Isaac shall your offspring be named. He considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back. (ESV)

> Hebrews 11:39-40 - And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. (ESV)

3.17.9 Being saved by faith in Jesus' blood

This is faith-based righteousness.

God's Righteousness is received through faith in Jesus.

> Romans 10:1-5 - Brothers, my heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved. I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. For, being ignorant of the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. For Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on the law, that the person who does the commandments (G4160 poiēsas, having done) (G846 auta, these things) shall live by them. (ESV)

The righteousness that is by law requires keeping the entire law.

The problem is being required to keep the whole law to be justified by it. There is no problem with obedience itself. We want faith working through love. Working faith is what we want:

> I John 3:23-24 - And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

Being justified by the law of faith in Christ (trusting and obeying Christ) rather than being justified by keeping the whole Mosaic law under the old covenant is, I believe, the correct way to understand what Paul is saying. Because I believe we need a law-abiding faith (true faith in Jesus Christ being a non-idolatrous, agape-loving of the truth faith, and loving neighbour as yourself faith):

> Galatians 5:1-7 - For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you. I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified by the law; you have fallen away from grace. For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love. You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? (ESV)

Obey the Truth means obey Jesus:

> John 14:6 - Jesus said to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (ESV)

> Romans 10:5 - Moses for writes - [of] the righteousness that [is] of the law that The having done these things man will live by them (Interlinear)

Paul links actively believing (trusting) in Jesus Himself to trusting in His blood:

> Romans 10:6-13 - But the righteousness based on faith says, Do not say in your heart, Who will ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down) or Who will descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because, if you confess (G3670 homologeó) with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, Everyone who believes (G4100 pisteuōn, believing) in him will not be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. (ESV)

- We are justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus (Romans 3:24).
- God set Christ Jesus forth as propitiation through faith in His blood
  - Trusting in Jesus Himself has no conflict with trusting in Jesus' blood (His finished works of His passion, death and resurrection)
  - We should have faith in Jesus' blood (His finished works of His passion, death and resurrection) to receive propitiation. The Jesus we believe in, trust in, is the one who died for our sins and rose again from the dead for our justification
    - This doesn't prevent God from justifying anyone who trusts in the Lord Jesus Christ as He is just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus

The redemption is received through faith in Jesus' atoning blood (in His passion and death on a tree and resurrection):

> Romans 3:20-28 - For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it — the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith [through (G2435 dia) faith (G4102 pisteōs) in His (G846 autou) blood (G129 haimati)]. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. (ESV)

Romans 3:25 - whom set forth as - God a propitiation through (G2435 dia) faith (G4102 pisteōs) in His (G846 autou) blood (G129 haimati) for a showing forth of the righteousness of Him because of the forbearance (G3929 parasin, overlooking, passing over) of the having taken place beforehand sins in the forbearance (G463 anoché, patience, tolerance) - of God (Interlinear)

3.17.10 Encouragement from the Bible

Psalms 16:8 - I have set the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken. (ESV)

John 14:27 - Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. (ESV)

Psalms 34:17-19 - When the righteous cry for help, the LORD hears and delivers them out of all their troubles. The LORD is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all. (ESV)

3.18 Treasuring anything else more than God is sin

Quote by Tim Keller Know what the Bible says: Sin is craving something more than God. Sin is making something more important than God. Sin is is living for something more than God. If God is at the periphery of your life, if you're just religious occasionally, if God [is] sort of on the outskirts of your life, that is sin. That's the essence of sin.

> Luke 10:27-28 - And he answered, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself. And he said to him, You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live. (ESV)

3.18.1 Eschatology

I commented on the following video today <2026-04-20 Mon>:

youtube.com: It is NOT ” demonic ” for Christians to argue about the End Times ! Rapture examined

I'm very new to trying to understand eschatology in Scripture but I think it's important for me to be studying right now. I learned something from this video. I had not heard of the Heavenly Premillenial view before.

Nothing wrong with debating eschatology in and of itself, so I wouldn't say that debating eschatology is ”beating up fellow servants” in and of itself.

But while we wait for the appearing of the Lord Jesus Christ our focus must be on Jesus Christ, we must remain faithful to Jesus Christ:

> Luke 21:17-22 - You will be hated by all for my name's sake. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your lives. But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near. Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are inside the city depart, and let not those who are out in the country enter it, for these are days of vengeance, to fulfill all that is written. (ESV)
> James 5:7-12 - Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains. You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. Do not grumble against one another, brothers, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door. As an example of suffering and patience, brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful. But above all, my brothers, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your yes be yes and your no be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation. (ESV)
> Hebrews 10:24-25 - And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. (ESV)

I believe that we are in these times so we should right now be praying for strength, and have our focus on God and not on the cares of this life / the world:

> Luke 21:28-37 - Now when these things begin to take place, straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near. And he told them a parable: Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. As soon as they come out in leaf, you see for yourselves and know that the summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all has taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth. But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man. And every day he was teaching in the temple, but at night he went out and lodged on the mount called Olivet. (ESV)
> I Peter 4:12-19 - Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. But let none of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler. Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God? And If the righteous is scarcely saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner? Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good. (ESV)
> II Thessalonians 1:4-10 - Therefore we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions that you are enduring. This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering— since indeed God considers it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you, and to grant relief to you who are afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might, when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed. (ESV)

Eschatology is very important but not as important as, say remaining faithful to Jesus Christ, abiding in His love, loving one-another as commanded. But for those who are here on the earth, waiting for the return of Jesus, I think we should be discussing and challenging one-another with eschatology.

If somebody got beheaded for their faith before the second-coming of Christ and they were uncertain about their eschatological views, then I think that person is still saved. Wouldn't you think the same?

The whole duty of man is to fear God and keep His commandments and for the Christian that is to have a love for Jesus Christ, a love that loves Him rather than loving evil, and love our family in Christ as He has commanded us to love them. If we're doing that then we're abiding in Him and we're doing our duty. Eschatology is still important, of course. But when debating it we should be doing it out of love for God's word and love for one-another without being hypocrites / whitewashed-walls.

In defense of Lakepoint, when they brought up the Luke 12:42-49 passage, I don't think that the pastor meant that debating eschatology is always beating up on servants, but rather that it sometimes can be.

But I think the passage itself is really talking about how we should be anticipating the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ and be serving one another in love while doing that.

So I think there are two warnings in Luke 12:42-49. One, that people do not compromise their faith and love for one another, and two that we endeavour to remain sound in our eschatological beliefs. And in holding an incorrect echatological viewpoint the person in Luke 12:42-49 (who held the incorrect view that Jesus is delayed), then began to beat on their family in Christ. And rather than doing that, I believe we should be amenable to correction by God's Word, and be able to talk about our eschatological beliefs with one another and challenge one-another from Scripture, without resorting to abusing one another when things haven't gone how we thought they would (i.e. mistakingly thinking the Master is delayed).

I think very imporant is that we are even anticipating the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ at all. When someone stops believing that Jesus Christ is coming at all or is coming soon or is delayed, then it sounds like Jesus is saying He'll come back by surprise for that person when they don't expect. But we should be expecting Jesus. So there is nothing wrong with holding an eschatological view that is expecting Jesus to come in a particular way according to our present understanding of Scripture. But there are weightier matters that we should not compromising as we hold that faith. Matters such as not denying Jesus' name, for example, or having a love for the truth (love for God's word, love for Jesus Christ), or having love for one's family in Christ.

If less important details of eschatology are considered more important than holding faith in Jesus Christ's name, for example, then that's a massive problem. Why would a person want Jesus to return if they are presently hating their family in Christ? Do they want to be judged?

I believe Matt 24 and Luke 21 remain relevant for today and can not merely be attributed to the Siege of Jerusalem 70AD only. Jesus' eschatological prophesy still applies for today, I believe. That makes sense because Jesus says in Luke 21:32-35 that His words will not pass away and "that day" will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth:

> Luke 21:27-31 - And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near. And he told them a parable: Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. As soon as they come out in leaf, you see for yourselves and know that the summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. (ESV)

> Luke 21:32-35 - Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all has taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth. (ESV)

> Matthew 24:31-37 - And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only. As were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. (ESV)

Not taking everything said as authoritative, but the view seems plausible.

There have been many Christians who are scientists. But these days there is what seems to be a religion of hoping in and worshiping "technology", and of "hero engineers", and that's a religion of worshiping "man" instead of God.

We need to to have our eyes on Jesus Christ, being like the wise man from Matt 7:24 who builds his house on a rock, and imitate Jesus who worshiped Father God.

> Matthew 4:1-11 - Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. And after fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. And the tempter came and said to him, If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread. But he answered, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God. Then the devil took him to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple and said to him, If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, He will command his angels concerning you, and On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone. Jesus said to him, Again it is written, You shall not put the Lord your God to the test. Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. And he said to him, All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me. Then Jesus said to him, Be gone, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve. Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and were ministering to him. (ESV)

Those who love God's Truth (not the world) and continue in the love of the Truth, those who persist in faith in Jesus Christ will have Jesus Christ manifest to them, they will see Jesus Christ and receive eternal life. And the world, not being grounded in a love of reality/truth will no longer see Jesus. We want to live so we want to not be cut off from Jesus, so we want to continue to trust and obey Jesus. So those who love Jesus, keeping His commandments will receive the Helper, Holy Spirit, who will come to live in them. But the world can't receive Holy Spirit, Spirit of Truth:

> John 14:18-21 - I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. For the present form of this world is passing away. (ESV)

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. A number from human origin (rather than, say, the golder ratio or pi which come from nature).

Revelation of John 13:18 (Interlinear) Here (G5602 Hōde) the (G3588 hē) wisdom (G4678 sophia) is (G1510 estin) the [one] (G3588 ho) having (G2192 echōn) understanding (G3563 noun) let him count (G5585 psēphisatō) the (G3588 ton) number (G706 arithmon) of the (G3588 tou) beast (G2342 thēriou) number (G706 arithmos) indeed (G1063 gar) a man's (G444 anthrōpou) it is (G1510 estin) and (G2532 kai) the (G3588 ho) number [is] (G706 arithmos) of it (G846 autou) six hundred (G1812 hexakosioi) sixty (G1835 hexēkonta) six (G1803 hex)

The beast is a kingdom that arises on the earth, with "metal" teeth and claws. This kingdom "devours the whole earth". I'm thinking global robotics/AI stuff.

> Daniel 7:19-28 - Then I desired to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the rest, exceedingly terrifying, with its teeth of iron and claws of bronze, and which devoured and broke in pieces and stamped what was left with its feet, and about the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn that came up and before which three of them fell, the horn that had eyes and a mouth that spoke great things, and that seemed greater than its companions. As I looked, this horn made war with the saints and prevailed over them, until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given for the saints of the Most High, and the time came when the saints possessed the kingdom. Thus he said: As for the fourth beast, there shall > be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and it shall devour the whole earth, and trample it down, and break it to pieces. As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings shall arise, and another shall arise after them; he shall be different from the former ones, and shall put down three kings. He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High, and shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. But the court shall sit in judgment, and his dominion shall be taken away, to be consumed and destroyed to the end. And the kingdom and the dominion and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High; their kingdom shall be an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey them. Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly alarmed me, and my color changed, but I kept the matter in my heart. (ESV)

But I've also noticed this from a while back:

From Reverend Doctor Stanley Jaki, a Catholic scientist, wrote in his book "Brain , Mind and Compute

> In our times the growing obsession with the idea of artificial intelligence is already heavily contributing to a weakening of critical sense, to a lessening of man's appreciation of intangibles, and to a growth of skepticism about human values. … In an age overawed by the spectacular feats of physical science, it is far more popular to heap praise on physics than to appraise soberly its actual achievements and potentialities… Perceptive students [are] fully aware of the disasters in store for mankind should the attitude of gadget worshipping gai the dominant role in this highly mechanized age of ours. They know that the danger of machines derives not so much from the machines as from man's attitude towards them. For the crucial issue in the man-machine relationship lies not in what machines can do but in the concepts that man forms about machines and about himself. … [the current trend in literature, however,], if it goes unchecked, may lead to an upheaval of human values unparalleled in history.
> It is a literature which blatantly overestimates computers and drastically devalues man. One may, for instance, read in a college textbook destined for large circulationo that artifical minds shall achieve what the splendid intellectual and technological triumphs of the scientific revolution could not do: come to grips with the value problems of life… for a peaceful and productive international society… A picture of the not-so-distant future is conjured up with increasing frequency… when man, as a rather inefficient computer, will take a poor second place to brilliant mechanical brains and will render homage not to God but to the Supreme Master Programmer, whoever or whatever that shall be … [but it is an] elementary truth that when man becomes oblivious to his own uniqueness, he loses his ability to weigh properly the meaning of tools created by him. …

This global non-consensual push for AI into every aspect of life after raping the planet and stealing from people in order to manufacture it is so evil. I hope that God allows me to be able to work without forcing me into thinking of AI chatbots as peers. It's just a faithless, atheistic, transhumanist way of thinking and I refuse to do it.

I'm a Christian and God has called me to live in newness of life, spiritually minded in love for Him and for my neighbour. And the way people have been using this AI stuff is earthly and of the devil.

> James 3:14-17 - But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth. This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but is earthly (G1919 epigeios), unspiritual (G5591 psychikē -> psuchikos -> psuche, what is natural, as it relates to physical, tangible life alone apart from God's inworking of faith), demonic (G1141 daimoniōdēs; of the devil / demon-like). For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere. (ESV)

”This is not our home. We’re waiting. This isn’t our home. This isn’t where we’re going to spend eternity. This isn’t what it’s all about. Living on this present world, this present earth: this is not what it’s about.”

Among possible eschatological theologies I hold in possibility is this idea of a heavenly reign - as in, Jesus Christ and His saints reigning from heaven. I do look forward to being there (i.e. that being my home). But I also understand that God does bring His Kingdom to earth and reigns over it.

So, when I said earlier things are under control, well, what exactly did I mean by that? Well, I hate to say it, but things are under control in a way that you probably don’t want to hear. You see, the Bible tells us exactly what’s going to happen step by step, play by play. And when I say things are under control, they are absolutely under control. But the Lord is in control.

youtube.com: wake up for the return of Christ {@Brycesdiary} @time: 16 min 20 sec We can’t build our Tower of Babel to God but the reason we pray, the reason we give our lives to Christ, the reason we’re obedient to Him is because, man, we’re transformed by this love that comes inside of our heart and out of the abundance of the heart our mouth and our actions produce this fruit that we really believe what we say we believe. My friend, my brother, my sister, listen to this: Get right with the Lord. Stay awake, stop sleeping. Wake up. It’s time to put on the full armour of God.

> Ephesians 6:11-20 - Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak. Because God loved us first:

- The Apostle Paul endeavours to know Jesus (’makes it his own’. See Php 3:9-13) because Jesus made Paul His own
    - To be found in Jesus is what Paul describes as the righteousness from God that depends on faith

    - Philippians 3:8-12 - Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. (ESV)

    - James 1:19-23 - Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness that God requires. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. (ESV)
  - We know Jesus by believing in Him and obeying His commandments, and when we love and forgive we know God loved us and forgave us first
    - I John 2:3-6 - And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says I know him but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. (ESV)
- We must love because He loved us first for God to abide in us
  - Romans 5:7-8 - For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (ESV)
  - I John 4:9-12 - In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us. (ESV)
- We must forgive as we have been forgiven
  - Colossians 3:12-14 - Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. (ESV)

  - Ephesians 4:30-32 - And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you. (ESV)

- We must be conformed to holiness
  - I Peter 1:14-16 - As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, You shall be holy, for I am holy. (ESV)

Before the second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ there is the appearance of the ”man of lawlessness”:

> II Thessalonians 2:1-4 - Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God. (ESV)

We must put on the breastplate of righteousness and the helmet of salvation. The breastplate of righteousness is a breastplate of faith and love. We have faith in Jesus Christ who died for our sins and we love one-another, and we have hope of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ:

> I Thessalonians 5:1-10 - Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, There is peace and security, then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. I haven't written about the various theories on pretrib-rapture, posttrib etc. because I've just been concentrating on my relationship with Jesus rather than fear and panic. I believe that if we have been transformed by the gospel into obedient to Christ, if we are trying to be obedient to Jesus' commandments out of faith and love for Jesus, Him as our #1 agape love in our heart, in faith for what He has done, knowing God loved us first, and endeavouring to keep His commandments, then we are functioning the way Jesus wants us to and there is nothing to worry about in terms of salvation.

G726 harpazō catch up / take by force

G726 harpagēsometha will be caught away (the word used in I Thessalonians 4:17)

Here are places where the word harpazō and its derivatives are used:

Matthew 11:12 - From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and the violent take it (G726 harpazousin; claim) by force. (ESV)

Matthew 13:19 - When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away (G726 harpazei; snatches away) what has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown along the path. (ESV)

John 6:15 - Perceiving then that they were about to come and take him by force (G726 harpazein; to seize) to make him king, Jesus withdrew again to the mountain by himself. (ESV)

John 10:12 - He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them (G726 harpazei; snatches) and scatters them. (ESV)

John 10:28 - I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch (G726 harpasei; will seize) them out of my hand. (ESV)

Acts 23:10 - And when the dissension became violent, the tribune, afraid that Paul would be torn to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him away from among them by force (G726 harpasai; to take by force) and bring him into the barracks. (ESV)

Revelation of John 12:5 - She gave birth to a male child, one who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron, but her child was caught up (G726 hērpasthē; was caught up) to God and to his throne, (ESV)

A person can be carried away by God:

> Acts 8:39 - And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord carried Philip away (G726 hērpasen; carried away), and the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 12:2-4 - I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up (G726 harpagenta; having been caught up) to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows. And I know that this man was caught up into paradise—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows— and he heard things that cannot be told, which man may not utter. (ESV)

> I Thessalonians 4:17 - Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up (G726 harpagēsometha; will be caught away) together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. (ESV)

Israel gave birth to the Messiah (Jesus Christ) who was then raptured to God and to His throne:

> Revelation of John 12:5 - She gave birth to a male child, one who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron, but her child was caught up (G726 hērpasthē was caught up) to God and to his throne, (ESV)

> Acts 1:9-11 - And when he had said these things, as they were looking on, he was lifted up (G1869 epērthē; He was taken up), and a cloud took (G5274 hypelaben; hid) him out of their sight. And while they were gazing into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes, and said, Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up (G353 analēmphtheis; having been taken up) from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven. (ESV)

A person can be rescued by being snatched out of the fire:

> Jude 1:23 - save others by snatching (G726 harpazontes; snatching) them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment stained by the flesh. (ESV)

The 'beast system' stuff is no joke to me. We've seen how the COVID lockdowns were pushed onto society and the fear and panic and division it caused between families and church congregations and the excessive government control and vilification of those who did not want to be force vaccinated. And I was saying it back in 2021, that the COVID fear and panic is distracting everyone from what's coming down the road, the AI stuff. And now it's here and I can see more issues. I'm definitely not going to allow people to push me around with this AI stuff, especially as I've seen it from a mile away.

youtube.com: SETTING THE STAGE FOR ANTICHRIST... IN REAL TIME! {@WatchmanRiver}

> Some people say we're running out of normal or normal is not coming back. Jesus is because that that's the fact, Jack. We're in that time period right now. Listen to this. Antichrist kingdom is forming right before our eyes. I say that because of the exponential increase in lawlessness which will later define his coming rule upon the earth. Paul emphasized his character referring to him as both the man of lawlessness and the lawless one.
> In Revelation 13:5-18 emphasizes his total disregard for all that's right and good. He will excel in blaspheming the Lord, murder, and tyranny. Yeah. And we we're in those days right now watching for the return of Jesus. That's why we come here every day and say, "Look, time is short. Time is short. If you don't know Jesus, please keep watching this video." How many times do I say that? And I mean it each and every time. We've gone too far down this road.

With regards to idolatry specifically, a graven image is nothing compared to God. If it's being used as an idol, it's correct to not bow to that idol, and it's correct to not give it our heart obedience. It might still be correct to boycot certain things for righteousness-sake, on the grounds of idolatry or simply not wanting to partake in theft. At the end of the day, even this AI stuff has to be seen as nothing compared to God.

> Daniel 3:12 - There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, pay no attention to you; they do not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up. (ESV)

Calling AI an 'entity' might carry some fictious ideas drawn from the new M.I. movie which has came out in theaters.

> I Corinthians 10:19-22 - What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? (ESV)

youtube.com: Demons - documentary film with Dr. Michael S. Heiser {@logosbiblesoftware} @time: 8 m

For all of you who wanna say, "Oh, it's just idols or just, objects of stone or whatever, and they don't have real entities behind them."

Why would Paul care then?" Are you saying that Paul didn't believe that demons were real? I'm sorry, but Paul did, okay?

Paul quotes this passage using elohim of these other entities.

That certainly did have idols made for them.

In the biblical worldview, these were real entities that mattered because they were hostile and could lead people astray, away from the true God.

youtube.com: PUSHING AI UPON US ALL! THE BEAST SYSTEM {@WatchmanRiver} You know, these people that are pushing this, they know, they know the dangers of AI, but you know what? They don't care. They don't care. They want it in every aspect of our life. They want to wire our brains to our phones. They say it where you could, you know, upgrade. You could do an update on your brain. Oh, you need a new system. You need the latest.

They want us to rely on AI with every move we make. And it's going to eventually track everyone, every move they make. It's going to own the lost. It's going to own them. There are videos coming out now where you can't tell it's AI. It's getting to that point. Remember I said this quite a while ago. I said, "At some point, they're going to be able to take 10 seconds of my voice and my face and they'll be able to create a video and you'd never know it wasn't me."

And I think brother Tyler said to me in a text, we are going back and forth and he said, "You know, my youngest daughter is going to grow up in a world that she won't know truth from falseeness, fakeness, because that's what this does. It blurs the line of truth and lies. I told my wife this morning, we were having coffee and I said, "Honestly, if I didn't believe in Jesus, this coming AI revolution would depress me to the point of death.

Journal <2025-05-08 Thu> Last night I was hit with an awful amount of spiritual attack including false dreams and conversations in my sleep which I did not feel in control over. When I became conscious of that I need to test the spirits during this conversation, and tried to recite I John 4:1, the dream freezed and I woke up. I still do not feel free of whatever has been attacking me this morning. In the last week I've been with a lot of these false, lewd, death-themed or tempting dreams. But I think it's not right for me to repeat them because I am called to test the spirits to see if they are from God. And I had no explicit instruction to relay anything. A trustworthy dream in my books must come with confessions about elementary doctrine of Christ, such as that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and has come in the flesh, died for my sins and rose from the dead for my justification. But I just wanted to put it here that I believe that I've been harassed a lot by satan, and also that I really want to continue being purified of every defilement of spirit (biblehub.com defilement.htm: Topical Bible: The Danger of Spiritual Defilement, holyghostfellowship.net: SPIRITUAL DEFILEMENT - Holy Ghost Fellowship International)) and flesh.

See biblehub.com defilement.htm: Topical Bible: The Danger of Spiritual Defilement, holyghostfellowship.net: SPIRITUAL DEFILEMENT - Holy Ghost Fellowship International

> I John 4:1 - Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. (ESV)

> II Corinthians 7:1 - Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God. (ESV)

These things probably happen from our perspective, no matter which generation we are in. If we see this happening for ourself, we should be careful to be keeping Christ's commandments, and remaining faithful to Him and keeping our hope in Jesus, and have all the armour of God on:

> Luke 21:29-37 - And he told them a parable: Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. As soon as they come out in leaf, you see for yourselves and know that the summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all has taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth. But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man. And every day he was teaching in the temple, but at night he went out and lodged on the mount called Olivet. (ESV)

We should be maintaining keeping Christ's commandments to show Christs' love to people as we bear witness of Jesus before governors (a court of law, say), and kings (people in earthly positions of power):

> Luke 21:9-20 - And when you hear of wars and tumults, do not be terrified, for these things must first take place, but the end will not be at once. Then he said to them, Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and pestilences. And there will be terrors and great signs from heaven. But before all this they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors for my name's sake. This will be your opportunity to bear witness. Settle it therefore in your minds not to meditate beforehand how to answer, for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be delivered up even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and some of you they will put to death. You will be hated by all for my name's sake. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your lives. But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near. (ESV)

> Zechariah 12:3 - On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples. All who lift it will surely hurt themselves. And all the nations of the earth will gather against it. (ESV)

We should be storing up treasure in heaving, as servants, keeping Jesus' commandments, waiting for Jesus:

> Luke 12:33-37 - Sell your possessions, and give to the needy. Provide yourselves with moneybags that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Stay dressed for action and keep your lamps burning, and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the wedding feast, so that they may open the door to him at once when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will dress himself for service and have them recline at table, and he will come and serve them. (ESV)

3.18.2 Satan’s plan exposed, explained, extinguished

> II Corinthians 11:2-4 - I feel a divine jealousy for you, for I betrothed you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ. For if someone comes and proclaims another Jesus than the one we proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or if you accept a different gospel (G3844 par’, contrary to) from the one you accepted, you put up with it readily enough. (ESV)

Notice how II Cor 11:4 uses the greek word `par` which seems to translate to ”contrary”. OK, so if someone is speaking the same thing as Jesus and the Apostles, then great. But if they are preaching, say, against ”repentance from sin” then they are not speaking the same gospel, they’re not speaking the same thing as Jesus and the Apostles.

> Revelation of John 17:5-6 - And on her forehead was written a name of mystery: Babylon the great, mother of prostitutes and of earth’s abominations. And I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints, the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I marveled greatly. (ESV)

I’m not the one to condemn but Jesus’ word will judge on the last day the one who rejects Jesus’ words. I believe we must be corrected by the Truth, as it is revealed to us through God’s Word as we are walking by the Spirit.

> Luke 24:25-26 - And he said to them, O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory? (ESV)

It’s so important to be correctable by the Truth. God knows His sheep:

> Luke 24:27-32 - And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. So they drew near to the village to which they were going. He acted as if he were going farther, but they urged him strongly, saying, Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is now far spent. So he went in to stay with them. When he was at table with them, he took the bread and blessed and broke it and gave it to them. And their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the Scriptures? (ESV)

> John 18:37 - Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

God wants use to fear Him and receive correction from Him:

> Zephaniah 3:6-7 - I have cut off nations; their battlements are in ruins; I have laid waste their streets so that no one walks in them; their cities have been made desolate, without a man, without an inhabitant. I said, Surely you will fear me; you will accept correction. Then your dwelling would not be cut off according to all that I have appointed against you. But all the more they were eager to make all their deeds corrupt. (ESV) youtube.com: Christ condemned. Good person? Eating disorders. Luz de Maria? Trump: LGBT, IVF.

> And uh one cannot in any in any way shape or form in any sense be considered a Christian who denies the doctrine of the blessed Trinity, and yet survey shows 9% of those identifying as Catholics in America believe only 9% believe in the blessed trinity. 91% do not believe. Now that’s apostasy. You know, this basically amounts to apostasy because when you deny the belief in the blessed Trinity, you deny everything. You deny the incarnation of the second person of the blessed trinity. If there is no second person of the blessed trinity, you deny if you deny the incarnation of the second person of the blessed trinity, you deny the redemption. You deny all the sacraments, everything, everything goes with that denial. It’s called apostasy.

I’m certainly not condemning the entire categories of people from the Roman Catholic church or even from the Jehovah’s Witnesses, etc. or Reformists, but I am concerned about polluting Christianity with false religion, and affirming the lie that there is any other way to God other than through Jesus Christ. We have to submit to God’s Righteousness. God tests the hearts and knows His sheep. Although I think John here rightly makes important points here against bad doctrines and false-religion. ’Religion’ is not God’s way. I think doctrine and traditions have value but not when they take the place of trusting Jesus Christ Himself who is not far from any of us.

> Mark 12:32-34 - And the scribe said to him, You are right, Teacher. You have truly said that he is one, and there is no other besides him. And to love him with all the heart and with all the understanding and with all the strength, and to love one’s neighbor as oneself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. And when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, You are not far from the kingdom of God. And after that no one dared to ask him any more questions. (ESV)

> Acts 17:24-28 - The God who made the world and everything in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples made by man, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mankind life and breath and everything. And he made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their dwelling place, that they should seek God, in the hope that they might feel their way toward him and find him. Yet he is actually not far from each one of us, for In him we live and move and have our being; as even some of your own poets have said, For we are indeed his offspring. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 29:13-14 - You will seek me and find me. When you seek me with all your heart, I will be found by you, declares the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, declares the LORD, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile. (ESV)

youtube.com: Why Islamic & Christian End Times Prophecies Are Mirror Images {@ Voiceoffaith04 }

> So, in John 16, Jesus says about the end, ”The time is coming when they will kill you and think they are offering service to God.” Now, for the last 30, 40 years in America, Christians have been really focused on secularism, atheism. It’s a big problem. We got to oppose it and they’re right.

If you start studying what in Islamic eschatology, Islamic view of the end times is called the Mahdi. In Islamic eschatology, there will be an end times Messianic figure that's called the Mahdi that comes in and ushers in these end times events that usher in the end of the world and paradise in Islam. Now, what I'm going to do is I'm going to bullet point for you what Muslims believe the Mahdi will do. When I read these, if you are a Bible-aware Christian, you're going to have a whole bunch of, like, flashing red lights in your head going, ”Whoa, whoa, whoa, that sounds familiar.” And I'm going to tell you why here in a second. So, in Islamic eschatology, the Mahdi will emerge as a charismatic Messianic world leader during global chaos. He will take control of the world and destroy everyone who resists him. He will invade many nations. He will rule and reign for seven years. He will broker a seven-year peace treaty with the Jews. He will conquer Israel and massacre the Jews. He will establish an Islamic one-world government headquartered in Jerusalem. He will establish Islam as the only acceptable religion. He will come on a white horse.

He will come on a white horse with supernatural power doing signs and wonders. He will be assisted by a powerful prophet. Now, listen. If any of that sounds familiar, it is because it is a precise description of the Bible's Antichrist. So, think about this. Islam's Mahdi is the Christian Antichrist. Like we know that the rider on the white horse in Revelation 6 is the Antichrist.

> Revelation of John 6:2 - And I looked, and behold, a white horse! And its rider had a bow, and a crown was given to him, and he came out conquering, and to conquer. (ESV)

They use that verse to describe their Mahdi. Now, let me go one last layer deeper. If you view Ezekiel 38 as an eschatological prophecy, if you view it view it that way, a lot of Christians do, then what you're waiting for is that at the end, a bunch of nations in the world will gather against Israel. They will wage a multi-front war. Everybody aligns against Israel and it's going to look like Israel is going to be destroyed and that at that moment is the moment that Jesus Christ will return, war horse, tattoo on his thigh, fire in his eyes, sword out of his mouth, and he will destroy them and put down the enemies of God. Now, dude, here's what's insane. If you go back to Ezekiel 38, here are the nations that it lists again. Now, it's using the names for those nations in the time that Ezekiel was written. So, it uses uh the names Gog, Magog, Meshech and Tubal, Persia, Cush, Put, Gomer, and then I'll get this pronounced pronounced wrong, ”Beth Togarmah”. Okay. Now, the modern-day equivalents for those nations are Gog and Magog corresponds to primarily Russia and Central Asia. Meshech and Tubal, that's Turkey. Persia is Iran. Cush is Sudan. Put is Libya. Gomer is Turkey and ”Beth Togarmah” is also Turkey. Now, let me point this out. All but one of those today are Islamic nations. And guess what is the fastest growing religion in the only one of those nations (Russia) that is not yet an Islamic nation? Islam.

Now, listen, Christians I I always want to say this. Christians should love Muslims because God loves all people, wants to save all people. They're gentiles, too, that God wants to save.

Christians should love Muslims. Christians should hate Islam because it is a demonic ideology and religion that destroys and enslaves the people that adhere to it.

youtube.com: THE DEADLIEST FORM OF FAKE NEWS–Satan's Plan to Use False Religions to Decei

Satan's plan is to counter God's plan and to tell people they can go their own way to God by achieving by working hard by religion, by doing the five pillars of Islam or following the doctrines of the Roman Catholic church or knocking door too Jehovah's Witnesses or going to the temple in Salt Lake City. Religion is not God's way.

...

God's way was substitution of a kind of what we call a substitutionary sacrifice that you came to by faith see that's the gospel that's been around since the Garden of Eden. God says you need a substitute who dies in your place and you by faith trust him.

youtube.com: THE DEADLIEST FORM OF FAKE NEWS–Satan's Plan to Use False Religions to Decei

What do all the early church, the Catholic Church, the Reformation Church, the Evangelical and the charismatic, what do they all have in common? The Bible. Now look at this. This much of Roman Catholicism is > absolutely true. This much of the Reformation Church was based in the Bible. This much of the evangelical Church, and this much of the charismatic church, and this much of the early church. But all of the iterations that followed have the part that’s not in the Bible. What’s Romanism? The damnable doctrine of works, that you can earn your way. What about the Reformation Church? What we call theological drift which basically is this: Verse of the Bible, verse of the Bible, conclusion from that verse... verse of the Bible, verse of the Bible, conclusion from that verse. Now these conclusions are directly anchored to the Scripture. Watch this... Conclusion from two conclusions is theological drift, this doctrine is no longer tied to the Scripture. It may be true, but it’s not Scriptural. It’s logical, and that’s what we come up with in the Reformation Church. That’s where we get such things as dual predestination. They said that God predestines some people to hell and some to heaven. Have you ever heard that doctrine? That is very clearly a part of the Reformation Church. Is that in the Bible? Do you find that here? No. But you find it logically here. And then what did did the evangelical church do? They got into the problem of traditions over the Word. What’s one of the clearest ones? We call it invitationalism.

> That is a real blight. Invitationalism is that if you raise your hand or pray a prayer you’re saved. No matter whether God does anything to you or not, if you did that, you’re saved. Now the Bible says whoever calls the name of the Lord shall be saved, but what it says is when God saves you Acts 26:18, you get a new heart and a new spirit.
> But invitationalism, which started, basically in about 1830 was if you had a a good very powerful preacher and he told people to come to the front and they did, they thought that by them coming to the front or praying or doing something they got saved, and that’s where the church gradually got diluted. And then of course the charismatic renewal church has so much truth in it but their excesses and experience has taken over the word.

And so, some errors are not lethal. I consider, for example, the present Pope I consider to be a heretic, but that doesn’t necessarily mean that he is ’unsaved’ or ’unsavable’. But as well, it also means that certain problems some would consider to be irreconcilably schismatic may merely be deep but only superficial:

> I Corinthians 3:11-15 - For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— each one’s work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If anyone’s work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. (ESV)

Baseline covenant-keeping would be holding faith in Jesus Christ, Son of God, and loving one-another as Jesus Christ has commanded us, and if a person is doing that then they are in-Christ.

God is just when He justifies. God is right when He declares someone is walking rightly. When God justifies a person, then they have His righteousness:

> Romans 3:21-26 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified (G1344 dikaioumenoi; being justified) by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God’s righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just (G1342 dikaion;) and the justifier (G1344 dikaiounta; justifying) of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

> Psalms 103:17-18 - But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children’s children, to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments. (ESV)

Someone who is ”in Christ Jesus” has God’s righteousness who is Jesus Christ, and they are abiding in Jesus Christ’s commandments:

> I Corinthians 1:30 - It is because of Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God: our righteousness, holiness, and redemption. (engbsb2020eb)

> I John 3:21-24 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)

> Proverbs 1:28-31 - Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently but will not find me. Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD, would have none of my counsel and despised all my reproof, therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way, and have their fill of their own devices. (ESV)

> Jeremiah 23:5-6 - Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely. And this is the name by which he will be called: The LORD is our righteousness. (ESV)

By what a person does they can deny Christ, thus not keeping covenant with Him. If a person can't "do/produce good" because they prefer evil to good then they deny Jesus' name:

> Revelation of John 3:8 - I know your works. Behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one is able to shut. I know that you have but little power, and yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name. (ESV)

> Titus 1:16 - They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. (ESV)

Christians who tolerate sin will be disciplined and experience severe discipline if necessary. And those who are "children" of Jezebel (i.e. taking after Jezebel) as opposed to children of God, God will smite. Christ sees the hearts and minds and knows who are really His. If a person claims to be a follower of Jesus but they are actually hate Jesus, loving evil, then they are in danger of being slain by the Word of God:

> Revelation of John 2:20-24 - But I have this against you, that you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess and is teaching and seducing my servants to practice sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols. I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. Behold, I will throw her onto a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her I will throw into great tribulation, unless they repent of her works, and I will strike her children dead. And all the churches will know that I am he who searches mind and heart, and I will give to each of you as your works deserve. But to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who have not learned what some call the deep things of Satan, to you I say, I do not lay on you any other burden. (ESV)

> II Timothy 2:19 - But God's firm foundation stands, bearing this seal: The Lord knows those who are his, and, Let everyone who names the name of the Lord depart from iniquity. (ESV)

I believe that real faith necessitates having the fear of God. Real love for Jesus necessitates a hatred of evil because we love God so want to do what is pleasing to Him and do not want to sin against Him:

Psalms 115:11 You who fear Yahweh trust in Yahweh their help and their shield He [is] (Interlinear)

With some amount of fear of God a person would have some compunction about sinning against God; A person with the fear of God is averse/adverse to sinning against God and so repentance from sin goes hand in hand with the fear of God:

> Genesis 20:11 - Abraham said, I did it because I thought, There is no fear of God at all in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife. (ESV)

> Proverbs 16:6 - By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD one turns away from evil. (ESV)

> I Peter 1:22 - Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, (ESV)

The person ”doing the will of Father God” is the person who ”believes” and is the person who ”does in reality” and is the person who ”goes to work in the vineyard”.

A person might therefore have said the wrong thing but ended up doing the right thing. Man looks at the outwards appearance. God looks at the heart. God wants us to be the one who goes out in reality. This parable doeosn’t mention the quality of any potential work done. But it’s saying we must be those who go out in reality to do God’s will for us:

> Matthew 21:24-32 - Jesus answered them, I also will ask you one question, and if you tell me the answer, then I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, from where did it come? From heaven or from man? And they discussed it among themselves, saying, If we say, From heaven, he will say to us, Why then did you not believe him? But if we say, From man, we are afraid of the crowd, for they all hold that John was a prophet. So they answered Jesus, We do not know. And he said to them, Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, Son, go and work in the vineyard today. And he answered, I will not, but afterward he changed his mind and went. And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, I go, sir, but did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father? They said, The first. Jesus said to them, Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him. (ESV)

> 1 Samuel 16:7 - But the LORD said to Samuel, Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him. For the LORD sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart. (ESV)

God just wants us to take to the plough (Matthew 21:24-32) and not look back:

> Luke 9:62 - Jesus said to him, No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God. (ESV)

God is just when He justifies. God is right when He declares someone is walking rightly. When God justifies a person, then they have His righteousness:

> Romans 3:21-26 - But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from (G5565 chōris) the law (G3551 nomou), although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified (G1344 dikaioumenoi; being justified) by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God’s righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just (G1342 dikaion;) and the justifier (G1344 dikaiounta; justifying) of the one who has faith in Jesus. (ESV)

> Psalms 103:17-18 - But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children’s children, to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments. (ESV)

Someone who is ”in Christ Jesus” has God’s righteousness who is Jesus Christ, and they are abiding in Jesus Christ’s commandments:

> I Corinthians 1:30 - It is because of Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God: our righteousness, holiness, and redemption. (engbsb2020eb)
> I John 3:21-24 - Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. Whoever keeps his commandments abides in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us. (ESV)
> Proverbs 1:28-31 - Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently but will not find me. Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD, would have none of my counsel and despised all my reproof, therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way, and have their fill of their own devices. (ESV)
> Jeremiah 23:5-6 - Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely. And this is the name by which he will be called: The LORD is our righteousness. (ESV)

Any issue belonging to ’legalism’ is always about the appearance of obedience, rather than inward obedience and good conscience with God.

So I couldn’t fully condemn something like ”invitationalism”. In fact, I think it’s potentially a wonderful baby step on a person’s faith journey if it’s a sincere expression of believing the truth about God. For example, you could say, who here believes that Jesus Christ rose from the dead? Please raise your hand if you believe. That’s OK. But I think it would be better to hear a person confess with their mouth. And I think we’ve really got to teach people to continue on in the teachings of Christ.

Satan’s plan exposed:

> Revelation of John 17:1-6 - Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, Come, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who is seated on many waters, with whom the kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality, and with the wine of whose sexual immorality the dwellers on earth have become drunk. And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names, and it had seven heads and ten horns. The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and jewels and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her sexual immorality. And on her forehead was written a name of mystery: Babylon the great, mother of prostitutes and of earth’s abominations. And I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints, the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I marveled greatly. (ESV)

Satan’s plan explained:

> Revelation of John 17:7-15 - But the angel said to me, Why do you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast with seven heads and ten horns that carries her. The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to rise from the bottomless pit and go to destruction. And the dwellers on earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will marvel to see the beast, because it was and is not and is to come. This calls for a mind with wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated; they are also seven kings, five of whom have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come, and when he does come he must remain only a little while. As for the beast that was and is not, it is an eighth but it belongs to the seven, and it goes to destruction. And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet > received royal power, but they are to receive authority as kings for one hour, together with the beast. These are of one mind and hand over their power and authority to the beast. They will make war on the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them, for he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with him are called and chosen and faithful. And the angel said to me, The waters that you saw, where the prostitute is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages. (ESV)

Satan's plan extinguished:

> Revelation of John 17:16-18 - And the ten horns that you saw, they and the beast will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked, and devour her flesh and burn her up with fire, for God has put it into their hearts to carry out his purpose by being of one mind and handing over their royal power to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. And the woman that you saw is the great city that has dominion over the kings of the earth. (ESV)

3.19 Traditional Roman Catholic understanding

The Roman Catholic view on this as John Barnett explains it is depressing, and really shortchanges the gospel in my view.

However, I think that we receive forgiveness of sin through trusting in Jesus's name as Son of God, Christ, Son of Man, and that through faith in His blood, continued faith in His blood, and walking in the Truth, walking in the light, confessing our sin, etc. Jesus' blood continues washing us. But this is done sincerely and in relationship with God. I believe we have to continue in the commandments of Christ.

youtube.com: How a Catholic Thinks They Get to Heaven {@DTBM} Most people would agree we're born unrighteous and religion says if you get baptized as a baby that it immediately infuses to you a state of grace and you're kind of on level ground, headed toward God. But, you know, babies and toddlers and teenagers and adults sin. They're called venial sins in religion. And then if you're contrite and confess and you know cooperate with, you know, the sacraments, you're still bouncing along with the required righteousness to get you to heaven. So the goal is heaven. So, we're born, not headed to heaven, but religion says a baptism will get you up to 'okay' and then you have to keep dealing with sins. Now, a mortal sin, boom, puts you right back. You're at zero. You're, you know, bad, headed toward you know a long time getting rid of the sin. This is purgatory down here.

> But if you do penance and have purchased indulgences do, you know, reparative acts, merit and good works, you can keep working. And some people work really hard, but basically there's a shortfall between what's required for heaven and where they end up, even if they only venial sin. And the shortfall sends them down here to by default they go to purgatory at death. So when life ends, religion says most people won't make it good enough, so they've got to make the final payments down here (in purgatory) or have their family purchase indulgences, pay for religious kindness and deeds and prayers and candles to get them out of there and get them to heaven.

3.20 Typical Protestant understanding

I think much closer to this way as John Barnett explains the protestant view, but I have a little bit different understanding regarding glorification because I think that glorification (doing the works of glory) happens while we are on earth and carrying out good works which have been set up for us, and done in Christ (I Peter 3:14-16) in obedience to Christ while holding faith in Christ / done in the will of God for us (I Thessalonians 5:18). Our work may burn up when they are tested by fire but we are still saved. That burning up of work I think definitely applies to work which me might do, say, in say, preaching the gospel, for example, as people often preach false doctrine, and I think that work burns up.

God will uproot false teaching. I pray that if my Bible study writeup is not good in God's sight that He would uproot it. But I'm not trying to start a church or anything, and don't consider myself to be inerrant. I'm simply doing a Bible study while maintaining a genuine relationship with God because I see the need for this type of testimony for others' benefit.

Matthew 15:13-14 - He answered, Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be rooted up. Let them alone; they are blind guides. And if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit. (ESV)

Also, I think that if found in Christ then we have imputed righteousness. So we must hold to our confession and seek to be found in Christ imitating Christ, and God is the justifier. And I think the Lord chastises us to clean us up because we will also have to stand before Him later. Anyway, the following typical protestant view which John Barnett describes also I think has some issues with it because it seems to suggest that it's not possible to fall away at all but that we'd only ever fall short after first having come to believe. But the rest of my theology document should clarify my stance on it. There might be more nuance. God's the judge. I still think the Protestant view John Barnett describes is more accurate than the Roman Catholic view.

II Corinthians 5:21 - For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (ESV)

youtube.com: How a Catholic Thinks They Get to Heaven {@DTBM} @time: 4 min 52 sec So Jesus didn't sin. He became sin. That means, here is me and all my sins go on Jesus. So that the righteousness of God might be mine through Him. Jesus' perfect life is exchanged and put on me and my sin is put on Him. So Jesus was treated by God as if He had lied, cheated, stolen, been proud, been lustful and wicked like me, and God treated Him like He did all that, and God treats me like I have the righteousness of Christ, which is the instant that exchange takes place. I became a saint and didn't even need to be canonized, and so did every one of you, that let the simple plan of salvation be yours by faith.

At conversion, we go from unrighteousness (the way we were born) through faith and repentance to perfect righteousness, which the Bible calls justification. I was declared righteous in Christ but my life doesn't quite match up to God's declaration and so God works with me all the way through life, and there's always a shortfall.

We always fall short of the glory of God, but Jesus once and for all paid the price. Even though I never perfectly act Christ-like, because I trusted in Christ's work and He imputed to me Christ's righteousness, God is going to make me become (and it's called glorification)... I have been justified freely by His grace through the redemption sin Christ so God perfects me when I get to heaven, but I'm never free of sin here on earth.

I do understand this (II Cor 5:21) is the case. However, I do not believe that this is an excuse to violate Christ's law / Christ's commandments, and I don't think it means we can justify ourselves and I don't think it permits us to continue on without abiding in the teaching of Christ, lest we incur God's judgement.

Galatians 6:2 - Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. (ESV)

1Clem 49:1 Let him that hath love in Christ fulfill the commandments of Christ.

3.20.1 The arrival of the kingdom of God

I believe the more precise translation is that these things happen rapidly. Now while they may soon take place - I'm not saying they are not happening already - the more accurate reading of this passage, I believe, is that the events take place rapidly:

Watch youtube.com: THE ONLY TRUE MAP OF THE FUTURE–GOD GAVE IT {@DTBM}

I've felt many of these signs since getting born-again. Notice the conflict in the Middle-East and my troubles I've faced:

> Luke 21:5-36 - And while some were speaking of the temple, how it was adorned with noble stones and offerings, he said, As for these things that you see, the days will come when there will not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down. And they asked him, Teacher, when will these things be, and what will be the sign when these things are about to take place? And he said, See that you are not led astray. For many will come in my name, saying, I am he! and, The time is at hand! Do not go after them. And when you hear of wars and tumults, do not be terrified, for these things must first take place, but the end will not be at once. Then he said to them, Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and pestilences. And there will be terrors and great signs from heaven. But before all this they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors for my name's sake. This will be your opportunity to bear witness. Settle it therefore in your minds not to meditate beforehand how to answer, for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be delivered up even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and some of you they will put to death. You will be hated by all for my name's sake. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your lives. But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near. Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are inside the city depart, and let not those who are out in the country enter it, for these are days of vengeance, to fulfill all that is written. Alas for women who > are pregnant and for those who are nursing infants in those days! For there will be great distress upon the earth and wrath against this people. They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive among all nations, and Jerusalem will be trampled underfoot by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled. And there will be signs in sun and moon and stars, and on the earth distress of nations in perplexity because of the roaring of the sea and the waves, people fainting with fear and with foreboding of what is coming on the world. For the powers of the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see (G3708 horaó / opsontai) the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near. And he told them a parable: Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. As soon as they come out in leaf, you see for yourselves and know that the summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all has taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth. But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man. (ESV)

(G3708 horaó / opsontai) KJV: behold, perceive, see, take heed. NASB: saw, see, seen, appeared, seeing, looked, look. 3708 horáō – properly, see, often with metaphorical meaning: "to see with the mind" (i.e. spiritually see), i.e. perceive (with inward spiritual perception).

I guess the arrival of the kingdom of God / entering is the "summer", spiritually speaking.

During this time we're absolutely supposed to be keeping Jesus' teachings.

We seek the kingdom of God and His righteousness, trusting God, trusting Jesus, remaining faithful to Jesus as we keep His commandments, not trusting in the worldly stuff, but trusting Jesus:

> Matthew 6:24-34 - No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money. Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or What shall we wear? For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble. (ESV)

Endurance is important:

> Luke 9:62 - Jesus said to him, No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God. (ESV)

> I John 2:19 - They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us. But they went out, that it might become plain that they all are not of us. (ESV)

Faith is a "way of life":

Hebrews 13:7 - Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. (ESV)

Hebrews 10:36-39 - For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him. But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls.

John 18:36-37 - Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have been fighting, that I might not be delivered over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not from the world. Then Pilate said to him, So you are a king? Jesus answered, You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for this purpose I have come into the world — to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice. (ESV)

II Timothy 2:3-4 - Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to please the one who enlisted him. (ESV)

3.20.2 How we should act how we're instructed to act while awaiting the Lord's return

I Peter 4:7-8 - The end (G5056 telos) of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers. Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. (ESV)

youtube.com: The End of the World? John Lennox on AI and the Book of Revelation {@SeanMcDowell
John's letter puts it perfectly what's going on. He talks about the hope of heaven and of Christ's coming in particular. And he says the people he or she who has this hope purify themselves even as he that is Jesus is pure. And you'll notice that it doesn't say they should purify themselves. It says they do. In other words, you can test very easily whether a Christian has grasped the meaning of the coming of Christ if it's having a moral and spiritual impact in their life. Now, it's idle just to talk about it when our lives don't correspond to it.

And that's the challenge that needs to be brought out by teaching the book of Revelation having an eye to the fact that it's multi-dimensional. It was relevant, totally relevant to seven contemporary churches in the Middle East in the first century. But then it goes way beyond that because it is as it itself claims a prophecy.

Be self-controlled and sober-minded and keep loving one another earnestly:

I Peter 4:7-8 - The end of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers. Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. (ESV)

Sermon youtube.com: Live with the End in View

Luke 21:36 - But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man. (ESV)

I Peter 4:7-11 - The end of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers. Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. Show hospitality to one another without grumbling. As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. (ESV)

Jesus doesn't delay. We must be vigilant and ready to serve Jesus:

> Hebrews 10:37 - For, Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; (ESV)

> Matthew 24:48 - But if that wicked servant says to himself, My master is delayed, (ESV)

We are blessed if we are awake when our Master Jesus visits us. So we can be ready, prepared for Him to visit us and at the same time He comes at an our we do not expect:

> Luke 12:37-40 - Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will dress himself for service and have them recline at table, and he will come and serve them. If he comes in the second watch, or in the third, and finds them awake, blessed are those servants! But know this, that if the master of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have left his house to be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect. (ESV)

bibleref.com Luke-12-38.html: What does Luke 12:38 mean? | BibleRef.com This is part of Jesus' parable about responsible servants (Luke 12:35–37). The servants are awaiting their master's return from a wedding. Jewish weddings could last up to a week, so the servants do not know when the master will arrive. They have kept the lights on, and they are dressed to receive and serve him. When the master returns and sees his servants waiting, he is so overjoyed that he sits them at the table and serves them. If he returns later in the night, and they are still up, he is even more pleased (Luke 12:35–37). ... The watches of the night are shifts when guards are on duty. The second watch is from 9 to 12 pm; the third watch is from 12 to 3 am. Some scholars interpret this verse to mean Jesus' return will be delayed. It's certainly true that the first generation of His followers expected to see His return in their lifetime. It's also true that God is gracious and wants to give everyone the chance they need to repent (Luke 13:6–9; 2 Peter 3:9).

God wants as many people as possible to be saved (I think of this a bit like as 'delaying' the second coming - my own speculation on eschatology is just me speculating), but not like delaying Jesus' work, as we should be vigilant about anticipating Jesus. Jesus does not delay. Jesus literally visits people imminently in this life time, and we should also consider the second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ to be imminent:

> I Timothy 2:4 - who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. (ESV)

> John 1:12-13 - But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. (NASB)

hymnary.org: All People That on Earth Do Dwell | Hymnary.org All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the LORD with cheerful voice; Him serve with mirth, His praise forth-tell; come ye before Him and rejoice!

> II Peter 3:9 - The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. (ESV)

> Ezekiel 18:23 - Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked, declares the Lord GOD, and not rather that he should turn from his way and live? (ESV)

Receiving Jesus, we have the 'right', the 'authority' to become children of God, even by receiving Him through the knowledge of His name (onoma):

> John 1:12 - As many as however received Him He gave to them authority children of God to be to those believing in the name of Him (Interlinear)

> John 6:40 - For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks (2334. theóreó) on the Son and believes (4100. pisteuó) in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (ESV)

I consider the 'coming of the Lord' to be something which happens during one's time on earth probably to every servant of the Lord:

> Matthew 25:11-15 - Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, Lord, lord, open to us. But he answered, Truly, I say to you, I do not know you. Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour. For it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. (ESV)

> Matthew 24:42 - Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. (ESV)

> Luke 21:32-36 - Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all has taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth. But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man. (ESV)

Just as it is inevitable that every son or daughter of God will be disciplined:

> Hebrews 12:6 - For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives. (ESV)

I still hold imminence with regards to rapture a possibility on the basis that when I was born of the Spirit, things progressed very rapidly I was quickly baptised in the Holy Spirit and I asked God in prayer that the whole of my city would be saved. My words seemed to have a lot of impact during this time. This is my own speculation. I was riding by the seat of my pants after being born of the spirit.

video youtube.com: Life or Death by Your Tongue

I guess that God has been testing me and using me similarly to as He did with Paul the Apostle after he was taken into service by Jesus but also I had much error and my tongue was not well-bridled. We need to be corrected by God's Word and be doers. Talking about religious doctrine is worthless without doing the Word in obedience to Jesus.

> James 1:23-27 - For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing. If anyone thinks he is religious and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this person's religion is worthless. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world. (ESV)

Paul was an Apostle by Command. As for me, I'm just acting on faith after confessing Jesus.
Perhaps I still speak too much.

> James 3:3 - If we put bits into the mouths of horses so that they obey us, we guide their whole bodies as well. (ESV)

I received lots of visions and many of them came from the enemy I believe after I had even been reading Apocryphal gospels which I think are misleading and I do not affirm them. Then, after I had said towards the end of 2022 on my blog that we should get ready for Armageddon, war broke out in the middle east soon after. I felt as though I nearly did actually get 'raptured' or it was quickly progressing that way or something like that, and then I made a declaration to court that Jesus is the Truth, I forgive everyone etc. That resulted in some very rapid changes. Things in my life spiritually began to stabilise as I have gone through police corrections and used the time to attend Bible studies, and be corrected by the Scripture in my beliefs, obedience and deeds. I'm still trying to be sanctified ongoingly. I am really sorry for misleading people with regards to any error in my writings, but the way to handle this, I believe, is not to throw the baby out with the bath-water but to be corrected by the word of God. I'm still a work in progress.

A friend said this at church the very day after I was born again of the Spirit, " Just because some messages may have been wrong, don't quench the work of God's Spirit among you by banning all prophecies, but rather make sure you test them. Hold onto what is good and dismiss those that are not good (i.e. those that are evil). "

> I Thessalonians 5:20-21 - Do not despise prophecies, but test everything; hold fast what is good. (ESV)

I feel that way about my experience of being born-again of the Spirit and then undergoing purification and ongoing repentance and correction.

Over the course of 2022, I was actually speaking a lot of prophecy. There was a lot of truth in it, and a lot of error, but my defense is Jesus and I was getting to know Jesus through being washed in the word, and in obedience to Jesus' commandments, and being corrected by the word, but we don't want to throw the baby out with the bathwater.

> Mark 13:20 - And if the Lord had not cut short the days, no human being would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, whom he chose, he shortened the days. (ESV)

Ultimately, we are waiting for incorruptible bodies, and I totally believe in rapture and ultimately a completely new heavens and earth (not just a renewal, although I do believe God is still taking care of and reigning on the earth), so I think that whatever Paul the Apostle is referring to here, well I have my speculatinons, is something more imminent, and perhaps more to do with God's kingdom work on the earth, but I still hold the eschatological view that there is ultimately an entirely new heavens and earth without any corruption:

> I Corinthians 7:29-31 - This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. (ESV)

> Psalms 37:27-29 - Turn away from evil and do good so shall you dwell forever. For the LORD loves justice he will not forsake his saints. They are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off. The righteous shall inherit the land and dwell upon it forever. (ESV)

> Habakkuk 2:12-14 - Woe to him who builds a town with blood and founds a city on iniquity! Behold, is it not from the LORD of hosts that peoples labor merely for fire, and nations weary themselves for nothing? For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD as the waters cover the sea. (ESV)

In some sense I think the rapture and judgement is imminent, and I think probably when each son or daughter is brought into the kingdom they may have a 'taste of it'. In other words, God is still adopting sons and daughters and we don't know who the last one to be adopted is.

So in a sense it's been on the verge of the second coming of Christ for quite a long time:

> Luke 21:20-24 - But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near. Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are inside the city depart, and let not those who are out in the country enter it, for these are days of vengeance, to fulfill all that is written. Alas for women who are pregnant and for those who are nursing infants in those days! For there will be great distress upon the earth and wrath against this people. They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive among all nations, and Jerusalem will be trampled underfoot by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled. (ESV)

The Bible also predicts scoffers - but as Peter puts it, with the Lord, one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day:

> II Peter 3:1-8 - This is now the second letter that I am writing to you, beloved. In both of them I am stirring up your sincere mind by way of reminder, that you should remember the predictions of the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles, knowing this first of all, that scoffers will come in the last days with scoffing, following their own sinful desires. They will say, Where is the promise of his coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all things are continuing as they were from the beginning of creation. For they deliberately overlook this fact, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth was formed out of water and through water by the word of God, and that by means of these the world that then existed was deluged with water and perished. But by the same word the heavens and earth that now exist are stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly. But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. (ESV)

I believe the more precise translation is that these things happen rapidly. Now while they may soon take place - I'm not saying they are not happening already - the more accurate reading of this passage, I believe, is that the events take place rapidly:

Revelation 1:1 [The] revelation of Jesus Christ which gave Him- God to show to the bond-servants of Him what things it behooves to take place in quickness (G5034 quickness) And He signified [it] having sent through the angel of Him to the servant of Him John (Interlinear)

Those are my current eschatological thoughts, but I am no expert.

"When Jesus became my Lord and Savior, a battle between good and evil started." as one commenter said on this video.

After I began obeying Jesus, and especially repenting and denouncing sin and heresy, that's when I started getting attacked spiritually, as this guy (MarcTheMessenger) describes: youtube.com: God Leveled Me Up Now I'm Depressed youtube.com: Resist the Devil - Tim Conway {@illbehonest} @time: 56 min 11 sec I'll tell you this, in the life of this church whenever we have started a new church, whenever we have started a new missionary endeavor, whenever the church has strategized some new evangelistic outreach, I have experienced the greatest resistance from the devil. Brethen, you can have your truth but I'll tell you what, the thing that he hates is when we propagate it and people start getting saved and plucked out of his dominion and his goods are no longer safe.

This from Derek Prince explains much. I can't agree with Derek Prince more here, especially regarding the necessity to get familiar with the Word of God as soon as possible and get to know it. I wish I had've been more prepared:

youtube.com: How To Deal With Direct Satanic Confrontation {@DerekPrinceMinistries} @time: 37 sec
And normally, you will have temptations after you were baptized in the Holy Spirit that you would have had before. If you study these temptations, none of them could have come to Jesus before He was moving in the supernatural realm. Every one of them involved the posession of supernatural power. And the same is true after you are baptized in the Holy Spirit is the time you will really be tempted. I meet many Christians who are quite sure whether there is a personal devil or not. But I hardly meet a person baptized in the Holy Spirit who know the answer to that one.

That's one of the things you find out quickly when you're baptized in the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit reveals the identity of the enemy. That's why a lot of lukewarm churchgoers don't like Holy Spirit religion, because it brings too much out into the open. They'd rather have it all kept under-cover. The Holy Spirit doesn't keep things under cover. He forces the enemy out into the open. Another thing I'll say about the baptism in the Holy Spirit is many people don't know they have demons 'till they get baptized in the Holy Spirit. That sounds strange. I know some theology just doesn't fit in with that but I've been in that theological position that some of you are in and it isn't relevant to experience. Furthermore, it has no support in Scripture. Demons get stirred up when the Holy Spirit comes in, they don't have it all their own way any longer. If they haven't been driven out prior to receiving the baptism, then they're going to kick up more trouble and make more fuss than you've ever experienced in your life before. I believe ideally the scriptural order is these signs that follow them that believe. Number one, in my name they shall cast out the demons. Number two, they shall speak with tongues. But lots of places … it ain't being done that way yet. Let's hope one day it will. At the moment it really isn't possible to do it that way because most professing Christians today until they're baptized in the Holy Spirit wouldn't believe in demons. See? So, though it's not the ideal we have to work on the level on which we find ourselves. Alright, when Jesus received the anointing of the Holy Spirit, then for the first time (so far as we know), he was subjected to direct Satanic confrontation and temptation. And in dealing with Satan, Jesus used only one weapon. What was that? The scripture, the sword of the Spirit which is the word of God. Each temptation, Jesus began His answer with the phrase "It is written, it is written, it is written." And you must do the same. This means you must get acquainted with the word of God. Jesus didn't have a concordance out there in the desert. He probably didn't even have the scriptures. But he had it inside him. David said, "Thy word have I hidden, treasured up in my heart that I might not sin against thee." If you're baptized in the Holy Spirit, the next most urgent need in your life is to get to know the scriptures thoroughly and have them available. You have to live by the word. Not by church traditions, not by what people say, not by your feelings but by the written word of God.

youtube.com: America Under Delusion | David Wilkerson {@world$_{\textbf{challenge}}$} Because what we're seeing now is supernatural. It's demonic. It's the devil himself, a mad devil, coming down to the earth knowing his time is short. And he's going after the body of Jesus Christ.

> Matthew 3:10 - Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. (ESV)

Even regards to the rapture, ultimately we leave this world behind. Ultimately, I think we need to go all-in for Jesus and get used to relying on God completely, and be ready to leave this world behind. If we go all-in for Jesus now then we will experience the kingdom of God on earth.

> Luke 11:20 - But if it is by the finger of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. (ESV)

> Mark 8:34-38,9:1 - And he called to him the crowd with his disciples and said to them, If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it. For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? For what can a man give in return for his life? For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him will the Son of Man also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. And he said to them, Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God after it has come with power. (ESV)

The present form of this world will pass away and is passing away:

> I Corinthians 7:30-31 - and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away. (ESV)

> Matthew 19:21 - Jesus said to him, If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. (ESV)

I think I John 2:15-17 is essentially saying, ”Do not agape love the world or what's in the world. Do not love the things of this world with the type of love that we have for God and for people, namely agape love.” If we fall out of agape love for the world and are not conformed to the world but are transformed by the renewing of our minds then by testing we will be able to discern the will of God:

> I John 2:15-17 - Do not love (agapate) the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (ESV)

> Matthew 6:21 - For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. (ESV)

The repentant criminal on the cross next to Jesus was sold out for the kingdom of God and ready to leave this world behind:

> Luke 23:42-43 - And he said, Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom. And he said to him, Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise. (ESV)

3.20.3 Agape love for God and one another as opposed to agape love for the world

I'm adding a little section on agape loving God and one another here because although it's right to treat animals with care and respect, and even to have compassion for them and to love and value them even as God certainly does, when we read about ”agape” love in the Bible, there are specific commandments that we must abide by where the word ”agape” is used. Agape is reserved for God and for fellow humans, particularly our family in Christ.

We want to always be with God, and never want to be cut off from God because we agape love God more than anyone or anything.

We are called to agape love God and one another, especially our family in Christ.

We must not agape love the world or anything in the world with the type of love we have for God and our family in Christ.

The world is passing away and we must not be yoked to it, but those human beings made in the image of God who do the will of God and receive eternal life are made partakers of the divine nature and this is not something which animalkind are given:

> I John 2:15-29 - Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. Children, it is the last hour, and as you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come. Therefore we know that it is the last hour. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us. But they went out, that it might become plain that they all are not of us. But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all have knowledge. I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you too will abide in the Son and in the Father. And this is the promise that he made to us—eternal life. I write these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you. But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything—and is true and is no lie, just as it has taught you—abide in him. And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him. (ESV)

Now if someone agape love Father God then they would not agape love the world or anything in the world and they would agape love whoever has been born of Father God:

> I John 5:1 - Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. (ESV)

Also, we must not be lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God. And we must be lovers of good:

> II Timothy 3:1-4 - But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, (ESV)

> I John 4:16-21 - So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, I love God, and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. (ESV) thegospelcoalition.org: Do Not Muzzle the Ox: Does Paul Quote Moses Out of Context? If an ox wears a muzzle during the process of tramping the grain on the threshing floor, then it cannot eat the grain. Yahweh through Moses is saying that this is wrong. But the reason is not specified (In Deuteronomy).

Human beings are called to take dominion over the earth:

> Genesis 1:27-30 - So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. And God blessed them. And God said to them, Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth. And God said, Behold, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is on the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit. You shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the heavens and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food. And it was so. (ESV)

It’s not right to value animalkind above humankind and of course it’s not right to value them above God who we must value and treasure above all. God also makes it clear from scipture that He has compassion for and respect the animals and we should too:

> Luke 12:24 - Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! (ESV)
> Proverbs 12:10 - Whoever is righteous has regard for the life of his beast, but the mercy of the wicked is cruel. (ESV)
> Numbers 22:28-32 - Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times? And Balaam said to the donkey, Because you have made a fool of me. I wish I had a sword in my hand, for then I would kill you. And the donkey said to Balaam, Am I not your donkey, on which you have ridden all your life long to this day? Is it my habit to treat you this way? And he said, No. Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, with his drawn sword in his hand. And he bowed down and fell on his face. And the angel of the LORD said to him, Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to oppose you because your way is perverse before me. (ESV)
> Jonah 4:11 - And should not I pity Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than 120,000 persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also much cattle? (ESV)

Calvin God is not concerned about oxen, to the extent that oxen were the only creatures in His mind when He made the law, for He was thinking of men, and wanted to make them accustomed to being considerate in behaviour, so that they might not cheat the workman of his wages. For the ox does not take the leading part in ploughing and threshing, but man, and it is by man’s efforts that the ox itself is set to work.

> Deuteronomy 25:4 - You shall not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the grain. (ESV)
> I Corinthians 9:9-10 - For it is written in the Law of Moses, “You shall not muzzle the ox while he is threshing.” God is not concerned about oxen, is He? Or is He speaking altogether for our sake? Yes, for our sake it was written, because the plowman ought to plow in hope, and the thresher to thresh in hope of sharing the crops. (NASB)
